

S. W. AMBLER SELLS PLANT TO CHAMBERS

Well Known Manufacturer of Detroit Takes Over Foundry

The Ambler Furnace and Foundry company, on East Cady street, has been sold by S. W. Ambler, proprietor for the past five years, to Henry Chambers, prominent Detroit manufacturer. Negotiations were completed a week ago, it was announced Tuesday by Mr. Ambler, and the new name of the concern will be "Independent Furnace Foundry Works."

The plant will be under the active supervision of Mr. Ambler and at present is engaged in the manufacture of castings and furnaces which will be stored awaiting a favorable market. Working six days a week twelve men are now employed at the works.

First organized in 1899 as The American Bell Foundry company, by E. S. Harmon, Charles Filkins and others soon after the disastrous fire of the Globe Furniture company, the company was one of the largest and most successful ever located here. In 1923 the stockholders were advised to sell their holdings.

Following a series of short time managers and losses, the company was sold in 1928 to Mr. Ambler under whose ownership it has continued until the present time.

Manufacturers of bells of all kinds sent to all parts of the world, the foundry has had a strange and interesting history and was at one time nationally known.

For the past three years, states Mr. Ambler, the plant has been "in the red" despite tremendous efforts to find a market for the furnaces and castings it has produced. The new policy, he states, will be to store the company products and merely seek to operate to provide local employment with as low an overhead as it is possible to maintain.

Following is the statement signed by Mr. Ambler announcing his disposal of his plant to Mr. Chambers:

"A number of people have heard rumors in regard to the transfer of ownership of the Ambler Foundry. We wish to take this opportunity to explain the circumstances, for this concern has played an important part in the history of Northville during the past thirty years in shipping its products all over the country and circulating money, a greater part of which was paid out for wages, etc., in this community.

Previous to October, 1929, I enjoyed a good business at a satisfactory profit, but since that time, a deficit has occurred each year. We have, however, continued to operate most of the time and held the small organization together. During this time, we designed, built patterns for, and perfected one of the best furnaces on the market today. This was done with the hope and belief that better times were coming, but they have been delayed and I have found it impossible to provide the very large amount of money necessary to carry on in a satisfactory manner. I then urged Mr. Henry Chambers, a prominent Detroit manufacturer, who had been financing me for some time, to take over the plant in its entirety. Arrangements were completed last week for this transfer, and I feel certain that on account of Mr. Chambers' resources and unusual ability, this concern eventually will again be busy providing work and bringing money into Northville.

"With to express my sincere appreciation to the very large number of people who have assisted me in every way possible, also to all of my employees who worked so faithfully during these many years.

"In the future, this company will be known as the Independent Furnace Foundry Company, and in addition to our own products, we will have a wholesale warehouse carrying a complete line of products manufactured in Mr. Chambers' Detroit plant and consisting of roofing, eavering, and sheet metal products of all kinds.

"As manager of this new enterprise, I will appreciate your continued cooperation and trust that you will boost for this company and make the new owner feel certain that he chose a good town to invest a large amount of money in."

Sincerely,
Sherill W. Ambler

KING'S DAUGHTERS

There will be an important meeting of the King's Daughters at the home of Mrs. T. E. Murdock, Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 7, at 3 o'clock.

DOES STUNTS

Here is Stanley R. Manning, Michigan Bell Telephone Company electrical engineer, who fascinated members of the Northville and Farmington Exchange clubs Wednesday with his demonstrations of the "electric eye."

ARCHIE LEONARD OF PONTIAC TO ADDRESS P. T. A. THURSDAY

All parents and others interested are urged to take advantage of an unusually instructive talk to be given by Archie Leonard, at the P. T. A. Thursday evening, Feb. 9, on "Train Your Child to Take Responsibility." Mr. Leonard was at one time superintendent of the Farmington schools and is at present a member of the Board of Education of Pontiac and is well informed in the training of youth.

To cap the climax of this event a birthday cake will be served and a social time enjoyed by parents and teachers together.

Parents who have small children will be interested to know that high school girls have volunteered to care for these little folks during the meeting so that the parents may be free to listen.

Through the efforts of Mrs. Ida E. Cooke and Mrs. E. W. Lester a number of very reliable high school girls have been located who are willing to care for little children for the small sum of 25 cents for the evening.

CAMPFIRE GIRLS TO MEET EACH TUESDAY

Approximately 20 Campfire Girls began a series of weekly meetings under the direction of Mrs. Orlov G. Owen at the high school kindergarten Tuesday evening.

A regular business meeting was held and plans were discussed as to the best method for raising money for summer camp and miscellaneous entertainment. It was decided to sell candy, which the girls will make themselves, as the initial move on the money-raising program.

The meetings, stated Mrs. Owen, will be held in the kindergarten room of the high school each Tuesday unless otherwise announced.

Brae Burn Is the Only Golf Club in Detroit District To Settle Championship Without Match Play

(By John Walter in The Detroit News)

What is the true test of a golfer and the best way to determine a club champion, by medal or match play? Every club in the district bit one determined its champion by match play the past season. The sole exception was Brae Burn Golf Club, and its 1932 champions are Ralph Wood of Northville and Mrs. T. H. Ritchie, Detroit.

Where other clubs were reducing the field for the championship to the low 16 or 32 scorers in an 18 or 36-hole qualifying round and pairing those up for match play, which took anywhere from a month to eight weeks to decide, Brae Burn knew its champion two weeks from the day the tournament began.

In the men's championship, one had to play 72 holes, 36 at a time, while the women's tournament was only 36 holes, one round at a time. So the tournament was completed in only two days, setting a record for brevity for a club championship in the district.

Experience Helps
The men's championship developed into a duel, between Wood and young Jack McLoughlin, with Wood the more experienced player, the one with perhaps the sounder game, winning out.

Seventy-two holes of medal play, 36 at a time, might sound a bit too stiff and tiring for some golfers, besides packing the thrills of the championship in a very short period. But for Wood and McLoughlin there was plenty of excitement in

STRIKE CAUSES FORD FACTORY TO SHUT DOWN

Hundreds of Workers Await Full Production at Briggs Plant

"When is Henry Ford going to reopen his factories?"

"This question is being asked by thousands of workmen throughout the country and by hundreds in Northville and Plymouth who have been thrown out of employment by the tight shut-down of the Ford factories. Ford officials announced that they were unable to get bodies for their new cars because the Briggs plant, manufacturer for the new bodies, is in the throes of a labor strike, which has paralyzed the Ford organization and dependent industries.

The local Ford factory, employing 200 men regularly, closed Thursday, Jan. 26.

"The strike at the Briggs plant is holding up production," states H. G. Marburger, superintendent at the local plant, "and I don't know when we will reopen. The reserve supply of bodies has been exhausted and manufacture of the new Ford can't continue until we are able to get more bodies.

All the information I have at my disposal is that when the factories again reopen, announcement will be carried in the newspaper. In the meantime, no one except myself and the watchman are employed at the plant here.

"In all my experience I have never seen the organization so tightly shut down as it is at the present time. I wish I could tell the men when we would start in working again, but I have absolutely no idea of how long the lay-off will last."

From reports heard in Detroit the Briggs plant has hired men to start working but the picketing of the factory continues and when full time production will again be resumed cannot be estimated.

EASTLAWN PATIENTS HEAR DR. WICKHAM OVER OWN PHONES

Dr. A. B. Wickham has been instructing patients at the Eastlawn sanatorium by means of a radio broadcasting apparatus, each patient having a pair of earphones at his bedside to enable him to hear Dr. Wickham's interesting discussions on tuberculosis, as well as topics of the day. A recent talk was about technocracy.

FISH SUPPER AT SALEM

The annual fish supper given by the men of the Congregational church, takes place on Thursday, Feb. 9, in the Salem town hall. Supper starts at 9 p. m. White fish and trout, besides other good eats. All are welcome.

