"HARD TIMES" DANCE HELPS THE WORTHY

Unique Party Yields $100
For Local Welfare
Committee

Adding over $100 to the coffers of the Northville Welfare association, the hard times dance held Tuesday at the high school proved to be an outstanding success for the welfare sponsors and the many persons attending.

No expenses, all services and materials being donated by Northville merchants and private citizens, aided the sponsors in accumulating money with which to carry on their various charity enterprises.

The welfare association is the central committee in charge of all charity work in Northville and is composed of all of the societies and organizations engaged in welfare activities.

The Northville Welfare association wishes to express its appreciation and thanks to all who assisted in making the dance a success and especially to the members of the orchestra, led by Scott Armstrong, to the board of education, to the M. B. grocery, to the Atlantic and Pacific Tea company, both the grocery and meat departments, to the B. A. Stephens grocery, to the Kroger store, both the grocery and meat departments, to the Red Rose Dairy, Balducci Meat Market, Northville Drug company, C. R. Horton Drug company, Northville Record, Detroit House of Correction, Farm Crest Bakery, Wagner Bakery, and the D. and C. stores.

Both old time and modern dance music was excellently played by the Music Masters and both the "old timers" and the youngsters entered joyously into the spirit of the occasion. About 75 couples attended the dance and a good many more watched the proceedings from the balcony.

A "deer" was won by Mrs. Walter Ware, who swooped down on the unlucky animal and carried it squealing from the dance floor.

In keeping with the motif of the dance old clothes predominated and the men who dared to come "dressed up" were fined under the watchful eye of Chief of Police Wm. Safford.

The Rev. Mr. Barbour gave an unusually effective address on the subject of "Remember Jesus Christ," the answer to the universal threefold human need of life, teaching and guidance.

The preacher exhorted his hearers to "remember Jesus Christ" as the answer to the universal threefold human need of life, teaching and guidance.

The Union services next Sunday evening will be held in the Baptist church.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR IS ATTRACTION AT THE UNION SERVICE

The Union services, now being held alternately in the Baptist, Presbyterian, and Methodist churches, Sunday evenings, was held in the latter church last Sunday evening with Rev. W. R. Barbour of the Baptist church as guest preacher.

The a cappella choir of the Northville Public Schools, under the able direction of Leslie Caplan gave several numbers. This choir is composed of forty-three, voices, twenty-three girls and twenty boys. Using "Meditation" by Morrison, as their theme song, also "Fairies, Lord Jesus," an old twelfth-century melody, and Beethoven's "The Heavens Rejoice," these high school youngsters sang very effectively and harmoniously.

The Rev. Mr. Barbour gave an unusually effective address on the subject of "Remember Jesus Christ," the answer to the universal threefold human need of life, teaching and guidance.

THE TRAINING SCHOOL DROPS 33 EMPLOYEES

Two From Northville Among Those Released on Thursday

Effective Thursday, Dec. 1, the new budget for the Wayne County Training School eliminated six seasonal employees and 27 regular employees from the pay roll, according to Dr. Robert H. Haskell, superintendent of the institution. Only two of those dropped are from Northville, he said.

The drastic cut in personnel of the school will effect a saving of $53,469.60.

There are now 173 employees at the school not counting those who have been stricken from the rolls, said Dr. Haskell, and the ratio of employees to children in the school is one employee to each 783 children.

The training school requested $281,467.60 from the board of auditors for personal service, said Dr. Haskell, and was granted $227,998.00.

The new budget, stated Dr. Haskell, has been in our possession since Thursday, Nov. 17, when it was completed and passed by the board of supervisors. The budget is a particularized budget. By this I mean that each employee's position is named and his salary rate is fixed by the board of supervisors at their September and October meetings.

"Since we have been given the new budget we have been seeking ways and means to meet the cut in our appropriation and at the same time do the least amount of damage."

Who the 33 employees released were was not revealed but Dr. Haskell stated in answer to a question that the majority of them were from Detroit. Only two of those dropped were from Northville, he said, one of them being engaged as a seasonal worker and the other a regular employee.

The Rev. Mr. Barbour gave an unusually effective address on the subject of "Remember Jesus Christ," the answer to the universal threefold human need of life, teaching and guidance.

Fishery Ponds Attract Skaters By the Score the Past Few Days

With frozen ponds at the U. S. Fishery more than a week before Thanksgiving, Northville youngsters have been taking advantage of the early fine skating with great zest. Every afternoon after school swarms of these skaters, often from 50 to 75 in number, may be seen skimming over the smooth ice. The advantage of the separate ponds is seen in giving the smaller children a chance to skate safely while the big rough boys play hockey on adjoining ponds.

Parents rest assured of the safety of their children on these ponds and no mishaps have as yet occurred except that a number, have slipped into the shallow margins and have gone home with wet feet.

The kids are hoping for a steady winter.

Roy Crowe Explains Mysteries of Television to the Exchange Club

The intricacies of television were disclosed to Northville Exchange Club members by Roy Crowe, district manager of the Michigan Bell Telephone, at the noon luncheon held Wednesday at the Methodist church house.

Speaking on his pet hobby, Mr. Crowe gave a short technical description of the steps made in television and translated the terms for the better understanding of the listeners. He told of vital part played in television by the photo-electric cell which has been highly developed to a point where it can transmit a current of light rays broken up by striking the image which is reproduced and sent to a distant point.

Mr. Crowe revealed that one of the failings of the human eye makes moving pictures, television possible. Pictures flashed on a screen at the rate of more than 20 each second are discernible as one steady moving picture. Pictures less than 20 per second flicker and show a gap between each flash.

Each detail of the complex machinery was explained and the baffling problems solved by Bell Telephone company engineers were highly interesting to the assembled Exchange Club members and their guests.

Guests present were Lester Miller, of Ypsilanti, and Gordon Gage, of Detroit Exchange Club No. 1, which is sponsoring a business fair to be held in Detroit on Dec. 12.

P. T. A. SESSION ON DEC. 8 WILL BE AN INTERESTING EVENT

The next regular meeting of the P. T. A. will be held on the evening of December 8 in the high school gym and it is hoped that a large number of parents will attend. Parents of junior and senior students will be especially interested in the program. Mrs. Frank N. Miller will speak on "First Steps in Character Building" with stress laid on the adolescent age. Mrs. Miller has made intensive study of psychology of youth and has backed this with many years of experience in teaching and directing young folks. It will be an opportunity parents can not afford to miss.

Additional interest will be given the program by the first appearance of the high school a cappella choir at the school. This chorus of unaccompanied voices will be directed by Leslie G. Lee.

RAIL ALGER LYKE WINS A SEAT IN THE ARIZONA LEGISLATURE

The many friends of Ralph Alger Lyke, who was a resident of this vicinity several years ago, and has been living in Prescott, Arizona, will be pleased to know that he has been elected as a democratic representative to the legislature in that state. He takes his seat January 9.

Mr. Lyke is advertising manager for the Prescott Courier, a daily paper with 4,000 circulation, and is prominent in American Legion affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyke have lived in Arizona for several years and he writes they are very happy there, enjoying the good things along with the bad. Mrs. Ford Brooks of Novi is a sister of Mr. Lyke.

