STATE GIVES APPROVAL TO WATER PLANS

Officials Confident of Getting $21,000 Loan Soon

Plans for Northville's improvement of its water system have been approved this week by the state department of engineering and application of the loan of $21,000 from the federal government is now in the hands of officials at Washington, according to Dr. L. W. Snow, village president.

Village officials at the council meeting Monday evening at the village hall were confident that the loan would be completed although they could not say when the money would be received here. Thirty per cent of the loan would be a direct grant to the village, states Dr. Snow, but the balance of $14,700 will be repaid over a period of from ten to twenty years.

A brief discussion of the possibility of changing the Northville village charter engaged the attention of the councilmen at the meeting and while no action toward that end was taken it is believed that the next election in March will see several alterations in the charter.

A minor change in the ordinance governing pool rooms and bowling alleys was made at this meeting. The commissioners reduced license fees on billiard and bowling alleys now a license for a billiard or 16 ball pool table is two dollars a year for each table; a license for the operation of a bowling alley is to be four dollars per year for each alley.

LADIES WILL BOWL EACH TUESDAY AT RECREATION ALLEYS

Ladies' Night for bowling at the Recreation Alleys will come each Tuesday, announced Bob Lee, proprietor, with the first special night coming Tuesday, Sept. 19.

Ladies are welcome to bowl any night, said Mr. Lee, but Tuesday nights will be especially allotted to them. Free instruction will be given by a competent instructor every Tuesday afternoon between 2:30 and 3:00 o'clock.

Opening the season, Friday, Sept. 15, Northville bowlers got off to a good start. Tony Zerlak of the Six Mile road was high score man with a sheet of 233, but Dr. A. A. Holcomb bettered his score during the week with a 238.

Tournament play is scheduled to begin on Wednesday, Oct. 4, with teams entering from Maybury Sanatorium, House of Correction, Detroit Edison, American Legion, A. & P. Seniors, A. & P. Juniors, Recreation, Bradman's Bowling Team, Salem, South Lyon, Plymouth, and other nearby towns. Local teams are practicing nightly and will offer plenty of competition to out-of-towners.

ORANGE AND BLACK ON INSIDE SHEET

The Orange and Black, the Northville high school paper, carrying complete news concerning school affairs, appears for the first time this year on the eighth page of this week's Record.

Miss Peggy Blake is the editor, and Miss Florence Johnson, the associate. Together with Leslie G. Lee, faculty advisor, a staff has been selected.

DR. SUNDWALL TO SPEAK BEFORE ROTARIANS ON "PRESENT DAY RUSSIA"

The Northville Rotary club will have an exceptionally significant program next Tuesday noon at their weekly luncheon when Dr. John Sundwall of the faculty of the University of Michigan will speak on "Present Day Russia." The address is one that he has given elsewhere with great profit to his hearers.

METHODIST W. H. M. S.

The Methodist W. H. M. S. will meet with Mrs. Ed Sessions, West street, Tuesday, Sept. 26, for a pot-luck dinner. Every lady interested is invited. Bring dishes.

O. E. S. CARD PARTY

A card party will be given by the Eastern Star Friday evening, Oct. 6, at 7:30 p. m. at the Masonic Temple. Twenty-five cents per person, including prizes, entertainment and lunch. You may plan any kind of card game you prefer.

METHODIST MEN TO BE HOSTS TO SERVICE LEAGUE

The Men's Club of the Methodist church are giving a pot-luck supper in the church house next Wednesday, Sept. 27, to which they have invited the Service League.

The supper will begin at 6:30 p. m., and all Methodist men and Service League members are urged to come. Everyone is asked to bring their own dishes, sandwiches, and one passing dish, and coffee will be served.

A program is now being prepared to be held later in the evening. All members unable to come are requested to call 343.

LLOYD GREEN POST TO AID APPLICANTS FOR FORD JOBS

The local chapter of the American Legion, the Lloyd H. Green post, will aid any applicant for a job at the Detroit Ford factory.

By the terms of hiring Legion men will get the preference with other ex-service men next in line. If applicants from Northville will get in touch with Harry Bolton at 217 Linden street or by phoning 127 he will assist them in making out their applications. Arrangements will be made easier for Legion officials and for those applying if the latter will remember to bring their discharge papers. All ex-service men, whether Legionnaires or not, are eligible to apply.

RED CROSS GROUP MEETS THURSDAY AT NOVI TOWN HALL

The ladies of the Novi Red Cross will meet Thursday morning at 10 o'clock for a pot-luck dinner and sewing bee at the town hall.

Everybody is welcome to come say Mrs. Roy Donaldson and Mrs. Gus Smith, officers, but they are urged to bring their own dishes. Three sewing machines will be in operation to work on quilts, dresses, and other articles of clothing to be distributed to welfare indigents through the fall and winter.

REPUBLICANS TO HOLD BIG RALLY ON SEPT. 30TH

Several Ex-Governors Invited To Appear On The Program

Republicans from all over the western part of Wayne county will attend an old-fashioned political rally next Saturday, Sept. 30, at the corner of the Wayne and Wicks roads, one mile south of the Egores road.

The rally, which starts at 1:30 p. m., will be addressed by William T. Cameron, prominent republican. Three republican ex-governors have been invited to speak as well as Secretary of State Frank D. Fitzgerald. Those included Ex-governor Alex J. Grobeck, Ex-governor Fred W. Green, and Ex-governor Wilbur M. Brucker. Grobeck was in office from 1922 to 1926 when he was defeated by Green. Green held the office until 1930 when he withdrew in favor of Brucker.

In addition to the rally an old fashioned barbecue will be served. Republican leaders are making an effort to reorganize the party in Wayne county and urge all loyal standardbearers to attend, bringing their families and friends.

Seven Rural Schools In Vicinity Of Northville Play An Important Part In Education Of Children

Although the Northville schools have opened only this week, the rural schools have been in session all around the town since September 5.

With 243 pupils enrolled in the kindergarten and first eight grades, the seven schools around the vicinity of Northville play an important part in the education of children from nearby families. These schools include the Thayer school, the Warford school, the Hinman school, the Chapman school, and the Base Line school, which are strictly rural schools, and have from ten to 20 pupils and teach the first eight grades and kindergarten; and the West Point Park and Novi schools, with from 100 to 175 pupils, teaching the first ten grades and kindergarten.

All the rural schools have various county-sponsored activities among which are Citizenship clubs and 4-H clubs. These schools started Monday, September 5, and begin at 9:00 a. m., closing at 4:00 in the afternoon. The scene at these little one-room

DR. DOUGLAS ELECTED TB. STATE HEAD

Convention Here Is Largest In Several Years

Dr. B. H. Douglas, head of the Maybury sanatorium, reaped a new honor at the twenty-sixth annual meeting of the organization of the institution held here Wednesday.

Following on the heels of his recently announced promotion to the position of tuberculosis controller for the Detroit Board of Health, Dr. Douglas was elected president of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association. Dr. Henry C. Chadwick, whom Dr. Douglas succeeded, presided at the luncheon meeting and urged physicians and surgeons fighting tuberculosis to segregate persons afflicted in order to maintain the enviable record established against the disease in Michigan.

Several times during the meeting speakers rejoiced that the realization of two ambitions of the Association appeared near at hand.

Sanatorium Sought. These goals are the establishment of a sanatorium in Northern Michigan and improvement of the sanatorium at Howell T. J. Werle, executive secretary, reported that Tuesday Dr. G. C. Siemens, chairman of the State Tuberculosis Sanatorium Commission, approved an appropriation of $70,000 for remodeling and improvement of the sanatorium at Howell.

He also announced that Gaylord had been selected as the site for the new sanatorium and that the Commission had approved taking the matter up with Federal commissioners.

"Our present conception of tuberculosis is such that we doubt if malnutrition and heredity have much to do with the disease," Dr. Chadwick said. "That convinces us that the best use of the proceeds from our Christmas Seal sale is in segregation of those afflicted, rather than in building up the undernourished." "As someone has said, Joe's turkey would not get tuberculosis if the tuber bacilli were not around," he continued. He advocated continued work in health education through the public schools and more emphasis of x-ray examination in suspicious cases.

New Death Report Made

Dr. W. J. V. Deacon, of the Michigan Department of Health, presented a report on death rates in Michigan from the disease. His report was the first of its type presented before the Association in that the deaths have been relocated, according to original county of residence.

The rate was shown to be highest in localities where there are few sanatoria, and where these institutions are local and serve but a small per cent of the population. In the southern counties, his report revealed, Wayne alone had a rate in excess of the state rate of 48 deaths among each 100,000 persons.

"Wayne county it must be remembered," Dr. Deacon reminded his audience, "has problems peculiar to a metropolitan area." His reports showed tuberculosis most prevalent in the Upper Peninsula.

Other officers elected were Dr. John Sundall, of Ann Arbor, first vice president; Curtis Wylie, of Grand Rapids, second vice president. (Concluded on last page)

To Be Scene of Men's Club Supper

The Methodist church house, Wednesday evening, will be the scene of the Men's Club supper, to which members of the Service League have been invited.

The affair, a pot-luck supper, is expected to draw many and all

Methodist men and Service League members are planning on attending the vocal selections by Pierre Kenyon and Leslie G. Lee of the Northville quartet and community singing will feature the entertainment. There will be no speaker.

REV. MINER RETURNS: CONFERENCE PLACES OTHER M. E. PASTORS

When the appointments were read Sunday at the annual session of the Detroit conference of the Methodist church at Ypsilanti, it was announced that Rev. Frank N. Miner will come back to the local Methodist church for the next year.

The conference which was in session last week beginning Wednesday and adjourning Sunday evening, changed and returned several pastors in the Northville vicinity.

Rev. P. Ray Norton returns to Plymouth; Rev. F. A. Lendrum, formerly of Plymouth, who has been at Adrian, goes to Farmington; Rev. Walter B. Heyler comes back to Wayne; Rev. Victor Longfield, a former missionary who has been preaching at Pontiac and Farmington goes to Dexter; Rev. Ernest L. Leonard returns to Walled Lake; Rev. Carl Sanders comes from Durand to Milford; and Rev. Bert Bode, formerly of Walled Lake, is again returning to Saline.

