CELEBRATION BRINGS 1,400 PEOPLE HERE

Crowd Enjoys Varied Events At Northville Fair Grounds

Over 1,400 people gathered at the Northville Wayne County Fair grounds on Thursday, May 19 to witness the Northville celebration featuring a night ball game under powerful arc-lights, boxing contests, quills tournament and horse racing.

The Northville Chiters defeated the Detroit team by the score of 9 to 12. Harry German using all five of his pitchers, Moore, Hartner, German, J. Rowland and himself.

The Northville High School and Community band capably entertained the gathering with musical selections while the events were being run off.

Results of the races were as follows: Three Year Old Pace, Bill Haven, Markham driving, 2-1; Johnny Brooks, Chambers driving, 1-2; John Rattenbury driving, 3-2; time 2:37 1/2 and 2:34. This is the first time that any of the colts entered had ever raced.

In the Class A Pace or Trot, Native Lee, Rattenbury driving, 2-1; Ullian Harvest, Grant driving, 2-1; Ullian Harvey, Coe driving, 3-2; Bonnie G'Donna, Rattenbury driving, 5-4; Imperial Ullian, Markham driving, 4-5; time, 2:28 1/2 and 2:24.

Class B Pace or Trot, Ramsey Payne, Rattenbury driving, 2-3; Ullian, Dillard, Coe driving, 4-1; Miss Helen Coar, Rattenbury, 1-4; Mary J. Hamilton driving, 3-3; time, 2:23 and 2:25.

All of these horses are entered in the Decoration Day celebration at Ann Arbor Monday and will also partake in another celebration here in Northville some time in the early part of June.

Romulus won the quills tournament and the exhibition fights in which Pee Wee Wilson and Don McLeod, local lightweight, figured were first class fights which would have won high favor from the fans on any card.

Harry German states that he desired to donate a portion of the Chiters' proceeds to Northville welfare but the "proceeds" turned out to be a deficit of $2.85.

"I'm glad that we came out as easily as we did but I think that everyone had a good time and we'll have to hold another celebration soon. Our base balls for the game cost $15.00, advertising, $3.00, distributing bills, $1.00, boxing stage, $11.00 and printing $18.25 which all totalled up to $48.50. Our share of the receipts were $45.60 which left us in the "hole" for $2.65."

The Northville Chiters will journey to Big Beaver Decoration Day where they will meet the Big Beaver ball club. Big Beaver is located four miles northwest of Birmingham.

PAST MASTERS OF MASONIC LODGE AID IN RITUAL WORK

The final communication of Northville Lodge No. 186, F. & A. M., was held Monday evening. The event honored past masters of the lodge.

A dinner was served by members of the O. E. S. at 6:30 o'clock. Following the meal Robert Coolman, Master of the Lodge, made a few announcements and then gave the meeting over to Orlow G. Owen who led a song fest and then called on Rev. Frank N. Miner to offer a few remarks as "after dinner bunk."

Mr. Miner stressed the principles of the order and urged that these ideas of brotherhood be put into the channels of everyday living for the practice, so sadly needed.

When the lodge re-assembled at 7:30 o'clock, past masters Alexander, Northrop, Sinden, Horton, Van Valkenburgh and Van Dyke and the floor work and Carrington handled the craftsmen.

Past masters Kalbfleisch of Detroit and Woodman of Walled Lake were present to witness the ritual work.

Grand Lodge opened at Saginaw Tuesday and Robert Coolman, Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston and others attended the session.

A picture of unusual interest was taken last Saturday when five generations lined up before the camera at the Cavell home. Those in the family group were Truman A. Cavell, Mrs. Ida Cook, Mrs. E. B. Cavell, Ted Cavell and little Joan Cavell. The ages of the group ranged from eighty-six years down to seven months.

Mr. Garfield is in good health and comes down town almost daily. The picture will be highly prized by the family.

MERCHANTS CLOSE MEMORIAL DAY

Dr. Linwood W. Snow announces this week that on Decoration Day, Monday, Northville business men will place their flags out on the sidewalks at half-mast until noon when the flags will be raised.

The American Legion, Lloyd H. Green post, is sponsoring the annual program of Memorial services, dedicated to soldiers fallen in all American wars.

Northville business men have agreed to close their shops, it being a legal holiday all over the country, and a great many are planning short vacation trips.

SCIPIO'S GRAVE IS MARKED BY LEGION

A very fine gesture of the American Legion was carried out recently when they placed a marker on the grave of John Scipio, whose body is interred in the Waterford cemetery.

John was favorably and widely known in this community for over a period of forty years. With his old horse and wagon he traveled up and down the streets of Northville carrying away the refuse, ploughing the garden and doing other odd jobs.

The Legionists to be congratulated on doing such a memorable and lasting thing for a person who with his always smiling face and genial personality won many friends.

APPENDECTOMY IS PERFORMED SUCCESSFULLY ON K. H. AMERMAN

The many friends of Principal of Schools K. H. Amerman will be glad to learn that he is making very good recovery following an emergency operation for appendicitis performed last Sunday morning. His condition was found to be very serious, but the successful operation insures an immediate recovery. He will no doubt remain in the hospital for ten days and will follow this by a period of rest at home.

During his absence from school his duties are being cared for by Coach Harold Ruggles who is acting as "vice-principal."

GROSVENOR UNHURT IN CAR ACCIDENT

An accident between a car driven by Earl B. Grosvenor, of Northville and a car driven by Henry Belasco, Detroit, on the corner of Wing and Main streets Sunday night about 10 o'clock resulted in a severe shaking up of Mr. and Mrs. Grosvenor and their two children and the smashing up of the left front fender of Mr. Grosvenor's car.

Belasco and another man in the car which is said to have run into the Grosvenor car were not injured.

DETROIT HOUSES MOVE OUT HERE

Three more Detroit men feel the call of a beautiful community like Northville and have come out here to make their homes. G. J. Coy has moved his house out from the city to a parcel of land on the Nine Mile road recently purchased. Two others are following suit in the same neighborhood. W. N. Seyler, formerly an employee of the Bell Telephone Co. of Detroit, has decided that he prefers to operate a small farm. He has bought a part of the former Erwin estate. Dr. Mangus, whose wife is also a chiropractor, with offices on Grand River avenue, has purchased a piece of land which he will set out to fruit trees. All these have moved their houses bodily to their new locations where life is more worth living.

Chas. E. Rogers Tells Rotarians of His Travels Through Desert and to the Pyramids of Egypt

"The Red Sea is not red—it's just not blue," said Chas. E. Rogers, a new member of Rotary club, Tuesday noon at the weekly luncheon as he told briefly but most interestingly of his travels through the Malay peninsula and Egypt.

Mr. Rogers told in a vivid way of the desert, the pyramids, the Suez canal and two cities that are entirely different, Cairo and Alexandria. His description of the desert was very thrilling. The desert is just "nothing" all the way, but the air is very clear and when the wind is not blowing one can see for a distance of from 100 to 150 miles.

Cairo is an Egyptian city but Alexandria is commercial and dominated by the English. "Harry, you would enjoy the fine horses in Cairo," said Mr. Rogers as he turned to Harry B. Clark, one of Northville's leading horse lovers.

The pyramids stand on high ground about six miles from the center of Cairo, said the speaker, but the approach to them is gradu-

LEGION PLANS MEMORIAL DAY PROGRAM HERE

Services to Start at 2 p. m. at Pennington Allen Theatre

Again on Memorial day the nation pauses to honor their soldier dead and in Northville services fitting the occasion will be observed by Lloyd H. Green post, No. 147 of the American Legion.

