

DEATH CLAIMS G. B. YERKES AT AGE OF 68

Attorney and Civic Leader
Lived in Northville
Many Years

Funeral services will be held in Detroit Friday afternoon for a well-known resident of this section, Geo. B. Yerkes, who died early Wednesday morning at his home in Detroit. He had been active in Wayne County politics and public affairs for years.

Mr. Yerkes had been in ill health for some time, but his death came quite unexpectedly. He was 68 years old. He was born in the vicinity of Philadelphia, Pa., and came to Northville in 1888. He had lived in Northville for many years.

Mr. Yerkes was a member of the American Bar Association, Michigan Bar Association, Phi Delta Phi, Detroit Golf Club, Detroit Club, Meadowbrook Country Club, and a member of the Masonic order.

Mr. Yerkes had many other interests, having been a director in a number of industrial and development concerns.

The services Friday afternoon will be at William R. Hamilton and Co. Chapel at 376 Cass Avenue. Burial will be at Woodlawn cemetery.

The services will be held at 2:00 p. m. Among the honorary pallbearers will be Edward H. Lapham, Clinton B. Fisher, and Milo N. Johnson, of Detroit, and Frank G. Smith, of Northville.

Mr. Yerkes was an intimate advisor of the late Fred M. Warner, when he was governor of Michigan. He was particularly noted in law circles for clear reasoning and an honest mind.

His clients he considered his personal friends, and while seldom taking time to go into court, he applied himself intensely to the legal problems brought to him.

Mr. Yerkes was always interested in public affairs and in politics, and gained a high place in his profession, being president at one time of the Detroit Bar Association, and also having served as its secretary.

He served some time as Wayne County prosecuting attorney, and was a member of the Republican State Central Committee. He was at one time president of the Detroit Board of Health.

He was a member of the American Bar Association, Michigan Bar Association, Phi Delta Phi, Detroit Golf Club, Detroit Club, Meadowbrook Country Club, and a member of the Masonic order.

Mr. Yerkes had many other interests, having been a director in a number of industrial and development concerns.

The services Friday afternoon will be at William R. Hamilton and Co. Chapel at 376 Cass Avenue. Burial will be at Woodlawn cemetery.

The services will be held at 2:00 p. m. Among the honorary pallbearers will be Edward H. Lapham, Clinton B. Fisher, and Milo N. Johnson, of Detroit, and Frank G. Smith, of Northville.

MILITARY TRAINING PRAISED BY MILLIS AT ROTARY MEET

In a meeting staged with the spirit of Armistice day, E. L. Millis, a veteran of the World War, told Northville Rotarians Tuesday at their weekly luncheon and program that "military training is the finest thing possible for young men. It teaches them the obligation of doing a certain task whether they want to or not."

From the days of George Washington until the present time, said Mr. Millis, the United States has gone in to every one of its wars unprepared. The colonial forces were never trained until Washington secured the services of Gen. Von Steuben of France who organized an army to fight Great Britain. The Civil War continued the speaker, "was for the first time a series of military blunders." Then the United States went into the World War totally unprepared. In spite of the lessons of history, Mr. Millis predicted, "the next war will be fought by civilian soldiers."

Songs of the war veterans of Veterans Chas. A. Schults, ranging from gas masks to helmets, were passed around and showed the men vividly a little of what it means to go to war.

In a little stunt in celebration of election day, two political roosters were released and "Roosevelt" was captured by Rev. H. G. Whitfield in a lively chase while Prof. Percy Angove, who was in charge of the meeting, was the first to be able to hang onto "Hoover."

Among the guests were Paul Hayward, Harry C. Robinson and Oliver Goldsmith of Plymouth; John Boyce of Redford, and C. R. Horton, E. H. Lapham and Hoyt Woodman.

Mrs. Sarah Moore spent last week with her granddaughter in Detroit.

Dr. R. H. Saley and Dr. H. S. Willis
Speak at Big "TB" Anniversary and
Dr. B. H. Douglas Is Named Officer

After a quarter of a century of long way yet to go. Hope has, declared these men who know in education and in the early recognition of the disease.

Outstanding on this program in addition to the address of the president, Dr. Henry D. Chadwick of Detroit, was the companion with "twenty-five years ago" discussed by Dr. Wm. A. Evans, famed in the "How To Keep Well" column of The Chicago Tribune.

At the morning session which was comprised of members of the Michigan Trudeau Society, (named for Dr. Edward Trudeau, the "father of the anti-tuberculosis movement") two Northville physicians were heard with interest. They were Dr. R. H. Saley and Dr. H. S. Willis, both of the staff of the Maybury Sanatorium, who discussed with fine technique "Experimental Oleothorax in Rabbits."

The Michigan Tuberculosis Association is the oldest health organization in existence.

MEN WILL STAGE A UNIQUE SUPPER AT WALLED LAKE

"Something different" in the way of church suppers is proposed by the Ladies Aid society of the Walled Lake M. E. church, when said supper takes place Thursday evening, Nov. 17, at 6:30 o'clock.

The men of the church will assume entire responsibility for the meal, preparing the food, serving it to the patrons, washing dishes, and doing all other duties connected with such an undertaking.

In addition to the supper, the men will also provide a program of very unusual nature, the details of which are not to be revealed until the event actually takes place. It is known, however, that the men will call themselves the "Jolly Singing Cooks and Waiters." They will be attired in a lively and novel way, details of which must also await discovery.

The audience will be taken on a trip to the Hawaiian Islands in the course of the evening, among other events, on the program.

The supper menu has been divulged and is as follows: Baked Virginia ham, jelly, candied sweet potatoes, fresh cooked turnips, cabbage and pineapple salad, corn bread, rolls, coffee, pumpkin pie, apple pie.

The price of the supper is thirty-five cents, and includes admission to the program.

Music will be provided during the supper hour.

BAPTIST L. A. S.

The Baptist Ladies' Aid society meets with Miss Ella Clark on 212 High street on Thursday, Nov. 17, at 2:30 p. m. All members are requested to be present as there is business of importance to be transacted.

REPUBLICANS WIN NORTHVILLE

COUNCIL GIVES $100 FOR WELFARE AID

Donating $100 to the Central Welfare Committee of Northville, the village council helped that organization materially Monday night in its increasingly hard battle to aid this community's indigent.

A hard time dance will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 22, at the new school gymnasium. The entire proceeds to be turned over to the welfare association. Announced Commissioner Merrill Sweet. Further information on the dance will be given in the Wednesday week with the final plans complete.

The members of the council noted unanimously to have the grandstand pertaining to the removal of snow from the village sidewalks published and they say that it will be strictly enforced this year. Each local resident and merchant will be responsible for clearing off the sidewalk in front of his home or business place and Paul Montgomery, street commissioner, will keep the streets of Northville clear of traffic.

It was moved by Commissioner Sweeney, supported by Commissioner Sweet, that $500 and interest be paid into the sinking fund. This sum repays the money that was borrowed for the general fund.

REV. H. G. WHITEFIELD IS HEARD BY CROWD AT UNION SERVICE

The Methodist church was well filled last Sunday evening for the third of the Union service of the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches. The Rev. Harold G. Whitefield gave a very stirring, challenging and helpful message based on the words of Platte, "What Shall I Do Theed With Jesus Which Is Called Christ?"

The congregation was especially favored by two fine and well rounded selections by the Men's Quartet, Messrs. Lee Bryan, Kenyon and Smith.

These united services are thus far proving a success and it is expected that more and more the public will show their approval of increased audiences.

B. Y. P. U. MEETING

The B. Y. P. U. meeting next Sunday evening will be held by Miss Bessie J. Gorman of Lansing, and a member of the State Board of Baptist young people. All young people invited to come. Plans are being made to send representation from the Northville group to the Young People's State Convention, which will be held at Bay City on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 25, 26, and 27, in the First Baptist church of that city.

Liquor Amendment Is Approved By Large Majorities Both Here And in the Nearby Townships

Salem, Novi and Livonia Set New Records
As They Give "Split" Returns at Voting Tuesday

In the face of a sweeping democratic victory in the county, state and national tickets, Northville remained a republican stronghold by a substantial margin in the presidential election held Tuesday.

