In what seems like the darkest days since the Civil war, the people of the United States are rallying for the greatest battle of peace times. Victory is near!

HAMILTON AND MAIRS WIN IN NOVI PRIMARY

Ford Brooks Is the Only Democrat To Be Nominated

Novi township made its initial experiment with the primaries in nominating township officers, when on Monday, March 6, a total vote of 474 was cast. Only two republican contests marked the Monday election.

The contest for highway commissioner, waged between William Mairs and Henry Bernardt, resulted in a vote of 250 for Mairs and 224 for Bernardt. The vote for township supervisor showed 46 votes for Chas. Holmes and 416 votes for Chas. Hamilton, present incumbent and veteran member of the Oakland county board.

There was no contest for the following offices: George Simmons, treasurer; Earl Banks, clerk; Scott Loyewell and A. E. Hill, justice; and Frank Martin, Board of Review. Mr. Banks has served as clerk for years.

The only democratic nominee on the ticket was Ford Brooks, for highway commissioner; therefore Mr. Brooks' name will be the only democratic name to appear on the ballot at the April 6 election.

MEN ARE INVITED TO FELLOWSHIP SUPPER

Men of the community are given a cordial invitation to attend the Fellowship supper to be given at the Methodist church house on Thursday, March 16. This supper will be in complete charge of men, both in preparation and serving. The speaker of the evening will be Rev. Howard A. Field, pastor of the Westlawn Methodist church of Detroit. A fine quartet, from the Dr. Field's church will furnish the music. The entire community is invited to attend from Orlov G. Owen or at The Record office.

WOMEN FIGHTING WAR HEAR FROM EUROPE

Northville women who recently listened with interest to a talk by Mrs. Chas. Shain of Birmingham on the findings of the National committee on the Cause and Cure of War, of which Mrs. Shain was the Michigan representative, will be glad to hear the following word from the Christian Science Monitor:

From kings, presidents and high officials of European countries, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt has received messages made public by her today, expressing sympathy with, and appreciation for, the appeal for their cooperation in wiping out war, addressed to their governments by the Conference on the Cause and Cure of War in Washington. Mrs. Catt is honorary president of the National Committee on the Cause and Cure of War, which draws its membership from 11 national women's groups.

JAS. SAVAGE WILL SOON CELEBRATE 82ND BIRTHDAY

April 9 will see our well known citizen, James Savage, celebrating his 82nd birthday. Jim's activity would make one think he was just rounding out 65 years or something like that. But "believe it or not," Jim says that when he was 34 years old he ran the 100 yard dash in ten seconds—which is remarkably fast—and brought home $25 as a prize. No wonder he is going strong—as he nears the century mark in life.

NO CHANGE IN WELFARE WORK

That welfare work must continue as it has in the past many months was the unanimous agreement reached at the meeting of township officers on Monday evening. Full cooperation with local welfare organizations will be extended and no change in the existing program will be made.

Every effort is being made to provide food, fuel and clothing to needy families in this area, say authorities. There will be no "let down" in charitable responsibilities.

TRAFFIC LIGHT CHANGES MADE BY THE VILLAGE

Cady Will Hereafter Be Stop Street At South Center

A warning to all motorists to serve the new traffic changes has been issued this week by Chief of Police Wm. H. Safford.

Beginning on Tuesday, March 21, declared the Chief, the flashing light at the junction of South Center and Cady streets will be discontinued.

Traffic stop signs will be erected, he said, on Cady, making Cady a stop street for South Center street.

The traffic light at North Center and Dunlap streets will be changed so that there will be no more amber light. The change henceforth will be directly from green to red and red to green. The light will use the same color as does the traffic signal at Center and Main streets, the main intersection.

The changes were approved by the village commissioners at their meeting held Tuesday at the village hall.

NATION WILL SOLVE CRISIS, SAYS BOYCE

"We have nothing to fear from the present financial and banking crisis," John A. Boyce, president of the Depositors State Bank, told members of the Northville Rotary club at their meeting Tuesday. "A way out will be found," went on Mr. Boyce "and we can expect better days."

Mr. Boyce, who is an attorney, analyzed the present state and national banking crisis and made it very clear that the only possible way to clear up the national situation is to follow legal steps, slowly and carefully. In trying to find ways of relief for the banks and the depositors, "we are up against legal precedents and tradition. The constitution is a good thing in preventing hasty and ill-advised action. If we don't follow the law, we shall have a worse crisis."

Political wire-pulling, in both Detroit and Lansing, has been to blame for some of the delay in securing proper legislation, stated Mr. Boyce. He commended Governor Cossack for his efforts to get release of the funds of the banks from Detroit, but said there is no legal means to do this, since the controller of the currency has complete charge of the national banks, in which much of this money is held. To release the money for the banks out in the state would create a preference said the local banker. The Northville bank, he further stated, is now receiving all its instructions from the federal reserve bank at Chicago.

President Angove was in charge of the meeting and Leslie G. Lee of the program committee introduced the speaker. Guests were Oliver Goldsmith, Floyd Eckles and Floyd Wilson of Plymouth.

NORTHVILLE BAND WILL GIVE CONCERT FREE MARCH 24

The Northville High School and Community band will hold a free concert on Friday evening, March 24, in the gymnasium of the high school. Manager Fred W. Lyke announced this week.

The band is now composed of approximately 50 pieces and included in its repertoire are a number of new pieces which will be greatly enjoyed.

VENDERS WILL PAY LICENSE IN VILLAGE

Commissioner Makes Changes In Local Traffic Lights

The village commission approved several traffic changes, passed the ordinance and vendors' ordinance and heard the reports of Dr. Wm. H. Safford, village treasurer, John Lisenberger, chief of police, Wm. H. Safford, and Street Commissioner Earl Montgomery at the first meeting of the month held Tuesday evening at the village hall.

The meeting was not held Monday because of the county election. The traffic changes were unanimously approved and made North Center street a through street at Cady. The commissioners will have the flicker light used to prevent accidents at the intersection and it will be removed.

The vendors and hawkers ordinance adopted by the commissioners states that "no person shall engage in the business of hawking, peddling or vending at retail, any goods, wares, merchandise, fruits, vegetables, foodstuffs or other commodities from door to door, or from or upon the streets, alleys and public places or from any hotel or rooming house, on foot, or with a pushcart or vehicle, either by sample or by taking orders, for delivery then or in the future, without first obtaining a license."

The ordinance will be published in full in next week's Record. According to the treasurer's report the village has approximately $700 in bills payable and only $500 with which to meet the current expenses. Dr. L. W. Snow, president, stated that an extra $200 would be provided among the village creditors with scrap.

According to Chief Safford only one person, a man from the Northville, was arrested for desertion of his family and the other a local man, Allan Thane, sentenced to 90 days in the House of Correction for assault and battery.

The commissioners further voted to refrain from giving any village business to any of the local merchants who were not accepting village scrap.

As an economy measure the commissioners voted to remove the police telephone used for emergency calls, which is located on the phone pole at Main and Center streets.

EIGHT COLLEGE MEN WILL SING AT H. S.

Northville music lovers will be glad to learn of a second opportunity to hear the "Symphonians," a group of eight Albion college students who will sing at the high school auditorium Monday afternoon. These singers will sing at the union service of the churches at the Methodist church Sunday evening and have kindly consented to stay over and again at the high school.

Principal R. H. Angerman announced that the program will begin at 2:30 p. m. and any outside the school who are interested will be welcomed. There will, of course, be no charge. The Symphonians sing because they love to sing and for the love of "Old Albion."

greater reason for being satisfied. Rather than give the usual "canned" speech, Mr. Newman answered the numerous questions about football put to him by Mr. Schwenger and members of the club. Many important problems in the football world were thus informally, and very satisfactorily, discussed at the meeting.

The noted quarterback, who won the distinction of being the most valuable player in the United States during the year 1932, modestly revealed his own share in the victories of the University of Michigan, besides bringing to light some of the "mysteries" of the game. He clearly explained the technique of certain plays and he discussed the causes for either victory or defeat in a few of the hardest fought contests.

An invitation by the Farmington Exchange to Northville Exchange was accepted, the meeting to take place next Wednesday, March 15, at Farmington.

Guests at the noonday luncheon were Junior Schrader and A. L. Anderson.

CASH TALKS AT AUCTION

What no cash? This could hardly have been said of the 1500 people who attended the auction held on the R. L. Hendryx farm on the Base Line road, two miles west of Northville, on Tuesday. In this trying period when money seems to have been locked up in the closed banks of the nation, it was indeed encouraging to the men in charge of the auction to see money apparently so plentiful for unusually high prices were bid on livestock, machinery and tools, hay and grain, and even household goods.

The highest prices bid at the Hendryx auction were for the three Belgian colts, which averaged $100 each. The bid on cows averaged $20 each, an exceptionally good price under present conditions.

Hay was sold at $6 per ton, and the grain, on current market prices.

Tools and machinery were sold at approximately 30% of their original value and household goods also won some good prices from the bidders.

Harry C. Robinson acted as auctioneer, Scott Lovewell, clerk, and James W. Smith, cashier.

DAY OF PRAYER IS OBSERVED HERE BY NORTHVILLE WOMEN

It was a thoughtful group of women who gathered Friday afternoon at the village library for the annual observance of the World Day of Prayer. Women of the various denominations were represented in the number which filled the entire room.

Mrs. H. G. Whitfield, wife of the Presbyterian pastor, presided over the meeting inspiring a spirit of unity in purpose through prayer emphasizing the significance of the whole world engaging in prayer together on this day.

