WHY NOT BELIEVE HIM?

Henry Ford says that the world is just entering the brightest era in its history. Well, why not believe that as well as to think that things are going to smash. Henry Ford has often been right.

NO THREE CENT SALES TAX

Unless the retail merchants of the state are to face unfair competition from mail order houses (controlled by inter-state commerce rules) and unless these same merchants are to be crushed by another new burden added to the many they already carry, the three-cent sales tax being proposed by some of Governor Comstock's followers in the legislature, is far too high. If it is adopted we can get ready for trouble. We doubt if the people of Michigan will submit to that high a tax.

Strange that the legislature hasn't yet comprehended that what is needed is not more taxes but a slash in the budgets. The way to cut is to cut and the lawmakers hate to do that.

SENATORS ARE TOUCHY

The United States senators have fired from his job—no one ever seemed to question his ability at it—Dave Barry, whose only crime was stating in Al Smith's magazine that occasionally a crook might have gotten into the senate. In "tossing Dave to the wolves," as some one put it, the dignified senators acted like a lot of spoiled children. They certainly looked foolish in the eyes of a lot of people. Many senators have said far more libelous things than that against their fellow members and others and no one ever lost his job. Are we right in thinking that Albert B. Fall, one time cabinet member and afterwards a federal prisoner, was once a member of the United States senate? It doesn't pay to tell too much if you are only the sergeant-at-arms.

GREEN THINGS AHEAD

Here, Friday, Feb. 10, is the day's best news. Outside the winter wind is howling and it is still around zero. Yet in comes one of our good friends and we get to talking about gardens and flowers. From over the snowbanks, in our mind's eyes we see the budding green of next April, the regal tulips and almost catch the breath of soft winds.

That's a picture that comes best in such a land as Michigan where spring means something when it comes. And speaking of flowers and gardens, do you know of any community that is more lovely than Northville in the blooming time? No wonder we are building here one of Michigan's finest suburban towns. Where most of the folks love their flowers, their gardens and their trees and shrubs there can't be much wrong with the people.

YOUNG MEN IN TROUBLE

Several Northville homes last week suffered real sorrow when sons of these homes were taken to jail because of trouble they encountered at a bootlegging joint at three o'clock in the morning. Only parents can know the disgrace and bitterness of these hours. What can be done about it?

This particular gang seems to have a leader, a big fellow who seems to think he is the hero of the boys around him. He has the swagger, the surly way and swearing, the "hard boiled" attitude of the gangster but probably, like him, down deep at heart is a big coward. Take away his gun from him and he would be nothing to fear, but leave the gun with him and he is dangerous to society. He has been in trouble before but thinks he is too clever for the officers. Of course the only end of that is, that sooner or later, they will "get him."

Young men who associate with this type of manhood usually get themselves into trouble. They set out to be "tough" and they consequently get into tough spots. This business of trying to be "hard boiled" never yet did a boy any good except, perhaps to warn him to keep away from certain paths.

The biggest percentage of this amateur gangster experience could be eliminated if young men were not allowed the free use of automobiles and were in bed nights at reasonable hours. The sorrow is that in too many homes the young men make the rules and the parents follow them.

THE OBLIGATION OF HONEST DEBT

There are enough happenings being reported in the daily newspapers to make one wonder if good American standards of honesty are being lowered. Many people are refusing to pay rent and in some cases even having the temerity to ask landlords to pay them for keeping their property from running down. People who owe honest debts are in some places getting so they laugh at them. From different sections of the country we hear of farmers refusing to honor mortgage sales, and of offering violence to the constituted officers of the law.

One case that challenges attention happened up in Cratiot county right here in Michigan where farmers tried mob rule at a farm mortgage sale. They locked up the receiver of a bank who had charge of the sale, compelled the return of the mortgage for a few dollars and bought stock and tools for a few cents each and then gave everything back to the former owner.

How can anyone who believes in property rights defend such outrageous actions no matter how great the financial troubles of the man on the farm? This man borrowed real money and no matter how his money had changed in value, he is in honor bound to pay it back. As a matter of fact, in this particular case, the money had been borrowed from a bank. Hence when the crowd of angry farmers broke down the normal processes of law, they took money from the depositors in the bank. The farmer himself must know that debts cannot be paid by robbing someone else.

If this sort of action is kept up and condoned, it will not be long before a lot more people will be trying to evade all debts and we shall find property rights a myth. If responsible people stand by and tolerate this kind of mob payment of debts, we shall find the lawless elements of our communities controlling the rest of us. That would be a sad day for American democracy.

Every effort must be made, of course, to make it possible for the harassed debtor to pay his debts and to meet his interest. Mercy and leniency must be—and in many cases are—being shown. But to think that debts can be evaded by violence or by cooperative action of any group, is to oppose the very foundations of our society.

