Northville Mourns Passing of David Gage and Jos. Montgomery

The loss by death of two of Northville's prominent citizens during the past week has dealt this community a severe blow. David Gage, Northville's beloved nonagenarian, passed away Friday, July 15, and Joseph Montgomery, a former highway commissioner and village official, died the following day.

Their obituaries are given below.

Joseph Montgomery

After an illness extending over a period of a year and a half during which time he was a patient at the Maybury sanatorium and at health resorts at Tucson, Arizona, and other beneficial places in the southwest, Joseph Montgomery passed away at his home on Rogers street Saturday evening at eight o'clock. His two children, very dear to him, were at his bedside when he died.

Joseph Montgomery was born May 8, 1875, in Novi township, Oakland county. In 1894, he married Miss Alice Weston and two children were born to this union, a son, Earl, and a daughter, Marian.

Mrs. Montgomery died September 15, 1914, after a long period of illness. Her place was taken by her sister, Mrs. Abi Meyers, who came here from Pontiac and has kept house for the family since that time.

Mr. Montgomery was engaged in the trucking business for a number of years and was active in Northville affairs, having served on the village council for four years and was a highway commissioner of Northville township for seven years. During the past few years he was a guard at the Detroit House of Correction farm, which position he held until forced to resign by illness.

David Gage

With 93 years to his credit David Gage slipped away smiling and peacefully last Friday morning after a short but sudden illness.

His passing was a very great surprise, because he had been such a familiar figure upon our streets with his companion, the little black dog.

To greet Mr. Gage was to receive a cheery word and an interested inquiry as to how things were going.

Since the death of Mrs. Gage in 1914, Mr. Gage has been living with his daughter, Mrs. Frank L. Thompson.

The funeral services were held from the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Thompson Sunday afternoon. The burial was in the Novi cemetery. Rev. H. G. Whitfield was in charge of the services, assisted by Rev. Frank Knowles and Rev. W. S. Barbour.

David Gage was born in New York state on August 11, 1839, and came to Michigan when a small boy, his parents locating on a farm in Novi township, three miles west on Grand River. Here, within a radius of not many miles from this home his long life was spent. He attended the district school until the age of 17 when he went to the State Normal college at Ypsilanti and studied until ready to start out on a teaching career which extended through the following 50 years.

It was in the rural schools that Mr. Gage taught, among them were New Hudson, Novi, Wixom and Pleasant Valley. On November 15, 1860 at the age of twenty-one, he was married to a young woman of the same age, Miss Emeline Clark from New York state by Robert Yerkes, Justice of the Peace.

Mr. Gage was one of the important members of the West Novi Debating society, a very wonderful organization in its day, and one that numbered some real debaters in its membership.

Mr. Gage was a regular attendant at the Presbyterian church and an honorary member of the Rotary club.

Mr. Gage is survived by three sons, Clement C. and Stephen C. of Saginaw, and Clayton L. of Flint, and one daughter, Mrs. Frank Thompson.

NEW P. O. FLOOR REMOVES SQUEAK

Gone is the well known squeak in the Post Office floor! Gone is the whole floor in fact. Postmaster T. R. Carrington and his staff of postal employees proudly, or sadly, call this to the attention of their customers; though it is not usually necessary, as nearly everyone notices the great change in the floor, especially the absence of the squeak.

A new red cement floor has replaced the old wooden one eliminating the much talked of annoying squeak. The floor was put in by Dr. Randall Schuyler, who owns the building, without cost to the post office department.

The construction work was performed by the Koon Building and Supply company of Ann Arbor. The men who built the new floor worked all Friday night and Saturday in order to have it ready to greet the early customers Monday morning.

GERMAN'S CHIEFS DEFEAT LAPEER 4-3 BEFORE BIG CROWD

The Northville Chiefs, journeyed to LaPeer, Mich. Thursday for a light game of baseball, and returned victorious, defeating LaPeer four to three.

The Chiefs were escorted to the city park by the Michigan Industrial and LaPeer High School bands. Soon 1500 base ball fans were in attendance and a fine snappy contest between the LaPeer Merchants and the Northville Chiefs took place.

LaPeer was held scoreless until the ninth inning when they made three runs. Meanwhile the Northville boys had pushed four men across the plate making the final score four to three in favor of the Chiefs.

Two brothers acted as the batter for LaPeer and the noted German duo, Harry Sr. and Loyal, supplied the pitching and catching for Northville.

THE ROTARY CLUB HONORS DAVID GAGE

Northville Rotarians paid tribute to their luncheon Tuesday to David Gage, an honorary member, who until recently had often dropped in for the weekly programs and showed a keen interest in all the affairs of the club.

In a short but impressive talk Don Yerkes Sr. spoke in the highest praise of the unique life of Mr. Gage. His outstanding character, his friendly nature and his deep knowledge of many activities of life were eulogized. The members of the club had always greatly enjoyed the visits of Mr. Gage and his passing will be sincerely mourned.

The Rotarians then received half an hour of practical instruction in the gentle art of debate when the question, "Resolved, That the United States should cancel half of the debts owed to it by the allied nations," was discussed.

The two having the affirmative side, E. M. Bogart, and R. T. Baldwin, failed to convince the listening members that their argument was more effective than the negative side which was defended by Father Jos. G. Schuler and Charles E. Rogers.

Unique support of their side of the question was brought into the debate by the affirmative debaters who had brought large yellow signs and telegrams from Floyd Gibbons, Ramsey McDonald and Herbert Hoover into the auditorium. The negative speakers were especially effective in their rebuttal speeches.

A. L. Anderson, editor of the Stehoscope of the Eastlawn Sanatorium, presided and kept the debate moving smoothly.

Next week the members will attend district assembly at the Dearborn Inn at Dearborn.

R. A. Marz will have charge of the August 2 program.

DAILY VACATION SCHOOL TREASURY NEEDS $6.00

The offering July 10 at the public service closing the Daily Vacation school came within $6.00 of the cost of conducting the school.

