

1933 NORTHVILLE FAIR OPENS AUG. 23 WITH NIGHT PARADE

STORE HOURS HERE NOT TO BE UNIFORM

Local Business Men Will Follow Their Own Schedule

Although Northville and Plymouth retailers and other business men agreed to conform to a uniform schedule of opening and closing hours at a meeting in the Northville Village Hall Thursday August 10, the attempt to put the agreement into effect has since been discarded here due to its impracticability.

With the many different local businesses and conditions it was found in a canvass after the meeting that it would be difficult to put a binding schedule into effect. Several of the local stores desire to maintain their former hours which is one reason for the inability to maintain a uniform schedule of opening and closing.

Northville is not the only community that faces the problem of store hours. The same situation exists in Farmington and Ann Arbor. In Ann Arbor a uniform schedule was voted on and passed, but Tuesday the merchants voted to resume the old hours of opening and closing starting tomorrow. Farmington business men also have been unable to agree on a definite schedule of opening and closing.

However, Northville business men are standing solidly behind the NRA in respect to minimum wages and added labor. The blue eagle of recovery has become a permanent fixture in nearly every store window in town.

The speaker at the August 10 meeting in the Village Hall was E. E. Prime, secretary of the Wholesale Division of the Detroit Board of Commerce. Mr. Prime was present at the meeting of some fifty Plymouth and Northville retailers and business men by invitation to point out, define and interpret some phases of the NRA act which affect local business organizations.

Mr. Prime remarked that codes drafted by the various trades must be uniform throughout the state and other states. That is, no code drawn up by a certain trade must vary in any detail in any part of this state or any other state. They all must be uniform in content.

Food stores must be open at least 63 hours a week according to the NRA code. Other stores are required to remain open 52 hours during the week.

Nelson C. Schrader presided.

JAMES CONROY DIES AT HOME IN FREMONT

Mrs. Lucinda Christy, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Metta Ambler and grandson, Sherrill Ambler and his wife, attended the funeral of her son, Jas. O. Conroy, in Fremont, O., Wednesday, August 8, whose death occurred on the previous Saturday. The funeral was largely attended by many friends of Mr. Conroy who had held the important position of superintendent of the Electric Power Co.

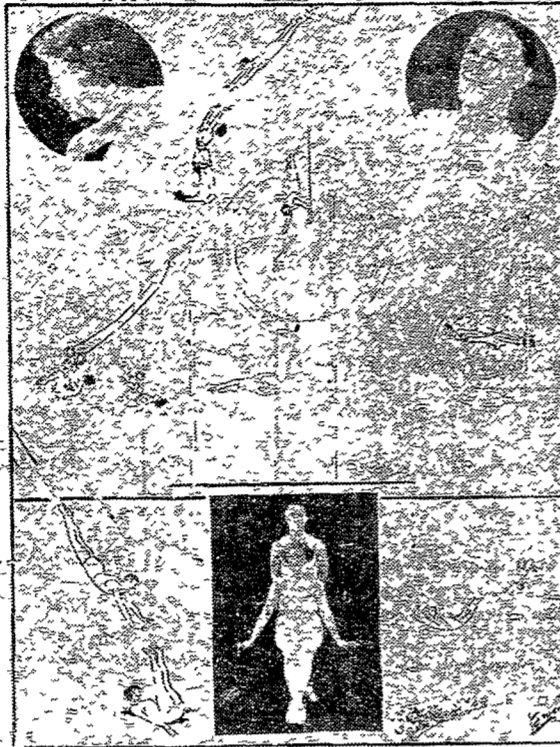

Mrs. Christy was called to the home of her son three weeks previous to his passing. Mr. Conroy will be remembered by many in Northville where he made his home 33 years ago. He is survived by his widow, nee Miss Sadie Thomas, of Farmington.

ALEX LYKE OPENS UP PLUMBING BUSINESS

Alex Lyke, well-known plumber of Northville, is stepping out for himself in business. For the past ten years Mr. Lyke has been engaged in this work, first for his cousin, Fred Lyke, and for the past four years with Thos. W. McCordie. In all this work Mr. Lyke has maintained his reputation for good, honest workmanship and his many friends wish Alex, who is a native of this village, success in his business venture. At present his headquarters are at his home at 213 So. Center street.

EXCHANGITES SING OLD SONGS AND LISTEN TO SOLOS

Orlow G. Owen Has Charge of Musical Program Wednesday

Good old-fashioned group singing coupled with vocal and piano solos provides the program for the exchange club at their meeting Wednesday in the Methodist church house.

Orlow G. Owen was in charge of the program, which was a decided change from the usual talk on some economic problem or the trials and tribulations of the NRA.

Following the luncheon Mr. Owen led the group in singing old favorites among which were: "Pack Up Your Troubles in Your Old Kit Bag," "I Want a Red Automobile" and "Under the Spreading Chestnut Tree." The latter piece was accompanied by gestures on the part of the assembled Exchangites which furnished a bit of amusement when some of the group got behind and tried to catch up.

Scott Montgomery played "The Bells of St. Marye" as a piano solo. His rendition of this beautiful piece was well received.

Two tenor solos by Cleon Dey accompanied by Mr. Montgomery, were capably rendered. As an encore Mr. Dey sang an original composition by Mr. Montgomery, "Honeymoon Time."

Proving their versatility a bit further Mr. Dey and Mr. Montgomery pulled two chairs up to the piano and proceeded to play three modern numbers in a lively duet.

Guests at the meeting were: A. W. Wohler of Port Huron; Cleon Dey, and Scott Montgomery of Northville. Robert G. Yerkes was in charge in the absence of Dr. Douglas and Dr. Sparring, president and vice-president.

POLO GAME

Polo will feature the fair here.

W. F. Cole & Son Receive Orders From As Far Away As California For Their Line of Fish Spears

Anyone who has ever tried fishing far west as California, in fact they have received orders from every part of the country.

The spears range in size from 12 inches over all to 26 inches over all. The smaller ones have five tines and the larger spears have seven tines.

If one doubts the ability of a spear to catch a good sized fish Mr. Cole is quick to show the head of a 23-pound catch caught in the northern part of the state with one of his spears.

The factory where the spears are made is located directly in the rear of the Cole residence on North Center. In this small shop one will find drills, forges, lathes, trip hammers, and other up-to-date equipment for steel work. It is expected an addition to the shop will be necessary before long.

Robert Neely has recently joined the firm.

ROTARY CLUB IS HOST TO FAIR OFFICERS

Fine Spirit of Cooperation Is Praised By The Speakers

The Northville Rotary club was host to the members of the Northville fair board at their weekly meeting Tuesday in the Presbyterian church house.

Rotarians definitely became fair conscious for the afternoon. They heard short talks from each member of the board and indulged in a general discussion on the NRA, which seems to be the topic of the day and points to be the topic of conversation in business circles for some time to come.

Following luncheon Miss Marion Turnbull sang "Come to the Fair" a very appropriate number for this time of the year. She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Kathleen Bluck.

Before introducing the members of the fair board, Harry B. Clark brought back some memories of the first fairs held in this section. Now was the scene of the first fair back around the year 1832. From here the fair moved to Farmington the next year, thence to Plymouth, and finally Northville became the home of the Wayne County Fair.

Nelson C. Schrader, president of the Northville Wayne County Fair for the past seven years, read the names of the men closely connected with the first Northville Fair 75 years ago. Mr. Schrader had a copy of the first fair book as well as each book put out by the fair committee from year to year. Their change in style and volume of contents represents the rapid strides the Northville fair has taken to its present position as one of the outstanding fairs of the state.

Mr. Schrader emphasized the fact that the cooperation on the part of the directors, the people of Northville, friends in nearby towns, and everyone in general has helped in no small way towards the success which the fair enjoys each year. All credit coming to the fair is due to those who work untiringly and unselfishly to make each fair bigger and better than ever.

M. H. Sloan, E. M. Starkweather, E. L. Smith, W. E. Forney and Ed. Fuller, all members of the fair board, spoke briefly on the early days of the fair, recalling some old time familiar names prominent in fair circles for a number of years.

Floyd Northrop, fair secretary, praised the town merchants for their willingness to contribute advertising for the fair book. Only one merchant refused to contribute, Mr. Northrop said.

Edton R. Eaton, editor of the Plymouth Mail and also a member of the fair board, praised the horse show as one of the best drawing cards of the Northville fair. He said, "the fair has become a permanent part of Northville."

President Rogers in summing up the remarks of the fair board remarked that the progress of the fair from year to year shows what can be done with united cooperation. He said that the fair board has "set an example that might well be followed in other lines."

NORTHVILLIANS WILL SEE TIGERS AND YANKEES PLAY

If you haven't seen the Detroit Tigers play this year and want to see Babe Ruth swat one before his underpinning gives way, plan to go to Detroit August 29 and witness the game between the Tigers and the New York Yankees at Navin Field.

The Northville Rotary club is going to attend the game after holding their regular meeting at the Presbyterian church house, and they want as many Northvillians as possible to go down to Detroit and make it a regular Northville Day at the ball park. The Exchange club is planning to join the Rotarians on this outing.

