MORE PLANS FOR THE CWA NOW IN VIEW

New Projects Submitted At Detroit Expected to Be Approved

Prospects for the continuance of the local CWA projects have become considerably brighter since a number of new projects were submitted to the CWA board in Detroit, Wednesday, Feb. 7. The passage of a recent appropriation bill in Washington allotting approximately $250 million dollars to allow CWA work to continue until May means that the CWA will continue and all communities submitting plans before Feb. 15, stand a fairly good chance of having them approved.

Northville's new projects include work to be done in the three divisions of the CWA township, village, and school. The school repairs include the installation of 120 lockers in the high school building, the painting of exterior woodwork of high school and grade buildings and varnishing entrances, as well as the painting of the exterior of four classrooms, and two halls in the high school.

Further improvements in the grade building include the extending of the boys' toilet room in the grade school, also of the teachers' rest room, and the installation of new toilets and partitions in the grade building, and wood partitions between toilets in three toilet rooms in the grade building.

Village work will consist of a water main on West street, and further water main on Plymouth road, and a new sewer on Grace avenue.

The government is urging all communities to construct emergency airports, and one of the intended plans calls for the grading and fixing of the former airport on the Six Mile road, approximately two miles southwest of the village. The re-laying of the sewer on the Base Line road is also to be undertaken.

A new bridge will be constructed on Beal avenue near the Detroit Edison sub station. Improvements will also be made on High street, north of Randolph and will consist of widening the roadway and the bridge.

Two new storerooms in the basement of the village hall are also needed and have been submitted.

Northville will probably receive $250 more for materials this week, state CWA executives, and this will be used to cover miscellaneous work in the grade building such as repairs to the lunch room. This lunch room was refurnished from an old store room, and the new basement room, under the most recently built section of the grade building, will be used as a storeroom.

LESLIE G. LEE SUFFERS

A PAINFUL ILLNESS

Leslie G. Lee, head of the school music department, was confined to his home during the fore part of the week with what doctors believed was kidney trouble. Mr. Lee experienced some discomfort with a severe pain in his left side. He was able to be back in school before the end of the week, but as we go to press he was taken to the University hospital for observation.

DR. HANDORF HAS OPERATION

Dr. H. Handorf underwent appendectomy in Ann Arbor this (Friday) morning.

WOMEN UNITE IN DAY OF PRAYER

On Feb. 16 women all over the world will unite in observing a Day of Prayer. Northville and its vicinity has been observing this custom annually.

Again it is a good time for all women to lay aside petty differences and thin boundaries of creed and gather at one common place of prayer.

The Presbyterian church has been chosen for the gathering place this year and a program in which representatives of the various denominations will participate has been planned for mutual help. Special music numbers will add to the interest with Mrs. Sherill Ambler at the organ with Mrs. H. P. Blake assisting with the violin.

All women are most cordially welcome.

CWA WORKERS WILL MOVE SCOUT CABIN
TO NEW LOCATION

On Sunday, Jan. 25, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Papineau of Northville were honored by a large company of friends on the occasion of their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

The reception was held at the Carlton Inn in Clarkston, where there assembled fifty guests from Canada, Grosse Pointe, Detroit and Flint, among them the five surviving children of Mr. and Mrs. Papineau and ten grandchildren.

The center of the supper table was graced with a beautiful, red-cake cake and the rooms were adorned with golden snap dragons. Among the beautiful gifts received by Mr. and Mrs. Papineau was fifty dollars.

Fifty years ago Elizabeth Brissen became the bride of John Papineau at Drysdale, Ont.

Riding on bob sleds with the groom's parents they made their way as pioneers to the uncleared territory of Port Sanilac. Through youth and middle age they worked hard and met life with its joys and sorrows with equal fortitude. Four times they met bereavement, only five of the nine children born to them surviving.

Mr. and Mrs. Papineau have witnessed both prosperity and depression and have learned that both will pass in time.

In 1900 they came to Detroit and later to Novi.

JACKIE HOLCOMB AND REX DYE STAGE BATTLE

Boxing Benefit Attracts Big
Throng Saturday Afternoon

To love your friend enough to fight for him! That's a new one.

Two little boys, Jackie Holcomb and Rex Dye, pals since they began school together, went the rounds of Northville's business places selling tickets for a "benefit boxing match" to be put on by themselves Saturday afternoon. The idea was their own.

The price of admission was three cents. The tickets went "like hot cakes." Even those who had no time to come bought tickets with a free "never-mind-the-change spirit" to encourage the plucky youngsters. The boys beamed and their pockets jingled.

That afternoon the attic in the Dr. A. A. Holcomb residence on North Wing street was packed with spectators, old and young.

Wearing only brief trunks and enormous boxing gloves Jackie and Rex entered the ring. No sham battle this.

Both boys were in to win. Both were in dead earnest. Blows were dealt and dodged thick and fast as their little bodies sprang into the game. The audience applauded.

Fifteen rounds' time minute each and time was called by the official time-keeper, Freddie Casterline.

So fiercely had they fought that when it was all over it was an astonished audience who heard the authorities urging that an airplane field be included among the Northville CWA projects. About 32 other small towns and villages are constructing landing fields, he said, and Northville is on a direct airplane route the field here would be especially advantageous. Should an airplane factory consider locating here, he said, the field would be a valuable factor in Northville's favor. At a rough estimate, it is said, the cost of the work would be $3,000. The proposal was not acted upon and was left open for further discussion.

Locking arms the boys went off to the show together—but first to the store where they spent with lavish hand their well-earned $3.00.

When they came out young Rex was proudly wearing a brand new jacket and carrying a bundle of warm underwear and hose.

Both boys are remarkably well developed physically by their frequent training in the Holcomb ring. No wonder their dads are proud of

LIQUOR BY THE GLASS VOTED BY OFFICIALS

Commission, However, Will Insist on Strict Supervision

Liquor by the glass may now be sold in Northville.

At the meeting of the village commission, held Monday evening at the village hall, the following resolution was read and passed by the commissioners:

"It is moved and supported that the sale of spirits in addition to beer and wine may be sold by a restaurant or hotel approved by this (Northville) commission, unless any Northville person, protestant or Catholic, Friday evenings at 7:30, too, there will be a meeting following the theme of Christ along the journey of His Passion."

In keeping with the tradition of their church, the Baptists are not having a special Lenten program in Holy Week, March 26-31. During this time, Bible conferences will be held in the church at 7:30. These are to be conducted by Rev.

G. H. North, father of the Baptist minister, the Rev. Kendall S. North.

The Union Good Friday service this year in charge of the Baptist church, Mr. North has secured as the principal speaker, the Rev. Robert M. Letz of the Third Avenue Baptist church in Flint. Though it is not yet definitely known where the Good Friday service will be held, plans are being made for it and will be announced soon.

