DYE PREDICTS AN INFLATION OF CURRENCY

Local Authority Tells of Plan to Stop the Depression

Prediction that the federal government in the next few months may step in with inflation of currency to bring an end to the depression was made Monday by Rex Dye, well known Northville resident, at the annual evening dinner meeting of the Men's Club for the Presbyterian church in view of the fact that the present dollar is worth $1.71 as compared with the index of 1913. This inflation might not be a bad thing, he continued.

Before an interesting group of forty men, Mr. Dye gave a splendid analysis for the present economic conditions, with suggestions for a way out. His remarks followed in general the recent study, "Market Depression," which has been copyrighted and published by Mr. Dye. This book has been given high praise by noted economists of the United States. He even has one letter from Premier Mussolini of Italy.

Not overproduction but a reduction of buying power of consumer markets was blamed by Mr. Dye for the present conditions. The distress of the country will not be corrected, he said, until this buying power is restored. A small group of multimillionaires could, he said, restore good times within 48 hours. And, he said, the great corporations can put their money into new forms of wealth and give the workers a chance to produce. The depression will continue, he predicted. Thousands of children in the country are now going to bed hungry, he stated, and this condition will continue if stock market speculation continues to be the outlet for millions of dollars. Trying to "get something for nothing" will never solve the problem, he said, with a good deal of earnestness.

In the discussion that followed Mr. Dye's address, Wellington R. Roberts stated that he was under a "financial despotism."

Thos. R. Carrington, president of the club, presided and called upon Supt. T. J. Knapp to introduce the speaker. During the dinner C. R. Van Valkenburgh, led in community singing and afterward a polo game, played on kiddie cars, created a riot of fun. Rev. Harold G. Whitfield, who apparently had played polo before, with his team mate, Carl H. Bryan, won over Don P. Yerkes and Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston.

At the May meeting of the club the speaker will be W. E. Matthews of Detroit, of the Detroit Edison company, who will give his unusual lecture, "Social Engineering."

RETURNS HOME.

After a stay of seven months with her friend, Mrs. Barton Wheeler, Mrs. Jennie Vradenburg has returned to her own home at 210 Yerkes avenue.

Honesty, Loyalty, Determination, Needed to Bring Success in Life, "Bingo" Brown Tells "N" Club

Real success in life can come only through the development of the old-fashioned virtues of honesty, loyalty, determination and hard work. That is what James (Bingo) Brown, dean of men of the Michigan State Normal college and also state boxing commissioner eloquently told members of the "N" club of the Northville high school and their fathers and a number of other guests at the first annual banquet of the club Thursday evening, April 21, at the Royal Ann Cafe.

The gathering was an unusually enthusiastic and worth-while one. The athletes of N. H. S. who compose the "N" club had the old time "pep" in plenty and their dads aided and abetted them in vociferous fashion. Noise making devices that were passed around made the Royal Ann ring with carnival spirit preceding the formal program.

Following the fun fest and community singing led by Leslie Lee, and music by the Blue Serenades of Plymouth, Supt. Thad J. Knapp presented Pierre Kenyon, who has been acting as assistant coach, as the toastmaster of the evening. He called on Coach Harold L. Ruggles who made a splendid talk telling of the loyalty and true qualities of the members of the club. "These boys all do the best they can for the school," said Mr. Ruggles, "and they can always be counted on to be loyal." The coach paid a glowing tribute to the Northville physicians for their great assistance to the athletes.

SALEM HOME INVADED.
Herman Hoerauf, Detroit, was remanded Monday in an Ann Arbor court on the charge of breaking and entering the home of Fred Pommerening in Salem township Sunday evening.

Hoerauf, it is said, came from Detroit with two companions for the express purpose of "beating up" Pommerening. Pommerening seized a loaded shotgun which he fired into the ceiling, chairs and floor of his home, but was driven from his home by the belligerent Hoerauf, observers of the fracas say.

DR. SPENCER GIVES STRONG ADDRESS HERE

Hillsdale College President Speaks at Baptist Church

"The past two years have shown us what riches are not," Dr. Wm. Gear Spencer, president of Hillsdale college, said Wednesday night in a masterly address at the Baptist church. His conclusions were based on the episode of the rich young ruler running to Jesus and asking him what he must do to inherit eternal life.

The Hillsdale educator drew many inspiring lessons from this story, and drove them home with apt illustrations. He asked his hearers to consider what great things the ruler could have had left, had he sold all his goods, as the Master advised, and given the proceeds to the poor. Not to mention how the kingdom itself would have been benefited by this aid to the poor. Among these benefits Dr. Spencer named these:

His youth, his health, his culture of education, his social position. Dr. Spencer's conclusion was that the rich young man failed along the line of his greatest strength—his wealth. This is true of all of us, he stated. The minister becomes a slave to ritual and forgets the vital message of the gospel; the lawyer protects "crime" instead of bringing it to justice, evading, not obeying the law; the business man misses his fine ability for selfish greed; the doctor sells prescriptions and seeks not his true service; the scholar simply absorbs knowledge and blesses no one by giving it out to others.

The college executive referred to his father's remarks when his son had graduated from Denison University, saying:
"I can give you no money but I have staid with you so you have in your head what no one can take away from you, what you cannot mortgage and have foreclosed, what will give you a comfortable living, what will be in you in larger amount the more you give it away."
If he did not now have this college education which his father made possible, said the doctor, even at his present age of 45 and with six children, he would set out to college to get one and would come out at the age of 49, equipped to battle life.

He closed with the statement that Jesus never offered a better bargain to anyone than he did to the rich young ruler.

Dr. Spencer was presented by the pastor of the church, Rev. W. Roscoe Barbour, also an alumnus of Denison and the benediction was given by Rev. Frank N. Miner.

FORD PLANT WILL HAVE FULL FORCE WITHIN TWO WEEKS

Officials of the Ford plant here expect a full force of 200 men will be at work in two weeks. Production on valves for the new V-eight has been increased in the past few days and some of their men have already been called back. This is good news for Northville.

EXCHANGITES PLAN FORD VILLAGE TRIP

Arrangements for a dinner with the Exchanges club as hosts in Detroit and a trip through Henry Ford's Greenfield village were started at the meeting of the Northville Exchange club Wednesday night. The trip has been planned for Thursday, May 5 and it is expected that approximately 20 members from the local club will go. Dinner will be held at 6:30 o'clock following the scheduled trip.

After a pleasant dinner at the noon meeting, routine business was disposed of, Pierre Kenyon, Northville vocalist was introduced. Group singing by members of the Exchange club convinced Mr. Kenyon that he would have some likely prospects for his singing classes which he holds here in Northville.

Dr. Bruce H. Douglas, superintendent of the Maybury sanatorium, was elected third vice-president of the club.

CHICKEN DINNER.

Anticipating the approach of Mother's Day the ladies of Our Lady of Victory church will give Northville folks the chance to take Mother out to dinner next Sunday, May 1, at the church basement. It will be a chicken dinner with some of those light fluffy biscuits floating in gravy. The public is invited to take the family to dinner for the small sum of 50 cents a plate.