Each person will pay his own expenses and see to his own transportation.

Bill Forney is in charge of the arrangements and everyone who is going is asked to let him know so that he can make reservations for a block of seats at the park. In order to insure good seats Mr. Forney must know if you plan to attend the game by Saturday, August 26.

LAST STREET DANCE TOMORROW

Band Concert Starts at 7:30

The final Northville Free Street Dance, to be held on the evening of Saturday, Aug. 19 (tomorrow) will be the biggest of the entire two months' free entertainment.

Extra valuable awards are to be given away free by the merchants and the musicians of Scott Montgomery's orchestra promise to "turn on the heat" for the concluding street dance of the current season. Larger crowds than have ever before attended are expected to fill the streets to capacity and the event is attracting country-wide attention.

The Northville High School and Community band will open its annual series of summer concerts that evening by playing on the corner of Main and Center streets beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Followers of this organization are familiar with the excellent brand of music that this 45-piece band turns out and will greet its return with enthusiasm. Many who were present at last week's dance thought that the event was the final one. Rumors flew thick and fast to the effect that the county had stopped the dance, that the funds had given out, that a change in the program had been made, these and many other stories passed through the crowds, but they were all groundless. Merchants of Northville are still supporting the weekly dance and treasure hunt and they plan to make the final one a big affair.

Next week, the seventeenth annual Northville Wayne County Fair takes place here and there will be no street dance. Whether the dance will be started after the fair has been concluded is a question not yet settled. Announcement concerning this will be made in the columns of The Record.

Remember—the Free Street Dance and Treasure Hunt will be held this week, Saturday, with all of the customary attractions and an additional feature—the Northville High School and Community band concert starting at 7 o'clock.

LOCK YOUR HOMES DURING FAIR WEEK SAYS CHIEF SAFFORD

Don't leave your homes unlocked during fair week!

This advice comes from Chief of Police Wm. Safford, who states that many shady characters follow the fairs throughout the country knowing that residents of the town where the fair is held are apt to visit the event and leave the doors and windows of their homes unlocked. These prowlers, he says, know that the average village police force is not large enough to patrol each street and the officers are usually engaged in handling the fair crowds. They seize this opportunity to sneak into residences and steal whatever is not nailed down.

BEWARE OF GUNS IS WARNING TO GARDEN THEVES

Police Chief William Safford issues a warning to garden thieves, that from now on residents with vegetable gardens are protecting their products with firearms and they will shoot whenever someone is caught in the act of pulling up vegetables.

Several nights ago a garden belonging to Daniel Lafferty of Rouge street, was robbed of several rows of vegetables. Since then there have been several complaints of the same nature. Any further attempts at theft will be met with gun shot, according to Chief Safford. The people are armed to protect their gardens. Chief Safford brands the man who steals the fruit of someone else's labor as a mean type of thief.

HORSE SHOW, FREE ACTS, POLO, RACES, BALL GAMES, EXHIBITS ARE FEATURES

Three Nights of Fireworks Will Be Given; Saturday Will Be American Legion Day, With Prizes for Bugle Corps

Fair time again! Michigan's biggest little fair—the Northville Wayne County Fair—gets under way Wednesday, August 23, for four crowded days and nights.

Only a few more days until Northville becomes fair conscious and small boys begin to dream of a career as trapeze artists or tight wire performers.

Pink lemonade, popcorn, peanuts, and candy will begin to cause mothers no end of worry and fathers no end of expense Wednesday night when the Northville Wayne County Fair gets under way with "The Big Parade."

Rocket outfits of ancient vintage drawn by horses of doubtful youth together with up-to-date fancy hacks and carriages with sleek mares will all be in this parade of parades, which opens the four day activities at the fair grounds. Prizes will be awarded for the best exhibit of both ancient and modern vehicles.

Change of Free Acts
Each day of the fair there will be a complete and different program of free acts. Elmer Smith has charge of this part of the fair program, and he has assembled four groups of clever and diversified performers.

Wednesday the free acts will include amusing performers on bicycles and unicycles, performers of intricate routines on a ladder balanced on a man's shoulder, jugglers of extraordinary ability, and tight wire acts.

Thursday's program will present aerial artists—the Musical Waiter who plays everything on the table, difficult hand to hand balancing and equilibria, and a speedy trio in a whirlwind roller skating act.

Friday will bring a hand balancing act by Tommy Chals, a trained group of Australian Cockatoos, the Flying Howards, and a clever rhythmic acrobatic dancer.

Saturday, the last day of the fair, will bring Jim and Carrie Hughes with their fifteen educated dogs, two opera stars from the Milan Opera Company, and the sensational Dorothy Mills.

Miss Mills, according to reports, has just recently returned from an extended European tour where her routine of acrobatic thrills performed 100 feet in the air was received as nothing less than sensational. Miss Mills, working on a rigging made of tons of steel, loops the loop swings upside down and does many other feats of a startling nature.

The acts mentioned above are only a part of the entertainment that will be furnished at the fair. Thursday there will be a ball game between Plymouth and Carleton Friday Newburg and South Lyon will fight it out on the diamond.

Polo Game on Thursday
In addition to the ball game Thursday there will be a polo game in the evening on the track in front of the grandstand. Northville's Farm Crest team will play Detroit in what promises to be a thrilling and excellent exhibition of the game.

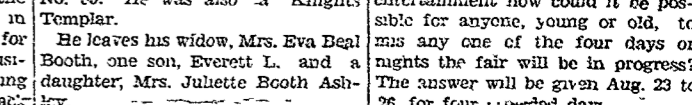

Saturday has been designated American Legion Day at the fair. Fourteen drum and bugle corps will parade on the grounds. Prizes have been offered for the best teams and bugle corps.

Besides all these attractions at the fair there will be the horse show, which plays an important part in every Northville fair. Both the Junior and Senior shows have become recognized as two of the outstanding horse shows in the state. Many well known ribbon winners in the various classes will be on hand to attempt to add another trophy to their collection. The competition promises to be keen.

Fireworks on Three Nights
No fair, large or small, could be called complete without the ever beautiful display of fireworks. The Northville fair will not be without this popular attraction. Three nights of fireworks have been planned by the fair management. Stars, rockets and multi-colored bombs will light the skies for three nights during fair week.

With such an array of diversified entertainment how could it be possible for anyone, young or old, to miss any one of the four days or nights the fair will be in progress? The answer will be given Aug. 23 to 26 for four crowded days.

GIVES TIME

NELSON C. SCHRADER
As president of The Northville Wayne County Fair Mr. Schrader has given generously of his time and resources to make the annual event an outstanding success.

He is capably assisted in the administrative duties by Floyd Northrop, secretary, Ernest Miller, treasurer, and a host of departmental heads who labor throughout the year without recompense to make each fair a better one than that which preceded it.

Young People's Week at the Salem Federated church closed with a banquet on Friday evening August 11. The mothers provided and served the delicious supper. Music was furnished by the little Sunday night orchestra. Robert Lidgard was a very efficient toastmaster and he called upon Shirley Kinde, who congratulated the young people on their achievement in Christian service.

Mrs. Sarah Stanbro, an honor guest gave a humorous reading which was thoroughly enjoyed. Russell Wallace spoke earnestly on youth's views of life here and hereafter. Superintendent Edward Denniston's splendid address was the closing event of a busy week, and somehow his warnings and counsel seemed to emphasize the need and importance of the work of the church.

THUNDER STORM THURSDAY
A brief shower Thursday afternoon gave gardens and farms a much needed watering.

Chas. Booth, Former Secretary of the Globe Furniture Company, Passes at Home in New York City

Charles Booth, native of Northville, died at his late home in New York City, July 27, 1933. The news of his passing did not reach this office before, hence no mention of the fact has been made.

The number of people in Northville who will remember Charlie Booth is quite limited as he left the town in 1898, and the period since has seen the passing of his old-time friends like E. S. Harmon, L. A. Babbit, F. S. Neal and others.

During the 20 years before Mr. Booth left Northville he was vitally interested in public affairs as well as attending to his responsibilities as secretary of the old Globe Furniture Co.

Mr. Booth was born in Northville and lived with his parents at the old toll-gate at Seven Mile road and Plymouth road. He had a brother, Frank, and sister, Mrs. Eva Macomber.

Mr. Booth began work with the Michigan School Furniture Co. in 1874 and after saving his money for four years was able to take a business course in 1878. After working in Mansuet for awhile he came back to the Furniture Co. and remained with them until 1898.

When he finally severed his connection with the Globe Co. he went with his boyhood friends, Will and John Duntley, who had formed the Chicago Pneumatic Tool Co.

Mr. Booth was office manager in the Monadock Block in Chicago. He remained with the company until after Charles Schwab became majority stockholder. While with the company he was stationed at New York, Philadelphia and London, England.

During his latter years he has been engaged in business with his son and his son-in-law.