Hoover led Roosevelt in the two precincts of Northville by a vote of 735 to 575. Gov. Brucker had a total of 705 to 585 for Governor-elect Comstock.

Northville polled one of the largest votes in its history, 1,332 citizens casting their ballots despite overcast skies threatening rain. Northville has approximately 2,000 voters registered, according to Elmer L. Smith township clerk.

Salem, Novi and Livonia townships polled the largest number of votes ever cast in their communities. Novi remained republican in the national ticket, divided in the state ticket, and republican in the county ticket with the exception of one office, that of county prosecutor.

Salem voted democratic in the presidential race and in the contest for governor and with the exception of county clerk voted a solid republican county ticket.

Mortuaries on mortgages and the sale of land for taxes in Michigan was advocated by Governor-elect Wm. A. Comstock, in his address at the democratic rally in the local high school gym last Saturday night before an audience of about 500 composed of Plymouth, Northville and community democrats who had gathered to hear their leader in this state tell of his policies if elected to the governor's chair at Lansing.

A number of county candidates were also present. M. J. Murphy, prominent local democrat, acted as chairman of the meeting and enjoyed the meeting with his wit and sales at the republican party.

"We are in need of special legislation during this period of emergency. Let the Japan taxes stand as a lien against the property and abolish the tax title sale," said Mr. Comstock. He further stated that "this may sound like I am a radical, and if so then I am a radical." He continued, "These two measures will be submitted to our next legislature and if that body backs me, I won't be afraid to go down to the people."

On the regulation of the banks, the candidates stated that it should be left to the bankers alone and if I am not mistaken a large number of banks have demonstrated they are not unfaithful, that they

Northville voted approval of amendments 1, 3, 5 and 7, and voted down amendments 2, 4, 6, and 8.

Representing the newly formed seventeenth district in congress will be Geo. A. Dondoro, Royal Oak who defeated his democratic opponent Harry Mitchell of Pontiac. His majority is over 6,300.

GREAT IN DEFEAT

The seething tide of discontent and bitterness has swept over a land in which there are ten million unemployed and President Hoover is defeated for re-election by an overwhelming vote.

Herbert Hoover is great in defeat.

Our chief executive had the misfortune to be at the head of our government during the most distressing crisis the nation has ever known since the Civil War. We know of no living man who would have done more to save his country than he has done. History will show that he did have a powerful effect in keeping this country from collapse of its financial institutions. Yet so great has been the universal suffering of our people, so heavily has the depression borne down upon every last home in the nation, that the people have struck out in their resentment and suffering and swept from office our president. Crushing as this blow must be to the personal pride of President Hoover, he can find comfort and consolation in the undeniable fact that when the history of these past three years of suffering has been written, Herbert Hoover will be given his rightful place—the place now denied him by the forces of unreasoning discontent. He will stand alongside Lincoln. He will be ranked not only as one of the greatest humanitarians the United States ever produced but also one of its finest and most courageous statesmen. Time measures all things well and in the verdict of the calm days of the future when men are unblinded by suffering, Herbert Hoover will be placed among the great of the earth. In his inmost soul he must know justice will be given him by history and in that will come the consolation that no man can take from him.

Herbert Hoover's head is "bloody but unbowed."

No man was ever greater in what seems like complete defeat and disaster.

THE FOUR YEARS AHEAD

The election is over. As good Americans we all accept the result and forget the little differences we have had as we have debated politics more or less strenuously the past few weeks. Now for four big years ahead—democrats, republicans, socialists and everyone else.

The story goes that a noted Frenchman used to have his valet wake him each morning with a knock on the door, accompanied by these words: "We have great things to do today!"

Well, that's the way it appeals to us for the next four years before another national election rolls around. "We have great things to do," we folks who live here in Northville, we people who have the great good fortune to live in Michigan, we 120 millions who live in the finest land on earth, the United States of America.

To do "great things" we have to stand together, work together, sacrifice together, succeed together. Doesn't that appeal to you? Northville is the task for us who live here. With loyal co-operation, by the time the election of 1936 rolls around again we can make this a still finer and better place in which to live.

We have the chance to become one of the finest suburban towns in this whole Middle West. But to achieve that ambition we shall have to "pull together," have tolerance and patience for each other, bear each other's burdens and by our ambition, ideals and work show the outside world that Northville is one of the very best spots on earth. Doesn't it appeal to you to have some part in reaching the goal of an unbeatable Northville by 1936?

Great days are ahead. "The best is yet to be." Get on the Northville band wagon. The going is going to be good.

Forward with Northville!

SEEING THE OTHER SIDE

This is Saturday morning as we write this. We have just had what might be called "a red hot argument" with a couple of bonus marchers. They came into the office with "fire in their eyes" and of course when men come in that way we have to talk things over pretty freely. So the discussion was very strenuous.

Yet we want to say this: Those men got a different idea (we hope) of our side and we got a new slant on the views of the men who are out of work and who think they must overturn the government to bring about a new day of hope. Those two men that we thought radical asked us some frank questions and we too in turn asked them some questions that made them think.

And the fine thing was that when the two men left we each had respect for the other side. We both gained a new tolerance for the other fellow and that is good for all of us.

The older we grow the more we are sure of this: The world needs a lot more of friendliness, tolerance and good will. We get these qualities by being "open minded" and granting the other man the right to his belief, no matter what it is.

A WIDER MAIN STREET

In threading through our narrow and crowded Northville main street the other day this flashed through our mind:

"Some day Northville will have to widen Main street or establish a new one."

We had just returned from Redford and maybe the imposing look of the newly-widened Grand River avenue just 12 miles east of us influenced our thinking.

"Well, you just can't do that," many will say of this possibility of a wider main street here. That is what they probably said in Redford but they "did the thing that couldn't be done" and now the avenue is widened.

Probably it will be some time before Northville can swell its municipal chest and spread out that narrow main street, willed us by our forefathers before the days of automobiles. Yet we predict here and now that some of you young folks reading this will live to the day when you will see it done. And it may not be as far off as we think.

WE THANK THE DEMOCRATS

We think the democrats of Northville are "good sports."

In spite of the fact that The Record has been sincerely, completely and very emphatically for Hoover for president, our local democrats have been kind enough and generous enough to keep on very fine and friendly terms with this newspaper. From M. J. Murphy, Chas. Sessions, Fred Vanatta, on down the list of the local democrats, all have been fair and tolerant.

We want to say right here that we appreciate this very much. It is a wonderful thing when men can be friends and keep friendly even when they differ widely.

WANDERING THOUGHTS

Now what'll we talk about?

Now for a long pull and a pull all together!

"Good luck" to President-elect Roosevelt!

We have every respect for a sincere democrat but not much for a republican who leaves his party just to "get on the band wagon."

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

RIGHT NOW'S THE TIME

(Joe Haas in The Holly Herald)
Our people can help the depression and unemployment situation a whole lot by making their winter purchases early, and by hiring somebody to do the usual pre-winter jobs now, instead of waiting until the snow and cold force you have it done in a hurry.

HOOVER WILL "STAND BY"

(The Detroit News)
The equal of President Hoover's special equipment to meet a business and economic crisis never yet has characterized the occupants of the White House. President Hoover's herculean and splendidly effective work for industrial, business and financial reconstruction will continue until the moment when he hands the succession over to Roosevelt, just as if there had not been an election.

SALUTE THE COUNTRY DOCTOR

(Rae Corliss in The Palma News)
Not so long ago 500 men and women were guests of Dr. MacDonald, a country doctor at Mulvane, Kansas, who had officially presided when they were born into the world. During his 53 years practice he has ushered 4,300 babies into the world, has never lost a baby nor a mother, and has never refused to respond to a call, day or night, for white or black, good weather or bad. Don't tell us the world doesn't have using heroes. They're about the best kind too.

THE SMALL FACTORY

(From Clinton County Republican News)

Too many industries have become overgrown as the belief of Senator John B. Davidson of Eaton Rapids. Mr. Davidson operates a woolen mill in Eaton Rapids and is running twenty-four hours a day. His plant is a relatively small one employing about fifty people. His office is in the corner of the factory building, no managery desks or other frills. He knows every man by his first name and their families. He says that he has never "fired" a man. Wages are lower, but still consistent with lowered living costs.