Alien have been hit by the burden of debts under the impact of a lowering dollar the past three years. Great injustice has been done many who bought at inflated values but they have had to carry on and "take their loss." We all know many men who have carried on under such circumstances and commenced life over again after paying their honest debts. We must all continue to do that if we are to re-build our economic order. Men must continue to feel their honest obligations even though they lose their last dollar—and more—in fulfilling them. Abraham Lincoln once walked miles to repay a few pennies. We need right now a little more of his sterling honesty which did not seek to find any way out of an honest debt—no matter how heavy it was.

WANDERING THOUGHTS

"Buy American" is all right if you are talking about Japanese electric light bulbs. They use 20 per cent more current than the American-made bulbs.

Do you know that the railroads of Michigan in the last fiscal year paid the state of Michigan nearly eight millions of dollars in taxes? What do the trucks pay?

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

WISDOM OR "WISECRACKING"

(Clinton County Republican-News)
A college professor is credited with saying that he wanted his boy to go to a small town school where the term was short. His reason was that the boy might get some education outside of school. That may have some merit or it may be just another academic wisecrack.

PAGE THE DOCTOR

(W. G. Fretz in his Newberry News)
After the legislature pulls Mr. Stack's chestnuts out of the fire by postponing all tax sales for a year, declares a moratorium on property taxes, makes it permissible to pay your taxes in ten yearly installments, tells us what the 15 mill tax really means, gives us beer, adopts a sales tax, an income tax, a head tax and a dog tax, reduces the state indebtedness by borrowing "steep" millions dollars from that easy mark, Uncle Sam, helps the real estate speculators out by paying off the Covert bonds, soaks the rich and provides soup houses for the rest of us, everything is going to be just as clear as mud and everyone will know just where he is at.

THE PAPERS SAY

(Chet Howell in The Chesaning Argus)

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt has decided to quit commercial radio work after March 4—will not do much writing, will of course give up the three day a week school. Well Mrs. Roosevelt has a perfect right to do just what she has been doing all this time and she is honest enough to admit that she may have been duped somewhat in the radio work. The country, it seems, has a kind of an idea what its first ladies should do and Mrs. Roosevelt intends to be that kind of a first lady after her husband becomes President and she the first lady.

LET THEM SEE

(The Ionia County News)
A southern Michigan judge suggests that youthful offenders, about to be placed on probation, be first taken on a tour through the Michigan Reformatory at Ionia to convince them that prison life is not all the fine things some people claim it is. And in cases where something more than just probation is contemplated, it might be well to sentence these first offenders to a short prison sojourn, sufficient to allow them to pass through quarantine and get a few days of real pris-

The state of Michigan had an income for the year ending July 1, 1932, of $124,724,083. Nearly 125 millions! And yet Governor Comstock and the legislature want more taxes. Why not cut costs?

There may be some merit to these one-in-the-morning high school dances in Northville after all. Our boy came home Saturday a. m. at 1:30, found that a water pipe had burst and was flooding the cellar in deluxe style. Routing out the household it took 15 minutes to get the water shut off.

Our dog Buster came down to the office against the rules. We chased him away and told him to beat it for home. Running under a car he hid there a while and then went over in front of Nels Schrader's funeral home where he calmly sat down and for a half hour looked over at the Record office out of the corner of his eye. Dogs are smart.

The first death in the Baldwin family came on February 12, 1920, when the father of the writer slipped into eternity after an unusually useful and influential life. Life was never the same after that. Then when our mother died, May 28, 1928, we knew we had lost the last partner of a remarkable home and that in another and different sense we seven children would have to face life in still a new way.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

In your judgment, who are the ten greatest men in Michigan?

on contact. Prison officials tell me that most first offenders get all the punishment they need during the first few weeks in prison. To continue them beyond that period is a mistake in many instances. No hurt to try such a plan out and see how it works anyway.

FOUNDERED OR REFOUNDERED

(Wm. Canfield in The Livingston County Republican Press)

We are suggesting the editorial contained in the Saturday Evening Post of February 4th as food for thought on the part of every business man, every employee, and all others who seek to get the most out of 1933. When we as individuals, families, or business places haul down our ancient and honorable slogans, quit looking in our rear vision mirrors and hang up in their place the motto "Refounded in 1933," we have made the first step toward our happiness, contentment and an honest living during the eleven months just ahead.

tax rate to not more than three mills and leave something over each year to reduce the mill tax rate for the university and the colleges.

Gov. Comstock estimates that something like $35,000,000 to $50,000,000 new revenues would be produced by the adoption of his proposed measures. Either the governor has been misinformed or he is deliberately attempting to deceive the public. Such widespread tax levies as he proposes at the rates proposed, unless universally evaded, would produce nearly $100,000,000 and if dumped into common hoppers as proposed, would lead to an orgy of spending never before conceived in Michigan.

Not an added dollar of revenue is required or should be provided for government in Michigan. All that is required is that a portion of the present property tax burden be provided from some new source to level out the high points in the property tax.