AMBLERS ARE HOSTS AT FAMILY REUNION

One of the happy family gatherings on Thanksgiving day was that at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sherill Ambler when representatives of both sides of the house were present at the occasion. As is ideal on Thanksgiving there was present a grandfather, Marcellus Kenyon; a grandmother, Mrs. Metta Ambler, and a great grandmother, Mrs. Lucinda Christy. Besides the three Ambler children there were present Pierre Kenyon, Mrs. Lella Haystead and three daughters, Madeline, Leola and Betty.

Thirteen in all they numbered, but no one cared and had the finest kind of a day. After dinner an impromptu concert followed when Grandfather Kenyon forgot his part and sang with customary zest as did his son, Pierre, and granddaughters, Evelyn and Madeline, with Mrs. Ambler accompanying.

The class in manual training is being organized and will hold its first meeting Monday night at 7:00 o'clock in the manual training room at the high school under the tutelage of Paul Thompson, manual training teacher.

The class will meet every week and a small fee will be charged to defray expenses. The class is being organized by Mr. Thompson and L. Q. Carman. It will be limited to about 15 members. The class is open to all who wish to enter.

PLAN FOR NEW BANK APPROVED

Decision of Detroit Judges in Hearing Friday Removes Last Barrier to Re-Opening

Depositors' Committee Expects That the
New Institution Will Be Open
Within 30 Days

Northville's last legal barrier to the reopening of its two-closed banks was overcome at the hearing at Detroit, Friday, November 25, when Circuit Judges DeWitt Merriam and Joseph Moynihan ruled in favor of the reorganization plans.

Important developments of the hearing held Friday were:

- (1.) Approval by the court of the bank reorganization plans as submitted by the state banking department and the attorney general's department.
- (2.) Approval of allocation of a percentage of bank assets to objecting depositors equal to the percentage of bank deposits held by them.
- (3.) Conclusion of all legal proceedings relative to reopening the banks.

NEW BANK TO OPEN IN 30 DAYS, BOYCE TELLS ROTARY CLUB

The new bank should be open by the last part of December. This was the cheering news that was brought to Northville Rotarians Tuesday noon at their weekly luncheon by John A. Boyce chairman of the depositors' committee. The speaker was presented by John McCully.

Another prediction made by Mr. Boyce was that the first dividend will be paid as soon after the opening as the banking department will permit. Al Monroe, he pointed out, a dividend was paid within two months after the opening under the same plan as Northville's.

One of the biggest advantages of the opening under the moratorium will be the saving of Northville homes, said the speaker. The new bank will be able to help many to whom aid could not possibly have been given, had liquidation gone on.

After reviewing the long "hard struggle" to get a bank for the community, Mr. Boyce said "The battle has been long and tough—harder than many will ever know but successful, now fear at hand. There will be no necessity for any more legal proceedings." He went to explain how the rights of the objectors to the moratorium plan will be taken care of by allocating their share of the assets to these people. They will be given their proportionate share of the assets and will have their own receiver.

At the close of Mr. Boyce's speech the club gave a ringing expression of gratitude to E. R. Horton, a member of the depositors' committee, who worked incessantly for the re-opening of the bank.

The club executive, Prof. Percy Angove, presided and guests were Oliver Goldsmith and Elton R. Eaton of Plymouth, Mr. Boyce, Clinton W. Wilcox and Ad Schwenger.

The new bank will probably be opened in what was formerly the Northville State Savings Bank building, at 129 East Main street. The bank will be operating, members of the depositors' committee estimated, by the first part of the year.

Shortly after the opening, officials say, the sum of $10.00 will be available to each depositor in each of the closed banks and all accounts $10.00 or under will be subject to immediate withdrawal if they so desire.

All new deposits in the new concern will be subject to immediate withdrawal, as normally affirms Mr. Boyce.

All of the proposed plans will be under the close supervision of the state banking department. Dates for the termination of the existing receiverships in the closed banks have not yet been set, the court leaving that to the state banking department to do when it considers the bank opening plans fully prepared and guaranteed.

The attorney-general's department has been authorized by the court to draft an order approving the reorganization plans and it is expected that the order will be issued by the court within a few days.

Most encouraging of all of the recent developments are the state statements made by members of the depositors' committee who expressed the belief that the new Northville bank would open its doors for business within 30 days.

You are invited to attend a factory representative showing of afternoon and dinner dresses at The Esther Shoppe, Plymouth, Friday, Dec. 2, at 7:00 o'clock.

FAITH LIEBETREU IS RESCUED BY MONROE WESTON

Skater Goes Through Hole in Ice on Mill Pond
Saturday

While skating on the mill pond in the north end of town Saturday little ten-year-old Faith Liebetreu, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Liebetreu, Grace Avenue, very narrowly escaped a tragic drowning when she slipped into an air hole in the ice. With quick strides Monroe Weston, a neighbor high school boy, was on the scene and throwing himself flat upon the ice was able to rescue the little girl as she sank to her waist clinging to the slippery edge of the ice.

Faith was at the time of her accident carrying an orange to a playmate at some distance from the crowd of young folks skating on the pond and failed to notice the hole. The hole was in the channel where the water is said to be 16 feet deep and there is quite a current. The child was hurried to her home where a hot bath restored her quickly and she seems to be none the worse for her chilling dip.

Eight other youngsters are said to have fallen into shallow water and gotten wet. Another accident occurred when August Card, 15-year-old son of Mrs. Daisy Card, turned an ankle breaking a small bone. The boy is pluckily making his way each day to school.

DETROIT MUSICIANS PLEASE AUDIENCE AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH

A program of high merit and artistic finish was given last Tuesday night at the Baptist church by Detroit artists with J. D. Kennedy, reader, R. M. Traver, cellist, and Miss Helen Hall, accompanist.

Mr. Traver played very effectively and displayed his ability as an artist in the wide range of selections for the cello. Two especially fine numbers were "The Lost Chord" and MacDowell's "To a Waterfall."

Mr. Kennedy as a reader kept his audience well entertained with selections from Robert Service and Robert Browning. He gave several numbers in dialect much to the merriment of his listeners.

Miss Hall showed real ability as accompanist, playing very sympathetically with Mr. Traver. She also gave solo numbers in a very fine style.

After the program light refreshments were served in the church parlors. This was the monthly church night for the church and congregation.

SNEAK THIEVES GET MONEY AND DENTAL GOLD WEDNESDAY

Sneak thieves forced their way Wednesday noon into the offices of The Michigan Bell Telephone company and of Dr. Paul R. Alexander, located on the second floor of the Lapham Bank building, stealing approximately $11.00 in cash from the phone company and a quantity of gold from the dental office.

According to Chief of Police Wm. H. Safford, whoever committed the crime was familiar with the location of the money and the gold, and also the hours at which Mrs. Bernice Dennie, in charge of the phone office, and Dr. Alexander departed to their homes for lunch.

The theft occurred sometime between noon and one o'clock. Similar reports of sneak thieves operating in Jackson and Lansing have been received, said Chief Safford.

Dr. H. Handorf, physician in the Penman-Allen theatre building reported that his office was broken into sometime Wednesday morning or noon and his typewriter stolen.

SURE, WE'LL HAVE IT

Editorial writers have a way of sitting with a blank look on their faces, waiting for an idea to lodge. In this attitude we sat today as a friend came in "Give us an idea for an editorial," we said to him.

"Alright," he replied, "Will there be as much spirit of Christmas this year as ever?"

"Brother," we had the sense to shoot back at him, "there will be more of the spirit of Christmas this year than ever. Just because we don't have a lot of money, is no reason to lose the spirit of good will and peace on earth. The spirit of Christmas is inside you."

