

BE GLAD
We Live in Northville Instead of Stormy Europe

MORE MONEY
In Circulation Will Help Your Business and Ours

Vol. 64, No. 5

Northville, Michigan, Friday, August 3, 1934

$1.50 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

16 FREE ACTS TO BE SHOWN AT THE FAIR

Four New Ones Will Be Seen
Before Grand Stand
Each Day

BAND MANAGER

R. H. AMERMAN
Supt. of Schools R. H. Amerman

The 16 unusually nice free acts that will entertain grandstand patrons at the Northville Wayne County Fair, August 22-25, were announced Wednesday by Elmer Smith, in charge of free attractions. Four new performances will be seen every day.

The array of free acts assembled under the title "variety parade," and comes here through the United Booking association in Detroit.

Among the feature attractions obtained, for the fair by Mr. Smith, are the following: "The Spinning Aces," a man and lady speed skating combination; the Belmont Brothers, an act with spinning bicycles; Amato's rubber ball and stick juggler; Nolan and Kinney, man and lady dancers, who do as specialty a fast military dance dressed as West Point cadets; Mario Correlli and Company, "the world's strongest woman."

Others include Cardinals and Tinty, a comedy musical act; Musical Bent, a Spanish troubadour song and dance; Sunny Jim, a bicyclic and unicycle performer; Baltó and Maro, an acrobatic dance combination; Frank and Elva, a high perch act; Three Queens, three blondes in a fast music and dance act.

An especially outstanding performance will be that of Naro Lockford and Company doing "A Dance Humoresque," an act that is renowned in the field of special dances. Throughout the fair Jack Pennington, a noted band leader, will act as master of ceremonies.

Four of these acts will be presented every afternoon and evening of the fair on the free act platform in front of the grandstand. Mr. Smith stated his opinion that this year's free acts are "above the average and that we are indeed fortunate to have secured them. Everyone is assured of good entertainment."

BAPTIST CHURCHES
CONDUCT SERVICES AT EASTLAWN "SAN"

The open air service Sunday evening for the benefit of patients at Eastlawn sanatorium, was "greatly enjoyed by all. The combined Baptist churches from Plymouth, Novi, Walled Lake, Wixom, Pontiac and Northville were well represented.

The Rev. Sutherland opened the meeting by a few remarks, after which all joined in singing "Face to Face." Dr. Savage's four-piece orchestra then played. "Come Over on the Winning Side." Prayer was offered by Mr. Button of Novi, and the Rev. O. V. Wil of Walled Lake.

The Northville male quartet sang "When I Think How They Crucified My Lord," with a feeling that made everyone believe the evening was well spent. The Junior choir of Plymouth then sang, "Dear No, I Will Follow Thee."

The Rev. K. S. North of Northville introduced Dr. A. B. Wickham, who delivered a short address on how the patients appreciated the good work being done by the Northville Baptist church people.

In his closing remarks he referred to faces he saw of different churches and creeds and was greatly pleased with such unity. "For unity is strength."

The Rev. G. H. North delivered the sermon from the text Isaiah 1: 18, an invitation to come and reason together. Both the virtuous and criminal alike could come if they willed and all the same way, he said. "Even Dillinger could come in this last moment," Mr. North stated.

Because of the serious illness of the Rev. Tolby's wife, Mr. Tolby was unable to attend. Mr. Button filled his place capably.

The service closed with a prayer, offered by the Rev. A. K. MacRae of Walled Lake.

DAUGHTERS OF AMERICA

Will any lady who belongs to the Daughters of America please get in touch with Lucinda Smith of Barbara Fritchie council, Northville, Mich., Route No. 2, Box 172.

W. B. C. MEETING

The regular meeting of the W. B. C. will be held in the Legion hall on Wednesday evening, August 8. All officers and members are requested to be present.

BAND CONCERT WILL BE HELD ON SATURDAY

To March From the School at 7:30 p. m. and Play On Downtown Corners

R. H. AMERMAN
Supt. of Schools R. H. Amerman

The Northville Community School Band, whose gay red and white uniforms are familiar to all Northville residents, will parade down Main street tomorrow evening to play its first Saturday night concert in two years.

The band will start its march from the school house at 7:30, led by its Drum Major, Beverly Stampa. It will give an hour's concert under the direction of the conductor, Edward Head.

The band played at the South Lyon Gala Day celebration last Wednesday, and will play as it has done in past years, at the Northville Wayne County Fair, August 22 to 25.

Supt. of Schools R. H. Amerman, band manager, announced that all band members wishing to play at the fair must report at the practice in the high school gymnasium Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

PROWLER REPORTED IN THE WEST END

Residents in the west end of Northville report that a prowler has been at large during the past week. Wednesday, he broke into the home of Garret Grant on Rogers street, but was heard before he could do anything. Police were called, but the mysterious visitor had flown.

FAIR WILL BE ADVERTISED BY LETTER STICKERS

Northville People Are Asked
To Use Mail As Medium
Of Announcement

The Northville Wayne County Fair association now has in circulation hundreds of green stickers, announcing the fair August 22-25, to be pasted on the backs of letters.

President N. C. Schrader urges all people to "support your fair and, by this means, advertise it from coast to coast." Mr. Schrader has many more stickers at his store on Center street and he invites all to come in and ask for them.

FOREMAN HOPES FOR MUCH FRUIT AT FAIR

Ralph Foreman, member in charge of the horticulture Department of the Northville Wayne County Fair, issued an invitation last week to prospective exhibitors to "plan to bring your fruits to the fair and make the horticulture part of it the best ever."

