ALL REMNANTS OF INTERURBAN TRACKS GONE

Recall the Old Days When Street Cars Carried the Villagers to City

Old time villagers bid farewell to the last remnants of interurban street car this week with a fond, wistful look in their eyes.

For the covering of the street car tracks on East Main street with sand and tar, concluded up before their eyes memories of how they used to ride to Detroit on the yellow interurbans for 40 cents and how they used to wonder how many years it would be before the tracks were extended on Main street to Rogers street.

Discontinue Lines

The interurbans between Northville and Detroit, one going through Farmington and the other through Plymouth and Wayne, were discontinued in 1927, after nearly 30 years of service. Exactly why they were stopped was never made quite clear, except that apparently automobiles and buses had cut down their fares while the cost remained high.

People here hardly believed it when it was first announced. The interurbans were an institution, at one time the scene of short distance transportation. They ran to every nook and cranny of the state, in some cases even crossing state lines. For a dime you could ride to Farmington or Plymouth. For little more, you could go almost any place.

White Remembers When

William H. White, one of the first and the very last men employed by the old U. R. remembers possibly as well or better than any other man the story of the rise and fall of the interurban. Mr. White assisted in the grading of the road for the tracks in 1899. He was long a section boss and division manager. And when in 1931 the last interurban on the old Orchard Lake

After the Northville cars were discontinued, cars from Detroit to other points were one by one shelved in the car barn, to be sold later as a lunch stand or scrap iron.

METHODIST CHURCH PLANS CELEBRATION

By C. A. DOLPH

Anniversaries are frequent enough so that they do not cause much comment.

There is one locally during the month of September, which is to be observed by Methodist folks when the 50 years since the present church building was erected is suitably remembered in a two-day program, Sept. 20, 21.

Only a comparatively few people live in Northville who were members of the church in 1886 or who were part of the various groups who gathered funds for the building during 1885 and 1886.

It is proposed that as many as can be reached will send in greetings and recollections of those earlier days. It is planned to have two Sunday services and a dinner the following day. Former pastors of whom there is only a few, will be invited and the oldest members will be honored.

One unique feature of the Methodist church building is that the most of it was made in Northville. The windows, the bell, the slate roof and the old lighting fixtures were made here. The organ, furniture, brick and wood work, and the original furnaces and lighting were made or built here.

"Grandpa" Plays Ball

Harry German, former Northville mayor, and his "All-Star" baseball team will be one of the big attractions during Farmington's gala week, which begins Sept. 5 and continues through Monday.

GERMAN WILL PITCH ON FARMINGTON DAY

This is a big week for "Grandpa" Harry German, the 61-year-old pitcher of Carleton, former mayor of Northville.

He will be one of the major attractions at the American Legion's Gala Day in Farmington, to be held Sept. 5-7. With his "All-Star" baseball team, he is scheduled to play Sunday, Sept. 6.

"Grandpa" German has pitched for 49 years, giving exhibitions of his ability in almost every part of the state. During the present year he has lost but one of the nine games in which he has pitched. He has been on the mound in over 1,100 games during his baseball career.

The Pentecost City League will play Farmington Saturday afternoon. The winners of the two games will play Monday for the championship title.

Two new contests are being added to the Gala Day program this year, according to Charles Eklund, commander of the Greaves-Walker Post. A large number of applications have been made for the amateur contests which are to be held evening during the Gala program.

SERVICE LEAGUE BACKS "THE SHOW OFF" THIS MONTH

The Service League came forward this week to announce the sponsoring of the "Sun Up" cast, which made such a hit here two years ago and is now in rehearsal for a second dramatic production, George Kelley's "The Show Off," to be presented Sept. 18 in the high school auditorium.

Cast in the play directed by Leslie G. Lee are: Miss Marion Turbull, Maurice Giles, Mrs. Alec P. Milne, Henry Hoffman, Cecil Giles, James Hochkins, John Stutemoll, Thomas R. Carrington, Jr., and Miss Mary Louise Boyden.

Events—Silverhoarde Is Favorite

Kathryn Marburger, Patricia Holmes, Nancy McLaughlin, Ann Nelson, Billy Washburne, Kendall Wilks, Jane Holmes, Norman Campbell and Phil H. Grennan, Jr., were responsible for keeping in the village 17 trophies and ribbons awarded Thursday afternoon and evening in the Junior Horse show events held at the Fair grounds.

DON J. UPSETS RACE DOPE BY WINNING CASH

Friday's Rain Leaves Track Slow—Final Entries Are Cancelled

Followers of the track watched J. L. Dewey, Fred Cowham's gelding from Jackson take the first racing event held here Thursday at the Fair grounds. He came in first in each of the three heats in the 2:12 trot.

