

GOV. BRUCKER BOOSTS FAIR IN TALK HERE

Executive Is Heard by 3,000
at Grandstand Friday Afternoon

When it comes to abolishing state and county fairs, Gov. Wilbur M. Brucker, before appearing Friday, August 26, at the grandstand of the Northville Wayne County Fair grounds, "economy" ceases to be a virtue.

Speaking to an interested group of listeners, Gov. Brucker was the highlight of the "Governor's Day" program arranged by fair officials. A perpetual spirit of competition produces better stock, better produce, a more alert and intelligent class of farmers.

The last two years have found the state of Michigan to be in a poorer financial condition than when we were only a commonwealth. Although we have been strictly accounting for every penny of state money that has been spent, we have tried to steer a middle course of economy and reason. We haven't forgotten little house-owners and the farmer.

When I took over the office of governor, Michigan had a deficit of nearly seven million dollars. The first year we spent five million dollars less for operating the government. A special session of the legislature was called, despite much opposition, to cut the budget from $25 million dollars to $23 million dollars in five weeks we passed 42 acts.

The governor stressed savings effected during his administration, and stated that although only 64 per cent of taxes had been collected throughout the state last year, a state work relief program with a ten to twelve million dollar scope had put 24,000 men to work.

"The man on the street who says the fairs are a waste of money and that the state is better off without them, is a man on the street who is not interested today in state affairs because they're touching his pocket-books."

Governor Brucker was introduced by Dr. Robert Haskell, head of the Wayne County Training school.

NORTHVILLE WINS
FIRST AND SECOND IN SCHOOL EXHIBIT

Northville schools were represented at the fair by an exhibit of the work done during the past year. Mrs. Ida B. Cooke had the exhibit in charge and in spite of her injured hand worked like a Trojan to make it a success. She was assisted by Mrs. C. B. Turnbull and Miss Evelyn Kimpell.

Among the specimens of work of the students were articles of furniture made by the manual training class in manual art Northville won first place in the county in domestic art, second.

Dresses made by the sewing classes, art work from the grades and high school, even some of the fine note books made by Mrs. Wright's class in dramatics were shown in this exhibit. Mrs. Cooke declares that she will begin to prepare for the fair of next year as soon as the new school year is started.

BAND CONCLUDES
SATURDAY NIGHT
CONCERT SERIES

The Northville Community School band, which has so delightfully entertained the public each Saturday evening during the past mid-summer weeks, concluded its series of weekly concerts August 20, when it appeared with many fine numbers.

The band, the only part of the school that has continued to function regularly during the summer, has a record to be proud of. In addition to the Saturday night concerts, the young local musicians have appeared at all public affairs in the past three months, including the Fourth of July celebration, Fireman's Field day, and the fair.

SENIORS' SUCCESS
DUE TO PATRONAGE OF MANY AT FAIR

The Northville Senior class had a stand at the fair this year where they made a satisfactory profit. This is a nice start on their year's financial program and encourages them greatly.

The seniors owe their success to the many people who patronized their booth. They wish sincerely to thank them and ask for their continued patronage.

Junior Horse Show Best Ever

One of the big attractions of the Northville fair was the Junior horse show. It is doubtful if there was a busier person on the grounds than Mrs. Wm. Hawley Brown who managed this show so capably that it was pronounced the biggest and best in the history of the fair.

Long before the fair began Mrs. Brown had planned for this event by calling together her committee to work out details so that the Junior horse show moved off "as smooth as butter" without one sign of an accident to mar its pleasure.

With chairs grouped together under sun shades around the inner ring which had been kept green throughout the summer, the stage was pleasantly set; and the fun began in the center were the judges, Mrs. Jas. A. Blackwood of Rochester and Jas. Casson of Jackson, and the director, Dr. Robert Haskell.

The movements of the 72 riders, less youngsters all below the age of sixteen years, was no small task and the success of Mrs. Brown's effort is best evidenced in the flattering offer which came to her from the manager of the horse show of the state fair, Mr. Baldwin, who asked her to assist in putting on the Junior horse show at the state fair, which has so far failed in its attempts to stage this feature successfully. He marvelled that 72 young horsemen could be recruited from this county.

Very varied were the ages of these equestrians, ranging from young two-year-olds Charles Ernest, White who rode alone his Shetland pony, to roistering, would-be cowboys who revelled in making their ponies rear and plunge in true broncho fashion. The three youngest who rode were Charles Ernest, White of Northville two-year-olds, Teddy Herbst, three and one-half years, of Birmingham, and Anne Brown, four-year-old daughter of the manager. Five children rode in this infant class.

Next came the children's saddle event in which fourteen kiddies up to ten years of age rode with the confidence of veterans. As an added precaution to the safety of the riders, four groups of guards were placed at intervals around the ring. Very graciously understanding a child's heart, the manager placed upon each child's pony a ribbon, and off they rode, glowing with pride.

Several features of special interest occurred in the course of this horse show. One of these was when little seven-year-old Marilyn Cavell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Cavell, dashed on the scene on the spirited "Peggy" owned by Mr. Randall of Dearborn. Marilyn has only had a few lessons in riding of Fred Hoffman and later of C. C. Lewis but Judge Moore of Tennessee pronounced the young rider as having the "best seat" of any child he had ever seen.

ROTARIANS ENJOY 80-MILES-AN-HOUR RIDE AT MILFORD

Riding around the rim of the paved oval track at the rate of 80 miles an hour was some of the thrills that members of the Northville Rotary club enjoyed Tuesday afternoon on the occasion of a visit to the General Motors proving ground at Milford.

Preceding a ride through the various roads of the 1268-acre ground, the Northville visitors were served lunch in the cafeteria of the corporation. The Rotarians were then driven over all kinds of roads which are used for engineering purposes and got a vivid idea of the amazing number of the tests that are carried on at the proving ground.

By hills and gliding over smooth pavements, then over gravel, the Northvillians spent a most fascinating hour going over the maze of routes that are used in the scientific testing through all seasons of the year. Grades are marked all along the roads.

One of the interesting stops along the way was at the weather bureau which is maintained at the proving ground. This is a fascinating place, with all manner of scientific instruments in charge of an expert. The Northville party learned that the rain of the day before, Monday, August 29, brought 2.89 inches of precipitation, more water than fell during August of the previous two years.

Due to the lack of time, the visitors did not see the moving pictures which are often a part of the demonstration shown to guests. However, the whole trip was a very profitable and most enjoyed one, and the Rotarians were shown every courtesy. The visit was arranged by E. L. Mills, chairman of the program committee of the club and also its treasurer.

PART OF JUNIOR HORSE SHOW RESULTS LOST

The results in the last five classes in the Junior Horse show, the relay race, the Shetland pony race, the quarter mile race and the one-eighth mile race, were lost due to a rush in the effort to clear the track.

It is to be regretted that the names of those placing in those events cannot be printed, due to general confusion on the track at the time of their occurrence. The other awards are given elsewhere in this issue.

PENNIMAN-ALLEN THEATRE CHANGE ADMISSION PRICES

On and after Sunday, September 4, the Penniman-Allen theatre admission prices at Plymouth will be 25c for adults, 10c for children. Sunday, Monday and Saturday, and in Northville the price will be on Saturday night for adults 25c and children 10 cents.

No change will be made for the Wednesday night merchants' show prices. Bring your merchants' complimentary tickets for Wednesday night the same as before plus the dime for adults and a nickel for children.

FAIR POULTRY SHOW PRAISED BY GOVERNOR

A. E. Fuller Stages Exhibit at a Cost of Only One Hundred Dollars

"The finest poultry show I have seen this year at a county fair" that is just what Governor Wilbur M. Brucker said to A. E. Fuller, head of the department at Northville Wayne County fair, last Friday at "Governor's day" here.

