FLAMES RAZE LEE FOUNDRY AT PLYMOUTH

$100,000 Damage Is Done and 40 Men Thrown Out of Work

Fire of unascertained origin which swept through the Lee Foundry and Machine company at Plymouth Wednesday evening did approximately $100,000 damage before it was brought under control. The plant covers two and a half acres of ground on Mill street near East Ann Arbor street.

About 40 workers who left their posts at five o'clock in the afternoon would have been endangered if the fire had broken out 20 minutes sooner. The alarm was turned in at 5:30 by Charles P. Trombley, a nightwatchman who was just coming on duty. Three men, Wm. McGivern, another watchman, Fred McLard, foreman of the machine shop, and Louis Reiber, foreman of the foundry, were in the carpenter shop when the fire was discovered in the east section of the foundry. They were not injured.

When the fire department arrived the blaze had a good start and swept through the dry frame structures speedily, leaving only the pattern and the machine shops and several sand sheds. Several thousands of dollars worth of patterns belonging to customers which were in a separate vault were saved although the company's own patterns used in molding castings, which were in the foundry, were completely destroyed along with cupolas, squeezers and other molding equipment.

Shortly after six o'clock the Detroit House of Correction fire department was called to combine forces with the Plymouth fire department in combating the blaze.

Paul J. Nutting, general manager and president of the company, explained that but for the two buildings, the pattern and the machine shop, the entire main building of the foundry was a total loss. The damage was partly covered by insurance, he said. Although the foundry had never shut down he declared, they had been forced to operate with much smaller personnel during the past few years than during good times when the plant employed as many as 350 men. They had just started to retire men recently, he said, to help fill numerous orders for automobile castings and power sprays which the company manufactures.

NAT SHERMAN OF CLEVELAND NAMED
MEADOWBROOK HEAD

Announcement was made this week of the appointment of Nat Sherman, formerly of Cleveland, Ohio, as the manager of the Meadowbrook Country club located on the Eight Mile road.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman took up residence at the club this week and are busy redecorating and supervising the cleaning of the entire club house so as to be ready for the big season that will open approximately on May 15.

Mr. Sherman was formerly manager of the exclusive Hermit Club of Cleveland for 12 years and then managed the Pine Ridge Country Club at Wickliffe, Ohio, for three years. They have a daughter, Mrs. Byron Carse, of Detroit.

One of the decorations to greet club members on the opening day will be the new taproom which is being tastefully decorated by Mrs. Sherman in cherry and black.

Predictions for a large season for the women golfers under the chairmanship of Mrs. Ivan Kent of Detroit, were made by Mrs. Sherman. Over 600 lockers, for women have been reserved, she says, and indications are that more will be applied for. Membership in the club is increasing, she said, and several large men's tournaments, under the direction of Stanley Hancock, club professional, are planned.

NOTICE

To the Voters of Northville Township:
Having received the nomination for township clerk at the recent caucus, I am asking your support for the spring election to be held Monday, April 2, 1934.

You are all aware that my office is centrally located, always open and I am always willing to give you any information at any time relative to township affairs.

If you feel that the duties of the township clerk have been properly looked after in the past, your vote will be appreciated at the coming election.

Yours very truly,
ELAINE SMITH, Township Clerk

"Things are beginning to make a noticeable improvement in our business," said Ray Casterline, manager of the Schrader Furniture store located on Center street. "Within the last few days we have sent truck loads of furniture to Walled Lake, Plymouth and Detroit. Yes, I really believe things are getting better."

In keeping with the business improvement the Schrader store has installed a new electric sign, 20 feet in height, on the front of their building. Last week workmen erected the huge sign adding another business touch to one of the business centers of Northville. People are starting to spend more for the things they want," concluded Mr. Casterline.

RECALLS PASTORATE
OF 50 YEARS AGO

A call from Dr. J. E. Jacklin, Detroit, was one of the bright spots of Wednesday evening in the Record office. Dr. Jacklin will be recalled by Northville's older citizens as a pastor of the local Methodist church from 1877 to 1880.

With a memory as bright as a new dollar, Dr. Jacklin reviewed many of the interesting events of his ministry of fifty years ago when he started out with the unenlightened optimism of youth. Heartily laughing

MRS. JAS. JOHNSON
INJURED IN CRASH
ON THE NOVI ROAD

Mrs. James Johnson, of Mt. Pleasant, formerly Gertrude Sedan of this place, received a serious fracture on her nose when the car in which she and her husband were riding overturned Thursday afternoon on the Novi Road.

