OPERETTA TO BE GIVEN ON TWO EVENINGS

High School Pupils Will Be Heard in Unusual Program

Climaxing the musical events of the school year will be the presentation of the beautiful Indian operetta "Lelawala," written by the famous American composer, Charles Wakefield Cadogan. This operetta, after weeks of work by members of the music department, will be presented in the high school auditorium May 11 and 18 at 8:00 p.m. The admission will be 15 and 25 cents.

Parents, protect your children.

This is the plea that Chief of Police Wm. H. Safford makes to the fathers and mothers of Northville. Especially in the downtown section does the police head urge that parents watch their boys and girls in crossing the streets. There have been several cases lately where careless children might easily have lost their lives or have been seriously injured as the result of running but in front of passing automobiles.

Chief Safford also points out that roller skating is a very dangerous pastime on the village streets and that the riding of two-wheeled bicycles is a great menace to safety.

"There is always a car coming."

"Go with the traffic light."

"Look both ways before you start across the street."

"Do not jay walk."

If these rules are obeyed, Northville can keep clear its record of few accidents.

Merle Fisher is helping with the stage properties.

From all appearances a real treat is in store for all who attend the performances.

A beautiful Trojan story, having to do with the legend of Nisus, is the basis for the play. For this story Cadogan has chosen some fine Indian themes, and since he has but the beautiful story that he has heard in his operetta "Humor and Laughter, Power and Confidence, devotion to trial, courage and disregard for their own interests, will succeed in this story. There are many thrilling and dramatic moments.

It is hoped that many Northville people will attend this operetta and encourage the young players.

"PROTECT YOUR CHILDREN" WARNS CHIEF OF POLICE

Boys and Girls Must Obey the Traffic Laws to Avoid Accidents

Parents, protect your children. This is the plea that Chief of Police Wm. H. Safford makes to the fathers and mothers of Northville. Especially in the downtown section does the police head urge that parents watch their boys and girls in crossing the streets. There have been several cases lately where careless children might easily have lost their lives or have been seriously injured as the result of running but in front of passing automobiles.

The summer season is here and the number of automobiles passing through Northville is very heavy.

Boys and girls must be taught the traffic rules and if they violate these, there will be tragedies before the summer season is over.

Chief Safford also points out that roller skating is a very dangerous pastime on the village streets and that the riding of two-wheeled bicycles is a great menace to safety.

"There is always a car coming."

"Go with the traffic light."

CLASS OF 48 TO GRADUATE FROM N. H. S.

Commencement Exercises To Be Held Thursday, June 7

A class of 48 will be graduated from the Northville high school Thursday evening, June 7, on the auditorium stage of the Wayne County Training School. Dispensing this year with a main speaker, the seniors are planning a unique program in the form of a play in which they themselves will take part. The play will depict the growth of Northville high school from its earliest and most humble beginning. There will be several scenes leading up to that showing the modern class room in session.

In charge of the commencement program are Eleanor Grosvenor, Jack McLoughlin, and Alice Boelens.

Miss Boelens and Miss Grosvenor are writing the continuity for the commencement program.

The Class Night program Wednesday evening, June 6, at the Northville high school will include a final class meeting which will be followed by an address of Welcome to be given by Mrs. Peggy Blake.

Later on, The Class Roll will be read by Miss Ruth Arnold. The Class History will be read by Olin Ferguson and Ernest Racz will render several solo songs.

Following this, the Class Property of the 1924 class, written ten years ago by Willard Ely will be read and the address will be pronounced to determine how many of the properties made at that time have come true. The 1924 Property will be read by Catherine Dine of Detroit and then the 1934 Class will be read by Mrs. M. H. Hays.

The 1934 Class Property will be read by Mrs. McLoughlin and the Gift-tery will be made by Miss Catherine McKenna and Miss Eleanor Eaton.

Headed by Nelson O. Schraeder, Jr., the Class Night Committee is composed of Olin Ferguson, Ray Westphal, Catherine Duggan and Catherine McKenna.

Senior Class officers are: Jack Hays, president; Jack McLoughlin, vice-president; Ruth Arnold, secretary, and Marjorie Pierpont, treasurer.

MRS. HENDRYX MOVES TO LINTON-APARTMENT

"Aunt Ida" Hendryx has gone to her new apartment at Linton. She will be in her new home at 1214 Linton street, near the corner of Center and Cary streets. The rooms have been newly decorated and "Aunt Ida" will be in her glory starting up her famous pies and cakes in her little "play house." She will move the latter part of the week. Both the Lintons and Mrs. Hendryx are to be congratulated on the happy arrangement.

