The Northville Record

GET THE SPIRIT

Put More Into Northville Than You Take Out!

Vol. 64, No. 11 Northville, Michigan, Friday, September 14, 1934 $1.50 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

LOCAL PEOPLE PUT ON PLAY SEPT. 20-21

Methodist Service League Sponsors "Henry's Wedding"

One hundred prominent Northville people will be paraded as participants in the comical mix-up of a triple venture into matrimony when the Service League of the Methodist church presents "Henry's Wedding" in the high school auditorium next Thursday and Friday evenings, Sept. 20 and 21.

Wednesday evening at 7:30 there will be a special performance for children under twelve years of age.

Promising to be one of the biggest community projects of the season, "Henry's Wedding" has a cast of 100 persons, all from Northville. The play, a rollicking farce-comedy, is called for 8:15 p. m. both nights. Tickets, 40 cents for adults, and 20 cents for children under twelve, will be sold at the Gunsell Drug store. All seats are reserved.

Cast in the role of Uncle Henry, bachelor bridegroom of 55, is Myron C. Gunsell, and playing opposite him as his domineering financee is Mrs. Fred Reiger. The plot consists of the intricate web of circumstances of getting Uncle Henry, Jack, taken by Orlow Owen, and Lawyer Brown, played by Pete Ely, married.

The principal characters, only a small portion of the total cast, follow: Uncle Henry, Myron Gunsell; his fiancee Mrs. Fred Rieger. Jack, also a bridegroom, Alec Milne; Ted, his friend, A. A. Schwenger; Harris, another friend, Sam Stalter; Mary, Jack's fiancee, Miss Wilma Rattenbury; Marie, Mary's friend, Margaret Norton; Virginia, also a friend, Esther Parmenter; Lawyer Brown, Pete Ely; Susan Christopher, a spinster, Mrs. Ruth Briggs; Eliza, the colored cook, Florence Johnson; Rastus, also colored, H. H. White; Elstah Sadie, Mrs. M. J. Koldyke; O'Flaherty, a hard-boiled detective, Harold White, Mugs, his assistant, Alfred Parmenter; two gangsters from Chicago, Clifford Turnbull and Warner Neal; the Rev. Turnspeed, Chas J Smith.

Many of Northville's leading business men, important guests at the wedding, will march across the stage in costume, to be introduced by R. H. Amerman, superintendent of schools.

A black faced minstrel number will be directed by Mrs. Martha Koldyke, and a chorus of high school girls will add beauty, pep, and action to these sidelights.

This play is being directed by Miss Ruth Brown of the Universal Producing company in Fairfield, Iowa

CHURCHMEN GATHER TO FIND A REMEDY FOR INDIFFERENCE

"What is the matter with the church?" and "What is the remedy?" were the two serious questions put to a conference of representative members of the Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist churches Sunday afternoon who met at the Presbyterian church.

With Rev. H. H. Mallinson presiding and Mrs. Earl H. Montgomery acting as secretary, a systematic assembling of actual facts was the purpose of the meeting.

Discussion flowed freely, the ministers of the various denominations tactfully keeping in the background and allowing the laymen to bring out the criticism and cures. A number of constructive ideas were advanced which it was thought best to allow time to "ripen" before definite action be taken.

Another similar meeting is called for next Sunday, Sept. 16, at 3:00 p. m., when it is hoped an even larger number and still more freedom of discussion will produce results for the benefit of the community at large

Supt. Russell H. Amerman was elected chairman, indicating the general desire to keep this largely a laymen's movement, with the pastors directing from the "side lines."

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this opportunity to thank all those in Northville and vicinity who campaigned for me and who remembered me at the polls in the nomination for coroner. I deeply appreciate all the support I received.

Dr. L. W. Snow.

G. O. P. NOMINEE

GOMER KRISE

Gomer Krise, chief assistant prosecuting attorney, won the republican nomination for prosecutor and polled 359 votes here. Mrs. E. W. Lester was a member of the executive committee which sponsored Krise for prosecutor.

WOLVERINES BEATEN; PLAY AGAIN SUNDAY

Defeated 3 to 2 by Skrzycki in their first Triple A tournament game, the Northville Wolverines will try again Sunday when they play Chysler Desoto in the second round of the finals at Northwestern field Sunday.

If they win that game, they will play Skrzycki here the following Sunday, Sept. 21, in the deciding game of the championship series. Tirols, which team was defeated by DeSoto, 9 to 3, last Sunday, will play Skrzcki Sunday. Northville will play on diamond three.

The Wolverines' defeat by Skrzycki Sunday was the second within two weeks. Roy Moore, Skrzycki pitcher, held Northville to five hits, all singles, and fanned 16 men. The score was tied in the tenth, 2-2 when Fothergill, former Tiger, tripled, sending home Schenk with the winning run.

In Northville's half of the tenth, with one out, Hammond was safe on an error, and O'Brien singled, sending him to third. Roy Moore, however, tightened, and struck out both R. Welfrom and Martin, ending the game.

Dinty Moore, Northville star who has pitched every Wolverine game this season, allowed 10 hits and struck out five batters.

Northville scored one in the third and one in the seventh. Skrzycki made their tallies in the sixth, seventh, and tenth.

An interesting sidelight of the game was a spectacular catch by Hammond of a ball hit after time had been called. Running at top speed, he gave a leap and just managed to hang on to the ball with his bare hand. The umpire, however, ruled that he had called time before Fuller hit the ball.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF NEW MANAGEMENT AT SHAFER SHOP

After 15 years in business Floyd Shafer, head of the Shafer Electric shop, announces this week that he is turning his business over to his son, Harry, and will enter into another field of work.

Mr. and Mrs. Shafer will remain at their home over their place of business, 105 North Center street, in Northville. Mrs. Shafer will continue to take care of the shop while Harry will do the actual outside work. They will continue as agents of the Consumer's Power Gas company.

CORN FROM FARM OF CARL ELY IS 21 INCHES LONG

They have kidded Carl Ely, Northville coal dealer, about his raising pigs quite often but no one will kid him about his corn, raised on his farm on the West Base Line road.

The reason is simple when it is explained that Carl has two ears from the farm which measures 29 inches from one tip of the husk to the other and 21 inches of actual corn inside.

Carl refused to reply to the query: "Did it come from your farm?"

IT COSTS NO MORE—To buy the best. There is no other ice cream sold in Northville that will compare in richness and flavor with FRY'S DELICIOUS HOME-MADE ICE CREAM. Quarts 25c—Pints 15c. 2tfc

FEDERAL MEN ARREST TWO ON WARRANTS

Hinchman, Goebel, Charged With Impersonation Of Officers

Frank Hinchman of Northville and Norman Goebel of Plymouth pleaded not guilty to the charge of impersonating Federal Immigration officials Friday morning when arraigned in Detroit before Frank Q. Quinn, United States Commissioner.

Warrants were sworn out for their arrests by Serge Kremer, Brighton, and the two were picked up Thursday, Sept. 6, by three Federal officers assisted by Chief of Police Wm. H. Safford. The boys' examinations were set for Sept. 14, and bail, which they were unable to furnish, was fixed at $2,500.

According to Kremer's story on the morning of Saturday, August 4, at 2 o'clock, he was awakened by a pounding on the rear door of his home at 115 East Main street, Brighton. He opened the door and was confronted by two men, he says, who declared that they were Federal Immigration officers wanting to see his citizenship papers. Kremer, who was formerly employed in Northville, says he recognized Hinchman and ordered him and his companion to leave the house. They refused. He said, insisting that they were Federal officers and that they must see his papers. Kremer ran out of the front door of his home and down the street calling for help. The two men dashed out of the back door and into a waiting automobile. On their way out, says Kremer, they stole a new pair of valuable shoes which he had recently purchased.

Appealing to the police, Kremer was directed to the United States Commissioner's office in Detroit. Federal men immediately took up the trail guided by the fact that a third man was waiting in the car for the two who posed as officers. They traced all three, obtained sufficient evidence and then closed in on the two who, it is said, declared they were Federal officers. Officials state that they have positive proof of Hinchman's and Goebel's guilt.

Hinchman has been taken into custody by police several times but has never been convicted.

BRAESIDE FARMS WINS STATE FAIR BUTTER CONTEST

Winning first prize at the Michigan State Fair among all of the state entries for the quality of its butter, Braeside Farms led its competitors by a wide margin.

Robert G. Yerkes, head of the farm, feels pretty proud these days of the quality of milk produced by his herd of thoroughbred Jerseys and of the butter made from that milk by Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Nagel who live on the farm grounds.

The judging of the events was held Saturday and Mr. Yerkes was notified that his entry had won the blue ribbon on the same day.

5 GET PROBATION FOR DAMAGE DONE TO FAIR PROPERTY

Five Northville boys were placed on probation last Thursday by Justice of the Peace Arthur S. Nichols for the willful destruction of property belonging to the Northville Wayne County Fair association on the fair grounds.

Arrested by Chief of Police Wm. H. Safford on the complaint of fair officials, the youths were released after being sternly warned by Judge Nichols that such practices must be stopped.

Fair board members state that they hope this will be a "warning to all boys to stay away from buildings, etc., at the fair grounds. They are welcome to the use of our athletic field, but must not harm our property."

HARVEST FESTIVAL AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, OCT. 3RD

The Woman's Union and Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary will hold their annual harvest festival at the Presbyterian church house on October 3. Lunch will be served at noon and dinner at night.

Further announcement in next week's paper.

HOBBY EARNS MAN LIVING

"Sittin', Whittlin'" Profits J. R. Ritchie

One Northville man has found out that "sittin', whittlin'," as he did as a boy, promises to turn out to be a good livelihood after all.

Jas. R. Ritchie, of Yerkes avenue, for the past three years a resident of this place, has developed an unusual gift in wood carving, the success of which has surprised even himself.

At the recent Northville fair, at the urging of friends, Mr. Ritchie entered some of his work and carried home three first prizes for his carvings which attracted considerable attention from those who appreciated the delicate grace of the intricate patterns carved painstakingly with the scroll saw.

Most of his work is plaques, but Mr. Ritchie is branching out into other articles which may be carved by hand. Right now he is working on a modernistic book case for a customer.

Always whittling around as a boy, to the detriment of his mother's carpet, at the home in Elva, Ont., Jas Ritchie showed early talent but the necessity of earning a living kept this from growing although his employment throughout the intervening years has been in wood working concerns. Obliged by lack of profitable employment to keep busy Mr. Ritchie discovered his inherent artistic ability.

The saying "do something better than anyone else, and the world will beat a path to your door," may prove true in this case as the J. L. Hudson company of Detroit has already recognized the value of this art by putting it on sale.

In his spare moments Mr. Ritchie is getting ready articles for their holiday sale.

SCHOOL DAYS WILL BEGIN HERE MONDAY

Classes Will Start At 8:30, Run 9 Months; Can Still Register

The trek of Northville children back from vacation to the school room will begin Monday morning.