"I have no labor troubles," the Senator said. "I impress the boys with the fact that we must manufacture better yarns than others, and they help me do it. We have no hard and fast rules nor time clocks. When a concern grows to a point where it has too many executives at high salaries and the stock is owned by the public, and employees number hundreds or even thousands, the workmen become a commodity instead of brother workers." Mr. Davidson believes that many of the ills of industry could be cured if there were more small, independently owned factories located in small towns. Wages and overhead charges would be less and the owners would be close to their men.

Show us the Northville man or woman with a good sense of humor and we'll show you a pretty good citizen. "Seeing the funny side" does grease the machinery of life pretty well. Try it the next time you feel like getting mad about something.

A further novel feature will be the "election post mortem."

NEW CHANGES MADE IN SHERIFFS AT FORD PLANT

METHODIST WOMEN FEED MANY PEOPLE

Over three hundred people were well fed with chicken pie and other accompaniments by the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church on Tuesday evening. This dinner has been an annual custom at this season as long as folks can remember and the time was when folks paid 75c without a murmur.

Mrs. Bertha Neal was the "general" of a big army of assistants who put over this successful affair. The women estimated that their profits for their work were about $150 dollars with their coffee presented complimentary by the Beech-Nut concern, which even sent out an expert to brew the drink and 50 pounds of "bisquicks" donated as well.

"The teachings of Christianity are practical for business and every-day life," said Rev. Frank N. Miner, Methodist pastor of Northville, in his address to the church on this "Go to church Sunday."

Mr. Miner urged his hearers to deeper loyalty to the things worth while in life saying that there is no real solution to the present political and industrial problems except in the teachings of Christ.

At this service there were present a number of elderly people who had not been able to be out for some time. Friends called for them with autos and escorted them to the place where they worshipped in church for the first time for a long period.

Among these were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Williams, Mrs. Jean Buckler and Mrs. Ella VanTassel. Mrs. Mary Fredmore was welcomed back after her illness of several weeks.

AT THE THEATRE

MARLENE DIETRICH AS UNWANTED WIFE MAKES PART LIVE

Chalk up another outstanding performance for Marlene Dietrich in "Blonde Venus," which will be shown Wednesday, Nov. 16, at the Pennman Allen theater. Under the skillful direction of Josef von Sternberg, this picture becomes one of the year's best photoplays.

Miss Dietrich in her role as the "Blonde Venus" successfully proves to her many admirers that she is an outstanding actress. In a role that commands every known human emotion, she grips her audience with her superb stunts and deep understanding of the character she portrays. Her moods are perfect and genuine, and acted with a conviction that makes the story live.

It is an entirely different part that Miss Dietrich plays in "Blonde Venus." She portrays, first a wife whose entire life is centered on her husband and small son. Because of the illness of her husband she goes through many vicissitudes, and finds that she is in love with two men. Fighting desperately to hold them both, she is caught in a dilemma which makes her an outcast, wanting to escape the awful results of her supercharged emotional nature. The superb dramatic nature of the picture is graphically realistic photodrama leaves one with the conviction that he has seen Miss Dietrich in her greatest screen portrayal.

The supporting cast, all well chosen for their respective roles, includes Cary Grant, Herbert Marshall, Dickie Moore, Gertrude Short, Gene Morgan, Robert Emmet O'Connor, Maude Traux and Rita La Roy.

NEW MAYNARD WESTERN CHECK-FULL OF PUNCH

(Newspaper Review)

A forgetful old-time action picture with plenty of punch will be shown at the Pennman Allen theater Saturday night, November 12.

The World-Wide film, "Between Fighting Men," starring Ken Maynard, deals with the tragic feud of the cattleman of the western range and the sheep raisers.

Depicting faithfully the war fought by the cattlemen to save the grazing lands for their cattle and the fight by the sheepherders to gain more grazing lands, "Between Fighting Men" is packed with thrills. Audiences at the Pennman Allen theater are welcoming this well-made outdoor romance with hearty applause at each showing.

With Maynard are Ruth Hall, Wallace MacDonald, Josephine Dunn, Albert Smith, Walter Law, James Bradbury Jr., and many others.

The picture was written and directed by Forrest Sheldon. Betty Burbridge did the screen adaptation. "Between Fighting Men" was produced by KRS at the California Tiffany Studios, and is released by World Wide Pictures.

KENO PARTY POSTPONED

Announcement has been made by those in charge of the postponement of the keno party which was to have been held on Saturday, November 19 for the benefit of welfare.

The date conflicts with dates for the Legion and Forester keno parties and it is planned to have their societies support a keno party for welfare to be held a few days before Christmas.

CLAWSON'S ARE HELPING THE GOLD DIGGER IN CALIFORNIA

Northville friends will follow with interest the outcome of a romance which blossomed here in this village along in 1912, when Miss Una Gumsolly, a clerk in the Northville State Savings bank, and Hugh Clawson, a sturdy young blacksmith, who worked for S. L. Senberger, met three times a day at the table of Miss Grace Tremper, where they boarded and roomed. Out of this frequent meeting sprang up a friendship which developed with time. The wedding ceremony took place in the parlor of their landlady who cooked one of her famous dinners at the sequel. (Needless to add that this boarding house increased suddenly in popularity in the village when Miss Tremper was besieged for room and board by damsels and youth.)

The Clawsons are now living in the West in Pine Grove, Calif., where Mr. Clawson makes mining machinery for the large numbers of people out there who are turning their attention to gold mining again because of unemployment.

Judging by the interesting letter they seem to be living happily ever after and a stalwart son of seventeen years makes his way 20 miles to school each day.

BIG CROWD ENJOYS MERCHANTS' SHOW

The crowded house that witnessed the football murder at the Pennman Allen theater Merchant's show Wednesday night were thrilled and at the same time mystified by the strange murder ever committed which occurred at the height of the most exciting moment of the game.

Suddenly the 70,000 faces which had been registering excitement and cheer changed to that of fear and terror when they saw the fan player topple and fall—dead—the victim of an assassin.

The picture was excellently directed and many tense and dramatic moments were well acted by the all-star cast which has such famous thespians as Philip Holmes, Dorothy Jordan, Charles Ruggles, Johnny Mack Brown and others.

Saturday night the Pennman Allen presents Ken Maynard in "Between Fighting Men."

CHURCH OF OUR LADY OF VICTORY

Lecture at the Church Next Sunday Night

On next Sunday night, Nov. 13, at 7:30 o'clock, the Rev. H. J. Kaufmann, chaplain of St. Mary's hospital in Detroit, will lecture on his observations on Teresa Neuman, the young woman stigmatic of Konnersreuth, Germany.

A "stigmatic," of whom there are only a few that history records, is a person who carries the five main wounds of Christ on the same parts of his body where He received them. The five wounds are those of His two hands, His two feet, where the nails pierced them, and the one wound on His side made by the lance of the soldier.

A stigmatic carries these wounds during a part of his life or during all of it. He is not born with them. These wounds bleed every Friday, and sometimes throughout an entire Lent. During the rest of the time these wounds are just scars of a reddish hue.

Teresa Neuman has been a stigmatic for several years. She has not eaten nor drunk anything for five years. Her case is remarkable and has baffled the medical and scientific authorities. Although thousands have flocked to this little village recently more than ever have all attempts at superstition and commercialism been banned by both church and civil authorities. Curiosity seekers are being kept away.

Father Kaufmann has visited Teresa Neuman twice, and has witnessed her sufferings. He has made an intensive study of this case and has interviewed several doctors who come in daily contact with her. His vivid description keeps one's attention riveted. The public is invited to hear this talk. There will be no other church services.

Between Fighting Men, which is a gripping story of an ancient war between cattlemen and sheepherders of the great western range.

