

E. E. MILLER DIES SUDDENLY ON SATURDAY

Civic Leader Succumbs At Schrader Store At Age Of 56

Northville and surrounding communities were greatly shocked to hear of the sudden death of Ernest E. Miller, last Saturday forenoon, Dec. 16.

He was found by Ray Casterline, store manager, seated at the desk in the office of the Schrader Bros. Furniture store at 2:15 o'clock in the morning. Mr. Miller had been seen entering the store at eight o'clock and apparently had just seated himself preparatory to glancing at the morning newspaper which lay unfolded in front of him when the attack came.

A physician was called by Mr. Casterline but it was found that Mr. Miller had passed away immediately and was beyond aid.

The news of Mr. Miller's death quickly spread through the community calling forth many expressions of shock and sorrow from the large circle of his friends.

His kindly words, cheerful smile and thoughtful regard for everyone have endeared him in this community that his absence will be hard to realize.

Ernest E. Miller, son of Addie and Jacob Miller, was born July 16, 1877, in Richfield, Michigan, and his early life was spent in the parental home and with his grandparents while attending school at Orionville, Flint, and Williamston.

After finishing his school days, he found employment in the then thriving woolen mills at Flint, later coming to Northville to assist his father in conducting of a meat market on North Center street. It was at this period that he met Miss Pearl Simmons and on June 15, 1897, they were married.

His father, having sold his meat market and established a similar concern in Tecumseh, Mich., the young couple moved to that village, at which place was born their only son, Wendell S. Miller.

The family later returned to Northville, where after passing the civil service examination, Mr. Miller entered the service of the United States government at the fish hatchery located here.

His happy personality, cordiality and friendly disposition were well remembered by that institution's older employees, most of whom have already passed away.

Upon organization of the Lapham State Savings bank in 1907, he sought and obtained employment with the new concern and the following 24 years of his life were spent in giving his utmost toward the success of that institution until it closed its doors in 1931.

In 1910, the present house at 113 West street was built and the remainder of Mr. Miller's life was spent in beautifying and making of it an ideal home for his wife and son.

As a useful and loyal citizen of his community, he found time to serve his fellow citizens as a member of the village council, for many years as township clerk, as president of the school board and for the past several years as treasurer of the Northville Wayne County Fair association. His honesty, justice, and straightforwardness enabled him to discharge his various public duties not only with credit to himself but with financial benefit to the community.

In 1917, he joined Northville Lodge, No. 186, F. & A. M., and was a regular and faithful attendant during the following years.

For the past year Mr. Miller had been employed at Schrader Brothers Furniture store and only last month assumed the management of the newly opened Penman-Allen theatre.

Never complaining and always ready to give of himself for the happiness and betterment of his family, he leaves them a memory of loving kindness and unflinching devotion, which makes his passing doubly hard to bear. His last three years were further brightened by an only grandchild, Carol Ann Miller, who idolized her "granddaddy."

Mr. Miller is survived by his wife, his son, granddaughter and many near relatives residing in Northville and surrounding communities.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at the home with Rev. Wm. Richards of Belleville, and Rev. H. G. Whitfield of the First Presbyterian church officiating. Aided a profusion of beautiful flowers and accompanied by relatives and a large group of sorrowing friends, the body was borne to its resting place in Rural Hill cemetery.

The bereaved family and Mr. Miller's host of friends will miss his ready smile, his loving care and friendship, and cannot but wonder why a true Christian had to be taken away.

Oh Lord, it's hard to keep up faith
And believe that it must be so,
And not to worry and wonder why,
When a loved one has to go.
But, perhaps you were trying our
Faith in him,
But on that we have no fear,
For you'll find him as good in the
Life over there.
As we've known him to be down
Here.

Why, O Lord, must our faith be blind?
Why don't you tell us why?
So we could bid him fond farewell?
When our loved one had to die,
But he is not dead, it is not so,
His body was borne to its resting place,
He is not gone, he's but away,
He'll come back to us some day,
And we'll be glad to see him there.

DIES SUDDENLY

ERNEST E. MILLER

The untimely death of Ernest E. Miller Saturday morning cast a pall over the Christmas activities of his many friends among the merchants and townspeople here who knew him so well. Mr. Miller was a prominent leader in civic activities and active in his duties at the Schrader Bros. Furniture store, found time to manage the local Penman-Allen theatre.

MANY LIGHTS TO ADORN CHRISTMAS TREE DOWN TOWN

Lighted Evergreen Will Shine
Forth To Cheer
Northville

The Village of Northville has ordered a community Christmas tree and it was to have been delivered Wednesday afternoon.

A community Christmas tree was to have been set up on the southwest corner of Main and Center streets, and decorated. Members of the Rotary and Exchange clubs have agreed to help dress the tree in its holiday attire, and the Edison company will furnish the bulbs. Those responsible for the tree in other years state that the community tree has all the necessary fixtures except bulbs and these will be furnished by the Edison company.

Several of the merchants have put lighted trees in front of their stores and these coupled with the large tree in the center of town will make the business section resplendent with holiday adornments.

N. H. S. OPENS THE BASKETBALL SEASON HERE THIS EVENING

The first home league game of the Northville high school basketball season will be played tonight with the orange and black cagers meeting Farmington. Last Friday the locals defeated Berkley 24 to 18.

This first important home game will give some of the village residents their first chance to see the squad in action. A part of the Berkley game showed a lack of teamwork, according to observers, but with another week of practice the players should have improved greatly.

Baldwin, regular center, has been on the sick list all week and it is rather difficult to determine the starting lineup.

The first game is scheduled to start at 7:15.

BANK WILL REDEEM SCHOOL SCRIP HERE

School scrip is redeemable in the following numbers, starting in series A with 1 and running through 2533; in series B, numbers from 4000 to 4556. All of the afore mentioned numbers will be redeemed at the Depositors State bank.

er's host of friends will miss his ready smile, his loving care and friendship, and cannot but wonder why a true Christian had to be taken away.

Oh Lord, it's hard to keep up faith
And believe that it must be so,
And not to worry and wonder why,
When a loved one has to go.
But, perhaps you were trying our
Faith in him,
But on that we have no fear,
For you'll find him as good in the
Life over there.
As we've known him to be down
Here.

Why, O Lord, must our faith be
blind?
Why don't you tell us why?
So we could bid him fond farewell?
When our loved one had to die,
But he is not dead, it is not so,
His body was borne to its resting place,
He is not gone, he's but away,
He'll come back to us some day,
And we'll be glad to see him there.

The bereaved family and Mr. Miller's host of friends will miss his ready smile, his loving care and friendship, and cannot but wonder why a true Christian had to be taken away.

Oh Lord, it's hard to keep up faith
And believe that it must be so,
And not to worry and wonder why,
When a loved one has to go.
But, perhaps you were trying our
Faith in him,
But on that we have no fear,
For you'll find him as good in the
Life over there.
As we've known him to be down
Here.

CWA TO PAY $1,429 TO 98 ON SATURDAY

Practically All Who Are Registered Are Now
At Work

The CWA payroll for the week ending December 23 distributed $1,429.73 among the Northville CWA workers.

Northville men have received a pay that will assure them of enjoying a fine Christmas. And according to local officials, and reports from Detroit headquarters of the program every effort is being made to assure the men of having their pay this Saturday. Most of the 98 men received a full 30 hour pay last week.

There are very few men left of those registered that haven't been notified to report to work on some of the local projects. The 98 men are all working on village improvements, exclusive of the Plymouth Park and the Marbury Sanatorium.

For the week ending December 16 the payroll totaled $1,014. Work on the village streets has been progressing at a rapid rate. The Hutton avenue improvement is well under way with the street being graded and a trench has been dug down across the street to the required depth, and is now ready for the building of the culvert. There has also been a retaining wall built on the east side of the avenue.

In the near future work will be begun on the water mains on Fairbrook and Plymouth avenues. As soon as the materials are delivered the improvements will begin.

SPECIAL—Complete your Christmas joy by following your Xmas dinner with Fry's Delicious Home-Made Ice Cream. It costs no more to have the best. It's pleasingly different. Quarts 25c. Royal Ann Cafe, 125 E. Main St.

Capacity Audience Hears Brilliant Rendition of Immortal "Messiah" Given Sunday By Northville Singers

The immortal "Messiah" was heard in Northville for the first time Sunday afternoon at the Presbyterian church. An appreciative capacity audience filled the church realizing that the hearing of this oratorio gave the proper setting to the Christmas season.

Sixty-seven voices comprised the chorus which was directed by Leslie G. Lee with Mrs. Edna O'Connor and Miss Evelyn Thomas alternating at the pipe organ. The chorus was made up of the Northville high school choir, the Northville 25-month male chorus and the Northville Women's chorus.

Soloists were Mrs. O'Connor, soprano; Miss Barbara Horton, contralto; both of Plymouth, and Pierre Kenyon, tenor, and Carl Bryan, bass, of Northville.

All were in excellent voice and rendered their difficult parts with feeling and expression. The rendition throughout was faultless and compared favorably to the efforts of many college choruses. The public feels deeply grateful to Mr. Lee for his courage and patience in attempting this masterpiece; in oratorios and to the presence of the chorus for their hours of painstaking practice to produce these results. Northville is to be congratulated on having this opportunity.

Visitors were also present from nearby towns. The climax of the oratorio was reached in the stirring "Hallelujah Chorus" and as tradition has directed since 1762, the audience stood during the singing of the concluding number.

NURSERY SCHOOL IS A POSSIBILITY HERE

There may be a nursery school organized in conjunction with the federal and state plan for relief of unemployed teachers, according to Russell American, superintendent of schools. As yet there has been no place picked for the school to be held. Anyone interested should communicate at once with Mr. American at the high school.

VILLAGE BUYS COMMUNITY YULE TREE

To Be Decorated By Rotary
And Exchange
Clubs

The members of the village commission voted at their meeting Monday evening at the village hall to purchase a community Christmas tree to be set up on the corner of Main and Center streets.

The tree will be put in place by Superintendent Earl Montgomery and village employees, and will be decorated by the Rotary and Exchange clubs.

Because of the Christmas season the commissioner ordered an extra night watchman on duty from midnight to six o'clock. Gordon Allen, the new man, will be on duty from midnight to six a. m. until after the holidays assisting William Wain, the regular night watchman.

The council voted a suggestion to purchase 2,000 feet or a carload of six inch water mains. A carload is needed on village projects, say village officials, at this time although the surplus could be stored and used when future projects are financed. The purchase of a carload would save the village about $100 but would tie up too much money, say commissioners. The original purchase of approximately one thousand feet was approved.

O. L. V. PARTY IS COMPLETE SUCCESS

The keno party given by Our Lady of Victory church Monday evening was a very successful affair both in attendance and in the pleasure given. All entered heartily into the games for which prizes appropriate for Christmas gifts were awarded. Guests were present from nearby towns.

MRS. WHITE HEARS "MESSIAH" SUNDAY AT THE AGE OF 93

To attend the first rendition of Handel's "Messiah" in a very inclement weather Sunday afternoon and to enjoy it thoroughly in spite of faulty hearing is the enviable record of Mrs. Jennie White at the age of 93 years. Mrs. White just does not want to miss anything worthwhile that happens in the town she has watched grow up for nearly a century. It is doubtful if she ever heard finer music in the village of her birth.

C. F. SMITH STORE WILL MOVE INTO AMBLER BUILDING

The local C. F. Smith grocery will move into the Sherrill Ambler store on Main street shortly after the first of the year, according to Leonard Beasley, manager of the local store.

At present there are carpenters working in the Ambler store putting in new shelves and counters and rearranging the lighting. All of the present equipment is to be replaced by new, and a larger amount of shelf space will make for a more attractive store, he continued.

"We are not sure as to just when we will move in but it will be soon after the first of January. We will be able to serve our customers, concluded Mr. Beasley, in a much better and quicker store."

"SAN" BOYS WIN GRAND PRIZE FOR HOME MADE TOYS

Splendid Honor Comes In Contest Staged At Detroit

Winning the grand first prize of a thousand dollars and a home-made toy out of a field of a thousand is no little honor. And this to come to a group of Maybury Sanatorium boys who are "dressed patients" is a great source of pride to friends of Maybury Sanatorium recreation staff.

The two major projects, entered in the Detroit News contest were a replica of Fort Dearborn and Santa Claus castle, the first under supervision of Mrs. Beulah W. Pearl and the latter of Miss Cecyl Douglas. Both were beautiful, practical and adaptable to many play situations of sick children. These three projects were decided factors of judges. The judges were Arthur Dandaneau of the Board of Education, Dr. Agnes Tilton, Merrill Palmer school, and Miss Marie Rossy of the Parental Advisory board.

Another project which received honorable mention and which was viewed by 25,000 people in The Traveling Toy exhibit, was made under direction of Miss Margaret Reagan. Mrs. Sarah Halsey, Mrs. Clara Sharpe, Mrs. Reagan, Miss Douglas, and Mrs. Pearl went in to receive the prize Saturday evening.

W. C. T. S. CHILDREN START CHRISTMAS WEEK CELEBRATION

Starting with a program this evening, the Children of the Wayne County Training School began a week's Christmas celebration.

Tonight, a playlet with forty characters, "The Rag Doll's Christmas Eve" will be given along with a Christmas operetta, "The Toy-maker". Both of these will be repeated Sunday afternoon. A group of caroles will go from cottage to cottage on Christmas eve, and on Christmas day, each group will have its own Christmas and there will be a present for every child. Tuesday, December 26, the youngsters will have competitive games in the gymnasium, and on Wednesday the older boys and girls will hold a reception for Superintendent and Mrs. Robert H. Haskell. The celebration will end on Sunday, Dec. 31, with a special pageant.

CHRISTMAS BASKETS

Don't forget your contribution to the Christmas baskets which the King's Daughters are packing at the village hall Saturday. Your own feast will be sweeter for having contributed to others less fortunate.

SESSIONS HOSPITAL

Four patients will spend the Christmas season convalescing with medical care in the hospital. They are Mrs. Paul Wendall of Plymouth, Perry Moyer, Gust Bernhardt, and Sam Nashon of the Twelve Mile and Grand River road.

Mrs. Bernhardt has made such good progress that there is hope of her being removed to her home for Christmas.

JACOBSON'S WIFE RETURNS FROM FINLAND

Visits Miss Jarvis Here On Monday; Husband To Get Light Sentence

Mrs. Arvid V. Jacobson, wife of the former Northville high school mathematics teacher now in Finland awaiting trial on charges of espionage, was in town Monday evening visiting Miss Selma Jarvis.

Mrs. Jacobson was released by Finnish authorities Nov. 26. Word was received here through the U. S. department of state from Horace M. Albright, U. S. Minister to Finland, that she was destitute, and local friends were asked to wire $100 for her transportation home. Miss Jarvis, first grade teacher here who is a very close friend of the Jacobsons, got in touch with Mrs. Jacobson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hamala of South Range, in the upper peninsula, and had the money sent. Mrs. Jacobson left Finland about December 1 and arrived in New York last week. She is now staying with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson of Detroit.

Following her husband's arrest in Helsinki, Mrs. Jacobson suffered a complete breakdown and was in a hospital there for several weeks. Mr. Jacobson was permitted to call on her every day, she said. While she has now regained her strength and self confidence to a large degree, she is still weak from the strain.

Mrs. Jacobson, who expects to return here to visit friends before long, tells a very interesting story. While still teaching here, Mrs. Jacobson says her husband received an offer from the Communist party, with which he had been associated, to go abroad. According to the proposition offered him, he was to study and do mathematical research, and "on the side," make observations for the Communists. The Jacobsons first went to Berlin and were quickly transferred to Helsinki, Finland. While there, Mr. Jacobson learned the real nature of his work—spying and espionage—and asked to be released. Communist officials promised to grant his request. Mrs. Jacobson continued, while studying at the university, he took children. These three points were deciding factors of judges. The judges were Arthur Dandaneau of the Board of Education, Dr. Agnes Tilton, Merrill Palmer school, and Miss Marie Rossy of the Parental Advisory board.

Another project which received honorable mention and which was viewed by 25,000 people in The Traveling Toy exhibit, was made under direction of Miss Margaret Reagan. Mrs. Sarah Halsey, Mrs. Clara Sharpe, Mrs. Reagan, Miss Douglas, and Mrs. Pearl went in to receive the prize Saturday evening.

Starting with a program this evening, the Children of the Wayne County Training School began a week's Christmas celebration.

