The Bank is coming. Get ready for good times ahead.

COMSTOCK TO SPEAK HERE NOVEMBER 5

Democrats of Plymouth and Northville Unite for Big Rally

William A. Comstock, Democratic candidate for governor of Michigan, is going to invade this section of Wayne county Saturday evening, November 5, at Northville.

This will give every one in Plymouth and Northville a chance to do their shopping and see the shows before the time for the big Democratic mass meeting is to start.

In addition to Mr. Comstock, there will be, other prominent Democratic speakers on the program. It is possible that Judge O'Brien, candidate for attorney general, will be one of the speakers.

There is no question about the appearance of William Comstock, Thomas Wilcox, Democratic candidate for sheriff who recently spoke before the Northville Rotary club, will be one of the speakers. Attorney George Bushnell, Democratic candidate for prosecuting attorney of Wayne county, will be on the mass meeting program.

These three speakers, William Comstock, Thomas Wilcox and George Bushnell, are assured for the meeting. Plymouth Democrats are planning a big parade about town just previous to the Northville meeting. Additional details of the meeting will appear in next week's issue of the Record.

BURKE AND MOORE SPEAK TONIGHT AT FEDERATED CHURCH

The ladies of the Salem Federated church will give another of their famous chicken pie suppers on Friday evening, Oct. 28. They will conclude the supper there will be a good program. Geo. Burke of Ann Arbor and A. L. Moore of Ann Arbor will speak and a male quartet will sing. The price is 35c for adults and 15c for children under 12.

THREE HELD FOR THE ESCAPE OF PRISONERS

Monday night there appeared before Judge Wellington Roberts, Russell Betrus, Mike Jesky, and Albert Marbut, all of Highland Park, charged with aiding Daniel Ghish and Ignatius Dielat, prisoners, to escape from the Detroit House of Correction.

Jesky and Marbut plead guilty to the charge, while Betrus demanded examination. All were bound over to the Circuit Court.

CHICKEN-PIE DINNER

Chicken pie dinner—the Methodist way—in the church house, Nov. 8, beginning at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

This annual spread is for all who can come. Think of the delicious biscuit, gravy and chicken in individual dishes, and the other trimmings.

Some of the ladies will aid you in selecting candy, aprons and fancy work and canned goods. Any contribution to these booths will be very welcome.

BENEFIT CARD PARTY

The generous patronage of the public is requested at the public card party to be given by the King's Daughters at the high school gym on the evening of Thursday, Nov. 3. The admission will be only 25c and a prize will be given at each table. Bridge, 500 or Pedro may be played at your pleasure. Refreshments of homemade fried cakes and coffee will be served.

NEW BUILDING AT FARMCREST

Alex H. Johnson began work last week on a new tool house for Phil H. Grennan at Farmcrest. The building will be 24x60 feet.

SCARLET FEVER AGAIN

Three more cases of scarlet fever are reported today by Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston, Mrs. Ambrose Fritz and two children, Mildred and Lillian, North Center street.

TALKS HERE

Emmett Richards, district governor, told Northville Rotarians Tuesday how the depression had been a good thing.

STUDENTS REPEAT PLAY THIS EVENING

Two weeks ago the public witnessed a very successful performance of the play "What Anne Brought Home" by Larry Johnson. Tonight at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium this play will be repeated.

The same cast of boys will appear, viz., Henry Hoffman, Maurice Giles, Dayton Deal, Alfred Farmer, and Marie Fraser. Mary Louise Boyden will be seen in the role of Anne Bennett, Marion Turnbull will play the part of Alma, the youngest sister. The part of Nina Bennett will be portrayed by Eleanor Grosvenor, and Margaret Hay will play the character of Hattie Bennett.

It is hoped that another large audience will witness this play. The admission will be the same. Students 20c and adults 30c.

THREE CHURCHES COMBINE TO HOLD EVENING SERVICES

The Union Evening Service which the Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian churches have planned to continue through the month of January, began last Sunday evening at the Baptist church. All three pastors were present and were supported by an excellent choir from the entertaining church. The pastor, Rev. W. Roscoe Barbour, spoke of the fine co-operation of the three churches for the past two years in vacation church school, teacher training school and senior citizen services, as setting the pace for further co-operation in Sunday evening services.

The preacher of the evening was Rev. Frank Miller, pastor of the M. E. church. The preacher took occasion at this opening service to express his deep appreciation of the fellowship between the three pastors. His message was a direct and heart-stirring appeal to live the Christ-way of living. He appealed to those who had allowed lower interests to wear them away from Christ to renounce that attitude and conduct. The message was well received and was not without its practical results.

We trust that it will appear to the community at large as one of the finest moves in our history as a town, this pooling of our spiritual interests and combining of our forces for the highest ends. Each week a report of these services will be made through this paper and each week these services will be amply announced in the same columns.

NO SCHOOL TODAY

While the teachers of the public schools are off to the Wayne county institute the pupils of the public schools are having a day off today (Friday). This institute will be held Friday and Saturday and is a full program of instruction in school matters. An outstanding feature will be an address by superintendent of public instruction, Webster H. Pearce.

NEW YORK FRIENDS SURPRISE KIDDER

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kidder were happily surprised on Saturday evening by a visit from ten of their friends from their old home in New York state. The company remained until Monday morning, when they left for home.

DOLLAR DAYS IN NORTHVILLE ARE NOV. 5-7-8

Local Merchants Plan to Give Buyers Many Bargains

Saturday, Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 5, 7 and 8, mark those dates on your calendar Mr. and Mrs. Housekeeper for their Dollar Days in Northville.

Northville merchants are preparing a carnival of values for your approval. They're not values surpassing anything ever offered before, but they are bargains such as do not appear on store shelves and in windows and advertising columns every week in the year.

All Northville merchants have their winter stocks completed and they are able to offer quality merchandise at a price that will close the approximate cost.

Dollar Days, say the merchants, are frankly a community advertising proposition. Shoppers who are likely to spend their money in the communities where they receive the greatest value. Dollar Days are the merchants' method of displaying bargain values twice a year to attract a larger number of shoppers to their community.

Election day, Nov. 8, will see the conclusion of Northville's Fall Dollar Days. Shoppers are urged to make up their shopping lists and come to Northville to cash their votes and check up at the same time for winter.

Clothing, shoes, drugs, all merchandise will be placed on rock-bottom sale prices. With the notice in this issue of The Record that Northville is soon to have a bank, a renewed feeling of confidence has made itself evident. Merchants are filling up their shelves and buyers are now becoming more frequent.

Don't forget the dates—Saturday, Nov. 5; Monday, Nov. 7; and Tuesday, Nov. 8, "Dollar Days." Be on hand to share in the bargain celebration. Watch next week's issue of the Record for further announcements.

NORTHVILLE PEOPLE ATTEND BIG BAPTIST MEET AT HILLSDALE

The 97th annual meeting of the state organization of the Baptist denomination convened last week at Hillsdale from Monday to Thursday inclusive. From the very first there was a most unusual interest as was shown notably by the large attendance, but especially by the fellowship and spirit of devotion.