BAPTIST CHILDREN TO HONOR MOTHERS

The children of the Primary department of the Baptist Sunday school will be hosts to their mothers Sunday in their room at the church. Last Sunday the little folks out of silhouettes of "Whiskers," "Mama" and "Daddy" and other mothers' pictures used as invitation.

A program of songs and recitations will be given by the children for the pleasure of their mothers and then each will be presented with a tiny toy plan, gathered in the woods and grown up in a flower pot, graciously made by the children.

This promises to be one of the most interesting days of the year.

By the littlest members of the Cradle Roll, supervised by Mrs. R. H. Amerson, will be present with their mothers.

Mrs. Earl Montgomery is the efficient superintendent of this department and she is assisted by Mrs. Roy Matheson, Mrs. C. B. Fisher, Mrs. Michael Nagy and Mrs. Amerson.

RICHARD PARMALEE STRUCK BY CAR

Richard, the ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton O. Parmalee, was struck by a car in front of the E. M. R. grocery and was hit by a passer-by Friday afternoon. The driver, Mr. Elze, stopped his car promptly before it ran over the child but the fender struck him so that his eye was cut and the fragments of one knee were badly torn and bruised.

Richard was taken to Sessions hospital over night but was able to return home the following day. He will be able to walk with a brace on his knee within a week or so it is hoped.

An aroused public opinion will be the best means of bringing about reform in the making and enforcing of law stated the visiting judge.

Once the sovereign right to rule is vested in a king but now it is in the hands of the common people and from them must come the new justice.

E. W. Lester accompanied Judge Ferguson here from Detroit and took him back in time to try a case in the early afternoon.

Judge Ferguson's address was one of the most worth-while ones given before Rotary in some time.

PLAYGROUNDS FOR NORTHVILLE

The Northville P. T. A. is making a big effort to provide a sponsored playground program for the community but the cooperation of the people will be necessary to "put it across."

In order to bring the project to a successful culmination quickly, all Record readers are urged to fill out the coupon below:

1. Do you approve of the supervised playgrounds?
2. Can you devote any time to them?
3. Will you contribute to the funds? If so, how much?

PORTER DEPORTED TO CANADA MAY 7

Wendell Porter, 53 years old, was deported to Canada Monday, May 7 following his failure to return a pocketbook he found containing $88.90 to Herbert Hollis who dropped it in a store on South Center street.

On the evening of Saturday, April 28 Mr. Porter dropped his purse in the South Center street store. Five minutes after he had left, according to police officials, he returned but was unable to find the purse and was gone. Mr. Hollis reported the loss to Chief of Police Wm. H. Safford Sunday morning.

Chief Safford and Hollis went to the Arthur farm on Beck road where they questioned the workmen who were in the store the previous evening but were unable to get any information about the lost pocketbook.

Friday, May 4, pieces of Hollis' identification card contained in the purse were found on the ground near Porter's farm on the farm in the meantime Porter had left the farm for Richmond Park when the identification card was located by Chief Safford.

Porter's son-in-law paid the full $480 to Hollis, who was willing to withdraw his charges. It was discovered, however, that Porter had only been employed here for two weeks, he having spent two years in Canada after taking an unemployment paper, but Federal officers believed that he would have to be deported and he was returned to Canada on Monday, May 7.

EXCHANGITES HEAR DR. ALBERT FRENCH

An enthusiastic meeting of the Exchange club was held Wednesday afternoon when the members and their guests enjoyed a good meal and listened to a fine talk and some extra good solos.

Dr. H. I. Sparkling, president, announced the coming June meeting of the Michigan Affiliated Exchange club to be held at Jackson, June 12 and 13. Several will attend and it will be the meeting nearest that day will be held up and the club will meet the June 12 session of the local meeting.

Three very pleasing solos were given by Mrs. Frank Dorton for whom Mrs. Montgomery acted as accompanist.

Dr. Albert French of the Wayne County health office was present and gave a very informative discussion on the mechanics of health.

In closing, Dr. French said that the health of the people is the most important thing in the life and that the health of the nation is the most important thing in the life of the nation.

VILLAGE ASKS $21,000 FOR PWA PROJECT

Voters May Be Given An Opportunity To Pass On Project

Northville's $21,000 project for the construction of a covered water reservoir has not been entirely forgotten by PWA authorities.