A lot of Christmas holidays have rolled over our head but none has excelled the thrill and joy of those boyhood days when all the Christmas stocking yielded was an orange, a little candy and a few simple things that came from a home that had little money. No friends, it takes a lot more than money to make the Christmas spirit.

THE LOYALTY OF A DOG

"Buster" is out there in front of the office. The minute the door opens he will rush in. Or if the family car is out in front he will sit by it for hours until someone comes. No matter how many times we push him outdoors again or how many times we drag him from the automobile, he will bob back. That dog will never take "No" for an answer. "Buster" can wag his tail and smile at you no matter how much you abuse him. He is strong for his own family. His first and last names are "Loyalty."

We have sometimes thought that a lot of folks could learn from our dog "Buster." If they were as loyal to their friends as they claim to be; if they were as devoted to the friends who have stood by them; if they would "take the bitter with the sweet" as good old "Buster" does; if they had some of this dog's good will in the midst of trouble, we think we should have a better Northville.

What do you think?

And yet there are people mean enough and contemptible enough to poison a dog.

THE ROOSEVELT ATTITUDE

Someway or another, we didn't like the attitude of President-elect Roosevelt last week when he met President Hoover and talked over the foreign debt situation. The headlines of the daily paper said that he refused to act with the president in working out the plan for the next three months. He was reported as feeling that the present administration should be left to solve the problem.

Well, if the papers had it right, that seems strange. Are we republicans or democrats, anyway, after election, when great problems need a united action? President Hoover has only three months more to stay in the White House. He can worry along that long. Governor Roosevelt has four years to stay there and keep this country of ours on even keel. One would think that the man who is to follow Herbert Hoover would be wise enough to gain from him all the help that he possibly can. Unless all signs fail, he will certainly need it in the days ahead. If he does not co-operate with Hoover now he may see the day when he will bitterly regret that he did not.

BEFORE THE COUNTER

One right after the other, three people came before The Record counter the other afternoon. All fine folks. But they presented a study in human nature—and in a study of that we never weary.

The first two were downhearted and discouraged and they had every reason to be that way. We were just in the mood to think we had a lot of trouble too and by the time they had gone we were sympathetically pretty well "gloomed up" ourself.

Then in came the third of the trio, a smiling woman. "Things going rather hard?" we suggested to her to get conversation going as we made out a subscription receipt. "Why, no," she replied, "I guess I'm getting along about as well as anyone could. I still have a job and I don't know why I should complain."

Well, when that caller left we had gotten out of the cellar of despondency into the clear sunshine of a new optimism. We thank our friend for getting us balanced up. Things are really never as bad as they seem—except when death comes.

GO TO BED

It may have looked foolish but we did it. At half past four in the afternoon we went to bed and stayed there for an hour and a half. Why? Well we didn't want to get tangled up with a good Michigan cold we felt was tagging right at our heels. And we have a theory that the way to beat a cold is to get some rest and sleep. Anyway our good friends, the doctors, say there is no better way to break up an oncoming cold than just to go to bed.

Another reason that we went to bed to sidetrack this cold was that we are frankly afraid of pneumonia. Just a few days ago we attended the funeral of a relative who was a victim of this disease. A splendid man he was, only 39 years of age, just in the prime of life, with two children, a wife and an aged father left to "carry on." That is what pneumonia does, if you give it half a chance. This unusually sad death made us realize even more than before, how little anything else means, if we don't have health and strength to combat disease.

We are now facing a long Michigan winter. Colds and coughs will take their toll as they always have done and pneumonia will get more victims as the winter wears along. One of the best ways to keep vigorous and healthy is to get plenty of sleep, have lots of fresh air in the home; and a contented mind and heart. But if you do get a cold and it "hangs on" don't delay in getting a doctor. He is your best friend then.

WANDERING THOUGHTS

Well, who'll be the new postmaster in 1934?

Here is the spirit that builds good towns! "I got an extra five dollars," said this Northville man to us, "and I went right out and spent every nickel of it in Northville stores, for Christmas presents."

It is reported that Senator James Couzens will resign on Jan. 1, 1933, due to ill health, and Governor Comstock will appoint Judge Arthur J. Lacy to this high place. Many Northville people who know Judge Lacy will be glad to hear that.

Someone reports to us that a certain Northville resident is very bitter at another person whom she hardly knows. We often wonder what satisfaction people get in spreading mean gossip. What fun, in the name of reason, does one get in talking unkindly about others? What will these "gossips" do some day when their cruel and unreasoning words come back to them as a boomerang?

"Your column is too personal," someone says to us. We know it. Yet there is no law compelling anyone to read it. A newspaper is just like a meal at the restaurant. Some like lots of brown gravy and others never eat pickles. But they all get a good meal. That's the way with this newspaper—it is built for all tastes. If you don't

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

A BLUNDERING AMENDMENT

(The Grand Press)

"Michigan's constitution apparently has been amended to limit property taxation to $15 per $1,000 valuation, exclusive of debts heretofore incurred. The spirit of tax revolt in the state's rural sections seems to have been stronger than the warnings of good judgment, with the result that this dangerous proposal, which at first appeared to have been snowed under by the city vote, now probably has been approved by a narrow margin."

"Before the election The Press condemned the proposition as a menace to the governmental structure of the state, as a threat to the schools and as an unworkable expedient for tax reduction. Our opinion has not changed. We still regard this amendment as a closed colossal blunder. Just how great a blunder only the future will tell. But this is a time for prompt action, not for tears."

"When the amendment first appeared to have been defeated The Press declared the vote in its favor was a clear mandate for tax reduction, and to that end it was recommended the new state administration immediately set up machinery for a thoroughgoing investigation of taxation, state, school and local. Passage of the amendment would make this all the more imperative."

"One of the greatest dangers of the tax limit is precipitate resort to other tax sources. This must be avoided. Immediate, but careful study of the whole question of taxation must be undertaken at once to work out solutions for the problems which this amendment has forced upon us."

"First of all, however, a thorough test of the constitutionality of this act should be instituted. No time should be lost in obtaining supreme court interpretation of it. We must determine at once whether the ambiguous wording of the proposition actually exempts cities with charter limitations. We must determine its effect on the primary school fund. We must discover whether it will be possible for any district to increase its limit to meet emergencies and if so whether by two-thirds vote of all electors—an almost impossible requirement—or by two-thirds of those voting. We must have an interpretation of the meaning of the various terms in the amendment, used loosely and open to a variety of constructions."

"We have, in brief, been delivered into a chaotic uncertainty concerning every matter of taxation in the state. The tremendous task of finding our way out of this slough must be taken up without delay if we are to preserve our institutions and our governmental structure."

"This is not crying calamity. It is merely facing the facts. And we still have faith that a way out can and will be discovered. The problem is to find the solutions with the least disruption and suffering possible."

like this column read "Every Monday Morning" or "This Week."

"Ad" Schwenger's old U. of M. roommate, Harry Newman, is the most talked of figure in Michigan except Hoover and Roosevelt. And he's going to be "All-American" unless the dope is all upset. And is the whole record gang tickled because their good friend Harry is getting so famous? Every last one of them. And personally, we are going to brag some day that we played our first game of golf with Harry (and "Ad").

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

What was the happiest day of your life?

WHAT WOULD T. R. HAVE DONE?

(Malcolm Bingay in Detroit Free Press)

Roosevelt's attitude in response to President Hoover's appeal for a united front was not even smart politics.