With his mind always on improvement, Mr. Foreman states that he would like to have the horticultural exhibit better than usual, but that depends upon the interest shown.

He requested anyone intending to make a large exhibit in his division to get in touch with him as soon as possible.

OWEN'S, FARMINGTON AT TOP OF LEAGUE IN PLAYGROUND BALL

With Owen's and Farmington leading the league with perfect percentages, the Northville Indoor League closes its third week of last competition at the high school playground.

Crowds line both sides of the wall between which the teams play, and enthusiasm continues.

The results of the games last week Thursday and Friday, and ones to Wednesday this week are as follows:

Thursday—Owen's 10, Infants 7. Friday—Ely's 13, A. & P. 6. Monday—Farmington 7, Maybury 5.

Tuesday—Infants 3, Novi 0. Wednesday—Edison 6, Lutherans 2.

Tonight Owen's take on Ely's, the game, starting at 6:30 p.m. Last evening, Twin Pines was to have played A. & P.

The schedule for next week is as follows: Aug. 6—Maybury vs. Twin Pines; Aug. 7—Novi vs. Edison; Aug. 8—Farmington vs. Owen's; Aug. 9—A. & P. vs. Lutherans; Aug. 10—Maybury vs. Infants.

Due to an error in the schedule two changes have been made. On August 29, Edison plays the Infants, and on Sept. 14, the last game of the season, A. & P. plays the Infants.

The automobile to be given away by the Northville Wayne County Fair this year will be a brand new Ford V-8 it was announced this week.

The car is to be given away with each 50 cent purchase from twenty-two local merchants and two men from out of town. Persons receiving tickets are to tear them in two, drop part in a box that is provided, and keep the other part with a corresponding number. The car will be given to the person whose number is drawn at the fair.

The new addition to the list of local merchants is the D. & C.

ROBERT G. YERKES WITHDRAWS NOMINATING PETITIONS

Has to Make Last Minute Dash to Lansing to Take His Name From List of Candidates

Notified by telegram that petitions placing him on the primary ballot for congressional nomination had been circulated without his knowledge, Robert G. Yerkes made a dramatic dash to Lansing from Mackinac Island Friday to withdraw his name from the list of candidates.

Earlier in the year, Mr. Yerkes, then asked, signified that he would not run for congress. His friends, however, circulated petitions anyway, and had he withdrawn them more than two hours later than he did his name would have appeared on the primary ballots in September, regardless of his wishes.

Mr. Yerkes announced that he would support Diodoro wholeheartedly. With the exception of Bowles G. Geier of Detroit, Rep. Diodoro is now the only republican candidate for the nomination.

Seymour Persons, Lansing reporter, said that when it was incorporated in 1930, the 16th congressional district became the 16th congressional district because of the 1930 reapportionment, so withdrew his nomination at the same time as did Mr. Yerkes.

WOLVERINES PLAY
TIVOLI SUNDAY

GRAND JURY PROBES
LIVES OF ROTARIANS

Fast Game Expected As Red Members Wear Blue and Wingo, Ex-Tiger Star, Brings Sluggers

The grand jury investigation at the Northville State Bank, which has nothing on the Northville team leaders in Triple A, a solitory club at their Tuesday meeting, has numerous lines of the members were "unbearably" probed by the master investigator, Father Joseph Schatz.

A feature of Sunday's game is that children will be admitted free of charge. Tivoli was reluctant about coming to Northville on account of reported small gate receipts, but was encouraged by the fact that the members of the club are their favorite color, their favorite dish, and their favorite express.

It is expected that, as in the past, large crowds will be attracted by the band playing.

OAKLAND COUNTY PICNIC WILL BE AT WALLED LAKE

An Oakland County "all day back-picknic" will be held at the Walled Lake Amusement Park, Tuesday, at which several state officials will be present, and other forms of entertainment will be given by the various bands.

Chief among the speakers will be Auditor General John K. Stark, democratic candidate for governor and State Highway Commissioner Murray D. Van Waggoner.

Music will be furnished by the various amateur and semi-pro choirs.

Their favorite pastime in the Oakland County board of supervisors, chairman of the committee in charge is C. W. Hammon, Novi All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

The picnic is sponsored by the Farmington High school band and the entertainment will be given by the various amateur and semi-pro choirs.

In their game with the Pontiac team, the first Triple A contest here with the first Famous Giants two weeks ago after breaking up the Michigan-Ottawa league with their repeated defeat. The Wolverines were defeated 13 to 5 in May.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake, Saturday, in the evening.

Their favorite pastime in the Walled Lake All-Stars at Walled Lake

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD

Established 1899

Published every Friday morning and entered at the Northville, Michigan post office as second-class matter.

The Oldest Paper in Wayne County Outside the City of Detroit

Richard T. Baldwin—Editor and Publisher

A newspaper devoted to the welfare of the community in which it is published

Telephone 200

Subscription Rates: Per Year $1.00 6 Months 75c 3 Months 50c

Member Metropolitan Group of Michigan Newspapers; The National Editorial Association, The University of Michigan Press Club and the Michigan Press Association

National Advertising Representatives—American Press Association

REAPING WHAT YOU SOW

Editor Emerson O. Gildart, of Utica, travelling through several states includes this little thought he sends back to his paper:

Everywhere we have gone the scriptural motto, "They that sow in tears shall reap in joy," is emphasized. The farmers who snapped into it early and got their corn in and started have promise of a pretty fair harvest; whereas the farmer who planted nothing will have his seed money to pay his taxes with.

A GIFT FOR NORTHLVILLE

(Editor's Note—This editorial was written for last week's Record but was crowded out.)