Last year we asked the four schools concerned to pay each $5.25 to cover a much larger need. This year we would be happy not to ask the schools for anything. Anyone desirous of helping to cover this balance needed, to the extent of a nickel up to a dollar may hand this amount to the undersigned or to Rev. F. D. Miner or Rev. H. G. Whitfield. W. R. ## WATERFORD POND TAKES LIVES OF 2

Walter Pienwiski and Fred Seibert Are Drowning Victims

Two drownings occurring at Ford's Waterford pond this week were the result of the prolonged heat wave under which the entire nation is suffering. Bathers, seeking relief, have crowded every available swimming spot around Northville in large numbers.

Fred Seibert, 19 year old farm laborer on the August Bernhardt farm, lost his life while swimming Tuesday night in the Ford Waterford pond, located on the Northville road two miles south of Northville.

Seibert and Henry Bernhardt, son of the farm proprietor, left the Bernhardt farm following the completion of their chores and drove to Waterford pond. They entered the water and according to bathers were swimming around when Seibert disappeared. Bernhardt attempted to locate his friend among the fifty or sixty bathers in the pond and the spectators on the shore. Unable to find Seibert, Bernhardt notified the Northville police.

Grappling hooks were secured and the pond was dragged. At approximately 10:45, Chief Wm. Safford in charge of the operations, brought up the body which it is estimated had been in the water for two hours.

All efforts to resuscitate the boy were futile and the body was taken to the Wayne County morgue. Seibert's family consisting of his father and mother and five brothers living in Lincoln, Mich., were notified and the body was shipped there from Schrader's funeral home.

Walter Pienwiski, 26, of Caniff avenue, Hamtramck, was drowned Saturday noon at Waterford pond, six miles and Northville road.

Alleged to have been intoxicated, Pienwiski, and two companions, Joseph Pernik and Leo Demsky, also of Hamtramck, drove from Detroit to Waterford dam for a swim. Pienwiski entered the water first and called to his friends and urged them to hurry and come in.

"He kept right on walking until he was over his depth. A nearby swimmer grabbed for his hair but was unable to hang on and bring Pienwiski to the shore. Word was sent to both Northville and Plymouth police to bring grappling hooks and a pulmotor while bathers kept diving in a futile attempt to get the boy.

With the aid of the grappling hooks, which arrived within a few minutes after the police had been notified, the body was recovered and resuscitation work begun immediately, but to no avail.

Demsky and Pernik were arrested for being drunk and disorderly and were turned over to the Hamtramck police for questioning.

Over the week end it is estimated that approximately 3,000 bathers swam in Phoenix lake where no life guard protection is available. Pienwiski is the first victim to drown while swimming at any of the lakes near Northville this summer.

By A. L. ANDERSON

First hand information of the great siege of the Bonus Expeditionary Forces which has been camped at the door of Washington for the past few weeks, came to the Record office last week, borne by a small grey haired veteran who hitchhiked all the way from the Capital city to his home in Plymouth to seek more recruits. Delbert Cummings is his name and his story of the 15,000 men who are determined to stand fast until they are assured of a bonus or some form of relief gives one a glimpse of one of the epics of this era.

In this temporary city, more than five times larger in population than Northville, and whose buildings are tents and improvised barracks made of boards picked up anywhere they could be found, this convention of citizens reduced to vagrancy are carrying on a gunless, bloodless battle.

"There are no demonstrations, no violence," declared Mr. Cummings. "Military police keep order, different

Public Invited to "Open House" At the New American Legion Home-Next Monday Evening, July 25

The American Legion and Auxiliary will hold "open house" at their new home on East Main street next Monday evening, July 25, to which the public is cordially invited. The hours are from 7:00 to 10:00 and light refreshments will be served during the evening.

Those on the reception committee are: Mrs. Marguerite Vroman, Mrs. Cora Shoenberger, Mrs. Mahle Wilkinson, Charles Schults, Floyd Lanning, Martin Kaletsky, and Robert Yerkes.

The residence was given to the Legion and Auxiliary by the Ford Motor company in May and since that time has been a veritable beehive of industry as partitions were removed and hardwood floors laid throughout the lower floor. Both groups met in the new quarters Tuesday evening, July 12, for the first time.

It is hoped that many Northville residents will avail themselves of the privilege of inspecting the splendid new home Monday night between the hours of 7:00 and 10:00.

LEGION AUXILIARY HOST TO 16 UNITS

The Legion Auxiliary of the Lloyd H. Green Post No. 147 had the honor of entertaining the Auxiliaries of the Sixth District at Northville last Friday, July 15.

The meeting was held at the Presbyterian church house with a one o'clock luncheon served by the church auxiliary. Ninety-six auxiliary members were present, representing sixteen units. After an interesting program the business meeting was called to order for the purpose of electing candidates for state and district officers.

On Sunday, July 24th, the Legion and Auxiliary and families will go to Children's Bilet at Otter lake. This will be pot luck lunch and all are asked to meet at the Legion home at 9:00 o'clock.

Tuesday, July 26, is the next Auxiliary meeting to be held at the home at 8:00 o'clock.

Monday evening, July 25, at 7:30 o'clock is the date for the formal opening of the Legion and Auxiliary home. The Auxiliary with the Legion extends an invitation to the public to attend this opening.

BAND CONTINUES SUMMER CONCERTS

The Northville Community School band will give the third in its series of summer concerts tomorrow night at 7:30.

These splendid concerts have so far attracted a large number of listeners each Saturday evening and are expected to continue to do so.

The program as arranged for tomorrow is as follows:

March, "Old Black Joe," King. Overture, "Royal Highway," Mus-tol.

Trombone novelty, "Sliding Blues," Jewell.

March, "Old Comrades," Tickle. Waltz, "The Voice in the Old Village Choir," Woods.

Romance, "Broken Dreams," Holmes.

"Valse Caprice," Zayda. "Going Home," Request.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS AT MT. CLEMENS WEDNESDAY

The Royal Neighbors entire lodge went to Mt. Clemens Wednesday afternoon to take on the initiatory work at the county convention.