The placing of former Northville Methodist pastors is as follows: Rev. William Richards returns to Belle Isle; Rev. W. O. Francis comes back to St. Paul's Highland Park church; Rev. H. J. B. Marsh is returned to Grass Lake and Rev. F. I. Walker will again occupy the pulpit at Flat Rock.

These four are the only former Northville Methodist preachers who are still active and in the conference. Several have been retired and Rev. Ralph Pierce is at Aurora, Illinois.

NORTHVILLE A. C. TO PLAY THIS SUNDAY

Northville's semi-pro football team, Northville A. C., will open its season Sunday playing against a Detroit team at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the fair grounds. No admission will be charged.

The team, made up of former college and high school stars, boasts a strong line-up and has a wealth of reserve material. The opener Sunday will be in the nature of a try-out. It is the first test and probably everyone will get a chance to see action.

The club roster is made up of the following men: Ends—Roy Williams, Ward Riley, Douglas and Raleigh Tuttle, Lawrence Lefevre, and Jack Gills; tackles—Kenyon Miller, Foster Howell, Marvin Tibble, Howard Block, Clare Avery, Gar Evans, Holly Mills; guards—"Beef"—Van Atta, Donald Herrick, Harlow Williams, George Bassett; centers—Charles Lefevre and Monroe Weston; backs—Harley Wolfram, Harold McCordie, Art Harris, Russell Egloff, Frank Hinchman, Orson Atchinson, Ted Cavell, Charles Muensinger, Stan Lencar, "Peanuts" Eno, and Eddie Wood.

Joe Vroman will manage the team.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Nelson C. Schrader continues to convalesce rapidly from his recent operation and is at the store nearly every day.

Friends of Mrs. Arthur B. Nichols, who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks, will be glad to hear that she is improving slowly.

At least half a dozen Northville people plan to attend the national convention of the American Legion and Auxiliary which meets at Chicago, Oct. 1, and continues for five days. Northville is honored in having Mrs. Chas. F. Murphy as the Auxiliary delegate from the 17th congressional district.

HARRY S. GERMAN DEFIES FATHER TIME SAYS F. D. KEISTER

Fred D. Keister of The Ionia County News says the following tribute to Harry S. German, Northville's former mayor and baseball star of the first magnitude.

"As a kid, something like 40 years ago, we first began hearing about Harry German as a base ball pitcher. His home was in the southeastern part of the state and at one time he was a member of a major league team. We believe with Detroit.

When he retired from the professional circuit he refused to take a seat on the sidelines, but continued pitching for his old home town and has been keeping it up year after year. Now he is being asked to pitch for a number of state teams, who have heard of his career and are desirous of presenting him to their local fans. This week he is going to pitch at Edmore, and there are a number of other towns in that vicinity bidding for his services. "And the fine thing about it—the wins the majority of his games, although many times being pitted against strong semi-pro teams.

NRA COMMITTEE IS PLANNING CAMPAIGN

Members of Northville's Blue Eagle squad or NRA committee met at the village hall Tuesday afternoon for a short organization meeting.

The committee is composed of Dr. L. W. Snow, Harry B. Clark, D. P. Yerkes, Sr., L. C. Stewart, Clifford Turnbull, Dr. J. E. Schady, E. M. Bogart, and Postmaster T. R. Carrington.

Mr. Carrington made a business trip to Detroit Wednesday to learn of new NRA developments.

TRAINING SCHOOL MEN SPEAK AT CONVENTIONS

Dr. T. G. Hegge of the Wayne County Training School has returned from Chicago where he read a paper before the American Psychological association on his investigations in the field of special educational disabilities before the section on Clinical Psychology, of which section Dr. Hegge is a member of the executive committee.

Dr. A. H. Steele of the Training School was in Grand Rapids this week in attendance at the annual meeting of the Michigan State Medical society. Dr. Steele read a paper on certain medical subjects important in the social training of children in the Training School.

"BILLY" RICHARDS SAVES TWO BOYS FROM DROWNING

It has just come to the attention of The Record that "Billy" Richards, the 16-year-old son of Rev. and Mrs. William Richards of Belleville, formerly of Northville, is a real hero.

Three weeks ago "Billy," who is a life member of Boy Scouts, saved two boys from drowning in Belleville lake. Northville congratulates the young man on his bravery.

"QUEEN ESTHER" REHEARSALS TO BEGIN MONDAY, SEPT. 25

George Howes, director of the musical drama "Queen Esther," who was forced to postpone the presentation of this famous drama because of illness, is again able to go on with his work. Rehearsals for the pageant will begin Monday evening, Sept. 25, at the Presbyterian church. It is important that all those taking part be present at this rehearsal.

ENROLLMENT OF SCHOOLS IS OVER 725

Civics Required of Seniors; Northville May Have Debating Team

Over 725 students answered the call of the school bell Monday morning and assembled in their respective places at the Northville high and grade schools.

This enrollment, while only slightly larger than last year, has made several high school departments as well as the grades very overcrowded. The grade school is so over-size that Supt. Amerman said Wednesday that an extra teacher may have to be hired or that some students would be put on part time. It is rather indefinite at present regarding what will be done. The grades that are especially large are 4B with 52 and 5B with 51. The list of grade teachers and their enrollment is as follows: Miss Arnie Richards, kindergarten, 57; Miss Selma Jarvis, 1B, 36; Miss Helen Leonardson, 1A, 25; Miss Nora Watson, 2B, 36; Mrs. Lueta Beng, 2A, 12; 3B, 36; Mrs. Marie Gango, 3A, 34; Mrs. May-Babbitt, 4B, 52; Miss Ellen Reimcke, 5B, 51; Mrs. Grace Hawkins, 5B, 40.

High School Also Crowded. The high school with 245 students enrolled also has various classes and departments that are overcrowded. With the exception of American Literature, which many are taking, the legend seems to be toward more practical subjects. The manual training department, the commercial department and the domestic science classes are all filled to overflowing. In some cases extra sections may be organized and in typing, where there are only 14 typewriters and nearly 20 students, a period taking the class, new equipment may have to be purchased.

The individual enrollments of the high school grades are as follows: Ninth, 61; tenth, 72; eleventh, 65; twelfth, 47. The eighth grade has 47 enrolled and the seventh, 72, making a total of 113 in the junior high. The students from in these two grades registered under Mrs. Ida B. Cooke.

Of the entire high school enrollment, 34 students come in from out (Concluded on last page)

BEG YOUR PARDON

A local carried in the West Point Park column of last week's Record was in error, we are informed. The item stated that "Mrs. Osmond Yerkes is assisting at the Northville sanatorium, where her husband has been in poor health for three years."

Mrs. Yerkes says that her husband is not in poor health and has never been an inmate of a sanatorium.

WOMEN'S GYM CLASS

Plans are being made for a gym class for women such as was held last year. Those who are interested are asked to call Mrs. H. Handorf at 419-M immediately.

SPECIAL MEETING OF F. & A. M.

A special meeting of the Northville lodge of the F. & A. M. will be held Monday evening, Sept. 25, with a supper at 6:30 o'clock. Work in the first degree after supper. Fred K. Hedge, Wilbur H. Johnston, Secretary. W. M.

Retailers Fail To Make Out Sales Tax Returns Correctly, Says Scully In Talk Before Local Exchanges

Ninety-seven per cent of all the Michigan sales tax returns that have been turned in are incorrect.

This was revealed by Edwin Scully, field representative of the State Board of Taxation for this district, who spoke Wednesday noon before the weekly meeting of Exchanges and their guests at the Methodist church house. The program was in charge of Roy Crowe, Michigan Bell Telephone manager of this district.

The incorrect returns said Mr. Scully, do not signify an effort to evade the tax but rather they indicate the immense amount of confusion and ignorance of the act and its ramifications in the minds of the 70,000 retailers doing business in this state. Every man, explained Mr. Scully, has his own interpretation of the sales tax and many do not understand whether their wares are taxable goods or not.

The tests, he said, for a retailer to determine if the goods he sells are taxable or not are: ask yourself if you are the last man in possession of the goods before the ultimate consumer; determine whether the property which changed hands is tangible.

NORTHVILLE TEAM TO AVERAGE 167 POUNDS PER MAN

Northville high school's football team will average 167 pounds per man, a high figure for a class C team, announces Coach Ted Watts, former Albion star.

The line will feature plenty of beef averaging 170 pounds with a backfield of about 159 pounds per man, said the coach, which should pack plenty of dynamite for Northville opponents.

The heaviest man on the squad will be Junior Dundas, guard, who weighs 220 pounds. The lightest is little Tony Bongiovanni, just under 100 pounds, who is seeking a berth at quarterback.

PONTIAC HISTORIAN ASKS INFORMATION ON SCHOOL HOUSES

J. W. Clapp, of 82 Green street, Pontiac, has written to The Record requesting any information possible on the old stone school house at East Lyon (Blackwood district).

Mr. Clapp would like to know the date of construction, who built it, whether that was the original school building or did a log frame building precede it. Also, he inquires, he would like any information available on the Boughton and Palman stone houses or any early history of these families or of that district.

If any reader has information on any of these topics will be pleased to communicate with Mr. Clapp at the Pontiac address given above.

BOULEVARD NEARLY FINISHED

Workmen have nearly completed pouring the concrete for the boulevard extending between the Seven Mile road and Northville on the Northville-Plymouth highway. The boulevard will not be set for several weeks.

BRIDES' PAGEANT TONIGHT WILL BE FINE ATTRACTION

18 Young Ladies Will Appear In Wedding Gowns Of The Past

The pageant, "Brides of Yesterday," sponsored by the Service League of the Methodist church, will be given tonight (Friday, Sept. 22), at 8 o'clock.

The pageant, which will consist of 18 girls showing styles of wedding gowns dating from 1882 to the present, will be held in the auditorium of the Methodist church. An admission of 15 cents will be charged. The girls, marching slowly to beautiful wedding music played by Mrs. Sherrill Ambler on the organ, and Mrs. Harry Blake on the violin, will come down the aisle displaying their dresses.