Time goes relentlessly on and only mourning the G. A. R. veterans in the community numbering two only. They are L. E. Cornwall, age 95, who lives on Dubuque street here, and Marvin Bogart, age 92, of Wisconsin.

The program begins with a service Sunday night, May 29th, 7:30 p. m., at the Our Lady of Victory church which will be in charge of Rev. Joseph G. Schuler. The Legion Post and Ladies' Auxiliary will attend in a body.

Monday morning, May 30th, the decoration of graves will be at 9:30 a. m., those participating meeting first at the home of Mrs. Fred Simmons on West Main street. Flags will fly at half-mast until noon.

In the afternoon the services will be held in the Pennington Allen theatre at 2 p. m., at which time the Memorial address will be given by Raymond J. Kelly.

AUXILIARY PLACES POPPIES ON SALE SATURDAY, MAY 28

Tomorrow will be "Poppy Day" in Northville and in thousands of other cities and towns throughout the United States. America, going to work tomorrow morning, will find women and girls on the streets wearing the badge of the American Legion and Auxiliary and offering bright red poppies to be worn in honor of the men who lost their lives in the World war.

The little flowers of remembrance will grow on millions of coats and the coin boxes of the poppy sellers will clink with the country's annual offering for the disabled veterans and their dependents.

The poppies to be sold tomorrow have all been made by disabled veterans, thousands of whom have been given employment making the flowers for the sale. Under the direction of the Joint Poppy Committee of the American Legion and Auxiliary of Michigan, one million poppies, paper replicas of the wild poppies of France and Flanders, have been made in the U. S. Veterans' hospital at Battle Creek. The work has been given to these disabled men who receive no compensation and whose families are in part a great need.

Joe Vroman, who headed the cast as Mr. Smith, the sausage maker, gave a fine performance as the "erotic" father. Gertrude Deal played the part of a maid, with good emphasis and Mrs. F. R. Alexander as the Smith housekeeper filled the role very acceptably. Miss Beva Schradler, as the laughter portrayed her role of "stupidity and disdain with fine ability, while Miss Etta McDonald as Rose Parker did her part at "smoothing out things" cleverly. Miss Isadore Keeney as Peggy Sampson, the blond, looking for a boy friend did the flapper stunts to perfection.

Alec Milne as the son of Mr. Smith, performed his part with good effect and Orlow G. Owen, the young attorney in love with Smith's daughter, made a good lover. Starr Northrop as the English lord impersonator, did the "much bored" act well. Ad Schwenger with his "vell, vell" and amusing business cards kept the audience laughing.

It was indeed a very funny, rollicking comedy and the P. T. A. is to be congratulated on such a fine effort, while Mrs. Scott Lovewell added another laurel to her enviable record as director for which she is well and favorably known in Northville.

The financial success of the affair goes to Mrs. E. L. Mills, who directed the business end of the production. The association netted $47 for their milk fund.

BROWN MAKES PLEA TO BACK NEW BANK

E. E. Brown of Ann Arbor, former publisher of The Northville Record, follows with keen interest the community's battle for a new bank. He writes:

I trust good progress is being made in the bank matters. It will be a sad day for Northville and many of its citizens if the receivers are forced to carry forward their situation there that will require years to overcome. I have faith enough in the good judgment of Northville people to believe they will sign the agreements to permit the two banks to re-establish themselves so that a consolidation can be effected without unnecessary delay.

With kind personal regards, I am, Very truly yours, E. E. Brown.

P. T. A. PLAY PROVES ENJOYABLE COMEDY

The domestic comedy, "Polishing Papa," given under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers association, at the high school auditorium last Friday night, directed by Mrs. Scott Lovewell, was a decided success. It was packed full of good entertainment, and the hilarious situations got over the footlights to the audience in a most amusing fashion.

The play deals with Mr. Smith, sausage-maker, and his trials and struggles with business and children, having a daughter who becomes infatuated with a man who poses as an English duke. The action takes place in a middle western town in the South home.

Joe Vroman, who headed the cast as Mr. Smith, the sausage maker, gave a fine performance as the "erotic" father. Gertrude Deal played the part of a maid, with good emphasis and Mrs. F. R. Alexander as the Smith housekeeper filled the role very acceptably. Miss Beva Schradler, as the laughter portrayed her role of "stupidity and disdain with fine ability, while Miss Etta McDonald as Rose Parker did her part at "smoothing out things" cleverly. Miss Isadore Keeney as Peggy Sampson, the blond, looking for a boy friend did the flapper stunts to perfection.

MR. AND MRS. ABRAMS WILL VISIT EUROPE

Mr. and Mrs. A. Abrams of the Wayne County Training school, where the former is head of the printing department, will leave June 30 for a seven weeks' tour of Europe. They plan to spend most of their time in Russia and Germany but will probably also visit England and France. A stop will also be made in Finland.

"We are looking forward to our stay in Russia with great interest," Mr. Abrams told The Record. The Northville people will go with a surprised tour.

NO WHOOPING COUGH

No whooping cough in Northville is the good news reported this week by Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston, village health officer.

There is one case in the township, states Dr. Johnston, Amelia Sutton having an attack of whooping cough and there is but one case of measles in the village, Burlingame Grimes being quarantined for a short period.

20 ACRES TO BE USED FOR WELFARE AID

Ford to Plow the Land and People Are Asked to Give Seed

Looking forward to next winter when it may again be necessary to extend welfare aid to worthy people, the Northville Community fund, whose activities were started last fall, will offer 20 acres of land for raising vegetables and potatoes.

The land may be used for this purpose by the farmer Dean Griswold property just on the eastern outskirts of the village, a short distance over the P. M. viaduct. The Ford Motor company officials have kindly offered to care for the plowing of the land, as their tractors have already been busy with that kind of work for the Ford gardens.

The Community fund will appreciate it greatly if garden seeds and potatoes can be given by local people, in view of the fact that there is no fund on hand for this purpose. Those who can assist in this generous way are asked to get in touch with Joe Vroman, phone 128.

PRESBYTERIANS HEAR INTERESTING TALKS

At the Presbyterian church at the morning service, last Sunday the pastor, Rev. Harold G. Whitfield, in a very serious, muddled and able, discourse presented the situation, as he viewed it, of Christianity in the world today and what may be in store in the near future.

To his mind, the growing tendency of society to become enmeshed in worldliness and the materialistic and to break away from moral standards that have been held fundamental, presented a peril to the Christian church, which could only be met, by the grace of God, by the tide being turned the other way. All Christians must unceasingly hold firm in the faith and make outward expression of it in society. With conviction and courage they must prepare to meet whatever the future has in store.

The Men's Bible class had the pleasure of having as the teacher and interpreter of the boys' lesson study, "Jacob and Esau Reconciled," Owen Rippey, lawyer, of Detroit, and L. L. Ball, District Deputy G. C. of Plymouth will be present to assist the lodge in adjusting their local affairs.

It is requested that all members attend this meeting as it is to be one of importance.

WHIPPLE ISSUES HIS 7TH IRIS LIST

Harvey Whipple of Mead's Mill, near Northville, well known as expert whose gardens draw discriminating flower lovers from a large area, has issued his seventh annual list of surplus iris with announcement of the times of "open house."

