

17TH ANNUAL FAIR WILL BE A BIG EVENT

Board Makes Plans At Its Meeting Monday Evening

You can't keep a good fair board down! Because it has that kind of a fair association, Northville is going to have its seventeenth annual fair, and plans for the event were made at the meeting of the Northville Wayne County Fair association, Monday night at the village hall. The dates set for this year's fair are August 23 to 26.

By careful management, tight squeezing at the corners, and the proper amount of fighting spirit, the Northville fair association has kept solvent while all over the state were suffering severe financial reverses. Even the decision of the State Fair board not to hold its event this year has not discouraged the fair group here.

"I am pleased with the prospect of the fair this year," declared Nelson C. Schneider, fair board president. "I feel sure that Northville will have a bigger and better fair this year. If anything, the decision of the State fair board ought to mean an even greater interest in the Northville Wayne County Fair. This community owes a lot to the public spirited men who have carried on in the face of the present difficulties, and they ought to do everything in their power to co-operate with these men."

Preparations for the publication of the annual fair book are being made and President Schneider, Secretary Floyd C. Northrop, Treasurer Ernest Miller and members of the fair board are working hard to bring this book before the public as soon as possible.

SCHOOL LUNCHEES ARE DISCONTINUED

After serving school lunches for the past few months at the school cafeteria, it has been thought advisable to discontinue these for the season.

This good work has been one of the projects of the Parent-Teachers' association which has been fortunate in having as manager, Mrs. Claude Zimmerman, instructor in the Home Economics department of the high school. With painstaking planning Mrs. Zimmerman has been able to make the enterprise keep its head "above water" throughout the year and lunches, rich in nutrition, yet amazingly low in cost, have been the means of helping many an underfed child to continue his school work successfully.

Behind this worthy project the P. T. A. has stood ready to supply deficiencies.

Mrs. Zimmerman reports that throughout the winter and spring there have been approximately 6,620 lunches served at the cafeteria. This work was undertaken in addition to her regular work and the public recognizes this as a very generous form of philanthropy.

CHILDREN SINGING IN SCHOOL AGAIN

Contributing her services gratis because of her great interest in the welfare of children, Mrs. Wilbur H. Johnston has been giving volunteer instruction to the children of the grades of our public schools for the past few weeks. It will be of interest to know that arrangements for this work were completed with the late superintendent, T. J. Knapp, shortly preceding his death and the approved plan is being carried out.

Since the curtailing of expenses, music previously taught by Leslie G. Lee to the grades has not been taught to the younger children and this work Mrs. Johnston is very capably taking on for the sheer love of it. With excellent training and a number of years experience in teaching public school music, Mrs. Johnston is giving the children good technical training. With the old "Do-re-mi" system, many of the children will be able to read music fairly well by the close of the year. The grades from the first to the sixth are included in these classes with the exception of the third, Miss Nora Wilson, the teacher, being able to instruct her own room.

Parents of children in the grades are deeply grateful to Mrs. Johnston, remembering with pleasure their own school days when music was a large part of the joy of school life, when they sang lustily together "Oh, Come, Come Away" and "Whistle and Hoe, Sing As You Go."

SNOW AND MURPHY STAR SPEAKERS AT BANKERS' BANQUET

Dr. L. W. Snow, Mayor of Northville, and M. J. Murphy were speakers at the Rural District Bankers' association banquet at Oakton last Thursday night where Harry S. German, president of the association, acted as toastmaster. Mr. German writes: "The Record that 'Snow and Murphy were the masterpieces, or at least the mouthpieces of the occasion, and entertained the some, fifty bankers immensely.' He added: "During the festivities, some unscrupulous Carletonite confiscated the Doctor's Lincoln and according to the speedometer, lumbered up his car for thirty-four miles but brought it back from where it was taken. The host apologized to the doctor for the miscreant, stating that there were so many Pierce-Arrows and Rolls Royces in the vicinity that someone may have mistaken his car for a model T Ford and meant no harm by it. The apology was accepted by Murphy."

RECREATION PLANS ARE TAKING FORM

The election of officers and the appointment of a central committee to find the most practical means of providing playground facilities for Northville's children marked the second meeting of the group of public spirited citizens who have taken upon themselves the responsibility of creating recreational features for youngsters in this village. The meeting took place in the high school auditorium on Wednesday evening, representatives of 20 village organizations attending.

Officers elected for the new organization were: Mrs. E. W. Lester, president; Sherrill Ambler, vice president; Mrs. P. B. Alexander, secretary; and Russell H. Amerman, treasurer.

Dr. Douglas was appointed to consider the finding of one person who should have the general supervision of the recreational movement.

The central committee appointed in place of the several committees previously named consists of Sherrill Ambler, Orlow G. Owen, R. H. Amerman and Paul B. Thompson. It is the aim of this committee to find the most practical means of providing tennis courts, croquet grounds, a safe place to roller skate, possibly a swimming pool, and other playground features.

It was almost definitely decided at the Wednesday meeting that most of the equipment and playground space will have to be planned on the school grounds.

The chief purpose of the meeting was to elect officers and listen to the reports of the various committees. It was decided that the best plan would be to appoint the central committee, rather than to have the several groups as previously planned. Representatives will meet next Wednesday, May 24, when all persons interested will also attend.

Of further interest on the program were the enlightening reports from the recent State Council at Jackson, given by Mrs. Alexander and Mrs. Boyden.

Two Indian solos sung by Miss Gertrude Deal with Mrs. Harry P. Blake playing violin obligato and Miss Florence Johnson accompanying on the piano were enjoyed. This meeting was pronounced one of the most interesting of the entire year in which various phases of child training have been studied. Before the meeting closed the following new officers for the coming year were introduced by the president, Mrs. E. W. Lester: Vice president, Mrs. Wilbur H. Johnston; Secretary, Mrs. O. F. Reng; Treasurer, Mrs. H. A. Boyden.

COMMUNICATION

To the Record:

It is time we had a change of the management of Rural Hill cemetery. On my return home from Florida this spring I found dirt thrown from an adjoining lot over the graves of my father and mother, covering rose bushes and grass to a depth of a foot to 18 inches.

Such lack of care is very pitiful. Why cannot something be done about it?

Fred P. Simmons.

R. N. A. NOTES

On Thursday, May 25, the yearly state convention of the Royal Neighbors will be held at Belleville, Mich. The morning session beginning at 10:00. All members who can possibly do so are urged to attend.

THREE PLACES IN NORTHVILLE SELLING BEER

Ten Cents a Glass Is Price Being Paid By The Patrons

Legal beer, after a 15 year vacation, has returned to Northville. John Norton's beer garden at 216 Plymouth avenue, next to the former Globe Furniture company, "Bud" Newton's Inn at 719 Plymouth avenue, and L. M. Co's on East Main street are all dispensing the amber fluid containing 3.2 alcohol.

Local purveyors of the beverage assert that the beer now being sold contains 2.6, or 2.8 alcohol at the most, owing to the fact that the demand is so heavy brewers cannot let it "set" for the requisite amount of time.

Keeg beer is hard to get, proprietors state, and for the present only one type of bottled beer is available here. A ten ounce glass of beer now sells for ten cents, and a bottle costs 20 cents. Proprietors pay $2.60 per case for bottled beer and an additional $1.00 tax which goes to the government.

Several of "mine hosts" stated that the price of beer would drop to a nicker a glass before the summer is over.

Only one wholesale agent is located in Northville and he is unable to sell cases of beer, at present to any but those holding temporary retail licenses. Grocery stores have not yet stocked beer.

The Den Linn, popular Northville eating place catering almost exclusively to male trade, will handle beer as soon as the proprietor, Bob Lee, can obtain a license. Brae Burn Golf club, located on the Phoenix road west of the Detroit House of Correction, has its application in for a beer license, and the Meadowbrook Golf club has been serving beer since the moment it became legal.

A heavy trade throughout the week has favored the beer gardens, proprietors report, and many transients are taking the restaurant facilities of the gardens to capacity.

Speak-easies and blind pigs in this vicinity reveal a sharp decline in their trade, practically their only revenue being brought in through the sale of liquor. All of those functioning before the return of beer are still "hanging on" in the belief that the heavy beer trade is only of temporary duration.

Patrons, say proprietors, are slightly disappointed in the effect of the new beer but many express the belief that six months time will see a decided improvement in its quality.

TWENTY NORTHVILLE GOLFERS ARE ADDED TO BRAE BURN CLUB

Twenty new members from Northville have joined the Brae Burn club this year, according to H. B. Hall, manager of the club. Mr. Hall said that all golf clubs have been badly handicapped because of recent excessive rains, but that the Brae Burn course has not suffered greatly, and is now being brought up to first class condition.

The pre at the Brae Burn club is Ben Boyle, formerly of the Ivy Glen Golf club near Detroit.

Beginning last week lunches were served to members of the club, Mr. Hall said. The club house is being painted and other minor improvements are being made.

J. V. Egan, president of the club and a Kalamazoo official, is very optimistic about the outlook of the club this year, Mr. Hall said.

On Sunday morning club directors will hold a meeting to discuss tournaments for the coming summer.

CHILDREN'S CLASSES APPEAR IN RECITAL

The piano classes of Miss Grace Halverson will appear in a recital at the Presbyterian church at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, May 31. These three classes, comprised of children between the ages of six and eight years, will demonstrate the work done during the past eight months and the methods used are very new and interesting. The Wagness system is used. Miss Frances Alexander will assist the classes in a group of piano solos.

All parents and friends interested will be welcome. There will be no admission fee but a silver offering will be taken to cover expenses.

Twenty-seven Boys Of Northville Will Try To Land Places On Team That Will Play in Junior League

The Junior Baseball League, which is to be sponsored by the American Legion post here is fast becoming a reality, according to the latest report of Ray A. Altenberg, chairman of the embryonic league. Twenty-seven boys between the ages of fourteen and seventeen who are eager to join the league have entered their names with Paul B. Thompson and Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston, the men assisting Mr. Altenberg in organizing the youthful ball players.

Several of the boys who have applied for a place in the league have been under age, hoping against hope that they might be accepted in spite of the rigid rule to exclude all boys but those between the specified ages.

Not only have the boys of Northville shown enthusiasm over the Junior League, but the merchants have also taken up the Legionnaire plan with great interest, and some of them have already volunteered to help in the purchase of balls, bats and gloves. Although the uniforms are to be given by an "outside concern," each locality must find a way to furnish other equipment and Northville merchants have practically solved that problem by offering to contribute to the "cause."

Any merchant who wishes to do his bit should get in immediate touch with Paul B. Thompson or Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston.

An important change in the age limit has been made that will qualify many boys previously excluded from the league. The age limit previously announced was 14 to 16 and one-half years; it has been extended six months. Any boy who is now 17 years of age, or who will reach that age before June 30 is eligible for the new Junior League. June 30 is the date set for the final choice of players.

The date set for the play-off, originally May 20, has been postponed until a later date. Chairman Altenberg is working hard to secure a famous player of the Detroit Tigers to preside at the play-off.

Practice will begin as soon as possible, said Mr. Altenberg.

In discussing the development of the Junior League, Chairman Altenberg said: "This is an opportunity for all sport loving people, of which Northville has a goodly number, to get behind a movement that is intended to stimulate the growing generation into an activity that not only builds up the body but also builds some of the fundamentals of good sportsmanship. This is one of the ends for which we of the Legion are striving in organizing the Junior Baseball League. So come on, you 'old boys' and give the young boys a chance!"

Eight teams will be organized in the 17th congressional district, one in Northville, one in Plymouth and the rest throughout the district. Junior Leagues are being organized throughout the country under the sponsorship of the American Legion. At the end of the season district state and national champions will be selected.

BOY SCOUT RALLY TUESDAY EVENING

Scouts of the Plymouth district, which includes Northville's two troops, N-1 and N-2, will hold a rally Tuesday evening, May 23, at the Wayne County Training School. Parents and friends of the Scouts are invited to attend this interesting event to see the various contests in Scout handicraft such as rope making, fire by friction, bandaging, signaling, compass work, etc.

Parents of Northville have not supported rallies of this nature in the past, declared Orlow G. Owen, Scoutmaster, and an urgent effort to secure a large representation in the coming rally is now being made.

The entire procedure, he says, is intensely interesting besides being worth while and an appeal is being made to parents and Scout friends to turn out next Tuesday.

Over 200 Scouts representing troops from Northville, Plymouth, Rosedale Gardens, Wayne County Training School, and Newburg will be present.

BEG YOUR PARDON

Because of a typographical error the date line for the Rev. Wm. T. Jaquess, 1882-1892, in the article on Northville Presbyterian ministers, was wrong in last week's Record.

The correct date for his pastorate was 1888 to 1892. C. L. Dubuar, who was kind enough to contribute the data for the article, found the error.

DO YOU KNOW

There will be an auction sale of Jersey and Guernsey cows and heifers, also farm team and harness, full line of farm tools: 10-20 McCormick Deering tractor, 10 Narragansett hen turkeys, 1 gobbler 1 year old. Three miles west of Ann Arbor-Pontiac road at 1:30 Tuesday, May 23.

Max Hulett, Owner

HARRY C. ROBINSON, Auctioneer

DR. WICKHAM WILL SPEAK

A special program has been planned for the Union service of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches on Sunday evening at 7:30. Dr. A. B. Wickham, medical director of Eastlawn sanatorium, will give an illustrated lecture on the Grand Canyon, a section of the Pacific coast and the Canadian Rockies. The lecture will be given in the Presbyterian church house.

Dr. Wickham has 150 slides with which to illustrate his interesting travel talk, and all of them are exceptionally fine pictures of the far western coast and mountain regions.

IMPRESSIVE MEET HELD BY D. A. R.

The annual meeting of the Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution with its election of officers for the coming year and its reports of officers and chairmen of committees drawing together the threads of the year's work held the attention of Plymouth and Northville Daughters on Monday afternoon, May 15, at the home of Mrs. George Wilcox on Penniman Ave., Plymouth.