In an effort to miss a bad bump Mr. Johnson swerved the car quickly running into the railing on the side of the road causing the car to overturn.

Mrs. Johnson was taken to the Ford Hospital in Detroit, and Saturday an operation was performed on her face in an attempt to remove some pieces of glass that had pierced a sinus cavity.

Mr. Johnson was not hurt.

Dennis Strong Tells the P. T. A.
What to Put in the Tackle Box
To Be Ready for the Big Fish

"Be ready when the big fish comes" and times as much fun at P. T. A. along," was the plea that Dennis Strong, secretary of the Detroit Y. M. C. A., made in a stirring address before members of the Northville P. T. A. Thursday evening, at the high school gymnasium.

Mr. Strong stressed the importance of equipping ourselves well in order to land the "big fish" or, in other words, to be ready when the big opportunity of our lives comes along.

"Invest in something beside yourself and have a lot of fun being interested in folks" was one of the pieces of tackle to put in the box.

Another piece of Mr. Strong's was to try to learn something every day and if it is not possible to give your children a college education, give them as much as possible for they will need it and above all let them have contact with persons from whom they may learn new ideas.

Other important accessories for the "tackle box" of life are: Joining with other people to do things you can't do alone, getting into the work of the church, having a lot of fun being interested in folks, and trying to do something without being paid for it.

Mr. Strong stated that the common interest of the P. T. A. should appeal to all and that there is a thous-

Lot Exchange, Heavily Favored in Village Election Monday.

The closest village election Northville has had in several years gave Elmer E. Perrin a majority of one over Eder Ward. Lester when the ballots were counted Monday evening, making him commissioner for a four year term.

Elected by substantial margins to the other three vacancies on the council were George A. Hicks and Wm. T. Gregory for the long terms and Wilson J. Perkins for the short term, which was not contested. Oris L. Blackburn defeated Charles A. Sessions for the office of assessor by the margin of 20 votes and the candidates for the other offices, Dr. H. H. Burkart for president, John Litsenberg for treasurer, Frederick Hedge for clerk, were elected without opposition.

The lot exchange between the village and the American Legion was approved with 300 votes in favor and 21 against it. Dr. Howard H. Burkart received 287 votes, Wm. Gregory 160, Geo. Hicks 233, Eder Ward 165, Elmer Perrin 166 and Harold White 118 for commissioners.

Wilson J. Perkins 276 for the uncontested term of two years, in the office of commissioner, John Litsenberg polled 307, Frederick Hedge 286, and Charles Blackburn received 167 to Charles Sessions' 169 votes.

LANSING'S DISGRACE

Our brawling legislature at Lansing continues to be the target of disgust and shame from thinking people. Listen to this from the newspaper printed at St. Johns, Mich., by Schaefer-Marshall:

"After the Monday night fiasco, Rep. Osborn of Sault Ste. Marie, the oldest member in point of service, said that he had never been present at a session when such uncalled-for and disgraceful scenes were enacted. Members not only branded others 'Bairns,' some openly declared they would not attend committee meetings, and scurvy political charges were hurled."

And yet we notice that the governor, powerless to stop the fighting, has a whole bunch more of proposals for the law makers to consider.

We can be grateful that next fall's election will see some of this outfit kicked down the capitol steps.

RADIO'S BIG HANDICAP

If some one should crash in your front door and yell: "You can get false teeth at Dr. Jones' for half what you pay elsewhere" you would pick up the fellow and set him down in the street rather roughly.

Radio advertising we sometimes think is getting about as obnoxious as that. Every morning until night it is thrown at you and if you can get fifteen minutes of program a short being paid to buy a certain kind of motor oil, cigarettes or mineral water you are lucky.

We say, as we have said before, discriminating people will pass one of these days that advertising has eliminated from the programs and those with radio sets will be glad to pay a small sum for getting the kind of program they want. A half hour of pipe organ music is restful but it is ruined if you have to take a certain kind of pill midway through the playing. When it comes to controlling the radio, the English are wiser than we are.

THOSE ONE HUNDRED YEARS

Despite all the criticism of the Christian church, that institution is still a "going concern." It is still doing business at "the old stand." The churches of most any community—except those in the country where different conditions prevail—have survived practically all the business concerns of that particular neighborhood.

The Methodist Episcopal church of Northville is going to celebrate its one-hundredth anniversary this year. This is an important milestone. To the friends of the local church this is not bring surging memories. To the friends of the community it must likewise bring a thrill of significance when one contemplates—whether churchman or not—the tremendous influence on human lives that has been exerted through the century during which the doors have swung open to hungry human souls. Though the church is made up of imperfect people—the same sort of clay that constitutes the community—it meets a spiritual need of men and women and of boys and girls that no other organization can supply.