Local Dentist Performs Feat

"Solid as the rock of Gibraltar" announced Dr. Paul R. Alexander as he pried around two particular front teeth of a patient the other day. Jack Blackburn was the patient and here is the interesting story of those two teeth.

Fourteen years ago when Jack was an active youngster, he was racing madly around the track on the school ground when he bumped headlong into another racing youngster running in the opposite direction. A terrible impact it was and Jack emerged with a bleeding mouth and two front teeth knocked out. One tooth was crooked backward and lay flat, hanging by the gum. The other Jack carried in his hand as he ran to his father.

Dr. Alexander was sitting sedately in the Masonic lodge when the summons came and within 25 minutes after the accident the young man was seated in the dentist's chair. The doctor shook his head doubtfully when he made the examination but, saying to himself "Such things have been done, and I'll do my best—this kid's too young for false teeth"—he went at his job.

The teeth hanging by a mere thread he pushed back into place and wired it fast. Tooth Number 2 was a different problem but the periodontal membrane was still alive.

Stirring up the blood clot and washing out the cavity gently with a mild saline solution, Dr. Alexander pushed the fallen tooth down where it belonged and wired it securely. Young Jack was "game" but he says he can remember that feeling even now.

Mother Nature was on her job too, and both teeth are going strong. With these two grinders Jack has given digested four years of boarding house fare at the university. He even underwent a rigorous orthodontic treatment in the meantime. These may be the last he will have to part with in years to come. "When the sound of the grinders is looked upon as a nuisance," said Dr. Alexander with pride at his handiwork in such a case as is very rare in dental history.

Parents Discuss Scout Activities
Discussing subjects of vital interest to parents, 22 mothers and fathers gathered in the Scout council rooms on the school grounds Tuesday evening to talk over the purposes and activities of Scouting with Boy Scout committee men, Commissioner Wm. Hodson and Scoutmasters Orlov G. Owen and Sidney Strong.

Short talks were given by the Rev. Frank N. Miner, Commissioner Hodson, and Scoutmaster Strong, following which the evening was given over to discussion over mutual problems of the relationship between Boy Scout work and bringing up adolescent boys.

PLYMOUTH DISTRICT OUTDOOR RALLY IS SUCCESSFUL EVENT

Plymouth district's first outdoor Boy Scout rally, held Saturday afternoon at the Northville Fair grounds, was a picturesque cross-section of Scouting and its various activities as displayed by over 200 youths from Northville, Plymouth, Rosedale, Gardes, Newburg and the Wayne County Training school. Rosedale Gardens troop I carried off the honors of the day totalling 212 and a half points in the various Scout contests which were held Northville troop 2, with 195 points, won second place and Northville troop I captured third place with 187 and a half points.

Scoutmasters in charge of the events were: Richard Loomis, Wayne County Training school; Orlov G. Owen, Northville; Sidney Strong, Ernest Henry, Loren Ralston, Plymouth; L. B. Church, Rosedale Gardens; and a scoutmaster from Newburg.

Keen rivalry between the troops was evidenced as their teams fought for honors in the individual and team events. A fairly large crowd watched the activities enjoyed fully the first outdoor exhibition offered by the Plymouth district.

District Commissioner Wm. Hodson, of Rosedale Gardens, under whose direction the entire affair was planned, stated that he was pleased with the smooth functioning of the Scouts and termed the display as "exceptionally successful."

After the conclusion of the rally, the Scouts packed their dinner campfires and some of them pitched their tents on the hill overlooking the fair grounds and camped for the night, returning to their homes the following day.

The Forester said meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. Turham Thursday evening, May 3. Members are requested to invite any friends to enjoy with them a social and business evening.

CLEAN UP VACANT LOTS, ASKS SNOW

Dr. L. W. Snow, Northville village president, has requested that residents take the opportunity during the Clean-Up Week, May 2 through May 9 inclusive, to clear the vacant lots and alleys of Northville thoroughly.

Street Commissioner Earl Montgomery and his workmen are preparing to pick up receptacles placed on the curbs of the village who take the Spring Clean-Up campaign and their civic pride seriously.

Concerted action by owners of vacant lots in cleaning up the various eyesores that take away from the beauty of Northville is especially requested and it is felt that only by the cooperation of everyone in Northville will the campaign be a success.

DEATH CALLS FOUR CITIZENS IN PAST WEEK

The loss by death of four of Northville's substantial citizens, Chas. H. Johnson, who passed away Friday, April 22; Thomas E. Murdock, and Wm. Tousey, who were called Tuesday, and A. K. Dolph, who died Wednesday, has dealt this community a severe blow.

Respected and loved by their fellow citizens, these four will not soon be forgotten. Their lives were wholesome examples of simple honesty and service to their community. Their obituaries are given below.

Thomas E. Murdock, A. K. Dolph, C. H. Johnson, Wm. Tousey Called

For 27 years Northville's village clerk, passed away at his home on Tuesday, April 26.

Thomas E. Murdock

Another well-known business man passed quickly into the other room of life Tuesday morning. With the exception of being in rather poor health for the past two weeks, Mr. Murdock was going about his duties in his usual way. He was up about the house Tuesday morning and planning to go to his work at the Northville Drug company when he was suddenly stricken with a fatal heart attack.

Thomas Murdock was born in Indianapolis, Ind., September 2, 1875. His parents were Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Murdock. Thomas was a graduate of the Ypsilanti high school and later of the University of Michigan in 1894, when he came to Northville in the following year with his brother, Chas. R. Stevens, which the two brothers started over later and operated the store known for years as the "Murdock Brothers Drug Store." It is a remarkable fact that during the entire past, thirty-eight years, Mr. Murdock has been identified with this same store for twenty-five of these years, never failing to open it in the morning and close it at night. During this time many people came to know this rather quiet, reserved, yet kindly man. His patrons he was always generous and amiable. "People liked him," says one.

Selling his active interest in Lawrence Johnson in 1919, he continued in the store and ten years ago when L. C. Stewart took over the business Mr. Murdock remained his faithful assistant. Of him Mr. Stewart says, "He was always on the job. It was a pleasure to work with him. His friendship with the late Beech Northrop and Floyd Northrop were of long-standing. Only last Sunday morning he enjoyed a fine ride about the village with his friend, Geo. W. Hillis, when he expressed his pleasure thus, 'I have seen more of Northville this morning than I have for years.'"

Mr. Murdock has been closely identified with village affairs all the time of his residence in Northville. In 1902 he was elected village clerk and held that office for 27 years.

As a member of the Fair association he saw the institution grow from a tented exhibit to the splendid equipment now in use. He held the office of vice president of the Fair association practically since its beginning.

Mr. Murdock has had a useful career in Masonry for he became a Master Mason in May, 1908 and served as Master of the Lodge in 1910. During 1905 he became a Knight Templar and was twice chosen Eminent Commander. He was also an officer in the O. E. S.

Another outstanding activity was his management of the first Bell Telephone exchange in Northville. Mr. Murdock was twice married. Miss Ina Blackburn and Thomas E. Murdock were united in marriage April 21, 1897. To them were born two daughters, Mrs. Lydia Ely and Miss Margaret Murdock. Mrs. Murdock died May 27, 1911.