The program, being generally carried out, was used with responsive readings, songs and prayers. The singing was led by Mrs. Sherill Ambler at the piano and Mrs. E. F. Blake with the violin.

Prayer by Mrs. J. F. Malmberg was followed by a comprehensive summary of the four projects being supported by the women's organizations, by Mrs. F. N. Miner. These projects are the work among immigrants, the Indians, the women of Christian colleges in foreign fields and the dissemination of Christian literature.

Mrs. Roy Ewing Vale was the speaker of the afternoon. She is the wife of the pastor of the Woodward ave. Presbyterian church of Detroit and left her own church service to bring a message full of help to Northville women.

Mrs. Vale's talk was sincere and full of meaning to her hearers. In answer to the query "What hast thou done?" she cited the stories of four women in Bible history who, each with her own peculiar ability, had ministered to others: Deborah, the leader, the business woman, and Lydia, who gave hospitality and cheer, were commended and the large majority of those listening were comforted to hear the praise of modest Dorcas whose only talent was with the needle but who used this willingly. "Giving self in little deeds of thoughtfulness" was no small service. Mary, "the woman of quiet," was the fourth woman in this line of notable women mentioned.

One statement made by Mrs. Vale struck home especially to the hearts of her hearers: "When God made a noble man he has usually made a noble mother."

As fitting close to this day Mrs. Ambler sang "The Day Thou Giv-

Democrats Will Meet This Evening Republicans On Saturday

Two caucuses this week end, a republican and a democratic caucus, are expected to produce two slates of candidates for election, April 6, for the various township offices for the coming year.

It was believed this evening (Friday) at the village hall, 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of unifying on a list of candidates. The democrats of the community state that no definite list has been composed as yet.

Dr. B. B. Cavell, president of the school board, has signified his intention of becoming a candidate on the democratic platform for the office of township supervisor, but no other names on the democratic form have been made public.

The republicans met Saturday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, at the village hall, and the only contest in evidence at their meeting will be this race for the nomination as candidate for township treasurer between Mrs. E. C. Hinkley and Mrs. Jennie C. Hinkley.

It was believed last week that Herman Kreeger, highway commissioner, was seeking re-election, but this report was unfounded. Wm. Dingman, present road overseer, will bid for the republican nomination as highway commissioner.

All of the incumbents with the exception of Mrs. Helen A. Morris, township treasurer, will seek nomination as candidates for the various township offices which they hold. The list of the incumbents seeking nomination is as follows: township clerk, Elmer Smith; supervisor, W. A. Ely; justices of the peace, Wellington Roberts and Joe Blake; members of the board of review, Carmel Benton and C. L. Dubar.

Irvin J. Ulrich, insurance agent, has signified his intention of running for the short term of office as republican justice of the peace.

Last year the republican caucus drew approximately 250 people and the meeting was held in the high school gymnasium. It is believed that a large crowd will turn out and the meeting will be moved to the high school gymnasium again.

Bishop Edgar Blake of Detroit Will Be One of the Speakers During Methodist Week Here

A week of unusual services begins Sunday morning, March 12, under the auspices of the Northville Methodist church, and ends Sunday, March 19. The program outlined for the week promises to be most inspirational and interesting, and includes some noted religious speakers.

At the March 12 service, Rev. J. Adolph Halmhuber of Ypsilanti has been chosen as the speaker, at 10:30 a. m. In the evening of the same day a union service of the three

LEGION BANQUET ON APRIL 6 WILL BE A BIG EVENT

Committee Is On the Trail Of Noted Speaker As Attraction

Army Day will not go by unnoticed in this community this year in spite of the national dilemma we are all passing through. The committee in charge of the third annual American Legion Community Banquet, which will be held April 6, at 6:00 o'clock, are working hard to make it a big event.

This banquet is to be the first of its kind in Northville. The committee is working hard to make it a big event.

Speakers in line for this date, and one well and favorably known to this community.

Next week plans will have been formulated and they will be announced in The Record but in the meantime would like to tell you that the engagement of Lloyd H. Green, post band leader.

EASTERN STAR BALL IS HAPPY EVENT

The annual ball of the chapter of the Eastern Star, Friday evening, March 10, was a happy event. Being one of the finest social events of Northville during the season. More than sixty couples danced to the music of Strauss's Ten Music Masters, one of whom is a local man, Peter Perkins. The music was unusually good and everyone was in excellent spirits.

In keeping with the times, the affair was carried out very informally; even the grand march, which had been planned, was given up and just the regular dances were carried out.

Over all this company of dancers waved the stars and stripes in flags and bunting, and a martial note in the music now and then reminded the merry-makers that the inaugural ball was at the same time taking place at our nation's capital.

Many guests looked on from the balcony and especially enjoyed the drill put on by about forty members of the White Shrine Drill Team under direction of Mrs. Bessie Sherman of Detroit. Carrying flags and making elaborate formations, the drill was very lovely. The formation of a cross in roses and the presentation of these flowers to Orient chapter was perhaps most interesting.

The roses were received by Mrs. Vance Master, associate worthy matron, in lieu of Worthy Matron Mrs. Catherine Johnston, who was ill. Flowers were in turn presented to the drill team with appreciation from Orient chapter.

During the intermission lunch was served by Mrs. Mary Hedge and her committee and the dancers stayed on a half hour longer than usual to continue their enjoyment.

DEPOSITORS STATE BANK IS NOW OPEN

Northville Institution Does Normal Local Business

After a long period of construction, the new Depositors State Bank, located on the corner of Center and Main streets, is now open for business. The bank is a two-story building, with a modern interior, and is equipped with all the latest banking facilities. The bank is owned and operated by the Depositors State Bank Association, and is a member of the Federal Reserve System. The bank is now open for business, and is conducting normal local business.

THREE CHURCHES TO HAVE HOME GROUP MEETINGS MARCH 2

Members of the congregations of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Baptist churches are invited to attend home group meetings on Thursday evening, March 2, at 7:30 o'clock. The meetings will be held in the homes of the members of the churches, and will be a most interesting and profitable occasion.

It is particularly splendid that this concerted effort is possible and the results will prove highly beneficial. To realize that perhaps 500 people, who have the interests of the kingdom at heart, will meet for fellowship and a consideration of the church's place and mission is to be assured of the impact upon the community for good.

90% OF DEPOSITORS SIGN AGREEMENT TO OPEN UNITED BANK

Harry C. Robinson, a member of the depositors' committee, told The Record on Tuesday that over 90% of the depositors of the Plymouth United Savings bank had signed the agreement to open the institution under the moratorium plan, similar to Northville's. "New agreements are coming in every day," added Mr. Robinson, whose loyal work on the committee has been one of the big factors in attaining success in such a short time.

MRS. E. A. MORTON IS STILL IN GOOD HEALTH

Vying with Mrs. Jennie White for honor as the eldest women in Northville is Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Morton of Plymouth avenue.

Mrs. Morton has been a resident of this village ever since the death of her husband, Frank Morton, twenty years ago, when she came from their home in Montclair county to live nearer her kinfolk.

One brother, Andrew Brown, lives with Mrs. Morton and of late a niece, Mrs. Zongker is in the home assisting them.

Mrs. Morton is the widow of a Civil war veteran. Still active and in good health, she goes about the affairs of the household daily and enjoys reading and sewing. She is a member of the local Presbyterian church but, due to her advanced age is not active in this or in other affairs outside affairs.

Details of the resignation of Harold L. Ruggles, athletic director of the Northville high school, will be found on the Orange and Black page of this issue. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ruggles will regret to learn that they are leaving Northville. No action has as yet been taken toward securing a successor to the coach.

ONE GOOD PROSPECT

A spreader of gloom was just in the office telling us that things were going to be a "lot worse before they are better." "Well, Brother," we answered him, "what little word of cheer can you offer us?" "Just this," he replied, "We'll all be alive when it is all over."

Paste that in your hat. "We'll all be here when good times get going again." That's comfort enough for right now.

A LENTEN OPPORTUNITY

Northville people who have time on their hands (and a little money for gasoline) would find it a real benefit and uplift to drive into Detroit for one of the noon-day Lenten meetings. The biggest crowds ever are attending and discouraged men and women are getting an inspiration that is worth far more than money.

One who has attended one of these theatre meetings will tell you that the opportunity to get a spiritual uplift is one of the finest that can come along.

We will soon be going to Detroit to the ball games. We are going into the city now to hear the message of Lent in song and sermon. It might give you an entirely new slant on life.

"IT COULDN'T BE WORSE"

During the campaign last fall we heard many unkind things said about Northville. "Well it couldn't be worse," they said, "it couldn't be worse than it is now." So they voted, in some cases their prejudices and not their thoughts.

Well, good friends, we are finding out that it can be worse. It has been a lot worse for the past two or three weeks. We have seen the coming of a bank holiday to the whole country and the addition of more men to the army of unemployed. That's worse.

Things are bad now, but remember this. They can still be incomparably worse. But cheer up, it is our sincere conviction that the coming of 1933 Auto Maps to all and the coming of the new year after these dark days the re-building is going to start and that better days are not so far off as some dire prophets would say.

CONGRATULATIONS TO PLYMOUTH

The Plymouth Mail in its last issue stated that 85 per cent of the depositors of the Plymouth United Savings bank had signed the agreements necessary to open the institution on a moratorium plan, similar to Northville's, except that the trust fund here is only 40% while in our neighboring bank it will be 50%.

Northville congratulates Plymouth on this fine achievement. It will be great for Plymouth and fine for Northville—we all live and prosper together.