Both grade and high school buildings have been reconditioned, the work continuing all this week. Teachers are already beginning to arrive in town, and the full staff of 22 members will be on the job early Monday. School will start in all departments at 8:30 a. m. sharp.

Registration for high school students took the major part of Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, and junior high pupils were registered Wednesday and Thursday. Either Assistant Principal Paul B. Thompson or Supt. of Schools R. H. Amerman will be at the office of the board of education today to take care of any late comers.

Grade children are to register Monday morning in their respective rooms. Miss Selma Jarvis, grade school principal, has charge of this phase.

Miss Anne Richards will meet parents who bring children to the kindergarten in that room below the offices of the board of education.

Pupils of the various grades will go to the following rooms: 1st grade—rooms 1 and 2; 2nd grade—room 3; 3rd grade—room 4; 4th grade—room 8, 5th grade—rooms 5 and 6, 6th grade—room 7. Rooms 1, 2, 3, and 4 are on the first floor of the grade building, the remaining four being in the upper story. It is believed that one grade may again have to meet in room 3 of the high school building.

Supt. Amerman requests all parents whose children will be five years old by February 1, to enter them in the kindergarten Monday, as there will be no beginning kindergarten class the second semester.

Friday is the last day that Librarian Leslie G. Lee will buy or trade used books, all next week to be given to the sale of books only.

One of the features of this year's school term will be that Mr Lee will again teach music in the grades. Coach Ted Watts is also going to teach boys' physical education. Supt. Amerman is himself teaching a class in order to give Lee and Watts time for these extra courses.

Mr Lee also states that he will probably again teach a class of journalism for high school students, the staff to edit The Orange and Black, the school paper, which runs in the Record.

Miss B Ione Palmer of Ypsilanti will again be on the teaching staff this year. Her name was left off the list of faculty members given by school officials to The Record for publication, and many inquiries have come to Supt. Amerman regarding it.

Northville schools will definitely run nine months, the superintendent stated, "with the possibility of running nine and a half." The nine month year will end school about June 8.

As The Record goes to press, no indication was given to township or school officials as to when they would receive the money due from the primary fund. It is expected some time this week, if previous payments are any guide. The school will get approximately $7,290, about $4,860 of which will be paid now, and the remainder in December.

LADY BOWLERS ARE INVITED TO ALLEYS ON EVERY TUESDAY

That there are no "bowling widows" in Northville is due to the fact that the ladies don bowling shoes and trot right down to the Recreation Alleys on West Main street every Tuesday afternoon and evening to knock down the pins themselves.

Ladies' Day, each Tuesday, the Alleys are thrown open to the women. An instructor is provided for those who are not familiar with the game but for the most part the women can bowl on equal terms with the men. Some of the strong men have found that out to their sorrow.

Manager Bob Lee has just recently opened the Alleys and extends a cordial invitation to all of the women in the community to take this opportunity of getting some real healthful exercise and to share their husband's recreation.

HECK, SIGHS DAVE, 2 YEARS OLD, AS HIS STROLL ENDS

"Heck, can't a man go out for an after dinner stroll without the whole neighborhood getting wrought up over it."

Something like that was probably the thought of two-year-old David Reitzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reitzer, 223 West street, who wandered away from his home after lunch Monday, to be found more than an hour later near the Eastlawn sanatorium.

Little Dave was seen romping on his lawn by his mother. In a few minutes when she called him, he was nowhere to be found. She hunted high and low, and not finding him, she became frightened, and aroused the entire neighborhood.

The searching party combed that section of the village and finally ran across the little fellow, playing unconcernedly with his kiddie car in the hills that surround the beautiful Eastlawn sanatorium.

PLAYGROUND BALL FINALS NEXT WEEK

The finals of the playground ball tournament, that has been in process at the school for the past two months, will be played off Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Coach Ted Watts, in charge of the games announced Wednesday.

Monday Farmington will take on the Lutherans and Tuesday Owens play the Edison. The winners of these games will then contest for the grand championship Wednesday.

These games will all start promptly at 6 p. m., being played at the school playground.

This evening the A & P team will play the Infants. Yesterday Farmington was to have taken on the Lutherans.

Results of the games this week, up to Wednesday, follow: Monday—Ely 3, Maybury 3. Tuesday game called on account of rain. Wednesday—Owen's 4, Edison 3.

"I LIKE MICHIGAN BEST," N. C. SCHRADER TELLS ROTARY CLUB

Praising the Redwoods of California, and saying that that state had its merits, "especially in the winter," Nelson C. Schrader told Rotarians at their weekly meeting Tuesday in the Presbyterian church house, that "I'm for Michigan every time."

"Where can you find nicer farming land anywhere in the United States than in the Thumb district of Michigan?" Mr. Schrader asked his listeners. He gave an absorbing account of his entire trip, telling of the terrible drought conditions in the West.

Mr. and Mrs. Schrader, who drove through to the state of Washington with Mr. and Mrs. Dayton B Bunn, returned from California by airplane Sept. 3. Mr. Schrader expressed his wonderment at "blind flying," done entirely without instruments. The Schraders made the trip home in 16 hours, record time for Northville citizens.

In Montana the Schraders and Bunns stopped at Shelby, a small town where the famous Dempsey-Gibbons fight was held, and a little farther on saw the construction of a huge dam, "the only sign of building on the trip."

He also told of seeing the United States "Devil's Island," describing it as the "palatial home of Al Capone."

"Dayt and Vera (Mr and Mrs. Bunn) are exceptionally fine traveling companions," Mr Schrader said.

Hoyt Woodman, of Lansing, who had come to Northville to cast his ballot in the primary election, was also a guest.

Previous to Mr. Schrader's talk, Myron C Gunsell gave a brief autobiography, sketching his life from his home in Caro, Michigan, where he learned the drug business, right up to his moving to Northville.

President Leslie G. Lee had charge of the meeting.

GRADING NEARLY FINISHED

The grading of the road opening the River Rouge parkway to Fairbrook street is almost completed. This highway follows the river closely, running through the Ford gardens. The banks of the river will be cleared and beautified, say the supervisors. The paving will not be done until spring, allowing for settling.

LIGHT VOTE HURTS SNOW AT ELECTION

Over 700 Mark Ballots Here For Former Village Head

Although Northville gave Dr. L. W. Snow 701 votes toward nomination as Wayne county coroner in the primary election held Tuesday, a light vote throughout the county caused his defeat.

Astute observers of county politics stated previous to the election that Dr. Snow would give a good account of himself if only a large vote could be turned out throughout the county so as to offset the Detroit metropolitan vote. Heavy rains kept voters away from the polls and Dr Snow lost by reason of the Detroit vote which nominated Burgess and French on the republican ticket.

A piece of Snow campaign strategy that worked well here was to ask voters to check only the doctor's name, thus putting all other candidates one behind and in addition giving him the vote. Dr. Snow carried the out-county decisively, the odds against him coming from Detroit.

Frank D Fitzgerald led Alex J Groesbeck for the gubernatorial nomination on the republican ticket and he will oppose Arthur J Lacy, who nosed out the incumbent, William A. Comstock, on the democratic slate, at the general election on Nov. 6.

John C Cowan won a majority of 159 votes in Northville over his opponents in the race for sheriff but was beaten by Henry Behrendt when the total returns throughout the county were made known.

A total of 827 ballots was cast here, only 63 of which were democratic. On the democratic ticket Comstock received 30 votes and Lacy 26. Picard was given 27 in the United States senatorial contest, to 9 for Ray D. Schneider, Wayne county auditor.

The republican vote for governor here was 418 for Fitzgerald 277 for Groesbeck, and 6 for John Smith. Thomas Read, who was nominated for lieutenant governor, won here with 245 votes. Congressman Geo. A Dondero easily took the seventeenth congressional nomination from Bowen R. Gover, polling 435 here, to 111 for Gover.

Northville swung on the bandwagon and voted in favor of returning all former republican county office holders, all of whom were nominated. The democratic vote here went pretty much to the incumbents, as did the returns throughout the county.

Edward F. Fisher of Dearborn, who has been the representative in the state legislature for several past years, was again renominated, carrying Northville strongly over George C. Newkirk of Wayne.

The name of Senator Arthur H. Vandenburg did not appear on the republican ballot as he was unopposed for renomination but contesting his election in November will be Frank A. Picard, former chairman of the state Liquor control board.

The vote in Northville, as elsewhere throughout the state, was only average. The interest in the election appeared to lag and the day passed quietly.

Election officials here worked until 7 a. m. Wednesday before the final results of the Northville votes were known.

NOTICE

To all my friends and customers. I wish to announce that, effective as of Sept. 1, 1934, I have turned over the business of the Shafer Electric Shop to my son, Harry Shafer, who will carry on the business from now on which he is ably qualified to do.

I have made connections with the Eckles Coal and Supply company of Plymouth, and from now on I will devote all my time to my new position.

I wish to thank all my friends and customers at this time for their wonderful patronage which has been given me during the fifteen years I have been in business.

Signed, Floyd Shafer.

CARD OF THANKS

The undersigned wishes through the Record to thank all those who worked in the campaign for the nomination of Albert M. Bacon as sheriff. I am deeply grateful.

Orrin Casterline.

A KIND WORD FOR NORTHVILLE

"I believe I should like to live in Northville," said one of our good Maybury sanatorium friends—a patient there.

He had lived in Detroit before coming out here to get a new grip on life and no wonder he adds:

"I believe you get more out of living out in a place like Northville than you do in the big city."

Keep your eyes on Northville, "Detroit's most picturesque suburb."

"GET TOGETHER," NRA

If daily newspaper dispatches are correct, the "high-ups" of the NRA are having a sweet time fighting among themselves.

One day "Giniral" Johnson, he of "crack down" fame, is going to be fired and the next day it is the Richberg-Perkins faction that is going to be called on the carpet by the president. All observers are agreed that the battle is on, on several fronts.

We wonder how the leaders of the NRA can expect the country at large to have great respect for their leadership when they themselves cannot unite on a program.

o—o—o

FOOLISH SPENDING?

It may have been wise and it may have been foolish but anyway we did it, the other day in Detroit: Bought a couple of books. One a 1934 edition that keeps you on your toes in your thinking and the other a tenth edition dating back the years, a book that can go into the library and be worth-while ten years from now.

What is our money for, anyway? After we feed our bodies, shall we not also feed the soul, the imagination and the emotions?

"Man shall not live by bread alone."

"If I had two loaves of bread I should sell one and buy a white hyacinth for my soul."

TELL US, MR. PRESIDENT

There is a persistent demand throughout the United States that President Roosevelt explain to our 120 millions of people something of his program for the next few months. We have had so much legislation, so much handing over of great power to our president and so much radical talk that business leaders, from coast to coast, have slowed down the machinery while they ask the question: "Which way are we headed and what are we going to do?"

The situation has reached the point where Mr. Roosevelt cannot much longer "stay on the fence." He must go to the right or to the left and when he does that, we shall know what to expect.

