

3 GROUPS JOIN IN EDUCATION SCHOOL WEEK

Ask Advice for Replacing
Supplementary Material
Lost in Fire

Faculty members, the American Legion and the Parent Teachers' association joined forces this week in the observance of the National Education program.

Superintendent P. H. Foodick, Wyandotte, talked to the teachers in their club meeting Tuesday evening, stressing the importance of developing a sense of appreciation in the child. By illustration, he told the teachers that appreciation was often lacking because there had been no previous contact upon which to build the child's understanding.

Local Legion men in uniform attended with the high school students the assembly held here Wednesday morning when Clark Smith, Detroit, gave an Armistice Day address.

On for P. T. A.

Thursday evening the P. T. A. centered its program on "National education week." "Oiling the P. T. A. Machinery" was the topic of the talk given by the visiting speaker, Claude Brake, assistant superintendent of Wayne county schools, formerly superintendent of schools at Grosse Ile.

With a view of the state-wide educational system before him, Superintendent R. H. American commented this week on the rapidly changing picture of the schools. "Two-thirds of our school support now comes from the state," he said, pointing out that the state was attempting to equalize the educational opportunities for all children. "This is being done by paying tuition for rural high school students."

The state's latest educational project, now under consideration, includes a plan for the paying of tuition for seventh and eighth grade students who want to enter village or city schools. In Wayne county, particularly, an effort is being made to create a close correlation between the rural and village schools so that the child from the country will not be handicapped by the child from the city school. Consolidation is being urged in a number of districts throughout the state.

Speaking about Northville's course of study, Mr. American said that attempts are made from time to time to revamp the curriculum. "We are conservative to the extent that we adopt only tried and approved educational advancements when they are found to be of lasting benefit to the pupil and well within the means of the taxpayers to support."

RED CROSS FUNDS BRING BABY CLINIC HERE THIS WINTER

After two years of inactivity, the free baby clinic will be revived in Northville. It will be sponsored by the Red Cross with headquarters in the upper room of the Village Hall.

Dr. Milo Brady, a child specialist of Detroit will come out on the third Wednesday of each month and will be prepared to examine all children brought to him between 10 and 11:30 a. m. The local board of education has generously loaned the services of the school nurse, Mrs. Starr Bray, who will assist Dr. Brady.

It is not the purpose of this baby clinic to take the place of the family physician but merely to be a periodic check-up to prevent trouble. Dr. Brady will not diagnose or prescribe for the children but advises them when it is necessary to see their own physician. It has been the experience in the past that serious trouble has been averted by this early examination. The doctors of the village heartily favor this clinic and Northville mothers of young children will be fortunate to have this opportunity.

Any mothers who can not bring their children may call Mrs. E. W. Lester, chairman of the local Red Cross work for transportation. It is hoped that all mothers of children, especially of those of pre-school age, will avail themselves of this chance to know that their children are on the road to good health.

School Head Talks

"Enrollments in schools all over the country are increasing," says Superintendent P. H. Foodick. "Classroom space is at a premium in our high school. The new grade school building will ease the enrollment burden in the lower six grades for a number of years to come," he said.

ELIZABETH WITTICH RITES HELD SUNDAY

Record Correspondent Dies
at Age of 74 Following
Weeks of Illness

Final rites were held at 2:30 p. m. Sunday from the Salem Congregational church for Miss Elizabeth Wittich, 74-year-old record correspondent for the Salem column, who died Nov. 5, after an illness of several months' duration.

For many years Miss Wittich had made her home with her niece, the Rev. Lucia Stroth, pastor of the Salem Congregational church. She made a place for herself in the community and in the church, actively working in the Sunday School, the Missionary Society and the Ladies' Auxiliary Society. Weekly she wrote letters about her neighbors and village for newspapers in this area.

Born Aug. 2, 1862 in Baden, Germany, she was the youngest of five children of the Rev. Frederick J. and Pauline Wittich, the founder of one of the first colleges for women in Germany. She came to America at the age of five years with her parents who left her here until she had completed her education in American schools. Her parents made their home with her in their later years.

In 1912 she retired from active teaching, after being a private instructor for several years.

Surviving Miss Wittich are two nephews, Dr. P. B. Wittich of Minneapolis, Minn., and Frederick B. Wittich, of Detroit; six nieces, Mrs. John Drosch of Baltimore, Md., Mrs. L. J. Van of Birmingham, Mrs. Emil Heitman of Toledo, O., Miss Irma Wittich of Chicago, Mrs. Gordon Swartz of Chicago and Mrs. Stroth of Salem.

Preceding her in death were her parents, one sister, Mrs. Johanna Stamer of Baltimore, Md., who died in 1919; three brothers, Ephraim who died in 1897, the Rev. Benjamin Wittich of Detroit who died in 1918 and the Rev. Philip Wittich of Chicago, Ill., who died in 1935. A nephew, the Rev. Karl Wittich died in 1913 in Africa where he was a missionary. Another nephew, the Rev. Philip Wittich, Jr., who was the predecessor to Rev. Stroth at Salem, died in 1922.