At the pastor's supper Monday night, completely filling the large dining room of East Hall, Hillsdale College, there was evidenced a breaking-down of some prejudices and misunderstandings. This spirit of true fellowship set the pace for the many sessions and many addresses which followed. Our Northville church sent four delegates besides the pastor. One can hardly begin to mention those who spoke, but we feel it helpful to mention such names as Wm. Axling of Japan, Bernard C. Clausen of Syracuse, N. Y., and C. A. Wells, world traveler and cartoonist for many newspapers. The address to the ministers by former Bishop Fred Fisher, now pastor of the Methodist church of Ann Arbor, was one of greatest power. Dr. Fisher won the love of those men as few men can. The fellowship supper held in the high school was attended by over 500 and the main addresses were by Mrs. Geo. Caleb Moore and C. A. Wells.

Rev. W. Roscoe Barbour, pastor of the Northville church, was honored by being elected a member of the board of managers. Most of the sessions were held in the college Baptist church, which although a large edifice, scarcely held the audiences.

Besides the pastor, those representing the Northville church were: Mrs. Jessie Malmberg, Mrs. Earl Montgomery, Mrs. George Biery and Mrs. W. R. Barbour.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The first meeting of the season for the Home Furnishing group will be held with Mrs. Marshall Herrick 126 Randolph, on Monday afternoon at 1:30 sharp. Former members of the Nutrition class are welcome.

A BIG COAL BARGAIN

We have two carloads of Pocahontas Pea Coal just in at $5.10 a ton delivered. C. R. Ely Coal and Ice Co.

Depression Brings Compensation As Men Revive the Old Virtues, Richards Tells Local Rotarians

One of the greatest compensations of the past three years of depression, from which we are now emerging, has been a spiritual housecleaning, a time when men have re-appraised and put in practice the old-fashioned virtues on which this great nation was built.

This was the ringing message brought to Northville Rotarians and their guests Tuesday noon at the Presbyterian church house by Emmett Richards of Alpena, governor of the 23rd district, who made his annual visit here and was given a rousing welcome at what was called the "frust meeting" of the whole year.

Mr. Richards, who is the editor of the Alpena Daily News, gave what was called by several the finest Rotary talk ever heard here.

Preceding the luncheon Mr. Richards met the officers and committee chairmen in conference. He said that the Northville club was doing as fine a piece of community activity as any club in the whole district.

District Governor Richards was introduced by Prof. Percy Angove, president of the local club.

Mr. Richards paid a very stirring tribute to the value of the Rotary ideals. "The world today," he stated, "is in its present condition of distress due to the lack of things for which Rotary stands, the ideals of 'service above self,' 'international good will' and the other aims and objects of the world-wide organization.

From all the sorrow of the past three years has come a new value placed on the spiritual ideals of life and the qualities of courage, generosity and loyalty have been brought out in a new way. Men have learned as never before the beauty of friendship.

BRUCKER, BANK DEPT ARE ALERT

Northville's bank is within sight! Governor Wilbur M. Brucker and the banking department have come in for a large quota of criticism because through no fault of their own many banks throughout the state have failed and their reopenings delayed.

No administration and banking department has ever had to deal with such a large number of failures as the present state executive and his aides of the banking department.

Announcement in this week's issue of The Record of approval of bank reorganization plans by the State Banking Department is definite proof that the present administration has not been asleep on the job.

By co-operating wonderfully well with local bank officials and members of the Depositors' Committee in reorganization plans Governor Wilbur M. Brucker and the State Banking Department have earned the gratitude and thanks of this community.

LEGIONNAIRES PLAN ARMISTICE DAY BALL

Northville American Legionnaires, Lloyd Green Post No. 186, are planning an elaborate Armistice Day dance to be held on Friday, Nov. 11, at the Northville high school gymnasium.

Sergeant "Chuck" Miller's orchestra, a Legion band which has played at several of the post's functions previously, has been engaged for the occasion.

F. Alton Peters is chairman in charge of all preparations for the affair and he states that further announcements as to decorations, admission prices, and other details will be given in next week's Record.

Among those attending the Hoover speech in Detroit last Saturday night were August Manke and Orrin Casterline.

THREE SENTENCED FOR CHICKEN THEFTS

Three men found guilty of stealing chickens from the Taggart farm on Six Mile road east of the Ridge road were sentenced to 30 days each in the Detroit house of correction Tuesday by Justice Wellington Roberts.

The three are John Purdy, Farmington township; Fred Thompson, and Bruce Williamson of Livonia township. Sentence was suspended on Purdy and Williamson, but Thompson must serve his time.

On information gleaned from Purdy, Mr. Taggart caught Thompson stealing chickens from his farm Monday night. Tuesday morning Chief Wm. H. Safford took charge of Thompson, arrested Purdy and through him learned of Williamson's activities in the thefts which had been going on for some time.

Probable Home of New Bank

According to the Depositors' Committee, the Northville State Savings bank building shown above, will be used for the new merged bank, which is expected to open within 60 days.

NORTHVILLE WILL GET BANK

State Department Approves the Proposal to Consolidate Two Closed Institutions

Bank Will Have New Name and New Head and Should Open Its Doors Within 60 Days

Northville is to have a bank!

The moratorium plan for merging and reopening Northville's two closed banks has received the approval of the state banking department, stated members of the Depositors' Committee following a conference with Lansing officials Friday afternoon, Oct. 21. Petitions for terminating the receiverships are being published in The Record this and next week.

John A. Boyce, Oliver Goldsmith, C. R. Horton, representatives of the Depositors' Committee; Clinton Wilber and E. H. Lapham, representatives of the closed banks, made up the party which held the conference with the state banking officials.

With the drafting of a petition for reopening Northville banks and the approval of the plans for reorganization by the state banking department it is probable that this community will have a bank within from 30 to 60 days was the encouraging information received by The Record early this week from interviews with John A. Boyce and Deputy Commissioner M. C. Taylor of the state banking department.

The petition for both the Lapham State Savings bank and the Northville State Savings bank were presented in court this week. The Lapham petition was presented before Circuit Judge Dewitt H. Merriam, Thursday morning. Both petitions were presented by John H. McPherson of the State Attorney General's office in Detroit.

The date set for the hearing was originally scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 26, but upon request of the state banking department it was moved ahead to Thursday, Nov. 10, stated Mr. McPherson, in order to speed the opening of the new institution.

"The department is satisfied," stated Mr. Boyce, chairman of the Depositors' Committee, that Northville banks are in good shape to non-graduate and to reopen. Both institutions will reopen under one head and it is assumed that the Northville State Bank building will be used although final details have not yet been settled.

Open in Northville Bank Building. "The Northville Bank building can be used for no other purpose than as a bank while the Lapham building can easily be turned to mercantile purposes as it is in an exceedingly desirable location. A new name will be selected for the bank, another detail not yet settled.