This determined insistence that the president tell us what he plans comes from all sources. When such a conservative and nationally known, independent periodical as The Saturday Evening Post calls upon the president to meet the issue of what is to come next, we can see something of the seriousness of the situation. And when Chicago's two great papers, the Tribune and the Daily News, make the same demand upon Mr. Roosevelt we can see that the question is not a political one. Then when Detroit's leading papers—separated far apart in policy—The Free Press and the News both join in asking the chief executive what we may expect next, we see again that in all fairness the administration must meet the issue: "Where are we going?"

Tell us, Mr. President, just what you expect to ask the coming Congress to do. Tell us what the NRA will do. Until you do, you can hardly expect business to go ahead. No wise traveler goes into a big woods without a compass. Instead he will make camp and wait for a guide.

When we know where we are going, just watch business boom.

WHERE IS THE ABUNDANCE?

There is beginning to be a revulsion against the oft-promulgated idea that there is too much of everything in this country. We have been told until we believed it was the "law and the gospel" that we could make so many and such wonderful things that we must go on a 30-hour week. Production must be slowed down, they say.

Have we too much? And could we make too much if we let men go to work with a will?

Well, someone has been stirring up the figures and finds that it is false doctrine that we can produce too much. Listen to these facts and then contemplate what a crazy notion it is to plow under every third row, kill the little pigs and poison 250,000,000 bushels of wheat as we hear Secretary Wallace proposes to do to prevent a surplus when little children are going without enough to eat. Here are the facts:

"If all our factories and farms were running at full capacity, we could not produce enough clothes to give every man and every boy in the United States one new suit a year.

"We could not build enough houses in 10 years to take care of those of our people who are now living in places called by our own government as 'unfit for human habitation.'"

"In Cincinnati a recent survey showed that out of 400 families in that city, 30 per cent of them never use fresh milk because they cannot afford to buy it."

And, of course, we all know that the nation is still short ten million bath tubs.

Right now Northville needs enough building to keep the workers busy for the next five years.

And we think it a fair statement that from one-half to one-third of our automobiles here in this community should be replaced by new ones.

No, we do not have too much and we shall not have too much. The "Brain Trusters" should go to work on the new theory of meeting human needs, not to stifling them.

The only place there is enough of anything is the ocean.

WANDERING THOUGHTS

Now for football.

* * *

How many people in Northville walk even as much as a mile a day?

* * *

Now they say that President Roosevelt has advanced the time for balancing the budget from July, 1935 to July, 1936. Well, folks, that means one sure thing: More taxes.

* * *

We are inclined to O. K. this statement from a well-known editor: "One reason for fewer marriages is that it is getting harder to support a wife and a government on one income."

* * *

Thoughtful people are not trying to "laugh off" the challenge to the administration that Herbert Hoover, former president, has given. If we lose our constitutional rights, get ready for a terrible time.

* * *

"Never saw a bunch of women standing talking for an hour on the street corner, did you?" asks a Northville high school graduate. No, but we have seen them talking over the back fence for some little spell.

* * *

Life's coincidences are strange. Last week, at Toledo, we met the father-in-law of "Bud" Parmalee, New York Giants' pitcher, who helped put them in the World Series. The father-in-law and the writer's father were lifelong friends.

* * *

We thought just a little bit more of a very fine man when he came into the office this week and said that he has made a bad mistake and was very sorry about it. Most of us are not that courageous. We are like General Hugh S. Johnson of NRA—we don't like to be criticized. Yet "the man who never made a mistake never made anything."

* * *

In writing to a Northville man for work the other day a young man said: "Absolutely I do not drink." Well venture the guess that if you come around in ten years to check on that chap you will find that he has been a success. In the few years that we have been in Northville we have seen liquor make a complete wreck of one good man. (He may not be the man you think he is.)

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

5 YEARS AGO

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shafer and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lissenberger returned Thursday from a 1800 mile trip.

William Safford is building a new garage at his home on South Wing street.

Ed E. Lanre of Ashtabula, Ohio, is visiting his sister, Mrs. A. E. Fuller.

Talkies will be presented in the Penniman-Allen theatre for the first time this week.

Mrs. William Clark of Colorado Springs, Colorado is a guest of Mrs. D. C. Stark. Mrs. Clark will be remembered as the former Miss Cora Macomber.

Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, who were recently married here will make their home in Ypsilanti. Mrs. Taylor was formerly Miss Inez Carpenter.

Mark Seeley is serving on the circuit court jury in Detroit for September term of court.

10 YEARS AGO

Lyle Alexander of this place and Miss Clara Gayde of Plymouth were married Sept. 1 in the latter place.

T. G. Richardson is building another duplex in Detroit, where he already owns a number.

Bruce Knowles will leave the first of next week for Alma, where he will enter Alma college.

Mrs. C. C. Yerkes, and son, Edmund, returned last week from Rochester, Minnesota, where Mr. Yerkes is in the Mayo hospital for treatment.

Mrs. M. J. Tremper of Montrose is visiting Mrs. E. J. Tremper, and daughter, Grace.

Paul Lovewell left last Thursday for Kirksville, Mo., where he will take a course in osteopathy.

The Lyke family reunion was held at the Ford Brooks home in Novi last Sunday.

25 YEARS AGO

The 500 Club had an Indian Pow-wow at the home of Mrs. Lizzie Teagon Tuesday night.

Mrs D. E. Gilbert of [illegible] visited Mrs. A. C. Harmon, Tuesday.

Milton Withee of Detroit visited at the home of Spencer Clark and family over Sunday.

Mr and Mrs S. J. Lawrence and daughter, Vera, attended the marriage of their son, Leo, to Miss [illegible] Black at Lansing, Wednesday.

E. D. Thompson and Charles Bowman were badly injured when the farmers threshing machine broke through the bridge on Atwater Street.

Mrs. E. C. Hinkley was the victim of a surprise by fourteen of her friends Saturday in honor of her birthday.

Word has been received here of the marriage of Miss Kate Kimmel and Mr. Elliott of Au Sable at the home of the bride September 7. The bride with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kimmel formerly lived here.

George R. Welsh of Chicago, Illinois, visited his cousins, A. J. Welsh and Mrs. Louisa Barrett, from Friday until Monday. He was on his way home from the G.A.R. encampment at Toledo.

Mr and Mrs. S. D. Peck of Banister are visiting at the home of George Baker and family.

30 YEARS AGO

The Record issue for the corresponding week 30 years ago carries an article to the effect that Lyman Yerkes had a Republican flag-raising at his Pleasant Valley home. It was a "Warner for Governor" banner.

The Baptist ladies gave Mrs. Charles Elliott and Mrs. Jane Hinman a birthday party last Friday afternoon.

Jarvis Palmer has equipped his shop with electric lights and F. A. Miller has also been doing some similar illuminating.

F. S. Harmon and George Hueston skipped over to Buffalo and Niagara Falls Saturday night and stayed until Wednesday.

Mrs John Bullen and Mrs. E. H. Streeter of Caro visited their niece, Miss Elizabeth Tait, and Mrs. Sanderson Tuesday and Wednesday.

E. K. Burnham and B. G. Filkins resumed their work at the U. S. Fish station after a thirty days' vacation.

L. L. Brooks was on the state fair grounds during a big storm Sunday afternoon and for a few moments thought he "saw his finish."

After a vacation through August, Miss Norma Matthews renews her studies this week with Mrs. May Leggett Abel, at the Michigan Conservatory of Music.

The W.R.C. district convention has been in session at Chelsea this week, the following Northville ladies attending: Mrs. Mary L. Ambler, Mrs. Minnie Hutton, Mrs. Ida Joslin, and Mrs. Eva Lawrence, president of the local corps.

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

NOT A CHANCE

(LaGrange, Ind. Standard)

In Pennsylvania last week lightning struck a jug of moonshine under a tree. Nothing has been seen of the lightning since.

SUICIDE UNDER THE AAA

(The Chicago Tribune)

"Nor be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law."—Article V, of the Constitution.

Benjamin Medlock, 48 years old, a tenant farmer of lower Greenville County, South Carolina, had laboriously raised cotton on his farm. It was time for it to be picked. Federal inspectors appeared and measured his land. They ordered him to plow up three acres of his cotton. [illegible] retired to his frame house [illegible] and killed himself.

WELL, WHY NOT?

(Los Angeles Times)

The following communication, vouched for as genuine by the Boston bond house to which it was addressed, requires no gilding:

[illegible] Mendon, Mass., Aug. 1, 1934. Dear Sirs: Mr. [illegible] at Northampton has a friend who received a government check for $1,000 this year for not raising hogs. So [illegible] now propose to get a farm and go into the business of not raising hogs, myself. In fact, not raising hogs appeals to him very strongly.

Of course he will need a hired man, and that is where I come in. I write you as to your opinion of the best kind of farm not to raise hogs on, the best strain of hogs not to raise and how best to keep an inventory of the hogs you are not raising. And do you think capital could be provided by issuance of non-hog-raising gold bonds?

His friend who got the $1,000 got it for not-raising 500 hogs; now we figure we might easily not raise 1500 or even 2000 hogs, so you see the possible profits are only limited by the number of hogs we do not raise.

P. M. F. F.

P. S.—His friend who received the $1000 check has been hog-raising for forty years and the most he ever made was $400 a year. Kind of pathetic to think how he wasted his life raising hogs, when not raising them would have been so much more profitable.

WHAT LIBERTIES ARE LOST?

(Ray Corliss in The Parma News)

"Recently in a radio address, President Roosevelt asked the question: 'What liberties, if any, have been taken from us?'

And Colonel Hanford MacNider former national commander of the American Legion, replies by adding a few questions of his own as follows:

"Has the man who has been forced through necessity to give up his right to farm his own land as he sees fit lost his liberty?

"Has the man who cannot buy even a loaf of bread at a price satisfactory to himself and his grocer lost his liberty?

"Has the man whose heritage is being undermined by the never-ending flow of public moneys into every conceivable socialistic venture lost his liberty?

"Has the man whose property is destroyed by Government encouragement of repudiation, or by Government default on obligations, lost his liberty?"

Colonel MacNider declares that he has not only lost the rights guaranteed him under the Constitution but—what is more important—"he has lost that sense of security and justice which has made our form of government the haven of the world and the goal of every people under the sun."

Certainly Colonel MacNider's reaction to President Roosevelt's question provides plenty of thought-provoking material.

SINCLAIR NOMINATION

(Chicago Herald and Examiner)

What made our country great? Was it Communism, Socialism, despotism? Or was it sound democracy? What made our country rich?—and it is rich today, the richest country on God's blessed earth. Was it merely theory and demagogic oratory or just plain, practical industry?

We bewail the depression period. Well, we have been through one great war in which we needlessly wasted our money. We have been through a period of reckless speculation in which we stupidly lost our money. Our troubles are largely of our own creation, and we Americans are not the kind of people who can dish it out but cannot take it," are we?

We have been in wars and depressions before, and we have come through them handsomely by the exercise of courage and common sense—by precepts of sound democracy and encouragement of stable industry. We have always known enough to build business. Let us know that much now.