Overcomes Lead

McLoughlin took the lead with an 84 on the first round, five strokes better than Wood, only to have the latter sweep into the lead on the third nine holes with a 37, one over par, and the best round of the tournament, closing with a 44 for an 81 to be two strokes ahead of McLoughlin on the first day's play. Wood picked up two more strokes on the first round the second day and played McLoughlin even on the last 18, to win with a total of 351 for the 72 holes.

Mrs. Ritchie is the first women's champion decided at Brae Burn, and she won the title in decisive fashion, carrying 201 for the 36 holes to win by 17 strokes over her nearest rival, Mrs. J. Browning Terrill. Her husband also furnished another "first" for Brae Burn when he scored the first ace ever made there, this past season. A southpaw, Mrs. Ritchie held out with a brassie on the 180-yard fifth hole, one of the few southpaws in the district to perform this feat the past season.

Exchangites of Farmington and Northville See Bell Co. Expert Demonstrate the "Electric Eye"

The Farmington Exchange Club, headed by President Sévier, several guests and members of the Michigan Bell Telephone staff together with the local Exchange club sat down to a fine meal Wednesday noon.

The club voted on the most acceptable program for January and awarded the prize to Dr. Bruce H. Douglas.

Roy E. Crowe, manager of the local telephone office, was responsible for the program of the day and he introduced T. I. Manning and C. S. Daves of the experimental laboratories of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company's Detroit office.

Mr. Manning prefaced his presentation of equipment by telling of the discovery in 1873 of what is now known as the "electric eye." A telegraph operator noticed the peculiar action of his instruments when the sun shone and when it was absent. This odd happening led to perfecting this piece of electric equipment, the photo electric cell.

From this point on Mr. Manning demonstrated what the electric eye

BOY SCOUTS WILL ATTEND PLYMOUTH CHURCH FEB. 12TH

The minister of the Plymouth Methodist church, the Rev. E. Ray Norton, has invited the Protestant Boy Scouts of the Plymouth district to attend the morning service at his church at 10:00 a. m. Feb. 12, for their annual observance of Scout Sunday in Anniversary Week.

This church sponsors two of the troops and the scoutmasters of those troops are especially anxious that as many as possible of the Plymouth district Scouts, officials and friends be present to make this occasion an impressive demonstration of Scouting in our communities.

Scouts will assist in conducting the service and special Scout music will be a feature.

All Scouts and officials are requested to meet in the park across from the church at or before 9:45 a. m. ready to march into church together.

On the afternoon of Anniversary Sunday (Feb. 12), at 2-30, the new Scout cabin at the Training School will be dedicated and open house held. The cabin is not entirely completed but can be used.

Appropriate dedication exercises will be held, and the leaders want every Scout and leader in the district present if possible.

WARD COOK WRITES FROM MINNESOTA

Ward Cook of Duluth, Minnesota, formerly of Northville, in writing to renew his subscription to The Record has this to say "We cannot very well get along without the old home-town paper. Father looks for it every Saturday morning and if it does not come is very much disappointed. He has only been here about one and a half years so knows more of the people mentioned in it than I do now, but just the same we all enjoy it."

"I was pleased to note by last week's edition of the Record that Northville was to have a bank again and I sure hope it will get the support of the town and surrounding country."

Ward further states that as he is writing he could look out across Lake Superior and see the waters rolling in good style. He further asserts the winter has been comparatively mild so far.

Mr. Cook is connected with the U. S. Bureau of Fisheries, and will be remembered here as living on South Center street. Mr. Cook, Sr. was a former employee as a planer in the old Globe Furniture & Mfg. Company.

POSTS OF DISTRICT GATHER IN PONTIAC

Twelve members of the Legion post and auxiliary attended the 17th district meeting at Pontiac Friday evening, Jan. 27. The Pontiac auxiliary furnished a fine program consisting of the P. M. pageant, the Barton trio, and the "Royal Four."

For the first time in history the auxiliary has more members than the boys, says state president, Mrs. Gottsfredson.

Attending from Northville were Commander Kaletsky and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bolton, Mrs. Lyla Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Lisle Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Sweet and Joe. Blake.

MAYOR SNOW PAYS WAY AHEAD ON RECORD

Dr. L. W. Snow insisted on paying a whole five dollar bill for his Northville Record subscription at the big bargain day Saturday and the village president is now paid ahead until about January, 1936.

UNITED BANK OF PLYMOUTH RE-ORGANIZES

Directors Take Action At a Meeting Wednesday Evening

The following information is authentic and was released to The Plymouth Mail for publication by officials of the Plymouth United Savings bank. To still all rumors concerning the reorganization the story has been copied by The Northville Record.

Deeming it for the best interests of the depositors and for the community they have served so long and so well, directors of the Plymouth United Savings bank at a meeting held Wednesday night, decided to put into effect a reorganization that they expect will save every cent of the deposited money for its owners. The bank has not been closed but it will not do business for the next few days while arrangements are being made to carry on under the new plan.

Charles A. Fisher, president of the Plymouth United, has been appointed custodian of the bank and its funds pending the re-organization.

Because of the conservative policy always pursued by the officials of the bank, the unbreakable rule that the depositors' interests were to be served above all others and the fact that the bank stood like a rock at a time when banking failures were sweeping this part of the state, it was generally believed, that the Plymouth United would be able to ride through the entire depression without being forced to reorganize.

But the constant necessity of depositors to call upon their reserves and the gradual lowering of the balances carried in the bank necessitated some action. However, not until Wednesday night at the regular meeting of the board was it deemed advisable to take these protective steps.

This action was not taken until after consultation with the state banking commissioner, who stated to bank officials that the proposed action would be of greatest benefit to the depositors than any other action they could take.

The Plymouth Mail makes the prediction that the depositors of the Plymouth United will eventually get every cent they have on deposit in the bank and that under the new organization the Plymouth United will continue for another half century serving the best interests of the splendid community it has had such an important part in helping to build.

TOWNSHIP TAX EXTENSION

As will be seen by announcement of the treasurer, Mrs. Helen A. Morris, in this issue, the time for payment of Northville township taxes without additional percentage has been extended to Feb. 23.

TOWNSHIP TREASURER

I will be a candidate for the office of township treasurer in the spring election. The support of my friends will be earnestly appreciated.

Standards of Michigan Schools Must Be Preserved During Crisis, State Expert Says in Talk Here

Although some schools in Michigan face the problem of having school only three or four months next fall, there is every hope that the great majority will safely weather the crisis that now confronts them, stated John Lee state superintendent of vocational education, in an address to the Northville Rotary club at its weekly luncheon Tuesday at the Presbyterian church house.

The passing of the fifteen percent tax amendment last fall has made it necessary both to cut school budgets heavily and to find new sources of revenue, stated Mr. Lee, as he analyzed the school situation in Michigan. Two years ago 97 millions of dollars were being spent for the upkeep of Michigan schools but today those costs have been cut to 68 millions of dollars. The schools face another cut of 27 millions, due to the loss of revenue from the passing of the tax amendment.

Mr. Lee pointed out the grave dangers to our democracy if the schools are forced to lower their standards too much. For every criminal confined in Michigan institutions it costs the state $480 a year while every student in the school is kept there at an average cost of $40. Thus one inmate of our prisons costs as much as twelve students in our schools.

If democracy is to survive, pointed out the educational authority from Lansing, there must be no breakdown in the fundamental services for which the school stands. There is much subtle propaganda around and this must be opposed by every good citizen.

State educational authorities are bending every energy to meet the present crisis, continued Mr. Lee, and there are reasons to believe that we may recover more rapidly than we think. Due to the passage of the tax amendment, there will be a reduction of 120 million of dollars in the state revenue. The legislature is now struggling with the problem of finding new sources of revenue and a sales tax and an income tax are possible ways of raising additional funds to offset the loss from property tax.

If proper support is given the school in the present there is every reason to believe that democracy will continue its stable course and the next ten years in this state will be the greatest since Michigan became a state," concluded Mr. Lee.

