

LEGION DINNER TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY

Second Annual Community Banquet to be Interesting Affair

Northville's lively American Legion post No. 147 will hold their second annual community banquet on Wednesday night, April 6, with five interesting speakers, music by "Chick" Miller's Cavaliers, and a large appetizing dinner prepared and served by the ladies of the Presbyterian church auxiliary.

Treasurer of the banquet will be the well-known Jack R. C. Cann, prominent newspaperman and editor of the Legion News publication. Mr. Cann, famous for his wit, will act as host to the speakers, among whom will be Judge Joseph Gills, of the Common Pleas court, Detroit; Leslie Kegen, commander of the Legion Post in Michigan; Herbert McKinley, of the Detroit News staff and chairman of the department of Child Welfare in Michigan; Wm. C. Petit, head of the "Forty and Eight Society" of Michigan; and David Addy, commander of the Legion Wayne county Council.

A large crowd attended the community banquet held by the Legion last year at the Presbyterian church and was richly rewarded by an interesting program. Similar to the one planned for next Wednesday evening, tickets for the occasion will be on sale at the two Northville drug stores and can also be obtained from any legionnaire.

The immediate occasion for the celebration is that Army day, commemorating the entrance of the United States into the World war area, falls on April 6, and that date has been selected by the army to celebrate its 156th birthday of service and protection to the country.

Dr. Linwood W. Snow, Northville village president, has issued a proclamation designating Wednesday as Army day and urges that all people participate in its observance.

The following is the program as announced by the Legion entertainment committee:

Advance of colors—Boy Scouts.
Invocation, Rev. H. G. Whitfield.
Banquet.
Dinner Music—"Chick" Miller's Cavaliers.
Introduction of Toastmaster by Commander Blake.
Toastmaster, Jack R. C. Cann, Editor Legion News.
Introduction of prominent guests by Toastmaster.
"The American Legion in Wayne County," by David Addy, Commander of Wayne county Council.
Work and Fun of the Forty and Eight Society, by William C. Petit, Grand Chef de Gare of Michigan.
Vocal solo by Junior Cole of Northville.
"Child Welfare and the Other Side of the Coin," by Leslie Kegen, Chairman, and member Detroit News staff.
What the American Legion Means in Michigan, by Leslie Kegen, Chairman of the Department of Michigan.
The Ex-Service Man and the Citizen, by Judge Joseph Gills, Common Pleas Court, Detroit.
Retirement of Colors.

PROF. PERCY ANGOVE NAMED ROTARY HEAD

Northville Rotarians, at their weekly luncheon Monday picked Prof. Percy Angove as their president for the year beginning July, to succeed Father Jos. G. Schuler, who in turn was named vice president. C. R. Van Valkenburgh and E. L. Millis were re-elected secretary and treasurer, respectively, and E. M. Bogart and Chas. Schoultz were chosen as directors and John McCully as sergeant-at-arms.

Plans were made for ladies' night next Monday, April 4. Chas. T. Thornton is the chairman in charge.

NEW FORD VALVES PRODUCED IN TOWN

Valves for the new Ford cars are being manufactured right here in Northville, declared H. G. Marburger, head of the Ford plant here, and as the sale of the new cars increases production will be speeded up.

Without the addition of any new machinery, said Mr. Marburger, the manufacture of the valves is going right ahead and men who have worked at the plant before will be added to the company's payroll as production increases. The plant is now employing approximately 150 men.

$10,000 WILL BE CUT FROM THE BUDGET OF NORTHVILLE SCHOOLS

Board of Education Votes to Reduce the Salaries of Teachers and Others 18 to 25 Per Cent

Slashing $10,000 from the 1933 school budget, the Northville school board at their meeting last Monday voted for cuts ranging from 18 to 25 per cent in the salaries of teachers and other school employees. The cuts will be made on the basis of years of service and merit, announced a member of the board, and will take in all the educators from the highest paid Superintendent Thad J. Knapp, who receives $4,000 per year down to the lowest salaried teacher who now receives $1,200 per year.

Northville schools are operated at a yearly expense of $60,000, states Sheriff W. W. Ambler, secretary of the school board, of which $43,000 comes from Northville taxes, $11,000 is obtained from the state and approximately $6,000 is derived through the paraffine tax of ration students.

Up to the present time, declared Mr. Ambler, only $30,000 has been taken in of the $43,000 asked for by the school board from Northville tax payers. The extra $5,000, explained Mr. Ambler, was requested because the board realized that a delinquent tax situation would be forthcoming and the extra sum was to provide a reserve fund for the operation of the schools. Although the schools have only $3,000 left of their $30,000, small sources of income are still available and will carry the administration into May at which time, it is said, approximately $13,000 will have to be borrowed from Detroit bankers who have already made an exhaustive financial investigation of the school system here.

Questioned as to whether the $5,000 slash from the school budget for 1932 and the proposed saving of $10,000 on the 1933 budget will be passed on to the tax payers in the form of a lower tax rate, Mr. Ambler stated that it is impossible to answer that question at this time.

"Because of the delinquent tax situation," declared Mr. Ambler, "we shall find it necessary to consult with a tax expert to see whether we can pass the saving on to the taxpayers without endangering the operation of the schools. If those taxpayers who are delinquent do not pay, then it will be necessary to maintain the same tax rate so that the burden of operating the schools will fall on those taxpayers who are able to pay."

"It is to be regretted that the cut in teachers' salaries had to be made. Northville merchants and business places will feel the loss of the $10,000 income to teachers and the teachers themselves will feel the reduction in salaries severely. Only because our financial condition made it absolutely imperative was the cut made, and only following much deliberation by members of the school board."

Superintendent Knapp is at present interviewing the teachers regarding the exact reduction that each teacher will be forced to take and following these interviews he will make a report to the school board in which he will recommend where the cuts shall be made and what the vacancies in teachers' positions will be beginning next fall.

The merit system by which the exact value of a teacher in the new pay scale will be adjudged involves, explained Mr. Ambler, the setting of an arbitrary salary for the teacher at the time he or she receives a

METHODISTS ENDORSE MORATORIUM PLAN

"At a meeting of the official board of the Methodist church held Wednesday evening, it was unanimously voted that officers of the various church groups which have money on deposit in both Northville banks be authorized to sign the moratorium agreements as drawn up by the state banking department. The Ladies Aid society has a considerable amount of money that is on deposit, Chas. E. Rogers, Howard Greer and Roy Clark were named as a committee to send and beautify the front lawn of the church property."

NORTHVILLE PEOPLE INVITED TO HEAR DR. ROBBINS SPEAK

Dr. Robbins, foreign secretary of the American Baptist Foreign Mission society, speaks at the First Baptist church of Pontiac Friday, April 8. The opening session is at 3:00 p. m. with a meeting for women and a luncheon conference for men also an evening mass meeting.

Dr. Robbins is one of the great missionary statesmen of our day and is in close touch with the real condition of affairs both at home and abroad.

This is an important event in the life of the churches in this district and a good representation from Northville is earnestly requested.

diploma. From that point on, he said, the salary is raised according to the years of service and the individual merit of each teacher.

School Board Statement

A news story in another column tells of the ten thousand dollar cut made in the payroll of the Northville school district for the coming school year. The following statement from the school board tells of the financial conditions of the schools and will be read with much interest to the public.

During the past two years, a reorganization of the school system has been in progress for the purpose of increasing the efficiency and reducing the operating expenses. This has been accomplished by coordinating the work and reducing the number of employees, and has resulted in a saving in pay rolls of over five thousand dollars ($5,000) per year during the last two years.