If Mr. Roosevelt is accurately reported by the United Press in saying, when he left the White House, "That's not my baby," that remark will remain historically a thing to be regretted. It sounds more like a William Randolph Hearst than it does an incoming President. It is everybody's "baby." It is America.

THE BEER RACKETEER

(W. H. Berkeley in The Cassopolis Journal)

In the past week we have read many slants upon the new liquor control amendment and what its results may be. One prominent man, in a published interview, went so far as to say that on Nov. 8 America voted out the beer runner and racketeer.

We wonder if it and if Congress shall let down the bars to beer, and individuals set up other bars for the sale of beer, our judgment is that this is not going to solve the racketeer problem. Our guess is that the professional racketeer will just have an enlarged market in which he will continue to sell HIS beer, not in competition with other brewers but by the same type of force which he now employs according to the stories published by our metropolitan press; and we also believe that the sale of beer, even up to four per cent alcohol or more, will not satisfy the demand for liquor with a real "kick" in it and that bootlegging of hard liquor will continue, with beer joints as a cover.

Obituary

MILFORD BAKER

Milford Baker, well-known citizen of Northville for many years, passed away at his home on Dunlap street, Wednesday morning, November 30, after a gradual decline in health throughout a period of two years. The death of his wife, in March, 1930, his companion of over fifty-one years seemed to remove the great mainstay of his life.

Milford Baker, son of Horace and Anna Baker, was born in Morenci on November 9, 1882. His boyhood and early youth were spent on his father's farm where he learned the habit of industry which marked his long life.

On November 4, 1899, he was united in marriage to Miss Anna Hornbeck and to this union was born one son, Ray H., who has proved to be the comfort of his father's old age.

From Morenci Milford Baker and his family moved to Prattville and later on March 17, 1908, to Northville, where he owned and operated a large dairy farm of 180 acres which has since become a part of the Wayne County Training school property. His home was maintained in the village and Mr. Baker drove daily to and from his farm, working untiringly.

Devoted to his home in a more than ordinary degree, Mr. Baker lived a retired life never choosing to take active part in political or fraternal life. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and in his own quiet way did his duty to home and community.

To his neighbors and friends he was always kindly and cordial. All who knew him respected his temperate and thoroughly clean life. In later years he has been content to remain at home where he has read much. His mind remained bright until the last.

One of the red-letter days of his life was November 4, 1929, when he and his wife happily celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Another anniversary, his 80th birthday, he enjoyed only a few weeks before his call to the Great Beyond.

After the death of his wife, his son Ray and his wife came to make their home with him and minister to him faithfully. Both of these and two sisters and one brother, Mrs. Addie Neal and Mrs. Chattie Treusdale, of Lake Orion, and Eugene Baker of Huntington, Ind., survive of his immediate family. Brothers, wife, Mrs. G. G. Baker, and her son, Don, and daughter, Mrs. Lena Daggett, are the other surviving relatives in this village.

The funeral service in charge of Rev. H. G. Whitfield, will be held this afternoon (Friday) at the home with interment in Grand Oakland Memorial cemetery.

STRETCHING DOLLARS The problem of making a dollar go farther is more important than ever this year. People are looking beyond mere cheapness and searching for real dollar values. This is not only necessary, it is praiseworthy. It is a cultivating thrift, which is a desirable characteristic in a citizen, a community, and in a nation.

One aspect of the question is sometimes overlooked. That is, that we should not only buy wisely but where it will do the most good. Nobody doubts that it is good for the citizen to purchase at home. Patronage of local stores is economically sound.

Assuming basic values to be the same, there is no sense in going elsewhere to shop and in sending away for things that you can obtain just as cheaply from local merchants. Yet many people do it, probably by habit but more often through thoughtlessness.

Now that the holiday season is approaching, we may all expect to receive unsolicited boxes of greeting cards, neckties, stockings, and so forth, from some institution or individual which we may keep rather than go to the trouble of wrapping and returning. Money spent in these ways does not help local business at all. It does not in any way benefit our community.

On the other hand, local storekeepers can with this same money make donations to charity, hire extra help, improve their stocks and premises, and help raise the standard of our business sections. If the money is kept at home it benefits us and our community.

This year, of all years, is the time to make the dollar go farther. We can be assured of this if we spend it with our own stores in our own local neighborhood.

SCHOOL BOY FALLS AT SKI-JUMP HILL While sliding on the steep-hill known to Northville youngsters as the "Ski-Jump," young Bob Hunter, son of Mrs. Hunter of South Wing street, fell and suffered a fractured knee cap. The injured member has been placed in a brace and he will be out of school for a few weeks.

THE MESSIAH WILL BE GIVEN DEC. 11th AT HILL AUDITORIUM

ALL music lovers will be glad to be reminded that "The Messiah" will be given at Hill auditorium, Ann Arbor, on the afternoon of Dec. 11. This is one of the finest ways to catch the real Christmas spirit. This rendition is free to the public and is so well attended that if one hopes to get a seat he had better be on time, or better, at least one-half hour early. The hour for beginning is 4:15.

The selections from this magnificent oratorio will be those best loved and the program will last one hour, ending with the glorious "Hallelujah Chorus."

LOCAL NEWS Miss Anna Wilkinson, Yerkes ave., has received word that her sister Mrs. Frank Wade, of Detroit had suffered a fractured arm.

Were given last week to all of the pupils in the grades from the third to eighth, inclusive. The teachers have not finished scoring the tests as it is quite a task, but it is expected that the results will be known in the near future. The tests are standardized and when the scores are known and analyzed the teachers will have some idea of how the work of the pupils compares to that done in other schools. Also the teachers will know exactly what the deficiencies of the individual pupils are and thus will know what remedial work to give each pupil in an effort to raise the standard of achievement.

VERSES WRITTEN BY MRS. DAISY CARD GO OVER THE AIR

The "Bluebirds" were holding forth on WWJ one morning last week as village housewives were clearing their breakfast tables and listening with only half an ear to the radio when the name "Northville" caught their attention. The announcer was saying "This poem comes from Mrs. Daisy Card of Northville," and when he had read to this broadcasting audience "Just Smile," all of his companions at the station said: "Well, how isn't that nice?"

Northville is proud of the writer of this poem, who is the mother of twelve living children, five of whom are children at home. Bereft of her husband less than two years ago, this brave widow is "carrying on" in the support of her children alone with only the aid of a mother's pension. Times have been far from easy for her, but with unflinching courage she is living the ideal which she expresses in these verses which we are glad to pass on to our readers.

If the weather doesn't suit you, Just Smile, If some one should dispute you, Just Smile, If some angry words are spoken, Do not think a friendship broken, Just Smile, If bad luck seems to hit you, Just Smile, And lots of trouble gets you Just Smile, If we look, we're sure of finding That dark clouds have silver lining, So Just Smile, (Cont in next column)

Bereft of her husband less than two years ago, this brave widow is "carrying on" in the support of her children alone with only the aid of a mother's pension. Times have been far from easy for her, but with unflinching courage she is living the ideal which she expresses in these verses which we are glad to pass on to our readers.