The following initiation and degree team put on the work: Miss Eleanor Martz, captain, Mrs. Barbara Wade, Mrs. Mary Wadsworth, Mrs. Amelia Ford, Mrs. Clara Hicks, Mrs. Eva Martz, Mrs. Grace Calkins, Mrs. Myrtle Sears, Mrs. Zada Riley, Mrs. Anna Duxon, Mrs. Mabel Ware, Mrs. Daisy Martin, Mrs. Ida Harmon and Mrs. Fern Conklin.

Word has been received of the death of Seward Stark on July 15 at his home in Whittier, California. Mr. Stark was formerly of Northville, but went to California about 1884. He was the last of the John K. Stark family of one sister and nine brothers and an uncle of Willard D. Stark of Northville.

SEWARD STARK DIES AT WHITTIER, CAL.

Word has been received of the death of Seward Stark on July 15 at his home in Whittier, California. Mr. Stark was formerly of Northville, but went to California about 1884. He was the last of the John K. Stark family of one sister and nine brothers and an uncle of Willard D. Stark of Northville.

No definite action was taken and the council will set a date at its next meeting for a public hearing at which time the project will be presented to residents of the village.

The council approved the request of the Chief of Police, Wm. Safford for the addition of a drag-line to the village equipment. The drag line, a contrivance which is used to recover the bodies of drowned persons, will cost only a small sum and because of the many dangerous swimming spots near Northville, is said to be a practical necessity that cannot be ignored.

Dr. A. B. Wickham, head of the Eastlawn sanatorium, appeared before the council to urge construction of a sidewalk by the village up to the sanatorium.

The councilmen adjourned in a body to Walnut street, the proposed site for the walk and conferred with Harold Hamill, Plymouth engineer, as to the probable cost of the project and its feasibility.

Men who wish to leave the camp must first secure passes, according to Soldier Cummings, and leave is granted only in cases of assigned

FOUR TOWNS TAKE PART IN FIREMEN'S DAY

Proceeds of Celebration and Boxing Show to go to Charity

Firemen of Northville, Wayne, Farmington, and Plymouth will take a day off on Friday, July 29, and will hold a Field day at the Northville fair grounds.

Proceeds from the celebration will be given to welfare in the four-town towns on a percentage basis. 30 per cent to go to the winner of the events, 28 per cent to second place, 25 per cent to third place and 17 per cent to fourth place.

The field events will start at 1:30 p. m. in the afternoon and will include sprints, weight throwing, flag of war, cane spear, bicycle race, leading up to the climax, a men-moth water battle in which teams from each fire department will take their ability on the diamond. An elimination quiz, piping contest, will test the fire fighters' ability at their favorite pastime.

Plenty of music will be assured patrons of the Field day as there will be four high school bands, including Northville's High School and Community band which has won high honors all over Michigan.

Admission will be 25 cents for adults and children under ten will be admitted free.

In the evening, a charity boxing show will be held, the main bout featuring Don McLeod in a ten-round return bout with Eddie Kopy. In a semi-final, Frankie Murphy meets Johnny Mitchell and in another feature bout, Woody Williams will tangle with Andy Moore. This latter bout is said to be "full of color."

There will be three preliminary bouts on the card and the admission price will be fifty cents, the proceeds to be devoted to Northville charity.

The entire day's entertainment has been carefully planned with the idea of giving the customers double their money's worth. Promoters say, and it is expected that there will be approximately 4,000 people in Northville to enjoy the events.

HINMAN SCHOOL DISTRICT NAMES NEW OFFICERS

At the annual school meeting of school district No. 6 of Northville Monday, July 11, the following officers were elected: moderator, Chas. H. Smock; treasurer, Henry Hansen; director, Mrs. Anna Fry; Mrs. Lillian Rakestraw of Northville has been secured as teacher.

The school is located on the Seven Mile road and is commonly known as the Hinman school. The sessions will begin on September 6 and will include the first eight grades.

ANNUAL STAG DAY AT MEADOWBROOK

The annual stag day of the Meadowbrook golf and country club was held Wednesday, at the club on Base Line road with about 300 men participating. A par-mutual pool was formed to go the player with the lowest final score and a kickers handicap (between 70 and 80) was held. In the evening the gentlemen present were treated to a barbecue and enjoyed various locker-room games.

Word has been received of the death of Seward Stark on July 15 at his home in Whittier, California. Mr. Stark was formerly of Northville, but went to California about 1884. He was the last of the John K. Stark family of one sister and nine brothers and an uncle of Willard D. Stark of Northville.

NORTHVILLE SWELTERS WITH INTENSE HEAT

The weather these days is slightly warm. This has been discovered by all Northville residents (and other people).

The thermometer on Tuesday registered 96 degrees, but on the same day in Detroit it was 99 in the shade. On Wednesday it was officially slightly cooler, according to the thermometer (which they say does not lie) but everyone seems willing to swear that it was at least 100 yesterday.

The mercury was again hovering around the nineties, with however, a break predicted before the end of the week.

Besides the intense heat it is very dry. We need rain for our lawns and for the crops which the farmers have planted and so carefully cultivated.

However, we are helpless; and the best we can do is to hope for rain and cooler weather to bring us comfort.

NEW BANK MAY BE OPENED IN SEPTEMBER

If the stock for Northville's new bank can be raised in the near future, it will be possible for the new institution to be opened in September. This information comes from an authoritative source, Floyd Northville, secretary.

The officers and directors are working to make the 1932 Northville Wayne County fair an outstanding event and every effort is being put forth for the entertainment of its patrons.

"Many changes are being made this year. The fair will be only a four day event, Wednesday, August 24, being the opening day with a colored wedding the headliner for that evening.

"This will be held in the dignified manner with beautiful costumes, bridesmaids, and attendants and will be a legitimate ceremony. This will be preceded by plantation songs, and other special numbers besides the regular high class free acts the Northville fair has always endeavored to obtain.