The governor should call to his counsel someone who knows something about taxes and someone who is honest enough to forget regional and personal advantage and to remember the people of Michigan as a whole.

The plan in its general terms is excellent. In its details it shows the hand of clever manipulation. Some Judas is sitting among the Comstock disciples.

$1.50 Per Year in Advance

Large Scale Employment of Men By Government May Bring Prosperity During This Year Says Rex Dye

The total supply of money is around 10 billion dollars. Obviously, between 60 and 65 billion dollars of these savings are nothing more than loans on property or income, such as bonds, mortgages, deposits and other forms of debt. As the value of these items falls, due to depressed markets (considered as a depression), the value of the property and the value of the savings falls likewise and every bank, upon a default or forced sale of depressed property, reduces the amount of credit savings or unimpaired dollar profits.

Now to take an optimistic view of the immediate future of business profits based on the present facts of reduced dollar incomes, a huge and growing debt structure, a bankrupt agricultural population and an unemployed city market is manifestly out of the question.

Trends Are Hopeful

Looking ahead, however, certain trends exist which seem, ordered for the best, and which give logical reasons for more hopeful views. Some justifiable basis for optimism regarding the future does exist.

First, the fact that the money profits concept is beginning to be recognized and the wisdom of unlimited credit and debt expansion is becoming more and more evident. That wealth is made up of land and goods rather than of money and credit is becoming more and more evident.

Second, the fact that business cannot survive on the basis of small business loans.

Third, the fact that financial and industrial enterprises are reaching a point where public interest demands rigid public control is receiving recognition. An example of this is the fact that the Federal Reserve Bank is being directed to control the money supply.

GREED IS CAUSE FOR DEPRESSION SAYS A. W. KRUEMLING

Insatiable greed is the cause for the present day depression, asserted A. W. Kruemling, blind Sunday school teacher of Detroit, who spoke before members of the Exchange club at their weekly meeting Wednesday at the Methodist church house.

Mr. Kruemling was introduced by John Kaibfleisch, who declared that he has never come away from the visionless orator without a feeling of inspiration.

"I have listened to all of the speeches over the radio and they are all attempting to place the depression at the Lord's door when the real cause lies with ourselves," said Mr. Kruemling.

"We speeded up production and salesmanship and oversold ourselves. The cause, nothing more than insatiable greed. Ruthless competition—the worst the world has ever seen—brought us to where we are today. War isn't in it with the business competition that exists in the world of commerce.

"New machinery has been devised to eliminate the work of the hand and the brain. The work being done today is completed with 20,000 less men than it was ten years ago. This elimination of hand labor by the machine is not to enable us to buy a car cheaper. No! It's to undersell the competitor. Some say that we must have progress. Well, what is progress? Is it the breadline, the soup kitchens on our streets?

"I say to you that any development which broadens the field of opportunity for the hand and brain is progress. Any development which narrows the field of opportunity for hand and brain is a menace to society.

Mr. Kruemling gave as his solution the measurement of the demand throughout the country and the distribution of labor so as to provide sufficient food and shelter for every one that can be done. He added:

"They all say we must accept this judgment, the machine, that we must adjust ourselves to its demands. It seems to me that the only thing worth considering is human dignity. Instead of grinding humanity into poverty and dust, let's break the machine.

"Bitter warfare and ruthless competition have ruled, said the speaker, both at home and abroad. The thing that happened in Russia can happen here, he said, and declared himself to be an individual, with an intense dislike for the Soviet system.

"Change is inevitable in our social and economic system," he said in closing, "and I only ask that the spirit of God be in whatever change takes place."

An interesting program on George Washington has been arranged by President Chas. Murphy for next week.

LARGE CROWDS SEE MERCHANTS SHOW WEDNESDAY

Despite the fact that the banks were closed and Northville is a little concerned over the present banking situation in Michigan the Wednesday night merchants' show was well patronized and both performances had a full house.

It was a First National production entitled "Life Begins" with Loreita Young and Eric Linden in the title roles with a carefully selected supporting cast. The story was an intimate sketch of life in a maternity hospital packed with pathos and also the humorous side. It was a highly dramatic performance revamped for the screen from the Mary Douglas Axelson play.

The large attendance at both shows indicated that this vicinity intended to "carry on" and support the merchants' entertainment and show their appreciation of what the theatre management and the local business men are trying to do in providing amusement at a low cost.

Saturday night the Pennman-Alten presents Joe Brown in "I'm a Tenderfoot."

PRESBYTERIANS HOLD GROUP CONFERENCES

For consideration of the deeper interest of the church twenty-five leaders of the local Presbyterian church gathered at the invitation of the pastor, Rev. H. G. Whitfield, Sunday afternoon.

It was a serious conference, delving deeply into the real problems of increasing the effectiveness of the church. On this discussion grew the plan to call together the entire congregation on a "Group" night with small assemblies in various homes.