Burial was made in the Salem Walker cemetery.

DEER HUNTERS START TREK TO COVINGTON IN UPPER PENINSULA

A group of nine deer hunters left here the past two days, headed for the upper peninsula where they will spend two weeks after the big game near Covington.

They expected to go by the way of Chicago, making a 641-mile trip. Those in the party were: Wm. E. Forney, Ed. Bakro, Fred Hicks, Don Hamilton, Arthur S. Nichols, Herman Teske, Herman Strenich and Ed. Remus of Plymouth. The Record understands that Justice Nichols is the official chaperon.

Clifford B. Turnbull and Earl Warner of the village and Walter Ware of North Adams left yesterday, headed for the deer country at Covington, upper peninsula, where they will go into camp on their "hideout."

Orlow G. Owen and Bob Lee leave Saturday to hunt deer at East Tawas.

RICHARDSON LEAVES GIFTS TO CHURCHES

Methodists, Baptists and Presbyterians Share in
$1,500 Fund

Two Protestant churches of Northville, the Methodist and the Presbyterian, have received gifts of $1000 and the Baptist church has received $500 from the estate of the late T. J. Richardson, according to the will made out by him prior to his death June 28.

Trustees of the Methodist church, meeting in a special session Tuesday evening, voted to use the gift to apply on the $6,150 mortgage on the church house which is held by Mrs. Eva Johnson, 212 North Wing street. Mrs. Johnson is giving the church a $150 discount, reducing the mortgage to an even $5,000 with the payment of $1,000.

The Presbyterians, who received from the Richardson estate a sum of $1000, met Thursday evening a few hours after the paper went to press to decide how the money should be used.

"We haven't decided definitely how we'll use the $500 given us by the late Mr. Richardson," asserted the Rev. K. S. North, pastor of the Baptist church this week. "Two proposals have been made, one to pay our insurance, the other to complete the basement. This probably won't be definitely settled until the close of our preaching mission, Nov. 22," affirmed Mr. North.

"NO KICKS" SAY LOYAL ROTARIANS

"This is klicks' day and we want every member of this club to come right out with some frank criticism," said President Wm. E. Forney in opening the program of the Rotary club Tuesday at the weekly luncheon at the Presbyterian church house.

In spite of this admonition, the "klicks" were few in number, most of the members expressing the opinion that the organization was having an unusually good year.

"We are too self-satisfied," said one of the members, "we should no longer sing," stated a second Rotarian, "we should have more home speakers," was another criticism; while several agreed that more interest should be shown by the members in the various projects of the club.

Don Yerkes was welcomed home after his month's stay in the North. While he was away his birthday occurred and the late E. C. Langstaff at the last meeting before his death placed the bouquet of flowers on the lapel of President Forney and requested that on Mr. Yerkes' return, the Rotary head make the birthday presentation. It was truly an impressive moment when Mr. Forney in appropriate words presented the customary anniversary bouquet.

Reports of the international meeting held at Windsor, Ont., Monday, were given by E. H. Lapham and E. L. Mills. Others at the gathering were Fred Forstman, Chas. A. Schoultz and James Spagnuolo.

Leslie Lee presented Cecil Giles who gave a couple of impersonations that brought much applause. Next week's program will be a musical one in charge of Mr. Lee.

HOLD FAREWELL RITES

Farewell services will be held at 2 p. m. Friday from the Scholastic parlors for Mrs. George (Edna) Vradenburg, 56, who died Tuesday evening, Nov. 10.

80 Machines Turn Out 70,000 Valves Daily; Boiler Is Under Test

New Factory Has Capacity to Produce in 24 Hours 120,000 Valves; Old Plant
Still Used for Small Parts

Plant to Run at Top Speed
This Month; 500 Men
Working in 3 Shifts

HIRE MORE LABORERS

EAST WALL WILL HAVE TO BE TAKEN OUT IN ORDER TO INSTALL BOILER

Fifty additional men have been added to the Ford factory pay roll within the last ten days, bringing the total number of men working in the old plant and in the recently completed building to 400.

"As soon as the boiler, which is now being tested in the East, is installed in the new factory, a few more men will be hired, making about 500 all together," affirmed E. M. Flaherty. "We can't move the remaining 20 machines from the old building until the boiler has been put in here," continued Mr. Flaherty. In order to get the boiler properly placed, the east wall will have to be taken out. It is expected that this can be done sometime this month.

Eighty valve machines are daily pressed for production with three shifts of men producing 70,000 valves in 24 hours. The capacity production for the new plant will be 120,000 valves every 24 hours.