At the village council meeting Monday evening commissioners voted to file written application to authorities to have the money laid aside until after voters of this community have had an opportunity to pass on whether or not the plan is advisable. Village Attorney F. J. Cochran, following a trip to Lansing, brought back the information that the plan is still available should Northville voters care to take advantage of it.

Of the total amount $4,700 would be borrowed over a period of 25 years at five per cent interest and $6,300 would be an outright grant by the federal government. The motion to have the money laid aside until the project can be voted on was passed by the village commission.

The commission voted to record a motion in the book of resolutions which was accordingly done.

It was noted that the application of the plan or completion of the project is to be held until the end of the year and that the plan is still available should Northville voters care to take advantage of it.

We got to thinking this in reading how Los Angeles is providing its water supply for the future. Los Angeles and all the immense country around it came from the desert—from the shifting sands, the countless stones and the cacti. Water made Los Angeles and the citrus lands. It literally "made the desert blossom as the rose." But take away the life-giving water and the "marvelous ranches" of oranges, lemons, and grapefruit, the unspeakably beautiful roses, the countless flowers and certain types of trees would become as dead and lifeless as the hot sands of the desert.

Los Angeles doubled its population from 1920 to 1930 and it began to see that its water supply was running low. It had already tapped the snows of the mountains but that was not enough. It knew that without water it would perish, so the community vision looked off 150 miles to the Colorado river. Los Angeles and the communities around it—so many towns that you hardly know when you pass from one to the other—voted a 220 million bond issue to bring in the water from the Colorado. And we have just read that in a few years Los Angeles and surrounding area will have enough water for eight or nine million people.

Well, you have to take off your hats to that kind of spirit. California tunnels mountains to get its water and it doesn't mind spending its money for it knows that it will all come back. Times are looking up. If you want some business, a new home, an automobile, yes, even a wife—try the California way: "Go and get them."

WANDERING THOUGHTS

Growing things are "popping." Things simply; the truth is ever simple," said Cecil Rhodes. Just four weeks to graduation! You will "fave" far to find a better high school than Northville. The bonding election on April 30 cost the state a quarter of a million dollars—or about 89 cents a vote. At that, it saved the state millions. The selfishness of human beings is brought out when they get behind the steering wheel of automobiles. Check the number of drivers who don't dim their lights at night when they meet on a road and you will find that this type of "road hog" is altogether too numerous.

There is something wrong with the coordination of federal, state, county, and city police when a bloody murder like Billinger can defy the whole outfit. England would have gotten this miserable wretch in a week's time and in another week he would have been hung. Another thing: If the metropolitan papers would quit "blowing up" this notorious bandit, there would be fewer things imitating him.

No less an authority than Joseph H. Choate, Jr. Federal alcohol administrator, says that liquor control under a partial or total ban is more than underprohibition. He is authority for the statement that the amount of bootleg liquor being sold is much in excess of that being legally sold. Neither wet nor dry have found a solution of the bootlegging problem. Some of Michigan's leading wets are saying that unless conditions improve, local option is the only way out.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

How long will it be before Northville widens Main street?

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

7 YEARS AGO
Grand Richardson has gone to St. Lawrence, Canada, where he is installing a dry powder condenser. I. A. Babour, president of the Northville State Savings bank, took his first airplane ride Wednesday evening and if there was ever an air enthusiast, it is Mr. Babour. Eddie Stinson played the piano.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Scarsader and Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Cave, drove up to northern Michigan during the early part of the week, where they enjoyed a few days trout fishing. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Babis of New Township, have returned from Florida, where they spent a couple of months. The trip was made by automobile.

Vern Palmer, while driving on the road to Nott, Sunday evening skidded in some loose gravel and his car turned over twice in going down the embankment. Neither was Palmer nor any of the other three going along in the car with him, injured. The car was badly wrecked. Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Testha of Northville, motored to Jackson Saturday evening to visit Mrs. V. L. Stevens and children. They returned home Sunday evening.

10 YEARS AGO
Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ashler are moving to their new residence on the Fishery road. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brown and wife spent the week-end with friends in Jackson. Mrs. George Ford had as her guests on Wednesday of this week, Mrs. Lizzie Stauber, Mrs. Maudie Zokles and Mrs. Louis Waldinger of Northville and Mrs. Wm. Linahan of Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McVicar are visiting their niece, Miss Frances, of Harrow, Canada. H. A. DesAutels and family have moved here, from Detroit and will occupy their home in Dunlap street recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McVicar.