"Auto polo will be played at each performance of the fair and a bucking mule, an animal act for the children, as well as grown ups will give all a hearty laugh.

The Detroit Creamery, seven horse hook-up, of beautiful horses with electrically lighted harness will be a prominent attraction.

"Three days of horse races and a base ball tournament are among the regular features. With the exception of auto polo, a complete change of program will take place each afternoon and evening.

"The Horse Show committee is cooperating with the fair management and many events of beautiful horses in action will be staged in front of the grandstand each afternoon and evening.

"Friday, August 26, has been declared Governor's day and Governor Wilbur M. Brucker and his party will be Northville's guests on that day.

"The directors of the Northville fair have worked hard for the past sixteen years without financial compensation to make the fair one of the cleanest, and most educational fairs in the state, but it cannot be a success without the cooperation of the public. Plan your exhibit now. Come and be on our list for the 1932 fair the best fair in the best little town in Michigan.

"By making an exhibit, you are entitled to an exhibitor's ticket for $1.00 which is good for gate admission day or night. The gate admission has been lowered again to 25 cents, both day and night performance. Plans have been made to park all autos on grounds.

"Bring an exhibit—spend a day at the fair, and climax the four day festival by watching the beautiful display of fireworks. Be sure to bring your entire family—there will be something of intense interest for everyone."

HIGH SPEED STATION FORMAL OPENING PLANNED JULY 23, 24

Northville's newest gas station, one of a group of High Speed stations owned by Raymond and Earl Jacob of Belleville, and managed locally by Lee Herrick, will hold a grand formal opening on Friday and Saturday, July 22 and 23.

Six beautiful chip-proof water glasses will be given to each customer purchasing one dollar's worth of gasoline, as a souvenir of the occasion.

The beautiful new station with its shining, white face brick and elaborate flood light system has aroused considerable admiring comment from Northville townspeople who vote the new station a decided asset to the village.

Complete new equipment including three gasoline pumps, spark plug tester, a battery service unit, two grease lifts (all jobs completed according to the factory specifications of each car) wash rack, two air towers outside the station and one inside, rest rooms, tire repairing equipment, shock absorber servicing equipment, all combine to serve customers of the new station in quick and efficient fashion.

A complete line of accessories is carried by the station as well as the quality line of Lee of Conshocken tires.

Adding Mr. Herrick in running the station are Maylon Hinman, and Clyde Hinman, both having many years of experience as a background for their work in the new station.

FOUR DAY FAIR HERE STARTS ON AUGUST 24

Reduced Prices, New Features, Expected to Draw Many

The Northville Wayne County fair "improved" annually—will, again draw thousands of persons from all over the state and from many nearby cities.

Beginning Wednesday, August 24, and lasting for four days, the fair has reduced its prices, added many new features and will have the pleasure of entertaining Governor Wilbur M. Brucker on Friday, August 26, which has been named as "Governor's Day."

Officials of the fair, Nelson C. Schrader, president, Floyd Northville, secretary, and Ernest Miller, treasurer, predict that this year's fair will surpass anything previously shown at Northville.

Following is a glimpse of what the fair will be like and it comes from an authoritative source, Floyd Northville, secretary.

JOHN KALBFLEISCH NAMED PRESIDENT OF SCHOOL BOARD

Dr. E. B. Cavell, who has been president of the board of education the last three years, and who did not desire reelection, was anxious to be relieved of the duties and responsibilities of president. Accordingly, the other members joined with him in urging John Kalbfleisch to take the office. With much reluctance, Mr. Kalbfleisch finally yielded to pressure from the rest of the board and has accepted the office.

With the exception of Dr. Cavell as president pro tem the other officers remain the same; viz.: Secretary, Sherrill W. Ambler. Treasurer, Dr. Paul Alexander. Band Manager, Fred W. Lyke.

HOW THE "SAN" HELPS.

We haven't been saying much about our own troubles lately, since a good friend told us that he and his wife had placed their little daughter in the Maybury sanatorium for treatment. We wondered how we should feel if one of our stalwart kids had to park in that place.

The other day we met him and asked him how she was coming. "Say you ought to see that child eat," he said. "She has gained four pounds and is almost eating holes in the dishes, she gets so hungry."

That child is going to get well and quit fooling with TB. And we got to thinking of what a marvelous book Dr. Bruce H. Douglas and his associates could write, if they told of the many cases where the Maybury sanatorium has put new life and hope into little and big folks. Those thousand acres of land out there west of town are adding a lot of wealth to the world—in more ways than one.

HELPING THE CHURCH

These are tough days for the budgets of the Northville churches. With incomes cut on all sides, "raising the money" has been hard during recent months. Yet, is there an institution in the community that we need more right now than the church? No matter what one's dogmatical belief—or lack of it—all will admit that any town would suffer vastly if the church doors had to be all closed. The things for which the church stands, if carried out in the past few years, would have saved the country from the three years of woe through which we have just come.

This would be a good time for all believers in their home community, whether habitual church goers or not, to lend a hand of help to the churches—any one of them. Don't ask the "faithful few" to carry all the load of a community enterprise that makes Northville a safer, happier and better place in which to live. If the churches all closed, what would you give afterward to bring them back?

A MIGHTY PROJECT

Northville will be in the path of progress opened wider by the development of the St. Lawrence waterways project, about which we have been hearing a good deal lately. With Detroit welcoming ocean-going vessels that will bring in commerce from overseas by means of the new route, this section will in eight or ten years undoubtedly take on new life. In fact, the whole belt from Detroit to Chicago might easily become an industrial area that would be known around the world.

Now that both President Hoover and Governor Roosevelt, the democratic nominee, are boosting strong for the St. Lawrence plan and Canada is about ready to sign the treaty, this mighty project comes close to its start. President Hoover has been at work on the plan for the past eleven years and certainly his engineering genius has been a tremendous factor in the progress of the difficult negotiations with Canada. Now he adds his statesmanship to the plan and when the history of the waterways is written, the name of Hoover will rate high. The success of the plan would undoubtedly have come sooner had not New York so bitterly fought it. Now, the East realizes that the whole nation will benefit by the giant enterprise and men who have previously opposed the plan are climbing on to the band wagon.