Last week we mentioned the town clock. One man gave Northville that clock. He did something that will make him remembered long after you and the writer have passed into the Eternal City. Often as they clock strikes we wish we might have known the man who set out to give his community something. A lot of folks take from the community, but here is a man who "dug down" and GAVE it something and made a present that was unique and helpful every hour of the day and night.

We write this as the relentless sun beats down and drives the mercury above 90 degrees. Our shirt sticks to our back and the perspiration runs down our cheeks. The corn is rolling in our neighbor's garden. The children in the block are hot and sticky. Who will get the vision of doing something for his town and give Northville a swimming pool? There will be some more not swimmers in the next half century.

But if no individual will step up and give his home town a swimming pool (and skating rink in winter), maybe the PWA will do it for us. We all need lots of bathing this kind of weather.

THE END IS A BLIND ALLEY

Any young man who thinks that there is any easy road to wealth or happiness through dishonesty, banditry or the "stick-up" game, needs only to look at John Dillingham, murderer, in his dying moments.

This vicious criminal came to the end of the road, as they all come, sooner or later.

The end of the road brings poverty, haunting fears, the reproach of one's fellows and usually a death before one's time. And when the end of the road comes, all the glamour of the bandit and the bold up man is gone. Only ashes remain. And shame and disgrace for all.

Men may sneer at the "straight and narrow" path, but the fact remains that those who keep to this path get the most out of life—both for themselves and their loved ones. This country today would be far better off, financially, and every other way, if we had more of the "old fashioned" ways of our fathers and mothers, and grandparents, which were held in high regard: decency, honor, family life, religion and high ideals. We can thank the cynicism of some of the sneers at these old-fashioned ways, for the moral breakdown of this country which has had no small part in the economic and business collapse of our country.

Take away the moral standards of a people and you haven't far to go to see a collapse of all other standards. There is still no way to break the Ten Commandments and "get away with it." The laws of God are eternal and unchangeable. You break them at your own peril.

GROESBECK SEEKS GOVERNORSHIP

Alex J. Groesbeck, three times governor of Michigan, and twice defeated—by Fred W. Green and Wilber M. Brucker—again seeks the office. His announcement disappoints a good many republican leaders of the state who had hoped that the party could avoid any friction this year and present a united front against the disorganized democrats.

The outcome of the primary race, with John W. Smith of Detroit, cutting into the Wayne county vote, is hard to predict. Frank D. Fitzgerald, whose candidacy was announced many weeks ago, has great strength and will be hard to defeat. W. H. Berkey, editor of the Cassopolis Vigilant and a very good observer of political conditions in the southwestern part of the state, predicts that Fitzgerald will be nominated and elected. On the other hand, Schuyler L. Marshall of the Clinton County Republican News, at St. Johns, another keen observer, takes stand for Groesbeck and wishes Fitzgerald would seek his present office, that of secretary of state.

Groesbeck will draw his strength from that body of independent voters who think a "czar" is needed to straighten out the mess at Lansing. Many who opposed him before for being ruthless, cold and inconsiderate, will this fall be for him for these very reasons. Just how strong this body of independent voters is, no one can, at this time, estimate.

Fitzgerald will be favored in all sections of the state by his outstanding record of public service. He was the only republican to survive the democratic landslide of 1932 and has great strength all over Michigan. None questions his honesty, ability and fine spirit of public service. For 20 years he has served Michigan well and has the knowledge and ability to continue that service in the governor's chair. There have lined up with him a great host of the best leaders of the party including former governors Fred W. Green, Wilber M. Brucker and Chase S. Osborn. The big objection raised to Fitzgerald is that he is not as dynamic a personality as Groesbeck.

Both Fitzgerald and Groesbeck are high grade men and their campaigns, we are sure, will be conducted on a high level. Whichever is named should be given the full support of the party at the fall election.

SEE MICHIGAN FIRST

The Record editorial family is having its first vacation since we came to Northville in February, 1931, and will enjoy a two weeks' stay at Crystal lake, near Beulah and Benzonia. It is a charming spot to which we have gone twice before.

We wish that we might include all of our readers on our vacation. Because the newspaper business is particularly strenuous, those who run newspapers have to get away once in a while to get their balance, to renew the frayed nerves and tired minds and bodies. And yet there are many other businesses that are just as exacting as ours. We presume that the grocery business, with its long hours, is worse. And certainly the farmer, who has to milk cows seven days a week, is entitled to a change. Surely also, every housewife who gets up meals seven days a week, all the year around, should be given a good chance to eat someone else's menu. The only folks whom we can think of who don't need a vacation, are the philosophers who stand on our street corners and settle all the problems of local, state and national government.

In the former days when the pay check came more regularly, our vacation jaunts took us to different parts of this great United States. Money was easier and we had trips to New England two or three times and to the South. This year we stick to Michigan for two reasons: It is cheaper and, further, Michigan has everything that a vacation land can offer. The lakes of Michigan are marvelous. The northern country of our own state offers a wild expanse that is alluring to those who love the outdoors. Our Great Lakes have an appeal that nothing else has. The fruit belt of Michigan is something worth traveling far to see.

At Crystal lake there is an expanse of white sand that drinks in the heat of the day and makes the nights cold and attractive. There are walks in the woods and orchards. The sand dunes of Lake Michigan are not far off—one look at them helps wipe the cobwebs from your mind. We are not much enthused over fishing and do not subscribe to the doctrine sometimes preached by Ike Walton, that all fishermen are great men, philosophers and benefactors of the country. Yet there is fine fishing at Crystal lake and otherwise ask E. C. Langfield about Glen lake—and Philip has a lot of fishing-tackle ready to try out.