Prof. Percy Angove, who was the predecessor of Mr. Lee in his present position with the state department of public instruction, presided and Leslie G. Lee was in charge of the music.

John Kalbfleisch, Dr. E. B. Cavell, Fred W. Lyke and Dr. Paul R. Alexander of the board of education, Floyd G. Eckles of Plymouth and Elton R. Eaton, and Elton Lovell were guests.

RECORDS MADE ON OPENING DAY FOR NEW BANK

Following is a list of "firsts" in connection with the opening of the Depositors State bank in Northville on Saturday, Jan. 28:

First deposit honors, he between James Spagnuolo and Elmer E. Perrin, the former claiming the first book and the latter handing the first money over the counter for deposit.

Mr. Perrin's son, Elmer E. Jr., holds the first moratorium certificate, No. 0, drawn on the new institution.

The first check issued on the Depositors State bank to be put through was drawn by R. T. Baldwin, Record editor, to the order of Ad. Schwenger, advertising man for the newspaper, and was presented at the bank by Clifford Sinden of the Northville Electric shop.

CONCERT AT H. S. THIS EVENING WILL BE SPLENDID TREAT

A fine treat is in store for music lovers this evening when Northville high school A Cappella Choir, Girls Glee Club and Boys Quartet present their program in the high school auditorium at 8:00 p. m.

Kathleen Rinck will accompany the Girls Glee Club and Frances Alexander will play for the Boys Quartet. Leslie G. Lee will direct the performance.

No admission will be charged, but a collection will be taken. It is hoped that a large audience of interested townspeople will attend.

The complete program follows:

Theme Song "Meditation," Morrison; Fairest Lord Jesus, 12th Century; German Melody; The Heavens Resound, Beethoven; By the choir.

The Angel's Serenade (violin obbligato by Dorothy Messner); Braga, Bendemeer's Stream, Old Irish Melody; Rock-a-bye, Neidinger, by the Girls' Glee Club.

GROUND HOG MISSES SEEING HIS SHADOW

Up to the time the Record went to press yesterday the proverbial ground hog had not had a single chance all day to see his shadow. According to tradition he will stay out now for mild weather ahead.

OPENING OF NEW BANK IS HAPPY EVENT

Amount Deposited in Opening Days Larger Than Withdrawals

Over 2,000 eager depositors visited the Depositors State bank here during the first five days of its existence, stated John A. Boyce, president of the new institution, drawing a total of $12,732.36 to be placed into circulation. Officials declared that despite the large withdrawal, deposits totaled to a sum larger than that withdrawn.

Officials of the new bank expressed themselves as being well pleased with the reaction and response of the businessmen and townspeople. Approximately $15,000, they say, still awaits depositors who have not yet applied for their $100 allowed them under the terms of the moratorium agreement. The plan through which the Depositors State bank opened, through the Depositors of the former Lapham State Savings Bank and the Northville State Savings bank, crowded the foyer of the new institution all day Saturday in order to claim their $100.

Many started new savings accounts with their money, others applied the sum on bills and many crowded the grocery and clothing stores of this community purchasing food and warm apparel for the balance of the winter months.

Floral tributes from Detroit, Plymouth, and Northville well-wishers were a pleasing touch of sentimentality which helped decorate the bank and added to the joyousness of the occasion.

Clerks and officials of the bank worked at top speed to distribute the money as swiftly as possible to the depositors, but the formalities of signing release slips, looking up accounts accurately and identifying those claiming the money made the work extremely arduous. Preparations for the opening had occupied working hours throughout the day and far into the night during the entire week previous to the tired employees.

Those who stood behind the teller's windows opening day were Mrs. Marie Stevens, Miss Leona Parmelee, John A. Boyce, E. H. Lapham, C. W. Wilber, Floyd Lanning and Harold Bloom.

The Depositors State bank, a former bank official, is paying three percent interest on savings accounts, which are subject to withdrawal at any time. Every possible precaution to strengthen the position of the new bank has been taken under the direction of the state banking department, it is said, and the institution is safeguarded at every point.

ARTISTS TO APPEAR AT VESPER SERVICE AT WALLED LAKE

The public is invited to attend the second monthly Vesper Musical Service at the Walled Lake Methodist Church Sunday, February 5, at 4:00 P. M. at which time Margaret Barthe of Royal Oak accomplished child prodigy will be presented in a piano recital.

W. George Issat, baritone soloist at the First Presbyterian Church, Pontiac, and Christ Church Cranbrook, will be the assisting artist. Mr. Issat will be accompanied by Ediger Cecil Crowell well known pianist and organist of Pontiac.

Margaret Barthe, who is only ten years of age, has the distinction of having played for the famous dean of pianists Paderewski, and has appeared in recital throughout the middle west and Canada. She has played in public since the age of six.

Her program will include Sweet Remembrance, Mendelssohn; Minuet, Paderewski; Lost Chord Sullivan; Seltegglette, Rach; and Welter um Wogen, Lischnick.

WATTS AND FRASER WILL BE HEARD OVER WJR FEB. 16TH

Two Northville boys Ted Watts and Leslie Fraser, are members of the double quartet in Albion college, known as the Symphonians, and will broadcast over WJR on Feb. 16 Deaf W. W. Whitehouse will speak.

BEG FOUR PARDON

Old timers of Northville were not long in telling The Record that the California letter of last week signed "Richmond P. Burton" was undoubtedly meant to read "Richmond P. Benton." They were right. It was an error in proof reading. Mr. Benton's Northville friends as well as others, greatly enjoyed his letters from the Coast.

PROSPERITY MUST START ON FARM

(Schuyler Marshall in Clinton Co. Republican News)

For months we have been thoroughly convinced that any return of permanent prosperity would have to start on the farm.

Contrary to popular opinion there is not a scarcity of money. In fact, there is about two billions more money in the country than in 1928.

Today stocks and supplies of all manufactured products are low. If the demand should increase twenty per cent immediately the factories would be swamped.

When farmers have money with which to buy there will be plenty of work for manufactured goods of all kinds.

INCOME TAX FOUR PERCENT OVER $2,500

A single person with a net income of $1,000 must make a return, and pay a four per cent tax on all over that amount. Last year he paid one and one-half percent on all over $1,500. The family head has an exemption of $2,500, plus $400 for each dependent child, but he also pays four percent on all over that amount. In other words, in order to get any returns at all from incomes, the government has lowered exemptions and increased the lowest tax by two and a half cents on every taxable dollar. Many people who paid no tax last year will have to pay this year. Offsetting this gain many

The interior of the Sally Bell bakery is being improved by a fresh coat of paint.

Mrs. Dolly Hartzhorn of Detroit was a guest of Mrs. E. A. Slater the last of the week.

Mrs. Arthur Marz was at Detroit Tuesday to attend the golden wedding reception of a cousin.

The senior class of the Northville high school now numbers 43. There were 45 graduates last June.

Miss Margaret Tank is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Max Young at their home in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dierdorf of South Lyon, spent Sunday with the former's cousin, Frank Balden, and wife.

Mrs. Clyde Casterline was operated on at Sessions hospital Saturday evening for appendicitis, and is getting along nicely.

Mrs. C. E. Hinkley entertained a contract club at her home on Cass Street, Wednesday afternoon, with eight ladies present.

Miss Margaret Harris and Mrs. Worth Gordon of Carleton were Sunday afternoon and evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. Y. Masters.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Robinson of Fenion were in town Tuesday on business. While here they spent a day visiting with former friends.

Harry Williams, South Lyon street, accompanied by his wife, went to Ann Arbor Tuesday to enter the University hospital where he underwent a surgical operation.

Miss Edna Martens has returned to her position in the office of the Ambley Furhace and Foundry company, after being confined to her home with an attack of flu.

Truman Garfield, who has been ill at Atchison hospital for over a week, was taken to the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. E. H. Cavell on Wednesday, where he is gradually recovering his health.