McCardie won the toss and chose to receive. Baldwin camped out on the first play, but McCardie's pass failed to reach him. Campbell ran left end for two yards and McCardie punted. Plymouth receiving the ball, made five yards around right end on the first play. Northville's whole team swamped the next play. With good interference, Plymouth made a first down. Campbell ran the kickoff back to the 25 yard line. In four plays Northville put the ball on the 25 yard line. Trying the line twice, Plymouth kicked back. Northville started a march down the field following a 15 yard run by Bender, but fumbled on the 30 yard line. Plymouth recovering Plymouth also fumbled after two plays and McCardie recovered for Northville on Plymouth's 49 yard line. Bender was stopped on the line. Campbell and Kerr made three yards and McCardie kicked to Plymouth's five yard line. Plymouth passed but it was incomplete. Following a line buck she tried another pass but it was knocked down and she kicked. Deal, going in for Kerr, heaved a long pass to Baldwin, which was good for 30 yards. Bender tried a pass but it was incomplete. Kerr, in for Deal, made 13 yards, which placed the ball on the 17 yard line. Bender, on a fake fullback plunge, scored a touchdown. McCardie failed to make the point. Score 7-6.

Plymouth receiving the ball tried the line and ends but Northville held them on every play. Northville made 7 yards in three plays but was forced to kick.

Plymouth immediately kicked following two line bucks. Plymouth recovered on a fumble but lost the ball on the line. Making no gain Northville kicked. Plymouth stalling for time, tried the line and kicked. Northville tried a passing attack but failed. McCardie blocked by a Plymouth lineman blocked it. The ball bounded off his chest and into the hands of a Northville player who was tackled after making four yards, ending the game.

During the game Northville suffered several injuries. Essie Nunder suffered a broken nose, when he was stepped on by a Plymouth back while trying to tackle the person with the ball. Bob Reed was knocked out at the same time, being the bottom person in a pile-up.

The Northville and Plymouth bands played during the half and served the crowd with good old football music.

OUTSIDE STUDENTS BURN GOAL POSTS AND CRASH DANCE

In what was said to be "in the spirit of fun," a large crowd of high school students came over here from another town last Friday night and took the goal posts from the football field at the high school grounds.

Breaking through the fence, they carried them home and there set fire to them. The scene of the bonfire happened to be next to a church. The church caught fire from the burning goal posts and considerable excitement resulted before it was put out. Action has been taken and the result is not yet known.

The same evening a group of boys and girls of the high school age and over, reported to be from the same town, crashed the gate at the senior dance in the high school gymnasium. A large group of them plunged through the door past the ticket taker, onto the dance floor. After creating some disturbance, they left on the order of Principal R. H. Amernman, who was chaperon at the dance. Leaving hastily, they threatened to return. However, they did not appear again.

The Nanka Group of Camp Fire Girls had a meeting Monday, Nov. 7. The group elected new officers. Isabel Tibble was elected President; Tom McLoughlin, vice-president; Marjorie Hill, secretary; Mable Douglas, treasurer; Evelyn Ambler, song leader; and Ida Altman, scribe.

Mrs. Cooke is their guardian and helper in many ways. The group has eight dollars and twenty-five cents in the treasury with which they have decided to pay their dues. The Camp Fire Girls meet every Monday after school, 3:15 to 4:00. The girls have been going on hikes every Saturday afternoon.

Last Saturday the group hiked over to the home of Mable Douglas and had a very fine time. They roasted marshmallows and "weemies" by the open fire. This group is going to have lots of fun this year! Just watch and see!

Mrs. Reng's Camp Fire group gave a candy sale Thursday, Nov. 5, in the hall of the grade school building. Each young member brought her candy to be sold.

SENIOR DANCE A SUCCESS FRIDAY

Over Eighty Couples Attend; Next Dance to be Held November 18

The senior dance, held in the high school gymnasium last Friday night, proved to be an outstanding success. Beginning at eight o'clock, Patterson's orchestra of Plymouth played such delightful music that all present danced continually until the party closed at midnight.

It was estimated that about 75 couples were present, nearly equaling the number reported at last year's. The majority of these patrons, it is reported by the seniors, bought their tickets at the door, rather than at the advance ticket sale. The advance sale, however, greatly advertised the affair and was undoubtedly a big factor in the unusual success of the dance.

It does not seem that there ever has been so large a crowd at any senior dance, outside of a prom, in several years, said R. H. Amernman, who was chaperon Friday. The seniors were greatly pleased, both with the social and financial success of the dance.

Another senior dance will be held next Friday night, following the proposed plan of holding a dance every two weeks. This dance will begin at eight o'clock and will be again held in the gymnasium. Patterson's orchestra, which has been engaged for all senior dances this year and which featured such delightful music last week, will play.

Advance ticket sale has already been commenced and it is reported that it is making a rapid success. The prices on the advance sale are 25c for a couple. The tickets at the door will remain the same price of 25c and 50c. Everyone is urged to take advantage of the cheaper advance prices and buy their tickets early.

As far as is known now, the advance tickets for the Nov. 18 dance will be sold by the following seniors: Howard Latta, Richard Shipley, Gertrude Deal, Warner Neal, Mary Bennett and Leo Kohler.

EVELYN AMBLER AND ROBERT ANGOVE ARE YOUNGEST STUDENTS

The youngest girl and boy in the high school have been discovered. Evelyn Ambler and Robert Angove, of the ninth grade, are the youngsters. Evelyn was fortunate enough to skip some grades. Those she missed are one-half of the first grade, one-half of the sixth grade, and one-half of the seventh grade. Bob missed one-half of the seventh grade.

SENIOR'S WHO'S WHO

This week Who's Who presents Edward Leo Kohler. Leo was born on the Seven Mile road on April 9, 1916. He has lived in or near Northville all his life.

Leo is much interested in athletics. He was a member of the baseball team for three years and has been elected co-captain of that team this year. He was a member of the second basketball team during his freshman and sophomore years and a member of the first team last year. Leo was a substitute on the football teams of '29 and '30. He is a regular tackle on the team this year.

Leo is not only an athletic man, but he can sing as well. He was a member of the Glee Club in 1930 and is a member of the newly organized choir.

He was chosen vice-president of the Senior class of '32. Due to his interest in athletics, he is athletic editor of the annual. Leo's hobbies are riding horses and playing baseball.

After finishing high school Leo plans to attend the University of Michigan.

SHIFT OF SEATS SAVES BUYING OF SCHOOL EQUIPMENT

Much to the surprise of many students of N. H. S., 40 seats were taken out of the assembly and moved to other classrooms. The majority of the seats were put into Miss Palmer's room, while the seats in that room were used to make room for the large English and History classrooms of Mrs. Chapman and Mrs. Cobb. A few seats were put in Miss Hulse's room.

The students are managing to get along by putting their books with those of someone else, and they are not hindered in studying since at no time are all the seats in the assembly used for study purposes.

By taking out these extra seats the capacity of the assembly has been increased from 240 to 300 by putting in chairs whenever necessary. The school board has reduced expenses considerably by not buying new seats.

FOUR BOYS CREATE MUCH DISTURBANCE IN SCHOOL HALLS

Four boys from another town entered the Northville high school building last Monday morning and before they left, created considerable disturbance.

The boys commenced to talk loudly and noisily too loudly, upon entering the upper halls. They were directed to become orderly by Howard Latta, who was on hall duty at that time. When this order was not obeyed, Howard sent for Principal Amernman, who commanded them to leave the building or stop their noise. After some argument, in which the culprits became very unpleasant, they finally left. It is reported that action will be preferred against them, though nothing definite is as yet known.

SENIOR PRESIDENT APPOINTS CABINET

Announcement was made Tuesday of the appointment of a senior cabinet and ways and means committee. The cabinet is for the purpose of advising the president and class and the forming of programs for various class activities. President Shipley appointed this cabinet on the recommendation of Superintendent Knapp.

The cabinet consists of the following seniors: Warner Neal, Gertrude Deal, Leo Kohler, and Mary Bennett.

'ROUND THE SCHOOL

The strongest football team that Northville has put on a gridiron in years was defeated by Plymouth by one point last Friday. That team (and that as well as the previous statement is not only our opinion but that of a noted football critic) outplayed their Plymouth adversaries by a wide margin, and yet they were defeated! Why? Certainly not because Plymouth was the better team. They weren't. Certainly not for the reason that the Plymouth players fought any harder than did our boys because no one could have. What, then, we again ask you, is the reason for the outcome of the game? We don't know. And from what we could gather, neither does anyone else. It is simply one of those things that has no apparent explanation.