The Presbyterian church will also undoubtedly have a special program for Lent, but due to the fact that the Rev. Harold Whittier has been called away by the death of his mother, nothing was known about it.

The Lenten program of St. Paul's

Lutheran church will consist chiefly of Wednesday evening services beginning at 7:30 p. m., in addition to the regular church services.

The Methodist program for Lent is mentioned elsewhere in this issue.

CHURCHES PLAN FOR LENT

With the Lent beginning Ash Wednesday, Feb. 14, the thoughts of Northville churches are turning toward programs for the 40-day holy period.

In Our Lady of Victory church Mass will be held daily at 8:00 a. m. and Holy Communion will be distributed each morning at 6:30 a. m. and at 7:30 a. m. Wednesday evenings, beginning at 7:30, devotional services will be held. A series of talks are to be presented the purpose of which is to explain any misunderstanding of the Catholic religion by any Northville person, protestant or Catholic.

Friday evenings at 7:30, too, there will be a meeting following the theme of Christ along the journey of His Passion.

HI-SPEED STATION MOVE SCOUT CABIN TO NEW LOCATION

The Boy Scouts cabin is to be moved to a new location and improved as a CWA project. One of the new projects that is being turned into the Detroit "Scout of the Year" will be granted a license to be granted to a CWA for approval will move the proprietor who couldn't say no to the Scout cabin from its present location on the school grounds to the lot next to the Standard Oil Station on Main street. This lot which was owned by the American Legion has been donated to the Scout organization.

Within the walls of the modern and completely equipped Hi-Speed gasoline station on the corner of North Wing and Main streets operates the most efficient and exclusive lubrication check-chart system in Northville.

The station, managed by Maylon C. Hinman and John Thompson, is in a comparatively short time sprung to the front among the leaders in servicing and lubricating Northville automobiles.

When the project has been approved the building will be moved and a complete basement put under it. The present frame structure will be covered with a brick veneer utilizing old bricks. Two stone fireplaces will be built and the basement will be turned into a recreation room.

Because the expenditure for materials will exceed the amount allowed under present CWA plans it will be necessary to raise approximately $300 among local agencies.

Each point on the car, including the engine, will be greased exactly as the chart dictates. The kind of grease, the oil to be used, and the oil needed, he says, is shown on the chart, how often it is needed, and the speed of the exact lubrication of the car according to a factory specification chart, put out by the of the skilled laborers and educated manufacturer.

MERCURY DROPS TO TEN BELOW

Ten below zero, according to early risers on Thursday morning, gave Northville its coldest spell of the year thus far.

A bright, warm sun helped dispel some of the cold Thursday but there were many cars that refused to start and pedestrians bundled up warmly before venturing forth.

The Presbyterian church will also undoubtedly have a special program for Lent, but due to the fact that the Rev. Harold Whittier has been called away by the death of his mother, nothing was known about it.

FIRE IN THE BASEMENT AT HOUSE OF CORRECTION

Northville's Department AIDS in Fighting Stubborn Blaze That Burns for Hours Wednesday

Fire in the basement of the commissary department of the House of Correction, five miles southwest of Northville, did several thousand dollars worth of damage to food and stock Wednesday, and caused four firemen to be overcome by smoke and gas.

Discovered at approximately a quarter of twelve by an engineer, George Howell, the blaze apparently originated in the stockroom where wood spindles for the manufacture of chairs by the inmates were stored. The gun, wood, poplar, and oak, all kiln dried and highly inflammable, burst stubbornly throwing off great quantities of smoke which hindered the efforts of the firemen. Four fire companies consisting of 15 men from Northville, 15 from Plymouth, 15 from the

"SOMETHING TO FILL UP"

This newspaper last week ran over 40 columns of live news of Northville and surrounding community. These columns told you of your neighbors, your friends, and of yourself—for Chas. Dana, the great newspaper publisher of the past, once said: "The thing of greatest interest to anyone is himself; and next to that, the matter of greatest concern is his neighbor."

These 40 columns of community news—not to mention the other general news we carried—could be found in no other paper in the world, not in any other dozen papers combined. Only one paper on earth can publish them and that is the home newspaper. Incidentally, these 40 columns plus, are much more than are published in the average town of the size of Northville.

We are always a little embarrassed when some good friend brings in a general article "just to help fill up." Bless your heart, we set no news just as "filler." We cannot possibly compete with great daily papers that are full of such general news and we don't try it. We hand pick our news with the thought always in mind: "This must be Northville news, something of interest to Northville people." There is no "filling up" of this newspaper but there is a constant effort to "pick out" and find news that will be of interest to everyone who lives here in Northville and nearby.

We appreciate deeply all the local items that are ground or bright in. We are grateful for the "tips" that tell us where there is some Northville woman baby come to town someone going on a trip, a new barn being built or some new people coming to town and living on one of our streets.

If you know anything about your self or about your neighbor, it should be a pleasure part of your community responsibility to tell the home newspaper. "We thank you!"

OUR HIGH SCHOOL JOURNALISTS

Writing for a bus at noon one day in a California city of 16,000 population, we stepped into the office of the daily paper and asked to see the editor. At that time the writer was editor of a daily paper in a Michigan city and was alert to find some new ideas.

We were a little surprised to find this publisher alone in the office, reading proof. "Do you read all your own proofs?" we asked him. "No, that isn't my work," he replied, "at this stage paper and I want to know every word that goes in it so I always read every 'final' proof just to be sure that nothing gets into the paper that should be left out."

It is in a spirit of this spirit that The Record editor tries each week to at least glance over the corrected proofs. In doing this the past two or three weeks we have been especially impressed by what a fine array of news is being published in the Orange and Black section of this newspaper. Recently, there have been very valuable contributions to this page. We wonder if all our parents realize that Northville has in the "O and B" one of the very finest school pages to be found in any of the papers of the smaller cities. Had we not read some of these proofs so carefully, we probably wouldn't have appreciated how valuable this page is to our school and our community.

We all congratulate Miss Peggy Blake, editor; Miss Alice Beelens, assistant; and Leslie G. Lee, faculty advisor and all the reporters.

THE BEER GARDENS OF DETROIT

One would hardly call any of the three great Detroit newspapers "dry" organs, yet one had only to read the News and Free Press for last Thursday and Friday to realize that the beautiful promises made a few months ago, that beer gardens would be the solution of the liquor problem in Michigan, were pitifully wrong.

We quote from a Detroit News headline:

"Beer Garden Picture Here Not Alluring."

"Young People, Hotcha! Dancing, Drunkenness Form Major Part of Scene."

"Social Workers Cite Tragedies."

A beer garden operator in Detroit is quoted in the Free Press as saying this at a public hearing:

"Dancing at night with beer being served is rotten, gentlemen."

Not a very pleasant picture, readers, but the big Detroit papers—and not a bunch of preachers—tell the story of how it looks and it must be just as bad as they say it is—and maybe worse.