Among the many victims of the flu have been Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Kinsey of North Center street, who have been quite ill. Mr. Kinsey is some better, though Mrs. Kinsey is still confined to the house.

John Boushars, who lives northwest of town and supplies Maybury San with eggs for that institution, informs the Record office that the egg market is at bottom prices and will be for several months to come.

Ralph Taylor and Earl Stanbro spent several days last week at the Bert Stanbro cottage in northern Michigan, where they fished through the ice on Herderson lake and reported a catch of the funny tribe.

A card received here from the Montgomerys, who are spending the winter at Daytona Beach, Florida, states that they spent last week-end visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Strimmons and T. G. Richardson at Clermont, Florida.

While coming back from his trip to Michigan fish hatcheries in the northern part of the state, Frank L. Snipes ran into my roads last Saturday, but found little snow. He was three hours making 57 miles south from Alpena.

Harry Rattenbury, twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rattenbury, of Beal avenue, was taken to the University hospital Monday, where he will receive treatment for hip trouble. He will remain in the hospital for a few weeks.

Clifford B. Turnbull and his brother, Lloyd, returned Sunday from Hamilton, Ont., where they were at the bedside of their father, whose home is at Delhi, Ont. He is recovering from an operation performed two weeks ago.

E. L. Hill, who has been working Dayton B. Bunn's farm on the Nine Mile road, just east of the Novi road, will have an auction sale of stock, grain and tools, next Tuesday, Feb. 7. Harry C. Robinson will be the auctioneer, of course.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Dusenbury spent Saturday renewing acquaintances here before returning to their home in Highland Park. Their son, Charles, a former Northville high school athlete, is an important cog on the Highland Park basketball team.

While on their way to New Boston, Thursday afternoon, Jan. 26, to attend the monthly meeting of the Rural Letter Carriers' Association of Wayne county, Mr. and Mrs. Roy G. Clark saw a farmer out in the field plowing. California papers please copy.

Mrs. Wm. Rattenbury, Mrs. Geo. Rattenbury, and Miss Wilma Rattenbury visited Harry Rattenbury Tuesday at the University hospital, Ann Arbor, where he will be confined for some time owing to hip trouble for which he must undergo extensive treatment.

Robins are here.

Mrs. Bertha Brown visited an aunt in Ypsilanti, Friday.

Ivan Ely was home from Michigan State college for the week-end.

Herbert Behrendt was home from Michigan State college for the week-end.

Rev. William Richards and daughters of Belleville were among the throng of out of town folks here for the bank opening, Saturday.

William Wain, the veteran night watchman for the village, who has been ill for some time, has recovered and was back on the job again Monday night.

Three Wayne ladies, Mrs. Judd Green, Mrs. Janet Miller and Mrs. Wilhelmina Newbrough, have joined the plaque painting class at the Art Shoppe, taught by Mrs. Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Walborn and daughter, Sally, and Mr. Walborn's mother, of Dearborn, and Mrs. Mary Sykes of Ida, were guests Sunday at the home of Richard T. Baldwin.

"The show must go on," said Sam Stronich, Saturday evening, as he got out of a sick bed, where he had been down with the flu, to run the picture at the Penniman-Allen. The crowd was one of the best in months.

Word received from Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Yerkes recently indicates that they are enjoying their trip to the South Sea Islands. The Yerkes have sent back many pictures taken at the outset of their journey.

A. K. MacRae, retired, of Walled Lake, formerly the minister of the Northville Baptist church, who has been in the Walled Lake Print shop, will make a special occasion of his last Sunday by giving two preaching engagements.

Mrs. Bertha Van Zile of Detroit, formerly a teacher in the Northville schools, stopped in the Record office Saturday to pay her subscription and greet old friends.

Miss Van Zile was en route to South Lyon to visit her sister.

Alonso Sessions paid a visit to the Record office last Saturday, and admitted the age of three score and ten. Up to the age of 50 he had always worked his farm and then began traveling around the United States and in his itineracy covered over half of the Union.

One of the most optimistic callers at the Record's bargain day Saturday was Clarence Davis of Cambridge, drive, just off the Base Line road, who is associated with an industrial plant in Detroit. "I really think business conditions are getting better," he stated.

Taking advantage of the Record's bargain day, Charles Welsh sent his subscription from Houston, Texas. He added this friendly word: "I just wish I could be there for your lunch and see some of the old boys a few minutes and then back to the sunny South for me. So far this winter we have had only three little 'jacks frosts'!"

By an oversight the name of John R. Walker was omitted from those who contributed their services to make the Hunters' Ball, sponsored by the King's Daughters, such a success. Mr. Walker, the ladies say, worked "like a trooper" to help make the ball attractive and they want him to know that his help was deeply appreciated.

The Miller clan "went to ball" strong at the Record's triple bargain day Saturday. Four different families paid their subscriptions, viz., Chas. E. Ernest E., G. F. and Don Miller. The last named got under the wire for the final receipt of the day, given at ten o'clock at night, as the supply of sandwiches and coffee gave out.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Taylor entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of the second wedding anniversary of their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oliver of New Hudson. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor of Plymouth, Miss Myrtle Cady of Detroit, Mrs. Flora Maloin and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Taylor.

Mrs. Leonard Beasley returned last Sunday to her home here on Grace avenue after an extended stay in Britton, where she was called by the illness of her father, John Cook. Mr. Cook passed away Tuesday, Jan. 24, and the funeral occurred on the following Friday. Mr. Beasley and his son, George, went to Britton to accompany Mrs. Beasley home.

L. A. Beal was here from Wayne Saturday getting a supply of water from the life giving Pere Marquette spring. Although 14 miles from Northville he gets all the drinking water for his home from the Northville spring. If the records were all known, there are probably hundreds of folks from out of town that are doing the same thing. You just can't beat this Northville water.

The latest statement of condition of the State Savings bank of Carleton, of which Harry S. German, former mayor of Northville, is the cashier, shows that it is a "Roll of Honor" bank. This means that its surplus and profits equal or exceed its capital. As a matter of fact, its showing along this line is exceptionally good since the undivided profits and surplus are $43,579.36 while the capital stock is only $20,000. The deposits of the bank on January 1 were $302,292.

Mrs. A. A. Holcomb was a Detroit visitor Monday.

Mrs. James Green and Mrs. Garret Barry were Detroit visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rachel of Detroit were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wain.

Maurice Lapham continues to improve slowly in strength at his home on the Six Mile road.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bogart visited at the home of H. R. Bogart in Detroit Sunday.

Miss Helen Trinkle, formerly of Middleton, enjoyed Sunday dinner at the home of Miss Florence Balko.

Mrs. Robert Pickard and children, Billie and Irene, spent Sunday at the Gerald Taggart home on the Seven Mile road.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kahrl, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Sweet, and Mrs. James Green spent Tuesday with friends in Detroit.

Conrad E. Langfield came from Chicago for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Langfield, last week, and returned by airplane.

Mrs. S. E. Dranson of Plymouth, a former Northville resident, spent the early part of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Lyke.

Mr. and Mrs. Dayton E. Bunn had planned to leave for Florida the last of this week, but have delayed their start due to the illness of the former's mother at her home at Holly.

The members of the Northville Woman's club are reminded to bring their dimes to the regular meeting so that they may do Red Cross sewing as they listen to the program.

Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Ballard and daughter, Shirley, of Detroit, came out to Northville to help celebrate the wedding anniversary of Mrs. Ballard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cobb.

Announcement of a concert by the Northville high school and community band to be held on Friday evening, March 24, at the high school gymnasium, has been made by Manager Fred W. Lyke.

R. J. Smith, who has been in St. Joseph's hospital, Ann Arbor, for three weeks, is gaining strength very nicely at this time. It is hoped he will be able to be brought home soon.—South Lyon Herald.