These are facts pertaining to the school and are contrary to the opinion of some people who think that school expenses have increased on account of the school tax being higher in some cases than it was last year. However, the reason for the increased school tax rate was because of the valuation of this school district was decreased several hundred thousands of dollars, and whenever the valuation decreases the tax rate increases. The school board asked for the same amount this year as they did last year, although five thousand dollars less was actually required. Our reason for this was because a large number of people are unable to pay their taxes, and while we have the money owing us in delinquent taxes, we find it necessary to borrow against these delinquent taxes from the Detroit banks, and by asking for more money than was actually required this year, we show a large balance of taxes due in our favor, and thereby we strengthen our credit rating with the banks.

It might be interesting for you to know that while a large number of schools throughout the state are unable to borrow any money at all from the large banking houses, these banks have carefully gone over the financial condition of our schools and have approved a large line of credit for us although we do not owe them anything at the present time. Where the delinquent taxes are finally paid up, there will be an accumulation of several thousand dollars in the school treasury.

For the past several months, we have been studying the operating cost of the different schools throughout the state for the purpose of making far greater savings in our operating costs, for we realize that these reductions are necessary everywhere on account of economic conditions, and particularly here in Northville where conditions are unusually bad, due to the closing of our banks.

In connection with further reductions it has been necessary for us to keep in mind that there are certain fixed charges such as payment of bonds, interest on these bonds, etc., that cannot be reduced, and we must observe the requirements of the state of Michigan, which now pays us over eleven thousand dollars ($11,000.00) per year providing we maintain a school that conforms to their standards. We also must keep in mind the requirements of the University of Michigan if we are to be accredited by them, and in this connection, you will like to know that we are now accredited for a three year period, which means that our standing is as good as any school in the state. In addition, we must also maintain a school as complete in its course of instruction as those maintained in the nearby communities if we wish to continue to keep as many students, residing outside our school district, but attending school here and paying us over six thousand dollars per year in tuition. We are very anxious to keep these students and to get more of them to attend here if possible, for when we are able to do so without employing additional teachers as we are now, we make money by having them.

After careful consideration of the above, we do not believe that we would save much money by completely discontinuing any of our departments, and such action would result in a great loss in instruction to our students. On the other hand, we will not be able to save very much additional by coordinating the work, for this has already been done, and the teachers are all carrying a full time program. Physical training, domestic science and other subjects are only being taught part time and the balance of this time the instructors are teaching other subjects. This leaves only one course for us to follow in order to accomplish additional worth-while savings and that is to substantially reduce the salaries of the employees we now have, and this action is the one that the board find it necessary to follow in giving the contracts for next year, which contracts will be made in the very near future. Our fiscal year starts July 1st, and we make a practice of completing our arrangements with the teachers, as soon as possible in order that those not remaining may have time to find positions elsewhere.

Under this latter plan, the total pay rolls will be reduced over ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) per year, and additional and much as we are now operating for less than the average per capita cost of the various schools which have reported to the state, with this extra saving, we will be one of the most economical schools of our class to be found anywhere.

If these plans do not meet with your approval, will you please advise us immediately, for we will appreciate your suggestions, and will arrange for you to attend a meeting of the board before this budget for next year is finally approved.

—Sherrell W. Ambler, Sec.
Board of Education

KALBFLEISCH HOME STRIPPED BY THIEVES

Hundreds of dollars worth of home furnishings besides valuable wearing apparel was stolen from the summer home of John Kalbfleisch, located on the Fishery road on the outskirts of Northville. The theft occurred some time between Wednesday, March 23 and Saturday the 26th.

Mr. and Mrs. Kalbfleisch have been living during the winter months in Detroit, making visits each week to Northville and it was just previous to the Bank meeting held here Saturday night they discovered their loss.

The thieves broke in through the back door and stripped the house of its furnishings, including rugs, lamps, window shades, suits and overcoats. The loss was covered by insurance and Mr. Kalbfleisch has offered $25 reward for information leading to the apprehension of the thieves and recovery of his property.

SESSIONS HOSPITAL

Mrs. I. Lashua, matron of the House of Correction, is recovered sufficiently as to be able to return home.

Mrs. Ina Bauman of this village and Jas. Devedoff of Dearborn underwent tonsilectomy Wednesday. Thos. Ellis of Belleville is under medical care.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Guslain of Cherry Hill, Plymouth, a daughter, Tuesday, March 27.

Henry M. Hiner, who was injured in an auto accident March 26 on the Beck road, is in the hospital suffering with a bruised hip and torn ligaments.

Owen Emmons, principal of the Cooley high school of Detroit accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Martha V. Emmons, of Albion, were welcome callers on the family of R. T. Baldwin Wednesday.

HARRY LUSH TALKS ON OPENING SHOW

Approximately 32 Exchange members and their guests discussed the possibility of reopening the Northville Penman Allen theatre at the noon meeting of the club at the Methodist church Wednesday.

Guests present at the meeting were Harry Lush, manager of the Penman Allen theatres, Earl Potter, of Birmingham, Dr. L. W. Snow, Northville village president, Earl Kidder of the Redford Lumber company, Kenneth Rathbun, local Chevrolet dealer, Ted Cavell, son of Dr. E. B. Cavell, president of the school board and Dr. A. A. Holcomb.

Maunce Lapham, dry goods merchant, and George Rattenbury, of the local Atlantic and Pacific store, were unanimously accepted as new members of the Exchange club.

Following a pleasant luncheon routine business was disposed of and Mr. Lush was invited to speak to the business men regarding a plan whereby the merchants would pay a weekly sum toward keeping the theatre open two nights a week and in return they would be allowed to give away free theatre tickets with every purchase in their stores.

The plan was favorably received by the business men and a committee composed of Nelson Schneider and L. C. Stewart was named to work out details of the plan with Mr. Lush.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Langfield have entered the Ford hospital in Detroit for observation and possible medical care. Mr. Langfield says he is "taking a vacation."

Rev. Amos McLoughlin of Washington, Ind., and Rev. Anthony McLoughlin of Vincennes, Indiana, nephews of J. N. McLoughlin, Mrs. Alfred Morency and Miss Alle McLoughlin of Sturgis and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McLoughlin of Detroit were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McLoughlin, Wednesday evening.

UNION SERVICES OF TWO CHURCHES DURING SUMMER

The Presbyterian and Methodist churches of Northville will carry out in July and August a brotherly plan for union services that is being used in many places during the summer period.

The two pastors, Rev. H. G. Whitfield and Rev. Frank N. Miner, will each have a month's vacation and during the time that each is away the other pastor will conduct morning service in his colleague's church and will also have pastoral charge of both churches. Both congregations will thus, for two months, meet in union services and have the opportunity to become better acquainted in their Christian activities.

The plan came before the Methodist official board on Wednesday evening and was heartily approved. It had previously been endorsed by the Presbyterian. There will be no evening service during the two months.

HULL ENTERTAINERS HERE FOR APRIL

The high school seniors' entertainment to be held the evening of April 3 at the high school featuring the Hull family in musical concert will be an interesting event.

Entertainers of long and varied experience, Captain and Mrs. Hull began the musical training of their children early in life. Alice began her career at the age of three and Benita at the age of three and a half.

All four of this interesting family are conservatory teachers. Captain Hull for years was director of the band instrument department of the Atlanta conservatory of music with Mrs. Hull and the two daughters on the teaching staff. Each member of the family plays from four to eight instruments.

Solos, duets, trios, quartets, ensembles will be played by the Hull family. Entertainers on the xylophone, violin, cornet, clarinet, saxophone, piano as well as singing and whistling numbers. This group is the oldest saxophone quartet in the world and is well known in the radio world.

ENTERPRISING WOMAN SERVES HOME LUNCHEONS

It takes a woman to figure her way out of difficulties. Mrs. T. B. Henry, the widow of one of Northville's beloved former physicians, has recently decided to utilize her love of cooking good things by opening her home to a limited number of paying guests. The convenient location and attractive homelike appeal to the office force of the Detroit Edison company who have been meeting there quite regularly for a pleasant noon lunch together. On St. Patrick's day Mrs. Henry surprised her guests by having appropriate favors and menu served at daintily laid tables. Northville friends wish Mrs. Henry success in her practical enterprise.