Northville takes a little credit for the success at Plymouth. We had the fortune (or misfortune) to have our banks "go down" early and our pioneering experiences have been of much help to other towns that have since had to go through our experiences. Well, there is no charge for that. Neighbors are always glad to do what they can for each other. The thing that now stands out is: Northville and Plymouth have solid banks and are ready for the days that are ahead. That means a tremendous lot in these times.

MORE FOOLISHNESS

One way the state legislators of Michigan have of spending the people's money is by investigations, nine-tenths of which amount to nothing.

Michigan State college for some time has been the football of the investigators who want to stir up something. One investigation was recently completed and as a result three men lost their jobs—by unanimous vote of the board of control which ought to be fairly good evidence that all were agreed on the wise thing to do. Instead of leaving the college alone and let it work out its problems—as it certainly can do—now along comes some state senator who has gotten the upper house to vote for an "investigation." Of course it will cost money—and of course the results will be nil but there will be a lot of unfavorable publicity for the abused college and of course the investigators will get their names in the paper.

What a pity that legislators can't be statesmen at times like these when there are real problems on every hand.

HELPING NORTHVILLE FOLKS

Often on Wednesday evening we have gone home from work late and around 6:30 or 6:45 would meet folks on the way to the Merchants' show. Sometimes there would be a big brother and his little sister, or a father and mother, with one "kid" walking on behind. From every street in town they are headed—these little groups—straight for the Penniman-Allen for the week's treat, the let-down, the fun and laughter to help forget the serious side of life which has been gripping us all.

Every time we met these groups we thought: "How fine it is that Northville has the community spirit to put on these weekly shows for the benefit of our men and women, boys and girls."

Scores of people have told the Record that they appreciate the business men's spirit of progress in keeping these shows going.

We also think that we should hand a bouquet or two to the management of the Penniman-Allen and our local manager, Sam Stremich, for the fine pictures and the excellent way of taking care of the crowds. Northville has been getting the latest releases of pictures and our people appreciate this very much.

When this depression—or hard times or panic or whatever you call it—is over we are going to have one very pleasant recollection of Northville during peace time war days—and that will be the Merchants' show at the Penniman-Allen theatre. Isn't it so, neighbor?

WANDERING THOUGHTS

There are some good buys in real estate right now if you have the first payment.

"Many a back is broken by burdens it never bore." Our mother used to quote that to us and how true it is.

Yes sir, it happened. Friday afternoon two Record subscribers were in the office at the same time to pay subscriptions.

Every good American will back President Roosevelt to the limit. He has grave problems to face and should be able to count on the loyal support of every right thinking citizen.

Here is how you lose on stocks. Or more correctly "How Lambs Are Shorn." A Mr. Brown of Pennsylvania testified before the senate committee at Washington that in 1927 he had a fortune of $225,000 which he invested in foreign bonds. When the "bust" crashed in 1929 he was "sold out" by the brokers for $6,000. Now he is "on the welfare."

One of our good friends chides us for being such an "optimist." "Well, friends, one reason we are 'that way' is because all through life—in good times or bad—we have seen so much foolish, absurd, unreasoning, unkind pessimism that caused endless grief and worry. Years ago we made up our minds that it would be more profitable to try to see the bright side of every situation. It has paid."

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

What have you done the past week really to help some friend?

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

HOW TO CUT TAX

(Lee Giddart in Utica Sentinel)
Do you want to see taxes come down? Seventy-two per cent of all federal funds in this country go for war debts and war preparations. We want get much tax money Washington until we stop the organized destruction of society, wealth, morals and life.

THE PETITION VALUE

(Frank Bryce in the Grand Ledger Independent)

Did you hear over the radio Wednesday night how some politician in Texas felt that petitions had no value, and to prove it got out a petition to have Roosevelt appoint Zangara to membership in his cabinet and got 400 signatures before anyone took a tumble to the fact that it was a gag that Zangara was the man who shot at Roosevelt?

But The Indian Might Refuse It:

(Joe Haas in the Hally Herald)

In a talk at a Milford banquet, Judge Dan McGaffey once more told of his implicit confidence in the youth of today, saying, "If they don't do a better job at government than we have done, we'd better turn the country back to the Indians." He also called attention to the fact that while the U. S. A. supplied only one-tenth of the soldiers in the world.

AS OTHERS SEE US

(C. S. Seed in Rochester Courier)

The automobile and good roads have increased our allotment of visitors. Just how do these people view us? Many of them do not see us personally but they do see our homes, our business houses, our out-buildings and our civic buildings. It is by the appearance of these that they judge our town.

We give too little consideration to the physical, outward appearance of our community. There is need of a good, old fashioned tidying-up. A lot of luster to our windows, the sparkle of fresh paint, the abolishment of unsightliness.

We like to see a person neatly dressed, we like to appear neat about our person. Why not reflect the same kind of interest in the appearance of our community? We will be a better community to look upon.

A DANGEROUS AMENDMENT

(W. H. Berkey in Cassopolis Vigilant)

Resolutions have been introduced in the Michigan State Senate providing for an amendment to the constitution making the offices of Attorney General, Secretary of State, Auditor General, State Treasurer, State Highway Commissioner, and Superintendent of Public Instruction appointive by the Governor.

ANNOUNCEMENT

STANDARD SAVINGS AND LOAN INVESTORS are to be congratulated on our having been elected to membership in the Federal Home Loan Bank, thus adding to your security and our usefulness. We quote from a letter received announcing our entrance.

Quotation—"We feel that you should be congratulated, because it means, that your institution is of such quality and condition as to be eligible and acceptable, and to pass the scrutiny of the examiners for the Federal Home Loan Bank at Washington, as well as those of our own bank."

The establishing of this Federal connection greatly adds to our usefulness, in that we are now eligible to draw on the resources of the Federal Bank when our directors find it profitable and occasion should arise.

THE NEW TIME

(Ford News, February, 1933)

NOTHING is going to pieces except that which will not fit into the New Era. All our stupid, inefficient, unjust and unproductive methods are going to the junk pile, and all the finance and legislative tinkering in the world cannot prevent it. But if you are wise you will not stand looking at the junk pile grow, you will get out and see where the New Era is going to rise, and take a hand at rearing it. People who say everything is going to pieces simply because the junk pile is growing, are looking only at one corner of the field. They have limited their vision to the funeral of the Old Era. Turn around, look the other way, and you will see another procession coming on.

—HENRY FORD.

We sincerely hope that if this passes both Houses and is submitted to a vote of the people that the latter will vote it down. Such an arrangement would place every important office of the State in direct control of the Governor, placing all patronage at his disposal, and would enable a Governor to build a more powerful political machine than Michigan has ever seen. We, the people, may make an occasional mistake in the selection of state officers, but even that is better than placing so much power in the hands of a Governor.

WE ARE WITH YOU MR. ROOSEVELT

(Schuyler Marshall in Clinton County Republican News)

Saturday of this week Franklin Delano Roosevelt will take over the duties of President and a weary Herbert Clark Hoover will take a vacation. We would rather be Mr. Hoover than Mr. Roosevelt. Frankly, his fishing trip is just over and he narrowly missed being killed. Mr. Hoover's fishing trip is ahead of him. It will be Roosevelt, not Hoover, that the country will be watching from this day on. The welfare of one hundred and twenty-five million people is the responsibility of the new administration.

The Democrats take over the country at a time when economic conditions are the most critical in its history. If they succeed they benefit everyone. If they fail, they can truthfully say they were given a pretty lame horse with which to start the race. There may be a few partisan politicians left who can see no hope in government by the opposing party—a few, but not many.

The great majority of the people of this country have absolute faith in every man who has served in the

Society Notes

Mrs. Stewart Is At Home

To Bridge Club—A party of eight friends met informally with Mrs. L. C. Stewart at her home on Orchard drive Wednesday afternoon to enjoy a round of bridge. Mrs. C. B. Washburne was a substituting guest.

King's Daughters Have Lunch And Sew Together—A good attendance of members of the King's Daughters met at the home of Mrs. Ray Casterline Tuesday and had cooperative luncheon together and then spent the rest of the afternoon sewing and visiting. Two layettes were completed and further work was done for the Red Cross.

Schoolmates Join Betty Greer In Celebrating Her Birthday—Betty Greer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Greer, north of the village, celebrated her twelfth birthday Monday by sharing it with her schoolmates of the Chapman school. Miss Betty brought a fine birthday cake to school which was served with hot chocolate. Her young friends all wished her a happy birthday. Mrs. Tibbatts is the teacher of this school.

Octette Club Spend Pleasant Evening at Zimmerman Home—The eight members of the Octette club gathered Tuesday evening for one of their good times together at the home of Mrs. Claude Zimmerman, West Main street. After an evening at bridge a dainty luncheon was served with Miss Grace Hawkins assisting hostess. The St. Patrick's day motif was carried out daintily in the decorations, and menu. Winning high honors at bridge were Miss Ellen Reicke and Miss Hawkins.

Saley Home Welcomes Friends At Dinner Tuesday Evening—Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Saley were hosts to a company of sixteen friends at their home Tuesday evening. The first in order was a pot-luck which was equally enjoyed by husbands and wives who are members of this club.

Auction bridge occupied the remainder of the evening with Harry P. Blake and Dr. Saley winning high honors among the men and Mrs. H. C. Hinkley and Mrs. Scott Lovewell among the women.

Mrs. Lee Opens Home To Friends At Dinner—Sixteen friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Lee enjoyed a three course demonstration dinner Monday evening put on by the Weaver Alumnae company. Mrs. Lee was free to enjoy her guests and the entire dinner was served by this representative who followed the dinner with a health talk.