On September 2, 1917, Mr. Murdock was married to Mrs. Cora Bass of Adrian, to whose children by a former marriage he became a veritable father. They are Sherman and Clauson Murdock. Mrs. Helen Hernek and Miss Cora Acy's two grandchildren, Lewis Hernek and little Margaret Louise Ely were also cherished by Mr. Murdock.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon at the home with the Masons in charge and a Commandery escort. Rev. H. G. Whitfield officiated. Interment was made in Highland cemetery, Ypsilanti.

Augustus K. Dolph

Augustus K. Dolph, long time Northville resident, died Wednesday morning in the University hospital following a major abdominal operation performed one week ago.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB SINGS AT ROTARY

Northville Rotarians and guests enjoyed a delightful program at their noonday luncheon meeting on Tuesday when the high school Boys' Glee club, directed by Leslie G. Lee, sang for them with unusual artistry for a group of this kind.

The singers were really "going to school" in view of the fact that the time devoted to their appearance was a school demonstration hour, such as they are having in preparation for their going to the district meet at Ypsilanti Friday, May 6.

One of the unusual features of the boys' singing was the fact that it gave a demonstration of the rare ability of Ernest Racz, a member of the club to take the place of an accompanist for the boys. Ernest, according to Director Lee, has absolute pitch, something not often found and certainly the way the lads sang after he "started them off" was remarkable in some of the numbers. Miss Frances Alexander acted as accompanist, filling the place most capably.

The Rotarians were greatly pleased with the splendid entertainment. Mr. Lee is to be congratulated on his success in developing the talents of these young men.

Father Jos G. Schuler presided and after the singing by the club Rev. W. Roscoe Barbour was heard in an interesting short talk. Guests were Dr. H. S. Willis, Rev. H. G. Whitfield, Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston and Jas. Spagnuolo.

ONLY 85% OF SIGNED AGREEMENTS NEEDED TO OPEN BANK HERE

Northville's "chances for a new bank, through the merger of our two closed ones, were greatly increased by the action of Governor Wilbur M. Brucker last Saturday, in signing the law, passed in special session of the legislature which requires only 85 per cent of signatures of depositors, for the opening of closed banks. The depositors' agreements which have been signed here would have required 95 per cent.

Signed agreements continue to come into the Lapham and Northville State banks in large numbers. Yesterday at noon both banks had agreements in their vaults representing between 80 and 85 per cent of their total deposits. In view of local conditions, this is regarded as a very good showing.

Mr. Murdock has had a useful career in Masonry for he became a Master Mason in May, 1908 and served as Master of the Lodge in 1910. During 1905 he became a Knight Templar and was twice chosen Eminent Commander. He was also an officer in the O. E. S.

PLUCKY NORTHVILLE WOMAN DRIVES CAR WITH BROKEN ARM

While returning to Northville from Florida recently, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Potts' car turned over in a ditch when the trailer swayed and struck them. Mrs. Potts suffered a broken arm, but after first aid, pluckily held to the wheel with her left hand for 40 miles until they reached Valdezia, Ga., where they were met by their son.

They are now at their home on the corner of Dunlap and High streets. Their winter was spent in the sunshine of Holly Hill, Fla.

BACK FROM CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Smock. Seven Mile road returned Tuesday from their winter's stay at Redondo Beach, Calif. They were eight days gone, their last fall and seven and a half in coming back. Business conditions on the coast are bad, said Mr. Smock but not so serious as in this area.

LEGIONNAIRES FAVOR BONUS.
American Legion posts of both Plymouth and Northville have held local votes on the proposed payment of bonus which was resulted in overwhelming victory in favor of the payment.

The Myron Beals post of Plymouth, voted on Friday, April 15, for the payment by 19 to one and the Lloyd Green post of Northville passed a similar motion on Tuesday by a vote of 34 to four.

Reporting of Fires by Telephone Aids Greatly in Cutting Losses, Reports Fire Local Chief

More fires are reported by telephone to the Northville fire department than by any other means, according to Fred Hicks, fire chief. That serves to reduce the fire loss that otherwise would be sustained, by many thousands of dollars, he says, declaring that the time saved in telephoning an alarm results in quicker arrival of the fire fighting apparatus and crews. Generally the arrival of the department at the scene of a conflagration is a matter of only a very few moments after the telephoned report is received, which may mean the difference between slight damage and almost total loss of the property.

Urging that the person reporting a fire by telephone do so in a calm, clear voice, giving the street address, location, nature of the fire, and other essential information as quickly as possible, Chief Hicks says that the Michigan Bell Telephone company cooperates with the department closely.

THEATRE IS JAMMED AT FREE SHOW

Approximately 2,000 People Come to Northville Wednesday

"Packing" featured the Northville Merchants' Free Show Wednesday evening. The theatre was packed with people and the picture, "Lost Squadron," was packed with thrills. Close to 2,000 people jammed the doors of the theatre, struggling to get in and join the happy throng enjoying one of the finest pictures of the year.

"The crowd this week, I believe," announced Chief of Police Wm. H. Safford, who capably handled the traffic, "was the largest that has so far been entertained at the theatre." As usual, an orderly group of people appeared at the theatre doors long before the opening hour and at 8:35 p. m. it was found necessary to close the doors. At the second show, which started at 9 o'clock, it seemed almost as though no more people could be jammed into the theatre. Every point of vantage was taken up by the eager audience which had waited patiently, unable to get into the first show, for the second show.

The feature, starring Richard Dix in "The Lost Squadron," was thoroughly exciting. An aviation picture, packing all of the customary thrills and a few extra thrown in for good measure, was enjoyed by every one of those present. Additional features were a "Chick" Sales comedy and an animated cartoon.

Saturday's picture at the show will be "The Cannonball Express," featuring Tom Moore and Lucille Brown with special short subjects and comedies.

DOLLAR AND A QUARTER A WEEK

Talked the other day to a college boy who is putting himself through school and to our amazement he told us that he and some other young men were getting their own meals and doing it at a cost of one dollar and twenty-five cents a week for each. The figure seemed unbelievable until we had checked it two or three times. It just goes to show that young men with a will will find a way, depression or no depression.

WHAT "BINGO" BROWN SAID

We just wish that every man in and around Northville who believes in this community and its future could have heard "Bingo" Brown, dean of men of Michigan State Normal College, talk to the "N" club of the high school and guests last Friday evening. They would have new faith in each other.

Athletic teams fail unless they have a spirit of team work and loyalty, the state boxing commissioner told that eager group of boys and their dads. He drove this point home with a zeal that greatly impressed his hearers. How true it is! Team work and loyalty—the elements that build a school and the qualities that build a community!

If all the leaders of Northville would show a spirit of team work and loyalty, you simply couldn't stop this town. Doesn't it appeal to you to have a community that works together with a will and a vision for a better day?

THE BILL PAYERS

It is no disgrace these days not to pay your bills promptly. Conditions which have literally trapped many people make it impossible for them to pay all they owe when it is due. This is a hard situation but the economic conditions have brought it about. For the person caught in this mesh of trouble one must have all the sympathy in the world.