If this is the situation, we just wonder what the parents of these young folks who frequent the beer gardens are thinking about when they permit them to go to such places of vice. They have a lot for which to answer if their boy or girl goes wrong—as a lot of boys and girls are going right now in Detroit.

NORTHLVILLE SETS THE PACE

Judging from the reports of the President's Ball held in the smaller cities of the state, we are convinced that Northville, Michigan, goes the honor of having the big best and best. Detroit takes first place among the big cities of the nation—and of course we are all proud of that as we are really a part of Detroit.

Looking at the attendance figures from other places in the state, it really does seem that Northville, in proportion to its numbers, made just as fine a showing as Detroit. Thanks to general chairman, Nelson C. Schrader, ticket chairman, Mrs. Harry F. Blake, and all the other committees, the President's Ball here set a record for many years to come. Such a crowd, such a fine spirit of helpfulness in the great fight against infantile paralysis, such a splendid demonstration of loyalty to our president, Franklin D. Roosevelt, would be hard to duplicate anywhere in the state.

So we say we are proud of Northville and of the community spirit here that makes it possible to do big things in a big way. And it goes without saying, of course, that we are grateful to the nearby towns who merged their support with ours. Thank you, Farmington, South Lyon, Plymouth and yes, Detroit—for the big city sent us a few of her guests.

WANDERING THOUGHTS

February in Michigan—the month of "no fooling."

Pretty fine to have the Northville Ford plant using three shifts.

Watch for a more polished Record—two of our staff, "Dooley" Hyde and "Dusty" Milne, are studying in night classes in Wayne University. "Mrs. Editor" wanted to go too but couldn't find the time.

In the "Good Morning" column of the Detroit Free Press, a contributor cites among ten things "I Like Most" these three: "The blue of Naples bay"; "The Acropolis by full moonlight;" and "Sunset on the Nile." For those of us who cannot go to Italy, Greece or Egypt, we submit the following substitutes: "The Blue of the Detroit River or any of the Great Lakes—we'll choose Bay View for our spot"; "Prospect Hill (near Addison, Mich.) as the sun is setting;" and "Sunset in the Grand Canyon of the Colorado."

Three years ago last Friday the writer and his family came to Northville as the publishers of The Record. We have been looking for an adjective adequately describing this unforgettable period of time. If we had to start and live over these three years we think we should have to grit our teeth and tighten our belt. At times the road has been rocky for us—and for you, of course. There have come joys, sorrows, disappointments, some measure of achievement, (we hope); some shades and much of sunlight; some eternal loyalties; some "taking it on the nose"; some splendid rewards; some marvelous memories. What will the next three years bring? We don't want to know. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof."

LEST WE FORGET

(Brunswick, Me., Record)

In these days of business recovery when many of us who have known the pangs of poverty are again able to bring home the welcome pay envelope, let us not forget the man who befriended us when we most needed friendship—the merchant who extended us credit when he knew we just didn't have the money to pay.

It is easy to avoid the man to whom we owe money, but it is not right to do so. If we have any money to spend, any goods to buy, he is the man to whom we should go.

Our local merchant, especially, undoubtedly extended credit as a friendly act. He will be reasonable in arranging payment. Let us show our gratitude, walk in and shake hands and give him the benefit of our present business.

THE GROESBECK PUZZLE

J. J. Pope in the Grandville Star

Milton Carmichael, publisher of The Detroit Courier, a weekly newspaper, stated to me Friday that A. Groesbeck would make his announcement as candidate for governor before Comstock convenes his special session Feb. 15. Carmichael has long been recognized as a political factor in Wayne county and his statements are accepted as bearing gospel truth. A local citizen of authority states that if his opinion Groesbeck will not run, but will have much to do with Fitzgerald's present incumbency of the White House. I cannot but help recall the far shirt they put on Mr. Hoover and made him wear it until the very closing hours of his term of office.

I am wondering if there would not have been a different story told had he received the same kind of treatment from the American people. But probably not—we are a queer people—we had to wait until the college professors got busy and told us what was good manners in our treatment of public officials.

HAS GOOD RECORD

W. H. Berkley in Cassopolis Vigilant

Frank D. Fitzgerald has announced himself a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor. This announcement having been expected for many months owing to the fact that Mr. Fitzgerald appears to be the logical candidate of his party.

We do not know how good a governor Mr. Fitzgerald will make if he is nominated and elected to that office, but the people have a right to judge him by his performance on the jobs which he has previously held, and we know he is glad to be judged upon that basis. Some twenty years ago he was given a job in the secretary of state's office and handled that job so well that when a business manager was needed for the highway department he was chosen for the job. It was felt that he had greater opportunity for his talents and again he made good.

Four years ago he was elected secretary of state, and again he made good on his job. Again he made good on his job. Judging from past experience he will make good on the job of being governor if the people see fit to place him in that important office. He has a wide knowledge of state affairs and that is a valuable asset to any man who becomes governor.

In an agony of suspense he waited for her reply.

"Julia, do you know what love is?" The young man put the question in an intense voice.

"Yes," replied the girl, firmly.

"But do you really know?" he asked again. "Have you ever been the object of a love as undying as the sun, as all pervading as the stars? Have you ever loved and been loved like that, Julia?"

In an agony of suspense he waited for her reply.

DOUBLE ANNOUNCEMENT!

1 OLDSMOBILE OFFERS BIGGER, MORE BEAUTIFUL EIGHT.....AT LAST YEAR'S LOW PRICE...$845!

2 OLDSMOBILE WILL SOON INVADE THE LOW-PRICE FIELD WITH NEW ALL-FEATURE SIX...$640!

YOU EXPECT some improvements in any new car... But double your expectations! You'll still fall way short of the wealth of beauty and improvements with which General Motors has endowed the 1934 air-stream Oldsmobiles.

Knee Action Wheels! Each front wheel, cushioned on its own flexible coil spring, moves up and down like a knee—“walks” over bumps and holes without jarring the car or the passengers. Center-Control Steering banishes shimmy and shake. The slightest finger touch holds the car to its course. A built-in Ride Stabilizer prevents sway and roll on curves. There is a steadiness and a clinging-to-the-road almost unbelievable.

Stopping? The new self-energizing Super-Hydraulic Brakes do it quicker, surer, safer. These new brakes are a tremendous advancement over the conventional type of hydraulic brake.

More room? It's there. Quietness? It's there. Oldsmobile's Syncro-Mesh Transmission is quiet in ALL speeds; body and engine are crafted in rubber to absorb vibration.

Power? 90 horsepower in the new Straight Eight... $845 in the new low-price Six. The priceless year-round comfort of Fisher No Draft Ventilation. Precision-built throughout—with all the ruggedness, performance and economy for which Oldsmobile is famous.

