BANK MEETING SCHEDULED AT LANSING TODAY

Department's Decision On Reopening Is Held Up Temporarily

No decision is available at this time, stated Deputy Banking Commissioner Taylor Wednesday in a telephone interview regarding the reopening of Northville's closed banks.

The decision which was to have been made by the department this week, as a result of the inspection of Northville banks by Examiner E. W. Nelson on Wednesday, Oct. 12, has been held in abeyance, said Mr. Taylor, until after a conference with representatives of the two banks and the depositors' committee which is to be held today, Friday, at Lansing.

Mr. Taylor stated that at this time he had no information to give out on the decision and would commit himself not at all on whether prospects were encouraging or otherwise.

At the present time it is not known what representatives of the banks and of the depositors' committee were asked to attend the meeting.

PRESBYTERIAN MEN HOLD GET-TOGETHER

The first get-together for the fall of the men's club of the Presbyterian church took place Thursday evening, Oct. 13, at the church home. It proved very enjoyable and entertaining. An excellent supper was provided and served by the auxiliary. This was followed by the program for the occasion.

Robert Goodman, the recently elected president of the club made a most interesting report on the standing of the club after which Dr. William H. Johnston, chairman of the program committee, set the ball rolling.

The recently organized quartette consisting of Messrs. Kenyon, Lee, Bryan and Smith, with Mrs. T. P. Brennan, accompanist, presented a musical program, with a chorus, which was a festival in itself. This array of talent is not only skilled in voice but in musical technique as well.

Dr. Johnston then introduced Mr. Ferren of Detroit, representative of the Standard Oil Company, a leader in the oil industry, whose manipulations were, to say the least, exceedingly like those of the famed "villain" in the "Foghorn" series. In fact, very much so, to the delight of the audience.

Guest speaker of the evening was Thos. C. Wilcox of Detroit, former police commissioner of that city and now Democratic candidate for sheriff. Mr. Wilcox was for many years connected with the department of justice, Washington, D. C. In that capacity of service he had exceptional opportunity to have knowledge of the "ins and outs" of the criminal world and had many interesting personal experiences. Some of these he graphically related to the audience, which appreciated very much the opportunity to have insight into the affairs of United States penal institutions at Leavenworth and Atlanta, and to have given other interesting side-lights.

The next get-together of the club will be about this time in November and it goes without saying that the program will be worth while. These meetings are in the nature of an "open" house and all young men and older who can attend will be cordially welcomed.

IRVING WARE BREAKS COLLAR BONE IN FALL

The Northville high school football team will suffer a severe loss in the accident which occurred to one of its members.

While catching forward passes at the daily practice of the football squad on the fair grounds Monday evening Irving Ware fell with such an impact that he fractured his left collar bone. He weighs around 160 pounds and it was no light fall.

He was taken at once to the office of Dr. Snow, where the injured member was set and Irving is on the job again attending school carrying his shoulder in a brace.

This is Ware's third year at football and he was playing end. The first accident of the season, Coach Ruggles hopes that it will be the last, adding facetiously "If we get any more breaks I'm afraid we won't get the breaks." Either Ware or Baldwin will probably be substituted for Ware.

MARZ GETS SIXTH IN QUÉER GOLF CONTEST

Eighty-five golfers who have made a "hole in one" of whom A. R. Marz, local Ford dealer is one, met Wednesday at the Clinton Valley country club at Utica to see if any one of their number could duplicate the feat.

In the contest Mr. Marz placed sixth, with a drive which fell five feet, one and a quarter inches from the hole. Five attempts were allowed each golfer and using a mashie on the 155-yard hole Mr. Marz placed one in a nearby lake, three on the green, and one a few inches short of the green.

The winner, Frank B. Patterson, Detroit druggist, placed his ball 11 inches from the cup.

NORTHVILLE PROS DEFEAT ROSEVILLE

Northville won its third professional football game Sunday at the fairgrounds against the strong Roseville team by a score of 13-0.

A large crowd turned out to watch the game, which was a close, thrilling contest. Hinchman made one of the touchdowns for the local boys and was instrumental in gaining the second tally. Chas. Metzinger, former local high school player, entered the game for a few minutes.

Roseville scored when a Northville forward pass was batted around in the air and finally dropped into the arms of a Roseville end who ran behind fine blocking for a touchdown.

Next Sunday Northville will meet River Rouge A. C. here at the fairgrounds and the game will start at three p. m.

BAPTIST VOTE TO JOIN UNION SERVICES ON SUNDAY EVENINGS

At the morning worship of the Baptist church it was decided to accept the recommendation of the church board to join with the Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist churches in meetings every Sunday evening during November, December, and January. This recommendation and action is in harmony with the suggestion of the pastors of the above churches and the details of this arrangement will be worked out and announced later.

MILK FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

At a recent meeting of the P. T. A. it was decided to continue the milk fund for the coming year. It is believed that the need will be greater than ever before this winter. The milk fund of the association is very low and this philanthropy is undertaken largely on faith.

Those who have seen the little folks eagerly taking their morning drink of nourishing milk and have watched them grow rosy and stronger through taking it feel enthusiastic for this form of good work. Already a few have volunteered their services for this. Coach Ruggles promptly offers to stage a boxing bout in the high school gym in the near future. Two of the teachers plan to put on a bridge tea in the kindergarten room.

It is thought that various clubs of the village will make contributions of varying amounts.

If any person wishes to take one little individual to provide milk for he may do so at the low cost of 7c or 8c cents a week. Think it over.

Phil H. Grennan Finds Relaxation From Detroit Bakery Business on Farm Crest's Beautiful 950 Acres

(Reprinted from the Detroit Free Press.)

PHILIP HAROLD GRENNAN has spared enough time from his baking business to become known as "the father of Detroit polo" and as "Detroit's most prominent horseman."

He came by both his hobby and his business in the same way. His father's business, in part, was contracting horses to big baking concerns in Chicago and Phil Grennan drifted into the baking business and took up the development of fine horses as a side line.

Born in Nokomis, Ill., 43 years ago, he attended schools there and in Chicago, where he later established a large baking company. In 1914 he came to Detroit because "the town looked good" to him, and it still does. Besides the Detroit concern he has holdings in New York and Chicago.

He likes to spend as much time as possible on what he styles his "farm" near Northville. The farm, Farm Crest, is a mere 950 acres, which boasts its own private polo field. On it, in addition to farm produce, he raises fine blooded horses, cattle and pigeons.

He has no less than 35 horses and is said to know the whims and

VILLAGE SAVES OVER $744 ON BOND PAYMENT

Check for $4,255.63 Sent to First Detroit Co. Tuesday

A saving of $744.37 was effected at the village council meeting Monday night when it was moved by Commissioner Dusenbury, supported by Commissioner Hicks, that the clerk be authorized to draw an order for $4,255.63 against the sinking fund to discharge the $5,000 due on street improvement bonds due on Dec. 1, 1933.

A discussion of the gas situation was held and a joint meeting of the three towns, Wayne, Plymouth and Northville, which are using the same gas, was held at Plymouth last night, Thursday. One of the present time no definite conclusions have been reached as a result of the negotiations between representatives of the towns and the Michigan Federal Utilities company.

MARSHALLS RETURN FROM MONTH'S TRIP TO THE SOUTHWEST

The many Northville people who follow with keen interest the sports and feature writings of S. L. A. Marshall in The Detroit News, will be interested in learning that he and Mrs. Marshall have just returned from a month's motor trip to the Southwest and also Mexico. They visited in the states of Texas and New Mexico and then went over the border into "Old Mexico."

While in Texas Mr. and Mrs. Marshall were guests of J. A. Aldwell at his "Head of the River" ranch at San Angelo. Mr. Aldwell is captain of the Texas Rangers, the polo team which played at Detroit the past season.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, who live on Six Mile road, near Northville, covered 6,500 miles in their journeyings.

DEMOLAY NEWS

Dewar Taylor, Sheldon Baker and George Todd are in charge of the program for the monthly stag party or social night at which ping pong, bridge and eats predominate Thursday, Oct. 27, is the evening when members are to introduce and entertain new members.

The Detroit Demolay Athletic Association have made announcement of their fifteenth Demolay trolle at the Book Cadillac Hotel, to be held on Nov. 11, Armistice Day. Two orchestras and three ballrooms are to be used.

A young couple from Fellowship Chapter joined about thirty couples from Ionia Chapter last Friday evening for one of their famous wienie roasts at Eghenik park, followed by a few dances at Welcome Inn.

Loyalty Chapter's new degree teams put on a wonderful ceremonial for Jim Meyers, Joe Chaffar, Hugh Horton, David Narn and Melvin Whaley, who were the five candidates who joined Fellowship Chapter in their visit to Detroit on Oct. 11.

Many Northville Republicans Plan To Hear President Hoover's Speech Tomorrow Evening at Detroit

At least 50 Northville republicans will journey to Detroit Saturday evening to hear President Hoover make it is certain that the huge arena will not be able to house all of those who would like to see and hear the president speak.