30 YEARS AGO

Roy Clark has left the air rifle factory, where he has been employed for a number of years, and is painting with the decorating firm of Brown and Brown. Miss Eleanor Rasch of Detroit spent Sunday at her parents' home here. Ben Johnson has gone to Detroit to be one of the ushers in the Temple theatre.

F. W. McGarvie of St. Louis, representative of the Photocopy Co. of New York, has been the guest of Mr. Neal part of this week. Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Habbitt, who have been here on an extended visit because of the illness of Mr. Habbitt's mother, left Monday for their home in Colorado.

Roy Terrell has recovered from the measles and has resumed his work at Vanaken & Ryders. Sam Crocker leaves next week for Detroit to commence his season's work as musician on one of the Boston excursion steamers.

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

NO ONE KNOWS
Fred Veith in Lansing (Press) An editor's confession: Why do some people flare up when a paper prints something they don't like, but never a word of thanks when a paper prints something they do like? We go to sleep.

CORN-HOG AGREEMENT

(Hastings Banner) Wm. J. Brown, editor of the Ingham County News, who has been in the south, doesn't believe that the government corn-hog agreement is very important so far as Michigan is concerned. He says that he has a single farm in Central Ohio which produces more swine than can be kept from the market every stock-raiser in Michigan township's mind up to date.

DISAGREEMENT WITH THE PREACHER

(Lapeer Press) A very decent you will find a man who is so pious that he will have a political preference and will tell you so. We have a man in our town who has been a member of the church because he thought it was a good thing to do. He has been a member of the church for a long time and he has been a very good man. He has been a very good man and he has been a very good man.

ROOSEVELT IS COURAGEOUS

George R. Averill in the Birmingham Freeman. It is according to the rules of competitive politics for both major parties to criticize each other. And while we agree that criticism, if honestly conceived and aimed, is good for making us alert, it is not good for making us afraid. It is not good for making us afraid. It is not good for making us afraid.

DICKINSON'S ACTION IS SELFISH

(Crystal Falls Diamond Drill) Luren D. Dickinson has announced his candidacy for the position of lieutenant-governor on the Republican ticket. Dickinson's action is one of the most selfish that has come to light. It is the old type of office seeker's start; the type that has nothing constructive or progressive to offer but which captures a following to get into office. It is selfish for another reason.

THE STATE SAID "NO"

(Chester M. Howell in The Ctesaning Argus) "Back to Earth" spoke 300,000 people of Michigan, all taxpayers one way or another, who marched to the polls Monday and registered. It is no uncertain language, that they are all fed up with wild expenditures of money that sooner or later must come from just one pocket—the people. The famous bond issue, brood in the mind of Gov. Conroy and fed and fomented by him and his allies in a month's campaign of "education of the people" was defeated by a vote of about five to one.

It is in the decision, there could not have been. Just common sense. Look over the results and if the vote was a straight out issue between the two major parties the vote would have been much closer. Gov. Conroy did make an issue of it but not a political issue. He was smart enough not to call the members of his party to his assistance, that is in so many words.

AN EDITOR CONFESSES

(W. H. Canfield in The Livingston Co. Republican Press) We spoke unkindly to a friend the other day. No particular reason. It just burst forth, and then we felt depressed and sorry all day. We have wondered why every now and then this inward bitterness boils over? Are we one of many, or just a hybrid specimen of this race of human beings? Perhaps we could think up something to explain away our action, but we are not going to do it—instead, we are planning on killing the wronged person. We are going to kill him with kindness.

The past years have brought about many things. Is one of them "one to be regretted and remedied, an increasing lack of confidence and cooperation among ourselves? The stress of individual problems, the ruthlessness of competitive business, the stretching of nerves already taut, often lead us to criticize when we ourselves are as apt subjects of criticism as our neighbors. Can it be in Livingston county that these conditions have or may lead to a fear or lack of leadership in projects that are good for the community? We have so much need for a deeper mutual understanding and helpful assistance from these Spring days. We believe the worst is past. The future looks brighter than in several years. Can we not drop our feelings of suspicion and a smudge of optimism in the front window, lay our last nerves out in the sun and treat out some of that old winter grumpiness and be our real old time true selves into ourselves and others? Let's try.

FR. COUGHLIN AGAIN IN THE HEADLINES

(Shuyb Marshall in The Clinton County Republican News-St. Johns) Fr. Charles E. Coughlin, radio orator of Grand Rapids, must be a tireless fellow. He is cutting headlines in every paper. He has been in the news for a long time and he has been in the news for a long time.