Last year's poultry show cost the association over $600, as cash awards were made. In keeping with the times, however, Mr. Fuller said to the board, "I'll put on your show for you and it won't cost more than $100." In spite of the fact that only ribbons were awarded, the exhibitors remained loyal to the fair and the exhibit was one of the finest ever seen at any Michigan fair.

And when this came in for the show they totalled $100 just a dollar more than Mr. Fuller promised.

Winners of the grand championship ribbons were: Barred Plymouth Rock—Mr. Patten, Plymouth, Mich.; Minorca—Mr. Jack Viven, Redford; White Plymouth Rock—Howard Greer, Northville; White Leghorn—Homer King, North; Buff Orpington—Silver Sebright—Mr. Patten, Plymouth.

In the poultry exhibit were some outstanding birds. For example, Mr. Patten of Plymouth had as fine a string of Barred Plymouth Rocks as will be found in any show room. His first cock was a beauty. The White Plymouth Rocks were also good. Howard Greer of Northville had the best display in this class. His first cockerel, a fine large white bird, was a good all-around specimen.

The Rhode Island Red class were some real quality birds. James B. Tucker had some of his Chicago winners on exhibit, all fine type and color birds.

A fine display of Australorps were shown by the Northville Feed store and these were good enough to go to any large show. Another fine exhibit was the Buff Orpington one of Mr. Becker's, of Northville.

NORTHVILLE TEAM WINS RELAY EVENT AT JUNIOR SHOW

One of the most interesting events of the Junior horse show was the relay race, in which the Northville team was victor. This event made up of three teams, Northville, Plymouth and Birmingham each composed of four riders, and was run in very last time. The results were Northville, first; Plymouth, second; Birmingham, third.

The Northville team was composed of the following: Jack McLaughlin, Leo Kohler, Henry Hoffman and Paul Baldwin.

BANK WILL CHARGE FOR CASHING CHECKS

Hoyt Woodman, receiver at the Lapham State Savings bank, announces that hereafter there will be a ten cent charge for cashing checks. For over a year the bank has been cashing these without cost but this has been a loss to individuals at the bank. With the increase of postage rates and the charges that have to be made for bringing money from Detroit, it now becomes necessary to make a small charge to cover the expense.

MARILYN CAVELL RIDES WITH EASE

Eight-year-old Marilyn Cavell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Cavell, sits in her saddle with the grace of an old rider though her feet scarcely reach the stirrups. Marilyn has been brought up to be unafraid of any horse. The above picture shows her riding at the Junior horse show.

Northville Stops Its Business Wednesday, Puts on Dark Glasses And Gets Fine View of Eclipse

On Thursday, August 31, Northville had its seat in the world's greatest spectacle, the eclipse of the sun, which in this area meant the obscuration of 26 per cent of Old Sol. Eye protecting devices of many kinds were to be seen on the streets as hundreds of spectators turned their faces to the sun. Dark glasses purchased from local drug stores, pieces of common glass smudged with smoke, kodak films and x-ray films, these were a few of the types used to view the eclipse.

Amateur photographers got out their cameras, hoping to capture the passing phenomenon for future display.

Of the eye-protecting devices used in Northville, the one made by Bob Masters, printer of the Northville Record, was one of the best. It consisted of an exposed film stretched in between two pieces of cardboard. Nearly a hundred persons looked at the eclipse through this device and all exclaimed at the distinctness of the sun's unobscured portions.

Merchants all along Main and Center streets forgot their business long enough to take a peek at the sun in its unusual aspect. Shoppers "bowed" the eye protectors of those who had prepared themselves beforehand. Motorists and pedestrians alike stopped here and there to gaze at the phenomenon which was not apparent to the naked eye. As for the sun seemed to shine almost as brightly as though no moon were sliding stealthily across its face. Only a slight shadow was evident, as though a gossamer cloud were making a feeble attempt to hide the sun's rays.

One small boy who was experiencing his first eclipse asked, "Is the world going to change?" And someone much older remarked, "The eclipse is a little earlier this year." At the maximum of the eclipse someone else was heard to say, "This must be the depression!" And so went the remarks, some with a betrayal of apprehension, while others were intended as facetious comments.

According to Detroit authorities the sun eclipse began at 2:10.34 and lasted until 4:31.04, with maximum obscuration at 3:22.26. No eclipses during the past fifty years has lasted for more than half an hour. This eclipse was to say the least, phenomenal. To Northville observers the sun in its maximum obscuration appeared as a huge scarlet and in its other phases appearing as a parhelion moon.

Scientists estimated that the total shadow of the moon extended 100 miles in width, and 400 miles in length. Total eclipse was visible at Bangor, Maine, where hundreds of scientific men gathered to study the natural wonder; some of the greatest educational and scientific broadcasts explaining its causes and manifestations were made. If it were not for the fact that the sun seemed to shine almost as brightly as though no moon were sliding stealthily across its face. Only a slight shadow was evident,

FAIR FRUIT EXHIBIT IS UNUSUALLY FINE

The fruit exhibit in the horticulture department of the Northville Wayne County fair was one of the most interesting and pleasing on the grounds.

Handicapped by the fair's being so early in the fall, Ralph Foreman, in charge of the department, and Loren B. Flint, his assistant overcame this difficulty by the hardest of work and managed to display one of the most exhibits ever had.

Beaude Ralph, his father and brother Fred and Will Foreman also greatly helped to make the department a success; however they say all credit is due Ralph.

It was difficult to select apples and fruit ripe enough to look good, nevertheless, Wednesday noon when the fair officially opened, the Foremans and Mr. Flint had the fruit arranged so artfully that a casual onlooker would have thought

With the largest and finest exhibit in the past sixteen years, the Women's building drew large crowds of interested visitors.

Every housekeeper loves to view other women's handiwork and the building swarmed with those who lingered long over the displays of art work, canned vegetables and fruit, sparkling jellies, and appetizing baked goods.

Most elaborate of all the cakes was the three-tiered wedding cake made by Mrs. May Henry. The cake was beautifully decorated with white roses formed to ring.

Such lovely motifs of intricate patterns and minute stitches such as articles of historic interest and fancy work galore! Small wonder that a constant procession of spectators made their way through the building. The judge of this art work was Miss Eva Wall of the Healy shops, Detroit who was full of praise of the exhibit.

The flower department was a lovely collection of cut flowers and mixed bouquets from gardeners in this vicinity. Unusual interest was shown this year by entrants, says Mrs. E. A. Kohler, chairman of this department.

Another feature drawing much favorable comment was the collection of paintings and drawings by Adolph Gutman, sixteen-year-old artist of Detroit.

For sixteen years successfully acting as chairman of the women's exhibit, Mrs. F. S. Harmon was again in charge, assisted by Mrs. Archie Morris. Directing the other departments were Mrs. Clifford Castlerline, canned goods, Mrs. Bertha Noah, baked goods; Mrs. Rose Heeney, antiques; Mrs. B. W. Hewitt, judge of the baked goods and Wm. Jones of the flowers.

FARM CREST TEAM WINS TOURNAMENT
AT NORTHVILLE FAIR

The base ball tournament at the fair was a big success. The four teams competing in it played good fast clean ball all the way through, and furnished the spectators with the maximum enjoyment.

On Wednesday, Plymouth defeated South Lyon 8-1 in a very interesting game Friday, Farm Crest met and decisively defeated Northville 5-1. Then on Saturday, the climax was reached and the winner determined when in a thrilling close ten-inning game, Farm Crest shut out Plymouth 1-0. The umpire was "Bobber" Brown.

