

TAX RATE FOR NORTHVILLE SET AT $19.21

Council Accepts Assessors Roll at Meeting on Monday

The Northville village council accepted the 1932 tax rolls Monday night at their first meeting of the month in the village hall from Cass A. Sessions.

The roll calls for $55,000 for the village budget, divided as follows: $22,500 for general fund; $17,500 for highway fund; $15,000 for sinking fund.

The tax rate for 1932 is $19.21 per thousand dollars, a raise of $1.91 over the 1931 rate of $17.40 per thousand dollars. Mr. Sessions explained the raise in the rate saying that the village assessment has been reduced $387,000 owing to the closing of Northville's two banks and the drop in values of real estate and personal property.

A reassessment of the special paving tax, which was due November 1, 1931, and which has not been paid, amounts to $9,322.50, says Mr. Sessions, and there is also a special sewer tax reassessment of $289.18 which is contained in the general tax rolls. The reassessment on the returned taxes for real estate, he says, totals $1,357.89.

The reports of the chief of police, Wm. Safford, health officer, Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston, and the village treasurer, John Litsenberger, were received.

The council passed a motion for an additional improvement on Hill springs. Two inches of concrete will be placed on the exposed gravel adjacent to the spring in order to prevent top dirt from sinking into the spring.

Owing to inclement weather, work on Bernhard Springs has been held up and the date for the completion of the work has been set ahead to June 20 without penalty.

The council voted to sponsor street dances beginning on Friday, June 17, depending on whether the first dance is successful. The finest sound equipment obtainable has been secured and will be used.

NORTHVILLE RECORD ADDS NEW MODEL OF AUTOMATIC PRESS

An automatic press for doing job work at the rate of from 2,500 to 4,500 impressions per hour, was installed in the office of The Northville Record on Wednesday and has already started churning out printing forms at this rapid rate.

This press is a Miehle Vertical which is the last word in automatic presses, succeeding other models which operate at a lower speed. It is adapted to all classes of work from post cards to the finest kind of printing with halftones. It will operate efficiently whether the run is only 100 or 100,000.

The addition of this new press gives The Record the reputation of having one of the finest equipped country newspaper plants in Michigan in a town of this size. With a "rush" job can be handled on very short notice.

VERN JUDSON, WHO HOLDS HIGH PLACE, VISITS NORTHVILLE

Last Saturday, Vern Judson of Philadelphia, a former Northville boy, visited The Record office and pressroom and was very much pleased to find such modern and up-to-date equipment in a country newspaper office.

Vern got his beginning in the publishing world as "printer's devil" under the tutelage of F. S. Neal, who was publisher and editor of The Record at that time.

Vern laughingly told that he had to get a chair to assist him to climb upon the wheels of the job presses to clean the machine, because he was so little.

Today Vern holds a very responsible position with the Curtis Publishing company, publishers of the Saturday Evening Post, and the largest publishers in the United States.

Mr. Pinyon of Plymouth is still in hospital following an accident.

H. S. GOLFERS WIN

Second only to St. Paul's school of Owosso, Northville's high school golf team came near to winning the state tournament, held at Grand Rapids, last Saturday. They lost by only eight strokes. Their score was 360 to 352 for Owosso.

The Northville team, made up of Capt. Chas. Riffenburg, Lewis Campbell, Jack McLoughlin and Kenneth Kerr, won four medals and a plaque for their remarkable work during the match, which was staged at the beautiful Masonic Country club of Grand Rapids.

The boys had a very nice trip and were entertained while in the city, at the home of L. D. Stage, who is a former resident of Northville.

As this is the first time that any Northville team has ever reached the state tournament, and has performed so exceptionally well throughout the entire season, too much honor and praise cannot be given the golfers and their coach, Paul Thompson, for the glory and honor they have brought to Northville.

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION PLANS ARE BEING MADE

The Glorious Fourth of July ever loud and ever noisy, will be celebrated in Northville with an exciting day's entertainment under the auspices of the Northville Fair association and the Northville village council.

Horse racing, ball games, field events for the boys and girls of the town, the entire program of the day concluding with a street dance, have been planned by sponsors of the project.

The races, ball game and field events will be held at the fair grounds and the street dance will be held on North Center street between Main and Dunlap streets.

Nelson C. Schrader, president of Wayne County Fair association, announced the affair Thursday after consideration of the plans has been held with Floyd Northrop, secretary of the fair association. The village council, under the leadership of Dr. Linwood W. Snow, village president, and the business men of the town are promoting the street dance.

CASS BENTON PARK GROWS IN FAVOR

Cass Benton park, Wayne county's most beautiful park, still grows in popularity as is evidenced by the increasing numbers who come from far and near to enjoy its unusual beauty and comforts.

One hundred five acres have been added to the original park on the south and on the west. In this newly opened part are being placed benches and stoves.

On Memorial day a record crowd was present, so many coming that they asked to have the new part open for their convenience and their request was granted by the officials.

The view from the hill in the new part to the south is wonderful and if possible this section promises to vie with the old park in popular favor. To dwellers in a congested, noisy city this spot must seem next door to heaven.

DOUBLE FOUR CONCLUDES SEASON AT BLOOM HOME
The Double Four club met together for their closing gathering of the season at the home of Mrs. Harold Bloom who was assisted by Mrs. Norman Denne and Mrs. Gerald Taft as hostesses. After a dainty luncheon, the afternoon was spent as usual with bridge.

IRVING J. BARNHART, FORMER HEAD OF THE SCHOOLS OF NORTHVILLE, TO BE HONORED AT FLINT JUNE 16

Irving J. Barnhart of Grand Rapids, our part time citizen, will leave here next week for Flint to attend a general "get together" of former students of that city during the years 1880-86 when Mr. Barnhart was superintendent of schools there.

Investigating this item of news, the editor of The Record learned with a good deal of pleasure of Mr. Barnhart's remarkable career in the educational and business world.