LANDSCAPE MEETING

The second lecture in the series given by Mr. O. I. Gregg, Specialist in Landscape Gardening, Michigan State college, will be given at the Dearborn library at 1:00 o'clock in the afternoon of Tuesday, March 29. This lecture will deal with trees and shrubs and in planting the home place and the details of their location.

DEPOSITORS APPROVE BANK MORATORIUM AGREEMENT PROPOSED BY COMMITTEE

Upwards of $200,000 Already Signed For As Reorganization Movement Gains Headway

Definite progress marked the third depositors' meeting held Saturday afternoon at the Presbyterian church house during which the "moratorium" plan, successful at Romulus, Saine and Ypsilanti, was submitted and virtually approved by the depositors of the Northville and the Lapham State Savings banks.

Approximately 700 depositors heard E. E. Ferguson, vice-president of the United Stove company of Ypsilanti and chairman of the depositors' committee there, present the plan and explain some of its more perplexing sections. Mr. Ferguson was introduced by John A. Boyce, chairman of the Northville depositors' committee, who presided over the meeting.

Mr. Boyce dealt briefly with the activities of the depositors' committee since its appointment on February 9 relating how it was first necessary for the committee to become acquainted with the procedure relative to reorganizing closed banks, then to acquire into the feasibility of the plan and to confer with officials of the state banking department and finally travel to different towns in which the plan had operated consulting with officials of these banks to learn how successful the plan had been.

"We feel," declared Mr. Boyce, "that we can recommend this plan because it conserves the assets of the closed banks and takes care of the depositors in an ideal way."

Mr. Boyce thanked members of the committee for their close cooperation and attention, and then turned the meeting over to Mr. Ferguson for the presentation of the plan, copies of which had been circulated among the depositors.

Mr. Ferguson pointed out that the maintenance of banking facilities should be a matter of local pride and asked for the co-operation of the depositors, that they combine and "reason together."

The state bank department, he said, cannot dictate reorganization in any certain way. The department can only offer advice gained over a long period of years and in the reorganizing of a bank it can only assume the role of adviser.

Objections he stated to the so-called McPherson plan for the opening of a new bank were that it would leave the banks in the hands of the receivers thus recurring a large expense and also that the new bank would have difficulty in securing enough new deposits to pay the operating expenses.

The plan then presented by Mr. Ferguson, as drawn up by the state department, calls for a moratorium extending over five years, with a trust fund of 40 per cent of deposits to cover doubtful assets sixty per cent will be placed to the credit of the depositors. No interest will be paid on the trust fund and none on the other until after three years. All profits of the bank during the moratorium period are to be placed in the trust fund ten per cent of the amount in the 60 per cent trust fund will be available the first year and in addition each depositor will be entitled to draw not to exceed ten dollars at the time of the reopening of each bank. The plan calls for the assessment of one hundred dollars on each depositor.

A. R. MARZ PLANS NEW FORD TRIALS

By embracing in a low priced car features heretofore found only in high priced cars, declares Arthur R. Marz, local Ford dealer, the new Ford V-8 has set a new standard for the automotive industry.

The new car, said Mr. Marz, is large, long, roomy, fast, powerful and alert. Its eight-cylinder V-type engine develops 65 horsepower and the car is capable of doing 75 miles an hour. The car, in 14 different models, is now on display by Ford dealers all over the United States and Canada and arrangements are now being made, said Mr. Marz, for free demonstrations in Northville.

Some of the mechanical features, explained the local dealer, are rubber mounting for the engine, down-draft carburetor, automatic spark control, fuel pump, improved spring construction, synchronized gear shift, silent second gear and many other new improvements.

The Ford Motor Co. announced Wednesday the following prices for its new V-8:

Model	Price
De Luxe Roadster	$460
Phaeton	500
De Luxe Phaeton	495
Coupe	545
De Luxe Coupe	490
Sport Coupe	575
Cabriolet	535
Victoria	610
Tudor Sedan	600
De Luxe Tudor Sedan	500
De Luxe Sedan	590
De Luxe Fordor Sedan	645
Convertible Sedan	650
Chassis	370

The prices on the new four-cylinder cars will be $50 less than the prices quoted on the corresponding eight-cylinder body types. The prices given are f. o. b. Detroit.

The bodies he stated are fresh and modern from the gracefully rounded V-8 radiator to rear bumper. To produce a car with an eight-cylinder V-type engine, said Mr. Marz, without materially increasing the weight necessitated a most painstaking problem in automotive engineering. This problem was not solved he said without months of tests and research which were justified when an eight cylinder car was produced that actually weighs only about 100 pounds more than the Model A while the four cylinder Ford weighs even less than its predecessor.

Comfortable riding qualities plus unprecedented economies in operation, said Mr. Marz, will make the new Ford cars a mark for the automotive world to shoot at. Orders are being placed now insuring early delivery by prospective purchasers, said Mr. Marz, with dealers all over the country. Bookings for free demonstrations are now being made at the Marz Ford Sales and Service located on Main street here in Northville, he announced.

ANTI-TUBERCULOSIS SPEAKER WILL APPEAR AT EXCHANGE CLUB

To promote a wider knowledge of the value of early diagnosis in tuberculosis a speaker will present this important matter at the luncheon meeting of the Exchange club on Wednesday, April 13. The members of the Rotary club will be invited to "listen in." It is probable that the speaker will be George F. Granger, executive secretary of the Wayne County Tuberculosis and Health society which organization is sponsoring this movement. He will speak on the general subject of the part which the war against tuberculosis plays in the public health movement of today. It is necessary that the public realize the importance of early recognition of tuberculosis. The village health officer, Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston, and the school nurse, Mrs. Florence Bray, are instrumental in bringing about the opportunity to give laymen a wider knowledge of this subject.

Monthly Baby Clinic Guides Many Mothers In Proper Child-care

It is Wednesday morning—the day when the mother of a child whose early symptoms of trouble would not have been recognized by the mother.

The Baby Clinic is a preventive of disease and malnutrition. The earlier the babies are brought for observation the greater their hope of escaping trouble. It is those mothers who cooperate with the doctor and carry out his advice who reap the joy of healthy babies.

Eagerly these mothers ask, "Dr. I want to ask you this—when some trifling worry not big enough perhaps to warrant a visit to their family physician, is erased by their doctor whose care it is to detect the beginnings of small things."

Happily relieved, they shoulder their gurgling burdens and go forth to be better mothers, grateful for the knowledge which keeps their little ones well and happy. One looking on at this interesting procedure wonders which is being more greatly benefited, the babies or their contented mothers who are glad to know from their visits each month that they are "on the right track" in this important task, child care. That is exactly what Dr. Brady calls a "guide post" in the road of infant care whose work in our village, sponsored by the Woman's club, is greatly appreciated by many mothers.

For six years Dr. Brady has been coming each month to this Baby Clinic and has watched with interest some of his babies grow to sturdy childhood.

"And how is your baby?" Dr. Brady begins his questioning. "Is he artificially fed? What formula do you use? How much has he gained? Do you give him cod liver oil or orange juice? How much does he sleep?"—These are some of the questions this expert asks as he makes a thorough examination of the child. By the time he is through there is not much of the child's history that the doctor does not know.

Dr. Brady welcomes the well child. He does not aim to give medical care but rather is a counselor and diagnostician. Not attempting to supplant the local physician he cooperates with him often.

HOOVER OR ROOSEVELT

It can be just about put down that voters next fall at the national election will choose between President Hoover and Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt.

There is hardly a chance of Hoover being defeated for the nomination of the Republicans while Governor Roosevelt has gotten off to such a good start that it looks as if he could not be stopped. He made Al Smith's followers look foolish in New Hampshire, he swept North Dakota and in Georgia he routed completely the forces of Speaker John N. Garner of Texas whose loss of control of his own party in Congress has just about taken him out of the picture.