"Personnel of the bank will be composed of a sufficient amount of help with which to do business and the head of the bank will not be a local man. Several men have been considered but no definite decision has been made.

"As I say, all of the details of organizing the bank are yet to be settled with the stockholders and the board of directors. None of these assumptions which I have made with regard to the new organization are as yet certain. While we are awaiting publication of the petition and going through the necessary red tape we will be busy perfecting the details and making doubly certain that each step we take will be the right one.

All Plans Checked. "The State Banking department will be watching us closely because as they say, their reputations are at stake and our own reputations are at stake as well. Every step we take is checked and rechecked to preclude any possibility of making a costly mistake. The banking department has co-operated wonderfully well.

"At times it may have seemed that we were moving slowly but it is well to remember that thousands of banks throughout the country have failed and the department was without a precedent as to how to proceed. Each step which it took had to be carefully investigated."

Mr. Boyce stated that considerable money has been turned into the banks through stock assessment and said that some of the stockholders will have offsets on their assessments. All of the assessments will have to be paid by the time the bank opens, he said, or the stock of those unable to pay will be forfeited to the bank.

REPUBLICANS PLAN RALLY FOR NOV. 1ST

Noted Speakers to be Heard at Penniman-Allen Theatre

A republican old-time rally will be held Tuesday.

Standard bearers of the republican flag will gather Tuesday evening, Nov. 1, eight o'clock, in the Penniman-Allen theatre to hear George A. Dondero, congressional district and an unopposed speaker discuss the major issues of the present campaign.

The Northville high school and community band will be on hand to play the stirring strains of "There'll Be a Time in the Old Town Tonight," a political refrain which has resounded at scores of political rallies, and other melodies for the entertainment of the gathering.

The unopposed speaker is being secured as The Record goes to press. He is an outstanding personality in the present campaign and both the speech of Mr. Dondero and the unknown speaker are expected to draw a large crowd.

DETENTION HOME SURVEY SAVES THE COUNTY THOUSANDS

But for a timely investigation by Probate Judge George M. Reed, Wayne county taxpayers would have been put to the expense of constructing and maintaining an additional detention home for minor children.

This was disclosed for the first time this week by friends of Judge Reed. Shortly after he assumed the duties of Probate Judge in charge of Juvenile Court, Judge Reed, it is said, became alarmed by the lack of accommodations to handle the rapidly increasing population of the detention home. He admitted the possibility of weak spots in his organization and suggested the taking of a survey to analyze facts and figures.

The analysis revealed that the main trouble was due to lack of co-ordination between the agencies responsible for starting new cases. Hundreds of boys and girls were being sent in and detained when they could have been sent for parental lectures and safekeeping. These non-court cases took up 50.1% of the total detention load.

The court docket and entire juvenile procedure now moves with much greater justice and efficiency and the county did not have to build another detention home after all.

Before he became Judge of Probate, Judge Reed acted as clerk and chief of staff under the late Judge Edgar O. Durfee from 1923 to 1927. Judge Durfee was recognized as one of the greatest juvenile jurists of the country and now Judge Reed has also gained that distinction.

LOCAL NEWS

Of course you will want to take in that fried chicken dinner at the St. Paul's Lutheran church Thursday evening, Nov. 3. The memory of the last one lingers still.

"Bud" Young is a patient in Harper hospital recovering from a major operation from which he is making good recovery. His mother Mrs. C. H. Young, has been in Detroit since Friday at the home of her son, visiting him each day at the hospital.

Miss Goldie Jackson is ill at her home on the Base Line road.

NORTHVILLE PROS DEFEATED SUNDAY BY RIVER ROUGE

Northville's professional football team received its first defeat of the year at the hands of the powerful River Rouge team last Sunday at the fairgrounds 12-0.

Handicapped by injuries to Eddie Wood, Orson Atchison, and Mike Herrick, their strength was still further diminished when Hinchman, the fullback was hurt and taken out in the first quarter.

The River Rouge team scored its first touchdown by recovering a fumbled punt and their second one as a result of a series of hard line smashes. Northville's score followed a completed forward pass to Wolfrom plus another pass completing the after point.

Northville's defeat, members of the team are quoted as saying, was due to the power of their opponents and the absence of their quarterback, Eddie Wood.

The game was witnessed by a large crowd of spectators in spite of the damp mist which fell during the afternoon.

Sunday, the Northville pros go to Woodmere where they will play their only away from home contest. The team is now in second place but still has a good chance for the championship.

Miss Goldie Jackson is ill at her home on the Base Line road.

According to the Depositors' Committee, the Northville State Savings bank building shown above, will be used for the new merged bank, which is expected to open within 60 days.

WHY WE ARE FOR HOOVER

It is fair that The Northville Record give the reasons why it favors the reelection of Herbert Hoover as the president of the United States.

We may be wrong in our conviction but it is our sincere belief that the interests of our country will be best served by the choice of Mr. Hoover over Governor Roosevelt. This is no ordinary political campaign. We are living in one of the most critical times our nation has ever known and much depends on our national leadership in the next four years during which the president will be in office. Under the leadership of Herbert Hoover, the country is gradually beginning to emerge from the condition of distress which has overwhelmed us for the past three years. Our national credit system has been maintained through the heroic efforts of President Hoover and under his leadership we are beginning a business recovery which will ultimately affect every home in Northville.

We know what Hoover has done to keep the United States from collapse; we do not know what Governor Roosevelt will do to continue the recovery that is now under way. If Hoover stays in office there will be no let-up in the tremendous program that is now under way. On the other hand, if Mr. Roosevelt, whose policies of national administration have been well covered up in many fine phrases during his many speeches, is elected, we shall have to wait a year or two to see what he is going to do.

President Hoover has brought the United States safely through a period of world-wide collapse and he should be allowed to finish the work he has started. It is in keeping with the facts to say that the position of Hoover is much like that of Lincoln. The Great Emancipator kept the republic from going to pieces under the devastating force of a great Civil war; Hoover has kept the United States from a business and financial collapse during a time when the governments of many of the nations have been literally staggering from after effects of a World war which nearly wrecked civilization. The people of the United States re-elected Lincoln in 1864 and the voters in 1932 will elect Herbert Hoover if they fully understand what this great statesman and mighty humanitarian has done to serve his country during a time of unprecedented chaos.

Where does Governor Roosevelt stand on the great issues on which President Hoover has spoken courageously? Is it not true, as the Socialist candidate, Norman Thomas, says of the democratic candidate's speeches, "They are full of amiable nothingness?"

No less an authority than Walter Lippman says of Roosevelt's stand on the bonus: "What he has not done, is to deal boldly and honestly with the moral issue." Could any ask for any more crushing criticism of Roosevelt's position than this of Mr. Lippman, who has often explained what will happen to the country if the two billion dollars bonus claim is granted?