After nearly a year in Northville, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wiltsie and their family have returned to Detroit. Mr. Wiltsie has been employed in the Northville drug store and will continue for a time assisting part time.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Slack, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lockhart were entertained at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cobb, Wednesday evening, the occasion being the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Stark.

The musical program rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pond of Plymouth, formerly of Belleville, was greatly appreciated at the union service at the Methodist church last Sunday evening. Mr. Pond played several numbers on the organ and accompanied his wife as she sang several solos.

The fish supper put on by the E. Y. P. U. of the Baptist church Tuesday evening was a successful event. A good crowd took advantage of the chance to enjoy a good supper together. Miss Eleanor Westphal, as president of the organization was "captain" of her capable corps of workers.

Fifteen Knight Templars of the Northville chapter were in attendance last Friday evening, Jan. 27, at the annual inspection of Detroit Commandery No. 1. For the first time in the history of the Detroit Chapter history 14 platoons were on the commandery floor on parade at one time. Eminent Sir John Rademaker, Grand Captain General of Manistee, presided.

A little Northville girl down on South Center street prides herself in recognizing all the stars of Hollywood. In the Sunday rotogravure a picture appeared of one of these beauties with the description underneath "Coy Demure"—"Oh, Coy Demure!" exclaimed Miss Pat. "I just adore her, don't you?" This is a true story.

E. C. Dickinson of Waterford has an interesting reminder of the good old days of 1853 when his father, J. C. Dickinson, was engaged in playing for dances all the way from Detroit to Wilhamston. The souvenir is an invitation to a New Year's party to be held at the hotel at Novi on Jan. 3, 1853, with music by "Dickinson and Winegar's band." Sometimes hundreds of people came from far and near for these old time dances.

After his year and a half's stay in Northville as receiver of the Lapham State Savings bank Hoyt Woodman has returned with his wife to their former home at Lansing where for many years Mr. Woodman was in the state treasurer's office. They will live in one of the residences they own at the state capital. The only regret at the opening of the new bank is that it takes the Woodman family from Northville, where they have a host of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Woodman's son, Louis, is a student at Michigan State college.

Roy Cole was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cole this week.

Robert Pickell will be missed on Main street nights by his many friends.

Richard Parmenter of Wayne was a week-end guest at the Mrs. T. E. Murdock home.

Students of the Novi schools will present a play, "Lookin' Lovely," early in March.

Mrs. Esther A. Elliott has gone to Detroit to visit her daughter, Mrs. John T. Taylor.

Robert Greg, of the E. M. B. meat department, spent the week-end in Detroit with his family.

Orylle Bennett of Ewart is visiting his sister, Mrs. Ray Watts, and other relatives in this vicinity, including Novi.

Word is received from Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Charter saying that they are well and enjoying thoroughly their stay in Florida.

Visitors at the Arthur Humphries home Sunday were the Frank Willis family of Detroit; and the Ralph Willis family of Redford.

Mrs. James Heeneey spent last week with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Heeneey, at their home in Farmington.

Erwin Foster, who is attending the Michigan State Normal at Ypsilanti, had the distinction of being elected to the "Arm of Honor," recently.

Miss Mary Power, of Farmington, who was a Northville visitor yesterday, stated that as far as she can remember this is the mildest winter she ever knew.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Eaton, of Plymouth entertained at their home on Wednesday evening in honor of Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Brennan, who are leaving here soon.

Several Northville people expect to hear Congressman George A. Dondero give a lecture on Lincoln before the Farmington Exchange club dinner next Tuesday evening.

Tuesday was the birthday of Mrs. Lillie Angell, South Wing street, and her son-in-law, Edward Reid of Redford, very thoughtfully dropped in and had birthday dinner with her.

Miss Eleanor Eaton spent last week-end in Ann Arbor with her sister, Mrs. Robert Austan, and on Friday evening they attended the piano recital given by Miss Myra Hess at Hill auditorium.

Mrs. E. W. Lester, president of the local P. T. A., attended a profitable meeting of the Child Health Institute in Detroit Saturday afternoon, where she heard Dr. W. E. Blatz of the University of Toronto hospital staff, who spoke on "Sex Education for Young Children."

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Stewart of Drayton Plains, were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Van Valkenburg, Sunday. The Stewarts lived in Northville a number of years ago. Their two sons, Edward and Russell, and their families, also reside in Drayton Plains.

As a relaxation from his strenuous day at the opening of the new Depositors State bank Saturday, Clinton W. Wilber enjoyed Sunday by taking a long walk into the woods and over the country roads. "I walked six miles, and whistled and looked at the trees and had a wonderful time," he said.

Approximately 100 cords of wood has been cut off of the farm belonging to Mrs. Anna Young, which as located three miles west of Northville for welfare purposes. The wood has been cut by a crew of 15 to 20 men each day and they will be allowed, through Mrs. Young's generosity to cut up to 500 cords. The wood is stored in the welfare warehouse on Cady street.

Northville "Stays" in Title Race by Decisive Victory

Last Friday evening the Orange and Black Tigers of Northville stayed in the race for the suburban league championship by triumphing over Farmington, 28 to 20, in a rough and tumble game here before a capacity crowd. The reserve team again trounced their opponents, 24-11.

Earlier in the season, Farmington licked N. H. S. by a decisive score on their own small floor, which is a handicap for all teams playing on it. However, last week Northville proved that they were more than a match for the strong Farmington team.

Throughout the entire game, both teams played hard and fast, with many fouls and spills, among which Ervin McBurger was bowled over and cut on the head. After taking a early lead, the Orange and Black team maintained it to the end of the half, when N. H. S. was ahead by six points.

It took several minutes of the third period to pierce Farmington's tight defense, but Capt. Westphal tossed the ball in from the foul line. Then the Blue and White rallied by pushing in two dog shots and a free throw, bringing the score up to 18 to 15. Baldwin retained the scoring two well-directed foul shots followed by another Northville basket and the period ended with Farmington trailing by seven points, 22-15.

Farmington started off the final period by sinking two foul shots. Hoffman answered by missing a long jump, followed by another Blue and White free shot. Spaller then sank a dog shot for the opponents' last score of the game. In the exciting mixup that followed, Baldwin and Hoffman accounted for a basket each before the game ended with the final score, 28 to 20.

The second team game was again a walk-away. Farmington 'B' team held scoreless the first quarter and N. H. S. continued to gain with Nirdler making fifteen points of Northville's total. The deluge ended with the score Northville 'B' 29, Farmington 'B' 11.

'ROUND THE SCHOOL

Conflict in Athletics

Regardless of how much it is avoided, there is always a conflict in athletics between the ideas of education and athletic glory.

As a part of the school curriculum, the main purpose of athletics, theoretically at least, is education. That is, educating the body, or physical development. However, with athletic teams for the various sports, the spirit of rivalry in contests—the idea of glory—is always prevalent. These two thoughts have an eternal conflict, usually to the disadvantage of the team.

Take, for instance, a basketball player who is a star on his team. He has become educated along the lines of physical development, as well as mentally in keeping presence of mind, etc. Then comes a game in which he stands out especially. The newspapers give him big write-ups, the coach congratulates him, crowds yell his name; he gets "the big lead." From then on he plays not for the love of the game, as formerly, but for the love of the school, for glory—to have his name and picture in the papers. He tries to boss the coach; he becomes "temperamental" in practice; he bogs the ball, in short, he destroys all cooperation and good feeling the team ever had. Think what a terrible thing it is when teams have two or even three of these people—these "glory-men."

In a case like that, the idea of glory seems to conquer education. Coaches often say that it would be better if there were no newspapers. At times we nearly agree. However, the fault lies not with the paper, but with the boy himself. And so the struggle, the war between the two conflicting ideas goes on.

We do not believe that at present, we have any such players on our teams and we are thankful for it.

Complimenting the Council

We wish to congratulate the student council on its decision regarding baseball. The sport should be held only if it is possible to do so without running the school in debt. With the 90 program that has been assigned to the so-called baseball committee, it appears that such will be the case.