Hoover or Roosevelt? Which? A lot will depend on what develops in the next few months. As one keen observer pointed out recently, the chances of Hoover will increase in direct proportion as times get better. Certainly the president's stock has gone up recently since the debacle in Congress. His ability as a national and world leader is getting more and more recognition. The politicians may not like him but perhaps the voters will, next fall.

THE RECONSTRUCTION PERIOD

After four years of destruction of human life and property, there came the reconstruction period following the Civil War. The nation bound up its wounds and started on a new road to peace and prosperity. A new United States was brought into being. The marvelous period of growth the whole world knows.

Following the greatest depression in the history of this country, may it not be true that we are right now entering the new era of reconstruction? After the inflation which took values of stocks, bonds, homes and farms into impossible mountain peaks, there came the deflation which has brought ruin to many and great loss to all—none are exempted. The whole false structure had to be toppled—and topple it did, bringing down with the crash the fortunes of great and small. From millionaire to store clerk, buying his little home, everyone had to "take his loss." In the weary days and months that have dragged by since October of 1929 we fought against our fate, believing that tomorrow "normalcy" would come and our losses would be recovered and that in some miraculous way we would get back the inflated dollars we had seen tumble in a heap. Now we see that the disaster was final—there is no going back to that false prosperity when stocks sold for four times what they could possibly be worth. Now we realize that we simply must "take our loss"—it is inevitable for the whole world is doing it.

Now that it has taken us two and a half years finally to realize that the old prosperity is gone and we can no longer hang hopelessly to the coat tails of a departed golden era, why not start into the new era of reconstruction with enthusiasm and hope that we can build a new and normal prosperity that will bring peace and content to all? We believe it can be done.

Here in Northville we can start the reconstruction by getting back a bank. If we have to go without interest on our bank deposits for a while that will be better than losing half of our deposits as we are apt to do if we do not start to rebuild. Talk about bank losses, the losses in real estate are at least twice as bad and as for stock losses they are staggering. Some pieces of real estate in and around Northville can be bought for from one half to one-seventh of what they formerly brought. Our bank reconstruction will cost us far less than will our real estate reconstruction.

Let's forget depression days and go into the reconstruction days with new hope and faith. When we start building again we shall find a new joy in living.

IF THE BANK COMES—AND IF NOT

Northville now has the opportunity of accepting a plan for getting a bank and at the same time it has in its hands the power to reject the moratorium agreement presented by the state bank department. The hundreds of depositors living here and elsewhere will be the supreme court that will decide the issue.

Just what will it mean if we get the bank within two or three months? And what will happen if the plan presented at the depositors' meeting last Saturday should fail to get sufficient signatures to make it effective?

Take the sad side of the picture first. If the moratorium plan fails here are some of the possibilities for our community:

(1) More weary months of waiting for a bank with the possibility that still another plan will be rejected—and then perhaps more months to wait after that.

(2) More mortgage sales with probabilities of some people leaving town.

(3) An even worse slump in real estate values and increase in taxes.

(4) Disaster for some business people who already have taken heavy losses and cannot "hang on" indefinitely.

(5) The loss of some good citizens who will not be content to stay in a community that will not get together and solve its barking problem.

But what will happen if the depositors co-operate and approve the state plan so that a bank can get going in the near future? Is it unreasonable to visualize these possibilities?

(1) A new hope or morale or spirit for a community that has been hard hit for many months. (And new hope goes a long way toward making life worth living.)

(2) New cheer and help for discouraged business people who help make it possible to have a "live" town.

(3) A distribution by the banks of thousands of dollars that will go a long way toward lifting a heavy load for many people.

(4) A gradual rise in real estate values.

(5) Renewal of mortgage loans so that people will not lose their homes as they would under a receiver.

(6) The re-opening of our theatre

(7) The return to Northville of business that has been going to towns where they have banks.

(8) A united community.

After looking at both pictures, is there any fair doubt as to what the decision of the depositors should be?

WANDERING THOUGHTS.

If you want to think, read "Contrasts" in this week's "What Other Editors Are Thinking About." V. J. Brown of Mason, who wrote it, is a member of the state legislature, vice president of the Michigan Press Association and one of the keenest editors of the state.

We are getting a real "kick" out of reading the autobiography of Benjamin Franklin. Some of his financial maxims come in very appropriately right now. Meditate on these: "What maintains one vice would bring up two children." "Beware of little expenses: a small leak will sink a great ship." "The second vice is lying; the first is running in debt." And speaking of books, "Only Yesterday" is an intensely interesting one loaned us by that noted columnist, Ad Schwenger. It (the book) is different.

Saturday morning E. E. Brown of Ann Arbor, former Record publisher, Nelson C. Schrader and the writer sat in the office discussing bank. As we listened to them talk we thought of their fine loyalty to Northville. Both have done a lot for this community.

Sunday our brother Ben and family came out from Detroit for Easter dinner. One of the greatest blessings of life is to have your "ain folk" within reach. And yet one of the biggest regrets is that our only sister, Mary, lives in far-off California, separated from us by nearly 3,000 miles of prairie, mountains and valleys and desert. For one year while publishing a paper at Upland, we lived just 25 miles from her home at Arcadia. We sometimes think that that year in that wonderful empire spoiled us both for life there and for residence here in Michigan. Two of our five brothers, Ben and Howard, live in Detroit—less than an hour's ride. Paul is in the upper peninsula, at Manistique. Robert is at Albion while Joe has just finished his law course at George Washington University at the national capital and plans to come back to Michigan to practice. We have always been glad that it was our lot to be one of a "big" family. You learn to take a lot of "knocks" but you get a lot of fun out of it.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

How many "real" friends have you?

CONTRASTS

V. J. Brown iningham County News, Mason, Michigan.

This winter spent the weekend in Detroit. It was in no sense a business trip. Our party just browsed around, amazed at the jammed streets, the parking parade, the sham the air, the contrasts of life and all the remaining thrills which a small town dweller receives when he visits a metropolis with time to look and listen and comprehend.

Speaking of contrasts we attended the national garden show on Saturday morning. Two great signs of convention hall are filled with beautiful and embracing arrangements of flowers and greenery. Rare orchids compete with woods violets and hot house roses with oregano bloom. The smell of spring is in the air. Why someone did not remember to gather up a few robins and bluebirds and release them in the mall to join their song with the perfume of dank soil and springing buds we cannot understand.

But anyway there was plenty of room to visit every exhibit and take all the time one desired to respect and enjoy. The patronage was very meager and very discouraging to the promoters who had made such efforts to make the affair a success.

That same afternoon we attended a performance at a downtown theatre. The price was the same as that charged at the garden show. The audience pays best $1.50 a row score attended the garden show, "house and garden" to pay their money to see girls dance and listen to the music and enjoy hardy jokes. There is one thing in common between the stage and the garden. The ladies tell not neither do they spin—they wear no clothes. The chorus girls live a similar life. Of course this life does not paint.

The truth we are attempting to point out is that there is more money in showing "bare legs and painted faces" than there is in fixing up garden exhibits—at least in Detroit.

There was another contrast—this one on the other side of the ledger. Late Saturday afternoon on the public square, in a driving snow storm, with a biting wind tearing at his thin clothes a man stood on a box and harangued a group of less than 20 men. Most were downcast specimens of human driftwood men caught in the whirl of modern civilization and ground beneath the wheels and between the gears of a modern age.

The speaker was preaching—but not the Gospel. "There is no God!" he shouted.

"There is no Heaven and no Hell! Any preacher, any priest, any rabbi who preaches God is lying and the truth is in him."