If the weather doesn't suit you, Just Smile, If some one should dispute you, Just Smile, If some angry words are spoken, Do not think a friendship broken, Just Smile, If bad luck seems to hit you, Just Smile, And lots of trouble gets you Just Smile, If we look, we're sure of finding That dark clouds have silver lining, So Just Smile, (Cont in next column)

THE MESSIAH WILL BE GIVEN DEC. 11th AT HILL AUDITORIUM

ALL music lovers will be glad to be reminded that "The Messiah" will be given at Hill auditorium, Ann Arbor, on the afternoon of Dec. 11. This is one of the finest ways to catch the real Christmas spirit. This rendition is free to the public and is so well attended that if one hopes to get a seat he had better be on time, or better, at least one-half hour early. The hour for beginning is 4:15.

The selections from this magnificent oratorio will be those best loved and the program will last one hour, ending with the glorious "Hallelujah Chorus."

LOCAL NEWS Miss Anna Wilkinson, Yerkes ave., has received word that her sister Mrs. Frank Wade, of Detroit had suffered a fractured arm.

Were given last week to all of the pupils in the grades from the third to eighth, inclusive. The teachers have not finished scoring the tests as it is quite a task, but it is expected that the results will be known in the near future. The tests are standardized and when the scores are known and analyzed the teachers will have some idea of how the work of the pupils compares to that done in other schools. Also the teachers will know exactly what the deficiencies of the individual pupils are and thus will know what remedial work to give each pupil in an effort to raise the standard of achievement.

VERSES WRITTEN BY MRS. DAISY CARD GO OVER THE AIR

The "Bluebirds" were holding forth on WWJ one morning last week as village housewives were clearing their breakfast tables and listening with only half an ear to the radio when the name "Northville" caught their attention. The announcer was saying "This poem comes from Mrs. Daisy Card of Northville," and when he had read to this broadcasting audience "Just Smile," all of his companions at the station said: "Well, how isn't that nice?"

Northville is proud of the writer of this poem, who is the mother of twelve living children, five of whom are children at home. Bereft of her husband less than two years ago, this brave widow is "carrying on" in the support of her children alone with only the aid of a mother's pension. Times have been far from easy for her, but with unflinching courage she is living the ideal which she expresses in these verses which we are glad to pass on to our readers.

J. M. Hall brought into the Record office and left on display a curiosity in plant life. Those who have seen the yucca plants of the Rocky mountain region think it must be a dwarf specimen of these. NO ALIBI

(W. S. Kennedy in the Albion Evening Record)

Our good friend, Prof. Samuel Harrison, of Albion college, penned us good and hard in a letter published on this page last week, for running a news picture of a New York girl drinking something out of a mammoth glass. She was drinking to the return of beer.

Mr. Harrison was right. The picture shouldn't have appeared in a family newspaper. It had no merit of any kind, and it probably offended many of our readers. How it got in is just one of those things that happen sometimes, in spite of the vigilance maintained in every newspaper office. We doubt if any daily newspaper has escaped, at some time or another, letting something slip through that was contrary to the policy of the paper.

There are some very famous instances known to all publishers, of a type that brings nightmares to editors. There was the cover picture in color of a nationally read magazine which when reversed made a picture of an entirely different nature. There was the doctored photograph of a famous syndicated comic strip into a suggestive picture that ran in a number of metropolitan newspapers.

There are instances galore in newspapers that maintain a trained and expensive corps of copy readers down to those whose copy reader is also editor and reporter. Only last week an Indiana daily newspaper ran a full column story so suggestive a police reporter would blush to read it.

SHERIFF'S RAID PIGS

Representatives from the Wayne County Sheriff's office paid Northville and vicinity a visit Monday night and raided a number of blind pigs. The Union evening service will be at this church this week.

Church of Our Father of Victory

Catholic visitors to Northville and strangers repeatedly ask for information regarding our church schedule. The Masses on Sunday are at 8 and 10 o'clock. Confessions are heard on Saturday of each week at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Catechism instructions are given each Saturday morning at 9:30.

The doctrine of the Immaculate Conception refers to Mary's birth, not Christ's. Next week Thursday, December 8, is dedicated to that doctrine. It is a Catholic holy day. The local Masses will be held at 8 and 9 a. m.

Non-Catholic church bodies are discovering that there is no satisfaction but rather ominous warning to be had from the church persecution in Mexico and Spain. The corpus of Communism must drive all opposition before it. It hates religion. In the above countries it finds the Catholic church its greatest obstacle. After that all other religions must also go. The attack in Catholic countries is open because of its appeal to prejudicial minds which, thrown off guard, can become easier victims later. The Catholic church is not asking to be rescued. She seeks co-operation for mutual self-preservation in the future.

SHIRLEY GREY IS CHARMING HEROINE

Has Made Some Important Pictures—Debut Was With Richard Dix

Shirley Grey, the heroine of Tim McCoy's latest Columbia release, "Cornered," a two-acted western, will be at the Penniman-Allyn theatre, Saturday, December 3, is relatively a newcomer to the screen, but has made some important pictures since she made her screen debut with Richard Dix in "The Public Defender." She also played opposite Dix in "Secret Service" and had a prominent role in Universal's "Back Street."

When George M. Cohan revived his famous play, "The Tavern," on Broadway about a year ago, Miss Grey was his leading lady. She also appeared in "The Well-Known Woman," and played opposite Otto Kruger in "Easy Come, Easy Go." She was starring in "stock" in California when Sam Goldwyn signed her for pictures. She thinks that stock company experience is valuable to young players, but advises against more than a year of it, at most.

Shirley Grey, christened Agnes Zetterstrand, is a real Yankee, of Swedish descent having been born in Nantucket, Connecticut on April 3. Her father was a Lutheran minister, who preached against the theatre but, strangely enough, inspired his daughter to be an actress. Since early childhood Shirley wanted to be an actress and her wish has been gratified.

First Presbyterian Church

Harold G. Whitfield, Minister
The service of public worship will be held in the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning, Dec. 4, at 10:30. Immediately preceding the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, a reception service in which new members will be received and welcomed will take place. Let us exhort one another to attend this important service.

The evening Union Service will be held in the Baptist church at 7:30. These services are proving very valuable and the increasing interest and attendance is very encouraging. The church school will meet at 12:00 noon on Sunday, Dec. 4. Please note the change of hour.

Attention is drawn to the meeting on Stewardship to be held in Auditorium Wednesday evening, Dec. 7. Reservations for dinner must be made not later than Friday, Dec. 6. Kindly advise your minister on Sunday if you are contemplating to attend this important meeting. Transportation will be arranged.

The regular meeting of the Nelie Yerkes Auxiliary will be held at the home of Mrs. Thekla Scholtz with Mrs. Irma Ulrich, assisting hostess, on Tuesday evening, Dec. 6 at 7:45 sharp. The program will consist of a series of talks presented by the following members: Mrs. D. P. Yerkes, Sr., Mrs. Louise Steele, Mrs. Florence McCuskie, Mrs. Lynn Lee, and Mrs. Flora Brennan. The subject is "Christmas in Other Lands."

Kindly give your serious attention to the study groups held Monday evening in this church. The classes are not as well attended as they should be. Plan to come Monday evening, Dec. 5, at 7:30.

Methodist Church

Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock public worship. Communion service, reception of members, and brief sermon by the pastor.

The Sunday school is at 12 o'clock noon. At 6:30 on Sunday is the young people's devotional and study hour. Frances Cousins is the leader.

In the evening at 7:30 the United Service is at the Baptist church. These services are being well attended, and the stranger and non-church folks are cordially invited. Monday evening at 7:30 the training classes at the Presbyterian church.