U. S. HISTORY CLASS WILL PRESENT PLAY

A few members of the third hour history class, under the guidance of Mrs. Vivid Cobb, will soon present a play for the other members of the class. The play will be a short resume of the principal events of 1932. The chairman, Peggy Blake, has chosen Eleanor Eaton, Albert Vradenburg, Jack Harper, Ernest Racz, Kenneth Eichen, and Mary Jane Denne, to take part in it. Besides the play, several reports will be given by other members.

STUDENTS GIVEN EXTRA STUDY IN REMEDIAL CLASSES

Remedial classes are being given to students who are careless in writing and spelling. The object is to correct them. The penmanship class, now under way meets the 5th period every Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. There are only 12 members in the class. They now are working to do away with bad habits the students have acquired and their chief object at present is accuracy. They are studying the muscular details and small letters. Later they will try for speed.

The spelling class also meets the 5th hour but only on Thursdays and Fridays. So far there are only twelve members. Likewise, they have to do away with the incorrect habits acquired and are now studying rules for spelling and pronunciation. Both classes have much work to do and have made much progress.

SEMESTER EXAMS WILL BE HELD ON FEBRUARY 8 AND 9

A and B Students Will Be Excused From All But One Test

Wednesday morning, Feb. 8, the examinations for the first semester which began in October, and will end next Tuesday, will be held. The schedule, made out Tuesday, provides for 90 minutes or two whole periods for each examination. It was decided to excuse all students who had received at least one A and nothing lower than B, from all except one examination. The majority of quizzes will be held in the assembly.

Nearly all classes started reviewing the material that they have covered so far this year at the first of the week in order to prepare for the semester tests. School will be dismissed Friday, Feb. 10, following the two strenuous examination days.

Principal R. H. Amerman sends out the following rules along with the schedule:

- Examinations will be 90 minutes in length, and will be given in the assembly room unless otherwise announced by the teacher.
- Students are responsible for their own appearance on the time and at the place announced. Be there. These tests are important.
- Students are requested to stay away from the building when not writing. If they must wait around a classroom will be provided for them. No school at all Friday.
- The schedule of examinations follows:

- Wednesday, Feb. 8
 - 8:30 - 10:00—First period classes
 - 10:00 - 11:30—Second period classes
- Thursday, Feb. 9
 - 12:15 - 1:45—Third period classes
 - 1:45 - 3:15—Fourth period classes
- Friday, Feb. 10
 - 8:30 - 10:00—Sixth period classes
 - 10:00 - 11:30—Seventh period classes
- Saturday, Feb. 11
 - 12:15 - 1:45—Eighth period classes
 - 1:45 - 3:15—Ninth period classes

Students who have all "A" and "B" grades for the semester in a subject, may be excused from taking the test in that subject, with the following exception: every student must write at least one examination.

MONTHLY REPORT CARDS WILL BE TAKEN BY PUPILS

Beginning with Friday, Feb. 3, the monthly reports for the Junior and Senior high school will be sent home by the pupils. If any parent prefers to have them mailed, please inform the principal's office.

WOMAN LOST 10 POUNDS IN A WEEK

Mrs. Betty Luedeke of Dayton writes: "I am using Kruschen to reduce weight—I lost 10 pounds in one week and cannot say too much to recommend it."

To take off fat easily, SAFELY and HARMLESSLY—take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it is the safe way to lose unsightly fat and one bottle that lasts four weeks costs but a trifle. Get it at any drug store in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the safest way to lose fat—money back.

But be sure and get Kruschen Salts—imitations are numerous and you must safe-guard your health.

CHOIR OF 50 VOICES SINGS HERE TONIGHT, LATER OUT OF TOWN

The Northville high school choir which was organized the first of this year, is coming along so nicely that negotiations are being made to present its program in various towns. They sing at the school tonight.

Return Game With Trenton Will Break Triple Tie For Second Place

Tonight the Northville court squad travels to Trenton, where they will endeavor to win a second victory from the strong team there.

In the first Trenton game, played here Dec. 23, Northville was defeated, 24-22. Trenton, however, has a strong defensive team which is in fine shape. In the league standing, Northville is tied with Farmington and Trenton for second place for the championship. Thus, the victory of this evening's game will mean much, by breaking the tie and placing the winning school in a commanding position.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

This week the Inquiring Reporter has asked "Would you care to have your class deposit its money in the new Depositors' State Bank?"

Jack Moffit—I think that it would be a good idea to put the money of my class in the new bank.

Dorothy Richardson—it would be much better to be in our new bank receiving interest than lying around idle.

C. S. Lester—Yes, I believe it will help bring much confidence by depositing our class funds in the new bank.

Bob Christensen—The bank is depending upon the people to "make it a success." If the class deposits will help, put them in.

Howard Latta—Sure. It's going to be a sound institution isn't it. I think it would help the class the town and the bank too.

Helen Christensen—Why must we go away down to Redford to deposit our money when we have a good bank in Northville? Yes, I would favor it.

Wilma Rattenbury—Of course someone must put money in the new bank if it is going to be a success and let us be able to say we helped.

Paul Baldwin—I believe it propitiate that the students, not only through depositing their class money in the Depositors State bank, but by their speech and actions should support the new institution to the best of their ability.

GRADE NOTES

Patsy Craig and Phyllis Knight of Miss Leonardson's first grade have been neither tardy or absent this year. On the trip to the telephone office the children saw some signs that they were able to read. They also saw the mail pouch hung on the pole for the three o'clock mail train. Now nearly all the first graders have their names on the seat work chart.

Miss Jarvis' third graders are studying the Eskimo and making Eskimo posters. Last Wednesday a tea was given for all of the mothers of the pupils in that grade.

Mrs. Babbitt's fourth grade pupils have started the growing of wheat. Each child has an individual dish of wheat and they are watching its progress. This is being done for geography.

The following children, members of Mrs. Congo's fourth grade, have not been absent this year: Mary Burgess, Betty Lou Hollis, Ruth Mary Mills, Billy Widmeyer, Lorretta Nagel and Frank Bongers. Twelve children of this grade received "find the bottom" bowls this week for eating hot cereal every morning for ten days. Each child had a chart which was signed by his mother, saying that they had eaten the hot dish. The four B geography class has started an exhibit of interesting places in the U. S. Each child is planning an imaginary journey to one of these places.

Miss Hawkins' 6th graders are planning an exhibit of the book-ends they have made.

The pupils in Mrs. Cooke's 7th and 8th grade who had been unruly in their actions in the Junior high assembly, came before a court and were sentenced by a judge.

All-electric Kitchen on Wheels

A complete modern kitchen in which the genie, electricity, performs every conceivable task of the American housewife and which is arranged scientifically to eliminate all ordinary drudgery, is carried in this unusual kitchen on wheels. The coach is one of a fleet of 100 which will be in use soon by General Electric distributors in all parts of the nation.

In this "magic" all-electric kitchen, dishes are washed and dried by simply pushing a button. A similar operation refrigerates food, manufactures ice, cooks food, turns a range on or off, mixes beverages and foods, provides music, prepares toast, waffles, or coffee, gives shadowless illumination, and ventilates the kitchen. The coach also has space for the exhibition of other electric home work-savers, such as laundry equipment, sun lamps, vacuum cleaners, radios, electric clock, heaters, and kindred products.

More than 30 of these rolling "magic kitchens" already are in use in different parts of the country and the demand for additional coaches has become so great that the company manufacturing them has been forced to go on a 24-hours-a-day schedule, six days a week. They typify a new idea in merchandising—that of taking the dealer display room direct to the prospect's door. A half million dollars is being expended on the coaches.

The Hindu Bottle Trick

Each week, Chandu, the popular radio Magician of the Air, brings to you a baffling trick which he learned in some far-off country. You can perform any of these tricks with a little practice, and need no special apparatus to do so.