Early in 1883 Mr. Booth became a Master Mason. He held various offices until 1890, when he was elected master of the lodge, and at the time of his death was the oldest ranking past master. In 1897 he was high priest of Union chapter, No. 65. He was also a Knights Templar.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Eva Deal Booth, one son, Everett L. and a daughter, Mrs. Juliette Booth Ashby.

AN EX-CONVICT GETS AN OFFICE

Auditor General Stack has given the position of disbursing officer in his office to Franklin L. Dodge, who was recently released from federal prison, where he had been sent for perjury in the ill-smelling Remus case.

Now just how does this appeal to you?

In his work Mr. Dodge will pass on all state vouchers. That looks like an important job. Defending his action in naming Dodge to the office, Auditor General Stack says: "This man seems to have no friends. For that reason he may make a good man for this position. He won't be playing favorites." That argument is not convincing.

Dodge has friends or he wouldn't be holding an office the way office holding is being carried out at Lansing right now. If he has no friends he is a pretty mean man.

Further, as several have pointed out, it is fine to give former convicts a chance but it certainly would be fairer to the people to start them in some humble place where they can show they are worthy, rather than to place them in high positions of financial responsibility in our state capitol.

THE SMALL BUSINESS MEN

Harvey J. Campbell, of the Detroit Board of Commerce, certainly stirred up a hornet's nest last week when, in a long interview in The Detroit News, he predicted the downfall of the small merchants because of the workings of the NRA.

Mr. Campbell has been hearing from about everyone—even the Detroit News itself wrote an editorial, saying that the small business man wasn't wrecked yet and wouldn't be—and most of the "come-back" is that the big Chamber of Commerce man pulled a bad "bone."

When Mr. Campbell sets out to eliminate part of the great middle class of the American people, he just butts his head against a stone wall. The United States was built on individual effort and initiative. Thousands have started with a "shoestring," as did John Wanamaker and become merchant princes, captains of industry and business men of more or less standing.

Thousands will continue to get their start in a small way and will rise to mercantile and business greatness. "Little business" is just as much a part of this nation's greatness as is "big business" and it will be a sad day when "big business" has to take over the "whole show" and wipe out the small business places that go to make up thousands and thousands of our American communities, such as Northville.

The foolishness of Mr. Campbell's prediction can be seen in his statement of what it takes to make a successful business man. He says you have to be all of these things:

"He must have a genius for organization, be an infallible judge of men, a tireless worker, have the leadership of a field marshal, be a great financier, have the decision of a race driver and the deliberation of a Supreme Court justice."

Gosh, wouldn't that make you laugh? How many business or professional men that you know anywhere—in Detroit where big stores had to put their clerks on commission and had to borrow untold thousands of dollars to keep going, or in little Northville where little business men have managed to keep their heads above water—met all these requirements? If one had all the qualifications that Mr. Campbell says are necessary to make a small business go, he would get to be mayor of a city, governor of a state or maybe even a Chamber of Commerce secretary.

No, if the NRA ruins the small business men it will be an injustice that will rock the country from coast to coast. Of course, there is a type of small business men that has been falling by the wayside ever since the days of the colonists—and he should fail. But the up-and-going little business man, who serves his community well in a progressive, fair-minded, honest way is still going strong and will be with us for some time to come.

Incidentally, we wonder how Mr. Campbell reconciles his recent prediction with the statement he made, while touring the state of Michigan, on merchandising "pep" trips that the small business man is the "back bone of the country."

WHAT DOES NRA MEAN?

In thousands upon thousands of business places throughout the United States, you will now see in the display windows the blue Eagle of the NRA. It looks like a small poster but it is the emblem of the most revolutionary change that men in business since the Civil war (if any) have seen.

NRA sounds like the letters of a radio station but it means National Recovery Act, the law passed by Congress which gives to President Roosevelt wartime powers.

Everyone is asking: "What does NRA mean? And what will it do?"

Pages could be written on NRA but briefly, NRA is the whole power of our national government—vested in our president—telling everyone in business or manufacturing, of any and all kinds, how to run their business. NRA dictates how many hours men shall work per day and week and it makes demands that they shall be paid certain minimum wages. After September 1 those who do not follow the "code" of NRA have a good chance to pay a thousand dollar fine or go to prison. NRA is an all-powerful mandate for everyone of 120 millions of people. Although it has the mighty power of our government back of it, it is hoped that it may be made to work with the force of public opinion, rather than that of legal force back of it.

What will the National Recovery act do? First, by limiting hours of labor and yet maintaining the old hours for business places and factories to be open, it will give employment to many people. In the food stores of Michigan, for example, it is expected to increase the number of employes by 30 per cent.

Second, because more men are given work it will increase buying power—the lack of which has caused the paralysis of our business throughout the country. More buying power will in turn make more business and if the upturn is enough we shall soon be out of the depression and have a large number of our twelve million unemployed back at work again.

Third, it will put an end to child labor in the South and East and also set up a minimum wage that is fair—although if no more than the minimum is paid in some cases it will work great hardship.

Fourth, it will do away with "cut rate" practices since NRA forbids selling at less than cost prices.

What is the danger of NRA? There are probably several menaces to this revolutionary act. The most obvious one is that honest and sincere men and women will follow the code while the dishonest, the shrewd and the scheming will "get around" it some way and penalize the first named class of good people.

Another real danger is that with the enforcement of the act necessarily left to thousands of men and women whom the President must rely upon, as he is no super-human, there may creep in grave injustices. Great patience and consideration will be needed to give a "fair shake" to the smaller business people for whom it will be hard to meet all the demands of the NRA. There must be no coercion of those to whom the code means real hardship. There must be no boycott of those who are doing their best to conform but who have their individual problems that cannot be easily solved.

What shall we do about NRA? Just one thing: Do our very best to follow the high motives of our president in carrying out its provisions cheerfully, honestly and consistently, reserving at all times the right of free people to protest should the act prove unjust.

WANDERING THOUGHTS

Looks as though the Northville Wayne County Fair is going to "go over big."

What would Northville, Novi and Salem farmers do if they had to follow the NRA code? Some of the cows would go un milked.

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

COST $1,000 TO SETTLE

(Milford Times) The group of farmers in Grafton county who halted a mortgage foreclosure sale last spring and bid in the property for $385 have just paid $1,000 to settle the matter out of court. There were 24 farmers involved.

"MISS NIRA" IS HERE

(C S Seed in The Rochester Clarion)

We knew it would happen, but we did not look for it quite so soon. A young man in Philadelphia, out of work for months, landed a job several days ago and his baby daughter, just born, has been named Nira.

BATTLE THE GANGSTERS

(W. H. Berkey in Cassopolis Vigilant)

And now that we are to give battle why not restate those Michigan State Police and recruit our army of crime-fighters to normal strength? Before the war is over we are going to need every available soldier, and the commander-in-chief who discharged part of his army on the eve of battle is going to come in for strong condemnation.

BEGINNING A NEW ERA

(Grand Rapids Chronicle)

There is a story, possibly apocryphal, to the effect that a visitor said to President Roosevelt, "Immediately after his inauguration Mr. President, you are going to be either the best loved or the best hated of all presidents." And the chief executive replied, "No, I don't agree with you. I think that I will be either one of the best liked—or the last president."

There is so much truth in this statement that the remark should have been made whether it was of not. If the Roosevelt administration fails, then nothing else is left.

THE WAR IS ON

(The Trenton Times)

Striking without warning, United States Department of Justice agents acting simultaneously in different parts of the country arrested a number of known enemies to society in the first major movement of the government's fight against crime. Uncle Sam is determined it will be a fight to the finish. Unrelenting, patient, but never for a single hour will the battle be allowed to cease until these organized gangs have been broken up and the leaders sent to prison. Criminals faced with federal court charges will find that escaping through the meshes of the law will be something Seems strange to have part of the Record crew going home at four in the afternoon and other men coming in to take their place.

"Men's hearts ought not to be set against one another, but set with one another. In union there is an untold amount of strength."

It is a wise person who listens to the little stories of gossips and then promptly forgets them. There are enough big things in life to be talking about. Really "big" people gossip little.

How would it be to plan a big Hallowe'en celebration for Northville? Let old and young get out and "throw" a real parade. The way the people have enjoyed the street dances justifies the belief that a Hallowe'en celebration could go over in great shape.

Summer is waning. The sounds of fall will soon be here and the shortening days already warn that the "frost" will be on the pumpkin and the fodder will be in the shock. Let us all lend every effort to see that when the chilly days of winter come, as many mercas possible will be "off the welfare" and "on their own." If you have any building to do, do it now and help put men at work. Every "odd job" given out helps some one get ready for winter.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

What proportion of the people are fair-minded?

Mr. Osborn says that this class is responsible. I have noticed the class that Mr. Osborn speaks of flocking to every boom spot. From Mountain attracted many such people in the boom days. They have upset the conservative element that so long ruled there and the upset hasn't been for the betterment. Iron River had its share of them when the boom was on there and Alpha was peopled with them when that town opened up. Mr. Osborn is correct in his deductions that the influx of this class doesn't make for stable government.