It is believed that requests for tickets will total over the 100,000 mark and overflow meetings have been arranged in Detroit with direct amplification from the speaker's platform.

Those from Northville who have signified their intentions of being present at the address are: T. R. Carrington, R. T. Baldwin, Elmer Perrin, Rev. H. G. Whitfield, W. A. Ed. Langfield, Conrad Langfield, Victor Cole, and many others whose names have not yet been received.

Applications for tickets are being received by local G. O. P. leaders who have applied to the republican headquarters committee for 50 tickets which they state will not begin to fill the number of requests that they have received.

Different parties are being made up to go to the meeting and it is certain that Northville will have a large representation there.

FORD THROWS HIS SUPPORT TO PRESIDENT

Henry Ford, who needs no introduction in any part of the world, threw the full strength of his prestige to President Hoover Wednesday night when he made a 15-minute radio talk from his private office in Dearborn, over a national hook-up.

The motor magnate who a few years ago was widely discussed as a possible presidential candidate at the head of a "world peace" movement, gave a short, terse resume of the heroic battle which President Hoover has fought to keep the United States from feeling the depths of the world depression as have European countries.

The private Ford, wireless system, which allows company officials, kept in touch with Ford properties all over the world, was silent as the head of the industrial empire gave the United States his reasons for the re-election of President Hoover.

In recent years Ford has not taken a prominent part in political activities of any kind. He has become exceedingly reticent about public statements and the radio talk Wednesday night marks one of the few times he has appeared before the microphone.

ROSEDALE BOYS ARE CAUGHT STEALING AT KING GAS STATION

Breaking a lock on the pumps of the King Gas station, corner of Six Mile and Northville roads, five boys between the ages of 12 and 14 were caught Sunday night as they attempted to steal gasoline.

The five, all of Rosedale Park, are: Wm. Dundas, Horace Bishop, Edward Churchill, his brother, and James Randall.

Glenn King, proprietor of the station, caught the Bishop boy at the pump and turned him over to Chief Wm. H. Stafford. Through him the four other boys were apprehended.

The fathers of the boys paid for the damage and the youthful law breakers were released in their custody.

SENIOR DANCE TONIGHT

The senior class of Northville high school will hold its first dance of the year this evening, Oct. 21, at the high school gymnasium beginning at eight o'clock. Admission will be 25c per person and 50c per couple. The announcement of another dance will be made soon.

THE LAST TEN DAYS

(Detroit Saturday Night)

Much talk of a democratic landslide. It is assumed by a great many people that Roosevelt has the election in the bag. In a straw vote of 2,000,000 ballots The Literary Digest gives Roosevelt a popular majority of almost 300,000 and all but seven states out of the 38 reporting, including Michigan; and Roosevelt is a two to one favorite among the sportsmen of New York city.

But the democratic Virginian-Pilot of Norfolk refuses to be complacent. The time for celebrating a victory, it thinks, "has not yet arrived." That cautious veteran of national reporting, David Lawrence, is of the same opinion. He says the effect of President Hoover's Des Moines speech is noticeable everywhere, and that "this election is not going to be decided until the last two weeks of the campaign." Also:

One thing is certain, the last 10 days of this campaign will mean more than any similar period in a presidential race in nearly 40 years.

If Mr. Lawrence is right, straw votes, which take time to collect and compile, can hardly keep up with any shift of public sentiment in the last weeks of the campaign. Tammany is expected to cut Roosevelt in return for the republican nomination for mayor of an ancient obscurity who has no chance of beating his candidate. The republicans have finally got under way and have gone on the air in force. Roosevelt is in the lead today, but the tale will not be told until Nov. 8.

REPUBLICANS TO HOLD BIG RALLY HERE

County Committee Promises Aid in Securing Speaker

Plans are under way for a big republican rally in Northville within the next ten days or two weeks.

Details have not been worked out as The Record goes to press, but it is expected that a speaker of distinction will be available for an evening address here. According to local G. O. P. leaders, the Wayne county committee is making every effort to secure a speaker for Northville and it is present plans go through the meeting will have the flavor of the "old-time" political rally, with plenty of enthusiasm.

Many local people have been asking about plans for speeches here and if the rally is held here there is little doubt that a big crowd will be on hand. Hundreds of our citizens have been listening to radio talks the past few weeks and interest in the Nov. 8 election is at high tide. Northville not only has a keen interest in the state and national issues, but also in the fight in Wayne county as many of those running for office are known here.

A republican worker from Detroit who was in Northville yesterday stated that the odds in New York City had changed from two to one for Roosevelt to "even money" that Hoover would win the presidency. On the other hand, local democrats are optimistic that Roosevelt is sure to win on Nov. 8.

PUBLIC ATTENDS AUXILIARY PARTY

Opening the doors of the Legion home to the public, the American Legion Auxiliary extended hospitality Monday evening when guests from Northville and vicinity enjoyed a pleasant evening together over card tables. The guests took their choice of playing either bridge or 15 tables were played. A prize was awarded the winners at each table.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Helen Bolton, Mrs. Phyllis Salvey and Mrs. Mary Alexander. Pumpkin pie and coffee made a pleasant ending for the evening. The brand new furnace recently installed gave the guests a "warm welcome."

Among the visitors from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Foster from Redford and Mr. and Mrs. A. Regula from Detroit. So successful was this affair that the auxiliary is planning another party for the benefit of welfare work late in November.

BABY CLINIC

The Baby Clinic will be resumed on Wednesday morning, Sept. 26, after missing only one month. The Woman's club is sponsoring, as has been its custom for years, this worthy enterprise for helping the childhood of our community. Its value is evidenced by the "better babies" whose mothers take advantage of the chance to have their children checked up by a child specialist every month.

Dr. Brady of Detroit will be in charge, as usual, assisted by Mrs. J. F. Busby, a trained nurse. The clinic will be open from 10:00 a. m. till noon. There is no charge and all mothers of young children are welcome to bring them for examination and advice.

Henry Ford Orders Tearing Down of the Old Village Power House Once Used to Provide Electricity

The old village power house is being razed. Built in 1913 this old brick building over near the site of the one-time Ambler pond served the village in furnishing its electric power for only one year, when the Detroit Edison company purchased it. Later they gave it back to the Henry Ford, who now owns it together with a wide section of that locality.

This old unused brick building Mr. Ford considers a blot on an otherwise beautiful landscape and he therefore orders its tearing down. It is believed that Harry Bovee was the mason who built this power house and the men who are tearing it down say it was "surely a good job" with brick of much better quality than are now made and put together with pure mortar. The bricks are being salvaged for further use.

MRS. RUGGLES CUTS ARTERY IN ACCIDENT

Mrs. Harold Ruggles, wife of the high school coach, narrowly escaped a serious accident at her home Wednesday, when the point of her scissors was thrust into the fleshy part of her hand and cut off an artery. A great loss of blood resulted but Mrs. Ruggles kept her nerve and wrapping a large towel around her hand, hurried to Dr. Atchison's office, about a block distant, and prompt first aid was administered before too serious results occurred. Mrs. Ruggles is about the house doing her work one-handed.

TWO FIRES CALL OUT DEPARTMENT FRIDAY

Two fires Friday afternoon, one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Masters on Dunlap street and the other where Hoyt Woodman's car caught fire in front of his home on E. Cary street, gave Northville fire department a busy afternoon.

An explosion of stove at the Masters home caused but little damage and the blaze was quickly extinguished by the chemical tanks from the fire truck.

Hardly had the big truck been backed into the garage on Main street, when the terrifying shriek of the siren sounded again. This time Hoyt Woodman's car was the occasion for all of the excitement.

Upon lifting the hood of his car Mr. Woodman found the entire engine afire with the carburetor cap off and the gasoline stream exposed. A neighbor phoned the fire department and while he was thus occupied, Mr. Woodman put out the fire with a garden hose which was attached nearby.

Monday morning the small fire truck was called to a house on the Six Mile road east of the Thayer school. The fire there resulted from an overheated stove. No large damage was done and the blaze was quickly put out by the Northville fire department.

MASONS WILL GIVE PROGRAM ON OCT. 27

Northville Masonic Lodge No. 186 will open its fall and winter season on Thursday evening, Oct. 27, at 7:30 with a program of moving pictures and musical entertainment.

The pictures will show views of the new Masonic home at Alma, Mich., which was recently completed at a cost of $700,000 to take care of aged and impoverished Masons, their wives and children.

There will be a light lunch served after the entertainment, admission being absolutely free and not limited to the Masonic fraternity. All friends are cordially invited to attend by the worshipful master, Robert F. Coolman and Secretary Frederick Hedge.

FESTIVAL TONIGHT AT WALLED LAKE

Prizes will be awarded for the best displays on canned and fresh vegetables, home-made candies, candies, baked goods, and fancy work at the Harvest Festival to be held at the Walled Lake Methodist church on Friday evening, Oct. 21.