A graduate of the high school of Flint, his home town in 1871, and of the University of Michigan of the class of 1875, Mr. Barnhart served first as principal of the Northville school until 1880 then for six years was principal and superintendent of schools at Flint and then went to Grand Rapids where for seven years he was principal of the Union high school. Afterward he went into business and for 25 years made an outstanding success as district agent for the Mutual Life Insurance company of Milwaukee.

At Flint next Thursday, June 16 there will be a reunion of all the students who attended school there during the years 1880-1886, the period of Mr. Barnhart's superintendency. The afternoon will be given over to a get-together, and the evening will include an address by Wm. H. Walker, Ph. D. of Berea college, Berea, Kentucky, a graduate of the Flint class of 1882.

After the unusual celebration at Flint, Mr. and Mrs. Barnhart will go to Ann Arbor for the Commencement exercises at the university. Twenty-two of the 101 who composed the class of 1875 are now living. It is remarkable that of the four members of this class from Flint three are living, Miss Angie Clara Chapin of Ann Arbor, Enos D. Pierson of Flint, and our own Mr. Barnhart.

It is said that "a prophet is not without honor save in his own country," but Mr. Barnhart seems to have been not only honored by his home town, Flint, but likewise to have been an honor to it.

BOARD CLOSES SCHOOL HERE FOR SUMMER

Teachers Bring Year's Work To Swift Conclusion Today

Northville schools will close Friday (today), June 10, not to reopen until next fall, announces the Northville school board following their meeting held Wednesday night.

The saving by this measure, of funds say, will amount to $2,000 and although the schools are closing two weeks earlier than usual, the teachers, at a special meeting, voted to donate their services to finish whatever work was on hand.

The completion of this work will make it possible for the pupils to obtain regular credits for subjects taken this semester.

Although officials of the board were hopeful of obtaining sufficient money from Detroit banks with which to run Northville schools next year, a plan has been worked out, a member of the board stated, whereby school employees will receive their pay half in cash and half in script thereby eliminating the necessity of borrowing money from the banks.

NORTHVILLE CHIEFS GET MANY GAMES

The Northville Chiefs, managed by the veteran player-manager, Harry S. German played Wednesday evening before a crowd of 1,500 fans at George Avenue park, Windsor, in a thrilling twilight game which ended in a tie in the eighth inning with a score of seven to seven.

The Chiefs challenged their opponents the Cincinnati Creams to a game Wednesday, July 6. On his return from Windsor, Manager German found a telegram from the Grand Rapids Athletics for a game to be played there on Sunday, June 12, at Ramona park. The Saginaw ball club, states Harry, are asking for a game soon and the Chiefs have a game scheduled with Jackson for July 10 to be played at Pleasant Lake.

Authorities Investigate Letters Hinting At Kidnapping Received

By Mr. and Mrs. Ray Richardson

Through information that leaked out from the sheriff's office in Detroit Monday, it became known that Mr. and Mrs. Ray Richardson, some two months ago received a number of threatening letters.

Although both the sheriffs of the office and postal inspectors have been conducting a careful investigation of the matter, they have not been able to secure a clue as to who wrote the letters. Neither have they been able to discover the motive back of the mailed threats.

While the contents of the notes are known only to Mr. and Mrs. Richardson and the officers conducting the investigation, it is stated that they did not contain any threats of bombing or made no reference to the Landberg case as some of the Detroit papers reported. It is known, however, that there were threats of kidnapping.

There is no way of knowing the purpose of the letters from any of the contents it is said, except that they warned of serious consequences.

As soon as they were received, they were immediately turned over to officers in Detroit. Not until Monday of this week did it become known outside of official circles that threatening letters had been received by the Richardsons, so carefully was the information guarded.

Mr. Richardson is a life long resident of Northville and vicinity. Following the closing of the two local banks he was made a member of a committee to try and work out some plan for the opening of a bank in Northville. The report of this committee presented was opposed by some of those who had been affiliated with the two closed banks. Officials have been unable to connect his efforts toward the establishment of a bank for Northville with the letters they have been investigating.

NORTHVILLE WINS SUBURBAN MEET

Amid the heat of a summer sun and the downpour of occasional showers, Northville high captured by a big score of 57 1/2 points, the Suburban league track meet, at Trenton, Monday afternoon. Her nearest rival was Melvindale with 17. In every event except the running broad jump, in which Northville did not place, the Orange and Black won a second place or better.

Included in Northville's total were 18 points won at the Ypsilanti part of the Suburban meet. When the Orange and Black touchdowns captured the honors in both the high and low hurdles.

This was the first meet of the newly organized Suburban league. The team, showing rousing spirit and fight through the entire meet, opened by taking second and third in the pole vault, it reached a climax by taking all three places in the mile run, and concluded with a bang, by being first in the running high jump and placing second in the 880 yard relay.

R. HOLYCROSS DIES IN AUTO CRASH SUNDAY

West Point Young Man Victim of Accident on Ten Mile Road

This community was greatly saddened Sunday when news came that Robert Holycross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Holycross of West Point, was killed in an automobile accident Saturday night.

Robert and two other boys, Homer Middelwood and Gerald Zaeger, were driving on the Ten Mile road one mile west of Novi on their return from Island Lake when in passing another automobile, their car struck gravel and swerved into a pole turning over. Robert was instantly killed and Gerald was thrown through the top of the car without serious injury besides bruises while Homer was cut and bruised.

Robert was 19 years old. Of pleasant and amiable disposition, he had many friends in this locality.

He was an employee in the Ford plant at River Rouge. Only recently he attended the closing picnic of the Persson school where he had been a pupil and his enthusiastic helpfulness was especially marked that day. He will be missed by many, who extend heartiest sympathy to the bereaved parents. He is survived by his parents and a younger sister and brother.

The father has for several years been employed with the Ford agency of Northville.

The funeral was held at the home on the Farmington road at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon with interment in Memorial park. The Rev. Wm. Richards of Belleville officiated.