We should end once and for all the NRA and its nonsensical, ridiculous, asinine interference with national and legitimate industrial development. We should understand that extravagant employment by governments is and must be only temporary, and that permanent employment must come from industrial development and increased and expanded business activity.

Until we do realize these elemental facts we'll go from bad to worse, and, while doing so, sink deeper into the mire of debt.

Remove restrictions on industry. Lighten the burden of business. Reduce taxation. Abolish political bureaucracy and all governmental extravagance. Stop following after strange gods. Stop visionary innovations and impractical experiments. Cultivate the virtues of our fathers. Follow in their proven paths, practice courage and common sense. Realize that what made us prosperous and happy once can make us prosperous and happy again.

That is what we Americans ought to do. But it is probably not what we will do. Children who are playing with fire seldom stop until they have burned the house down—or at least made the bed uncomfortable for themselves and others.

WHITFIELD DISCUSSES CHRISTIAN CHARACTER

Basing his sermon on Christ's Sermon on the Mount, the text being, "Ye are the salt of the earth, but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted?", the Rev. H. G. Whitfield in his pulpit Sunday morning, declared that "civilization does not climb upward when Christian character is no more."

The minister further asserted that "Christ was a positive force for good wherever He went" and that "Christianity should be something more than a moral force," and that "Christians should be positive creatures."

"Salt is a preventive and nature's foe to corruption, and in life we find the corruption of the best is usually the worst. The presence of a Christ-like character is absolutely essential in a world full of neither good or bad people," the minister concluded.

This was Rev. Whitfield's first sermon in his own pulpit after a summer of successful union services with the Methodist and Presbyterian churches.

MILK PRODUCERS TAKE NOTICE

There will be a state-wide milk meeting held by the National Farmers' Union at the Armory in East Lansing on the M. S. C. campus on Monday, Sept. 17, at 10 a. m. sharp. All milk producers are invited to attend this meeting.

"AS THE TWIG IS BENT"

(Lowell Ledger)

The way to make the world better is to begin with the children. By the time a child is 10 or 12 its character, so far as its social relations are concerned is pretty well formed. Either it has been so spoiled that it never will be any good or it has been taught that there are certain lines of conduct which the world at large won't tolerate, and shapes its actions accordingly. In an ideal social organization every child would be taught from infancy that it has no rights that are superior to the rights of everybody else. That is what liberty and equality simmer down to. If everybody realized and acted upon that principle, nobody would infringe on any of the rights of anybody else and we wouldn't need any government at all.

A GIRL MUST LEARN

(Frank Bryce in The Grand Ledge Independent)

A girl must learn how to carry her liquor. That's what the president's wife says. Can you imagine Mrs. Coolidge or Mrs. Hoover making any such remark?

Egbert—It's for a married man to keep his wife in.

Customer—I would like to buy that flag but the price is too high. If you'll knock off a dollar I'll take it.

Homemaker's Corner

By MRS. EDITOR

From the Birmingham Eccentric we clip the following little parable, passing on to other mothers the lesson it brought to us:

A LITTLE PARABLE FOR MOTHERS

The young mother set her foot on the path of life.

"Is the way long?" she asked.

And her guide said: "Yes. And the way is hard. And you will be old before you reach the end of it. But the end will be better than the beginning."

But the young mother was happy, and she would not believe that anything could be better than these years. So she played with her children and gathered flowers for them along the way, and bathed with them in the clear streams; and the sun shone on them, and life was good, and the young mother cried, "Nothing will ever be lovelier than this."

The night came, and storm, and the path was dark, and the children shook with fear and cold, and the mother drew them close and covered them with her mantle, and the children said, "Oh, Mother, we are not afraid for you are near, and no harm can come." And the mother said, "This is better than brightness of day, for I have taught my children courage."

And the morning came, and there was a hill ahead, and the children climbed and grew weary, and the mother was weary, but at all times she said to the children, "A little patience and we are there." So the children climbed, and, when they reached the top, they said, "We could not have done it without you, Mother." And the mother, when she lay down that night, looked up at the stars, and said: "This is a better day than the last, for my children have learned fortitude in the face of hardness. Yesterday I gave them courage. Today I have given them strength."

And the next day came strange clouds which darkened the earth—clouds of war and hate, and evil, and the children groped and stumbled, and the mother said: "Look up. Lift your eyes to the light." And the children looked and saw above the clouds an Everlasting Glory, and it guided them and brought them beyond the darkness. And that night the mother said "This is the best day of all, for I have shown my children, God."

And the days went on, and the weeks and the months and the years, and the mother grew old, and she was little and bent. But her children were tall and strong, and walked with courage. And when the way was hard, they helped their mother, and when the way was rough, they lifted her, for she was as light as a feather, and at last they came to a hill, and beyond the hill they could see a shining road and golden gates flung wide.

And the mother said: "I have reached the end of my journey. And now I know that the end is better than the beginning, for my children can walk alone and their children after them."

And the children said, "You will always walk with us, mother, even when you have gone through the gates."

And they stood and watched her as she went on alone and the gates closed after her. And they said: "We cannot see her, but she is with us still. A mother like ours is more than a memory. She is a Living Presence."—Temple Bailey.

Pickling

The pungent smell of pickles is again abroad in the land. Housewives are greeting each other. "Have you made your pickles yet?"

From the Home Economics specialists in the Michigan State College come these hints: Over-cooking, too much sugar or too strong vinegar will shrivel sweet pickles.

Softening is caused when the brine is too weak or the pickles are kept in too warm storage. A bitter flavor is caused by boiling the spices and vinegar too long or by using too much spice.

Soft, slippery condition will occur if pickles are exposed above the brine and the solution is too weak. Hollow pickles may result from allowing cucumbers to stand too long before caring for them.

Heating in a copper kettle to make them "green" is not recommended as appreciable quantities of poison are taken up. Alum, used to make them crisp, is of doubtful value. Salt and acids will give desired firmness if correct methods are followed. Soaking in brine (1 lb. to 1 gal. water) for 24 hours, will make cucumbers crisp and improves the flavor.

Mrs. M. C. Gunsell

Take good sized cucumbers. Wash and wipe dry. Do not peel. Slice thin. Sprinkle salt between each layer. Let stand over night, draining.

To one dozen take 2-3 cup olive oil 1 oz mustard seed (2 teaspoons) 1 tablespoon celery seed. Mix well through the cucumbers. Put into cans and cover with (cold) vinegar. Seal. Do not cook. These are delicious.

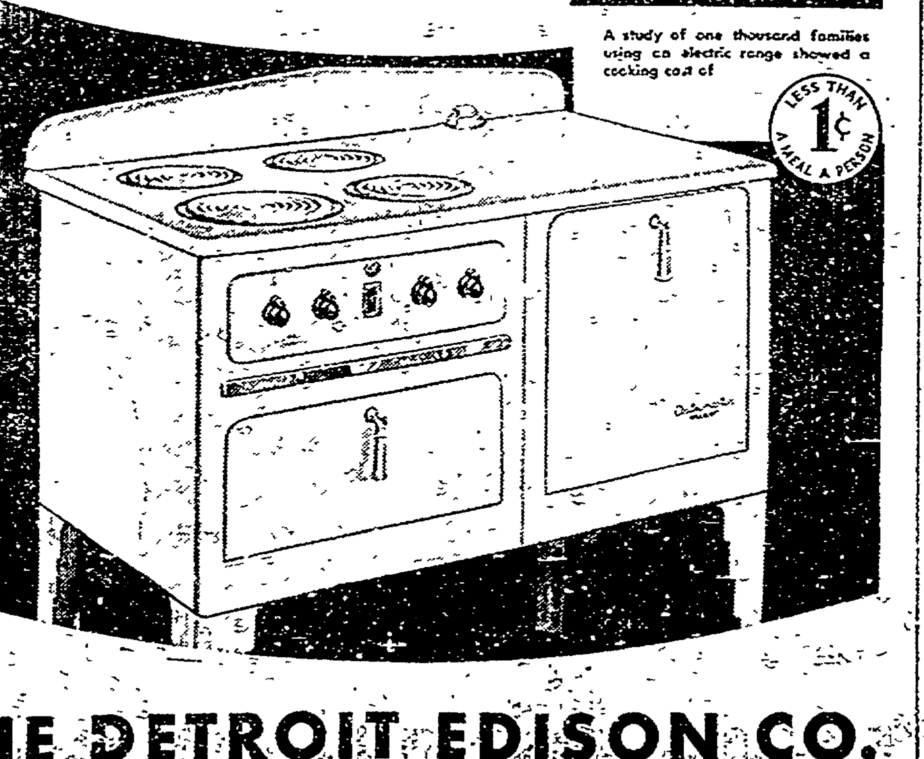
ALL YOU WANT TO KNOW about ELECTRIC COOKING!

ARE there some things you wonder about when you read advertisements regarding electric cooking or other kinds of cooking in the newspapers? The subject of COOLNESS, for instance . . . whether or not an electric range really heats up the kitchen in warm weather? Or the subject of CLEANLINESS . . . whether or not pots and pans really stay bright and shiny on an electric range? Or the subject of FLAVOR . . . whether or not foods do taste better and are more healthful, cooked electrically?

You can decide all these questions for yourself in your own kitchen, without making a penny's investment—and you need take no one's judgment but your own. We want you to discover the facts about electric cooking, and we offer you this easy way to do it:

We will install an electric range in your kitchen without initial charge, and let you use it for six months, removing it without charge if you do not like it. During this trial period, you pay for the service as registered by your meter, plus a monthly charge of $1 for the range. If you decide to keep the range, your monthly payments will be applied toward the purchase price. If you decide that you do not want it, the range will be removed at our expense. Since this trial plan was begun a short time ago, nearly four thousand of our customers have taken advantage of this offer. Send in your application for a trial range today!



A study of one thousand families using an electric range showed a cooking cost of

Too Much Party

A. J. Groesbeck was defeated in the primaries last Tuesday for the republican nomination for governor. We still believe he was the best man in the field, and yet we were not surprised by his defeat. Fitzgerald is in and we predict that he will make a good governor.

We have almost sickened over the never-ending flow of talk about party politics in the last two or three weeks. People are urged to vote for a candidate merely because he is a republican, or merely because he is a democrat—and hardly a single word is said about the actual merits of the man, or of his competence to fill the job.

People belong to one political party or another, for the most part, without having an iota of understanding why they do so. It is a safe bet that not more than twenty citizens of this village can give one real, honest-to-goodness reason why they are republicans or democrats. They dont know, and they don't care.

What difference does it make whether the governor of Michigan believes in high or low tariffs? None. What difference does it make whether or not any state or county officer believes in the dogmas of a national political party? None. Republicanism is overdone. Democracy is overdone. And the quicker people realize it, the better off we will be.

They All Spik

What a fine American game baseball is, what with Skrzycki, Schmidt, and Tivoli among the prominent teams in Triple A.

Taffy and Epitaphy

Daily newspapers at times delight in slyly poking fun at country papers for the efflorescence of their naive exequies. But we have yet to find a weekly that would give two full columns to news of a dead monkey.