All of the small valves for the new 60 horsepower V-8, scheduled to make its debut to motor conscious America, Nov. 14, are being made in the old factory building, which will be abandoned as soon as the new factory houses all the machinery. To date approximately 500,000 valves for the small engine have been made here. They have been under construction for the past two years.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN OWNED FLAG HOISTED

To the Northville Boy Scouts goes the credit for the flying of the American flag on the new pole at the village parking lot on the corner of Main and Center streets on Armistice Day.

The flag that waved over the downtown district is five by nine feet and was presented to the Scouts by Ira Thurman, local barber. It was given to Mr. Thurman by his father, Edward Thurman, a Civil War veteran, who served in Co. P, 21st Pennsylvania Cavalry. The flag was issued to the senior Mr. Thurman by the national government while he was in the government hospital at Milwaukee.

Book Week, Nov. 15-21, Finds Volumes Added to Shelves for Young Readers; Illustrations Increase Attractiveness

National Book Week will be observed in schools and libraries this year, Nov. 15-21, with the theme, "Books to grow on—the modern world for young readers."

Books which center around the national theme are being placed on the local library shelves. One such book, which will delight children with its rich color and lively story, is Madeline D. Horn's "Farm on the Hill."

A story written particularly for girls from eight to 12 years of age is "Penelope Ellen and Her Friends," by Ethel Parton.

"Susan and Arbell," by Rhoda Morris was penned for the young girl or nine year old reader, while "The Selfish Giant," by William Harper is a group of six stories for even younger children who have learned to read large type. The book is made attractive with soft color illustrations by Kate Seredy. Another book printed in large type is Armstrong Sperry's "One Day with Takti."

Like many other books designed for youth, "American Scientists," by Clarence J. Hylander, can be read with profit by older persons.

A group of books selected for boys includes "Boy on Horseback," by Lincoln Steffens, "Jack's House," by Lincoln Robinson and the "First Electrical Books for Boys," by Alfred P. Morgan.

The librarian, Mrs. B. G. Larson, has released a list of books of special interest to mothers which includes:

"Psychology of the Pre-School Child"—Baldwin.
"Child Guidance"—Blanton and Blanton.
"Seven Ages of Childhood"—Cabot.
"Guidance of Childhood and Youth"—Child Study Association of America.
"The Job of Being a Dad"—Chesley.
"Your Child Today and Tomorrow"—Greenberg.
"Human Children"—Egger.
"The Psychology of Adolescence"—Brooks.
"Psychology of the Pre-School Child"—Baldwin.
"Nutrition Work with Children"—Roberts.
"Talks to Mothers"—Patri.
"Mothers and Children"—Fisher.
"When Children Err"—Harrison.

STRAY BULLET HITS BALDWIN, FRACTURES RIB

Record Editor Victim of Shot
Fired from Boy Scouts'
Rifle Range

R. T. Baldwin, Northville Record editor, was the victim shortly after 9 p. m. Wednesday of a bullet from a 22 caliber rifle which was shot from the Boy Scout shooting gallery, in the Elliott building on Main street.

He was rushed to the Atchison private hospital where an examination revealed that the bullet had lodged in the second rib in his right side, fracturing it and causing a loss of blood, but preventing the lung from being penetrated. An X-ray shows that the bullet, after entering Mr. Baldwin's back, traveled a course of eight inches to be imbedded in a front rib.

The shot which hit Mr. Baldwin was the fifteenth bullet to go astray fired from the rifle range by a group of young business men, who were patronizing the Boy Scout booth which has been in operation since the Harvest Festival, Oct. 30. Six of the bullets came through the glass window at the top of the large door at the rear of The Record building, five of them went through a second door which was swinging open from the basement stairs. Mr. Baldwin was hit just as he emerged from the basement, having banked the furnace as he prepared to leave the office for the night.

Shortly before Mr. Baldwin went to the basement, Frank D. Hart, shop foreman, came to the front office to report that bullets could be heard hitting The Record wall. He rushed into the Elliott building to have the shooting stopped just as the bullet that hit Mr. Baldwin was fired.

A large sheet of boiler plate, used as a backstop, fell to the floor, permitting the barrage of shots to go through the wall to penetrate the doors at the rear of The Record shop.

According to Orlow G. Owen, Scout Executive, the rifle range will be abandoned immediately. It was suggested for the purpose of raising funds for the Boy Scout building.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Vanatta have received word that their son, Ward, a senior at Michigan State college has had the honor of being elected to the honorary fraternity, Tau Beta Pi. One upper division of the upper 25 per cent are eligible to this fraternity, and of the 40 students in the engineering department only four were elected.

Ward is taking a course in civil engineering and passed the rigorous examinations very creditably. He was graduated from the Northville high school in 1932 and was president of his class.

Ward is now president of the Officers' club and chairman of the Water Carnival which is the big event on the campus next spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Vanatta are proud of the record of both of their sons. Foster having also been a member of Tau Beta Pi when he was a student in Michigan State.

Editor R. T. Baldwin is recovering today in a local hospital from a bullet wound received Wednesday evening. The shot was fired from the Boy Scout range in the Elliott building, penetrating three doors to hit Mr. Baldwin as he came from the basement of The Record building.