FIVE MONTHS AFTER REPEAL

(T. O. Heckle in the Cadillac Evening News) Some people who saw only the evils that sprang up under prohibition are just beginning to realize that repealing the amendment did not in any way solve the liquor problem. The Literary Digest has been making an informal survey of conditions through the country and finds:

- 1. The revenue from taxes and license is far short of what was predicted by the acts. Denver alone reported revenue in excess of expectation.
2. Arrests for drunkenness are increasing in many places, as much as 25 per cent in Boston; 35 per cent in Indianapolis. Chicago admits noticeable increase in intoxication on streets.
3. Large quantities of "moonshine" still being sold and several papers report it is cheaper and a better than the legalized liquor. Much complaint of widespread counterfeiting of labels and refilling genuine bottles with inferior bootleg liquor.

It is a well known fact that conditions in Cadillac are anything but what they should be and that some of the local so-called beer gardens are a disgrace to any community. A week ago in Chicago, we saw more drunkenness among young people during the four days spent in that city than we have seen in any one year since we started in 1919 to make three business trips annually to the central west's metropolises. There is dissatisfaction all along the line. Neither wets nor dries nor public officials are satisfied. The bootleggers and moonshiners are saving little—still doing business. The need for temperate education is becoming more apparent every week. Laws are necessary but laws will not suffice the schools, the churches, the home have a real job on their hands to teach temperance and respect for the law.

A dozen emptying containers purchased by manufacturers for the purpose of packing food in them from sacks was handed down in the Kent county circuit court during the week. This is a device in the right direction and is intended by the legislator but will do little unless the law is enforced to put it into effect. The case has set to pass.

A Strategist

"Bothered much by hitch-hikers when you're out riding?" "Not now. Tried a new plan. As soon as I get out of town, I show the sign 'Taxi' or my car."

HUH?

Grocer—What do you want, sonny? Boy—I'm trying to remember what ma wanted me to get in this jug. Grocer—What jug? Boy—Oh, I forgot the jug.

DON'T IMITATE THIS MAN

We met a man who spoke to us without a smile, without a word of kindly greeting. Just shook hands and let it go at that.

I have known him for thirty years," said the man who introduced us. "He is always 100 per cent like he was today. He was that way thirty years ago. In fact he seems to enjoy his glumness."

Yes, when we met this man's wife, she was 100 per cent kindly, friendly and courteous.

We couldn't help but wonder why his glumness hadn't broken the morale of her kindly personality and why her good nature hadn't made a dent in his pessimistic soul. Environment fell down on this job.

NOW IT IS REPEAL THAT IS ON TRIAL

The editor of the paper in one of Michigan's first little cities up-dates his readers that if liquor conditions in that place don't improve there will be a swing-back to prohibition. He goes on to say, "Repeal is on trial just as the 18th amendment was on trial." And he points out further that it was the drys and not the wets who brought in repeal and who can now bring back prohibition—so to these places some thing to drink is not the end and aim of life.

Ypsilanti is the latest Michigan town to report a drop in deaths due to heart trouble. That is, after a little of the "good" party of the "good" party. SPANK THE OTHER RADICALS

The Detroit News recommends a good spanking for the youthful young bloods, calling themselves radicals, who got through out of Detroit on their way to the other day when they tried to do their Soviet stunt.

As the News says the capitalist who had tried to radicalize, will have a different kind of radical when they are swayed by a lawyer.

The ones we ought to be spanking are the radical papers and instructors of our universities and colleges who are teaching their students to these radical ideas. They are too smart to drive into Detroit on truck, suggesting that "storage" but their charges are spilling in the streets and this is not a joke. We can't have our universities and colleges who have been teaching their students to these radical ideas. They are too smart to drive into Detroit on truck, suggesting that "storage" but their charges are spilling in the streets and this is not a joke.

Yes, today the picture over on that little island has changed—and changed for the better.

England today has a surplus. More than that, it is paying taxes. In other words the empire is going along better than the United States. Yet three years ago an Englishman visiting in Detroit said: "You talk about depression. We call your hard times prosperity."

We have heard nowhere of England having a "Brain Trust" to get them out of their troubles. Can anyone tell us whether they have one over there or not?

Our own idea is that natural forces and not "Brain Trusts" are bringing the United States back to better times. These same natural forces all around the world are bringing improved conditions everywhere. Shipping on all ports is better—and there is no better index of prosperity than boat loadings.

DO THEY HAVE A BRAIN TRUST THERE?