Welcome, Adolph Alwyn

Ad must think we're slipping. After emulating the clam for several moons (Indian for month), he blooms forth with his former perennial effervescence. It's a good thing, in spite of what many may think, because The Wastebasket is just about filled.

Keep It Up Phyllis

Phyllis Flaherty, who ever since she moved back here in June, has been complaining that there is no excitement, decided to make some Tuesday and strolled downtown in her sky-blue pajamas, bundled up tightly in a white coat.

Every Monday Morning

By "AD" SCHWENGER

Hello team [illegible]

After a sabbatical summer spent in reflection, swimming, some working and a few other diverse channels we return to column writing as a means of letting off excess steam. A lot of hot air so to speak. We beg your indulgence for the mistakes we may make and your commendation for any remarks that may meet with your approval.

P. S.—All contributions gratefully accepted

Reminiscences

Someone pulled out of the depths of memory the story of how E. A. Chapman, Ray Watts, and an unidentified person were captured by deputy sheriffs near here years ago and made to suffer for a fancied grievance the sheriff had against them . . . someone else enjoyed telling the story of how Jayson Lyke shifted around in his seat at school so long one day that he ignited a bunch of sulphur matches he had in his pocket. Amidst a cloud of acrid smoke Jayson made an inglorious exit . . . our own most embarrassing experience came 12 years ago when one rainy afternoon we elected to demonstrate the proper method of drop-kicking. We used a rubber boot (this was in the old Temple Beth El, now the Bonstelle playhouse) and we made a perfect kick which sent the boot in a swooping arc right straight through the biggest painted window of a group with a terrifying tinkle of breaking glass . . . Dr. Franklin came tearing around the corner and about 50 fourteen-year-olds gleefully pointed accusing fingers at us . . . Oh my!

Ye Ed. Says

Editor R. T. B. tells of how Cheboygan got its name. In a large Indian family after a new arrival a neighbor knocked on the door to inquire and congratulate.

"Another girl?" he asked.

"Nope, she-boy-again."

(Well, then, you tell one that's better!)

Pigskin Stuff

Harry says, (you know who I mean) that a professional football team can beat the best college football teams. That theory wasn't borne out in the All-Star game at Chicago which ended in a scoreless tie. We shall get a first glimpse of professional football on Sept. 23, when the New York Giants meet Detroit's new team, the Lions.

And then we won't know any more about it!

Did You Know—

We are seriously annoyed that Orlow Owen wouldn't let us hold a naming contest for the new arrival at his home . . . and that Orlow handed out complimentary cigars called "Life's Handicap" in honor of the new daughter . . . that Warner Neal is sometimes called "Nanky-Poo," an old Chinese word meaning Cherry-Blossom . . . that politicians talk more and say less than even we do . . . that it's no disgrace to smoke (although not the healthiest thing to do) but a good many people try to hide the fact and are found out anyhow . . . Happy New Year!

Northville Women Take Occasion To Dine at Dearborn Inn—

While in Dearborn to visit the Greenfield Village Friday about 18 women of Northville enjoyed dining together at the beautiful Dearborn Inn. Several of the women were hostesses to their guests on this occasion which was a pleasant preface to the sight-seeing trip.

Mrs. Miller Entertains Bridge Club Monday Afternoon—

After a summer vacation the members of the Monday bridge club gathered again at the home of one of their number, Mrs. Ernest Miller, for a pleasant afternoon.

A dainty dessert luncheon was followed by bridge. Guests of the club were Mrs. Nelson C. Schrader, Mrs. D. H. Saley, and Mrs. Archie Morris.

Mrs. McLoughlin Is Among Guests of Radio Station at Detroit Tuesday—

With a party of 200 presidents of the clubs belonging to the Detroit Federation, Mrs. J. N. McLoughlin, president of the Northville Woman's club, was one of the guests of radio station WXYZ Tuesday in the Empire building.

Small tables were set for the large party and luncheon was served.

The guests were permitted to watch the "stars" broadcast their programs. A style show, put on by leading firms proved also very interesting to the women.

Mrs. Eaton Is Hostess to Program Committee Thursday Afternoon—

Honoring Mrs. Harold Bloom, chairman of the program committee of the Northville Woman's club, Mrs. [illegible] Eaton was hostess to the members of the committee and the officers of the club at a very delightful [illegible] given at her home on [illegible] Drive Thursday afternoon.

After [illegible] many months previously in preparation for the year's program, [illegible] to enjoy the social [illegible] over the tea cups.

The [illegible] of [illegible] Mrs. Bloom presided at the [illegible]

[illegible] Town Club Gathers at [illegible] Ranch—

[illegible] Thursday afternoon.

As the courtesy of Mr. [illegible] [illegible]

Appropriate to the [illegible] setting a three-course luncheon was served buffet style from a table brilliant with its red cloth and the glow of [illegible] tapers [illegible]. The fifteen guests were seated at small tables about the room.

Then drawing their chairs before the fire, each took out the handiwork she loved best. Some hooked rugs, some quilted, others crocheted. All talked.

In the group with the hostesses were Mrs. J. R. McColl and Mrs. George Edmunds, of Detroit; Mrs. Clarence Hubbell and Mrs. C. Taylor of Milford; Mrs. Frank W. Shuell and Mrs. Wm. E. Mosher of Bloomfield Hills, all members of the club and Mrs. Wm. Rawle Brown, Mrs. Heinrich Handorf, Mrs. Theodore Kampf, Jr., and Miss Barbara Phillips of Northville; and Mrs. A. D. Gellert and daughter, Arlene of Caro.

Woman's Club and Visitors Make Tour of Greenfield Village—

Tired, but enthusiastic, many of them with a small sack of stone-ground corn meal tucked under their arms, the members of the Northville Woman's club and guests returned home late Friday afternoon after a trip through the Edison museum and Greenfield Village near Dearborn.

This remarkable institution is the generous contribution of Henry Ford to the preservation of historical memories.

Although cars from many distant states were parked before its entrance, it was the first visit by many of the party from Northville.

Courteous guides all along the tour pointed out the high spots of interest. Lovers of antiques were in their glory in the museum where, lingering lovingly over the rare pieces of furniture and china, they had difficulty in keeping apace the sightseers.

The mechanical and chemical displays, it was evident, passed quite over the heads of women but their deep sentiment was called forth when they stepped reminiscently over the worn thresholds of the old restored buildings where so much of life had been lived in pioneer days. The old inn, brought from Clinton, where hoop-skirted travellers paused on their stage-coach journey from Detroit to Chicago the neat little colonial chapel where soft organ music invited a spirit of reverence as the visitors sat in the pews. In memory of the mothers of Mr. and Mrs. Ford is it named the "Chapel of Martha-Mary."

A typical country store with its quaint wares, a rude little postoffice, a cooper shop, an old stone mill, were among the shops along the village street. Some there were who [illegible] to have a [illegible] taken in an old rolling little gallery.

Shaded by overhanging trees, stood the old boarding house of other days with its picket-fenced yard full of flowers. Just across the way the door stood open showing children still studying in the little brick school house where young Ford first learned his ABC.

Further on [illegible] the [illegible] old English [illegible] house [illegible] 16th century, [illegible] kitchen equipment [illegible] for their [illegible].

High spots of the [illegible] were [illegible] the memory of two great Americans, Thos. A. Edison and Abraham Lincoln.

With bared heads, the men of the party entered the laboratory where the great electrician toiled [illegible] to give light to the world.

To many the old Logan county court house where Abraham Lincoln practiced law for years, certainly the corner cupboard built by the "rail splitter" and the chair in which the martyred president last sat seemed most sacred of all the places visited.

Back to the "horse and buggy" period, old fashioned "hacks" and omnibuses carried the visitors down the shaded village streets on the longer distances. Memories were stirred, during these rides, in the hearts of the older ones who stepped out from their leather-cushioned depths with lingering reluctance from the dreams of the past to the stern present and hurried home to cook belated dinners for their hungry families.

ATTENDS CLARK FUNERAL

S. C. Gage of Saginaw was in town Wednesday to attend the funeral of his uncle, Stephen Clark. While here he visited at the home of his sister, Mrs. Frank Thompson, on Dunlap street.

Woman's Union Enjoys Lunch Together At Opening Program—

Vacation over, the members of the Woman's Union again took up their activities at their regular meeting held in the Presbyterian church house Wednesday afternoon.

The business meeting, at which Mrs. D. P. Yerkes, Sr., presided in place of the president, Mrs. S. A. Lovewell, was preceded by a delectable luncheon with Mrs. Ida Hendryx as the "presiding genius."

Each member drew the name of her "capsule friend" which will be kept mysterious throughout the year by small acts of kindness.

With her usual directness, Mrs. C. M. Chase outlined "Our Benevolent Budget." A good attendance at this interesting meeting is auspicious for a successful year.

Sarah Ann Cochrane Chapter Unites With Sister Chapter In Rites—

To commemorate the life of a real daughter of a soldier of the American Revolution, several members of the Sarah Ann Cochrane chapter, D. A. R., were invited to unite with Louisa St. Clair chapter, Detroit, of which chapter the granddaughter is a member, at appropriate rites in placing a marker on her grave in the Green Oak cemetery, near South Lyon Wednesday afternoon.

The service was a rightful honor to one who had, no doubt, suffered indirectly from the rigors of that early war that marked the birth of our nation. The grave had been only recently located.

Following the ceremony the party took lunch together in Cass Benton park. Representing the local chapter were: Mrs. Don P. Yerkes, Mrs. Carl H. Bryan, Mrs. Susan Eaton and Mrs. Roy Larkins.

Simplicity Marks Partridge-Sheppard Wedding Wednesday Evening—

On Wednesday evening Sept. 12, at 7:30 o'clock, Miss Violet Sheppard daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sheppard, and Milton C. Partridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Partridge of Plymouth, spoke their nuptial vows at a quiet ceremony.

The simple service was read by the Rev. H. G. Whitfield at the Presbyterian manse with Mr. and Mrs. Sam F. Stalter as their only attendants.

There were no festivities after the ceremony, the young couple leaving immediately for Chicago where they will visit the Century of Progress for a few days. Upon their return they will make their home with the groom's parents.

Mr. Partridge will be employed by Harry Lush, manager of the Penniman-Allen theatre.

The bride graduated in the Northville high school with the class of 1922 and has made her home much of the time since with Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Babbitt. Her friends extend hearty good wishes.

TOM PARKER JUNKIN VISITS NORTHVILLE AFTER 50 YEARS

After an absence of 50 years Tom Parker Junkin visited the offices of the Northville Record the newspaper which his father, J. H. Junkin, edited a half century ago.

Since he left Northville many years ago, Mr. Junkin has had an interesting career in the field of newspaper work and is now a newspaper executive at Logan, W. Virginia. His experience includes several years of service on The Detroit Journal as state editor, and a period during which he was managing editor of The Grand Rapids Herald.

Mr. Junkin was accompanied by Mr. Foerler, head of the printing department of the Parke-Davis Drug company of Detroit, whom he is visiting while he is north. Both men well versed in the requisites of a good printing shop, complimented the unusual equipment and layout of The Northville Record job shop.