BLAKE'S "DUCHESS" MAKES FINE RECORD

Northville is proud of the showing of Joe Blake's new horse, "The Duchess" which although purchased only thirty days ago, won three firsts, one in the Junior, and two in the senior horse show. She was ridden by Nancy McLaughlin in the Junior show, and by Miss Margaret Owens of Detroit, in the senior events. "The Duchess" was purchased of Dr. Pattison of Detroit.

16TH ANNUAL NORTHVILLE WAYNE COUNTY FAIR DRAWS LARGE CROWDS EVERY DAY

Well Balanced Attractions, Many Race
Horses and Splendid Horse Show
Make Strong Appeal

The word perfect is not a superlative term when applied to the sixteenth annual fair, held August 24-27 by the Northville Wayne County Fair association. All departments received the enthusiastic approval of the people, and the fair authorities were gratified with attendance, exhibits, races, horse show, and in short, every feature of the fair.

In respect to attendance, this year's fair will go on record as one of the best in several years, there having been a uniformly big crowd throughout the four days, states Secretary Floyd Nordrop. The opening night, Wednesday, saw 2,000 people on the grounds, and for the three following days a uniform attendance of 5,000 per day was recorded.

The outstanding exhibits, high quality entertainment features, fine races, drew people back day after day, and until its final hours no one seemed to be tired of seeing the fair. Good weather assisted materially in swelling the crowds of on-lookers. Visitors from out of town were numerous, and many strange faces were evident, particularly at the Horse Show; some spectators coming from long distances to view this event.

Police authorities reported favorably on the general behavior of the crowds, there being no disorderliness or drunkenness, and not a single pickpocket was detected by Chief of Police Safford and his men, or plain clothes men from the Detroit investigating department. The concessions lining the midway were especially well conducted, and all units were of a high calibre. There was no gambling carried on at the grounds.

HEADS HORSE SHOW

HARRY B. CLARK
Superintendent of the Horse Show at the fair, Harry B. Clark, well known Northville horseman, was in a large measure responsible for the magnificent success the show enjoyed this year.

EXCHANGITES HEAR McCONNELL, DONDERO

Putting forth a plea for stronger support of our national defense, R. Forrest McConnell, Redford Exchange speaker before the local luncheon club Wednesday, declared that ex-luncheon organizers could do much toward aiding the aviation branch of the United States Army.

Mr. McConnell is an army reserve officer and a strong supporter of this country's armed defenses. He stated that Exchange clubs all over the country are joining in a movement to further military aviation, and asked Northville Exchanges to back the project to the latest extent.

Mr. McConnell then introduced George A. Dondero, eminent authority on Abraham Lincoln who declared that because of the warm weather he would confine his remarks to one or two anecdotes relating to the emancipator.

Mr. Dondero told among other stories of Lincoln, of the time when the president was being criticized severely by a committee of clergymen.

In answering them Lincoln referred to a friend of his who had been caught in a terrific thunder and lightning storm.

"My friend got down on his knees as it got darker and darker," said Lincoln, "and began to pray. 'Dear Lord,' he said, 'Please send a little more light and not so much noise.'"

Not more than a third of the stories said Mr. Dondero, regarding Lincoln, are true. He vouched, however, for the authenticity of the one which he related.

Other guests of the club were Gale Wessinger, Exchange and also president of the Royal Oak Village council, and Lee Campbell, Royal Oak postmaster.

BRAKE TEST DRIVE ON IN NORTHVILLE

Northville's brake testing campaign, under the direction of the Michigan Traffic association with which the local police department is affiliated, began in earnest yesterday when Northville's eight stations began their official examination.

Everyone is advised, according to Chief of Police Wm. H. Safford, to have his car examined. There is no charge attached to the tests, he stated, and those who ignore this opportunity in case they become involved in an accident due to faulty brakes or lights will make themselves liable to a severe penalty.

Stickers signifying that the car to which they are pasted has passed the examination will be given out at each of the following testing stations: Rathbun Chevrolet Sales, Marz Motor Sales, Noland garage, Armstrong's garage, Zimmer's Hudson-Essex garage, Chas. Schoultz garage, McLean's garage, E. G. Curly's garage and Center Street garage.

Livestock Building Crowded

Outstanding displays in livestock were those of the Wayne County Training school, Maybury sanatorium, The Detroit House of Correction, Eloise, and the private show herds of Farm Crest, owned by Phil H. Grennan. The sheep and swine buildings were fairly "running over" with entries, many more having been turned away. Adjacent to the swine and sheep barns a tent was erected to accommodate ponies entered in the Horse Show.

The poultry exhibits were the best in years, according to A. E. Fuller, head of this department. A full description of this division is elsewhere in the Record.

At crowds who packed the grandstand, or stood along the race course. Some of the events were a little overcrowded, there being so many horses entered for the races. Marvin H. Sloan reported 94 horses on the grounds, some of them the best trotters in the state. Entries came from far-off North Dakota, as well as from Indiana, Ohio, and Michigan. A total of $2,430 was paid for the horses, there being a $200 purse and added money. Full results will be found elsewhere in this paper.

High compliments were paid to the Women's Building by the judges, Mrs. B. W. Hewitt and Miss Wall, who said that the exhibits were the best in quality ever displayed at the fair. Quite worth hundreds of dollars, and lace of rare value were among the prize entries. There were many fine exhibits in artwork, baked goods, canned goods and flowers.

SHE LEAVES IT ALL

Before us is the morning paper. It says that Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick, the "world's richest woman," is dead at the age of 60 years.

But what are riches now? She brought nothing into the world and she takes nothing out. Much grief and worry, including the loss of her husband who left her for the arms of another woman, followed her great riches. Again is demonstrated the fact that the possession of mere money does not bring joy. Many, many years ago the philosopher Socrates said:

"He is richest who is content with the least, for contentment is the wealth of nature."

WHAT SHALL WE TELL HIM?

A few weeks ago a young man traveled some distance to ask our advice about going into a certain business enterprise. Then yesterday along came another letter from another youth, who, we would have said, would have been about the last to ask our advice. He wants to know whether or not to go into a business project for himself.

"Do you know what we advised this young man to do? Something that will surprise him. We told him we know of nothing that would make for a more independent life and a more happy and contented one than to get some land and go into the fruit business on a scientific basis. We told him that when the next depression comes along he will be 'sitting pretty' with a roof over his head and plenty to eat. It will be better for us all if keen, smart young chaps go onto the land and restore the countryside to its old days of prosperity and prestige."

THAT IS THE QUESTION

Candidate George W. Welsh wants to be governor of Michigan and in his campaign speeches—like many of the "outs" shooting at the "ins"—he makes many promises as he gives vent to his bombastic criticism.

But over at Hastings the other day Mr. Welsh met a critic who took a little wind out of his sails. After the Grand Rapids politician spoke, one of his auditors got up and inquired if he might ask a question. Mr. Welsh consented and this is what the other man said:

"I have been greatly interested in what you propose to do if you are elected governor; but you haven't told us how you were going to get it done."

There you are! It is the easiest thing to find fault. For the past three years, for example, we have heard the unthinking and the demagogues bitterly rail at President Hoover for everything that has happened from sun spots to hog cholera. Fortunately, people are beginning to realize how unfair this has all been. The same is true of the governorship. Governor Brucker has been our chief executive during the most trying time in our whole economic history, yet he has cut millions from our state tax and has been a good, faithful governor—the kind in whom the average man has faith. When men like Welsh and McKeighan, who want to be governor, begin to find fault and make glittering promises it is a good time to ask "How are you going to get it done?"

The plain facts are these fault finders and promisers are just talking. The want to be elected and they think they can fool the people.

NORTHVILLE IS ON THE MAP

Out in California, where the boosters and the progressives are pretty much in the saddle, every town tries to have some distinctive event or festival to which people will travel by the thousands. As a result, some of the events, notably the presentation of "Ramona" at Hemet, and "The Mission Play," at Alhambra, become marvelous spectacles.