Three or four of his listeners applauded. Others jeered at him. Some merely stood agape and others turned away in disgust. The words of the speaker were repeated with even greater conviction and more pronounced emphasis.

We had heard enough and as we crossed the busy avenue to our home, we heard again the shouted assertion, "There is no God!"

Sunday morning we attended church in one of the great edifices of Detroit. We started early enough but being accustomed to plenty of church time parking, we misjudged our arrival. After wasting considerable time finding a place to park we were forced to walk three blocks to church. We were among the last of about 4000 worshippers to be seated. Several hundred who arrived a few moments later were forced to stand around the walls of the great auditorium. The music was grand, the service rich and the sermon inspiring.

But more inspiring than all else was the spectacle of about 75 husbands and wives between the ages of 30 and 40, all members of a single Bible class of the church being received at the altar for membership. They were a splendid group of earnest, wholesome, young people.

The church bulletin recorded the fact that on the preceding Sunday forty others had taken their church vows and that more than 2000 had attended the Sunday school session. On emerging from the church which we had selected we found the avenue lined with traffic officers to handle traffic for this and others of a half dozen or more great churches grouped in this particular section of the city.

Saturday a discordant voice had cried out to a half dozen sympathizing human derelicts, "There is no God."

Sunday a half dozen preachers from as many pulpits had proclaimed to ten thousand and more the Great Promise.

We scanned the faces of the passing throngs as they left their respective edifices. There were men and women of all ages, of all walks of life, of varying creeds—Protestants, Catholics and Jews. In strange contrast to the bitterness, the hopelessness, the shrunken forms, the coarse features, the rasping voices of the Saturday afternoon loiterers, was the happy content, the self-assurance, the hope and confidence, written upon the faces of Sunday morning.

Ten thousand against ten in a great city. But in between are hundreds of thousands whom we did not see in which direction are their faces turned? That is the question of the hour.

Northville Women Guests at Woman's City Club, Detroit

Mrs. Norman Denne and Mrs. H. F. Wagenschutz were guests of Miss Ruth Marburger at the Woman's City Club on Park avenue, Detroit, last Saturday. Following luncheon they attended "A Rhapsody in Black" at the Cass theatre.

Methodist Songsters Meet and Eat Together

The members of the Methodist choir and their families met together at the church house for a social evening together Tuesday evening. A delicious supper, ably managed by Mesdames Tewksbury Lee and Boyden, was followed by a good time with games.

Birthday Anniversary Celebrated at the Duguid Home

On Saturday evening Mrs. Duguid was hostess to sixteen young people the occasion being her daughter Catherine's birthday anniversary.

The entertainment of the evening was games and dancing. Prizes were won by Miss Peggy Blake and Robert Christensen. At the conclusion of the entertainment the young folks were served a delightful lunch.

Family Gathering on Easter Day

On Easter Sunday a happy family gathering occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hamilton, five miles northwest of the village. When twenty-six relatives sat down to a bountiful chicken dinner. Relatives from Detroit, Novi and Northville were present. The relatives were glad to have with them, Mrs. Ida Hendry, who was accompanied by Mrs. Ella Leonard. This was Mrs. Hendry's first outing since January first.

Former "Central" Girl Surprised By Friends at Mrs. Covell's Home

A party of ten young women, tenants of Mrs. Wanda Steele (nee Wanda Kimberly), who recently became the bride of Herbert Stehle of Ann Arbor, surprised her at the home of Mrs. Ruth Covell, chief operator of the local Bell Telephone office near Phoenix. Miss Kimberly was for the past year a member of the staff of "Hello Girls" in Northville.

The occasion was a marvellous bridal shower and the method of presenting gifts was quite unique. A pink and white umbrella was suspended from the ceiling from which streamers hung simulating a snowfall. Concealed under this umbrella were various dainty packages. The bride was asked to sit under the umbrella when the "shower" occurred with its interesting results. Following a happy evening with games a delectable lunch was served. Mr. and Mrs. Stehle are at home in Ann Arbor where the former is in the employ of the Detroit Edison company.

Wife of Ambassador to Holland Speaks to Woman's Club

Following the Good Friday services the Woman's club met as usual with Mrs. Garret Diekmann as the speaker. Holland was the country considered in this afternoon and Mrs. Diekmann presented to her hearers a very intimate insight into the real Netherlands behind the scenes as observed by the wife of an ambassador to that country. To belong to royalty said the speaker, and during their stay in Holland the late ambassador and his wife appeared frequently in the royal courts. Very interesting to American women was to hear of the presentation to Queen Wilhelmina a vocal solo by Miss Barbara Horton of Plymouth, accompanied by Mrs. O. Corne, was a pleasing feature of the program.

Previous to the program Mrs. Thad J. Knapp honored her guests by extending hospitality at luncheon to a number of Northville and Detroit women who had the privilege of meeting this interesting woman. Mrs. Diekmann had been a teacher in the Highland Park high school at the time of Miss Knapp's residence there and included among the guests were other former teachers of that school. Also sharing the luncheon.

SCHOOL NOTES

HISTORY NOTES

There is much to write in the line of history notes this week. All of Mrs. Cobb's classes seem to have unlimited ambition in carrying out many different and unusual types of projects in the past few weeks.

A so-called project of the modern history class was the interview of Foster Van Atta, now home from Michigan State college, about college life. Some of the many topics covered were the time which it takes to prepare a lesson and the necessary high school courses as a foundation of the college learning. Foster believes that typing is necessary to any college student. This project was made interesting by the student who is in the center of the experiment and not from the teacher.

An extraordinary project is the boat which Merle Fraser has just completed. Everyone should surely come into Mrs. Cobb's room and see this. It is a skillful piece of work because of the intricacy of the rigging. There are at least eighteen sails on the ship. Those who come to visit school Thursday evening will have the opportunity of seeing this work of fine craftsmanship.

As a project for section 1 of Citizenship, Jack Trinks has made a display of all the different kinds of wood. There must be about twenty of these pieces. If we are not mistaken this is the best of trees on display. This undertaking is well worth noticing and is made for the nature study of this particular class.

On the back bulletin board in other classrooms, has been posted. This is made by the modern history class and consists of cartoons on the history of Germany. They are all very good and worth mentioning.

Here are some of the classes and the projects that have been working out lately. Section II of citizenship has been divided up into groups from one to four. The project of group one was that of etiquette. Described in one of the recent records. The chairman of this group was Tom McLoughlin. Group two had a demonstration of first aid and the chairman of this committee was Evelyn Ambler. As their project, group three showed slides on trees and animals as their contribution to the Nature Study course. This group planned a trip to the woods but the weather would not permit it. Besides showing the slides, talks were given. Margaret Daugherty acted as chairman of this committee. Group four (last but not least) were shown slides on transportation. Talks were also given on this subject. Alice Masters was chairman.

In two other history classes a new system of contracts is being carried out and there's so much work to be done that one teacher could not possibly do all of it besides her other work so Beverly Staman and Ruth Mary Baldwin have been the "helping hands" for Mrs. Cobb. Oh yes, it's great fun in this type of a system, each student progresses at his or her own speed. Also each student may be made to feel important by having an individual file under his own name.

A very unusual opportunity has been put before the students and those who wish to may partake of it. It is namely this: Any pupil who wishes to may correspond with some boy or girl in a foreign country, boys and girls, and girls, or boys and girls. (Several boys say that they are willing to take a chance on whether the girl is good to look at or "vice versa"). Those students whose names begin with some letter such as "A" will write to a foreign student whose name begins with "A" also. Isn't this quite a system?

Well folks, this seems to be all for this time. Come again.