Tonight, a playlet with forty characters, "The Rag Doll's Christmas Eve" will be given along with a Christmas operetta, "The Toy-maker". Both of these will be repeated Sunday afternoon. A group of caroles will go from cottage to cottage on Christmas eve, and on Christmas day, each group will have its own Christmas and there will be a present for every child. Tuesday, December 26, the youngsters will have competitive games in the gymnasium, and on Wednesday the older boys and girls will hold a reception for Superintendent and Mrs. Robert H. Haskell. The celebration will end on Sunday, Dec. 31, with a special pageant.

NORTHVILLE BAND GIVES SERENADE FOR LANGFIELD AND LYKE

Members of the Northville Community School band serenaded E. C. Langfield at his home on Rogers street Tuesday evening, and later stopped at the home of Fred W. Lyke.

Mr. Langfield, the founder of the band, heard a fine rendition of several Christmas carols which about 35 members of the band gathered outside his home Tuesday and played for him. He gave them refreshments. Later the band stopped at the home of Fred W. Lyke, manager of the group and rendered several selections.

The members were taken from place to place in a truck and before returning home they gave impromptu concerts at several homes throughout the village.

"THESE 30 YEARS" TO BE SHOWN THURSDAY, DEC. 28

"These Thirty Years," a new talking picture produced by the Ford Motor company, is to be shown at the Penman-Allen theatre Thursday afternoon and evening, Dec. 28. Complimentary tickets are being distributed by the Ford Motor Sales under whose auspices the local showings are being held.

The picture shows the development of the automobile and has an interesting plot which gave it a high rating.

A Merry Christmas

Another Christmas has rolled round. Once again folks are bustling about with mysterious bundles. Again families are gathering "round the Christmas fireside" to warm their love.
And so we join in the friendly good cheer, wishing you all a Merry Christmas!

The Northville
Record

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD

Established 1889

Published every Friday morning and entered at the Northville, Michigan post office as second-class matter

The Oldest Paper in Wayne County Outside the City of Detroit

Richard T. Baldwin—Editor and Publisher

A newspaper devoted to the welfare of the community in which it is published

Telephone 200

Subscription Rates: Per Year $1.50 6 Months 75c 3 Months 40c

Member Metropolitan Group of Michigan Newspapers; The National Editorial Association, The University of Michigan Press Club and the Michigan Press Association

National Advertising Representatives—American Press Association

ERNEST E. MILLER

Ernest E. Miller called across the street to the writer a friendly greeting just the day before he was so suddenly called to Eternity last Saturday. It was such little acts of kindness, scattered through the days, months and years, that made him beloved to so many hundreds of friends.

Northville will greatly miss this kindly, sympathetic and substantial citizen. Every activity of community interest has felt the touch of his personality and of his dependable character. His contribution to the whole community will be long remembered. A friend who had worked with him on various boards said this: "Ernest always wanted everything done exactly right and was not content until that was done. And yet he was always very friendly and fine about it."

The sudden passing of such a valuable citizen, cut short in the prime of life, is baffling to the human mind but his family and friends have the priceless legacy that he lived well in all the years given to him.

BRIGHT SPOTS IN THE NEWS

There are a lot of cheering signs on the horizon. For example:

Freight loadings are up.

Advertising throughout the country is picking up.

Many men are being put to work by their former employers.

The Northville Ford plant will soon be employing 25 people.

The steel and iron market have been stronger. This means a greater feeling of confidence throughout the country.

Building programs are reported from many places. New homes and other structures are going to be built. Rumors persist that the government has plans to help finance building on a big scale.

Four million of men have been put to work by the C. W. R. That means a tremendous amount of money in circulation. We can see here in little Northville what it has meant to have our unemployed put to work and actually drawing pay checks—some for the first time in months and months.

DO WE CARE ABOUT THE CHURCHES?

A keen writer in The Dearborn Press says: "Have you ever heard of a church being asked to administer the Welfare department in a humane and Christian way? No, you haven't, for Dearborn is a pagan town and for all practical purposes it doesn't know that the churches are here and doesn't care."

There is something to think about. If Dearborn has "pagan" aspects, so does every other town. We have mentioned in this column that Northville has its "pagan" attitude toward the churches. There are people who will accept all the benefits of the churches and yet never turn a finger toward helping them. There is a small group that will not accept the teaching of the church because of intellectual differences but in the main the "pagans" that the Dearborn writer means, I imagine, are the indifferent, selfish persons who think wholly in terms of self and are perfectly willing to let others maintain the churches of the community.

Could there be any connection between the breakdown of our social system, with the widespread graft, dishonesty and indecency and the fact, as the Dearborn writer points out, that there are many "who don't know the churches are here and don't care?"

A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS TO YOU ALL!

To everyone who knows the name of Northville and its people, we wish "A Very Merry Christmas."

To you all we wish health, happiness, some measure of prosperity; the blessing of a loyal family and trusted friends; the comfort of spiritual ideals that survive all the destruction of time; yes to you all we wish strength in the hardships, great and small, that have been and will be yours—no true man or woman wants life all "on silver platter."

Above all we would wish for you at Christmas time and all the rest of the year, this greatest of all things: content of your own heart and mind (wherever content resides in this physical frame of ours). The Good Book tells that the "Kingdom of God is within you" and if we are a preacher we should some Sunday morning preach a sermon on that. It would be as food to the starving hearts of people who need the comfort of the inner springs of peace that money cannot buy.

At this Christmas of 1933 we would wish you love—the kind of love that is spoken of in the thirteenth chapter of First Corinthians. We would wish for you to have love for your family, your friends, your town, your neighbors—even love for those who treat you slightly. We would wish for you to love the world and the people who are the most of it. We would wish for you to love the Christmas spirit of and to do good to all within the reach of his influence. Life is just too short to be filling any of it with a spirit of unkindness, pettiness or sordid ambition. If we love the folks around us, respect our own personality and try to get away from selfishness, we shall find Christmas a wonderful, life-giving spring.

"Merry Christmas to you all." From Maine to California, from Canada to the orange blossoms of Florida, may it be for all of you the best Christmas you ever had! As we said last year and the year before that, and hope to say next Christmas, in Dickens' immortal words: "And so, as Tiny Tim observed, God Bless Us, Every One."

GREETINGS TO THE VILLAGE COUNCIL

We wish a very "Merry Christmas" to the village officials of Northville. They are doing their very best to serve their community—and we all know how thankless is their task. They are capable, experienced men in whom we have faith. We thank them for their communication to the editor of The Record regarding the water situation. This is the Christmas season—a time for sincere good will—and we think, after all is said and done, that the commission and this newspaper are not so very far apart on the water issue, after all. We respect the stand of the officials and they respect ours. In the publication of a newspaper that covers as many interests and opinions as does The Northville Record, it could hardly be expected that we should think alike all the time—may we all be saved from being "Yes men." Good newspapers have to "give and take" and so do good village officials.

One thing is sure: We are all for a better Northville. As far as the water is concerned, the only axe to grind that this newspaper has, is the good of the people of the community. We hope that the great majority of those who have known us now for nearly three years will concede this. In our discussion of the water question we have only one thought in mind: We are in a large measure one of the guardians of the community interest and certainly we should have been zealous to our duty, did we not do all in our power to help provide the best possible water supply for our homes, our fathers and mothers, our boys and girls. We have wanted to come with clean hands in case the water supply should ever bring any measure of harm to our people. We know that the village officials are moved by exactly the same spirit of responsibility to their community. So we say, as we said above, we stand on common ground, shoulder to shoulder, moving forward for a better Northville.

Therefore, we say sincerely to the mayor, the members of the commission and all the other officials, "A Very Merry Christmas" and we know that they all wish the same sentiment to the home newspaper, which needs and hopes to merit the common loyalty of all.

WANDERING THOUGHTS

Have you helped the village officials' fund to get toys for the children who otherwise would go without? Your quarter will be appreciated.

Northville appreciates what the county road commission has done for us. The River Rouge parkway system when put into general use will thrill people with its unusual charm and beauty. It will become one of the most delightful scenic drives in the whole United States.

J. M. Hall, who left Sunday for Florida, bought us a couple of samples of the sand found down in that country. The Daytona Beach kind was as fine as salt and pure white—it looks like snow in the moonlight, says Mr. Hall—while the other sample looked like coarse chicken feed. Mr. Hall uses his winters in Florida to learn a whole lot of things—he is even "up" on the facts and figures about the automobile speed records made on the Daytona hard packed sands.

A lot of folks are wondering how the United States is going to pay back the billions that are being used for the various improvement projects. Well, we can pay it back if we get back our old time income. In 1928 and 1929 the national income was 80 billion dollars for each year. In 1932 it was cut just in half—to 40 billions. If the PWA, CWA, and all the rest of the plans can bring back the national income anywhere near the 1928-29 level, we need not worry about paying the billions that are now being spent.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

Have you ready that Christmas cheer for someone, to whom Christmas day will be slim, unless you help?

The Eighty-first Semi-Annual Dividend will be mailed on December Twentieth, as usual

Never a miss in Forty years

Standard Savings & Loan Association

Griswold at Jefferson Detroit, Michigan

MISS ALICE SAFFORD

Local Representative

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

AND HE NEVER FAILS

(LaGrange, Ind. Standard) The only real friend you can buy is a dog.

GOVERNORS TO MEET

(Mad. H. DePoe in Charlotte Republican-Tribune)

Now it is told that former Governors Bricker, Green and Grosbeck are to meet shortly after the first of the year and decide who is to lead Michigan republicans in the next campaign. Why not ask Governor Osborn and advertise it a meeting of the four major prophets?

WETS FACE TROUBLE

(Dearborn Press)

The "harmless beef garden" seems to be coming in for considerable attention of a not very flattering kind. They tell me that the demand for a policeman in Dearborn grows out of the increase of juvenile delinquency consequent upon the "open beer gardens." Young girls take this means of getting their first fling at 5-cent night life, with the result that even the police think something should be done about it. The whole "wet" situation seems to be heading for a worse debacle than ever prohibition could have staged. I have always said that there is something wrong with the kind of brains that head up the "wet" forces. If they had ever had any brains we would never have had prohibition. And now that prohibition has gone and the "wet" prophecies are proving just as untrue as the "dry" prophecies were, the same old type of "wet" leadership seems to obtain. There isn't a city or county or state in the country that has a grip on the situation.

EDUCATION FOR SERVICE

(Searchlights in Galesburg Argus)

The age of entering employment is rising. The time has passed when a twelve or fourteen year old boy could step out of school and into a job.

There is practically no employment outside agriculture in this state for persons under sixteen years of age, and the number of employed persons under eighteen years of age is small. This means that the percentage of school attendance is high, and as a consequence our high school enrollment is increasing. Eighty-five per cent of our boys and girls leave school at the end of their high school course or before, and these young people seek an education to fit them to earn a living. A knowledge of the dates of the reign of Henry the Eighth, the ability to translate Latin into passable English or to prove the Pythagorean theorem, have slight worth in helping Bill Jones, the eldest of six children, to find a job or in helping Mary Brown to make a success of a recent adventure into matrimony.

THE DUSTY CORNER

by Alec Milne

This accompanying letter is a copy of one that is being sent out by someone in this state.

Dear Uncle Erner: I am having a fine time here at school, but wish that it was time to come home so that I could see you. It will soon be Xmas' you know (Monday, Dec. 25) and I am anxious to see you. Xmas is a fine day to be home don't you think?

This letter is being written to you on a borrowed typewriter, still Xmas is only a few days off and I may get one. Xmas is Monday. I would like a portable.

Lots of fellows here have nice racoon coats, you know, like that one

HAPPY CHRISTMAS TO YOU!

Our mutual business associations have been friendly and profitable. Many thanks and may the holiday season hold good cheer and luck for you you have. It will be a great thing to wear to our house on the 25th when you come, but maybe someone will give me one. What size is yours?

ELY'S Coal & Ice

136 N. Center Phone 191

Some of the fellows were asking me if I had any relatives I liked and I told them I thought you were about the best one I had. The one who asked me is a nice fellow who lives in Ohio, and he asked me if I would like to come down to his house for spring vacation. I told him that I thought it would be great fun but that I couldn't afford it; the tickets are $7.00.

Two weeks after we get back from Xmas vacation our frat is throwing a dance at the Silver Glen country club, the entire party will cost us about 25 bucks apiece. I think that a fellow should take in those things if it is humanly possible, don't you? Of course I can't think of going because it is too much to ask Dad for, and I should really stay in and study all next term. Oh yes, you were president of the frat once weren't you? All of the fellows say their dads all have told them what a swell guy you were. The party will be fine, remind me to tell you more about it Monday when you are at our house for Xmas.

As I sit here writing to you on this the 19th day of December, only six days until Xmas, I am wearing my roommate's lounging robe. It is a light blue and that is just the color I like. Do you think we will have snow Xmas?

There is little activity in the house tonight, and it seems like a morgue, if we only had a radio. You see we did have a fine radio but the fellow who owned it had to hook it last week to get enough money together to take his girl to the Fresh Hop. One of the frat brothers said that some of the old members should give us one and that it was a shame that a fraternity like ours should go without.

WE EXTEND TO YOU

Christmas Good Wishes

FROM THE LLOYD MORSE DAIRY

136 N. Center Phone 492

Penniman Allen Theatres

NORTHVILLE, MICHIGAN

Children 10c Saturday, December 23 Adults 25c

Ken Maynard IN

"King of the Arena"

A sizzling Western cram-jam full of fast fighting, straight-shooting, hard riding and the sort of romance that makes you tingle all over. NEWS COMEDY

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 27

Children 10c Everybody's Favorite Adults 15c

SLIM SUMMERVILLE and ANDY DEVINE

IN

"Horseplay"

Slim and Andy sell a radium mine for a million and go out to mix with the blue bloods! It's the hottest, balmiest, farce ever filmed. NEWS COMEDY

Friday and Saturday, Dec. 29-30

PAUL MUNI

IN

"The World Changes"

COMEDY NEWS

12,000 PAID FOR THE HUNTER FARM (From The South Lyon Herald)

Many improvements and alterations are being made to the buildings on the old L. R. Hunter farm, north of South Lyon, which farm, comprising 480 acres, has been sold by Mrs. Julia Hunter of New Hudson to Howard Blood, a prominent Detroit, who has also purchased the Hubert Hill farm of 96 acres, which land adjoins the Hunter farm. Mr. Blood is putting considerable money into improving the residence on the Hunter farm, and with his family plans to occupy it as a summer home. The Hunter farm, which sold for $21,000, came into possession of the Hunter family in the year 1879 when it was purchased by Rollin C. Hunter, father of the late L. R. Hunter. The latter had been one of the most successful farmers in this section of the state, until poor health forced him to retire in 1925. He went to Ann Arbor to reside, and died in 1928. Mr. and Mrs. Blood, have four children, one being a student in the University of Michigan, and we are told one is in school in Massachusetts, and two in private schools in Detroit. Mrs. Blood is a cousin of Mrs. Sidney Smith of this locality.

WISHING YOU ALL A MERRY CHRISTMAS Children! FREE Candy and Suckers As Long As They Last Friday and Saturday Phone 30 Redford Lumber Company Northville Branch LUMBER — BUILDING SUPPLIES — COAL

A DOLLAR'S WORTH THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR

Advertisement for Penniman Allen Theatres featuring 'King of the Arena', 'Horseplay', and 'The World Changes'.

The Orange and Black

Edited by the Northville High School Journalism Class

NORTHVILLE VICTOR OVER BERKLEY 24-18

Second Team Also Wins From Opponents; Score 27 to 14

The second set of basketball games took place last Friday, December 14, at Berkley. Both the first and the second teams were victorious. The varsity beat its opposing five by a score of 24 to 18. The second team showed its opponents under by thirteen points, the score being 27 to 14.

In the second team game the boys played swiftly and surely, and at no time did Berkley threaten to overcome them. Duguid secured the honor of being the high-point man; he had eleven points. Following him came Lyke and McLoughlin with four points each, Bray and Myers with three points each, and Bender with two. These fellows seem to have an indomitable spirit and play as though they really enjoyed it.

The first quarter of the regular game favored Northville. Her offense was good and her defense baffling. Westphall made the first basket, Baldwin the second, Deal the third, and Hoffman the fourth, while Bell of Berkley gained four points. Score at end of the first quarter, Northville 8, Berkley 4.

In the next period the Orange and Black defense was somewhat broken through when Bell kept getting the ball to Weyecrer. That and the long shots that the Berkley men found they must chance, rather than Northville for a while. Puvogel, Bell, and Morehead made a basket apiece for their school. Baldwin alone managed to get two points for N. H. S. A low rod hanging from the ceiling proved to be a nuisance. It spoiled several good shots. Score at the end of this second period, Northville 10, Berkley 10.