Dewey is a new entry at Northville, but has run in the 2:15 class earlier in the season at Ithaca. He was spotted here for further honors. His best time there was 2:08 1/2.

Bud Uhlman, owned by Northville's John Tunham, made his local track debut here Thursday in the 2:18 trot, coming in second place, capturing one of the two honors that went to horses owned by villagers.

Uhlman began his career a few seasons ago at the State Fair grounds. In the second race, the 2:15 pace, Colonel Easton, owned by William Henderson of Ann Arbor, won first place, affirming the opinion of horsemen who classed him as the fastest horse here during the races.

Another first-time entry at the Northville track took the winning honors in Thursday's final race, the three-year-old and under and 2:27 trotters. He was Captain Gibbons, owned by Ernie Van Blarcom of Goshen, Ven Blarcom was so pleased with the outcome of the race that he said he'd be back for more next year.

A steady rainfall here Friday morning left the track in such condition that all racing events scheduled for the afternoon had to be withdrawn. Friday's events were held over until Saturday afternoon, making it necessary to cancel Saturday's races. On Saturday the track was still muddy, making the time slow in all the races.

DETROIT AVIATOR HOLDS FORUM HERE

W. A. Stone, instructor of aviation at the Cass School of Technology, Detroit, announced this week that he would conduct an open forum at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, Sept. 15, in the high school building.

Villagers, interested in enrolling for a 15-week course in ground school flying are asked to hear Mr. Stone's outline of the activities of the course which will be given here this winter if a class is organized, for a small registration fee at the end of the text books.

Mr. Stone will bring a glider from Detroit to use during the school. He has aviation equipment of his own which he plans to use as supplementary work.

At the completion of the course, certificates will be given by the state department of aeronautics.

Famous Industrialists Watch Junior Events As Greenfield Ponies Place

Thousands Crowd Fair Gates at Opening; Plymouth Parade, Exhibits, Farmington Band and Races Are Highlights

Crowding into the gate with 7,000 other Fair enthusiasts Thursday afternoon were Henry Ford and his son, Edsel.

They arrived in the press box at the ringside of the Junior Horse Show, one of the outstanding events of the Twentieth Annual Northville-Wayne County Fair, just in time to see the first, second and third prizes in the children's saddle class awarded to three girls, who learned equitation at Henry Ford's Greenfield Village. The winners were Shirley Schmidt, Katharine Bryant and Carol Bryant, all of Dearborn, mounted on horses from Greenfield Village.

No publicity was given to the two world-famous industrialists, who came to the Fair merely to "enjoy themselves."

When the gates of the Fair were opened to the public Thursday, a new first-day record was established. "Not since 1927-28 have we had such crowds," said Floyd A. Northrop, the secretary. Although the rain which fell here Friday morning kept a large number of persons away from the fair grounds, the cool weather which followed on Saturday saw the grand stand packed and the horse show boxes filled.

Making the most of Plymouth Day, 135 cars participated in the parade Thursday afternoon, coming from Plymouth with its city band, which played again here Saturday afternoon.

The Schradt-Baggerly team of Plymouth captured the Fair baseball tournament, last week in defeating the Plymouth Laundry and South Lyon lines.

Thursday the Haggerty team defeated the laundry 3 to 2. Plymouth South Lyon beat Garden City 6 to 6. And Saturday in the Haggerty-Haggerty double, South Lyon 12 to 8.

Parade Is Success

Carrying the agricultural spirit of the Fair, the 1936 parade of the village took two of the cars given away during last week. Mrs. William P. Curt 281 Mead drive Plymouth, was the winner of Friday's event. She chose the Chevrolet Saturday's winner of the 15-month car was Mrs. Levi Parvew, Plymouth.

Mrs. T. P. Bludd, 46 Yerkes was the winner of the first day. She selected the Ford.

extending a quarter of a mile from the grand stand, passed review Saturday afternoon.

"Get Along Mule"

Headed by Mrs. M. Brown-Davis driving her light hackneys and a President Elmer L. Smith and Harry B. Clark, superintendent of the horse show, all dressed up like Buffalo Bill, the parade marched by a yoke of oxen, a pair of mules and institutional herds of Holstein cattle and huge draft horses from neighboring farms made up the bulk of the participants.

Humor was furnished the spectators when a colt got away from its mother and refused to be led and again whenever one of the boys cows or bulls would get talky on their attendants. The Wayne County Training school state strap chairman.