In addition to this The Northville quartet will sing and Pierre Kenyon and Miss Gertrude Deal will also render selections.

The following will take part in the pageant: Wilma Rastenburg, Bernice Clark, Mrs. Alex Lyke, Margaret Norton, Gertrude Deal, Dorothy Richardson, Ruth Broad, Eleanor Grosvenor, Esther Parmenter, Geraldine Huff, Jane Lawrence, Catherine McKenna, Ruth Mary Baldwin, Marion Turnbull, Ella Tibble, Eunice Cousins, Mrs. Jack Taylor, Winifred McCordie, Miriam Dundas, Marie Humphries, Mary Louise Boyden, Virginia Lee, and Bobby Masters.

PUBLIC WORKS ACT DETAILED BY NOWICKI

Member of State Board Is Heard In Talk At Rotary

"It will serve as a primer for an industrial comeback and will help take men off the welfare"—this is what Leo Nowicki, Wayne county drain commissioner, Tuesday noon told Northville Rotarians and guests will be done by the gigantic public improvements project of the federal government.

Mr. Nowicki spoke with authority, since in addition to his county position, he is one of the three members of the Advisory Board of Public Works for the State of Michigan under the National Recovery act. In this capacity he helps pass on all projects that are being considered in Michigan.

Three billions and three hundred millions of dollars will be spent for public works, stated Mr. Nowicki, and those projects that bring quick employment are now being favored. The whole program is a new adventure by the government, said the Wayne county official, and it is the biggest thing of its kind in history. It is real "pioneering" and it is hoped by all that it will have a great effect in putting millions of men at work.

In a rapid fire and very business-like manner Mr. Nowicki explained the details of the improvement plan. Thirty per cent of the cost of any project will be provided by the national government—this is not a gift but a loan. In addition the government will, under certain conditions, buy bonds of municipalities that wish to take advantage of the plan. For example, the city of Detroit, said the speaker, will spend one million dollars for paving and three hundred thousand dollars of this will be provided by Washington.

In order to get men to work as quickly as possible, a big effort will be made to locate all of the three billions and three hundred millions before January 1, 1934, but if there is any surplus at that time not asked for by cities and other units of government, this will be taken over by the federal government and spent.

"The time is now ripe to take seriously any contemplated improvements," said Mr. Nowicki.

Dr. L. W. Snow, mayor, and George Hicks, member of the village commission, were present and asked questions regarding the request that Northville has made for $21,000 to the improvement of our water system. The outlook is favorable for this sum being granted.

Stanley Borucki, deputy drain commissioner, was also present. Mr. Nowicki was introduced by John A. Boyce, a classmate of both the speaker and Mr. Borucki at the University of Michigan.

Guests of the club were Frank J. Fournier and Ed J. German of Wayne, Oliver Goldsmith, Herald Hamel and Elton R. Eaton of Plymouth and Dr. L. W. Snow, George Hicks, Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston, Supt. R. H. Amerman, John A. Boyce, M. J. Murphy and Fred J. Cochran.

NICHOALDS STARS AS FARMCREST WINS FROM FREEBOOTERS

In the Farmcrest-Freebooter polo game, staged Sunday at the Detroit Riding and Hunt club, Bobby Nichols, well-known to Northville polo fans, was the outstanding star.

The score was 11 to 6 in favor of Farmcrest and Nichols made seven of the goals, riding in on nearly every play. Mounted on two of Phil Grennan's fastest ponies, Slip On and Lightning, the "youngster" even outscored Herb Lorber, his five-goal teammate from Chicago.

The game was played with indoor polo rules, using three men and playing only four chukkers. The second and third periods were mostly defensive and it was only in the last chukker when the Freebooters finally reached their stride, scoring three goals while Nichols made two, that real hard riding ensued.

Farmcrest — Freebooters
Grennan — 1 Harrison
Nichols — 2 — 1
Lorber — 3 — 3
Goals—Nichols 7, Droeger 7, Lorber 3, Alger 1, Farmcrest Pony 1.

Fouls—Harrison 2, Lorber, Grennan, Droeger, Referee, Bill Boyer.

W. R. C.
The afternoon meeting of the W. R. C. will be held on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 27, at the home of Mrs. D. F. Griswold. Everyone come.

GENERAL JOHNSON WILL GO

From all one hears and reads, General Hugh S. Johnson, the NRA head, next to our president, is "on the way out." His roughshod ways have been all right for the preliminary work of the National Recovery Act, but he has aroused so much antagonism that the door will soon be opened for his exit and for the incoming of a more diplomatic and less fighting executive. 'Tis well. It has been obvious to a lot of thinking people for some time that the pugnacious general has been more or less of a misfit.

In the meantime it is up to each and all of us to stand back of President Roosevelt in all his plans for the betterment of the country. He is carrying the heaviest burden in the world and regardless of human errors and frailties, he needs the backing of every loyal citizen.

BETTING ON HORSE RACES

George Averill, editor of the Birmingham Eclectic, says that "betting on horse races is morally and economically unsound." He is right. When will people ever learn that to get "something for nothing" is like lifting yourself by your bootstraps (if you have bootstraps)—it just can't be done. And the money that is taken from foolish people in the betting business is a testimony to the greed of selfish human beings who want to make a living without working for it.

We have Governor Comstock and the legislature to thank for the coming of legal betting on horse races in Michigan. What will the wives and children, whose money has been taken from them to fill the purses of the racing gang think of our governor when winter comes and they can't buy new shoes?

OSBORN'S SUGGESTION

Former governor, Chase S. Osborn, makes the suggestion that next year, 1934, Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, step aside from the primaries and let former governor, Fred W. Green, take the nomination for United States senator. He would then have Senator Vandenberg take a two years' vacation—or run for governor—and in 1936 take the place of Senator Couzens, assuming that Couzens won't run again.

The harmony suggestion of Osborn won't work out, for several reasons. Firstly, Senator Vandenberg is the biggest influence Michigan has had at Washington for decades and to break the continuity of his work there would be nothing less than silly. In the next place we have no certainty that Senator Couzens will meekly step aside in 1936 to let someone make the race. In the third and most convincing place, the senior senator will have nothing to do with the plan—and we don't blame him.

FALLING LEAF AND FADING FLOWER

Comes morning and the chill of a new kind of weather. Down cellar we glide to start a fire in the long-unused furnace and the joy of stirring up a little heat warms up the heart. The sizzle of steam sounds good as we eat the morning oatmeal.

Outside the hills show trees turning gold and brown. We step on a cricket in the kitchen and know then that autumn is here. Outdoors we find the flowers drooping and the leaves of trees falling on our heads. A pumpkin is turning yellow in the fall sun and last "glads" in the garden call out and say: "Pick us now before the frost comes."

The day passes and home from work we go. The sun drops down an hour sooner than awhile back. The evening meal is over and darkness comes and we sit and read and know that the comfortable evenings around the family hearthstone are here. Yes, the summer, with all its happy memories is gone.

DETROIT BANKS WERE SOLID

Closing of the two banking systems at Detroit has cost Northville thousands of dollars—if the banks are not allowed to re-open.

The mystery grows that our federal government can be so callous to the great injustice that has been done at Detroit. As the grand jury goes on its wearisome (and costly) way the evidence piles up that these banks were solvent when cruelly closed by our tragic bank holiday. Only two men—our senior U. S. senator and the radio performer—stand together and make charges that the banks were not solid. A dozen of Detroit's finest and best citizens stand on the other side and unitedly say that the banks were able to pay 100 per cent if they had been given a little help by the R. F. C.—as was done in so many other places. What conclusion can a fair-minded man reach?

Opening the Detroit banks is as important to Detroit and to the State of Michigan as is the NRA. When millions of dollars are tied up and the credit facilities of a whole state are hampered it is simply tragic that our federal authorities allow the bank situation to drag as it has. If Washington wants the NRA to go ahead with a "bang," let it open the Detroit banks and see what will happen when the river of frozen credit starts rolling.

P. S.—Since the above was written the grand jury hearing was brought to a dramatic end and Judge Harry B. Keidan, brilliant Detroit jurist, gave as his conclusions that both the First National and Guardian National banks were solvent when closed by the federal government February 14. He also stated that according to the testimony given, there was no evidence of criminal acts and no "smart money" withdrawals. Judge Keidan's findings are a stinging rebuke to the only two men who came before the jury and made charges of wrong doing. Now that the grand jury has ended and the outcome is as predicted by all except those seeking sensation, there is hope that the 800,000 depositors of the two closed banks will, after eight long months of cruel delay, be granted some aid by our federal government.

TWO GOOD MEN GO

When capable, large hearted, generous-minded and genuine men live in the community we take for granted their worth and think or say little of it. When, however, they leave our Northville neighborhood we realize their real value and the contribution they have made to our welfare.

So it is with keen regret that we shall soon be saying good-by to Dr. Bruce H. Douglas, medical superintendent of the Maybury sanatorium, and Frank L. Snipes, superintendent of the local fish hatchery. Each occupied an entirely different place of usefulness but each has some qualities in common. Both were friendly men who came from the outside to our community and identified themselves with our interests. One worked for the city of Detroit and the other for the federal government. Both lived and worked for their adopted community, Northville. Both have left places that will be hard to fill.

Northville will not entirely lose Dr. Douglas for he will still retain, in his new position, some supervision over the "san" where he has been beloved by both patients, doctors and nurses alike. He has brought good cheer and comfort to thousands of those who have fallen under the touch of tuberculosis and his splendid scientific knowledge, added to his executive ability and his human interest in people, will continue to make him a large figure in the field in which he has given remarkable service.

WANDERING THOUGHTS

Are you protected against the new insurance law?

President Roosevelt is determined to have every bank in the United States—except those that are hopelessly insolvent—open by January 1. If that can be done, it will be a tremendous step toward a new prosperity.

Inflation is coming—that is what one gathers by reading the financial pages of the daily papers. If debts can be paid next year with "easy dollars" that will help a lot of folks. The danger will be of running into "easy" debts which may have to be paid later with hard dollars.