Everyone in the community is invited to participate and enter exhibits by the Ladies Aid society, which has charge of the affair. Following the program the various items exhibited will be auctioned off to the highest bidder. Luncheon will be served throughout the evening. The program will consist of readings by Mrs. Leslie Thomas, banjo and ukelele duet by Mrs. Dora Wood and Mrs. Helen Dewey, vocal solos by Charles E. Hutton, piano duet by Miss Wanda Curran and Mrs. Dorothy McKibben, accordion solo by Alfred Santilla and other features.

PRESBYTERIAN FALL FESTIVAL IS BIG EVENT

Church-House Resembles A County Fair at Big Annual Event

With the "caption" of the enterprise unimpeded by illness, the Harvest Festival, now become an annual institution of the Presbyterian church, would have been dropped this year except for the firm loyalty of the finance committee, who "took up the torch" and carried on to success.

For the past three years Mrs. Harry B. Clark has been the instigator of this fall festival which was the outgrowth of a suggestion made by the late Mrs. Phil H. Grennan in the illness of Mrs. Clark, the finance committee, minus their chairman, worked hard to carry out the plans begun by their leader. Mrs. Floyd Northrup, Mrs. Waldo Johnson, Mrs. Marvin Sloan and Mrs. H. R. Richardson were the prime movers in this event.

The church house was a veritable county fair Wednesday. Mrs. C. R. Horton and Miss Reva Schrader had decorated the hall beautifully with autumn leaves and festoons of thorn apples. Around the room were arranged the long tables loaded with colorful vegetables, fresh fruits, baked goods, sparkling jellies and home canned fruit. How could the puzzled purchaser decide where to spend his few paltry dollars in the midst of such appetizing enticement?

If he happened to be around noon hour he could not resist the deluge of lunch—all for 25c—and he left the table still wondering how the ladies evolved such a meal at so low cost. It is estimated that 91 guests were fed.

The committee who ably managed this meal were Mrs. Frederick Hedge, Mrs. Paul R. Alexander, Mrs. W. A. Ely, Miss Jesse Roe and Mrs. Archie Morris. Mrs. Harold Bloom and Mrs. H. E. Wagenschutz.

At each booth presided the following women. Vegetables, Mrs. Ida Hendryx, Mrs. Ernest Kohler, Mrs. Helen Sweet and Mrs. Jas. Green; Jellies, Mrs. F. J. Cochran, Mrs. Mary Yerkle and Mrs. Orlov Owen; fresh fruits, Mrs. T. P. Carrington, Mrs. Marvin Sloan and Mrs. Vance Masters; pickles, Mrs. Floyd Northrup, Mrs. Ernest Miller, Mrs. Jas. Huff and Mrs. H. R. Richardson; baked goods, Mrs. E. S. Beard, Mrs. B. E. Larson, Mrs. S. C. C. Yerkle and Mrs. Lee Shuart; candy, Mrs. Norman Denne, canned fruit, Mrs. Dayton Bunn, Mrs. Scott Lovewell, Mrs. E. B. Cavell and Mrs. N. C. Schrader. At a dainty tea table during the afternoon guests were served by Mrs. M. Brock, Mrs. T. P. Brennan, Mrs. B. C. Stark and Mrs. Chas. Dubaur. All of these committees worked faithfully to make their own department a success.

Throughout the summer the women have been canning and preserving and planning to bring about this climax of the year's activities. The hard work of these co-operating, the generous donations of friends and the patronage of the public all combined to bring about very gratifying results to the enterprise.

GERMAN GOOD FOR MORE YEARS SAYS THE HOLLY HERALD

(Holly Herald)

Harry German of Northville, who is known to most of the baseball fans in Holly and all over southern Michigan was calling on Holly friends one day last week—he has a liking for the good fishing in this vicinity. He recently closed his 44th year as a pitcher when Northville defeated Durand in a game that was his 25th of the 1932 season. And Harry looks good to round out a half century on the mound.

NOVI AUDIENCE ENJOYS W. C. T. U. PLAY SUNDAY

The playlet, "A Sick Baby," given by eleven children under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. and directed by Mrs. L. E. Coates, was enjoyed by an audience of parents and friends last Sunday evening. The following "Temperance" lesson by the B. Y. P. U. with Mrs. Grace Shinn as leader, was also helpful and interesting.

CHICKEN DINNER

Ladies of St. Paul's Lutheran church will hold a chicken dinner Thursday, Nov. 3, at the church house. See next week's announcement for the menu.

THE UNTHINKING VOTER

One of the sad commentaries on elections in the United States is the unthinking way in which many decide to vote. The vote of the ignorant man who reads and is influenced entirely by some sensational daily paper that is motivated by selfish motives counts just as much as that of the student of government who can tell you just why he votes a certain way. No wonder that it sometimes seems that democracy is a failure, and that a dictator might be a good thing for the United States.

COMMUTING TO DETROIT

Some months ago this column predicted that the time was not far distant when people of this area would have the chance to "commute" to Detroit, as they have been doing since last spring over at Birmingham and Royal Oak.

Now comes along the Pere Marquette and offers a semi-commuter service out of Plymouth—and that means a service that Northville too can appreciate and use. Arrangements have been made to have the "Sportsman," a deluxe train on the C. & O., stop at Plymouth every morning at 8:20 and land one in the heart of Detroit a little more than half an hour later. Another train will bring you back to Plymouth in the evening at six o'clock.

It doesn't take much imagination to see what a splendid asset to a community this kind of service is. If Plymouth and Northville are only 30 or 45 minutes from the heart of the big city, residents of this area are better off than in the crowded city districts where it takes half an hour or longer to get downtown. With the residential advantages this area has, it certainly won't be many years before a large number of Detroit people will be headed this way for homes. Good times ought to be ahead for the real estate folks.

IN ANOTHER SIX WEEKS

Thursday had been a pretty strenuous day in the office so we sneaked out alone into the garden at 5:30 to get a little fresh air and to clear what little was left of the editorial brain. We kept busy with spade and rake until the ruddy glow of a beautiful Michigan October day died out over the Ford gardens to the West and a perfect moon rose over the East to fair grounds. Then we thought, Night brings some tides of emotion that never come to us during the day.

This is a little of what we thought:
What will have happened when the leaves come out again in this garden next April? (There is one spot that we are getting ready for tulips.) When those tulips come out in all their glory next spring what shall we tell them has happened since we prepared the ground for them six months before? Well, here is a little of what we hope we can then say:

"Isn't it fine that business is coming along so nicely, with things picking up all along the line?"
"Well, the winter wasn't so bad for some folks as they thought it would be."

"Pretty nice to hear folks all talking cheerfully, when only a few months ago there was so much 'grief' all around."

"Hear about the new houses that those four men are planning to put up when the weather gets settled?"

"Here it is spring and Ruth Mary is nearly through her first year in college. Vacation can't come too soon so we can have her home again."

"Who would have thought last fall that Northville would have gained a couple of business places by spring?"

"Well things look the brightest and best for Northville they have in many years."

Now this sounds crazy but wait until spring comes and see if we aren't half right at least.

ROOSEVELT AND THE BONUS

Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt is without doubt a genial and capable man in many ways. But it is hard to admire his stand on the soldier bonus. As we write this, he had not yet said where he stands. Perhaps as you read this, he has declared himself against the cash payment now. (We have been told on pretty good authority that some time before election he would take such a stand.)

In the opinion of the vast majority of unbiased students of government in these critical times, payment of the cash bonus would be a heavy blow at our national prosperity and would impede seriously the general return of good times for us all. If this is the case—and few thoughtful men deny it—why hasn't Gov. Roosevelt had the courage that Hoover had and taken his stand in time to help business recovery?

Former governor, Alfred E. Smith, in the Saturday Evening Post some weeks ago asked Roosevelt to come out into the open and tell where he stands on the bonus.

Former president, Calvin E. Coolidge, asked Gov.

Roosevelt to tell where he stood on the bonus and rebuked him for his long delay.

Senator Borah came out last week and said that a candidate for the presidency who would not tell his stand on the bonus issue had no right to be elected to that high office.

No matter what the democratic candidate does now in the closing days of the campaign with regard to this outstanding issue, which may affect every home of the nation, he has done a clever piece of "pussyfooting" but has shown a lot less courage and high minded service to his country than Al E. Smith. He may have gained some votes but he has lost the respect of many people who would like to follow him. What would his sixth cousin Theodore Roosevelt (no pussyfooters, he) have thought of the governor's stand on the soldier bonus?

WANDERING THOUGHTS

We'll all have to keep on living together after election. So let's not get too excited over our political arguments.

Don't forget this: This newspaper's columns are always open to anyone to express his opinion, no matter what it is, if it is done fairly.

We wish everyone could be a newspaper worker for about two months—just so he (or she) would learn that there are nearly always two sides to every question and that it isn't wise or fair to believe the first story that comes to you.