Michigan is learning a lesson from California.

Our towns are getting on the map with something distinctive. St. Joseph and Benton Harbor, over there in the fruit belt, have their "Blossom Week"—and what a delightful event it is for one who loves the outdoors and the fruit that God has given man. Traverse City is "way up north" and "off the beat" but people are traveling there every summer from far and near to see the festivities when the "Cherry Queen" is crowned. Even our president gets a piece of our cherry pie and the whole nation hears about Michigan's marvelous cherry country. And lately, Romeo has broken into the picture with its "Peach Queen."

Then there is Ionia, up-state, which achieved statewide fame with its free fair that draws annually many thousands.

And, ladies and gentlemen, there is Northville, with its Northville Wayne County Fair, that is getting better known every year. Sixteen years of splendid history are back of it and the best is yet to be. Probably most of us don't appreciate just how much of an asset the fair is to our community. Not only does it afford benefit and pleasure to many hundreds of people but it reacts on our whole community in a splendid fashion. The fair lasts only a few days but it does a lot to keep us "on our toes" for the whole year. We look forward to the fair week and as a consequence we have finer and better kept homes and places of business for our visitors to see. The fair gets everyone working together in a truly loyal way and that does a lot for a community.

Yes, friends, Northville is on the state map with its fair. We have survived the three tough years when many fairs have met disaster. The year ahead should be better ones for the fair and for Northville. "Pulling together" will do great things for us all.

WANDERING THOUGHTS

The big crowd at the fair Friday evening surely got a big thrill out of seeing Phil H. Grennan's polo ponies in action. One of the finest of them is "Northville" and we all appreciate this tribute to our town.

One who has never seen the horse show at the Northville fair simply can't realize what a lot of beautiful animals are there. "How much money" is out there in the ring right now? We asked Dr. E. E. Cavell Friday afternoon as we stood watching the competition in one of the classes. "At least $15,000," he said after he sized up the seven horses that were being ridden around. And "Flash-o-Gold," who once sold for $5,500 and who has won national prizes time after time placed only fourth in this particular event.

Governor Brucker gave a fine, straightforward speech and won friends by his talk, said a very good critic of Michigan politics to us as the executive was leaving the grounds. "Charley" Sink is a Republican candidate for lieutenant governor and every sign points to his nomination over Luren D. Dickinson who has held the office for many years and who is now around 75 years of age. Senator Sink doesn't play a note on anything but has risen at Ann Arbor to the position of president of the school of music and handles all the affairs of the annual May festival. He will make one of the most capable and faithful state officers Michigan ever had.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

Is it ever necessary to lie? If so, when?

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

NO PLACE FOR A POOR MAN

(W. S. Kennedy in Albion Evening Record)

Southern California is a grand place for old people who have saved enough to retire on, but no place yet for those who have to make their living. If may be when, and if, it works out its industrial plan

FAIR WARNING

(Chesaning Argus)

Roadside warning to pickers spotted by our Road Scout No. 23456 way down in Georgia:

Trespasser's on this here place will be persecuted to the full extent of 2 mongrel dogs which am never been overly sociable with strangers and 1 double barrel shot gun which am loaded with no soft pillers. Dam if I am tired of this here hel raisin on my property

AS LOUD SPEAKERS RUMBLE

(Hastings Banner)

We are trying to concentrate on our writing, but the raucous tones of a congressional candidate orating through a loud speaker to a microscopic audience grouped about the court yard fountain makes thinking of any kind impossible. "We need a change of administration," roars the candidate. Maybe he does, but not half so badly as we need a muffler for his roaring sound inferno. Lots of these candidates now running loose through the state with their truck microphones and jazz bands seem to be intent on making all the noise possible during the campaign because they know right well they won't be heard from again in a long, long while.

ADVICE TO THE CRUSADERS

(M. H. DeFoe in Charlotte Republican-Tribune)

The Crusaders should profit by the slump in the collections and confidence of the Anti-Saloon League. For years a handful of willful men intimidated the office seekers in this and other states.

The Crusaders now occupy on the other side of the fence—much the same position as the Anti-Saloon League outfit of ten years ago. The more consideration and respect the Crusaders show the voters in reaching their conclusions—the longer they will remain a factor in public thinking. Drove voting is fast becoming a thing of the past and any outfit—wet or dry—which purports to deliver the vote ahead of the voting is in for a shock.

Personally, we have reached a point where drinking is not an impediment for any type of employment, especially public office, and the Crusaders will find that their candidates to get anywhere must possess something besides wet tendencies. The Anti-Saloon League fed the public up on this theory.

Character and intelligence are still more important than supporting a person for the mere reason that he is a fanatic—one way or the other—on prohibition.

HOOVER, ROOSEVELT AND THE POOR.

(The Detroit Saturday Night)

One of the most contemptible things that has been said about President Hoover is that he doesn't sympathize with the poor. Probably most of those who say that are of the type who tend to hate anybody who can be classified as rich. On that narrow-minded basis, such people ought to hate Franklin D. Roosevelt, who belongs to a family that has enjoyed the advantages of wealth and cultural surroundings for many generations. They ought to much prefer Herbert Hoover, who was a poor orphan boy, who was for years without a real home and who washed dishes in college boarding houses while young Roosevelt was attending the best boys' schools, joining exclusive college clubs and traveling extensively abroad.

It is a curious fact that truth that no two men in American public life for generations have had greater sympathy for the unfortunate man Herbert Hoover and Franklin D. Roosevelt. The former has experienced poverty; the latter physical illness and suffering. People do not often pass through such trials to come out selfish and mean-spirited. Another truth that may well be stated in this connection is that the biggest-hearted man will not necessarily make the best leader of a people. It will doubtless be agreed that Warren G. Harding was the weakest president the United States has had in half a century, and yet no more kind, likable and sympathetic man ever lived in the White House.

A president should have a great mind and a strong will as well as a big heart.

Time Will Tell

Self-Made Man. "They say that it takes three generations to make a gentleman." "Your grandson will be all right then."—Answer

DO YOU REMEMBER WHEN—

The northeast quarter section of land, bounded by Center and Main streets was taken up from the government in 1824 by John Willer?

A log house and a small grist mill was built on Griswold Road above the River Rouge branch?

The grinding stones were made from the big field rocks which were plentiful then and how painstakingly the job was handled from day to day until its sections were completely held together by wide iron bands ready for use?

Folks came riding in from their various farms on horseback with their grists to be ground and that often it was a day's job to go, be served and return home again?

That there were times when the mill could not operate because the head of water was too long?

The mill was replaced and its successor disappeared and the log house and its inmates vanished as the hundred seven years have come and gone?

CASH FOR COAL!!

Much as we might wish to do otherwise we are compelled to go on a strictly cash basis. Freight, which makes up 40 per cent of the cost of fuel must be paid for within forty-eight hours. Delivery charges, which means pay for local employees, must be paid each week in cash, in order that they may pay their local bills, to the merchants of the community.

Our credit experiences during the past two years have resulted in our having thousands of dollars remaining unpaid upon our books.

Therefore, effective SEPTEMBER 1st, coal and coke must be paid for on or before delivery.

FLOWER ACRES HAS A UNIQUE DISPLAY

A very cool and refreshing "oasis" in the heat of the fair was the display of Flower Acres. A stream trickled down into a pool where fish played. All about the pool were plants appropriate for rock gardens—"sedums," they call them, and "creepers." Here sat Mrs. Malmberg ready to tell folks anything they wanted to know about planting them.

GEORGE A. DONDERO

CANDIDATE FOR
U. S. Congress

GEORGE A. DONDERO

George A. Dondero is 48 years old, having been born in Greenfield township, Wayne County, in 1883. He lives in Royal Oak.