The visiting days and hours are: June 2, 2 to 7 p. m.; June 4 and 5, 9 a. m. to 7 p. m.; June 7 to 10, 2 to 7 p. m.; June 14 and 15, 2 to 7 p. m.; June 18 and 19, 9 a. m. to 7 p. m.

Visitors at other times are requested to come by appointment. In the evening, the Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary had charge of the service. Mrs. Wilbur H. Johnston presided and made a short talk on the power of influence. She presented Mrs. B. H. Douglas as the speaker for the evening, who had as her subject, "New From Ram Allah, Palestine."

Mrs. Douglas' parents have been life-long missionaries, mostly in the South American field, principally in Mexico and Peru, but now in Palestine, which country, due to its biblical settings, is unequalled in world interest. Mrs. Douglas, herself, spent many years in South America with her parents.

The speaker, in addition to her own comment and information, read portions of several letters of length written by her mother, graphically describing scenes and events in the country which sheltered the Hebrew people.

Plucky Junior High School Boys Climb High Up in a Maple Tree To Bring Down Suffering Robin

Beneath their rough surface boys have tender hearts after all, as was illustrated by an interesting little incident which occurred at our public school last Monday morning. Hearing the cries of a distressed robin, two boys, Lawrence Parmenter, of the seventh grade, and Ed. Fleury, of the eighth, reported the matter to Mrs. Ida Cook, principal of the junior high. Sent to Janitor Horsfall, the boys carried a ladder to the tree and climbed high to the upper limbs where they found the poor robin entangled in a cord which he had evidently been dragging to build a nest.

Without resistance the bird allowed himself to be carried to the ground where it was discovered that one leg had been broken in the struggle to free himself. John Sprenger, the "bird specialist" of the school, was called. John took out his trusty knife and finished sever-

ARTISTS COMPETE FOR "POPPY DAY"

Six would-be young artists of our high school competed for the prizes offered for the best posters promoting the sale of poppies for annual Poppy Day. Their work was heartily commended by the American Legion auxiliary which presented the first prize of two dollars to Roy Warner and the second of one dollar to Merle Fraser. Robert Reed's poster received honorable mention. These posters are on display in various windows; Roy Warner's poster being sent to compete with the district.

MRS. C. P. MORGAN HURT IN ACCIDENT

In a head-on collision Sunday night two times south of Northville on the Center street road to Plymouth, Mrs. Carrie P. Morgan, mother of Helen Joy Morgan, Flint, heart was severely injured.

The accident occurred about five o'clock between the car containing Mrs. Morgan, driven by Ira Cook of Grand Blanc, which also contained Joseph Jones as a passenger and a car driven by Milton E. Willis of Detroit, whose wife and four children were also driving with him.

Responsibility was not placed for the collision but both cars ran together in the center of the gravel road.

Mrs. Morgan was given first aid at the House of Correction hospital for head lacerations, broken nose, a large cut over the right eye and lacerations of the arms and legs.

Her daughter, was permitted to visit her at the prison hospital and afterwards journey to Flint where Mrs. Morgan was taken to St. Joseph's Mercy hospital.

K. OF P. TO HOLD SPECIAL MEETING

There will be a special meeting of the Knights of Pythias, Mystic Lodge No. 100, Friday night, May 27. Grand Chancellor Frank Bernhart of Detroit, and L. L. Ball, District Deputy G. C. of Plymouth will be present to assist the lodge in adjusting their local affairs.

It is requested that all members attend this meeting as it is to be one of importance.

DANCE AT SALEM

A "Big Time" dance will be held at the Salem town hall on Wednesday evening, June 1. Burton Russell the music. Admission will be 50 cents a couple and 25 cents for one person.

RETURNED HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Van Valkenburgh, who have been living in Royal Oak, have returned to their home on Butler avenue for the summer.

CHANCE FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

The two base ball teams of Northville and Farmington are tied for the championship of the league. Each has lost one game. Though Farmington has played more games than has the Orange and Black squad their percentages are equal. The game played today at Farmington will decide the championship of the league. The winner of this game will win the league cup and be the season's base ball victor. To be promised a banquet by Coach Ruggles if they win. We know that they will play their hardest anyway, but we hope they satisfy their appetites.

M. C. TAYLOR DENIES RUMOR ABOUT BANK

Ass't Banking Commissioner Tells About Plan for Northville

There is little new to report on the Northville bank situation as the Record goes to press Thursday afternoon. The encouraging thing however, is that slowly but surely progress is being made in getting the necessary 85% of signatures to start a new bank including the assets of the closed Lapham and Northville State Savings banks.

Yesterday at noon the Lapham bank had passed the 75% mark of signatures needed and the Northville State Savings bank lacked a little over $40,000 of reaching the coveted goal.

The Record is glad to be able to correct one rumor that has been going around the community with regard to the moratorium plan that the state banking department has drawn up for the Northville banks. Statements have been made that the plan here, especially article No. 9, with regard to the stockholders, was the only one of its kind in the state. To get the exact facts The Record called M. C. Taylor of Lansing, assistant banking commissioner, who told us that this statement is false.

"Thirty or thirty-five other towns are using the same plan as yours, including your paragraph No. 9," said Mr. Taylor to us. The list includes such towns as Ypsilanti and Romulus where the moratorium plan has met with such great success.

To show the spirit of some towns where banks have closed, Mr. Taylor told The Record that the State Savings bank of Caro had secured 90% of signers for its plan to reopen.

"We feel that the plan drawn up will be beneficial to your community," said Mr. Taylor "but it rests entirely in the hands of the depositors whether or not you wish to open a new bank."

The statement of Mr. Taylor should set at rest the above mentioned misinformation, also other rumors that have no foundation in fact.

Signed agreements are coming to both banks every day. If the small depositors who feel that their small amounts are not needed, will send in their agreements it will hasten the day when the new bank can be opened.

HIGH SCHOOL SINGERS WILL GIVE SPLENDID CONCERT ON JUNE 3

One of the most difficult and most pleasing of vocal programs given during the past two years will be presented in the high school auditorium Friday evening, June 3 at 8 p. m., by the high school Glee clubs, mixed chorus and Girls' chorus of 100 voices under the direction of Leslie G. Lee.

Most of the numbers are taken from the great writers, Schubert, Schuman, Brahms, D'Vorak, Mendelssohn, etc. In addition to Glee club numbers there will be songs by a sophomore boys' quartet and a freshmen girls' sextet. As a grand finale the girls' chorus and the boys' Glee club, accompanied by the orchestra, will sing "The Song of Michigan" written by Joseph Moody of the University of Michigan.

This will be Northville's first opportunity to see the new robes worn by the Senior Girls' Glee club. It will also be the last high school Glee club concert in which the following senior girls will participate: Jewel Clark, Bernice Clark, Ruth Corey, Helen Murdock and Audrey Taylor. Geraldine Ferguson, who has accompanied the high school Glee clubs faithfully all during her high school course, will also be lost to the club as she will be graduated in June.

It is hoped that parents and friends will turn out in large numbers to hear this final concert of the year. No admission fee will be charged but a collection will be taken.

THE SOLACE OF SOIL

Out on our "back forty" on the banks of the River Rouge the past few days we have, in the cool of the evening, been getting out spade, hoe and rake and putting in flower seeds and plants. It is surprising what a comfort it is to shake hands with the earth and ask it to raise flowers for you.