BRING MATTER OF CAUCUS—PRIMARY BEFORE ELECTORS

Whether or not Northville township will continue to have the old type caucus system of selecting its candidates next spring or whether it switches to the primary method, voters entirely upon the way the voters ballot here in the November election.

Petitions carrying more than 250 names have been in circulation in the township during the past weeks and the next step for those seeking a change is to bring the matter up for vote in November. According to Supervisor W. A. Fry, the issue will be carried on the fall ballots.

There are only three or four townships in Wayne county which still use the caucus system, Mr. Fry pointed out.

ASSURE FIRE PROTECTION AT HIGH SCHOOL

Brick Laying Underway at Grade Building—Smith Reports to Board

When Northville's $85,000 grade school is completed sometime in December, the high school building will be made fireproof.

Action of the part of the board of education meeting here Monday evening, authorized that immediate plans be made to pipe steam heat from the grade school boiler room to the high school. The hook-up, according to Superintendent R. H. Amerman, will be made during Christmas vacation. This means that children attending school here will be housed in fireproof structures.

Edward Smith of the Lydon and Smith firm of architects, Detroit, reported to board members the forepart of the week that construction on the new building was satisfactory. Mr. Smith was here all day Monday inspecting the work.

The brick laying is well underway and the first floor cement pouring has been started. Electricians and plumbers are putting in their "roughing."

There have been no hold-ups because of unfavorable weather conditions since ground was broken for the school early in the summer.

Eighty-four Northville men have been referred to the contractor and labor carpenter working on construction of the new school building. Major Howard Street state re-employment director, announced last week.

Approximately 25 men are employed on the job at a time. They are all paid prevailing wages, Mr. Street said. He indicated the prospect for employment of men from this vicinity is imminent.

MERCHANTS PROMOTE FALL TREASURE HUNT

Merchants building here for a Northville center of business class are promoting a contest of the fall to lure business to the new Saturday evening.

Properly at 8 p. m. notices will be posted in local store windows by Ned Frankford, chairman of the contest. If at the end of an hour, the prizes are not cancelled for new numbers will be posted and so it will be a matter of time for shoppers to learn about it, which happens when the contest strikes home, said Mr. Frankford.

Another treasure hunt will be sponsored by the alert business men of the village next Saturday evening Sept. 12, with L. C. Stewart chairman of the evening's activities.

CLOSE STORES MONDAY NOON

Northville's merchants will keep their stores open for the convenience of shoppers until noon on Labor Day, Sept. 7.

Popular Coach Leaves

Ted Watts, who signed a contract with the Melvindale schools this week, is Northville's former coach. During the three years he was on the local staff, he coached the village basketball squad to league and tournament glory.

TED WATTS TO COACH RIVAL SCHOOL TEAM

With the signing of a contract with the Melvindale high school this week, Ted Watts pledges himself to coach Northville's closest basketball rival.

The local team lost its only league game last year to Melvindale, but the Wattsman went way ahead of this school in the district and regional meets. Melvindale lost its first district game, while Northville took the district trophy for the second consecutive year and lost its chance for a state title only after Melvindale's Roosevelt team dethroned them in the regional tourney.

Watts goes to Melvindale where he is faced with the problem of coaching an entirely new squad into a winning unit. Only one of last year's players will be retained by Northville's former coach.

In Northville, four of last year's star players—George West, Charles Bishop, James Hochkins and Ben D. Ford will be on the roster for Melvindale. Watts' past coaching on the Rose Hill, Thomas Gray, Jack B. Ford, Robert Lee and Charles Greaves and last year's star player, Ben D. Ford will be on the roster for Melvindale.

Watts is the only one of the four who coached for at least a year at Melvindale.

BRUCKER MAY BE HERE SATURDAY TO MAKE SPEECH

Former Governor Walter M. Brucker, republican candidate for the United States senatorial nomination, is expected to be in Northville shortly after 9 p. m. tomorrow.

Mr. Brucker, campaigning the state against Senator James A. Couzens, pro-Roosevelt republican, will be in this section this week end on his tour, and although his campaign manager could not be reached for verification, village officials lent weight to the rumor that he will appear.

"FARM OUT" PUPILS UNTIL LATE WINTER

Junior High Enrollment Hits New Record; Neighboring Towns Send Pupils

With the time for opening the school doors practically at hand, Superintendent R. H. Amerman is faced with the problem of housing the grade school pupils and supplying teachers for the high school students as evidences of a record enrollment about here as junior and senior high registrations are underway.

Housing Is Problem

Although the new grade building, now under construction, is progressing according to schedule, December is the earliest time which can be hoped for occupancy, says Mr. Amerman. That means that for at least four months, Northville's pupils will have to be "farmed out" again.