A short regular business session preceded, presided over by the Regent Mrs. Chauncey Baker. An impressive feature of this meeting was presented by the chaplain of the Chapter, Mrs. D. E. Yerkes just prior to the Pledge of Allegiance and read an explanatory paragraph which it would do everybody good to think seriously on. What does the last line of the pledge "with liberty and justice for all," mean to you?

HIGH SCHOOL WINS GOLF MEET FRIDAY

Northville Quartet Takes Honors in Suburban League

Northville high school won the Suburban League Golf tournament held on Friday, May 12 at the Island Country Club at Gross Isle. Other teams competing in the tournament were Melvindale, Van Dyke and Trenton.

Winning the meet gave Northville permanent possession of the trophy donated by Trenton high school. The four players comprising the Northville team were: Louis Campbell, Jack McLoughlin, Royal Snow and Melvin Crissler. Crissler was the only newcomer in the group, the rest being veteran players on the high school team.

The scores of the four teams were: Northville 369, Van Dyke 429, Trenton 448, Melvindale 452. Individual scores of the Northville players were: Campbell 85, McLoughlin 99, Royal Snow 88 and Crissler 105.

It is not yet decided where the regional meet of the Suburban League will be held this year, but the tentative date set for the state meet is June 3, at Lansing.

Last year Northville took second place at the state meet, winning first place in the regional tournament.

HENRY FORD DIRECTS STRENGTHENING OF THE PHOENIX DAM

"If you want anything well done, do it yourself." Surely Henry Ford believes in that adage because the day after the Phoenix dam, which is only a few rods from the Ford factory, was threatened with destruction by the heavy rains, Mr. Ford made a personal survey of the damage.

Apparently Mr. Ford ordered immediate repairs for a day later when he returned from the Ford plant at Dearborn, stated out the area on either side of the dam, needing re-filling.

By Thursday truck loads of dirt were being filled into the yawning gaps left by the uncontrollable waters of the big flood. Both sides of the dam have been built up about three feet.

It is believed that the spillway and retaining wall will be reinforced with concrete.

SPECIAL SERVICES HONOR MOTHER AT FEDERATED CHURCH

Fred Foreman gave the Mother's Day address at the Salem Federated church and B. E. Stanborn read "The Spirit of the Christian Ministry," an original poem written by his mother many years ago. Curtis Hamilton gave a reading, "Mother of Men." There were special numbers of music, and several exercises appropriate to the thought of the day. Gifts were given to Mrs. Cook as the eldest mother present, Mrs. J. C. Cismansmith, the youngest mother, and to Mrs. Leslie Curtis, the mother with the most children at the church service.

DR. RICKERT TO SPEAK AT MEN'S FELLOWSHIP CLUB NEXT THURSDAY

Men's Fellowship club of the Presbyterian church will have its monthly dinner and program on Thursday evening, May 25, at the church house.

Dinner will be served at 6:45 o'clock.

Dr. V. G. Rickert, professor of materia medica, College of Dentistry, University of Michigan, will speak on the subject, "The Russian Experiment."

Members are urged to make the attendance that evening a large one.

15 START WORK AT THE AMBLER PLANT

Fifteen men were put to work at the Independent Furnace-Foundry company Thursday morning, announced Sherrill Ambler, plant superintendent this week. The firm, formerly owned by Mr. Ambler, was sold to a Detroit concern a few months ago.

The plant here has shipped stock to salesrooms in Flint and Detroit, and Mr. Ambler expressed confidence that the firm would be kept busy for some time.

"Furnaces, cast iron fittings, and general foundry products are manufactured at the plant here. Little work has been done during the winter months, and the report that men will once more begin to work is encouraging."

DOUGLAS TO GET COUNTY TO TAKE SCRIP FOR TAX

Arrangements with the Wayne County treasurer's office and the office of the county auditor are being made by Dr. B. H. Douglas, head of the Maybury sanatorium, so that residents of Northville township can pay their taxes in City of Detroit scrip.

Merchants in Northville are seeking every possible means to dispose of the scrip in order to aid employees of the sanatorium who have received a total of approximately $60,000 back pay in scrip, a large part of which has been spent in this community.

Arrangements have not been completed but it is believed that the county treasurer's office would accept the scrip soon.

SUPT. AMERMAN IS EXCHANGE SPEAKER

A new realization of what the position of superintendent of schools means, R. H. Amerman, newly appointed head of the Northville schools, told "Exchanges" Wednesday afternoon at the Methodist church house, has made him a sadder but wiser man.

Mr. Amerman was introduced by Clifford Turbill, who had charge of the day's program.

"Everyone makes mistakes," said Mr. Amerman, "and I am concerned not with making myself a spectacular success but rather with endeavoring to make as few mistakes as I can. The position of superintendent in ordinary times requires the carrying of a tremendous responsibility and requires much clear thinking. Today there is the added difficulty of troubled finances."

"Several problems face the school at the moment. What will happen to the schools in the year to come? Changes are inevitable but along what road shall we travel?"

"Several courses are open to us. We can shorten the school year from nine to six months; curtail the scholastic and extra-curricular program still more than we have already done, but salaries to less than living wages and employ fewer teachers, any one of these procedures will remove Northville schools from the University accredited list."

"My own personal problem involves the abrupt change from my duties at this time of the year to the position of added responsibility that I now hold. With commencement coming on it looms as a large task to perform my own duties and to do justice to the added burden."

"My policy is brief. I intend to do my best to give the best possible education to Northville students at the least possible expense. In doing this I am only carrying out a practice which is already well established."

Mr. Amerman asked that the citizens of the town and the members of the Exchange club support the school.

"QUEEN ESTHER" TO BE GIVEN HERE BY NORTHVILLE SINGERS

Forty singers of Northville gathered at the Presbyterian church on Monday evening for the initial rehearsal of the sacred opera, "Queen Esther," which will be rendered sometime in the early summer. The work is being directed by G. L. Howes, of Detroit who has been engaged in this profession for the past 23 years, having put on this music-drama in 50 or 60 towns throughout the state.

"Queen Esther" is known well by many who have listened to or taken part in the thrilling choruses of this tale of Jewish life as told in the Bible. Mr. Howes is bringing the colorful costumes of that ancient kingdom and the story will be depicted very realistically by at least 60 characters.

Although this opera is being sponsored by the choral of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches, a cordial invitation is being extended to all those who sing for the love of singing. There is no discrimination made in age or creed. The choruses are most beautiful and stirring and enthusiastic response is anticipated.

Nineteen major characters will be represented including the king, Ahasuerus, Queen Esther, Haman and Mordecai. These will be chosen by the leader, Mr. Howes, who will judge the appropriateness of each one trying out for parts. Rehearsals will be held for the present each Monday evening and later more frequently. A general invitation is extended.

USE OF SCRIP IS ENDED BY THE VILLAGE

That Which Is Outstanding Will Be Redeemed In Cash

The issuance of scrip in Northville will be stopped immediately, the council decided at its regular meeting Monday night in the city hall. Lack of cooperation on the part of the public was responsible said commissioners, for the decision.

Scrip will be redeemed in cash at the city hall from now on but it may continue to be used in the village by those who care to use it, the council decided.

Only $200 in scrip were circulated in the village, councilmen revealed. They expressed dissatisfaction over the inability of the people here to "assimilate" this small amount. The council expressed its attitude to the merchants who endeavored to co-operate with them by accepting scrip from their patrons.

Another discussion of great importance at the Monday meeting was the matter of delinquent water bills. Indifference on the part of those who have been ordered to pay their back water bills has aroused the council to take definite action, and unless the water bills are paid or a valid reason is given for non-payment, the water will be shut off.

The recent increase of the iron content in water which caused some consternation among residents here was only temporary councilmen said, as the heavy "run" of iron in the water was caused by the cleaning of the reservoir. After the cleansing of the reservoir the water was said to be in better condition than previously.

WALLED LAKE H. S. CAST ENTERTAINED AT BUFFET SUPPER

The two young men, Norval and John Behan, of Detroit, who have opened the "Cupboard Tea Room" in the village of Walled Lake, were hosts to the cast of "Shurt Sleeves," the junior class play Friday evening after the play at the Walled Lake high school.

Fifteen young people chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Ira Carliet were served a delicious buffet supper in the cozy lamp lighted rooms of the tea room, Mrs. Carliet pouring coffee for the group.

After supper there was dancing to music by George Goodrich on the piano. The guests were: The Misses Florence, Bachelor, Darlene, Beckman, Irma Giegler, Mattie Stott, Lefty Welsh, Dorothy Willard, Ada Woodruff and the Messrs Paul Butten, George Goodrich, Arthur Hazen, Billy Mercer, Donald Post, Harry Russell Gordon Stevens, Edward Sharp.

YOUTH OF CHURCH WILL BE HONORED

May 31 will be observed as "Youth Sunday" at the Methodist church when special attention will be given to the young folks. At the morning service at 10:30 the young folks of the church, from junior high school, will sit together in a place reserved especially for them.

Young folks will participate in this service, as ushers, in the worship program and they will largely make up the chorus choir when special music will be sung.

Instead of convening with the entire Sunday school body as usual, the young people will gather at 12 o'clock in the Epworth League room for their own opening exercises with a program of interest provided.

At 5:30 p. m. until 7:00 the young folks will enjoy together a pleasant time of social fellowship with refreshments. A cordial invitation is extended to all young men and women not elsewhere affiliated to join in this day's services.

McCULLY CAR IN AKRON ACCIDENT

John McCully shoe dealer in Northville, left Tuesday noon for Akron, O., where he was called by the occurrence of an automobile accident involving his car which was driven by Mrs. Bertha Brown, his housekeeper.

Mrs. Brown had borrowed the car with which to drive to Pennsylvania and details of the accident which caused her to be taken to a hospital with minor injuries have not yet been learned. Mr. McCully was expected to return to Northville Thursday.

"KICKED UPSTAIRS"

It seemed to us a great injustice was done by the voters of Michigan last April, when they turned out of office a very worthy public servant, Webster H. Pearce, superintendent of public instruction. His years of valuable experience seemed too rich to be lost.

Now we have quit feeling sorry for Mr. Pearce. The state board of education has recognized his abilities better than the state voters and he has been named as president of the Northern State Teachers college at Marquette, where he succeeds Dr. John Munson, who in turn becomes president of Michigan State Normal college, following Dr. Chas. McKenry.

Dr. Pearce will now take a fine and honored position which should be good for the rest of his life. He will be free from the devastating influence of politics. He has been literally "Kicked upstairs."

CHARITY FOR THE BATTER

Just as we were on the point of being over-critical of one of our friends the other day, we checked ourselves when we thought of a couple of sentences our President Roosevelt used a week ago Sunday evening when he said:

"I have no expectation of making a hit every-time I come to bat—What I seek is the highest possible batting average not only for myself, but for the team."

Splendid talk in a language that all we baseball fans can appreciate.

Our president knows he isn't perfect; he admits he makes mistakes. Well how fine it would be if we should all adopt that policy about each other! If we show charity for the other fellow and remember that we all strike out about as often as we make a hit, we shall cease criticising each other when we make a flimsy slip. Instead we shall slap him on the back and say: "That's all right pal, you'll hit it a mile next time."

THE RAILROAD-TRUCK BATTLE

At the eastern outskirts of Northville runs the Pere Marquette railroad. Every morning one of its trains wakes us up about 5:45 o'clock. How long will that railroad be there? Ever think about that?

Right now the railroads and the trucks of the state are in a great battle. The roads want the trucks to pay more taxes—and it certainly seems as though they should. The railroads pay terrific taxes. Why should not the trucks, which use the highways the people built, pay more taxes?

It will be a serious thing if this nation bankrupts the railroads. In a normal year they support six millions of people; this year they will spend two and a half billions of dollars for labor and materials. If the railroads maintain their own rights of the way, why should the people provide the trucks—especially the giant ones as big as houses—with paved ways to run everywhere?

We need both trucks and highways but we must be fair to both.

It would be a sad day when the Pere Marquette whistle was no longer heard in Northville or Novi.

GUARANTEE OF BANK DEPOSITS

Unless all signs fail, inside of a very few months some form of federal guarantee of bank deposits is going to become a national law. Had we had such a law two years ago, the people of Michigan alone would have been saved many millions of dollars.

The winning over of Senator Carter A. Glass to the cause of federal guarantee make it almost certain that we shall have the plan. He is the senate's best expert on banks and his support means that the legislation is almost certain to pass.

People in and around Northville will be pleased with the plan that accounts up to $10,000 will be insured 100 per cent. That figure will catch most of us. If the banks fail we shall get back all of our money. Above the ten thousand mark the insurance won't run so high.

The imminence of federal bank guarantee is just another indication that little by little we are pulling out of the economic slump. We have had to learn as we went along and every step has had to be worked out by experience. Two years ago it wouldn't have been possible to enact a bank guarantee plan. Now it is, because we have found that it is the only thing that will bring the people's confidence in banks.

NORTHVILLE'S WATER SUPPLY

The village commission has changed its mind about making improvements to the water system and is going more deeply into the question of just what to do about Northville's supply.

In view of the supreme importance of the safety and desirableness of our water, this seems wise. There are many angles to the water question and it is very good sense to find out what different experts say about the possibilities of our water. ("A wise man changes his mind—a fool never.")

Ever since the agitation about water was started, it has been the position of The Record that there is just one way to settle the water question here and that is: To settle it right. We have always believed there must be at Lansing or Ann Arbor men well enough informed on water problems to tell Northville just what is the right and safe thing to do to give us a permanent water system for a generation or two to come. Doesn't that seem reasonable? Then once we know what is the best thing to do, we can plan to do it.

If we have to choose between making partial improvements every year and adopting a plan that will look years ahead, it would seem sensible to face the whole program and then try to work it out. If, for example, the $10,000 public work plan would give us a permanent system that would do away with these perpetual complaints about our water, then this plan might, in the long run, be the best one for Northville to adopt.