It does make one just a little better booster for the high school football team when his own boy is out there with the squad, just "raring" to start. Football is no "tea party" but we know of no better place for a growing boy to get used to the knocks of opposition.

Right here in Northville there were a number of people who were touched with a feeling of pathos the evening they heard President Hoover speak at Des Moines, as he told of the sombre kind of Christmas they had when he was a boy. He said there were no "store toys" because "everything had to be saved for the mortgage."

It certainly was a pretty just and sufficient answer to the heartless sneer of his democratic opponent who in one of his previous speeches said that "the president only discovered yesterday that there is such a thing as a farm mortgage."

We just heard this one last week. During the time that Supervisor "Bill" Ely lived in California he had some callers who asked to go through his orange grove. "Sure thing, just make yourself at home and help yourself to the oranges," said Mr. Ely. Coming back in a little while the visitors were very cordial in their thanks and said: "Well this is certainly real California hospitality." Then "W. A.", with memories of Northville in his heart, said with something like a snort: "California hospitality nothing; this is just good old Michigan hospitality!" After a good many touches of that incurable malady, homesickness, during a year's stay in the sunny Southland, we can imagine just how the supervisor felt. You just can't forget the old friends and the old associations.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

How often do you read a book?

FLOWERS FOR JOE MENDI

(Geo. Neal in Orion Review)
Very often country newspapers have been twitted by their city brothers, the dailies, for some of the taffy and epitaphy contained in their columns. But, so far to date, there is no record of a small town paper going to the trouble of publishing hourly bulletins giving the temperature of pulse of a sick monkey in a Zoo, as was the case last week of Joe Mendi. Yes sir, there is no place in the psychiatric ward of county jail for that. There are too many Northville and deserving people around. Inspired by this piece of journalistic jackassery, the school children sent Joe more than $500.00 worth of flowers. This was a city that's bankrupt, begging the state and nation for loans to solve the welfare problem.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Last Sunday is reported as one of the biggest days of the season at Cass Borton park. The trees were in the height of their glory and crowds from the city came out to enjoy one more "fling" in the beautiful woods before cold sets in.

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

ASK THEM

(Joe Haas in Holly Herald)
His victims in Holly and vicinity were probably interested in the announcement that W. C. Durant has come out against Hoover.

SMALL TOWN PAPERS

(By Ray S. Corliss in Parma News)
"The hope of the nation lies in the small town newspapers," Dr. Merton S. Rice, pastor of a large Metropolitan Methodist church of Detroit, told a prohibition audience in Albion Tuesday evening. The things he said about the large metropolitan dailies were not so complimentary.

THE EDITOR'S MISTAKE

(LaGrange (Ind.) Standard)
An editor of a weekly paper commenting on the fact that his paper sometimes made mistakes in its news columns, says he made more in his last issue and that a good subscriber told him about it. He goes on to relate that about the same day there was a letter in his postoffice box that did not belong to him; he called for No. 98 on the phone and got 198; he asked for a spool of No. 50 thread and got No. 60; he got his milk and the doctor said he was eating too much meat when he hadn't tasted meat for two months; the preacher turned in his church notes with the name of the ladies aid society president misspelled; and the editor got the blame for it; the garage man said the jitney was missing because it needed a new timer and he cleaned a spark plug and the flapper has run ever since. Yes indeed, editors do make mistakes—and about every thousand years or so, so do other people.

HOOVER SAVES NATION

(M. H. DeFoe in Charlotte Republican-Tribune)

The best argument yet made for the re-election of President Hoover was made by the candidate himself. The President's Des Moines speech was more in the nature of a report to stockholders in a corporation than a partisan plea for support. Why anyone should want to dispense with the services of a leader who has proven so devoted and capable in the worst economic storm ever known, is hard to conceive. In a panorama of climates, any one of which might have meant national disaster, the President has saved the situation. When the story of Mr. Hoover's first term is fitfully written in the cold analysis of historical research and retrospect, the people who stood by the President in this present test will experience a personal joy and pride comparable to the satisfaction of individual military performance given to save the nation in time of great national peril.

NOVI SCHOOL NEWS

The school is enjoying several periodical magazines which will come regularly during the year. The National Geographic Magazine and Popular Mechanics are the most popular.

An order was recently placed for a new set of Compton's Encyclopedias to replace an old set which was in very poor condition. Library money which had accumulated for several years, will make possible a cash payment for the books. The set is very well suited for the pupils in the intermediate grades and should be of great interest and value to them.

All of the pupils marched out of the building in 90 seconds in a fire drill held Monday. This time was 30 seconds faster than the time for the drill held in September.

The high school is planning a Halloween party for Friday evening, Oct. 28. Gerald Trotter, president of the Student Association, appointed the following committees to make arrangements: decorating committee, Frederick Johnston, Margaret Pratt, and Dorothy Tyler; refreshment committee, Laura Toletune, Robert Snow, and Eleanor Hill; entertainment committee, Eleanor Stubbs, Herman Smith, and Dawn Granow.

Salem Federated Church. Morning worship at 10:30 o'clock, Oct. 23, "Clay in the Potter's Hand." Bible school at 11:45 a. m. Hugh Means, superintendent.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The federated church is planning an old-fashioned campaign social to be held Friday evening, Oct. 28. There will be a chicken pie dinner followed by a program. Mr. Moore of Pontiac, who is a candidate for the state senate, will be among the speakers. He is endorsed by the Washtenaw county civic league and the county W. C. T. U.

Approximately 30 horses and riders headed their way over Northville hills Sunday morning on a trip which started at the Wm. Rawie farm, through the high school grounds, through the high school grounds and back to Captain Wellwood's, Hollow Hunt club. The party took breakfast at the Brae Side Farm, their hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Yerkes, providing waffles, french toast and plenty of Brae Side maple syrup which has won a widespread reputation for tastiness.

ATCHISON HOSPITAL

Leard Roarback of Plymouth was brought to the hospital for treatment for a broken clavicle caused by a fall.

Mrs. Barney Schultz, aged 85, is recovering from a fall at her home which resulted in a broken humerus. She is quite comfortable now.

Mrs. Harold L. Ruggles came to the hospital Wednesday for first aid after a serious cut on the hand.

Arch Johnson, father-in-law of Ralph Foreman, had a broken clavicle set. The accident was caused by a fall from an apple tree.

Mrs. Ann Hallahan of Plymouth is making good recovery from a major operation.

At The Theatre

LOWE-McLAGLEN RE-PLACE CRAVEN-MITCHELL IN MURDER MYSTERY PARTS

Roles made famous on the stage by two noted actors, Frank Craven and Thomas Mitchell, are played by Edmund Lowe and Victor McLaglen in "Guilty as Hell" a murder farce, which starts at the Penman-Allyn theatre.

The picture is adapted from the successful stage play by Daniel N. Rubin, and ran for many months on the Broadway stage last season. Lowe plays the role of a police reporter, which Craven played in the stage version. McLaglen is a detective, the role portrayed on the stage by Mitchell.

Richard Arlen and Adrienne Ames have other leading roles in the picture.

The picture makes sport of the conventional murder thriller by developing as a comedy. Instead of a mystery, Lowe and McLaglen try to solve a murder that the audience sees committed at the opening of the film. The audience knows who's guilty, but Lowe and McLaglen blunder their way through many amusing sequences before they find out.

Arlen is cast as the young man accused of the crime, and McLaglen as his sister, the girl who spurs Lowe and McLaglen on.

RANGER CAN'T ESCAPE DUTY

Buck Jones in his latest Columbia outdoor thriller, "Hello Trouble", is showing at the Penman-Allyn theatre. Buck is a Texas Ranger, who while performing his duty, shoots his friend, Johnny Boyle, who used to be a ranger too, but who has fallen into bad company. This is a picture of a ranger playing Jeff Douglas, that he decides to quit ranging and find peace of mind at the Silver Circle Ranch in Arizona. But instead of finding the calm life that he hoped for, Jeff has to pull out of worse holes than ever before.

Today nothing of saving others, including Janet Kenyon, a pretty Eastern girl, with whom he finally falls in love.

The supporting cast is unusually able, including Lana Bassette, the former Ziegfeld Follies beauty, who plays opposite Buck, as Jane; and such headliners as Wallace MacDonald, Alan Roscoe, Morgan Galloway, Ruth Warren, Otto Hoffman, Lafe McKee, Ward Bond, Al Smith, Spec O'Donnell, Frank Rice and Russell Simpson.

"VINEGAR TREE" IS AT LAFAYETTE THEATRE

A comedy that is laughable rather than logical, so hilarious, indeed, that it comes close to being a farce, is "The Vinegar Tree", which the Penman Players will present at the Lafayette theatre for the first time in Detroit during the week beginning Sunday evening, October 23.

The play, which is from the pen of Paul Osborn, a graduate and formerly a member of the faculty of the University of Michigan, deals with the lives of Augustus Merrick, his wife, Laura, her daughter, Leone, her sister, Winifred, and several of their friends, who are gathered at the Merrick home for a summer week end.