Come in. Whether you plan to buy a new car or not, give yourself the pleasure of looking at, sitting in, driving a 1934 Style Leader Oldsmobile.

Sixes priced $640 and up, Eights $845 and up, f. o. b. Lansing. Spare tire with lock, metal tire cover, bumpers front and rear, and rear spring covers built in all cars at extra list price.

Octette Club Enjoys Evening With Mrs. Congo

Mrs. Jas. Congo was hostess to the members of the Octette club Wednesday evening when the usual happy time was enjoyed by these congenial young women. Mrs. O. B. King was a guest, substituting at the close of an evening of bridge.

Mrs. Congo was assisted by Mrs. McClintock in the duties of hostess and delectable refreshments were served.

A regular meeting of the Nellie Yerkes auxiliary, was held at the home of Mrs. Alice Benton with Mrs. Mary Ayers and Mrs. Carrie Taft assisting Tuesday evening, Feb. 6.

The devotional was led by Miss Geraldine Huff. The business meeting was then held after which a bridge was played the afternoon when Mrs. Jennie Shafeckrocker and Mrs. Bertha Neal were substitute guests.

High honor went to Mrs. Frank Thompson.

A dainty tea concluded the pleasure.

Our ideal is the spirit of these women of whom might be said

"And he who worked for money,
And no one worked for fame
But each for the love of working."

At noon a pause was made while the contents of the baskets were spread upon the tables and enjoyed together in a social fashion.

Another feature of interest of the day was the demonstration of the Spicee corset from the city whose visit contributed to the treasury of the society.

On Feb. 14, the members and invited guests will have another old fashioned dance at the E. O. F. hall in Plymouth.

"No, Thanks . . .
I'll Keep My Modern GAS RANGE!"

"After all, GAS gives me every feature I want in cooking equipment, many of them in a greater degree than any other method—and some that NO OTHER METHOD PROVIDES. Take SPEED for instance. We like steaks, and I can't be convinced that a glowing wire provides the searing heat necessary to properly prepare a good steak. It just isn't logical! Then again, I have to watch my budget—I've got to cook as cheaply as I can, and I can't afford to first heat a lot of porcelain, before the heat actually starts its work on the food I am cooking."

"So, for SPEED and ECONOMY there really isn't any comparison between gas and a glowing wire—and the modern gas range is equally as clean and cool as any cooking method available."

"Yes, Sir! The wise, the thrifty, the intelligent housewife, will in my opinion, stick with gas."

Patricia McClintock Celebrates Eighth Birthday

Little Patricia McClintock entertained several of her schoolmates on her eighth birthday anniversary at her home on Haggerty Highway, Saturday afternoon, Jan. 27. A number of amusing and interesting games were played after which a dainty lunch was served by Mrs. McClintock and Mrs. A. S. Humphreys. Her guests were Ruth Mary Miller, Mayne Perkins, Jimmy White, Beatrice Johnson, and Edith and David Amerman.

Service League Considers Life Of Victor Herbert

In their course of study of music this winter 35 members of the Service League studied the life of the popular composer, Victor Herbert.

Tuesday evening, Mrs. Serena Richardson discussed his life in an interesting manner and Miss Dorothy Meissner played on the violin two of Herbert's compositions which were well received.

The devotional part of the meeting was led by Mrs. H. A. Royden. Mrs. H. A. Mallinson, the new minister's wife, was present with the group for the first time and was welcomed. Rev. H. A. Mallinson dropped in for a brief call. A new member, Mrs. R. H. Bailey, recently from Milford, was also present.

Refreshments and a social time concluded the pleasant evening.

Woman's Club Discusses Present Civic Conditions

If the men of the community could have listened in on the program of the Woman's Club Friday afternoon they would have been surprised at the fund of information the women have in present-day problems.

The program was in charge of the current events committee. Mrs. Chas. L. Dubour, as chairman, presided in a discussion of the achievements of the Roosevelt administration.

Mrs. John W. Cleaver chose only three of the many projects on foot discussing in full the National Recovery Administration, the Tennessee Valley Authority and the Agricultural Adjustment Act.

The Federal Deposit Insurance was handled by Mrs. John Christensen, while Mrs. V. H. Carter, late president of the club, now of Ypsilanti, ventured to talk on the much-bandied-about question the Foreign Policy approving of the recognition of Russia.

"What Congress Has Done" was reviewed by Mrs. J. H. Boilen and Mrs. Carl H. Bryan read a paper prepared by Mrs. B. E. Larson on Democratic Women. Foremost among those women mentioned were Ruth Bryan Owen, ambassador to Denmark; Frances Perkins, secretary of labor, and the four women senators, Patty Caraway, Jewel Greenway, Katherine McCardy and Mary Norton.

Intimate glimpses into the lives of these women brought out interesting facts a woman's a woman for that."

A free discussion concluded this enlightening program with such close-at-hand problems as the milk situation entering in for some timely remarks.

Altogether it was one of the outstanding programs of the year.

Miss Ruth Melow Becomes Bride Of Charles Van Vleck

The home of Mrs. Addie M. Fly of Farmington was the scene of a simple and impressive wedding on Saturday evening, Feb. 3, when her granddaughter, Ruth Melow, only child of Mr. and Mrs. John Melow of the Bass Line road, became the wife of Charles Van Vleck of Detroit. Mr. Van Vleck is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Van Vleck of Ionia.

Before the ceremony, Miss June Johnson, a cousin of the bride sang, "O Promise Me." Rev. Cora M. Penrell of the Salem Federated church, the bride's pastor, read the marriage lines, using the double ring ceremony.

A gown of royal blue accented the bride's blond beauty, and she wore a corsage of pink sweet peas and baby narcissus pinned at the shoulder. Miss Helen Sanders of Plymouth, the bridesmaid, wore darker blue with a shoulder bouquet of pink sweet peas. Mr. Van Vleck was attended by Arthur McGrey of Plymouth.

When the eight o'clock dinner was served, the members of the bridal party and immediate relatives were seated at a beautifully appointed table in the dining room. An unusually attractive arrangement of deep pink sweet peas was used in this room. Small tables were placed in the two large living rooms for the other guests.

Mrs. Leo Van Vleck came from Ionia to witness her son's marriage. Mr. and Mrs. John Melow and Mrs. Addie Fly welcomed the guests who were: Mrs. Jessie Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Johnson and daughter June, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bucking and daughters; Alma Mae and Christine, Mrs. Alma Hoole and son, Gordon, all of Farmington. The guests from Northville and vicinity were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bloom, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ely and son, Ivan, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bloom, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ely, Miss Mildred Graves and Ray L. Penrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Vleck are welcoming their many friends to their home in the Linwood apartment at 2545 Taylor avenue, Detroit. Here they are proudly displaying the lovely and practical gifts showered upon them at their wedding.