We are proud that every single man on the Northville team, playing in that game last week fought to the last ounce of strength in him. Though we may never win a football game, it is worth while to have a team if only for the reason of watching eleven or more men fight as our team did so consistently last Friday. Furthermore they have nothing to be ashamed of in being beaten by one point. Indeed, as we overheard a spectator say, "any team can score, if by an accidental chance the ball is so placed that they have four downs in which to move it one foot." And then it took three downs to do it.

We do not wish to belittle Plymouth's victory. They put up a good, clean, hard battle. We hold them no grudge. They hold none against us. They won the game fairly and squarely and the trophy is theirs until another year.

ALL ABOUT THE ROBBERY

An alarmyng fact is that though no one was able to read the story, "An Alarmyng Robbery," written in ye olde englyshe last week, it was really very interesting and a credit to Chaucer (the big mug).

ANSWER THIS ONE

This week's question (pardon us Mr. Baldwin)—Now at the end of the football season do you know the schools in our league?

Politeness is like an air cushion. There may be nothing in it, but it eases the jolts wonderfully.

NORTHVILLE TO PLAY SEASON'S FINAL CONTEST

Last Game of Year To be Played at Farmington This Afternoon

At Farmington this afternoon at three o'clock, Northville will begin an intense fight to win their last football game of the year. The game will be played back of the Farmington high school, and according to all reports will be very evenly matched.

Winning from Country Day in the opening game 10-6, Northville's only real upset was in the Trenton game in which they were defeated by an unusually fine forward passing attack. Farmington has given very close shaves to teams that have beaten Northville and to teams beating schools that she has played. As it is hoped by Coach Ruggies and the players as well, that Northville may win her first and last game this year, the whole team will be fighting hard to fulfill that desire.

The orange and black team has been working hard this week, with two staff workouts on Monday and Wednesday with an Army-Navy game in between. The players are in the most part in fine condition and in a good spirit of mind as well. The chances for a Northville victory are very even and it is hoped by school officials that a large crowd of Northville people and students will journey to Farmington to attend.

It was attempted to schedule another game for the succeeding week with Belleville, but no arrangement could be reached.

PAUL BEARD WRITES AMUSING TAKE-OFF ON EARLY WRITERS

Some of the work in Mrs. Chapman's English Literature class appeared to have inspired a few of our young poets and authors. Given below is an amusing though interesting poem, written in the language of the English writers of the tenth century period, composed by Paul Beard.

"YE FOOTBALLER GAMES"

A crowd of jolly men there was assembled on a greene
Ready to fite or die, for the honor of the teamne
Oust the game, it mudyd weather
Full out into the sunny weather
Eleven men there were to a side
Ready to fall, to slip, or to slide
Upon the leathern pigges hidde
The game was on, The whistle blew
The crowd cheered on the boys in blue
One of the team there was, I saw
Full of stature Great of brow

And kicked a goalie, toote swoote
The crowd they cheered,
The boys they weared. They weared
They fought and fought, for the victor's banner

In this strange and funny manner
Then the game was won and over
By the boys, who the ball had put over
And this is the end of my funny tale

Where Did Our Clubs Go?

We have been wondering what happened to all the various clubs which were formed last year. These clubs were for both girls and boys; they were for students of all tastes and furnished recreation from students. They started slowly but when they finally got into full swing they became organized and promised to become among our most valued institutions.

However, to all appearances, they are dead or at least sleeping more quietly than an extinct volcano. We would recommend their commencing again as soon as possible for the interests of all concerned. And while we are on this subject, what did happen to the High-Y?

DID YOU NOTICE?

A dangerous weapon that wasn't concealed? Careful with that ice-pick, Bud.

The perturbed look that has been on Mrs. Chapman's face the last few days? She has been trying to figure out what some of her Chaucerian pupils have written.

A certain tall young man, who has attended all of the school dances but has not participated in this kind of all sports? What's matter, Harold, Bashtu?

That Leo Kohler is getting quite adept in nicknaming people? "Note Slinger" is his latest achievement.

That the president of the Junior class is feeling rather "down in the dumps?" Some of the seniors are threatening to change the date of the J-Hop.

PLYMOUTH GAME-NETS PROFIT FOR SCHOOL

Due to the unusually fine attendance at the football game with Plymouth here last Friday, which it is reported broke all previous records, the student council took in about $70. This is a considerable amount, to result from the sale of tickets at one game. Nearly $30 of that $70 came from tickets sold in Plymouth alone, and the remaining $40 was sold at the gate or previous to the game. Officials of the school were very pleased at the attendance and expressed hope that it will be continued throughout all athletics this year.

ST. PAUL LADIES FEED 175 PEOPLE THURSDAY

The St. Paul Lutheran ladies feel amply repaid for all their hard work in preparing and serving a bountiful feed of chicken dinner at their church house last Thursday evening. One hundred and seventy-five people were served during the evening with generous plates of chicken and other good things.

The tables were very attractive with bowls of red apples and vases of chrysanthemums. Among the visitors were representatives from the various denominations of the village whose attendance the ladies appreciated.

During the evening several violin numbers were rendered by Miss Dorothy Meisner with Miss Hanna Strassen, of Plymouth, as her accompanist.

Obituary

MRS. MARGARET M. WARNER

Northville friends and neighbors will be deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Margaret Warner, who passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Grace M. Jackson, in Pontiac, at the age of 84 years.

Mrs. Warner was born in Macomb County, Michigan, in 1848. She was for many years a resident of Northville where she was a devoted member of the Methodist church and an active member of the W. C. T. U. She leaves to mourn their loss one sister, Mrs. Nettie Kearney, Detroit; two daughters, Mrs. Thos. R. Ware, North Adams; and Mrs. Jackson, Pontiac; four stepchildren, Mrs. Frank Laforet and Jack Warner of Walkerville, Canada; Mrs. Mary Tremblay of Windsor; Mrs. Maria Simpson of Detroit; fourteen grandchildren and many nieces and nephews besides a host of friends survive this worthy woman.

The funeral was held from the Harbor funeral home Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 1, with burial in Oak Hill cemetery, Pontiac. Rev. R. M. Atkins, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated.

The tables were very attractive with bowls of red apples and vases of chrysanthemums. Among the visitors were representatives from the various denominations of the village whose attendance the ladies appreciated.

During the evening several violin numbers were rendered by Miss Dorothy Meisner with Miss Hanna Strassen, of Plymouth, as her accompanist.

PUBLIC PATRONIZES

The King's Daughters were very much gratified with the generous patronage of the public at their benefit bridge given at the high school gym last Thursday evening. Old and young mingled socially in the games at the thirty tables, which filled the gym floor. Some played bridge, some contract, while others stuck to the good old fashioned five hundred or Pedro. All seemed to equally enjoy the competition and recreation while incidentally the coffers of the society was swelled by forty dollars.

At each table prizes of five pounds of sugar were awarded. In the course of the evening fresh home-made fruit cakes and coffee were served with Mrs. Brandt and Mrs. L. L. Vredenburg in charge.

The affair was managed by Mrs. H. R. Richardson and Mrs. Lefroy Stewart, who voted the appreciation of the society for the way the public responded to the chance to stand by in this time of special need. The proceeds will go largely to the supply of shoes which seem to be the crying need of school children these days.

ON ARMISTICE DAY

By Grace M. Sprenger
Our soldier sons have all come home,
The noise of war is over and done,
How kind to the hearts of those who know
Their boys sleep 'neath a foreign sun.

Good cheer they bring,
Those boys, whose eyes
Alight upon the home grounds
They trod
Their spirit shed,
In sun and shade,
The happy peacefulness of God
To the boys who lie asleep,
A nation fought, their eyes to save,
May their flag above them wave,
To cheer the hearts of home and brave

HOMEMAKER'S CORNER

By MRS. EDITOR

THE BOYS HAVE THEIR INNING

It was a mother of several daughters and one son who said to us not long ago: "I made the mistake of giving myself too much to my daughters and shoving my boy aside. Girls were so much sweeter and gentler that I always welcomed them caresses but when Bud rushed up to me like a whirlwind to give me a hug I usually cried out as I pushed him back, 'Ouch, you stepped on my toe, you're musing up my hair—Look out for my glasses!' His hands were dirty and his pockets bulged with mysteries, probably a smelly toad or a wiggle turtle."

"I never had time," she continued, "to go on a hike with him alone as he always begged me to, but I could spend hours sewing doll clothes with the little girls. I wonder now that he did not resent it. How blind I was!"