CANNING DEMONSTRATION AT SCHOOL ON JUNE 13

Miss Du Bord will give a canning demonstration at the school house Monday, June 13, at 2 o'clock, under the auspices of the Northville nutrition class which is sponsored by the agricultural department of Lansing.

Miss Du Bord says, "Come and bring your neighbors and observe the latest methods of food preservation."

Mrs. T. R. Carrington and Mrs. Arthur Schmutz who are the leaders of the local class, especially urge the Northville ladies to attend this lecture and avail themselves of the opportunity to see how canning is scientifically done.

D. A. R. GIVES BOOKS TO VILLAGE LIBRARY

The Americanization committee of the Sarah Ann Cochran chapter of the D. A. R. has made a valuable contribution to the local village library which will be especially appreciated by readers of non-fiction.

Following is a list of these works: A Message to Garcia, Autobiography of Abraham Lincoln, A Man without a Country, Abraham Lincoln's Inaugural Address, The Monroe Doctrine, George Washington's Farewell Address, Patrick Henry's, "I'm not a Virginian but an American," Woodrow Wilson, Franklin K. Lane, Theodore Roosevelt on Americanism, and John Adams Inaugural Address.

CLUBS FINISH SEASON
With the approach of housecleaning time and subsequent hot weather, the social clubs in Northville have concluded their regular meetings until fall.

Gravel Pits Dangerous As "Swimming Holes"
Where to go swimming is one thing that never bothers a boy, as long as there is any kind of water around his particular vicinity. But sometimes he does not choose the very best of waters and gets into some tract that is not good for his safety or his health.

This is what is happening in Northville today and the boys who have been using the gravel pit near this city as the "swimming hole" have been warned to other places. Parents who have seen their sons are dangerous with steep banks and the physicians say they are even sanitary for there is no outlet for the water emptying into them.

The problem on the hands of those who are raising these reasonable objections to a gravel pit as a swimming hole is to find a better substitute. Some suggest that the fish hatchery would offer safer and more sanitary swimming, while others suggest that the Fairbrook Springs Northville present source of water supply, could be used when it is abandoned in favor of the new water supply.

Seen from one of the Loening amphibian airplanes of the Kohler Aviation corporation, "Northville is one of the prettiest towns on earth," says Don Starr, a mechanic on the south coming from Milwaukee the planes pass over Northville at about noon and again at 3:45 and 7:15 p.m.

When the boats land on the water, says the Northville young man, the sensation is like that of "hitting" a cushion. "Weight cyclone" engines carry the planes through the air.

Not only do the pilots think Northville one of the most picturesque towns on the whole route, but so do the passengers. Often they speak of our trees and pavements, spread out below like the cover of a seed catalogue.

These amphibian planes which leave Detroit river at the foot of West Grand Boulevard and make three round trips daily carry 12 passengers. The rate one way from Detroit to Grand Rapids is $11. The planes leave Detroit at 9:00 a.m. and 12:45 and 4:15 p.m. and 15 or 20 minutes later pass over near Northville. Some of the pilots' entire trip from Detroit to Milwaukee, says Don Starr, a mechanic on the south coming from Milwaukee the planes pass over Northville at about noon and again at 3:45 and 7:15 p.m.

BANK SITUATION

There is very little definite news to report on the local bank situation.

Progress toward securing the necessary 85% of signatures for the merging of the two closed institutions, the Lapham and the Northville State Savings banks, has made little headway the past week. No announcement has yet been made by the state banking department of any time limit for securing the signatures. Various rumors go around the community but these have little foundation in fact.

As far as The Record can learn, the small group that has united to oppose the moratorium plan continues active in its opposition, although nearly 80% of the community have signed the agreement that would give Northville a new bank. There is much discouragement in the village over the situation as it is causing a great loss.

Conservative leaders of the community express the view that if the moratorium plan fails, liquidation of the two banks will bring great loss to all.

FAMILY BANQUET AT FEDERATED CHURCH IS GREAT SUCCESS

The Family banquet given in the dining room of the Federated church on Friday evening, June 5, was generally conceded to be the best banquet ever held in the church.

The tables were made attractive with beautiful garden flowers of the season, and the supper was quite up to the usual Salem standard.

Young men and women from the F. O. M. class acted as waiters. All present entered into the singing of "pep" songs with real heartiness and enjoyment. Mrs. Jennie Smith introduced the toastmaster, Mrs. Fred Foreman, who kept her audience in the best of humor with well-chosen stories directed at those taking part.

Miss Kathryn Pennell of the Moody Bible Institute gave the toast to the mothers, and response was made by Mrs. Frank Buers.

Curtis Hamilton a senior of the Ann Arbor high school, was called upon for a toast to the fathers present, and Fred Foreman responded with a most helpful message to the sons.

Mrs. Hugh Means delighted old and young with readings given in her inimitable manner. Mrs. Cora Gale and Carl Haray were highly complimented on their piano and violin duets.

All feel that the young churchwoman has a great musical future. This because of his talent and capacity for hard work and also because he has a real appreciation of the best in music.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Klugey of Wayne sang some of the old-fashioned hymns loved by all Christians, and these were so in keeping with the spirit of the evening that many encores were requested.

Mrs. Mary E. Johnson of Farmington gave the address of the evening, a most artistic presentation of a tale of a tapestry weaver.

It was based on the Biblical story of the little boy with the lunch of loaves and fishes. The hearts of the fathers and mothers were deeply stirred and we feel that Salem homes will be even better than before because of the inspiration of the Family banquet.

LOCAL NEWS

Miss Arline Richardson has had the misfortune to fall and tear a ligament in her knee. She has been obliged to stay home from school.

John Calsons of this village has been taken to a Detroit hospital suffering with blood poisoning in an arm. He is employed in the Perfection office in the General Motors building.