Richard and John Witse, young sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ceda White, are confined to their home on West street suffering from attacks of the current winter epidemic of influenza.

Mrs. H. HoMallison of the Methodist parsonage thinks spring is surely not far off. A beautiful cardinal red bird has been out in the big maples near the home for several days.

George Simmens says the winter so far has been favorable to the fruit buds. There may be some damage to peach trees on the low ground but in general he looks for good apple and peach crops.

George Thompson, driver for the Maybury Sanatorium, and family, will move in a few days from 120 west Cody street to the Howard Whipple house on the West Seven Mile road.

Ute Tablets received a slight head injury while working on a GWA project Wednesday. He was not seriously injured and was able to go back to work after being treated.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto G. Owen were among the many Northville people who attended the O. L. V. Mardi Gras party at the Everglade Inn Thursday evening.

As an indication of better business conditions in Northville, Roy E. Crowe, district manager of the Bell Telephone Co., states that a number of new phones are being placed in local homes.

Mrs. Susie Morgan, Pitt Street, is assisting in the care of Mrs. John Burden who is ill at her home, 163 Adams street, Plymouth. Mrs. Burden is the mother of Mrs. Robert Thomas, South Center street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cattermole of Ypsilanti were guests of Mrs. Cass Benton Friday, renewing old friendships at the luncheon table. Mrs. Cattermole appeared on the program of the Northville Woman's club of which she is still a member.

James Spagnuolo has received some fine specimens of Florida fruit from E. C. Langfield, who is in the South with his wife. Among the lot was a mammoth lemon, bigger than three or four of the usual size "put together."

In deference to the annual World Day of Prayer the Woman's club has postponed for one week its regular meeting which would have fallen on that afternoon, Feb. 16. The club will hold its meeting on Feb. 23.

Russell Rogers, of Detroit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Rogers, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is due to be out for the first time since his attack. He and his mother, Mrs. Rogers, plan to spend the remainder of the winter in Florida.

Mrs. E. A. Shafer has received a number of characteristically interesting letters from Mrs. Wm. G. Lepham, who is spending the winter months in University, West Virginia. Mrs. Lepham is in excellent health and is living a pretty strenuous social life among her circle of southern friends.

"Business in the mining states in the West is booming," says Chas. E. Rogers, just back from a trip to the Pacific coast. Conditions in the mining states are still quiet, he states.

Mr. Rogers attended the Rotary club meeting at Salt Lake City, at which 120 members were present and he was the only guest.

G. E. Keeling of Redford has been named the new Northville manager of the Redford Lumber company, succeeding Miss Florence Hamerton, who goes to the company's Redford branch. Mr. Keeling will move here with his wife and three children at the end of the school year.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kalbfleisch were Northville visitors, Friday.

Little Tommy Stalker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Stalker, has a new little brother. His name is Geo. Hendrickson, and he was born in St. Joseph's hospital, Ann Arbor, Jan. 2.

Arnold Jaska, well known here, acted as guide for a party of Detroit newspapermen during the fire at the Detroit House of Correction Wednesday evening. Arnold is a guard at the institution.

A good crowd took advantage of the fun dinner served by the trustees of the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening. The dinner was up to the usual "high" standard with the men wearing white aprons and serving very capably.

The Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary will serve one of their popular suppers at the Presbyterian church house on the evening of Feb. 14. This time it will be a chow mein supper and will be very delectious with excellent service. The public is invited. Thirty cents.

Because of government requirements that farm property be fully protected by insurance before a loan is extended many farmers in this vicinity have been consulted with Frank Freyell, agent for the Michigan Mutual Liability Windstorm Insurance company.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Day and son, who have been living here for a short time on Rayson avenue, have returned to their former home at Adrian.

At a dinner given Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Eural Clark, the following were guests: Mr. and Mrs. Frazer, Staman, Mr. and Mrs. Orlow G. Owen and Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Hauger.

Gordon Allen, Northville, night watch, is never without the little black dog that follows him wherever he goes.

The wife of the minister of the various churches will have charge of this service. Special music, responsive readings, interspersed by prayer will be the order of the service, with a special message brought by Mrs. Floyd Crompton, wife of the pastor of the Coronado Baptist church, Redford. Mrs. Crompton comes to Northville through courtesy to her friend, Mrs. W. S. North, whose turn it is to have chairmanship of this annual meeting.

The meeting will begin at 2:30 o'clock. All women of the village are most cordially invited to attend.

Plans are now under way for the installation of a public address system which will deliver the service from the Baptist church to patients in their rooms at the Eastlawn sanatorium. Rev. Kendall S. North and Clifford Turnbull are in charge of the plans.

The visit of the Oklahoma Cowboys to the Northville Potomac in Allen theatre tomorrow night (Sat.) will be the first legitimate vaudeville that has appeared here in several months. The radio troupe appeared at Plymouth several weeks ago and were enthusiastically received.

Every Sunday and Thursday evenings Ford dealers, of whom Arthur R. Marz, local dealer, is one, are putting on a sparkling radio show featuring the Waring orchestra. A minimum amount of unobtrusive advertising is one of the features and nationally famous guest stars will help to make this program one of the best on the air, says Mr. Marz.

Guests at a party which was to be given Thursday night by Miss Genevieve Hamilton at the Granman Ranch house were Harry Seagren, Melvin Crisler, Genevieve, Duane Duval, Grace Hamilton and Leona Zorichuk. After a program of winter sports the guests were to return to the house for an evening of dancing and refreshments.

When the fire chief from Detroit who directed operations at the House of Correction fire (see story on page one) was searching for a hose with some real pressure behind it he felt the Northville fire, held by Gary Deal, assistant chief, and shouted to his men, "Come on boys, here's the line we're looking for." Northville's fire truck bows to none in being modern and efficient.

Over 150 Rotarians from Plymouth, Northville, Ypsilanti, Wayne, and Amherstburg, Ont., are expected to gather at the Mayflower hotel at Plymouth Friday noon, Feb. 16, when Dr. Morton S. Rice of the Metropolitan Methodist church of Detroit will be the speaker. Dr. Rice, a member of the Detroit club, is known to Rotarians everywhere as "Mike" and is always given a big reception when he speaks to members of the club anywhere.

A fire in an apartment house owned by C. C. Sessions in Antwerp resulted in damage to the extent of approximately $5,000, and caused 12 persons to be left temporarily homeless. Mr. Sessions is well known here and at one time was a resident of the village.