The fact that it was an advertising affair did not at all detract from the enjoyment of the delicious food. The guests remained later for a round of bridge.

Thomas McCordie Is Happily Surprised on His Birthday Friday—When Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McCordie returned from the Lenox service at Our Lady of Victory church they found a large gathering of twenty couples taking possession of their home. The occasion was in honor of the birthday of Mr. McCordie, who was completely surprised and who was glad to learn that his friends cared so much for him.

With dancing and cards the evening was pleasantly and informally spent ending with a delicious lunch. "Tom's" many friends wish him many happy returns.

Service League Meets With Mrs. Leslie Lee—The young women of the Service League were happily entertained at the home of Mrs. Leslie G. Lee at her home on Eaton Drive Tuesday evening with a good attendance of interested members. This newly-organized society seems to be filling a long-felt want among the younger women of the Methodist church.

While needles were busy on Red Cross sewing plans for serving a supper to the Albion College "Symphonians" next Sunday evening, were discussed.

Having completed the study of the American Indian the league will take up the study of China.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by Miss Ione Palmer.

Ward Drouillard Is Surprised On Birthday—On Friday evening, March 3, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Drouillard and their family of Novi were invited to the former's mother's for a birthday supper. On returning home at 8:30 Mr. Drouillard unsuspectingly entered his darkened house when the lights were suddenly flashed on by a company of guests who sang "Hail, hail, the gang's all here." Ward was surely surprised.

The house had been previously decorated by the hostess with the color scheme of green and white carried out effectively. In the delicious lunch this color scheme was also used with a huge pyramid cake decorated with roses and 37 lighted candles—and the secret of Ward's age was out. This cake was made by the hostess, and Mrs. Lee-Hammond. Cards were the entertainment of the evening and prizes were won by the following: first by Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Martin and second by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martin. Consolation went to Mr. and Mrs. Lee-Hammond. The door prize was carried off by Reuben Robinson.

The guests were from Farmington, Northville and Novi and left their hearty good wishes for many more happy birthdays together with many beautiful gifts.

The next regular meeting of the American Legion auxiliary will occur on March 14.

The mothers of the basketball squad of the high school are planning to surprise the boys by giving them a dinner soon. "Don't tell the boys."

"March turned suddenly to the lion" Wednesday evening with a stiff northwester blowing all night and all day Thursday with flurries of snow. Some said they felt the cold worse than all winter.

Wm. P. Seeley and his daughter, Miss Ethel, were called recently to Ferndale by the death of a sister of the former, Mrs. Belle Parshall. Two nephews, Roy M. and Wade, with their families of Springfield, Ill., were visitors in Northville following the funeral.

One of the shortest runs in its history was made by the local fire department Tuesday evening at 10:30, when a roof fire was caused by an overheated furnace at the Gary Deal home two doors from the fire hall. By prompt attention by the department the blaze was extinguished which might have been very serious.

Society Notes

Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary Is Now Seven Years Old

Thirty-five members of the Nellie Yerkes auxiliary gathered at the Presbyterian church house Tuesday evening for their seventh anniversary dinner party. The committee, Mrs. Eloise Angove, Mrs. Louise Bryan and Mrs. Florence Bryan, had arranged the table most attractively for the occasion. In the center stood a gorgeous birthday cake elaborately decorated with small shamrock leaves and seven candles. Tall green tapers at each side and many shamrock leaves sprinkled over the table made it very festive.

After the delectable menu the retiring president Mrs. Ada Bloom, spoke feelingly of her appreciation of the cooperation of the girls during her two years in office.

and the new president, Miss Elizabeth Beard, in a few words pledged her loyalty for the year to come. A fine feeling of fraternity prevailed.

As a pleasing digression from the customary program games were played under the direction of Mrs. D. P. Yerkes, Jr., and Mrs. Katherine Todd.

The auxiliary was honored by having present their namesake and counselor, Mrs. Nellie Yerkes.

Tomorrow CHEVROLET presents

THE WORLD'S LOWEST-PRICED

FULL-SIZE SIX-CYLINDER ENCLOSED CARS

A NEW AND ADDITIONAL LINE OF CHEVROLET SIXES

Another great new line of cars from the leader! Tomorrow, Chevrolet introduces, as an addition to its present Master Six, the new Standard Six line. Big, full-size, full-length automobiles. Built to Chevrolet standards of quality... performance... dependability... and economy. And selling at the lowest prices ever placed on six-cylinder enclosed motor cars.

The styling is modern, aer-stream styling... ultra-smart and up-to-the-minute. The bodies are Fisher wood-and-steel bodies—spacious, tastefully finished—and featuring Fisher No Draft Ventilation. The wind-shields have safety plate glass. The transmission has an easy, clashless shift and a silent second gear. The engine is a smooth, fast, responsive six. And Chevrolet engineers have made economy an outstanding feature! Engineering tests show that the Standard Six goes more miles on a gallon of gas, more on a filling of oil, than will any other full-size car on the road. As for reliability—remember, it's a Chevrolet.

Introduction of this new Standard Six opens the way for new thousands of people to enjoy the advantages of Chevrolet quality. It gives the public, for the first time, a full-size automobile combining maximum quality and maximum all-round economy.

PADEREWSKI PLAYS AT ANN ARBOR MARCH 15

Ignace Jan Paderewski, distinguished Polish pianist, will appear in recital in the Choral Union Series, Hill Auditorium, Ann Arbor, Wednesday evening, March 15, at 8:15 o'clock, Eastern Standard time. His coming to the University city is an important event. His concert will take place exactly forty-one years and one month from the date of his first Ann Arbor concert, which occurred February 15, 1892, on his first American concert tour. During this span of more than four decades, the great pianist-statesman has been heard in Ann Arbor on numerous occasions. He enjoys playing in Hill Auditorium and on frequent occasions has stated that it is the finest music hall in the world. At this time he will play an all-Chopin program.

Mr. Paderewski arrived in New York late in January. He was immediately besieged by newspaper men, and his comments on musical and political matters occupied the front pages of the metropolitan press as well as the press of the country for some time. Recently he has been much talked of as the next President of Poland. He himself apparently has declined to discuss the movement.

In his recitals, this seventy-two year old grand man of the piano has startled the musical world, his playing having been characterized as more brilliant than ever before. He has attained a mastery of performance and his artistry in a sense, represents among great pianists, what Shakespeare stands for in the field of English literature.

While it has not been so announced, it is assumed that this will be the great master's last Ann Arbor appearance and special interest has been developed throughout the State of Michigan, reservations of tickets having come from all sections of the State, from those desiring to hear the distinguished artist again or from those who never before have had this privilege. A limited number of tickets are still available and reservations will be made in sequence by communicating with Charles A. Sink, President, School of Music, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

St. Louis Zoo Has Four
Nice Buffalo for Sale

St. Louis.—Unless the St. Louis zoo officials find buyers for four buffalo they want to sell for $75 each the zoo workers are going to have a feast on buffalo meat. Officials said that the zoo is overstocked with buffalo and if they can't sell the animals they will be slaughtered and a banquet tendered the workers.

PHONE PLANES BY DIALING NUMBERSNew Development Is Aid to Air Communication.

Chicago.—In a quiet room at the Chicago airport, a man sits at a desk dialing numbers on a telephone and talking into a microphone. He is talking to pilots of large passenger planes flying on routes that extend from Chicago city to the sea in the east, south, and west. By the simple expedient of dialing a number he selects the plane to which he wants to talk.

The two phones on his headset bring in almost continuous reports from pilots, flying hundreds of miles away. By means of two receiving sets, which are attached to the headset, he hears all the pilots talking at once. When he dials a number, he increases the volume of one pilot's voice, at the same time decreasing the others to whispers. However, he must listen to them all in order to hear an emergency call.

This scene occurs daily in the radio dispatch room of United Air Lines at the Chicago airport. The dial by means of which the congested flow of radio conversation is controlled by the dispatcher is a new development, perfected by communications engineers of the United Air Lines after a year of experimenting. It has been adopted and will be installed in the 36 ground radio stations of the air transport system.

A typical scene found Dispatcher H. P. Morgan on duty in the dispatch room. The minute hand of a clock above his desk reached 20 minutes after 11 o'clock. It was time for a report from J. H. Smart, pilot of a plane eastbound from Cleveland. Smart was reporting on the NAT Kilocycle band, so Morgan dialed the numbers 07 to increase the volume of that receiver, and then the number 87 to decrease the volume of the other receiver, which brings in the NAT Kilocycle band.

"Go ahead, Smart," Morgan said. "Smart in 86 westbound, 3 east of Helmer 3,200." The plot's voice came in loud and clear. Smart's few words indicated that he was flying plane No. 86 three miles east of Helmer, Ind., at an altitude of 3,200 feet.

"O. K. Smart 3 east of Helmer 3,200," Morgan replied. "Chicago, weather overcast, 2,000; foot ceiling. Visibility 3 miles. Wind west 5 miles an hour; temperature 33, barometer 30.07."

Their conversation was over.

Tourist Plays Own Game
and Beats Monte Carlo

Monte Carlo.—The new International Sporting club, whose boast is "we are willing to play any game," was $12,000 poorer, because it accepted the challenge of Jay Merrivell, a tourist from Jersey City.

Merrivell proposed a game of chuckaluck, an ancient Chinese dice game, which was popular in the mining and lumber camps of early American frontier days. Although the club management had never heard of chuckaluck it agreed to abide by its boast. Rules of the game were found by croupiers after a feverish search of gambling literature.