ROTARY TREASURY HAS GOOD BALANCE
The Repression apparently means nothing to the Northville Rotary club. At the Tuesday luncheon, Treasurer E. L. Mills reported that the treasury was in the best condition it ever was with a good balance on hand.

The club voted unanimously to join with the Exchange club in sponsoring the sending of Dr. F. E. Loe, local high school student to the national high school or better association camp at Interlochen.

Both Leslie Lee and Prof. Perry Angove paid tribute to the young man as a musical genius.

There was an excellent attendance of the club and the spirit was the most enthusiastic of all. Plans were discussed for the beautification of the new spring house near the P. M. station. Harry B. Clark was named to oversee this work.

Resolutions of sympathy were sent to Mr. and Mrs. Merle Holycross the tragic death of whose son, Robert, has saddened the community.

W. R. C. DECORATION DAY
The W. R. C. ladies will meet at Mrs. Ina Bauman's on Monday, June 13, at 2:30 p.m. to prepare the flowers for the Decoration day on Tuesday afternoon when they will decorate the graves here.

Tuesday evening at 6:45 they will meet at the town hall and go to Farmington for services over Mrs. Trimmer's grave. All are invited.

TEACHERS TO GET MAY PAY SOON-AMBLER

Board Will Borrow More Money for Summer Payments

Although Northville school employees have not received their May pay, states Sherrill W. Ambler, secretary of the school board, a loan from Detroit banks has been negotiated and the money will in all probability be paid during the first part of next week.

The employees are paid in twelve installments and there are two summer payments besides the May and June payrolls, he says, which will be paid with money to be borrowed from Detroit banks. The bankers, he states, have made certain demands with respect to Northville's tax levy which will have to be met before the latter loan can be obtained.

Owing to a new ruling recently passed by bankers under which they refuse to loan money to any municipality or school district on back taxes states Mr. Ambler, the current loan which the Northville school board has completed will be made against next December's taxes.

NORTHVILLE'S POSTOFFICE

That was kind of someone to include Northville in the list of towns in the country that was booked in the congressional bill to get a $70,000 postoffice. But if the other 2,299 postoffices that were also included in the bill had to be built at the same time at a cost of $150,000,000, then it would have been pitiful just now when our country is straining every nerve to get business going.

A postoffice will be a great thing later, but the new buildings Northville needs right now are new residences with bath, fireplace and a little breakfast nook, and some new barns (have you seen any around here lately?) and a new modest hotel.

The plain fact is that this attempt to give all these small towns postoffices is just a piece of politics—and a poor, cheap kind for right now when we need statesmanship and not Mr. Garner's "pork barrel" politics. Fortunately this is the way some of the towns that are booked for these postoffices feel. In one town out in Oklahoma that was down for a building, the Chamber of Commerce voted not to accept it. They felt that it would not be patriotic to take it now. Aren't they right?

WHAT IS LIFE?

What do you suppose has given us more real "kick" the past week than anything?

Just this simple thing? Sneaking out of the house at the times we were home from the office and going around and looking at the flowers in our yard? Taking a peek at the plants we have been putting in from time to time? Cutting off a flower to put in our coat lapel so that some folks might think us "queer" to be wearing a flower around town? Standing off and admiring some majestic iris that reminded us that our former school friend at Port Huron, Harvey Whipple, living near Northville, is now one of the iris experts of the state. Looking over to the peaceful hills across the valley of the Rouge and thinking: "How foolish is man to get excited about so many little things when life really doesn't get happiness from material stuff."

What is life? Well, it certainly isn't going out and committing suicide just because you have lost all the money you have. Folks that do that certainly put money up as a god and a lot of us refuse to do that foolish thing. What is life? Well, to our foolish notion it is: Love of family and friends, flowers, ball games, radio music (at times), a little money, some life insurance on which we take the past day of grace for payment of premiums, a roof over our heads and three meals a day (with good Michigan shortcake, than which there is nothing finer on this earth), health and strength to hoe in the garden and wash the family car, a place to go to church and remember that "life is more than meat," a chance to sit and read and think—and as someone once said, the opportunity just to sit.

What is life? Great stuff, if you just don't get the wrong balance. Life is a long ways from being money. The best things of life you don't see.

FORD SUGGESTS SOMETHING

In the present dilemma in which many people find themselves, "self help is a major factor," says Henry Ford.

When Mr. Ford speaks, he usually has something worth thinking about, whether you agree with it or not. So his suggestion that we do what we can to help ourselves when troubles are all around us is a good one. A lot of folks expect the government to help them or think the "rich folks" (who are they any more?) should care for all the folks in trouble. This just can't be done too much, for the government right now is having heaps of trouble and as for the rich people, we know of a few of them whose wealth has faded like the morning dew. Therefore, if we are going to get out of the mud, we must do something for ourselves.

How can we help ourselves? Well, in the first place we can stop pitying ourselves too much. All of us have been doing that too much. Personally we find ourselves "bragging about" all our troubles when as a matter of fact, our blessings outnumber our griefs, six to one. The same with you. If you think you have troubles, come in and we'll name a few you hadn't thought about.

How can we help ourselves? We can adjust ourselves to our new situation. The other day there, drove into Northville in a fiver some folks who once were independently well-to-do. They have lost all of their money, practically speaking. Have they thrown up their hands and gone down to the river and jumped in? "Not on your life." They are starting over and getting a "kick out of it." They are full of laughter, optimism and—listen, some of you Northville folks—faith in the world and in the folks around them. We know some other folks, who instead of taking time to complain, are out working gardens "against next winter's cold." We know some other folks who took their household budget by the neck and cut it right in two and they are not pitying themselves.

We thank Henry Ford for his idea that we can do a lot for ourselves when the clouds seem to hang low.

"DIG DOWN" EVERYONE

We folks in Northville—along with the other one hundred and twenty millions or so—can get ready to go down into our "jeans" to help pay the costs of this great government of ours. "Chickens come home to roost," and so do governments.