At the present time the problem is to find out from the highest authorities just what is wrong with our water system, how it can be corrected permanently and at the least cost and then proceed to find ways and means to do the thing that ought to be done. That is the way a good business man would proceed with a problem in his business.

Northville has that finest of all community assets, a bountiful supply of health-giving water. We are very grateful for that. Modern methods will show us how to control it.

WANDERING THOUGHTS

"Hl faces the land, to hastening hills a prey,
When wealth accumulates and men decay."

Tulips are here! What beauties! Holland, Mich. has a tulip fete that draws thousands. What kind of a pageant day can Northville get going?

Everyone in Northville is pulling for Harold Sonnenberg to get out of the hospital as soon as he can. We miss his pleasant smile and cheery word of greeting.

Good for Lloyd H. Green post of the American Legion. They are backing a ball team for the boys. He who puts his hand on the shoulder of a boy and keeps his path straight helps build a great nation. We need more "backing of ball teams" and fewer laws.

Forty-one dollars of Detroit scrip was reposing in the Record office safe. Didn't know what to do with it. We owed an out of town man 41 dollars—plus. He paid 75 cents to call us up. "Say, Dick, I hear you have some Detroit scrip—you can't use. I owe some Detroit taxes. Can you let me have some of this scrip?" "Agreed," said we. In two hours the scrip was on the way to the tax man, an installment of $41 was paid and everyone was happy. We'll take money first but scrip is not to be despised.

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

REPUBLICANS AND BEER

(Eaton Rapids Journal)
As one fellow said in the Capital at Lansing: "The democrats promised us beer and the republicans gave it to us. Count the votes for yourself." Here's the vote as was. Republicans, 39 for and 3 against beer. Democrats, 16 for and 38 against beer. "In fact, everything you have received so far has been at the hands of the republicans," so this Lansing gent says.

GUARDING AGAINST KIDNAPPERS

(Milford Times)
A lesson from the McNeth kidnapping is that every school should have an iron-clad rule against releasing any pupil in care of strangers. A great many schools take this precaution and excuse a child only on the parent or guardian's written request. In such case the signature is carefully compared with the office file in some city schools an extra precaution is taken by sending someone home with the pupil.

A SPELLING TEST

(R. G. Jeffries in the Lowell Ledger)
How are you on spelling? Good? Well, before reading the rest of this article, get a friend to call the words listed below and check up on yourself. According to authorities these twenty words are the most frequently misspelled by students. Separate, lose, ninety, privilege, villain, chautauqua, accommodate, all right, repetition, ecstasy, exhilarate, hypocrisy, indispensable, irrelevant, oneself, sacrifice, supersede, councillor and embarrass.

How many did you miss?

HARD ON THE GOVERNOR

(Cherryhogan Observer)

By the way things are mulling up down at Lansing we imagine Governor Comstock is beginning to feel that it doesn't pay to be a political goat too long, especially when the dear public sees fit to put across a 15 mill tax at the same time they do their political housecleaning.

WILL FORD MOVE?

(Floyd J. Miller in Royal Oak Tribune)

Is the Ford Motor Company to sell part of its vast River Rouge plant and move a considerable part of its manufacturing back to Highland Park?

Is the company to sell its big steel mill to the Bethlehem Steel Corporation or the United States Steel Corporation?

Officially the Ford Company denies these rumors. There is absolutely no official confirmation to them in any way. Yet such a deluge of these reports is coming from various sources that The Daily Tribune reports them as a matter of information.

"Ford rumors" of some kind are generally in circulation and it is impossible to detect the true from the false until an official announcement is made. The rumors always come from "somebody who knows," but experience has shown that those who think they know are often misled by something that they did see or hear, but that did not at all have the meaning they put on it.

However, reports of unusual activity, both at the Highland Park plant and at River Rouge, continue. It is known that the big steel mill has been idle for several months. It is also known that the big steel companies would like to get into the Detroit territory.

THIS WEEK

By H. H. WHITE

To paraphrase an old saying, "All roads lead to the Century of Progress Fair in Chicago."

As we read the daily papers throughout our land there is one fact that stands prominent, which if one is to judge from the press is creating an interest that equals an impelling curiosity. With the problems that are perplexing our nation today, and the disturbing circumstances concurrent to this nation and the world at large, Chicago is bringing daily into being a more intriguing display of the efforts of human genius than possibly the world heretofore has ever seen gathered all at one time. Even I have become engrossed with curiosity as I ride into the loop daily and see the tops of buildings all built along simple modern lines and rising majestically in awe-inspiring heights towards the sky. I am within a few minutes walk of where I can view the panoramic skyline which suggests to me the progress made from the days of the prairie schooner and ox-cart to the airplane and rapid travel times of today.

Persons all over this country and the world who do not know Chicago, except for its reputation as a rendezvous for hi-jackers, gunmen and racketeers, will want to see this city which is capable of producing such a spectacle of light, power, and twentieth-century progress. Here you are going to find how Chicago can present the spirit of modern progress of science, along with the more recent findings in the laboratory of democracy, which will extensively portray the hopes, desires, and wishes of all liberty loving Americans.

There is little wonder that America is bending her ear and eye towards Chicago which will be the mecca of all tourists and vacationists this coming summer and fall.

Special rates on all bus lines, railroads, airplanes, and special schedules are being worked out for those who contemplate making Chicago their vacation goal this summer.

Any great national attraction serves always to draw people to it, and so will the Century of Progress Fair, and among the results aside from the immediate lessons to be learned from what human genius can do, will be improvement of modern communication and quick travel, the bringing together on one common ground a most diffuse population, the increased multiple of human currents, the erasing and re-

Echoes of Mother's Day

What mother wouldn't be happy on her day to have all of her children at home? With a bound of joy our college girl danced into the kitchen and surprised us. We embraced her in spite of hands floury with the mixing of short cake. Her idea of expressing love was a gorgeous corsage which she insisted on pinning inconspicuously on our dress. Big Brother's pet notion was a box of candy—which all enjoyed—and the Littlest One brought a gay red carnation, painstakingly made at school with this verse:

I love you mother dear
I'm very sure you know it
But this little card for Mother's Day
Is one more way to show it
—Best be the founder of Mother's Day!

To See Ourselves As Others See Us

A group of Northville young men and women were talking Sunday about their mothers. We "listened in" as they discussed mother-traits. One boy said, "If I could have a mother made-to-order I'd have her just like my mother. She's always doing things for us kids."

Another said, "I'd like an understanding mother. Some of them are too narrow-minded. There was a wide difference of opinion on the question whether mother understands the present generation's problems. Some said 'times have changed so she doesn't know how we feel.' Another more mature youth said, 'I believe my mother felt just like we do when she was young.'

John A. Pinkerton

Northville people knowing John A. Pinkerton, who left here 38 years ago, but who has been remembered for his splendid qualities as a boy and young man during his life in Northville, were grieved to hear of his death by pneumonia, May 1, at Glenwood, Minnesota, where he has been superintendent of the fish hatchery for the past 23 years. The following sketch of his life appeared in the Pope County Tribune of Glenwood.

John A. Pinkerton had been superintendent of the fish hatchery at Glenwood for nearly twenty-three years. During that time he had endeared himself to the citizens of this community. He was held in the highest respect by his fellowmen. He had a reputation for honesty and fairness. A living example of the motto, "The way to have friends is to be friendly," greeting his neighbors and friends at all times with a pleasant smile. The city of Glenwood will miss him. Mr. Pinkerton's life can best be summed up in the statement "He was a Christian gentleman."

John A. Pinkerton was born on May 16, 1862 at Northville, Michigan. He was married to Louisa M. Power of Farmington, Michigan on October 21st, 1885. Two children were born to this union, Thomas N. Pinkerton of Montclair, New Jersey and Mrs. Laura Pinkerton-Chinn of Elk, Minnesota. Mr. Pinkerton's life work was the care and propagation of fish. He worked in a fish hatchery at Northville, Michigan, his home town. Later he was transferred to Green Lake, Maine. In 1897 he was

"I want my mother to be a companion—a chum," one said; another, "I wish my mother would not worry about us." We went away thinking

Mother's Creed and Prayer

I believe being a mother the holiest privilege given a human being. Grant, heavenly Father, that I may in motherhood meet the great opportunity of training my child to be a child of thine.

I believe mother-love is sent of God. Help me to understand that love means more than the ardent outpouring of lavish affection. Grant that with my love there may be the seeing eye, the hearing ear, the understanding heart.

I believe in the gospel of good health. Help me to minister faithfully to the physical welfare of my child. Help me to realize that religion and morality are closely related to good health.

I believe that nothing is trivial or of little importance that concerns my child. Grant that I may have the sympathetic understanding of a child nature that makes me a child with my child, laughing with his joys, sorrowing with his sorrows, sympathetic with his faults, helping him through my greater experience, to be fine and true in the little things that count in making an educator.

Help me to be all I desire him to become. Help me through the days of his childhood to be patient and full of cheer. If the way now seems drudgery grant me the larger vision that I may see my child in man's estate, the kindly deeds of a noble life given in service, of perchance that I may hear men say of him, "Here is a man in all that true manhood means." Then shall I feel repaid a thousand fold for the high privilege of being a mother.

Rhubarb Pie

Miss Grace Tremper drops in the Record office now and then from the habit of years. In speaking of rhubarb pie she makes the following suggestions: "When I make rhubarb pie I stew the rhubarb—first (without water) adding ½ teaspoonful of soda and sugar to taste. The addition of the grated rind and juice of an orange improves the flavor wonderfully."

Canned Rhubarb and Pineapple

Stew rhubarb (with no water), add an equal part of grated pineapple (it's easier to use canned). Delicious flavor. Can.

Rhubarb Conserve

2 quarts rhubarb
2½ cups sugar
2 oranges
1 lb. seeded raisins (if desired)
2 cups nutmeats
Cut rhubarb into cubes, chop rind of oranges very fine. Put in saucepan with sugar, pulp and juice of oranges. Let come to a boiling point and boil five minutes. Add raisins, chopped fine and cook for 5 minutes. Remove from fire and add nuts. Turn into glasses and when cool seal with wax or paraffin.

DO YOU REMEMBER WHEN?

You could sit on a cracker barrel in the store and have all the inhabitants in town?

The only means of lighting, the home were candles, and they were made at odd times?

It was every family for itself with regard to drinking water? An open well—a driven well—a flowing well or a spring.

You bought your own school books and kept them when you had passed your grade? Can you find any of them today?

The use of coal oil began and what smoke that yellow oil did make, and how the lamp chimney had to be cleaned daily?

The old fashioned hanging lamp with its glittering spangles, and how marvelously it lighted the dining table or reading table?

Ice boxes were home made affairs and there were only a few of them in town? What a job it was to keep milk, butter and other perishables suitably cool?

There were only a few coal stoves for house heating in our town and you perhaps had to take your turn at cutting the three or four foot wood for that old wood stove?

You had to speak a piece on Friday afternoon as fitting close of the week's school work or your contribution to the exercises when you passed from one grade to the next one?

West Point Park

Harry Wolfe received word of the death of his aunt, Charlotte Wright, of Chicago.

Roy Brown of Barton City is spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heinichman.

The P. T. A. met Thursday and last year's officers were re-elected. The meetings are postponed until fall.

For the first time in its history West Point Park is placarded with a beer sign. William Winters is the proprietor.

The service in the church Sunday morning was for the mothers. Rev. Roy Miller gave all honor to the faithful ones.

The Senior Bible class met Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Coolman for their usual monthly business meeting. Each one enjoyed the fellowship together.

A new arrival came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Way. It is a boy, born Sunday morning. An incubator is being used to develop it and save its life. Congratulations.

A ball game was played Friday on the school diamond between Clarenceville and Pierson school Juniors. The score was 10-11 in favor of Clarenceville. Carl Taylor and Maurice Wolfe were the battery for Pierson school.

Earl Wolfe, who has been under the care of Mayo Brothers, underwent an operation Friday for an ulcer of the stomach. He is resting and Charles Wilson is with him in the hospital. Relatives and friends are anxiously waiting for his recovery.

Gordon Way was taken to Receiving Hospital Thursday. While on the ball diamond a swift ball hit him on the cheek bone. Six stitches were taken and his eye was badly swollen. He was taken home Sunday. This is the second baseball accident this spring.

A doubleheader baseball game was played between Hamtramck and West Point's fast players. The home team proved too good for their opponents. The score in the first game was 6-0. The second one was 7-2. A large number of fans were present for both sides.

Miss Viola Nacker and Sunday school class met at the home of Mrs. Albert Heinichman. There were 11 present. After a business meeting bingo was played. Virginia Coolman winning first prize and Viola Wolfe, second. Margory Heinichman was hostess and served a dainty lunch.

A dinner party was given by the Scotch Eight five hundred club in honor of William Zwahlen's birthday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nacker. Prizes for the season were presented, Mrs. Nacker and Mr. Zwahlen received first, Mrs. Zwahlen and Albert Nacker second, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gerge, with James Eastman, winning the house prizes. The club has disbanded for the season.

Margory Heinichman and Viola Wolfe, chaperoned by Mrs. C. Wolfe, attended the Detroit News Metropolitan and National Spelling Bee Friday held in the coliseum at the Michigan State Fair Grounds, Detroit. Sixty-two contestants marched in with the Cass Technical high school band leading them.

Guests of honor were the Honorable William Constock of Michigan, the Hon. Frank Couzens, acting mayor of Detroit. Pronouncers were Marquis T. Shattuck, E. E. Crampton R. H. Adams and Rt. Rev. Msgr. John M. Doyle. Judges were Eber W. Yost, Will L. Lee, E. J. Lederle, D. S. Yape, S. J. Rath and Boy Scout director William F. Church. The winner of the spelling bee was Ruth Tenenbaum of Detroit. Runner-up was Lucille Reiker, eighth grader at St. John Lutheran school.