CHIEF GIVES CAR LIGHT WARNING

Drivers Asked to Test Horns and Brakes—Local Police
Ready to Enforce Law

Cooperating with the Michigan state police in their safety project, Chief William H. Safford announced today that he was going to enforce all driving regulations in an effort to assist in the state-wide campaign against accidents.

"All motorists are expected to check their cars immediately to see that lights, brakes and horns are in proper working order. This is a warning to the general public. If a driver is caught driving with only one light the local police department can crack to see if he has cooperated by having his lights tested recently at a service garage," affirmed Chief Safford.

A check was made Oct. 3, on Northville's day walkers by the state police. The survey, which was made on the corner of Center and Main streets, reveals that 69 per cent of the pedestrians caused the intersection with the light. (This count included a check on 194 men and 175 women. Day walkers who crossed the street against the light were men in 103 cases and women in 85 of the cases observed here.)

The state reports that last year 179 accidents occurred in Michigan when pedestrians crossed intersections against the signal. Seventy-one of these were fatal. Diagonal cross-roads for the Boy Scout building.

RURAL DISTRICTS GET FLAGS FROM LEGION

Flags made by the WPA are being distributed today by local Legion men to eight rural schools, including Thayer, DeKay, Waterford, Hinman, Base Line, Briggs, Pierson and Wilcox.

This project is one of the most far reaching patriotic movements ever attempted in Michigan. Three state organizations have joined forces in bringing to each rural school room in Michigan an American flag.

Under the guidance of the State department of the American Legion, the Michigan Works Progress Administration has completed the manufacture of nearly 8,000 flags. The flags are made of cotton bunting, dyed in the Bay City project center of a material that will permit the flag to be used indoors and displayed on the walls of the school rooms of the state. They are manufactured in Grand Rapids.

Today every school room in the state will be visited by a group of Legion men and Legion Auxiliary representatives. A short ceremony will precede the presentation of the flags.

Coming during the week of the celebration of the Armistice that closed the actual fighting of the World War, the Legionnaires will make this pilgrimage into the rural schools with the thought of peace and a continued hope that the Legion post will not be called upon to bear arms.

GRADE SCHOOL WILL GUARD PUPILS' HEALTH

Moving Day Will Be Late in December—Install
Modern Equipment

Attention is focused during National Education Week on Northville's $85,000 grade school building which is rapidly nearing completion and plans are going forward for the moving day scheduled late in December.

The design for the new building is simple and practical with the health of the child being foremost in the minds of the board of education and of the architects, Lyndon and Smith of Detroit.

Protect Eyes.

In order to assure protection of the pupils' eyes, an approved lighting system has been developed. An entire side of each classroom is window space, the northern exposure giving diffused, rather than direct light.

Filtered ventilation fans installed to eliminate dirt, dust and smoke are included in the building plans. All lighting fixtures were selected with the advice of the Detroit Edison company. The well-lighted corridors and toilet rooms and floors with good grade linoleum coverings, which are to be kept waxed, make sanitation the keynote of the plans.

Buy Modern Seats.

Adjustable seats with movable units, highly adaptable to classroom needs, will be used in all the rooms, thus adding attempts made to give each child correct posture.

"When we get into the new building, classes can go back to the full time schedule for all children," affirmed Superintendent R. H. American.

The library and auditorium facilities will provide opportunities for self expression in art, music, operettas, plays and various group activities. By this means we plan to provide a well-rounded series of educational experiences for the child," concluded Mr. American.

VETERANS STOPPED WAR, SMITH TELLS ASSEMBLY STUDENTS

Stressing the fact that the veterans did not start the World War, but that they stopped it, Clark Smith, commander of the Denley Post, Detroit, and chairman of the subscription activities for Wayne county, spoke Wednesday morning to the high school assembly.

"Europe today is an armed camp, and though the world is weary of strife the camp fires of war's advance guard flame on many fronts in Europe and in Asia," asserted Mr. Smith, who directed his entire talk to bringing before Northville's youth the seriousness of the world situation.

"Germany and France watch each other with eyes in which the light of friendship does not burn. Poland trembles between fear and hate, trapped in a deadly vise between Russia and Germany. As Japan's conquest expands in China, Russia prepares to meet the advancing forces of the Mikado. There are more men under arms today than there were in 1914. Belgium prepares to withdraw from mutual aid pacts, while peaceful Switzerland and Czechoslovakia fortify their frontiers," he continued.

According to Mr. Smith, the most important question before this nation today is how to avoid being involved in another European war without sacrificing that which we will never surrender—our national honor and prestige. Disarmament and international covenants have failed.

"Today the American Legion offers another way, a three-fold plan: First, the establishment and maintenance of an adequate national defense, not to foster war but to make the probability of war more remote by discouraging aggression against us; second, the enforcement of stringent neutrality laws to keep us out of other nations' quarrels; and third, the demilitarization of war to equalize the burdens of conflict if it must come and to remove a source of much of the propaganda for war," affirmed the speaker.