Man is just made a little better for his touch with the soil. At least it softens us a lot to turn over the earth, stick in a few seeds and then pat it down again. We have been putting in annuals and will get our reward in a few weeks. In the meantime, right nearby are some glorious yellow tulips that someone left for us. They are as cheering as the morning sun, as soft as parchment and as friendly as Neighbor Cliff Turnbull who just came over to look at our garden. Speaking of tulips, did you ever see any finer displays than have been around Northville this spring? Northville is proud of the flowers its folks raise.

NORTHVILLE'S HEALTH

Due to disagreement over bank troubles, Northville has been going through a period of unrest and resentment that is doing us more harm than many seem to realize. These weeks and months of unkind words, of broken friendships, of bitter resentment have taken a heavy toll of peace, content and health. We have all lost.

We just wonder when we shall all realize the bitter cost of this kind of disagreement. We have no doubt that literally months have been taken from the lives of different people as the result of our failure to get together to bury our differences and to show a spirit of co-operation.

Months ago we heard one local man say: "Northville needs a love feast." He was right. Yet we have wondered a dozen times since why a lot of us have not helped bring about that new era of good will which we all need so badly.

If the leadership of this community could see what good will actually will do for the health and prosperity of friends and neighbors, we should not lose another minute in bringing about that glad new reign of human brotherhood.

Doesn't it appeal to you to live together as friends?

OUR BANK DIFFICULTY

What has been the reason for the great delay in opening Northville's bank?

Well, we have one theory that has not been mentioned very much. It is this: Too many people who know little about banking have had too much to say about various plans for opening banks.

An able lawyer of the state who has had much to do with opening two closed banks (in a lot less time than we have taken) says that the whole idea of leaving a settlement of bank plans to depositors' meetings is wrong. We don't know that he is right but he presents a viewpoint that is interesting. He states that these meetings simply complicate matters and result in a lot of bitterness and misunderstanding. Hasn't this proved to be the case in Northville? For example, the attorney from Detroit who came out to our last meeting, who with little apparent knowledge of our situation here, gave his "opinion" certainly didn't help us solve our community problem. He simply "stirred things up."

The plain fact is that the present banking situation is too deep and troubled to be solved by people who have only a smattering of bank knowledge. The best informed people in our community are not the ones who have slowed down our bank solution. Part of our trouble has come from a lot of misinformation or not enough facts or from ignorance and prejudice.

If a dozen banking experts, unmoved by selfish motives and by prejudice, could have taken over our problem here and told the rest of us—who know little or nothing about banking—what to do we could have had our new bank weeks ago.

A PRESIDENT'S GRAY HAIRS

Malcolm W. Bingay, editorial director of The Detroit Free Press, who spoke in Northville last June on the occasion of The Record's new home banquet, wrote an article last week on President Hoover's fight to bring his country back to prosperity that has created wide comment.

The brilliant Detroit writer gave a vivid picture of the new Hoover who is battling to restore the nation to business normalcy. He pointed out that the failure of Congress to "balance the budget" is costing the business concerns of the nation one hundred millions of dollars a day. Mr. Bingay goes on to say that our president is leading the fight to rout the disaster that is on every hand and that as a result of this heroic struggle, the "worst is over" and business recovery throughout the nation will come as soon as Congress decides to follow the leadership of the president.

The struggle to save his country from continued tremendous loss has transformed Mr. Hoover, says Mr. Bingay. The overwhelming burden of a world's break-down that has not spared the once prosperous United States has made a new Hoover. Our president is a changed man. His once brown hair has turned gray. His pudgy cheeks have become haggard and lined with care and his whole attitude reminds one of Lincoln, whose shoulders were burdened with tragic loads and who underwent the same sort of cruel persecution through which Hoover has been going. Yet, says Mr. Bingay, the president has not broken. He has, instead, become a "fighting Quaker." He is the dynamic leader who has routed the politicians, the selfish scheming men, the hordes of mercenary grafters and is bringing order out of chaos. The nation is coming to realize that it is his leadership that is saving and will save us.

Mr. Bingay has done his country a real service to point out, as he has done in a masterly way, the true worth of our president, Herbert Hoover.

WANDERING THOUGHTS

Chas. A. Sessions was our first cash customer Monday morning—$1.50 for The Record for another year. He has been a fine friend to Northville.

"I am glad your merchants are sticking to the 'free show' plan," says a friend of Northville. "Even though it costs you money it is making friends for your town."

We wonder how many (or how few) Northville people ever walk over our beautiful hills. Took a stroll over the new parkway Sunday afternoon (former A. C. Balden property) and got another thrill over the view over the fairgrounds and town. Every so often we go up to Eastlawn and drink in that glorious view.

We were proud of the good showing of our right hand man, "Ad" Schwenger, in the P. T. A. play Friday evening. As a matter of fact, we were proud of the whole cast. They were "extra" good. A lot of hard work goes into the putting on of these home-talent plays (didn't we ourselves appear in "Al Martin's Country Store," "Mrs. Temple's Telegram," and a few others?) and the entertainment makes for a fine community spirit.

Speaking about prohibition, did you notice that Coach Fielding H. Yost of the University of Michigan addressed a meeting of those favoring the 18th amendment and advised young people to leave alcohol alone? The young folks who think it "swanky" to fool with liquor are many of them due for a sad awakening in life. If liquor comes back freely, the man who leaves it alone will still win out as did sober men in the old days. The drags need a lot of the kind of education that Coach Yost handed out.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

How often do you "go out of the way" to help a friend?

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

HE WON'T GET FAR

(Geo. H. Neal in Orion Review)
Wm. H. McKeighan, mayor of Flint, freed on liquor charge, is so flushed by his victory that he is now out to be governor of Michigan.

WORK FOR WOMEN

(W. H. Berkey in Cassopolis Vigilant)
Here is a workable proposition for putting a million or more women to work: Bring back the old time saloon, and a lot of women will have to earn money.

GONE FOREVER

(Clifton County Republican-News)
George English, publisher of the Huron County Tribune at Bad Axe, says that since the war "six millions of dollars" have gone out of Huron county to be invested in various projects. He predicts that this is the history of many like counties in Michigan. "We know it is, although we would not hazard a guess as to the amount. One thing is sure: if one-half of the money that has been lost to be invested in securities of questionable value were in this county today was loaned to farmers and others for legitimate business, our condition would be vastly better for it."

DEFENDS BRUCKER

Muri H. DeRo, who has been critical yet fair, in dealing with the present state administration, writes approvingly of the work actually accomplished. He writes editorially: "The Republican-Tribune said early that we believed a special session of the legislature would strengthen Gov. Brucker. This has proven correct. Almost without exception the press of the state has complimented the work of the session. Despite the rather confused state of affairs during the time the road bill was being considered, a great deal of good has been accomplished. The Governor provided the opportunity and is entitled to praise for the benefits."

SMALL TOWN ADVANTAGES

(Grand Ledge Independent)
Fred Stevens called our attention the other day to what he called "small town advantages." He related how some friends drove to his place to spend the night. They were worried to leave a blanket or a wrench in their car, for fear it would be stolen. It is true that everything which is not fastened down today is unsafe in the large cities. That applies not only to articles, but also to children and their parents. It sure is a fearful condition into which this country has slipped. Thirty years ago human life was held high, and there was only a small item. Today human life has no value, and the leeches on society steal anything and everything with only comparatively little apprehension or retribution.