On Tuesday evening fourteen homes were thrown open to groups of Presbyterians in numbers ranging from 10 to 17. As a friendly background for these "family" conferences, each group sat down to a cooperative supper together which broke the ice for a hearty participation in the consideration of the welfare of their church.

With a designated leader, who had attended the previous conference such questions as "What is the great mission of the church?" "What is my personal responsibility to my church?" and "How may we deepen the spiritual life?" were discussed with genuine spontaneity.

Deeper motive and interest were created. It is planned soon to call together the entire congregation in a big family dinner after which the findings of these various conferences will be generally discussed.

Those who welcomed the groups to their homes on Tuesday evening were Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Stark, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Casterline, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Knapp, Dr. and Mrs. Wilbur Johnson, Mrs. Georgia Yerkes, Mr. and Mrs. Don P. Yerkes, Sr. Mrs. A. Obituary

WILLIAM E. B. CLARK

After a long illness with pneumonia, Wm. E. B. Clark passed away at Sessions hospital Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 14, at the age of 64 years.

William E. B. Clark, oldest son of William and Mary Clark, was born Nov. 21, 1868 on the old homestead, one mile east of Northville on the Seven Mile road. Here, with a brother, Wilmer S. and a sister, Ella G., he passed his boyhood years and youth industriously assisting in the farm work.

Mr. Clark was a quiet, retiring man who loved his home. He was a kind, helpful neighbor and a thoroughly good and honest citizen. For a number of years he was a familiar face in Northville as he operated a milk route throughout the village. With the exception of a few periods of work in Detroit and elsewhere his life was spent in this community.

Six years ago when the homestead was sold Mr. Clark moved to Plymouth where he purchased a farm and shared his home with old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Z. B. Lincoln, who were his assistants in his work. Somewhat over a year ago he responded to the need of his brother, Wilmer and went out to Montana to minister to him in his last sickness.

A few weeks ago while Mr. Clark was ill with pneumonia at his farm home, the house burned and he was brought to Northville to be in the care of his sister Miss Ella G. Clark, the only surviving member of his family. Miss Clark was called home from a visit in Florida to minister to him.

Two weeks ago he was taken to Sessions hospital for care in his critical illness from which he did not recover.

The funeral service will be held at the home of the sister at 212 High street this afternoon (Friday) at two o'clock when Rev. W. Roscoe Barbour will officiate. Interment will be made in the family lot in Rural Hill cemetery.

SPECIALIST TO DISCUSS SWEET CORN PROBLEM AT PLYMOUTH FEB 17

Doctor J. H. Munroe, Specialist in Plant Pathology, will talk on the Bacterial Wilt of Sweet Corn which caused so much damage in Wayne County last year at the Plymouth High School Friday afternoon, February 17, at 2:00 and at Belleville High School at 8:00 the same evening.

The bacterial wilt of sweet corn, often known as Stewart's disease, of corn, was found first in Michigan about thirty-five years ago. Since that time it has been found in practically all of the states with the exception of certain ones in the far west.

In spite of the fact that this disease has been known in Michigan for so many years, it has never caused any serious damage until the seasons of 1931 and 1932. However, during the season of 1931 very few reports came into the college with regard to this trouble. In fact, in looking over our records for the past fifteen years, we have never had more than two specimens of the sweet corn disease sent in to the department for examination.

During the past season, however, the disease broke out in great severity along about the middle of June and was first found in the southeastern part of the state. Practically all of the commercial varieties of sweet corn were badly affected. The most serious damage was caused to the earliest varieties, such as Sunshine and Golden Bantam.

LIVONIA TOWNSHIP WILL HAVE LIVELY PRIMARY ELECTION

(From the Farmington Enterprise)

After a decade in which contests for major offices have been the exception rather than the rule, Livonia township is to have what appears likely to be one of the liveliest primary elections in this section on March 6. Nearly 200 petitions have been given out by Township Clerk John Harlan, on requests of candidates and citizens. It is believed that a number of additional petitions may have been circulated by others who did not apply to the clerk for blanks.

Supervisor Jesse Ziegler, without opposition for some ten years as head of the township government, may have opposition on the Republican ticket at the primary, although it is not certain. He is sure to have a contest in the election however, with two men already in the field for the Democratic nomination. They are Frank Dyer and Fred Schmidt. Petitions have been reported in circulation for Highway Commissioner Arthur Trapp for the Republican nomination for supervisor, against Ziegler. It is also reported, however, that Trapp has decided not to run.

Last year a stir was created by reports that Supervisor Ziegler would have a contest in the election, a candidate to run against him on stickers. Work was done for an opponent, and there was considerable talk but on election day the opposition failed to appear.

Clerk John Harlan, it appears likely, will have no opposition in the primary. He has not been opposed for office in a number of years. However, in the election he will have a contest, with John Altama, a candidate for the Democratic nomination.