We have borrowed from a fine library of a friend, half a dozen books and shall do what we have been hungry to do for some weeks—read and live in a new world, to be induced from 120 North Center street and its telephone calls.

As we leave for the beautiful northern country, only regret is that all of Northville can't start out too, such a vacation.

WANDERING THOUGHTS

Tell the world—August 22 to 25 are the dates.

What would a swimming pool have been worth to Northville the summer of 1934?

We hear of three families from a city 75 miles away who hope to be able to come to Northville's horse show in two weeks.

Everyone rejoices that the farmers "got a break" when the rains came last Thursday. Their prosperity is essential to the prosperity of us all.

Our state grand jury costs the taxpayers $100,000. And now it has been ordered to stop. The way to do away with grand juries is to take more care to elect honest and capable men to office.

A Detroit man who lost one-third of a million dollars—all he had—during the depression was in the office yesterday. "If you had all that money again, what would you do with it?" we asked him. "I certainly should put some in to government bonds," he replied.

Jay Hayden, noted Detroit News correspondent, has been touring the West and reports that liquor conditions are so bad in some states that already wet and drys are predicting the return of prohibition. The liquor crowd has always been to blame for its own destruction.

Times are better. More people are forgetting their troubles and thinking of their blessings. How many Northville people do you know who haven't a radio or an automobile? Did you ever see so many folks at the theatres at the lake resorts and in automobiles on the highways? And did you also notice that bank deposits are going up?

Our bookkeeper was touched on her birthday last week to get a little gift from an almost complete stranger for whom she did a little act of kindness last Christmas. Such unexpected little deeds of thoughtfulness help make a better world. We should all do more of them. We know of no better principle than the Boy Scouts—"Do a Good Turn Each Day."

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

HOW GREAT WERE THEY?

(Sam E. Boys in Plymouth Ind. Daily Pilot)

If you drive out some evening through the country over a road that passes through any low, marshy ground that has resisted man's greedy efforts to drain it, or along any of the few roads where dense woods instead of baked fields line the roadside, you must have noted the sweet, cooling atmosphere that greets you in these places. It is in direct contrast to the dry, hot, dead-grass covered fields.

We must stop to consider those men who in years gone by have been spurred on by greed to cut every woods and drain every low place on their farms. If a man owned 180 acres of swamp or lowland that excessive moisture made worthless for anything but pasture, that 10 acres worried him, if he was like the majority of our "builders of the nation" until he had converted it to "profitable" acreage that would yield to his every wish.

We used to call it "progress" when we saw big ditches dredged—the ditches installed to every pond on the farm to every hill, to every gully, to every brook, to every stream.

When Dick bought his ticket, he asked the ticket seller to give him a seat in the shade. That's what he got—only it was right back of a steel post in the grandstand, and every time he wanted to watch a play,

he had to get up and run around the farm, or sweet-scented shrubbery post. This went pretty well until he got up and turned from drained

he happened to step on a fat lady's marshlands. Now, as we hake and sweat in the summering 100-plus temperatures and pray for rain, we can look back and perhaps better judgment can be generated to govern the future preservation of nature, although greed and lust for land has already done irreparable damage.

It was a hectic day

(Fred D. Keister in The Iowa County News)

We wish that when these country editors make up their minds to attend a Detroit baseball game, they give us a little advanced information and maybe we could smooth things out for them a bit.

I am moved to mention this after reading what happened to Dick DeFee, Charlotte; Dick Baldwin, Northville, and Harry Izor, Durand. The boys all got the idea at the same time they'd like to see the Yankees play the Tigers. It was the day Babe Ruth blasted out his 70th home run into Cherry street.

When Dick bought his ticket, he asked the ticket seller to give him a seat in the shade. That's what he got—only it was right back of a steel post in the grandstand, and every time he wanted to watch a play, he had to get up and run around the farm, or sweet-scented shrubbery post. This went pretty well until

he got up and turned from drained

he happened to step on a fat lady's corns and right then and there all the joys of the game departed so far as the sage of Eaton county was concerned. In fact he was so peeved that when he got home, Luren Dickinson took one look and refused to become a candidate for Lieutenant governor, and it certainly has to be something. Starting to keep Luren from running for something.

Dick Baldwin took his young son with him to the game and was never so insulted in his life as they planted him next to two couples fresh from a beer garden and Dick says they indulged in restaurant

till all the afternoon that sounded worse than a painted lady in an old-fashioned saloon. Dick didn't care, but he hated to have the kid hear just how good some of our females can use curse words often they mix a little excitement with four or five bottles of six per cent suds.

Ten miles from home, on the way to Navin Field, Harry Izor picked up a Grand Trunk railroad spike and that spoiled the day for him and his shop foreman. They arrived at the grounds after Babe had potted out the long one and missing this trill, together with the heat, sent them back to Durand in a disturbed frame of mind. However, we won't be a complete waste—he's due here

this afternoon with the Owosso golfers and we've got it fixed to let him on in the big, end of the score by matching him up with a certain country editor we have in mind.

SUMMER COMFORT

Includes

PLenty OF Pure Refreshing

MILK

Nature's Natural

FOOD

It's Pasteurized!

LLOYD MORSE DAIRY

436 N. Center Phone 492

Use Record Liners!

Don't Be Careless

ABOUT THE APPEARANCE OF

YOUR HOME

Use TRUSCON Paints

HOUSE PAINT ENAMEL

ASEPTICOD WASHABLE WALL COATING

SHINGLE STAIN VARNISH AND STAIN

PORCH AND DECK PAINT

NATIONALLY ADVERTISED AND APPROVED

REASONABLE PRICES!