Tuesday evenings at 7:30 the men are playing Volley Ball in the church house.

Yet we must give the children leave to use. Our garden tools though they spoil fool and plant in learning. So the Master may not scorn. Our awkwardness, as with these bungling hands we try to uproot the ill, and plant a word of life's barren soil, the child is learning use. Perhaps the angels even are forbid to laugh at us; or may not care to laugh. With kind eyes crying our little hurts.

BIG CROWD ENJOYS WESTERN MOVIE AT PENNIMAN-ALLEN

It was an unusual show at the Penniman-Allyn theatre Wednesday night under the auspices of local merchants when the western talkie, "White Eagle" was shown. With Buck Jones and Barbara Weeks heading the cast the audience witnessed the first big talking epic of the west of other days when the Indians held sway and dominion. A large crowd of boys and girls at both shows were very enthusiastic in their expressions of amusement and delight if one was to judge by their lusty yells. The older ones of the theatre crowd seemed to be equally well pleased with the scenes, wild riding, and excitement which was rampant in this talkie of the former days when the Indian was supreme in the old west. Saturday night Charles Bickford will be seen in "Vanity Street."

LINCOLN HIGH IS ADDED TO THE LEAGUE

Action Is Taken at Meeting of Suburban Officials Here Monday

Meeting Monday night in the Northville high school, the Suburban Athletic League transacted much important business and elected their officers for the following year. The following schools were represented by their principals and coaches: Northville, Farmington, Melvindale, Trenton, Berkley, and Lincoln.

Trophies were awarded for track, golf, and baseball. Northville was the receiver of two trophies, one for track and one for golf. The baseball trophy was presented to Farmington. A committee composed of Mr. Anderson of Berkley and Mr. Ruggles was appointed to select the trophies for next year.

The league was formally organized of five schools but a sixth was added at the meeting—Lincoln high school of Van Dyke. Lincoln high school will compete in all of the spring athletics and in a few football games this season. The football schedule was also partially drawn up for next year.

Election of officers was again held for the ensuing year. The result was as follows: Mr. Peter of Trenton, President; Mr. Ruggles of Northville, Vice-President; Mr. Amerman of Northville, Secretary and Treasurer.

The next meeting of the Suburban League will be in February at Melvindale. Incidentally there will be a dinner for superintendents principals, and coaches attending.

The Junior high assembly of the first of the year elected class officers for the eighth grade. The following were nominated: For President, George Westphal; Vice-President, Elmer Johnson. For Secretary, Eva Mae Brade; Treasurer, Eva Mae Brade.

Every two weeks on Wednesday programs are enacted for the entertainment of the Junior high assembly.

For Christmas the Junior high has undertaken the planning of a Christmas program for the benefit of the Senior high.

A T M B club has been organized among a group of eighth graders. The members are Lawrence Parmer, Betty Haystead, Helen Johnson, Robert Bray, Lane Grosvenor, Scott Cole, Ruth Campbell and Harry Richardson.

FRESHMAN CLASS MEETS WEDNESDAY AND MAKES PLANS

The Freshman met in a class meeting Wednesday, Nov. 16. The class decided to have a candy sale. The candy will be sold in both the grades and high school buildings though a definite date has not been set.

Maryanna Condit suggested that all the Freshmen would cut out and save up save buzzes that are seen in various papers, and when enough are saved, the Freshmen will give them to poor children's homes or hospitals.

Bob Angove, treasurer of the Freshman class, gave a report on how much the class made at the bake sale, held Saturday, Nov. 19. They made nine dollars and sixty-seven cents.

ORANGE AND BLACK TO HAVE "INQUIRING REPORTER" COLUMN

The Orange and Black is starting this week the first of a series of articles to be contained under the column entitled "The Inquiring Reporter." This column each week will ask some question; it may be entirely concerned with the school; it may be about the town or community in general; and again it may be some question of national or world-wide importance. The answers of four people will be given along with the question, three high school students and one faculty member. It is believed that by this means a cross section of the school's opinions and impressions will be obtained.

The first question to be asked is: "What is your impression of the Orange and Black?"

Mrs. Elizabeth Chapman, Wilma Rattenbury, John Steencken, and Harold McCordie, have been interviewed and their answers are given below.

Mrs. Chapman: "The Orange and Black is very good this year. It has shown much improvement over previous years. It also shows originality. I believe, however, that greater accuracy can be obtained in connection with remarks printed as quotations from unsuspecting victims in student body or faculty."

Wilma Rattenbury: "I believe that there should be more humor, and also that in editorials and features, no flaming should be done against pupils and organizations of the school."

John Steencken: "The Orange and Black is a very good publication. I believe that greater accuracy can be obtained in the accounts of the school news."

Harold McCordie: "The Orange and Black is a material product of the Northville high school work. The sports writers are due much credit."

GIVE AND GET

December the second Another dance tonight. We want to go, we would like to buy a ticket, but why don't we? Let's see.

We are by no means a stranger here but we have observed that if we were obliged to go to the dance alone—that we stand no chance of going anything but sitting around local and unique custom for the same two or three people to dance with the same partners all evening long. The stage around the door makes little effort to dance and pay no attention to those seated. We dance once, and watch a lot. We go home in an hour or two. We doubt if we will go again. It seems absurd to us that people who know one another, should stand on such ceremony at an informal affair.

In two weeks we will be asked to buy another ticket. The ticket costs little, but is not so cheap that we feel like buying one just for the sake of buying something we can't afford to buy the privilege of sitting around in another place outside of our home unless we get something in return. When we buy dance tickets we go with the expectation of dancing no matter whether we are escorted or not. For half the price we can go to a theatre, and can stay at home for even less.

It takes so much effort to get a crowd together and yet the attitude seems to be "If you don't have a good time it isn't our fault." It is your fault. We are there to dance, and if we are not asked to dance, how are we to enjoy ourselves? If these dances are to be paying propositions, it behooves those who put them on to see that the outsiders get all the dances they want. By this means, more people will be induced to patronize and bring their friends.

PALLADIUM STAFF GETS UNDER WAY

The newly appointed Palladium staff, which held their first meeting last week, met again during the past week. Various plans for selling and publishing the annual were discussed.

It is expected, members of the staff said, that they would meet shortly with Record editor and also with the Camp Publishing Company's representative. The Camp Co. is taking the pictures for the annual as well as the senior photographs.

The staff urged that all students should be on the lookout for new ideas and suggestions which would tend to improve the annual.

During the course of the evening, the Coach informally explained the new spring football class which he will conduct next semester.

The football letters, Coach Ruggles said Tuesday, will be given out as soon as they arrive in the mail.

The entire group of lettermen present, 19 in all, are as follows: McCordie, Kerr, Bender, Shipley,

Coach and Eleven Seniors Speak; 19 Men Awarded Letters

Last Tuesday night, the football team elected Nelson C. Schrader, Jr., as the captain for the 1933 season. The election took place at the Bray home on the Base Line road where the team was entertained by a splendid banquet given by several of the team members' mothers.

After the fine chicken dinner, the team adjourned into another room, where the election was held. The meeting was conducted by Captain Harold McCordie, the retiring head of the squad, who called upon captain-elect Schrader for a few words.

Speaking briefly Junior thanked the team members for the honor bestowed upon him, expressed his regrets that the seniors would not be with the team next year, and hoped for a successful season.

Captain McCordie then spoke to the team. He thanked them for their co-operation during the season and congratulated them on the fight and spirit that they showed. "I am sorry to leave the team," he said, "and wish the best of luck to the newly elected captain."