Congress has at last balanced the budget and the people of the United States will pay the bills. If we didn't know it before, we shall know it now, that there is no unfailing mine of wealth that runs our government, but the funds therefor come from the people themselves.

Our government must pay its bills or its credit is gone. That's why we—the common people—now face paying taxes of all kinds in order that our Uncle Sam (who is we, ourselves), may meet his bills promptly every month. The new revenue bill comes home to every last one of us—in Northville and everywhere else.

From now on we are going to know that we are helping run the government. Some folks will know it every day and some several times a day. We are going to be taxed when we go to the postoffice for stamps and when we go to the gas station for fluid for the family chariot. Three cents for stamps and another cent of gas tax will come out of our pocket to help run the government.

When we pay over 40 cents to see "shows" and games we shall have the fun of digging down ten per cent to help pay the costs at Washington. If we have a big income—which we haven't here in Northville for a while at least—we shall have to "dig down" until it hurts. Every time we buy a new car we shall have to hand over another four per cent to help pay for the World War and the mineral water for our senators.

Well, why should we complain about helping pay the costs of our great country? We have the best nation on earth in which to live in this day and age and whom should we expect to pay the bills but ourselves? We talk about being "hard up," but there are literally millions of people in less favored lands who would think that they were living in a real heaven if they had the blessings we have. Isn't it so?

The budget is balanced—and we help balance it. Hurrah for the United States!

WANDERING THOUGHTS

Get ready for the Northville-Wayne county fair. Bigger and better.

Guess we are old-fashioned, but we don't like to hear these stories about Northville girls smoking cigarettes. And we find that the average man feels just like we do. We wonder if all the parents of these girls are "taken in" on the deal.

In another five years you will find the people getting back to the old-fashioned ideals of religion, home life and honesty," said one of the most successful men of Michigan to us the other day. We think he is right. There is no fun in being an embezzler, stock shark, or high pressured

SO SAY WE ALL

(J. E. McMullen in his London Leader)

Instead of piddling about with promises to raise the price of wheat, why not compel farm folk to combine to stop robbing the farmers in the purchase of their useful utensils? Then both the farmers and the local dealers might begin to see the end of their starvation conditions.

THE VELVET HAMMER

(Rae Corliss in the Parma News)

The Garner program is a serious threat to national security. It must be turned down emphatically by congress and by the American public. We believe our citizens are gifted with greater intelligence than Speaker Garner gives them credit for and that they will see through the attempted bribe for votes with the pork-barrel bill.

New York's Skyscrapers

(Chet Howard in the Chesaning Argus)

New York is without a doubt the most provincial city in the United States. It takes little to attract a crowd here. But if there is one thing that will attract a crowd it is an excavation. New York constantly sees tremendous building enterprises. Building the foundations for great sky scrapers in this city is a sight and men and women by the hundreds are always looking on.

"That's How They Told It to Me"

(William C. Richards in Sunday's Detroit Free Press)

State Legislator Speaker Fred Ming received a visit in Lansing the other day from his great-granddaughter, aged 7. Her mother accompanied her. Home again, some one asked her what she thought of the Michigan Legislature and what it did. Her version:

"Well, they all meet in a great, big room and grandpa stands in a pulpit with a hammer in his hand and after he hits the desk with the hammer two or three times a minister prays, and the Legislature is all quiet and then on all the men except grandpa stand up and sass each other."

SENATOR COUZENS' INCOME

The Chicago Tribune

Senator Couzens is prominent among the supporters of a drastic income tax. He is also a very rich man. His advocacy of heavy income taxation would therefore seem to be highly disinterested, in fact, a noble sacrifice of personal interest for what Senator Couzens purports to believe is for the public weal. Unfortunately, it has lately been disclosed that Senator Couzens pays a very small Federal tax, because he very thriftyly has put the bulk of his fortune in tax exempt securities. His approval of drastic levies on incomes has not yet taken the practical form of paying them.

But perhaps Senator Couzens is going to correct this situation, which, now that he has advocated and voted for heavy impositions on others, not merely the rich but hard working men and women of very small income, should be intolerable. Perhaps Senator Couzens' sense of honor is going to impel him to disregard or surrender his exemptions and pay such a tax as he has helped to impose on others.

crook of any kind. There is even no satisfaction in being just "shrewd" or "smart!"

Mayor Dr. L. W. Snow has the right spirit. He took a loss of several hundreds of dollars because he trusted someone who failed to keep the trust, and a friend said to the doctor: "I haven't a bit of sympathy for you; you should have known better."

"Well did anyone ask you for sympathy? Have I been pitying myself?" snappily came back the doctor. That's the way to "take a loss."

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

What is your "pet peeve?"

Tom Carrington passed out groceries—bulk sugar, oat meal, crackers—from that row of easy barrel seats along the second counter in Wheeler's store some years ago?

Charles Dubuay was captain of the snow ballers—defending the old school house wood shed against all comers that winter when Tig was a pup?

Orchard Heights was a well-filled farm, owned and operated by Major D. Gordon fifty years ago?

Miss Jessie Roe was chief operator, bookkeeper, trouble clerk and whatever of the original Northville Telephone company "steep years" ago?

Myron D. Taylor came back from the Philippine Islands as one of Uncle Sam's real veterans in real service as the result of the late unpleasantness with Spain?

Hutton avenue was called Wheeler avenue—a name assigned to the roadway because it was so narrow?

NORTHVILLE'S BAND HEARD IN PLYMOUTH

The Northville community high school band was a prominent part of the memorial program of the district Lady Rebecca and Odd Fellows, which occurred in Plymouth last Sunday at the Odd Fellows hall. Members of these orders were present from many surrounding towns, including Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor, and Wyandotte. The band played four numbers directed by their leader, Edward Head, and were well-received. In their white uniforms, they played as they marched from the hall to the cemetery. Northville would have been proud if she could have seen and heard them.