The third quarter opened with quite a lot of action. Bell fouled Hoffman, giving him two free throws, which he made good. Marburger fouled twice, but redeemed himself by sinking a long shot. In the meantime, Bell had made a count, and Puvogel and Bell had two successful free shots, all of which gave Berkley six points. Baldwin executed a clever play by taking the ball from Bell's hands and dropping it through the basket. Berkley was putting low passes through our defense. Score at end of third quarter, Northville 16, Berkley 16.

In the fourth period Westphall made a free try. Deal, after some maneuvering, sank a tricky shot. Marburger, while shooting, was fouled and given two free throws; both counted. Wright tier, made a shot and Deal came back with one for his team. Score at the end of game, Northville 24, Berkley 18.

Berkley
 Line-up: P. Puvogel, F. Wright, C. Weyecrer, G. Morehead, G. Bell
 Substitutes: Bray and Myers.

Office Practice Beneficial to Stenographers
 (By Hazel B. Yerkes)

The system used in the Board of Education office, whereby the girls who take commercial work get some actual experience in office work, is proving to be very beneficial. While the girls are prepared to do stenographic work, and do it well in class, they need some office experience to give them confidence.

The schedule is so arranged that a commercial student is in the office one period a day and during that time she learns the many duties required in general office work. The operation of the switchboard is one of the first requirements, and to some of the girls it seems to be the hardest. The first week or two of each semester is spent assuring the girls that while the switchboard may roar like a hungry lion, it really will not bite. Nevertheless, by the time the proper connection is made, the girls are often speechless. Do I hear any of the older brothers asking for a switchboard for Christmas? Don't, because this is not guaranteed to be permanent.

A great deal of duplicating is done in this office, and the girls are taught to use the duplicator properly and efficiently. Since it has been necessary to economize in every possible way, many of the teachers have class room work prepared on the duplicator, thus saving the cost of books, which both the students and parents appreciate. Last year Mrs. Eaton and her kindergarten edited "The Kindergarten News," which was "printed" on the duplicator. This required skill as a drawing made by one of the children had to be transferred. This type of work seemed to lean toward the modern art and only the title saved many of the pictures from being shown upside down. However, I imagine it was one of the most popular newspapers in the country, and is probably still treasured by many of the mothers.

In addition to this the girls take dictation, write letters, take telephone messages in a business-like way, make engagements, learn to do filing and to use the adding machine. Students who come from Mrs. Taylor's department are exceptional. They will be trained, and she is to be complimented upon the high standards required. And to the girls praise is also due, for they are ambitious, loyal, and dependable. If they are a fair example of the "younger generation," the pessimists will have to find another subject for their pens.

Grade Notes

Each room in the grade school has a Christmas tree and most of them are having a gift party today.

In Miss Annie Richards' kindergarten, the children are making their own decorations for their Christmas tree. They are also making clever presents for Daddy and Mother. The following members of the kindergarten have been neither absent nor tardy for the last three months: June Bally, Ann Davis, Clayton Graham, Martin O'Neal, Helen Toma, Irene Bedore, Duane Briggs, and Byron Hoester.

The first grade, under the instruction of Miss Selma Jarvis, has trimmed its tree with decorations which the pupils have made themselves.

Mrs. Babbitt's fourth grade pupils are making presents for their parents.

Mrs. Congo's third grade has just finished some very lovely Christmas cards.

Holiday posters were made by students in Miss Ellen Reinecke's fifth grade.

Miss Dorcas Corrie's third grade class has completed its Christmas preparations and is ready for a big Christmas party today.

The seventh and eighth graders are preparing two plays which they expect to give for the entertainment of patients at the Maybury sanatorium. The eighth graders had a spell-down in general science last week. Keene Bolton was the winner in the first class, and Cornelius Whitehead was runner-up. In the other section Kelti Fogate claimed the honor of being victor, and Constance Burgess was the last student to miss. The seventh and eighth graders are to have a Christmas party and program today.

College Students Have a Fine Time Visiting School

Though the Northville high school was in session during the past week, many college students were enjoying their vacation. Several, especially members of last year's graduating class, visited the school.

Among those seen "haunting" their former class rooms were Miss Wilma Rattenbury, Miss Charlotte Lesse, Robert Cousins and Warner Neal, all of whom are attending the University of Michigan, and Richard Shipley, Robert Christensen, John Steenken, and Melvin Sterner from the Ypsilanti Normal college.

The "old grads" wandered around the building, looking at the old desks and benches, and the old blackboards.

EDITORIAL STAFF

Editor: Peggy Blake
Assistant Editor: Alice Boelens
Faculty Advisor: Leslie G. Lee

Reporters:
 Catherine Duguid
 Betty Randall
 Frances McLoughlin
 Florence Johnson
 Violet Booth

Editors:
 Frances Alexander
 Ida Altman
 Mary Harper
 Evelyn Amber
 Evelyne Stamann

Editor: Eleanor Booth
Assistant Editor: Donald Ferguson
Faculty Advisor: Wayne Scheller
 Helen Johnson

'ROUND THE SCHOOL

Wanted: A Topic

Finding something new or different to bother you with each week is rapidly becoming a task. It wasn't so difficult to discover material at the beginning of the year, but now we are in a quandary. Current events are out for our eminent superior, Richard T. Baldwin, has them well in hand. "Miss 19" covers the social events of the city's younger set, and we would never, never intrude on her rights. "Ad" and "Age" well, we'll skip them. You all know what they write, and far be it from us to delve into anything as deep as the subjects which they select. Mrs. Baldwin keeps the home-owners pacified, and we couldn't do that. The feature writers supply you with comedy (we hope), the inquiring reporter conveys to you the opinions of some of the intellects of the high school, the teachers tell you about the behavior of your off-springs, and the "Did You Notice?" dishes the dirt.

We ask you, what chance has one against twenty?

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

Question: How would you spend your Christmas vacation if you could do anything you wanted to do?

Bill Eaton: It was good weather, I'd improve my skiing. In my spare moments I'd study. Oh yeah, Helen Christensen: I'd sleep 'til noon, and would I sleep! I'd try and give my laugh a rest.

William Puvogel: I'd like to go on a trip—far, far, away, and the further away the better. Then I'd like to go to a New Year's party and celebrate.

Mrs. W. Taylor: I'd like to have a real spiffy dinner party to pay back all my obligations.

Helen Johnson: I'd like to go to Detroit for the week and make a round of all the theatres and see all the good shows I've missed and want to see.

Marion Turnbull: I would like to attend an opera or two, and be backstage during the production of a musical comedy.

Gertrude Deal: I'd want to buy a good horse and outfit and ride all week.

Winifred McCardle: I'd like to be able to take two of my pals and go hiking wherever we wanted for the week, wearing our oldest clothes.

Mr. L. G. Lee: I think I'd rest for the first few days and I'd like to have a real good book to read to while away my time. Then I'd like to have the opportunity to hear some of the really good artists or two or three fine concerts.

Peggy Blake: I would like to fulfill my greatest desire to meet Greta Garbo.

Jane Lester: I'd sit by the fireplace, eat apples and read books. How I long to be away from the cares of the world!

COMMERCIAL NOTES

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

Buildings and Grounds Will Be Rejuvenated As A Result of Work

The Civil Works program is not only helping the nation as a whole by putting men to work and money in circulation, but it is specifically making many improvements in Northville. The school especially, is being benefited.

With the village getting $20,000 in a CWA grant, a part of it, approximately $6,500, has been allocated to the school, and for the past two weeks over thirty men have been at work improving both the buildings and grounds. The work at the school is in charge of Thomas Moss. An important part of it is the grading of the school play grounds at the rear of the school, which have an eight foot drop. As a result of this, heavy rains have in the past cut deep holes in the playground. This playground is also being re-graveled and terraced. The walk in front of the school is also being raised so as to be above the curb, and the front lawn is being regraded so as to fit the walk. The badly dilapidated cement driveway is being reconditioned, thus making it much better to drive over.

The building program includes the painting and decorating of eight class rooms, two hallways, and three lavatories in the high school building and the installing of new stairs in the grade school. It was also thought that a CWA carpenter might make another locker for the high school. An addition to the grade school basement will be made by excavating under the new room which projects out at the north.

The Northville schools have been badly in need of these repairs and officials consider it fortunate that they can be supplied by the CWA.

The work has been going on rapidly and smoothly, not interfering in the least with the school routine.

Both student and faculty officials appear very pleased with the work. All are agreed that the work will improve the school to such an extent that it will compare very favorably with any other of its size.

This federally supervised work, paying laborers 50 cents an hour, is also going on at the Maybury sanatorium, Cass Benton Park, and in other parts of the village.

peared to enjoy themselves greatly. They were unanimous in saying that they wished they were back, and all said they thought the school had gotten along fairly well without them.

VACATION TO LAST UNTIL JANUARY 2

Christmas vacation for the Northville schools begins this afternoon (Friday) and will last until Tuesday, January 2. There will be no edition of the Orange and Black during the vacation week, the next issue appearing Friday, January 5.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

Question: How would you spend your Christmas vacation if you could do anything you wanted to do?

Bill Eaton: It was good weather, I'd improve my skiing. In my spare moments I'd study. Oh yeah, Helen Christensen: I'd sleep 'til noon, and would I sleep! I'd try and give my laugh a rest.

William Puvogel: I'd like to go on a trip—far, far, away, and the further away the better. Then I'd like to go to a New Year's party and celebrate.

Mrs. W. Taylor: I'd like to have a real spiffy dinner party to pay back all my obligations.

Helen Johnson: I'd like to go to Detroit for the week and make a round of all the theatres and see all the good shows I've missed and want to see.

Marion Turnbull: I would like to attend an opera or two, and be backstage during the production of a musical comedy.

Gertrude Deal: I'd want to buy a good horse and outfit and ride all week.

Winifred McCardle: I'd like to be able to take two of my pals and go hiking wherever we wanted for the week, wearing our oldest clothes.

Mr. L. G. Lee: I think I'd rest for the first few days and I'd like to have a real good book to read to while away my time. Then I'd like to have the opportunity to hear some of the really good artists or two or three fine concerts.

Peggy Blake: I would like to fulfill my greatest desire to meet Greta Garbo.

Jane Lester: I'd sit by the fireplace, eat apples and read books. How I long to be away from the cares of the world!

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

CULPRIT CURED BY TENTH HOUR

(By Ida Altman)

If one talks or does anything he isn't supposed to do—the tenth period for him. Have you ever stayed the tenth period? How did you feel? I'm writing this during one of those hours.

In the first place you are angry because you have to stay, but you know all the time you deserve to be there. You enter this place and find yourself surrounded by lots of gullible faces, and then, in absolute disgust, you throw your books on the desk. Just a little extra hard because maybe some people are hard of hearing. The person in charge gives you a look that reminds you that you have a conscience.

Five minutes, ten minutes, you have bowed your head over this boring book, but thinking "about the snow outside" and the picture which hangs crooked on the wall, and words of all your sizzack. Thus are the thoughts of a criminal. Twenty minutes—curses on that teacher who caused all this torture. Basketball practice would be just about starting now. Twenty-five, thirty minutes, and you see yourself making baskets after basket. Thirty-five minutes, time is going a little faster, and the teacher gives you an encouraging look because you have been supposedly studying for five whole minutes. Forty minutes—I guess this would cure anyone. The first bell rings; you begin to see the better side of the world. It was the teacher's duty after all—you committed the crime. The teacher in charge was trying to reform you—and she did. No, you certainly wouldn't disobey any more study hall rules. Now tell me practice what you preach and I'll tell you you're right.

FARMINGTON HERE TONIGHT IN CAGE TILT

First Home League Contest Will Determine Status Of Local Team

The Northville high school court squad, fresh from its victory over Berkley last week, will take on the Farmington cagers in the local gymnasium tonight (Friday), December 22, in the first home league game of the season. The second team will commence play at 7:15 p. m. and the varsity game will follow immediately.

This game, Coach Watts says, will determine whether or not Northville really has a winning combination. In their other two victories over the Alumni and Berkley, he stated, the team was lucky. The boys showed flashes of good form, but for the most part a smooth playing combination was lacking. For some reason or other, the coach continued, the players did not seem to function. Mr. Watts believed that a certain amount of this has been ironed out during the grueling practices of the week, but declined to say how he really thought they would perform.

The opinion around town seems to be that Northville has championship material and it is expected that a large crowd will turn out to watch the boys in their initial home league game. Single admission charges are 15 cents for students, and 25 cents for adults. Season tickets are still on sale at 40 cents and 20 cents respectively.

As the Orange and Black went to press it was supposed that Captain Paul Baldwin, who has been in bed during the week with a severe cold and cough, may not be able to play tonight. Hoffman also may be out with an injured leg muscle. With these exceptions the same starting line-up as last week was slated to start tonight's tilt.

The team is in good spirits, if anything over confident and while members did not anticipate an easy victory, several stated that they thought Northville had better than an even chance.

This is the last N. H. S. game for 1933. The next contest is at Trenton, January 5. The next home game is with Melvindale on January 12, and Northville has a return game with Farmington February 2.

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

Both High School and Grades Have Yuletide Programs

This being the last week before Christmas, many Yuletide programs were given in the school. In all of the grades, a party was held, and a program was presented on Friday.

Miss Helen Leonardson in the first grade had her pupils bring a little lunch at noon, and celebrated during the noon hour, exchanging her charges early in the afternoon. In the kindergarten, Miss Annie Richards-enticed Santa Claus to make a special visit.

As the Orange and Black went to press, it was believed that the high school would have a Christmas program in the form of a play Friday afternoon. Nothing could be learned for certain. The junior high, under Mrs. Ida E. Cooke, held an appropriate entertainment Friday.

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the end of the semester.

Every Tuesday the typing classes have an Office Test. Each student is given a letter from which he makes as many perfect copies as he can in thirty minutes. His work entitles him to fall into one of these groups:

Promoted to a Higher Position.
 Given a Raise.
 Given Another Chance to Improve, or Fired.
 Was S. L.'s face red last week—he was fired!

In Office Practice class this week the girls will be entertained by a short dramatization of "The Correct and Incorrect Way to Make a Personal Application," given by Jane Lester, Alice Boelens, Helen Zayt, and Evelyn Kimmel.

The Bookkeeping class is no more—it is now a group of individual bookkeepers for H. W. Good, a retail merchant who is employing each one for two months—on approval. It is doubtful if some will last that long as there is some cash missing, some receipts not accounted for, and oh, those check book balances.

Commercial Notes

Betty Randall, Deella McInosh, and Ernestine Grace have had extensions put on their accuracy graphs as they are typing beyond 31 words per minute, which is the average for the

May the happiest of Christmas seasons be yours and may your stockings be filled to the point of overflowing.

John McCully "Shoes For All The Family" Northville, Mich.

Let us assist you in your Holiday entertainment by serving you the best roast turkey or fried chicken dinner you ever sat down to.

COMPLETE DINNER 60c

Dinner Will Be Served Xmas Day—12:00 to 4:30 p. m.

THE ROYAL ANN CAFE E. MAIN ST. F. A. FRY, PROP.

Yuletide Cheer 1933

We wish all of our friends and customers a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

D & C STORE Northville, Mich.

ELECTRIC GIFTS

For Every Member of the Family

Radio Sets $22.50 up

ELECTRIC RANGES $79.50 and up

Automatic Toasters, $5.50 to $10.75

Turnover Toasters, $1.50 to $4.95

Adjustable Flat Irons, $3.95 to $7.95

Percolators, $2.89 to $23.50

Table Top Ironer, $59.50

Apartment Washer, $22.50

Westinghouse and Maytag Washers $49.50 to $120.00

Automatic Electric Bridge Table

Regular $25.00 - $19.50

Heating Pads, $3.50 and $4.95

Curlers, $1.00 and $2.75

Christmas Tree Strings, 39c and up.

Flashlights, 49c to $2.25.

Westinghouse Electrical Gifts... keep the Christmas Spirit glowing through the years

As gifts, Westinghouse Electrical Appliances do far more than give a few hours or even a few weeks of pleasure. They carry your best wishes into every day of the year - give new comfort, convenience and joy to all who receive them.

Whether you wish to spend much or little, you'll find just the thing in the interesting selection of Westinghouse electrical gifts that we are now offering.