"Madame Spy" and Oklahoma Cowboys Are Double Feature Shown at the Penniman-Alten Theatre Here Saturday

The Northville Penniman-Alten is one of the most interesting back-stage scenes at the theatre on Feb. 16, in the leading male role of "Beloved," Universal's musical romance of a century, in which he is featured with Gloria Stuart. In the picture Boles is seen in "Madame Spy," also dips back into the World war for a number of scenes. Specialty brief sets were made further from the truth. Europe is full of spies, male and female, but the ones who get the most publicity are the "Madame Spies" of the world. In last Monday's paper there was a story headed thus:

"Link Woman Spy with British Case" Strange as it seems, the story, under European date line, might readily have been taken as a hospital train, with its drab and sombre uniforms, personifying the story of "Madame Spy," now playing at the Penniman-Alten theatre. This production, directed by Karl Freund, features Fay Wray and Nils Asther, with Edward Arnold, John Miljan, Noah Berry, Vince Barnett, David Torrence, Douglas Walton, Oscar Apfel, Roger E. Ellis, Mabel Marden, Alden Chase and Rollo Lloyd in important roles. It's action fairly flies between Vienna, Berlin, Leningrad and other Continental capitals, and put the production department of Universal on top of the popularity established when it was first shown for properties which ever since as the screen's greatest hits have enjoyed a temporary success, but in point of art and craftsmanship, it's a good up-to-date. The result is

THEY SAVE YOU MONEY

THIS WEEK By H. B. WHITE

Probably one of the finest instances of humanity that I have come across in a long time is contained in the following telegram that a former war lord of China sent to his government when he resigned his command:

"After the loss of the three eastern provinces I tried my best to renew my faith but the fall of Jesu convinced me I am unfit to be a commander. I have not fulfilled my duties to the government and my responsibility to the people. If I remained in office one more day I would be blamed still more. Even if I die, my death would be of no advantage to the government, nor would it improve the situation. Therefore I ask the government to allow me to resign as a sign of its dissatisfaction and to appoint a capable successor."

In I read it at the time I wondered how many people men in our own government or any other, in fact, would so humble themselves as to send such a message when their services were found wanting. It is something no doubt quite foreign to an occidental mind yet at the same time one that might well be emulated. For candor and humbleness there is probably no parallel in the western world.

ROYALTY PLAY TO BE GIVEN FEBRUARY 21

The Cast, Under L. G. Lee,
Includes Several Familiar Faces

Those Northvillites who have been waiting patiently for the time when Leslie G. Lee and his music department would present another play for which they are so noted, will have the opportunity of seeing them give one on the twenty-first of February. Knowing the type of production audiences of this community prefer, Mr. Lee has chosen for their pleasure a sparkling three-act comedy entitled, "The Whole Town's Laughing." In this recently written play there is never a dull moment; things to keep those who attend delightfully entertained are abundant. Prices of admission are unusually low and the fact that this is a royalty comedy assures its being a worth-while play.

The scene of "The Whole Town's Laughing" is the home of the O'Mores, the aristocrats of the small town in which they reside. The plot tells the story of this family and various incidents, such as the inopportune arrival of some poor relatives or the visit of nobility, that are connected with it.

The characters are:

Henry Hoffman as Douglas O'More, a young Irishman with a ready smile and a likeable disposition, but at present quite "ancestor conscious." He looks down on his neighbors a trifle and is forever bragging about his forbears.

Edward Angove as Chef O'More, a youth of sixteen, full of mischief, but a regular fellow who loves fun and hates family traditions.

Maurice Giles as Mortimer Mortlock, a pompous banker. The type who basks in the reflected glory of others.

Ralph Bogart as Geoffrey Lamont, the town "wise guy."

Charles Strautz as Count De Jong, a tall, distinguished man with continental air.

Afral Parmenter as Uncle Larry Moore, a fighting Irishman to his toes, but good-natured, laughable and likeable. He has a brogue and a contemptuous disregard for the formalities of society.

Kaylyn Ambler as Doris Mortlock, daughter of the banker. She is well-educated but too conscious of her position in the town.

Mary Fausey Baydon as Sarah, the maid, not a regular maid, however. She has been recruited from the farm.

Peggy Blake as Margaret O'More, the invincible, easy-going mother with high aspirations for her two boys.

Winfred McCordie as Countess DeLong. She is gracious and charming and speaks, as does the Count, with an accent.

Ida Altman as Clara Belle May, a pert, pretty youngster about the same age as Chet.

Marion Turnbull as Mary Ellen Sullivan, a lovely young girl with a soft smile and gentle manners—until aroused! Then she has no compunction about speaking her mind.

This play was written by Robert St. Clair.

CORNER FOR BOOK LOVERS

(By Rita Sprenger.) Why is it that real or imaginary romance seems to go forever hand in hand with a uniform (though hardly a striped one)? Especially those of the Canadian Mounties or the English "Tommies" of India? Of the latter, for those who like the lure of adventure in a mysterious, wild land, Talbot Mundy gives good measure in his "Cock of the North."

Agnes "Gyp" McLeod, a Scotchman if ever there was one, served in the great War and left him cynical, stubborn, and mean-tempered, with his ideals shattered around him. He is intrigued by the ex-Ranee of Jhulander, who is part Irish and part South-African-English-Dutch, into an attempt to overthrow the Indian government. It turns out to be a whole group of snarls. As in so many conspiracies, everyone is plotting against everyone else. At first McLeod flatly refuses the Ranee's offer to make him Commander-in-Chief of her army until he realizes that his name has been blackened in the English army by Major Flint because of a personal grudge. Then to cap the climax, a friend shows him a plan in which he can turn the tables on the revolution, clear up his name and Major Flint all in one whirl. The rest goes to make up as good a yarn as ever was reeled off the press.

For those girls who like a book which is easy reading and yet holds your interest, I would recommend "Anne" "Alive" by Margaret Deane Faverweather or "Timberline" by Adela Sims Malluk.

Dawn O'Leary, heroine of "Timberline," was the daughter of a forest ranger out West. Her mother had died of the "Great White Plague" when Dawn was a baby. A spire of mystery is added by the search for the Silverstake pure which, as the name implies, marked a vein of silver. The story deals with the government through the game and preservation laws and laws for the rights of the Indian.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

What do you think of the present sportsmanship of the school?

Stanley Taylor. On an average I think the sportsmanship rates very high compared with other schools of this vicinity. However, there are times when a certain group gets together and starts something which later proves harmful to the school's standing.

Mary Anna Condit: I think our sportsmanship is atrocious. I, too, sometimes lapse into bad sportsmanship where the referee is concerned. We want our team to win so much that we forget all about the other team's team.

Essie Nierder. I think it is fairly good, better than it has been in the past. There is still much room for improvement, though.

Frances McLoughlin: Lately it has been good, but it is not yet the best sportsmanship possible.

Dayton Deal: Our sportsmanship isn't the best, but it is far from the worst. Since the first Farmington game, it has been steadily on the up-grade.

Helen Christensen: People can't complain about our sportsmanship. We weren't up to standard at first, but I think we are now.

Nelson Schrader, Jr.: I believe that the sportsmanship of N. H. S. is very good. Of course, when the students see their team losing, they are quite inclined to disagree with the referee, if they feel he is wrong, but I don't think that this is bad sportsmanship.

