FINAL LOCAL STRAW COUNT GOES TO G.O.P.

Politicians Tie in With Civic Association's Festival, Oct. 30

Voting in Village, Normally Republican, Is Light; Close Ballot Box

Totaling Northville's straw vote, which were extremely light, Landon leads with the following count:

Landon ..... 33
Roosevelt ..... 14
Leake ..... 2
Broderick ..... 2

Which way and how strongly the national political winds are blowing in small town and country America will be shown definitely in the final tabulation of the country newspaper nation-wide poll now nearing conclusion.

The balloting, which has been conducted by more than 3,000 weekly newspapers located in all parts of the country, comes to a close this week Saturday midnight, Oct. 10.

Final national returns will be announced the week of Oct. 19.

At National straw-vote headquarters in New York City in the offices of Publishers Autocaster Service and The American Press, a record straw-vote is being tabulated. A total of 82,797 ballots had been recorded at the close of the seventh week of the poll and released today.

The political trend of the country vote at this time gives Governor Landon, republican, a lead of about one and half to one over President Roosevelt, democrat. Or, in percentage terms, 60 to 40. The third party candidate, Congressman Lemke, union, runs a distant third with a percentage rating of 4.7%.

Other minor party candidates Thomas, socialist; Colvin, prohibitionist; and Broderick, communist, are far in the rear so far as country America voters record their presidential preference in this poll.

In some states the vote has been light and cannot be considered conclusively indicative that such states are bound to go to the respective leading candidates in November. In other states the vote has been heavy throughout the ballot.

G.O.P. Brings Knox and Vandenberg to Village

CATER TO HUNTERS, BIG FESTIVAL DAY DATE IS OCTOBER 30

Fitzgerald and Brucker Here for Rally—County Men to Parade From Detroit

With Col. Frank Knox, the G.O.P. candidate for vice president, Senator Arthur Vandenberg, Governor Frank D. Fitzgerald and William M. Brucker, republican candidate for United States senator booked to appear here Oct. 30, Northville will be the center of the biggest political rally in its history.

Joining these national political figures in the village will be Wayne County's candidates coming from Detroit in a parade of more than 150 cars.

It's safe to say that these men will all be here. We're going to tie our activities in with the Harvest Festival events to make Oct. 30 one of the biggest days of the year," affirmed Dr. L. W. Snod, when he returned Wednesday from a trip to Lansing to make arrangements to bring the candidates to the village.

Concluding the political program of the day will be the raising of the Colors and the Landon-Knox banner with ceremony at the parking lot adjoining the Penniman-Alten theatre. A pole, which is now the property of Supervisor W. A. Ely, will have a place on exhibition because of its historical background.

It was erected in 1889 in Superior Township, Washtenaw county, by Mr. Ely's father during the Grant-Garfield campaign.

More than $600,000 in WPA and sponsors' funds is being invested by local Wayne county communities and the federal government in 13 new WPA projects, including a $100,000 program for repairing and remodeling 66 buildings of the Detroit fire department, announced Homer W. Clark, Wayne county district director.

Concrete roadways to replace present cinder and gravel roads around buildings of the William H. Maydany sanatorium are under construction under the new set up. Five men will be kept at work until early December, a federal allotment of $15,405 supplements $7,503.60 appropriated by the board of county auditors for this improvement.

Testimony, giving the authenticity of the will signed by Grennan June 3, was made by Vivian Eston, 12159 Flanders Avenue, Charles A. Echlin, 3323 Easton Boulevard, and Mr. Meadow.

READY FOR LOCKER BIDS

The board of education will accept bids Nov. 2, on lockers for the grade school building now under construction. All bids according to Superintendent R. H. Amerman, will be made in accordance with the specifications which are to be made by the architects, Lyndon and Smith of Detroit. A specific grade and thickness of steel will be required.

SINCLAIR AGENT DOES NOT WANT CREDIT FOR GAS DEALER'S SPEECH

FRANCES McLOUGHLIN HONORED AT COLLEGE

SELL REDFORD LUMBER COMPANY TO NOWLES

William C. Hartmann of Northville, commission agent for the Sinclair Refining company, was not the William Hartman of Detroit, vice president of the Detroit Gasoline Dealers association who gave a talk Sept. 25 to a group of gasoline dealers meeting in Plymouth. Highlights of the speech were printed in the Oct. 2 issue of The Record.