On the other hand, there are many people who are on salary or whose income is certain who can pay their bills "on the dot" and in many cases are doing so. This class of fortunate individuals can be of immense service now when every dollar that is passed around does even more than double duty. Their prompt payment of obligations brings help and good cheer to those who are battling to meet their bills and the man or woman who can pay now and does so is more than ever a patriotic citizen. Every dollar put in motion now is going to help bring back that happy day when bill paying will be done with promptness and cheerfulness.

MOVING TIME

This writer's family is moving today into another home. Maybe that doesn't appeal to you but we are getting a "kick" out of it. We have moved around so much that another shift is just all in the "day's work." A rolling stone gathers no moss but it gets a mighty fine polish.

Here is why we are enjoying this move. We have been looking for a fireplace and here we have it. Fireplaces may look foolish to some folks but our family gets a lot of substantial satisfaction out of one. If we made the rules of the land we should have one in every home that could possibly get fuel to keep one going. Then we wanted some trees and a little land and here in this new home we have it. We never could see why folks build houses so closely in a town like this where land is plentiful (if not cheap.) Then we wanted a "view" and if you will come down some morning for breakfast we will show you a view over the valley that will thrill you. So all in all, we are enjoying this moving business. Can you blame us?

BRIGHT SPOTS

Saturday morning had several bright spots. Perhaps the best one was that a man came in the office all smiles. "Well at last I have a job," he said and even though he had been without work for several months he paid for his Record subscription, which alone was enough to make us smile. While we have never known what it was to be without work, we did go for one whole year, just trying to buy a newspaper in Michigan, and that gave us a lot of sympathy for the man who wants to work and can't find anything to do.

Another bright spot was that not a soul all forenoon came in to talk depression or complain about banks. In fact all the callers who dropped in had good cheer on their faces.

A third item of optimism was that we needed some money to meet the pay roll and we got it. Sent out our good friend "A. J." Schwenger to make some collections and he came back grinning—and with the money in both fists.

Finally a good friend came in and said, "Well, Dick, it's a good world, anyway." That is just what we have been trying to say for some time and it did us good to have someone else steal our thunder. Then another good friend, who met our brother Howard, who was here Friday, met us and said: "You ought to be proud of such a fine brother." Well we are.

THE FIVE-DAY WEEK

President Hoover suggests the five-day working week as one of the means to bring the country out of the economic doldrums.

The strange hold of the machine age may bring it about that men will work only five days instead of the traditional six days or even five and a half. We have more men than work and the five-day plan may make it possible to so divide the work that all will have a chance to be productive.

If we get the five-day week what will men do with the added leisure time? There is a big problem. Some men do not know what to do with leisure time any more than they know how to care for extra money that comes with times of great prosperity. If our society is to have men free for a part of the week, ways and means will have to be found to keep these men busy with something aside from their regular work. Just to let men loaf and do nothing will not solve the problem. Some men are smart enough to use their extra time to develop themselves but the vast majority will need some guidance in finding the best use of these leisure days.

If the five-day week comes to Northville we can think of nothing finer than a home and a little land for every such worker. Personally we should like nothing more than five days of work and one day of change a week on a little "ranch" where one could grow his trees and plants and do something to help build a beautiful community.

WANDERING THOUGHTS

The great trouble with our tax situation is that our budgets were built for prosperous times when it didn't matter much whether one's taxes were one hundred dollars or two hundred. Now that "there are no rich" as Chas. M. Schwab, the steel king points out, we are finding that all our governmental units are costing too much money. Just as one example, Editor Vernon J. Brown of Mason points out that not only does the warden of Jackson prison get a fine salary but he lives in a luxurious house, for which the state "pays the shot." The tax payers are in the mood now to cut down some of these luxuries.

Do you appreciate good neighbors? We do. That is the kind we always seem to have. No one worries about our dog, Buster (can you find anything more loyal than a dog?) for neighbors on two sides have their own canines and then too the neighbors put up with patience with the misdoings of ourselves and our "kids." That is fine. But speaking of neighbors, what has become of the old-fashioned idea of calling on people? Guess we are all so busy—or think we are—to take time to be sociable.

You can't do anything better tonight than to attend the band concert. We're proud of our band and of Director Head and Manager E. W. Lyke. Depression hasn't touched our band.

A successful business man lived 30 years in one town and we just read in the paper where he said this:

"For more than thirty years in this community I have never known a firm to fail that had used newspaper advertising consistently and intelligently. I have noted many failures directly traceable to a business policy that excluded newspaper advertising."

Isn't it so?

Who admires the man with a "chip on his shoulder?"

No one will help Northville if we don't help ourselves. Our future lies in our own hands. That's something to think about.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

Do you do your own thinking?

Every Monday Morning
By "AD" SCHWENGER

Northville lacks a sense of humor. In my own imbecilic manner, I can find lots of things to laugh at every day.

For instance, when anyone says, "Things are terrible, I droop my head and shed a few tears. Let me eat up like a horse (gained 15 lbs. last year) sleeping each night like a dead man, spending more money than I've got, and in general having one hell of a good time."

Yet I sob pitifully the minute I hear the word Depression.

What a laugh!

There are so many things worth while, it's tough to find something to laugh at in the present situation.

I wonder how many other morose beings myself there are in this town?

Frank Simpson and son, Joseph, have returned to work at the Ford Rouge plant.

ment that come with knowing that they'd go a long way for me. Money? Bah!

I couldn't have any more fun, pleasure or whatever you call it with more shekels or coin of the realm.

I've been honored by being asked to take part in a local play.

Say, if I can't have more genuine enjoyment out of rehearsing the part of a Hebrew advertising solicitor than all of the money in the world could provide me, then I'm Queen Marie of Roumania.

I'm going to play indoor baseball with a lot of fellows on a corner lot tomorrow morning. They don't know me and I don't know only one of them.

Yes, we'll play in a spirit of earnestness, born of love of the game, and we'll have more healthy fun than all of the yachts, gold, jewels, or other valuables anyone could give us.

It would take a guy with my morose sensibilities to find something to laugh at in the present situation.

I wonder how many other morose beings myself there are in this town?

Frank Simpson and son, Joseph, have returned to work at the Ford Rouge plant.

"GET THIS RIGHT, CASEY - 103,500 MILES"

An Interview by
ROBERT J. CASEY
Chicago Daily News Reporter

Carroll Edgren, insurance man of 230 Earl St., St. Paul—tells Casey how to drive 103,500 miles with minor repair bills.

CARROLL EDGREN, insurance man, stood beside his Pontiac parked in front of his St. Paul home, to add 40,500 and 63,000 and note that they totaled 103,500.

"That's not the census of the Twin Cities," he said as he displayed the result to the inquiring reporter. "It's my mileage on Iso-Vis Motor Oil. . . . And I'll bet the cars in last year's road tests never came anywhere near that figure."

"It's all Iso-Vis mileage?" demanded the reporter.

Mr. Edgren nodded.