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

FRANKLIN'S FAMILY OF 13

(Livingston County Republican Press)

On a recent trip to Boston, Paul Ober copied the following epitaph in the Granary Burying Grounds from the tombstone of the father and mother of Benjamin Franklin:

"They lived lovingly together, in wedlock fifty-five years, and without an estate, or any gainful employment, by constant labor and honest industry, maintained a large family comfortably, and brought up thirteen children and seven grandchildren respectably. From this instance, reader, be encouraged to diligence in thy calling and distrust no Providence. He was a pious and prudent man, she a discreet and virtuous woman."

THE MEANEST MAN

(Fred D. Keister in Ionia County News)

It now looks as if the fellow who robbed the Baptist parsonage at St. Johns a few days ago is not the meanest man after all. Down in Eaton Rapids we find Bob Gifford of the Journal telling the story about the "dirty" thief who broke into a widow's chicken coop and stole 22 of her best pullets. As the poor woman was depending on the hens for an occasional egg during the winter months, with a chicken a-la-Hoover in the pot for Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's, the loss was keenly felt. Until someone meander comes along, which is doubtful, the guy who stole the chickens is entitled to have the leather medal hung about his neck—and we hope it chokes him.

INTERESTING TO KNOW

(Frank A. Bryce in Grand Ledge Independent)

Won't it be interesting to know why government officials made out two divergent reports of the condition of the First National Bank of Detroit. One for the directors, and one for the government at Washington. Had these two reports been alike as to figures with simply some additional confidential information to Washington, we could easily understand, but when they show two entirely different financial set-ups, it is very easy to see that the great First National Bank of Detroit and the whole banking system of Michigan were made the goat for some ulterior, underhanded, deep seated, rotten scheme. What was it?

In referring to the closing of the banking grand jury at Detroit which left our senior U. S. senator "high and dry," a headline in a Detroit paper says: "No Apologies to Make, Couzens Tells Critics." He wouldn't.

Saw an automobile wreck in Detroit Sunday. Two cars were wrecked but no one hurt. Each machine was an "antique" that should not have been allowed to be on the highway. But the sad thing is that many people driving these derelicts are unable to get any other kind of a car—new or old.

Good luck to the "school kids." The Northville teaching staff wants to make it the best year they have had and we know they will do all in their power to make every day a useful and happy one. Who knows what some of these boys and girls will be doing in the world's work ten or twenty years from now?

The Methodist preachers in conference at Ypsilanti passed a resolution condemning the automobile manufacturers for their stand on union labor. As a Methodist layman who believes in the principles of collective bargaining, we think the preachers are out of their field when they attempt to settle such a controversial issue as that.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

Is there danger of the United States ever having a dictator?

YOU CAN'T ESCAPE

(C. S. Seed in Rochester Clarion)

No man can evade the tax collector. The way taxes strike an average individual, who may think he is almost passed by when the tax collector comes around, is shown by one man's computation of taxes paid during a 30-day period. It is:

Automobile	$3.56
Income	5.04
Pipe, repair, est.	1.53
Admissions	.68
Gas (state and federal)	.60
Cheeks	.26
Tobacco, smoking	.186
Candy, estimated	.082
Oil	.07
Cigarettes, one pack	.06
Matches	.027
	$10.115

This amounts to 6.7 per cent of his income. If we exclude the installment on his income tax and the automobile tax, the percentage would still be 2.9, and that would be lower than average since the average man uses more gasoline with its high tax in the other months.

If he could include the percentage of his rent that goes into taxes, and the other items on which there is no direct tax, he would find that he pays a large proportion of his income into the tax coffers.

EXIT HUEY

(Larry Towe in Jonesville Independent)

Huey Long, Louisiana's joke of a senator, has been getting away with a lot. He has been accused of bribing elections and courts, robbing the state, persecuting enemies and doing a lot of things which the eighth grade civic books never mention when they describe our glorious method of self-government. But we believe Huey has made one fatal mistake. As long as he made only enemies, he could keep on going. But when he made folks laugh at him, he started downhill. And he made a joke of himself when he got soaked in the eye at a party. According to reports which never made the daily papers, the Kingfish was too drunk for even the crowd at the party. And while in that condition he went too far. Then, instead of facing the music, he sneaked away and told a tall yarn about fighting four gangsters.

Getting a black eye was enough of a joke against him, but the gangster story with noble, embattled Huey fighting for his life in a washroom, was too funny to keep down. It wasn't gunpowder, nor the printing press, nor science which ended the feudal system with its knights and tournaments and absurd romancing. It was Cervantes making all Europe laugh at the system with his book, "Don Quixote." Laughs will end Huey Long's political empire.

Orlow G. Owen, Jr., Ulrich, Lew Stewart, and Bob Yerkes have discovered that sulphur water is present in the earth a few hundred feet below Northville.

They've formed a pseudo corporation and are aiming to turn this metropolis into another Mt. Clemens. The problem comes when the backers tried to figure out what kind of baths our Fairbrook springs water is good for.

We've a notion to start an honor roll for advertisers who turn in early copy instead of waiting until Wednesday night. Early copy is a great help to the printers and it shouldn't be any harder to write Monday than Wednesday. If prices are late, just leave the prices blank and we'll get them later.

This week's blue ribbons go to: E. M. B. Co., Kroger Co., A. & P. Co., Northville Electric Shop, Men's Shop.

A "Pageant of Brides" will be on parade Friday at the Methodist church so. The Record informed us last week. Now, if we were advertising this affair we'd do it something like this.

20—Beautiful Girls—20

Ladies Also Welcome!

And then we'd have to leave town. Maybe we'll have to anyhow!

Rev. J. M. Shank writes that he is being entertained during his stay at Flint, by the State of Michigan at the school for the deaf and dumb.

Frank C. Harmon has a couple of smashed fingers as the result of not getting his hand out of the way quickly enough when two freight cars bumped together at Durand last week.

An estimable Northville citizen commenting on ladies raising their skirts when upon the streets says this: "The girls raise their skirts while walking, and it's all right as far as I can see."

THIS WEEK

By H. H. WHITE

It is quite plaudinous to say the church is on trial today, or that the church faces a great opportunity. The church has and always will be on trial, and it has and always will face a great opportunity as long as it exists.

For instance it is facing a great challenge right now in our own United States, for I believe our unit of recovery lies not in politics, our social life or our industrial institutions, but whether we become as individuals better citizens or not. It is the function of the church and its adherents to put its doctrines of religion and what it advocates and stands for, to the test.

It is not likely that all the measures employed in the NRA program will prove equally effective, but they at least will strike a very high law of average, and one must admit something is being done, for the policy of drift which we were subject to has been left in the discard, and it would seem that a new social order is being born within our shores. At least an industrial one, if nothing more.

Sometimes we may be a little doubtful about the wisdom of some of the policies of the NRA system, but there should at no time be a question as to what our duty is, and that is to support our president and the government to the limit in this present hour of need.

The church has always had its social implications and duties. It has always had a challenge. It has always had opportunities. It has always been on trial.

Its great challenge and opportunity today is to develop and provide men and women with sufficient vigor and strength of character, fortitude and personality commensurate with the need of the hour, and without such men and women the present industrial code which has been adopted will utterly fail.

SEWING ROOM STARTED

BY RED CROSS IN NOV

The Novi Red Cross Unit, in charge of Mrs. Dora Donelson, opened a sewing room in the Novi township hall, Thursday morning, for the purpose of providing garments for the needy in that vicinity.

Both people to sew and sewing machines are in need, Mrs. Donelson said, and urged that all possible enlist in the cause. The unit expects to make over 100 garments of one sort or another.

Parma Editor Says What He Thinks of Some of His Brethren in News Craft

Bobby Burns in one of his poems says:

"O wad some power the giftie gie us,
To see ourselves as others see us."

In last week's issue Editor Ray Corliss of Parma comments on some of his brethren in the craft. Below is reprinted part of his editorial.

"As we have sat in on state and district press association meetings, we have been impressed with the idea that the newspapers of the state

(and again we mean weeklies) are in good hands. Their editors try at all times to be fair, honest and sympathetic with the public.

Were we to go further and mention other newspaper men who are serving their communities unselfishly and earnestly we would call the names of Richard Baldwin of Northville, Emmanuel Stankrauff of Tekonsha, Vern Brown of Mason, Larry Towle of Jonesville, H. J. Richardson of Augusta, Schuyler Marshall of St. Johns and R. D. Gifford of Eaton Rapids. There are many other fine men in the newspaper profession in Michigan, but we are less personally acquainted with them. All in all, however, we are not ashamed of our craft and those identified with us in it."

Members of Yerkes Family Entertained At Grosse Pointe

The wives of the Yerkes family of Northville were honored Thursday at luncheon at the home of Mrs. H. R. Smith of Grosse Pointe. Those who were present beside the hostess at this lovely affair were: Mrs. W. H. Yerkes, Mrs. R. G. Yerkes and Mrs. D. F. Yerkes.

Hubert Wilcox Nuptials Solemnized In College Chapel at Albion

A recent wedding which is of interest to the people of Northville was that of Miss Katherine Wilcox of Northville and Forrest B. Hubert of Plymouth.

The wedding was solemnized Sept. 1 at the chapel of Albion college by Dean W. W. Whitehouse, dean of men at Albion.

The bride and groom are residing in Detroit.

Five Towns Club Holds Meeting in Detroit

The regular meeting of the Five Towns club, members of which are interested in the making of hooked rugs, was held at the home of Mrs. J. R. McCall in Detroit Thursday afternoon.

The afternoon was spent in making rugs and other articles and later a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess.

Mrs. W. H. Yerkes and Mrs. T. Glenn Phillips were the members who attended from Northville.

D. A. R. Holds First Meeting of New Year

The first meeting of the Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter of the D. A. R. beginning the fall work was held at the home of Mrs. Royal B. Larxins, 204 - Eaton Drive Monday Sept. 18, at 2:30 o'clock with the president, Mrs. Chauncey Baker, presiding. At the usual business session the new year book was discussed by the program chairman outlining the future program which promises to be most interesting and profitable.