The complications arise from the presence of Max Lawrence, a famous artist, who is Winifred's lover and Laura's ex-flame, and Geoffrey Cole, Leone's college boy friend. Laura tries to revive the affections of Max, which causes Winifred to, in turn, to throw herself at the head of Max. Augustus is grumpy through it all, but understanding enough to do the right things and bring everything to a happy conclusion.

It is a madly muddled mess, and Laura's scatter-brained effort to regain some of the thrills of her youth, coupled with Winifred's cheerfully immoral viewpoint on life, and Leone's puppy love squabbles with Geoffrey, as a result of his half baked theories on marriage, bring about a series of excruciatingly funny situations. The climax is too good to be revealed here, but THE VINEGAR TREE should be worth seeing without fail, especially in view of the excellent production that may be expected from the Penman players.

EXCHANGITES HEAR "ISLE ROYALE" TALK

Isle Royale, located in Lake Superior, was described by Dr. Bruce H. Douglas at the Exchange club meeting, held Wednesday noon at the Methodist church house.

Dr. Douglas declared that the island, which is fifty miles long and ten miles wide, is an ideal vacation spot because of the grandeur of the scenery and because of the total absence of the many noises occasioned by automobiles, factories, and other "noise-makers" which accompany civilization.

The island has much volcanic formation and many beautiful stone agencies are to be found there, he said. Approximately 1,000 moose are on the island and they are a scenic source of wonder.

Sketches and pictures of the beautiful scenes of the island were passed around to the members who evidenced great interest.

Father Grover, of the Hazel Park Exchange club, made a few remarks and complimented the club on its spirited singing which was the best, he said, of any club which he had ever visited.

Plans for Ladies Night which will be held on Wednesday night, Oct. 26, were discussed and it has been definitely decided to hold a "Hard Times Party" to which all members and former members of the club are invited along with their friends.

There will be no meeting of the club next Wednesday noon.

CHAPTER OF D. A. R. MEETS IN PLYMOUTH

An especially noteworthy meeting of the Sarah Ann Chapter of the D. A. R. was held at the home of Mrs. R. Ovid Shaw in Plymouth on Monday afternoon when Northville was represented by its five members, Mrs. Don P. Yerkes, Sr., Mrs. Carl H. Bryan, Mrs. Sherwin A. Hill, Mrs. Roy B. Larjans and Mrs. Chas. L. Dubuar.

Among the reports of interest the educational committee commended the schools of Northville and Plymouth for the growing interest in the work in historical essays for which prizes are given by the D. A. R.

Through the medium of newspapers it is planned to urge the public to display their flags on patriotic occasions.

Mrs. Bryan had charge of the program. Of special interest was the fact that this chapter had done the best work for the state legislature this year. Of further interest is that 329 pioneer stories full of human interest have been sent by various chapters to the state registrar.

The date, Nov. 2, has been set by the Shawassee chapter for the honoring of the memory of the pioneer great-grandmother of Mrs. Dwight L. Randall, a past president of the Sarah Ann Cochrane chapter.

WEST POINT PARK

BERKLEY DEFEATS N. H. S. TEAM 6-0 IN GAME FRIDAY

Bad Punts Deciding Factor In Upsetting Local Team Here

In a hard fought game here last Friday, Northville was abruptly stopped in the march for the championship by Berkley. Outweighed by a bigger team, the orange and black eleven made a brilliant effort to turn back the invaders but lost by a score of 6 to 0. Northville winning the toss, Shipley caught the ball on the ten yard line, and returned it about fifteen yards. On the first play Bender was stopped through a tackle. Rushed by Berkley, Bender got off a short hurried punt. Berkley running back to Northville's twenty yard line. There they were stopped for the next set of downs, gaining only nine yards. McCordie tried left tackle but failed to gain. Bender, with the Berkley players upon him almost before he caught the ball, got off another bad punt, but Berkley lost the ball on downs on the thirty yard line. Eddie Bender then took around right end for a four yard gain, and a series of line plunges failed to bring a first down. With Berkley getting the ball, two plunges through the middle of the line gained them only four yards as the quarter ended.

Touchdown Scored

In the second period on the first play, Wright of Berkley, tore loose through his own right tackle, got out into the open field, and ran twenty yards for a touchdown. Failing for the after-point and kicking, Berkley forced Northville to punt. This time Bender got off a nice long kick and Berkley immediately kicked back. Bender made three yards around right end and then kicked again, getting off a long punt down the field. Berkley plunged once and followed his previous example, kicked again, making the fourth punt in four downs. Bender got away for a nice run of twenty yards and Shipley crashed the center for five more. Following an incomplete pass, Berkley got the ball and plunged the line hard as the whistle blew ending the half.

Beginning the second half, Schrader booted a long kick off to Berkley and it was run back twenty yards. Following a series of line plunges, Berkley kicked, and Kerr receiving the ball made a nice return. Shipley then made a three yard smash through the center of the line and Bender immediately punted. Berkley getting the ball rammed through the center of the line for a twenty yard run and then they promptly kicked, continuing the battle of punts. With Shipley trying the center for no gain, Bender kicked and Berkley followed with a long uncompleted pass.

Early in the fourth quarter, Bender tried a pass, but when it was knocked down, Northville kicked. Following a smash at the center of the line, Bender, playing a very consistent game, intercepted a Berkley pass. After failing to gain on two plays, he punted and Berkley, after only one play, kicked back.

With Shipley through the line for a short gain, and Kerr banging at it for some yardage, Northville began what might have resulted in a touchdown. On a fake fullback play, Bender made the longest run of the game, a forty-five yard end run, putting the ball in a possible scoring position. Here, due to some mix-up in the time keeping, however, Northville thought they had more time than they did. Campbell hit left tackle for no gain and the Northville team was beginning a huddle when the game ended.

BAND TO TURN IN INSTRUMENTS AND ENJOY A VACATION

At last it's going to happen! The band is going to have its vacation. This has been an annual event, and although it is late this year, the band members will have two weeks of freedom from practice. After the football game Friday all persons who use school horns turned them in. During this vacation all the squeaks and squawks that have accumulated since the last vacation, a year ago, will be removed. When the horns are returned Oct. 27, they will be in first-class condition. Practice will be resumed on Tuesday, Nov. 1. The first appearance of the band after vacation will be on Friday, Nov. 4, at the Northville-Plymouth football game.

GRADE NOTES

Mrs. Leonardson's first B pupils are working a farm project. The enrollment is now 44 in that grade. The half-day sessions have stopped now in Miss Wilson's third grade and the pupils are attending all day. The pupils of Mrs. Cooke's third grade are studying Indians and are making an Indian exhibit. Evelyn Larson of Miss Macdonald's first grade is confined to her home with scarlet fever. The pupils of that grade are studying South America and in connection they are making a poster showing all the kinds of rubber grown in South America.

Miss Reinicke's fifth A is studying Africa and they are making an African desert in their sand table. Leah Saley was home with the flu this past week. The pupils of Miss Hawkins' 8th grade are playing the story of "The King of the Golden River". Mrs. Reng's 2nd grade pupils are learning the names of the colors and the number. They have a number and color chart on the blackboard by which they are studying them. They are also studying the origin of Halloween.

Last Wednesday the pupils of Mrs. Cooke's 7th and 8th grade assembly gave a program. Junior Cole was the chairman of it and the program was as follows: Edwinna Gerald and Lois Chapman, dramatic sketches; Marjorie Chase and Alice Eaton, piano duet; Nancy McCoughlin, recitation; and Helen Johnson and Jane Grosvenor, duet, accompanied by ukelele.

CAMP FIRE NOTES

Mrs. Cooke's Camp Fire Girls held their first meeting Monday, Oct. 10. At this time they talked over plans for the year. After much discussion they came to the conclusion that Monday night would be the most suitable time for meetings.

The Girls took a hike Saturday, Oct. 15, when they walked to Plymouth to attend a matinee. They left the school at 11:30 and took their lunch. Mrs. Cooke accompanied them.

Mrs. Reng's Camp Fire Group held its first meeting Wednesday, Oct. 19, in the Kindergarten building. All the Camp Fire Girls in Northville of Junior High age were invited to a tea, given Sunday, Oct. 16, by the league of Catholic Women in Detroit. It is not known who attended.

SOCIETY NOTES

Miss Catherine McKenna has this week as a guest, Miss Frances Carleton from Metamora.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cobb spent the week-end in Howell with Mrs. Cobb's father.

Miss Eleanor Eaton went to Pontiac for the week-end to visit friends.

Miss Madeline Haysted visited her cousin in Detroit, Sunday.

Robert Power spent the week-end in Detroit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lee spent Sunday in Pontiac with Mr. Lee's parents.

Substitutions for Northville: Kerr for Campbell, Baldwin for Nirder, Dundas for Bray, Vradenburg for Ware, Neal for Dundas, Mathews for Neal.