Westinghouse Electrical Appliances Keep the Christmas Spirit glowing through the year

TERMS Can Be Arranged

NORTHVILLE

Northville Electric Shop Clifford Turnbull, Prop.

Phone 184-J

Walled Lake News

Mrs. Earl Parris was in Pontiac on business Monday. Mrs. Elmer McQuern has been ill for the past week. Mrs. E. V. Mercer is confined to bed at home with a cold. Miss Pauline Jenkins has returned to school after her recent illness. Arthur Wintner and Fred Boyer have returned from a very successful hunting trip. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Buffmyer entertained a number of friends and neighbors Saturday night. Mrs. Maynard Post and Mrs. Mae Rhoades went to Detroit shopping Monday. Miss Dorothy Woodworth is staying at the Cameron Rose home during the Christmas season. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shepard had Sunday dinner with relatives in Pontiac. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Carnes and Darlene Beckman visited Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wither on Sunday evening. Bill Roy and Glenn Mercer, Geo. Goodrich, Jr., and Miss Virginia Smith went to Pontiac, Monday. The P. T. A. are planning to present a three-act play sometime in February. Eleanor DeGroot has returned to school after having been out because of an operation for appendicitis. The faculty pleasantly surprised Morton Bradley with a song fest Tuesday evening. The next basketball game will be with Milford on January 12, in the home gym. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Cameron and Mrs. F. E. Tucker were guests at the Hutton home on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shepard and Miss Wanda Curran were guests at the Fraser home in Northville Thursday evening. A number of young people were entertained at the Stoffel home Saturday night in honor of their daughter, Harriet. The Walled Lake high school debating team lost their debate with the St. Ambrose high school team in Detroit last Friday afternoon. The elementary grades of the school will have their Christmas program on Friday afternoon at 1:30. The annual faculty and board members' Christmas party was held at the school house Wednesday night. A group of ladies pleasantly surprised Mrs. Mae Rhoades on Saturday afternoon for a farewell bridge and dinner party. Mrs. Minnie Hutton has returned to her home here after a three-week visit with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Cameron of Detroit. Arthur Wanner took the bait that he liked, while on his hunting trip, up to school Monday so that the boys and girls might see it. The CWA workers will remove the gym floor during the Christmas holidays. Mr. Taylor stated today that they were not sure how soon the new floor could be laid. The Methodist Christmas party for the children will be held at the Church Friday evening. Miss Ruth Bradley and Miss Dorothy Russell will have charge of the program. The Home Economics club which have as their president, Etta Gieger, and faculty advisor, Miss Futh-Bills, had their Christmas party at the Gieger home on Tuesday evening. The faculty heard an address at Pontiac Thursday evening by Norman Haggood on current world problems. The address was in connection with the county institute program. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tripp, Mrs. Paul McKibben, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hutton attended a concert given by the Normal Choir under the direction of Prof. Alexander at Ypsilanti, Thursday night. Mrs. Mae Rhoades and Mr. and Mrs. Amos Bentler are leaving for St. Petersburg, Florida, on Thursday. They expect to spend the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bentley and family there. Mrs. Rhoades will stay until spring. Charles Hutton appeared as guest soloist at the Detroit City college on Sunday and Tuesday at Plymouth on Sunday evening, and as guest of the Birmingham Thursday Musical at Christ Church at Cranbrook on Tuesday evening. He has also sung for the children at the Methodist Children's Home, for the Clarkson Woman's club and at the St. James Episcopal church in Birmingham this week. Football Squad Honored The banquet that the Hi-Y boys and the Walled Lake business men gave the football team on Wednesday evening was a great success. The program was as follows: Chairman, George Goodrich, Sr.; invocation, Rev. E. L. Carless, pastor; Bill Mercer, piano solo; Geo. Goodrich, Jr., welcome; William H. Taylor, Supt. of School; response, Francis Theobald; review of season, Ralph Buffmyer; forecast, Harold W. Hirsch, coach; music, Don Patterson and Irving Hanson; speaker, C. J. Kippel of Cranbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Cameron and Mrs. F. E. Tucker were guests at the Hutton home on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shepard and Miss Wanda Curran were guests at the Fraser home in Northville Thursday evening.

A number of young people were entertained at the Stoffel home Saturday night in honor of their daughter, Harriet. The Walled Lake high school debating team lost their debate with the St. Ambrose high school team in Detroit last Friday afternoon.

The elementary grades of the school will have their Christmas program on Friday afternoon at 1:30. The annual faculty and board members' Christmas party was held at the school house Wednesday night.

A group of ladies pleasantly surprised Mrs. Mae Rhoades on Saturday afternoon for a farewell bridge and dinner party. Mrs. Minnie Hutton has returned to her home here after a three-week visit with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Cameron of Detroit.

Arthur Wanner took the bait that he liked, while on his hunting trip, up to school Monday so that the boys and girls might see it.

The CWA workers will remove the gym floor during the Christmas holidays. Mr. Taylor stated today that they were not sure how soon the new floor could be laid.

The Methodist Christmas party for the children will be held at the Church Friday evening. Miss Ruth Bradley and Miss Dorothy Russell will have charge of the program.

The Home Economics club which have as their president, Etta Gieger, and faculty advisor, Miss Futh-Bills, had their Christmas party at the Gieger home on Tuesday evening.

The faculty heard an address at Pontiac Thursday evening by Norman Haggood on current world problems. The address was in connection with the county institute program.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tripp, Mrs. Paul McKibben, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hutton attended a concert given by the Normal Choir under the direction of Prof. Alexander at Ypsilanti, Thursday night.

Mrs. Mae Rhoades and Mr. and Mrs. Amos Bentler are leaving for St. Petersburg, Florida, on Thursday. They expect to spend the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bentley and family there.

Mrs. Rhoades will stay until spring. Charles Hutton appeared as guest soloist at the Detroit City college on Sunday and Tuesday at Plymouth on Sunday evening, and as guest of the Birmingham Thursday Musical at Christ Church at Cranbrook on Tuesday evening.

He has also sung for the children at the Methodist Children's Home, for the Clarkson Woman's club and at the St. James Episcopal church in Birmingham this week.

Football Squad Honored The banquet that the Hi-Y boys and the Walled Lake business men gave the football team on Wednesday evening was a great success.

The program was as follows: Chairman, George Goodrich, Sr.; invocation, Rev. E. L. Carless, pastor; Bill Mercer, piano solo; Geo. Goodrich, Jr., welcome; William H. Taylor, Supt. of School; response, Francis Theobald; review of season, Ralph Buffmyer; forecast, Harold W. Hirsch, coach; music, Don Patterson and Irving Hanson; speaker, C. J. Kippel of Cranbrook.

Baptist Church The Baptist Christmas program for the children will be held Saturday night. Mrs. Charles Matthews is in charge of the program. The Sunday morning services of the Baptist church will consist of carols by the young people; "Come, O My Heart, Lord," by a trio; the "Autumn 'Ode' of a King," by the choir; and Mr. W.R.'s sermon will be "Arise, O My People."

No Money To Send Her To Sanatorium

Three hundred miles from the home where her six children needed her. The doctor said she might not have to stay in the sanatorium long, perhaps only a few months. But a week was a month, three hundred miles from home. Too far for visits, even if there had been enough money for them. Two weeks, then three—it seemed like a year since she'd left family and friends to come among strange, deadly disease. After five weeks, Mrs. N. D., a Michigan woman whom a Michigan Tuberculosis Association clinic had recommended for the sanatorium care, gave up. The call of her children was too strong, and she went home, not realizing that her returning kiss was one of death. It was in 1929 that, because her state and county had failed to provide proper care, she had to travel so far for the treatment she needed. In 1932, she visited another Michigan Tuberculosis Association clinic, realizing that her tuberculosis had grown steadily worse and that now she must stay in the sanatorium, so far away, or her children might not have her long. Advanced pulmonary tuberculosis read the case record, but she was too late. It was 1932, and the county was saying it couldn't afford to pay for his share of her care. I said it then, and it says it now, not only to Mrs. D., but to all the rest of its tuberculous sick, even though they're in desperate need of treatment. So Mrs. D. lies, near death, in her home. She sees her children constantly in danger of infection, but she can do nothing. Two of them already show signs of having contracted the disease. Two others doubtless have tuberculous germs in their bodies. But she is helpless. Said Dr. Bruce E. Douglas, president of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association, last week: "No community, no individual is safe until all are safe. Funds from the sale of Christmas seals are left as the only way the common man can be saved of more sanatorium beds and fewer deaths from tuberculosis in this state. The work of the Christmas seal must go forward until parents may be sure their children are safe from the disease and children may know that they won't be left fatherless or motherless. The flag must go on!"

College Students Are Home Northville's many college students are now home enjoying their Christmas vacation. From last year's graduating class are Miss Wilma Hattenbury, Miss Charlotte Lester and Warner Neal from the University of Michigan and Richard Shipley, Robert Christensen, Melvin Steiner, and John Steeneken from Ypsilanti Normal. Others in Northville during their holiday vacation are Miss Allie Richardson, Miss Martha Keeney, Miss Marion Erwin, Foster Van Atta and Ward Van Atta from Michigan State; Miss Bernice Smith, Miss Ruth Roberts and Charles Carrington from Ypsilanti Normal; Miss Marjorie Schoultz, Robert Cousins, and Russell Atchison from the University of Michigan; Miss Betty Miner from Albion, and Herbert Berendt from Texas A & M.

Value of Boy Scout Work Is Told To The Exchange Club Lloyd Stanley, of Lansing in charge of Boy Scout work for the American Legion in Michigan, gave the Exchanges a vivid picture of scouting as he saw it as an active leader in the work at the weekly session Tuesday. After briefly outlining the history of the Scout movement from its beginning he reported that there were 20,000 Boy Scouts in Michigan, in membership in 1933 was ten per cent. During the depression years the average length of membership by scouts was two years. Previously it was six to ten years. One statement that opened the eyes of exchange was that of the men at West Point, 88 per cent had been Boy Scouts while at the Naval academy it was 50 per cent. The reason was not the military teaching but the ability to take and obey orders. Mr. Stanley also presented the values to the church and community of guiding the boy in his activities as his physical and mental faculties are changing. Robert Y. Yerkes was responsible for getting his friend Mr. Stanley to come and speak to members of the club. Mr. Stanley made the trip over very icy roads. Many routine matters were discussed and the semi-annual election set for the next meeting. Subt. R. E. Amerman and Irving Ulrich were guests.

Adding Insult to Injury When a petrol dump in America exploded, flames rose to a height of nearly two hundred feet. Much to the disgust of a gentleman nearby, who had been trying for twenty minutes to make his automatic light work.

West Point Park (By Mrs. Zwalhen) Mrs. George Robins is very ill with pneumonia. Miss Olive Grimwade of Farmington was the Sunday dinner guest of Mrs. Shirley Zwalhen. Mrs. Anna Habel and son, Fred, from Detroit, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gould. Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Ault and son of Wayne visited friends in Wayne last Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hitchcock from Detroit were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Woolley. Ernest Talman was unable to work this week on account of a dislocated knee. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Zwalhen entertained the Scotch Eight "500" club Friday evening at their home. Mr. and Mrs. Orr Passage from Plymouth were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sharrow. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sharrow were guests Saturday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Weber in Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. James Kitchen and children from Detroit were guests the past week of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Talman. Emerson Ault was unable to work last week on account of a ruptured blood vessel which caused hemorrhages. John Harlan, who is home from college for the holiday vacation, was accompanied by one of his college friends. Mrs. Lillian Gilbert and two sons, E. B. Jr. and Howard, were guests Monday of their mother, Mrs. Chas. Pankov, in Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Newton Gould and daughters from Redford were supper guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gould. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Macoit and daughter, Marilyn, from Detroit, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ault. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gerge were guests Tuesday of the former's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Zerbst of Taylor Center. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Coolman and family were supper guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Don V. Huegel of Royal Oak. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gedig and Mrs. Edw. from Detroit were guests Wednesday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Owen and Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault. The P. T. A. sponsored the Christmas entertainment, Thursday evening with a Santa Claus, Christmas tree, and gifts of candy and nuts for the school children. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sherman, Miss Elizabeth Jack and Ruth, and Miss Fern Ault were guests Friday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Barger in Detroit. Little Phyllis Ault celebrated her third birthday Saturday with a dinner party. Those present included her three cousins, Dolores, Jean, Shirley, and Lora Ann Ault. Mr. and Mrs. Eric Pohl from Redford, and Mr. and Mrs. Kuntzman from Grosse Pointe were guests Sunday afternoon of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gould. Mr. and Mrs. Marquette Shoman, the former's sister, Miss Rowena Shoman, and Miss Edith Spindelmann from Detroit were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Gilbert, in Detroit.

West Point Park (Mrs. Charlotte Wolfe) Miss Helen Major of Detroit visited with Harry and Viola Wolfe over Sunday. Mrs. Edna Painter was taken seriously ill Thursday morning. Doctor Wickham was called. Mrs. Adda Borg and Mrs. Charles Wilson called on the former's mother, Mrs. C. Wolfe, Monday. Miss Gladys Smith of Detroit, who has been staying with her aunt, Mrs. Harry Wolfe, all summer, returned to her home for the winter. A damp, rainy Sunday did not stop the boys and girls from attending Sunday school. Sixty-six were present. Miss Bohler's class assisted the pastor with the program. The school Christmas entertainment was held last evening. Santa Claus was present with candy and toys for girls and boys. The program was held in the town hall. Mr. Brightmeyer is retained with his job of taking the boys and girls from his district to Northville high school. He is very prompt and always on time. Friends of Mrs. Carl Ely of Northville are sorry to hear of her illness. She was one of our highly respected young ladies in this district. Some thirty years ago Carl came and took away one of our lovely girls. How we missed her. Word came from Mr. and Mrs. William McIntosh that they are enjoying the winter in Florida. They are settled in New Smyrna, Florida. They have enjoyed a drive around the city and along the Atlantic ocean. Chickens are disappearing from hen houses in this district. Owners of those lost claim they know the parties. Other articles are disappearing. We are sorry to report such thefts in our otherwise respectable community. The bazaar Saturday was a success. The display of fancy work was beautiful. The bake sale was sold out early in the day and the penny dinner disappeared and all enjoyed the afternoon and evening program. Dr. McLean was brought home Sunday. He is still under Dr. Thomas' care but is gradually gaining after his operation. His many friends will be pleased to see his familiar figure as he goes to and from his office every day. The Masonic Lodge of Farmington and members from West Point Park attended the funeral of Fred Reese at South Lyon, where he lived, and followed his remains to Toledo, Ohio. There were sixteen carloads that attended his funeral. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn their loss. The polo club met Saturday evening. Those winning prizes were: Ladies—first, Mrs. E. Leroy; second, Mrs. E. Howard; third, Mrs. W. Miller. Gentlemen—first, M. A. Nacker; second, Dan Graves; third, H. Howard. House prize was won by Miss Barger. Dancing followed the games. Farmington Masonic Lodge will hold its annual installation of officers Tuesday evening, Dec. 26. Harry Wolfe will be Past Master. John Attami from West Point Park was elected Worshipful Master and will take over the leadership of the lodge. Other members are: Delos Hamlin, Senior Warden; James L. Hogle, secretary; Forest Dickerson, Junior Warden; William Way, treasurer; Robert Cook, Senior Deacon; Ralph Anten, Tyler. The installation will be open to all families of Masons. Lunch will follow the ceremonies.

THIS WEEK By H. H. WHITE Someone has said that education begins and ends with the individual for it uses the fundamentals and resources of a personality with an equipment and technique like unto none other agency in the world. Education seems to fulfill and mould a personality rather than to destroy it. There is little or no success in education when it attempts to standardize the individuality for we humans are of variable sorts and consequently education must develop variation. It would seem to this writer that education largely in this past has no-developed the individual social responsibility that it should have. Early in American history we find that frontier life led the American to an almost excessive individualism and too little attention was paid to the needs and values of cooperativeness. But today we are inclined to reject such a thing. It would seem that our economic impulse today has worked upon the multitude to build up a philosophy of life which represents an excessive individualism. We see this so aptly carried out in the field of specialists of this profession or trade or business. In this case we have the desire for wealth making its appearance both as a cause and a result of which has a tendency to produce an extreme egotistic individualism. Thoroughly socialized through this is the proper goal for a democratic education. Democracy thus thrives upon the variation of self-expression, which can be noted in our own industrial field here in America. It seeks an equality for all thus allowing the individual to attain his ultimate best. However, its emphasis upon the individual in his or her personal goal must largely be tempered by an insistence upon the need of obedience and recognition to social authority. If this does not happen, democracy is quite apt to degenerate into an anarchical government of dominant personalities which will develop into oligarchies of authority and command such as we find developing in some of the European countries today under the cover of democratic guise.