After a brief current event period, a clipping of Cuba being read by Miss Barbara Horton of Plymouth and one on the NRA read by Mrs. Susan Eaton, the program for the day in charge of Mrs. Sharon A. Hill was taken up. Articles from the August number of the D

A. R. magazine by Mrs. Hill proved most enjoyable. Of especial interest was the article showing the growth and development of the Constitution of the U. S. A. brief summary of the leading articles to be found in the magazine from month to month was given by Mrs. Sidney Strong which brought the afternoon to a close.

Service League Holds Meeting At C. B. Turnbull Home

At the regular meeting of the Service League of the Methodist Episcopal church held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Turnbull on Fairbrook street, plans which were made at the previous meeting were discussed further and new plans made for the work of the coming year. The final arrangements were completed for the pageant "Brides of Yesterday" which is to be given by members of the Service League, tonight at the Methodist church.

Later in the evening, at the close of the business meeting, lovely refreshments were served by the hostess with Mrs. Hazel Boyden pouring.

Miss Helen Hacking Honored At Kitchen Shower

In honor of Miss Helen Hacking, who will become the bride of Elmer Parmenter of Wayne, late in October, Miss Alvera Wood was hostess to a group of 14 former high school friends of Miss Hacking Friday evening at her home on the Back road. The evening was spent in playing games and later Miss Hacking received many beautiful and useful gifts for the kitchen of her new home. At the close of the evening a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess.

Joan Montgomery Honored On Sixth Birthday

Little Miss Joan Montgomery celebrated her sixth birthday on Friday afternoon, Sept. 15, when she was hostess to fourteen little friends at a "circus party." The circus idea was effectively carried out in the decorations, games, and favors. The "big top," with pennants fluttering, occupied the center of the table, surrounded by miniature circus animals, etc. Each youngster hailed with delight the miniature animals which served as place-cards, each bearing the name of a child, also the funny little clowns, fashioned from clothes pins which accompanied them. Even the birthday cake, in addition to the six candles, carried an array of candy circus animals, artistically arranged by the young hostess' aunt. Little Joan received many beautiful and useful gifts, and pronounced her sixth birthday the best ever.

Miss Martha Keeney Honored At Dinner Sunday

Honoring Miss Martha Isadore Keeney, who is leaving to attend Michigan State college at East Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Fry entertained at dinner on Sunday.

Those present beside the guest of honor were Miss Ella Louise Tibble, Duncan Blair Fry and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Keith Fry.

Mrs. Wilbur H. Johnston Hostess To Past Matrons of O. E. S.

One of the delightful social affairs of the week was the luncheon given by Mrs. Wilbur H. Johnston and Mrs. Leo Lawrence at the Johnston home, on West Main street, Wednesday noon, for the past matrons of the O. E. S. The regular business meeting was held in the afternoon. Twelve matrons were present at the luncheon and meeting.

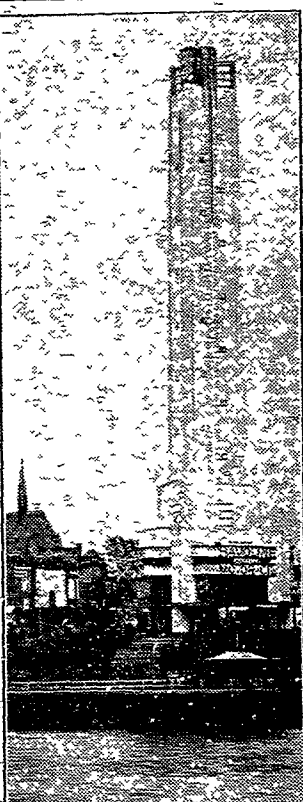

Mrs. E. B. Grosvenor Entertains At Chop Suey Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Grosvenor were hosts to a group of friends Tuesday evening at a lovely chop suey dinner at their home on South Wing street. After dinner the evening was spent in playing games and dancing. Those who were guests at this delightful affair were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schmutz and daughter, Donna Jean, Miss Gertrude Deal, and Miss Florence Johnson.

Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary Holds Meeting Tuesday

The Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday with Mrs. Ada Bloom at her home on West Main street. A potluck dinner at 6:30 o'clock was followed by the regular business meeting. Mrs. J. J. Cochran of the Woman's Union was a guest, and gave a story on Stewardship. The devotional meeting was led by Mrs. Linda Lee. Miss Elizabeth Beard resigned as president and Mrs. Helen Sweet was named as her successor. Mrs. Mary Ayers resigned as secretary and as yet her position has not been filled. Mrs. Florence McCluskey acted as assistant hostess.

CHEERING THEM ON

It was a wretched play. Long before the interval the audience began to boo and hiss. But there was one man who clapped his hands vigorously.

"I say," said the man next to him, "you've got a nerve to applaud this shocking play. What can you see in it?"

The man smiled. "It's not the play I'm applauding," he replied heartily. "It's the husbands." —London Answers

Mrs. Ervin Bollinger and son, Donald, from Dearborn, were guests Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of her mother, Mrs. Ethel Middlewood.

Mrs. Ethel Middlewood motored to Cass, Sunday and was the dinner guest of her two daughters, Misses Esther and Barbara Middlewood.

Misses Vera Lewis, Hilda Garchow, Nick Reichco, Frances Woodley, Wm. Owen and Charles Ash, started this week attending Northville high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Marquette Shoman and Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Shoman of Detroit were guests Tuesday evening of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Gilbert, Sr.

School started Monday with a larger attendance than ever before in Pierson school. Boys and girls seem glad to start after their pleasant holidays.

Mrs. Rose Ault, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Ault and Clifton Ault have returned to their homes after attending the funeral of the former's sister, Mrs. George Hepton, at Bealeville, Ohio.

The first meeting of the P. T. A. was held Thursday evening in the Pierson school to get the different committees organized and the work laid out for the coming year. Mrs. Marvin Addis officiated.

Shirley Addis is attending high school at Howell. She will stay with her sister, Mrs. Max Bergin, and will come home for each week-end. She has been home for a few days with a touch of flu.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Gilbert had as their Sunday guests: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pankow of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith of Houston, Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chavay and children of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Coolman had as their guests Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Frank Stanton and sons, Fred, Tom and Raymond, Miss Margaret Walton of Lincoln Park, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Sheets and son, Billy, of Detroit.

West Point Park Senior League team and Hamtramck met on the diamond here Sunday and played two games. West Point lost both games by a small margin. Hartner and German were the battery for the first game.

The pastor, Rev. Roy Miller, and Mrs. Miller have returned from their vacation. Sunday morning the Sunday school was well attended. Mrs. Robert Fredericks, superintendent, has kept the doors open all through the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. James Eastman, accompanied by the latter's sister, Miss Anna Thayer, a teacher returning from her summer vacation, motored to Muskegon Heights Sunday and were the guests of the former's brother, W. B. Eastman. They returned home Monday evening.

School started Monday, Sept. 11th. The boys and girls found it hard work to settle down to their studies after a long holiday.

A goodly number of students from here started in the eleventh grade at Northville High school on the seventeenth and will attend high school there for a two-year term.

The baseball game between Pierson and the "Wild Cats," Harry Wolfe's team, was fought out on the Farmington school diamond. The game was interesting. Both sides did not have the practice they should have had. Harry Wolfe, junior, and George Waggoner were the battery for the home team. The score was 3 to 4 in favor of Pierson of Detroit.

West Point Park's gala day will be September 13th. A parade will start at one o'clock. Prizes will be given for those who have the strangest and funniest costumes.

Races with prizes for winners, horse shoe pitching and two ball games will take place. A good dinner will be served in the hall from six o'clock to eight o'clock. Pedro and Bunco will be the games for the evening. Come and spend the day with us.

EXCHANGITES HEAR TAX COLLECTOR IN INTERESTING TALK

Mr. Scully informed the Exchangingites and their guests that the "jump sum price" method of securing the tax is preferable to collecting the tax as a separate item. The chairman stated that the state, he said, are using it and finding it an easier and more simple method of computing and passing the tax on. In the "jump sum" method a sign stating that prices have been adjusted to include the sales tax is displayed and that tax is included in the sale price.

The act is designed to form a new source of revenue to the state and to save real estate values which have rapidly depreciated in the past four years, he said. There are 21 states, he declared, where the sales tax is in operation. The sales tax is the most democratic form of taxation, he asserted, because it sets no class distinction; it falls on everyone and is invaluable in educating the people with regard to cost of government.

July returns, he said, showed that approximately $2,600,000 had been returned to the state on the August returns, he prophesied, would be even higher.

Mr. Scully stated that the cost of collection averaged about one and a half per cent as compared to the two and a half per cent it costs the federal government to collect the income tax. The collection is facilitated, he explained by the "most modern auditing machines which tabulate approximately 20,000 cards, each giving complete data concerning a retailer, every day. There are less than 50 clerks in the office at Lansing, he said, and predicted that the next session of the Michigan legislature would turn the most of Michigan tax collection work over to the State Board of Tax Administration which now leaves the sales tax.

Mr. Scully was thanked by Mr. Crowe and Dr. H. I. Sparling, who had charge of the program in the absence of Dr. B. H. Douglas, president on behalf of the members of the club. Guests were M. J. Murphy and James Richard Patrick Lyons.

The Student Association elected officers for the coming year, last week as follows: President, Floyd Holmes; vice president, Laura Tolet-tenet; secretary, Eleanor Stubbe; treasurer, Billy Hansor.

Dorothy Kent and Howard Moyer, graduates of last year, are returning this year for additional work in several subjects.

The boys of the high school have been playing interclass baseball the past few days. Several interesting contests have been held. Games with some nearby schools will be played soon.

Many of the grads are having reviews over studies carried on last year. In this way the teachers can find out what kind of work the children need most and at the same time pupils who have not yet been able to buy books will not get behind in new work.

Dorothy Kent has been efficiently carrying on the business of selling used books brought in for sale and taking orders for new ones. The pupils and teachers greatly appreciate her help.