WALTER HAMPDEN TO APPEAR IN TWO OF HIS GREATEST ROLES

It is good news for play lovers that Walter Hampden, who is on a trans-continental tour in "Caponsacchi" and "Hamlet," two of his major successes, will appear at the Cass Theatre, Detroit, for a half week, beginning Thursday night, May 18, presenting three evening performances of "Caponsacchi" and a Saturday matinee of "Hamlet."

"Caponsacchi" is a brilliant, highly colored drama that will delight all who were thrilled by Mr. Hampden's "Cyrano de Bergerac," and other plays in which gallantry, courage and romance are predominant. Derived from Robert Browning's magnificent epic, "The Ring and the Book," it presents the actor-manager in the role of Giuseppe Caponsacchi, the "Warrior-Priest" of Arezzo.

This play was first presented by Mr. Hampden at his own theatre in New York in 1926 where it achieved an all-season run of approximately 300 performances, with subsequent tours and revivals there, which have brought the total number of presentations up to more than 500. All of these performances were in the east and now Mr. Hampden is taking the play into the middle, south and far west for the first time, using his complete original New York scenic production and a cast of 40 which is in every way equal to that which appeared in the first performances.

Mr. Hampden's "Hamlet" long has been the standard portrayal of the Prince of Denmark of the present generation. This great role, too, he has played over 500 times in every section of the United States, thought some cities will see it for the first time during this tour. It was his acting of Hamlet that caused the metaphorical mantle of Edwin Booth to be placed upon his shoulders, which garment he now wears in a double sense because he is president of the Players' Club which was founded and endowed by the great tragedian.

MEET THE BIRDS.

By Chas. A. Dolph

Who are your bird neighbors this early spring day?

Did you notice Mr. and Mrs. Robin so nicely housed on the porch column and see the youngsters that were waiting for their supper or the older ones that were already to shift for themselves?

Mr. and Mrs. Catbird are diligently hunting a place to build them a home. Every thick, low bush is a likely spot but apparently there are many differences of opinion as to a location as they chatter violently about it.

Mr. and Mrs. Wren have decided to take the little hut where the "to-reft" sign has been out for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Oriole have been very busy searching for material to build their great home up there in the wide spreading elm.

Mr. and Mrs. Flicker have their home somewhere, but they are only seen scampering up and down the trunks of the trees searching for food.

The Mr. and Mrs. Sparrows are a numerous group, everywhere present. They are workers and help to sustain the growing families of the colony house.

Mr. and Mrs. Starling have hung around all winter taking what was given them, but now they have gone to more ample quarters in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Purple Martin are due to arrive soon, but they have a definite date each year to come and to depart. They make their summer camp real lively.

Once-in-a-while Mr. and Mrs. Canary wander into the area from the suburbs to look things over.

Now and then a mourning dove perched on a high pole is chanting its solemn notes.

The raucous cry of the crow is heard every little while as he flies over but rarely do they come into the circle of neighborhood birds.

All these varied families have their odd ways. Some are shy some are saucy, some are friendly. All are well worth knowing. All do they stunt to keep the world from going to the bugs.

Henry Ford
Dearborn, Mich.

May 9, 1933

A great thing has occurred amongst us. We have made a complete turn-around, and at last America's face is toward the future.

Three years—1929 to 1932—we Americans looked backward. All our old financial and political machinery was geared to pull us out of the depression by the same door through which we entered. We thought it simply a case of going back the way we came. It failed. We now realize that the way out is forward—through it.

Thanks for that belongs to President Roosevelt. Inauguration Day he turned the Ship of State around. Having observed the failure of sincere efforts to haul us back the way we came, he designed a new method—new political and financial machinery—to pull us out the way we are going—forward. He is clearing international obstacles out of the way; he does not stand in awe of tariffs. The people begin to feel that he does not take advice from the "interests"; that he has courage and loyalty to work for one supreme interest only—the welfare of the American people. That is a big achievement for two months in office.

And now we all look to what is coming; we grow less and less concerned with what is behind. We are looking for a hand-hold on the haul rope. Every man wants to do what he can, and all he can.

The best thing I can do for the Country is to create industry by building good motor cars. If I knew anything better to do, I would do it. Industry must be my contribution. Motor cars must face ahead to the future, like everything else. They are so much a part of the Nation's daily life that if they lag behind they hold the Country back.

A TIRE of higher quality—greater safety—and longer mileage. It is in a class by itself. Made by master tire builders—holders of world records on road and track—first choice of drivers who risk their lives on their tires. For thirteen consecutive years, Firestone Clinch-Dipped Tires have won the Indianapolis 500-mile Race—the most grueling tire test known.

Don't risk your life and the lives of others another day on this dangerously worn, inferior tire.

Come in today—we will give you a liberal allowance for your old tires.

REMEMBER—Your brakes can stop your wheels, but your tires must stop your car.

Mrs. Owen Entertains Guests At Dinner Tuesday—

Twelve friends were guests of Mrs. Owen Tuesday evening at an informal dinner. After dinner bridge occupied the remainder of the evening.

Mothers of Mr. and Mrs. Eaton Honored Sunday—

Honoring the mothers of both, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Eaton entertained at a Sunday evening supper on Mother's Day. Besides their mothers, Mrs. E. R. Eaton and Mrs. E. B. Cavell, the fathers also joined in the happy occasion.

Lutheran Ladies Meet With Mrs. C. W. Hamilton—

The May meeting of the Lutheran Ladies' Aid was held Thursday, May 11, at the home of Mrs. Charles W. Hamilton on the Ten Mile road. A good attendance was present.

As this is the month to honor all Mothers a short program was given. The members were entertained by readings and musical selections.

The day of the meeting fell on Mrs. Arthur Schulte's birthday and she was very pleasantly surprised by having a card from each one bestowed upon her.

A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess.

Mrs. Van Valkenburgh Made Happy By Children on Mother's Day—

Among Northville mothers who were made happy on Mother's Day was Mrs. Mary Van Valkenburgh who welcomed to her home on that day, her children who reminded her of their love with plants, candy, money and other gifts. Best of all Mrs. Van Valkenburgh thinks was having the children at home enjoying the day with her were Mr. and Mrs. Carl and daughter Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Van Valkenburgh and children, Jane and the baby. Of course her son Ray, and his family dropped in during the day.

Jean Hill Guild Holds a Meeting and Supper With Arlene Richardson—

With their spirits undampened by the rain which fell just as their party was gathering at the home of Miss Arlene Richardson, the young women of the Jean Hill Guild who were to have had an out-door wienie roast, Saturday evening, went into the recreation room and continued their good time. Gathering around a roaring fire in the fire-place the supper was enjoyed by this company of 18 girls with their sponsors, Mrs. Carl H. Bryan and Mrs. Harold Bloom, as guests of honor.

A business meeting followed the supper and then the lesson on Missions among the Indians in which Marjorie Pierpont and Charlotte Lester participated. The devotional service was conducted by Mary Harper.

Little Miss Anne Nelson Celebrates Birthday at Arrowhead—

On Saturday, May 6, the lawn of Arrowhead farm was the scene of a happy birthday party when five little friends of Anne Nelson, of Detroit, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Raleigh Brown, joined in celebration of her fifth birthday. It was a charming picture to see these little girls dancing merrily around a May pole to the music of the victrola in the summer house. The fact that the ground was wet and they had to wear rubbers did not at all detract from their grace and in the background the proud mamas stood and admired them.

While the children enjoyed their supper with a birthday cake the mothers had tea with Mrs. Brown. Little Miss Anne is distinguished in Northville as the youngest horsewoman entered in the Northville fair who sits proudly on her pony.

Parents and Teachers Sit in "Jury" As Child's Home Is Considered—

Parents and Teachers turned out in good numbers Thursday evening May 11, to listen with interest to the discussion of the very pertinent question, "What the Home Means to the Child." A mock-jury panel comprised of six adults sat in informal discussion with now and then one of the audience taking part in offering a suggestion or asking a question.

Points of discipline, mutual relation of parents and children, the importance of teaching truth—these and many other practical matters were considered with varied opinions. At times parents were sitting on the edges of their chairs in rapt attention as the discussion proceeded. Very emphatic were the points that the child has an equal right in sharing the home with his parents and that he should bear his share of responsibility in the home.

Sitting on this "jury" were Mrs. Wilbur H. Johnston, who presided, Dr. H. S. Willis, Paul B. Thompson, Mrs. Paul R. Alexander, Mrs. H. A. Boyden and Principal R. H. Amerman.

Mrs. Blake Entertains Wednesday Bridge—

Eight friends of Mrs. Harry Blake met with her on Wednesday for an afternoon at bridge. At the conclusion of the games honors were given to Mrs. J. N. McLoughlin and Mrs. E. C. Hinkley. Substituting guests were Mrs. N. C. Schrader and Mrs. Ralph Ayers.

Mrs. McLean Hostess To Service League—

The Service League met at the home of Mrs. C. McLean on Fairbrook ave. Tuesday evening. The devotional service was led by Mrs. E. M. Bogart and instead of the usual program following, the time was spent in the discussion of ways and means of increasing their efficiency.

Refreshments during a social time concluded the evening. There were about thirty members present.

Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary Meets With Mrs. Johnston—

On Tuesday evening the Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary met with Mrs. Catherine Johnston, Mrs. Lydia Ely as assisting hostess. The members were glad to have Mrs. Flora Babbitt, one of the patronesses with them. Mrs. Tessa Baker led the devotional service after which Mrs. Helen Sweet gave an interesting review on Alaska, the subject for the evening.

After the business meeting refreshments and a pleasant social hour concluded the evening.

Marilyn Cavell Will Celebrate Birthday Saturday—

Although her ninth birthday is really today (Friday) little Miss Marilyn Cavell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Cavell, will postpone the celebration until Saturday when about 20 of her school mates will make merry together on the spacious lawn during the afternoon and the fun will be concluded with a wienie roast around the out-of-door fire place.

On Friday afternoon "Uncle Neal" read a letter from Marilyn over WJR and included her in the birthday party of youngsters visiting the broadcasting station.

Mrs. Stewart Hostess to Friends At Garden Party—

Breaking away from the "cut-and-dried" form of amusement, bridge, a party of friends followed their own inclinations Thursday afternoon at a delightfully informal garden party given by Mrs. LeRoy Stewart at her home on West Main. It is said that one even came on roller skates. While some applied themselves to their needlework (not too seriously), others just visited and drank in the delights of a perfect May day in a garden abloom with spring flowers.

Later in the afternoon the hostess served a dainty lunch, a happy surprise being homemade icecream.

Northville Quartet Enjoys Kenyon Hospitality—

The Northville Male Quartet and their wives enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Kenyon at their home in Detroit Friday evening.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie G. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Sherrill Ambler, and Pierre Kenyon, of Northville, Mr. and Mrs. Al Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Olm and Miss Barbara Bake, accompanist for the quartet, of Plymouth. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Emory Parnell, of Detroit, both of whom have an extensive stage career to their credit.

The quartet entertained with several numbers, cards and various games were enjoyed, and the entire evening was one of extreme pleasure for the guests and their hosts.

Old Friends Enjoy Breakfast Party With Mrs. Vradenburg—

"The year's at the spring, the day's at the morn," thought a group of long-time friends as they gathered for May morning breakfast at the home of Mrs. Jennie Vradenburg in Bealton Wednesday morning. The pleasant event was a renewal of friendships which have remained "green" for half a century. All of these ladies are now past 70 years of age and have "always clung together," says one.

The only cloud which hung over this cheerful breakfast together was the memory of two vacant chairs since their last gathering, left empty by Mrs. J. N. Burgess and Mrs. Flora Perkins. Those present with Mrs. Vradenburg were Mrs. Katherine Hinman of Bozeman, Mont., Mrs. J. A. Welch, Mrs. Agnes Scott, Mrs. Wm. Corrin and Mrs. M. A. Bourne.

Lingering long over breakfast, many a tale of other days was told. The friends continued the good time throughout the day concluding with a lunch served by the hospitable hostess. This was the first real visit with Mrs. Vradenburg since her return from Hannibal, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman Welcome Club Friday Evening—

A company of young married folks who comprise a club meeting frequently at the various homes were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Chapman on Friday evening when a co-operative dinner at six o'clock was followed by a pleasant evening at bridge.

Camp Fire Girls Will Entertain Mothers at Tea—

The Camp Fire Girls will play hostess to their mothers on Saturday afternoon at the kindergarten room. The girls have planned the whole affair and are proud to show their mothers how they can entertain. A pleasant feature of the afternoon will be a little play to be put on by the young hostesses. The affair will be a silver tea.

Jean Hill Guild Entertains Mothers at Tea—

The girls of the Jean Hill Guild very graciously entertained their mothers at tea at the Presbyterian church house on Saturday afternoon, May 6. The president, Mary Pierpont, welcomed the guests and Mrs. E. W. Lester, representing the mothers, responded to the welcome. A dainty tea was followed by an original program put on by the girls.

Jean Hill Girls Honor Mother at Tea—

Seventeen members of the Jean Hill chapter of the Westminster Guild met at the home of Arlene Richardson, Saturday noon, May 13. An outdoor "wienie" and steak roast had been planned, but owing to the weather, the guests gathered about the prettily appointed table spread in the recreation room before a cozy grate fire. After luncheon ping pong and croquet were played and songs were sung. At the close of a business meeting the guests expressed to Arlene and Mrs. Richardson their pleasure in having spent a very delightful afternoon.

THE LEAN DOG

By Robert G. Yerkes

"Art is the appeal to the instinct of communion in men. We recognize one another by the echoes it awakens in us which we transmit to others by our enthusiasm and which resounds in the deeds of men throughout all generations, even when those generations may not suspect it. If, during the hours of depression and lack of comprehension only a few of us hear the call, it is in those hours that we alone possess the idealistic energy which later is to reanimate the heroism asleep in the multitudes."

El Faure = "During the hours of depression and lack of comprehension" "Lack of comprehension," of what? Of the reasons for the depression, of the remedies, of basic reforms necessary? No. It is lack of comprehension of the true values of life, of human relationships, of what is best for humanity at any time. We build roads when schools are closing for lack of funds. We execute gigantic loans from governmental agencies for so-called self-liquidating projects. Is not the proper education of our children self-liquidating? Are not the returns far greater, of far more benefit to this nation as a whole than the return to the government of a few millions of dollars over a period of five years?