Mr. Dondero is a graduate of the Royal Oak high school and of the Detroit College of Law. He had served as assistant prosecuting attorney of Oakland county; as chairman of the Royal Oak Charter Commission; as first Mayor of Royal Oak; as a member of the Royal Oak school board for 18 years, and as vice president of the Oakland County Bar Association. He is also nationally known as an authority on Abraham Lincoln.

Mr. Dondero is thoroughly qualified to represent the 17th congressional district for these reasons:

1. His platform ably demonstrates his intimate knowledge of present needs of government.

2. His education and experience gained through years of private practice and public service are also reflected in his platform.

3. His ability to analyze situations of national importance and suggest intelligent solutions never once dodging an issue stamps him as a man of integrity.

If elected, Mr. Dondero proposes legislation tending toward an even flow of production and employment as opposed to the un-American welfare or gold system. Mr. Dondero also proposes that legislation be enacted to eliminate the interest charges on outstanding soldiers' bonus loans.

Mr. Dondero believes in the reduction of governmental expenditures in all directions as far as constitutional security. The levying of new taxes in his opinion may balance a budget but will never solve our national financial problem.

On the prohibition issue, which in reality is a minor one when considered in the light of unemployment, Mr. Dondero has taken a definite stand in favor of referring the matter over to the voters for consideration and action, as so ably outlined by President Hoover in his acceptance speech.

Regarding the soldiers' bonus, Mr. Dondero says: I am in favor of paying the soldier's bonus and believe this can be done without affecting our national stability.

While opposed to war, as are all advocates of adequate national defense, he has definitely committed himself to the maintenance of our army and navy equal to the country's needs.

GOVERNOR PRAISES POULTRY SHOW

The Black Minorcas had some very fine colored birds. The first cock was good all over and the hens were some of the best seen this year. Some New York State winners were among them.

A good little display was that of White Faced Black Spanish, a bird not often seen in shows of this size.

The Polish class was good. The White Crested Blacks were the largest with some very fine birds. The Silvers were not so good. However a cock and hen in white will make them all stop when in good feather.

The Black Sunbirds were a good class as were also the Hamburgs. In the Water Fowl class the show had a pair of everything. Wild geese, Widgeons, Toulouse geese, Emmentons, White and Brown Chinas, and Egyptian.

The Bananas were all good. Golden Sebrights had good ones in both old and young. Silver Sebrights were a good 'hot' class, each exhibitor offering a pair for a share.

Black Rose Combs were numerous and included a few outstanding birds. Mr. Owen of Ypsilanti captured the largest share of ribbons.

The Buff Cochons were not so numerous but the Black Cochons were larger and of good quality.

A fine little class of Black Tail Japanese were the best seen this season. The Games were the best in the Bantam show, including winners from shows like Allentown, Chicago, New York State and Detroit.

The Black Bearded Reds were extra good and the Red Pale exhibit was in the same class.

The Pigeon exhibit had some of the best in the country, the English Pouter being the largest class.

The chief exhibitors were Ralph, Fred, and Will Foreman, Loren Flint, and Kenyon Miller of Plymouth. Ralph Foreman won first place; Fred Foreman, second; Miller, third; Will Foreman, fourth; and Loren Flint, fifth. The judge was Mr. Gray, of the agriculture department of the Michigan State College at Lansing. He was assisted by Mr. Flint.

The men in charge of this department stress the fact that all fruit displayed was grown by the exhibitors themselves and not, as in some cases, gathered elsewhere and then exhibited, receiving undeserved awards.

All colors were shown, from black to white. Some of the birds in this class, owned by Glenn Ellis of Pontiac, have never been beaten. The next largest class were the Arch-angels, a very fine group owned by Mr. Owens of Ypsilanti. The Kings were a very fine class—in fact, they were all good.

The Rabbit show was very large and contained specimens of good quality. Some young breeders showed and made the old timers step this season. L. O. Carman of Northville gave the biggest battle.

On Natural Grays, winning on both old and young. Mr. Tyler of Novi won the bulk of prizes on odd breeds and Gus Sigeman of Redford won everything on furbearing rabbits.

The Cavy Breeders put on the largest and best show ever held in the state. Some imported ones from England were shown and at this show were some of the finest Cavies that can be found in this country.

Judge Colvin said that it was the highest class show of Cavies he had ever judged.

FULLER'S GRANDSON PRESENTS FLOWERS TO GOV. BRUCKER

One of the delightful sidelights of the visit of Gov. Wilbur M. Brucker to the Northville fair was an interesting little episode which occurred while he was seeing the poultry exhibit of which A. E. Fuller was the head.

Presenting the governor with flowers, the little four-and-one-half-year-old grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Fuller, Merritt Meaker, Jr., of Syracuse, N. J., said: "My grandfather Fuller wants you to give these flowers to Mrs. Governor Brucker."

The executive replied: "All right, I'll take them to Mrs. Brucker." The little fellow then said: "No, I want you to take them to Mrs. Governor Brucker." The governor turned to the boy and made a fine talk directly to him which was very human and stirred those who chanced to be near enough to hear him.

REGARDING POLITICS

The Northville Record wishes to emphasize the fact that the political views expressed in this week's West Point Park correspondence are entirely those of our correspondent in that community, and are not the views held by this newspaper.

WADE VAN VALKENBURG

CANDIDATE FOR
CIRCUIT JUDGE

WADE VAN VALKENBURG

Wade Van Valkenburg, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Circuit Judge, to fill vacancy, in Wayne County, decided to enter the race after being urged to do so by his many friends and after petitions were circulated by his students and former students of the Detroit Institute of Technology where he is engaged to teach Economics, Introduction to Law, and Political Science in the evening department.

At an early age, Mr. Van Valkenburg was being raised on a farm in Southern Michigan made up his mind that he wanted to follow a legal career, but was forced to gain all of his own education because of the fact that he was unfortunate, or perhaps fortunate, enough, to be born of poor parents. However, his financial situation made him all the more determined and he completed nine years of college education and three degrees largely by living from the income of odd jobs and clerking in stores during that time.

Mr. Van Valkenburg is qualified in an excellent manner, both by training and nature to hold a judicial position. Endowed with patience, consideration for others, a pleasing personality, and a steady disposition along with his years of experience in the practice of law and self-training makes an ideal combination.

One of the big arguments used by his supporters in urging him to enter the race for Circuit Judge was that most of the present members of the Wayne Circuit Bench were elderly men, having completed their practice of law and naturally

CANDIDATE FOR CORONER

DR. ALBERT L. FRENCH

Qualifications and character backed by actual experience should be the prime factors in determining the capability of a candidate for public office.

The office of County Coroner has been an important one since its inception by King Richard, in the eleventh century. It is primarily concerned in protecting the interests of the people as well as the state at a time when emotional stress and tragedy exist. It entails a thorough knowledge of medicine and surgery, pathology, law, evidence, ability and judicial temperament. It takes on added importance in these days of organized crime and calls for complete cooperation between the prosecuting attorney, sheriff's office and other law enforcement agencies to insure the successful prosecution of criminals.

Dr. Albert L. French, present coroner, was born in Detroit and after graduating from Detroit College of Medicine and Harper Hospital, engaged in private practice as a physician and surgeon for 23 years. He was appointed County Physician in 1914 and served for six years in that capacity when he was promoted to supervise the County Health Department as Chief Medical Examiner for four years. He was also an instructor in pathology on the faculty of the Detroit College of Medicine and Surgery from 1916 to 1920.

During those ten years with the county medical department, Dr. French conducted, personally, thousands of autopsies and testified in hundreds of civil and criminal cases in the various courts and not in one single instance has his testimony been successfully contradicted or set aside by the State Supreme Court.