COUNCIL HAS FIRST SESSION ON TUESDAY

Season Football Tickets
40c for Students,
Adults 60c

(By Florence Johnson)
The members of the student council are to be congratulated upon the way in which they conducted themselves at the opening meeting last Tuesday, Sept. 19. They accomplished their work in short order and in an exceedingly business-like way. The administration should be a successful one.

With no preliminaries whatsoever, they began as Secretary Mary Harper read the minutes of the closing meeting of last year's council. Following this, the motion was made that the prices of the season tickets be forty cents for students and sixty cents for adults. The gate prices were voted to be fifteen cents for students (visiting students as well) and twenty-five cents for adults.

A motion was also made that the council purchase three hundred novelty pencils which will be orange and have the football schedule printed on them in black letters. They will only cost a nickel apiece and are a real bargain at that price. Junior Alderman Carrington was appointed to discuss with Superintendent Amerman the possibility of having a dance. Another money-making project discussed was a carnival, but as this will be given with the N. Club, nothing definite has been decided.

The last motion to be made was that concerning the athletic letters that were to be handed out last spring for baseball, golf and track. These will not be purchased unless a satisfactory agreement can be made with a company.

GRADE NOTES

Mrs. Grace Hawkins has forty pupils in her sixth grade.

Sixty pupils have enrolled in Miss Annie Richards' kindergarten.

Willard Musoff is a new pupil in Miss Helen Leonardson's first grade.

Miss Nora Wilson's 2B grade contains approximately thirty-seven people.

Mrs. Marie Conger's 3A class numbers thirty-five. Jack Peters and Billy Forshee are here for the first time.

Three new children have joined Miss Lueta Reng's 3B grade. They are Alice and Helen Morast and Herbert Brown.

Mrs. May Babbitt's fourth grade has an attendance of fifty-three students. The following are new: Shirley Briggs, Gilbert Forshee, Alfred Lundie and Lucille Whitehead.

There are thirty-five students in Mrs. Jarvis' first B grade. The following are new: Francis Krauser and William Howard Bell from Detroit, and Hugh Milton Kerrie from Plymouth.

Of the fifty-one pupils in Miss Helen Rencke's fifth grade, seven are newcomers, namely, Elaine Middleholts from South Lyon, Marie O'Neal from Alpena, Louis Dale from Detroit, Doris Hunt from Fenton, Helen Whitehead from New York, Alberta Moe from Waterford, and Helen Briggs from Detroit.

Members of Senior Class of 1933 Are Now In College, Taking Post Graduate Courses, And Working

We who remain in school feel it our duty to keep an eye on the students who graduated in '33, so we have done our best in compiling some information about them.

Those who are honoring N. H. S. by taking post-graduate courses are Madeleine Baystead, Gertrude Deal, Roy Warner, Marie Humphries, Myrtle Lemmon, Kenneth Kerr, and Florence Johnson. Some need certain subjects in order to go on to college for their chosen course, while the rest are just acquiring more knowledge.

Ann Arbor will have three of these students. Wilma Rattenbury is planning on taking a literature course there; Charlotte Lester is considering landscape gardening, and Warner Neal is, of course, taking journalism.

Richard Shipley and John Steen-cken are going to Ypsilanti for a course in chemistry. Melvin Stener is also planning to attend this college.

Leo Kohler and Albert Vradenburg are considering a trip to California. Monroe Weston and Ronald Beasley also are desirous of giving the coast a treat. Watch out, Hollywood!

Margaret Hay is taking a secretarial course at the Detroit Business Institute. Mary Bennett will remain up north. Dorothy Shoebrim now resides in Plymouth.

Melvin Chrysler has turned into an A. & P. man. Genevieve Neely is taking care of the neighbors' children. Richard Nash is busy running in learning how to run the linotype machine at the Record office. Howard Latta, with the golden voice, is working in the Kroger store at Walled Lake. Louis Campbell, Irvin Ware, Harold McCardie, and Miriam Dundas all expect to work this fall.

Bob Christensen and Bob Power believe they will stick to farming for awhile, although Bob Power may go to Kentucky later on.

The remainder of the class has not been accounted for and so will not be mentioned in this article.

'ROUND THE SCHOOL

Welcome

Vacation time has passed, and another school year has rolled around. Northville high has opened with as great or greater attendance than ever before.

We have with us three new faculty members—Coach Watts, Miss Annie Richards, and Miss Gladys Ludwig—to whom we offer an especial welcome.

To all of the other teachers and to the students, the Orange and Black staff extends a hearty greeting and a sincere wish for a very profitable and successful year.

The Senior Class

The senior class, if the activities of past senior classes could be used as a criterion, should be exceptional. They are busy during the ensuing ten months. Traditionally, the seniors are given preference over other groups, and infringement upon their rights should be avoided as much as possible. The fact that the three preceding years have not been kind in a financial way for the class of '34 and that this is its last chance to raise the money for its trip in the summer, ought to make other organizations generous in their concessions.

We truly hope that the seniors will be given all the cooperation that they need from both the townspeople and the other students.

O. AND B. STAFF

SMALL AT FIRST

Though with the first issue of the Orange and Black, the Journalism staff is not so large, it is expected to increase rapidly.

All students interested are requested to get in touch with Editor Peggy Blake or Faculty Advisor Leslie G. Lee. A class in journalism is expected to be taught soon, but it is not known at what hour it will meet. Last year a similar class met over the noon hour on Mondays.

Editor Blake, together with her recently appointed assistant, Miss Florence Johnson, a post graduate, and Frances McLoughlin and Ida Altman, have had experience from last year. The others are new but at latest reports were learning fast.

DID YOU NOTICE

All the post-graduates? Boy, they are ambitious.

All the new students in N. H. S.? Hope they like it—and us.

How nice the school building looks with all its new decorations?

The new tons of boys out for football? It looks like we'll have a great team this year.

That Alfie Parmenter will have to fill Pussee Weston's shoes this year? He has a good start already.

How downcast Ruth Broad looks? You would too if you had to move away and leave dear old Northville.

Will Also Be Presented On Following Night; Begins At 8:00 p. m.

Leslie G. Lee and his music department are starting the year off with a bang.

Due to their diligent practicing during the latter part of the vacation period, they will be able to present a play Sept. 28 and 29 in the assembly. The title of the production is "Prize Pigs" and the cast is as follows: Mrs. Letitia Conley, who adores dumb animals, Eleanor Grosvenor; Ruth Conley, her daughter, Mary Louise Boyden; Hamilton Conley, her son, Maurice Giles; Ope Jones, a colored maid, Florence Johnson; Mrs. Ada Parker, a capacious woman, Peggy Blake; Winnie Parker, her daughter, Marion Turnbull; Ambrose Wakeley, a practical joker, Alfie Parmenter; Carey Stanton, of the Apex Moving Picture Company, Henry Hoffman; Oracles Ulysses Bean, a business man, Robert Lyke; Almie Deborah Conley, wealthy but penniless, Gertrude Deal, and Verena Lyons, who lives in town, Violet Johnson.

The plot is chiefly concerned with our hero of the past, present, and future, Maurice Giles, who deals with a love affair and a career in his usual debonair manner. Naturally, his object of adoration is Marion Turnbull, who is hampered by a mother that "knows what's best" and has an eye on the pocketbooks of her daughter's various suitors. Alfred Parmenter, with the aid of his conspirator, Florence Johnson, manages to raise havoc several times when things are running too smoothly. Eleanor Grosvenor falls in love with three pigs, but don't worry, she doesn't take them seriously. Mary Louise Boyden exhibits a rather extraordinarily caustic sense of humor and does it well. Henry Hoffman displays his versatility in his portrayal of a motion picture director, and Robert Lyke, a newcomer, shows much promise in his role of a business man. Violet Johnson helps to complicate matters as the owner of the pigs, but Gertrude Deal manages to straighten everything out satisfactorily.

This comedy, with its abundance of wit and laughable situations, will be given on two successive evenings, September 28 and 29, at 8 o'clock. The admission fees, being twenty-five cents for adults and fifteen cents for all students, are exceptionally reasonable for this type of play.

"And has your baby learned to talk yet?"

"My, yes; we're teaching him to keep quiet now."

FIRST GRID GAME PLAYED NEXT FRIDAY

Watts Works Team Hard In Preparation For Game At Melvindale

With the first game next Friday, Sept. 29, at Melvindale, the Northville high school football squad, under the tutelage of Coach Ted Watts, is in fine condition and all set to go.

Though the team is light and inexperienced this year, Coach Watts has installed an enthusiasm into his men and a skill in fundamentals that will be hard to beat. Every position is hotly contested for, and the coach says that he will not know the starting line-up for sure until the hour of the game.

The opening game is played this year at Melvindale. This is the first time that Northville has met the Melvindalers on the gridiron and a hard battle is expected to ensue.

Working like Trojans, the team practices for nearly two hours every afternoon. The goal posts are now up and the general appearance of the football field is improved.

The set of plays used this year is entirely different than any ever used here before. Though not known definitely, it was expected that Coach Watts, a former Albion college grid star, would follow some what the system of his Alma mater.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

Are you glad to be back to school?

Paul Baldwin—I am glad to get back to school so I can start football.

Francis Alexander—I am glad to come back to school for I like all the activities.

Edward Angove—I am glad to get back to school to get back to my studies and sport.

Jack McLoughlin—I am glad to be back to school because now I can keep my regular hours.

Marjorie Pierpont—Musical activities are resumed when school starts—that's what I have looked forward to.

Tom Carrington—It is good to see all my school chums again. That is why I am glad to get back to school.

Alice Boelens—The novelty of "day days" has passed and I believe school days are the most enjoyable after all.

Ada Wheaton (a new junior who comes from Levering, Michigan)—I know that I shall enjoy Northville high school immensely, and I already feel like one of its full-fledged members.

TEACHER WILL WRITE COLUMN EVERY WEEK

Take Care of School Property Advises Miss Palmer

Every issue of the Orange and Black will contain an article written by a faculty member. This week, Miss Ione Palmer has contributed.