In celebration of the centennial of Northville's Methodist church, there will be the opportunity to demonstrate to the community the eternal value of the church, and also its value in dollar and cents. The observance should bring a new loyalty, not only to this church, but to all other churches whose leavening influences through the decades have saved our communities from paganism and a devastating materialism.

The pastor of the church, Rev. Horace H. Mallinson, will have the united support of the church and the citizens of this whole area in planning for this most notable event. None of us now living will be here when the 200th anniversary is celebrated.

A GOOD FORMULA

Probably with few exceptions every family in Northville and surrounding area right this minute has this problem: "How are we going to meet those bills?"

We were all spending so fast when the balloon came down in 1929 that we haven't been able yet to catch up on our debts. Living within our income the past four years has in most cases been very hard to do.

Yet the other night, up at the P. T. A., we heard Dennis Strong, Y. M. C. A. leader of Detroit, say: "If you want to sleep nights and laugh at the world, try desperately to live inside your income." There is nothing I enjoy more than paying my bills promptly," said a Northville business man to us the other day. "When I go home with a grin on my face, the wife says: 'Well, I can see you have been paying those bills.'

We happen to know that this man has turned down re-election chances in the past and has thus been able to conserve his savings, as much as was possible in the times we have been having.

"How are we going to keep within our income?" By force and will power. In many cases it could be done if a husband would let the wife carry the pocketbook. The other day in a Northville store, a wife asked her husband for some money to buy things for the kiddies. "I want enough left for tobacco," replied the husband. A good many men never stint themselves on smoking costs but they complain if the wife wants to buy something for herself.

Some families overdo amusements and then wonder why they never have any money left. Others spend more than they should for entertaining. Few spend too much for church or for books or music, but some spend too much for trying to keep up with the Joneses." It is the wise family which regulates its spending according to its income and forgets what the neighbors or friends may think.

Well, it's some job, Mr. Strong, to keep within your income, but if one can do it he has the keys to open the door of the precious room, Content.

WANDERING THOUGHTS

Is there any thrill in life that equals that of planning for and building your own home?

Part of that dollar spent in Northville is pretty apt to come back to you.

We shall have escapes by such murderers as John Dillinger as long as we treat our criminals like heroes and furnish them with luxuries denied to many homes.

If you think that we can laugh at the Constitution, have a look at Austria where they decided that it didn't amount to anything.

A number of Detroit people have their eyes on Northville as an ideal spot in which to build a home. Let's make the newcomers feel as though they had made no mistake in coming here.

"Cast your bread upon the waters" and you will get elected to office by one vote? A kindly deed that a Northville candidate did for a friend brought him the vote that won.

That man would do a lot better work and feel a lot better if he got more sleep" we heard one Northville man say to another. Strange how we break some of the simplest rules of health and then wonder why we are not up to par.

At last we have our automobile weight taxes cut down—from 55 cent to 35 cents a hundred pounds. That saves Northville several hundreds of dollars. And don't forget that it was Secretary of State Frank D. Fitzgerald who had been "pounding away" for a reduction of license plates for the past two or three years.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

Do you ever give the Northville merchants any suggestions as to how to improve their stores?

Honor, integrity, truthfulness, courage, thrift, sobriety, modesty may be the old fashioned virtues, but they are still the only rules of life which can lead to real greatness.

BRING BACK THE SALOONS

(Tom Conlin in the Crystal Falls Diamond Drill)

The Diamond Drill has been outspoken for the open saloon because it could see coming under this "sleek stocking" liquor set-up the debasement of the young, especially girls of tender age.

Our words have come true. Listen to the stories that are being told about places in Crystal Falls and Iron River where young girls are discovered drunk and lying about on benches in the early morning hours. Give us back the old saloon with women children and habitual drunkards excluded; give us back the brass rail where adults only rested their feet. The saloon made the country dry and, if persisted in, the tavern will either make the country dry or send it to hell.

PAINLESS TAX COLLECTING

(M. H. DeFee in The Charlotte Republican-Tribune)

The psychology of tax collecting is perfectly demonstrated in the open rebellion against the payment of the head tax. For years motor car owners have seen their operating costs steadily climb but little or no protest until recently has been made by the persons directly affected. Why, simply, because of the indirect method used to collect the tax. This plan has come to be known as "painless" taxation. The

They Visit Women's Division
On Very Interesting
Tour

Approximately 40 seniors made an interesting and instructive tour through the Women's Division of the Detroit House of Correction last Tuesday. Because of the educational value of such a trip, Mr. Amerman gave the students permission to be absent from school for the morning. Mrs. Cobb, the economics instructor, was instrumental in planning and arranging the outing; she accompanied them.