TRY THE RECORD LINER ADS THEY SAVE YOU MONEY

Wishing You Christmas Joy 1933

Marz Motor Sales 117 W. Main Phone 54

MERRY 1933

XMAS

May Santa fill your stockings with all of the things you've wished for and may the coming season cement the friendly relations between us both.

Sally Bell Bakery 134 N. Center Phone 411

WISHING YOU ALL A MERRY CHRISTMAS

A personal message to our loyal friends whom we know so well and appreciate. Here's hoping that your Merry Christmas rings true and that the coming year holds a multitudinous number of good things for you.

Lyke's Hardware "You Can Get It at Lyke's" 130 E. Main St. Phone 229

LEGAL NOTICES

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Simon J. Eress...

No suit or proceedings at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage...

Lot Two Hundred Ninety-four (294) of William L. Holmes' Subdivision of lots 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15...

THE COLUMBIA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, Assignee of Mortgagee, MILLER, BALDWIN & BOOS.

MORTGAGE SALE
Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by WILLIAM A. PARTIE, JR. and ADELAIDE A. PARTIE...

THE COLUMBIA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, Assignee of Mortgagee, MILLER, BALDWIN & BOOS.

MORTGAGE SALE
Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by EDWARD G. SMYTH and LOUISE SMYTH...

MORTGAGE SALE
Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by EDWARD G. SMYTH and LOUISE SMYTH...

MORTGAGE SALE
Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by EDWARD G. SMYTH and LOUISE SMYTH...

MORTGAGE SALE
Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by EDWARD G. SMYTH and LOUISE SMYTH...

MORTGAGE SALE
Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by EDWARD G. SMYTH and LOUISE SMYTH...

MORTGAGE SALE
Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by EDWARD G. SMYTH and LOUISE SMYTH...

MORTGAGE SALE
Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by EDWARD G. SMYTH and LOUISE SMYTH...

MORTGAGE SALE
Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by EDWARD G. SMYTH and LOUISE SMYTH...

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

5 YEARS AGO

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Whitehead entertained Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Dolph at dinner last Sunday...

Alex Johnson has nearly completed the repair work that he is doing on the Bunn garage...

George Carlson celebrated his 73rd birthday, Thursday...

Mrs. Arthur W. Smith of East Base Line road, with her son, Fred, has left for Miami, Florida...

Harry C. Robinson will again be among the old newsboys who will sell papers on the streets of Detroit...

George Carson celebrated his 73rd birthday, Thursday...

Mrs. Averil Green was hostess at a six o'clock dinner at the Mayflower, last Monday evening...

The senior play, "The Ghost Bird's" will be presented this evening at the Penniman-Allyn theatre...

Those who will take part are: Madeline Cole, Robert Strachan, Chester Tomaszewski, Marjorie Johnson, Allen Beard, Betty Chargo, John Leavenworth, Harley Wolfson, Alvera Litschberger, and Ted Watts.

10 YEARS AGO

Carl Ely left this week for Florida, where he will spend a few weeks recuperating from his recent serious illness.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Thornton and son of Northville, and the Misses Gladys Thornton and Harriet Williams of Adrian, spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thornton of Farmington.

Among the list of first and second class postmasters sent to the senate by President Coolidge this week appeared the name of P. S. Neal of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Simock were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman J. Gray of the Parker-Webb Co. of Detroit.

Mrs. L. W. Simons left Tuesday for Detroit, where she will spend several weeks.

The rural mail carriers request their patrons to do away with the penny-in-the-box nuisance, at least during the cold weather.

H. B. Richardson writes from Clermont, Florida, that they had a wonderful trip down South and that they are now on a sight-seeing tour of the state and will visit Tampa, St. Petersburg, and other places elsewhere before returning.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Waid left for Nashville, Tenn., to spend the winter with their daughter, Mrs. Frank Woodman, and husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Palmer of Grass Lake and Miss Kate Palmer and Oliver Penny of Plymouth visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Clark Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. A. P. Scott visited friends in Detroit a couple of days this week. Mr. and Mrs. George Wilkinson of Corunna were guests of their cousins, Roy and Ida Clarke, a couple of days this week.

The old corner bank building that Wm. Gorton will soon vacate, would make a fine up town D. U. R. waiting room.

Frank Taylor, Harlan Roberts and L. L. Brooks have been drawn as jurors for the January term of the circuit court.

Ed. McFarlin and Frank Willis had a two-round fist fight Saturday night in which Willis came out the victor.

James Palmer was very badly injured Tuesday while at work in the woods by the limb of a tree falling upon his head and crushing him to the ground.

SALEM NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Kehrl visited in Plymouth one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Lewis enjoyed dinner with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts, were on business in Ypsilanti, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Helmut Ringel motored to Ann Arbor on business, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Means and Earl Roberts were dinner guests of Mrs. Laura Smith, Sunday.

The Buttermore family spent Sunday evening with the W. Kimberly family in Worden.

Mrs. George Foreman and Mrs. James Dickie of South Lyon spent Saturday in Detroit.

Mrs. Wm. H. Toussy and Mrs. Ida Starkweather were recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Toussy of Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stoddy and daughter of Detroit, were caller of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Speers, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Vici and little son, Ricky, of Birmingham, took dinner in the Congregational parsonage, Thursday.

Sunday dinner guests in the Congregational parsonage were Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Wittich and children of Detroit.

Arthur Burgess and Mrs. Bower and two daughters of Worden called on Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Durrow, Sunday.

The Trapp family moved last week from the house of Mrs. Eliza Brown to the Bert Rider house on Seven Mile road.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Crockett and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Terry of Howell, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. George Foreman, Sunday.

Mrs. W. Curtis called at the Buttermore home Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mackin and family of Lincoln Park spent Friday evening to Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Payne, and Mrs. Fred Rider, Sunday.

Thursday evening, Jan. 4, is the date set for the well-known pancake supper in the town hall, sponsored by the Ladies of the Congregational church. Supper begins at 6 p. m. with a delicious menu.

Sorry to report Mrs. Dilla Stoffner, who lives alone in her home on 24th Mile road, was found Friday by kind neighbors, unconscious on the floor having suffered another stroke, and was rushed to St. Joseph's hospital in Ann Arbor. Her condition is very serious at the time of this writing. (Editor's Note: The death of Mrs. Stoffner occurred Tuesday. The obituary will be found elsewhere in this paper.)

Mrs. Walter Reuschler was ess to the Ladies' Auxiliary society of the Congregational church, Thursday. A fine potluck dinner at noon was followed by a business session, then the Quarterly Missionary program took place.

Salem Congregational Church
Rev. Lucia M. Stroh, Minister of Prayer meeting each Wednesday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Kehrl in Salem.

Next Sunday at 10:30 a. m. the glorious Christmas message will be given both in the church and Sunday session following.

In the evening at 7:30 the Sunday school will give its Christmas program to which all friends in the community are most cordially invited.

Mrs. George Foreman and Mrs. James Dickie of South Lyon spent Saturday in Detroit.

Mrs. Wm. H. Toussy and Mrs. Ida Starkweather were recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Toussy of Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stoddy and daughter of Detroit, were caller of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Speers, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Vici and little son, Ricky, of Birmingham, took dinner in the Congregational parsonage, Thursday.

Sunday dinner guests in the Congregational parsonage were Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Wittich and children of Detroit.

Arthur Burgess and Mrs. Bower and two daughters of Worden called on Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Durrow, Sunday.

The Trapp family moved last week from the house of Mrs. Eliza Brown to the Bert Rider house on Seven Mile road.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Crockett and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Terry of Howell, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. George Foreman, Sunday.

Mrs. W. Curtis called at the Buttermore home Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mackin and family of Lincoln Park spent Friday evening to Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Payne, and Mrs. Fred Rider, Sunday.

Thursday evening, Jan. 4, is the date set for the well-known pancake supper in the town hall, sponsored by the Ladies of the Congregational church. Supper begins at 6 p. m. with a delicious menu.

Sorry to report Mrs. Dilla Stoffner, who lives alone in her home on 24th Mile road, was found Friday by kind neighbors, unconscious on the floor having suffered another stroke, and was rushed to St. Joseph's hospital in Ann Arbor. Her condition is very serious at the time of this writing.

The sturdy pioneer, who stepped out mornings and hunted his dinner, left a nature lover of a grandson who toasts a marshmallow on a stick.

Mrs. Ellen Babbitt, white haired, courtly, confined to the house for years, abstract of the times, eager to contribute to life and a wonderful mother.

Mrs. Lucy Bovee, one of the pioneering Amblers, a jolly, kept-pleasant person whose presence enlivened any company. A good home-keeper and earnest religion.

MEMORIES OF MEN WHO WALKED OUR VILLAGE STREETS

MRS. EMILY SWIFT, wife of the Doctor, stately, gracious, a home keeper, a fine singing voice and a delightful hostess.

MRS. SARAH CLARKSTON, a pioneer along with husband David, quiet, respectful and engaging. She lived to a good old age.

MRS. PRISCILLA CLARK, vivacious, studious, cultured, domestic and a good conversationalist.

MRS. CORNELIA SANDS, Anny Sands to most folks of her day, a daughter of David Rowland, ardent church worker, a leader in missionary work, teacher in Sunday school and always in her per as often as health would permit.

MRS. SARAH BEAL, a real home maker, fine hostess, outspoken when desired, full of laughter, bearer of burdens through her years.

MRS. FRANCES HORTON, preacher's daughter, graduate of Mt. Holyoke college, any set matter-of-fact and treading the paths of home keeping and motherhood in a steady quiet fashion.

MRS. JANE SESSIONS, of the pioneer Purdys, a fine cook, good entertainer, ambitious, many hours of illness in earlier life but lived a long life after that. Many samples of her fine lace work survive.

MRS. KITTY STRONG, quiet, unassuming, dignified, a musician, and teacher of the arts and a pleasing hostess.

MRS. ARABELLA TIDHAM, Belle Randolph to the older generation, youthful, silver-tongued soprano, the pride of the village in the 'yester-gars, member of wonderful quartette of singers Doctor and Mrs. Swift, Asa M. Randolph and herself.

MRS. ELLEN BABBITT, white haired, courtly, confined to the house for years, abstract of the times, eager to contribute to life and a wonderful mother.

Mrs. Lucy Bovee, one of the pioneering Amblers, a jolly, kept-pleasant person whose presence enlivened any company. A good home-keeper and earnest religion.

The sturdy pioneer, who stepped out mornings and hunted his dinner, left a nature lover of a grandson who toasts a marshmallow on a stick.

Mrs. Ellen Babbitt, white haired, courtly, confined to the house for years, abstract of the times, eager to contribute to life and a wonderful mother.

Mrs. Lucy Bovee, one of the pioneering Amblers, a jolly, kept-pleasant person whose presence enlivened any company. A good home-keeper and earnest religion.

The sturdy pioneer, who stepped out mornings and hunted his dinner, left a nature lover of a grandson who toasts a marshmallow on a stick.

Mrs. Ellen Babbitt, white haired, courtly, confined to the house for years, abstract of the times, eager to contribute to life and a wonderful mother.

Mrs. Lucy Bovee, one of the pioneering Amblers, a jolly, kept-pleasant person whose presence enlivened any company. A good home-keeper and earnest religion.

The sturdy pioneer, who stepped out mornings and hunted his dinner, left a nature lover of a grandson who toasts a marshmallow on a stick.

The personnel of The Depositors State bank wish to thank their customers for their patronage. May the coming season bring a harvest of health, happiness and prosperity to you all.

Depositors State Bank Northville, Michigan

Wake Up Your Liver Bile - Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rain' to Go
Little life is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest, it just decays in the bowels, gas, bloating, constipation, you have a thick, full tongue and your breath is foul, your whole system is poisoned.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name, Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Beware of substitutes. Get the drug store.

THE DETROIT EDISON COMPANY

Helen: "I'VE JUST DISCOVERED THAT JACK IS GIVING ME A FULL AUTOMATIC ELECTRIC RANGE FOR CHRISTMAS"

Ann... "THAT MEANS 365 DAYS OF FREEDOM FOR YOU, MY DEAR"

Ann: "And think of the grand HOLIDAYS we can have together. I've just loved 'Dob' for giving me my electric range last summer."

Helen: "I'm no Home Economist, but I like the waterless cooking feature best."

Ann: "Wait until you get yours! You'll like ALL eight things best—the clean kitchen, clean utensils, cool cooking, the certainty of perfect cooking results. I could go on forever, but you'll never realize how grand it is—UNTIL YOU'VE TRIED IT!"

Ann: "I guess we've arrived, all right. I never thought we'd be able to afford electric cooking."

Ann: "It costs us less than one cent a meal per person. And you know how my youngsters eat."

Northville Township Taxes

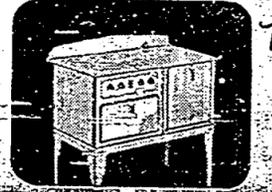

The 1933 Northville township, state and county taxes are now due and payable. I will be at the Depositors State bank Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays, during banking hours, to receive payments.

MRS. JENNIE COUSINS, Treasurer.

Make It A Point To Always Buy BEET SUGAR Made in Michigan

Beet Sugar Made in Michigan is pure, clean and highly refined. Sugar Beets are raised by the farmers of your own State. Buy Beet Sugar Made in Michigan and you will aid the wage earners who need your support now. Use Beet Sugar for every household purpose.

Michigan Made Beet Sugar is available in 5-10-25 and 100 lb. sacks. For sale at all grocers. Farmers and Manufacturers Beet Sugar Association, Lansing, Michigan

Note to Thoughtful Husbands
You need not buy the range. We will install an electric range without initial charge. Let you use it for six months removing it at our expense if you do not like it. During the trial period, you pay for the service as registered by your meter, plus a monthly charge of $1 for the range. If you decide to keep the range, your monthly payments will be applied toward the purchase price. Send in your application for a trial range today.

THE DETROIT EDISON COMPANY

Society Notes

Baby Clinic Will Meet

Wednesday, December 27... The baby clinic under the auspices of the local Red Cross will be held at the village hall Wednesday, December 27, at 10 a. m.

New Era Club Enjoys Christmas Dinner

At Mrs. Bertha Neal Monday evening... The "New Era" club had a very enjoyable Christmas dinner with roast goose and plum pudding.

Old Christmas Trees To Be Saved For Ball

Plans are progressing for the coming Hunter's Ball to be staged at the high school gym on the evening of January 17... The trees will be the figures of attraction in their hunting suits.

"Hello Girls" Dine on Chicken at Lone Pine Tea Room

The eight faithful attendants of the village switch board of the Bell Telephone company enjoyed a happy gathering at the Lone Pine tea room Monday evening.

Christmas candles and other decorations carried out the seasonal motif... While four or five others gathered in the hall to answer calls but following dinner all gathered in the ball room for an extensive program.

Social Clubs Are Postponed During Stress of Holidays

Busy with wrapping Christmas packages and preparing for the annual feast, many of the social clubs have postponed their regular meetings during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Entertain Friends Saturday Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Clark entertained a group of friends at their home Saturday evening... The party was very enjoyable and the evening was spent in the dining room.

Woman's Club Catches Christmas Spirit From "The Other Wise Man"

It was the Christmas meeting of the Northville Woman's club Friday afternoon when a gay little tree twinkled with lights and its foot were piled gifts brought by members for children of the village.

The chairman of the afternoon, Mrs. Wilbur H. Johnston, who with her co-workers Mrs. L. M. Eaton and Mrs. Harold B. Coon, had worked hard to arrange the setting for the delightful afternoon.

The program for the afternoon... The program for the afternoon was very effective and a group of Christmas carols from the village in the rear of the room.

Music Pupils Have Party at Miss Halverson's

The children's classes of Miss Grace Halverson were her guests at a Christmas party in her apartment on Clairmont avenue, Detroit, Saturday afternoon.

Merry games were followed by a "recital" when each child played a Christmas song... The program was a series of two-piano numbers played by both Detroit and Northville pupils.

A variety of Christmas cookies, "sello" and candy made the children happy at the close of the program... The program came to a close with the whole group singing "On Corral All Ye Faithful" by Reading.

Miss Barbara Horton Is Hostess to D. A. R. Monday Evening

Monday evening, December 18, marked an unusual program in the calendar of the Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, when 65 or 70 members and guests gathered at the spacious home of Miss Barbara Horton on Phenixian road in Plymouth.