(By Miss Ione Palmer)

As I walked into our school house Monday morning the very first thing that met my eyes was the newly painted stairway. It fairly gleamed with cleanliness—but that was not all. The corridor walls and even the surfaces of my classroom were resplendent with paint and kalsomine. You can't imagine the effect which this covering of dirty surfaces produced in me. It was as though the slate had been wiped clean for a new start.

I am sure I was not the only one to be affected in this way, for we all love beauty more or less. To a certain extent we can gratify our love of beauty within our own homes. If we can't afford luxurious furnishings, we can at least have a picture or two, a lot of pottery, or some plants. Outside our homes, however, it is not so easy to make our surroundings beautiful. It takes a whole community to beautify city factory sites, or dirty, narrow, treeless streets. But there is one thing that we, the members of Northville high school, can do to keep our school attractive and that is to help to keep it clean. We can't hang rich draperies in its windows nor lay costly rugs upon its floors. We can have real school spirit, which shows itself in pride in the appearance of the school and in thoughtful care of its property. Let's put scraps of paper in the wastebasket. Let's help keep the playgrounds free from rubbish. Come on, everybody! Let's keep our school beautiful!

3 HOME GAMES THIS SEASON

Though there are only three home games on the N. H. S. football schedule for this year, they are all expected to be closely contested.

Van Dyke and Clawson play Northville for the first time and nothing is known of their strength. Farmington, the old Orange and Black rival, has a good team this year, and the 1933 gridders hope to avenge last year's defeat.

The feature of this year's season, as of every Northville season, will be the Plymouth game on November 17. As Plymouth came here last year, the game in November will be played at Plymouth. This will be the first time Northville will have played on the new football field at Riverside Park.

The schedule for the year is as follows:

Sept. 29—Melvindale, there.

Oct. 6—Van Dyke, here.

Oct. 13—Berkeley, there.

Oct. 27—Clawson, here.

Nov. 3—Open.

Nov. 10—Farmington, here.

Nov. 17—Plymouth, there.

Keeping House in the Big City

Miles of small modern homes, row upon row. All alike except for a difference in the pitch of each alternate roof to break the monotony.

In one of these little houses (the home of our sister) we have been enjoying the novel experience of city housekeeping for three weeks. We have marketed daily in strange stores, cooked in a miniature kitchen and hung washings in a small back yard that was one of a long vista of fluttering clotheslines.

With "as much privacy as a gold fish" these city folks live, very "collective" we would say, as compared with the individual aloofness of Northville homes. So close together stand these city homes that the tree sunlight which we villagers take as our natural right, is at a premium in some rooms.

So much is done for housewives here that we wonder how they keep busy. The laundry truck stops at each home, the vegetable boy stops each morning with a tempting basket, the bread man spreads a variety of his goods at the door, and found the corner at the delicatessen everything ready to eat is waiting. The yards are kept spic and span by the frequent calls of the big white department of sanitation truck.

To quiet two noisome stray cats the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals sends its truck. Quite early each morning husbands (of every variety) are seen leaving for Manhattan to work. No coming home till evening and it's a long day for many of these wives for those without children. But this is a neighborhood of real homes and in many a small front yard a portable baby pen, contains a spotless pink cherub playing with his toys. Across these pens young mothers linger and visit leisurely—oh, this is a sociable neighborhood!

Older children, dressed as if for Sunday school, ride discreetly on kiddie-cars or drag mechanical toys on the sidewalk—always on their own side of the street.

We cannot help comparing their staid propriety with the overalled, barefooted freedom of our boy and his playmate back home with a playground limited only by muddy Raver Rouge, where they may make and catch minnows, swing like young nonkeys from limb to limb, or whoop like cowboys among the secret caves.

But young Phil has found his "gang" here, who ride bikes and roller skate perilously near pedestrians. The young New "Yawkers" have spotted an outsider and say to him: "You don't live heah, do you? You talk funny!"

Great pride do these city folks take in their pretty premises. Most of the homes have glassed in front porches with small touches of individuality in the arrangement of their door steps and the landscaping of their front lawns. Evergreens of all varieties are used profusely as a background for many flowers, while hedges, clipped with nicety in designs outline the green patches.

Plenty of rain and mists from the ocean have made vigorous growth. Here, tempered by nearness to the sea, autumn comes late and summer's lingering bloom delays. Roses and other flowers are still running riot.

Expensive to live in New York? Curiously has made us inquire a bit and we learn that family budgets have a wide variety. Vegetables grown right on the island are brought in fresh each morning and are surprisingly cheap. Fruits which come by water route from California and Florida are even cheaper.

An immaculate "major market" is run where Phil delights to go the rounds with his basket and "serve self." Prices of staples we find quite comparable to those back home. Meats alone seem noticeably higher. To our surprise we find tradespeople very friendly, and we almost forgot that we are not "Mrs. Editor" here with an ear to the ground for news.

One unique place to trade is the fish market where all kinds of deep sea foods are brought in fresh daily. One great difference we observe here in Queens is the utter independence of folks in spite of the close proximity. No community obligations. Each for himself.

Frankly, though we will not tell these "New Yawk" folks, we turn back to Northville which looks to us from this distance as a nice big family with all the natural "squabbles" but underneath a mutual affection and inter-dependence. As Phil says "we have more room there."

Monday a. m.—Hello folks! Still watching eagerly for that Record. Now I know how the subscribers feel when missed!

Methodist Church Frank N. Miner, Pastor Sunday morning worship and sermon at 10:00 o'clock; with special music by Mr. Lee's chorus choir. Mr. Miner will preach.

At 11:15 the Sunday school will convene, under the direction of Mr. Stalter, superintendent. Boys and girls and young people are urged to be present next Sunday that classes may be organized to begin the new courses of study the following Sunday, Oct. 1.

The young people of the Epworth League begin their work next Sunday evening at 6:30, at the church. The work and plans of the new year will be discussed. The officers of the league will be in charge.

Tuesday noon the W. H. M. S., Mrs. Cobb, president, will meet with Mrs. Edw. Sessions, 222 N. West street. This is the first meeting of the fall and it is hoped there will be a large attendance.

Thursday evening at 7:30 at the church Mr. Stalter, superintendent of the Sunday school, wishes to meet the parents of the children and youth of the Sunday school. This is a conference of parents and workers, and the parents are especially urged to attend. "For the ways of Jehovah are right, and the just shall walk in them."

St. Paul's Lutheran "How sweet are Thy Words unto my taste! Yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth." Thus we read in Psalm 119, 103. "What is sweeter than honey?" The psalmist tells us that to him the Words of God are sweet, yea, sweeter than honey. He would express his perfect delight in the Word of the Lord. It affords him unspeakable comfort, joy, and satisfaction. Far beyond all that may be found on earth otherwise, he has discovered in the Word; he would not be without it at any price.

Have you experienced the sweetness of God's Word? Have you found in it Him who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit? Is the Bible to you His Word? Is His Word of love? If we realize our true condition as sinners, separated from God, exposed to His wrath, helpless and hopeless, doomed by God's justice to eternal death, and if we then hear the message of salvation through Christ. Then will our heart leap with joy, and the words of the loving Savior will be more precious to us than a thousand worlds; then we shall join the psalmist and exclaim with exultation: "How sweet are Thy Words unto my taste! Yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!"

The hour for service and Sunday school is as usual 10 o'clock. Catechumen instruction on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. The half hour of Faith and Fellowship broadcast every Sunday afternoon over station WXYZ from 1:30 to 2 o'clock. Pastor E. Herzig will be the speaker.

The quarterly meeting of the Voters assembly will be held on Monday evening, Oct. 9th. The 450th anniversary of the birth of Dr. Martin Luther, born Nov. 10, 1483, will be celebrated by the Lutheran churches of greater Detroit and vicinity on Oct. 8. This celebration will be held at the Olympia, beginning at 3 p. m. Strangers in the Community and people without a church home are cordially invited to worship with us.

Christian Science Churches "Reality" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, September 24. Among the Bible citations is this passage (Ecc. 3:14): "I know that whatsoever God doeth, y shall be forever nothing can be put to it, nor anything taken from it, and God doeth it, that men should fear before him."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 207): "There is but one primal cause. Therefore there can be no effect from any other cause, and there can be no reply in aught which does not proceed from this great and only cause"

THE OTHER DAY

By Miss "19"

School started and now it's hard to see any of the young folks around the street. —Marshall Hyde went home last week-end. —Wilma Rattenbury, Warner-Neal and Charlotte Lester drove over to Ann Arbor Tuesday morning to begin Orientation week. —Arline Richardson and Isadore Keeney left Tuesday for Michigan State College. —They are to be roommates. —Kenneth Kerr will take the place of Ward VanAtta while Ward is learning to become an engineer at State. —Betty Miner leaves today for Albion. —Miriam Dundas has a pretty blue swaggar suit. —Margaret Nurburg was a guest at the Watts' home Sunday. —Bernice Clark spent the week-end in Detroit with Lucille Rovick. —Elmer Perrin won't be a mainman much longer—he's going back to school one of these days. —Charles Carington is going to Ypsa this year. —Delphia Hill left Wednesday for Yassar. —Inga Stannard returned Monday after spending the week-end at Torch Lake in northern Michigan. —Ella Tibble, Esther Parmenter, Jane Lawrence, Edna Nider, Wilma Rattenbury, Dorothy Richardson, Miriam Dundas, and Bernice Clark are a few of the girls who will model in the pageant "Brides of Yesterday." —Evelyn Grebanan is returning to Ogantz college. —Wayne Thompson has returned to the C. C. C. 1612 at Kalamazoo after a few days' leave. —Alfred Shibley is employed at the E. M. B. Grocery. —Helen Hacking will be married next month. —Sam Lawrence is back in school after spending the year in California and in the south. —Robert Coumans has left for school at Ann Arbor. —Ted Cavell is leaving today for Michigan State. —See you next week.

DRIVERS' RESPONSIBILITY LAW EFFECTIVE OCT. 16 The Michigan Financial Responsibility law goes into effect on Monday, Oct. 16, Elmer J. Smith, and Scott Lovewell, local agents for the Auto-Owners Insurance company remind Northville motorists.