"MONKEYING WITH DYNAMITE"

(Jos. A. Shriggoin in The Delta Reporter, Gladstone)

Walter Lippman, a well known Washington newspaper correspondent, deplors the coercive features of the Recovery Act. His advice on the dangers of applying too seriously this phase of the act is well worth reading at this time, before we are "too deep" in the tendency to do the popular thing.

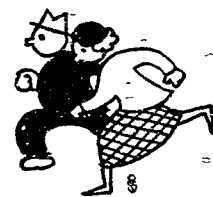

"For my part I do not like that kind of coercion. I do not like to hear the Administration using scornful epithets to blowbeat men whose difficulties no one in Washington can conceivably have understood. I do not like Government by propaganda which may in a thousand communities incite discord and jealousy and hysteria and fear among the people. A Government should govern by the use of its lawful powers and not by unloading popular emotions."

"So, I venture to say, be careful. Be careful not to carry moral coercion too far. Be on guard against those who love the excitement and enjoy coercion for its own sake. It will be easier to call them forth than to restrain them later. It is easier to touch off hysteria and rancor than to quell it. Nor is it worth while to resort to such measures. What can be done by an appeal to reason and through moderation of feeling is worth doing and will help somewhat. But anything that requires a propaganda of intolerance is worse than useless. It is monkeying with dynamite."

UNBALANCED MICHIGAN

(Diamond Drill)

Chase S. Osborn in a widely circulated interview classes present day Michigan as "unbalanced." He ascribes the condition to the sudden influx of a new class of people, a class that are "always on the move."

Beer Commission Sets New Pace in Extravagance, Keeper Of Vault Keys Draws $2000, Commissioners $20 A Day

By V. J. Brown of the Ingham County (Mason) News

The opening paragraphs of this article will be devoted to consideration of a topic already discussed in these columns. This writer desires to be fair. References previously made to the payroll for the executive office at Lansing were to the effect that the payroll for the first half of the month of July showed an increase over a similar period of 1932. This statement was correct but further investigation shows that employees working on the staff of the governor in 1932 were carried on payrolls other than the regular payroll of the executive office and that when all are accounted for the total amount of checks drawn for this office in 1933 is slightly less than in 1932.

Gov. Wilbur M. Brucker had a secretary in Detroit whose pay check was drawn in rotation against several department budgets, none on the executive payroll. R. Wayne Newton devoted most of his time to assisting the governor in various ways, making the executive office his headquarters, but he enjoyed a generous salary at the hands of various commissions and boards having appropriations. None of these are now employed around the office of Governor William A. Comstock, according to O. K. Fjetland, executive secretary and business manager for the governor.

In fact, when one attempts to make accurate comparisons between the actual expense of the executive office under the two regimes, the task soon becomes extremely difficult. For instance, there are no expense vouchers to be found covering traveling expense of the governor or members of his staff back in 1932. It is known that a member of the state police organization is assigned to the job of acting as chauffeur for the governor. That is being done under the present regime, but the expense of upkeep of the motor car assigned to the governor for his official and personal use is now charged directly against the budget of the governor. In previous years it must have been charged against overhead at the state garage and the state police garage. Likewise there is no record of the amount of gasoline formerly consumed in the operation of the governor's car—and there must have been a lot of it. Now a careful account is being kept, Mr. Fjetland insists, and all expense charged against the account of the governor and his staff.

There are other ways in which the new regime in the front office is setting the pace for economy. In marked contrast to some of the fancy salaries paid elsewhere, Mr. Fjetland shows his current payroll carries skilled and experienced stenographers at $1,040 per annum. A stenographer good enough to handle executive correspondence ought to be good enough for other departments but a glance through other payrolls, especially on the newer commissions, will indicate salaries twice that sum. In fact, the legislature itself refused to reduce the salaries of ordinary stenographers and committee clerks below a daily wage which amounts to more than $2000 annually.

The commission of inquiry into state governmental costs in its report last year took cognizance of the waste of expensive stationery. It recommended first class bond paper for executives only, cheaper grades with printed instead of engraved headings being recommended for all except the elective heads and members of the supreme court. Mr. Fjetland has put these recommendations into effect. Only the letters dictated by the governor and those of utmost importance are written on the expensive Crane Allinnet bond heretofore used extensively in the office of the governor. Samples of second sheets used for letter copies under former administrations are found to be of more expensive grade than the paper now being used in the ordinary correspondence of the executive office; office file copies now being carboned on cheap manila paper used by commercial concerns everywhere. It's a little matter but sensibly carried out in every division of state government would amount literally to many thousands of dollars.

Another Complain Another state official complains that all was not told in regard to his salary. A previous article dealt with the return to pre-depression levels by state officials in the matter of salaries. Among others cited was the newly elected commissioner of highways. Mr. Van Wagoner complains that my article of August 4 did not mention the fact that he had returned 10% of his $7500 statutory salary. The fact was not known when the article was written and sent out and was not available until after such mailing. The records will show that such check was not noted on the books of the auditor general until after public attention had been called to the salary filing. The records in the office of the auditor general do show now that promptly following receipt of his check drawn and delivered on August 1, Mr. Van Wagoner returned 10% to the general fund. No order had been filed with the auditor general according to the disbursing clerk whose duty it is to draw bi-monthly pay checks; directing that official to make 10% deductions from the pay of the highway commissioner. In the absence of such order, it was stated, the regular pay checks would be drawn at the $7500 salary. The deduction may or may not be depended upon in the future.

Now that the subject of payrolls is again under discussion, a scrutiny of the expense vouchers and payrolls of the newly created liquor control commission might be profitable. The files of the auditor general disclose a copy of a resolution early in the history of the commission setting the per diem compensation of the commissioners at $20 per day with seven dollars a day to be allowed for hotel expenses and 10 cents per mile for use of motor cars while traveling. John K. Stack, Jr., auditor general, demurred at these charges but concluded he could legally object only to the hotel and motor car charges. The commissioners still draw their $20 per day but put in bills for actual hotel expense under limits set by the state administrative board and receive five cents instead of 10 cents per mile for the use of their automobiles.

When the budget was being prepared the liquor control commission wanted a salary of $12,000 a year fixed for the managing director. The ways and means committee compromised at $4,000. In addition, the payroll now shows a secretary at $4,000; an assistant to the managing director at $3,600; an auditor at $4,000 and numerous other high priced individuals. The audits of the commission must contain some precious stuff for Gus Janberg draws $2,000 annually as its custodian. The office payroll and salaries of inspectors for the last half of July total $12,935.03. At this rate it will cost $311,440 a year to run this outfit, requiring a lot of tax on a lot of 3.2 cents to leave anything over for the general fund. In fact, this sum will probably not suffice for each time a payroll is made out it requires more money.

Airplane Rides Expense vouchers for employees of the liquor commission are also of considerable interest. There are vouchers for airplane rides, bills for members of the state police at Detroit hotels and other interesting items. One in particular attracted attention. An employee of the commission made an extended trip. No matter whether he stopped at Newberry, St. Ignace, Lansing or Podunk, his appetite showed great regularity. Every day there is a 75 cent breakfast, a dollar luncheon and a $1.25 dinner. It is hoped that when the commission has its organization better in hand some of these abuses will be cured.

Another interesting discovery, at least to members of the legislature, will be to learn that right when the legislative stenographers were drawing down six dollars per day, Sundays included, they still had time to do some transcribing for the liquor control commission. They got their extra pay too.

Easy Money To what extent some of these commissions carry on with their new found money would be amusing if the need for revenue was not so great. While schools are closed for want of funds and while teachers in others are carrying on with little or no pay for the sake of the children, beer tax money is wasted like no need existed. For instance, the beer commission pays its auditor $4000 while the chief accountant for all state funds, including that collected from the beer tax, receives only $3600. The principal clerk in the beer division gets $2400 while the chief clerk for the larger staff of the administrative board receives only $1890. Alongside these is found the cashier in the office of the state treasurer, who is held accountable for all moneys from all sources who gets by with a meager $2340 per annum. As the new deal unfolds and other new commissions come into full swing there will be some more interesting disclosures. The emergency welfare commission which is charged with the distribution of $12,000,000 tax money to relieve the destitute and unemployed is unhampered in its use of the funds for its own expenses. How much will be left for food and shelter of the poor is the query. Then too there is the sales tax commission and the public trust commission and the old age pension administration and a lot of others.

Foolish Figuring Retreating again to schools it is noted that a great cry is going up to return the legislature in special session to appropriate money for state aid for schools. That will be fine if someone will be good enough to point out some available source of revenue not already tapped. Until that is done the special session would be as futile in that respect as the regular session. One element educator was quoted in Thursday's papers as demanding highway revenues for school aid. His claim is reported as being that $120,000,000 had been spent during the past two years in highway building if the professor is no more accurate in his estimate of the needs of the schools than in the statement attributed to him, the state had best wait awhile before that extra session is called. The last available report of the state highway commissioner shows that exactly $25,096,929.23 was spent on all types of new highway construction during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1932. During the following fiscal year, just closed, for which detailed reports are not yet available, all revenues from the weight tax were returned to the counties to give employment to persons who otherwise would have been forced to live off the dole. Deducting federal funds received by the highway department and certainly not available for school aid, it is found that less than $5,000,000 was available for new work after reducing maintenance costs to the minimum. How the learned professor obtains a total of $120,000,000 from these figures is conjectural.