"THE ERA OF GOOD FEELING" MAY COME

It was back in 1820 that the United States had what history calls "The Era of Good Feeling." Now that President Roosevelt has been given his second term by the most nearly unanimous vote since 1820, would it not be a fine thing if his second term should bring in another period of good will? The country needs it, the people are sick of fighting and of bitter criticism.

We think the president would like to have his second—and last, for he says he will not seek a third term—administration to be one that will be remembered for a uniting of our citizens, from coast to coast, in a great four years of upward march toward the "abundant life" for all of our people. It is most encouraging to note that last week Roosevelt gave his promise that every effort will be made to balance the budget within a year or two. If that is done, it will do much to appease many thoughtful students of government who have seen real danger in the pyramiding of our national debt.

There is every reason—except the situation in Europe—why we should have an era of great prosperity and content ahead for the next few years. The great emergencies of 1933 and 1934 are past and there is, therefore, no need for the radical experiments that were started by the New Deal only later to be invalidated by the Supreme Court. From our reading and observation we take it that President Roosevelt is a moderate liberal, who has leaned just a bit to the "left of center." It would be unfortunate of course, if the radicals and extreme liberals, who practically all supported the president in the campaign, should gain too much influence with the administration. We want no more of European experiments under the hands of men like Tugwell and Frankfurter.

Let the new era of good will come. Our hearts and souls, as well as our pocketbooks, need it.

WE THANK OUR DEMOCRATIC FRIENDS

The Northville Record wishes to thank all those who opposed its political editorial policy, the past few weeks. The local democrats have been very patient and charitable with us and we are proud of the fact that the whole campaign and election passed without a single disagreeable word with any of our readers. We thank them all, Postmaster Fred VanAtta, "Mike" Murphy, Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston, Dr. E. B. Cavell, Lester Stape, Chas. Sessions and all down the line.

We felt very deeply and sincerely about some of the issues of the campaign, yet we were ethical enough in the publishing of this home town newspaper to keep most of our editorial ideas in the editorial column, where they belong. We made every effort in the writing of local news to keep from "editorializing" on the political situation. We have no right to "color" our news and some very influential local democrats have told us that our news department is very fine and has kept away from politics. As far as we know, we had only one "stop" of the home newspaper because of politics and of course, had many new subscribers come in during the past few months. People who stop a newspaper just because its editorial columns don't agree with their view simply "spite themselves" and often work an injustice on their families who need the home paper for lots of reasons.

We want to say again that the columns of The Record are always open for the discussion, by our readers, of any topic. We wish we had more such contributions—they help a community in its forward march of progress. Names will not be signed, if requested, but of course anonymous letters have no standing in any good newspaper office. Write us a letter—your community may get good from it. We are all here to help Northville.

HE TOOK DEFEAT WITH "HEAD UNBOWED"

For a very fine Northville young man, the republican defeat of November 3 meant the loss of his job. Losing an election and losing your bread and butter ticket are two different things, so it is a real pleasure to run the following letter which came to us a few days ago from a good democratic friend who appreciated and wanted to recognize the good sportsmanship of this man. Here is the letter:

November 4, 1936

Dear Mr. Baldwin:

Now that the fury of election is over and we are gradually getting back to normal, I wonder if you noticed the following:

How a former Northville high school athlete who not only starred in school but also in athletics around these parts took the defeat of his party in the election just past. It meant the loss of his job.

I watched him carefully and he played his political game cleanly and honestly as he always played in athletics. If his former coaches could have seen him Wednesday morning with his chin up and smiling they could have well assured themselves that at least his athletic training at Northville high had been a success. This boy took defeat like he did after a tough ball game. He was satisfied he gave his best and lost; what more could be said?

THE REPUBLICANS CAN'T COMPLAIN

Among the various factors that gave President Roosevelt his smashing victory was the "full dinner pail" argument. Times are better than they were in 1932—no sensible person denies that. Business is very much on the up-grade—we have heard no one deny that. Millions and millions have been helped by the New Deal in one way or another and these millions voted their appreciation—probably a lot of us stiff-necked republicans would have done the same thing had the administration given us a job, saved our home or handed us an AAA check. Gratitude is really a fine human trait.

The republicans can't "kick" about the morality of winning on the "full dinner pail" appeal. That is the way they have won some notable victories. "Business on the boom" and smoke rolling out of all the smoke stacks certainly gave McKinley, Harding and Coolidge their lop-sided victories. It may be bad to have elections settled this way but that is just the way it is done. Let's be frank and admit the corn.