With a brighter prospect overseas for all the nations, this great St. Lawrence project may be destined to be one of the schemes of men that will bring in a new era for the United States and Canada and also our sister nations over the oceans. Who knows?

GROESBECK IS OUT

Governor Wilbur M. Brucker can breathe easier. He is going to have an easier time at the September primaries. Former governor, Alex J. Groesbeck, announces that he will not be a candidate. That is as was expected and opens the way for George W. Welsh of Grand Rapids to oppose Brucker. Mayor McKeigan of Flint is too much on the defensive himself to become a vital factor—he will get a lot of votes, but will fall far short. There are other candidates, but they need not be taken too seriously for the real fight will be between Governor Brucker and Mr. Welsh, with all the odds in favor of the present chief executive of Michigan.

Although Governor Brucker will not show his strength of 1930 in some parts of the state, yet there is a widespread feeling that he is sincere and honest and has done his best during very stormy times to be a good governor. The average voter will feel that it is fair for him to have a second term.

We hear nowhere that thoughtful critics of Michigan politics give the democrats a chance to elect the governor. The strongest men of the party, such as Judge A. J. Lacy, apparently did not care to take the chance of losing next fall and the candidates that are being considered lack the appeal to defeat Brucker. There might, of course, be some chance for a democratic landslide in Michigan next November, but there is little or nothing in the air now to indicate that. So, if Governor Brucker gets safely by the primaries, as there is every reason to think he will, he will not have a runaway in November, but he will be a comfortable winner.

As wise a critic as Groesbeck thinks that the wet and dry question should not swing our state elections. There will be more of this spirit as election approaches.

WANDERING THOUGHTS

Northville is on the map. What other town has two candidates for Congress and, if they had, how could they be as likeable as Yerkes and Murphy?

The new Legion-Auxiliary home is a fine boost for Main street. We don't know of any groups that could better make use of Mr. Ford's generosity.

Some folks make us smile. They want the newspaper to "raze" someone, but if you ask them to just write a little communication to the paper and sign their own name to it, they back away mighty quickly. The newspaper man likes peace as well as anyone else and he also has to figure on making his bread and butter.

Samuel Insull, once a millionaire many times over, is "broke" and says himself: "Here I go, after 50 years of work, a man without a job." We'll never forget how this depression—that now seems to be lifting its wings for flight—levelled them all, little and big. We all were cut down, whether we liked it or not. And now we all know what money won't do.

Human nature runs the same—in Los Angeles or Northville or Texas. Mrs. Baldwin writes from New York City that little Phil wasn't long getting acquainted with the children around his aunt's home. Got to making airplanes and borrowing bicycles, just like he does on Fairbrook avenue here. And wouldn't it be fine if the grown-ups had some of the democracy and good sense of the children who never think to draw the social or color lines?

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

What is your biggest ambition?

This Week

By H. H. White

It may sound a little pedantic to write about the present economic disaster that has prevailed the world in such a universal fashion, but in reading the many articles in the newspapers and magazines and an occasional brochure so many writers have been either too pessimistic or optimistic in their interpretations. And this seems to me to have little meaning for superlatives are often misleading.

If one is inclined to look forward and measure the world by his standard of ideals, he finds it bad; if he looks backward and measures the present by the past, he finds it good. And usually the pertinent and important issue is entirely lost in the interpretation set forth.

The really important thing in this crisis is not the goodness or badness of the world, but the progress of it. Since the social order and the economic laws are forever moving and changing and not standing still, and still more important than this is the idealism in the human soul which makes every present good seem imperfect in the light of the higher good that we can conceive. Thus one is led to philosophize that neither optimism nor pessimism is good argument in interpreting the present dilemma of universal economic disaster or is there anything gained by doing so. It would seem that meliorism has taken its place and this idea teaches that the universe is neither the worst possible, nor is it the best possible, but that it is getting better, and that the task before every one of us is to lend a hand in making it so.

I don't think anyone questions the fact that the present world crisis is more universal and severe than any hitherto experienced in what is called modern times. Nor does anyone with careful reasoning doubt that the economic leadership of the present day discloses unexpected and startling deficiency. Nor does anyone with a discerning mind feel that high prices produce prosperity as the reverse of low prices produce adversity, as the optimist or pessimist would have us believe, as the case may be.

Most any suggestion of peace, good will, world cooperation in a new and powerful demand for the exchange of commodities, or better trade and industrial relations, or the suggestion that our government take the lead in a most serious effort to meet this world situation with practical measures for strengthening the metallic basis of world currency and credit might sound like a lot of platitudes, but if this be the case and these are platitudes, then in heaven's name, let us be more plitudinous.

If these suggestions in the light of meliorism are the necessary elements to pull us out of this economic crisis then let us be up and doing for there is nothing in the situation which the people of Europe and America have not the power to remedy, if they will.

Every Monday Morning

By "AD" SCHWENGER

Orow G. Cohen, the big cloak and suit merchant of Main street, is swapping nominating petitions with me these days.
"Hell sign mine if I'll sign his. It makes no difference to us how many we've signed, whether they're democratic or republican, or whether we've signed previously for the opposing candidate. We're accommodating enough to sign anything—even unto a blank check."
"Wattai, we can't lose anything!"

Let's see some pencil-pusher living off of the government will call for a geographer and dictate a stiff letter to the effect that I'm making myself liable to a million dollar fine and ten days in the cooler for illegally signing a government document.
Well, if he does he'll get a swell return note telling him how to run his blanket blank government. I guess I could run it if they'd give me an even break. Not in my neck, either!

I'd hire only stenographers between the ages of twenty and twenty-five and they'd have to be darned good looking. I'd have them up before a committee composed of Neil Junod, Claussey Murdock and "Chick" Rly and if that committee couldn't pick me a bunch of elegant stenographers, then I miss my guess from here to Now!