The game consists of foretelling combinations of three dice inside a shaker with odds 180 to 1 against the player.

Merrivell guessed right three times during the evening and departed, $12,000 wealthier.

Rural Postmen to Feed Hungry Birds

Nature Lovers of Country
Will Supply Grain.

Hartford, Conn.—Official co-operation of 40,000 rural-free-delivery postmen has been enlisted in a nation-wide "Feed the Birds" movement, with the full approval of the first assistant postmaster general in Washington.

Nature lovers throughout the country will supply grain for "Mr. and Mrs. Hungry Bird," and the rural letter carriers will scatter it at places along their routes, where birds can find it.

The movement, under the leadership of Thomas H. Beck, chairman of the Connecticut state board of fisheries and game, is an effort to save the wild birds of the country from the starvation which threatens them as a result of the snow blanket now covering most of the northern and eastern states.

"The best bird food, under present conditions," says Mr. Beck, "is the grain known in feed stores as 'tailings and sweepings,' which can now be purchased in 100-pound bags at about a penny a pound, the lowest price in recent years. Any public-spirited citizen who wishes to participate in this campaign to save the nation's bird life may purchase a bag of this grain and address it to 'Mr. and Mrs. Hungry Bird,' in care of Rural Carrier, R. F. D., with the number of one of the rural routes in their neighborhood. The rural carrier will then see that the grain is emptied in suitably sheltered spots where the birds can readily find it."

Packages of anywhere from five pounds upwards may be sent in this way, with the usual parcel postage attached.

In Connecticut, the movement is already assured of complete success, thanks to the leadership of 69 sportsmen's clubs. In other states, it will have the co-operation of the Boy Scout organizations, the 4-H clubs, the game clubs and members of the Audubon societies.

The leaders of the movement make it clear that they are not suggesting that food for the birds should in any way be permitted to interfere with food for human beings. "Unemployment relief and necessary charitable enterprises must naturally take precedence over everything else at this time," says Mr. Beck. "But there certainly are thousands of nature lovers who will wish to supplement their charity to their fellow man with a thought for the wild life of the countryside."

NEWS AROUND NOVI

Novi School News

Tonight, March 10, at the Novi school a farce in three acts "Lookin' Lovely" will be presented by the Novi high school. The cast of characters will be as follows: Persimmon, faithful colored servant, Dorothea Kent; Whinnie Bordine, who has inherited debt-ridden farm, Daur Granzow; Amarilla, village postmistress and broadcaster, Laura Toletene; Buddie, Whinnie's little brother, Billy Hanson; Clytie, Whinnie's little sister, Eleanor Hill; Jennie Matthews, friend of Whinnie's, now on stage, Margaret Pratt; Speed Baykins, the sheriff whose chief desire is to "catch" Amarilla, Bayne Pratt; Esther Hastings, who has been abroad, Dorothy Tyler; Bill Baker, a promoter looking for something to promote, Lloyd Holmes; Jim Dugan, his pal and fellow promoter, Fred Johnston; Cholly, a young Englishman and dramatic critic, Gerald Trotter; Moe, a theatrical producer, Elmer Toletene; Time, the present, summer, Place, Interior of Bordine farmhouse. The grade children will furnish entertainment between acts. The play starts at 8 o'clock. Admission will be 10c and 20c.

Elmer Toletene won the checker tournament held in the high school recently. James Munro was runner-up.

The percentage of attendance and current membership dropped considerably last month because of the epidemic of whooping cough. The primary grades are affected the most; the first grade has only one pupil in school.

The eighth grade has completed an interesting study of Michigan history, and also a general review of American history. They will now take up a study of Civics.

The teachers report that the following pupils received superior grades for the month of February: Primary grades—Wilma, Clara, Thelma Gow, Harold, Drouillard, Jean Munro, Gertrude Nash, Dorothy Stubbs, Eddy Balvo, Valler Lorian, and Evelyn Wenker.

Intermediate grades—Charles Trickey, Nina Wenker, Marjorie Peole, Irene Kenner, and Marion Lozan.

High school, Edwin Hill, Mervin Trotter, Lloyd Holmes, Dorothy Tyler and Gerald Trotter.

Most College Girls
Tell Mothers All

New York.—The secret is out. Mother is still the college girl's confidante. The boy who murmurs sweet things into his companion's ear may rest assured that his honeyed words will be relayed back to mother.

In the study of "Problems of Freshman College Girls," released at Columbia university, Dr. Eugene Andrus Leonard reported 65 per cent of the coeds interviewed at Syracuse university talk over their love affairs with their mothers.

The survey also indicated, although Doctor Leonard deems it unlikely, that "31 per cent of the girls interviewed have had no love affairs."

BURCH NEWS

St. Paul's Lutheran

Leo C. Eickstaedt, Pastor
220 Elm St.
The hour of worship and Sunday school begins at 10 o'clock. This Sunday the pastor will preach on the text: "The Universal Need of a Savior".

The third mid-week Lenten service will be held on Wednesday evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The topic for this service will be: "Jesus manifests His redeeming love to a fallen disciple".

The half hour of Faith and Fellowship is broadcast every Sunday afternoon, from 1:30 to 2:00 o'clock over station WXYZ.

Friend will you not make it your privilege and duty to spend an hour with Jesus each Wednesday evening during Lent, and every Sunday as well? Surely no Christian will willingly merit the rebuke the gentle Savior was forced to utter in the Garden: "What could ye not watch with me ONE hour?"

A cordial welcome is extended to all to worship with us. We at all times preach Christ and Him crucified. "A changeless Christ to a changing world!"

Methodist Church

Rev. Frank N. Miller, Pastor
Sunday morning worship at 10:30 o'clock. The preacher of the morning is the Rev. J. Adolph Hamhuber of Ypsilanti, superintendent of the Ann Arbor district of the Methodist church.

The Sunday school convenes at 12 o'clock noon.

The young people's devotional service is at the church at 6:30 p. m.

The Sunday evening united service for the Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist churches is at the Methodist church. The Albion College Male Octette will give the larger part of the evening program and a member of the faculty will speak. We expect that Professor King Kellogg will sing. Some of our Northville folks will remember his part in the Messiah at Ann Arbor, last Christmas.

Methodist Week

Methodist week presents several fine services for our people this coming week. The people of Northville are cordially invited to share with us in these services announced elsewhere.

Church of Our Lady of Victory

The Holy Name society urges men young and old, to attempt at least a monthly spiritual cleansing by receiving the Sacraments on each second Sunday. This happens next Sunday, March 12, at the early Mass.

About fifty attend church each morning during this Lent. The church is filled each Tuesday and Friday night at 7:30. A voluntary and regular attendant at church always has the advantage of opportunity for goodness and peace of mind over a non-attendant.

Catechism each Saturday morning from 9:30 to 11 o'clock.

The subject for public discussion at the services next Tuesday night at 7:30 will be: "The Pope." The items covered will be "Usurpation?", "Furious Antagonism," "Infallibility or Guesswork?", "Temporal Power," "Justified Terror" or

RUTH CHATTERTON IN MOST DRAMATIC FILM

One of the most dramatic court scenes ever showed upon the screen takes place in the First National picture, "Frisco Jenny," at the Pennington-Allyn theatre, Saturday, March 11.

Here it is that Ruth Chatterton as "Frisco Jenny," is pilloried on the stand by her own son who is ignorant of the fact that she is his mother. She sits silent as he accuses her of being the evil genius of the Barbary Coast, notorious for its evil crimes and its illicit traffic in women. Nor does she open her lips when she is convicted of murder and sentenced to be hanged; for, paragon of evil that she is, motherly love withholds her from making known the facts she knows will destroy him.

Ruth Chatterton's role in "Frisco Jenny" is by far the most emotional one she has had since "Madame X." The picture affords her a rare opportunity to display that great histrionic ability which has elevated her to her present high estate.

This is a stirring tale of San Francisco's water front along the Embarcadero in the days when temples of pleasure and gambling dens flourished unmolested in all their gilded evil.

A St. Patrick's party will be given for the public in the church hall on Friday evening, March 17, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Presbyterian Church

Sunday, March 12, public worship will be at 10:30 a. m. The church school will follow at 12 noon. Strangers are always welcome to these services.

The union evening service will be in the Methodist church.

Thursday, March 16, at 2:30 p. m. the Stewardship Study class will be in the manse.

The Presbyterian Men's Fellowship dinner will be held Wednesday night, March 15 in the church house at 6:30. A feature will be the high school debate "Resolved that the Federal government guarantees bank deposits." The affirmative will be Wilma Rattapiggy and Robert Cousins while the negative will be upheld by Warner Neal and John Steencken. Paul Baldwin will act as chairman and timekeeper.

Baptist Church

This church has received an awakening as a result of the sticky meetings. At this writing a number have been received or expressed the desire to be received for membership. For this reason the pastor, Rev. W. Roscoe Barbour, will preach on "The Duties of Discipleship," at 10:30 a. m. The Sunday school at 11:45 and B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p. m. as usual. The Union meeting at 7:30 p. m. will be at the church.

Tonight (Friday) the Phylathea and Baraca classes meet at 7:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Nagay on Cadz street. This meeting is being held on Friday on account of the P. T. A. Thursday evening, and a full attendance is desired. Next week Wednesday March 15, at the First Baptist church of Ypsilanti, there will be a conference on Men's Work conducted by W. C. Boyle of Brooklyn, N. Y. Five of our congregation expect to go to this conference. Mr. Boyle represents the National Conference of Northern Baptist Men.