Our children are here. We brought them here. During childhood and youth are the times when training for life, an education worthy of the name can most readily be given and taken. Thousands of years of educational experience have shown us that certain subjects are most readily assimilated at certain periods of mental growth. So remember this—our children pass this way but once—what is now denied them they can never again so effectively acquire. And we build roads, construct buildings, spend untold amounts for reforestation—while schools are closed and closing, while teachers are curtailed, discharged, discouraged.

The taxing system is wrong that allows this. The school system should have first call on taxes, with state aid if necessary. Which will you have? Better citizens, or better highways? Your child, properly educated and ready for life, or a new bridge on the Plymouth road?

KING'S DAUGHTERS

The King's Daughters held their regular meeting Tuesday evening with Mrs. Lilly Angell. The final meeting of the year will be with Mrs. Wm. H. Safford on Tuesday afternoon, June 6. The members of this organization are invited to visit the King's Daughters home on Mt. Elliott ave., Detroit, Thursday, May 25. A large number, it is hoped, will be able to go. Call Mrs. E. B. Cavell or Mrs. H. R. Richardson for particulars or if you can provide a car for transportation. The Northville chapter will take part in a program for the entertainment for the old people. Tea will be served.

You can't make foot-prints in the sands of time sitting down.

REV. W. ROSCOE BARBOUR ATTENDS BAPTIST MEET HELD AT SAGINAW

Rev. W. Roscoe Barbour, pastor of the Baptist church here, attended the mid-year meet of the Michigan Baptist officials, of which he is a member, at the First Baptist church in Saginaw on Monday and Tuesday of this week.

The purpose of the meeting was to give direction to the Baptist churches in regard to state, national and world missions, city missions, Christian Americanization, education, evangelism, men's work, women's work, summer conferences and other items too numerous to mention.

The most important meeting took place on Tuesday morning, all necessary items of the agenda being covered during the four hours of the meeting, which lasted from 9:00 o'clock till 1:00.

While at Saginaw Mr. Barbour had the pleasure of fellowship with many friends among whom was Grant M. Hudson, known to many Northville people.

MUMPS DELAY THE REFORESTATION BOYS

An epidemic of mumps breaking out at Camp Custer has caused the indefinite postponement of encampment by the nineteen Northville boys who were named for the reforestation quota from here two weeks ago. Supervisor Willard A. Ely, in charge of the selection of the boys, has revealed. Dr. Linwood W. Snow assisted Mr. Ely in the work of selecting Northville's contingent.

The boys who are eagerly awaiting the time to entrain for Fort Wayne, where they will be mobilized before entraining for Camp Custer are: Richard Kerr, Wayne Keller, Frank Hinchman, Joseph Peck, Forest Lemmon, Wayne Thompson, Franklin Knight, Kenneth Beach, Harry Moyner, Russell Alger, Chester Budd, James Coffey, Elden Biery, Richard Smith, Harold McCardle, Irving Ware, Monroe Weston, Charles Risenburg and Robert Strachan.

On May 23 the American Legion and Auxiliary will hold a potluck supper together at the Legion home. Members are reminded of the 17th district meeting which is to be held in Birmingham Friday, May 26.

Lack of aeration is the reason for the iron deposits on sinks and other plumbing, made by Northville village water, states Wellington Roberts, local civil engineer. Mr. Roberts says that proper aeration would do away with this trouble.

To give her mother the pleasure of being with both daughters on Mother's Day, Mrs. Paul Alexander, together with her husband and two daughters, accompanied her mother, Mrs. Hulda Schlubats, to Ypsilanti to enjoy the day at a sister's home.

Mrs. E. A. Hamilton, former Northville resident now living on Joy road, Detroit, was a visitor in the village Saturday. Mr. Hamilton is now working at Carnegie, Penn., and writes his wife that business conditions in the East are improving steadily.

As regularly as May comes around, Chas. A. Sessions drops in at the Record office and pays for his paper for the year ahead. He has taken the home town paper ever since he started out life for himself. That is a splendid record. It is such subscribers as Mr. Sessions that make it possible for a community to have a newspaper.

Mrs. Clyde Whitaker of Anderson, Illinois, visited Mrs. Eural Clark Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Whitaker will be remembered as Miss Conciola Mueller, who formerly lived in this village with her parents, and who graduated from the local high school in 1917. These latr are of white pine and extra thick.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Heeneey and two daughters of Mariette spent Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. James Heeneey, and his sister, Mrs. Eural Clark and family at their home on High street. Mrs. Heeneey returned with them to Mariette where she will visit for a few days. Her other son, Spencer Heeneey, of Farmington, also visited his mother Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston C. Brady and three-year-old son are here from Long Island, New York, to visit the parents of Mrs. Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Willard A. Ely, at 218 Linden street. On Thursday they accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Northrop and Mr. and Mrs. Ely to Big Rapids, where they were to attend the commencement ceremonies at Ferris Institute to see James M. Ely receive his Bachelor of Science degree.

H. S. SENIOR BOYS TELL ROTARIANS OF LIFE WORK CHOICE

Six young men, all high school seniors, appeared before the Northville Rotary club at their luncheon program Tuesday noon and gave some very interesting reasons why they have chosen particular careers in life that they expect to follow.

Journalism appealed to Warner Neal, who spoke first and then presented the other speakers. Newspaper work, said the editor of the Orange and Black page of the Record, gives both the chance to "see the world go by" and to serve one's fellows.

Howard Latta, who will go into business, said that buying and selling always had a great fascination for him.

The chance to help make a better humanity was one of several reasons that "Bob" Power gave for his plans to become a doctor. There should be "room at the top," said Bob.

Chemistry is the chosen field of both Richard Shipley and John Steencken, and each of them gave a talk telling of his reasons for entering this field. "Bob" Reed, who has a considerable genius for art, spoke on that work and passed around some samples of his drawings.

The program was arranged by Leslie G. Lee and Chas. T. Thornton. The talks were so good that at their close Chas. E. Rogers was inspired to arise and say: "Young men, those were fine talks, but you will also have to remember this. You will need ideals and ambitions to succeed and further you won't get any more out of a thing than you put into it." Percy Angove, president of the club, added that character was also an indispensable asset in achieving success in life. Guests were Floyd Lanning and Elton R. Eaton.

LEGION PLANNING FOR MEMORIAL DAY

The Memorial Day program will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning instead of being held in the afternoon as in previous years, Chas. Smith, chairman of the committee in charge of the annual event, announced this week. It is expected that the program will take place in the village park.

A short, interesting program has been planned by the American Legion committee. All veterans of the U. S. and allied countries are urged to attend this year's program.

It is the belief of the Legion post here that more people will turn out in the morning than has previously been the case in the afternoon.

Full details will be published in the Record next week.

Mrs. J. R. Hayes and daughter, Jane, of Kalamazoo, were Northville visitors Thursday.

Remodeling the garage for additional living rooms is an improvement on which Ed E. Fuller is spending his city scrip.

Mr. and Mrs. Marnard E. Farley of Albion, good friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Baldwin, were callers at the Record office yesterday on their way home from Detroit.

Thos. R. Carrington, D. J. Stark and Frank L. Snipes were at Howell yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral of Chas. C. Kellogg, former postmaster at Detroit.

Charletta Kidd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kidd, has been taken to the contagious ward of the university hospital at Ann Arbor, suffering with scarlet fever.

Dr. J. M. Burgess, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Mable, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Katherine Hinman of Bozeman, Mont., expect to come out from Detroit soon and open the old home here for the summer months.

The many friends of Fred Rueger will be glad to know that he returned from University hospital at Ann Arbor Tuesday, following several days' treatment. Fred reports that he is feeling much better as a result of the treatment and is back at his job with the Ford valve factory here.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo L. Lawrence write from Santa Monica, Calif., where they have been spending the winter, that they planned to leave for Northville May 9 and would reach here about the first of June. Their friends will be very happy to have them home again. Their daughter, Jane, and son, Sam, will accompany them.

POPPY DAY PLANS ARE EXPLAINED BY MRS. LYDELLA ELY

The patriotic spirit of America which enabled the nation to put forth its great World War effort is symbolized in the little red memorial poppy," Mrs. Lydella Ely, president of the Lloyd H. Green unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, declared yesterday as the unit members continued preparations for the observance of Poppy Day here Saturday, May 27th. She expressed belief that the wearing of the poppy in honor to the war dead would help reawaken a strong spirit of patriotism for the nation's peace-time efforts.

"The poppy is the badge of remembrance for those who sacrificed their lives in the country's service," Mrs. Ely said. "It stands for the highest type of patriotism that we can conceive. It recalls the spirit of those days when every American was dedicating his energies and resources to the national cause and when life itself was not too much to give for the country."

Remembering those days, it is difficult to understand how Americans can be daunted by the country's present difficulties. A people who only fifteen short years ago united with such devotion and energy to meet a war emergency, most certainly have the power to meet any emergencies of peace. The poppy, that symbol of patriotic sacrifice, should awaken in all our hearts a deeper conception of our own duties to our country today and inspire us to give in peace the type of service the men who died among the poppies in France gave in time of war."

Volunteer workers from the American Legion Auxiliary will offer poppies on the streets all day, May 27. The poppies have been made by disabled veterans and all contributions received will be used for the Auxiliary's relief and rehabilitation work among the disabled men and their families.

NOVI NEWS

Wm. Mairs and Rex Angell were in Lapeer last Wednesday on a business trip.

Miss Camilla Risner has returned to Novi after spending a month with friends and relatives in Royal Oak.

Last Friday Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bowman took the latter's mother to her home in Saginaw after a week's visit with her daughters at the Bowman-Tyler home.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hazen Jr. have moved from the house by the gas plant property on E. Gr. River to Mrs. Hazen's mother, Mrs. M. Solkowski's farm home, Northeast of Novi. Mrs. Solkowski is in poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Somerville and the Misses Mabel Scofield and Mahel Thomas of Detroit were guests of Mrs. Eugene Root, Sunday. The ladies enjoyed a special treat, going to the woods and gathering wild flowers.

Mrs. Lorraine Taylor, who lived for several years in Novi township, lately of Keego Harbor and Pontiac, has moved back to the home in Northville where she lived for a year after the death of her husband, Herman Taylor.

Miss Marian Erwin was home from Michigan State college at East Lansing for the week-end. Miss Adda Mary Burton, a student at the same college, surprised her family and friends by attending church at Novi Sunday morning.

Josh Root continues to be in poor health. He passed his 75th birthday the 10th of May. His sister, Mrs. Nellie Wedow of Walled Lake, notified radio station WEXR of the event, and a special song was sung in his honor, which Mr. Root greatly enjoyed and appreciated.

Mrs. Etta Harnden entertained the 500 club last Thursday in the final party of the season. A cooperative dinner was served at noon followed by an afternoon at 5:00. The prize winners were: 1st, Grace Hammond; 2nd, Jessie Bowman; 3rd, Etta Harnden; and low score, Nettie Phelps.

Mrs. Glen O. Salow went to Detroit Saturday with Rev. R. O. Thompson and family, and attended the funeral of Mrs. Thompson's father, William McWilliams, at Watertown. She very kindly drove her car for the family, and stayed with them while they called on old friends around Sandusky, all returning to her home Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Thompson and daughters, Joy and Catherine, of Reading, Mich., spent Friday and Sunday nights at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen O. Salow and called on several other Novi friends over the week-end, returning home Monday, and leaving Miss Joy at Ypsilanti where she is attending college.

500 club consisting of twelve ladies of Novi and vicinity entertained their husbands as a final social event of the season at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Judd Hammond, Saturday night. A cooperative supper was served at 7 o'clock, followed by 500.

Prizes were won by: 1st, Grace Hammond; 2nd, Marie Tyler; 3rd, Anna Sullivan; 4th, Mabel Granzow. Men's: 1st, Roy Granzow; 2nd, Chas. Tuckey; 3rd, Jack Harnden; 4th, Lorne VanEtta. This was followed by lunch at midnight.

William McWilliams, father of Mrs. R. O. Thompson, who made his home with his daughter for some time in Novi, passed away at the home of another daughter, Mrs.

John Kelly, in Detroit, last Thursday. He was taken to Sandusky, his old home, for burial and the funeral was held Saturday afternoon at the Watertown Baptist church. Mr. McWilliams made many friends while he lived here in Novi. Surviving relatives are the widow, five daughters and a son.

Novi School Notes

Diplomas were presented last night (Thursday) to the following students who finished the tenth grade in the Novi high school: Dorothé Kent, Bayne Pratt, Irene Gombasy and Howard Moyer. The exercises were held in the assembly room of the Novi school, and consisted of speeches by the young people, music by Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Flint, and an address by Rev. Mr. Johnson of Oxford.

Mr. Harold Hadley, principal, presented the diplomas.

As a reward for their year's work the four upper-grades enjoyed a picnic at Belle Isle today (Friday) and the lower grades went to Cass Benson Park for the day.

Novi Baptist Church

Mother's Day was appropriately observed at the Novi Baptist church Sunday morning. The church was made attractive with spring flowers and potted plants. The pastor, Rev. E. W. Holmes, preached a beautiful and impressive sermon on the subject, "Behold Thy Mother," and the choir furnished some very nice special music.

Alvin Pardee, a layman of the Pontiac Baptist church, spoke at the evening services after the young people's hour.

Next Sunday, Communion service. Sunday school at 10:30. Preaching service at 11:45. Young people's hour at 7:15 p. m. Tuesday evening Bible study at 7:45 p. m.

CHURCH NEWS

St. Paul's Lutheran

Leo C. Bickstaedt, Pastor
220 Elm St.

In the Gospel of St. Matthew, chapter 5, 14 we read: "Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid."