Aw, well, maybe they're running the government that way anyhow. It certainly acts like it.

I'm sitting here letting little rivulets of sweat drip down my glasses and, if someone mentions the fact that the thermometer is hovering around ninety once more, I'll burst into a gagging, spitting frenzy.
And if H. L. Newman, recently of Detroit, at present somewhere in New Hampshire, reads this as he probably will, I hope his grandchildren, become radio announcers and that my grandchildren are able to dial them out of the air.

Big sign on the post office, "Use Side Door."
Do you have to have a card to get in or can you just say you know the bartender?

I was standing in the narrow passageway of one of our leading emporiums the other day and to emphasize what I was saying I gave the wall a sock with my fist. A 30 inch saw whistled past my nose, causing the few remaining hairs on my head to stand straight in the air like so many pieces of wire.
"I'm like that. I frighten, and bruise easily. If someone sneaks up behind me and says, "Boo," I'm likely to fall into a gentle swoon."

It occurred far enough back so that it can be told without injuring anyone's feelings.

The following paragraph, "AT-MOST" got into the Record, but was caught by a proofreader:
"The funeral service was in charge of 2 pullets; Fuller 1 old hen, and Lake assisted by the Pastor, Rev. W. Roscoe Barbour. The text was appropriately chosen: 'At Eventide There Shall Be Light.'"

At Eventide there'd have been hell to pay if that transposition had been in the paper!

DO YOU REMEMBER WHEN—

Your village tax receipt for the ordinary home in Northville read about $5.00?

All trains stopped at Northville to take water from the big tank that stood where the covered spring is located?

That a bank or banks were in continuous operation here for 74 years prior to the late bank unpleasantness?

That this town was a shipping center for wheat and that it was loaded into cars from the old storage house on the then hill north of the present depot?

There was a day when they did not raise crops of cabbages in the bottom of the Ambler mill pond?

South Center street had three steep hills that the strongest horses found it difficult to draw a load over that highway?

That this paper is operating under the eighth owner since it was established in 1869?

That the row of fine maples on Griswold road were set out by Dean Griswold's father, the greatly reverend "Uncle" Clark Griswold?

There were extensive cattle yards where the coal sheds along the railway now stand, and that regular

SALEM NEWS

Mrs. Ralph Wilson and sons spent Friday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Galpin, Whitmore lake.

Mrs. Mary Marvin of Northville is at present, visiting in the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Payne. Mr. and Mrs. Vern Kahler and little Marjorie Jane returned Wednesday from a pleasant vacation spent in the northern part of the state, and Miss Marica Richmond of Pejoskey came with them for a visit with her aunt, Mrs. Ivan Speers, and family.

The Rev. Otto W. Kehrl and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Noyce and friend of Bloomfield Hills, called Wednesday evening at the Congregational parsonage. The former to bid "adieu" as both the Rev. and Mrs. O. W.

shipments of swine, sheep and cattle were made each week?

Grain drills of a specially effective kind were made in Northville by the Globe Grain Drill Co., some of which are still in use?

The half block occupied by the Baiden and Schrader residences held the stately home of Dr. John M. Swift and there were many tall trees in the yard?

Keller and son, Weldon, will leave Wednesday, July 20, from Quebec, Canada, on S. S. Empress of Britain to their mission field in British East Africa. Their many friends wish them God's blessing on their long journey as they will be on the high seas when this news item is published.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kehrl and Dorothy Lou, Northville, were Wednesday supper guests in the R. W. Kehrl home.

The Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Heitman and family and Conrad Heimlicher of Toledo spent Sunday in the Congregational parsonage.

For Tuesday afternoon of last week Mrs. Ed Benjamin arranged a lovely birthday party for her daughter, Marian, celebrating her seventh natal day. The guest of honor and her little friends had a real jolly time at play and relished the delicious refreshments served at the close of the afternoon.

Mrs. R. W. Kehrl and Miss Kehrl motored Monday afternoon to Ann Arbor on business.

Mrs. Henry Whittaker left last week to see her sister, who is very ill at her home in Rochester, N. Y.

Mrs. Ivan Speers entertained the Ladies Auxiliary society of Congregational church Tuesday afternoon at Riverside park, Plymouth, and about 32 members with their guests sat down to a fine pot luck supper in the beautiful surroundings and glorious weather.

Miss Irma Kehrl spent Saturday with her sister, Mrs. O. Dudley, in Redford, and little Betty Jean returned home with her aunt to be an overnight guest in the R. W. Kehrl home. Sunday afternoon she accompanied her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Kehrl, Irma and Lester, to Redford and they were supper guests in her parental home.

The Crusader Sunday school class of the Congregational church held a jolly outing with their teacher, Mrs. Ivan Speers, last Friday evening at Whitmore lake, which was towards the end of the "drowning" of a boy at this popular resort.

Miss Della Stoffer was ill for a few days last week and Miss Gillis of Northville cared for her.

Mr. Lomas and Miss Hazel Lomas and Willard Lockwood, Newburg, attended services Sunday morning in the Congregational church and called at the parsonage.

Salem Congregational Church
Rev. Lucia M. Stron
Next Sunday divine worship at 10:30 a. m. followed by Sunday school at 11:45.

The pastor will fill her pulpit again that day.

The prayer meeting this week will be held Thursday evening in the church instead of Wednesday evening.

Last Sunday the Rev. E. J. Heitman, Toledo, Ohio, gave an inspiring message from John 17. Especially so was verse 3: And this is "Life eternal," that they might know thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

Mr. C. Heimlicher, Toledo, Ohio, had the preliminaries and rendered two touching songs—
Come to church Sunday!
The church's one foundation is Jesus Christ, her Lord;
She is His new creation by water and the word;
From Heaven He came and sought her to be His holy bride;
With His own blood He bought her
And for her life He died."