Salem Federated Church

Where will you be next Sunday morning at half past ten? If you need courage and a new outlook on life, you will be in your place for the church service. The message will be "The Coming World Dictator." Some attention will be given to the "Number of the Beast," a question much discussed by Bible reading Christians during the World War and revived in these difficult times.

Visit our Sunday school. When you see the type of teaching that is being done we feel sure that you will want your children to be regular in attendance.

The South Side Circle of the Ladies Aid will hold a Penny Supper in the church dining room on Friday evening, March 10 at 6:30. This will be a cafeteria service with each article of food costing a penny. There will be games after supper. All are welcome to come and enjoy an evening of food, fellowship and fun for a few cents.

and Wallace Ford, featured in "Central Park" the First National picture to be shown at the Pennington-Allyn theatre, both had humble beginnings and are proud of the fact. In the play Miss Blondell takes the part of a "stranded actress." Many times she herself has been left flat by road shows going "busted," she declares. Her parents were vaudeville troupers and she was "practically born on the stage." She spent many years in touring the country with good and bad luck before she rose to important picture roles.

Wally Ford began his career as an orphan in London. He was apprenticed to a Canadian wheat farmer but ran away to join a stock company. After years of barnstorming he finally won recognition as one of the finest screen players.

"Central Park" is a delightful romance of a boy and girl, both broke, who meet on a park bench. Their thrilling adventures in the big city form a glowing romance of modern times. The story was written by Ward Morehouse, the Broadway columnist.

Rex Dye, Writer On Economics, Explains Plan He Has Developed For Establishing Credit Exchange

Northville-Record readers will be much interested in the outline of a proposal to establish a credit exchange for the purpose of facilitating the exchange of goods and services by our well known citizen, Rex Dye. He has written books on economic subjects and is a member of the Bureau of Applied Economics. Mr. Dye explains his plan as follows:

An outline of a proposal to establish a credit exchange for the purpose of facilitating the exchange of goods and services.

First: It is proposed to establish an exchange and clearing house for credits arising from the production, ownership and sale of goods and services to be known as

The Merchants and Consumers Credit Exchange

Second: This Exchange shall issue, transfer and clear such credits as shall arise from the various exchanges of goods and services occurring in the usual channels of production and distribution.

Third: The services of this exchange shall be available to merchants, manufacturers, other business enterprises, farmers, and consumers who shall comply with the requirements for participation in its exchange functions.

Fourth: The Exchange shall issue Deposit Credits to merchants, manufacturers or other producers or distributors, secured by Notes Payable in Goods or commercial services, or checks drawn against the Exchange which these producers own and can deliver title to.

Fifth: Producers and distributors shall have the right to issue Checks Payable in Goods or commercial services against the credit balance which they have with the Exchange.

Sixth: Any individual or firm accepting these checks shall have the right to counterclaim and deposit them with the Exchange and receive in return Deposit Credits to the amount of the face value of the checks so deposited.

Seventh: Individuals or firms receiving Deposit Credits under paragraph six shall have the right to issue checks against these credits in payment for goods or services as in paragraph five.

Eighth: The checks issued by depositors in the Exchange shall be accepted as currency in payment for goods services and debts including debts to the Exchange arising from notes under paragraph four, from depositors in the Exchange, provided however, that no depositors shall be required to accept such checks in an amount greater than his credit balance with the Exchange. Any depositor may accept checks beyond his credit balance however and deposit them for further credit as provided in paragraph six.

Ninth: As checks are deposited at the Exchange they shall be charged against the accounts of the issuing depositors cancelled and returned exactly as in commercial banking practice.

Tenth: Each depositor shall be given a "Bank Book" in which Deposit Credits to his account shall be entered and a check book for checking against these credits. Depositor will sign signature cards for check identification.

Eleventh: Depositors will receive monthly statements of their accounts together with cancelled checks.

Twelfth: No checks shall be honored where an overdraft exists.

Thirteenth: A charge of 1% per month on monthly balances payable in Checks against the exchange or legal tender shall be made to cover operating costs.

Fourteenth: This exchange shall be organized as a non-profit corporation with a board of directors of seven men who will elect such officers as shall be necessary to carry out the work of the Exchange.

Fifteenth: Directors of the Exchange shall limit the expansion of Exchange credit to depositors offering security in the form of demand liens on diversified goods and services of current demand.

Working of the Exchange.

The principles under which the Exchange operates are those of the familiar bank credit and like bank credit, Exchange credit is based upon goods. The merchant desiring $1,000 to meet payroll goes to the Exchange, signs a note payable in goods instead of money and receives in return a bank book with a credit to his account of $1,000. He issues checks to employees or others against this credit. Employees may either (a) Spend this check for goods with any member of the Exchange, or (b) Deposit the check with the exchange thereby opening up an account for themselves against which they can check. Due to the checking account provision the disadvantage of change making is eliminated as checks can be drawn for the exact amount of purchases.

There can be no checking rights or credits against the Exchange outstanding which are not secured by liens on merchandise. Consequently every dollar of outstanding credit can be liquidated in goods.

Should the city desire to secure credit with the Exchange for payroll or welfare it could do so by signing a note payable in goods, i. e., taxes, street car tickets, etc. The note could be met by the city with Exchange checks received in payment of taxes and deposited by the city to its account with the Exchange.

Manufacturers could use this credit to expand employment, paying their men with Exchange checks. These men could spend for goods especially by opening up checking accounts with the Exchange.

Three factors are of considerable importance, first: securing as large and diversified a list of major buyers as possible covering especially lines of necessary consumer goods thus increasing the currency and circulation of credits; second: expanding local production of such consumer goods as far as possible, as Exchange checks would not be generally acceptable in payment for out of town goods. The development of similar exchanges in other communities would make intercommunity exchange possible however; third: expanding employment where ever economically possible and meeting payroll with Exchange checks. Such employment must result in goods production adequate to balance the credit extended by the Exchange.

While this credit money will not of course take the place of legal tender, completely it will greatly lighten the burden on our present limited supply of government money and greatly facilitate the production and sale of goods. Its value will be as stable as that of money—value expressed in prices is but an expression of an exchange equivalent—and exchange credit can only be used productively. It cannot be advantageously hoarded, inflated, or gambled with. It can expand only on an expanding basis of goods—real wealth—and is always self liquidating.

The basic difference between a check drawn on the Exchange and one drawn on a solvent bank is that the former is redeemable only in goods, which is after all the only important purpose of money. The basic difference between the credit of the Exchange and that of the commercial bank is that the credit of the Exchange is based upon existing goods of current demand and payable on demand, while the bank credit may be based partly upon such goods, partly upon currency, and partly upon long term investments in mortgages, bonds, and stocks, and partly upon nothing more than signatures.

Why you stubby pup the food I got here is plenty good for you. What'll ya have? Soup, chops, hamburger, pie, coffee, tea, milk, or a punch in the eye!

This insulting brand of friendliness goes on during the entire length of George's dinner hour. Finally as he flushes he selects a toothpick, grins at Bob who with an understanding twinkle, smiles back at him. George saunters out. Bob goes on polishing the cups and the exchange is resumed next day at noon.

Their remarks must be read with a glossary.

Think of the vast numbers of unemployed in the ranks of the check raisers and forgers union.

By the time the villages of Detroit, Plymouth, Northville, et al get through printing scrip we'll all have a regular stamp collection. Then we can swap early Northville stamps for rare, old Plymouth pieces of scrip and organize a philatelic society.

Say, if the rest of you people are willing we'll just call the whole depression off.

And anyhow, business is fundamentally sound. We know, because we heard it on the radio.

FAMILIES HANG ON TO THEIR MOTORS

Shrinkage in Licenses Less Than Was Expected.

New York.—That the automobile industry has a firm basis for recovery is indicated in a report issued by James Dalton, editor of Motor.

The experience of 1932 shows that there is still in operation one car for every six of our population. The figures show that the American people regard their cars as an essential part of their lives and cling to them as long as possible.

The record of 1932 car registrations reported by Motor discloses that there are still 20,929,091 passenger cars in operation, in the United States. Counting the 3,253,292 trucks that are in operation, the total is 24,182,383 vehicles. This represents a decrease of 1,631,720 car registrations, or 6.1 per cent, from 1931, but since 1932 marks the culmination of the business recession, the decline was less than might have been expected. The trucks registered in 1932 numbered 3,253,292, which is 8.1 per cent under 1931.

A drop of only 2,192,498 car licenses from the 1929 peak is an unexpectedly small shrinkage and provides substantial evidence of the importance of individual transportation.

The editor of Motor points out that the losses in passenger car registrations since 1929 reflect with fair accuracy the relative pitch of the depression in different states.

Speaking of the industrial East—New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Massachusetts and Rhode Island—and the west coast held up the best. The plight of the farmer is clearly revealed in the drop in car licenses in agricultural sections.

The states that had the worst decline in the three years span were the southern and western agricultural states.

Numerically, the heaviest losses were: Michigan, 270,000 cars; Texas, 165,000; Ohio, 138,000; Oklahoma, 129,000; Iowa, North Carolina, Illinois and Wisconsin more than 100,000 cars.

It is not to be concluded from these drops in car registrations since 1929 that more than 2,000,000 cars have gone to the scrap heap. A large proportion of them, while serviceable, are in storage because the owners are unable to pay operating costs.

Speed Up Atheism.

"During the third year greater activity is to be organized in atheistic groups. During that year all who give religious instruction who shall not have renounced their religious beliefs are to be expelled from Soviet territory."