ROUND THE SCHOOL

WE CAN'T WIN 'EM ALL

Berkley 6, Northville 0—This was the score of the game here last Friday. The score was a result of our opponents having a bigger team (though emphatically not better), and getting lucky breaks; and a slight over-confidence on the part of our football team.

By now this defeat has been forgotten by the squad. They are not even giving it thought. To Berkley, we are thinking only of Trenton, and the game there this afternoon. Let us profit by their example. We can't win 'em all, and that affair was merely one of them. Our orange and black eleven is not licked by any means. They still are not only in the midst of the struggle but have a chance for the league championship as well, and don't let anyone tell you different!

TIGER

N. H. S. Tiger misses prey, angry and on war path, considered very dangerous and likely to overcome all future foes—news flash. From what we have been able to learn, the flashes in error and there is no Northville tiger. However, we propose that we do have one. Most school and colleges have some symbol or animal representing them. From our school colors, orange and black it seems fitting that we take the royal Bengal tiger as our zoological aspirant.

We would like to hear your opinion of this, Northville students, and the quicker you let us know, the better. We do not believe Princeton will mind.

Following the example of many people of pushing all things into the broad shoulders of the President, we now digress to be against Mr. Hoover as a result of our downfall at the hands of Berkley.

The cheering section, due probably to Coach Ruggles' pep talk and we certainly agreed with him) sounded as though it had almost recovered from its severe attack of laryngitis.

It seems to us that it would be a fine thing for as many as possible to drive to Trenton this afternoon and not only see the game there, but give the team much needed support as well.

REGULATIONS FOR FIRE DRILLS GIVEN BY MR. AMERMAN

Nearly everyone is familiar with fire drills. Mr. Amerman gave a very interesting talk on what to do during a fire drill or in case a real fire breaks out. "It is always well for the student and others to keep a few simple rules in mind. They are the following: 1. Always keep to the right. 2. Never crowd or push but walk as quietly and quickly as possible. 3. People in Mrs. Chapman's, Mrs. Cobb's and in the chemistry room should walk to the first door and out the back way. Likewise those in the first twenty seats in the assembly should do the same way. 4. Students in Miss Palmer's, Mrs. Taylor's, Mr. Ruggles' room and in the last ten seats in the assembly walk to the last door and out the back way. The gym students should also go out the back door. 5. Pupils on the first floor should go out the front door. If everyone follows these rules much confusion will thus be avoided, and the time of emptying the building, greatly reduced.

STUDENTS LEARN PRACTICAL OFFICE ROUTINE AT SCHOOL

Who knows what the office practice class is doing? The class meets on Tuesday the sixth hour for a discussion period. The following subjects will be discussed; telephoning, filing, organizing, and switchboard. The purpose of this course is to turn out from the high school an efficient group of office workers. Each girl in the class works for one of the high school teachers. Violet Shepherd is working for Mrs. Taylor, the commercial teacher; Gertrude Deal and Madeline Haysted for Mrs. Cobb in history department; Florence Johnson takes care of the work for Mr. Lee and Coach Ruggles; Dorothy Ash and Marion Lewis do Mrs. Chapman's typing; Dorothy Shoebridge and Marie Humphries have charge of Mr. Amerman's office; Mrs. Zimmerman is helped by Miriam Dundas, and Miss Palmer by Wilma Rattenbury.

Besides this each girl works some time on the switchboard. These girls are learning how to work in an office and when they graduate they will have been trained in office routine.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF DANCE SCHEDULE MADE BY SENIORS

Lecture and Sales Campaign Also Are On Financial Program

Monday night at the high school gymnasium, the Senior class held a health talk presented by the Wear-Atter Aluminum Company. The attendance fell away below expectations, although the audience present enjoyed the foods served and heard a very enlightening lecture. Among the many money making activities of the twelfth graders was a magazine sale. They campaigned the town for a week starting last Wednesday, selling magazines from both the Crowell and Curtis publishing companies. The financial advantages resulting from this effort are not yet known.

The hot dogs, sold at sports football games, according to all reports, have been a success, and the sale of them will be continued at all future games.

Everyone has been anxiously awaiting the announcement of the senior dance schedule. At last it has been prepared by President Richard Shipley and a committee appointed by him. The first dance is to be held this evening, October 21, and according to the President and the committee in charge it is going to be a big one. The dance, which starts the senior season for the high school, will begin at 8:00 p. m. and will end at 12:00, midnight. The price of admission will be 25¢ a person or 50¢ a couple. A well known orchestra from Detroit has been secured for the evening and it is expected that a large crowd will turn out.

The price for all these dances will be the same and it is thought that they will all start at the same time. The schedule, as it has been arranged so far is as follows: Oct. 21 (tonight), November 4 (evening of the Plymouth game), November 18, December 2, December 16, and December 21.

LARGE NUMBER OF STUDENTS ATTEND RELIGIOUS CLASSES

More than forty-five students have signed up for the new courses that are being offered in Religious Education. These classes meet twice each week and two hours credit is given for each semester's work. Rev. Frank Meehan, "Bible Study and Protestant Religion" his aim is to make the students acquainted with Biblical geography and literature. He also wishes to show how the Hebrews contributed to our present civilization. Mr. Miner is using this first semester to study the biographies of the Old Testament characters, and is using an outline prepared under the authority of the Michigan State Teachers Association approved by the Department of Public Instruction at Lansing. Rev. Joseph Schuler has the class on the subject entitled, "Bible Study and Catholic Religion." The class is to study religion in general, but at present they are having a discussion on the existence of God and of the consequent obligations "God's ownership of the world" was stressed upon this week and the use of the world's goods in form of a loan. An owner may lay down the conditions on which a loan is made. Religion shows what these conditions are, and helps us to carry them out.

FRESHMEN ELECT CLASS SPONSORS AT FIRST MEETING

Three cheers for the freshmen! They held their first meeting of the year in the Junior Assembly, Wednesday, October 12. President Tom McCoughlin introduced, for the benefit of the new boys and girls, their officers, who are as follows: Bob Lyke, president; Bob Angove, treasurer; and Ida Altman, secretary. They also elected as class sponsors, Mrs. Zimmerman and Mr. Lee. Marjorie Ellis was elected class alderman. There are about 80 Freshmen altogether. At their next meeting they are going to discuss plans to make money and other various activities.

NORTHVILLE PLAYS GAME AT TRENTON THIS AFTERNOON

This afternoon the Northville football team will meet the Trenton team. This time the boys will play away from home, the game taking place at Trenton. This will be the hardest game of the season and will be well worth seeing. Everyone should attempt to come out and back the team. The football eleven has done good work this year and intends to continue doing so.

So remember to be at Trenton Friday, Oct. 28, to see the boys win this game.

Printing that pleases at the Northville Record office.

JACOBSON LEAVES; SCHOOL HONORS HIM WITH GIFTS MONDAY

Monday, the whole school was electrified to learn that one of the most valuable members of its faculty, valuable both from point of capability as well as length of service, was going to leave.

Classes were called back; students and teachers alike were running here and there asking "is it true, when does he go, where, when, etc." The object of all this excitement was Mr. A. V. Jacobson, the head of the mathematics department of the high school. Announcing Saturday his intention of leaving for New York City, the news did not get about until Monday, when it greatly surprised everyone.

At the eighth hour Monday afternoon the classes were recalled to assembly. Mayor Robert Christensen, of the Student Council, opened the program by paying tribute to Mr. Jacobson on behalf of the students and presented him with a gold coin as a token of their appreciation and affection.

Alfred Knapp, Mr. Jacobson's friend and a member of the hall and accepted the gift. Making a short speech and thanking the students and stating that he was really sorry to leave Northville, he received a tremendous ovation from all present.

Then Coach Harold L. Ruggles, President of the Northville teachers club, expressed on behalf of the N. H. S. faculty, the sentiments regarding their fellow member who was about to leave. "He was in many ways a great asset to the school," said Mr. Ruggles, "and I regard him as a personal friend. It was a real shock to me and everyone else to hear of his moving. However, Mr. Ruggles went on to say, "We would not want to hold him down, so we wish him all possible success in his new undertaking." Concluding he presented him with a small check on behalf of the teachers saying, "It is not so much the amount, as the sentiment that counts."

Coach Ruggles was followed by Supt. T. J. Knapp, who briefly explained that Mr. Jacobson's leaving had been discussed with the school board some time previous, and that as a man cannot determine when his opportunity will arrive, if he lost this chance, he might never have another.

Mr. Knapp emphasized on behalf of the school board, the appreciation for Mr. Jacobson's great service and efforts in the last few years. "His instructional service," said the superintendent, "would amount to the complete teaching of thirty pupils in all subjects for four years. Recognizing his unselfish time and energy given to all students and school activities, Mr. Knapp stated, "Mr. Jacobson, on behalf of your official employers and myself, I wish you God-speed and good luck."