West Point Park

Mrs. Ethel Middlewood and children have returned from attending the funeral of her step-mother from the Hamilton chapel with burial in Woodmere cemetery, Detroit. Easter Sunday was a day to be remembered. A breakfast was prepared for one hundred at eight o'clock after which a program was given. The choir gave some suitable selections. The Sunday school

HERE

In your own community you can spend to no better advantage to yourself, and in helping solve the present business situation, than by assisting in keeping men employed in your own locality. You will be contributing in the most helpful and constructive way if you will look over the furniture in your home and see how a new covering here and a little retouching there, will add to the attractiveness of your room.

Why not look over your furniture today? And then call 361.

Flour For Your Wheat

We wish to call your attention to the fact that the Northville Mill is still exchanging flour for wheat on the following basis:

PLAN NO. 1
For a Milling Charge of 25c per bushel we will give you 40 lbs. of flour and 18 lbs. of bran and middlings for each bushel of good sound wheat that you bring in. We furnish the sacks for the flour and you furnish the sacks for the feed.

PLAN NO. 2
We will exchange 50 lbs. of flour for each bushel of good wheat that you bring in. The sacks are furnished by us.
Under either plan the wheat will be cleaned before weighing and you must test 50 lbs. or better.
At present market prices you are paying a bushel of wheat for six loaves of bread that you buy while with a little yeast, elbow action and fire you can make 50 to 60 loaves out of a bushel. This should be a saving worthy of your consideration.

You may have your choice of "Gold Lace" Bread Flour, Fancy Pasture Flour, Whole Wheat Flour or Graham Flour.
We will exchange any quantity and we always have enough flour on hand to take care of all demands. It will pay you to come to the mill.

Annie Richards of Belleville is spending part of her spring vacation from school at the Michigan State Normal college with Miss Florence Balke.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton W. Wilber and Mrs. Mary Yerkes visited Mr. Wilber's brother-in-law, E. M. Sprague, in Cleveland, O., over the week-end.

Clifford Shiden and Bruce Turnbull have returned from Delhi, Ont., where they were called by the serious illness of the former's father who is still very ill but somewhat improved.

Rev. and Mrs. H. G. Whitfield and daughter, Betty Helen, left Monday for a visit in Brantford, Ont., where they will meet Mr. Whitfield's mother at the home of his sister, Mrs. Whitfield, Sr., and been visiting in the west.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Chapin, Fairbrook street, Miss Jean MacNeil and Mrs. Mary Rea of Ypsilanti, motored to Hillman over the Easter holidays for a visit with relatives, returning Sunday night. Mrs. Rea will spend the week with Mr. and Mrs. Chapin.

Chas. Hunnan of Plymouth called at The Record office Saturday to pay his subscription. The Record has been in our family as long as I can remember," he said, "in fact I think my father was a subscriber from the day of the very first issue. That's a fine loyalty to the home newspaper."

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Perkins and daughter, Maxine, spent two days last week with C. G. Grant and family at Eaton Rapids. Mr. and Mrs. Grant and son, Jack, returned with them on Saturday to spend Easter with Mrs. Grant's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Tredway, at Farmington.

A party of relatives and friends from Royal Oak Farmington and Redford paid Mr. and Mrs. James Erwin a surprise visit at their home on Ten Mile road Tuesday evening. There were four tables of bridge. Refreshments were served by the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Erwin were the recipients of some beautiful gifts.

Mrs. Mary Hake is quite ill at her home on Randolph street.

Mrs. Geo. Lockhart and son, Hugh, visited her sister in Jackson Easter day.

J. B. Cavell of Columbus, Ohio, is the guest of his brother, Dr. E. B. Cavell.

Wm. Wain, night watchman, is making good recovery at his home and his friends will be glad to see him again on the streets.

Mrs. Wm. O. Jay, a teacher in the Highland Park school, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Philip Anderson, last Friday.

Louis Woodman is spending the spring vacation from Michigan State college at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Woodman, Eaton drive.

The Kings' Daughters will meet with Mrs. Earl B. Grosvenor, South Wing street, Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock. The business meeting will occur at three o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dixon were called to Dearborn Thursday to attend the funeral of their brother-in-law, Edward Butler. The deceased had often visited in Northville.

A daughter, Patricia Ann, weighing 8 1/2 pounds, was born Good Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gregory on the Eight Mile road. Mrs. Amelia Ford is caring for the mother and child.

The regular business and social meeting of the Foresters Aid will be held Tuesday evening, April 5, at Foresters' hall. After the meeting a pot luck supper will be served. All members are requested to invite their friends.

Mrs. Clark and I took a five-mile walk Sunday and it was the best thing I've done in a long while," said Harry B. Clark to The Record. "It must be good for one's health. For I slept that night the best I have in months," he continued.

Both groups of the kindergarten of our public school were taken by their teacher, Mrs. Sterling Eaton, to visit the Jones green house last Saturday where they were taken through the rows of flowers. Each child was given a carnation by Mr. Jones.

Principal R. H. Amerman has returned to his duties in the public schools, after spending the vacation with his parents in Hillsdale. Mrs. Amerman was obliged to remain there longer since their little daughter, Edythe, is having whooping cough.

Chas. H. Thompson of Farmington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. T. Thompson, Nine Mile road, had the unusual honor of being one of two men from a class of 28 who recently passed the examination for federal radio broadcasts. This was held at Detroit.

A caller in the Record office recently remarking on the late fall of snow reminds us that a stranger thing happened in 1886 when, on April 6th, Jas. D. Colbett moved into Northville, driving over the tops of fences on the deep snow. Believe it or not.

Thomas W. Moss has received instructions from the treasury department at Washington, D. C., to proceed to Ann Arbor to supervise construction of extension of the post office there, as representative of the office of the supervising architect. The Race Construction company of Chicago has the contract for the construction and work was commenced last Monday. Local labor will be favored and the work will be done under the federal eight hour law.

Cecil Fry and Fred A. Fry, his father, nearly lost their cars from the garage behind their home on the Seven Mile road Tuesday night when someone broke in and jimmied the ignitions on both cars in an attempt to steal them. The thieves were unsuccessful in getting the cars but succeeded in stealing a heavy lock which was on the garage doors. Although five members of the family, said Mr. Fry, were sleeping in the house when the attempt was made none of them heard the thief at work.

Easter in Northville Churches

Easter day dawned bright and beautiful. All Northville put on its spring attire and went to church on that day. Some who had not been inside a church for many a month broke their habit and made their way to their chosen place of worship, called by a longing for a renewal of the hope of the resurrection.

In each of the churches were to be found around their chancel flowers of spring time, tall pure Easter lilies and potted ferns. In every church there rang out joyous Easter songs led by their choirs. Special music added to the meaning of the day.

Perhaps the earliest service of the morning was held at the Methodist church at six-thirty when there assembled a group of worshippers who wanted to catch the spirit of those women who went very early in the morning to the tomb of Christ on that first Easter tide. It was an hour of thoughtful devotion with the singing of Easter hymns led by Rev. Frank N. Minor.

The pastor, Miss Wilma Rattenbury gave a beautiful rendition of an Easter story.

At the 10:30 morning service a procession of both choirs opened the program. Special music and a thoughtful sermon by the pastor completed an impressive service. Baptismal service and a memorial for departed friends were features of special moment.

In the evening the choir, led by Roy Clark, gave a beautiful cantata of the story of Easter with solo, quartet, and chorus numbers. Mrs. Arabella Tuning, president of the organ, Miss Rattenbury, by special request, repeated the reading of the morning.

Rev. Leo Eckstaedt, addressed a full house at the St. Paul's Lutheran church on the theme, "Why does the Easter message bring joy to our hearts?" During the service two young folks, a twin brother and sister, Warren and Virginia Cochell, children of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Cochell of Detroit, former members here, received their first communion after being admitted as members of the church. As a fitting ting rite on this day all members partook of the communion. Special organ numbers were rendered by Louis Meisner.