REV. W. R. BARBOUR TALKS SUNDAY ON OXFORD MOVEMENT

Last Sunday the Rev. W. Roscoe Barbour, pastor of the Baptist church, spoke on the work which the Oxford Fellowship is doing in England, America, South Africa, and Holland.

The pastor said a team representing the above countries was introduced last Tuesday evening in the ballroom of the Book-Cadillac hotel in Detroit. The team was composed of some twenty-five eminent people from prominent walks in life, embracing Oxford men, a countess from Holland and the professor of international law at Princeton university.

The movement seeks to form no denomination, not even an organization. It is an earnest and beautiful movement to restore the consecration, fellowship and simple interest of the New Testament church.

To be in the large assembly and hear the testimony of those people who wore the clothes customary to their socialization and spoke as was natural for them to speak, was to an unbiased mind, plain that they had come to a clearer experience of Christ. To hear such a man as Hamilton of Oxford bear his intense witness of the new life he was living made one feel that the same old miracle of a life renewed, had been again enacted. For, you know, Hamilton and his crowd at Oxford had outgrown religion. But you should have heard him and all of them.

Bishop Page in introducing the speaker said: "There is war in families, between classes, races, nations, Jesus Christ alone can and has brought peace." He also said that the Oxford Fellowship movement had already become, well-nigh nationwide in South Africa, that people were looking to this movement as the only hopeful sign in their troubles there between English and Dutch, black and whites. "This is a sincere and spirit-filled effort to be honest-to-goodness Christians."

As the rector of one of the Scottish churches said, "I found myself claiming the right to reserve certain chambers of my life for myself. I found out that God wanted all the house."

The congregation were deeply interested in the recital of these things and one man who was present at the Book-Cadillac meet and two others bore witness to God's goodness and grace.

Each retiring officer stated the duties of his office and welcomed those assuming the new responsibilities. The retiring officers were as follows: Robert Cousins, president; first vice president, Ruth Mary Baldwin; second, Bernice Clark; treasurer, Warner Neal; secretary, Katherine Stalter; social chairman, Herbert Berendt. The incoming officers are: president, Wilma Rattenbury, first vice president, Paul Baldwin, second, Dorothy Richardson; third, Florence Johnson; fourth, Donald Bray, secretary, Mary Louise Boyden; music chairman, Madeline Haystead.

Ruth Mary Baldwin presided over the meeting and Paul Baldwin read the scripture lesson with prayer by Mrs. Miner. The freshman sextet sang pleasingly two numbers.

M. E. EPWORTH LEAGUE HOLDS INSTALLATION

The young folks of the Methodist church again had charge of the evening service last Sunday evening when the pastor, Rev. Frank N. Miner, took his place in the pews and an impressive installation of the new officers was carried out.

Each retiring officer stated the duties of his office and welcomed those assuming the new responsibilities. The retiring officers were as follows: Robert Cousins, president; first vice president, Ruth Mary Baldwin; second, Bernice Clark; treasurer, Warner Neal; secretary, Katherine Stalter; social chairman, Herbert Berendt. The incoming officers are: president, Wilma Rattenbury, first vice president, Paul Baldwin, second, Dorothy Richardson; third, Florence Johnson; fourth, Donald Bray, secretary, Mary Louise Boyden; music chairman, Madeline Haystead.

Ruth Mary Baldwin presided over the meeting and Paul Baldwin read the scripture lesson with prayer by Mrs. Miner. The freshman sextet sang pleasingly two numbers.

STUDENT COUNCIL PUTS ON MOVIE SATURDAY, JUNE 18

The student council of the Northville high school, whose treasury at the present time is slightly in the "hole," due to supporting a successful athletic season this spring, is selling tickets for the motion picture, "The Man About Town," starting Saturday, June 18, at the Penhman Allen theater.
These tickets are 35c for adults and 10c for children. The Student Council hopes that with the cooperation of the students who are selling the tickets, and the townspeople who it is hoped will buy them, to pay off their debts and finish the year on the right side of the ledger.
At this time the Council makes an earnest request to all to buy your tickets whenever possible of any high school student, before the night of the show, and so greatly help out the school.

STUDENTS TOSS HORSESHOES IN CHAMPIONSHIP CONTEST

If any farmers find the shoes missing from their horses, they could probably find them up at the school playground where the horse shoe pitching tournament for the doubles championship is in progress. The contest is to be decided by elimination matches until only one team is left and they are proclaimed the champions of the school with the honor of winning as a prize.
The contest is under the able supervision of Mayor Howard Beach, who will be present at all matches, so take a good look. The teams were matched by Coach Ruggles.
The contestants for the first round are: C. Myers vs. Van Valkenburg vs. McCauley vs. Schrader; Kerr vs. Meininger vs. Dickerson vs. Eichen;

Ware vs. Latta vs. Hills vs. Beasley; Westphall vs. Dickerson vs. Duguid; Dundas vs. Boyd vs. Martins vs. Bye (match conceded); Knight vs. Deal vs. Fraser vs. Ulrich vs. Beach vs. Tibble vs. Bye; H. Myer vs. H. Myers vs. Bye.

SENIOR WHO'S WHO

Dorothy Heatley was born in Detroit, Michigan, May 26, 1915. She attended the Northville school the first seven grades and spent her eighth grade and freshman years at St. Joseph Academy, Adrian, Michigan. The remaining two years were spent at Northville.
If all goes well, Dorothy expects to attend college and take up some special line.

GREAT POLITICAL CAMPAIGN NOW IN PROGRESS

Last Thursday we were told at the assembly meeting by Coach Ruggles, our acting principal, to imagine ourselves in a great convention hall where many heated arguments were going on. The reason for this was the annual election of the officers of the Student Council.
The meeting was turned over to Mayor Beach, who presented for the campaign managers and speakers for the candidates up for election. The speakers told of the wonderful qualities of their candidates and, of course no one else could fill the office except them.
Some of the speakers were Wilma Rattenbury, John Stenchen, Howard Latta, Robert Cousins, Don Robinson and Warner Neal.
The candidates running for office are:
Mayor: Robert Christenson, Leo Kohler, Robert Powers, and Melvin Sternes.
Treasurer: Gertrude Deal, Marie Humphries, Dorothy Richardson and Richard Shipley.
Secretary: Peggy Blake, Florence Johnson, Catherine Gibson, and Ruth Angel.