"All of it," he stated with some emphasis. "The 40,500 miles is on the speedometer of the Pontiac right here. The other 63,000 was the total on my other Pontiac when I turned it in. I figure I've covered the entire 103,500 miles in a little more than four years."

"And what was the performance of the cars in all that driving?"

"I'd tell you in a minute if it wasn't A-1. But my upkeep bills have been so low that I'm almost ashamed to sell insurance to a mechanic."

"I started to use Iso-Vis the first day it was put on the market in St. Paul. My friend at the filling station gave me a sales talk on it and I took it for what it was worth. Then my repair bills began to give me a sales talk and I've stuck to it ever since. You can quote me on that if you want to. And get the total right—103,500 miles."

Mr. Edgren's 103,500 trouble-free miles prove again what Iso-Vis has demonstrated in laboratory tests and in A.A.A. tests on the Indianapolis Speedway—Positive Lubrication Protection. Iso-Vis (a Standard Oil product) will not thin out from dilution. See the Ball and Bottle Test at Standard Oil stations and dealers.

THE AMERICAN LEGION

(By Lisle Alexander of the Legion News)

A rather small turn-out at the last meeting but some large things were attended to in a short time and the evening was turned over to Comrade Yerkes. Bob had his movie machine and some very interesting reels of pictures taken in Alaska. Everybody enjoyed the show.

The Poppy committee for this year was named. It consists of Comrades Kalesky, Yerkes and Ralph Altenburg.

The Memorial Day committee named includes Comrades Peters, H. G. White and Bolton. We are expecting an invitation from Joseph Schuler to attend Memorial Sunday services in his church.

Our next objective is the Poppy sale and Memorial Day. Let's all get on our toes and make these two events the usual success.

This Week

By R. H. White

The other day I heard an eminent lecturer say that "it is hardly necessary to state that the natural goodness of man is as unpsychological as that of his total depravity."

I little remember what else he said, but this so impressed me that I have been thinking about the fact that today we are coming more and more to talk about man in less general sweeping and arbitrary statements.

We are considering more and more the fact that some men are better than others by virtue of their natures and their achievements. And it is equally true that others are relatively worse.

Up to the present thinkers and philosophers have been emphasizing in what ways mankind is similar. The leaders in these researches today and the future are emphasizing in what respects are men different. Thus psychologists are working on tests by which differences may be graded and classified as to man's inferiority and superiority. It is a little early to generalize on the results of these intelligence tests, but we may well expect that the findings on democratic dogma will be most illuminating and far-reaching.

Goodness, that is, the possession of a high intelligence, because goodness is fundamentally intelligent behavior. There are so many of us and social impulses and desires. There are infinite and animal traits, and savage outbursts. Unless these are repressed in adequate fashion and controlled by effective habit-patterns and good constructive living there is quite apt to be trouble. Thus from the raw material of such anti-social traits each individual must construct a personality by which he can become a free moral agent in civilization, and this can only be accomplished by controlling himself.

Christopher Morley in a "ferry, challenging book, has brought the 'Swiss Family Robinson' up-to-date in a book of his own entitled the 'Swiss Family Manhattan.' The story is written in very beautiful prose style and has an intimate charm and fantastic quality. It is nothing finer for cleaning painted walls and woodwork, rugs, porches, tile, etc.

an amusing and light-hearted extravaganza with perfectly superb satire. It has subtle charm, is a very penetrating cross-section of our American life as lived today in our larger cities.

The story itself deals with the mad and utterly delightful excursion and adventure that a little Swiss clerk and his family take in a druggable. The ship gets wrecked atop the "populous perpendicular" of the Empire State Building amid a "wilderness of howling natives." Here they land in New York City among the yelp of horns, the roar of power, the sucking hum of rubber tires, the murmur of a thousand voices. The little clerk in his delightful bewilderment and perplexity cries out: "O God, in the great rotations of Thy will spare these blessed pagans nor taint them with the malady of thought! Never, never civilize them and so destroy their charm."

NORTHVILLE WINS FIRST LEAGUE GAME

Last Friday the Northville baseball nine walked away with the first league game of the season which was played with Berkley. The score was Northville 18, Berkley 4.

It was a fine day for base ball and both teams were "faring to go." As an additional influence, Walter Ware offered a new bat to the player who hit the first home run. There were no home runs in the game but the bat was given to Herbert Berndt who ran the bases because of Berkley's errors. We hope that the new bat will bring many home runs in the following games.

All of the team did very well although the large score was probably due to Berkley's numerous errors. Northville made only one error. Hill pitched the whole game and it was a fine game that he pitched. This is Hill's first year in base ball and he is doing remarkably well.

Friday Northville plays Farmington, here. Northville has started her season to victory and we hope that everyone will be present to see her continue. When? Friday, April 29.

Line up (batting order): Northville: Lemmon, c. Brown, 2b. Beasley, ss. Westphall, 2b. Sullivan, 1b. Berendt, 3b. Ware, 1b. Hill, p. Berkley: Coffey, ss. Brown, 2b. Grober, cf. Mitchell, 1b. Rakas, 1b. Wilbur, 3b. Cook, 1b. Hughes, p.

Subs for Northville: Kohner for Beasley, Deal for Berendt, Neal for Ware.

SENIOR HIGH ASSEMBLY

The weekly assembly meeting held Tuesday, April 26, was very much of the ordinary. Besides the usual procedure of announcements, a program by the students of Northville High School was presented. This program was put on to keep the interest of the students in the school. Many schools have given up base ball and from the ones given Wednesday we gathered that our school will have to wait more season tickets are sold.

A program, in charge of Donson, was opened after an hour of very talk, by the treasurer's report, the athletic association's report, Beach, from this report we learned that funds were around $100.00. Next a radio play giving by play account of one of the village high school games presented under the direction of Mr. Van Valkenburg, president of the Freshman class.

Mr. Fraser, president of the pre class, gave a short talk on "The Future of the School." Christensen, president of the class, presented us with a paper on "Backing the School," giving base ball and the J-Hop. Mr. Bob is the head, was the idea of this short speech.

Van Atta, president of the class, talked upon the subject of "Spirit." These talks, Mr. Amerman, we emphasize upon the backing the base ball team, we seem that after these "sessions" everyone in school is "chuck full" of school spirit should support the team most of his ability.

Y GIVES TALK BEFORE S. HISTORY CLASS

Day Mrs. Ray came before the students of the United States history class and gave a description of her trip to the canal. From what Mrs. Ray said we can imagine the vast and huge. This retaking of engineering is comprehensible. As she the beauty of the tropical waters and the richness of the people is in the wonder of such I really thought ourselves present at all this wonder.

was certainly a success an idea across to the we're sure that all who wished that they might see a trip.

SCHOOL PUPILS PLANT TREE ARBOR DAY

Carrying out the advice of the sage who said "Go, plant a tree!" the pupils of the elementary grades gathered on Arbor Day in front of the building occupied by the Kindergarten and Superintendent's office. Here, with due ceremony they planted a fine elm tree six or seven feet tall. The tree was presented by T. Glenn Phillips and his little daughter, Barbara, of the sixth grade, was honored by placing the tree in the hole which had been dug by Janitor Horsefall. A number of the boys were glad to help fill in the soil around the roots and all the children seemed to enjoy the occasion.