"The whole school will now seem different," said all the students in saying good-bye to their teacher and friend. Miss Geraldine Huff, who taught girls athletics, will now have a vacant place in mathematics and science.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAY MAKES BIG "HIT"

"What Anne Brought Home", a play given by the high school students of the music department under the direction of Leslie G. Lee, was very capably presented by the first cast Friday evening, Oct. 14, in the high school auditorium. Written by Larry Johnson, the play was presented for the first of its two scheduled performances before a large crowd and was enthusiastically received by the large audience.

Maurice Giles took, in a very capable manner, the part of Sam Bennett, "the father," while Florence Johnson did some fine acting in the role of Mrs. Bennett, the mother. Gertrude Deal played the part of Alma Bennett, a lively girl of eighteen, and Winifred McCordie, in perhaps the leading feminine part of the play, portrayed the character of Anne, her sister. Madeline Haysted, completing the list of feminine roles, acted the rather "snappy" role of Nina, sister of Alma and Anne in a pleasing manner.

The leading male part, that of Dudley, who was "What Anne Brought Home", was a hard assignment handled in a splendid manner by Henry Hoffman. Alfred Parmenter as the humorous old uncle, completely captured the audience by his clever acting, and the part of Herb, the high-powered salesman, was well played, in a way which added to the merriment of the evening, by Dayton Deal. Marie Fraser capably portrayed the dignified business ability of J. T. Raymond, general manager of electric light and power company.

This play will be repeated with a different cast on Friday evening, Oct. 28, when another large audience is expected.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Moore, who have been spending some time in Detroit, made a visit at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. Grant Moore, before returning to their home in Kentucky.

NEW HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA TO MAKE APPEARANCE SOON

A short time ago a small group of boys and girls came together under the leadership of Martin Sommers and formed a new dance orchestra for the purpose of enlightening the community with their "gay times and frolics."

They have been practicing for a month and have already made great progress. The orchestra is composed of the following persons: all members of the local high school band: Martin Sommers, director, Catherine Duguid, piano, Franklin Knight, bass horn; Ida Altman, snare drum; Otto Tewksbury, saxophone and clarinet; Jack McCoughlin, cornet, Tom McCoughlin, trombone, and Edna Martin, saxophone and clarinet. The orchestra, thus far, has not been given a name, but is expected to make a public appearance very soon.

MERCHANTS' SHOW PRESENTS STARS

It was a real treat to see the highly dramatic night to see realistic which was one of the highlights in the Merchants' show, Wednesday night at the Penniman Allen theatre. The picture was "Deal and the Deep" and brought forth a Bankhead and Gary Cooper together with the distinguished English actor, Charles Laughton.

The scenes are laid out in a port in Alaska, and Miss Bankhead is cast as the wife of a jealous submarine officer, who falls in love with Cooper, a member of his husband's crew. Laughton, the husband in his jealous rage heads the ship for another port, and thus the wheel goes round. As the sub is sinking the two men battle for the woman with their wits.

While the story is not the best piece of work theatrically, the cast give an excellent and finished performance and good direction is apparent.

For the amusement of theatre goers Saturday night the Penniman Allen presents Buck Jones, a favorite, in "Hello Trouble."

Guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Burkhardt last Sunday were Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Wood of Ann Arbor. Dr. Wood was a college room-mate of Dr. Burkhardt in university days.

THE HOME AND THE TEACHER

Northville Parents Stand By Schools. A most healthful sign in Northville is the genuine interest of parents in our schools. The first Parent-Teachers association of the year started off "with a bang" last Thursday evening. Every chair was full. Each teacher was in his own room preceding the program to welcome visiting parents who went to the grounds and greeted the teachers and took a glimpse at the place where their children spend the large share of their day. No doubt about the benefit of the mutual understanding between parents and teachers. Young Johnny will be glad to feel that Dad and Mother know teacher.

It was the common opinion that the new president is a "live wire." One suggestion Mrs. Lester made was something like this: "Let's set an extra plate now and then of our supper table and ask in our child's teacher to eat with us. It does not need to be a company meal. Teachers will enjoy sitting down to a home meal and will be glad to know the families of their pupils."

Let's not forget this Teachers are not selfish when in their decision to again sponsor the milk fund. In spite of a depleted treasury these parents and teachers declared that underfed children shall have their milk each morning no matter what the cost.

Too often the home, the school and the church keep in "watertight" compartments, as though these institutions were not three sections of a whole plan for the development of our citizens.

The school cannot do its best by our children unless the home gives it co-operation. We should begin by offering a hospitality to our teachers, affording them a comfortable place to live, at a fair price, welcoming them into our clubs, getting acquainted with them and giving them real friendship, and a chance to share in our civic life. We are too likely to treat the teacher as an outsider or a mere temporary sojourner. We owe it to our teachers to visit the schools and know what they are trying to do for our children and how we can gear into their program. We owe it to them to back them up by discipline in the home, which will keep our children fit to do their best in school. We owe it to them to stand by them always speaking a good word about them before the children and in the community. If they are deserving of it. A grudging attitude will not only hurt the teacher, but will make him unable to have much influence or achieve much with our children.

A wise person says: "To know that we don't know is the first step toward knowing what we don't know."

FRIED APPLES

"My that smells good!" we exclaimed and one of Northville's good cooks told us how she was "frying" apples to serve with roast pork.

Quarter the apples without paring. Put some fat in a spider or baking pan. Put the apples in and add a cup of brown sugar. Cover tightly and cook slowly. Very delicious.

Ginger Bread

Our "country cousin" says this ginger bread is the best ever.

1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup molasses, 1/2 cup shortening, 1 cup boiling water, 2 cups flour, into which sift 1 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon each ginger, cloves, cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup raisins, two eggs beaten in one at a time. Bake in moderate oven.

RE-ELECT FARRELL AS COUNTY CLERK

In an editorial following the primary election, the Detroit News called attention to the matter that should be remembered by all voters at the coming election. The News said:

"Good business judgment and common sense dictate that the public servant becomes more valuable for each year of experience. If he has proven fairly satisfactory he is a better choice than an unknown who offers merely his theoretical platform, his need of a job or his ambition."

While it may not be the only instance where this "shoe fits," the Wayne county clerk's office comes to mind as a case in point where "good business judgment and common sense dictate" that the training, experience and all round efficiency of the present incumbent, Thomas F. Farrell, should be retained. The Wayne county clerk's office is considered and referred to as a model throughout the nation; functions smoothly, expeditiously and accurately in every department—a fact that saves a world of time and eliminates delays that would run into unnecessary expenses to the taxpayers.

The sound interests of Wayne county, its taxpayers and the public generally will be best conserved by keeping a time-tested and tested official on the job.

Vote for Thomas F. Farrell for county clerk.

The White Shrine of Jerusalem are giving a Halloween party for their members Thursday evening, Oct. 27, at the home of J. Z. Vandyne. This will be a hard time party with a prize for the most tacky costume.

Society Notes

Thursday Contract Club Meets With McLaughlins

After enjoying together a hearty supper served by the Altar society of Our Lady of Victory church, the Thursday club, including the husbands and wives, made their way to the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McLaughlin where the remainder of the evening was spent pleasantly with contract. Guests at this occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Packard of Birmingham, the former having instructed this group during the past year in the art of playing contract bridge.

Hunters' Families Dine Together On Their Quarry

On a perfect October day last Sunday the families of Walter Ware, Clifford Turnbull and Herbert Wusth, with Edna Warner and her son, Roy, and Ed. Strison enjoyed a whole day in the open at the Ware cottage at Appleton Lake. On the previous day the hunters of the party had had good luck with their guns and eleven pheasants and four pump rabbits lay waiting for the women of the party to cook. The children and women of the party had a fine time on the lake while the men idled about getting good appetites for the "beautiful feast of game." The woods in this festive retreat were never more beautiful declared the whole party.

Popular Young Couple Are Wedded Friday

A quiet wedding took place at the Methodist Episcopal church in Belleville last Friday afternoon at three o'clock, when Mrs. Virginia S. Palmer, daughter of W. W. Smith, became the bride of Frank L. Perkins, son of J. W. Perkins, officiating. They were attended by Miss Margaret Housman of Plymouth as bridesmaid, and Peter L. Perkins, brother of the groom, as best man. After a few days' wedding trip in Ohio Mr. and Mrs. Perkins will make their home in Redford, where Mr. Perkins is foreman at the Redford Record Printing Co.

Both young people are well known in Northville having lived in this village all their lives and The Record joins with the community in wishing them a long and happy wedded life together.

The bride has been the honor guest at several social affairs given by friends and relatives during the past month and was the recipient of a number of lovely and useful gifts for the new home.