Governor Roosevelt has been as evasive on other great issues as he has been on that of the bonus. For example, we here in Michigan would like to know where he stands on the question of the St. Lawrence waterways which means so much to this area. We all know what President Hoover has done for years to get this mighty project going; what will Governor Roosevelt, coming from New York state which has consistently opposed the waterways project for selfish reasons, do to bring about the final success of the plan?

In conclusion, this newspaper is for Hoover for president because it believes that his leadership is needed to bring this country back to normalcy. We believe that to intrust our government at this critical time to a democratic candidate who has had little experience in meeting the problems of a whole world will set us back one or two years at least in our business recovery. Can we afford to take such a chance?

Herbert Hoover has been abused and persecuted as was Lincoln. Yet he has given his country the same kind of unselfish and courageous service that Lincoln gave and like him, he too will be given a place in history as one of our greatest presidents.

Herbert Hoover is one of the world's greatest humanitarians that the United States ever produced. He has piloted the country through the worst storm ever known in peace times. He is the same Hoover that he was four years ago, strengthened by all the ripe experience of his term in the White House. His re-election on Nov. 8 will hasten the coming of a new prosperity for us all.

NORTHVILLE'S BANK

The best news in "many a day" is that Northville is finally to have a new bank. Too much, of course, must not be expected from the opening of the institution, yet the day that its doors open, a new era of hope will begin for this whole community. We have all suffered in large measures from the paralyzing influence of a "frozen" million and four hundred thousand of dollars and once even a small part of this money is released we shall have a new spirit and a new chance for business.

Not only will there be the direct benefit of improved business and economic conditions, but there will be the immeasurable gain that will come from a new morale. Northville will have a different atmosphere and from that we shall all gain.

One bank will be sufficient to serve this community at least for some time to come. With one institution around which all can rally we can build a new community spirit that will make Northville known far and wide as a good town—a friendly town—a progressive town—a good place in which to live. Forward with Northville!

WANDERING THOUGHTS

"Your woods around Northville are worth coming out from Detroit to see," said a man from the big city the other day.

"The Northville Record is now the best paper it ever was," two people have told us the past week or so. No newspaper ever rises far above the level of its own community so these remarks are as creditable to the community as to the Record staff.

We have asked two or three local democrats to present their case in the Record. The best offer we have so far is to re-produce something from the Hearst papers. And that is something we simply can't do—so little respect do we have for the editorial policies of Wm. Randolph Hearst. In this respect we are backed by the opinion of that great democrat, Alfred E. Smith.

Straw votes may not mean so much this time. The tide has turned to Hoover ever since his Des Moines and Cleveland speeches and the straw votes were voted too early to show the remarkable change of sentiment that has come in the past three or four weeks. We know personally of several cases where men who have been boosting Roosevelt now say: "I'm going to vote for Hoover."

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

What proportion of voters can intelligently explain why they are voting for either Hoover or Roosevelt?

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

OPEN AND GOING MOST

(Wm. H. Berkey in the Casopols)

A gentleman in our office yesterday said: "You know the fellow whose mind is shut usually has his mouth open and going the most, and we've been thinking that over."

FORD'S FIRST SPEECH

(Frank Bryce in Grand Lodge Independent)

Henry Ford talked into the microphone Wednesday evening for a national radio hook-up for the first time in his life. Speech making is not one of his accomplishments. He stated that he supported Wilson, but that he is convinced that the safety of business requires the return of Hoover to the presidency. If Mr. Ford's business needs Mr. Hoover, perhaps Grand Lodge business does too.

WETS "KNIFE" BRUCKER

(M. H. DeFoe in Charlotte Republican-Tribune)

Governor Brucker is personally dry, which should be remembered by dry men and women voters. He is said to be slated for slaughter in wet Detroit because of this undeniable fact. If you feel that this old fashioned training is still a virtue vote for Governor Brucker in November. In other words, why penalize a person for the moral qualities he acquired in his youth? It would be as unjust to penalize Catholic bred and reared children for continuing in the faith of their fathers. Don't vote to crowd out decency in your politics.

WHERE IS THE COERCION?

(The Detroit News)

Mayor Frank Murphy has announced that he is organizing a "non-coercion league" to stop the intimidation of voters at the November election.

Will Mayor Murphy kindly explain to a somewhat puzzled citizenry just how a voter can be intimidated once he and his ballot and his blue pencil get together behind the curtain of the election booth? Is there any way known to politics to detect whether the voter votes the way he is told to vote?

If there is any intimidation of the voter behind the curtain, then there are laws and prosecuting attorneys to take care of it.

THE "SILVER SPOON" FARMER

(Hastings Banner)

Franklin Roosevelt claims to be a farmer. However, the "my farm" to which the candidate referred several times during his bid for the western farm vote is really a deluxe estate at Hyde Park, New York, inherited from his mother, and containing a twenty-five room mansion, a private golf course, an out-door pool, elaborate flower gardens, extensive kitchen gardens, a stable of riding horses and some fancy fruit trees.

Therefore Roosevelt's statement that "I have been a farmer myself for fifty years, and I, too have been unable to make my farm pay during these past few years," is grotesque. Few many Barry county farmers would expect to make a profit from such a set-up even with two-dollar wheat?

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Lawrence of Kalamazoo were Sunday visitors of Dr. and Mrs. Paul R. Alexander.

Leo Van Buren, manager of the grocery department of the Kroger store, has moved from Plymouth to Rouge street in this village.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Armstrong of Randolph street, Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jones and children, Bud and Dorothy, of Detroit.

Busy Saturdays are the thing these days for Chief of Police, Wm. H. Safford, who is directing a large part of the automobile traffic on its way to the football games at Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Whitehead have moved to the house owned by Chas. A. Dolph next door to his own home, where Mr. Whitehead will operate his cabinet shop in the rooms adjoining the living rooms.

NEWS AROUND NORTHVILLE

Ten days until election. Leaves are falling fast. Political arguments everywhere. Geo. Whipple spent the week-end with friends in Traverse City.

Mrs. Mattie Sowle of Morris is a guest at the W. H. White home on North Center street.

Rev. Lucia Stroh and Mrs. Dora Tousey of Salem called on Mrs. Clarence Whipple, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Maywood of Albion were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Baldwin, Friday.

Miss Helen Hammond was hostess to her bride club at the Grennan farm residence on Six Mile road last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McLean and son, Bobby, of Long Lake, were callers at the George Pickell home on Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Burkart saw the University of Michigan play Illinois at their alma mater last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Riley have moved from Yerkes avenue to the upper part of the Henry Residence on Main street.

Mrs. Cecil White had the pleasure of a visit from her brother, A. B. Brauer, and his wife from Detroit, Sunday.

Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. Sarah Leadbetter and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kator spent last week with friends in Midland and Shepherd.

Paul Baldwin accompanied his uncle, Ben Baldwin, and his family to Albion Saturday, where he spent two days with his sister, Ruth Mary.