Captain McCordie then spoke to the team. He thanked them for their co-operation during the season and congratulated them on the fight and spirit that they showed. "I am sorry to leave the team," he said, "and wish the best of luck to the newly elected captain."

Following this, the captain called upon the ten other seniors who have finished their last season on the team. These seniors men arose and made brief, appropriate remarks, regretting to leave the team, congratulating their team members on their fine spirit and friendship, and wishing the new captain better luck than they themselves had experienced.

There are in all eleven letter men who graduate this year and they will be sorely missed by the team next year. It is a bit unusual for so many players to graduate at once and it will considerably effect Northville's grid chances next season.

The graduating seniors are as follows: In the backfield, McCordie, Shipley, Kerr, and Campbell; in the line, Steencken, center; Reed and Neal, guards; Kohler and Matthews, tackles; Vradenburg and Ware, ends.

These men who have played their last year on the Northville football squad have been interviewed and have made statements containing their feeling at leaving the team.

Captain Harold McCordie: "It was a great privilege to have been captain of the 1932 football squad. I wish the best of luck to the team next year."

Albert Vradenburg: "I am proud to have played on the team this year."

Kenneth Kerr: "I am glad the season is over. I hope Nelson has better luck than we did in every way."

John Steencken: "I hope the team misses me as much as I will miss the team."

Robert Reed: "Football is a great sport. I am sorry not to be able to play next year."

Richard Shipley: "I am sorry that this is my last year and that I did not come out for football sooner than I did."

Leo Kohler: "I have enjoyed playing on the Northville eleven."

Warner Neal: "I greatly enjoyed playing on the football squad. I wish I could still be with the coach and team after graduating."

Louis Campbell: "My high school football career has afforded me great pleasure. I wish I might be back next year."

Irvin Ware: "Although I only played two games this year, I greatly enjoyed being a member of the Northville football team. I am only sorry that this is my last year."

Lynn Matthews: "I greatly enjoyed the many experiences on the Northville football team."

Coach Addresses Team

Then Coach Harold L. Ruggles also addressed the group. He said that he appreciated the team's loyalty and praised their fighting Northville spirit. He told how he would miss the seniors who would not be back next year but that he and the remaining team members would carry on. He congratulated the new captain and closed by again thanking and expressing his appreciation for devotion, confidence and loyalty that the team showed him and the school during the past football season.

During the course of the evening, the Coach informally explained the new spring football class which he will conduct next semester.

The football letters, Coach Ruggles said Tuesday, will be given out as soon as they arrive in the mail.

D. A. R. SPONSORS CONTEST IN U. S. HISTORY CLASSES

A contest, sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution is attracting considerable attention around Mrs. Cobb's U. S. History classes. Members of the Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter from Plymouth spoke before one of the classes last week, outlining the program and requirements. It is expected a large number of students will compete.

The contest, in which students entering must write an essay on certain phases of history, includes both the seventh and eighth grade history classes and begins now, ending May 14. It is open only to students who maintain a B average throughout the first semester.

As the contest ends officially in May, the biographies and outlines, which are a large part of the essays, must be handed in April 1 and 15 respectively. The essays are to be judged on historical material, 50 percent; orality, 25 percent; composition and neatness, 25 percent. There must be more than two essays submitted from each group before they will be judged.

The essays to be judged neither by D. A. R. members nor teachers, are to be on one of the following subjects: The Development of Political Parties; The Struggle for the United States; The Discovery and Exploration of Michigan; Franklin the Cosmopolitan American.

Both Mrs. Cobb and D. A. R. officials urge every eligible student to compete, and stated their belief that many would try to win one of the prizes that are being awarded. The prizes are in the seventh grade, first, five dollars, second, two dollars and a half. In the eighth grade they are first, three dollars, and second, two dollars.

There has been a slight change this week in the prices of admittance. If the tickets are bought before the dance they may be purchased for 30c while if purchased at the gate they will cost 30c. Thus it will be wise to purchase tickets before the dance. Tickets have been given out to all of the Seniors and they may be purchased from them anytime before the dance.

The chapters for the dance this evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Orlow G. Owen and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Chapman, and Paul B. Thompson.

The Christmas card campaign is going along smoothly under the management of Leo Kohler, vice-president. The committee has been canvassing the town nights after school. Although a little late in starting it is expected that the enterprise will end a success.

Play to be Given

The committee which has been working on a play to be presented in the near future, is making rapid progress. They have had the difficulty of picking a play which would be suitable for presentation by the Seniors. The choice has been narrowed down to two plays. It is expected that the result of the committee's work with the aid of Sum Knapp, will be made known shortly. Mrs. Elizabeth Wright, formerly of the faculty last year, graciously consented to coach the seniors for the presentation of their play. No dates have yet been formulated for the play.

Bake Sale Postponed

The Seniors have definitely decided to have a bake sale. The sale was originally scheduled for December 10th, Saturday, but due to an unforeseen conflict the date will have to be postponed to an indefinite date.

The Seniors are sponsoring many many projects which are constantly in activity. All of the seniors are working hard toward their goal. Every class member appears to be impressed with the fact that if the class is to progress, each senior must not stop with doing his part alone, but must do even more.

BOOK AND STUDY CLUB

Several men of Northville and vicinity have expressed the desire of forming a Book and Study club for the express purpose of discussing and exchanging views concerning politics, religion, economics, education and other kindred subjects, in a broad and liberal manner.

This is to be an informal affair, possibly along round table lines. There is no age limit, or any special barrier.

Anyone with ideas and the ability to express them are invited to join this group.

For further information anyone who is interested may phone H. H. White of the Record office for particulars.

SENIORS HOLD DANCE AGAIN THIS EVENING

Door Price 30c; Class Very Busy With Wide Field Of Activities

The fourth Senior Dance will be held tonight beginning at 8 p. m. in the high school gymnasium. The Seniors have put much work into this dance and it is expected to be a huge success. As usual the gymnasium will be decorated in a pleasing manner and Patterson's orchestra will render the usual delightful music for which it is noted.

The advertising for the dance has been successfully put out by the publicity committee of the dance, which was aided by Mrs. Chapman and her high school art class. The posters advertising the dance were placed in the business places of Northville merchants and in Plymouth, Farmington, Novi, Walled Lake, and West Point Park.

The check room committee has also been doing extra work for the dance this evening. With the aid of Mr. Thompson and his manual training classes, a door is being made to fit in the cloak room which may be closed at the bottom and opened at the top, thus permitting coats and hats to be passed out without allowing anyone to enter. This is expected to prevent anyone from entering the cloak room in the rush after the dance.

PRESENT ASSEMBLY PROGRAM ON THEME OF THANKSGIVING

The day before Thanksgiving a program was given before the assembly which was the second in a series of presentations to be given by the various members of the school. Wilma Rattenbury was in charge of the program.

Father Schuler spoke on a subject appropriate for the occasion, one thing that we should be thankful for, our reputations.

Merle Fraser, accompanied by Eunice Cousins, sang several songs. The first "Big Bass Viol" and "Asleep in the Deep."

Warner Neal then gave a talk on Thanksgiving and what it meant.

In concluding the program Mr. Amerman asked the students to take inventory on Thanksgiving Day and see what they have to be thankful for.

A committee has been appointed for the purpose of preparing assembly programs for occasions demanding them. The committee is made up of students of the high school.