THOMPSON TELLS EXCHANGITES OF NELA PARK TRIP

At Wednesday's Exchange club dinner, Paul B. Thompson, assistant high school principal gave a report of the guests who visited Nela Park laboratories of the General Electric company at Cleveland last week.

The trip through Nela Park gave the party some fine illustrations of proper room lighting, reverse moving picture projection, self focusing auto headlights, proper illumination of streets, and many samples of window lighting especially for small window space.

The visitors were given a banquet and a theatre party.

Miss Ruth Brown, director of "Henry's Wedding," described the play which is to be given in the school auditorium Thursday and Friday.

In the absence of President R. G. Yerkes, Vice President Maurice Lapham, presided.

WAYNE COUNTY STARS MEET

The Wayne county association O. E. S. will be guests of Star of Zion chapter September 17. Afternoon session at 2 p. m., dinner at 6:30. Reservations must be in by September 12. Call Hogarth 7416 or Lennox 6617 for reservations. Bessie Whitney, chairman of publicity.

BASE LINE SCHOOL GETS A NEW ROOF

The Base Line school boasts of its first new roof for fifty years. Harry B. Clark says he can remember when it was last shingled he was a small boy.

The school bell rang Monday morning at the Base Line school house and the children filed into a spic and span building to begin their studies.

The active school board began earlier in the season a bit of repairing. One thing led to another until now a brand new composition roof covers the building, the interior has been freshly decorated, the window shades have been washed and reversed and crisp new muslin curtains at the windows give a homey air. To "brighten the corner," Mrs. John Cleaver hung gay flowered curtains at the shelves where dinner pails and such equipment are stored.

Small wonder the children, under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Martha S. Egge, begin their work with renewed pleasure.

HOMECOMING HELD IN WALLED LAKE CHURCH SATURDAY

The 30th annual Walled Lake Homecoming was held at the Walled Lake Methodist church, Saturday, Sept. 8, 1934.

The morning session was devoted to the usual memorial services for those who had passed away during the past year.

Dinner was served at noon by the Methodist Ladies' Aid society. The afternoon was taken up with renewing old friendships and a program consisting of a business session, a musical and literary program and an historical address by Wm. T. Miller of Ferndale.

Mr. Miller gave a very interesting talk on the early history of Oakland county, which was greatly enjoyed by the audience.

The following officers were chosen for the coming year: President, Mrs. Gertrude Sisley-Clapp; vice president, Miss Mary Green; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Susie Dandison-Mars; program committee, Fred Bickong, Miss Edna Bradley and Mrs. Dorothy Rose McKibben and memorial chairman, Mrs. Nellie Smith Carney.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

At the first meeting after the summer vacation of the Mizpah circle of Kings Daughters the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, Kate McCully, who in past years has been a loyal and faithful worker in this order, and has now entered into the presence of the King, we wish to express our appreciation of all the service she has rendered and our sympathy to those who mourn their loss. Having gone on she speaks and inspires us to more noble endeavor. May we all catch that inspiration and strive to make our lives a blessing to others in His name for whom we serve.

Therefore be it resolved that a copy of these resolutions be placed upon the records of Mizpah circle, a copy be printed in our local paper and a copy be sent to the bereaved family.

Marshall Hyde, Record linotype operator, has accepted a position on the mechanical staff of The Michigan Daily, official student publication of the University of Michigan. While he is helping on an early issue over this week-end, he will not leave Northville for Ann Arbor until Sept. 22.

Mrs. Roy Matheson and Mrs. Earl Montgomery, in company with Mrs. Leona MacRae of Walled Lake, were in Pontiac Tuesday attending a pot-luck dinner conference concerning business affairs of the Wayne Baptist association. Mrs. Matheson is the secretary-treasurer of the organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Cobb returned here Tuesday from a summer vacation at Howell and in northern Michigan. Mrs. Cobb will again take up her teaching duties in the local high school, and Mr. Cobb will soon leave to resume his studies at the Harvard School of Business Administration in Cambridge, Mass.

Floyd Northrop, Elmer L. Smith, E. E. Miller, Norris Schrader, Stein Northrop, Carl Ely, Arthur Schnute, R. T. Baldwin, and sons Paul and Philip, were Northville omens of ill luck who watched the Tigers lose two games to the Athletics Friday. Lee Stewart, Milo Johnson, Clarence Elliott, and Warner Neal were among those who saw them break even Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gruebner and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hale of Detroit visited their mother, Mrs. Chas. Sowles, Sunday. Mrs. Sowles, who has been spending the past three months in Northville, returned to her home in Detroit, Wednesday evening. She wishes to thank her many Northville friends for the pleasant social gatherings held in her honor during her stay here.

Those women of Northville who enjoyed a series of health lectures given last winter by Dr. Ida Alexander, at the local public library, were interested to see her picture appear in the Sunday Detroit News, taken while she was examining the prize baby at the state fair. Dr. Alexander was obliged to discontinue her lectures because of an accident which confined her to the hospital for weeks.

Mrs. John Ward suffered a slight stroke at her home on South Center street recently.

Mrs. J. H. Bolton has been confined to her home on Linden avenue by illness this week.

Miss Frances Alexander has been busy this summer assisting in the dental office of Dr. Dan Brief.

Miss Bernice Clark has fully recovered from an operation for appendicitis and is able to be around town.

Over 100 people are in "Henry's Wedding," to be staged Thursday and Friday, Sept. 20 and 21 at the high school.

Farmers welcome the showers of the past few days. Some farmers report that it's still impossible to do much fall plowing.

Mrs. Ralph Foreman is making good recovery after appendectomy performed in Jordan's hospital, at Highland Park, Saturday.

Richard T. Baldwin will speak Sunday noon before the Paul Hickey Bible class at the Metropolitan Methodist church at Detroit.

Record readers will "get a kick" out of the "Does Everybody Live a Double Life?" column found elsewhere in this issue. Read it.

Mrs. Jennie Cousins, accompanied by her daughters, Marion and Eunice, and son, Robert, left Thursday for Chicago where they will visit the World's fair.

Dr. Harold Sparling left Monday morning for a two weeks' post-graduate course in Buffalo. He will divide his time between the two hospitals in that city.

"Lonely, are you? Then look about you for those others who need your help," advised Rev. H. H. Mallinson to his audience at the Methodist church, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleon Vorbeck of Wayne had the good fortune to be presented with a new Chevrolet coach Sunday at the State Fair. Mrs. Vorbeck will be remembered as Miss Margaret Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Campbell.

The marriage of Miss Maxine Weaver to George Wm. Bolling of Traverse City is announced. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Weaver of Traverse City and will be remembered as the "Cherry Queen" who flew to Washington with her gifts to the president last year.

The Record editor can't quite understand the deluge of flowers that have come his way this week. The office has been cheered with gladiolas from the gardens of F. C. and Miss Inez Bryan, asters from E. C. Lanfield and nasturtiums from J. M. Hull. All here have enjoyed these flowers.

MANY LOCAL YOUNG FOLKS WILL ATTEND

Northville is sending quite a large delegation of its young folks to college this fall.

Among those who will go to the University of Michigan are, Russell Atchison, Robert Langfield, Robert Power, Miss Wilma Rattenbury and Warner Neal; to Michigan State: Frank Van Atta, Ward Van Atta, Ferol Ford, Herbert Berendt, Jack Mc[illegible], N. C. Schrader, Jr., Miss Marjorie Kehrl, Miss Eleanor Eaton, Miss Arline Richardson; to Michigan State Normal college, Richard Shipley, Melvin Sterner, Robert Christensen, John and Paul Steckeken, Chas. Carrington, Miss Bernice Clark, Gertrude Deal and Miss Catherine McKenna; to Albion college: Howard Christensen, Ruth Mary Baldwin; to Antioch college, Indiana, Miss Jane Whipple; and to Cleary Business college, Miss Eleanor Grosvenor.

ANOTHER PENNY SUPPER

So popular did their penny supper prove Wednesday evening, in spite of the rain, that the men of the Methodist church feel quite puffed up over the comments on their good cooking. Roy B. Clark was the chief cook, with able assistants.

On Wednesday evening, September 19, another group will attempt to rival them with the following menu: Swiss steak and gravy, mashed potatoes, escalloped oysters, home baked beans, hubbard squash, salads, pie and cake.

The price is small and the occasion is becoming more and more a pleasant social event in the life of the community.

TEACHERS WILL MEET ON MONDAY AFTERNOON

ADD SCHOOL—

There will be no school Monday afternoon for students, as a teacher's meeting for purposes of general instruction has been called by Superintendent Amerman for that time.

Slightly more than 160 high school students had been registered by Wednesday night, Assistant Principal Paul B. Thompson, announced and on that basis, he set 240 as an estimate of the total number.

Mrs. Ida B. Cooke, in charge of registering junior high students, reported 86 Thursday morning.

IT COSTS NO MORE—To buy the best. There is no other ice cream sold in Northville that will compare in richness and flavor with PRY'S DELICIOUS HOME-MADE ICE CREAM. Quarts 25c—Pints 15c. 2tfc

COVERT REUNION CALLS MANY OLD PUPILS TOGETHER

Approximately 65 former pupils and friends of Mrs. Belle Covert Adams, termed Northville's best-loved teacher, met Saturday afternoon at Cass Benton park for their annual reunion.

Mrs. Adams was present and greatly enjoyed the opportunity of once again meeting with her old friends and pupils. Now retired from the teaching profession and a present resident of Detroit, Mrs. Adams keeps in touch with all of her Northville friends and once each year attends the reunion given in her honor.

A basket picnic was held and greatly enjoyed by all those present.

SETH BENTON BUYS TWIN PINES ROUTE

The local Twin Pines milk route in Northville has been sold to Seth Benton, of 7-Mile road. Harold Slater is the driver for the route which was formerly owned by Albert Holmes.

MRS. LOUISE WITTICH DIES AFTER STROKE

Mrs. Louisa Wittich, mother of Rev. Lucia Stroh, pastor of the Salem Congregational church, passed away late Tuesday night, September 12, following a stroke which occurred while visiting friends in Toledo. Mrs. Stroh was with her mother.

The funeral will be held in the Congregational church, Salem, this Friday morning. The obituary will appear next week. Mrs. Stroh has the sympathy of her many friends.

DATE FOR ALUMNI DANCE TO BE SET BY THE COMMITTEE

Opening the fall season for dances at the school, the committee in charge of arrangements for the annual Alumni dance is engaged now in obtaining the services of an orchestra and getting a date for the event which will be held at the high school.

COWAN IS GRATEFUL

The Northville Record
Northville, Michigan
Gentlemen:

I wish to extend my sincere thanks to the citizens of Northville for the fine support given me in the primaries. Even though I did not win the race, it was no fault of the citizens of Northville who unanimously endorsed me.

So, again, I want to thank the people of the great republican city of Northville and I am asking my many friends to support the republican ticket and the man who defeated me in the primaries.