Treasurer Daniel McKinney will have no contest for the Republican nomination for another term. However, William Lomas of Newburg is reported a candidate for the Democratic nomination.

Four candidates are in the running, it is reported, for highway commissioner. They are Charles Wolfmont, John Reding, Henry Lavrance and Rosby McKinney.

The job of constable looks good to a lot of aspirants. Petitions are reported in circulation for 14 candidates, with four to be elected. It is known that at least six or seven will actually enter the race. Three are seeking office of justice of the peace, with one to be elected for full term.

AMERICAN LEGION

(By Lisle Alexander in Legion news)

The Boy Scout snow committee, headed by Comrade H. G. White, has the plans all made for Tuesday, February 21. The Pennman-Alten theatre is the place and the entertainment will be provided by a clever group of juvenile players, singers and dancers, and David Fogo, a gol darn stick magician. The price of admission will be 15c and 25c and you are expected to advertise and sell as many tickets as you can. This is for a fund to help our Boy Scout troop and you should help. Will you?

Dues have been coming in fine the last two weeks and now that the February membership drive is on, we should receive more. Forty-three are paid up and we have that many more to go if we equal last year's record. The commander will no doubt have a plan for quick action to unfold at the next meeting so be there and help execute it.

SOCIETY NOTES

Baptist Kiddies Have Valentine Party

The teachers and officers of the beginners and primary department of the Baptist Sunday school entertained 41 youngsters and their mothers at their annual valentine party Tuesday afternoon at the Baptist church.

The children made valentines for the sick children in the Maybury Sanatorium, which were delivered by Rev. F. N. Miner and his assistants at the regular class for these children.

Those sponsoring this affair were Mrs. Earl Montgomery, Mrs. R. H. Amerman, Mrs. Roy Matheson, Mrs. Geo. Biery, Mrs. Wm. Nagy, and Miss Ruth Angell.

Business visitors in Northville Wednesday were B. W. Mercer, Rufus Stevens, and Edwin Stevens, all of Detroit.

DON'T COAST ON STREETS SAYS CHIEF WM. SAFFORD

A warning to parents to send their children to slide and coast on the hills surrounding Northville rather than on the streets where traffic is apt to kill or maim them was issued this week by Chief of Police Wm. Safford.

Many children, he said, are engaged in sledding in the streets and the danger of being struck by skidding motor cars is great. Parents, he said, should take every precaution to keep their children from playing in the streets.

Probably Not

Two acquaintances met in a department store.

"Hello, dear. You look busy."

"Yes, I'm trying to get something for my husband."

"Had any offers?"—Humorist (London).

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Mrs. E. J. Cobb entertained the New Era club for luncheon at Mrs. May Henry's tea room Wednesday noon. Following this, the club adjourned to Mrs. Cobb's home on Grace Avenue where bridge was played for the remainder of the afternoon. Those present were Mesdames Cobb, C. A. Dolph, M. J. Murphy, Bertha Neal, Mabel Hiss, P. R. Alexander, R. E. Atchison, and Lucy Filkins. Mrs. Filkins substituted for Mrs. Charles Sessions.

Hard Lines

"What brought you to prison, man?"

"Competition, mum," was the reply.

"Competition? I don't understand."

"Yes, mum, competition. I made the same sort of half crowns as the Government."—Tatler (London).

Hard Lines

There will be a radio service at the Baptist church Sunday morning a half hour before the regular service at 10:30. The famous sermon "Doomed Battalion" by the Rev. Dr. Barnard G. Clausen, of Syracuse, will be on a national hook-up and those who do not have a radio are invited to attend this service at ten o'clock.

Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet, and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up."

They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute, 25c at all stores. © 1931, C. M. Co.

Every Monday Morning

By "AD" SCHWENGER

My! What a Valentine that was! A News-headline says, "Counterfeit Warning Given."

Most of us would be glad to see any kind of money—counterfeit or otherwise.

Well the eight day holiday is one thing they can't blame on Northville bankers.

Of course, we could blame it all on the democrats but that wouldn't be logical! No more logical than the dems putting the blame on G. O. P. shoulders a short time ago.

Looks like somebody slipped a Joker into the "new deal" the voters requested.

Peboskey—land of the coolest summers and most robust winters.

We could rant on this subject for hours, but you'll be spared.

"From the time last we headed our car Thursday into the teeth of the worst blizzard Michigan has had this winter until our return Monday—every minute was thoroughly enjoyed. Even unto landing in a ditch at 17 below zero on a lonely road."

If you get to that community of skis, skates, and toboggans and are invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Feldman for one of their delicious dinners—consider that Dave Fortune has nominated you as a favorite child.

Noodle soup that warms the cockles of your heart, chicken that melts in your mouth, banana pie that the strictest critic could not resist—what's the use!

Words are at the best, weak to describe such meals. You have to sit down and enjoy them to appreciate their excellence.