GOSSIP IS A GOOD THING

Editor Schuyler L. Marshall of St. Johns in his editorial column defends gossip. That is, he defends the kind of gossip that you don't have to lower your voice to give. In other words, we all talk about each other. It would be silly to say we didn't. Like the St. Johns scribe, we have never seen any harm in talking about folks, even behind their back, provided that our talking is based on truth and fact and is not vicious. Was it Horace Greely, the great newspaper man, who once said: "The thing of most importance to any one is himself; and the matter of next most important concern is his neighbor?" Isn't that so? Let's keep up our gossiping but keep it so interesting and fine that the person about whom we are talking might come in and say: "That's right; I think that about myself."

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

1 YEAR AGO

Mrs. Fred Foreman, 63, died, after a long illness, at her home, where she has lived for many years, Nov. 9. With a total of 72 ballots cast, the public expressed its approval of the proposed school addition at the election held last Thursday, Nov. 7, in the high school auditorium.

The Northville Civic association decided last Thursday night to further promote holiday store decorations among its members in cooperation with the Exchange club.

Nelson Schrader left this week on the Los Angeles trip which is being made by the Michigan State football team. He is one of the 33 men who were chosen as members of the squad who will meet Loyola University of Los Angeles.

Miss Eva Morgan, daughter of Mrs. Frederick Morgan, and Bert Rutenbar, son of Mrs. Mary Rutenbar, were married at a quiet ceremony performed in Toledo Saturday, Nov. 2.

5 YEARS AGO

The Legion scored another triumph Wednesday night when their annual Armistice Day dance held at the Northville high school was attended by approximately 100 couples.

Fourteen members of the Northville Rotary club invaded Windsor Monday noon to attend an international meeting of 300 Rotarians from clubs in Michigan and the province of Ontario.

A saving of approximately $1900 without decreasing the enrollment has been effected in the operation of Northville public schools through the elimination of several wasteful processes including meagerly attended classes, extra teachers and too large a force of janitors.

A very delightful social event was the Sunshine shower given in honor of Mrs. Arthur Stalker at the home of Mrs. Jack Taylor in Plymouth. Mrs. Harold Bicom was also hostess and the 18 young women present were close friends or the guest of honor during her three years of teaching in our public schools.

Four more "mighty Nimrods" have shouldered their guns and fled them to the northern woods for deer. Walter Ware, Clifford E. Turnbull, Bob Lee and Herb Woosac have gone to Covington in the northern peninsula.

10 YEARS AGO

The new banking offices of the Northville State Savings bank were formally opened to the public last Saturday, and during the day and evening nearly 2,000 persons visited the new building and viewed with great pleasure and pride its spaciousness and beauty.

On Thursday, Nov. 4, the freshmen and sophomores had a debate. The members of the freshman team were Marjorie Scholtz, Foster VanAtta and James Huff.

S. A. Lorewell, N. C. Schrader, E. B. Cavell, A. A. Holcomb and Vernon Spencer left Thursday morning for Kenton in the upper peninsula, where they will spend two weeks on a hunting expedition.

Our Lady of Victory church has purchased the Sterart residence adjoining the church property in Orchard Heights. Rev. Father Joseph Schuler will soon move to the newly acquired property.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Ambler moved into their handsome new residence on Rogers street last Saturday.

15 YEARS AGO

John Finn and company, who have had the contract for the erection of the Detroit Tuberculosis sanatorium, located in the beautiful wooded hills west of Northville, turned the building over to the authorities of the city of Detroit on Monday, having completed with the contract.

Mrs. Lee Shipley entertained 13 little folks on Friday of last week in honor of her little son, Richard, the occasion being his sixth birthday. Those present were Bernice Clark, Aileen Richardson, Dorothy Heatley, Gertrude Deal, Pauline Masters, Mary Harper, Phyllis Flaherty, Werner Neal, Donald Bell, Spencer VanValkenburg, Jack Harper, George Harper, Billy Stage, Jack Maherty, Merle Fraser, Jack Lyke and Robert Lyke.

The first snow of the season came during Saturday night. Heavy snow visited this entire section Tuesday afternoon and night, covering everything under a mantle of about six inches of "the beautiful."

At the dance to be given by the American Legion this evening the village will present a flag to the local post. President Bogart will make the presentation in behalf of the council and citizens.

Chrysanthemums, ferns and autumn leaves decorated the home of Professor and Mrs. Wellington Roberts Friday evening in honor of the marriage of Miss Anne Ashton of Liverpool, England, and Harry O. Warner, professor of electrical engineering in the University of Detroit.

20 YEARS AGO

The first fatal automobile accident of which a citizen of Northville was the victim, occurred early Saturday evening, Nov. 4, when Milton B. Burrows received injuries which resulted in his death a short time later. He was returning from Detroit when his car collided with another automobile which had stopped on account of the approach of an electric car. The violence of the impact overturned both cars, crushing Mr. Burrows between the steering gear and the dash of his machine.

The largest check that has ever been figured in the financial history of Northville was the one for $36,000 given the village by the Edison company last week in payment for the electric lighting plant.

Miss Gladys Morse of Detroit, formerly a Northville girl, celebrated her birthday on Oct. 27, by marrying Ralph Ford, Dearborn.