This diversified experience competently fitted him for the office of County Coroner and the people elected him by a large majority six years ago. He has held this office of public trust for four terms and expects to enter upon his fifth term with the deserved and merited support of the electorate in the coming primary and election.

Of those who have spent in Detroit, Michigan, as a boy, he never was afraid of work, no matter how humble its calling. He prepared himself for the shoe business by learning the trade of a cobbler in the factory of Hazen S. Pingree, which he first served in the capacity of office boy. This thoroughness of preparation was sign of later success as a business man and as a public servant.

The duties of the county treasurer are numerous and varied and they have been discharged by Mr. Lau most satisfactorily, and he is privileged to point with much pride to a record of accomplishment that promises to be generally endorsed by the voters of his party in the coming primaries and by the general vote in the election in November.

GEO. T. CARTWRIGHT

CANDIDATE FOR Congress

GEO. T. CARTWRIGHT

To the electorate of Northville and Plymouth and the surrounding territory of these cities make this brief statement. There is no doubt but what you have honest and capable candidates for Congress residing in your community. In justice to yourself and the territory that this district includes, you should feel the responsibility of acquainting yourself with other candidates and their convictions and attitudes toward the major problems and issues that are involved in this congressional campaign.

The importance of selecting a man who will be representative not only of the people, but of the problems of the district, represents the issues before all the people of the nation as of most vital significance in nominating a candidate who has the ability to fulfill his convictions or at least make a determined effort to have them fulfilled.

Any man who offers himself for a public office as important as that of Representative in Congress should have as a background a thorough knowledge of the needs of the people. Such knowledge can only be acquired after a study of years, not months or weeks. Mere casual observations or conclusions formed from such observations cannot reflect the true status of affairs.

It is because he has devoted many years in the acquiring of facts and information about the people in his district and their needs and demands that Mr. Cartwright submits his name to the electorate in this Congressional primary.

There must be an entire readjustment of hours of labor for at least sixty per cent of the people in this country before we can be assured of a return to conditions as favorable as the five-year period prior to the year 1929. Men and women must have employment which they must be reasonably sure of for years, not months; and the only possibility of accomplishing this is by reduction of the hours of labor and an increasing wages to a slightly higher scale than that prevailing in 1925 and 1926. This method will offer employment to at least twenty per cent more people.

Unemployment insurance will be as ordinary as compensation insurance within the next ten years. Properly controlled, an intelligently administered tax reform can prove a real benefit to both employer and employee. It is going to receive considerable recognition by this government within the next four years.

Re-establishment of the confidence of the people in our banking system will only be effected through a uniform banking law with strict government supervision and either guarantee of deposits by the government or a government owned banks of immediate assistance during panic periods.

It will be necessary within the next four years for this government to submit a plan to our foreign debtors by which they will be able to pay their indebtedness to us.

The ratification of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence waterway Treaty is of great importance to this district.

Fundamental changes in the Prohibition laws and constitutional provisions will be adopted within the next four years and sensible, sane regulatory laws for the control of liquor industry and the revenue to be received therefrom are problems that must be faced.

The payment of the soldiers' bonus will receive attention from this new Congress; and it will be necessary to formulate legislation for this purpose which will not be injurious to the country's general financial condition.

These and other important problems demand that you as a voter use that same care and caution in casting your ballot for your Congressman as you use in your personal affairs.

HARRY G. JACKSON

CANDIDATE FOR STATE SENATOR

HARRY G. JACKSON

Harry G. Jackson, a lawyer with offices in Highland Park, is a Republican candidate for State Senator from this district, which comprises the townships of Northville, Plymouth, Redford and Livonia, City of Highland Park the 18th and 22nd Wards in Detroit, and the north end of the 8th and 12th Wards of Detroit, enlisted in the United States Army in 1918, and received an honorable discharge from the Army after the Armistice was signed; he is a graduate of the Business Institute, Detroit College of Law, enrolled in the University of Michigan 1923-1924, conducted a private business and now is practicing law. His qualifications are such as to merit the nomination in the primaries.

Through Mr. Jackson's contact with individuals from various walks of life, he has become familiar with the economic and social questions of this day which should be solved in the coming sessions of our State Legislature.

The principles which he advocates in his platform can be summarized as follows: Creation of employment for our people instead of charity; further economy in State government; thereby resulting in a reduction of taxation so that the cost of operating our government will be within the ability of our people to pay for such a more rigid regulation by the State over all banks and investment institutions, so as to guarantee to our people the safe deposit of their money; Elimination of a State tax on real estate if possible so as to foster and encourage private ownership of property; reformation of the workmen's compensation law so as to effectively ate a more liberal interpretation of such law in protection of our people in industrial employment; an old age pension act which will aid our citizens who can no longer find employment and have no one to support them; such a humanitarian legislation which is needed and will not add any additional taxation to the public; a State movement to encourage agriculture and cultivation of land owned by the State, thereby returning land to the tax roll which at the present time is of no profitable gain to our people.

State control over the sale of alcoholic beverages when the 18th amendment is repealed as advocated in the republican platform.

Mr. Jackson is particularly interested in reducing taxation and believes by so doing, a new spirit will be injected in our people, more prosperous conditions will be enjoyed, and additional employment will be created. He believes burdensome taxation to be depressing and demoralizing to our people.

We need a man of Mr. Jackson's caliber in our State Senate, one who understands the problems of the

DAVID GORDON

CANDIDATE FOR County Treasurer

DAVID GORDON

David Gordon, candidate for the Republican nomination for County Treasurer, is making his campaign on 1932 lines, stressing the need of better and less costly administration of this vitally important office in the county's business affairs.

While any candidate for public support can make promises, force is given to Mr. Gordon's campaign by the fact that he has had seven years' experience as chief deputy to the County Treasurer and is more intimately acquainted with the duties and business details of the office than any other man in Wayne County.

Gordon was the first outstanding public official to attack the evil of nepotism in the employment of office assistance, starting his attack four years ago. Recently much publicity has been given to the widespread employment in county offices of family members and "in-laws" of officeholders. That the County Treasurer's office will not be a "family affair" under the administration of Gordon.

Courtesy as well as efficiency in the conduct of the treasurer's office is the aim of Mr. Gordon. He declares that the office being a chief deputy to the County Treasurer, it should be conducted on strict business lines, including every possible economy in operation and as close a control of all overhead expenses as a well-managed private business handling millions of dollars annually would insist upon.

Gordon's years of experience in public life not only has made him thoroughly acquainted with the county's business affairs, but also has made him widely known among the citizenry of the city of Detroit and of all parts of Wayne County. From literally thousands of these, he has received personal assurances of their support in his campaign.

Experience (in conclusion) For a number of years served as chairman of committee on Laws and Legislation, Oklahoma State Federation of Labor. Served as member of Oklahoma State Legislature and was active in all measures for the benefit of labor, the farmer, and small business men. Joint author of amendments to Workmen's Compensation Act. Worked for passage of Boiler Inspection Law, Safe Scaffolding Law, additional factory inspectors and Pure Seed Law.

Not interested in legislation for the selected few but will work at all times for that which will do the greatest good for the greatest number.

FRANK BRINKWORTH

CANDIDATE FOR Congress

FRANK BRINKWORTH

As a candidate for Congress I make economy the keynote of my platform and pledge myself to do everything humanly possible to help balance the budget by reducing expenses and not by an increase of taxes.

Repeal of 18th Amendment: The repeal of this amendment will save the taxpayers of this country hundreds of millions of dollars, now spent in ineffective enforcement.

Repeal of Volstead and Jones Laws: The repeal of these laws will restore beer and wines and change what is now a source of expense into needed revenue.

Repeal of Sales Tax on Automobiles and Accessories: This industry has always been singled out for unfair taxation. The removal of this tax will help in a way to reduce prices of these products which will be reflected by some increase of business in this territory.