Redford Lumber Company

Northville Branch

LUMBER BUILDING SUPPLIES COAL

Phone 30

AWNINGS

BEAUTIFY

Ypsilanti Phone 91-W

Ann Arbor 2-2931

FOX TENT and ### AWNING CO.

Fortunate

"And did you visit New York City and St. Louis when you were in the United States?"

"I really don't know. You see, George bought all the tickets." —Master Barber's Magazine.

One at a Time

A youth, about 14 years old, entered a grocery store one morning. "Give me a package of pancake flour," he ordered, in the hearty baritone voice which he was just beginning to acquire. The clerk turned to the shelves, when the young man thought of something else. "And a can of corn," he added in a shrill falsetto voice.

"One at a time," said the clerk. "I can't wait on both of you at once."

The Best Silent
Refrigeration
For Your Home Is

ELY'S
PURE
ICE
Neat - Courteous
DELIVERY

ELY
And SONS

Coal & Ice

136 N. Center Ph. 191

MEMORIES OF MEN WHO WALKED OUR VILLAGE STREETS

THIS WEEK By H. E. WHITE

JOHN S. STRATTAN, lanky, care-free individual, fine upholsterer, able and desirable citizen.

ISAAC SLAGHT, a tile maker, attentive to his job, pleasant and neighborly and a good citizen.

JOHN M. DIXON, English bred, lover of flowers, good business man, short, aggressive and reliable.

HENRY WHITTAKER, aggressive son of a pioneer farmer, sprightly, humorous, attractive personality and well-liked.

EBENEZER ROSS, short, chunky man, restless, active minded, an inventor, good citizen and interested in his home.

WILLIAM RIDDLE, porter, stage coach operator Northville to Wayne, lively stable owner, alert, active and good companion.

CHARLES S. NIGHTINGALE, preacher, slim, active, studious, attentive to his job, a pleasing personality, well-liked.

WILLIAM H. SHANNON, plump, clear featured, a minister, pastor and good speaker, helpful to many hundreds of people.

E. ROSCOE REED, tall, easy going, son of a pioneer preacher, newsman, village clerk, strong church man and well liked.

WILLIAM TAFT, of pioneer stock, hard worker, farmer, village drayman, good neighbor, agreeable and attentive to duties as a citizen.

EDWIN N. ROOT, spare in build, active, good dentist; a man of simple tastes, keen for the good of the community and a fine citizen.

ADOLPH W. OLDE, of medium height, solidly built, aggressive, winsome, maker of soots, good salesman, pleasant and agreeable.

No Son-In-Law Wanted

Daughter—Mother, the lodger proposed to me today.

Mother—Nonsense—tomorrow is the first of the month and I want my rent, so no more foolish talk—Huwrel (Hamburg)

Once quite a long while ago I remember in a vaudeville show a hulking, stocky built man throwing a boomerang. The man would run a little way across the stage and throwing his weapon with all his might it would go up and out a long distance, then turn of its own accord, and fall quite near to where it started.

Such maneuvering of this strange weapon was due to its strange shape and also the manner in which it was thrown. Sometimes I think life is often like the boomerang. The thoughts we send out often return back and hit us four-fold. The bread we cast upon the waters is the form of deeds which blight or bless our lives.

We all have possibly in the past run away from some shameful deed, but time has brought us back to face not only the unpleasant deed but our soul and conscience. In the end we must encounter the success or blatant failure of our former deeds.

Life is not an arrow as the poet has said. It is a boomerang for man is born of dust and returns to dust again at the end.

Safety

Policeman: "Lady, don't you know that is a 'safe' zone?"

Woman Driver: "Of course—that's why I drove in here."

Liberal

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them?" asked Arthur.

"Of course I did," said the father, glibly.

"Then you may have these," replied his son graciously.—Montreal Star.

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them?" asked Arthur.

"Of course I did," said the father, glibly.

"Then you may have these," replied his son graciously.—Montreal Star.

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them?" asked Arthur.

"Of course I did," said the father, glibly.

"Then you may have these," replied his son graciously.—Montreal Star.

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them?" asked Arthur.

"Of course I did," said the father, glibly.

"Then you may have these," replied his son graciously.—Montreal Star.

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them?" asked Arthur.

"Of course I did," said the father, glibly.

"Then you may have these," replied his son graciously.—Montreal Star.

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them?" asked Arthur.

"Of course I did," said the father, glibly.

"Then you may have these," replied his son graciously.—Montreal Star.

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them?" asked Arthur.

"Of course I did," said the father, glibly.

"Then you may have these," replied his son graciously.—Montreal Star.

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them?" asked Arthur.

"Of course I did," said the father, glibly.

"Then you may have these," replied his son graciously.—Montreal Star.

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them?" asked Arthur.

"Of course I did," said the father, glibly.

"Then you may have these," replied his son graciously.—Montreal Star.

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them?" asked Arthur.

"Of course I did," said the father, glibly.

"Then you may have these," replied his son graciously.—Montreal Star.

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them?" asked Arthur.

"Of course I did," said the father, glibly.

"Then you may have these," replied his son graciously.—Montreal Star.

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them?" asked Arthur.

"Of course I did," said the father, glibly.

"Then you may have these," replied his son graciously.—Montreal Star.

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them?" asked Arthur.

"Of course I did," said the father, glibly.

"Then you may have these," replied his son graciously.—Montreal Star.

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them?" asked Arthur.

"Of course I did," said the father, glibly.