To make the planting of trees and beautifying the world a patriotic act, the children, all sang "My Country 'Tis of Thee" during the ceremony directed by Leslie G. Lee. Two pupils, Pat McLaughlin and Katherine Biery, made patriotic speeches. Miss Hawkins planned the exercises. Even the older students observed the significance of the day by meeting in the assembly and holding appropriate exercises. Appearing on the program were Miss Elizabeth and John, who were the speakers, and Miss Evelyn Ambler, Miss Elizabeth Wright was the director of the observance.

KING'S DAUGHTERS ADD TO FUNDS BY A CARD PARTY

The King's Daughters are feeling much gratified in the pleasing results of their Benefit Bridge given at the high school gym last Thursday afternoon. Thirty-six tables played and there were other guests who were glad to just enjoy looking on.

Four tables, especially ambitious, played contract bridge. While six tables played rubber bridge. All the rest played auction bridge. Aside from the financial gain, a very pleasant social time was enjoyed. Each table received a prize and Mrs. Fannie Schaeffer received a door prize. A dainty buffet luncheon was served.

Mrs. Geo. Stalker and Mrs. Chas. A. Dolph each had reserved tables for special guests.

Mrs. Harry Blake was chairman of the following committee which worked hard to make the affair a success: Mrs. E. C. Hinkley, Mrs. LeRoy Stewart, Mrs. L. C. Stewart, Mrs. Ray Richardson, Mrs. Geo. Hills, Mrs. C. B. Turnbull and Mrs. Scott Lovell. This committee feels especially grateful to Hills' meat market for meat for sandwiches, to the A. and P. grocery for coffee and to Dr. Cavell for cream and to all others who helped make the event successful.

Seventy-five dollars were cleared at this party, including the sale of a fine quilt presented by Mrs. Lily Angell.

J-HOP MAY 13

The social affair of the year has been set for Friday, May 13. Contrary to the unlucky atmosphere surrounding the date, it is going to be very lucky for those who attend, and to counteract the dark superstition always present, the decorations are to be those of a beautiful flower garden.

The committees have been named, the orchestra—and what an orchestra—has been secured, and plans are under way for the 1932 J-Hop—the biggest ever staged.

Everyone is looking forward to that eventful evening of May 13, when all will be dancing to the exquisite music of Russ White's orchestra, among the beautiful flowers and lights of the flower garden. Take the advice of the general committee, you young gentlemen, and wear your flannels! It is socially correct you know.

Besides all this, as an added attraction, of the special low price of $1.50 per couple. Of course it will be agreed by all that this is cheap for such an affair.

This dance, which is attracting state-wide attention (it was in the society section of the Detroit News) is sure to win untold local recognition.

The committees and their chairmen, which have been appointed by president Robert Christensen, and are being supervised by the general committee of President Christensen, Gertrude Deal and Florence Johnson, are as follows:

Orchestra—Harold McCordle, chairman; Charles Dusenbury, Monroe Weston, Mrs. Wright.

Decorations—Miriam Dundas, chairman; Howard Latta, Dorothy Shoebright, Robert Power, Mary Jane Junod, Louis Campbell, Marie Humphries, Leo Kohler.

Publicity—Warner Neal, chairman; Richard Shipley, Robert Reed, John Steenchen.

Invitations—Wilma Rattenbruy, chairman; Gertrude Sedan, Myrtle Lemmon.

Refreshments—Madeline Haysead, chairman; Mary Bennett, Margaret Hay.

Tickets—Melvin Sterner, chairman; Lynn Mathews, Mrs. Cobb, Chas. O. Ronald, Beasley, chairman; Albert Lowry, Edith Clark, Charlotte Lester.

Mrs. Louise Safford, Mrs. Mary Stewart and Mrs. Lida Murphy attended the funeral of Mrs. Beal at Plymouth last week.

HOUSECLEANING HINTS.

From Home Economics Specialists in Michigan State College come the following timely hints:

For cleaning walls, one cup of sal soda, one cup of ammonia, one cup of vinegar, and one gallon of warm water are required. The solution is used with a sponge, and rinsed with another sponge, and clear water. If there are any spots on the walls, small amounts of equal parts of thoroughly mixed borax, gold dust, and corn meal placed on a damp cloth and then rubbed on the spots will usually remove them entirely.

Take one-quarter pound beeswax, one pound paraffin, one quart of linseed oil, and one quart of turpentine. Melt the beeswax and the paraffin, add the linseed oil and turpentine, and stir the mixture vigorously. Unfinished wood will be darkened somewhat by this wax as a result of the absorption of the linseed oil. Turpentine is highly inflammable and care must therefore be taken in making the wax to heat the ingredients only by setting them in hot water and to have no flames in the room.

Was it a dream or a reality, sitting there last Sunday in that quiet little country church beside the red-headed brother of our youth while we listened as of old to our own father's voice from the pulpit?

We had met by appointment, this brother and I at our father's home in Albion and found on his door this note, "I am preaching in 'C' Back at noon" flapping into one car we sped toward the little town and cautiously tip-toed in turn into three vestibules of churches before we finally heard the familiar voice we were looking for. Into the back seat we slipped in time to hear the latter part of the sermon, whose gestures and expressions had been meat and drink of youth.

We may have heard greater speakers in the intervening years but it is certain that we have never heard anyone whose utter sincerity shone more brightly through the words he said. As we pushed open the door he was saying, "Hope thou in God"—"Hope, in these days of dim uncertainty, that was what this venerable man of 86 years of sunshine and storms was saying to his hungry hearers "Hope on"—and no one would have guessed as he looked at the sweet serenity of that face crowned with its halo of white hair that in his heart right then he was carrying two of the heaviest loads.

MRS. HILLS' WORK PRAISED AT CONTEST

Mrs. George Hills was honored at a contest in the Ann Arbor Association of Hair Dressers recently held in Ann Arbor when one of her pupils in the Hills School of Beauty Culture was awarded one of the four silver cups for the finest work. Forty-four models were on exhibition and the artistic work of Miss Helen Fitzmaur was recognized as among the four best. Miss Fitzmaur will be remembered by many Northville women who ap-possible for man to carry as with a smile he sent those folks forth to meet life with hope.

PECAN CAKE

The following delicious cake was eaten—every crumb of it—at the recent pot-luck luncheon of the Woman's club. The one who made it very modestly declines to have her name given, asking to have it signed: "A King's Daughter"

Cream well together 1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup butter, add 1 cup sour milk or buttermilk, 1 1/2 cups flour sifted with 1 rounding teaspoon baking powder and 1/2 teaspoon soda, salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla. Beat whites of eggs and add yolk of one and beat together well. Add to batter and bake in 3 layers.

FILLING

1/2 cup sweet milk or cream, 1 cup sugar. If milk is used add a little butter. Boil till thick. Have ready chopped pecan nuts and add. Few drops vanilla and maple flavoring. When thick spread on cake.