Sincerely,

JOHN C. COWAN.
Chairman Board of Wayne County Auditors.

ARROWHEAD FARM CABIN BROKEN INTO BY LOCAL BOYS

Burns detectives from Detroit were called to the Arrowhead Farms on East Nine Mile road Wednesday to investigate the breaking and entering twice within the past two weeks of the cabin located on the grounds.

Four early American pine chairs valued at more than fifty dollars were maliciously broken and left in the woods nearby. Victrola records, 75 of them, were burned and broken and a 75-year-old marble topped table was smashed to bits by the vandals.

Finger prints have been taken and the detectives find that boys from Northville are responsible says Mrs. Wm. Rawle Brown, owner of the farm. The damage amounts to more than $100 and Mrs. Brown declares that the parents of the boys will be asked to pay.

Arrowhead farm is a state game refuge on which no trespassing is allowed at any time. This will count against the boys as well as the breaking and entering charge.

Northville's Wolverines are still in the sandlot play-offs. See them play Sunday at Detroit Northwestern field.

FOOTBALL SQUAD WILL HAVE FAST RUNNING ATTACK

Drilling twice a day at the fair grounds gridiron, the Northville high school football machine is fast being put into shape by its mentor, Ted Watts.

The Orange and Black eleven will have a deadly running attack this year, all signs indicate. Deal, at half, is expected to do some fancy open field ball carrying, while Captain Bender and Quarterback Marburger will hammer at the line. Some new men, out for the backfield, also show promise of being threats.

While Deal's right arm, injured in baseball this summer, is not nearly as good for passing as it was last fall, he can still hurl the pigskin as good as most of 'em, and Marburger is fast picking up the art too. A heady field general, "Irv," will punt for the local gridders this year.

While the line may be the possible weak link in the chain, Watts says he expects to build it up to a point near its last year's strength. The line this year will come out of the huddle in a kind of "double shift" which resembles but is not the Notre Dame shift.

By H. H. WHITE

To a large percentage of youth who will enter our colleges and universities this fall there will come for the first time in their lives the opportunity to demonstrate whether or not they can "stand on their own" against the trials and temptations which the higher schools of learning are bound to present.

Here is a situation where the need for mature thought will be necessary. The young student is liable to find himself in a "fix"—so to speak. If the youth has found himself stabilized enough to handle his affairs in such a way as not to offend his elders, he is fortunate indeed.

One of the signs which will constitute college entrance maturity will be that of knowing what he is there for and sticking everlastingly to it. The youth must remember it is not a case of "Hurrah boys, here I am." To those fortunate enough to have a creditable matured mind it will only be a matter of transition which they, if poised enough, can meet.

If poised at all they will develope more poise, along with character and ability, and will accomplish things. Such students will readily recognize the fact that their maturity is not only essential to entrance but a quality to be continually studied and improved. Such young people become the kinds of graduates that indicate the value of college training.

However, good scholarship and maturity are not tantamount. Quite often students who are brilliant as compared to the one who must work hard for every achievement, is not always socially minded. They do not always make the best all-around man on the campus.

These foregoing thoughts came to this writer the other day as I glanced over a college entrance application blank which contained these two questions: "Will this candidate do college work?" and "Do you think this candidate will be able to meet the college entrance situation?"

Students go to college primarily to learn how to live; secondarily, to learn from books. The real life in the higher halls of learning should be a gradual and wholesome growth toward maturity.

In such a process moral and spiritual factors play leading parts. Right-minded students will regard them seriously and the mature [illegible] and [illegible].

CORRUPTION MAKES CRIMINALS

(Utica Sentinel)

Of the Dillinger gang of 12 or 15 men, six are dead, several in prison, and four at liberty. But as the Dillinger star descends another rises in the East where startling large and well planned deals have lately been made. We are not going to master the crime situation so long as the public morals are on the bargain counter.

Elmer Perrin, Home From Year At C. C. C. Camp Near Munising, Gives Account Of His Activities There

Editor's note: Elmer Perrin, son of E. E. Perrin, returned three weeks ago from the Civilian Conservation Camp near Munising where he had been for nearly a year. On request of The Record he gives an absorbing account of the activities in the average camp. Elmer was an assistant education advisor. He plans to resume his studies at the Michigan State College, in Lansing soon.

By ELMER E. PERRIN, JR.

When President Roosevelt created the Civilian Conservation Corps as a part of his recovery program, he did far more than the general public has ever been able to realize. There has been some talk of the movement being worth while since it took a good per cent of the nation's undesirable young citizens off the city streets. As for the accomplishments of the men in the field, I don't believe there has ever been [illegible] badly interpeted as reforestation. I have been in the 666th Company at Munising for about eleven months and would like to tell you how I feel about the organization.

Each camp is run by the army and the United States Forest Service which co-operate with each other to the full extent. The army has charge of the men at Camp Custer where it conditions them and equips them with clothes and then ships them to the various work camps. In camp, the army has charge of the men in full. It must feed and cloth them, administer any necessary discipline and in general, supervise their camp life. In the field, the rangers take charge of the men and direct them technically in their work.

In nearly all camps, barracks are [illegible] men in each camp, about forty men living in each barrack. In the camp there is also a mess hall, a hospital, a supply house, a power house, latrines, a bath house, a recreation hall, quarters for the army and the forest service, and several garages. Thus you may readily see that a 3-C camp is almost a city within itself. In the recreation hall at our camp we had two ping pong tables, six card tables, a writing desk, a canteen where anything from candy to talcum powder might be bought, and a wide assortment of modern magazines and newspapers. There is also a complete educational system in each group. There is an educational advisor who is hired by Sixth Corps Area who directs the educational work. The men have access to a library of three or four hundreds books—both text books and fiction. Classes are offered in English, civics, geology, photography [illegible] men desire to take. The men coming into the camp average around the tenth grade level, although there are many high school graduates, and some college men.

Once in camp a man can hold the rank of a selectee which pays $30, an assistant leader paying $36, or a leader which pays $45 per month. He is advanced according to the ability he shows and the way he sticks to a job.

The day begins at six o'clock. Breakfast is at six thirty. Trucks take the men to work at eight, bring them their lunch at noon (or in the winter bring them in for lunch) and pick them up at four in the afternoon. They work five days a week and sometimes on Saturday morning. In the winter there are relatively few types of work that may [illegible] work which consists of clearing out dead and deformed trees, or trees that are too crowded and burning them. Another project, fire-hazard reduction, is quite similar. Slash is burned, and areas are rendered considerably safer for the fire season. In the spring the men are able to plant for about two weeks. The United States Forest Service claims that the men have advanced their forestry program fifty years. During the rest of the summer there are many projects. The soil is scalped for future planting, trout streams are improved, crews operate to fight white pine blister rust, and roads and trails are built so that any distant point of the forests may be reached in case of fire. Finally the men serve as an ever ready fire department in the woods and quickly and safely build fire lines in case of a blaze, saving Uncle Sam millions of dollars annually that would go up in forest fires.

Certainly conserving and restoring our natural resources will do a lot of good but in my mind that is [illegible] the gain to be had by the taxpayer. It is really the men who profit. The chap who has been thrown out of work by the industrial slump now has a chance to get into the spirit of the new deal. The young man just out of high school has to buckle down, takes over a few responsibilities, and comes out knowing the value of the American dollar. Every six months two or three hundred thousand men leave the outfit closer to manhood than they have ever been before, with greater confidence in the American government.

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by John Suminski and Bertha Suminski, his wife, of the City of Detroit, County of Wayne and State of Michigan, to Detroit Housing Corporation, a Delaware Corporation, dated the 5th day of April, A. D. 1927 and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds, for the County of Wayne and State of Michigan on the 15th day of April, A. D. 1927, in Liber 1928 of Mortgages, on page 365, which said mortgage was thereafter assigned by said Detroit Housing Corporation, to The Columbia Life Insurance Company, an Ohio Corporation, under date of April 14th, 1927, which said assignment of mortgage was duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Wayne County, Michigan, on April 15th, 1927, in Liber 159, of Assignments of Mortgages, on page 511;

Default has also been made in the conditions of an agreement between Helen Suminski, an unmarried woman, holder of the legal title to the mortgaged premises at the date of said agreement, and the undersigned, extending the time for payment of the debt secured by said mortgage, which said extension agreement is dated the 28th day of April, 1932, and was recorded in the office of said Register of Deeds, on May 10th, 1932, in Liber 2647, of Mortgages, on page 306. Said agreement provides that said mortgage shall continue to be a first lien upon the mortgaged premises, and that said mortgage and all the covenants and conditions thereof shall remain in full force and effect, except as therein modified, and that failure to pay any part of the principal sum secured thereby or any interest payment thereon, when the same shall become due and payable, according to the terms thereof, or any other breach of any other of the conditions of said mortgage or of said agreement, shall at the option of the undersigned, render the entire debt due forthwith without notice. There has been default in the conditions of said mortgage and said agreement in the failure to pay principal and interest due thereunder, which default has continued for more than thirty days, and accordingly the undersigned has exercised its said option, does hereby exercise the same, and the entire debt is rendered due forthwith; on which mortgage there is claimed to be due, at the date of this notice, for principal, interest and taxes, the sum of Eight Thousand Two Hundred forty-six and 07/100 ($8,246.07) Dollars.

No suit or proceedings at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof, now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statute of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, notice is hereby given that on Thursday, the 25th day of October, A. D. 1934, at 12:00 o'clock noon, Eastern Standard Time, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the Southerly or Congress Street entrance to the County Building in the City of Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan, (that being the building where the Circuit Court for the County of Wayne is held), of the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due, as aforesaid, on said mortgage, with the interest thereon and all legal costs, charges and expenses, including the attorney fees allowed by law, and also any sum or sums which may be paid by the undersigned, at or before said sale, necessary to protect its interest in the premises, including taxes and/or assessments. Which said premises are described as follows: All that certain piece or parcel of land situate in the City of Detroit, in the County of Wayne, and State of Michigan and described as follows, to-wit:

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Margaret L. Willis, of Detroit, Michigan, to James L. Ennis, of the same place, dated the 20th day of November, A. D. 1926, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds, for the County of Wayne and State of Michigan, on the 28th day of November, A. D. 1932, in liber 2664 of Mortgages, on page 130, on which mortgage there is claimed to be due, at the date of this notice, for principal and interest, the sum of Four Thousand Sixty ($4,060.00) Dollars.

No suit or proceedings at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof, now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statute of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, notice is hereby given that on Thursday, the 13th day of December, A. D. 1934, at 12:00 o'clock noon, Eastern Standard Time, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the Southerly or Congress Street entrance to the County Building in the City of Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan (that being the building where the Circuit Court for the County of Wayne is held), of the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due, as aforesaid, on said mortgage, with the interest thereon and all legal costs, charges and expenses, including the attorney fees allowed by law, and also any sum or sums which may be paid by the undersigned, at or before said sale, necessary to protect his interest in the premises, including taxes and/or assessments. Which said premises are described as follows: All that certain piece or parcel of land situate in the City of Detroit, in the County of Wayne, and State of Michigan and described as follows, to-wit:

The West fifteen (15) feet of Lot numbered Three (3), and the East Twenty (20) feet of Lot numbered Four (4) of Thomas V. Wreford's Subdivision of Lots One (1) and Two (2), of the Subdivision of the east part of the Messmore Farm, Fractional Section Thirty-six (36), Town One (1) South, of Range Eleven (11) East, according to the recorded plat thereof in Liber 10, of Plats, on page 35, Wayne County Records.