I was walking with the Princess Nagil on the street of Kabul when I paused to light my cigarette, and blowing out the match afterwards as is my habit, "Try to blow it out through a wine bottle," said the fakir, "thus."

From his pocket he took a small candle which he lit and placed on the ground behind the bottle. He blew on the bottle and the candle was immediately extinguished. Then he lit the bottle and extinguish the flame. Making sure that the glass is round, more than one bottle or glass may be successfully used in this mystifying trick.

Progressive Pedro Furnished Part of the Evening's Entertainment

At the regular meeting of the Northville Woman's club Friday afternoon, the speaker was Miss Charlotte Squires of Wayne who brought with her a large selection of children's books, the theme for her talk.

On Tuesday Evening Jan. 24, the Lloyd H. Green Post of the American Legion and the Auxiliary had a potluck dinner together at their home.

Referring to their separate rooms they held their business. The girls are planning on sending three birthday cakes for ex-soldier boys at the Maybury Inn and are sending a box of razor blades, shaving lotion and talcum to the Battle Creek San and 49 dish towels to Otter Lake Bilet.

After the business meeting all gathered in the boys' room and were entertained by David Fogul, a magician from Detroit.

Brennan Children Make Merry Twice Last Week

The three little daughters of Dr. and Mrs. T. P. Brennan, Mary, Constance and Eileen, enjoyed two very happy occasions last week.

To cap the climax of her eighth birthday Saturday, Jan. 28, Constance was given that very peak of delight to every child, that of having her dear teacher, Miss Nora Wilson, to share her birthday dinner.

On Thursday evening Mary Brennan was hostess to fourteen young schoolmates who romped merrily together and danced the Virginia reel.

These young folks only quieted down long enough to enjoy a delicious supper together.

Service League Is Entertained At Parsonage Tuesday

The young women of the Service League were guests of Mrs. F. N. Miner, at the parsonage Tuesday evening. Thirty members were present and enjoyed the study of the American Indian, led capacity by Miss Ione Palmer who called upon Mrs. Ambler, Mrs. Hazel Boyden, Mrs. Irene Calkins and Mrs. Lena Bogart for side lights on the subject.

A map drill locating the various tribes of Indians added to the knowledge of the subject.

During the evening the members sewed for the Red Cross.

At the close of the program, the young women were invited to the dining room where was laid an attractively appointed tea table with flowers and lighted tapers adding an artistic touch, Mrs. Bertha Neal poured.

Roger Christensen Gives Party At Woman's Country Club

Roger Christensen was host to a party of his classmates, the Freshman class of the high school, including a few guests, at the Woman's Country club last Saturday evening. Eighteen guests enjoyed this pleasant party in this spacious club house and spent the evening informally with dancing and games.

High School Sunday School Class Have Dinner Together

The Sunday school class of high school students, taught by Mrs. E. T. Baldwin, were her guests at informal dinner Monday evening. The outstanding feature of the menu seemed to be the fresh loaf of home made bread, the culinary achievement of one of the class, Miss Eunice Cousins. Miss Wilma-Ratcliff, another member, assisted the hostess in serving. The evening was spent in playing games by the friends.

Dr. and Mrs. Brennan Dine At Detroit City Club

As guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Knapp Tuesday evening, Dr. and Mrs. T. P. Brennan were dinner guests at the Detroit City club. After this dinner, a feast of reason, was thoroughly enjoyed at the Woodward Avenue Baptist church, when Norman H. Thomas was the speaker. The burden of the thought, they report, was that the present difficulties are due not to human stupidity but to willful human blindness to their solution. This talk was sponsored by the Detroit Woman's City club of which Mrs. Knapp is a member.

Friends Surprise Mr. Herrick On Birthday

The members of the Waterford Get-Together club very pleasantly surprised Oliver Herrick, Monday evening by gathering at his home for a party in honor of his birthday. There were about forty-five guests present. Progressive Pedro furnished part of the evening's entertainment. Mrs. Lydia Ebersole and Wilber Ebersole received first prizes, while Charles Waterman and Donald Waterman were consoling.

Doughnuts and cider were served by the club.

The club presented Mr. Herrick with a gift and wished him many happy returns of the day.

American Legion and Auxiliary Have Dinner Together

On Tuesday evening Jan. 24, the Lloyd H. Green Post of the American Legion and the Auxiliary had a potluck dinner together at their home. And what a dinner!

Referring to their separate rooms they held their business. The girls are planning on sending three birthday cakes for ex-soldier boys at the Maybury Inn and are sending a box of razor blades, shaving lotion and talcum to the Battle Creek San and 49 dish towels to Otter Lake Bilet.

To cap the climax of her eighth birthday Saturday, Jan. 28, Constance was given that very peak of delight to every child, that of having her dear teacher, Miss Nora Wilson, to share her birthday dinner.

A lovely pyramid cake decorated with eight lighted tapers was the center of attraction.

On Thursday evening Mary Brennan was hostess to fourteen young schoolmates who romped merrily together and danced the Virginia reel.

These young folks only quieted down long enough to enjoy a delicious supper together.

Service League Is Entertained At Parsonage Tuesday

Mrs. Rheiner Entertains Get-Together Club

Thursday, Jan. 26, the Get-Together club met with Mrs. Rosa Rheiner at her home on Arthur street in Plymouth. Thirty-three people attended. Following a potluck supper progressive Pedro was played. The members are invited to meet with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Merrithew in two weeks at their home on Rouge street in Northville.

Arlene Blake Celebrates Tenth Birthday

In celebration of her tenth birthday, Arlene Blake, entertained a group of little girls at luncheon at her home on Fairbrook Friday, Jan. 27. Covers were laid for eight and the gay Valentine motif was carried out attractively. The little girls had a happy time together at luncheon concluding with a birthday cake with lighted candles. Afterward they had to skip back to school for the afternoon.

First Four Officers of O. E. S. Hosts to Orient Chapter

The first four officers of Orient chapter of O. E. S. welcomed the members of the chapter at dinner Friday evening at the Masonic hall. Following dinner a school of instruction was conducted by Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. A. Brown of Detroit. These receiving the company are Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Boyden, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kohler, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. P. Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. Ward Masters.

Home Economics Class Turns to Interesting Art of Rug Weaving

It was rug-making day of the Home Economics class at the home of Mrs. Jos. Hoehl, last Monday, Jan. 30, when fifteen interested women were introduced to the intricacies of braiding, crocheting, and hooking rugs. Great interest in this domestic art was evidenced and at the next meeting, to be held March 13 at the home of Mrs. T. R. Carrington, materials will be brought and real work will be begun.

Besides the twelve members, three visitors were present Monday. Mrs. W. D. Stark, Mrs. L. Vradenburg, of Northville, and Mrs. McIntosh, of North Branch, mother of Mrs. Herrick. Two new members were added to this group. Others interested will be welcome.

Mrs. Brennan Is Given Farewell Luncheon at Colony Club

As evidence of their genuine regard for Mrs. T. P. Brennan, who is to leave our community soon, over thirty of her friends tendered her a farewell luncheon at the Colony club in Detroit Monday afternoon. These thirty guests by no means expressed the extent of the friends of Mrs. Brennan whose number reaches throughout the entire community which she has so graciously served in various capacities.

The luncheon was served in the Georgian room of the club house with the guests seated at one table extending the length of the room. Large bowls of springtime flowers in dainty pastel shades graced the table and tallies in the same colors marked each place. At the head of the table was seated the honored guest, Mrs. Brennan, with her sister, Mrs. F. M. Broom of Lansing at her right.

At the close of the luncheon Mrs. Margaret Yerkes voiced the sentiments of the entire group when she paid tribute to the unselfish spirit in which Mrs. Brennan has used her outstanding ability here among us. As a musician she has responded willingly and given great pleasure to her hearers, as a mother she has been ideal. As a teacher in a Sunday school she has not only taught well but held the love of her pupils. Even in a comparatively brief residence in Northville, she has endeared herself to many and this occasion was taken to express the love of all. As a maternal token of love a gift of silver was presented.