Naturally, it can be carried too far, but you must remember that some of our games have been close and exciting.

Norwood Dickenson: I think our sportsmanship is fair, and if some of the other schools would try to improve theirs, it would help a great deal.

TRENTON OUR FINAL RIVAL IN BASKETBALL

Game Will Determine Northville's Place in the League

Tonight Northville will again meet Trenton in a battle popularly predicted to be a "real one." Contrary to all opposing reports, the game will be held in the high school gymnasium, with the reserve team on the floor at seven o'clock. Together with the fact that Trenton is undoubtedly one of the team's most dangerous opponents, and that this will be the last home game of the season, ought to insure the entire support of the student body and townspeople.

Northville encountered defeat at the hands of Trenton in the last game with her in the latter's gymnasium, with a score of 33-11. But the boys are looking forward to a much different outcome tonight. Provided they should be successful in their determination to triumph, Trenton, N. H. S. would claim a tie with Trenton for second place in the league. Coach Watts believes both teams to be in such a shape and the new combinations so favorable as to warrant this sort of an outcome. This game should also determine fairly well the team's chances in the coming tournament, which is scheduled to begin March 1.

Northville's line-up will be: Forwards: Deal and Hoffmann; center: Bray; guards: Larburger and Westphall.

Wait Adrian from Ypsilanti, who has capably refereed two former games in which Northville participated will be the referee.

Leslie Pierpont's face Monday afternoon? Does he have high blood pressure or was it just a reflection from his tie?

That Ray Westphall lost his winning smile Monday at 3:30 some where in the back of the assembly room, while conversing with an instructor? Finders please return immediately. A handsome reward of $100.

Bob Lykes face white a certain person walked into his Latin class the other day?

Jack Jimmerson wearing a girls ring Friday night? It's a mystery that has stamp'd more than one.

What an efficient cheer leader Paul Baldwin is getting to be?

That the O. and B. is pleasant, at least one student in N. H. S. is not other than Spencer (Don) Wint.

My Name In The Paper? Van Varkenburg

That no one enjoys Geometry class more than Ida and her friend "Happy?"

M. C.'s dramatic experience at Katherine Cornell, the 19th

How down-hearted "Rene" is lately? Revere's gone.

N. S. telling Miss Palmer how to pronounce her Latin?

That Eleanor Booth and Nick Reesko are on very mutual terms?

How many girls with musical talents believe themselves to have a taste for an Indian maiden?

The cheer brigade marching down the assembly aisle? Oh, what fun!

THE OBSERVATION
COLUMN

(By "The Observer")

After observing (always on the job, you see!) for a while, I have decided to tell you about a gentleman. I hurry to assure you that the other gentlemen who have made history by appearing in my column (I love me) are gentlemen also, but the gentleman I am about to honor is also a gentleman, so—oh let's just forget it.

He is a good sport, not only in athletics, but in everyday life as well.

His manners, like his appearance, are perfect. He is in keeping with all of Emily Post's ideas, yet acts with no stiff absurdity at all. He is at ease with anyone.

Passing fads on to admiring students seems to be a favorite pastime. They struggle to lift their eyebrows, blow bubbles, etc., with the nonchalance which he assumes, but they never quite attain perfection.

He can whistle beautifully, but try to get him to sing—well, Mr. Thrush is very bashful about that.

His surface characteristics are: he is dark and handsome, but not very tall. He has curly hair and a nose which wrinkles and dimples when he is affected with that impulse commonly known as laughter.

Now guess.

Straight From the Blarney Stone

Lady Motorist—"But really it wasn't my fault. I put out my hand."

Gallant Irishman—"Sure, me darlin', tis your hand that's so small."

Woman in Mourning—"Sub-mortgage made by Spencer."

COAST FLOODS ARE DESCRIBED BY LEO KOHLER

Editor's Note: Following are some statements taken from letter written by Leo Kohler, a former Northville student, to his parents. Our thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Kohler for kindly allowing us to print these interesting facts.

Leo is now residing in Culver City, California.

I suppose you have heard all about the flood. All that remains of it is the destruction left behind. Sunday it rained so hard that Monday I couldn't go to the Rose Bowl game and was forced to listen to it over the radio.

Albert and I went to Los Angeles New Year's Eve and late that night on the same bridge we crossed, a car, occupied by two young men and a girl, stalled. The men entered a cafe to call, and while they were gone, the water swept the car and the girl away. They found her body under a lot of wreckage. A minister's daughter was drowned in the flood and her body was carried right up to her father's front door, where he found her the next day.

Another automobile containing a family of six was dug out of twelve feet of dirt.

Tuesday we had to go around and clean up. People had all their upholstered furniture out drying and were sweeping the mud and water out of the houses. It surely was a mess.

This gives you an idea of what some of the flood was like. It was not so bad in Culver City. They have been shoveling and trucking the debris away, so today it was pretty well removed. I was talking with an insurance man and he said that the residents gave away and that there were about 150 dead instead of 35 or 50 as was reported.

Paul Baldwin

Paul Baldwin first saw this world on Sept. 26, 1916, in Marquette, Michigan. When Paul was still a tiny babe of four months, he and his family moved to Albion, Michigan, where he eleven he moved to Clinton. A year later the Baldwin family decided they would like to come back to Michigan, so back they came. When Paul became a lonely boy of thirteen, he moved to Forestville, Michigan, and six years later moved to good old Albion, where he has lived this month with his parents.

Paul has made quite a name for himself in school sports. He was on the track team and showed his ability in playing football. He sponsored a basketball team until he received an injury that put him out of the team in his first year. He was captain of his basketball team in 1933-34. Paul belongs to the K Club and has served on committees for the J-Hop and Senior Prom.

We need not tell you that Paul's hobby is horses. His favorite pastimes are reading, and riding over to Meads Mill (you probably know why).

Paul would like very much to go to Albion College after graduating.

Lucille Dorothy Cavell

Lucille was born on Feb. 22, 1914, in Farmington, Michigan. She entered the tenth grade here while she was living in West Point Park. She left school after finishing the eleventh grade, and re-entered the twelfth grade in Northville last year. Lucy is serving on the invitation Committee for the Senior Prom. She played basketball the last three years of her schooling.

Her favorite pastimes are swimming and dancing; her hobby is basketball.

Lucille has not decided what she will take up on leaving school.

THREE RINGED CIRCUS

Little Bobbie had been left at home to play with a small visitor while his mother was away from home. After about an hour she telephoned to check up on him.

"I hope you are being good boys while mother's away," she said.