West Point Park

Anyone from the Pierson district that wishes to attend the canning demonstration given by the Wayne county home extension workers may do so at the Northville school house next Monday, June 13. A Miss Du Bord will be the demonstrator.
Tuesday was Charles Jacob's eighty-fourth birthday and a dinner was given in his honor by Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Gilbert. Among those who were guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilbert and Junior, and Mr. and Mrs. Marquette Shoman of Detroit.
The Rev. Adams gave a fine sermon Sunday morning and each one present took part in the communion with him. There was a baptismal service, Mr. and Mrs. Aut's child being baptized.
The high school boys and girls accompanied by their principal, Mr. Johnson, report having had a good time at Island Lake Friday evening, bathing, swimming, roller skating with a shower added to the program.
Gale Eugene Russell, aged four, was the victim of an automobile accident on Plymouth road near Roseale Gardens. The child died on the way to the Receiving hospital at Redford. He was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Russell. They have our deepest sympathy in this heartfelt sorrow.
Mrs. Lucile Cavell and daughter, Joan Lillian, were guests at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Phelps.
The eighth graders motored to Elizabeth park. They are to receive their diplomas at Trenton high school. Those attending from Pierson school include Marjorie Heinichman,

Commercial Students Win O. G. A. in Shortland

Sometime ago 14 specimens of shorthand written by students in the Shortland class were sent in to the "Griegg" writer to be judged for membership in the O. G. A. (Order of Gregg Artists). Out of the four, ten received memberships. This is a large number and is the largest ever received at one time from this school. To receive this honor is a fine thing because it means you have quality and other essentials necessary for good shorthand.
Out of the group sent in from Northville, the best specimen is selected and the owner of this specimen receives a pin. Gladys Eckberg received this honor.
The ten people to receive memberships in the O. G. A. are: Dorothy Ash, Melvin Chrysler, Margaret Hay, Madeline Haystead, Marie Humphries, Florence Johnson, Marion Lewis, Wilma Rattenbury, Dorothy Shoebridge and Gladys Eckberg.

MISS IDA LAMB DIES AT WASHINGTON, MICH.

Miss Ida Lamb, 30 years the head of modern languages in a Lansing high school and one time principal at the Northville high school, died at Washington, Michigan, the place of her birth, on Wednesday, June 1st.
Few people living in Northville today remember Miss Lamb. According to Mrs. Charles Dubuar, Miss Lamb came here when she was about 22 years of age, leaving there about 1879 or 1880 and going to Three Rivers, Mich. From Three Rivers she went to Lansing.
Mrs. Dubuar remembers Miss Lamb as a small, thin woman. Some of her pupils during her regime here were Mrs. F. S. Harmon, Mrs. L. A. Babbitt and Mrs. Charles Filkins.

American Legion Auxiliary

The next meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be at the home of Anna Casteline on Tuesday evening, June 14, at 8 p. m. Mable Wilkerson will be hostess.

RECORD GIVES FAREWELL TO HUGH CHAPIN

"The Record" family, including all the employees of the Northville Record, planned a farewell picnic in honor of Hugh Chapin, who has served as linotype operator on the paper for the past two and one-half years. Mr. Chapin and his wife are leaving for the northern part of the state where he expects to take a position on a paper nearer Mrs. Chapin's home. The picnic was planned for Cass Benton park, but on account of rain it was held at the Baldwin home on Fairbrook. Supper was served informally, buffet style, and the evening was spent with games and music. The guests of honor were presented with a token of the esteem of their fellow-workers in parting.
Included in this party were Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, the former being editor of the Stethoscope, Chief of Police and Mrs. Wm. Safford and Mrs. Chapin's sister, Miss Jean McNichol of Ypsilanti, and Byron Reynolds of Albion, successor to Mr. Chapin on the Record force.

Novi Baptist Church

Owing to the absence of the pastor of the Novi Baptist church, the Rev. E. O. Thompson, the Novi Y. P. U. will attend the Northville Baptist church services in the evening. In the Novi church Sunday, Children's day exercises will be held in the morning beginning at 10:30. There will be no evening service.
Woodley followed, sending the ball far enough to score Harry with the winning two for Pierson to the Garden City 1.

ECHANGINES HEAR AUTO-BIOGRAPHIES

The life histories of two of the most prominent members of the club kept Echangines interested following their luncheon held in the Methodist church house Wednesday noon.
John Kalbfleisch, retired Detroit business man, related a short autobiography stating that he was born in a farm in Ontario, Canada, near Toronto on May 23, 1858. Following his education at the "little red school house" to which he walked two miles each day, he began his career in a general store near his home. Deciding against farm life as a career, he came to Detroit in 1881, where he began in the confectionery business. Following the building up of this business successfully, he sold it, he states, entered into another line of endeavor in which he lost everything he owned.
After this tremendous loss he started in at the Western Market in Detroit with two wagon-loads of produce loaned to him on credit by a friend and built his stand into a thriving wholesale grocery business. Following this venture of 20 years he started in the laundry business with his sons and was extremely successful at that.
Mr. Kalbfleisch's family consists of his wife, three boys, and a daughter, and he has been a resident of Northville for five years.
"My biggest am and arabition," declared Mr. Kalbfleisch, "is to be what I call a 'seven-day Christian'—not a man who is a Christian only on Sundays; but for all seven days of the week."