Tentative plans were released this week for placing the third, fourth and fifth grades in the American Legion Hall on East Main street.

Registration Schedule

- Grade school pupils will register at 8:30 a. m. Tuesday, Sept. 8 in the following places:
 - Legion building—grades 2, 4 and 5.
 - Lapham bank—All first graders.
 - Scout building—kindergarten.
 - High school—all second graders in room, all fifth graders in room 2.
 - 3:00 p. m. Children who wish to come to morning registration class.
 - 5:30 p. m. Children who wish to come to afternoon class.
 - 8:00 p. m. Children who have no time preferred.

The Lapham Bank building on the corner of Main and Center streets will be first and second grade school building. The school building will be in the hands of Mrs. G. Greaves and Mrs. Stella J. J. Greaves and will be in the hands of Mrs. Greaves.

MILLIS' CHARTS SHOW ROTARY'S STATUS

Members of the Brighton Rotary club the newest group of Rotarians in this area, were guests of the local club Tuesday noon at the Presbyterian church house. The splendid dinner served by the Presbyterian women was greatly appreciated by the large company.

With President W. E. Forrer in charge and Dr. Melius Brighton president, at the head of the meeting was featured by a most comprehensive talk by E. L. Millis, local secretary, who analyzed the purposes, the organization and the status of Rotary with the aid of charts made by himself. Mr. Millis, who has the reputation of being one of the outstanding secretaries of the entire 23rd district, gave a vivid review and analysis of Rotary activities.

Speaking of the budget of the year ending July 1, Mr. Millis said that of every dollar paid by members, 44 1/2 per cent went for meals and 27 per cent for the student loan fund which is being used to help send worthy Northville young people to college.

The Northville men were glad to welcome as one of the visitors, Howard Cole, Detroit Edison employee formerly of this city.

President Forrer announced that next Tuesday evening would be "ladies' night" with Dr. H. S. Willis in charge. The volunteer workers also helped make such a success of the Rotary dining room will be closed for honor. The proceeds from this go to help the student loan fund.

STUDY THEM WELL

Lots of men are running for office this fall. Eleven more days and the primaries will be here. With them will come the responsibility of picking out the right men for office. The primary system makes it pretty soft for the "self-starters" to go after office. Unfortunately, in such a populous county as Wayne, it is next to impossible to know much about the army of candidates. The thing to do is to study the advertisements of these men and then check in the best way possible on their claims. It certainly is silly to vote for a man just because his name is Murphy or because he wants to ride into office on the coat tails of either Roosevelt or Landon. Vote for the man who has the character and the ability to serve the people well in any particular office. Think for yourself. Ask someone who is on to the political game.

NOW FOR SCHOOL

There is both a touch of pathos and a dash of inspiration in the ending of the summer vacation period and the beginning of a new school year. Gone are the happy days of the summer, with all the joys of the outdoors and the mingling with all points of the compass in our trips, when there is no ice on the windshield and no alcohol in the radiator. Soon gone will be the ball games, the flowers, the ice cream sodas—mostly gone—the joys of watering the lawn and the sitting on the porch while the world rides by. Coming soon will be the furnace fires, the closed windows, the frost on the fields, the long evenings of reading and visiting, the shortening days and the darkening mornings. Coming also is the inspiration of the fall when new pulses begin to throb and new life and hope take shape. The dash and the sparkle of the fall make it a better world for us. Too much sunshine makes the desert. The coming of fall should be to healthy people like a new wine.

"LIVING IN A FOOL'S PARADISE"

Following the speech of Gov. Landon at Buffalo, N. Y., the (liberal) editor of Detroit News has some startling things to say about the danger of our national debt. The News does not try to laugh off the debt danger as do many unthinking people. Rather, it faces the situation in a very serious way. The Kansas governor pointed out that no government can long continue to pay out more than it takes in. Commenting on this, The News points out very plainly and in strong language the danger of piling up a "debt which not only threatens to cripple this generation and the next, but to undermine the safety of the nation in case a new emergency arises. In 1917 we stumbled into war, and in three years increased our debt by 24 billions of dollars. In 1929 we entered a depression and in less than seven years doubled our debt carrying it to the highest point in our history—and the end here? yet in sight." Then, in black face type, The News—one of the greatest daily papers of the United States—adds these solemn words of warning: "It should be read and pondered by every taxpayer and by every citizen."

The danger is, not that we can not carry today the load that has been imposed, but that next year, or sometime in the near future while we are still burdened with it, we shall be compelled to undertake another load in addition; that our financial stability will thereby be impaired; that lenders will lose confidence and demand a reward in proportion to the higher risk they feel they are taking; that the source of funds will dry up, forcing the government to issue fiat currency, or confiscate wealth.