Two or three years ago some people thought the great British empire was close to the rocks and might soon be in ruins.

England was in a bad way. Millions were on the dole. Unemployment was terrific. Taxation was an almost unbearable load—in some cases almost confiscation.

Yet today the picture over on that little island has changed—and changed for the better.

England today has a surplus. More than that, it is paying taxes. In other words the empire is going along better than the United States. Yet three years ago an Englishman visiting in Detroit said: "You talk about depression. We call your hard times prosperity."

THEY GO AND GET IT

With prospects of prosperous times again, now is the time for business people and good citizens of Northville to get what California does when it wants anything. Viz., "Go and get it."

Year's residence in a splendid California town, in the heart of the citrus country, taught us that the progress of the Californians has not been overrated. "Getters" run things out there on the Coast and "knockers" are given little chance to say anything. What a fine thing, if all Michigan communities could get what California does when it wants anything. Viz., "Go and get it."

THE INFLUENCE OF THE MOVIES

By GRACE HAWKINS

To parents and others interested in the wholesome moral development of children, the findings of a recent research committee on motion pictures may be rather disturbing.

Many have lost their lives in their never-ending pursuit. Malory, the veteran and lyricist, the novice, came the closest to conquest the invincible Everest. Already they were beyond any height yet climbed...

Mr. Edgar Dale in his book "How to Appreciate Motion Pictures" analyzed the goals that the leading characters in 115 pictures were trying to reach. Of the 883 examined 63 per cent condoned the achievement of selfish motives...

Another practice not to the credit of motion-picture producers is their emphasis on and treatment of sex and crime. In 1930 it was found that 42 per cent of the motion pictures do to with crime and sex.

Others believe that the child is the sun of all his experiences, that he is influenced equally by home life, parents, church, school, friends, motion pictures and all other agencies entering into his environment.

Elizabeth Knowlton knows the call of these magnificent signs. It was neither Mt. Everest, Parnassus nor the Matterhorn, however, which cast its magic spell over her and her party. It was Nanga Parbat...

The party who intended, if it was in their power, to humble the lordly "Hidden Mountain" of the western Alps consisted of nine people including the author.

The financial report for 1934 was read showing estimated disbursements as $60,253 and receipts at $39,253, making a total of the budget to be spent on the tax roll of $60,000. The budget was accepted as read by the council.

NORTHVILLE BASKS IN SUMMER WARMTH

Spring has come at last after one of the longest winters in the history of Michigan. With the calendar seeming to skip spring, summer heat has called forth boys to the swimming holes and men to the golf links.

On Saturday and Sunday the thermometer soared to around 85 degrees. Trees have leaved out almost overnight and some gardens are up. Rain is greatly needed.

Secretary Bird Kills Snake
Snake had its first bite of diet of the secretary bird of South and East Africa, which is very fearless in attacking even the more voracious varieties of reptiles. The bird, which was seen four feet high, stamps the feet of its victims with its powerful legs and feet. Its wings are thought to act as shields from the snake's poisonous fangs although the bird is remarkably agile in keeping out of the way of these.

Trophies in Greece
In ancient Greece, a trophy was a memorial of victory erected on the spot where the enemy had turned in flight. Often one or two shields and helmets of the routed enemy, placed upon the trunk of a tree, served as the sign and memorial of victory. After a battle, the trophies consisted of the heads and arms of the slain, and the spoils of the enemy.

THIS WEEK

By H. H. WHITE

The question has often been asked, Can religion stop war, and the immediate answer is no. This might seem as if the most effective thing in the world to prevent war was a futile thing, and the ultimate abolition of war equally hopeless. But such is not the case.

When once the growth of hatreds and envious passions have reached a certain high point in the minds and souls of mankind, war is inevitable, and the hostilities will not cease until war has had its run. Even all organized religious bodies or all Christendom with the highest and best of resolutions cannot prevent it.

The reason is that the world in general for too long a time has considered religion as an abstract force and not applicable enough for the agency of peace.

Religion is and should be a quality of spirit indelible in the hearts of men, and if this could be accomplished then religion would become a powerful and effective agency in ending wars. Such a spirit of determined faith and fruits of the spirit, which are friendliness, good will and love for fellowmen, vividly lived and expressed in the hearts of men, would then prevent war.

Having war is not an effective agency because it is too negative and such a quality has never succeeded in doing anything of permanent value towards the outwary of war. Peace must be created in the heart of mankind and if sufficiently powerful in the individual soul can be an irresistible force for the maintenance of continual peace.