"I don't want people to get the impression that I was the speaker at that meeting. I'm employed by the Sinclair Refining company and would have no right to make the statements which were made by Mr. Hartman of Detroit. I attended the meeting only as a spectator," asserted Mr. Hartmann.

The Redford Lumber company was sold last week to the Nowles Lumber incorporation, which has companies in Detroit and Rochester headed by Russell W. Nowles of Rochester.

Harold Church of Warren will manage the Northville Nowles Lumber company. He has moved to the village with Mrs. Church and their two small children.

PREVENT DIPHTHERIA

Diphtheria immunization will be administered Monday at 9 a.m. in the high school gymnasium by the village health officer, Dr. R. M. Atchison. This treatment will be given to school children who have not been previously treated by their own physician.

Those present at the conference from Northville were Chub Smith, Charles Denne, Mr. and Mrs. Orlis Tewksbury, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cobb, Miss Mabel Chamberlain, Mrs. Arthur Gots, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dolph, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Foreman and R. T. Baldwin.

During the business session, Mr. Dolph was named judge for the coming May election and Mr. Smith and Mr. Denne are the tellers.

LOCAL METHODISTS ATTEND CONFERENCE

By C. A. DOLPH

A new method of handling quarterly conferences has been started by the Rev. William E. Harrison, superintendent of the Ann Arbor district of the Methodist church. All charges located in Wayne county were called together Thursday evening, Oct. 1, for a meeting in the Wayne church.

Fifteen of the local official members, including the Rev. and Mrs. Harry J. Lord, and co others attended a dinner at 6:30 p.m. prior to the business of the evening.

Reports were received from trustees, treasurers, auditors and committees from the churches represented, after which the several pastors submitted their quarterly reviews. Each church group acted upon the reports of its church so that they all might be official.

Under regular procedure the district superintendent visits each church and holds a conference, taking an evening for this. By holding each group at centrally located points, a lot of time can be saved for other very pressing district matters.

Those present at the conference from Northville were Chub Smith, Charles Denne, Mr. and Mrs. Orlis Tewksbury, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cobb, Miss Mabel Chamberlain, Mrs. Arthur Gots, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dolph, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Foreman and R. T. Baldwin.

During the business session, Mr. Dolph was named judge for the coming May election and Mr. Smith and Mr. Denne are the tellers.

OCTOBER'S GLORIOUS TONIC

If you get overwrought politically speaking, in these hectic days of radio bombardment, get out for a walk in Michigan's tinging October. Nothing in the world to-beat it.

THOSE AMENDMENTS

If you want your children to get a full year of education every year, get ready to vote a "Big No" on amendments three and four, at the November 3 election. You will vote on four of them and it would do no harm if you voted "No" on them all. The last two are certainly dangerous.

LET'S BE FAIR ABOUT IT

Business is better. Much better. Houses are going up; factories are getting busy. Unquestionably prosperity is in sight.

But let us think straight about the reasons for business being better. The New Dealers would have us believe that they should get the credit for it. They aren't telling the people that the Supreme Court wrecked all the vital New Deal measures such as the NRA, the AAA, and other recovery experiments. In other words, prosperity is coming again because of the workings of natural laws. Business is better, not because of the New Deal, but in spite of its shackling legislation.

Don't be fooled in the closing days of the campaign.

"SPENDING TO SAVE"

Now, in the closing days of the great campaign, the New Dealers are defending their wild spending of billions—not millions—but by the use of the slogan, "Spending to Save." There is some truth in the statement but there is very much deception and deceit in it. No sane, fair-minded man can defend a large part of the wasteful throwing away of the people's money. If continued, it will literally bankrupt the nation.

If there had been a New Deal in the days of the Prodigal, his motto "outhless" would have been, "Spending to Save."

Don't be fooled by slogans that won't stand the great searchlight of the truth. "Spending to Save"—"It is to laugh."

AL SMITH WILL SUPPORT LANDON

Those who heard the history making speech of Al Smith, former governor of New York, in which he came out for the election of Governor Landon to the presidency, heard almost literally the "cry of a hurt soul." They heard the voice of a crusader, who, white-faced and grim, told why he had left the political path of a life time. The ringing challenge of the one-time "Happy Warrior" was a thrilling and heart-stirring appeal, straight from the heart of a hurt man.