Miss Ethel Desautels of Detroit, who has been spending some time at the Desautels residence on East Dunlap street, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mosher accompanied by the latter's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Foster of Wayne, spent the week-end near Clare on a hunting trip.

Miss Betty Miner played very acceptably several piano numbers at the annual homecoming tea given to the alumni parents at Susanna Wesley hall, at Albion college, last Saturday.

Mrs. B. C. Stark accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Congo and their daughter, Dorothy, drove to Lima, O., Saturday where they spent two days with Mrs. Stark's brother, Dr. Tolford.

Mrs. Marion Blackwell and baby of Pontiac were guests this last week at the Albert Stockman home, on South Center street. They also entertained Mrs. Stockman's brother, Harvey White, and family.

A large number of Northville folks took advantage of an opportunity to enjoy a fried chicken supper at the Methodist church, at Novi last Thursday evening. These Novi women are "some cooks" and generous ones too.

The Edward Austins have been entertaining Mr. Austin's brother, Victor Bushorn, also Miss Dorothy Bushorn, a sister, and a bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Bernier. The sister and brothers have not seen each other for 15 years.

Mrs. Wm. Rawle Brown is enjoying having her daughter, Mrs. Earl Benton Nelson and her two little daughters, Elizabeth Ann and Mary Grace of Detroit, as guests at Arrowhead farm, where they are spending two weeks of autumn in the country.

Mrs. Gladys Johnson has closed her home on West street during the winter months and with her daughter, Beatrice, is residing with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hamilton on Butler avenue.

Rev. and Mrs. R. O. Thompson returned Monday evening from Hillsdale where they attended the Baptist State convention last week. Rev. Thompson has accepted work in the Hillsdale association and will move to Reading and begin his work November 1.

A slashing run of 87 yards made by Ted Watts, Northville young man, enabled Albion college to defeat Kalamazoo college in an M. I. A. game at Albion Saturday, 13 to 6, before a big homecoming crowd. Ted's playing has been one of the sensations of the season.

Hort Woodman, Harry H. White and R. T. Baldwin were at the Harvest Festival at Walled Lake Thursday night where they took part on the program. Mr. Woodman was born at Walled Lake and remained there several years before his parents came here.

The efficiency of the Record office has been increased by the addition of an ample stock cabinet which is the workmanship of A. E. Whitehead. It is a fine piece of work, in fact much better than the editor planned to have, but Mr. Whitehead has the reputation of doing his work that way.

After a period of quarantine with scarlet fever, Lyman Larson, ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Larson, Fairbrook avenue, will be out of quarantine the last of this week. No other members of the family have taken the disease, and according to health officer, Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston, there are no further cases in the village.

Miss Margaret Juttner of Pontiac spent last week-end as guest of Miss Marion Hamilton.

Miss Ella MacEwan of South Lyon spent Wednesday, visiting her brother, and other Northville friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Whitehead are entertaining Mr. Whitehead's niece of Redford, Mrs. Jay Chamberlain.

Miss Janette Johnson of Jonesville was a guest of Miss Etta MacDonald and Miss Helen Leonardson recently.

Henry Schulte of Monroe and Rev. A. F. Schulte of Wyandotte were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Schulte, Monday.

Mrs. F. R. Wilkinson, 211 Yerkes avenue, was taken seriously ill Saturday morning with an attack of gall trouble. She is better at present though still confined to her bed.

In case of misunderstanding we emphasize the fact that it was another William Dundas, not the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Dundas of Meadowbrook, who was involved in a misdemeanor last week.

Richard Shipley has begun pipe organ study under the instruction of Miss Grace Halverson of Detroit, a pupil of Guy Elkins. Richard has studied piano for nine years and is an accomplished musician.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Walker are Mrs. Frederick W. Main and daughter, Selby of Detroit. On Sunday Dr. Main will join his family here and be a dinner guest of the Walkers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Watts were Albion visitors last Saturday, attending the annual homecoming of Albion college. Their son, Ted, started in the Albion-Kalamazoo college game which was won by Albion.

Fred and Howard Beach left Monday for Sarasota, Florida, where they will spend the winter months. They expect to get work in the celery fields. Mr. and Mrs. F. McKelvey also have gone to Florida where they will camp "hill spring".

Ed Douglas, son-in-law of Harry Wood, recently back from Missouri, brought with him two ears of corn of remarkable size. One was 14 1/2 inches long and 8 inches in diameter, while the other was a foot long and 9 inches in diameter.

Miss Mary Ellen Barbour, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. Roscoe Barbour, has had the honor of being elected president of the pledges of the Kappa Kappa Gamma, a national sorority in Hillsdale college, where Miss Barbour is a sophomore.

Miss Inga Stamann is home from a visit at Flint and Mrs. Harlow Green and two daughters, who came back with her, for a visit at the home of Mrs. Pauline Stamann, have returned to Flint. Cenard Springer of Mt. Clemens is a guest at the Stamann home for a week.

Fred N. Martin of Portland, Oregon, former president of the National Dairyman's association, was a guest of Chas. E. Rogers at his home on the Nine Mile road for the week-end. He had been in Detroit attending the convention of the international dairy association.

Among those who went to Trenton, Friday to see Northville high school play football against Trenton were Mrs. Walter A. Ware, Irving Ware, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Shipley, Mrs. Thomas McCordle, Elmer Reed Mrs. Cora Bissel and Miss Ethel Hartner. Mrs. Ware says it was hard to keep young Irving in his seat in spite of his broken collar bone.

Sam Pickard was the victim of an automobile accident Monday afternoon when he lost control of his truck on the Base Lane road just west of the village limits and crashed into the deep ditch at the edge of the road. Mr. Pickard was shaken up and slightly bruised while the windshield of the truck was broken and the fenders bent as a result of the mishap.

Everyone who has ever had the pleasure of enjoying one of those famous dinners cooked by the women of the St. Paul's Lutheran church will read with interest the announcement that these women will again serve another of these dinners next Thursday evening, Nov. 3, at their church. Read their tempting menu on another page of this issue and it will make you decide to take your "best girl" even if she is your wife—out to dinner on that evening.

Society Notes

Vivian Grosvenor Entertains A Dozen Little Girls—

In keeping with the Halloween season a bunch of girls had a party at the home of Vivian Grosvenor, Wednesday evening. The little girls came masked and spent the evening in merry games in the basement. Lunch was served at the close of the fun.

Mrs. Lee "Puts the Kettle On" And All Take Tea—

Mrs. Robert L. Lee was at home to a small group of near friends at an impromptu tea at her home Tuesday afternoon when, as a pleasing variation in the custom, a delightful time was enjoyed in just visiting over the tea cups. This is a delightful custom, brought over from England, the native land of Mrs. Lee.

Twelve Girls Make Merry At Alexander Home

Frances Alexander is entertaining twelve young friends at a jolly Halloween party this evening. Super will be served at a table gay with lighted tapers and appropriate decorations. This affair is in honor of Miss Alexander's house guest, Nancy Jane Brown of Pontiac.