The library has recently received a gift of several books from Mrs. Alice Stone.

Aeroplane manufactured in Detroit are being sent out on trial trips nowadays, so if you see one hovering over Northville, don't be scared into thinking it is a threatening visitor from Europe.

30 YEARS AGO

A pretty wedding occurred Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Werner when their eldest daughter, Bertha, was united in marriage to George F. Ziesler of Sand Hill by the Rev. Martin of the Farmington German church.

Charles Landins has sold his farm west of the village to John Cleaver of Livonia.

The democrats didn't do so badly in Wayne county in the last election. They get the mayor of Detroit which in salary and patronage is better than the governorship of Michigan and besides that they lug off two of the county offices, the sheriff and prosecutor. One of these days the republican party will wake up to the fact that the country part of Wayne county is to be reckoned with.

SOIL NOT NEEDED TO GROW PLANTS, SAYS PILLSBURY

Arthur C. Pillsbury, explorer and scientist, will tell his audience how to grow flowers and vegetables without soil and reveal an inexpensive chemical formula for doing it, when he speaks on "New Miracles of Nature" with motion pictures in natural color, at 3:30 p. m. Sunday at the Detroit Institute of Arts, Nov. 15. From small tanks of water treated with less than a dollar's worth of chemicals Mr. Pillsbury has grown tomato plants 25 feet high, and shown how to increase an acre's potato yield from 104 bushels to from 2,000 to 3,000 bushels. With a new film he will demonstrate every phase of growing flowers and vegetables from seed to harvest, including the inexpensive formula and how to mix it.

Mr. Pillsbury's films will deal with the beginnings of life, the making of flowers, the motion picture story of pollen and aspirogyra, the life cycle of flowers and vegetables from germination to fruition. By means of polarized light photography he will reveal the astonishing activities that go on within a drop of water.

Homemaker's Corner

By MRS. EDITOR

"Perhaps it's embarrassment that makes him do such strange things," suggested an older woman to a mother who was puzzled at her boy's strange actions. "Perhaps he just feels awkward and says and does the wrong thing without understanding why."

Embarrassment, just plain embarrassment, might explain lots of strange actions. The "cocky" assurance of that callow youth who intrudes his opinion on every side may be merely a fortress of defense for a deep-seated awareness of his limitations.

That woman who seems snobbish and ungraciousness may be just "short" with her friends because of embarrassment. That quiet, reserved friend who returns only the curtest responses is often misunderstood as aloof and "high hat," yet she may confide to her closest intimates that she is too embarrassed to talk but wishes she could.

We know a woman who seemed "crabby" and angular. Folks did not enjoy having her around. Years later we learned that underneath her crusty exterior there beat a kindly heart that longed to know how to act graciously.

Quite the opposite is the too talkative woman who blurts out her strange remarks just for the embarrassed feeling that something ought to be said—and said at once. So usually it's the wrong thing she says.

Embarrassment may be the "upsettin' sin" of many a person who would be judged more kindly if folks understood.

ATTACK FATAL TO G. BARNES

George Barnes, patriarch of Michigan newspaper publishers, for nearly half a century editor of the Livingston County Republican, still active at the age of 90, died at his home in Howell Wednesday, Nov. 4. He had suffered a heart attack on Sunday and had turned in his usual copy for the current week's issue on Friday.

Mr. Barnes was a veteran of the Civil War. At the close of that conflict he completed his primary education, attended State Normal college later earning his B. A. and M. A. degrees at the University of Michigan. After several years as a teacher, he entered the newspaper field where he has served with distinction and honors.

Mr. Barnes was prominent in publisher and journalistic circles, was regarded as a philosopher and brilliant editorial writer. Human Interest Briefs From Exchange Columns

Birmingham—In an effort to aid the mothers of the community in the care and feeding of their children a Better Health, Baby conference, sponsored by the board of health was introduced last week in the Municipal building. —Birmingham Eclectic.

St. Johns—Stunned by the second double fatality to be visited upon their community within the short space of 10 days, the people of Elsie and vicinity last Thursday attended last rites for Mrs. William Wright, 60, Elsie, and her daughters, 35, who were fatally burned shortly after noon Sunday, Nov. 1, in an explosion at the Dunham home, three miles northwest of the village on the Luther Randall farm in Duplain township. —Clinton County Republican News.

Birmingham—Following his examination in court last Wednesday at Pontiac, Dale Carter, 18-year-old Troy township youth, was bound over to Circuit Court on charges of leaving the scene of an accident, assault with intent to go great bodily harm and felonious assault, after Miss Lois Quick, student nurse at the Pontiac State hospital, accused him of running her down with his automobile. —Birmingham Eclectic.

Redford—The body of an unidentified man was found floating in the Rouge River Saturday, Oct. 23, by two young boys, William White, 14, 1972 Farmington drive, and Robert Allen, 14, 8337 Ellsworth, who were walking along the river bank. Unable to find any sort of identification on his body, police removed the body to the county morgue. The man was between 55 and 60 years of age. —Redford Record.