You don't have to take our word for the beauty and charm of living in the north country. Ask Coach Harold Ruggles. It's his home land and he knows every nook and cranny of the landscape.

He has dropped off the ski jump up there many a time. After a glance at the jump we gaze at him in awe. It's a long drop and a hard landing.

Some day the Petoskey Winter

DO YOU REMEMBER WHEN?

Fred Quigley manufactured news items for his Nov. date line.

Lee Macomber learned dots and dashes at the local railway station and finally became an expert freight rate man.

There were great sties of maple, oak, elm, basswood, and other hard woods back of the depot along Beal Ave. and at the foot of Main street.

The flag of the anvil could be heard up and down Main street and how Frank Perrin, William Slater, John Hursh, and James Armstrong could wield those hammers?

The Dubuay Manufacturing Company's yard on East Main street was piled high with logs at this time of the year and that it represented work for the following summer?

Alvin Van Dyne was master of ceremonies in the crating of school desks and church furniture and let the product down that long slide from the third floor of the Michigan School Furniture Company's building.

Edw. S. Hastings, "Dad" as most folks knew him, was the chief of the molding room and had such men as Charlie Van Valkenburgh and James Savage tending to their banks? All were called sand rats in those palmy days.

Carnival will be Michigan's Winter Carnival and will attract thousands from all over this commonwealth.

If you can possibly get up next year, pack a few old clothes and enjoy three healthful days in the bracing Michigan winter climate.

Northville will be interested to know that among the few outstanding farmers of Michigan to receive the Master Farmer title, is the father of Mrs. Mildred Zimmerman, home economics teacher in our schools. Mrs. Zimmerman's father is M. C. Morse of Gratiot county. He is also the uncle of Lloyd N. Morse.

A Northville Record of the issue of February 10, left here Monday for Bolton, Lancashire, England, where it will be read by relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Masters, whose daughter, Alice, said the Orange and Black, was one of the two students of the ninth and tenth grades of the high school to get "All A's" for the month of January. Alice's grandmother lives at Bolton.

Northville can contribute its story of farmers getting pennies for stock sold. Harry Musolf, northeast of town, sent a calf to Detroit and his net returns from the commission house were three two-cent stamps. At that he was overpaid one cent as he had only five cents coming to him. When Fred J. Cochran was recently over at Parma, his former home, he found an old neighbor who actually received a dime for two sheep that he had sent to market—a nickel apiece.

Mrs. H. S. Willis has received a very original little drawing of "Wyden, Blynden and Nod" made by her friend, Mrs. Alex Brede of Royal Oak who thus announces the birth of a little daughter, Ruth Gearhart, Feb. 4. Two older brothers welcomed this little sister. Mrs. Brede has many friends in Northville who met her as Mrs. Willis' guest recently. Mrs. Brede, who has spent a number of years in China, is due to speak to the Woman's club here on Chinese Art, on March 10.

Freddie, ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams, South Wing street, had a narrow escape from serious injury recently when he fell upon the ice at the Fishery pond while skating. Freddie struck his head with such violence that it was feared for a time that his neck was broken but he is recovering now and is able to go to school. The family seems to have more than its share of trouble, the father having just returned from the University hospital at Ann Arbor, where he underwent a serious operation.

Carroll Benton is home from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Harold Paul, in Pigeon.

Little Virginia Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lee, has been ill with the measles.

Mrs. J. F. Malmberg is in Detroit this week attending the Michigan Nurserymen's association.

Miss Minnie Schulman of Detroit, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Don R. Miller at dinner, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Nelson of Salem spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Chas. Freydl and family.

Robert and William Barber, the two young sons of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Barber, are ill with scarlet fever.

Mrs. C. F. Murphy entertained the Thursday club at luncheon yesterday. The afternoon was spent at bridge.

Mrs. Irving J. Ulrich entertained her card club at a dessert bridge Friday afternoon at her home on the Six Mile road. Twelve ladies were present.

Luncheon guests of Rev. and Mrs. Frank N. Miner Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Scott McCurdy of Grand Rapids. Mrs. McCurdy is a cousin of Mr. Miner.

Mrs. Fred L. Tucker of Detroit is visiting A. S. Nichols and family this week. Mrs. Tucker will be remembered as Miss Angie Smith, a former resident of this village.

Miss Betty-Richie of Detroit spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom R. Carrington and was the guest of Charles Carrington at the Senior Prom Friday evening.

The Past Matrons club met with Mrs. Lydia Ely Wednesday at luncheon. Mrs. Dawn Holcomb assisted the hostess, and the afternoon was spent at sewing for the Red Cross.

Mrs. Dawn Holcomb entertained her club at luncheon last Wednesday, and the afternoon was pleasantly spent in working up saw puzzles. Eight ladies enjoyed the pleasant event.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hunkley are entertaining twelve guests at dinner Saturday evening in honor of their forty-sixth wedding anniversary. The evening will be spent at contract bridge.