RELIEF IN SIGHT

Relief from excessive motor taxes is demanded by the Automobile Club of Michigan which will soon begin circulation of petitions through the state to bring about a reduction in the weight tax of approximately one-third, and limit the state gasoline tax to two cents a gallon. Pointing out that automobile registrations have decreased annually since 1929, the Motor Club seeks to keep automobile taxes in accord with the times. It is pointed out that the state can operate with one-third less automobile tax monies and still maintain its present road system, build a liberal portion of new roads and make such alterations, widenings later as are necessary.

LOCAL G. O. P. CAUCUS TO BE HELD MARCH 5

Leaf-Fish Easily Fooled

His Prey to Get a Meal

The leaf-fish, Monopterus polyacanthus, from South America, is of a dull bronze color and has a remarkable resemblance to a dead leaf. They are found at home in the still backwaters of the tributaries of the Amazon and collectors have reported that it is necessary to examine tufts of drifting dead leaves before finding one of them lurking in the leaf-fish.

They eat small fish and their method of feeding is one of the most interesting of all tropical fish. When searching for a meal the leaf-fish drifts slowly through the water and is turned down and twisted toward the surface. When he sees a fish he begins to swim toward it.

The leaf-fish is now alarmed by what he must think is just another drifting dead leaf. When the hunter has drifted close enough to make a strike he quickly raises his head to the mid-water position and with lightning quickness opens his enormous mouth into which the smaller fish disappears. Then the leaf-fish goes back to drifting waiting for more.

When a pair of leaf-fish are ready to spawn they select a suitable mate. Taking along the undersides of a stem or the leaf of a water plant. This is cleaned off all dirt and sediment in the particular case, then the eggs are attached to the underside of the leaf, each egg being surrounded by a thin, like a fine silken thread.

After the eggs have been attached to the leaf the parents take up a position near the eggs and proceed to fan them by a brisk motion of the pectoral fins. This procedure causes a strong current of water to flow over the eggs and makes them swing back and forth. It provides oxygen and removes any sediment that might collect on the eggs.

Mrs. A. E. Fulier expects to leave for a visit with her daughter Mrs. M. F. Meeker, of Syracuse, N.Y.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Union will be postponed from Wednesday evening, Feb. 14, to Tuesday, Feb. 20, when Mr. Mallinson will speak on "The Significance of Lent". On succeeding Wednesdays he will choose the following topics: "Meeting a Crisis," "The Business of Life For Today," "The Art of Living," and "Spiritual Blindness." On Ash Wednesday, in connection with the evening service, there will be communion for all Christians who wish it irrespective of denomination.

The regular meeting of the Church of Our Lady of Victory

Schedule for Lent. Periodical examination and inventory of one's possessions is a surer guarantee of success, since it has the elements of prevention, cure and care. Certainty of one's present capabilities prevents mistakes and opens up opportunities. Lent is a season of soul inspection which reveals the fundamental principles of moral life set down by the Creator Himself. These are safe guide posts to a correct life. When the world learns to take time occasionally to examine its conscience many evils will cease and more happiness will result.

Lent opens up next Wednesday, Feb. 14. In our churches the ashes of last year's palms are blessed and distributed to the people, indicating our lofty humility in depending upon a wise and honest God.

Daily Mass during Lent will be at 8 o'clock. Holy Communion will be distributed at 6:30 and 7:30 a.m. daily. Evening devotions will be held each Wednesday at 7:30. The series of talks on these evenings will cover Northville's (both Protestant and Catholic) misunderstandings of the Catholic religion. On each Friday evening at 7:30 we shall follow Christ along the sad journey of His Passion. Fourteen scenes of this journey are in picture form on the walls of every Catholic church. They call it the Statues of the Cross. The public is never excluded from Catholic services.

What Would It Mean?

One of the duties of certain Roman soldiers was to guard the Apostle Paul while he was a prisoner in Rome. It was the custom for each soldier to be fastened by a chain to his prisoner. Now think of the pride of that soldier who was chained to Paul! Think of him with that radiant, joyous life! It is almost certain that some, perhaps all of the soldiers who were thus chained to Paul must have become chained forever to Paul's Christ.

Friend, what would it mean to the persons who were chained to you, in your daily life? Suppose some one were forced to be ganged to you, in your daily life, in home or school, or office or shop or kitchen; would it be a wonderful privilege for him? Or would it prove a detriment? Would the person thus chained to you be brought nearer to Christ, or would he be offended?

Examine yourself seriously and find the true answer and act accordingly, making your life an example for others to follow.

Catechumen instruction every Saturday morning beginning at 9 o'clock in the church hall.

This Friday evening, a $5.00 meeting of all the men in the congregation will be held in the C. C. Hall, 8 p.m.

Next Wednesday, the beginning of Lent throughout the season of Lent, the weekly services will be held in the church, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

The first of this year's series of sermons will be delivered next Wednesday evening.

Do not forget to tune in on the half hour of Faith and Fellowship broadcast every Sunday afternoon from 1:30 to 2 p.m. over station WXYZ.

To all who mourn and need comfort; to all who are lonely and want companionship; to all who love and sing God's praises; to all who sin and need a Savior; to all who seek salvation. St. Paul's Lutheran church opens wide her portals and in the name of Jesus Christ bids you welcome.

F. & A. M.

The following students in Mrs. Reng's room have perfect attendance records for the first semester: David Amerman, Evelyn Boyd, Jack Card, Harold Dayton, Dorothy Fred, and Richard Ritchie. Members of this grade are learning the art of letter writing. They built a post office and decorated their bulletin board with various kinds of stamps and letters.

Alie Steele's pupil in Miss Jarvis' room is ill. Last week her classmates wrote her letters while mailing them at the post office they learned how letters are stamped, sorted, and distributed.

Students in Miss Corrin's fourth grade who have been neither absent nor tardy for the first semester are: Frank and Florence Borg Giovanni, Robert Sears, and Alfred Kirchberg. Ernest Neely and Freddy Waiter were the champion spellers in this room according to a recent spelling test.

The seventh and eighth grade have organized a dramatics club. There are thirty members in the group and it is their intention to study and present short plays and sketches at assembly programs. The officers are: President, Nan McLaughlin; vice president, Keene Ecton; secretary, Virginia Washburn; Edith and Fred Walpope, former students in the seventh grade have moved to Waterford. And Wilma Moel from the eighth grade has moved to Northville.

METHODIST CHURCH PLANS EXTENSIVE PROGRAM FOR LENT

The Northville Methodist Episcopal church will observe the 40-day Lenten period with an extensive religious program planned by the Rev. Horace H. Mallinson, pastor. It was announced last Sunday.

This program, "The Methodist church's contribution toward the development of Northville's moral and spiritual life," will include preaching services every Wednesday night, a rendition of Steiner's "Crucifixion" on Palm Sunday evening, Good Friday services every day, Good Friday service and an Easter sunrise service. The general theme of the whole Lenten program will be "Modern Life." It will begin on Ash Wednesday evening, Feb. 14, when Mr. Mallinson will speak on "The Significance of Lent".