These words, taken from the sermon on the mount, are spoken to Christians. Christians are to be lights in this sun-darkened world. They are to give light to others. Only Christians can be lights. They have light. They know Jesus. They know the way to heaven. They know God's Word. Wherefore Jesus tells His Christians, enlightened as they are, "Ye are the light of the world."

How can we be the lights of the world? How can we shine? First, let us talk for our Savior, and His church. Let us by word try to lead the unconverted into the glorious light of the Gospel. Then, let us live right. Let us perform good deeds, and thus shine. Says the Lord: "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." Along the railroad tracks are little lights, red lights and green lights. They make no noise. But they do their work. They shine. On the coasts of our country are numerous lights which make no noise. But they shine. They safely guide the ships into the harbors, past dangerous rocks and shoals. So we, by our lives, in the office or in the factory, in school and home, in the kitchen or in society, in stores or on the streets, wherever we may be, are to give light and conduct ourselves, that people by observing us may be guided into the right course.

"Ye are the light of the world." As lights we are to shine. And Jesus asks nothing impossible of us. He does not even say "shine brightly, brilliantly." He does not say "be a big light." What He wants you to do is to use the light that is in you, be it much or little. If we then cannot be great lights like the sun or the moon, let us be little lights like the stars. If one of the stars cannot even be a brilliant star, let him be a small star and only twinkle. But do use the gift that God has given you to be a light in your generation and calling. This is what the Savior asks in our little text. Let us write this word in our hearts and with God's help be shining lights in the darkness of this world, guiding others to Jesus, heaven, and happiness eternal.

The hour for divine worship and Sunday school is 10:00 o'clock. The pastor will preach.

A cordial invitation is extended to all to worship with us. Lord, open Thou my heart to hear. And by Thy Word to me draw near. Let me Thy Word still pure retain, Let me Thy child and heir remain.

Church of Our Lady of Victory
Beginning Sunday, May 28, there will be one Mass at Walled Lake at 9:00 a. m.
At the 8 o'clock Mass this Sunday seven boys and girls will receive their First Holy Communion. This is always a great event in a Catholic's life.
The Altar society will meet at a potluck luncheon in the home of Mrs. M. Boelen, at 117 Grand River Ave., next Tuesday, May 23, at 12:30 noon.

The Masses next Sunday, May 21, are at 8 and 10 a. m.

Another attractive prize card party will be held at the church on Wednesday evening, May 24.

The Holy Day of Christ's Ascension is Thursday, May 25. The Masses will be at 6 and 7:30 a. m.

Baptist Church

Services for Sunday, May 21: Preaching morning and evening by the pastor, Rev. W. Roscoe Barbours. Morning service at 10:30 followed by the Sunday school at 11:45. Evening worship at 7:30. The morning subject will be "Our Lord's Dream of the Kingdom of God and the Present Situation." At night the sermon will be on the theme, "A Strait Gate and a Closed Door."

May 28 the pastor expects to be away from his pulpit and a Gospel team from Wayne Baptist church will conduct the morning service. A cordial invitation is extended to all to worship with us in these services. A mid-week prayer service is conducted each Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock.

Methodist Church

Rev. Frank N. Miner, Pastor
Youth Day is to give recognition to the young people of the church and congregation, and all of the services next Sunday will give a prominent place to these young people.

At the ten-thirty service of worship the young people's chorus under Mr. Lee's leadership will furnish special music, "Wake, Awake, from Sleepers Awake" by Bach.

Young people will participate in the morning worship.

At the Sunday school hour, all of the youth from the seventh grade up will meet together for a worship service before their class study.

The young people's service will be at 5:30 instead of the usual 6:30 hour and a very interesting program of worship and discussions being prepared.

All young people are cordially invited to attend all or some one of these services during this Youth Day.

The Union service Sunday evening is at the Presbyterian church. The school chorus directed by Mr. Lee will sing, and a very interesting talk with pictures will be given by Dr. A. B. Wickham.

There will be no W. H. M. S. meeting this month.

The Ladies of the Aid society are trying to pay the mortgage interest bill, and to help they are putting on a bake sale at 10 a. m. Saturday of next week, May 21. All the ladies of the church are expected to help.

The president.

First Presbyterian Church

Harold G. Whitfield, Minister
The members and friends of the church are urged to cooperate in the observance of our membership day, Sunday, May 21, at 10:30 a. m. See full announcement in another section of this issue for particulars.

The evening Union service is of special interest. The hour is 7:30. The service will be held in the Presbyterian church house, and we hope that it will be filled for this occasion.

Dr. A. B. Wickham, superintendent of the Eastlawn San. will give an illustrated talk showing some 150 colored slides. These slides comprise the best possible pictures of The Grand Canyon, Colorado, The Beautiful Pacific Coast, and the Canadian Rockies. At this springtime it will be of great interest and inspiration to participate in such a service. The high school Glee Club of some 50 members, under the able leadership of Mr. Leslie G. Lee, will lead in the worship in song and will furnish several special numbers. Let us worship God and receive stimulus as we behold His wondrous works.

Salem Congregational Church

Rev. Lucia M. Stroth, Minister
The Mother's Day Service held last Sunday proved a joy and inspiration to everyone. Several hundred people filled the beautifully decorated church to honor "Motherhood." Five great-grandmothers graced the front seats of honor. Mrs. Carrie Owenshire, 86 years, being the oldest. Mrs. George Shoebridge, Mrs. Tyler, Mrs. Lincoln and Mrs. Walker.

These received a great ovation of applause from all the congregation. Then the following mother's with special distinction: Mrs. Louise Wittich, Mrs. Vera Clark, Mrs. Jay Clark, Mrs. Ernest Schockow, Mrs. Ed. Bauman, Mrs. H. Ringel, Mrs. Montague, Mrs. James Clark, Mrs. Garfield Smith, Mrs. Burgess, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. O. Corwin, Mrs. Keith, Mrs. B. F. Shoebridge, Mrs. B. N. Neison, Mrs. Jonesey, Mrs. G. C. Foreman, Mrs. F. Rider, Mrs. Thomas Sweet, Mrs. H. Brinkman and E. Wittich were highly honored and presented to the church.

Mrs. G. Smith gave a beautiful reading, composed by herself, "Thinking of Mother." Mary Jean Hugg representing the Primary Department, recited "There's a Happy Day in the Month of May," and Albert Ringel gave "A Rose for Mother."

The Junior choir gave a beautiful selection in song. F. B. Wittich, field representative of the Moody Bible Institute, offered a stirring prayer for all mothers.

The pastor then followed with a message from God's word to the helpfulness and inspiration for all to honor all living mothers and hold in reverence all dear sainted mothers. Mary Clark gave a message in song.

Practice for the Junior choir, Tuesday evening in the church.

Prayer meeting—Wednesday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Kehrl in Salem.

Miss June Kung of Plymouth will give a party for the "Crusader" class Friday evening of this week. This is for the young people.

Tuesday, May 23, the Ladies-Auxiliary society will give one of their famous "strawberry shortcake socials" in the church parlor. Next Sunday service at 10:30 a. m.; Sunday school, 11:45 a. m.

The Moody Bible Institute will hold a Bible conference in Detroit, at Temple Baptist church, May 21 to May 28. Everybody welcome.

Salem Federated Church

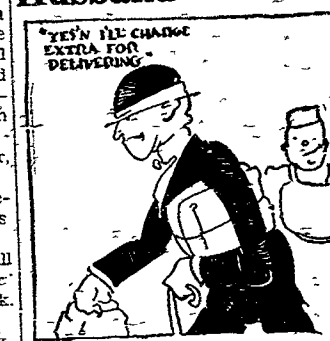

"Patience" will be the subject of the message on May 21, in the morning service at 10:30 o'clock.

Bible school commences at 11:45 a. m. The classes will study Mark 12: 28-40; "Jesus Answers His Disciples' Questions," being the theme for discussion. "Never mar spake like this man," John 7:46, is the memory verse. Let us be ready when Mr. Means calls for it.

The evening hymn sing lasts one hour, commencing at 7:30 o'clock.

On Friday evening, May 19, the ladies of the North Circle plan to give a White Elephant social. There will be a penny cafeteria, supper, and service will begin at six o'clock, and continue until all have had supper. Housecleaning always brings to light the white elephants. Bring yours to the social which would seem to be a timely event.

THE DETROIT EDISON COMPANY

GENERAL OFFICES
2000 SECOND AVENUE
DETROIT, MICHIGAN
May 15, 1933

TO THE CUSTOMERS OF THE DETROIT EDISON COMPANY

This is the seventh of this series of weekly letters addressed to our 500,000 customers in 29 cities, 58 villages and 130 townships in the southeastern corner of the State of Michigan.

The Detroit Edison Company is the largest taxpayer in the district. We are all taxpayers, directly or indirectly, so we're all in the same boat. You customers pay our taxes. There is no other way of our earning them. During the last twenty-five years, our annual tax bill has jumped more than fifty-fold. In 1932, we paid out $5,699,000 in taxes. That's a lot of money even in good times — and it's more than we paid in 1929 when we were selling much more electricity. In 1920, a little over 5 cents of every dollar we earned was paid out for taxes, but it's been climbing steadily until last year when it jumped to almost 15 cents. For every two dollars in taxes! The biggest operating employees last year, we had to pay one dollar in taxes! The biggest share of our total tax bill went into the coffers of the city government of Detroit. Last year we paid 4% of the total taxes assessed by the City during 1932 was over 7.5% of the total taxes actually collected by the City during 1932.

Now about rates. The price of electric service to our customers is lower than ever before, and is well below the average cost for the entire United States. Since 1921 we have voluntarily reduced one or the other of our rates thirty-three times, resulting in a total saving to our customers of almost 60 million dollars in the last 11 years. Just before the "crash," we voluntarily reduced our rates TWICE WITHIN TWELVE MONTHS (1928 - 1929). By these two rate reductions alone, our customers have been saved seven million dollars in the last four years. In addition there have also been rate adjustments, not filed as reductions, that have been to our customers' advantage and which amount to thousands of dollars more.

While our rates have been dropping after 1914, the prices of other commodities, including everything we have to buy for our business, were skyrocketing steeply upward. Today, after four years of dull times, the cost of living is still 20% higher than its pre-war cost. What about electricity? The average cost of Detroit Edison household electricity today is 30% LOWER THAN BEFORE THE WAR.

The Edison Company has faith in the future of the area it serves. The same men who build the greatness of our industries are most of them still with us — as able as ever. The Great Lakes region is the richest industrial territory in the world, not excluding the famed Ruhr Valley. And above all we have — in our automobile, metal-working, electrical appliance, chemical and other plants in Detroit and Southeastern Michigan — a body of expert workmen which is the greatest resource any community ever had.

GRADUATION DATES FIXED BY OFFICIALS

Make Plans for Class Night, Baccalaureate, and Final Diploma Award

The date for commencement has been set for Thursday, June 22. Class night will be held on Tuesday, June 20, and the baccalaureate services on the preceding Sunday, June 18. These dates came from the offices of Superintendent R. H. Amerman Monday.

Committees for the three graduation events have been named and are earnestly at work completing plans for their presentation.

Activity Commencement

It has been decided to have the modern student participation type of commencement rather than the older speaker type. The first decision of the superintendent and faculty was to have the latter as the activities commencement has been given for the last two years and also the teachers are already heavily overburdened with academic work. The class, however, was overwhelmingly in favor of the more modern type and a plan was worked out whereby the activities could be had and still not put too much of a burden on the faculty. Superintendent R. H. Amerman and Leslie G. Lee are in charge of the commencement program, the plans of which are in the making.

School officials are endeavoring to get the Penman Allen theatre for the commencement program but it is not known as yet whether or not they will be successful.

Class Night to Be Novel

Two committees have been appointed to work out the class night program, which will be held in the high school auditorium. One, a faculty committee, is composed of Mrs. Elizabeth Chapman, Mrs. Elvira Stalker, and Mrs. Wilma Taylor. The other is made up of Florence Johnson, chairman, Gertrude Deal, and Robert Christensen. These two committees are now meeting together completing the class night entertainment.

In past years the scene of the class night program has been on a "desert island," a "court room," etc. This year it has been decided to have the class night take place in a "radio station." The brief skeleton of the performance, as drawn up by the committee, is very novel and should prove interesting.

Recently a committee of Senior President Richard Shipley, Mrs. Chapman and Mrs. Taylor assigned the various class night parts. The class will, in which the seniors will come belonging or characteristics away, will be read by Jack Harper. The class prophecy, always humorous, is to be presented by Warner Neal, and the class history will be given by an unusually novel and funny way by the Misses Margaret Hay, Madeline Haystead, and Marie Humphries. The gittatory will be presented by Howard Latta and Miriam Dundas. When the plans for this feature which look so promising for this year are completed, they will appear in the Orange and Black.

Baccalaureate Services

The baccalaureate services this year are to go to the Baptist minister Rev. Wm. Roscoe Barbour, but will not be held in the Baptist church.

It was thought by Mr. Barbour and school officials that the Baptist church was too small to seat the large crowds that are invariably attracted by the baccalaureate service. Therefore it is to be transferred to the Presbyterian church house with Mr. Barbour delivering the baccalaureate sermon. Other details as to time and seating arrangements are being worked out.

GRADE NOTES

Miss Ellen Reincke's 7th graders started nature study last Monday. The children in Miss Nora Wilson's 3rd grade made cards for Mother's day.

Miss Grace Hawkins' pupils in her 6th grade are making posters with the various products from the New England states on it.

Mrs. Knight and Mrs. Sheller, mothers of Miss Helen Leonardson's first grade pupils, entertained at a mothers' tea. There were 17 mothers present. The children made the invitations to the tea.

Mrs. May Babbitt's 5th grade won the 2nd P. T. A. picture. Richard Ambler, 5th grade spelling champion, took as his guests to the Detroit News Metropolitan Spelling Bee the following boys: Norman Campbell, Philip Chase, James Dixon, Alfred Kersberg, Roger Miller, and Bob Parmenter.

'ROUND THE SCHOOL

On Commencement

As the end of the school year draws near, our thoughts naturally turn towards commencement.