Upon their arrival at the administration building, Mrs. E. Campbell, superintendent of this division, conducted them to the room in which church services and plays are held. Here she delivered a short and wholly absorbing talk on the purpose and activities of the organization.

The influence of social surroundings upon the person is vital," she said. "It determines the trends of her personality and the most of the psycho-sexual developments. Life history of most delinquents indicates clearly the influence of the early social and cultural backgrounds. The traditions, conditions, and rural surroundings; neighborhood, play, clubs, and gangs; intimate associations and personal identification with those of questionable character become grouped into the behavior trends of the child. Defective family situations, bad parental attitudes, unfortunate experiences, domestic complications, lack of sympathy—and a host of other conditions of psychological inadequacy and conflict reflect themselves to delinquent behavior trends, ideal social attitudes, and defective personality."

Treatment must be adapted to the individual means. Methods at present must be formulated to remove underlying provocative factors, to strengthen inhibitions, correct dispositions and develop the essential "adult control."

In a recent survey the same division and the Federal Industrial Division at Alderson, Virginia, were found to be the two outstanding institutions of their kind in the United States. The one to which the institution along the same line and to this, went began in 1925 and completed in 1928. Of its Campell said,

"The Women's Division of the Detroit House of Correction is the only prison for adult women in the state of Michigan housing federal county, state and city prisoners. It is situated on part of a 150-acre tract of land 2 miles from Detroit. The buildings are of English Cottage architecture, built of cream colored tile, slate roofing, concrete floors, steel window frames, and are without bars. The buildings are laid out like an English country estate, having no semblance of a prison. There is not one weapon on the grounds. It consists of an administration building, a detention and hospital unit, eight cottages, forming two separate quadrangles, with the factory building right beyond and in the rear of the cottages. A twelve-foot wire mesh fence surrounds the forty-acre tract of land in which these buildings are situated."

"Inmates," she continued, "are received in the administration building and immediately taken into the dressing room upon entering into the institution. There the inmate's clothes and belongings are taken from her and she signs a receipt for the same. She is weighed, her fingerprints and photographs are taken, she is given a bath and shampoo, and dressed in a uniform. She is then removed to the medical and detention departments. We have an institutional physician, a graduate nurse, a part time psychiatrist, a dentist, and an oculist."

The medical clinic and surgical departments are equipped to take care of minor injuries. We are not prepared to handle major conditions so being a city institution, they are taken care of in Receiving Hospital. The nurse has two inmates working under her and they are kept at the work as long as it is thought practicable. During this training they are equipping themselves to become practical nurses or go into hospitals and become student nurses."

Try a Record Liner! They Pay.

"Inmates" are held in the detention department until the doctor reports to the superintendent that the inmate is ready for placement in one of the eight cottages. The colored are segregated from the white women. We have special problem inmates who, for disciplinary reasons, are placed in separate cottages.

We believe we have few extremely hard or vicious inmates. When we receive a report from an officer that one is not behaving and we think a transfer of cottage or working conditions would be beneficial, she is immediately moved to another cottage.

'ROUND THE SCHOOL

The New Deal in the Prisons

After the enlightening half-day spent at the Women's Division of the Detroit House of Correction last Tuesday, we feel much less malignant toward what we thought the disciplinary methods which were applied to all persons unfortunate to be sent to such an institution. Here however, we discover that the inmate is not scourged to his dungeon, but decidedly to the contrary, assisted in finding the broken threads of her life and firmly tying them together again.

The cases are many and varied, for the offenses of the prisoners range from shop-lifting to the worse crime of murder. Each girl presents a different problem, a problem which is to be seriously weighed and considered before any steps for its solution are taken.

In years past the law-breaker was branded as "bad" and then hastily cast away (and this, more often than seldom, in loathsome quarters) where she could serve her time and then return to the outer world in the identical condition in which she had left it. Criminal tendencies were just born in a person and that was all there was to it. She must learn right by being severely punished.

Today this is all changed. A great percentage of it was dedicated of the would-be criminals, was mentally troubled. Perhaps home environment might have been the cause, then again one might have had a bad physical defect which had made her uneasy and self-conscious that the word being "stew"; seventh Louise Alexander, who acquired her spelling laurel on the word "partial," as spelled by Lucille Lapham; eighth Lilian Fritz, winning on "familiar," as spelled by William Rott; Chain bows in the seventh and eighth grades changed around this year; last year Lucille Lapham won eighth grade; Louise Alexander was runner-up; William Rott was winner and Lilian Fritz runner-up.