Five Town Club Gathers At Milford Home

Joining with friends from neighboring towns in a customary gathering, Mrs. C. C. Yerkes, Mrs. W. A. Yerkes and Mrs. T. Glenn Phillips spent a pleasant day at the home of their friend, Mrs. Taylor in Milford last Thursday. Other towns represented at this coterie of friends were Farmington, Bloomfield Hills and Birmingham.

Mrs. Lapham Entertains At Bridge

On Thursday evening Mrs. M. J. Lapham was hostess at bridge with the following guests, Mrs. E. A. Chapman, Mrs. Leslie Lee, Mrs. Geo. Stalker, Mrs. Claude Zimmerman, Mrs. Geraldine Huff of Northville, Mrs. Jack Taylor of Plymouth, and Mrs. Martha Ray of Detroit. Honors went to Mrs. Chapman and Mrs. Zimmerman.

Quality Club Meets With Richardson

The Quality club had another enjoyable evening when Mrs. Chas. L. Blackburn was the assisting hostess. A delightful six o'clock dinner was followed by an evening of bridge. Those joining with the hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Blackburn, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Angove, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Northrop and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Knapp.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Metrell of Detroit were guests of his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kohler, one day this week.

Saturday night at the Republican rally in the Olympia arena, Detroit, Warner Neal, when seeking an opportunity to speak with former Gov. Green, an old friend of the Neal family, found himself right near President Hoover. "Say, 'Hello Mr. President,' Warner was fortunate enough to shake hands with the White House executive, who graciously extended his hand.

Mrs. Anna Stever of Plymouth and Mrs. A. E. Kohler attended a luncheon for the County Matrons of 1925-26, order of the Eastern Star, given by Mrs. Gene Herbert at her home in Yale, Michigan. After a delicious chicken dinner they all attended a meeting of the St. Clair County Association, O. E. S. where a table had been reserved for this club at 5.30, after which some returned to Plymouth to attend the O. E. S. special, when Grand Officers and first four officers of Wayne County were entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Granzow visited their son, Dr. W. S. Martin, at Ludington, where he is successfully practicing surgery. Dr. Martin was a product of Northville high school, having graduated in the class of '22. It will be of interest to his friends here to know that following his medical course in the Michigan university and later internship in Saginaw General hospital he has been a surgeon of repute in his present location. He has performed twelve successful major operations within the past few months.

American Legion and Unit Guests of Plymouth Post—

About 20 members of the American Legion and Auxiliary attended an installation of officers of the Myron H. Best post and unit at Plymouth Friday evening. The Dearborn post and unit conducted the installation.

Preceding the ceremony the Dearborn drum and bugle corps played some very fine selections. A delicious lunch was served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Mrs. Grosvenor Hostess To Winona Club

This afternoon (Friday) Mrs. E. B. Grosvenor is entertaining at her home on South Wing street a group of women known as the Winona club which comprises members from this village, Farmington, South Lyon and Fowlerville. A potluck dinner is being served at noon with the hostess assisted in serving by her daughter, Miss Eleanor. The afternoon will be spent with cards.

Mrs. Walker Entertains Wednesday Club

In spite of the rainy day a very pleasant afternoon was spent by the members of the Wednesday club at the home of Mrs. John Walker. Two guests substituted for members, Mrs. E. L. Minis and Mrs. LeRoy Stewart. First and second prizes went to the hostess and Mrs. Minis.

Next, Thursday Mrs. Walker will entertain her bridge club at noon luncheon when covers will be laid for eight guests.

Woman's Union Holds Meeting Wednesday

One of the best meetings ever held by the organization was the one which the Woman's Union of the Presbyterian church enjoyed Wednesday at the church house. The text book, "Lady Fourth Daughter of China," was very ably reviewed by Mrs. H. D. Dean and Mrs. John Christensen each taking three chapters. These women told the story very vividly in their own words making it full of real interest and vitality to their hearers.

Mrs. H. G. Whitfield led the devotional part of the meeting. A co-operative dinner provided a pleasant opportunity for a social time. (Additional Society on Page 8)

DeMOLAY NEWS

About fifteen DeMolays from the James S. Hassberger Chapter of Birmingham visited Fellowship Chapter on Thursday, Oct. 20, taking all honors in both the speaker's contest and ping pong tournament.

Eight couples from Plymouth and Northville went to Detroit on Oct. 21 and looked out on the lights of the big city from the 32nd floor of the Aztec Tower. Even the ballroom up there was decorated like the rest of the Udon Guardian Building. The "Dance in the Clouds" by Fundlater Chapter was a new and pretty affair.

Thursday, Nov. 3, is the first business meeting scheduled for November under the direction of the new officers.

Parents and friends of DeMolay have been invited by Hassberger Chapter to a devotional afternoon at Cranbrook on Nov. 20, where services will be held in the Christ church. There will be an organ recital and trip through the schools, besides a program on the Carillon bells. The exact time of the afternoon services will be given later.

HOOVER SURE TO CARRY CALIFORNIA BY 100,000 SAYS R. P. BENTON

Richmond P. Benton, former Northville resident now living at Los Angeles, sends comfort and good cheer to the local boosters of Herbert Hoover. He writes The Record: "We are going to carry California for Hoover by at least 100,000."

The Brae Burn Golf club will close the season on Saturday, Oct. 29, with a big Fall Roundup. Entertainment, prizes and free golf will feature the day's program. Everyone is invited by the officials of the club who wish to thank Northville patrons for their generous support during the summer season.

HOW HAVE WE CLEARED?

For men must work
And women must weep
For there's little to earn
And many to keep
The harbor bar be moaning—Lustily did we use to sing this at our dish washing—we two sisters and two brothers, our "quarter." How we loved to draw out the "Moaning"
and make it sound weird!
But that was an old English song
of long ago when "men must work and women must weep." We don't do that now. We don't sit and "wring our hands" as the song goes.
If "John" can't find a job—as happens in many a household—"Mary"
says "Well, John, you mind the baby
and I'll see what I can do."

I can bake good cookies," says Mary, "or clerk in a store, or sew, or teach, or take boarders, or raise flowers and vegetables—or something." And she finds that something. And, bravest of all, she has left a "stuff upper lip" and cheered John up too.

This is not fiction. Many an unsung heroine right here in our lovely little village is fighting a quiet, unknown battle. It would make very interesting reading if these stories could be published. Just the other day a brave woman, who is really supporting her husband (though he imagines he is) said, "I keep going
by singing 'Onward Christian Soldiers' whenever I feel my courage fading low." And the cross-de-gauge is pinned on the breast of these women!

Yes, together with the rest, all the world is waiting for the sunrise.
Cheer up! Northville begins to see the first streaks of dawn—a bank
remember how spending and black
night seemed when you were sick?
But dawn came at last and you laughed at your fears.

Looking back at the long hill we have labored up, what have we gained in the climb? This depends on what kind of women we are. It might easily have made us groan
with bitterness and self pity. A hatred for the "powers that be" might have rankled in our hearts.