"Then you may have these," replied his son graciously.—Montreal Star.

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them?" asked Arthur.

"Of course I did," said the father, glibly.

"Then you may have these," replied his son graciously.—Montreal Star.

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them?" asked Arthur.

"Of course I did," said the father, glibly.

"Then you may have these," replied his son graciously.—Montreal Star.

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them?" asked Arthur.

"Of course I did," said the father, glibly.

"Then you may have these," replied his son graciously.—Montreal Star.

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them?" asked Arthur.

"Of course I did," said the father, glibly.

"Then you may have these," replied his son graciously.—Montreal Star.

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them?" asked Arthur.

"Of course I did," said the father, glibly.

"Then you may have these," replied his son graciously.—Montreal Star.

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them?" asked Arthur.

"Of course I did," said the father, glibly.

"Then you may have these," replied his son graciously.—Montreal Star.

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them?" asked Arthur.

"Of course I did," said the father, glibly.

"Then you may have these," replied his son graciously.—Montreal Star.

Arthur, aged seven, had carefully bitten on all the soft pieces of his piece of toast, neatly, biting the crusts on the edge of his plate.

"When I was a boy," said father reprovingly, "I always ate crusts."

"Did you like them

Protect Your Baby's Health with
CURITY
LAYETTECLOTH
DIAPERS

COOLER — SAFER — MORE ABSORBENT

27x27 Size doz. $2.25
22x44 New Size doz. $2.75

Layettecloth combines two thicknesses of cloth into a strong, single selvage.

Sealed Sanitary Aerated

Stock Up Today!

PONSFORD'S

120 E. Main St. Phone 231

Grunow Leads Again!
IN THEIR 1935 MODELS OF
RADIOS.

• Refrigerators

These new models are on display at our store, 128 W. Main street.

Foreign Reception Guaranteed
Listen in on London, Germany or Spain.
A revelation in tone and beauty.

PRICES FROM $27.50 to $139.50

Come in and select the one you like. Also Grunow, Kelvinator and Crosley Refrigerators as low as $114.00. See these before you buy.

NORTHLVILLE ELECTRIC SHOP

Clifford Turnbull, Prop.

NORTHLVILLE Phone 184-J

Real Value STATIONERY

1/2 OFF ON BOX STATIONERY
This Week Only

Formerly $1.50	Now 75c
Formerly 1.00	Now 50c
Formerly .75	Now 49c
Formerly .50	Now 25c

Plain White, Colored Paper Lined Envelopes

Take advantage of this Special for future use.

The Record says

Gunsell Drug Store
Successor to Horton's Drug Store

YOUNG REPUBLICANS
TO MEET AUGUST 10
LOVEWELLS BELIEVED
OUT OF DANGER NOW

The Young Republican club, the nucleus of which was formed last Friday, will hold a meeting for the purpose of organization and election of officers August 10.

The club will meet in the library, where two prominent Detroit Republicans are expected to speak. Claude Zimmerman, active in sponsoring the club, issues an invitation for all interested in becoming charter members to get in touch with him as soon as possible.

The club will take in "as active members all from 21 to 40, although younger persons may be associated with it."

The Lovewell brothers were injured just south of Walled Lake while en route to Union Lake to notify relatives of the death of their father, Scott A. Lovewell.

NEWS AROUND NORTHLVILLE

Mrs. Thomas Thompson of Milford was in town on business last week.

Mabel Sylvester of Lewiston, Maine, spent the week-end with her cousin, Willard Stark.

Miss Eleanor Westphal returned from Kalamazoo, Thursday, after a five day visit there.

Chris J. Baumgartner of Detroit is the guest of his brother Harry Baumgartner, River street.

Mrs. Raymond Watts and daughter, Dorothy, of Rosedale Gardens, were Northville visitors, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wood, of South Wing street, have left for White lake to enjoy outing and fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Staeter and son, Willard, visited relatives in Goshen, Ind., over the week-end.

Mrs. Mary Alexander has been entertaining her brother Charles Schimkeits for the past few days.

John Schoutz of North Center street, who has been ill for such a long time, remains about the same.

Mr. and Mrs. James Boyer and children of Redford were visitors at the Geo. Lindner home last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beaman had as week-end guests, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wheeler and son, Jack, of Detroit.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank N. Miner and daughter, Elizabeth, were in Northville Sunday, calling on friends.

Mrs. Hazel Preston and Mrs. Glen Hale of Detroit visited Mrs. Preston's mother, Mrs. Chas. Sowles, Sunday.

Raymond DesAutels, who has been having a vacation from his office duties in Detroit, returned Monday to work.

Mrs. F. J. Bulask of Toledo returned to her home Sunday after a two weeks' stay with her sister, Mrs. Lucy Fulkins.

Miss Mary McLaren of Detroit spent the week-end with Miss Doris Shephard at the E. J. Cobb home on Grace avenue.

Mrs. Carl Wellwood and daughter of Detroit spent a few days with Mrs. May Pilgrim last week, returning home Sunday.

Mrs. Charles A. Bowen and Mrs. Ethel Dox, daughter of Detroit, were guests at the home of Mrs. F. S. Neal, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George White of Flushing were week-end visitors with Mr. White's sister, Mrs. Lester Stage, and brother, W. H. White. Robert Power and Warner Neal were Ann Arbor visitors Friday, Robert making arrangements to enter the University of Michigan this fall.

A little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Oer of 230 West Grand River, Tuesday, July 31. Mrs. Gier was formerly Miss McL Gleason.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Wheger and family, Mrs. Ren Martineau and family of Ixtrout were Thursday visitors last week at the Geo. Lindner home.