This year a question arises whether to have the modern type of commencement, the type in which plays etc. showing the school activities are put on, or to have the so-called old fashioned speaker type. There are arguments on both sides of this question. The activities type of commencement gives the graduating class a chance to participate. It gives the public a glimpse of school activities. It is, as far as the majority of speakers are concerned, more interesting for both seniors and their audience.

On the other hand, this activities type of commencement would mean much work for our already overburdened faculty. This type has been given for two years and many say that to have it again would be a mere repetition. Also there are many good speakers that could make a commencement evening as interesting as one in which activities are presented.

We favor the modern activities type for the following reasons. Both class and public with it, it could be put on in such a way and by having such activities that any overwork on the part of the faculty could be made very small. There are many things in the school that the public does not understand—for instance, the student council, the Orange and Black staff, and the typing and physics department. And finally the speaker type, if a really good and worthwhile speaker was engaged, would be more expensive than the modern performance.

The question of commencement, while very interesting, is not so vital an issue that anyone seniors, townspeople, or faculty should get excited over it. Whatever decision is made, it will be for the best.

Loyal To The Loser

Loyalty is best measured by the circumstances in which it is given.

"Fads" Are Part Of Human Nature; Some Are Very Foolish And Are Everchanging Through The Years

(By Florence Johnson)

It is peculiar how one finds himself following the leadership of another person especially in adopting a style or some "fad" that strikes him as being out of the ordinary.

One of the first "fads" that I can remember is the adoption of "dog-collars," as they were so-called. The girls and fellows wore them on their necks, which were also quite the rage at the time.

Then there were the "butter-fly" skirts, that were regular circles of pleats, without which no girl's wardrobe was considered adequate.

Remember when all the girls had to have suspenders? Now they are wearing the rest of the man's attire, although they haven't started in our high school as yet. (Thank heaven that Detroit is in Hollywood!)

I also recall when the so-called "balloon-tire" pants for young men came out. (I believe they originated from "Harold Teen" of the comic page.) They were considered quite the thing and even the uninitiated wore them. The boys who continued to wear the old style were almost classed as "hicks."

This year all the girls have gone in for organdie; organdie waists, dresses, bows, and collars. (They either wish to look very feminine or very masculine.)

People also have a habit of re-

In athletics, for instance, anyone can be loyal and give support when their team is winning. The question is, can they do the same when their team is losing?

A winning team does not really need the loyalty and support of its student body. Of course, it all helps, but it is not actually necessary. When the team does need support and backing, is when it is losing and behind. As a rule, more cheering and supporting is done when a team is ahead than when it is not. This should be reversed as when the team is discouraged and defeated.

In fact, it is often that the reason for a team being defeated is that no support was given by students. Let us all, though remaining loyal constantly, give support when and where it is most needed.

Mrs. Stalker would hardly make a track coach. Last week rather than encouraging their speed, she made every one walking in the assembly stop dead still.

Our associate editor scored a point last week. He took out the article about him calling on his Little Lotus Flower Tuesday, but we'll get even.

True to the rainy season, the "Every Monday Morning" sun neglected to rise last week. What's the matter, Adolph Allyn?

Oh yes, Mr. Thompson. The only thing wrong with our story last week was that they played the game here rather than there.

Running for first place with our council for comedy honors, comes the student court.

It must be an awful feeling to think you won the popularity contest and not be sure.

My, those seniors certainly have a lot of courage to skip school like that.

Dooley does "think" (note quotes) up the best "comebacks."

WILL HONOR HIGH PUPILS AT BANQUET

P. T. A. Will Sponsor Dinner For the High School Honor Students

It was announced by Mrs. E. M. Lester, president of the P. T. A., that a banquet would be held for the honor students of the high school on Wednesday, June 7.

The tickets for this affair will be priced at fifty cents and be on sale by all of the students of the Northville High School. "Everyone is invited," says Mrs. E. M. Lester, "and we hope that the whole community will turn out for this affair and help to make it a huge success."

The honor students of the high school will be admitted free of charge as the banquet is being put on in their honor. The students at school who work and try to get all that they can out of their studies should be shown some notice of their work.

There will be a program for the banquet in which it is expected that some representative from each class will give a short talk as well as an outside speaker who will be prepared for the occasion. Superintendent R. H. Amerman is in charge of obtaining the speaker and Mrs. Ida B. Cooke and Miss Ione Palmer are in charge of the other. There will also be some enjoyable music included. The banquet is to be held in the gymnasium.

On May 24 at 2:30 P. M. in the High School Cafeteria there will be a meeting of all of the mothers of the P. T. A. to arrange plans for the banquet. All are strongly urged to attend by the P. T. A. president.

More information as to the affair will be given as the details are worked out.

JUNE CALENDAR IS ISSUED BY SUPT.

Examinations, Graduation Are Among Important Events Listed

Superintendent R. H. Amerman officially announced the school calendar for the month of June, Tuesday.

The first of the closing events of the school year will be the senior final examinations which will be held Thursday and Friday, June 15 and 16. Then, the following Sunday evening, June 18, the baccalaureate services will be held.

Following this, on Tuesday, June 20, the senior class will present class night.

Following this, on Monday and Tuesday, June 19 and 20, come the final examinations for the rest of the school, the eleventh grade through the first. On Tuesday evening, following the conclusion of the final exams, the senior class will present class night. Wednesday is a day off and on Thursday evening, June 22, grand finale of the graduating season comes with commencement itself.

Friday, June 23 is the last official day of school for the 1932-33 year and on that day students will return to school for the last time and get their report cards.

On the official calendar are a few other events which might be called "pre-commencement." The music department is to present a concert on June 2. On Wednesday, June 7, the P. T. A. will hold the honor banquet and on Friday, June 9, the senior class will hold their last activity prior to the graduating exercises a play, the details of which will be given next week.

The June calendar in its entirety is as follows:

Friday, June 2—Music concert.
Wednesday, June 7—P. T. A. honor banquet.
Friday, June 9—The senior play.
Thursday, June 15 and Friday, June 16—Senior examinations.
Sunday, June 18—Baccalaureate services.

Monday, June 19 and Tuesday, June 20—Final examinations.
Tuesday, June 20—Class night.
Thursday, June 22—Commencement.
Friday, June 23—School closes.

SENIORS TO HOLD BAKE SALE SATURDAY, MAY 27

The Senior class will hold a bake sale on Saturday, May 27. The sale will be held in Fry's restaurant on Main street at 10:30 a. m. Myrtle Lemon and Miriam Dundas are in charge.

H. S. NINE GOES TO MELVINDALE THIS AFTERNOON

Thompson Says Team Should Win In The Return Game Today

Today the Northville H. S. baseball team journeys to Melvindale, where it will play the last league game of the season.

As yet Northville has not won a league game and this will be her last chance. The team played Melvindale Monday and lost. Coach Thompson stated that the defeat was due to the numerous errors on the part of the Orange and Black team, and that the team was perfectly able to win from Melvindale today and should.

This is not the last game however for the season, there being games left with Plymouth and the Detroit Country Day School.

SCIENCE CLASSES MAKE BOTANICAL EXHIBIT

Members of the eighth grade general science classes completed their projects in time to make an exhibit of them at the P. T. A. meeting held last Thursday, May 11.

These projects were of a botanical nature, which included rock gardens, a miniature farm, a cactus collection and plants grown from either seed, bulb or a slip. Accompanying each displayed article was a report that gave a detailed account of the plant from the time it was first planted until the present day.

The students receiving honorable mention for their projects are: Marjorie Chase, Lucille Simmons, Scott Cole, Betty Haystead, Helen Johnson, Harry Richardson, Eva Mae Goodale, Glenn Weeks, Wilma Sheller, and Clayton Parmalee.

BALL TEAM LOSES 2 GAMES FRIDAY AND MONDAY

Defeats To Van Dyke And Melvindale Due To Bad Fielding

The Northville high school baseball team went down in defeat at the hands of Lincoln Van Dyke Friday, May 12 to the tune of 11 to 5, and again Monday to Melvindale, the score being 11 to 2.

Myers started the game for Northville and was relieved in the fourth inning, Bray finishing the game. Both Northville pitchers were truly hit. The support behind the pitchers was decidedly weak in both games. In fact the reason for the two defeats lies more with the very poor fielding than with the pitching.

The game with Lincoln Van Dyke is the second between the two schools this season, Lincoln Van Dyke also winning the first, 7-0. The batting strength of Northville is very weak. Nimmersheim, the Van Dyke pitcher, striking out eleven men.

The game Tuesday between Northville and Melvindale ended in disaster for Northville. Schrader started the game for Northville and was truly hit for four innings. Bray was sent in and though two runs were scored off him it was the fault of bad fielding again, as he allowed only two hits. Dasher, the Melvindale pitcher, yielded only two runs and four hits. Both games were played in semi-rainy weather; but then, has there ever been a baseball game on a day that it was not?

The line-up for the Northville-Lincoln Van Dyke game is as follows:

Northville
Duguid, 3b
Steencken, 3d
Bulmon, 2d
Deal, ss
Westphall, 2b
Kohler, c
Marburger, 1f
Neal, 1b

The line-up for the Northville-Melvindale game was as follows:

Northville
Campbell 3b
Bulmon, D. cf
Deal, ss
Westphall, 2b
Kohler, c
Marburger, 1f
Neal, 1b
Schrader p
Bulmon, L. lf

Substitutes: Duguid for L. Bulmon; Bray for Schrader; Steencken for Campbell; Himes for Duguid.

HISTORY CLASS HAS SPELLDOWN MONDAY

The seventh grade history class which meets the second hour under the supervision of Mrs. Vivid Cobb had a spell-down Monday morning, May 15.

After a hard battle the contest ended with Margaret Nagy the winner and Nancy McLoughlin and Percy Angove.

MUSIC GROUP WILL PRESENT PLAY TONIGHT

Mystery Thriller Prices Are 25c For Adults and Students 15c

The music department, under the direction of Leslie G. Lee, will present tonight (Friday, May 19) "The Valley of Ghosts," a three act mystery thriller. The play will be held in the high school auditorium and will begin at eight o'clock. The admission is fifteen cents for students, and twenty-five cents for adults.

Of this very mysterious and somewhat comical production by Jacob Lear, Director Leslie G. Lee says, "A mystery play such as this is very difficult to give, but as many included in the cast have had the essential experience, I believe that the production will be well worth seeing."

The leads are taken by Marion Turnbull and Maurice Giles, who play Helen Wayne and Jack Martin respectively. Minnie Strange, ghostly caretaker of the old house in Spooky Hollow, is ably portrayed by Eleanor Grosvenor. The part of Jonathan Black the lawyer is done by John Steencken. Alfred Parmenter is runner than ever in his role of Pete, Jack Martin's negro chauffeur. He and his three colored friends, Sally Ann (Florence Johnson), Amos Hill (Charles Strautz), and Lily Violet (Peggy Blake) get into some very comical situations. Gertrude Deal is "strangling" Jen. Scott a crazy woman; Margaret Hay is Sylvia Todd; George Richardson, a watchman; and Merle Fraser plays the ghost in this new drama. Ralph Bonart and Roland Morris will have charge of the sound effects.

The story centers around the will of the deceased Lucille Evans, who has specified that she wishes it to be administered by Jonathan Black in her home at midnight one year after she dies in compliance with her desire, they all assemble and then things begin to happen.

Just imagine being in a house with a few spirits, a mad woman who has a mania for strangling unsuspecting victims, a weird organ that plays when one least expects it, and a house lighting system that is none too good.

N. H. S. COMPETES IN REGIONAL MEET

Track Squad Will Run On The Ypsilanti Normal Track Tomorrow

Tomorrow (Saturday) Northville will meet all the schools of this district in the Regional meet on the Ypsi Normal track at Ypsilanti. The meet starts at 9:00 a. m.

This meet is to decide the contestants for the State meet to take place in the near future and the winners of first, second, and third in their respective classes, A, B, C, or D (Northville is a class "C" school), are eligible to compete.

Northville will have entries in all events. In the past, pole vault was left out but Henry Hoffman, who has been out due to illness, will vault for the first time this year. The following boys will represent Northville: High hurdles, Capt. Albert Vredendash, McLaughlin and Carrington; dash, McLaughlin and Carrington; 220 yard dash, Bulmon and Carrington; 440, McGee; High Jump, Baldwin; Broad Jump, Baldwin and Bray; Half Mile, Urdich and Bray; Mile, Porter and Cook; Shotput, Baldwin and Strautz; Pole Vault, Hoffman; Relay, McLoughlin, Carrington, Tewksbury, Bender, or Racz.

Coach Pierre Kenyon and Captain Vredendash both expect the team to make a good showing in spite of the fact that Northville will be competing against some tough teams.

STUDENTS LISTEN TO ADOLF HITLER

The students of both the high and junior high schools were called back at 9:00 o'clock Wednesday morning to hear the broadcast of Adolf Hitler's history making speech. The high school students gathered in the assembly where immediately following the popularity contest a radio belonging to Assistant Principal Paul B. Thompson, was brought into the room. The junior high students listened to the radio in Mrs. Vivid Cobb's room.

SOPHOMORE DANCE A SUCCESS FRIDAY

The Sophomores held a very successful dance last Friday evening, May 12. Edward Bender was in charge of the affair.

The sophomores wish to thank the following for their services in putting on the party: Mrs. Clifford Turnbull, Mrs. Hugh Richardson, Mrs. John Christensen, Mrs. Wm. Rattenbury, Miss Geraldine Huff, Mrs. May Babbitt, Mrs. Ida B. Cooke, Mrs. George Ferguson and Percy Angove.

PEGGY BLAKE IS MADE ASSISTANT EDITOR OF O & B

Expected To Be Appointed As Head Of School Page Next Year

It was announced Tuesday by the Orange and Black's faculty advisor, Leslie G. Lee, and its editor, Warner Neal, that Miss Peggy Blake has been appointed assistant editor of the school page, and will be named later as editor for next year.