Or, on the other hand, we may have "learned to labor and to wait."
Many of us have bent our backs to unwonted tasks in our economy and besides a sympathy for women who toil hard have gained sounder muscles, better health and greater endurance.

Cutting down on expensive social life has taught us that good times may be had without great cost. We may have learned that after all,

home is the best place and it's fine
to have time to read and get acquainted with our families.

Greatest of all blessings has come
the leveling of the position of women. We are all on the same plane
if we will honestly admit it. With false pride buried away in the fires
of adversity we stand together in mutual sisterhood. As never before we say to each other in unabashed honesty, "No, I can't afford it," and the reply comes, "Neither can I."
And if we can laugh as we say it,
we have won something.

No, the old song is not right that "women must weep." We don't, do we?

OUT OF THE MIXING BOWL

Dinner in a Dish

A sister-in-law dropped in the other day and gave us some good
new recipes. Here's one:
4 tablespoons fat, salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 2 eggs, 3 green peppers sliced,
1 medium onion chopped, 2 cups
corn, 4 tomatoes, 1 lb hamburger,
cup buttered crumbs.
Fry onion and peppers in fat 3
minutes; add salt and pepper. Remove from fire. Add eggs and mix well. Mix in meat. Put 1/2 of the corn in baking dish and then 1/2
meat and alternate layers. Slice tomatoes over the top, cover with crumbs and bake in oven at 375 degrees for 35 minutes. This may be the whole dinner and is handy if you have visitors on a busy day.

NORTHVILLE WILL GET A NEW BANK

Dividend Within a Year Immediately upon reopening of the bank, according to the terms of the moratorium agreement, any depositor may draw up to $10.00 against his account. This will eliminate, officials explain, a large number of small depositors. A dividend of ten per cent will be made,
according to the plan, within one year from the date of reopening.
Officials declare that as soon as the Depositors' Committee, the board of directors, and the state banking department agree that the bank is in suitable shape to declare a dividend of ten per cent, it will be made.

Society Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Ware Welcome
Friends at Dinner Sunday

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ware was opened to receive a group of friends at dinner Sunday evening. Those present were Mr.
and Mrs. Herb Wuschack, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Deo and family and Mr.
and Mrs. Earl Warner.

Entertains at Bridge Party
Saturday Evening

A group of friends and relatives of Mrs. Ina Casterline joined with her in the celebration of her birthday last Saturday evening at her home on Eaton Drive. Bridge was the pastime of the evening after which the hostess served a delectable
lunch to the following guests: Mrs.
Bessie Flowers, Mrs. Ina Berman,
Mrs. Ethel Casterline, Mrs. Ora Deal,
Mrs. Dawn Holcomb and Miss Helen Hammond, all of Northville and Mrs.
Etta Maske of Jackson.

Miss Hoffman Entertains
Young Riders

A bevy of youthful riders left the Hoffman home on a perfect autumn
day, last Saturday afternoon and enjoyed a fine ride for a few hours.
On their return they gathered around a jolly camp fire and roasted marshmallows and apples with other good things provided by the hostess. Those enjoying the good time were Jean and Ted Marburger, Marilyn Cavell, Mabel
Douglas, Mrs. N. E. McKinney and Ernest Bramick of Detroit, together with the young host, Henry Hoffman.

The Hoffmans Again Entertain
At a Riding Party

Such a pleasant time was enjoyed recently by a company of friends
from the city that they again took advantage of a cordial invitation to enjoy a center over the hills of Northville last Sunday morning. On the previous day the men of the party had shot a liberal supply of wild ducks which Mrs. Hoffman roasted "to a turn" and had a bountiful dinner ready for the hungry horsemen and women when they returned to the Hoffman home. Those comprising the party were: Miss Margaret Frimouth, Miss Agnes
Kowalski, Miss Margaret Kowalski,
Miss Margaret Shelden, Lansing,
Mrs. A. J. Sokall, Howard Bowes,
Robert Smith, Richard Kowalski, Albert J. Sokall, Mr. and Mrs. Har-

Walled Lake Hunters Invite Guests
To Enjoy Squirrel Dinner

The Bloom cottage at Walled Lake
was the scene of a happy gathering on Sunday when Mr. and Mrs.
Harold Bloom and Mr. and Mrs.
H. F. Wagenschutz were hosts at a squirrel dinner to their parents.
The men had been very successful in their hunting on the day previous and a platter heaped with fried squirrel was the center of attraction at the Sunday feast. Those present with their hosts were Mr.
and Mrs. Carl R. Ely, Mr. and Mrs.
Chas. E. Bloom and Mr. and Mrs.
Elroy Murdock.

Two Teachers Hostesses
To Bridge Club

Miss Helen Leonardson and Miss Ethel McDonald delightedly entertained a club comprised largely of teachers with a few additional members at the home of Mrs. Bertha Neal on Tuesday evening. The Hallowe'en incident was effectively carried out in the decorations of the luncheon table in the center of which was a huge lighted pumpkin Jack-o-lantern.

The bridge game resulted in prizes
going to Mrs. Claude Zimmerman and Mrs. Robert L. Lee. Joining with Miss Leonardson and Miss Mc-Donald were Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Chas.
Wilson, Miss Grace Hawkins, Miss
Ellen Reincke, Miss Irene Fennel
and Mrs. Zimmermann.

W. H. M. S. Hold Interesting
Session on Tuesday Afternoon

With an attendance of an even three dozen women, the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. E. E. Baker on Tuesday afternoon. With the president, Mrs.
E. J. Cobb, in the chair several matters of interest were decided among them the decision to send fruit to the Esther home in Detroit, and a Christmas box to the Navajo Indian Mission in New Mexico. Articles for these may be left either at the pa-
ronage or at the Record office.

The devotional service was led by Mrs. Lucy Perkins with several other members participating. A little play illustrating the importance of insistent voting by women was realistically carried out by six young women over a luncheon table. The parts were taken by Mrs. E. A.
Boyd, Mrs. E. M. Bogart, Mrs. Geo.
H. Stalker, Mrs. Claude Zimmerman, Mrs. Sherrill Ambler and Mrs.
Maurice Lapham.

Mass Grace Trempe favored the company with one of her characteristic songs.

During a social hour fried cakes
and coffee were served, the hostess

St. Paul's Lutheran

Leo C. Eicksteadt, Pastor
Reformation

Dr. Martin Luther
I will call this Luther a true
great man; great in intellect, in courage, affection, and integrity;
one of the most lovable and precious men. Great not as a heavenly being, but as an Alpine mountain,
so simple, honest, spontaneous, not setting up to be great at all; therefore quite another purpose than being great. A right spiritual hero and prophet, a man for whom these centuries, and many that are to come
yet, will be thankful to heaven."

This week Sunday we will celebrate our annual Reformation festival at the usual time, 10 o'clock. As theme of discourse for this service
the question will be answered: "Why we call ourselves Lutherans." The public is heartily invited to this service.