It is not the present, but the future, that is worrying our financial and business interests. Then The News adds these words which some will believe and many will not: "That point was well made by Gov. Landon, who said that 'we are living in a fool's paradise.'"

WHY DID SENATOR COUZENS QUIT?

The big political sensation of the past two weeks was the sudden and unexpected announcement by Senator James Couzens that he was throwing his support in the coming election to President Roosevelt. The action of Michigan's multi-millionaire U. S. senator came within a day or so after his own committee had made a long announcement to the effect that he was a regular republican and worthy of the support of the party. His statement, therefore, came as a body blow to that considerable group of republicans who had been "standing by Couzens. The attack that has fallen on the senator since his promise to boost for Roosevelt has been most bitter from all parts of the state. Some say that he has been guilty of treachery—even former Gov. Chase Osborn having said something to that effect. Others say that his action in "letting down" his friends in a most unkind fashion shows that he is a "poor sport." Some few others commend Couzens for his "sincerity" and honesty in stating his conviction...

tions. But if he were sincere in coming out for the New Deal, why did he not do so before announcing that he would run as a republican? Certainly his convictions could hardly have changed over night. The idea of many who have followed the primary campaign the past few weeks is that the senator saw defeat at the hands of his virile opponent, former Governor Wilber M. Brucker and "could not take it." In other words, they think he is a quitter, and that he has closed his political career in rather inglorious fashion. Brucker himself took a real beating when he was defeated for the governorship but he did not turn over to the enemy afterward, but rather stood by his party through thick and thin. Even his enemies have commended him for his good sportsmanship. In the past two or three weeks there has been little question that Brucker was taking the lead in the primary race. It may be that Couzens saw the "handwriting on the wall" and decided to "get out from under."

Senator Couzens of course, has put himself exactly where he belongs. He has been a New Dealer at heart and has at practically all times in his career shown his indifference—if not contempt—for his own party. Couzens will probably take some votes to Roosevelt but not many that Roosevelt would not otherwise have had. Of course Brucker will win the primary race—as he probably would have, anyway—and in view of Couzens' inconsistent action, Brucker should be given the vote of a united republican party. He is honest, capable and a man of vision. He will be a man of real influence in the United States senate.

In beautiful Cass Benton Park picnickers are enjoying a late summer supper. Hundreds of villagers, together with Detroiters seeking relief from the noise and heat of the city, have held similar parties all during the season. It will be sometime yet before cool weather drives the nature lovers from the park. Brisk fall weather simply means that suppers will be cooked over ovens. Jackets and sweaters will give warmth to Northvillians who will continue to enjoy picnic spreads in the park during Indian summer.

Percy Angove, Main street, is having a partial vacation from his duties at Detroit as executive secretary of the Michigan Society for Crippled Children. He is spending three days a week at his office. Mr. Angove returned last week from the upper peninsula where he addressed every one of the eleven Rotary clubs in the interest of the crippled children's work which is the major activity of many Rotary clubs. He also gave an address before the Rotary assembly of the 35th district, held at Muskegon.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Hannaford have purchased the home on West Main street, formerly owned by George W. Hulls. After extensive remodeling and redecorating plans have been completed sometime this month, Mr. and Mrs. Hannaford will make their home there.

One of the most unique exhibits at the fair last week was a miniature fire engine, a replica of a Sea-grave fire apparatus now used in the Detroit fire department. It was designed by William M. Ford of Detroit. Mr. Ford worked five months on its construction.

There are a lot of noxious weeds about the village that ought to be cut.

Mrs. Rudy Mach is visiting this week at the home of her parents in Warsaw, Ind.

Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Snow and children returned to the village Tuesday after a vacation at Bois Blanc Island.

L. A. Beal, a former Northville citizen, was here Friday from Wayne to visit the fair and to renew old acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor J. Landley are the parents of a daughter, Philanda Gies, born Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 2, at the University hospital, Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Davies of Sarasota, Fla., were in Northville and Pigeon this week visiting with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. White. Mr. Davies, a prominent Rotarian, was a guest here at Tuesday's Rotary luncheon.

HOUSING OF PUPILS IS AMERMAN'S BIG PROBLEM THIS WEEK

Unless some other arrangements can be made, the combination grade and another second grade section will have to meet in the high school gymnasium.

The sixth grade will meet in room 9 at the high school.

"As I see it now," pointed out Mr. Amerman, the grade classes will meet with the following teachers:

Table with columns: Teacher, Grade. Lists teachers like Mrs. J. A. Congo, Mrs. K. H. Babbitt, Mrs. A. E. Clarke, etc.