Little Katherine White Celebrates Birthday Sunday

The birthday of Katherine, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. White, was the occasion of a happy family dinner at the home of Mrs. White's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Sterling of Mt. Pleasant, and her sister, Miss Bernice Sterling, of Ann Arbor, were visitors. Mrs. Alton Peters, sister of Mr. White, and Mr. Peters were also included in the birthday party when little Katherine was made glad with gifts and a birthday cake.

Get-Together Club Has Old-Fashioned Dance

A most enjoyable evening was had when the friends and members of the Get-Together club met in Plymouth at the L. O. O. P. hall, March 8, for an old-fashioned St. Patrick dance. About 70 still remained when the music struck up "Home Sweet Home" in the early morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Merrithew of this place will entertain March 23 with the usual supper and a dance party.

Mr. and Mrs. Peters Join in Party Honoring District Superintendent

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Peters were included Monday in a celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the connection of E. G. Hallenback, district superintendent of the Prudential Life Insurance company, with the company. The affair was held in the Detroit Leland hotel, Detroit. While the men were in session the wives were guests at a theatre party in the afternoon and in the evening all enjoyed an elaborate dinner-dance together.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bloom Entertain The Try and Find a Night Club

After a delightful luncheon served by the hostess, Mrs. Harold Bloom, the members of the Try and Find a Night bridge club spent an enjoyable evening playing cards. All the members of the club were present, including Mr. Glad. Mrs. Masters, Epham, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bloom, young hostess, and Bob Power. Bob Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coolman, Mr. Christensen, John and Paul Steen and Mrs. Claude Zimmerman. Dr. Eken, the last named just returned from the U. S. Navy.

High honors for the evening went to Marjorie Coolman and Jack Taylor.

Two Whipple Children Celebrate Birthdays Together

Combining the celebrations of two children's birthdays, Novalee's fall and Carl's in one in that the newly elected March 12, Mrs. Asa Whipple, Etch City to their organization.

At the beautiful supper two beautiful birds of feathers were featured for Novalee's eighteenth and Carl's for Mar. 12th birthday. Both received a gift.

Young People Give a Birthday Box for Mrs. Sarah Staubro

Mrs. Sarah Staubro who is spending the winter at South Lyon was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. George R. and of Salem last weekend. The young people of the Federated church had planned to have a tea after the evening program and when they knew that Mrs. Staubro was celebrating her eightieth birthday on Saturday they made her a special birthday box.

At the close of the business session a social time was enjoyed when tea was served by the hostess.

MR. AND MRS. RAWLE BROWN GET PICTURES IN DETROIT NEWS

Basking comfortably in easy chairs under a Florida palm tree, appears the picture of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rawle Brown in the Detroit News of Sunday, March 11, to tantalize their Northville friends, who are still turning up their collars to sneaking March winds.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown, whose home is at Arrold farm, northeast of town, have been spending the winter months at Daytona Beach. Both look unusually well and content in their happy setting. Mrs. Brown, who is an ardent horsewoman, is chairman of the Daytona Beach horse show to be held March 31.

St. Paul's Lutheran Ladies Aid Visit in Plymouth

The Ladies' Aid society of St. Paul's Lutheran church were guests of Mrs. Wm. Kreger of Plymouth Wednesday afternoon, when a business meeting was followed by a pleasant social time during which a lunch was served by the hostess. A good attendance of members enjoyed the afternoon. The next meeting will be held on April 12.

Westminster Guild Meets for Election of Officers Monday

The young ladies of the Westminster Guild had the unique experience of conducting their own election of officers at the Presbyterian church house Monday evening when, for the first time, neither of their sponsors, Mrs. Carl H. Bryan and Mrs. Harold Bloom, were able to be present.

The girls very capably elected the following officers: President, Mary Harper; vice-president, Esther Pammenter; secretary, Catherine Duquid; treasurer, Catherine McKenna.

Refreshments during a social hour completed the evening. The next meeting will be at 7:30 p.m., March 26 at the home of Jane Lester.

Charlotte Lester Celebrates Birthday Saturday

Miss Charlotte Lester was happily surprised by a company of young friends who dropped in Saturday evening to celebrate her sixteenth birthday. In the party were the Misses Peggy Blake, Wilma Rattenbury, Jane Lester, and the young hostess, Bob Power. Bob

BRIDGE TOURNEY OF LEGION AUXILIARY AIDS THE CHILDREN

Ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary of the Northville unit sponsored fifteen tables of bridge at their various homes Thursday. Any one wishing to play was able to drop in at any time during the afternoon and evening and participate for a fee of 25 cents.