Lord, teach our lips of Thee to speak.
Or Thy sweet love to tell;
Till they who wander far shall seek
And find and serve Thee well.
O'er all the world Thy Spirit send.
And make Thy goodness known.
Till earth and heaven together
blend.
Their praises at Thy throne.

Church of Our Lady of Victory
Next Tuesday, Nov. 1, is All Saints Day, sometimes known as All Hallowe'en day. The night before is the eve of All Hallow's, or Hallowe'en.
All Saints day in the Catholic church is a holy day, on which the holy ones of God are commemorated. Catholics are obliged to go to church. The local masses are at 6 and 9 o'clock that morning.

November 2 is All Souls day, a memorial day for all our dear departed ones. There will be three local masses at 6, 7, and 7:30 a.m.
Beginning Saturday, Nov. 5, and lasting over the two next days, Nov.
6 and 7, we shall have the so-called 40 Hours Devotion. These are three days of continual prayer of adoration to the divine Majesty, as well as reparation for past offenses to it.
Each family is assigned an hour of such devotion for each day. When being assisted by the younger members of the party.

The Teachers of Our Public Schools
Guests of Woman's Club

Carrying out the usual custom
each autumn, the teachers of the Northville school were welcomed by the Woman's club at the library
Friday evening. It was a very representative gathering of teachers and women citizens who mingled socially and became better acquainted. A cheerful fire burned in the grate and the room was given a few narrow touches. An unusually fine treat had been prepared by the program committee through the courtesy of a sister of Mrs. T. P. Brannan, chairman of the committee.

The program of Indian music
sung by a quintette from the Social Study club of Lansing, consisting of Mrs. G. S. McIntire, Mrs. J. D.
Washburn, Mrs. Earl Nelson, Mrs. E.
A. Sweep, Mrs. W. J. Stahl, accompanied by Mrs. Malcolm Trout, was unusually effective, both in setting and rendition. Against a tepee and Indian baskets the singers in Indian costumes grouped by their small camp-fire, sang in the dimly illuminated room, creating by posture,
dignified movement and facial expression the restrained atmosphere
most effective for their songs. The quintette, directed by Mrs. William Stahl, showed nice balance of voices and contrast in quality. This was especially apparent in the duet by Mrs. Stahl and Mrs. McIntire, "Pale Moon." Special mention must be made of the unusually fine contralto voice of Mrs. Stahl and her excellent dramatic expression, which distinguished the last number, "The Moon Drops Low." Another outstanding number was "White Dawn
is Stealing" in which Mrs. Nelson, soprano, sang the obligato. Her voice of distinctive timbre, stood out beautifully against the background provided by the quintette.

The one regret of every listener
was the brevity of the program, although that very feature may have contributed to the fine unity of the program as a whole. The Woman's club is greatly indebted to these singers for their courtesy in presented such a distinctive and unusual evening's entertainment.

The social hour following the music, under the direction of Mrs.
Bruce Douglas, was one of informality and cordiality. The table appointments were in Hallowe'en colors, and orange candles burned at the windows. Peanuts passed in Indian baskets, marshmallows to toast
at the fireplace, plates heaped with doughnuts and innumerable cups of order all contributed to the jolly spirit manifested by hostesses and guests alike.

(Additional Society on Page 5)

such a storming of heaven is sincere divine Providence cannot but heed.
We admire the spunk of Protestants when their church is attacked.
Were the real facts in Mexico today reversed, on Protestants, nothing would be left undone to change these conditions. There are not enough cheeks on anyone to be able to keep turning the other one, all
the time.

Methodist Church

Worship service each Sunday at 10:30 a. m. with sermon by the pastor, Frank N. Miner. The Sunday school meets each Sunday at noon.
November 3 is that fine chicken
pie supper you have been waiting for.
Do not forget it comes on Election day night.

November 6 is the Sunday when every member of the church is planning to attend public worship in the morning. Any old person or invalid
who has no way to get to church
that morning please call the pastor, phone 312. Be sure to invite your friends and come yourself.

The monthly meeting of the official board on Tuesday evening at 7:30, Nov. 1, at the church.
The Sunday evening Union Service
is at the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening at 7:30. The Methodist people who have not already attended a worship service
during the day are especially urged to attend this Union Service.

The young people's meeting is at 6:30 p. m. and Miss Eunice Cousins is the leader. All young people of high school and college ages are very earnestly invited to attend this helpful service.

Baptist Church

Services next Sunday, the last Sunday of the month, will be somewhat different from the usual. At 10:30 the morning worship hour, the delegates from the State meeting held recently at Hillsdale, will give reports of the sessions. The delegates are much enthused with the experiences at Hillsdale and their reports promise to be of great interest and benefit.

At the evening hour, 7:30, this church will meet with the M. E.
and Presbyterian congregations at the Presbyterian church. In another column mention is made more particularly regarding these Sunday evening union services for the winter. We join with our Christian friends in not only welcoming, but exhorting all to come. Let us make the effort distinctly worth while.

The B. Y. P. U. meeting at 6:30 will be held just as usual at the Baptist church.

First Presbyterian Church

Harold G. Whitfield, Minister

At 10:30 a. m., Sunday, Oct. 30, a service of divine worship will be held to which visitors and strangers are welcome. The church members are expected in fulfillment of their vows,
to avail themselves of the blessing of fellowship and the means of grace,
to be present.

The church school meets at 11:45
a. m. The attendance last week was 109. Our record shows a steady increase, but we are still far below our objective.

The Union service will be held Sunday evening, Oct. 30, at 7:30 in this church. The leadership in the service of praise will be given by the male quartette. Several numbers will be rendered.

Monday evening, Nov. 21, is the date set for the beginning of the teacher training classes. See fuller
notice for particulars.

Salem Federated Church

Service for worship at 10:30 o'clock, Oct. 30. "The Rejected Christ."

Bible school at 11:45 a. m. Hugh Means, superintendent.
Remember Brother Foreman's call
to "smash attendance and offering records" on Nov. 6.

Prayer meeting, Wednesday evening at 1:30 o'clock.
Young people, remember the trek
of Allied Youth to Lansing in November 5. Be in Brighton before eleven to meet the Allied Youth groups.

New Methodist Church

Sunday morning worship at 9 a. m.
Mr. Miner as preacher. The Bible Study class will meet next week,
Nov. 3, Thursday evening at 7:30 to 9:15 p. m. All are welcome to these services.

ed, will be present to address the gathering. Hear them!

MUSIC

2. NORTHVILLE'S HIGH SCHOOL BAND will be present to entertain with a pleasing program of classical and military music. Their fame and reputation are well known. They're an attraction that everyone will enjoy.

EXCITEMENT

3. CAMPAIGN DAYS are getting fewer. Hear all of the big issues of the day discussed by men who know their subjects thoroughly. Learn the true stories and facts. Hear them from the lips of men who can relate them capably without fear or prejudice.