Farmers Need Help Nothing has made the farmer more angry than the veto of the milk commission bill. Right now when codes are being written the farmer needs just such an agency to represent him at the conference table. He is not there and has no voice. He is fearful that he is being cheated out of a fair share of NRA increases. He is right and when the codes are all written, it will be evident that such a milk commission as was proposed, properly administered, would have increased the milk checks of Michigan many thousands. But this is "spilled milk" now, as one farmer was heard to say at Lansing during a recent conference where everyone but the man who milks the cows was being considered.

THIS WEEK By H. H. WHITE Recently I spent a few days in the country and one evening while casting about for something to help kill a little time I happened upon a puzzle. It was one of the most intricate that I have ever attempted to put together and it required all the ingenuity that I could muster, along with an almost superhuman patience to make any progress. It seemed to lack all coherence or purpose and as I kept at it with a dogged determination not to give up I suddenly found an inoffensive piece that had previously escaped my notice which when fitted into what I had already assembled helped me to complete the puzzle. That particular piece seemed to hold the key to the rest of the picture. As I sat there contemplating my finished picture the thought came to me that life is pretty much the same way. At times it seems to be a mass of irregular and disconnected experiences, at best a most intricate pattern as we search about for the key which fits the lock to that ever present problem, life. Sometimes this key piece in the life-puzzle is hope, sometimes faith, ambition, love, tolerance, an understanding sympathy, while it may be an assemblage of all of these qualities that go to make up human nature. But it does not matter by what name we call it, our problems still remain unsolved until they are an intricate part of this pattern we call life. Many of us work doggedly and determinedly through long hours of darkness and bleak despair and quite often our fruitless efforts carry us into the wee small hours of morning when we are at our lowest ebb. This is the time when we are most apt to become discouraged and not a little confused and everything seems to be in a jumble. This is not always realizable because the key to the situation is missing, but invariably if we have the patience and the vision, that elusive piece in the puzzle of life, will unfold itself and lo! our problem is solved. The key piece usually lies close at hand.

HERE'S HOW TO SPEND LESS ON MOTORING! Do as over two out of every five buyers of low-priced cars are doing: SAVE WITH A NEW CHEVROLET! You'll spend less to begin with—because the Chevrolet base price of $445 is so much lower than the price of any other Fisher Body car! You'll make fewer stops for gas and oil, because the Chevrolet six-cylinder engine can go well over two hundred miles on a tankful! You won't have to be worrying about seeing the service man all the time, or paying a lot of repair bills because—well, Chevrolet just isn't that kind of car. It's built right and stays that way. Finally—you can look forward to getting a good price when you trade your Chevrolet in—its resale value is notably high. Can you say all these same things about any other low-priced car? Evidently America thinks not—from the way that America prefers to SAVE with a Chevrolet. CHEVROLET MOTOR COMPANY, DETROIT, MICHIGAN Prices range from $445 to $555 f.o.b. Flint, Mich. CHAS. W. HILLS, JR., WRITES OF HIS TRIP TO WORLD'S FAIR The following letter, written by Charles Hills, Jr., 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Hills, Wing street, will be of interest to his many friends who were glad to help him win a chance to go to the World's Fair. Charles is a persistent little fellow and lost no chances to gather in the votes of those who had promised them. For a 10-year-old boy Charles surely kept his eyes open at the fair, judging by his report: MY TRIP TO THE WORLD'S FAIR By Charles W. Hills, Jr. I liked the trip very much because I did many things I have never done before in my life, such as riding on a train, being out of the state, and being away from home without my parents. The A & P sure treated us royally from beginning to end. Wednesday, the 12th of July, we had to meet at the Statler Hotel at one o'clock in the Henry II room to register and get our instructions. They gave us red caps which we had to wear on the trip. Then they divided us into five different groups according to our ages, which was from ten to sixteen years. I was in troop five which was the youngest troop. We had the honor of having as our leader the only A & P representative that went on the trip, whose name was Mr. Brockway. The other leaders were Scout Masters and the whole tour was under the leadership of Lieut. Jack Rohr who has worked with boys for many years. They gave us refreshment tickets, so when we got hungry on the train we could go in the refreshment car and have our lunch. Newspaper men came and took our pictures. Tim Doolittle and his Michigan Mountaineers were there to cheer us up with music before we left. We left Detroit on the A & P special at 3 o'clock from the Michigan Central Depot. We arrived at Chicago at 8:42 p. m. Buses were waiting to take us to the Y. M. C. A. in Lincoln and Belmont. We ate dinner and then retired. The buses left at 9:30 each morning and left the Fairgrounds at 3:30 in the evening. I will now tell you what I saw at the Fair. We saw the A & P Carnival which was very interesting because they were puppets to our surprise instead of people. The Sinclair Prehistoric Exhibit which was made up of prehistoric animals run by machinery to make them look alive. The Transportation Building which is made up of everything that is made into transportation, and how it was discovered and invented from the early to the modern days. The General Motors Building which is made up of all the cars that the General Motors make and showing how they make Chevrolets. The Hall of Science which is made up of wonderful inventions that people have invented all over the world. One of the inventions which interested me was how they lighted the World's Fair from a star. That night we saw them light the Fair by the star. I saw many foreign buildings among which were the Swedish building, Czech-Slovakian building and the Italian building which are made up of pictures of their country, trinkets, rugs, and tapestries which they have made, also the Jehol temple which showed the ways of Chinese worshiping idols, a schoolroom of thousands of prayers where they read some every day, articles which were made out of the human scalp and a seat where a high priest sat. Fort Dearborn which is very historical because it is made like the original fort. The Indian Village was very interesting because Mr. Rohr was part Indian. They danced many dances of their tribes for us, and one of the Chiefs came to the Y. M. C. A. the next night and entertained us by giving different calls of animals. His name is Evergreen Tree. We had the honor of riding in the same boat that brought Balbo in from his seaplane. Besides seeing the Fair we had the opportunity of a tour of Chicago, seeing the stock yards, a ball game between Boston and Chicago Cubs, and a show at the Belmont Theatre. This is all I can remember right now of the principal things I did and saw on the trip. Hopes for Uplift Welfare Worker—"And have you any plans for the future when your sentence expires?" Party of Young Folks Enjoy Dining at Altman Cottage

Sixteen young folks of Northville enjoyed a happy time as guests of Miss Ida Altman at the Altman cottage at Lake Chemung, Wednesday, August 9. After a good time swimming the boys and girls brought hearty appetites to the barbecue supper eaten out-of-doors.

Millers Extend Hospitality To Friends at Dinner

Ten friends sat down to a bountiful fried chicken dinner at the home of Mr and Mrs Wm. Miller of Novi Tuesday evening. Knowing a preacher's proverbial "liking for chicken, Rev Frank N. Miner and his family were included at the dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Miller being parishioners of Mr. Miner. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Greer and daughter, Miss Betty.

Harold Miller Is Honored On His Birthday

In celebration of his twenty-fifth birthday Harold W. Miller was honored by a company of about 20 relatives and friends at his home on Grand River avenue, Sunday afternoon. A picnic supper was spread under the apple trees in the yard and a happy social time was enjoyed together.

Included in the party were the parents of Mrs. Miller, Mr and Mrs Otto Burkisti and an aunt of Farmington, and the parents of Harold, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Miller on a neighboring farm, and a brother Howard, the aviator, and his family from Wayne.

Past Matrons of Eastern Star Shine Together at Park

The Past Matrons of Orient chapter O. E. S. gathered at Cass Benton Park Wednesday noon for their annual picnic. Twelve or more members, together with a few children were present to enjoy the ideal day.

One cloud of sorrow hung over this company of intimate friends in the thought of the absent chair left by the death of one of their number, Mrs. Belle Summons. In the regular meeting which followed Mrs. Nellie Freydl read a beautiful tribute to this deceased friend.

Neighbors Drop in to Bring Cheer to Mrs. Whitehead

To cheer up Mrs. A. M. Whitehead, who has been shut in at her home on Randolph street, suffering with poor health, a party of neighbors walked in and surprised her Tuesday evening, bringing with them good things for supper. A table was set on the lawn and Mrs. Whitehead was "invited out" to supper in her own yard.

The pleasantest kind of a time was enjoyed by these friends of whom Mrs. Whitehead says, "they are the best neighbors in the world." Present with the host and hostess were Wm. Seeley, Miss Ethel Seeley, Mrs. Margaret Payne and Mrs. A. K. Dolph.