"And his friends! Such a queer lot of friends he brought home. Some of them looked just like 'Phan dummies' and some of them had a starchy look that I didn't like. Instead of welcoming them, all good and bad alike—and letting him learn to judge for himself, I forgot that home is a laboratory for young folks to work out friendship—the safe place for them to make friends."

This mother sat rocking and thinking in silence for some time and then she said, "Oh, yes, I was called a good mother. I prided myself on having my children clean and well fed, but was too busy to see that my boy needed a chum in his mother. I can see now why he was sullen and moody and often hateful to his sisters. He understood."

"And when the time came that I longed for his confidence and wondered what was going on in my boy's mind, it was too late. I had not built up a habit of talking things over with him in a chummy way."

We left this mother in a thoughtful mood. The "old" had been what we needed and we passed it on to other mothers of boys. There are two boys at our home—we'll specialize in them with some of the energy that we've spent in missing the absent daughter.

Bring on your nose and shrill

whistling that almost deafens us at times! Even toads, turtles, dogs and mud tracks! They are part of a boy's life—and boyhood is so short. Fudge, popcorn and games are going to be 'ripe' at our house this winter. It's the boys' inning."

Out of the Mixing Bowl

One of our readers sends in a recipe that is very different. She calls it "poor man's pie" and we'll agree that's the kind for us now. This cook says that this pie was a favorite with Senator Thos. Palmer of Highland Park, who said it was better than rich men had. We are glad to have our readers send these contributions.

Poor Man's Pie

Scant 1/2 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons flour, 2 eggs, dash of salt, nutmeg, a little lemon or vanilla. Grease pie pan; mix flour with sugar and eggs. Add enough milk to make your pie pan full (about a good pint). This really is a good custard pie which forms its own crust. When cool it can be cut in pieces and served with a panache turner.

FEDERATED CHURCH

BREAKS ITS RECORD

When the suggestion was made by Fred Borenman, two weeks ago that the Sunday school of the Federated church make a big effort to break its record of attendance, everyone got busy and did his best.

One man, Leslie Curtis, founded up 27 folks on his truck and escorted them to Sunday school last Sunday, Nov. 6, the day set for the event. Others brought smaller loads but when the roll was called 188 responded. The largest enrollment previously had been 120.

No wonder that Superintendent Hugh Means and the pastory Mrs. Cora Pennell, to whose untiring efforts much of this success is due, were filled with worthy pride.

Young Matrons Give Shower

To Their Friend

A happy group of sixteen matrons and a few local teachers gathered at the home of Mrs. Harold Bloom last Friday evening to extend good wishes to their friend, Mrs. Robert Coolman. Mrs. Bloom was joined in her duties as hostess by Mrs. Geo. H. Stalker and Mrs. N. F. McKinney. After an informal time at bridge a dainty luncheon was served by the three hostesses. Mrs. Coolman was presented with an appropriate gift by her friends.

Mrs. VanSickle Honored

On Birthday

Twice last Saturday Mrs. Wm. VanSickle was fettered by her birthday. She was visited by a group of friends at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. J. Schweitzer, on the nine mile road. After the bounteous meal, including a lovely birthday cake, her other daughter, Vera, and granddaughter, Dorothy, asked to be excused so they could go shopping. Instead they went to the former's home, opened it to about twenty friends. Mrs. VanSickle was then summoned home.

After recovering from her surprise the rest of the evening was spent playing five hundred. Mrs. VanSickle received many lovely presents.

Mrs. Knapp Entertains

Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary

Out of the abundance of her heart Mrs. T. J. Knapp invited to her home last Tuesday evening, Nov. 1, the young women of the Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary. A goodly number responded to her hospitality and enjoyed the evening together. Presenting some very practical thoughts Mrs. B. E. Parsons led the devotion. Mrs. Knapp then discussed the problem of the American Indian, a subject of great interest to the speaker. A wide fund of information made the talk most enlightening and preparatory to the study of the text book "The American Indian" which the auxiliary will begin a few months hence.

At the close of the program the guests were treated to fried cakes and cider.

Don F. Yerkes Carves Game

For His Family Group

The Yerkes family enjoyed a reunion of all its "branches" last Sunday after an interval of absence of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don F. Yerkes, Sr., who have returned from the north after spending a delightful three-weeks' vacation at the home of Mrs. Yerkes' sister, Mrs. H. L. Weaver and her husband in Traverse City.

While in the north Mr. Yerkes and Mr. Weaver spent much time hunting and carried off the honor of bringing home the largest bag of wild geese of all the hunters in that section.

Calling the family together last Sunday, some of these delicious Canadian geese were roasted in the paternal oven and served to the group of sons, daughters and grandchildren. In the party with the senior Yerkes were Mr. and Mrs. Don F. Yerkes, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Burkman, of this place, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Smith of Grosse Pointe, and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holden, and their children of Rosedale Park, who were accompanied by Miss Rose Blondell.

Women's Club Spend Afternoon

With Biblical Poetry

It was a program very different from the usual that the members of the Women's club listened to last Friday afternoon when Mrs. Frank N. Miner led them through fascinating glimpses of the "Poetry of the Bible." Contrary to the common opinion that the only poetry of the Bible is to be found in Psalms, Mrs. Miner demonstrated the strong lyrical tendency of the Hebrew people, whose writings in the original were of poetic strain. Much of this imagery was lost in translation to other languages.

Illustrations are to be found throughout the Old Testament in the songs of Moses, Deborah, Hannah and the prophets. Mrs. Miner read passages from the three types of poetry, dramatic, The Songs of Solomon; epic, the story of Job; lyric, the Psalms. The Magnificat of Mary was read as outstanding among the poetry of the Bible.

Thoroughly conversant with her theme, Mrs. Miner handled her subject in a masterly way which was greatly appreciated by her listeners.

An additional feature of interest after the program was the presentation of a beautiful black walnut cabinet to the club in which will be kept the records and other valuable documents of the society. The walnut tree from which it was made was cut from the Cass Benton grove and the gift was appropriately presented by Mrs. Benton. A complete history of the club, which had been compiled by Mrs. A. B. VanAken and her sister, Mrs. Riggs, was presented to the organization in mem-

The remainder of the afternoon was spent with progressive pedro games, seven tables playing.

Home Economics Class

Studies Furnishings

The Home Economics class held a very interesting session at the home of Mrs. Marshall Herrick on Monday afternoon when the subject of home furnishings was discussed with Mrs. Herrick and Mrs. Chas. Hennepin as leaders. They brought the lesson from the previous Wayne county meeting which was led by Miss Emma Dubord and Miss Joyce of Dearborn. Emphasis at this lesson was placed on the elimination of all useless, bric-a-brac in the home. Simplicity in furnishing was stressed as making house work easier, and the home more artistic. The next regular class will be in January. Further announcement will be made. All women interested in home making are welcome.

High School Play Cast

Rewarded With Dinner

As a reward of merit for their fine loyalty during the long period of rehearsals and their creditable rendition of the play, "What, Annie Brought Home," Mr. and Mrs. Leslie G. Lee entertained both casts at their home last Saturday evening at six o'clock dinner. As jolly reminders of the "fish farm" and "cran-berry marsh" which played a facetious part in the comedy the "piece-de-resistance" of the dinner was fish with cranberries as a relish.

Fifteen hearty young appetites were satisfied at the merry meal in which Mrs. Lee was assisted in serving by Mrs. C. B. Turnbull and Miss H. A. Borden, mothers of two members of the cast.

Games and a pleasant time around the fireplace, exchanging stories completed the evening.

Bridge Club Meets

On Election Night

It was election night at the home of Mrs. Jessie Wilson last Tuesday evening when her bridge club met at her home in Waterford to enjoy an evening of recreation. Miss Helen Pennell was also a hostess. The spirit of election was carried out in the table decorations with the pictures of Hoover and Roosevelt and the American flag in evidence. In a mock vote taken by the company the Republican candidate won 6-2.

As a result of the bridge tournament prizes were won by Miss Ellen Rencke and Mrs. May Babbitt, the latter a substitute guest for Mrs. Zimmermann. Joining with the hostesses in the pleasant evening were Mrs. Robert L. Lee, Miss Etta McDonald, Miss Helen Leonardson, Miss Grace Hawkins, Miss Rencke, and Mrs. Babbitt.