"MEANEST MAN" STILL LIVES

(From Milford Times)
A valuable Boston bull dog belonging to Dr. Bragg died suddenly on Tuesday morning, evidently being the victim of poisoning. Examination of the dog's stomach revealed pieces of chicken liver, which it is supposed were saturated with poison. Dr. Bragg states that the animal had not been out of the house over five minutes and had not gone out of the yard. Besides the loss of a pet of which they were very fond, their loss in money can not be estimated as this was a young dog, whose only litter of pups had sold for over $200, and the best of the lot still owned by Dr. Bragg has taken several premiums in Detroit puppy shows.

Jackson in 1931. The mutt who killed little Billy Reynolds in another was on probation as an automobile thief, but reported only three times in over a year, and could not be found by so-called "investigators" until after he had destroyed a child's life. A batch of hoodlums is on trial for driving over a man they had beaten unconscious in the presence of his mother without any provocation. The kidnapping of children is becoming a lucrative trade. We play with crime until we pay the piper for the dance of hell.

WHO KILLED THE BABY?

(Charlotte Republican-Tribune)
As horrible as it is there is a degree of relief in the news of the Lindbergh baby's death that constant dread of such an ending is over.

At the risk of at least being different we venture the opinion that the kidnapping and murdering was not committed by gangland, as it has come to be known to newspaper readers. As low, cowardly and vicious as some of their operations have been, gangland has as yet never harmed a judge and only an occasional policeman, which action no doubt, was based on super-necessity rather than any desire to take human life. We hold no brief for gangland but based on its record it is above baby killing.

These same, in our opinion, was pedicated on three things, hate, jealousy or due to a disordered or abnormal mentality. Mental unfortunates are uncanny in many ways and in the particular line in which they show interest or intelligence these persons at times border on superlative genius. The money rackets that have been worked and attempted show gangland tendencies in this murder, if ever found, will we believe, prove to be a mental rather than a criminal case.

This Week

By H. H. White

There is probably no modern author today who can portray real people quite so delicately or so cleverly as can Anne Parrish, and at the same time quite as ruthlessly. She seems to have a wisdom and sophistication all her own, and in the book "I wish to give this week 'Loads of Love,' she is at her best. In this novel she tells the story of Edward, who is an aspiring novelist. His mother guides him in most everything, warding off the world in order that he might have peace and quiet in which he might fully exercise his penchant to write. Into his life comes his cousin, Bessie. She has an unbounded enthusiasm and a desire to help others. This has a radical effect on Edward. "Edward goes to camp in the mountains and while there finds himself involved in two love affairs. One with the lovely Katif—fragile and aloof, and with Jennie, who is sympathetic and warm-hearted. Both are very charming and lovely, and quite capable to inspire unending love in Edward's heart. "The triangle of these lives affords Anne Parrish an opportunity to display her talents in developing one situation after another. In this book she achieves a climax of real emotional power. "This is no doubt Anne Parrish's most brilliant book since she wrote the "Fertile Bachelor," which she cleverly established as a writer of first rank—and an important American novelist. And surely never before has she brought together in one volume such a varied and interesting group of people as she has in "Loads of Love." "When Miss Parrish first published her book, "A Pocketful of Josses," in 1923, critics at once hailed her as a promising novelist who would stand in the first ranks of American writers and she has well fulfilled that prophecy. Later she wrote, "Sentimental," "Tomorrow Morning," "All Kneeling," and "The Methodist Fawn." "And surely Miss Parrish more than fulfills that promise in "Loads of Love," for it is a story that is as delightful as it is ingenious and you will not go far wrong to get this book from our library and read it.

Thank you, kind-ladies and kind sirs, through your generosity the undernourished children now being fed by the Parent Teachers' association will continue to gain weight. "Polishing Papa" was a success financially and no serious casualties were recorded. "Arbor Newman of Detroit, Ann Arbor and several other places" who plays football when he's not sending the vegetable bouquets, was the author of that bunch of onions, turnips, cabbage, etc., which was handed to me last Friday on the stage of the high school auditorium. "R. T. Baldwin sent me the bonafide flowers and I was flustered not to say flabbergasted. Thanks, R. T. E. Orlov Owen grabbed me by the arm and gazed into my ear. "Don't fail me now. Get out on the stage with me. I'll do the talking." He did! Modesty forbids me to speak about Mr. Earmen but for "Mac" McDonald, "Reva" Schrader, Gertrude Deal, "Mary" Alexander, "Isadore" Keener, "Ork" Owen, "Sair" Northon, "Alec" Milne, and "Heavenly" blessings on his noble soul—Joe Vroman, unstinted praise for their sterling efforts and co-operation. "I didn't suspect the talent that was lying dormant in Northville. A Players' club for the town such as was active here just previous to the war has been suggested. All in favor holler "Aye."

Sunday—played golf, got sunburned and caught cold. Harry threw his club at me when I was driving and I kept right on with my drive. Net result—I broke my steel-shafted club in two and drove my ball 50 yards into a swamp whence it will never be recovered. "I lost one ball in the lake and went in wading to get it (A McFarlane is never lavish). The playful boys, Carl Andrews, O. G. Owen and Newman started throwing my own clubs at me while I was in the rippling pond. I wasn't worried so much about the clubs or my clothes as I was concerned about whether they'd throw my golf bag at me, too.

Well, a good time was had by all and no broken bones resulted. The boys behind us thought we were crazy and, Odd's Bodkins, maybe they're right.

HOW TO KILL MOTHS AND BE SURE OF IT

You can't afford to take CHANCES

Use Dichloride (pronounced Dy-klo-ri-side), the modern moth killer and be sure of complete protection. When Dichloride crystals are scattered among clothing they give off a vapor that kills not only the flying moths but also the moth worms that cause all the damage. It is effective even against moth eggs. No eggs will hatch when Dichloride is present.

Dichloride protects clothing in trunks, chests, garment bags and closets. The cost is trifling... only a few cents per garment. Don't trust half measures. Get a package of Dichloride today and be sure.

Fred J. Cochran left Monday evening on a hurry-up trip to Traverse City on business for the National High School orchestra association, of which he is the attorney. Not everyone knows it, but Attorney Cochran is a great lover of the violin.

The chimes of Cranbrook and the vesper services in the church were interesting to the several hundred Exchangees who observed their annual go to church Sunday, May 22. The local club had many representatives in company of worshippers. The Exchangees were shown through the Cranbrook schools.

As representative of the lodge here, Worshipful Master Robert Coolman attended the Grand Masonic Lodge at Saginaw Tuesday and Wednesday. On Tuesday, Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston, Herbert Dean, Clifford Sinden and Ralph Foreman were present and enjoyed with a thousand Masons a visit to the Masonic home at Alma when the trip was made by special train.

A facetious visitor says, "First, Mother's Day and now Poppy Day." "The village park is very lovely right now—with its hedge of lilacs in full bloom."

Mrs. Fred Trent of Detroit is a patient in the Atchison hospital recovering from a major operation.

Ray Watts has recovered from a threatened attack of pneumonia and is back at his post in C. R. Horton's drug store.

A report comes to the Record of five that Mrs. Della Harmon of Detroit is much better and is able to be up and about again.

Work on the new High Speed gas station is going ahead rapidly with the walls about one-third erected. Rain Wednesday and Thursday laid off the workers.

Dr. Paul McQuiggan, formerly of the Eastlawn sanatorium and now a resident physician at the Herman Kiefer hospital, Detroit, was a Northville visitor Wednesday evening.

While using the electric planer in the manual training department at the high school recently, Howard Marburger had the misfortune to cut a slice off the end of one finger. The injured member is healing well.