School board members meeting with Mr. Amerman Monday evening, authorized the superintendent to employ another teacher for the crowded high school classes.

"The additional teacher," said Mr. Amerman, "will teach in the English department and will handle an assembly period. This year I want all the under and under high school English classes to be under two instructors, if possible. Mrs. Frank W. Hawkins who last year taught in the grades has been assigned to the senior English department," he explained.

According to Mr. Amerman, last year the senior high school enrollment was close to the 300 mark and the junior high had 80 pupils. This year, the registration indicates that there will be approximately 60 pupils in the seventh grade alone with between 40 and 45 in the eighth grade.

The high enrollment has reached a new high, too, with students coming in from West Point Park (where it is understood neither eighth nor ninth grades are to be held), Walled Lake and Nov.

RACE TRACK DOPE UPSET BY DON J.

Don J., owned by Stanley Ladd of Howell, was more or less blacklisted in racing circles after a temperamental performance at Ithaca this season when he refused to get away. Not much was expected of him here.

Saturday's second race, the 2:22 pace, saw Swift Direct, owned by D. Reed of Northville, come in with high money, placing first in two of the three heats. Swift Direct continued his "in the money" policy which has followed him all season as he raced at Richmond, Davison, Ithaca and Frankfort, Ind.

An Ann Arbor entry owned by William Henderson, Car Patchen, grabbed first in the final race, the 2:22 trot. This horse was raced here several times.

The summary for the two days of racing, each event carrying a $300 purse, is as follows:

A Saturday Night Supper

SATURDAYS ARE FUN in the fall. The long half holiday afternoons are filled to the full with active out-door things. Sometimes we hike along the crisp countryside or go nutting in the tawny colored woods. We may drive for miles and miles in the bracing autumn air, or then again sit for hours on sturdy bleachers yelling our football loyalties into the golden September skies. But whatever the afternoon holds for us, it has always the same ending—a hearty supper spread spontaneously on a buffet table at home. A favorite menu of ours for these gay suppers begins with a steaming tureen of Clam Chowder —the real New England kind that comes ready-to-serve in shining tins.
Then we have an old brown bean pot brim filled with Oven-Baked Beans and corn for the main course with a tomato salad of piquant flavors to complement it. A deep dish of spicy Appelfuchen and a cup of hot coffee top off this meal to perfection. Try it yourself some Saturday evening soon. You'll find it's grand for family and guests alike.

before taking from oven, remove

Sept. 19, at the Northville-Wayne County Fair grounds. The circus will be here one day only, with two performances, starting at 2 and in announcing that it has made arrangements with the management of the show whereby the price for both children and adults, and every one may take advantage of this circus deal.

Under the arrangement, the merchants are authorized to use a definite number of "courtesy tickets."

granted concessions which they cannot secure otherwise. "Courtesy tickets" will be given out by the merchants whose names will be announced in this newspaper.

Patrons may simply call at the scores where they generally trade, do so.

without "courtesy tickets," adults will have to pay 40 cents for admission and children will pay 25 cents. If a "courtesy ticket" is exchanged at the ticket wagon, an adult ticket can be purchased for 25 cents and a child's ticket for 15 cents.

tributing these "courtesy tickets" will be announced at a later date.

Police Muzz Up Mobster Caught "Below Deadline" at Theatre—Double Feature Here Wednesday

The term, "the deadline," appears frequently in newspaper stories of crime, but few persons know exactly what the word means in police parlance or what significance it has to criminals and ex-convicts.

Commissioner Devery defined the deadline: Fourteenth street from the East River to the Hudson River; and all men and women with criminal records were ordered to keep north of that line.

Any known crooks who cross the deadline are immediately arrested on suspicion. And, even though they may be released subsequently, experience has taught them that the safer course is to stay out of the restricted zone.

Added recently to this deadline menace to criminals is the Brownell law. This law makes it possible for police to take into custody any known criminals who are found consorting together.

In this screenplay produced by Chesterfield Motion Pictures corporation and now showing at the Penniman-Allen theatre, Adamson has introduced several unique methods of police procedure in dealing with a robbery, a frame-up, and an escape.

THE LAST OF THE CLINTONS

When you see Harry Carey shooting it out with the paid killers of the cattle-rustling band in his Western, "The Last of the Clintons," which comes to the Penniman-Allen theatre on Friday, you will naturally figure that the monetary reward from stock-stealing must have been worth having to make men risk their lives on the wrong side of the law in such fashion.