The Horton home was festive with Christmas greens and tall lighted tapers... The program was very effective and a group of Christmas carols from the village in the rear of the room.

The chairman of the afternoon, Mrs. Wilbur H. Johnston, who with her co-workers Mrs. L. M. Eaton and Mrs. Harold B. Coon, had worked hard to arrange the setting for the delightful afternoon.

Methodist Sunday School Holds Series of Parties

In a room lighted by softly shaded lamps and candles, a Methodist company of thirty-five high school students enjoyed a Christmas party in the League room of the church Monday evening.

A lighted Christmas tree held a variety of inexpensive gifts for each of them... The program came to a close with the whole group singing "On Corral All Ye Faithful" by Reading.

After the refreshments, at the special request of Miss Horton, the quartet sang again in an informal manner, bringing to a close an enjoyable evening.

Service League Enjoys Christmas Program at Parsonage Tuesday

With the sponsors as hostesses, thirty-five members of the Service League met at the home of Mrs. P. N. Miner, Tuesday evening, to enjoy a Christmas program.

Mrs. Jack Taylor reviewed the life of the composer, Handel, in a most interesting way and to illustrate his masterpiece, very members of the high school chorus directed by Leslie G. Lee sang the "Hallelujah Chorus."

Although "rather an experiment" as Mr. Lee explained this effort with so few voices, the "experiment" proved most pleasing.

Woodcraft Club To Supply Toys for 35 Children

It was on Nov. 23 that James Freckleton and Marshall Herrick started the Northville Woodcraft club... The club formed out of Mr. Freckleton's Methodist church junior high Sunday school class.

The club formed out of Mr. Freckleton's Methodist church junior high Sunday school class, has grown to 14 members and is open to any interested boy.

The members are as follows: Willard Stalter, Warren Bogart, Ray Groomer, Jr., Walter Meyers, Clayton Meyers, Marvin Schmitz, Ken Bolton, Harry Rattenbury, Dick Larkin, William Rotz, George White, Lawrence Bogart, and Harold Card.

Record Liners Pay

The annual Christmas party of the O. E. S. No. 77 will be held Friday evening (tonight) at the lodge rooms... There will be a program and refreshments for members and their families who are urged to attend.

Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary Kenev's Youth at Party

The Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary held their annual Christmas party at the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening, December 19th... The program was very enjoyable and the evening was spent in the dining room.

The program for the afternoon... The program for the afternoon was very effective and a group of Christmas carols from the village in the rear of the room.

Eight in Manual Training Class

At the present time there are eight men enrolled in the manual training class being held Tuesday evenings at the local high school.

The program for the afternoon... The program for the afternoon was very effective and a group of Christmas carols from the village in the rear of the room.

HAROLD HUNT IS SELECTED TO HEAD KALAMAZOO SCHOOL

Harold Hunt, a former resident of Northville, is to become superintendent of schools in Kalamazoo, Jan. 1... He is the youngest man to hold the position of superintendent in any of the larger schools in the state.

C. Wells is superintendent of the water department at Shelby, Montana.

The program for the afternoon... The program for the afternoon was very effective and a group of Christmas carols from the village in the rear of the room.

The program for the afternoon... The program for the afternoon was very effective and a group of Christmas carols from the village in the rear of the room.

Record Liners Pay

The annual Christmas party of the O. E. S. No. 77 will be held Friday evening (tonight) at the lodge rooms... There will be a program and refreshments for members and their families who are urged to attend.

The program for the afternoon... The program for the afternoon was very effective and a group of Christmas carols from the village in the rear of the room.

Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary Kenev's Youth at Party

The Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary held their annual Christmas party at the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening, December 19th... The program was very enjoyable and the evening was spent in the dining room.

The program for the afternoon... The program for the afternoon was very effective and a group of Christmas carols from the village in the rear of the room.

The program for the afternoon... The program for the afternoon was very effective and a group of Christmas carols from the village in the rear of the room.

The program for the afternoon... The program for the afternoon was very effective and a group of Christmas carols from the village in the rear of the room.

Record Liners Pay

The annual Christmas party of the O. E. S. No. 77 will be held Friday evening (tonight) at the lodge rooms... There will be a program and refreshments for members and their families who are urged to attend.

The program for the afternoon... The program for the afternoon was very effective and a group of Christmas carols from the village in the rear of the room.

Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary Kenev's Youth at Party

The Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary held their annual Christmas party at the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening, December 19th... The program was very enjoyable and the evening was spent in the dining room.

The program for the afternoon... The program for the afternoon was very effective and a group of Christmas carols from the village in the rear of the room.

The program for the afternoon... The program for the afternoon was very effective and a group of Christmas carols from the village in the rear of the room.

The program for the afternoon... The program for the afternoon was very effective and a group of Christmas carols from the village in the rear of the room.

Advertisement for A&F Holiday Sale. Features: STOCK UP AT OUR GREAT Holiday SALE! FOOD: The Practical Gift $1.00 Gift Certificates. CIGARETTES: 10 PACKAGES 99c. MILK: Whitehouse 3 Tall Cans 17c. FLOUR: IONA 24 1/2 lb. bag 85c. BUTTER: FINE CREAMERY (Silverbrook Print lb. 20c) 18c. TURKEYS: 1 lb. 19c. CHICKENS: 16c. GEESE: 16c. Select Oysters: 25c. THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC CO. Northville, Michigan.

Advertisement for Firestone Tires. Features: "No Better Gift Than Firestone Tires," Says Mr. S. Claus. P. S.—And He Knows, Too! EVERY FIBER • EVERY CORD IN EVERY PLY IS BLOWOUT PROTECTED BY GUM-DIPPING. THE NEW Firestone SUPER OLD-FIELD TYPE. Firestone BATTERIES. AND A MERRY CHRISTMAS TO YOU ALL! CASTERLINE'S ONE-STOP SERVICE STATION. Northville Gas — Oil — Lubricant Phone 9190.

Advertisement for Dr. Rosa. Features: TELL THE TRUTH ABOUT SEX SAYS DR. ROSA HERE. Detroit Speaker Is Heard By Parents and Teachers Dec. 14. Tell the children the truth, and tell it honestly and simply at an early age advised Dr. Rosa of the Merrill-Palmer school of Detroit, to a gathering of the parents and teachers of the public schools in Northville Thursday evening, Dec. 14, in a talk on "The Relation of Sex to Life."

Christmas Greetings

Here's Wishing You Joy and Happiness Throughout the Year!

Last Minute Suggestions

SHIRTS

- 63x99 79c
72x99 89c
81x99 $1.10
81x108 $1.19

PILLOW CASES

- 42x36 33c
45x36 35c

NAPKINS

Genuine Irish Linen doz. $5.50

12 NAPKINS 66x84 TABLECLOTH Royal Irish Linen Set, $11.50

OUTING FLANNEL yard 19c Protection Against Chilly Nights!

GENUINE DUPLICATE

Oriental Rugs

24x48 $2.39

PONSFORD'S

120 E. Main St. Phone 231

NEWS AROUND NORTHVILLE

Merry Christmas

Basketball tonight! Mrs. E. A. Wheeler had the misfortune to fall in her house recently and is again in ill health.

Lucille Webster is spending the holidays at the home of her parents in Tuscarora, near Cadillac.

Richard Pitkin, a nephew of Mrs. W. H. Safford of Northville, has just been named postmaster of Brighton.

The family of Dr. and Mrs. Paul R. Alexander will spend Christmas with Mrs. Alexander's sister in Ypsilanti.

G. W. Carson spent the week-end with his son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kortan and grandchildren in Belle Isle.

Mrs. Frances Palmer of Pontiac is visiting at the home of Mrs. Melvina Carpenter, and will remain for the holidays.

Guess at the home of S. S. Stalter for Christmas will include their eldest son, W. T. Stalter and wife, of Goshen, Ind.

Superintendent and Mrs. R. H. Amerman and children, Edythe and David, will enjoy Christmas with their parents in Hillsdale.

Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Cavell will have "open house" Christmas morning when friends and relatives will drop in informally.

James Spagnuolo and sister, Mrs. Rose Martino, were at Hillsdale Tuesday attending the funeral of their cousin, Joseph Nozzoli.

Little Mrs. Mary Louise Lee has recovered from a recent illness and will go to the home of her maternal grandparents in Ellet, where a Christmas tree is awaiting her.

Mrs. and Mrs. Arthur Schmutz, and daughter, Donna Jean, are going to Southwax Saturday and will stay there until Tuesday.

Mrs. Cass Benton will spend Christmas day with her sister, Mrs. E. C. Lauffer, in Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlov G. Owen are spending the Christmas holidays at East Tawas visiting at the home of Orlov's father, John A. Owen, and staying at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Somers a part of the time.

Mrs. Kathryn Shafer of Atlanta, Ga., has been at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Bery Stark, for the past week.

Professor and Mrs. Ross A. Williams and daughter, Barbara, were the guests last Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dubau.

Christmas day will be a very busy and happy one for Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Rogers, who will make the round of calls on 15 grandchildren in the city.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank N. Miner and daughter, Elizabeth, were Detroit visitors Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wright have moved to Williamsburg, New York. It is near Buffalo.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Stark and son, John, will spend Christmas with Mrs. Stark's family in Pontiac.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lester of Ann Arbor visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carmel G. Benton, Tuesday.

A fire Christmas entertainment will be given by the Wayne County Training school Sunday afternoon in the auditorium when the public will be welcome without charge.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wilkinson will be the scene of a happy family gathering when their son, Frances, with his wife and children will spend the day with them.

Milton Wilbey and son, Spencer, have moved from High street into the D. J. Stark residence on the Base Line road.

Word is received from Miss Goldie Jackson, who is in Florida, saying she is spending the Christmas holidays in St. Petersburg and that the sun has shone continually since her arrival in the South.

Mr. and Mrs. Dayton E. Bunn will have a double celebration of Christmas this year spending Sunday with the former's parents in Holly and Christmas day with Mrs. Bunn's parents in South Lyon.

Attention is called to an interesting book review column that appears for the first time in this issue. It is written by a local book lover who modestly wishes her (his) name not revealed.

Carrying out a custom that has continued through nine Christmas seasons, Dr. and Mrs. Handorf will entertain on Christmas day a party of friends from Detroit, who also are natives of Germany, and friends from Ann Arbor.

Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Cavell will have "open house" Christmas morning when friends and relatives will drop in informally.

James Spagnuolo and sister, Mrs. Rose Martino, were at Hillsdale Tuesday attending the funeral of their cousin, Joseph Nozzoli.

Little Mrs. Mary Louise Lee has recovered from a recent illness and will go to the home of her maternal grandparents in Ellet, where a Christmas tree is awaiting her.

Mrs. and Mrs. Arthur Schmutz, and daughter, Donna Jean, are going to Southwax Saturday and will stay there until Tuesday.

Mrs. Cass Benton will spend Christmas day with her sister, Mrs. E. C. Lauffer, in Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlov G. Owen are spending the Christmas holidays at East Tawas visiting at the home of Orlov's father, John A. Owen, and staying at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Somers a part of the time.

Mrs. Kathryn Shafer of Atlanta, Ga., has been at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Bery Stark, for the past week.

The weather this week in Northville has been cloudy and mild.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Lovell expect to leave Monday for Wichita, Kansas, where they will visit the former's sister, Lucia, now Mrs. Arthur Hoar.

Christmas at the J. N. McLoughlin home will be made merry by the presence of Miss Alice McLoughlin of Sturgis, and a brother, Maurice McLoughlin, of Detroit.

The next to the final card party given by the senior mothers, was given last evening and was the usual success. The door prize was a box of Christmas cookies and fruit cake.

Friday morning while it was raining and a car driven by Harry P. Wagenschultz and one of the Shepherd trucks collided. No one was hurt but the Wagenschultz car was badly damaged.

Little Jimmy Slama, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Geo. F. Stalder, was guest among a number of other kiddies, at a birthday party in honor of George Baughman in Pleasant Ridge, Thursday.

It will be a real Christmas party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford B. Turball, Fairbrook, when a company of twenty relatives will gather to honor Mr. Turball's mother, Mrs. Turball, of Delphi, Ont.

The only mountain laurel tree in town is in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Casteline, Dunlap street. With leaves resembling the holly this tree is most beautiful at this season.

Mrs. Arbutus Carlson of Detroit, who has recently returned from a two years' stay in Russia, where her husband was an engineer, was a guest of Mrs. Bertina Neal Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Metz will enjoy having their family with them on Christmas afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Voobis, of Walled Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Miles and children, Geo. and Vivian, of Pontiac, and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Miles and children, Bobbie, Betty and Dick, of Royal Oak, Mr. Miles will confide to his bed after a year's illness, but is glad to have his young folks with him.

Miss Mary and Mrs. Margaret Haskell will return to the home of their parents, Dr. and Mrs. Robert H. Haskell, from Hillsdale, Ohio, where they are attending college to spend the Christmas holidays.

A large gathering of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Carmel G. Benton with relatives on both sides of the family present will be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Evans, sister of Mrs. Benton, in Detroit Christmas day.

The City of Plymouth faces a local option fight, as its new charter prohibits the sale of intoxicants in any form. The so-called 32 beer, not regarded as an intoxicating drink, has been permitted, but with the new beer being manufactured, which is of greater alcoholic content, looks like there's apt to be a special election for the purpose of amending the charter, unless the legislature makes some provision for its sale in towns and cities operating under the home-rule act.

The Northville American Legion, following its usual custom, is giving an annual Christmas party this evening at the Legion headquarters on East Main street.

There is to be a Christmas tree and oranges, apples and candy will be given to the children. Robert G. Yerkes is bringing his movie camera and will show several reels of comedy.

Members of the Legion Auxiliary, under the chairmanship of Mrs. George Alexander, will serve the dinner.

The committee in charge is composed of Claude Ely, Norton Green, and Frank Williams.

Use Record Liners

MONARCH Coffee

29c

If you paid a Dollar a Pound you could not buy Better Coffee.

Heinz

Miracle Whip

Mixed Nuts

PECANS

BRAZILS WASHED

Pumpkin

Ginger Ale

MINCEMEAT Lb. Tin 20c

FIG OR PLUM PUDDING Sm. Tin 15c - Lb. Tin 33c

SALAD DRESSING QT. JAR 31c

FINEST MIXTURE IN TOWN LB 23c

Lb. 29c

Lb. 21c

Can 15c

Home Brand 2 Cans 25c

VESS DRY LG. BOT. 10c

MAY YOUR CHRISTMAS BE A MERRY ONE

As Always... The Finest of Fresh Dressed Poultry

- Turkeys Strictly Michigan Fresh Dressed LB. 28c
Chickens ALL LOGAL BIRDS FANCY ROASTING Lb. 20c
DUCKS - GEESE - RABBITS - OYSTERS
PORK LOIN ROAST Rib End Lb. 12 1/2c
SWISS STEAK From the Finest Rounds Lb. 18c
POT ROAST OF BEEF Best Cuts Lb. 14c
SPARE RIBS Meaty Lb. 12c
SAUERKRAUT 2 lbs. 15c

- Oranges FANCY LARGE NEW NAVELS DOZ. 43c
Pastry Flour NORTHVILLE 5 LB. SACK 24c
Yacht Club GOLDEN BANTAM CORN 2 CANS 29c
Defiance Peas FANCY TENDER CAN 16c
CORN OR PEAS Defiance 2 Lg. 27c
Standard Pack Can 10c Tomatoes 2 Can 27c Mince meat 2 Pkgs. 25c

Three Free Deliveries Daily 8-10-4 THE FOOD MARKET Phone Northville 183 Novi 7101-F11

Out To Help Others

NO "WHITE" CHRISTMAS

As The Record goes to press Thursday afternoon prospects for a "white" Christmas are poor.

Moon & Sun sell monuments at Fairbury, Nebraska.

SPECIAL—Complete your Christmas

joy by following your Xmas dinner with Fry's Delicious Home Made Ice Cream.

Record Liners Pay

"Everybody Out" NORTHVILLE vs. FARMINGTON FRIDAY EVENING (Tonight) AT THE NORTHVILLE HIGH SCHOOL GYMNASIUM 7:00 P. M. A major game... See the 1933-34 Northville basketball team in action for the first time!

May Your Yuletide be a happy one May Christmas be full of joy for you and 1934 hold the best of Health, Prosperity and Happiness.