While George Rattenbury was rolling the ground at his farm north-east of the village last week he had the misfortune to fall from the roller when the seat broke. Two ribs were cracked. Someone else finished the job of rolling.

Mrs. C. G. I. Riess, wife of the pastor of the Bethany Lutheran church, Detroit, who will be remembered as predecessor of Rev. Leo Kucharski of the St. Paul's Lutheran church in Northville, underwent a major operation at Deaconess hospital, Detroit, May 21. She is making good recovery.

Accompanied by Mrs. E. A. Chapman, twenty-two members of the Travel club motored to Ann Arbor Wednesday where they spent most of the day visiting the University through the courtesy of Miss Perry of the deans office the company was escorted through the new buildings on the campus. Dinner was enjoyed together at the Woman's League building.

REDUCED 30 POUNDS NEVER FELT BETTER

Safe Way to Lose Fat

Take the case of Miss Madelone Crowley, for instance, who lives in Little Rock, Ark. Just read her letter:

"I have used Kruschen Salts for one year—when I started I weighed 140 pounds—now I weigh 110 pounds and never felt better in my life."

That's the big reason a host of men and women take Kruschen to lose weight—as the fat goes you gain in health—skin clears—eyes grow bright—activity replaces indolence.

Take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast—cut down on fatty meats, potatoes and sweets—a jar of Kruschen that costs but a trifle lasts 4 weeks—get it at any drug store in the world—but for your health's sake demand and get Kruschen Salts.

Wake Up Your Liver Bile—Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE NORTHVILLE RECORD

Vol. 61, No. 47

NORTHVILLE TRACK TEAM ENTERS REGIONAL MEET

Last Saturday 17 boys of the Northville track team went to Ypsilanti for the sixth annual regional track meet.

The boys who represented Northville were: Capt. Dusenbury, Ruffenburg, Vradenburg, Biery, Hoffman, Baldwin, Sheppard, Lemon, Cook, Bulmon, Tibble, Schradler, Porter, Bray, Beard, Tewksbury and Robinson.

Three Northville men placed in the meet: Capt. Dusenbury was second in the 100 yard dash. Biery placed fourth in the half mile and Ruffenburg placed fourth in the high hurdles.

THOSE ACTIVE SENIORS

In the last week our almighty seniors have had two important meetings. They have decided to see the Niagara Falls and only those eligible in their studies will be allowed to go and the committee has reported that about fifteen are eligible.

Those just on the dividing line will be given a fair chance to make good. This will be for the D & C. Line and it will cost $15 a round trip although they intend to try and "cut" the price a little. The trip is to take two nights and a day.

They next decided to sell their claim of $50.00 in the Northville State Savings bank, all offers gladly considered.

Then they are going to (try) to collect the $10 the juniors owe them for decorations, etc.—their boasting again.

In the end when all secondary affairs have been cleared up they intend to have $270 to carry them to Niagara Falls and back. We wish them bon voyage and hope they don't get lost.

WAXNE DOWNS NORTHVILLE

Last Tuesday Wayne, with a fast track squad, outpointed Northville 64-59. This was partly due to the fact that two necessary members of our track squad were ineligible and thus handicapped Northville considerably. Nevertheless, we managed to come through with several firsts, seconds and thirds. Charles Dusenbury captured first place in the 100 yard dash and Baldwin won first in the high jump. Biery made a heroic effort in the half mile and took second place, being beaten by a slight margin. Huffman and Dusenbury also got seconds in the pole vault and shot put, respectively. Schradler also placed in the shot put.

As a whole, the squad did well although improvement is expected in the future and the whole school looks hopefully to the coming meets.

DID YOU NOTICE

The haggard looks on the faces of Herbert Berendit, Jane Lawrence and Warner Neal. They are on the annual staff. Help them out, only 75 cents.

The hole that the juniors went in via the J-Hop? Looks pretty deep. The base ball team? They're after that banquet that goes with the league title.

The senior class? They are going to graduate? We're told—Some of 'em.

The important faces on some of the juniors. They're on committees. That Mr. Amerman was his vest again Monday? He's not so hot.

Walker Winchell says that the "Did You Notice" column of the Orange and Black carries some of the choice bits of scandal. Thanks, Walt.

NORTHVILLE TRIMS MELVINDALE

Last Friday in a very close game here, Northville came out victorious 2-1. Melvindale started the game off with a bang by scoring her only run in the first inning, however, we tied the score in the last half of the same inning. From then on it was a pitcher's battle—both pitchers allowing only a few hits until finally Northville smacked the ball far enough to get our winning run across. In the last inning, Melvindale talked and almost tied the score but the Orange and Black team finally finished the game by putting out Hayden, third baseman, at home plate. Thus ended one of the most interesting and exciting games of the season. The line-up was as follows:

JUNIORS INCUR DEBT ON J-HOP

The junior class went into the hole on their J-Hop held Friday, May 13. They have been given until June 18 to pay it off. To do this at their recent class meeting they were to choose between two alternatives, taxing the members individually and by class activities. They chose the latter.

Among the activities that the class is going to engage in are selling candy on the hills, selling pop at basketball games, car parties, ice cream socials and maybe another dance (beyond the dance). These are all being worked out by special committees, appointed by President Christensen and supervised by a general committee of three.

To pull themselves out of this debt and regain their honor and credit, the juniors must make good at these activities. To do this, they must have the cooperation of everyone in school. The juniors make a plea to all other juniors and every student as well to support their cause and engage in their activities. Notices and advertisements of these events will precede them, so that everyone will be prepared.

As the situation stands now, the juniors hope to be equal to the situation and pay off their debt by June 18 Good luck to them. They need it.

SENIOR-WHO'S WHO

Listen my children and you shall hear the story of Audrey Lee Taylor and Ruth Taylor, two little senior girls who go to the Northville high school.

Long, long ago in the little settlement of Detroit, about March 11, 1915, Audrey Lee Taylor was born. She grew up like all little girls do until she became old enough to go to school. Then she attended Houghton, Thirkell and Pattengill grade schools, Northwestern and Cogley high schools. After this little Audrey thought that she would like to seek her fortune so she moved to Northville in March, 1930.

She had many adventures while in the Girls' Glee club and on the Orange and Black staff. She was in the operetta cast, "Riding Down the Sky."

Now Audrey is a big girl and she wants to take up nursing after she graduates from high school.

Once upon a time, just a little before long ago, in Detroit,

West Point Park

Nine ladies met in the community Building Wednesday morning, to improve the looks and cleanliness of the interior. Busy hands made light work of it and they were assisted by Mr. Pierpont. They will meet in one week to finish the work.

Some of our good citizens are still out of work. This is an unusual situation for this time of the year.

Harry Wheeler, an old resident of this district and now living in Wayne, was married to Mrs. Schotter, also of Wayne. Congratulations are expressed by many of his friends and neighbors in West Point Park. The happy couple visited in this district and spent the evening Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gerge.

Mr. and Mrs. James Pastman, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Necker and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gerge all met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Zwickler and spent an evening together playing five hundred. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

Mrs. Gould is much better and is spending a couple of weeks at her father's home in Rosedale, Ga.

The Business Women's club and their daughters were entertained at the home of Mrs. Edna Middlewood Monday evening.