Junior Riders Ate Given Picnic By Mrs. Brown, Chairman

Delightful in its utter informality was the barbecue picnic given by Mrs. Wm. Rawle Brown to the members of the Junior Horse Show and a few of their elders at the cabin in the woods of Arrowhead farm on the Nine Mile road Friday afternoon. Over a bed of red-hot coals in the out-of-door grill the meat was cooked and served piping hot—baked beans, wieners and all the accompaniments. The young horsemen and women were seated at tables under the trees gay with red checkered table cloths. The onlookers remarked that if these young folks ride with the same enthusiasm as they eat, the junior performance at the coming fair will be a success.

DETROITERS ENJOY NORTHVILLE SET AMONG THE HILLS

Northville residents who are wont to take for granted the charms of this section of the county will be interested in the comment of L. L. Lindsey whose family has come out from Detroit to spend the summer in the Langfield house on Fairbrook avenue. Mr. Lindsey, who travels widely, recently came out to spend a day and was so delighted that he prolonged his visit to a month.

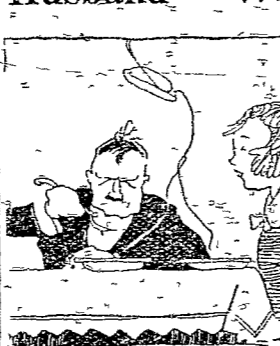

"The chief charm of Northville," says Mr. Lindsey, "is that it is a village of homes among the hills. The fact that it does not ape the city but is content to retain its rural nature is one of the great drawing points to folks from the city, who are glad to escape from congestion."

NOBODY HEARD

She watched the door of her new establishment open to admit her first client—Business had started! A good impression must be created upon him!

Hurriedly she grasped the telephone receiver and became engaged in an animated conversation. Then, an appointment having been arranged, she replaced the receiver, and, beaming on her customer asked, "What can I do for you, sir?"

NRA RULES GUIDE MERCHANTS WHO FOLLOW THE EAGLE

Those interested in the NRA will find the following set of rules taken from the blanket agreement valuable as a guide in observing the blue eagle standards.

The agreement offered to employers to sign is made up of 14 paragraphs, substance of which is summarized as follows:

After Aug 31, 1933, not to employ any person under 16 years of age, except that persons between 14 and 16 may be employed three hours a day.

Not to work any clerk, secretary, sales employees (except outside salesmen) for more than 40 hours in any week and not to reduce the hours of any store or service operation to below 52 hours in any week. Employees in this class in Northville are to receive at least $14 a week.

Not to employ any factory or mechanical worker or artisan more than eight hours in any one day. Not to pay these employees less than 40 cents an hour unless the hourly rate for the same class of work on July 15, 1929, was less than 40 cents an hour, in which case not to pay less than the hourly rate of July 15, 1929, and in no case less than 30 cents an hour.

Not to affect employees in establishments employing not more than two persons, nor to registered pharmacists or other professional persons not to employees in a managerial or executive capacity who now receive more than $35 a week. Not to reduce the compensation for employment now in excess of the minimum wages agreed to (notwithstanding that the hours worked in such employment may be hereby reduced) and to increase the pay for such employment by an equitable adjustment of all pay schedules.

Not to use any subterfuge to frustrate the spirit and intent of this agreement which is among other things, to increase employment by a universal covenant to remove obstructions to commerce and to shorten hours and to raise wages for the shorter week to a living basis. Not to increase the price of any merchandise by more than is made necessary by actual increases in production, replacement or invoice costs of merchandise since July 1, 1933. To support and to patronize establishments which also have signed the agreement and are listed as members of the National Recovery Administration.

To cooperate to the fullest extent in having a code of fair competition submitted by his industry at the earliest possible date.

MANY APPLY FOR HORSE SHOW BOXES

5 NORTHVILLE BOYS ENTERED IN NEWS TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Five Northville players contested in the Detroit News novice tennis tournament, the district finals, of which ended Thursday.

The boys, Ward Van Atta, Richard Snipley, Kenneth Martens, Alec Mine, and Warner Neal, were entered in the Plymouth district with about 50 others. Though none of the local court players managed to win the district title, the honor of Northville was upheld by some very good tennis.

Ward Van Atta drew a bye the first round, defeated Alec Mine, also of Northville, in a close match 7-5, 6-4, for the second, and then lost on Monday after three long, exciting sets, to Maurice Woodworth of Plymouth; 4-6, 9-7, 6-4. Richard Snipley, drawing Frank Clemens, former Plymouth school champion, lost 6-1, 6-0, and Kenneth Martens, unable to play, was obliged to default. Warner Neal, winning on default in the first round from Frank Merryweather of Plymouth, won from Steve Horvath, also of Plymouth, 6-3, 10-8, and then lost Tuesday to Frank Clemens, 6-3, 6-4.

As the Record went to press, the winner was not known but only four boys, all of Plymouth were left in the tournament. About 25 Plymouth girls also contested in the women's tournament.

The News was to give a tennis racket to the winner of the district tourneys, a pair of tennis shoes to the runners-up and balls to those playing in the semi-finals. Starting Sunday, August 20, the district winners will meet on the courts in Water Works Park, Detroit, and the champion novice will be found.

Altogether there were 1,085 players entered in the News tournament which is perhaps the largest ever held. It was strictly for novices no title holders of any sort being allowed to participate.

A Long Beat
The young and keen police officer was being shown over his new night beat by the sergeant. "D'ye see that red light in the distance? Well, that's the limit of your beat. Now get along with it!"

The young policeman set out and was not seen again for a week. When he did show up at headquarters the sergeant demanded furiously where he had been.

"Ye remember that red light?" asked the cop.

"Yes."

"Well, that was a moving van bound for Chicago!"

WILL HUNT LOST TRIBES

A Washington explorer, Richard C. Gill, with six companions, will leave Gill's ranch in the hills of Ecuador some time this coming fall and try to locate the savage Aucas tribes of "lost people," believed to exist in a "lost world" somewhere in the unexplored section of the Amazon valley of South America.

They will be accompanied by a small band of head-hunting Jivaro Indians with whom Gill has formerly made friends. A unique feature of this expedition is that they expect to carry into the jungles a small portable radio transmitter with which they will attempt to keep in touch with the world left behind.

Meisner, for many years a resident of Northville, died Tuesday evening, Aug. 15, in Howell at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Helen Teska, with whom she has lived for nearly two years. Death was due to a cerebral hemorrhage following a series of strokes. Mrs. Meisner had been an invalid for the past five years. The Meisner family made their home for years in the bungalow on West Cady street, where Mrs. Meisner made many friends by her kindly manner. Her husband preceded her in death a number of years ago. Two children survive Mrs. Helen Teska, and Louis Meisner, the latter an employee at Eastlawn sanatorium. The funeral will be held today (Friday) at 2:30 p. m. in the St. Paul's Lutheran church with Rev. Leo Eckstaedt officiating.

HARNESS RACE TO HAVE MANY ENTRIES Announcement was made this week of the sale of the Sally Bell bakery, 134 N. Center street, formerly owned by C. F. Herr, to three enterprising local young men—Howard G. Beach, Marvin C. Tibble, and Louis E. Triffin. All three of the boys have been employed at the bakery until Monday when they formally took over the business. Howard Beach will assume the duties attendant to baking the goods and Marvin Tibble and Louis Triffin will take over the task of serving the public. Howard has had three years experience as a baker and in the words of the former owner and baker, Mr. Herr, is well qualified to serve the wants of discriminating Northville housewives. Mr. Herr stated that he would continue in the store until the boys become definitely established. "I wish to thank the people of this community," he said, "for their patronage while I was operating the Sally Bell bakery. I trust they will continue to patronize the bakery under the new ownership." The youthful partners, having embarked on their business venture, assure their customers that they will continue to supply them with quality baked goods made from only the best materials. A special feature bargain has been planned for this week-end and is advertised in another column of this paper. We now have old age pensions in 25 states.

GEORGE RATTENBURY ENTERS FAIR RACES (By Geo Rattenbury) During the harness races at the Northville Wayne County Fair spectators will see some of the best races that have ever been held here. On Thursday, opening day of the races, in the 2:17 pace there will be a field containing such noted racers as Peter T., which started 13 times this year and was nine times first; Comet Tod which paced this track last year in the remarkable time of 2:03 1/2. In the 2:22 pace there will be about ten starters all evenly matched. The 2:24 trot will also be started Thursday with three local horses at the barrier. In Friday's races the three-year-old pace will hold a field of 12 starters with about half of them owned and trained in Northville. The two-year-old trot will bring out some of the best trotters ever sent away by Judge Harry Robinson. The 2:20 trot, it is prophesied, will be about the best contest in horse racing seen on any state track. When the bell rings Saturday to call the 2:17 trotters, Harry Brooks, who has run here before, and Diamond Dewey, the greatest race mare in this part of the country, will be among the field of entries. The free for all race, one of the best contests of the week will bring the races to a close Saturday afternoon. The program promises to be one of the best ever held here as a large field has promised to be on hand to try for the large cash prizes.