"During the fourth year all churches, synagogues and houses of prayer are to be put in the hands of official institutions for the organization in these buildings of cinema, clubs and other means of enlightened entertainment."

"During the fifth and final year, the previously achieved results in the struggle against religious mentality will be consolidated and developed."

ATHEISM CAMPAIGN OF RUSSIA EXPOSED

Details of Five-Year Plan Never Fully Published.

New York.—Details of a "five-year plan of atheism" never published in full by the Soviet government, were made known by Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. The organization received a report on the plan, it was said, from a European correspondent.

The anti-religious decree, effective last May, appeared in part in the Advance Guard of Youth, described as the journal of the Pan-Unionist Commission Extraordinary for the Fight Against Religion, according to the correspondent. The complete decree is said to have 118 articles divided into five sections, corresponding to the five years. During the first year measures were to be taken to close all religious schools, academies and Catholic seminaries and to discontinue the teaching of theology.

During the second year the edict is quoted as saying, the campaign is to be conducted to the end that "from May 1, 1937, there shall not remain a single house of prayer in Soviet territory. The very concept of God will be expelled from the Soviet Union as an instrument to oppress the working masses."

From 1933, there is to be organized a drive against religion in the home and in the old convents, the correspondent says. By October, he adds, "it is expected that all Soviet institutions will be purified through the absence of persons holding religious beliefs."

The printing of religious books, brochures and reviews for the use of religious bodies will be rigorously forbidden. The preparation of objects necessary to religious worship will be punished with extreme severity. Special attention will be given to the inculcation of "intelligent" irreligion into the psychology of the masses.

Among the things to be used are atheistic films of which at least 150 have already been created.

Capt. Edward H. Denniston Rises From a Place as Guard in Prison To Head of House of Correction

(From the Detroit Free Press.)
Capt. Edward H. Denniston became a prison guard in Kansas City because he needed a job. Then, he got so interested in prison work that in a short time he was appointed deputy warden of the workhouse in Kansas City and in 1920 was invited to become superintendent of the House of Correction at Plymouth.

He isn't terribly keen about bridge. He'll play it with his family and waits for the moment when scowls follow his plays and he can gracefully make his exit from the table. Poker games attract him just as long as his friends stay within the penny-ante limit.

His reading to a great extent is limited to periodicals and articles dealing with penology, sociology and psychology. His name is on many magazine lists and the numbers are saved on the library table for friends to peruse while he makes his nightly tours through the prison.

He enjoys public speaking—only after he is actually on his feet and talking. Then, he will admit, he hates to stop.

Several years ago he interested himself in amateur photography and since Mrs. Denniston allowed him to fix up a darkroom in the basement of their home he has been as happy as a youngster. Still life pictures interest him and he uses his hunting trips as an excuse to get pictures.

He was born on Dec. 13, 1873, has a fondness for "13" and has a difficult time with superstitions. Every time he builds up a nice pet superstition for himself something happens to destroy his illusion.

He admits that his taste in clothes is "outrageous." Anything that catches his eye in a clothing store is very likely to end in his wardrobe, regardless of how it matches. He depends on Mrs. Denniston to lay out his clothes in the evening to be sure that there is no clash in color.

RUGGLES TO LEAVE N. H. S. APRIL FIRST

Paul Thompson and Pierre Kenyon Will Coach Spring Sports

Coach Harold L. Ruggles handed in his resignation to the school board Monday, March 6. It was accepted and Mr. Ruggles will leave Northville Saturday, April 1. He plans to go into business in Northern Michigan near his home town.

In regard to his leaving, the coach says, "My relations in Northville have been very pleasant and I have enjoyed my work thoroughly. I regret that I must leave the group of boys who have proven themselves so loyal and cooperative."

His resignation, however, will not effect spring sports. The baseball team will be coached by Paul B. Thompson, the manual training instructor, who will donate his services after school. Mr. Thompson will also have charge of the golf team during tournament play. The track team will be handled by Pierre Kenyon, who has had much experience along that line and who greatly assisted in the coaching of the team last year. The games for these sports have already been scheduled and will be carried out as usual.

During his three years as the head of Northville high schools athletic department, Coach Ruggles has added many improvements. He formed the N. H. S. during his first year, he has been the president of the Teachers' club since its organization two years ago. He was largely responsible for the forming of the new suburban league, of which Northville is a member composed of all class C schools. He is at the present time the Vice president of the league.

In addition to coaching and superintending all athletics, Mr. Ruggles taught physical development and two classes in biology. He also scheduled all athletic contests and engaged officials. By his economic purchasing, the coach has done much toward getting the student council out of debt.

Coach Ruggles came here from the Highland Park high school at which he was employed for five years. While there he was a member of the board of five that controlled all athletics in Detroit, Hamtramck, and Highland Park.

COMMERCIAL CLASSES ADD TO EFFICIENCY

The Commercial Department is making much progress this semester. Mrs. Wilma Taylor, head of the department, is now teaching a commercial law class, and there have been several additions to the typing class.

The shorthand one class at semester time had the ability to take dictation at a greater speed and with more accuracy than previous classes. They have now begun work on the dictation records and are nearly through with the first one.

The Typing class is keeping a daily record of its speed and accuracy. The person typing the fastest and most accurately during the class period has his name on the honor roll for that day. There is also a dishonor roll for those who hand in the least work. Arline Richardson and Eleanor Booth had the best speed records for the week, both typing more than 41 words a minute.

'ROUND THE SCHOOL

The Popularity Contest

To many the announcement of the Palladium staff's popularity contest last week came as a surprise. The Palladium staff is earnest in its efforts to have something that will be agreeable to all concerned. It is its firm belief that they can make the much talked-of popularity contest a success.

In the first place, they plan to run it so no one's feelings will be hurt. This can be done by not having nominations or eliminating elections, but having only one general final, and decisive vote. The ballots will then be counted in secret by picked members of the faculty. The results will not be announced until the Palladium comes out. It is the aim of the staff to have the election as close to the publishing of the book as possible.

The 1933 Annual will have many other new features too. The staff is earnestly trying to get out a book that will not only contain pictures but show the public exactly what the school is doing, advertise N. H. S. to the people who pay for it. We believe the Palladium is one of the most important mediums that connect the school and the townspeople. And it looks as though that medium this year will be a fine one.

Smoking in School

Reports have come from grade teachers that they frequently see high school boys smoking during school hours, on the school grounds immediately outside the building.

They object to this, they say, because it has a bad effect on their grade children. And they are right. We can't see where it's an honor in high school. In fact in the majority of cases, it is only showing off. Those students who engage in the practice of "smoking" during school hours and in plain sight of the grade building, are not only deceiving their instructors and breaking an ordinance in the high school constitution, but they are doing something far worse—exerting a harmful influence on children. If they must smoke, they have plenty of time away from school.

We firmly believe that faculty and student authorities should, if they have not already, look into the situation and take immediate steps to stop students from this.

The strain of their studies is evidently too much for certain high school boys. We noticed several recently jumping the rope and playing marbles with the first and second graders.

Viewing President Roosevelt's signature, we formed the opinion that he never met up with Northville's indomitable faculty, who are always wanting one to take penmanship.

We often wonder if the nasalized singers of the lonesome cowboy songs have a continual cold with their continual tune. They would be good French students.

Five N. H. S. Boys Play "Mounted Lawn Tag"; As Result Must All Take Up Landscape Gardening

The ancient and honorable pastime of horseback riding has recently been engaged in by several prominent members of the Northville high school. And the several prominent members through this ancient pastime, which did not prove so honorable, got themselves into landscape gardening.

Last Sunday Mayor Robert Christensen, Donald Bray, Raymond Westphall, Paul Baldwin and Warner Neal turned equestrian. And while riding, someone suggested that they ride to the sandy school play ground and play tag. Well, this was a good suggestion and so the mounted quartet cantered to the school yard.

Finally one member of the horsemen was chasing another member, who it is rumored is the editor of the school paper. Around and around they went. And after a while the pursued, in order to escape the pursuer, galloped out the driveway toward Main street. Apparently he had forgotten that there was a high wire fence around the school grounds. But when he arrived much to his surprise the fence was there. This must have frightened the horse for the four legged animal and its rider turned abruptly and right onto the front lawn of where a man named Knapp has his office. This particular front lawn was very soft and so naturally the hoof prints of the horse were deeply embodied in the turf.

The boys ended their ancient and honorable pastime. Came Monday, and school. And all of a sudden the boys were informed that the man named Knapp was the superintendent of the school. And in some mysterious manner he had found out who the riders were. One reason advanced on how he knew was that Warner or Paul fell off and therein embedded their footprints—but no proof was found.

The boys had a conference with the man who has his office by the lawn where they left their marks. And now it is rumored that the boys have taken a sudden interest in landscape gardening. Maybe they will fix the lawn where their horses trod.

Who knows? And the moral is: Those who ride horses across Superintendents' front lawns must take up landscape gardening.

BONERS

1. Country Boy: B. C. means beef and cattle.
2. Who's riding the horse with the who's sweater?
3. The American Indians live on the reservoir.
4. The girl was on the reception committee to accept them.
5. Students asked the teacher if she would help her diaphragm (diagram) her grammar lesson for the next day.
6. We will next have on the program a solo duet by three girls.

Baseball Benefit Concert Tonight

ALL ARE ASKED FOR NAMES OF YOUNG CITIZENS

Several weeks ago, the Orange and Black announced that plans were being formulated by Supt. T. J. Knapp and the school board whereby all those young men and women who had attained their majority, would be recognized by some sort of a ceremony.