To this Mrs. Brennan responded with modesty and feeling, saying that she had thoroughly enjoyed her part in the community and that whatever of good she had contributed had been inspired by the friendship of Northville. "As you have desired me, so have I given," she said.

A visit to a collection of paintings by Dines Carlsen on exhibit on the upper floor of the club house was a pleasing feature of the afternoon. The remainder of the time was spent informally in the lounge where contract, auction or jig-saw puzzles each vied for enthusiasts. At the close of the games prizes were awarded. The door prize, a lovely armful of flowers, to Mrs. J. N. McLoughlin, who handed them over to Mrs. Brennan; the first prize in contract to Mrs. McLoughlin, and in auction to Mrs. Allan Buckley, Mrs. Geo. Harper won first in the jig-saw puzzles.

Wondering "Why are you crying?" "Father called mother a waddling goose."

"Well?" "Mother called father a stupid ass."

"But why are you crying?" "Well, what am I?"

Mrs. Baker Is Hostess To Party of Friends

On Friday afternoon, Jan. 27, Mrs. Ray Baker extended hospitality to a group of young matrons at her home on West street. Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon concluded with a delectable luncheon. Those comprising the party were Mesdames Clyde Schoultz, James Coffron, Fraser Starnar, Orlov Owen, Wm. Jones, Ural Clark and Arlo Hauger.

Tomorrow morning (Saturday) Mrs. Owen will welcome this same party at breakfast with bridge following.

FOURTEEN BABIES BROUGHT TO CLINIC BY THEIR MOTHERS

Fourteen little "cherubs" were brought by their parents to the baby clinic at the village hall Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 25. After an interval of 4 month because of scarcity of funds this worthy enterprise is again resumed.

Dr. Bready of Detroit was again on the job, assisted by Mrs. J. P. Busby, who is contributing her services as trained nurse. It was interesting to note the remarkable development of these kiddies, some of whom are now plump, rosy toddlers who were last year tiny babies in arms. Many of these have been regular visitors through our short lives and have avoided grave illness by the intelligent care of mothers who have received regular instructions in feeding and care.

One interesting case is that of one baby who weighed only 7 pounds at the age of three months and who now is a "bouncer." Several of these babies have arrived since the last clinic in November and paid their first visit for examination. One crying need, says Nurse Busby, is for cod liver oil, that great substitute for sunshine which all babies should have as a preventative of rickets. Some mothers are not able to buy this now.

The next clinic will occur on the third Wednesday in March and mothers of young children are reminded that this service is gratis at the courtesy of the Northville Woman's club which sponsors it.

COOLIDGE HONORED BY POSTAGE STAMP

As a fitting tribute, the Postoffice Department has ordered the printing of a new stamp in memory of Ex-President Coolidge. The stamp will probably be a three-cent issue and black.

In 1923, the year of President Harding's death a similar stamp was issued—a two-cent black stamp which presented a profile view of President Harding.

A four-cent, brown stamp was issued when President Taft died in 1930. This stamp, unlike the Coolidge stamp was put into regular use, replacing a stamp bearing a portrait of Martha Washington. The Harding portrait was also transferred to the brown, one and one-half cent issue and placed in regular usage.

BROADCAST FROM THE DECK OF A FISHING BOAT AT SEA

LISTENERS on Our Daily Food program had a real thrill on Friday, the 23rd, when they heard over the NBC chain a broadcast from the ice-covered trawler "Flow." The Steam Trawler "Flow" started from Boston Wednesday, and by Friday was fishing on the Georges Bank fishing grounds, more than 200 miles from shore.

"Dob" Stevens broadcasting from the snow-covered deck of a fishing boat.

Stevens, assistant to Judge Gordon, to broadcast right from the deck, the first nation wide program from a fishing trawler. A listener could even hear the winch rumbling and growling as it heaved in on the hawsers, along with the hissing steam as the winch spool revolved. After pulling in fathom after fathom of wet gleaming cable a shout of "She's in" echoes in the ears of the audience. They fastened the big steel hooks of the net are loosened. One of the crew stands right underneath the net, jerking at the draw string and lo and behold down on top of him comes two tons of squirming, struggling fish. A whale of an avalanche of fish! An order from the Captain, and the net is overboard again and ready for a new catch.

LEGION TO PUT ON BENEFIT FOR SCOUTS

Sometime soon, the Northville Boy Scouts-Drum and Bugle Corps is going to blossom out in brand new distinctive uniforms.

That is, if plans, originated by members of the local Lloyd Green Post of the American Legion materialize. Deeming an organization which has devoted so much time to its work as has the new bugle corps extremely worthy, the Legionnaires are planning to go "sled length" in outfitting the boys with new uniforms. A benefit show will be put on soon and the proceeds will be used for the Boy Scouts.

BOY SCOUT BENEFIT AT PENNIMAN-ALLEN THEATRE ON FEB. 21

The Lloyd Green post of the American Legion will sponsor a show to be held on Tuesday evening, Feb. 21, at the Penniman-Allen theatre for the benefit of local Boy Scout troops. The Boy Scouts have been exceptionally active and at present are engaged in organizing a drum and bugle corps. Good progress has been made under the guidance of musical experts and the corps is planning to display its talent soon.

The show, which the Legion is sponsoring, will present a number of talented young singers and dancers and several other vaudeville attractions. The charge for the entertainment will be extremely nominal, the sponsors say. Further details of the show will be contained in subsequent issues of The Record.

ULRICH'S AUTO IS DAMAGED BY FIRE

Fire in the motor compartment of Irvin J. Ulrich's car standing in front of his office, 109 E. Main street, Tuesday morning about nine o'clock, caused a momentary excitement among businessmen in the downtown district.

EMMONS TO SPEAK TO FATHERS - SONS

One of the occasions anticipated with pleasure will be the annual Father and Son Banquet to be held at the Presbyterian church house on the evening of Thursday, Feb. 16. The speaker of the evening will be Owen Emmons of Detroit. No better man could be chosen for this talk as Mr. Emmons is not only the father of several boys, whose chum he is, but he has for a number of years been at the head of the Cooley high school in Strathton where he is the idol of hundreds of young folks. Every father and son will be glad to hear this friend of boys.

SOLD

Whenever the paper tells us of the kidnapping of a boy or girl, we at once picture to ourselves the sorrow and heartache, the horror and fear, that goes with it. "The poor parents!" we say. "The poor child!" And maybe that night we dream of it and tremble. And, truly, it is a dreadful thing for a child to be stolen, perhaps mistreated and killed.

There is a kidnaper around all the time the devil, who tries to rob us of our soul's salvation. And, sad to say, many a father and mother stand by and let Satan rob their boys and girls of their eternal life. And if once in the hands of Satan, then follow shame, disgrace, and finally eternal death.

Have you sold your soul to Satan? Let us daily strive to be and remain with Jesus, for "Blessed are they that hear the Word of God and keep it."

Service and Sunday school at the usual time, 10.00 a. m. Catechumen instruction on Saturday morning at 9 a. m.

The half hour of Faith and Fellowship every Sunday afternoon from 1:30 to 2 o'clock, over station WXYZ. Everyone is cordially invited to worship with us!

TRAINING SCHOOL HOLSTEIN SETS A JANUARY RECORD

The highest record in Michigan to finish a year's test during the month of January is Inez Jewel Walker, a purebred Holstein, owned by the Wayne County Training School of Northville. According to the Michigan Holstein-Frisian Association, she made 630 pounds of fat from 18,331 pounds of milk, milked three times daily.

Another member of the school herd finished second in the state in the three time-milking daily division for four year olds. She made 558 pounds of fat from 16,250 pounds of milk. This good pair of cows are members of the school herd which is being tested in the national Holstein Herd Improvement Registry test.