There still are rustlers plotting their trade around the Western ranches," says Harry Carey, star of the film. "But plenty of protection is given the cattlemen by the government. Of course, cattle thieves can't operate on as gigantic a scale as they used to. It is impossible to run off an entire herd and get away with it."

James Ryan, casting director, at Twentieth Century-Fox's Hollywood studio, is ahead a few cuts because Brian Donley miscalculated Hollywood's interest in himself.

A year ago Donley was marking time in Hollywood because the picture for which he had been summoned from New York was being held up due to illness in the cast. Visiting with Ryan and gossiping about experiences at the United States Naval academy, Donley announced his intention of returning East.

The studios aren't interested in me and I'm going back to Broadway," he declared.

Helon: "Winnie has a very difficult role in the show the dramatic society is giving."

THE FIRST BABY

The first kiss was thrilling, the first year was fun, but the first baby really started things bubbling!

Featuring Johnny Downs, who was recently seen in Irvn Cobb's "Everybody's Old Man," and Shirley Deanne in the leading roles, the new picture is a true-to-life love story about young newbrides, whose smallest worry is a baby boy, and whose biggest is "in-law" trouble.

WORLD'S FAIR ARTIST FEATURED WITH BIRCH, MAGICIAN.

MABEL SPERRY

PENNIMAN-ALLEN THEATRE NEXT MONDAY AND TUESDAY

When Birch, the Famous Magician, appears at the Penniman-Allen Theatre next Monday and Tuesday evening, he will present not only the most beautiful instrument of its kind ever produced. It is not only a triumph of tone and tuning, but an artistic achievement as well.

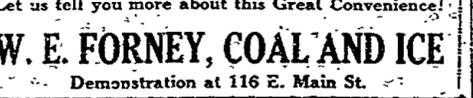

Heading the Birch staff of assisting artists is Mabel Sperry, brilliant young musical star and danseuse. This charming young lady comes to our city direct from her appearance as xylophone soloist with the 100-piece Marimba Band at the Century of Progress, Chicago.

Her special built Marimba-Xylophone, which was planned by an expert designer is without question the most beautiful instrument of its kind ever produced. It is not only a triumph of tone and tuning, but an artistic achievement as well.

Miss Sperry is known in the concert and radio world as an artist of unusual ability, and critics had her as the world's greatest girl xylophonist. Her artistry, coupled with her sparkling personality, makes her a favorite wherever she appears.

Don't fail to hear this talented musician and her "Marvelous Melodies" at the Birch performance on MONDAY AND TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7 and 8.

THE OFFICE WASTE-BASKET OF "WARNER WINCHELL"

COUZENS FOR ROOSEVELT Senator Couzens' action in declaring for President Roosevelt was not a complete surprise, but even at that it is difficult to know exactly how to take it.

The senator, endorsed by both republican and democratic conventions had on numerous occasions since the campaign opened, shown his attitude for the republican attack on the New Deal. He had scoffed at the G. O. P. attack on the administration's spending and agreed with former Governor Grosbeck that the charges of Roosevelt's interference with personal liberties and constitutional rights are "just pure bunkum."

Nevertheless, Senator Couzens, who has never been very regular except on election day like many another progressive republican statesman, continued to campaign, more or less, for re-election as a republican, saying little or nothing about Candidate Landon.

But, as Republicans Landon and Knox continued to harp on spending and deprivation of freedom, Senator Couzens, apparently found nothing else to do but to announce forthrightly his stand for Roosevelt.

Of course, it also may be said that he did it merely because he saw that Mr. Brucker was beating him to the draw in the republican primaries and that, desirous of winning, he thought his best chance was on the democratic side of the fence. But if this argument is given, it must be remembered that the senator is still nominally a republican and has given no indication that he will run as a democrat; and that his "campaign" so far has only really been two or three rather sour speeches.

BIRCH, THE MAGICIAN IS LOCAL THEATRE ATTRACTION, SEPT. 7-8

Announcement was made today that Birch, America's foremost young magician, with his company of assisting artists will play an engagement in this city on Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 7 and 8...

The Birch show is one of the largest magic shows that has ever toured this country. Equipment, fittings, scenery and effects valued in excess of $25,000 are carried and will be seen at the local performance of the entire remarkable array in which are included many illusions which baffle even the understanding eyes of other magicians of prominence, perhaps the most interesting is that of the Vanishing Pony, in which a beautiful miniature horse, is caused to disappear while suspended in mid-air.

The current tour is Birch's fourteenth annual one, and he has in that length of time gathered together a most impressive program that appeals to young and old...