Those plans are now nearing completion. In order to work out the proposed program, it is requested that all persons and anyone who knows of any other persons who became or will become twenty-one between July 1, 1932 and June 30, 1933 inclusive, turn those names in to the editor of the Orange and Black or to the offices of the board of education.

A surprise and one very pleasant at that, awaits those young citizens and citizens-to-be. Complete details cannot be given out as yet, but it is expected that more information on the subject will be issued from the board of education.

SPELLING BEE TO BE HELD HERE ON FRIDAY, MARCH 17

Is Beginning of National Contest Which Ends in Washington

Spelling is in the air!

Students of the grade school and Junior high school are studying hard for the on-coming annual spelling bee, which begins here on Friday, March 17.

The purpose of this spelling bee is to determine the best speller in the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades throughout the Metropolitan district. This district includes all of Wayne, Oakland, and Macomb counties.

The grade spelling bee will be held first on the seventeenth. The winner of each grade will be given a new edition of the Webster's Collegiate Dictionary. Last year's grade winners were: Fifth, Lucille Lapham; sixth, Mary Jane Boelen; seventh, Frances German; eighth, Juanita Elkington.

The school champion will be determined April 7. Each school champion will be given a bronze medal with his name engraved on the back and a picture of Pallas, Athens, Greek Goddess of Wisdom, on the front. The Northville school champion last year was Frances German, who now lives in Carleton.

The district bee comes on April 28th. As far as it is known this will be held at Plymouth high school. This winner not only competes in the Metropolitan Bee, but is presented with a medal at the Coliseum, where the champion of the Detroit district is decided.

On May 8th the bee at Detroit will be held and the victor will both see the beautiful country between here and Washington, and will be presented with a gold medal.

The final bee at Washington, D. C. will determine the National Grade School Spelling Champion and he or she will be awarded with $500 and a plaque for their school, and a miniature one for themselves.

The guy who started this "nothing" business?

Gertrude enjoying, among things, the moonlight, Tuesday?

Editor Neal's lump? I wonder what the horse's reflections were?

Alice Boelen's, alias Samuel Johnson, giggle? It's really quite infectious.

Messrs Kerr and Schrader playing catch with a grape-fruit one day last week?

Art Cook and Paul Baldwin walk into the assembly the other morning? All over a mere pun, too. Tsk! Tsk!

The determined looks on the faces of the girls' sophomore team? Do they want the suits, or do they not want the suits?

Any of the members of the senior play cast on Tuesday morning, following their advent in Plymouth? Sheepish is the word, eh?

The Lit. students working on Heroic Couplets? There's nothing like writing of one's friends, especially if it's the truth you're after.

PROCEEDS WILL GO TO BASEBALL TEAM

Unusual Musical Feature Can Be Attended For 10 and 20 Cents

A benefit concert, the proceeds of which will go to the Northville high school baseball team, will be presented by the music department in the high school auditorium to-night (Friday) at 8:00 o'clock.

The price for tonight's concert is very low. All school students are being charged ten cents and adults twenty cents. The concert will be directed by Leshe G. Lee, high school director of music.

Earlier in the year it was decided that in order to have baseball this year, the committee, composed of Leo Kohler, co-captain of the baseball team, Howard Latta, senior councilman, and Mayor Robert Christensen, must raise $80 before the first of April. The committee has been hard at work for some time, and this concert is the first of their projects.

A contest has been held in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades, each pupil selling five tickets for one cent. In addition to this there has been an extensive sales campaign among members of the committee and of the baseball team.

Captain Kohler, who has given his untiring efforts to the success of the baseball enterprise, says that the committee plans to schedule the University of Michigan football game for Northville soon.

The program for tonight's unusual musical presentation, which contains special numbers, is as follows:

High School Orchestra, Leshe G. Lee, director.

High School Male Quartet—Maurice Giles, Robert Cousins, Ernest Racz, Marie Fraser, Frances Alexander, accompanist.

"Violin" Solo—Dorothy Meisner, Kathleen Rinck, accompanist.

The Dufflers—Gertrude Deal, Florence Johnson, Eleanor Grosvenor.

Cornet Duet—Jack McLoughlin, Ed Angove.

Tap Dance—Ida Altman, Tom McLoughlin.

Girls' Glee Club.

Cello Solo—Ernest Racz, Eunice Cousins, accompanist.

Brass Quintet—Jack McLoughlin, Edward Angove, Robert Lyke, Martin Summers, Frank Knight.

A Cappella, Chorus.

GRADE NOTES

Mrs. Loretta Reng's second grade has started the study of the Dutch. They are reading the "Dutch Twins" and other Dutch stories. They are also planning some Dutch posters.

Miss Nora Wilson's 3rd grade pupil, Harold Schoultz, brought two alligators to school. Rex Dye, another 3rd grader, made "dumb waiter" for Geography class.

Last Friday the pupils of Mrs. Ida B. Cooke's 7th and 8th grade held High Court. Mary Jane Gregory acted as judge and Helen Johnson acted as prosecuting attorney.

GRADE EXAMINATIONS TO BE HELD HERE IN MAY

Northville is one of the places selected by Eber W. Vost, county commissioner of schools, for the annual examinations of the seventh and eighth grades in Wayne county. The examination of the seventh grade will be held on May 18, and for the eighth grade on May 19.

FIRE DRILLS PROVE TO BE EFFICIENT AT HIGH SCHOOL

The State Fire Prevention Society requires every school in the state to have a fire drill at least once a month. Most schools plan for more than one drill a month as does Northville.

The purpose of the drills is to discipline the students and to avoid panic and confusion in event of an actual fire.

The high school building has been emptied on an average of forty-five seconds. One minute should be sufficient for vacating.

Those on the upper floor are required to use the rear stairways. The first floor must use the front exits. Stairways are sometimes blocked to provide an example of hazard.

Throughout the drill quiet should prevail. After leaving the building, the pupils should draw far enough away from the building to allow fire apparatus and fighters room to operate.

HEALTH OFFICIALS URGE VACCINATION

School health officials have advised that all school children consult with their family physician concerning vaccinations. In cases where desired, vaccinating will be done at the school for fifty cents. Parents interested are requested to get in touch with Mrs. Starr Bray, school nurse, at the board of education offices.

N. H. S. LOSES TO ROOSEVELT IN TOURNAMENT

Thursday, March 3, Northville played its last basketball game of the season in the district tournament at Ypsilanti, with Roosevelt high of Ypsilanti, losing by a score of 26 to 20.

The game was characterized by fast play, a little luck for each team, and excitement here and there. Northville was not playing as good basketball as had been played in former games. At the half the score was 9 to 7 in favor of N. H. S.

In the last half the Roosevelt team forged ahead in spite of Northville's valiant attempt to stop this drive.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

Which of the three major spring sports do you prefer and why?

Florence Johnson—I prefer baseball. It is the one sport that every one can enjoy.

Jack McLoughlin—Golf is my favorite. It is a fascinating game and not as tiring as the others.

Myrtle Lemmon—To me baseball is the most interesting and entertaining of the spring sports. It is exciting and filled with thrills.

Esther Bacon—I like baseball, but I want to be different, so I'll say track. I don't know much about track, but I imagine if I did I'd like it, too.

Catherine Gibson—I prefer baseball. I know too much about golf and track, but baseball, from my observations appears to be the most interesting and exciting.

Mary Jane Denne—Although I have not taken much interest in track, it is my favorite sport. There seems to be more action and excitement in it than in the other sports.

Northville students say they intend to win back the games they lost when the basketball season rolls around again.

NORTHVILLE COURT SEASON IS CONCLUDED

Fifteen Boys Will Receive Varsity Or Reserve Team Letters

The district tournament game at Ypsilanti, with Roosevelt high marked the end of the basketball season for the Northville high school. The season was a fairly successful one whether success is measured by games won and lost, or by the team's ability, teamwork, moral, and all around good sportsmanship.

From the entire schedule of the season, four games may be picked which stand out entirely from the rest. These four games were Trenton, Berkeley, Melvindale, and Farmington. The teamwork, fighting spirit, and all around playing were remarkable, as any one will say who saw the games.

Coach Harold L. Ruggles states "It is needless to say I am very much pleased with the team. At the first of the season we had a bunch of green boys, but they went to work in earnest and picked up things quickly. The entire squad really worked and deserve lots of credit. There was only one senior on the team, Leo Kohler, since almost the entire squad will return next year."

There are fifteen boys to receive letters in both first and second teams. There will be no information given out until the last minute concerning who will receive first team letters and who will receive second team letters.

The boys to receive letters are: Capt. Raymond Westphall, Henry Hoffman, Dayton Deal, Irvin Marburger, Paul Baldwin, Leo Kohler, Donald Bray, Bill Duguid, Robert Lyke, Essie Nirdler, Junior Schrader, Sidney Modos, Otis Tewksbury, Herman Hartner, and Jack McLoughlin.

The season was characterized by every member of the team scoring instead of one or two men. Hoffman, varsity first forward, was high man of the season, having scored 47 field goals and 15 fouls making a total of 109 points.

Other first team members scored as follows: Baldwin, center—65 points; Westphall, guard—43; Deal, forward—20; Marburger, guard—28; McLoughlin, forward—50; Bray, guard—39; Kohler, guard—15.

Essie Nirdler, the second team center, was high scorer on the reserve squad with 79 points for the season.

SOCIETY NOTES

Dorothy and Helen Regula of Detroit were Sunday guests at the home of Doris Sears.