The children of the Baptist church carried out the Easter spirit at the evening service when even the very smallest members, as young as three years of age, took their part on the well-worked-out program in charge of their leader, Mrs. Earl Montgomery. Beside their greetings, songs and exercises, recitations were given by James LaRue, Lowrie Salpas and Mary Hollis. Each of the thirty-eight children were presented with Easter souvenirs by their leader. Further numbers on the program were given by older members of the Sunday school.

An effective part of the morning worship was the procession of all the members who laid their pledges for benevolence upon the altar as they passed. Special music and a sermon on "The Fourth Day After Easter" by the pastor, Rev. W. Roscoe Barbour, were well received.

The impulse of the Easter day brought to the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning a large congregation for worship. All was in harmony with the day, the floral decoration of the stately Easter lilies the music service and the message of the pastor, Rev. H. G. Whitfield. No event in history carries a greater appeal to humanity than that of the Resurrection from the extreme of death to the extreme of life. The Resurrection of Jesus Christ stands as the whole mainstay of all Christian belief. The pastor's sermon was based on the text from Ephesians, 5th chapter, 14th verse: "Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light." After the reception service of nine new members into the church the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed.

In the evening a fellowship supper was served in the church house to the large number present. This was followed by a brief devotional service. The pastor then introduced C. R. Van Valkenburgh, chairman of the board of trustees and in appropriately with the oft repeated alleluias of the glorious Easter Masses at 8 and 10 o'clock.

The solemn medieval church music expressing the exultant spirit of Christ's triumph stirred the souls and imagination of the many listeners.

The theme of the pastor's sermon was the revival of hope and encouragement as manifested by Christ's victory at almost the very moment when His darkest hour was at its height.

the Byron-Correll home and to see their mother Mrs. M. Marvin who is ill at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Vankin and family of Wyandotte were Easter Sunday guests in the C. W. Payne home.

Mr. and Mrs. Andreas-Keller and children, Northville, are staying with Mr. and Mrs. Payne since the past several weeks.

—Salem Congregational Church.
Rev. Lucia M. Smith, minister.
The Easter service was a very joyous and impressive as well as sacred one.

The following fine large class was received into the fellowship of the church during the morning service.
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schroeder,
Miss Marian Schroeder, Mrs. Fred Mellow, Miss Abbie Mellow, Mrs. Estner Renschler, Miss Mary Ches-brough, Miss Betty Clark, William Mc-Gee, Mrs. Lewis Clark, Miss Mildred Dumbo. The following four children were baptized, besides six adults: Ada May Chesbrough, Charles Renschler, Jean Helen and Dore Lorraine Renschler, Miss L. J. Vici of Detroit led in prayer and read Scripture reading. The choir rendered two beautiful Easter anthems.
The pastor spoke on "He is Risen as He Said." A very large audience attended. Many exquisite floral offerings were given by individuals as well as the beautiful baskets from Mr. Sparr.

The Holy Sacrament of Communion was administered when was led in prayer by C. W. Lewis.

In the evening the Sunday school program under the leadership of Mrs. Lavern Lewis and Mrs. O. W.
Lewis proved a real blessing and enjoyment to the big gathering present.
The children and exceptionally well in their drills and recitations and songs. The special concert solo by Forbes Smith and violin solo by Mr. Carman Harey were highly appreciated, also the two fine selections given by his choir. There were visitors present from Ann Arbor, South Lyon, Plymouth, Northville and many families from Detroit.

The pastor wishes to thank all who participated in making Easter such a day of rich blessings. We also wish to thank our decorating committees:
Messdames H. Schroeder, E. J.
Schrock and Kehrl and our plan-ist, Mrs. Speers.

Prayer meeting will be held on Wednesday evening in the parsonage.

Choir practice Thursday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Foreman.

The Ladies Auxiliary society will give a ham and egg supper and hold a spring bazaar Friday evening, April 1st in the town hall. After the supper at 8 o'clock there will be a splendid little play, "Planning a Banquet," given by a group of ladies. All included for the price of 35c. We are sure you cannot afford to miss this fine supper and evening's entertainment.

The missionary offering was indeed a very splendid one, $18.50. We welcome anyone to our church who wants a church home and will gladly render any pastoral services wherever needed and desired.

But now hath Christ been raised from the dead, the first fruits of

This Week

By H. H. White

Theology teaches us that man's interpretation of God as He reveals Himself is through the Bible.
So since we know that it is man's interpretation of God as He reveals Himself through Nature. Thus each teaches us about the author and giver of life, and up to this time as far as mankind has been able to understand and comprehend it, that revelation is of utmost importance in our lives. But each has its inherent short-comings since these interpretations have been evolved through the finite mind of man.
Thus we find that each conception has all the difficulties necessarily found in any stage and progress of a developed understanding.

We may be confidently sure that if we were to thoroughly understand God's revelation of Himself as it is recorded in the Bible and the revelation of Himself as explorers have found records in the rocks, and as found in the tissues of animals as well as in the mind and body of mankind himself, there would be no difficulty when we understand both comprehensively and completely as perhaps we never shall, then we will come to that place where there will be no contradictions or questions concerning either revelation, for both will have fused into each other.

But even now if we are fairly convinced that truth must be in both, and there are many conclusive evidences, notwithstanding the contrary, there will be little or no difficulty in reaching a workable unity. A unity which will satisfy the immediate needs of the inquisitive mind. A unity which will not be too crystallized so as to prevent the inevitable future growth, as marking further delves in to the mystery of our origin and being.

And as the farther discovers "new lands" affecting the geography of the earth and the origin of it. But if we are to find any unity of belief between the biblical conception as written in the Pentateuch by Moses in the long ago and the beliefs promulgated by scientists in the terms of evolution we must and will be compelled to accept these in the terms of our today.

But one of the absurd things would be to reconcile a twentieth century statement of science with an eighteenth century conception of theology or the reverse. Thus we see conclusively that each century must restate its found-truths in the terms of its own time.

Fundamental truths may be at the bottom the same throughout many centuries but to be clearly intelligible in the light of each succeeding age they must be couched and phrased in the terminology of that age.

WATCH FOR POLICE IN DETROIT DRIVING

Driving into Detroit frequently these days?
If you are, you had better look out. Detroit has gone dead broke trying to keep so many politicians, big and little, in office.

In an effort to bolster up its fast declining resources, the city has instituted a campaign against automobile drivers. If you are from out of town, it's just too bad, say those who have had run-ins with Detroit's coppers.

The Record's Record published the following warning to people who drive into Detroit over Grand River, the street most commonly used by Northville residents, when they go to Detroit.

Drivers of the northwest area are advised by officers of Schaeffer Station to hold their driving speed within city limits to 25 miles an hour if they wish to avoid trouble.

Between 25 and 35 miles calls for a ticket, and if the driver feels compelled to go beyond 35 miles an hour he is in danger of a jail experience.

A traffic officer will no longer give a ticket to the man who is doing 40 or better. He simply takes him to jail. There is no option.

Reckless driving comes under the same head, jail is the answer. Careless driving may be construed as reckless driving.

This, the police say, is a state law and any traffic officers are merely obeying the state when they execute the order.

Outside the city 50 miles or better may be excused if the driver is careful not to get into an accident.
Accidents, however, if it is shown that the driver was doing 40 or more will call for pretty severe investigation.

Inside the city 40 miles an hour is about "it isn't safe to drive that fast," commented officer Richards.

In the first place it's too fast for city driving and in the second place the driver won't get off with a ticket. He'll go to jail.

The matter of a driver's license on ones person is so important. If a traffic officer asks to see ones license and is told that it was left at home in another purse or in ones other coat, the car will be impounded and the driver ordered to proceed home by street car or by foot to get the license and produce it for inspection before his car is released.

Lost 20 lbs. of fat in just 4 weeks

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis, Mo., writes "I'm only 38 yrs. old and weighed 170 lbs. until taking one box of your 'Kruschen' Salts just 4 weeks ago. I now weigh 150 lbs. I also have more energy and furthermore I've never had a hungry moment."