First Baptist Church

K. S North, Minister

10:30 (Note change in time) Morning worship. Sermon: "What the Ministry Means to Me."

11:45. Church School

7:30. Evening service.

Selections by Male Quartette at both services.

Salem Federated Church

"Worship That Is Acceptable to God" will be the theme for morning devotion on Sept. 16, at 10:30 o'clock.

In Bible school at 11:45 a. m. the lesson, "Isaiah Contrasts False and True Worship," will be taken from the first chapter of Isaiah.

"Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in His Holy place? He that hath clean hands and a pure heart." Psalms 24:3-4.

The boys in the classes taught by Mrs. Sherman Hartman and Miss Kathryn Pennell are having a party on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 15

Christian Science Churches

"Substance" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, Sept. 16.

Among the Bible citations in this passage (John 2: 15, 16): "And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables; And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p 213): "Jesus of Nazareth was the most scientific man that ever trod the globe. He plunged beneath the material surface of things, and found the spiritual cause."

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN

OUR MISSION FESTIVAL

"I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread." Ps. 37:25

There are always some who fear that liberal giving will be their undoing. David testifies that he knows of no such case, to which we can add that we know of no such case; we have not even heard of such a case. There have been those who, as martyrs for the sake of the Gospel have sacrificed their entire fortune, their standing in the community, and their very life. The case of the Elector of Saxony, who lost his liberty and was imprisoned because of his confession of faith is well known. Luther could have reached the highest honors and could have become an immensely rich man, but sacrificed all this for the sake of the truth. The Salzburg emigrants gave up all their property and left their country for the sake of the Gospel. The same thing is true of the thousands of French Huguenots. Other examples could be brought forward out of one's own experience.

"It is one of the oldest devices of Satan to try to make the Christian believe that by giving too liberally for the Kingdom of God he will impoverish himself. He even tried to make Jesus in the wilderness believe that He would starve to death if He did not take his, the devil's advice! But Jesus never turned from His confidence, nay, not so much as a hair-breadth.

Let us follow our Lord and stand firm. Let Satan hear us say it cheerfully, and with faith triumphant. We have a rich Father, and it is not true that He will let us perish if we walk in His ways. He is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think. Let us hold fast to this promise: "Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom; for with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again." Luke 6, 38. Can God lie? Titus 1, 2.

Lord Jesus, teach us so to live
That we may gladly give and give.

This Sunday we will celebrate our annual Mission Festival with two divine services. The first beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning, the second at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The speaker for the morning worship will be the Rev. A. Schnute of Monroe, while the Rev. E. Kuechele of Detroit will occupy the pulpit the afternoon service.

The Lutheran Hour of Faith and Fellowship is back on the air again every Sunday afternoon from 1:30 to 2 o'clock over station WXYZ.

It is hoped that all our members and their friends will be present at both services next Sunday.

A cordial invitation is extended to all to worship with us.

Novi Methodist Church

Morning worship at 11:15 a. m.
Young People's Hour at 6:30 p. m.
Evangelistic Service at 7:30 p. m.
Prayer and Praise, Wednesday, at 7:30 p. m.

"For the time is come when judgment must begin at the house of God, and if it first begin in us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the Gospel of God?"

And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?"

First Peter 4:17,18

Salem Congregational Church

Rev. Lucia M. Stroh, Minister
Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.
Divine worship at 10.30 a. m.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening in the church. Choir practice Friday evening in the church.

Sunday, Sept 2, Rev. E. J. Heitman gave the message and Sunday, Sept. 9 Rev. C. W. Lewis filled the pulpit.

The pastor was detained in Toledo, Ohio, by the serious illness and death of her mother Mrs. Wittich, who suffered a paralytic stroke last Tuesday night, before their expected return home on Wednesday.

The services will go on uninterrupted next Sunday.

"The Lord is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble and He knoweth them that trust in Him." Nahum 1:7.

Methodist Episcopal Church

Horace H. Mallinson Pastor

Methodist people do you know that this coming Sunday ends another conference year for your church? You are soon to begin your second century of church history. What a record your church has made! What about the new one? That is left for you to say. Sunday morning at 10:30 you are called to worship and prayer. Will you respond? Your preacher will have a timely message for you. The choir has prepared special devotional music for you. The whole service is outlined to be restful and inspiring. You will not get the atmosphere unless you are present. Plan to come, bring your company along; why should they deprive you of your morning worship?

Church school at 12 o'clock. Classes for everybody.

Don't forget the Union meeting at 3:30 at the Presbyterian church for Kingdom purposes.

Church of Our Lady of Victory

The first official meeting of our newly organized unit of the League of Catholic Women will be held this (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock. Meetings are held every second Friday of each month. Tonight's meeting will be a Mother-Teacher gathering discussing plans for the children's religious instruction class. Every lady of the parish is invited. Light refreshments will be served.

Until the first Sunday of October the Sunday Masses will be at 7:30 and 10 a. m. Confessions are heard Saturday evening from 7:30 to 9 o'clock.

Religious instruction classes, or Catechism, will start Saturday morning, Sept. 22. A class for high school students will be held on the last Saturday of each month.

The regular monthly meeting of the Altar society is held on the Tuesday preceding the fourth Sunday. At next Tuesday's meeting, Sept. 18, work will be parcelled out to each lady of the congregation for our Christmas gift party.

When will it dawn on this advanced civilization that the basic laws of morality are as immutable as the basic laws of nature? Why then are they not studied and taught?

First Presbyterian Church

This church cordially welcomes all who wish to join in a service of worship of God. Those who need help and strength to meet the stern demands of life—those who are not fully satisfied with their progress in the Christian life—those to whom the challenge of the Jesus way of life is not fully accepted—are invited to come and fellowship. The morning service begins at 10:30, followed by the church school at 12:00 noon.

The church school studies are in the prophecy of Isaiah. "Isaiah contrasts false and true worship" Isa. 1: 10-20. Do piety and unrighteousness mix? Sincerity of purpose, honesty of heart and genuineness of life and conduct are more important in worship than lavishness and ostentation.

Do not forget the birthday offering. Those who have had birthdays since June may make their offerings on Sunday in this service.

Please keep in mind the joint meeting of the three churches Sunday afternoon at the Presbyterian church at 3:30 p. m.

The Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary will hold their regular meeting next Tuesday evening, Sept. 18, in the Presbyterian church parlors. Pot luck supper will be served. Mrs. Harry Wagenschutz and Mrs. Harold Hatchett, hostesses.

FIVE BROTHERS MEET AFTER MANY YEARS

Mr. and Mrs D J Kinsey, of 626 North Center street, have been entertaining Floyd N. Kinsey and his wife of San Diego, Calif., a part of the week.

Five of these brothers met at the home of Arthur Kinsey in Ypsilanti for the first time in sixteen years. In the party with Arthur, were Roy Kinsey of Chicago, Clayton Kinsey of Dryden, Orville J. of Northville, Floyd N. of San Diego, Calif.

Floyd is chief petty officer of the United States destroyer, Dent, stationed at San Diego, coming to the New York harbor with the U. S navy fleet.

This summer the Dent was assigned to Newport, R. I., where Mrs. Kinsey joined her husband for the summer. On Wednesday Floyd leaves to join his ship which about November 1 will return to California via the Panama Canal.

Mrs. Kinsey will remain in Northville and other points for a time, returning to California after stopping in Chicago for a visit at the Century of Progress.

ADVERTISED LETTERS

The following letters are uncalled for at the Northville post office:

Ernest Jesowski
Mrs. W. Bohneff
Mr. Ed. Sulkowski
Super Service Garage
Mrs. John J. Spencer

KING'S DAUGHTERS

The regular meeting of the King's Daughters will be held Tuesday evening, Sept. 18, at the home of Mrs. Lilly Angell, South Wing street. A good attendance is urged.

IT COSTS NO MORE—To buy the best. There is no other ice cream sold in Northville that will compare in richness and flavor with FRY'S DELICIOUS HOME-MADE ICE CREAM. Quarts 25c—Pints 15c. 2tfc.

Obituary

MRS. ADDIE ZIEGLER

Mrs. Addie Ziegler, mother of Supervisor Jesse Ziegler, passed away Sunday afternoon at her home on the Farmington road in West Point Park. Well known both in West Point Park and here, her loss will be mourned by all.

Mrs. Ziegler was the daughter of Jesse Chilson, wife of Otto Ziegler, mother of Jesse and Heon Ziegler, and grandmother of Gerald Ziegler. She was a dutiful and kind daughter, taking loving care of her father in his declining years, a faithful wife and a loving mother and grandmother and was appreciative of all their kindness and care. Her aunt, Mrs. Ziegler, of Clarenceville, and Mrs. Gordon Way, were the kindly nurses who took care of her during the last few days of her sickness.

Surviving the deceased are two sons, Jesse Ziegler of West Point Park, and Heon Ziegler of Livonia Center, one grandchild, Gerald Ziegler of West Point Park. Mrs. Ziegler was born January 8, 1867, on the Chilson farm on Six Mile road and had always lived in Livonia township.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon in the home, where The Rev. Roy Miller spoke comforting words to those present. Mrs. H. L. Jorgansen of Redford sang "The City Four Square" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere."

Pall bearers were Frank Bradley, John Harlan, Fred Gerge, Charles Wolfrom, Ernie Ash, Albert Nacker. She was laid to rest beside her husband in the Clarenceville cemetery. The sympathy of many friends and neighbors goes out to the bereaved family.

STEPHEN DOUGLAS CLARK

Stephen Douglas Clark, son of Nancy and James Clark, was born Aug 14, 1861, in the township of Novi, Oakland county, Michigan, where he had resided all of his life on the old homestead of his parents. For the past 27 years, since the death of his mother, he, with his brother, Philo had occupied and enjoyed each other's company on the old farm.

He was the youngest of nine children, all having preceded him excepting one brother, Phila Clark, and two sisters, Mrs Phelps of Walled Lake and Mrs. Moore of Detroit. He was a quiet and honorable citizen, yet given to current events of the day. Though not accepting active part in civic affairs he was unusually interested in the things pertaining to his township and community. He was a member of the Odd Fellow lodge at Novi, and was one of the faithful members.

Mr. Clark had been in poor health for the past two years, yet he bore his condition uncomplainingly and maintained his cheerfulness until the last.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon from the Schrader funeral parlors, Northville. The Rev. H. H. Mallinson conducted the services and the Lakeside lodge of the Odd Fellows had charge of the services at the grave. Burial was in Novi cemetery.