Smith's dynamic attack on the New Deal went straight to the heart of the real issues in this campaign. That is what the voters must decide in November—whether or not we shall continue the discredited NRA, the AAA, the WPA, the ERA, the CWA and so on down the long alphabetical line of European experiments. The voters must decide whether they want to return to the American way or to continue the way of having the government do everything for everybody and spend extravagantly.

When Smith said that the administration had "betrayed" the democratic party, he spoke the truth. He rightly said that the most bitter critics of the New Deal and all its strange experiments have been democrats. To prove the point, he quoted Senator Glass, the noted democratic senator from Virginia, as saying this:

The New Deal taken all-in-all is not only a mistake, it is a disgrace to the nation and the time is not far distant when we shall be ashamed of having wandered so far from the dictates of common sense and common honesty.

When Smith said that the New Deal had turned its back on real democrats and had turned the government over to the Tugwells, the Wallaces and the Frankfurters, he was right. And he further proved the point by quoting the president of Dartmouth as saying this:

In place of leaders of balanced judgment and capacity for discriminating counsel, the New Deal has elevated to many of its foremost positions of authority and influence in this time of crisis men of no better than second rate qualification and with little experience in dealing with affairs of any magnitude.

No fair minded man who knows the life and career of Smith will dare say that his whole heart and soul were not in this history-making speech. No honest man will dare to be his sincerity—it took high courage to leave the party to which he has given a life time of service. Because he spoke of the truth which has hurt his own soul, the speech made a tremendous impression. The rise of Al Smith from the sidewalks of New York, to the position of head of a great state and that of a candidate for the presidency, one of the unforgettable phenomena of this great America. No wonder that millions respect the voice and has resigned the position of village night watchman.

A very prettily arranged shower was given Miss Anna Johnson Saturday evening by her former high school girls at the home of Dorothy Dubois.

The following Yerkes cousins called upon Dr. Taylor Emery of New York Sunday afternoon at the Summer Power home: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Yerkes, Mr. and Mrs. George Yerkes of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Yerkes, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Yerkes, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Yerkes, Karl Yerkes, Mrs. Georgia Yerkes, Mrs. T. J. Perkins of Bennington, Mrs. Carlisle Mead, Will Emery; also Dr. Emery's aunt, Mrs. Charles Yerkes.

30 YEARS AGO

The fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of one of the most highly esteemed couples of this section, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Yerkes, occurred Oct. 7, and their golden wedding was celebrated at their pleasant home on Saturday, with about 40 guests, immediate relatives and a few of their intimate friends, present.

Dr. Frank Carothers has exchanged his dental business here for that of Dr. Rickell of Hastings. First snow of the season Tuesday morning. The mercury was fooling around the freezing point Wednesday morning but yesterday it "got there," the temperature going to eight below the degree necessary to congeal water, freezing the ground hard and doing all sorts of things to vegetation.

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

1 YEAR AGO

Northville's police car will have no other marks than it now carries, according to a decision rendered by the village council Monday evening. At the meeting Sept. 16 the council, after a stormy session, voted to have a wide yellow band painted around it, together with the word "police" in inch letters.

Bicycle polo, a new game to Northville sportsmen, will be played tonight to open the two-day harvest sale to be staged by Northville merchants Friday and Saturday.

Nine head of cattle were destroyed when a large L-shaped barn located on the Five Mile road about two miles west of Salem burned to the ground Friday evening, Oct. 4. The barn was tenanted by Herman Kettner.

A cooperative dinner at the home of Mrs. Fred Northrop was given in celebration of Mr. Northrop's birthday Thursday.

5 YEARS AGO

Following seven years of discussion the village has decided to take action relative to the establishment of a new water supply. A resolution was passed Monday night by the council directing the clerk to write to a lot of well-drivers and have them appear before the council meeting on Oct. 19 and give their estimates on what it would cost to sink a series of test wells.

A daughter weighing 8 pounds was born Sunday, Oct. 4 to Mr. and Mrs. Leander Smith on Novi avenue.

A daughter Joan Glenna was born to Mr. and Mrs. Glen Walls last Friday.

Mrs. George Hicks, Mrs. Robert Picard, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hicks and Mrs. J. B. Wattis were at Detroit Saturday to see Ted Watts, halfback of Alton college in action against Detroit City college. They have followed Ted ever since the beginning of his high school playing here.