SHUFFLERS ARE SENSATION AT EDGEWATER PARK
Anderson's shufflers, colored rhythmic kings, are now in their eighth week at Jean Goldkette's beautiful Edgewater park ballroom and judging by the ever increasing number of couples on the floor each evening, they are making a decided hit. Lower prices are also contributing to the popularity of this open air dancing palace. Every Monday evening ladies are admitted free.

These reports were accepted and ordered approved by the President.
Election of Trustees.
It was declared that the terms of Dr. E. B. Cavell and Sherrill W.
Ambler as trustees had expired and it was in order to elect members to fill these trusteeships for three years.
President appointed Joe Vroman and Charles A. Dolph as tellers. These tellers were sworn in by Wellington
Roberts. Joe Vroman nominated Dr.
E. B. Cavell to succeed himself and moved that the nomination be closed which motion was seconded by Frank Mapes. Secretary Ambler acted as temporary chairman. The motion was lost. A regular ballot was now taken and the tellers reported total number of votes, 33, of which Dr. E. B. Cavell received
30 and 3 were scattered. Dr.
Cavell was declared re-elected.
M. J. Murphy nominated Sherrill
W. Ambler to succeed himself. On motion made by Wellington Roberts and seconded by C. L. Dubuar that nominations be closed and the tellers instructed to cast a unanimous ballot for Sherrill W. Ambler, the tellers announced the ballot as 28 votes for Mr. Ambler. The President declared Trustee Ambler re-elected.
Secretary now raised a question as to the wisdom of undertaking the expense of an expert audit. No action.
Carmel Benton suggested that in the future the annual report be published before the meeting if possible. President gave an opinion that this would not be regular because the annual financial report has to be a part of the minutes of the school meeting.
A number of questions were raised concerning the amount of tax to be spread and the details of the budget. President called on the Secretary to answer these questions.
In the course of the discussion a question was asked regarding the items of Instructional Service (not salaries) and it was suggested by Charles L. Dubuar that the Board be requested to publish separately these items along with the annual report.
After other general discussion, and there being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 9:50.

MAN LOST 25 POUNDS
LOOKS 100 PER CENT BETTER
Feels Stronger Than Ever

Just to prove to any doubtful man that a woman that Kruschen Salt is the SAFE way to reduce—let us take the letter of Mrs. F. J. Fritz of Cincinnati, Ohio, recently received.

He writes: "I've tried extreme dieting, setting up exercises with very little results—but the results from Kruschen are almost incredible. In 3 months I reduced from 205 to 175 pounds and feel stronger than ever—no more wheezing or gasping for breath—friends say I look 100% better."

Bear in mind, you fat man, that there is danger in too much fat—try the safe way to reduce—one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning—cut down on fatty meats and sweets—one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle—get it at any drug store in the world.

HOMEMAKER'S CORNER

By MRS. EDITOR

A LETTER FROM NEW YORK

Dear friends of this little corner: There's nothing like being far away from the little home town to make one realize how dear it is. I did we ever dash about Northville streets, pencil in ear, seeking what we might draw in the way of news.

Here we sit in the quiet little green-fenced flower-bordered back yard of one of the infinite rows of neat homes on Long Island with only a distant rumble to remind us that we are in the midst of a population of seven millions.

Nine miles to the north lies the Sound, to the south the mighty Atlantic from which at night the fog rolls up over the island and cool sea breezes chase away the heat of the day.

Flowers flourish here. Every yard is blooming. Blue hydrangeas seem to be peculiar to this location.

Reside us sits our sister Mary, dear to us as only those who have had a beloved sister can understand.

With a far away look she is recovering from a year's illness. The clouds are lifting. With a box of old photographs before us we have been living over the years of close association since earliest babyhood when we were bereft of our mother.

We shared the same little cot and later in girlhood our blue and white room. "Sunny Nook."

Once we were sent "nuptial" hop to the barber shop because curls were too much bother to a busy father. Under the barber's shears fell brown locks and red curls in mingled mass on the floor and two little "boys" made their way sheepishly home hand in hand.

Down the back of Mary's broad hat hung red streamers. Mine were blue. Once when a rich, childless couple borrowed me for a few days and I sat in petted luxury, loneliness drove me to the back fence where I climbed and moved my blue-streamed hat to the one in red streamers to play in the humble paragon lot. What were luxury and fine living! I cried to be taken back home.

Together, we sisters washed dishes, sang duets, braved the strangeness of new parishes. When this older sister started to college we tagged along. In stiff sailor hats and crisp shirt-waists and skirts, bell-shaped and rattling, we walked arm in arm to classes, anxiously repeating our lesson. "Amo, amas, amat." At night we whispered together of "Hector and Richard," little dreaming that these very heroes would cause our paths to separate as in the way of the world.

And here we are back on the old plane of girlhood, visiting away in the outskirts of America's metropolis. Around the corner from the old Jamaica rose the oldest and longest trail on Long Island. Along this runs the business district of Queens, borough, and here we do our marketing when in true village fashion tradespeople and neighbors greet my sister. This is New York?

Quite sufficient unto itself is Queens with its own stores, banks, schools and libraries and churches. A trip into Manhattan is many times more distant and difficult than from Northville into Detroit. So we have so far been content to stay here except for a drive over to the "backbone" of the island to "Bay-side" where palatial summer homes stand near an arm of the Sound. On the bay we saw every known craft—how boats, speed boats, launches, yachts, ferries and on farther out, ocean freighters, barges, and coast steamers on this short cut to the northern states.

Surprising at it may seem, some veritable country roads were traveled on the way across the island, but the steam shovel and harrow are intruding the stillness.

Tomorrow we are to "browse" among the sky scrapers and have a trip out to sea. More next time. With best wishes to Northville. Mrs. Ed.

EXCHANGITES HEAR TWO GOOD SPEAKERS

Despite the small number of members present owing to fishing trips, vacation trips, etc., the Exchange club, which remained in Northville during the heat wave, had the pleasure of listening to two good speakers.

The first speaker, given by Russell Davis, past president of the Detroit club, dealt with the meaning of "Exchange" and what the ideals and aims of the club members were.

