YOUTHFUL HORSEMEN DRIVE CATTLE HERD

Four Northville boys had the fun of playing cow boys in actual practice-last Saturday when they rounded up a herd of cattle and took them to pasture for the summer over near Ann Arbor. Riding their horses in true cow boy fashion, Rex Schuart, Donald Bray, Paul Beard and Jack McLoughim started off with their unruly charges at nine o'clock in the morning. Every now and then along the journey the cattle broke chase over hill and dale was made by these youthful horsemen before order was restored and the cohort

Above we give items that tell of the success of the moratorium plans at Monroe and Milford. Fact No. one is that Northville must have a bank if we are to save our town's business. To ask business people that will bring then to their senses. we are to save our town's business. laws that Congress is passing to keep the country from going into bankruptev.

The second fact that we must face is that many property owners here will lose their homes entirely if the li quidation plan is carried through to the grim end. If the two banks merge under the moratorium plan, then these mortgages can be renewed and home owners will be en-abled to save their properties. Doesn't it appeal to you to help your neighbor keep his home from the sheriff's ham-

The third startling fact is that if we fall to get the bank all real estate values will be demoralized here and our whole tax situation will become desperate. If we have to continue to sell properties at mortgage sale we may find selves in worse shape than debt-ridden Detroit.

If other towns pull together and get their bank under the same plan that is now followed here, under the direc-tion of the state banking department, why should we fail? As one level-headed man said to us the other day: "If the banks can't resopen you might as well quit living in North-ville." We think the banks will open.

What about the opposition to the moratorium plan?

When an application is made for work, employers are quite likely to ask for a telephone number. For they know that the easiest and quickest way to get into touch with additional help is by telephone.

Your home telephone is an important asset in business and social life. It places you within instant reach of business associates and friends. And, in emergencies, such as fire or sudden sickness, it will summon help immediately.

Of all the things you buy, probably none gives so much for so little as your telephone.

CLEAN!

TMAGINE a stove so clean you can wipe it with a handkerchief . . . and find the handkerchief spotless! A china dish isn't any easier to keep clean than the gleaming porcelain of my new Electrochef. Simply wiping with a damp cloth restores the original luster to the smooth white surfaces. All corners are rounded, inside and out. There are no cracks or crevices anywhere to collect dist.

"The polished metal reflectors on the cooking table can be lifted out for cleaning, and placed right in does not injure the bright chromeplate finish. The Electrochef oven may be 'stripped' completely, leaving only the round-cornered inner shell to be washed out. Electrochef is a joy to the woman who likes to keep things clean. I'm certainly proud of my modern, snow-white range!"