Mrs. and Mrs. James Eastman returned home after a pleasant visit Thursday with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Prayer, of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Coolman entertained Rev. Adams and his mother and sister Sunday for dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ault and children have returned home after a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. Sheets, of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

A base ball game between Novi and Pierson high school boys was played on the Novi diamond Thursday afternoon. They also played Garden City Tuesday afternoon. The scores of both games were four and two in favor of Pierson.

Mrs. Berchem is visiting her daughter in Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Helman were Detroit visitors Friday and spent some time shopping.

Dorothy Gerge, accompanied by Slaina Hakanen, were visitors from Grace hospital in Detroit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gerge on Zaida avenue.

Mrs. William Thornton entertained the Base Line Pedro club at her home Thursday. Those winning prizes were Mrs. Maud Raissier, Mrs. Witte and Mrs. Jones.

Mrs. Koughly of Spring Arbor is visiting a dear friend, Mrs. Thomas Gillespie, for a few days.

A CORRECTION

Through an error Doris Leavenworth's name was omitted from the Senior honor roll. Doris had all B's or better.

DRAMATICS CLASS "DRAMA"

The two classes in dramatics, lately of public speaking, have for the past four weeks been working and studying intently. Now at last they are ready to put on a play, or rather a series of plays.

The two classes, the third and the fourth, have been divided into groups and each group is putting on its individual play. These plays are for the greater part comedies and offer a lot of fun to spectators and the amateur actors alike. The groups and their respective plays are as follows:

In the third hour class group one, "Dearest Thing in Boots," and is put on by Wilma Ruffenburg, Ruth Gory, Ruth Broad, and Ruth Angell, group two, Meriam Dundas, Evelyn Dawson, Forrest Lemmon, Helma Murdock, Charles Menning, Ruth Taylor, and their play is "Engaged for a Month," group three, the play is "Shabbiness, Thy Name is Woman," William Duidas, Elizabeth Miner, Shirley Preston, Sally Richardson, Charles Ruffenburg, Peggy Blake, in the fourth hour class group one, "What Love Can Do," Gene Beasley, Eiden Biery, Mary Bennett, Helma Christensen, Harold McCordie, Kenneth Eichen, group two, "Never Say Can't," Bob Power, Jane Lester, Howard Latta, Winfred McCordie, Gertrude Sedon, Monroe Weston, group three, "Market Hours," Ronald Beasley, Charlotte Lester, Donna Ferguson, Kenneth Kerr, Don Macaulder, Nelson Schradler, group four, John Steenchen, Myrtle Lemmon, Warner Neal, Esther Radolph, Ward Scholtz and Beverly Staman.

MEMORIAL DAY

By Grace Sprenger

The finest tribute we can pay to the memory of our dead is to visit their graves, today, and bow our uncovered heads.

And bear the flags, and fire the shot, To tell them we have not forgot; To sing the songs and heed the cheers, To wipe away another's tears.

To have, in all those poor boys— trust, To know what they were fighting for; To know they're lying, dust to dust, To wipe away the stain of war.

ren Rice is a school marm? Just look at the class she has.

The proceeds will be used for B. Y. P. U.

The play was written by Charles L. Archbold, advertising manager of the National Refining company, who writes the epigrams that appear on the school-boy slates, one of which stands in front of your En-ar-co dealer's place of business.

MEMORIAL DAY

By Grace Sprenger

The finest tribute we can pay to the memory of our dead is to visit their graves, today, and bow our uncovered heads.

And bear the flags, and fire the shot, To tell them we have not forgot; To sing the songs and heed the cheers, To wipe away another's tears.

To have, in all those poor boys— trust, To know what they were fighting for; To know they're lying, dust to dust, To wipe away the stain of war.

ren Rice is a school marm? Just look at the class she has.

The proceeds will be used for B. Y. P. U.

The play was written by Charles L. Archbold, advertising manager of the National Refining company, who writes the epigrams that appear on the school-boy slates, one of which stands in front of your En-ar-co dealer's place of business.

"WRAPPED UP" IN OUR CHILDREN

"I'm just all wrapped up in my children," declares a proud mother inflating her chest with virtuous self-approval. "They are my sole interest in life."

The bearing and rearing of children, she feels sure, is the end and aim of her existence. Submerged in her children, she becomes their veritable servant with no desire in life but to wait on them and make them happy. Even her husband becomes secondary and takes the "teenage" of her complete absorption. And the children—the little rascals—very willingly accept all the favors, the most comfortable chairs, the choicest morsels of everything and take it all as their due.

Before us comes the distinctive memory of a "wrapped up" mother. A gaunt, high-cheeked, bony, anxious-looking woman who walked almost daily past our home. By her side gaily tramped her well-groomed, dainty daughter. Very good chums these two seemed to be but always it seemed to us the daughter showed a shade of superior condescension toward this duty-doing mother. She was all too apparently a "back number."

Such a contrast between the girls' modish gowns and the "mother's plain" serviceable" clothes.

We heard the daughter sing at a graduation recital one evening and saw the mother sitting in the audience. She was beaming with pride. In those care-worn features, we could read her thoughts: "There now, I've reached my goal—she's graduating, my daughter's through school. What do I care now for all the pinching?" Like Annas, of old, she might have exclaimed, "And how! 'Tis best thou thy servant depart in peace!"

Nothing more to live for. The race had been won. She had been wrapped up so long in this daughter and now the unwrapping process was to begin as daughter set forth in all her glory. Mother, on the other hand, like a vine unwound from its supporting trellis, would fall limply to the ground because the thing she had absolutely lived for was gone.

"Mother devotion is beautiful but mother as an individual with some interests of her own is a better ideal to children. Zest for life need not lag with the going of the children. There's much more to be lived and much of interest to do. Happy the mothers who know how to strike the happy mean and how and then take their own turn in "stepping out."

We know a mother who has struck a fine balance—perhaps we'll tell you about her next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman Entertain Teachers' Club

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Chapman were hosts to a club composed largely of teachers or ex-teachers and their husbands who enjoyed together a cooperative dinner at the Chapman home last Thursday evening. The usual pleasant time was spent.

Double-Four Meet Friday At Sweet Home

The Double-Four club enjoyed the hospitality of two of their members, Mrs. Merrill Sweet and Mrs. Jas. Green at the former's home on North Grace street last Friday afternoon when a dainty luncheon was followed with a pleasant time with bridge Mrs. Robert Lee was a substitute guest.

Silver Tea at Parsonage Pleasant Spring Occasion

The Methodist parsonage was thrown hospitably open to guests on Tuesday afternoon when a silver tea was served. The house was festively adorned with spring flowers from the gardens of Mrs. Chas. E. Rogers. Following an informal time of visiting and becoming better acquainted a program was enjoyed consisting of the following: vocal duet, Jean Atchison and Vyvan Grosvenor, piano duet, Elizabeth Miner and Ruth Mary Baldwin, vocal solo, Bernice Clark with Katherine Stalter at the piano. A little missionary play was enacted by the following: Wilma Rattenbury, Katherine Stalter, Elizabeth Miner, Frances Bacon, Dorothy Richardson and Ruth Mary Baldwin.

The guests were invited to the dining room where tea was served from a daintily appointed table centered with spring flowers and lighted tapers in pastel shades. Mrs. Lucy Fulkens and Mrs. R. E. Atchison poured.

Bon Voyage Shower For Mrs. "Bob" Lee

In honor of Mrs. "Bob" Lee, who left Northville Thursday morning for New York where she sailed this morning (Friday) on the S. S. Olympic for a three month's visit at her home in England, a Bon Voyage shower was held at the home of Mrs. Garrett Barry on Rogers street Tuesday evening.