10 YEARS AGO

The sixtieth anniversary of Northville Lodge, No. 126, F. & A. M., was fittingly observed last Friday night when nearly 300 people gathered at the high school gym to enjoy a dinner and program prepared for the occasion.

Workmen have been busy during the past week removing the old stone building on the property now owned by the Ford Motor company at the corner of Main street and Huron avenue.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McKelevey was the scene of a pretty autumn wedding at 3 p. m. last Saturday when Mr. McKelevey's sister, Mrs. Tillie Smith, was united in marriage to William Horsfall.

Marion and Bruce Turnbull entertained about 30 of their little friends at a most delightful birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Turnbull last Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Turnbull entertained the merry company with motion pictures.

A fine crop of peaches has just been harvested from the farm of George B. Yerkes on the Bass Line road. The orchard was set out five years ago and this is the first crop, and it was an exceptional one. Nearly 900 bushels of peaches were harvested by Carl Schoutz and his crew.

PLANT FOR SPRING

Hyacinths, tulips and narcissi for spring flowering in 1937 should be planted two times the depth of the bulb for best results. None of these three flowering bulbs will do as well in clay as they will in a light fertile loam, according to Mr. Krone.

A possible solution to the problem of farm surpluses is to be found in the increased use of farm products by industry, as indicated in a new slice film, "Farms of the Future," produced by the Ford Motor company.

The picture, just released to local Ford dealers, is available through them to schools, clubs and farm organizations, anywhere in the country.

"Farms of the Future" include a treatment of the story of the soy bean showing the early experiments in a variety of farm crops which finally led to the selection of the soy bean for continued experimental work in the Ford laboratories. Progress in the development of the soy bean as a source of raw material for a simplified plant for extraction of oil from the bean, and production of automobile parts from soy bean meal are shown.

Agricultural over-production, farm and factory interdependence and future possibilities of farm crop conversion into raw materials are among the subjects treated in the film. Also included is a dramatization of the natural partnership of agriculture and industry—the mutual interests of the farmer and the industrialist being portrayed.

The film's consideration of the problem of farm surpluses introduces the belief of Henry Ford that this problem will eventually be solved through the use of farm crops by the world's industries. As an indication of what may be ahead, the film presents a pictorial summary of what has already been accomplished by scientific research in the realm of farm crop conversion.

By a vote of 22 to 29 at a special village election held Monday, it was decided to at once dispose of the Northville electric light plant for $36,000 to the Edison company. The money when paid over will be placed in the sinking fund to retire other village bonds when due.

A "Plain Country Woman" Speaks On Raising Children

Years ago a "Plain Country Woman" wrote regularly for the Ladies' Home Journal. She was the mother of a number of children, she knew hard work and real life. Women read her comments eagerly and felt a personal loss when she died.

Among our clippings is one of these columns which has become worn and frayed by frequent reading. We pass a few paragraphs on to other mother-readers who will nod assent to these thoughts and see their own problems more clearly.

"We can never tell how our children are going to turn out in the long run," Solomon says. "Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it. But 'raising' cannot always overcome tendencies bred in the bone. I do not deprecate careful rearing but I have seen too many 'carefully raised' children go to the bowows and those brought up haphazard succeed amazingly to give me utmost faith in the latter part of Solomon's epigram.

Your child is more than likely going to be a complete surprise to you. The very child you counted on to the next strengthened developed. Most people stop with the hero you can be if you have not their children. They should not do so. If the child can come along into comradeship of thought and friendship it is a delightful thing, but if his mental and moral attributes are limited the parent is not required to sit down in dust and ashes and lament.

"Naturally we would like to be proud of our children. The mother has a weakness which she cherishes as a virtue—a willingness to suffer privation and obscurity; if only her children are successful and happy. A great mistake this, and in it lies the stagnation and lack of development that many persons, suffer after middle age. They sit down and court senility either in humiliation over the failure of their children or in complacency over their children's success.

"A child must not thrust too much responsibility upon the par-

Olympic Official to Work for Landon

I believe in fair competition and that's why I'm for Landon," said Maj. John L. Griffith, member of the American Olympic committee, who took command of the campaign among athletes under the direction of the Republican National committee in Chicago.

"If you have succeeded in personally rising to the big comprehensive view of life as a whole, do not mourn if you cannot forcibly drag those whom you love up to your level. But do not descend to them. Those who stand upon the heights are our captains and leaders."