Sherrill W. Ambler is a native of Northville, having been born on Cady street in 1894, and lived there until he was eleven years old. He lived in Ypsilanti for four years and then moved to Detroit where he was graduated from the old Central high school. At the age of 21 he started working at the Dodge automobile factory where he stayed all through the development of that car. Despite the fact that he held an enviable position in Detroit, said Mr. Ambler, he always wanted to come back to Northville; not having missed one week and visit here all of the time that he was gone, and when he was offered the position as manager of the Bell Foundry and Furnace factory, he accepted it. He came to Northville six and a half years ago and despite severe losses engendered in business, he says, he still has his family composed of Mrs. Ambler, born Leota Kenyon, a Northville girl, and two fine boys and a lovely girl, and a host of friends here. He likes Northville and would rather live here than any place else on earth.

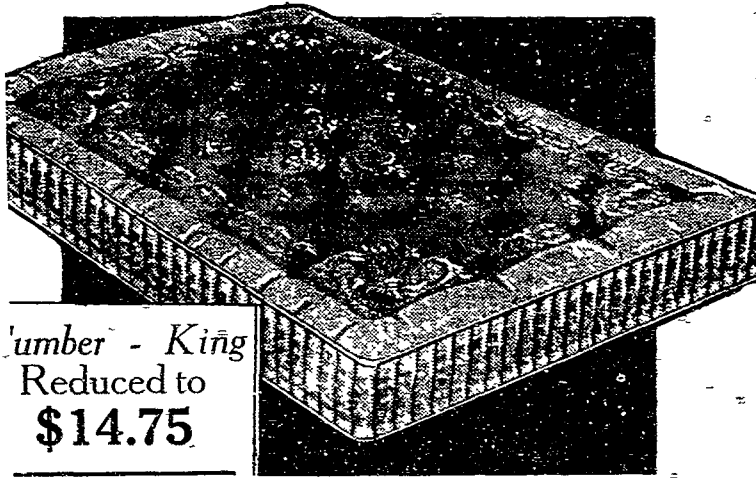

Rev. Frank N. Miner, Methodist pastor, spoke briefly commending the school board for calling the public meeting next Monday evening and "taking the people into its confidence with regard to several crisis which have lately arisen."

Dances Changed
The dances which have been held at the Salem Town Hall have been discontinued for a time. They are to be held at the Community Hall, West Point Park, Seven Mile road and Farmington road.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our sincere thanks to all who assisted us with their sympathy and kindness during our bereavement. We are very grateful to those sending flowers and the friends who helped, especially the Rotary club and Rev. Wm. Richards for his words of comfort.

Merlin Holycross and family.
Carried unanimously.
On motion meeting adjourned.
Fred'k Hedge, Village Clerk.

Can We Have Company to Supper?

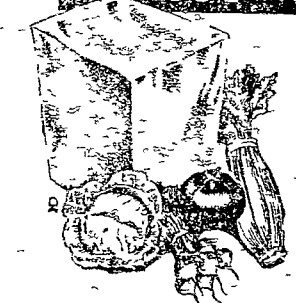

Our home is the children's time playmate of her children. In the home, the Northville mother, we talked about last week. They feel free to invite their friends in whenever they wish—and of course, since it is their company they expect to help with the work. They appreciate the privilege more this way.

We know of a mother she continued, who finally consents after much coaxing to have some company for supper. No unpropitious meal for her! To prepare for this unusual event there must be a thorough house-cleaning for several days and an elaborate meal planned. In this hectic spirit this mother sets the stage for "hospitality" and the children are greeted with cross words and frowns until they wish they had never mentioned the word "company."

The day arrives and tired, red-faced and dispirited, this mother half-heartedly greets her young guests who sense the tense atmosphere so that nobody has a very good time. Laver cake and all the "fixins" do not make up for good cheer.

Hot Milk Delight Cake
1 cup scalded milk 1 teaspoon butter 2 eggs 1 cup sugar, 1 cup cake flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt 1 teaspoon vanilla Heat milk to scalding, add butter and let stand till needed. Beat eggs till thick and lemon color, add sugar and beat again. Gradually add flour in which sift baking powder and salt. Add vanilla and hot milk last. Beat. Bake in loaf pan in moderate oven, 325-350 degrees.

Variation Frosting
By Grace M. Sprenger
For a change or a specialty, in place of the usual amount of plain white sugar, use the same amount of brown sugar.

Two egg whites and 1 1/2 cups of brown sugar will make enough frosting for a very large cake, of course, you've got to use your own judgment as to the amount of frosting you will need.

Then, if your youngsters and, especially your men folk do not agree that this is quite the best frosting they ever tasted—well, they're hopelessly hard to please.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN

Leo C. Eickstedt, Pastor
220 Elm street

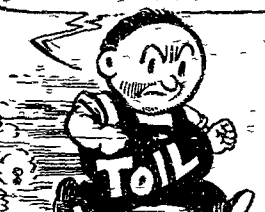

A pastor relates that on a cold and stormy night he was called to visit a dying man. It was not long before he came to the street and the house that had been pointed out. A man not more than twenty years of age was lying on a bed, his face pale, his eyes were rolling wildly and at could clearly be seen that he had only a few minutes to live.

The pastor took his hand, which felt like the hand of a corpse, in his own, said, "My friend, you are dying, and I have come to tell you of Jesus."

"Too late," too late," he roared, "I have heard of Jesus, but I have not believed in him. I was a sinner and needed salvation, but as I went home, I thought I was young and had just started into business and made up my mind that I would put off the subject for a few years. Now I am dying, and I have sent for you, not because I want you to talk to me, but to ask you to pray that my wife and my children may not go to the horrors of woe I am about to enter."

The pastor told him that it was Satan's voice which whispered to him, "Too late!" But in vain was the dying man told of the dying with us. We preach Christ and from all sins, of the grace that saves the chief sinners, of the call of love sounding out at the eleventh hour. The only answer was a groan of despair, and in a little while, lifting his hand as if waving back the shadows, the dying man murmured, "Last Sunday! Last Sunday!" He then moved his head on the pillow, the death rattle was heard in his throat, and he was gone.