A large number of Northville residents were in attendance at the basketball game at the Plymouth high school gymnasium Tuesday night, between the Northville and Plymouth teams.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl White of Los Angeles, and George Menkin of Lansing, were visitors at the Record office calling on Howard Cheller, last Friday. They were enroute to Detroit to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pitzen of Grosse Pointe were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Stalker Wednesday evening, Feb. 8, and afterward they all attended the Pastime dance at the high school gym.

Word received from Mrs. T. B. Brennan from Lansing says that the children are happily enrolled in their new school. She adds (which will be of interest to many friends here): "I loved Northville and still feel very closely identified with it."

Attending the funeral service of their friend, Dr. W. T. Jaques, at Royal Oak Tuesday afternoon were Don P. Yerkes, Harry B. Clark, Ray Van Valkenburg, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Knapp, Mrs. Georgia Yerkes, Mrs. B. E. Larson and Mr. and Mrs. John Kallbrenner.

The DeKay school-P. T. A. fun party which was held this week Tuesday, proved to be successful. Twenty-five were in attendance and a fund was raised for playground equipment which the men of the association will make. The first collections for this fund were excellent.

Eber Ward Lester, recalling the love of a circus in his boyhood, filled his car with youngsters Monday and took the mto the Shriner's circus at the State fair grounds in Detroit. Those in his party beside his wife were the three Lester sons, Eber, Sprague and Henry, Kendall Willis, William Killett and Kendall Calkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blake and daughter Edith returned Saturday evening from a week's business trip to Toronto, Canada. They went by car and found pretty slippery going. One day while there the mercury dropped to 23 below zero. "In general," says Joe, "I think business people and farmers there are better off than they are here."

The Northville Braves baseball team will give a bake sale, Saturday, Feb. 25, beginning at 10 a. m., at the Palace meat market. The team has been giving a series of these bake sales during the last two months to raise money to purchase new uniforms and equipment. Your support of the coming bake sale will be very much appreciated by the team.

Harold Sonnenburg, the genial mail carrier on route four, bought a bright new axe Saturday night and while engaged in splitting up some chunks of wood for the stove gashed his left foot. The blade pierced through the wood and his house slipper and on into the left foot in an instant. After medical attention and a few days' rest Harold was able to resume his mail route on Tuesday morning.

Jean Anderson Gives Dinner On Her Birthday

Fourteen school chums of Miss Jean Anderson were guests at her home on the Eight Mile road Tuesday evening in honor of her twelfth birthday. Games were the pastime of the evening followed by a dainty lunch. A twinkling birthday cake topped the repast which was served by Mrs. Anderson.

Donald Bray Celebrates Seventeenth Birthday

In celebration of his seventeenth birthday Donald Bray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Starr Bray, on the Base Line road, invited six young friends to enjoy the evening at his home Saturday. Games and the usual good time were concluded with the kind of a lunch that hungry young folks like on a cold night. "Mother's" homemade bread and jam made a real hit with the boys.

Lloyd Clark Is Host To Boys On His Birthday

Lloyd Clark was host to a party of boys in his fourth grade on the occasion of his twelfth birthday Monday, Feb. 13. The young guests arrived at four o'clock and spent the time preparing to supper in jolly games. The table was gay with valentine place cards and favors for each child, and the boys and flagging justice to the menu. The guests were: Billy Coy, Don Kimmell, Billy Widmaier, Bobby Boyden, Jack Holcomb, Jack Willis, Frank and Lewis Eaton, Bob Ross, Bob Hunter, Harold Martin, Clark Armstrong.

Lloyd received many nice gifts from his friends.

Service League Is Entertained At Bogart Home

Mrs. Lena Bogart was the hostess to 26 members of the Service League of the Methodist church at her home Tuesday evening and was assisted by Mrs. Hazel Boyden.

The study of the American Indian was concluded by Mrs. F. N. Miner and an informal debate on "the question, 'Resolved that the government should release its supervision of the Indian,' followed. The affirmative was upheld by Mrs. Boyden and Mrs. Luetta Reng while Mrs. May, Groome and Mrs. Ruth Eberly argued on the negative side of the question. No decision was given.

A duet, "Pale Moon," an Indian song, was sung by Mrs. Leota Amble and Mrs. Rosella Lee. Mrs. Eberly sang a solo.

A buffet lunch with the valentine motif daintily carried out was served in the dining room, Mrs. Miner pouring coffee.

Woman's Club Observes Lincoln's Anniversary In Review

Only a small number of members of the Northville Woman's club braved the extreme cold Friday afternoon to attend the regular meeting. Those who ventured felt amply repaid by the inspiring life of Abraham Lincoln, by Carl Sandburg, reviewed in an exceptionally capable manner by Mrs. John Christensen. To cover a treatise of over 500 pages in a brief outline is an art so well accomplished by Mrs. Christensen that when she had finished, with incredible brevity, her hearers felt that they had glimpsed in a sweeping view the life of this great man.