The purpose of this law, they say, is to eliminate from the highway all reckless drivers and to protect the public from loss and expense caused by those who are not financially responsible or able to take care of damage and personal injury caused by their recklessness. Mr. Smith and Mr. Lovewell assert that their company offers the lowest cost insurance of any in the state for Northville motorists.

Methodist Church Frank N. Miner, Pastor Sunday morning worship and sermon at 10:00 o'clock; with special music by Mr. Lee's chorus choir. Mr. Miner will preach.

At 11:15 the Sunday school will convene, under the direction of Mr. Stalter, superintendent. Boys and girls and young people are urged to be present next Sunday that classes may be organized to begin the new courses of study the following Sunday, Oct. 1.

The young people of the Epworth League begin their work next Sunday evening at 6:30, at the church. The work and plans of the new year will be discussed. The officers of the league will be in charge.

Tuesday noon the W. H. M. S., Mrs. Cobb, president, will meet with Mrs. Edw. Sessions, 222 N. West street. This is the first meeting of the fall and it is hoped there will be a large attendance.

Thursday evening at 7:30 at the church Mr. Stalter, superintendent of the Sunday school, wishes to meet the parents of the children and youth of the Sunday school. This is a conference of parents and workers, and the parents are especially urged to attend. "For the ways of Jehovah are right, and the just shall walk in them."

St. Paul's Lutheran "How sweet are Thy Words unto my taste! Yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth." Thus we read in Psalm 119, 103. "What is sweeter than honey?" The psalmist tells us that to him the Words of God are sweet, yea, sweeter than honey. He would express his perfect delight in the Word of the Lord. It affords him unspeakable comfort, joy, and satisfaction. Far beyond all that may be found on earth otherwise, he has discovered in the Word; he would not be without it at any price.

Have you experienced the sweetness of God's Word? Have you found in it Him who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit? Is the Bible to you His Word? Is His Word of love? If we realize our true condition as sinners, separated from God, exposed to His wrath, helpless and hopeless, doomed by God's justice to eternal death, and if we then hear the message of salvation through Christ. Then will our heart leap with joy, and the words of the loving Savior will be more precious to us than a thousand worlds; then we shall join the psalmist and exclaim with exultation: "How sweet are Thy Words unto my taste! Yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!"

The hour for service and Sunday school is as usual 10 o'clock. Catechumen instruction on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. The half hour of Faith and Fellowship broadcast every Sunday afternoon over station WXYZ from 1:30 to 2 o'clock. Pastor E. Herzig will be the speaker.

Church News

First Presbyterian Church

Harold G. Whitfield, Minister On Sunday, Sept. 24, at 10:30 service will be held in the First Presbyterian church.

At 12:00 noon Rally Day will be observed in the church school. It is time we began our church activities for the fall and winter in earnest. Let us not wait longer but let our presence at this last service in September be an indication and evidence of our desire and willingness to share our rightful responsibility.

Baptist Church Many listened Sunday to morning and evening addresses by Dr. R. M. Traver, pastor of the First Baptist church of Pontiac, who spoke here at the Baptist church.

Dr. Traver's message was interesting and well received. This Sunday the Rev. Magnus Burgess of Detroit will speak at 10:30 a. m. and the Rev. H. G. Whitfield, of the local Presbyterian church, will speak at the evening service which starts at 7:30 o'clock. In view of the fact that there are no other church services Sunday evening it is hoped that members of all churches will combine to make the attendance at this Union service an outstanding one.

Baptist church Sunday school will start at 11:20 a. m. This will be a combined promotion and rally day service.

There will be a fellowship supper at the church Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock, to which you are invited. This meeting is in the interest of our yearly canvass. Miss Della Green of Detroit will speak on Sunday school work, just following the supper hour.

The young people of the church will meet each Sunday evening at 6:30. Catherine Biery and her group lead the meeting this week.

Church of Our Lady of Victory Next Sunday is the last Sunday for the 7:30 a. m. Mass. Beginning Sunday, Oct. 1, and continuing until next June the first Mass will be at 8:00 o'clock. The second Mass will remain at 10 o'clock.

All Catholic students of the schools from the first grade to and including the 12th grade must report for enrollment in religion classes tomorrow morning Saturday, Sept. 23, at 9:30. Sickness must be the only excuse. We express our appreciation to the many teachers who volunteered their services for these classes.

The directors of the Altar society along with other ladies are canvassing each lady of the parish with four definite purposes in view. To be apostles in asking all to reserve the week of November 5 to 12 for our Mission, to ask the cooperation of all in planning for the care of the church building; to urge the attendance of all young people at the religious classes; to solicit donations for the festival of Oct. 11.

The festival of Oct. 11 (Wednesday) will consist of a progressive chicken pie dinner ending in the Ambler store (formerly Freydl's) with dessert. The evening will be spent in the form of a modified bazaar. Everybody is working hard at present for this affair. In next week's issue of The Record we shall describe the plan of this "dinner tour."

Salem Congregational Church Lucia M. Stroh, Minister Services next Sunday 10:30 a. m. Sunday school at 11:45 Prayer meeting Wednesday-evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Kehr in Salem. The pastor had charge of her services last Sunday and called upon Rev. E. J. Heitman, Toledo, Ohio, a visiting pastor, to preach. Rev. Heitman brought a beautiful Gospel message of comfort to us all.

The pastor will speak next Sunday and wishes to meet all her friends and the members who have now returned from their trips and vacations at the morning services.

All the ladies, friends, and members of the Ladies Auxiliary society are invited to the home of Mrs. L. J. Vici, 638 Pleasant Road, Burmingham, Mich., on Thursday noon, Sept. 28th. Everyone is most cordially invited. This will be a regular auxiliary dinner—each member furnishing food, also bringing their own dishes and silverware. A good time is expected for all.

The Ladies Auxiliary meeting held in the C. W. and La Vern Lewis home west of Salem was a very delightful affair. Many visitors attending. A good business meeting led by the president, Mrs. Vera Clark, was held at 3 p. m., followed by a splendid missionary meeting and conducted by the chairman, Miss E. Witlich. The pastor and her sister, Mrs. Vici, sang a hymn "When He Walks With Me," as a duet. Mrs. Vici then read a paper on Japan, China, and Hawaii. Mrs. Vera Clark read an interesting article on our home missionary work in Texas. The meeting closed with the beautiful chorus used in the famous "Gypsy Smith" campaign held recently in Detroit—"Let the Beauty of Jesus Be Seen in Me!"—wherein our entire group joined in singing lustily. A most delicious supper was served to all present.

Let all our laity rally to these wonderful gatherings each month, not forgetting our Sunday school and church services.

Have Many Activities At the Waterford school, with Mrs. Jessie Wilson teaching, the 23 pupils had a brief program prepared for the Record representative who visited them Monday afternoon.

Astrid Hegge, an eighth grade girl, read the report of the Citizenship club and explained how its program promotes good citizenship and health. Charts in the form of a six-pointed star are kept, checking each student on his personal record. Last year, Mrs. Wilson's school came second in the entire county on this project.

The officers of the Waterford club, as well as those from all the Wayne county schools in Zones A and B, which includes this section, are to be inaugurated at the Plymouth high school September 26.

Mrs. Wilson's pupils also have a 4-H club, that has chosen handicraft as a project. Most of the Waterford pupils attend the Plymouth high school.

There are only 11 pupils in the 96 year old Hinman school on the Seven Mile road. Taking in boys and girls from about a radius of a mile, Mrs. L. L. Rakestraw, teacher, has charges in the kindergarten, the second, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades. These students have also formed a Citizenship club. The Hinman school is unusual in that it is very old. The structure itself is quaint and the walls are old. Three floods have been laid, one right on top of another.

The Chapman school on the Taft road also has only 11 students enrolled. Mrs. Edith Tibbatts, who lives nearby, is the teacher and has all except the third and sixth grades. This school has an Art club in which quite a bit of interest has been aroused.

The remaining rural school is the Base Line school, located on the Base Line road, of which Mrs. Martha Egge of Plymouth is teacher. There are fifteen pupils enrolled, one in each of the first four grades and several in the others. They have a Citizenship club and are starting a Michigan project. This is an imaginary trip through the state, in which its products, resources, and climate are studied. These students nearly all go to high school in Northville.

175 At West Point Park The West Point Park school is slightly larger, having an enrollment of nearly 175 pupils and teaching the kindergarten and first ten grades. Principal Edwin L. Johnson is in charge of this school. It did not open until Sept. 11. Formerly most of the West Point Park graduates took their last two years at Farmington. This year, however, most of the last year's class is attending Northville.

There are two stories in this modern school, as well as in the Novi school, which presents a strange contrast to little one room buildings in the country. Many of these pupils come from a territory within a range of nearly eight miles. Including Principal Johnson, there are four teachers.

In Novi, the two story brick building is also up-to-date and modern. Supt. Harold Hadley and three other teachers have charge of nearly 132 pupils. These are enrolled in the first ten grades, there being no kindergarten at Novi. A student association has been organized to supervise all student activities.

Formerly, this school drew only pupils from the immediate vicinity of Novi, but now, there are two buses running out, transporting students from a considerable distance. The majority of students that are graduated from the Novi school later attend the Northville high school.

All of these schools plan to organize a group to edit a column of school news which they will send into The Record. The news from these schools will appear weekly or as often as it is sent in.

compulsory, will be given in place of civics the second semester. Teachers and Students Praised In spite of the seeming confusion, Supt. R. H. Amerman complimented both teachers and students on their cooperation saying that "things are straightening out rapidly and even though we are overcrowded in some cases, the first of the week should see things running smoothly."

The Monday morning classes were short and there was no school in the afternoon. Thus school was really in session only four days

So far no public mention has been made of civics which is required this year of all seniors. For several years the state department of education has made this a requisite and prior to the administration of the late Supt. Thad J. Knapp it was taught here. Mr. Knapp, however, received special permission to waive this requirement and substitute his applied civics classes. The civics class is taught by Mrs. Vivid Cobb and will continue for the first semester only Economics, which is not