Mrs. Zimmermann will be the next hostess.

Contrary to the common opinion that the only poetry of the Bible is to be found in Psalms, Mrs. Miner demonstrated the strong lyrical tendency of the Hebrew people, whose writings in the original were of poetic strain. Much of this imagery was lost in translation to other languages.

Illustrations are to be found throughout the Old Testament in the songs of Moses, Deborah, Hannah and the prophets. Mrs. Miner read passages from the three types of poetry, dramatic, The Songs of Solomon; epic, the story of Job; lyric, the Psalms. The Magnificat of Mary was read as outstanding among the poetry of the Bible.

Thoroughly conversant with her theme, Mrs. Miner handled her subject in a masterly way which was greatly appreciated by her listeners.

An additional feature of interest after the program was the presentation of a beautiful black walnut cabinet to the club in which will be kept the records and other valuable documents of the society. The walnut tree from which it was made was cut from the Cass Benton grove and the gift was appropriately presented by Mrs. Benton. A complete history of the club, which had been compiled by Mrs. A. B. VanAken and her sister, Mrs. Riggs, was presented to the organization in mem-

SAYS WM. COMSTOCK

can lose money as rapidly as the poorest greenhorn.

For the further entertainment of those present the Wilcox quartet provided much fun and merriment and the Northville band gave several numbers.

The first speaker to be introduced was George E. Bushnell, candidate for prosecuting attorney of this county who in turn before beginning his talk introduced the various candidates for county offices namely: Elmer O'Hara, candidate for clerk; Leo Nowicki, dram. candidate; and also Harry Mitchell, mayor of Pontiac, candidate for congressman from the 17th district.

In his remarks Bushnell promised if elected he would not maintain grand juries, but will refer cases to the county sheriff for investigation; where they belong. "This will reduce the large staff now in the employ of the prosecutor's office, and cut expenses," the speaker declared.

"I will enter this office with great responsibilities to the people of this county and promise to clean house and give an excellent administration," the candidate said in closing his remarks.

The candidate for sheriff, Thomas C. Wilcox, former police commissioner of Detroit under Mayor Bowles, was the next on the program, and made a stirring appeal, "that with a record of 30 years in the employ of the federal government in police work I feel qualified for this job, and will be able to cut the budget several thousand dollars and also reduce the present amount of $55,000 to $26,280 which is now the cost of feeding the county prisoners."

The running mate for Lieut. Governor, Allen Stebbins of Ionia, was next introduced and Burnett Abbott of Saginaw, who was on Tuesday elected secretary of state.

HOMEMAKER'S CORNER

By MRS. EDITOR

THE BOYS HAVE THEIR INNING

It was a mother of several daughters and one son who said to me not long ago: "I made the mistake of giving myself too much to my daughters and shoving my boy aside. Girls were so much sweeter and gentler than boys. I was so fond of them that I never noticed their caprices but when Bud stepped up to me like a whirlwind to give me a high I usually cried out as I pushed him back. 'Ouch, you stepped on my toe, four's musing on my hair—Look out for my glasses.' His hands were dirty and his pockets bulged with mysteries, probably a smelly rag or a wiseguy's rattle."

"I never had time," she continued, "to go on a hike with him—because as he always begged me for, but I could spend hours sewing doll clothes with the little girls. I wonder now that he did not resent it. How blind I was!"

"And his friends! Such a queer lot of friends he brought home. Some of them looked just plain, dumb and some of them had a shifty look that I didn't like. Instead of welcoming them, all I could do was to shake and let them learn to judge for themselves. I forgot that home is a laboratory for young folks to work out friendship—the safe place for them to make friends."

"Thus mother sat rocking and thinking in silence for some time and then she said, 'Oh, yes, I was called a good mother. I prided myself on having my children clean and well fed, but was too busy to see that my boy needed a chum in his mother. I can see now why he was so sullen and moody and often hateful to his sisters. He understood.'

"And when the time came that I longed for his confidence and wondered what was going on in my boy's mind, it was too late. I had not built up a habit of talking things over with him in a chummy way."

We left this mother in a thoughtful mood. The "jolt" had been what we needed and we pass it on to other mothers of boys. There are two boys at our home—we'll specialize in them with some of the energy that we've spent in missing the absent daughter.

Bring on your nose and shrill

chustling that almost deafens us at times! Even toads, turtles, dogs and mud tracks! They are part of a boy's life—and boyhood is so short. Fudge, popcorn and games are going to be "ripe" at our house this winter. It's the boys' "inning."

Out of the Mixing Bowl

One of our readers sends in a recipe that is very different. She calls it "poor man's pie" and we'll agree that's the kind for us now. This cook says that this pie was a favorite with Senator Thos. Palmer of Highland Park, who said it was better than rich men had. We are glad to have our readers send these contributions.

Poor Man's Pie

Scant 1/2 cup sugar, 2 tablespoonsful flour, 2 eggs, dash of salt, nutmeg, a little lemon or vanilla. Grease pie pan; mix flour with sugar and eggs. Add enough milk to make your pie pan full (about a good pie). This really is a good custard pie which forms its own crust. When cold it can be cut in squares and served with a pancake taffer.

FEDERATED CHURCH BREAKS ITS RECORD

When the suggestion was made for the Federated church to break its record for attendance every one got busy and did his best. "One man, Leon Curtis, attended 27 folks on his truck and escorted them to Sunday school last Sunday, Nov. 6, the day set for the event. Others brought smaller loads but when the roll was called, 188 responded. The largest enrollment previously had been 120.

No wonder that Superintendent Hugh Means and the pastor, Mrs. Otha Pennell, to whose untiring efforts much of this success is due, were filled with worthy pride.

W. R. C.

The W. R. C. will meet with Mrs. Elsie Shafer on Wednesday, Nov. 23 at 2:30, to fill boxes for the old soldiers. All come who can.

Society Notes

Winona Club Visits Detroit Friends

The Winona club is enjoying the hospitality of Detroit friends this afternoon (Friday) when they are spending the afternoon with Mrs. Taylor and an assisting hostess in the city. Co-operative dinner will begin the social activities of the day and the afternoon will be spent with pedro. Twenty-five ladies from Northville are attending this affair.

Young Matrons Give Shower To Their Friend

A happy group of sixteen matrons and a few local teachers gathered at the home of Mrs. Harold Bloom last Friday evening to extend good wishes to their friend, Mrs. Robert Coolman. Mrs. Bloom was joined in her duties as hostess by Mrs. Geo. H. Stalker and Mrs. N. F. McKinney. After an informal time at bridge a dainty luncheon was served by the three hostesses. Mrs. Coolman was presented with an appropriate gift by her friends.

Mrs. VanSickle Honored On Birthday

Twice last Saturday Mrs. Wm. VanSickle was remembered of her birthday. She was invited to a 6 o'clock dinner at the home of her daughter, Mrs. N. F. Schreiber, on the Middle road. A lovely birthday cake, her other daughter, Vera, and granddaughter, Dorothy, asked to be excused so they could go shopping. Instead they went to the VanSickle home, opened it to about twenty friends. Mrs. VanSickle was then summoned home.

After recovering from her surprise the rest of the evening was spent playing five hundred. Mrs. VanSickle received many lovely presents.

Mrs. Knapp Entertains Nelke Yerkes Auxiliary

Out of the abundance of her heart Mrs. T. J. Knapp invited to her home last Tuesday evening, Nov. 1, the young women of the Nelke Yerkes Auxiliary. A goodly number responded to her hospitality and enjoyed the evening together. Presiding, Mrs. Knapp then discussed the problem of the American Indian, a subject of great interest to the speaker. A wide fund of information made the talk most enlightening and preparatory to the study of the text book, "The American Indian" which the auxiliary will begin a few months hence.

At the close of the program the guests were treated to fried cakes and cider.

Don P. Yerkes Carves Game For His Family Group

The Yerkes family enjoyed a reunion of all its "branches" last Sunday after an interval of absence of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don P. Yerkes, Sr. who have returned from their north after spending a delightful three-weeks' vacation at the home of Mrs. Yerkes' sister, Mrs. H. L. Weaver and her husband in Traverse City.