Twenty guests were invited by Mrs. Barry, Mrs. Jas. Green, Mrs. Merrill Sweet and Mrs. Olow G. Owen.

Following an evening of bridge the guests were served at an attractively arranged table having a large ship for a center-piece.

Guests were: Mrs. Lee, Mrs. A. A. Holcomb, Mrs. Chas. Wilson, Mrs. Geo. Kahr, Mrs. Allen Buckley, Mrs.

King's Daughters Sew Together for Hospital

After a pleasant time at a cooperative dinner together, twenty industrious members of the King's Daughters met at the home of Mrs. Ray Richardson Tuesday where they sewed busy during the afternoon on small night gowns for little patients in the Children's ward of the University Hospital. A good amount of work was done and the remainder will be completed at the next meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. Geo. E. Hills on Tuesday, June 7. A good attendance is desired.

VISITING EDUCATORS VISIT HIGH SCHOOL

In the past week and in the weeks to come, the seniors have been and will be the audience of various speakers from different colleges nearby. At the first of the week, a gentleman from Kalamazoo college was here and spoke to the class on the advantages of attending his institution, the benefits of higher education, etc. Thursday, two gentlemen from the Detroit Institute of Technology spoke. They were Mr. Soup, the registrar, and Mr. McNight, the director of education. They too, told of the advantages and benefits of "Tech," but more than that, they spoke on the help, the hardships and the ways and means of a college education. Mr. McNight, especially, tried to inspire the boys (these men talked only to the boys) to acquire a higher education. He advised them that the way was hard and the road rocky, but that this was the age of specialists, and everyone should value to a great extent their education. Mr. Soup, as it happened, was a former schoolmate of Mr. Amerman, and they renewed pleasant acquaintances.

PUBLIC HEALTH By Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston

To go back over some of the ground that we have covered, it is understood that all cases, either suspected or known, of communicable disease should be immediately reported to the public health officer.

Some of these diseases are isolated only by the officer, while others are isolated or quarantined with a placard on the residence.

The following diseases are reportable: hookworm, anthrax, chickenpox, cholera, dengue, diphtheria, dysentery, erysipelas, German measles, influenza, leprosy, malaria, measles, cerebro-spinal fever, mumps, opthalmia, plague, pneumonia, rabies, infantile paralysis, Rocky Mountain spotted fever, scarlet fever, septic sore throat, smallpox, syphilis, tetanus, trachoma, tuberculosis, typhoid fever, typhoid fever, undulant fever, Vincent's agna, (trench mouth), jaundice, whooping cough and yellow fever.

The following are isolated but not placarded: influenza, septic sore throat, and typhoid.

The following cases are isolated but not quarantined: chickenpox, measles, mumps, and whooping cough and German measles.

The following are isolated with warning placards and quarantined: diphtheria, meningitis, infantile paralysis, scarlet fever and smallpox.

Keep in mind that not only the physician but everyone is responsible for the reporting of all known or suspected cases of communicable disease.

CHURCH NEWS

Methodist Church

Rev. Frank N. Miner, pastor. Sunday morning at 10:30 a. m. is public worship. Mr. Miner will preach. The sermon and the service will be an appropriate appreciation of the veterans who were engaged in the great Civil war.

The Sunday school is at 11:45 a. m. This week, Sunday, we are happy to have as our guests a class of young people from Albion of which Mr. Richard T. Baldwin was the teacher for several years.

There will be no evening worship service this Sunday as all are united in attendance at the Memorial Sunday service at the Roman Catholic church at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. Joseph G. Schuler conducts the service and gives the address.

The Epworth League has its devotional and study meeting at the church at 6:30 p. m.

Our Lady of Victory Church

Please note this change of time for the first Mass beginning next Sunday, May 29, instead of being at 8 o'clock it will be at 7:30. (The 10 o'clock Mass remains at 10.)

Soldiers' Memorial Services. These services begin at 7:30 Sunday evening, May 29. The public is invited to attend. Pamphlets explaining Catholic services will be distributed at the church. This will make those at ease who have never attended a Catholic church. There will be no collection.

PROGRAM:

Hymn.
Welcome and instruction.
Hymns by choir.
Sermon: "Acknowledgement and Sacrifice."
Hymn.
Explanation of Catholic Benediction service.
Benediction.
The close of the May devotions will be Friday evening, May 27 at 7:30.

Baptist Church

Services at this church next Sabbath will be as follows: At 10 a. m., the morning worship at which time the pastor, Rev. W. Roscoe Barbour, will preach on the subject, "The Household of Faith."
Bible school at 11:15. Classes covering the needs of our constituency. The Baraca class meets for the lesson in the parsonage.
The B. Y. P. U. service is at 6:30 p. m.

Owing to the fact that the annual sermon before the G. A. R. and American Legion will be delivered this year at the Catholic church, this church will not hold an evening service next Sunday. The pastor will, however, preach at the Novi Baptist church at 7:30 on the subject, "The Ministry of the Spirit."

Presbyterian Church

At 10:00 a. m. on Sunday, May 29, the service of worship will be held in the First Presbyterian church. Elders C. R. Van Valkenburg and E. S. Beard will be installed. We are glad that the change of hour of the morning service is proving so agreeable to the congregation.

The church school meets at the hour of 11:15. The attendance is keeping up splendidly. It was present last Sunday, which is a percentage of 86. The intermediate department showed the best percentage of attendance last week. Which will be first next Sunday?

The Presbyterian church has accepted the invitation of the Catholic church to attend the Memorial service held in the latter church on Sunday evening at 7:30. We hope the members will attend in large numbers.

St. Paul's Lutheran

Leo C. Eickstaedt, pastor. 220 Elm Street.
Divine service and Sunday school this Sunday morning at the usual time, 10 o'clock. The pastor will preach.

The quarterly meeting of the voters is held on the second Monday evening of every quarter.

The Ladies Aid meets every second Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the church hall.

The half hour of faith and fellowship is broadcast by the Lutheran church of the Missouri Synod every Sunday afternoon from 1:30 to 2 o'clock over station WXYZ.

A cordial invitation is extended to all to worship with us.

"THE SILENT WITNESS"

When production was started on "The Silent Witness" at the Beverly Hills studio of the Fox Films Corporation, Lionel Atwill, Bramwell Fletcher and Wyndham Standing found themselves holding a reunion, as they had played roles together in the stage version of the play.

Atwill portrays the role of the indulgent father, Fletcher enacts the role of the son, who becomes involved in a murder and Standing appears as Sir John Lawson, attorney for the Crown.

Montague Shaw, too, played his role of Inspector Robbins on the stage, but not with the New York or London companies.

Others in the screen version to be shown Saturday, May 28, at the Penniman Allen theatre are Greia Nissen, Welda Heyburn, Helen Mack, Mary Forbes, Alan Morway, Herbert Mundin, Billy Bivan, and Lumsden Hare.

The picture was directed by Marcel Varnel and R. L. Hoult from an adaptation by Douglas Doty of the successful DeLeon-Celestin stage play. It tells the gripping story of the sacrifice of an indulgent father who stood trial for a murder which his son has confessed, only to discover that has own alibi, although genuine is of little help to him in the face of the mass of circumstantial evidence that confronts him.

The two women's study clubs of Grand Ledge have undertaken the task of beautifying the grounds of the public library, furnishing shrubs and having them set out.