WATCH FOR THE NEW 1934 PLYMOUTHS Which Will Be On Display Between January 1 and 15 ROY M. VAN ATTA Dodge-Plymouth Motor Sales 116 Church St. Phone 355.

LAST MINUTE GIFT SAVINGS TWO SPECIAL CANDY VALUES Homestead Assorted CHOCOLATE 2 1/2 Lb. Box 89c 3 MORE DAYS ONLY Christmas Chocolate Covered Cherries 39c Lb.

GIFT STATIONERY 25c to $1.50 Yardley's Shaving Bowl $1.25 SCHRAEF'S Selected Candies and Chocolates 60c to $1.25 lb. GIREY COMPACTS 50c to $1.75

The Doll Contest will close promptly at ten o'clock on Sunday evening. Prizes will be awarded at ten o'clock Monday morning, Christmas day. Be there! Horton's Drug Store

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL DIRECTORY. ROBERT G. YERKES ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. DR. L. W. SNOW Physician and Surgeon.

DR. E. B. CAVELL VETERINARY SURGEON. Phone 29 Northville, Mich.

DR. R. E. ATCHISON Physician and Surgeon. Office hours—10 to 11:30 a. m.; 2:00 to 4:00 and 7:00 to 8:00 p. m.

Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon. Office and residence, 404 West Main Street.

J. H. TODD D. D. S. Office hours—10 to 11:30 a. m.; 2:00 to 4:00 and 7:00 to 8:00 p. m.

DR. H. HANDORF Physician and Surgeon. Office—Pennacopa Allen theatre building.

ARTHUR S. NICHOLS Attorney. 414 West Main St. Phone 17.

G. H. BERNART Dentist. Office 107 1/2 East Main Street.

Dr. Paul R. Alexander Dentist. Office—Lapham Bank Building.

DR. H. I. SPARLING Physician and Surgeon. Dr. Irene Sparling Women and Children.

DR. A. A. HOLCOMB Physician and Surgeon. Office and residence, 117 North Wing Street.

Wellington Roberts Civil Engineer. Surveying and General Engineering.

Furnace Sheet Metal Plumbing Work. When you need anything in our line...

A. M. WHITEHEAD Shop in Basement of Horton's Drug Store.

TRY THE RECORD LINER ADS THEY SAVE YOU MONEY

LEGAL NOTICES

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

No suit or proceedings at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage...

Part of Section 11 of the Eastern Michigan Subdivision of a certain land...

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

is, his wife, Mortgages, to The Lapham State Savings Bank, a corporation...

Now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage...

Commencing at a point on the north line of Section 13, Town 11 South, Range 18 East...

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

mortgage of any part thereof. Now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale...

Now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage...

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

1 south range 9 east, running thence north along the eastern line of said section...

Now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage...

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

cover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof. Now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale...

Now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage...

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

No suit or proceedings at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage...

Now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage...

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE

In the Matter of the Estate of STEWART, MONTGOMERY, Deceased. The undersigned, having been appointed by the Probate Court...

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward A. Jockis...

Are You COVERED? Have your policies kept pace with your growing family, property and business? Don't neglect this important question. C. A. Dolph 230 E. Main Phone 450

HOW WOMEN CAN WIN MEN AND MEN WIN The Favor of Other Men. Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels...

THE OTHER DAY

Herbert Berend is expected home today (Friday) from Texas...

Leine Haystead, Arthur Hills, Paul Baldwin, Henry Hoffman...

the program for the Christmas party held at the Methodist church...

ing on the record during the season...

LET NONE BE FORGOTTEN IN NORTHVILLE

The Kiddies Fund in Northville has received some splendid gifts...

CHURCH NEWS

St. Paul's Lutheran - Leo C. Eckhardt, pastor. This Sunday, the fourth Sunday in Advent...

Presbyterian Church - Sunday, December 24 is Christmas Sunday. Let us celebrate this important occasion...

Next Methodist Church - Bible worship and service by the pastor, Rev. Edgar R. Miner...

Church of Our Lady of Victory - It was a combination of thrill and anxiety when our hall was swamped to over-capacity...

Christian Science Churches - "Christian Science" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches...

Methodist Church - The hour of the Sunday morning service December 24 is changed from 10:30 to eleven o'clock...

Baptist Church - The Regular Sunday services will be held at the church at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Michigan State today (Friday) - Richard Shipley is home from Ypsilanti as is Chuck Carrington...

Michigan State today (Friday) - Richard Shipley is home from Ypsilanti as is Chuck Carrington...

Michigan State today (Friday) - Richard Shipley is home from Ypsilanti as is Chuck Carrington...

Michigan State today (Friday) - Richard Shipley is home from Ypsilanti as is Chuck Carrington...

becomes still greater when we consider its purpose. God was made manifest in the flesh...

Let the love of God toward us, because that God sent His only begotten Son into the world...

WELCOME, O my Saviour now! Hail my portion, Lord, my Throne! Here, too, in my heart, I pray, O, prepare Thyself a way!

COUNTERFEIT BILL PASSED ON ROBERTS - A counterfeit $5 bill was passed in Northville last Saturday.

Bert C. Brown, of the United States Secret Service, gave a description of the two types of counterfeit five dollar bills...

Public worship and service by the pastor, Rev. Edgar R. Miner, each Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock.

THE MIRACLE OF CHRISTMAS - Christmas is the celebration of Christ's nativity. Until this event...

Merry Christmas TO ALL OUR FRIENDS AND PATRONS - For FRESH CHRISTMAS CANDY - See - Northville Confectionery JIM SPAGNUOLO

111 E. Main Ph. 125

GREETINGS To Our Many Friends and Customers May the SEASON'S BEST WISHES Be Fulfilled For You

NORTHVILLE DRUG CO. 124 E. MAIN PHONE 238

Wishing You Christmas Joy LAST MINUTE SUGGESTIONS FOR THAT GIFT YOU FORGOT!

Table with 3 columns: Men's Silk Four-in-Hand TIES, Men's Silk and Wool SOX, Men's Initial H'd'k'fs.

S. L. Brader OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL 8:00 P. M. 141 E. Main St. Phone 372

You'll Like These Artificial HOLIDAY FLOWERS - Poinsettias - Marigolds - Poppies - Dogwood - Japanese Cardinal - Narcissus - Last Call Before Christmas!

The ART SHOPPE Feniman Allen Bldg. Open Evenings

JEWELRY Watches Diamonds Silverware Clocks Cut Glass - Ours is a complete jewelry store. No line of goods more reliable is carried by jewelers anywhere.

WATCHES - Are our specialty and we can supply anything you want. SPECIAL - Electric Oven, $1.39. It roasts, bakes, boils, cooks vegetables, deep dish pies, etc.

CHRISTMASTIME IS Flowertime! CUT FLOWERS Premier Supreme Roses E. G. HILL, $1.50 doz. Carnations, $1.25 doz.

POTTED PLANTS Poinsettias $1.35 Cyclamen 75c Begonias $1.00 Primrose 75c

WREATHS Christmas Wreaths Cemetery Wreaths Excellent Choice $1.35 to $3.00 Northville People Should Buy in NORTHVILLE! Alexander's Greenhouses 350 Rayson Phone 176

Can you think of a GRANDER GIFT for Her?

A MAGIC CHEF gas range - to lighten her cooking tasks - to give her more leisure - to beautify her kitchen - to help her prepare better food.

Look for the RED WHEEL When You Buy a MAGIC CHEF

Michigan Federated Utilities Wayne Northville Plymouth

EVERYTHING for your Christmas feast KROGERS

THE FINEST TURKEYS MONEY CAN BUY AGAIN—Kroger has 4-Point Blue Ribbon

TURKEYS

ALL ONE GRADE — ALL ONE PRICE

The finest—that's what you want—and get—when you buy one of these. It may be possible to pay less—but impossible to buy finer. Why take chances?

1 lb. 23c

- ROASTING Chickens lb. 20c Ducks lb. 18c Geese lb. 17c

KROGER CHRISTMAS BEEF

- POT ROAST Choice Cuts Lb. 11c ROUND STEAK Eb. 13c SHORT RIBS OF BEEF Lean, Meaty Lb. 7c SMOKED HAMS half or whole Lb. 14c OYSTERS Fancy Select Pt. 30c

Bulk Pork Sausage 2 lbs. 25c

- California Oranges, large, doz. 39c Celery Stalks 5c California Oranges, medium, 4 lbs. 23c Celery Hearts 2 bunches 15c Florida Oranges, for juice 6 lbs. 23c Fresh Green Peas 2 lb. 25c Tangerines, Florida 3 lbs. 17c Lettuce, large heads 9c Emperor Cereals lb. 10c Cauliflower, large head 19c Candy Sweet Potatoes 4 lbs. 23c Cranberries, Eatmor Brand lb. 12c

LUCKY STRIKES—CAMELS—OLD GOLD—CHESTERFIELD

Cigarettes $1

10 PACKAGE CARTON—INCLUDING SALES TAX

- Country Club Mince-meat 13c Nonesuch Mince-meat 15c Beechnut Coffee lb 29c Country Club Coffee lb 25c May Garden Tea 1/4 lb. pkg. 17c Beechnut Spaghetti can 9c Campfire Marshmallows 20c Country Club Crackers 15c Uneda Biscuits 5c Beechnut Gum 5c Shredded Wheat box 13c Fruit Cake, 2 lb. Holiday box 79c Jello, Any flavor pkg. 5c Twinkle Dessert 2 pkgs. 9c

XMAS CANDIES AND NUTS

- XMAS CHOCOLATES Hard and Filled CANDY 5 lb. Box 89c 2 lbs. 25c Chocolate Drops lb. 15c Mixed Nuts lb. 19c

All Kroger prices include the 3% Sales Tax

KROGER-STORES

EATMOR OLEO 3 lbs. 25c

LATONIA CLUB Gingerale 3 bottles 25c 2c bottle deposit

Michigan Maid Roll Butter 2 lbs. 37c

Campbell's or Country Club BEANS Can 5c

MASTER Dill Pickles 2 Quart Jars 25c

JEWELL BRAND Coffee lb. 19c

Homemaker's Corner

Her Gift To Him

It was Christmas Eve. The excited chatter of children upstairs had finally quieted down. From the rear, after helping to fill those bulging stockings hung by the chimney with care, had boyishly hung his own gray sock beside them and called out, "Father get to bed, Mom, the stockings will be up early in the morning" as he made his weary way up the stairs.

Alone by the dying fire sat the woman. In her lap the gray sock lay empty. Several times during the past year she had tried to accumulate a small sum "for something special" by smuggling away a dollar now and then but always some family emergency had arisen and it had been spent.

And here was Christmas—and nothing to give him that was a gift from herself. Then with a sudden inspiration she rose, rummaged in a drawer for a stub of a pencil and a scrap of paper and set down again close to the fire. She wrote: "John dear, I have some very precious things to give you this year—not only for Christmas, but for all the year following. I could not ask you for money to buy your gifts this year and anyway, money could not buy them. Here they are: First, I give you the willing service of two hands—to keep your home clean and neat, to wash, iron and mend your clothes, to prepare your meals.

Second, I give you the gift of companionship. I will be your companion, remembering that I am your wife as well as the babies' mother.

Third, I give you the gift of hospitality to your friends. You may ask me, without warning, to put on another plate for Tom. If it's only soup—that soup shall be served with the best of modernness.

Fourth, I give you for the coming year 265 warm welcomes when you come back to me at evening, and saving.

I need do much the quiet of your love After the day's loud strife.

"Fifth, I give you my fidelity and trust. Even though at times I may believe you mistaken I will give you the right to leadership.

"Sixth, I give you the gift of motherhood to four children; to future and their best I can.

"And seventh, Partner, if the burden grows too heavy for your shoulders alone, I gladly give you the gift of one of mine on which to shift part of the load."

"I guess that's the best I can do this year," the woman sighed as she folded the paper and tucked it into the gray sock.

A GROWN-UP TRIBUTE TO SANTA

We pray that Santa Claus bring to every child that lives. Their pleasure comes from Santa's pack and the gay gifts he gives. But we—his grown-up children—have a different debt to pay. For our deep debt to Santa is for what he takes away!

He steals away the shackles that debar us from our goal. The sad and sorry cynicism that overshadows our soul. He filches, for the season, half our grousches, griefs and fears. Indeed he really robs us of some quite superfluous years!

Poor Santa must be burdened with the gifts and games and toys that, every Christmas season, he brings our girls and boys. But I shudder at the burden that must fill his bulging pack. As he bears off grown-up troubles on his overburdened back.

So children all love Santa for the many, many things Each merry Christmas season his unself'coming brings.

But grumpy, grouchy grown-ups when our heads are frosted gray, I think love Santa chiefly for the things he takes away!

"Merry Christmas"

Let the baby beat the drum and Willie toot the horn. That is their idea of peace on earth.

It is a mean father who won't lend his baby his golf stockings to hang up on Christmas Eve.—Selected

Risky I'd like to give my wife $50 for Christmas.

"Well, why not?" "I ain't certain that I could coax it away from her again."—Louisville Courier-Journal

Fondant Put five cups sugar, cup and a half water, and quarter teaspoon cream of tartar into a sauce pan and stir until sugar is dissolved. Heat gradually to boiling, then boil without stirring until soft-ball stage. Wash off crystals which form on side of kettle with a piece of wet cheese cloth wrapped around a fork. Pour on greased platter. When slightly cool beat until creamy. When it lumps knead with hands until smooth. Cover with oiled paper and let stand twenty-four hours.

Use as a basis for chocolate creams, nut creams, stuffed dates. Flavor with vanilla, fruit juice or extract, peppermint, wintergreen, cocanut, or any desired variety.

Christmas Fudding

- 1 egg Cup sugar Cup sour milk Teaspoon soda 3 cups flour Teaspoon salt Cup sugar chopped or 1/2 cup lard Cup flour Raisins Steam two hours in baking powder or cocoa cake. Serve with pudding sauce.

"LIFE BEGINS AT FORTY" A BOOK REVIEW

Dear Mr. Editor: I would like to have a book review corner in our interesting weekly—and there are a great many people in Northville who might enjoy reading a review occasionally, and reading one each week in the Record?

Book discussions are especially interesting and allow our local library does not have as many new books as we would like, still if there were a greater demand for them I think the board would see that they are provided in some way.

"Life Begins at 40"

Here is a short review of one of the new books at our public library—a book which should interest everyone—it is entitled "Life Begins at Forty," by Walter B. Pitkin, author of "The Art of Learning" and Professor of Journalism at Columbia University.

It was published in 1932, a short, easily and quickly read volume, but one that leaves food for thought and many ideas for pleasant discussion with friends before the fire.

Often, people in middle life become a little discouraged, perhaps because many of the great hopes of youth, conceived when vision was broad and confidence supreme, have not materialized, or at least, not as they had expected that they would, and therefore are apt to discount those very experiences which have really been of the utmost importance in laying a foundation for later accomplishments.

He quotes Mr. Henry Ford as saying: "What a man does before forty does not matter," which is indeed encouraging for those whose hopes have not yet been realized. Mr. Pitkin peers with great insight into the next fifty years of America's progress and relates that if the world changes even as much as one percent of its methods and equipment each year, it will advance portionally fast so fast in fact that by 1975 the experiences of living will be ten times more complex than today, thereby making the advice of the elders more and more valuable as years pass and civilization advances.

He believes that a change in the education system of the nation is imperative — young people should become self-reliant earlier in life, and to that end, suggests a part-time vocational training, enabling students to learn several trades while pursuing their regular educational or cultural studies, which he thinks at the present time, take about twice as long as necessary.

For another fifty years, the world is going to move away from mere bigness—away from billion dollar factories, slums and racketeers, armies and profiteers—towards personal health, security, self-respect, study, travel, conversation, art and music—a pleasant outlook to contemplate for our children, perhaps even for ourselves!

Relative to conversation, he says that if women would give half as much time in planning what they would say at a dinner party as they give to the arrangement of their hair, the world would be a merrier place in which to live; and there would be fewer divorces and murders.

In closing Mr. Pitkin assures us that we are the luckiest of mortals to be alive at the present time, for at forty we will be wiser and happier than at thirty, at fifty we shall be clearer, steadier, and surer than at forty, while at sixty, we shall be planning automobile trips to Mexico, a new sailboat, a survey of our village finances.

He says we will, but will we? If we use our minds, yes. Have we minds? Let us see.

—The Contributor.

The principles and practices of our existing social order must be re-studied and reappraised in the light of human values and human needs.

We are told that the present depression is the fifteenth through which our nation has passed in the last one hundred years; that it is a recurrent evil that has happened before and will happen again.