All proceeds from the playing went to the Auxiliary fund for the care of children at the Legion biller at Outer Lake, and for any local aid that might be needed.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Orrin Casterline this affair was a great success. It is but one of the many money raising benefits that we are sponsoring," said one of the Auxiliary members.

Francis Bacon is now staying at the Carl Fly home. She says she is glad to be back among friends.

Helen Michelson, of Detroit, was a visitor of Mrs. Helen Lutzenberger last Wednesday and Thursday.

A complete bus schedule will be found on the back page of this paper.

Mrs. Dean F. Griswold is able to be up after a week or more of illness.

After a long illness following a major operation, Mrs. N. C. Schrader was able to ride out for the first time one day this week.

The attention of parents is called to a fine article by Mrs. May Babitt on the Orange and Black page on "Books Make Good Friends."

L. B. Holmes spent the week-end at his home from Calcutta, where he is relief operator at the Pere Marquette railroad station.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Sherman, formerly of Cleveland, Ohio, are the new managers of the Meadowbrook Country Club.

Richard Shipley and Charles Cartington resumed their studies at Ypsilanti after spending the week-end at their respective homes.

Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Richards expect to return with a healthy tan to their home in Belleville after a vacation at their cottage in Florida.

The Annual Masonic-Eastern Star party will be held at the high school next Friday evening, March 23. Sirasen's orchestra will play.

Mrs. Wilbur H. Johnston is recovering from an illness of over a week. Several days were spent last week in the Detroit Osteopathic hospital.

Paul Steenken surprised his mother, Mrs. Joseph Hoehl, by arriving home a month early after three years' service in the United States Navy.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Moore, of Pontiac, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Morse, of Dearborn, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil White on West street, Sunday.

Warren Neal is working in the English department at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. He is helping in the compilation of an Early English dictionary.

"Look out for the side roads when the frost comes out this spring," say the farmers. Not in years has the frost gone down four feet as it has the past winter.

An announcement has been received by Northville friends of the marriage of Mrs. Angie Fosie to Thomas E. Conway, of Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Conway are spending a few weeks in Florida.

E. R. Eaton of The Plymouth Mill and R. T. Baldwin of The Northville Record will attend a NRA code meeting of Michigan publishers and small town printers at Lansing tomorrow.

The members of the Northville Rotary club will go to Birmingham next Tuesday, March 13, to attend an inter-city meet. Ed Johnson, vice president of Rotary International, will be the speaker.

James Robertson of Detroit has bought the F. D. Nicol property on East Base Line road. There are 30 acres in the place. Mr. Robertson who is a hardware merchant in the city, will commute there.

Mrs. Jennie White, who will soon be 94 years of age, has been spending the winter with Mrs. Cora Bissell, Grace avenue, and has kept in her usual health, in fact she is much more active than many younger folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Deal and family are moving back this week to their former home on Main street. The interior of the house which was damaged by fire in January has been repaired and a new roof put on.

Miss Bernice Clark, student at Ypsilanti, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clark, will be initiated into Pi Kappa sorority tomorrow (Saturday) morning. The initiates will be guests of honor at a breakfast following the initiation.

Sherill Ambler has just returned from a week spent in the northern part of the state on business. He was in Mt. Pleasant, Clare and Midland, among other towns. The cities seem to be booming a little as a result of the oil discoveries, he says.

Spring is here. Superintendent E. R. Widmer of the U. S. Fisher says that the latter part of the week will see the beginning of the transfer of "small fry" from the troughs inside the fishery to the ponds outside. As fast as the troughs become congested fish will be placed in ponds according to size and kind.

Dr. Frederick B. Fisher, pastor of the First Methodist church of Ann Arbor, will be the speaker at the meeting of the Northville Rotary club on Tuesday, April 17. A number of nearby clubs will be invited to hear this noted speaker.

Dr. Fisher has been giving the noon-day Lenten talks at the Temple theatre this week, heard over radio station WXYZ.

PLAY AND DANCE AT WALLED LAKE WILL DRAW CROWDS

Several mothers of the Seniors are sponsoring a dance to be held at the West Bloomfield town hall on Friday, March 23. The music will be furnished by Don Patterson's orchestra. The public is cordially invited and assured a very delightful evening.

Walled Lake lost its first game of the regionals at Lake Orion on Thursday, March 8, to St. Mary's Royal Oak. It was a thrilling game and lost only in an overtime period. At the end of the regular time the score was tied at 21. St. Mary's made a basket early in the overtime period, thus winning the game.