By the time you read this U of M officials will definitely know whether the football team will journey west to meet Southern California in the annual Rose Bowl game. "California, Here We Come!"

We were privileged to get a glance at Harry's fan mail and we'll cite two extremes.

A girl gushed for a page and a half asking for the autographs of the entire Michigan football team. She got the names of the football players alright but they were signed by the first 23 fellows that happened to come to Harry's room.

The other letter that attracted comment much more favorable by the way, was from a sturdy youngster named Edwin Alldinger of New York who sent Harry his own picture, a dollar saved from his allowance, and a request for Harry's picture to hang under his Michigan pennant on the wall of my room.

Needless to say, his dollar went flying back to him along with Harry's autographed photo.

In the face of all that's been written and said about him we'll forever say long paen of praise. He's a "scout fellow" and this shaft of print is strong for him as you've doubtless been able to guess.

And now that that's over, Mrs. Newman, what an idea of calling for a pass which was intercepted on the second down with only a yard to go on Chicago's 20 yard stripe. Don't let it ever happen again or we'll be forced to take drastic measures. (Power of the Press speaking.)

Coach Harry Kapke's habit of saying "Dya get me?" got him in trouble the other night at a back-room bawquie.

He was telling the horny-handed, sunburned farmers about Michigan's million dollar team. He told them about how their tax money went for expensive football equipment to protect the players, for trainers for field houses, lockers, etc. how it took nearly a million dollars to work up eventually to a championship and how Michigan taxpayers were helping.

In the midst of his speech he punctuated an expensive sentence with the familiar query, "Dya get me?"

An old farmer in the back of the hall rose up, shook his fist and shouted, "No, but by heaven we will when you go out!"

The regular sale of 1933 plates to all owners of automobiles, trucks and trailers starts Dec. 1. The 1933 plates will have black block numerals on a white background and all plates next year will have numbers lower than 100,000.

THIS WEEK

By H. H. WHITE

In the rotogravure section of one of the Detroit newspapers last Sunday there was a most interesting and significant picture, namely, the one depicting "Russia Celebrates Founding of Soviet Union." In the photograph one saw 50,000 troops lined up in Red Square, Moscow, before Lenin's Tomb, just after Joseph Stalin, dictator, with other high officials had reviewed a parade said to be composed of over a million men, made up of sailors, soldiers and peasant workers.

My mind went back to the time I knew Lenin and Trotsky in New York just after the war when they, with others, one being myself, used to gather at an evening in one of the Ghetto restaurants, on the lower East side, and exchange views concerning politics, religion and government, to say nothing of socialism, and the evils of the capitalist regime.

Little did I realize as I talked with those men that they would be the instigators and founders of a government in Moscow that would tend to revolutionize all Russia and have its influence felt all over the world and thus this passage quoted below from the Third International report is all the more significant which completely lets the cat out of the bag, so to speak.

"If the proletarian of the world is marching resolutely towards stormy events, toward great class struggles, stepping into a second round of revolutions and wars, retaining its readiness for these conflicts."

"If all this is true, this is the historic merit of Comrade Stalin under his leadership, under the banner of the Comintern (Third International), the working classes of the whole world will rush into a victorious struggle for the abolition of capitalism and the organization of proletarian dictatorship. Long live the world proletarian revolution! Long live its leader, Comrade Stalin."

Here is an alarming and disarming confession not to say, conclusive. Naturally I am not in accord with any organization that is out to overthrow our present social order, no matter how fallible existing conditions may be economically, or insecure, as they may be, or capitalistically controlled, in our world-order of things. Rather, I am a builder and an evolutionist and therefore believe in constructive progress and using the knowledge gained in the past to construct our social system and order of the future.

But in this report there is a challenge, to the capitalist system of the Western World, whether we realize it or like to acknowledge such. Here the Communist is really serving notice, and no matter how stable, secure or protected the present capitalist system is now there lies in the future the great danger of insecurity, an upheaval of all organized industry and a plan to break down and overthrow the governments and institutions of the Western world.

But as alarming as all of this may sound, there is the satisfaction that possibly Soviet policies may push Russian Communism into the background little by little and the Communist may become the most conservative radical in the world. Time may temperize things, considerably, and the Communists of other lands will annihilate the Russian socialist as violently as he now annihilates the non-Communist socialist. Time is a great leveller. The torchlight of time, circumstance, and experience will greatly temperize all radical changes and movements. All things are possible where the time element is involved.

Gain Physical Vigor—Youthfulness With Clear Skin and Vivacious Eyes That Sparkle With Glorious Health

Here's the recipe that banishes fat and brings into blossom all the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses.

Every morning take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast—cut down on pastry and fatty meats—go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar—in 4 weeks get on the scales and note how many pounds of fat have vanished.

Get a bottle of Kruschen Salts—the cost is trifling and it lasts four weeks. If even this first bottle doesn't convince you this is the easiest, safest and surest way to lose fat—if you don't feel a superb improvement in health—so gloriously energetic—vigorously alive—your money gladly returned.

But be sure for your health's sake that you ask for and get Kruschen Salts. Get them at C. R. Horton's drug store or any drug store in the world.

THE THOMPSONS WRITE BACK HOME

The many friends of the Thompson family, recently of Novi, will be glad to read a letter from them from a "strange land."

Reading, Mich.

With the coming of the morning mail including the Record—just as promptly as when we were only four miles from the office—I am reminded of your request and my promise to write to you and my many friends in Novi and Northville.

"The excitement and strain of moving being in the past, we are along with our belongings, getting adjusted to our places and falling naturally into a home-like atmosphere again.

Fortunately my one predominant household anxiety, vanished the first evening when we learned our very near neighbor was the town's electrician and he informed us at once that we could use our Electroflex anywhere for the company installed their free of charge, and he proceeded immediately to turn on the electricity.

"Again we were fortunate in having with us for a week a carpenter and seamstress in the persons of a nephew and his wife, who transformed the old-fashioned wood box into a cupboard and made short curtains long and long ones short."

"It is with sincere gratitude we feel we have an unusual reason for thankfulness in the recovery of our daughter from her long illness and the kindness of friends who made the long months less strenuous by their thoughtfulness."

"For all changing places of residence has its drawbacks it has its compensations as well. We might think of it as a new page in the book of life, beginning over again, with a zest for a new task, an unoccupied field of endeavor, before a chance to use all one's experiences of the past, to find new friendships and learn from them, also opportunity to demonstrate that service and not monetary gain are the real tests of character."

The enduring friendships that are made, then left, make a tug at the heartstrings but time and space are almost annihilated in our rapid pace. When we consider the possibility of sitting by ones own fire-side and listening to a friend over the air or hearing their voice over the wire, the string of separation is not comparable with that of our forefathers.

"In the moving and settling process we handle with infinite tenderness the loving gift of a dear friend in the distant past who would give us a little of her own work to remember her by; the vases, guest towels, doilies and pictures each as they are put in their place are reminders of a friend somewhere who loved and cared."

This reminiscent mood brings to my mind a poem of Madeline Bridges of which I will give a few lines in closing.

"There are loyal hearts there are spirits brave
There are souls that are pure and true,
Then give to the world the best that you have,
And the best will come back to you."

Give love and love to your heart will flow,
A strength in your utmost need
Have faith and a score of hearts will show
Their faith in your word and deed

With best wishes to all our friends, old and young"

Mrs. R. O. Thompson.