YOUR HOUSE OF HAPPINESS

By B. Y. Williams

Take what God gives O heart of mine. And build your house of happiness. Perchance some have been given more, But many have been given less. The treasure lying at your feet. Whose value you but faintly guess. Another builder looking on, Would rather heaven to possess.

Have you found work that you can do? Is there a heart that loves you best? Is there a spot somewhere called home? Where, spent and worn, your soul may rest? A friendly tree? A look? A song? A dog that loves your hands in caress?

A store of health to meet life's needs? Oh build your house of happiness! Trust not tomorrows dawn to bring. The dreamed-of joy for which you wait. You have enough or pleasant things. To house your soul in godly state. Tomorrow Time's relentless stream. May bear what now you have away.

Take what God gives, O heart, and build. Your house of happiness today. Preciated her work for them while she was here under Mrs. Hills' instruction. She is now employed at the League Beauty Shop in the League building, Ann Arbor.

In congratulating Mrs. Hills on the success of her pupil, Carl Clark, president of the State Board of Cosmetology, said "Everywhere I go I see the fruits of your labor. We are always glad to have those you have trained in our groups of workers."

Mrs. Nelly Barry was a Detroit visitor Monday.

MOTHERS SEE DAUGHTERS PARADE IN ANNUAL HIGH SCHOOL FASHION SHOW

Over twenty dainty damsels wearing gowns of their own making tripped gracefully across the stage of the high school auditorium last Thursday afternoon at their annual Fashion Show given by the high school seniors of the domestic science department directed by their teacher, Mrs. Mildred Zimmermann. An audience of mothers and friends looked on in loving criticism.

Such a bewildering bevy of loveliness! Gowns of all hues were shown, from brilliant reds to dainty blues and shimmering blacks. The styles were as varied as the colors, suiting the individual tastes of the young seamstresses. No two were alike. All were silk, afternoon dresses about eleven inches from the floor. All were in good style and well made, and those looking on never guessed the hours of toil spent by many a girl in making her first dress.

EBONY ETHEL WATERS RE-TURNS TO THE LAFAYETTE THEATRE, DETROIT

Next Sunday Night, May 1, for a Limited Engagement.

Although they say opportunity knocks but once at everyone's door, the return engagement of Ethel Waters in Lew Leslie's highly successful revue, "Rhapsody in Black" to the Lafayette Theatre, Detroit, next Sunday night, May 1, for a limited engagement is a heady feat. That saying, "This is the fourth engagement within three months has been made possible only through difficulties encountered by Lew Leslie in arranging for labor permits to allow Ethel Waters and other members of the "Rhapsody in Black" company to enter France, which was to have been the starting point of a European tour.

"Rhapsody in Black" was scheduled to have opened at the Pringle Theatre, Paris, in June, to be followed by engagements at London, Berlin and Vienna, as Lew Leslie, co-producer of the show, with his other colored shows, "The Plantation Revue" and the famous "Blackbirds."

But to return to the opportunity, which is in reality an opportunity for those who missed seeing "Rhapsody in Black" during its three record-breaking engagements at the City Theatre. This time it will return to the Lafayette Theatre, giving all those who missed seeing through an evening of entrancing melodies and lightning speed, another chance to see this remarkable colored revue.

A new Ethel Waters emerges in "Rhapsody in Black," an Ethel Waters who has forsaken hot numbers for dramatic song punctuated with the rich humor of her race. Critics have rightly called her "the Ruth Draper of the Negro stage."

In addition to Ethel Waters, the original New York supporting cast includes Valaida, the Berry Brothers, Cecil Mack's Choir, Dusty Fletcher, Florence Hill, Blue McAllister, Geneva Washington, Avis Andrews, Eloise Uggams and many others, not forgetting the Pike Davis Continental Orchestra.

KING'S DAUGHTERS' FIND WELFARE NEEDS DECLINING SLOWLY

Mrs. W. H. Safford, who has for five or six years successfully conducted her duty as chairman of the visiting committee of the King's Daughters, reports that local conditions seem somewhat improved judging by the fact that she had only 28 calls for help as compared with 36 of the previous week. She says that the supply barrels placed in the various stores have proved of great help in filling the needs of many families. It has been true to be able to go to these barrels for food needed for calls and the continued patronage of those trading is earnestly requested.

Attention of the public is called to the fact that the headquarters for the free distribution of the buns has been changed from the village warehouse to the store room below Babbitt's hardware, formerly occupied by the "Cave" cafe. The buns are brought fresh each Wednesday and someone will be in charge of these on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons. Those needing them are very welcome to these supplies.

Rogers has never been funnier than he is in this excellent adaptation of Booth Tarkington's best selling novel, "The Philocrat." He starts the picture with a laugh, and works up to a climax of hilarity which will send the audience from the theatre still laughing.

In this production Rogers, in the role of a Middle-Western business man touring abroad for pleasure and business, takes some nifty cracks at the small army of snobs who think it is sophisticated to sneer at everything American when they are in Europe.

Joel McCrea, as a sophisticated playright, undergoes a complete metamorphosis during the course of the picture, his sneers turning into vociferous cheers when he finally realizes the true worth of Earl Tucker, the character enacted by Rogers.

Jetta Goudal is a fascinating Parisienne, Dorothy Peterson is Rogers' nagging wife and Peggy Ross is his daughter. Boris Karloff does very well as a desert sheik. David Butler, who piloted Rogers successfully in "A Connecticut Yankee," again directed the star in "Business and Pleasure," and has done an even better job.

EQUAL CHANCE

Does everyone have an equal chance to succeed to make good? In some places, favoritism rules, ability is secondary or not even considered.

We not only hope but we know, that such is not the case in Northville. But unless everyone keeps up his end of the job, we are liable to fall into the trap.

However remote the possibility of such a thing might be, and here, it certainly is remote, we must always recognize the possibility and steer clear of it.

St. Paul's Lutheran

Leo C. Rickstaedt, pastor
220 Elm Street
GOD'S WELCOME

Anyone who turns from his evil way to God finds such a welcome as no human friend could ever extend. The prodigal son discovered this when he came back to his father in shame and humiliation and humbly confessed his sins. He father not only received him, he ran to meet him. We are EXPECTED when we come to Christ. God is never taken by surprise when anyone comes to Him. He has known in advance that one would come. He has made ready in advance. And whether it is the first time we have ever come to God, or the thousandth, God wants us to come, and He is glad when we come, if we only come in true repentance. We would not come unless He wanted us. We come only because of His wondrous drawing and winning and restoring power. So, friend, if you have strayed away like the prodigal son, you have left your Father's house, why not return today? Remember, you are EXPECTED.

MILFORD CLUB HAS VISIT FROM DON AND ROBT. YERKES

(From the Milford Times)

At its meeting Monday evening the Milford club went on record as being unanimously in favor of the plan and depositors' agreement for reorganizing the First State bank. When President H. L. Richardson called for a rising vote on the question all members present responded in the affirmative.