Fat folks should take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it's the SAFE harmless way to reduce as tons of thousands of men and women know.

For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen at C. R. Horton's drug store or any drug store—the cost for a bottle that lasts 4 weeks is but a trifle and after the first bottle you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back.

"Did you go to your lodge meeting last night, Rastus?"

"No, sah, we dun have to postpone it, account de Grand All Powerful Invinible Supreme Unconquerable Potentate dun got beat up by his wife."

Wake Up Your Liver Bile —Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels.
Gas builds up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in pimples. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes these good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up."
They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a "substitute." 25c at all stores. © 1931, C. M. Co.

"Weary hours of work . . . drudgery, standing over a hot stove, the disagre-able task of scouring soot-blackened pots and pans and cleaning a grease caked stove. My Electrocchef ends these troubles forever. Jim doesn't realize what a burden he's lifted from my shoulders! My new Electrocchef makes cooking a pleasure. I thoroughly enjoy using my range —it's so clean, so convenient, so modern in every way. Kitchen utensils stay as bright and shiny as when they were brand new—and no wonder! There is no flame, no smoke or soot to soil my kitchen walls and curtains—only pure heat from a glowing wire! It's such a change in cooking methods. All my friends admire the snow-white porcelain and sparkling chrome-plate finish of the range. It's really lovely

. . . I think my Electrocchef has made over my kitchen!"

HOMEMAKER'S CORNER

By MRS. EDITOR

ATTITUDES

Is something we read in a magazine but it applies to us as well. It helped us to reject our thinking so we pass it. Read it to your husband.

All the rewards and real disas- of life are by-products of our attitudes. If we extend the open- and to the world it will give us friendships. If we stick out our jaw and clench our fists, life becomes a succession of blows some of which are more than we can stand.

It is not the food but the attitude that makes a meal a sacrament or a ghastly farce. The hearer brings as much to church as the preacher. Every great book requires an open-minded reader.

He who takes the attitude of suspicion toward all men peoples his world with enemies and threats. He who trusts the world finds it re- warding him with friendships and confidence. He who looks for faults in his fellow-man is never disap- pointed. Neither is the man who looks for virtues.

The prophet of Galilee, the wis- est student of life that mankind has known, once said: "The King- dom of Heaven is within you, and he might have said with equal truth, 'The Kingdom of Hell is also within you, for that which makes the heaven or hell is not outside, but inside each of us.'

Our oriental rugs, divanets and profits do not make life, but faith, courage, trust, kindness and be- lieve do. Neither does poverty, pain, disappointment or failure in- make life, but bitterness, envy, selfishness and greed do.

We cannot be happy by trying to be it, as only as we try to be some- thing else that we discover happi- ness has come as a by-product. As we forget our own happiness and give ourselves to certain great at- titudes we find that happiness has crept in on us unawares.

West Point Park

Mrs. Earl Wolfe and two sons, Maurice and Kenneth, are spending their week's holiday with the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. Ed- ward Kels, of Nashville, Mich.

Miss Palmer and Miss Nesbit of Fort Street, Presbyterian church were welcome visitors at the church Sunday morning. Miss Palmer sang two solos which were enjoyed by the congregation. Miss Nesbit ac- companied her on the piano.

Viola Wolfe and Marjory Heich- man visited with Viola's grand- mother, Mrs. C. Wolfe, and stayed Monday night with her.

The house belonging to Mr. We- bornick, living on Farmington road, caught fire. A neighbor, Frank Gould, with his wife, who were coming home saw the fire on the roof and were fortunate enough to put out the blaze. Mr. Webornick's aged father and mother were the only persons in the house at the time.

The metropolitan school here will take place on the eighth of April. The fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth graders will compete for the titles given by the Detroit News to the champion of the school.

Mrs. Walter Coon and son of Farmington are spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bradley, on Seven Mile road.

Miss Anna Thayer, John Harlan and his sister, Catherine, are en- joying their Easter vacation in their respective homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pettibone, Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Bradley, Mrs. Chesketts and son Billy, were call- ers at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bradley, Tues- day afternoon.

Mrs. William Banks accompanied by Mrs. Charles Ely and Mrs. Clar- ence Elicking, attended the flower show in Detroit Friday.

In commemoration and remem- brance of the Lord's Supper with his disciples, a table was prepared in the church and members, with the pastor, Rev. Adams, Thursday evening partook of bread and wine in remembrance of that day. A feeling of reverence and a nearness to our Lord came over all present. This is the first time we have had this sup- per on the evening of Good Friday.

Mrs. Frank Gould and Mrs. John Rowe are both very ill at this time.

The Child Care and Health group met at the home of Mrs. Thomas Gillespie Monday afternoon with a large number of mothers present. Officers for the coming year were elected: chairman, Mrs. Russell Ault; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Charles Taylor; extension workers, Mrs. Thomas Gillespie and Mrs. E. W. Woodworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tallman have moved their family to Brightmoor. A Silver Tea will be given at the home of Mrs. Albert Nacker by the Ladies' association of the church on Thursday afternoon.

Albert Manzel, former school boy in this district, passed away at his home in Dearborn at the age of fifty-eight years. He was brought to Grand Lawn cemetery and laid to rest with his relatives. He leaves a son Melvin, a daughter, Loraine, three sisters and two brothers to mourn his loss.

The members of the church will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heichman Wednesday even- ing for a study and explanation of the bible. Rev. John Adams leads the class.

Every Monday Morning

By "AD" SCHWENGER

Northville business men will do well to emulate the "git up in git" of an up-state youngster who in- serted the following advertisement in his local newspaper:

"This and Kiddles look to school and returned promptly in perfect condition. I received that way military discipline. Rates 25c a week. Special rates to twins. Refined conversation only."

This enterprising kid should go far.

C. Nacker, my trusty Hillsdale correspondent, sent another story in this week and M. J. Murphy also made application for entrance into the Adonias club but it's my firm conviction that neither of the stories will ever see print.

News dispatches from Belgium in- form us that the King has okayed a ten per cent cut in the salaries of all government officials, but here's the "news" he okayed a 15 per cent cut in his own salary.

State and city officials, all vying for economies in public utilities, please take notice.

Coiffers have been playing all winter but it looks as though they're going to have a tough time getting that nice spring weather that means a perfect game of after- noon's entertainment.

I'll give Elmer Cromwell and Butch LeFevre a chance to get in a couple of good cracks at each other.

I've just returned from the bank meeting held here and it's given this depositor the most hope for an eventual return of his money that he has had for quite some time.

The plan is in capable hands, men of cool understanding who will not be stampeded, men who can be de- pended upon to consider the inter- ests of their constituents and their town and I have every confidence that following the signing of the agreements will be on the road leading to a bank.

Somehow, I do not feel humor- ously inclined today. (Not that I'm so humorously successful on other days) But I feel that Northville has made history for itself by the en- thusiastic approval of the deposi- tors who attended the meeting.

The air has been cleared. We know where we're at. Our salvation lies clearly in our own hands.

We've passed through some tor- tuous days. That's an obvious fact that hardly needs my support but what I know is, not what has hap- pened during the dark days of the past but what is going to happen in the future?

I think that we're past the point where we can look to anyone else to lead us out of the "land of bond- age." We know now that the answer lies with ourselves. We've tried everything else, now let's try using our own heads and co-operating to put this thing over.

It'll mean a butter fight to return. We'll have to fight ourselves more than anyone else. Expensive habits engendered during a period of waste and riotous living will have to be eliminated. A rigid program of watchful economy is now in order as opposed to the absolute stopping of all purchasing.

Buy the things you need; demand value and service for your money and let's all get our shoulders to the wheel for at least ten years of the hardest kind of work.

For Sale. One good soap-box, slightly used but still in good con- dition. Apply to the respondent and trade operator of this column.