While in the north Mr. Yerkes and Mr. Weaver spent much time hunting and carried off the honor of bringing home the largest bag of wild geese of all the hunters in that section.

Calling the family together last Sunday, some of these delicious Canadian geese were roasted in the paternal oven and served to the group of sons, daughters and grandchildren. In the party with the senior Yerkes were Mr. and Mrs. Don P. Yerkes, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Burkman, of this place, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Smith of Grosse Pointe, and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holden and their children of Rosedale Park, who were accompanied by Miss Rose Blondell.

Worthwhile Club Entertains Husbands at Dinner

The Worthwhile Club very pleasantly entertained their husbands at a co-operative dinner at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Chrysler, a member of this club. After the fine dinner the company played progressive pedro during the evening.

L. O. T. M. Are Guests Of Mrs. Hicks

A company of members of the Lady Macabees with a few guests from Detroit and South Lyon, were entertained at the home of Mrs. Geo. Hicks at her home on Horton avenue last Friday afternoon. At noon the company sat down to a delectable co-operative luncheon served at two long tables artistically decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Home Economics Class Studies Furnishing

The Home Economics class held a very interesting session at the home of Mrs. Marshall Herrick, Randolph street, Monday afternoon when the subject of Home Furnishing was discussed with Mrs. Herrick and Mrs. Chas. Pierpont as leaders. They brought the lesson from the previous Wednesday meeting, which was led by Miss Emma Dubord and Miss Reece of Dearborn. Emphasis at this lesson was placed on the elimination of all useless bric-a-brac in the home. Simplicity in furnishing was stressed as making house work easier and the home more artistic. The next regular class will be in January. Further announcement will be made. All women interested in home making are welcome.

High School Play Cast Rewarded With Dinner

As a reward of merit for their fine loyalty during the long period of rehearsals and their creditable rendition of the play, "What Anne Brought Home," Mr. and Mrs. Leslie G. Lee entertained both casts of their home-study Saturday evening at six o'clock dinner. As jolly reminders of the "fish lamp" and "cranberry marsh" which played a facetious part in the comedy "The Precedence" of the dinner was fish soup, cranberries as a relish.

Fifteen healthy young appetites were satiated at the merry meal in which Mrs. Lee was assisted by serving by Mrs. C. B. Turnbull and Mrs. H. A. Boyden, mothers of two members of the cast.

Games and a pleasant time around the fireplace exchanging stories completed the evening.

Bridge Club Meets On Election Night

It was election night at the home of Mrs. Jessie Wilson last Tuesday evening when her bridge club met at her home in Waterford to enjoy an evening of recreation. Miss Irene Fennel was also a hostess. The spur of election was carried out in the table decorations with the pictures of Hoover and Roosevelt and the American flag in evidence. In a mock vote taken by the company the Republican candidate won 6-2.

As a result of the bridge tournament prizes were won by Miss Ellen Reincke and Mrs. May Babbitt, the latter a substitute guest for Mrs. Zimmerman. Joining with the hostesses in the pleasant evening were Mrs. Robert L. Lee, Miss Etta McDonald, Miss Helen Leonardson, Miss Grace Hawkins, Miss Reincke, and Mrs. Babbitt.

Mrs. Zimmerman will be the next hostess.

Women's Club Spend Afternoon With Biblical Poetry

It was a program very different from the usual that the members of the Women's club listened to last Friday afternoon when Mrs. Frank N. Miner led them through fascinating glimpses of the "Poetry of the Bible." Contrary to the common opinion that the only poetry of the Bible is to be found in Psalms, Mrs. Miner demonstrated the strong lyrical tendency of the Hebrew people, whose writings in the original were of poetic strain. Much of this rich imagery was lost in translation to other languages.

Illustrations are to be found throughout the Old Testament in the songs of Moses, Deborah, Hannah and the prophets. ATCHEISON HOSPITAL

Alfred Gaedt of Grand River avenue underwent a major operation at the hospital Sunday. He is recovering well.

Church of Our Lady of Victory

The three days of prayer and adoration, called the 40 Hours Devotion, ended happily last Monday night. The attendance of the various families at their hours of adoration and meditation, the large numbers that were present at the daily evening services, proved that there are still many people who realize that the great Supervisor and Provider of the world is their great comforter and practical helper.

We wish to remind the men that they did splendidly in the final procession of the 40 Hours Devotion. We ask them to remember that next Sunday, Nov. 13, is Holy Name day. All who received Holy Communion last Sunday should receive again.

In another part of the Record we give an account of the lecture that will be delivered at our church next Sunday night, Nov. 13, at 7:30 o'clock.

Catechism classes each Saturday morning at 9:30. The new teachers for November will meet at the Rectory at 9 o'clock.

Methodist Church

Sunday worship service at 10:30 a. m. in the pastor, the Rev. Frank A. McNeill, preaches. The Sunday school at 12 noon. The public is cordially welcome.

The young people of our church are to make a pilgrimage to the Old People's Home in Chelsea Sunday afternoon, leaving the church here promptly at 1:30 p. m. They will conduct a devotional service at the home at 3 o'clock. Canned fruit will be taken as a gift from our people to these old people. Anyone having an extra can of fruit or jelly may bring it to church Sunday morning. Cars are needed to make the trip.

There will be no young people's meeting at the usual 6:30 hour.

The united evening service will be at the Baptist church Sunday evening at 7:30.

Monday evening, Nov. 14, at 7:30, at the church is an adjourned meeting of the official board. Very important that the whole board be present.

Thursday evening, Nov. 17, is a supper meeting of our men of the church. The charge is 35c. The time is 6:30. A good program is promised. Anyone of another church of the community who has any desire to sit at supper with these men is cordially invited. Roy Clark is chairman of the "eat's" committee. Sherill Ambler is chairman of the program committee.

Baptist Church

Services for Sunday Nov. 13 are as follows:

Morning worship at 10:30 o'clock at which the pastor, Rev. W. Roscoe Garbar, preaches on the subject, "God's Way in the World." This is a timely subject and the pastor would greatly value the presence of many to help preach on so mighty a theme. At 7:30 p. m. the Union Services of Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist churches will be held at the large attendance last Sunday evening at the M. E. church. We trust that each week may witness larger crowds to these meetings. They are for the entire community and your response will measure their power in your life and that of the town.

Please try and be on time.

Evening service will be held in the Baptist church.

Do not overlook Monday evening, Nov. 14. This is Presbyterian night and outstanding speakers will address the gathering. A 35c supper will be served at 6:30, following which we shall proceed to the church auditorium for the meeting and addresses. The following churches are expected to be represented: Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Milan, Saline, Plymouth, West Point, South Lyon, Howell. We stress the importance of a large group from this church. See announcement elsewhere in this issue regarding Teacher Training Course and Jack Munger concert.

Service for worship, 10:30 a. m. Nov. 13. Jesus Says, "Ye."

Bible school at 11:45. High Means superintendent.

Prayer meeting, Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Doris always has an appreciative audience. Boys who are interested in the organization of a Salem Boy Scout troop, report to Knowles Butts.

YOUNG PEOPLE OF BAPTIST CHURCH WILL PRESENT FLAY NOV. 17

The young people of the Baptist church will present the play, "Modern Pagans," Thursday evening, Nov. 17, at 7:30, at the church. A good musical program will precede the play. An enjoyable and profitable evening is promised. No admission but a free will offering will be taken for the benefit of the B. Y. P. U. All are invited.

If fate seems to hammer you, take it like a good piece of steel and you will come off the anvil with a better temper and a keener edge.

Special Announcement

THE MAYTAG ELECTRIC WASHER CO. is very glad to announce the APPOINTMENT OF THE NORTHVILLE ELECTRIC SHOP TO REPRESENT THEM IN THIS DISTRICT. In as much as the Maytag name needs little introduction to the average home, as it has always stood as the acme of perfection in electric washers. With its NEW PORCELAIN TUB MODELS added to the line and the NEW PRICE REDUCTIONS which make it possible to own a Maytag Washer AS LOW AS $79.50, we invite you to see these on display at THE NORTHVILLE ELECTRIC SHOP, 128 W. MAIN STREET and ask for a home demonstration.