The club had the pleasure of a visit from Don P. Yerkes and his nephew, Robert G. Yerkes, both of Northville. The latter spoke briefly on efficiency plans that are being tried in several states. North Carolina, for instance, has abolished the township and the state has taken over the entire road system and the management of the public schools. In Indiana, said Mr. Yerkes, the law requires that each county and municipality prepare a yearly budget and that this budget be published. Then taxpayers have the right to question or object to any particular item and get a hearing. The Oregon system is somewhat a combination of the North Carolina and Indiana plans. Wisconsin has an employment insurance experiment that is being watched by other states.

R. G. Yerkes, by the way, is prominent among the several candidates for U. S. Congressman from the 17th district.

Don Yerkes, when called on, expressed his pleasure in meeting old friends and told some amusing experiences in ball games played while he was a resident of Milford many years ago. Mr. Yerkes was a pitcher of considerable note in those days, having played one season as a professional. He preferred the amateurs, however.

DEN BOWLERS END VICTORIOUS SEASON

Thursday evening, April 21, brought down the curtain on the Northville House bowling league's activities for the year when the Den Omnisvites defeated the Forney Coal Heavers in a close match.

Had the Coal Heavers won the last three games of the match, they would have been tied with the Omnisvites for first place in the league. Clifford P. LaFevre, ace bowler for the Omnisvites, won two out of the last three games, thus clinching the championship.

Members of the League championship team are: Clifford P. LaFevre, James Q. Green, Leroy Z. LaFevre, Alexander Modis and Nicholas Harvey. On the Forney Coal Heavers' team were: Wilford Forney, Jonathan Hanna, George Hicks, Arthur Mitchell and Albert Earhart.

Runners-up in the league were the Recreation Idle Hour club and the American Legion. Kayles. Charges of professionalism and the use of "tricks" were hotly denied by members of the league.

"We have consistently maintained our amateur standing," declared a member who desired that his name be withheld, "and we stand ready at all times to prove ourselves as amateur athletes."

Charles H. Johnson

Charles Harley Johnson passed away Friday, April 22, at his home on West street after a long battle for recovery.

Charles was the son of Harley and Rachael Johnson and was born February 18, 1901 on the old Johnson homestead three miles south-west of Northville. He was the grandson of early pioneers on both sides of the family. With the exception of a few years spent in the service of the U. S. navy Charles spent all of his life in this community where many friends regret his passing.

He was married on October 1, 1920 to Miss Gladys Ford and to this union was born one child, Betrice. Beside his widow and little daughter, a brother, Edward, an aunt, Mrs. Geo. A. Walters, of Detroit and a great-aunt, Mrs. F. J. Ford, of Richmond, Va.

Mr. Johnson joined the F. and A. M. lodge No. 186 in 1925 and became Worshipful Master during the year of 1930.

For a number of years he has been local manager of the Standard Oil Co., and had charge of the distribution of their products with headquarters in Northville. In his work he was always faithful and friendly and was highly regarded by many people for miles about the village.

Funeral services were held at the Schrader funeral home Monday afternoon with the Masonic lodge assisting. Rev. Wm. Richards in conducting. Interment was made in Rural Hill.

WILLIAM TOUSEY

William Tousey, life-long citizen of Salem township, passed away at his home four and one-half miles west of Northville on the Six Mile road Tuesday, April 26, at the age of 71 years. Mr. Tousey had been in rather poor health for some time and finally succumbed to an attack of pneumonia with which he was ill four days.

William Tousey was born at the old homestead in Salem township of good pioneer stock. His parents were Wm. H. and Mary Tousey, two brothers, Fred H. of Pasadena, Calif. and Francis J. of Wayne, who makes his home with her mother, are still living.

On April 12, 1888 he was married to Miss Carrie Hinkley. To them two children were born, one who died in infancy and Clarence H. now of Detroit. Mrs. Tousey passed away some years later and on Oct. 28, 1896, he was married to Miss Dora L. Smith, daughter of Martin Smith of Northville township. One child, Harold S. was born to them. He now lives in Ann Arbor.

In his quiet, unassuming way, Mr. Tousey took an active interest in all the affairs of his community. He was a good citizen, highly respected by all who knew him. He was a regular attendant of the Salem Congregational church. The funeral will be held at that church today (Friday) at 2 p. m. with the pastor, Mrs. Lucia Stroh, officiating. Interment will be made in Thayer cemetery.

Beside the two brothers and one sister, the widow, two sons and one grandson survive.

MILFORD BANK SPEEDS REORGANIZATION PLANS

Reports given out by the First State Bank of Milford relative to the reorganization of that institution indicate that depositors representing approximately $413,400 had signed the agreement and the signatures covering $120,000 more would put the total up to $5 per cent of the $625,000, the amount on which the necessary percentage must be figured.

It was stated at the bank that up to Friday, April 22, deposits representing at least a third of the $120,000 had signed their intention to sign but their agreement had not yet been handed in.

Under this showing the bank officials, depositors' committee and others who are closely in touch with the situation feel confident that the bank may soon be able to go ahead with the next steps necessary to reorganization.

Obituary

About three years ago among others he suffered a severe attack of typhoid fever and this disease left a weakened condition that opened the way for more serious results.

Mr. Dolph was born in Arcadia, New York, December 9, 1859 and was the twin brother of Mrs. Augustia Whitehead of this place. This brother and sister maintained a very close relation throughout the years, being separated only a few times. Last December 9 they celebrated together their birthdays at the sister's home.

Mr. Dolph came to Northville in 1880 and was married to Miss Emily Murdock at Novi, July 17, 1881. They planned and built a home at 402 Randolph street which they have occupied for 50 years. They reached the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage last July 21.

Mr. Dolph was an expert cabinet maker and during the years he was employed by the Michigan School Furniture Co. and its successors he helped build many of the fine pulpits, altars and other special contract pieces which these companies produced.

Mr. Dolph was a valued member of the Knights of Pythias and held the highest office of the local lodge. He served upon the village council for several terms and gave freely of his time to civic affairs. There were many fine qualities to be set forth during his official career.

For a number of years A. J. Dolph was a member of the Northville cornet band when that organization was at its zenith under the teaching of the late Prof. Isaac Crocker. Other men who marched along with him were Will Safford, Carl Pardee, George and Will Barney and many others.

Mr. Dolph was an all around good citizen, quiet, thoughtful, observing and ready to help when asked to do anything. Only those who knew him intimately this unassuming man appreciated fully his real worth.

He was a member of the local Methodist church, engaging in its activities before ill health prevented this work.

The funeral service will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at home on Randolph street with his pastor, Rev. Frank M. Miner, officiating. Surviving Mr. Dolph besides his widow are one sister, Mrs. Augusta Whitehead, one brother, John Dolph, of Los Angeles, Calif., two nieces, Mrs. Ots Tewkesbury of Northville and Mrs. Nellie Barker, of Detroit and one nephew, Chas. A. Dolph, of this place. One great-nephew, Clarence Barker, of Detroit, also survives.

SOME ADVICE FROM 1850.

(Livingston County Republican Press)

An old auction bill, printed in 1850, has been resuscitated. It contained some advice very pertinent to the present day and generation. Its most striking sentence is the following:

"If people would whistle more and whine less, hustle more and holler less, work more and worry less, boast more and brag less, give more and grab less—business would be a darn sight better."

The advice of 1850 is very much to the point today.