When I first joined the Exchange club, declared Mr. Davis, "I had no conception of what the club really meant to me. I labored under the impression that it was merely a luncheon club through which its members had a good time for at least one hour each week."

"As I entered more into the activities, I found that Exchange meant more than just a good time. I found that Exchange means doing a service to the community in which it lives. And the service is in the shape of the U. S. S. Fish Hatchery here spoke interestingly on his work—the propagation and culture of game fish. He told of small fish and large fish, grotesque fish and beautiful fish, in fact he mentioned almost every type of fish to be found."

He explained that game fish were becoming fewer and fewer, but that sportsmen's clubs were making a real contribution to society by restricting the amount of fish caught by laws and also by encouraging fish culture work.

Dr. Robert H. Haskin, head of the Wayne County Training school, will be the speaker next week at the Exchange meeting, announced Dr. Bruce Collins, secretary of the club.

Superintendent Collins is in charge of the program arrangements.

"YOUNG AMERICA" PLEASES PATRONS

An intensely human and sympathetic story was the bill of fare at the Merchants' Show Wednesday night in the Penman-Alan theatre.

The well-lit house at both performances witnessed a picture which "got under" their skin with out any platitudes or sermonizing.

The picture "Young America" under the direction of Frank Borzage, had for its lead the young Tommy Condon who played a fine and convincing role. Bert Mercer, Ralph Bellamy, Spencer Tracy and Doris Keays were the notables who completed the cast.

Saturday night the feature is to be "Bachelor Affairs" with Spencer Tracy as the star.

SENATOR HOWELL AND FAMILY VISIT EATONS

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Howell and children of Saginaw were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Eaton Sunday. Mr. Howell is publisher of the Chesaning Argus and state senator from Saginaw as well as being secretary of the Michigan County Fair association.

While here he also had a brief visit with Secretary Floyd Northrop of the Northville Wayne County Fair pertaining to prospects for the forthcoming fair. Mr. Howell has always been one of the enthusiastic boosters of the Northville fair, declaring it is one of the best little fairs in the country.

MANY CHANGES IN 50 YEARS

An old timer was heard to remark one day this week: "Did you know that there are only four buildings left on Main street that were standing when I came to Northville in 1883? Those are the Elliott building, the Exchange hotel, the Simonds house on the corner of Main and Wing streets, and the building occupied by the Hills Market."

Too Much

The farmer was angry. "What're ye comin' home with your milk pail empty fer? Didn't the old cow give anything?"

"Yep," replied his son. "Nine quarts and a kick."

TWILIGHT LEAGUE CONTINUES GAMES

The Twilight Base ball league games were played as usual last Friday with some very close games and a large attendance.

The results of the games are as follows:

Methodists 12, Mitchell's Firemen, 13.

Salem 9, Lutherans 3.

Presbyterians, Rotary, no game.

Exchange 4, Baptists 10.

The schedule for tonight when the league will again meet is as follows:

Baptists—Methodists.

Presbyterians—Salem.

Exchange—Firemen.

Lutherans—Rotary.

SUPERVISOR W. A. ELY GETS AROUND TOWN

The hosts of friends of Supervisor W. A. Ely will be glad to hear that he is so far recovered from his recent operation, and relapse—that he was able to be down town last Saturday. He has had a seven weeks' siege of it but hopes to be back at work in the Wilcox Ford plant in a few days.

SEEMS OBVIOUS

A red-haired boy applied for a job in a butcher shop.

"How much will you give me?"

"Three dollars a week, but what can you do to make yourself useful around a butcher shop?"

"Anything."

"Well, can you dress a chicken?"

"Not on $3 a week," said the boy.

Imperial Life Guard.

Lucky to Have a Shirt

Bumcrust: "Some genius in Vermont has invented a buttonless shirt."

Eldest: "Why, that's nothing new. I've been wearing them ever since my wife learned to play bridge."

Modern Youth

Prodigal: "Father, I've a notion to settle down and go in for raising chickens."

Father: "Better try owls. Their hours would suit you better."

DAVID TOLL BREAKS COLLARBONE MONDAY

David Toll, who works on the Ed. Starkweather farm, had the misfortune Monday to break his collarbone and shoulder blade. He fell from a scaffolding as he was loading hay, striking on his face.

His sister, Mrs. John Norton, was immediately notified and he was rushed to St. Joseph's Mercy hospital in Ann Arbor, where he was placed in a plaster cast.

While his condition is critical, it is reported that he will recover. The injured man is a son of Mrs. Charles Shipley who lives on West Dunlap street.

LOCAL NEWS

Dr. H. I. Sparling leaves today for the Officers Reserve camp at Fort Brady, near Sault Ste. Marie for two weeks.

M. J. Murphy and Father Joseph G. Schuler attended the funeral of Father W. J. Crowley at Uica, Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Groves of Cleveland, Ohio, are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Murphy. Mrs. Groves is a former secretary of Mr. Murphy.

M. J. Murphy was in Lansing Thursday to file petitions bearing 600 names as a candidate for democratic nomination for congressman for the new 17th District.

Dr. H. Handorf accompanied by his mother, has left for a vacation in the upper peninsula. His office will be closed until August 8. Dr. Handorf's family will join him in a few days.

Mrs. William Dingman returned home Wednesday from Pontiac where she was called last Saturday by the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Galpin. She is much better at this writing.

"I'll say one thing," declared a Record office visitor from Redford, "You have the best laundry in this part of the country. The Northville Laundry does my shirts better than any place I've ever taken them."

He Was Beloved By All

All Northville sincerely mourns the passing of David Gage whose death is mentioned elsewhere in this issue. Within a month of his 33rd birthday, he had filled a remarkable life full of good deeds to his fellowmen. The above picture shows four generations, Mr. Gage, his son, Stephen C., grandson, David Jr., and great-grandson, Howard Jr. "I love my home," Mr. Gage used to say, "and never wanted to go very far from it."