Don't forget the junior play, "Here Comes Patricia," to be given in the school auditorium Friday, March 16, at 8 o'clock. This attractive comedy will furnish you a delightful evening of varied entertainment. Come to laugh both with and at characters ranging from the aristocrat to the drawly town bad example. Meet Patricia.

Spring vacation will extend from March 24 to April 2, weather conditions permitting.

PERCY ANGOVE IS NAMED OFFICIAL IN WHITE CROSS DRIVE

Percy C. Angove of this community was honored recently when he was named secretary of the Wayne County unit of the Michigan Society for Crippled Children. This makes the second office that Mr. Angove has been elected to in this organization as he was named campaign chairman for the state recently.

It is the intention of this group to sell White Cross Seals at Easter. Proceeds from the sale will be used to assure the 14,000 young victims of infantile paralysis in Michigan of the proper clinical attention. Wayne county has a quota of 2,500 seals to sell.

Through the money earned from this campaign it is hoped that the organization will be able to locate every crippled child in Michigan and to see to it that he gets the needed medical attention; to provide funds with which to relieve several overburdened societies to assist in supplying braces, wheel chairs and other appliances, and to contribute to legislative movements which will aid in the matter of child care.

A picture of Mr. Angove and other officials appeared in Thursday morning's Free Press.

NORTHLVILLE MEN TO BE QUESTIONED BY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

James Tassas and John Poulos, managers of the Northville Restaurant, will be examined by the Wayne County Sheriff's department and prosecutor's office Monday in connection with a quantity of clothing found in their home on West Main and West street.

An immigration official Monday questioned Mr. Poulos with regard to his passport. Mr. Poulos, handcuffed, pointed to a drawer in which the passport was contained. When opened a quantity of clothing was discovered. Mr. Tassas had formerly been caretaker for a mid-rate clothing store and the sheriff's office was suspicious of the fact that $200 worth of clothing was kept in the house.

Mr. Poulos declared that it was the custom among his co-workers to purchase clothing when a bargain offered itself and save it to take back to Greece where clothing such as was found in his house, shirts, shoes, suede jackets, etc., is exceptionally high in price.

Mr. Poulos and Mr. Tassas were released without bond on their promise to appear for questioning on Monday.

Eden Berry, son of Mrs. Phoebe Berry, and who is employed in the office of the Maybury sanatorium undergoing tonsilectomy in Detroit Wednesday morning, word has been received that the operation was successful.

-Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McDermit of West Point Park were callers on Wm. P. Sedley and Miss Ethel Seely Sunday. After being disabled four weeks with a fractured wrist, Mrs. McDermit is much better and hopes to have the spirit of very soon.

Mrs. Jos. Denton underwent an operation for varicose veins at the University hospital, March 5, and is making good recovery since on the previous day Mrs. Denton enjoyed an observance of her birthday at the Gennan ranch when a party of friends were present to celebrate. Spring surely is not far off. Signs are multiplying thick and fast. The latest is a butterfly brought in by Mrs. Fred Greer who found it on her basement steps. To encourage folks in their expectancy of an early spring after an unusually long hard winter, Mrs. Greer brought the winged creature into the Record office as a curious spectacle for visitors.

The former Frank Hendry farm home on the West Base Line road, now owned by a man named O'Neal from Detroit, is undergoing some extensive remodeling. A furnace and septic tank are being installed and the house is being otherwise improved. Ralph Berry will work the farm for Mr. O'Neal and expects to bring a bride here within the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Stauffer left Wednesday for Goshen, Ind., to join in a celebration of the birthday of the Elter's mother, Mrs. Mary Thut, who is 87 years old. Mrs. Thut was happy to have with her on this occasion four daughters and son, Waldo, whose birthday occurred on the Sunday previous and was celebrated with his mother's. A number of grandchildren were present to honor Mrs. Thut.

Stauffers planned to return today.

FRED FOREMAN TELLS OF BEAUTY OF SOUTH

Full of enthusiasm for the sunny South, Fred Foreman writes the following communication which will be of interest to our readers:

"We arrived home Friday, March 9, after a pleasant four-day journey from Florida. It is quite a change from the summer breezes of Florida to the chilly air of good old Michigan but the hearty welcome we received warmed our hearts.

"One of the largest citrus developments in the world is from three to fifteen miles north of Clermont containing 105,000 acres of land and 15,000 acres of trees under the name of Mr. Howie.

"Much has been said of the poor sandy soil of Florida. It is true that there is a lot of poor land there yet.