Anti-Trust Laws: A strict application of same to prevent monopoly in all lines of business.

Stabilization of Prices: To prevent "cut throat" competition would urge the passage of Capper-Kelly Bill.

Banking: In view of the numerous bank failures, would urge revision of the banking laws to provide for stricter supervision. Also the passage of a Bank Deposit Guarantee Law.

Reduction of Expense: would urge abolition of needless commissions and the consolidation of departments to prevent duplication of work.

Payment of Veterans Bonus: I feel that we owe this to the men who gave up everything to go to our defense and pledge myself to work for same.

Tariff Revision: Downward revision of the Hawley-Smoot Tariff Act. Will do much toward restoring our foreign trade.

Experience (in conclusion) For a number of years served as chairman of committee on Laws and Legislation, Oklahoma State Federation of Labor. Expresses Constructive Republican Program

Perry W. Richwine, Plymouth attorney, one of the leading candidates for the Republican nomination for Congress in the newly organized 17th Congressional District announces his platform as follows:

1. The immediate reduction of governmental expense.
2. The payment of the soldiers' bonus as soon as possible without jeopardizing the financial stability of the government. It is my opinion that it would be advisable to issue currency at this time to be retired by annual appropriations on or before 1945.
3. Immediate action on constructive banking legislation.
4. To encourage legislation which will provide the working man with such continuous wages as will assure himself and his family of the comforts of life.
5. The immediate development of the St. Lawrence Waterway.
6. The immediate deportation of foreigners with criminal records who have not taken

7. To proceed toward a national disarmament of all nations to relieve the taxpayers of the enormous tax burden of preparing for war, and until the nations can mutually agree and carry out a disarmament program, the United States should establish and maintain such sea, land and air forces as are necessary to maintain peace and tranquility of the American People.
8. Prompt and effective farm legislation.
9. To establish and maintain a system of home loan banks which will make it possible for every thrifty citizen to purchase and pay for a home.
10. Law enforcement.

"Last November I weighed 192 lbs. Today (February 5th, 1932) I am down to 168 lbs. and full of pep all day long—since using Kruschen I have not had to use the laxative that was customary."—Theo A. C. LaFleur, Providence, R. I.

What do you think of this—you men who doubt you stay fat—because you want to think that nature made you that way.

You're all wrong—most fat men were made fat because of their inability to handle a knife and fork in a business like manner.

Be frank with yourself. Are you too timid to take a safe, harmless conditoner that not only takes care of surplus fat but is so helpful that it makes you feel years younger?

To reduce safely take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning—out down on fatty meats, potatoes and sweets. Kruschen is sold by the C. R. Horton drug store and druggists the world over. A jar that costs but a trifle will last four weeks—but be sure you get Kruschen—your health comes first.

Printing that pleases at the Northville Record office.

This Week

This column has never been the medium for any propaganda, nor does this column intend it ever to be. When something comes to my attention that I think is vital and necessary to the welfare of the community, I feel that I cannot let the opportunity pass for writing it to the attention of my readers. It is my fortunate chance to have such an opportunity.

During the past week at the Northville Public Library had an exhibit, with the head of the organization in charge, with an excellent and wide range of books which included travel, science, biography, philosophy, economics, and history. These books were of the very latest in their particular sphere, or were volumes that have been accepted as the standard authorities in their individual fields.

In conversation with the lady in charge, Miss Dawson, I was informed that all these books and many more were ours for the asking, as they (the library board) were willing to service this community's needs, if they were wanted to do so.

On further inquiry I found out that the taxpayers of this locality were paying for this service and not getting it, unless we were fortunate enough to have a library card with a Plymouth branch, and why we have to go to the library to get books, which we are entitled to have in our own minds.

We have the building and the equipment necessary for such service, a very capable librarian, who at present is being supported from our township tax money. Surely Northville's intellectuality will compare favorably with Plymouth's. Our desire to read, the things that will improve us culturally and inform us on all the latest subjects, to say nothing of the delight and enjoyment of reading the best current fiction, must be just as great as our neighbor's south of us, and very often when I have been in the Plymouth branch, I have met people from our town, getting books.

We have students attending college and the University at Ann Arbor, who drive back and forth the St. Lawrence with her sister, Mrs. I. W. Barhart and her husband of Grand Rapids. Chas. Thornton has bought Mrs. Lillian Peck's house on North Center street.

The old Argo mill, after standing almost 70 years, is being demolished.

30 YEARS AGO

Seymour Brown and his wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a little son last Saturday.

An order for a bell has been received by the Northville Bell foundry from Egypt. The concern is simply overwhelmed. Thirty men are employed and more needed.

A new "wild" pond has been constructed at the U. S. Fish station. Samuel Lawrence who will be remembered by many as having been the Memorial day speaker, will move to Northville and has purchased the Gordon farm near the fish hatchery and will raise poultry extensively.

daily during the school season, teachers in our own local school, and various others who are at present compelled to either go to Plymouth for their reference work, or wait until our local librarian can take the books for them, which often takes several days and then for only a limited time.

We could run our library on a much smaller budget, as the county library board would pay the local librarian's salary, and keep the books in plain good condition, and also we would always have the best and latest books without having to expend money which we are not able to do at present to purchase new books.

This information I am confident the average taxpayer of this township, and holder of a card in our library, is not aware of, hence my reason for getting it forth here.

The farmers and gardeners are having a difficult task to dispose of both vegetables and fruit, many going to the market and returning with part of their loads unsold. They never experienced such cheap and slow sales. Where there is no work there are very little money.

Mrs. Isaac Bond and daughter, Mrs. Charles Wilson and three sons, Ralph, Glenn and Herbert, gave their daughter and grandmother a pleasant day motoring to Riverside park, Thursday, when they all enjoyed the day with the children and dinner in the open.

Mr. Albert Heckman had a pleasant visit with relatives in Chesaning, Mich.

Mr. Mansfield and class of Sunday School boys went to Island Lake Saturday. They had a good dinner of buns, hot dogs, water melons and canteloupe. Swimming, horse ball, horse shoe pitching and roller skating occupied them all day. Everyone came home telling what a fine time he had had.

Rev. Beltry of Detroit ably filled the pulpit in West Point Park church Sunday morning. He was accompanied by his daughter Miss Mary. Rev. Roy will be with us next Sunday.

The Community club will meet with Mrs. Ernie Ash on Thursday afternoon all members are requested to be present.

Miss Marjory Heichman returned home after two week's vacation with her cousin, Mrs. Alice Ruthledge, in Chesaning, Mich.

The funeral of Mrs. Harlan was held on Wednesday. A large number of friends and neighbors were present. Rev. Johnson of the Methodist church at Farmington, gave a good talk on life and death. A large display of flowers was proof of the esteem of many. Her son John and family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Mrs. Jess Zeigler and son Gerald returned home Tuesday from Houghton lake where they enjoyed their summer holidays.

The democrats held a public political meeting in the community hall Friday evening. Jacob Sumacki, running for treasurer, gave the first speech of the evening. He was followed by M. J. Murphy of Northville who is running for Congress. There was great applause at times, but others did not agree with all he said. Mr. Comstock was not present but a substitute that did not even have a chance for mention at the state of Michigan. D. Edgar and Robert block who is running for corner, spoke, and Thomas E. Wilson gave the best talk of the evening. Knowledge what he did in Detroit, we hope he will be the next sheriff in Wayne.

James W. MacDonald, West Point, young people received a shock when word came to them of the sudden death of James W. MacDonald. He was killed in a tragic accident by an automobile driven by Richard Rader's fifteen-year-old boy. James MacDonald was a member of an orchestra that he had made many an evening at the community hall. There will be a funeral here in our midst. Our young people will miss his music and happy face.