Mrs. Ethel Fuller-Salter of Pontiac, who has been a house guest at the W. H. White home on North Center street, returned home last Monday.

Mrs. Howard Atwood and little son, Harold, returned on Monday from Williamson, where they have been visiting relatives for the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lindner, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Vern Wheeler, of Detroit, were visitors last Sunday at the George Wallendar home in Rushton.

Mrs. D. L. McLean, Mrs. G. M. Pickell, and Mrs. P. L. Perkins visited Mrs. O. B. Rathbun and her mother, Mrs. Minnie Wagner, at Plymouth, Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Chas. R. Smith and infant son, John Henry, were welcomed home today (Friday) from Sessions hospital. The young man bears the name of both grandfathers.

Mrs. May Henry, who has been taking the week off, announced that her Lone Pine Tea room will be closed until Monday. She is enjoying a well earned rest at her home.

Dr. A. A. Holcomb, accompanied by A. C. Balder and young Jackie Holcomb, left last Wednesday for a four weeks' stay in northern Canada, where the doctor is building a cabin.

S. L. Brader is spending the week at Manitou Beach on Devil's lake near Hudson, Michigan. He is visiting Mrs. Brader, who has been vacationing there for the past three weeks.

Lawrence and Alfred Parmenter and Junior Cole left Wednesday for the north, where they will enjoy a two weeks' vacation at the Cole cottage on Bear Island.

Miss Lucille Calkins, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Susie Calkins, left Wednesday on a motor trip to the East, where they will visit Vern Calkins and family, at Providence, Rhode Island.

The Lovewell brothers were injured just south of Walled Lake while en route to Union Lake to notify relatives of the death of their father, Scott A. Lovewell.

SESSIONS HOSPITAL

Dorothy Ford was operated on Wednesday for hernia and is doing nicely.

Mrs. Charles Smith and boy will return home today.

Mary Ellen Abbott is recovering from a tonsilectomy.

NATIONAL HEAD TO ADDRESS FARMERS' UNION WEDNESDAY

E. H. Strobel, national president of the Farmers' Educational Union of America, will speak Wednesday at the Farmington town hall at 8:00 p.m.

The union, a national farmers' society, has more than 1500 members in Michigan after only a year's organization. Mr. Everson is a farmer himself, coming from St. Charles, S. D.

BRAGO! WILL NOT SHOW WHITE FEATHER FIRST

It was in the year 2041 A.D. and a war was being fought to end all wars. There were no longer any men in the world, as they had all been abolished long before. A regiment of fine, upstanding, beauty-conscious women were going to attack a strong position of the enemy.

"The commanding officer was doing her best to encourage them.

"Women," she cried, "never let it be said that you shamed the white feather." At this time, when feathers are not being worn."

"We will die first," said the whole regiment, in one voice—as they advanced against the foe.

Progress

Nurse: "I lost sight of the child, ma'am."

Ma'am: "Good gracious! Why didn't you speak to a policeman?"

Nurse: "I was speaking to the at the time, ma'am."

NOTICE

No meals will be served at The Royal Arms Cafe on Monday, Tuesday, nor Wednesday, Aug. 6, 7, and 8. Our delicious homemade ice cream will be on sale as usual. F. A. Fitt, proprietor.

Free Tickets

On a Brand New

AUTOMOBILE

For Every 50¢
Paid On Either

PAST DUE OR CURRENT ACCOUNTS

We Will Give One
TICKET

On the car to be given away
by the Northville Wayne
County Fair Association

W. E. FORNEY

Ice-Coal Co.
116 Main St. Phone 353

Last Day

Of the 34th
Money-Saving

NYAL

DRUG SALE

TOILETRIES
DRUGS

Home Remedies

Will Be On

SATURDAY, AUG. 4

Stock Up Now!

THE NYAL STORE

NORTHVILLE DRUG CO.

124 E. Main Phone 233

JUST 2 MORE DAYS IN OUR SEMI-ANNUAL SALE OF HEINZ QUALITY FOODS

KETCHUP, Small Size	CLAM CHOWDER or Consomme	Can 16c
2 Bots. 27c Lge. Bot. 20c
BEANS, All Varieties
3 Sm. Tins 27c 2 Lge. Tins 27c	SOUPS, 14 varieties 2 cans 27c
MUSTARD, Regular or Strong Jar 10c	RICE FLAKES, 2 pkgs. 25c
SPAGHETTI 3 Sm Tins 27c 2 Lge. Tins 27c	CHILI SAUCE bot. 25c

HOME DRESSED VEAL lb. 18c

CHOICE CUTS lb. 25c

TENDER AND JUICY lb. 15c

RIB OR RUMP ROAST lb. 20c

SMOKED HAM BUTTS DELICIOUS lb. 22c

CHOICE ASSORTMENT OF COLD MEATS

HOME DRESSED CHICKENS FRESH FISH

VINEGAR PARMENTER'S PURE CIDER Gal. 25c

A Northville Product, Famous for 50 Years

Lbs. Qts. 69c Doz. 79c

PICKLING SALT 2 RAINBOW

TASTE THE DIFFERENCE

GINGER SNAPS 25 E.M.B. COFFEE lb. 23c

FINEST ELBERTA PEACHES FOR CANNING

WE REDEEM SALE STARCH COUPONS

We are glad to give you free auto tickets—Just ask for them.