G. O. P. LEADS IN LAST STRAW VOTE

ing. In only a few instances have early leads been cut down and states changed from one to the other column of leaders.

At the close of this week's tabulation President Roosevelt had gained a lead in one state, Oregon, for a total of twelve states to twenty-seven for Landon. The Oregon vote this week shows Roosevelt 2,565 to 1,971 for Landon. In Connecticut, Landon leads Roosevelt 540 to 439 a small majority of 81 votes.

The twenty-seven states in which Landon leads are: California, Colorado, Connecticut, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Virginia, Vermont, Washington, West Virginia and Wisconsin.

The Roosevelt leads are gained in Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Montana, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, Texas and Utah.

In no state does Lemke threaten the leaders. He is polling his heaviest vote in North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, Minnesota, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York.

State by state tabulation of the Lemke, Thomas, Colvin and Browder vote has shown a falling off in the balloting during the last three weeks. The total vote for all candidates in 39 states at the close of the seventh year shows:

Landon 491,419 56.2% Roosevelt 327,673 37.5% Lemke 40,670 4.7% Thomas 2,568 0.3% Browder 3,884 0.4%

Between the three leaders only

Landon 491,319 57.1% Roosevelt 327,673 38.1% Lemke 40,670 4.8%

As between republican and democratic, the lead

Landon 491,419 60.0% Roosevelt 327,673 40.0%

The large table presented here with data by state tabulation of the two candidates, Landon and Roosevelt, was compiled to the same totals in the 1932 Hoover-Roosevelt straw-vote. The 1937 straw-vote was conducted in approximately the same group of weekly newspapers, but only 2,000 of them cooperated, whereas some 3,000 newspapers are participating in this year poll.

LOCAL ELEVEN MEET REDFORD UNION ON THEIR FIELD TODAY

Took Only Win There Last Year—Ineligibility Dims Chances of Winning.

This afternoon at four o'clock Northville will meet Redford Union on their gridiron.

This game was Northville's only "win" last season and Coach Barr thinks our chances are favorable this year, but the team is hindered quite a bit by the ineligibility of several players.

Due to this ineligibility the starting line-up is not definitely known. However, Captain Bob Bray will be in as center; Casterline and Scott will start as guards; Aldea and Lester will play tackles and any one of Wilbur, Myers, Hardesty and Richardson will start in the end position. Farnhamer will play quarterback, and Turnbull will be in as halfback. The rest of the backfield is not definite as yet.

Inquiring Reporter

What do you think of the student council awarding just one letter for each sport regardless of how many years you play?

Vivian Grosvenor: I think the student council should award a letter for every sport no matter how many years the student plays. There may be an expense to it but the team deserves it.

Claude "Buck" Hinchman: I think they should award a letter every year, to show how many years you have played at sports.

Lillian Fritz: I think it would be a splendid idea if it would be a lot cheaper and the money they would save could be spent for other equipment they need.

Bob Bray: I don't think it is a good idea because the substitutes would have no goal to try for.

Robert Trost: One letter for each sport should be enough. Why hog the six when you can only wear one at a time anyway?

Wanda Bender: I think this is a good idea because some people have several letters and only use one and it would save the student council a lot of money which they could use for better equipment for sports.

Edgar Joly: I think who receives a letter as a freshman won't have much of a career when he is a senior. The main reason a boy goes out for football, baseball, or any other sport is the letter which can be worn around school to signify his efforts in the sport because the students of Northville high school haven't shown much support at the games so far played this season and they were practically the closest of the away games.

Grade Notes

The safety patrol is fully organized now, with Douglas Bolter as captain. The boys are all fifth and sixth graders, and have the following posts: High street, David Hansen; Edison building, Billy Tesch; Lapham State bank, Robert Farnhamer; Hannaford's Hardware store, Henry Lester; Dr. Sparling's home, 2 m.; Kenneth Hartman, p.m.; Harold Todd; American Legion Hall, a.m.; Teddy Okon, p.m.; Gerald Miller; Scout building, a.m.; Alex Funk, p.m.; Douglas Slesser.

Christy Summers from Kentucky is a new student in Miss Helen Leonardson's second grade. The morning section of this class is having a fascinating new health game while the afternoon section plays take turns "broadcasting" a health program.