Due to the workings of the National Recovery Act the Detroit Edison company has added six more employees to its district staff, according to E. L. Mills, company district manager. A year ago the Edison went on a 40-hour week schedule on their own accord. Pearl Booth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Booth, who live on the Seven Mile road, underwent an operation on her leg at Grace hospital, Detroit, yesterday morning. As a result of the operation, Pearl, who has been crippled since she was two years old, will be able to walk better. Charles Thornton is the only member of the Rotary club of Northville who has not missed a meeting since the club was organized seven years ago. Tuesday, the regular meeting day of Rotary, happened to be Mr. Thornton's birthday, and recognition of the fact was made by the club. President Charles Rogers was the spokesman for the club. Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Nelson last week were Mrs. Hugh Daly, Plymouth, Miss Margaret Turner of Farmington, Mrs. Andrew Egge, Alpena, and Mrs. Martha Egge of Plymouth. Sunday the Nelson family with Mr. and Mrs. John Wahn of Plymouth and Miss Margaret Turner of Farmington, went to Belle Isle, where they enjoyed a picnic dinner. During his winter stay in Clermont, Florida, T. G. Richardson did a splendid civic act for his adopted town when he remodeled one of his buildings to give the town a new Masonic temple and quarters for the A. & P. store. The Clermont Press says of "T. G.": "Mr. Richardson owns extensive property in the city which he is continually adding to and improving upon and his latest innovation is only further evidence of his interest in Clermont's welfare and faith in its future." Mrs. Mary Christensen and Dr. and Mrs. Waldo Johnson have returned from a fine vacation at Waloon lake, where they rested at a very beautiful cottage in company with their friend, Lieut. Leimbach. The lieutenant is in charge of the conservation camp at Freeport, which is awarded the honor of being the best camp in the state. The Johnsons and Mrs. Christensen had the pleasure of eating dinner with the boys at "mess" several times, and enjoyed the unique experience.

GET EXHIBITS IN FOR COMING FAIR With only a few more days until the big fair remaining, farmers who have choice specimens of fruit are urged to polish them up and get them to the fair grounds by Wednesday noon. This year's horticulture exhibit, under the guidance of Ralph Foreman promises to be one of the largest in several years.

COUNTY OFFERS 57 ACRES OF LAND TO STINSON COMPANY An offer of 57 acres of ground for a factory site and an airport adjacent to the Wayne County airport was made to officials of the Stinson Aircraft corporation by the board of supervisors as an inducement to keep the corporation from moving to Connersville, Ind. Company officials who had considered moving have asked supervisors for the Wayne County airport. Negotiations have not been completed, but it is believed that the supervisors will do everything in their power to prevent the removal of a $500,000 pay roll from this county. The Stinson Aircraft corporation was started originally here in Northville, afterward moving to Wayne, where it is now located.

ALTERATIONS MADE Extensive alterations are being made to the interior of The Men's Shop by Orlow G. Owen. Mr. Owen plans to put in a large stock of men's and boys' shoes. RATTENBURY ENTERS LISTS Geo. Rattenbury will have several entries, as usual, in the harness races of The Northville Wayne County Fair. George's father was one of the founders of the annual event, which started in 1916. An article on the races written by Geo., is contained on page seven.

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE CO. SIX PEOPLE EXPRESS THEIR OPINIONS ON THE VALUE OF TELEPHONE SERVICE Each day, a metropolitan newspaper asks several persons a question and publishes their answers. Recently, six were asked, "Do you consider a telephone in your home a luxury or a necessity?" Each answered, "It's a necessity!"

THE ANSWER to the question... "Does it cost more to cook with Electricity?" MANY PEOPLE ask us—"Does it cost more to cook with electricity?" In general we can say: "YES, cooking with an electric range costs more in most homes—BUT WITH CARE IN USE NOT GREATLY MORE." Some families find it CHEAPER TO COOK ELECTRICALLY. We cannot say—"An Electric range will increase your bill by so many cents a month," because no two families cook alike, and families vary in size from two to ten people. But we can say—"Electric cooking costs less than a cent a meal a person," because we studied several thousand electric bills before and after an electric range was installed and found that it averaged less than that. Thus, in a family of four, a meal should cost less than four cents to cook with an electric range. Once you have enjoyed electric cooking, we believe you will never again go back to any other kind. Its many advantages—its cleanliness, coolness, convenience, healthfulness, and the delicious flavor of the electrically cooked food—outweigh its additional cost. See the new electric ranges at your dealer's or THE DETROIT EDISON CO.

"MICHIGAN'S BIGGEST LITTLE FAIR"

A BANK REFLECTS THE LIFE ABOUT IT

Loans and Investments on Which Condition of a Bank Depends Determined by the Kind of Business. Surrounding It

POLITICAL and popular misapprehensions toward banking are due to little else than failure to realize that it is what the people themselves do that the condition of banking reflects, and that banking cannot of itself reflect events and conditions other than those that actually originate from surrounding circumstances.

The character of an institution's notes and investments indicates whether it is in the farm regions, a manufacturing center, a mercantile neighborhood or a great financial district, he says, and furthermore, besides identifying the institution as to its locality, a study of its notes will equally clearly indicate the economic conditions surrounding it.

CANCER DUE TO CHEMICAL FERMENTS

Caused By Alkalosis? Devitalized Foods and Vertebral Subluxations

Alkalosis is a condition produced by an excessive amount of sodium chlorides in the blood stream causing irritability, inflammation, swelling and softening of all tissue, especially those of the various glands, thereby inhibiting the normal production of glandular secretions and hormones.

Devitalized Foods are those foods that are devoid of one or more of the seventeen minerals and in on or more of the six known vitamins without which the human body cannot function normally he says

Beautiful Things

(By Grace M Sprenger) Beautiful things are those that cling to a lovely world and a number of things.

That seek a far, in the gathering gloam, The straight, true path to the place called home

Beautiful hands are those that build Like a woman's hands—for another's will.

That bring from out the muck and grime, The beautiful, beautiful work of time

Beautiful minds are those that quest Of God, a deeper peace or a worn one's rest;

That build within their heart of hearts A place where each may share a part

Beautiful Prayers are those that've risen From a child's lips, to the dome of Heaven.

O—, the world is so full of beautiful things, Beautiful, beautiful, beautiful things

HIGHLIGHTS OF WHEAT PLAN

United States can no longer sell its large surplus of wheat to foreign countries. In spite of the large loss in yield this year the country now has a 350,000,000-bushel carry-over.

One year from now the estimated surplus will be about 150,000,000 bushels. Uncle Sam is now collecting a 30c-a-bushel process tax from millers and other processors.

The consumers of flour and other wheat products are paying this tax. Uncle Sam proposes to take this money collected and pay it to farmers for cutting down their wheat acreage.

In order to get this money, farmers must agree to the plan and sign a contract this fall. They cannot get in on the deal later.

Wayne county has 544 wheat growers who have an average yield of 107,827 bushels. The amount of money offered to Wayne county farmers for putting down acreage is $17,468.

This $17,468 comes from the process tax, it is taken out of the consumers' pockets, it will in turn be used to farmers only when, and if they agree to reduce their wheat acreage.

The whole purpose of this plan is to bring back and keep the price of wheat at a fair figure. The government does NOT COMPEL the farmer to go into it; it does ASK HIM to join a cooperative plan to boost the price of his own wheat and OFFERS TO PAY HIM FOR DOING IT.

Two-thirds of the money will be paid to farmers this fall (probably in September), the balance of one-third will be paid next spring.

Every wheat grower is urged to attend the township meetings and get the full particulars.

Having learned the cause of the development of the malignant tumor, we now turn our attention to the most efficient and scientific method of eradicating this present day, most dreaded disease Malignant Tumors or Cancer.

First, we make a thorough physico-chemical analysis and determine the exact percentage of sodium chloride in the blood stream.

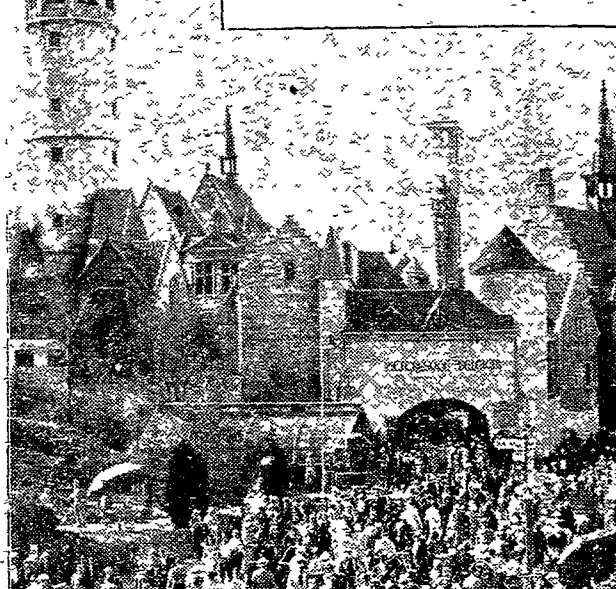

Second, careful food test and all necessary dietetic corrections are scientifically outlined.

Third, scientific normalization of all vertebral subluxations.