THREE

FREE

DELIVERIES

DAILY

8-10-4

OUR PHONE IS

183

108 E. MAIN

The Best Location

In Town

Red Arrow
Store Wide Sale—Saturday, Last Day

LADIES' SHOES, 1,000 PAIR
Walkover, discontinued Enna Jetnick, and other well-known makes sold for only—$1.95 pair

TENNIS SHOES
Sizes from 7 to 11 1/2. A real red-hot bargain at—39c pair

CHILDREN'S SHOES
A large assortment of sturdy, well-made shoes. Take your pick at—95c pair

Willoughby Boot Shop

322 S. Main St., Plymouth Phone 322

We'll Give You—
Free Chances On
THE FORD V-8

To Be Given Away at the Northville Fair

August 22-25

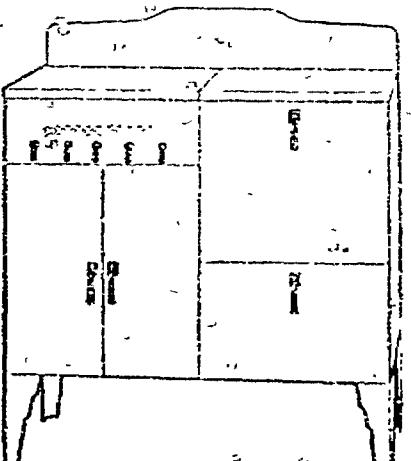

HERE'S A
SALE
THAT MEANS SOMETHING!

PRICE
LOW
GOOD ALLOWANCE
FOR YOUR OLD STOVE
LO-O-O-NG
EASY TERMS

YES—AND LOOK AT THIS BEAUTIFUL
NEW RANGE!

THE BEAUTIFUL NEW

A-B GAS RANGE
with new
AUTOMATIC FEATURES

EVERY FEATURE FOR BETTER, EASIER COOKING

- 1. Automatic Oven Heat Control—gives even temperature, correct for each cooking process. Saves gas. No watching, no guesswork.
- 2. Automatic Lighter—no matches.
- 3. Insulated oven—keeps kitchen cool.
- 4. High-Speed cooking units with the famous new sharper heat-spreading burners. Clean heat. New San-Tite makes washing easy.

TRADE YOUR OLD STOVE
GET OUR SPECIAL OFFER ON THIS

See Our Display This Week:
Wide Choice of Models—All
At Special Terms Now

$4.95
down

INSTALLS IT

CONSUMERS POWER CO.

NORTHVILLE

PLYMOUTH

WAYNE

DILLINGER PUBLICITY

Influence if they are more than a mere rental of fact.

Unfortunately, we believe, some large newspapers lose sight of or deliberately turn that blind eye to this angle. Rather, they, by deliberate Dillinger, dubbed America's No. 1 public enemy, was shot down in, sort of. In addition to the people murdered, the amount stolen, the ten months his man is said to have had the fact that Dillinger lived the life of fifteen people and robbed a hundred animals for most of that time.

By a series of spectacular escapades, full of daring and phenomenal luck, he became front page news. What he did, how he did it, and the eventual shooting of this of the Dillingers let them be in man's news. There pressed with the family of crime.

Forget the swash-buckling, daring, thrilling features of crime. Cease making Jesse, James, and Dead-eye Dick's out of skunks. These are not the days of the frontier West. Cold facts do not square with this dime novel interpretation of the Dillingers. They are really miserable animals. The journale and impressionable youths of America are, of course, the ones who are to be most considerable victims and repulsive sides of their characters and their acts. Their furnish the coloring matter which would be a restraining

WILLING TO PLEASE

She had driven past a red light, stalled her car in the midst of heavy traffic, made a left turn against the light, and finally pulled over to the curb and started to park against a water plug.

A policeman rushed over to her.

"Lady!" he shouted, "are you familiar with any of the rules governing drivers?"

She looked up at him with a lovely smile. "Why, yes," she said, "what would you like to know?"

"Christian Science Monitor."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

dead man."

"Patient—No, like my boy—hope

to get well."

"Doctor—After this treatment you

ought to be able to sleep like a

Classified Ads

WANTED

FOR RENT

LIGHT HOUSEKEEPING Rooms
For Rent 335 E. Cadiz St. Lester D. Stager, 21c

FOR RENT—Apartment, one block from downtown. Mrs. Betty Neal. Phone 100-215 North Center street.

FOR RENT—Pleasant room in modern home, bear bus line. Breakfast included. Might consider giving full board. Box AA. 5c

WHY WAIT? Now is a good time to start your lawn mowing and now is the time to take care of your farm. Fisher reported J. N. A. K. 10c Fishery road.

CAPABLE middle-aged woman, experienced in caring will open her home to care of aged persons. Comfortable home with all conveniences. Write Mrs. Leona Reddick, 325 E. Erie St., Albion, Michigan.

IT COSTS NO MORE TO buy the best. There is no other ice cream sold in Northville that will compare in richness and flavor with FRY'S DELICIOUS HOME MADE ICE CREAM. Quarts 25c—Pint 30c—2 fc.

LOST—A Shetland pony. Found in the stream W. H. White, Jr. at 42c

OLD TIME DANCING

Fri. Night Aug. 3, with the Texas Cowboys

Saturday Night—Modern Dancing at BENTLY'S

On Merriman road, between Plymouth and Joy roads.

STOP buying the press. Have you ever seen the kind of independent newspaper that is published in public? It's a fact that it is the most interesting reading and advertising of our time. We'll help you get it. Call or write us at 116, Fifth Street, Northville. P. O. Box 100. 5c

CARD OF THANKS

To all my friends and family.

I am very much obliged to you all for your kind words and for all the flowers I have received.

I am very grateful to you all for your kind words and for all the flowers I have received.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

With thanks again to all the friends and family who were present.

</div