Mrs. O. P. Reng's second graders had a spelling bee in which Jack Sutton won. Her pupils brought in the first "autumn leaves" which they drew and colored. Newcomers in her class are Jack Sutton from Elba, and Geraldine Karschner from Walled Lake.

In Miss Selma Jarvis' first grade, there are almost twice as many girls as boys—21 girls and 11 boys. An unusual number of new students have come in. They are Patricia Chase from Detroit, who is now living at Braeside Farms; Geraldine Denmore, Gilbert and Patricia Johnson, Harold Schulte from Detroit, Betty Jane Sutton from Elba, and Marie Seastrom, Barbara and Betty Wood, twins, all from Detroit. Donald Sprague is a new member of Mrs. K. H. Babbitt's fourth grade. The children have been having an Indian exhibit in connection with their geography lessons.

The kindergarten has a total enrollment of 32. Miss Ann Richards will begin distributing milk next week. The kindergarten has a turtle and a new set of doll dishes.

'ROUND THE SCHOOL

You students are queer people. One minute you're yelling for dear old Northville, showing that twist of energy which is known as school spirit, and the next minute you let down the school, in a way that is far more important than giving your lungs exercise.

It happens that we're referring to the football season tickets, the student council is attempting to sell. The council is having a tough time, what with the shoulder pads and pants they bought the team this year. They wanted to buy more but there wasn't enough money. All those items piled up, put them over $200 in debt. Now, of course, it takes money to buy a team equipment and it so happens that the council sees few dollars and cents—except written in red ink.

BARRMEN DEFEATED BY BERKLEY WITH DECISIVE SCORE, 32-0

By JACK STUBENROFF

The Barrmen were crushed Friday by Berkley's powerful running plays. Oct. 1 was the date of the first meeting of the Girl Scout Troop of Northville with their new captain, Miss Florence Harper. Twenty-one girls were present in the junior assembly of the high school.

The following officers were elected: Alice Eaton, lieutenant; assistant leader; Scribe, Marilyn Gavel; treasurer, Yvonne Taylor; song leader, Betty Jane Gillespie. The troop colors have been changed from green and gold to black and yellow and the gold-satin closer as the troop emblem and name. Plans were made for a Halloween party to be held at the home of Mr. John McCrea at 1 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 28.

Mike Dorcas Corrin, the last captain, has moved to Rochester to teach, and May Louise Boden, the last lieutenant, is attending college at Ypsilanti.

Northville's fumble paved the way for Berkley's first score. Northville fumbled on, about their own 49-yard line from where Berkley took the ball. Five plays were all that were needed to score the first touchdown. After Berkley scored in the second quarter, two in the third, and one in the fourth, Berkley missed three extra points and made two of them.

Northville was helpless against the running attack of the Berkley men but the boys stayed in there and fought like men. This may sound funny to the way Northville was defeated but the team deserves much credit.

The lineup: Berkley—Northville Westfall—Lester Chisholm—Lester Florence—Scott Rock—Bray—McGraw—Wilson—Doherty—Litenot—Harmon—Toman—

Northville—Walter Lester—Robert McGraw—Casterline—Aldea—Doherty—Hardenst—Parmenter—Turnbull—Way—Mitchell—

August Card: Robert Bray, Bob to you, is also connected with football. Very slightly, though he's merely the captain. One can't really count that in other years he's played center that is for at least three years. This year he's president of the Neubauer Too. Now for a little history. He's 17, we know, because he was born on Jan. 15, 1919, in Detroit. After living in Paw Paw 2 while he moved here in time to enter the fourth grade and he's been here ever since. Bob has been on many committees for his class and was in the junior play.

To tell you the truth, he is very modest, so this is all we could get, although we know there is lots more. Tell them there were many older and more experienced riders at this Oakland Hills horse show. Nan McLaughlin, Jean Marburger and Scott Cole were there to watch the show.

There was a football game at Ann Arbor last Saturday, believe it or not. Practically all the football players were at this U. of Michigan State game. Pat McLoughlin and Louis Alexander went too, and so did Betty Schrade and her house guest, Nancy Brown of Pontiac.

Barbara Phillips had a grand time at the "Gay Desperado" with Edgar Joly.

The Camp Fire Girls had an elegant steak roast, Tuesday at Pat McLoughlin's. The steaks were either over or under done, but they tasted like another steak never can. After the fun, most of the girls went riding.

and a new set of doll dishes. James Murray of Miss Edna Kreger's second grade is back from his vacation in Kentucky. The children made a poster of a desert.