"Peggy Blake," says Mr. Lee, "has been one of the outstanding reporters on the O and B staff and I believe that she is the best fitted to head the journalism staff next year." Her appointment as assistant editor is merely to give her the necessary experience. Neal expressed confidence that the student council would quickly ratify the appointment.

With the addition of Miss Blake, no change is being made on the staff. Richard Shipley will continue as associate editor and John Steencken also as assistant editor.

Considerable satisfaction was heard around the school on the journalism heads' choice.

RURAL PUPILS TAKE THEIR HIGH SCHOOL EXAMS HERE TODAY

Two days this week, Thursday and Friday, May 18 and 19, the surrounding school districts of Northville are holding grade examinations for Wayne County at the High School. The entire examination is not given to the students in the same year, one-half of the examination is given the students when they are in the seventh grade and the remainder is given when the student is in the eighth grade.

The exam is given in Room 9, next to the junior high assembly, and will begin at 8:30 A. M. It was said by Mrs. Ida B. Cooke, who is in charge that sometimes the examination runs until 6:00.

The examinations are over such subjects as spelling, English, arithmetic, and similar subjects. If the student fails he must take the grade he is in over again.

SENIOR'S WHO'S WHO

Myrtle Bell Lemmon
Myrtle first opened her eyes at Hartwick, Michigan the year of 1914. When old enough to attend school, she went to the neighboring school house. After two years of this she decided to come to Northville where she has been ever since.

During her high school career, Myrtle was very active. She was a valuable member of the girls baseball and basketball teams. She belonged to the Girl's Glee Club and Sextette. Myrtle also served on the J-Hop committee.

After being graduated, Myrtle plans to take a post-graduate course and then attend some college to study designing.

Myrtle has quite a few hobbies but the main ones are swimming and dancing.

"HARD-BOILED ANGEL" STARS LENORE ULRIC

"Hard-Boiled Angel," starring Lenore Ulric and presented by Arch Selwyn, will be seen at the Cass Theatre for four days only, beginning Sunday evening, May 21st, with a matinee on Wednesday.

A new comedy in three acts by Wilson Colleen, author of the riotous success, "Up In Mabel's Room," "Hard Boiled Angel" has been carefully selected for the alluring Miss Ulric as a play of extreme merit suitable to the noted heroine of "Tiger Rose," "Kiki," "Lulu Belle," "The Pagan Lady" and other well-remembered triumphs.

Arch Selwyn, the producer responsible for "Twin Beds," "Within The Law," "Smiling Through," "Fair and Warmer," "Buddies," "This Year of Grace" and "Private Lives" with Noel Coward, whom he really discovered, "The Devil Passage" and innumerable other hits of the theatre, has placed Lenore Ulric under personal contract and believes that with stars of her calibre and good plays like "Hard-Boiled Angel" the legitimate theatre can easily be brought back to its own within a very short time.

Surrounding Miss Ulric with a cast of distinction, Catherine Dale Owen, Paul Kelly, Henry Daniell, Jane Farrell and Walter Armatage are most prominent, "all featured players with enviable records of success in both the theatre and talking pictures."

The scene of "Hard-Boiled Angel" is laid in the mountainous district between Los Angeles and San Francisco, portraying in its humorous way the involved lives of a group of people who need a hard-boiled angel to untangle their complicated matters.

The comedy is being presented in Detroit just prior to its Chicago and New York engagement and marks the first appearance of Miss Ulric at the popular price scale that prevails.

William Selwyn, son of the famed impresario, has directed "Hard-Boiled Angel" with thorough approval of star and author, and is the youngest director of the theatre today.

POPULARITY CONTEST HELD ON WEDNESDAY

Is Run Smoothly; Results A Secret Until Annual Is Published

The long awaited popularity contest, sponsored by the Palladium staff, was held Wednesday forenoon in the high school assembly.

The contest was in charge of the faculty committee composed of Leslie G. Lee, Paul B. Thompson, and Miss Ione Palmer and was run off very smoothly. The classes were called back at 9:15 in the morning to the assembly. The specially printed ballots were passed out, care being taken to give only one to each student.

The ballots were then taken up by the committees and the students sent back to their classes. The votes were then locked up until after school when they were counted. The results were kept strictly secret. The committee did not tell a soul of their count except Palladium Editor Neal, who is making arrangements to publish the results in the Palladium. The editor says that "precautionary steps have been taken to prevent even a small of news on the contest results from getting out previous to the sale of the first annual." "This," he added, "will, we hope, be some time during the second week in June."

VAN DYKE PLAYS BALL HERE TUESDAY

Due to the fact that there is no baseball diamond at the Lincoln Van Dyke high school, the baseball team from that place engaged Melvindale in a ball game here Tuesday, May 1, and was defeated 2-1.

Northville has played both of these teams within the last two weeks and plays at Melvindale today. Therefore it was of interest to N. H. S. team members to watch the game. Tuesday, Nimmersheim, the Van Dyke pitcher who appeared to buffalo the Orange and Black hitters started the game in the box as did Deluka of Melvindale, the baseball team from that place engaged Melvindale in a ball game here Tuesday, May 1, and was defeated 2-1.

Scrip Accepted

We will accept Detroit Scrip to the amount of $3.00 from each customer in payment for articles purchased at S. L. Brader's Department Store.

Our creditors, for the most part, will accept no Detroit Scrip. Others to whom we owe money will accept only a part payment in Detroit Scrip.

In order to accommodate our customers, most of whom have "stood by" us for many years, we have decided to accept scrip to the amount of three dollars ($3.00) from each customer.

We have conducted a legitimate business for many years. We desire to continue doing so and under no circumstances will we "jack up" our prices or resort to other shady business practices to meet the scrip situation.

We appreciate and invite your patronage!

Elizabeth Salinda Forbes

Elizabeth Salinda Forbes, beloved Mother of Frances V. Hanford and Samuel A. Forbes, passed away recently at her daughter's home in Santa Monica, California, at the age of eighty six years—after an illness of two and one half years. She was laid to rest in Mountain View cemetery, Pasadena, California, beside her only grandson, Herbert O. Hanford, who lost his life nine years ago in an automobile accident.

In the death of Mrs. Forbes, the last member of a family long resident of Michigan passes.

Mrs. Forbes, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Goodell, was born in Coldwater, Michigan, in 1847 and lived the greater part of her life in this state. She lived a number of years in Detroit and in Novi, Oakland Co., Michigan.

In 1913 she moved to Coldwater and bought the property at 159 Henry street.

She was a member of the Butternut Chapter W. R. C. during her residence in Coldwater, transferring later to Stephen Jackson, W. R. C., Santa Monica, California.

Mrs. Forbes was the daughter of David and Caroline Goodell, who came to Michigan from Cherry Valley, N. Y., in 1845 living on what was known as the Tucker Farm, South of Coldwater. In 1848 the family moved to Novi, Michigan living there more than a half a century.

Mrs. Goodell, mother of Mrs. Forbes, was Caroline Brown and she was a sister to Charles and Anas Brown, long deceased, resident of Coldwater.

Mrs. Forbes was the sister of Clarissa, Edwin, Charles and George of Northville, Michigan, passing away only a few months before his sister's death.

Mrs. Forbes was loved and respected by all who knew her. Paralysis had left her helpless and bedfast for the last two years of her life. Her great affliction was born with much patience and she was always deeply appreciative of every kindness shown her during her long illness.

Services were held in the Chapel of Leslie and Todd and were in charge of Stephen Jackson W. R. C. and Silver Wave Rebecca Lodge, Santa Monica, California. 34-1f

HIGH SCHOOL NINE WINS GAME FROM WEST POINT PARK

(From the O and B.)

The Northville high school baseball team won a close game by a score of 3 to 1 from West Point Park high school in a game played there Wednesday.

No runs were scored until the fourth inning when the West Pointers made their one and only score. Northville quickly took the lead in their half of the fifth when both Neel and Darrell Bulmon crossed the plate. Marburger completed the Northville total of three by scoring in the sixth.

Meyers started in the box for Northville and pitched a good game for five innings. He was relieved by Bray, who also gave an excellent account of himself. Leo Kohler caught for both Northville pitchers. The batteries for the West Point Park team were Wolfe and Ash.

Though the contest was not a league game, Coach Paul B. Thompson appeared pleased with the way the team members handled themselves. The fielding especially was greatly improved over previous games.

school administration to the best of their ability by showing tolerance of inevitable mistakes.

He asked that the people be open-minded, broad-minded, and be ready to admit that they, too, make mistakes. He appealed for a more unselfish attitude and stated that he had already been approached for special favors which, if granted, would prove detrimental to the best interests of the school.

In closing his address Mr. Amerman declared that the necessity for outside talent to be brought into the village was overemphasized. He said that there are many "diamonds in the rough" in Northville, that it is difficult to see the "fine things" because they are so close at hand.

"Leadership and experience necessary to carry out the destiny of Northville can be found right at home," he affirmed in concluding his talk.

Ben A. Baldwin, Detroit insurance agent, was a guest.

Next week's program, announced President Chas. Murphy, is in charge of Sam Wilkinson, who has secured Inspector Rhoades of the Detroit Police department as the speaker for the day. Inspector Rhoades has charge of training all Detroit rookies and an interesting talk is promised to Exchanges.

Scoutmaster Orlov G. Owen asked that all Exchanges make it a point to attend the Scout rally Tuesday, May 23, to be held at the Wayne County Training school.

CHAS C. KELLOGG, EX-POSTMASTER AT DETROIT, IS DEAD

Chas Collins Kellogg, former postmaster of Detroit, an uncle of Mrs. Roy Booth, Seven Mile road and well-known in this vicinity, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Donald VanWinkle, in Howell, Monday, May 15, following a stroke of paralysis.

Chas. Kellogg was born in Plymouth, Dec. 25, 1864, leaving that town at a very early age and going to Detroit where the great part of his life was spent. He had the distinction of having been in the postal service of Detroit longer than anyone in the history of that city.

For seven years a postmaster and 38 years as a postal executive he was the only one in service who had advanced continuously to his high position.

Mr. Kellogg is survived by his niece, Mrs. Booth, and by his daughter, Mrs. VanWinkle, and her children, Wm., Elizabeth, Chas., Anna, Edna, and Helen. The funeral was held in Howell yesterday (Thursday) afternoon at the St. Johns Episcopal church.

FORD FUEL CONTEST TO BE POSTPONED

Because of the lack of gasoline testers with which to test mileage of Ford V-8 automobiles, the Marz Motor sales will postpone the fuel contest scheduled to begin Thursday, temporarily.

The Ford salesroom will test all cars that come in with the tester they have, states Mr. Marz, and take a record of the mileage to be held until the contest, but no prizes will be awarded until the contest is completed.

IMPRESSIVE MEET HELD BY D. A. R.

When we salute the flag, we salute the countless dead who died that we might live. We salute the living heroes who, by their great courage and devotion, carry on the life of this great nation. We salute the children yet to come and pledge to pass on to them unsullied and even in greater measure the privileges and liberties we have enjoyed under the flag. This means a very solemn promise to the past, the present, and the future, and thus the pledge should always be given thoughtfully with sincere regard for its wealth of meaning.

After a short recess, the Regent resumed the chair for the annual meeting. This consisted primarily of reports summing up the year's work and giving a concise and kaleidoscopic picture of things accomplished. While the actual work of the chapter, measured by money spent on the usual patriotic projects was smaller this year compared with other years, the Sarah Ann Cochran may well be proud of our record in the face of adversity. The program chairman, Mrs. Carl Bryan, showed this more conclusively in her resume of the year's programs which proved to have been both enjoyable and profitable.

The treasurer's report, Mrs. Sidney Strong, showed the chapter's sound financial standing in spite of "frozen assets" due to sagacious management.

Mrs. Dwight T. Randall, chapter registrar, reported a loss of eight members partly reconciled by the gaining of four new members, so that chapter's files list forty-four loyal and enthusiastic women.

Perhaps the most noteworthy work of the chapter this year was done by the genealogical research group of which Mrs. Randall is also the chairman. This committee has sent in to the state chairman 38 Bibles and family records and two names. Four copies of each were sent and each copy contained 103 typed pages of records and three pages of wills. This work has meant extensive research largely in old cemeteries where gravestones are searched for important data. This plan of chapter work has brought considerable prestige to our chapter and great credit goes to Mrs. Randall for her tireless efforts in compiling material.

Another important activity of the chapter is the preservation of historical spots. Mrs. D. P. Yerkes is chairman of this committee and reported the locating of the grave of a Revolutionary soldier in the old burying grounds near the Plymouth Presbyterian church, the grave of a "real" Daughters in the Ruverside cemetery and the location of six old toll gates. These historic spots were not marked this year as is usually the case, due to lack of funds, but they can be appropriately marked later with the information in the committee's hands.

Mrs. George Wilcox of the National Defense committee reported having visited last summer, the communist camp near Farmington in company with other chapter members, and attending the communist meetings in Plymouth just before last fall's general election. Her committee kept close watch of each activity and made vigorous protests against any advertising of such meetings. This report proves the D. A. R.'s are alert to this danger to American institutions and are determined to do their best to throttle it in its incipency.

The Americanism committee working with the Patriotic Education committee sent a box of materials during the year to allens detained on Ellis Island, these materials being used to employ these people during their enforced idleness and serve to impress these would-be citizens of our country with its sympathy and thought of the "stranger within the gates." The committee also sent a box of home made delicacies to the American Legion hospital at Battle Creek, and has promoted, as usual, the historical contests in the Northville and Plymouth schools, for which prizes are offered seeking to further encourage the students in the pursuit of knowledge of American history.

This is only a partial story of the several interesting and inspiring reports. At their close Mrs. Chauncey Baker, the Regent, spoke of her satisfaction and pride in the service the chapter has rendered the community, voiced her personal thanks for chapter cooperation and expressed optimism for the future usefulness of the organization and its ability to serve a real need.

The meeting served particularly to prove to the members present that obstacles only draw forth the determination of many loyal daughters.