If this is true, it should be evident even to a wayfaring man that there is something fundamentally wrong with an economic system that breaks down on an average of every seven years with such frightful wreckage as we see about us on every side.

"Merely to restore the system to its normal functioning," as we have been advised to do, is to trifle with a terrible catastrophe and to assure its return.

The naive faith in our present economic gods must go. Simply to cry, as many do, "Though they slay me, yet will I trust them," is to invite destruction.

IDEAS

Gleaned by a Northville Idealist

We are entering the fifth winter of the worst economic depression in our history. Savings have been consumed, homes lost, and fortunes swept away. Every class has been profoundly affected. None has escaped the ravages of disaster.

Millions are jobless and wageless, without income of any kind, dependent upon public and private charity for their sustenance. The demands for relief are beyond those of any previous winter.

Our resources are reduced below anything we have heretofore experienced. The means of aid at our command are tragically depleted. The poor and needy must be cared for. The hungry and homeless must be sheltered and fed. There is no other course for us whatever the cost.

It is not enough that physical distress be relieved; measures must be taken to prevent the recurrence of another similar disaster.

DID YOU NOTICE

From the Orange and Black Section) The crimson countenance of Bill Eaton one day last week? Wonder how she will look in them? The disgusted looks on the faces of the bookkeeping students? They have started on Set II. Frances Alexander's new pet name?

The romance blooming between seniors, R. W. and C. G.? Will leading bells ring in June?

The shocked expressions on certain students' faces after they had caught a glimpse of what H. B. was washing around last week? What college has done to Wilma Robertson? The food must be good.

The excitement among the seniors Friday? Their pictures arriving?

Professional Maryanna Conroy with her new glasses? No more teeth periods for her.

Showing his bright side by solving a geometry problem for Mr. Jones? Someone look on Ida's face Monday? Jerry was absent. M. H. gets a note after every home? "I'll be faithful."

B. L. dreaming? Not of Pontiac this time, but right around home. How worried some students looked Friday? Report cards are a dreadful menace.

How friendly the girls' and boys' basketball teams are? The happy feeling around school today? Guess why.

SENIOR WHO'S WHO

Kenneth Eichen

Kenneth Charles Eichen was born in Northville, August 24, 1915. He and his family moved to Detroit when Kenneth reached the age of six months. He started to school when he was five years old at the Greenfield township hall. He entered the Noble school in the second grade, remained there through the eighth grade, and then went to Tappan Intermediate school. While there he was captain of the traffic division. Kenneth spent the ninth grade in the Cooley high school, and then moved to Northville in 1931, finishing his schooling at the high school. Kenneth was president of the junior class in 1932.

Kenneth's hobby is woodworking. His favorite pastime is dancing.

Kenneth has not yet decided what he will do after leaving high school.

Catherine Duguid

Catherine Margaret Duguid was born in Detroit, Michigan, March 20, 1916. In 1920 she and her family moved to Northville, where Catherine entered the first grade in 1922. Catherine has played in the high school community band for the past four years, and also served in the high school orchestra for two years.

Catherine's hobbies are all sports, especially tennis and basketball. She also likes to dance. Her favorite pastime is music.

Catherine is planning to enter the Michigan State college next year.

NOVINEWS

John Dutton of Albion spent from Saturday until Monday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Jay Burton.

Mrs. Frances Dandison called on Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gibson and Mrs. R. D. Stephens at Wixom Tuesday. Mr. Gibson is confined to the house with rheumatism.

Miss Myra Bassett, a domestic science teacher in the school at Lake City, Mich., is returning home today to spend the vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Bassett.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Nash and family moved recently from the Munro house, corner of Grand River and Taft road, into the Frank Clark house, recently vacated by Clyde Pratt and family.

Novi township has 71 men employed on CWA projects located in Milford, Lyon, Farmington and Novi townships and one woman working in the engineering department at Pontiac.

Sidney Ramsey, whose home is on the Wixom-Walled Lake road, was injured on the head by a pick axe in the hands of another workman Tuesday forenoon. He was taken to Dr. Lindsay at Walled Lake for treatment and the wound is healing satisfactorily.

The Misses Ada Mary Burton and Marian Erwin returned from Michigan State college at East Lansing Thursday, and George Mairs, Robert Christensen and Douglas Wellfare, Wednesday from the State Normal college at Ypsilanti.

Classified Ads

WANT ADS

WANTED—To rent, dairy farm of 100 or more acres. Phone 399.

WANT TO SWAP—All furniture at regular auction sale, Dec. 26 at 12:30 p. m., Harry C. Rice, 1500 Plymouth, Mich.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Room at a very reasonable price. 536 Main St. 50-11p.

FOR RENT—House at 125 North Wing street. Will rent reasonably to responsible party. Inquire at Record office.

FOR RENT—Modern house. Inquire 335 Cadiz street. 22-1c.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—1 Rock of Ages marble for $25.00, at Milford.

FOR SALE—Scotties. Four best breed Scotch Terrier puppies for championship strain. Will make a superior pet or companion. A real gift for Christmas. 35273 Elm Street, Wayne, Mich. 21-11c.

FOR SALE—Man's raccoon coat in good condition, at a bargain. Inquire at the Record office. 25-1p.

FOR SALE—Old-fashioned, home made mince meat, at 25 cents a pint. Bring pant cans. Grace E. Trumper, 229 High St., Northville. Phone 249-0. 23-24-p.

FOR SALE—Christmas trees. All sizes, fresh cut. We will deliver to your home. Will Roberts, Shafter Block, Northville. 24-25-p.

FOR SALE—Wood heating stove in good condition. A reasonable price, with or without new pipe. Mrs. Fred Miles, 515 Randolph. 24-25-p.

FOR SALE—Trailer four-wheeled practically new. White Farm, 1001 Bege Line road. 24-25-p.

FOR SALE—Three 4 prong, Ducks 15 cents a pair; geese, 16 cents; chickens, 10 cents. Mrs. Glenn S. Angell. 24-25-p.

FOR SALE—Fancy red chickens. Irving J. Ulmer, Phone 57 or 199-F-1. 25-c.

FOR SALE—Dressed legs, whole or half. Gust Barnhart, Beck road, Phone 7141-F-1. 25-c.

FOR SALE—Flea Gun, new. Twelve Mile and Grand River roads. 25-p.

FOR SALE—Fifty-five rabbits, white children and various other kinds at 35 cents apiece. Inquire Mrs. Chas. Staley, 677 Dunlap St. 25-p.

FOR SALE—Cream separator, 14 quart capacity. John Boushars, corner Nine Mile and Beck roads. 25-c.

Miscellaneous

GRATES—Ready made or made to your order. Sawn for 76 each. Grates also made on shares. J. O. Muro, Novi, Phone 5110-F-2, Northville. 42-4.

Paper Hanging and Painting, 25 cents double roll. Call or drop a card, 215 Yerkes St., Bealton, Harry E. Wood, Northville. 29-1c.

GRACE HALVERSON, Piano Classes for beginners forming Jan. 3. Enrollment Wednesdays. 511 Dunlap, Phone 58. 23-36-c.

ALL THE LATEST SONG HITS—Rutherford's new music department now carries complete orchestration and sheet music for all of the latest popular hits and classical music. 287 S. Main St., Plymouth, Mich. 24-25-p.

FOUND—Ladies purse. Owner can have same by proving property and calling at Record office and paying for this ad. 25-p.

HOLIDAY PLUM PUDDINGS... Steamed Old English Duff with Genuine Brandy Flavored Sauce

Order Early Lone Pine Tea Room Phone 234

Feed Headquarters Rolled Oats Scratch Feed Oc-Sak Egg Mash

Also a Full Line of Larrow and Farm Bureau Feeds

NORTHVILLE FEED STORE Phone 150

CHRISTMAS RUSH AT POST OFFICE IS EQUAL TO 1932

According to Postmaster T. E. Carrington, Thursday, it appeared that the local Christmas season postal business would be as rushing as that of last year.

Though the rush was a bit slow in starting this year, the post office yesterday was a scene of hurried activity. The office will remain open right up until six p. m. Saturday night in order to take care of all late comers.

With the exception of the special delivery service, no delivery will be made on Christmas day, the postmaster said.

LOCAL CHURCHES ALL HAVE FINE YULE SERVICES

Observe Christmas Season With Special Parties and Programs

The churches of Northville have been busy during the week with Christmas programs and will conclude with appropriate services Sunday morning. The great climax of the Christmas year, they will observe it with a joyous reverence.

Handel's famous "Messiah" was rendered for the whole community Sunday afternoon at the Presbyterian church and was one of the notable yuletide programs here.

Along with a Christmas tree and Santa Claus, a group of Northville girls who have been studying dancing under Mrs. Reynolds of Ann Arbor entertained those in attendance with the presentation of several Christmas tableaux.

A Christmas party was held Monday evening at Our Lady of Victory church, as well as a special entertainment for the ladies Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. L. Mills.

Several parties of a Christmas nature were held last week in Methodist circles. Beside this week's full program, the Service League met Tuesday night at the Parsonage.

Dr. W. D. Perkins, research student at Harvard and his staff spent the day setting down painstakingly detailed measurements and complex data for the subjects who offer themselves for the purpose.

Dr. W. D. Perkins, research student at Harvard and his staff spent the day setting down painstakingly detailed measurements and complex data for the subjects who offer themselves for the purpose.

Tonight (Friday) the Baptist church will hold its Christmas party, and those attending will be entertained by a short play in which Christmas carols will be sung.

They're taller, broader of shoulder, thicker through the torso, slimmer of hip and longer of leg than their immediate ancestors.

Obituary

JOHN HENRY SMITH

After an illness of three months, John Henry Smith died at his home on the Nine Mile road Dec. 19. He had been a resident of this vicinity for twelve years.

John Smith was born in Walsingham, Norfolk county, Ont., April 7, 1862. He came to Northville first where he made his home until he moved to the farm about seven years ago.

The funeral was held at the life home Thursday afternoon with Rev. P. N. Miner officiating. Interment was made in Rural Hill cemetery.

Professor Dixon found the little animals on Yeeps Point at an altitude considerably above that normally sought by mice.

He described them as part of one of the most interesting "triangles" in nature. Seeds of the yucca plant are scattered by white Yucca moths, picked up by the pocket mice and carried to their burrows.

They are much more thoughtful than I supposed and manifest quite a serious nature. Courageous in their thinking they do not flinch from facing problems which they discuss frankly in class.

The course, which is elective, was chosen by fourteen juniors and seniors of the high school all of whom have expressed a desire to continue next semester.

The New Testament is now being studied with the Epistles of St. Paul being treated as any other piece of literature in a purely non-sectarian way.

To the question, "Can you notice any advantage in previous Sunday school training?" Mr. Whitfield replied, "Yes, but one-half hour a week is entirely inadequate for a comprehensive grasp of the Bible. It should be supplemented by a regular study class in the public school."

Parents of these young folks appreciate such an opportunity for their children, especially since this service is given entirely gratis.

Joy Carrier is a student in the Madisonville, Ky. high school.

Chas. Trickey's mother dies at Miami, Florida

Chas. Trickey has received word that his mother, Mrs. Adelaide Trickey of Miami, Fla., died Dec. 11, at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Grace Forbes.

Thursday, at the daughter's home and burial was at Miami. A daughter, Mrs. Sarah Beeman, passed away last week.

Dr. DeWitt runs a grocery store

Northville Celebrates Christmas Season As Local Merchants Play Host To Many Holiday Shoppers

Even though the snowflakes aren't flying, the air is "Christmasy," everyone is filled with the festive spirit of the season, and Northville is celebrating the holidays.

The local stores are gaily decorated and will offer a complete list of gifts to Northville shoppers right up to the very last minute. Open to nine p. m. every night for the past two weeks, the Northville merchants say there has been considerable business.

Tomorrow night, the last one in which to shop before Christmas, business places will be open late and Northville is expected to be the host to throngs of both local and out-of-town last minute buyers.

The Northville post office is also doing its utmost to cooperate with patrons. Last Saturday the post office was open all afternoon, breaking its custom of the past few months, and it will be open till six p. m. tomorrow.

An additional treat to Northville youngsters is the fact that the Redford Lumber and Coal company is playing Santa Claus this year, today and tomorrow at their offices on the Base Line road.

Northville will also have a community Christmas tree on the main four corners to help give the proper atmosphere. As this was written it was not known whether or not Santa Claus will stop here Saturday night, but anyway it is certain that he will appear Christmas eve.

SPIRITED BOWLING MATCHES ARE PLAYED HERE DURING WEEK

With bowling ever gaining favor in the eyes of Northville men and women, last week witnessed some of the most interesting matches of the year at the Recreation Alleys.

Last Thursday, Dec. 14, the Pool Room defeated the A. & P. Seniors in three matches, and the same evening, the A. & P. Juniors won two out of three from the Dodge-Plymouth group.

Friday, Dec. 15, marked one of the most spirited games of the season when the Bill Forney All Stars dropped another series to the Rainier Recreation Seniors.

Monday, the Methodist church ladies lost to the Presbyterian, and the House team decisively beat the Rainier five. Tuesday night, set aside for the ladies as usual, the Plymouth Recreation team took two out of three from the House team of Northville Recreation. The North-department. The local office has not been troubled to any great extent with poorly wrapped parcels.

All local organizations, churches, clubs, and schools, have either given or are preparing to give Christmas programs. Homes are decorated, Christmas trees are up, and everywhere the atmosphere tinged of spirit of the season.

The Sanatorium and Salem are to be excepted; Salem is to be represented by people of Salem township, and the Sanatorium to be employees of the Sanatorium.

As far as possible the rules will be those governing the amateur basketball leagues. The most notable exception being that the quarters shall be 40 minutes in length with a minute rest between periods, and a five minute stop between halves.

Another meeting will be held Tuesday, Jan. 2, at the high school.

FLYMOOUTH ROTARY STAGES BROADCAST BEFORE LOCAL CLUB

Twenty-six members of the Plymouth Rotary club invaded Northville Tuesday noon and not only were guests of the local Rotarians at the Presbyterian church house, but also staged the complete program of the meeting.

Given in typical radio style the program consisted of a number of unique features. The occasion was written in its entirety by President Hough, and this was the second time the broadcast was given, the first having been before the Dear-

Record Liners Pay table with columns for date and amount.

Record Liners Pay table with columns for date and amount.

Record Liners Pay table with columns for date and amount.

Record Liners Pay table with columns for date and amount.

Record Liners Pay table with columns for date and amount.

Record Liners Pay table with columns for date and amount.

Record Liners Pay table with columns for date and amount.

Record Liners Pay table with columns for date and amount.

Record Liners Pay table with columns for date and amount.

Record Liners Pay table with columns for date and amount.

Record Liners Pay table with columns for date and amount.

Record Liners Pay table with columns for date and amount.

Record Liners Pay table with columns for date and amount.

BASKETBALL TEAMS FORM A LEAGUE TO START ON JAN. 11

The town basketball league started its machinery in motion Monday night, December 18, with a meeting at the high school, and representatives of the various teams discussed the several regulations to govern the group.

A few of the rules to govern the league play were decided on. It was decided to limit the number of players on each squad to 10, and a list representing each team must be turned in to Paul Thompson not later than January 15.

Mr. Hough was chief announcer and had all the mannerisms of the typical announcer. He was assisted by Walter Harris as technician.

In the absence of President Chas. E. Rogers, the secretary-treasurer of the club, E. L. Mills, functioned in capable fashion. The visit of the Plymouth men reciprocated one that the local Rotarians made to the Mayflower hotel last September.

MISS DILLA STOFFER PASSES ON TUESDAY

Miss Dilla Stoffler of Salem passed away early Tuesday morning in St. Joseph's hospital in Ann Arbor, after an illness of three years. She was 72 years of age.

Brief funeral services were held in the Schrader funeral parlors Wednesday morning with Rev. Lucia Stroh, pastor of the Salem Congregational church, officiating.

Interment was made in the cemetery at Randolph, Ohio, where interment will be made.

Bill's only boys are women's looks. It's hard to earn a bachelor's degree that way. -Argoey.

Liked at the Start

Bill's only boys are women's looks.

It's hard to earn a bachelor's degree that way.

Schradler Brothers advertisement for furniture. Includes text: 'You Can't Name Anyone Who Doesn't Need Something in FURNITURE', 'GIFTS', 'HERE'S WHAT A MAN NEEDS AND THESE ARE ALL FOR HER', and images of various furniture pieces like chairs, tables, and desks.