Services were held in the Southfield community house, Friday, for the wife and three children, attended church and Sunday school. While the war was on he was the first to get the top playing his bag pipes, and was the only one of the Canadian troop from Montreal that came back home alive. The friends here are doing what they can for his family.

Mrs. Myrtle Lang and daughter Marion of Dexter were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. White Sr. and attended the fair.

Lucy, making out a week with her sisters in Toledo, O., is now spending the present week with her daughter, Mrs. Smith, in Detroit.

Miss Lucille Webster and friends returned from their auto trip through the Great Smoky mountains in North Carolina. The trip was a most happy one.

Charles Shipley reports to the Record Office that he has sold 130 dozen ears of sweet corn, amounting to $41. "Who says business is not better?" was his comment.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Zimmerman returned last week from an extended trip to Traverse City and other vacation places. At Interlochen they heard Goldman of New York City conduct a farewell concert.

Harry German, Jr., brought into this office last week a clover stem on which there were six perfectly shaped leaves up to date. Harry claims to hold the honors in "bringing home the clover."

HOMEMAKER'S CORNER

By MRS. EDITOR

Our College Girls
 Busy sewing these days, aren't we, fellow Homemakers? Getting the kiddies ready to go to school. Many of us are getting our daughters ready to go away to college. Going away? That's not such a pleasant thought, though one Northville mother says this is the time she has looked forward eagerly to for years. A Northville father, too, says the most interesting and vital years of his life were during his daughter's college days when he shared with her all the rich experiences as her life unfolded.

As we sew away, doesn't it seem so short a time (though really it's eighteen years) since we were sewing on some very interesting little white garments for this same little daughter? Up in our room we sat alone and sewed and ever and anon a lullaby was hummed dreamily. Remember? On the wall we had pinned a verse which just expressed our feeling:

"There is a room upstairs, a little room,
 With sunlight filled the whole day long,
 And roses out the window bloom,
 And smile and nod as if they knew
 As I sit sewing there—"

It's a different kind of sewing now, but still dainty and girlish, sort of ethereal like these daughters.

While they are busy planning their college clothes, we mothers are thinking very different thoughts. Of course we want them to go to college at any cost. Will it be worth the investment? We know one mother who confessed to us, after it was all over some of the sacrifices she made to give her child a chance she had missed.

What will it all mean to our daughters? Are they strong enough to stand alone when the test comes? Too late now if we have not biased them so far. What kind of new friends will they meet? We know that just ahead are waiting new rich friendships that will last all through life. Just recently came a letter from our own college chum to our daughter which said "My best wish for your college life is that you will make a friendship that will mean to you what mine means to me."

First to greet each other as she stepped a freshman from the rain that autumn day long ago, and left to sit together side by side under the old elm on the campus with our sheepskins in our laps. A friendship that has stood the test of all the years since.

And what will their learn in college? Will the new education cast aside the old as "fogyish"? Will they be happy? What new plans for life will be formed? Someone warns us "They will never come back the same."

And, because we are mothers, we yearn over their personal welfare. Will they mend their stockings? Will they remember to wear their rubbers? Will they have enough covers on cold nights? (We will often wish we could tiptoe in and tuck the pink blankets closer on blustery nights.) And will they be safe, always, through everything? An old song goes:

"Oh, little girl with eyes of blue
 When you have looked life through and through
 Will all your smiles be found so true?"

Oh yes, these are busy days—and thoughtful ones too.

The Invalid's Tray

One of the interesting demonstrations of the County Home Economic department at the fair was the invalid's tray prepared by the Northville class in Home Nutrition taught by Miss DuBord. One of the tricks of getting an invalid well again is to cook a liquid appetite to eat the right kind of food. This is what the tray had on it. Orange water-kiss (an orange peeled back like a lily, cream of spinach soup, an egg custard, beaten white with yolk dropped in center and browned under the broiler), glass of milk, glass of water.

Two tempt the appetite remember to make it dainty, cheery with flowers, harmonious in color, light in weight, suitable size—not too crowded, a surprise to the patient, interesting as to shapes, of food and garnishes, and have a diet suitable to patient's condition.

A 14-year-old girl, Miss Dorothy Vroman, had the distinction of carrying off the blue ribbon for cakes in the junior cake contest at the fair and of this cake the judge says "It was the best dark cake made in both junior and senior entries." Dorothy has always liked to cook and can prepare an entire meal with neatness and dispatch. She also had training in domestic science in our public school with Mrs. Zimmerman as her teacher and the practical demonstration by her mother.

Dorothy Vroman's Devil's Food

Here is the recipe for the prize cake 2 cups sifted cake flour, 1 teaspoonful soda, 1 cup butter, or other shortening, 2 cups sifted brown sugar, 2 eggs unpeeled, 4 squares Baker's unsweetened chocolate, melted, 1 1/4 cup sweet milk, 1 teaspoon vanilla. Bake in three layers.

Chocolate Fudge King

2 cups granulated sugar, 1 tablespoon cocoa, 1 cup milk, butter size of egg Cook until it forms a soft ball in cold water. Beat Add vanilla.

Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston, accompanied by W. B. Yarnell, took a vacation from his professional duties and enjoyed a week of fishing at Harrietta, Michigan, last week.

JUNIOR HORSE SHOW IS THE BEST EVER

When eleven-year-old Nancy McLoughlin drove Joe Blake's "Duchess" into the ring and unhitched and saddled her horse to ride, no one guessed when the blue ribbon was presented that this was the first time young Nan had ever held the lines in a carriage. The McLoughlins carried off more than their share of the ribbons in this horse show, Nancy winning two blue ribbons, a red and a white one. Not to be outdone by his young sister, Jack McLoughlin carried off two blue ribbons and one red ribbon won in games. A third member of this family, Tom, though not in horsemanship, distinguished himself as trombone player in the band.

The riding of Bob Aldrich was worthy of note among these young folks.

Dr. L. W. Snow's pony, ridden by Frank Hongovan, far outran his competitors in a pony race.

One of the young cowboys in uniform boasted of a real cowboy hat valued at $23. Most of the boys spent the large part of the day in the saddle and their ponies seemed to enjoy the fun equally with their riders.

Altogether Mrs. Brown is very much gratified with the fine cooperation of the children and their good sportsmanship. Northville is proud of the record won by her children who for the first time in the history of the horse show have carried off first honors in the county. Great credit is said to be due their riding master, C. C. Lewis, who has faithfully given some of these youngsters their first lessons. This is the third year that Mrs. Brown has assumed direction of this junior horse show, the only one in southern Michigan, and each year it has grown in interest and in number of entrants.

WALLED LAKE HOME COMING

F. C. Johnson of Farmington. The program begins at ten o'clock. Dinner will be served for 40 cents. A cordial welcome is extended to all.

HOMING PIGEONS ARE RELEASED AT FAIR

A feature of the poultry show of the Northville Wayne County fair which aroused much favorable comment was the release of 400 homing pigeons at the fair grounds Saturday afternoon.

The birds circled the grounds two or three times and then with unerring instinct flew to their homes in Detroit, Toledo and other border cities. They were all timed and the distance they flew together with the timing determined the winner. The birds were released under the auspices of the Detroit Racing Pigeon association.

MICHIGAN'S NEED

To eliminate the irresponsible and reckless driver from Michigan's highways a safety responsibility law is now in preparation for submission at the next meeting of the state legislature. The bill provides for a strict penalty and bars those from the highway who fail to meet judgment when found guilty of causing damage or injury and drivers convicted of recklessness or other serious violation. These motorists may drive again only when they have met the court judgment and posted proper security to guarantee their responsibility in the event of another such accident or offense. This law does not affect the careful motorist, nor those not involved in accidents.