In an early sentence in the book Mrs. Christensen found her "text" which figuratively portrayed the growth of the nation during the life of Lincoln: "He wore homemade moccasins as a boy, rawhide boots from a factory as a young man and dressed 'tail-suit-shoots' in later years." It was a very human Lincoln picture.

Reporting from her attendance upon the city federation, Mrs. Arthur H. Steele concisely and with understanding criticism, spoke on the dramatization of "Green Pastures."

Rotary Club Entertains "Anns" Right Royally Monday Evening

If any Rotary Anns had been wistfully wondering if their husbands' love were waning, then doubts were promptly scattered Monday evening when they were ushered into the festivities provided by their chivalrous lords.

This entertainment for their ladies was given by the Rotary club at the Presbyterian church house when a number of additional guests were invited to participate in the merry occasion.

At each lady's place at the table was found a valentine avowing the love of her companion. Dainty heart-shaped boxes with pictures of Cupid and his dart were found to contain a touch of sweet sentiment. A bowl of red roses in the center, tall tapers in red and white and nut cups fashioned like roses made the table most attractive. The three-course menu served by the Presbyterian ladies was very delicious.

Previous to the dinner the company saluted the flag and sang "America," paying tribute to Abraham Lincoln, whose anniversary was being honored. Father Jos. G. Schuler pronounced the invocation.

Utter informality and good comradeship prevailed throughout the occasion, making this one of the pleasantest in the history of the Rotary club. During the dinner the kind of music everyone likes, old favorites, was played by a three-piece orchestra: Miss Eunice Cousins, piano; Miss Frances Cousins, violin; and Ernest Racz, cello.

After dinner President Percy Angove briefly summed up the meaning and purpose of Rotary International, naming the places, far and near, where this club, organized for service, reaches.

When the "decks had been cleared," small tables were placed about the room and games and contests of various kinds were played, with Chairman Chas. T. Thornton assisted by Don P. Yerkes and Prof. Angove, as managers. Most generous did the hosts prove, not one guest leaving without a prize of some kind.

Guests who joined with the Rotary club and their ladies on this pleasant evening were Mr. and Mrs. John A. Boyce, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Schrader, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Lapham, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lyke, Mr. and Mrs. T. Glenn Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill S. Sweet, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wilber, Mr. and Mrs. Scott A. Lovewell, and Mrs. Henry W. R. North of Traverse City.

Those in charge of the table decorations were Mrs. Percy Angove and Mrs. D. P. Yerkes.

F. T. A. Observes Founder's Day At High School

It was a real birthday party that the Parent-Teachers' association celebrated together on Thursday evening, Feb. 9, at the high school gym. In spite of the severe cold, forty loyal parents and teachers made their way to this meeting and felt amply rewarded by one of the most successful programs of the year.

Guest speaker of the evening, Arthur Leonard of Pontiac, was introduced by the president, Mrs. E. W. Lester, who has known him for years. Mr. Leonard spoke with authority, both from the angle of the school man, having taught for a number of years, and from the viewpoint of his present profession as an attorney.

His subject in general was "Teaching the Child Responsibility." Assuming the role of the teacher, he imagined his audience the parents and frankly discussed the mutual responsibilities toward each other and their common interest, the child. The teacher, he said, is professional and his methods must not be interfered with by parents any more than a surgeon's technique is by patients. The teacher, on the other hand, has a right to expect the child to come to him trained in obedience and other right habits. Both parents and teachers must cooperate for the best results.

No longer are the "three R's, reading, 'ritin' and rithmetic," the end and aim of education now. Far more important, said the speaker, is preparation to meet real problems in life.

"If my son is to be a ditch digger," said Mr. Leonard, "I want him trained to be the best possible ditch digger. If he is to be a gentleman of leisure, I want him trained to use that leisure for the good of society, not as a menace."

Speaking of the present problem of operating schools under present financial handicap, Mr. Leonard said, "If we do not support the schools we will be forced to support larger penal institutions." In a recent court this attorney saw at one time 60 men—all young men arraigned, for crime! Proper education, he asserts, would largely prevent crime.

With genuine concern this message was heard by parents present who were glad for an opportunity at the close of the program to greet personally the speaker and ask questions.

During a delightful social hour the anniversary of the founding of the Parent-Teachers' association was celebrated while the company drank coffee together sociably, served from a table artistically arranged with spring flowers and a birthday cake decorated with more than 30 lighted tapers. Mrs. C. M. Chase and Mrs. Paul R. Alexander poured.

Other cakes were served with the coffee, but the birthday cake, being too beautiful to eat, was sold at auction by Dr. H. S. Willis with his ready humor. A net of $1.75 was realized for the fund of the society.

Mrs. Margaret Shannon, Chicago visited her sister Mrs. Ann Young, last week-end.