"Over and above their own consumption, they are shipping on an average of 200 carloads of produce daily.

"Our short stay in Clermont was very enjoyable. Nearly every Sunday we had dinner at the Palm Park Inn, owned by T. G. Richardson, who was always at the door to welcome his guests with a few friendly words. T. G. is well known and has a host of friends in Clermont. Many times have I heard the remark, 'Howie is a great man.'

"It is always nice right. It is really worth seeing but I must close by saying I am again asked to carry some of the responsibility that I placed on the shoulders of Mr. and Mrs. Pyerson.

"We met many fine people in Florida who wished us good luck on our homeward trip and urged us to turn back."

with palms, flowers and other tropical vegetation, and lastly, the health cheering sunshine and balmy air? Often this winter I have remarked what a beautiful day.

The Woman's Home Missionary conference of representatives from various points in Ann Arbor district which was held in the Methodist church Friday morning and afternoon proved to be highly practical and profitable. Women were present from Farmington, Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Plymouth, Lincoln Park and Northville.

Aside from the benefit derived from mutual exchange of methods in carrying on the work, informal talks by Mrs. Lois Downs Stephens of Connecticut, and Mrs. Howard G. Baker of Ann Arbor were most interesting and helpful.

In a sweeping survey of the field of Home Missions, Mrs. Stephens inspired her hearers with greater zeal for them.

Mrs. Baker, who is interested especially in young people's work appealed to mothers to know what kind of moving pictures their children are seeing. She pointed out the great harm done to little children through the wrong kind of suggestions made through the pictures they see.

Luncheon together at noon afforded an opportunity for a social time in getting acquainted with neighbors.

Mrs. Geo. Lockwood of Ypsilanti presided at both sessions, and Rev. H. H. Mallinson, pastor of the local church, greeted the assembly. Ten members of the Lincoln Park church, Detroit, were present and called on Mr. and Mrs. Mallinson during their stay.

The Ladies' Community Club met at the home of Mrs. Mabel Ault Wednesday evening. After the business hour a social evening was enjoyed.

The Ladies' Association invited to hold its next meeting the last Thursday in March at the home of
Rev. and Mrs. Miller of Rosedale Gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heitman attended the funeral of John Landau of Royal Oak, Thursday. The latter's sister, Mrs. Louise Hawkins, returned with them and spent a few days at their home.

The day of the caucus passed quietly. Both the republicans and democrats lined up for their party.
The first Monday in April will tell which of the parties will carry off the house.

Mrs. Margaret Martin was a visitor with Mrs. Jean Scrutton in Detroit Wednesday, and met George line of groceries, fruits and vegetables.

Howard H. Lewis, who has been taking care of the girls in his hotel, one of the art and other stepchildren, the sympathy of the entire town was shown to the bereaved family.

Thursday was an evening of West Point Park. At seven in the evening carloads of men were coming from all directions. A fine jacket back of the trumpet group the men were seen by the ears were all over the streets, vacant lots, and on the lawns. The shouting and cheering was kept up on the arrival of men and speeches were made. Photographers stood up on the top of automobiles taking pictures from above. We asked what it was all about and were told the CWA was distributing meat, butter, eggs to the men working and we were pleased to see each one carry away their portion until the large tank was empty. William Winters had tenny cases and three bags of out of his place of business on that day.

The evening of March 9, Mrs.
Eleanor Painter entertained in honor of her niece, Betty Bandell's sixtieth birthday, at the West Point Park Community Hall. The hall was decorated in pink and green. Betty wore an aqua marine crepe dress with corsage of pink swan peacock and forget-me-nots. Games were played and an operating room television was given. The orchestra commenced a lively tune which started them dancing. A large birthday cake and delicious lunch was served of consuming colors. There were a few friends besides Betty's classmates from the Northville High School Junior class, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Amsler, Mrs. Cooke, Mrs.
Cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Person, Marjory and Leslie Pierpoint,

Krueger Salts—A perfect combination of the six mineral salts your body should possess to function properly. Purify your blood of harmful acids and aid the kidneys and bowels to throw off waste material—the continual formation of which is probably the cause of your fat.

But don't worry just as long as you take Krueger Salts. Take a half teaspoon every morning before breakfast in a glass of hot water—little by little that ugly fat disappears, you'll feel better than ever before—years younger, more energy, more beauty, clear skin, sparkling eyes and a perfect figure which only perfect health can impart.

An 8 oz. bottle (lasts 4 weeks) can be obtained at any progressive drug store in America. Money back if Krueger doesn't convince you that it is the safest, quickest, easiest way to lose fat.