Former Teacher Honored By Friends With Pre-Nuptial Shower

Honoring Miss Mabel VanVleet of St. Johns, a teacher in our seventh and eighth grades of the Northville schools for several years, nineteen of her friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Robert Lee on Dunlap street Monday evening to shower her with miscellaneous gifts. Sharing the duties as hostess with Mrs. Lee was Miss Ellen Remcke, a teacher here. Beside the teaching staff of the local school there were present other friends from town: Mrs. Orlow Owen, Mrs. Allan Buckley, Mrs. Chas. Wilson and Miss Irene Fennel. Miss VanVleet was presented with a variety of pretty gifts, daintily wrapped and bed with appropriate felicitations and the unwrapping of these tokens proved a very interesting part of the evening.

As a result of the bridge tournament Mrs. Geo. Stalker and Miss Effie MacDonald carried off the honors. A delectable lunch was served.

Miss VanVleet will become the bride of Claude Keeney of Lansing early in November when the wedding will occur at St. Johns.

Young Folks Hike to Park For Good Time

A merry party of young folks of the Epworth League of the Methodist church accompanied by their leader, Mrs. Frank N. Miner, and Mr. Miner, hiked through the new parkway to the new addition of Cass Benton park last Saturday evening where they enjoyed a wienie roast on the hill. With hearty appetites after the walk the "feed" was a big success.

Mrs. Geo. Linder Surprised On Birthday

A surprise party was given on Saturday, Oct. 3, in honor of Mrs. Geo. Linder of Rushton, who was 43 years old. Among those who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dickey, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dell, Jr., and Arnold Andrews of South Lyon; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hiner and family of Northville; Mr. and Mrs. Chris Mader and family of Detroit; and Wm. G. Hudson of Ann Arbor. A fine luncheon concluded the pleasant evening.

Mrs. Tewksbury Happily Surprised By Friends on Birthday

It is not usual for a husband to put on a party for his wife as did Mrs. Tewksbury last Friday evening when a company of friends were invited in to celebrate the birthday of Mrs. Tewksbury. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dolph were dinner guests and later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Clifford B. Turnbull and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bogart joined the party and enjoyed a pleasant time which was concluded with a beautifully decorated birthday cake, made by Mrs. Dolph and ice cream.

New Bridge Club Meets First With Mrs. Burkart

A new club made its first bow to Northville society Wednesday afternoon when a group of ladies, who have been working hard to master the difficulties of contract bridge, met to organize permanently. Mrs. H. Burkart was the first hostess to this club and welcomed to her home the following friends: Mrs. R. H. Saley, Mrs. J. N. McLaughlin, Mrs. H. S. Willis, Mrs. J. B. Nalbant, Mrs. Harry Blake, Mrs. E. C. Hinkley and Mrs. Scott Lovewell.

These ladies are not lacking in originality, having established the rule "nothing to eat," their first afternoon proved very pleasant.

Woman's Club Opens Season With First Program

The Northville Woman's club met at the library last Friday afternoon for its second meeting of the year. Reports from representatives to Federation Divisions were given by Mrs. T. G. Hegge on art and Miss Reya Schrader on drama. Mrs. D. B. Bunn spoke at length of the great beauty of the gardens surrounding the Henry Ford home in Dearborn. Representatives to this division were guests there for the afternoon.

Mrs. J. W. Cleaver in her inimitable way, received the current events of the summer.

Because it has proved of great worth to the community in the past, the club voted to continue the baby clinic through the club year.

The meeting this week will be held at the library Friday evening. The faculty of the Northville schools are to be guests. Arrangements are in charge of the social committee with Mrs. E. A. Shafer as chairman.

Thursday Bridge Meets With Mrs. Murphy

Mrs. Chas. Murphy was hostess to her bridge club at her home Thursday afternoon when the usual delightful time was enjoyed at their favorite past-time.

Dr. and Mrs. Willis' Entertain Friends at Their Home

A very congenial group of twelve, including husbands and wives, spent a delightful evening informally playing contract at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Willis in Oakwood Thursday evening. Following the tournament refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Smith Hostess to Bridge Club

The Thursday Bridge club spent a pleasant afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elmer Smith when Mrs. H. H. Burkart, Mrs. Geo. Saley and Mrs. J. M. McLaughlin completed the party as substitutes. High honors went to Mrs. Burkart and the hostess. Dessert luncheon was served.

Mrs. Murphy Visits Pontiac Auxiliary

Mrs. Chas. Murphy has begun her duties as of the 17th district of the American Legion and visited the auxiliary at Pontiac last Monday evening to witness an installation of officers. A bridge pageant was a feature of additional interest and the evening was concluded with a lunch Mrs. Murphy accompanied his wife and was introduced as the "committee woman's husband."

Northville Woman's Club Extends Welcome to Teachers

The teachers of the public schools will be the guests of the Northville Woman's club at 8 o'clock this evening (Friday) at the public library, when the following program will be given:

A group of American Indian songs, sung in costume by a quintette from the Social Study Club of Lansing. The quintette includes Mrs. G. S. McIntire, Mrs. J. D. Washburn, Mrs. Earl Nelson, Mrs. E. A. Sump and Mrs. W. J. Stahl—who is also the director of the group. The accompanist is Mrs. Malcolm Trout. The program is made up of the Cadman Suite in which occurs the Land of the Sky-Blue Water; two solos, Indian Dances, by the Waters of Minnesota; a duet, Pale Moon, a piano solo, Rhapsody, from the Suite, Zuni Impressions, by Gran, and a short paper on Indian Music.

Proceeding the program of the evening the quintette will be guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. T. F. Brennan, together with the other members of the program committee of the year, of which Mrs. Brennan is chairman. During the afternoon when bridge will be the diversion a dessert luncheon will be served and later a buffet supper.

Included among the guests will be Mrs. Stahl's mother and Mrs. Brennan's sister, Mrs. F. M. Brown, also of Lansing.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS

At their first meeting for the year the Camp Fire Girls, directed by Mrs. Reng, elected the following officers: Marjorie Chase, president; Janet Stewart, vice-president; Lucille Simmons, secretary; Louise Alexander, treasurer; Frances Hamilton, scribe. The girls made plans for a Halloween party, to be held Oct. 28.

CHURCH NEWS

Baptist Church

Services for Sunday, Oct. 23, coming directly after the 97th meeting of the Michigan Baptist convention held this week at Hillsdale, promise to be of more than usual interest. Opportunity will be given to those who have attended this important gathering to express their impressions. At 10:30 a. m. the pastor, Rev. Wm. Roscoe Barbour, will preach on the subject, "Isaiah, Ancient Prophet and Modern Preacher." At 7:30 the pastor preaches on the theme: "The Transformation of Peter." The B. Y. P. U. meets at 6:30 p. m. There were twenty-seven present last Sunday and we wish to make this service one of great blessing to young people.

The 97th annual meeting of Michigan Baptists occurred at Hillsdale from Monday to Thursday inclusive. Not only were Dr. Wm. A. A. J. of Japan and Dr. B. C. Clausen of Syracuse on the program, but also Dr. Fred Fisher, pastor of the M. E. church at St. Paul, and Dr. J. H. McPherson, pastor of the Methodist church in Lansing. The service for Sunday, Oct. 23, will be in the Baptist church. Woman's Union.

Methodist Church

Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock is the public worship service to which the public are cordially invited. Mr. Miner, the pastor, will preach on "The Significance of the Soul." A service of worship and meditation held in every day living.

The Sunday school is at 12 noon. O. L. Tewksbury is superintendent. At the evening at 7:30 the Methodist and Presbyterian churches will unite with the Baptist church in a Union Service at the Baptist church.

The three pastors will participate in this service. The preacher will not be announced until that evening. All friends and members of the three churches are asked to co-operate with their attendance.

Methodists are planning for a big day Sunday, November 6. The week previous is visitation week. That fine chicken pie dinner is scheduled for 6 p. m., Tuesday, Nov. 8.

The W. H. M. S. has an afternoon meeting Tuesday, Oct. 25. All ladies invited. The meeting is at the home of Mrs. R. T. Baldwin, 201 Fairbrook street. Official Board meeting Tuesday evening, Nov. 1.

Our Lady of Victory Church

The ladies bake-sale takes place tomorrow, Saturday, at the Palace market. Mrs. McCordie, Mrs. Mitchell, and Mrs. Haysbeck have charge. The Altar society had an enjoyable and busy October meeting at the home of Mrs. R. M. Terrill last Tuesday.

Next Sunday is Holy Communion day for the 7th and 8th grades as well as for all the ladies of the parish.

St. Paul's Lutheran

Rev. C. Bickstaedt, Pastor
220 Elm Street

The regular hour of Sunday worship is 10:00 o'clock. The third answer to the question, "What it is to be a Christian?" will form the basis of the morning's discourse. The text for consideration will be: Isaiah 43:10-12. Topic: "To Be a Christian is to be a Witness for Christ." Everyone is cordially invited to this service.

The Sunday school will be held in connection with the Sunday worship. Catechism instruction on Saturday morning from 9 to 11 o'clock in the church hall.

The half hour of Faith and Fellowship is broadcast Sunday afternoon from 1:30 to 2:00 o'clock from station WXYZ.