Fourth, a special poultice is placed on the external cancer tumor. Within ten days the tumor and its roots will have been completely drawn from the body.

KELVINATOR NOTES BUSINESS RECOVERY

Holdings promise of new summer employment records, Kelvinator Corporation has five times as many unfilled orders on hand at the present time as it had at the same period last year.

Coming at a period normally associated in the electric refrigeration industry with curtailed employment and reduced production schedules, this situation means that Kelvinator's record breaking business volume this year is contributing directly to employment improvement.

July shipments, representing a gain of approximately three and a third times those for the corresponding month of 1932, sent the total for the first nine months of Kelvinator's present fiscal year 40 per cent ahead of shipments for the entire preceding year.

After supper a business meeting was held in charge of the president, Mrs. Fred Drews and secretary, Mrs. Katcher.

The Bank as a Rebuilder

IN place of a 3 per cent loss on an investment of $40,000, a large New York savings bank is now getting 6 per cent profit on an investment of $30,000, because it had the good business judgment to spend $40,000 in modernizing a group of 40-year-old tenement houses on the lower East Side which it was forced to take over on mortgage foreclosure.

The bank remodeled the buildings completely, putting in an oil-burning heating plant, incinerators and other modern changes, with the result the buildings are now entirely rented, and there is $14,000 a year coming in instead of several thousand going out. At that rate the improvements will pay for themselves in three years.

This same bank has done 15 other renovation jobs similar to this, and all have proved profitable. The bank has its own architects and is employing seven painters.

DICK SMITH WRITES GLOWINGLY OF CAMP

The following letter was received this week by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, Griswold road, from their son, Dick, at Camp Jumbo, 1612th Company, C. C. C., Kenton, Michigan.

Dear Mother and Dad: I received your letter and was glad to hear from you. We got home from the fire Friday night and they gave us the day off so I thought I would write. I just did my washing and it is on the line and this afternoon we are going to one of the fire towers at Trout creek. Saturday we got another trout kit from the company and it sure is a nice one. It has a silver soap box, a silver tooth brush case, a toothbrush, a looking glass, a razor, a tube of tooth paste, a tube of shaving cream, one bar of soap, one heavy duty comb, and five razor blades and a little box with two spoons of thread, one white and one light brown, and a thimble with three needles so you see it sure is a good one.

We are supposed to get our other things the last part of this month and speaking of the last part of the month, I might come home because there is a fellow here that is sending to Detroit for a moving van and all it costs is five dollars a round trip so I might come home if he gets it. Mrs. Chrysler from Northville came down here Friday and went back this morning and she said we all sure look good and that she was going to put a piece in The Record about us. She is on her way to the Chicago Fair and won't be home for another week. They are putting in the showers today and will have them done by the last part of this week and even the mess hall so this camp will be almost done. We are sure getting good eats here. Yesterday we had ice cream and cake for dinner and roast beef, mashed potatoes and brown gravy. It sure was good.

Well ma, I will close for this time and will write again soon so good-by. From Dick. X X X X

CHURCH NEWS

Methodist-Presbyterian Churches

The public worship is at 10:00 a. m. on Sunday at the Presbyterian church. The Rev. Frank N. Miner is the preacher, and the public is cordially invited. Sunday church school is at 11 a. m.

Christian Science Churches

"Mind" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, August 20.

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Ex. 23:20): "Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science text-book "Science and Health, with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 470): "Divine Science explains the abstract statement that there is one Mind by the following self-evident proposition: If God, or good, is real, then evil, the unlikeliness of God, is unreal. And evil can only seem to be real by giving reality to the unreal."

Salem Federated Church. The service for the dedication of the new babies of the congregation will be held on Sunday, August 20 at 10:30 o'clock.

It seems fitting that the Bible school lesson to follow this service will be on Samuel who was "asked of God" and dedicated to Him at birth. First Samuel 3:10 and 12:1-4. "And Samuel said unto the people, Fear not: ye have done all this wickedness: yet hath not aside from following the Lord but serve the Lord with all your heart." First Samuel 12:20.

It will meet you at the hymn singing at 7:30 Sunday evening. The congregation will be one big choir. Mrs. Frank Biers will arrange the sopranos and Mrs. Fred Foreman will head the altos. William Foreman will choose the tenors and Harmon Gale the bass singers. Roy Lane will have charge of the children's chorus. Come and learn the new group, "On the Cross For Me."

Salem Congregational Church. Rev. Lucia M. Birch, Minister. The pastor received a very cordial and hearty welcome from her congregation last Sunday morning after her return from her trip to Chicago and the Century of Progress Exposition. There was a nice attendance.

Next Sunday at 10:30 a. m. Rev. Arnold Kehrl of the Beulah Baptist church of Detroit, Mich., will bring the message. Also Rev. and Mrs. Kehrl will sing for us in their own inimitable style. Rev. Kehrl was born and raised in Salem, converted and called to the ministry during a revival held in the Salem town hall quite a few years ago. It will interest all of Salem township to hear this man whom God is using in a very wonderful way in preaching the Gospel. All our friends are invited to this service.

In the afternoon a beautiful baptismal service will be held at the lake when Rev. Kehrl will immerse a fine class of candidates desiring to acknowledge the Lord Jesus Christ and unite with the Congregational church of Salem. This service will be at 3 p. m.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Kehrl in Salem.

The bake sale for this month will be held Saturday, Aug. 26. Everyone kindly send their baked goods or money to Mrs. Jay Clark in Salem, who is chairman.

St. Paul's Lutheran. Leo C. Eickstaedt, Pastor. 220 Elm St.

The Lord tells us in 2 Cor. 9, 6: "He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully."

This passage is a divine admonition to liberal giving for charitable purposes. God is the Giver of all good things, including earthly possessions. He entrusts a share of them to the behavior and expects him to honor the Lord with his substance. The unregenerate, being full of covetousness and stinginess, is unwilling and unable for the task. His donations at best serve self-glory. And the Christians because of the old nature must guard against the same danger. If they do their alms before men to be seen of them, they have no reward of their heavenly Father. Jesus condemns every outward show of right.

Any contribution to be God-pleasing must be a fruit of faith, a thank-offering to the Lord for His undeserved mercy and goodness toward us poor sinners. Do your giving, therefore, with simplicity and cheerfulness. Such donors the Lord loves. Then He promises a harvest. However, there will be a difference. He that sowed meagerly, often willfully disregarding splendid opportunities to assist the King's business, shall reap sparingly; his reward of grace in heaven will be proportionately smaller. But he that sowed generously, giving gratefully as the Lord prospered him, his reward of grace shall be rich beyond measure. On the Day of Reckoning each benefactor will appear as a shining jewel. Verily, it is more blessed to give than to receive. The believers' gifts bear interest in eternity. Let us all treasure for ourselves a good foundation against the future, that we may lay hold on eternal life.

This Sunday morning our annual Mission Festival will be celebrated. Two divine services will be conducted. The first will begin at 10 o'clock when the pastor will deliver the sermon. The second begins at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Rev. M. Wugazzar of Center Lane, Mich., will occupy the pulpit.

Let us all be present for both services and make this Festival a glorious success. All strangers, visitors and unchurched are cordially invited to worship with us.

Baptist Church. Owing to the pastor's absence for a much needed rest, the pulpit will be supplied by Rev. A. K. MacRae of Walled Lake. Services are held both morning and evening at 10:00 o'clock and 7:30 o'clock respectively. We are happy to report that these services are well sustained and as Mr. MacRae is a former pastor of our church, let us turn out and give him a good hearing.

The Sunday school meets at 11:20 a. m.

Church of Our Lady of Victory. The regular meeting of the Altar society is scheduled for next Tuesday. However, the time and place will be announced at church the preceding Sunday.

In this congregation we depend upon many persons for the carrying out of church services and for the care of the church. In spite of these vacation times the church must go on just the same, and it would help the continuous run of things if absent ones would supply substitutes.

SPORTS

Coach Paul B. Thompson announces that due to many requests for a horeshoe tournament it has been decided to hold one on the school grounds Monday, August 28.

Entries for the single and double matches are to be handed in to the Record office of Coach Thompson at the school house not later than August 23. Drawings will be made August 24, with the results announced in the Record.

All Northville barnyard golfers are invited to enter this tournament. Contestants may use their own shoes or they may use the shoes belonging to the school.

Coach Thompson stated that each contestant in the tournament will pitch five games receiving fifty points for a game.

The drawings for the playoff in the playground ball leagues will be made Friday night following the completion of the final scheduled games.

The first rounds of the playoff will take place Monday evening. Games will be held at Maybury Fair grounds and the school grounds. The teams in the playoff will not know until after the drawings just where they will play their game.

Salem and Men's Shop are certain to be the two leading teams in "A" league. The third team in the first division will depend upon the outcome of this week's games. At present Edison and Baptist are tied for a place in the final play-off division. If Edison can defeat Baptist, tonight they will be in the leading division. But if Baptist defeats the Men's Shop and Edison loses their game the Baptists can go in to the play-offs.