Washtenaw County Republicans Present George P. McCallum as their Candidate for Nomination for State Senator from the Twelfth Senatorial District There has existed in the Senatorial District a gentlemen's agreement between the Republicans of Oakland and Washtenaw Counties to alternate the office of State Senator between the two counties. Since this agreement has been in operation, Oakland has had the office eight times and Washtenaw seven times. In 1934 it was Washtenaw's turn to present a candidate. However, since the late Senator Moore had not completed his work the Republicans of Washtenaw County willingly supported Mr. Moore and helped return him to the senate for a third term. The Republican voters of Washtenaw County now feel that in fairness his candidate should be nominated and in supporting Mr. McCallum, Washtenaw knows that it is presenting a man well qualified to discharge the duties of this important office. Mr. McCallum was born in Michigan and has lived in Michigan all his life. He has had legislative experience, having previously served in the Michigan legislature. The problems presented by taxation are not new to him as he has long been a student of taxation and in his private capacity is head of an organization owning large acreage of agricultural, timber and other real estate holdings. He has given much attention to the question of financing Michigan's educational system. He has been a practicing attorney for over twenty years. In view of Mr. McCallum's qualifications and of the agreement between the Republicans of the two counties, we earnestly request the Republicans of Oakland County to support and vote for Mr. McCallum in the primary election. FAIR-DRAW BIGGEST CROWD SINCE 1927-'28

"Birds of a Feather"
More than 600 entries in this year's poultry show constituted one of the outstanding divisions at the Fair, officials said.

The exhibition, bigger than that of a year ago, was also superior in the opinion of A. E. Fuller, member in charge and noted poultry expert. Many would-be entrants were turned away, Mr. Fuller said, as in several cases, two fowl were put in the same cage in the effort to make more room.

The grand champions and their owners are: Golden Wyandotte cockerel, Wesley Elliot, Ypsilanti; Black Hamburg hen, Norman Schauroth, Milford; White Orpington pullet, Natalie Schauroth, Milford; Partridge Cochon cock birc, Louis Louf-far, Birmingham.

While all of the divisions were well up to par, the bantam display, in the opinion of Mr. Fuller, surpassed its last year's excellence and was one of the outstanding parts of the show.

Mr. Fuller completed a busy week arranging the display here, assisted by Glenn Richardson and Wesley Elliot, only to leave again Wednesday for the State Fair in Detroit, where he has charge of the more than 1,800 entries in that poultry show. There will be 600 more exhibitors there than last year, he said. The tropical fish display, started last year, will be improved this year, Mr. Fuller promised. He said the rabbit fur display here took the place of last year's fish exhibit.

Radio Commencement Exercises
More than 200 widely separated chapters of the American Institute of Banking, the educational section of the American Bankers Association, hold annually a September a similar taneous commencement exercise at which they listen to the speaker of the evening by radio. This is said to be the most extensive graduation ceremony held by any educational institution in the separate membership of the chapters, which are located in cities and towns throughout the United States, total about 35,000 bank employees and officers. The graduates number each year more than 2,500 and total graduates are now over 25,000.

The Business Outlook
NEW YORK—The natural forces of recovery have demonstrated their strength and have a momentum which may reasonably be expected to carry the country into new high ground, says "Banking," the publication of the American Bankers Association, in its August issue. The publication's stimulation following the July national money funds to the business has practically led away and is no longer an important business factor. A certain degree of uncertainty arising from the national political situation is unavoidable, the publication says.

Foreign Trade
The Commerce and Marine Commission of the American Bankers Association has made a report that says that the foreign trade of the United States for the year 1935 on the basis of estimated physical volume was 24 per cent above the 1929 level. The 1934 level is the highest since 1929. The volume of world trade were lower due to the trade embargo placed in January, 1935. The composite index of 75 countries showed 25 per cent of the 1929 average.

National Bank Growth
Comptroller of the Currency O'Connor announced recently that total deposits in the 5374 national banks in the United States on June 30, 1936, the date of the last call made for statements of condition, aggregated $26,300,453,600. The figure is a new high record for national banks exceeding by $1,249,995,000, or 5.29 per cent the amount reported as of March 4, 1936, the previous high record. The current figures show also that deposits increased $3,682,207,000, or 16.35 per cent, over the amount reported as of June 29, 1935, the date of the corresponding call a year ago.

THE PUNSTER IS IN AGAIN!
"Every gardener loves his flowers and vegetables."
"Yes, but he likes his lawn mower!"

WE'LL HAVE TO LOOK IT UP.
Home Training: "If your children become unmanageable, quickly switch their attention."

CARD OF THANKS
I wish to thank the Fair Association members for the Plymouth car I won, and I want to congratulate them on their fair management.
MRS. LEVI PANKOW.