Miss Nora Wilson's first grade is now learning words. Charles White brought in a turtle he found and the children wrote stories about it and their pets.

Casserole Cookery

CASSEROLE DISHES ARE simple to prepare and so very satisfying to serve. Although requiring elaborate kitchen work.

In fact you have but to lay together a number of good ingredients according to a reliable recipe, tuck them away in a sturdy casserole and pop the dish in the oven to cook and a main course is done!

In the meantime, you can prepare the rest of the dinner leisurely, leave the kitchen alter ego for a bit of relaxation. Casserole is delicious, offers a wide range of variety too. Left-overs can be cleverly disguised, inexpensive cuts of choice meat cut into succulent pieces, and meat substitutes—eggs, macaroni, spaghetti and cheese prepared in clever new one-piece meals all in your casserole. To your family this means something new every time the casserole "feast-in-a-can" is placed with pride upon the family board. Hence practical homemakers will welcome these new recipes for casserole cookery as labor saving delights.

Farmers' Steak Casserole—Cut 2 lbs. round steak, 1/2 inch thick, into six servings. Pound 1/2 cup flour into a shallow edge of a saucer or a steak dinner. Heat 2 tablespoons fat in skillet and brown meat in it on both sides. Sprinkle with 1 teaspoon salt and 1/2 teaspoon pepper. Place in casserole, overlapping slices if necessary. Pour 1 small can Creamed Beef Casserole and 1 small can Onion Soup into skillet to reheat any fat left in the skillet, then pour over meat in casserole. Cover tightly and bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) for about 1 1/4 hours, depending upon tenderness of steaks. If sauce around meat becomes thicker than desired, thin with a small amount of hot water. Serve with sauce remaining in casserole.

Corned Beef Casserole With Prepared Mustard (serves 4 to 6)—Slice 1-1/2 oz. corned beef finely. Place corned beef and 2 to 3 cups finely diced potatoes (3/4 inch dice) in alternate layers in buttered casserole, sprinkling with salt and pepper to taste. Blend 2 teaspoons Prepared Brown Mustard with 1 cup milk and pour over top. Cover and bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) for 1 hour. Uncover and continue baking 20 minutes.

Baked Macaroni and Ham Loaf (serves 4)—Combine 1-1/2 oz. Cooked Macaroni in Cream Sauce with Cheese, 1 cup finely chopped or ground ham, and a dash of pepper. Mix thoroughly, separating Macaroni into small pieces. Beat 2 egg yolks until thick, then add. Fold in 2 stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into a small, well-greased casserole and place casserole in pan of hot water. Bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) for 25 minutes. Serve very hot.

Ham and Macaroni Casserole (serves 4)—Place 1-1/2 oz. Cooked Macaroni in Cream Sauce with Cheese and 1 cup ground ham in alternate layers in buttered casserole, having 2 layers each of Macaroni and ham and placing a layer of Macaroni first in casserole. Mix 1/2 cup Rice Flakes with 1 tablespoon butter, melted, and sprinkle over top. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) about 20 minutes, or until well browned. Sprinkle with 2 teaspoons salt and 1/2 teaspoon pepper. Place 2 large cans Cooked

STATE RELEASES

FIRE WARNINGS

This week is Fire Prevention Week, set aside each year for consideration of the various means avoiding fires. Here are some suggestions of the State Department of Insurance:

Place stoves, furnaces and pipes far enough from walls and wood-work to avoid overheating.

Cover the nearest wooden surfaces with asbestos board, sheet iron or tin; if iron or tin is used leave an air space behind it.

When stovepipes or heating pipes pass through walls, enclose the pipes in galvanized iron, double-walled ventilated flues, at least 12 inches wider than the diameter of the pipes.

Never put kerosene into a coal or wood stove, even when the fire is out.

Never put ashes into wooden boxes or barrels; use a strong metal can.

Study the drafts and dampers.

Keep children from playing too near the fire, screen or no screen.

Be careful not to use stove polish near the fire.

Don't allow rubbish to accumulate anywhere in the home.

Always remember that you must take no chances with gasoline. It is one of the most dangerous substances in common use. It must always be kept in tightly fastened cans, never in glass bottles.

Do not use gasoline for cleaning, use a safe cleaning preparation.