Romeo—A voter since the days of Abe Lincoln, Will Gray, 87, jaunted briskly Tuesday morning to his voting booth and cast his ballot for Alf Landon. "I've always voted republican," he declared, "because I think the republicans are better men and do what they say they will do." His man was defeated. —Mount Clemens Monitor.

Mount Clemens—If the proposed Macomb County Historical Museum fails to materialize due to the indifference of a large and select group of county pioneers who have pledged their whole-hearted support, it will die because its leader, Frederick G. Bromm, silver-haired exponent of the finest things in life, died Wednesday, Nov. 4, in St. Joseph hospital. —Mount Clemens Monitor.

Lake Orion—Joseph A. Jorman, well known Oakland county resident and for many years a businessman in Oxford, died Sunday afternoon, Nov. 1, at the Pontiac General hospital following an illness of four days from heart ailment. —Orion Weekly Review.

Farmington—Crashing into a tree when his car left U. S. 16 west of New Hudson last Friday morning, Harry Calkins of Farmington received injuries that proved fatal later in the day at Mellus hospital. His skull was fractured, his leg broken and he had other severe injuries. —Milford Times.

Farmington—Thrown a distance of 50 feet against a filling station, Mrs. Elsie Miller, 35, Greening boulevard, died at 1:45 p. m. last Thursday at the Redford Receiving hospital from critical injuries she received in a collision at Orchard Lake and Twelve Mile roads early Wednesday evening. —Farmington Enterprise.

Ann Arbor—One of those who voted in Tuesday's election in West-taw county and relished the opportunity to participate in the selection of officers to administer the affairs of a county that his family had an important part in developing was Albert Nordman, 76-year-old Ann Arbor violin maker. Members of the Nordman family have participated in county affairs for the last 110 years, ever since Cottob Nordman, a professor of languages in Berlin, came to Ann Arbor in 1826 and the next year erected a log cabin in Lima township on land obtained from the government. —Washtenaw Post-Tribune.

Walled Lake News

ANNUAL COMMUNITY FAIR IS SUCCESS

The largest attendance in its history marked the twelfth annual school and community fair as a most successful event, from the standpoint of interest displayed.

The fair, following the custom established in past years, featured the exhibit of agricultural and home economics projects which are a part of the regular courses in the vocational curriculum of the school. The degree of progress attained in the teaching of these activities was much in evidence. Specimens displayed in produce, clothing and home furnishings were a credit not only to the exhibitors but the school itself.

Great interest was taken in the entertainment features of both days. Thursday evening featured the grade school operetta, "Poin Serenader," which included a cast of 21 and a chorus of 135. Friday afternoon's highlight was the football game between Walled Lake and Clarkston, which resulted in a victory for Walled Lake, by a score of 21 to 0. The junior and senior plays were presented Friday evening to a capacity audience. The movies as presented by the tenth grade were well patronized, as were the various booths and the cafeteria.

Judges for the fair exhibits found considerable difficulty in awarding premiums Friday afternoon, inasmuch as there seemed to be so little difference in the unusual merit of each display.

The Whom school received first prize of $4 for the best exhibit of farm produce by a rural school. The Eagle school was awarded second prize of $2.

Premiums for the best individual exhibits of vegetables went to Wesley Bachelor, who received $1, and to Jack Keenor, who was given 50 cents.

There were 161 other premium awards.

FESTIVAL READY

The annual harvest festival as presented by the women of the Methodist church will be held in the church basement, Friday, Nov. 13, beginning at 2 p. m.

A wide variety of articles will be on display and for sale, including vegetables, canned goods, baked goods, candy, fancy work and miscellaneous articles.

Contributions for the festival will be received any time after 10 a. m. Friday, but before 2 o'clock, if possible.

Chairmen of the committees have been announced as follows: Vegetables, Mrs. Earl Parris; baked goods, Mrs. Fred Thayer; canned goods, Mrs. Earl Skarritt; candy, Mrs. Harold Tripp and Mrs. P. C. McKibben; miscellaneous and fancy work, Mrs. Minnie M. Eutton; program, Mrs. E. V. Mercer.

The committee on refreshments will be Mrs. J. A. Devereaux and Mrs. Bruce Dickie. They plan to serve sandwiches, pastries, hot and cold drinks.

A musical program is being planned to take place throughout the evening.

MRS. PEARL ANDREWS

Mrs. H. P. (Pearl) Andrews, 60 years old, died at 9:30 a. m. Saturday, at her home.

She was born at Milford, Nov. 19, 1875. She had resided at Walled Lake for the past 38 years.

Mrs. Andrews is survived by her husband and a sister, Mrs. Alta Maryjenny.

The funeral service was held at the Andrews residence at 2 p. m. Tuesday, with burial being made at Milford. The Rev. Yahn of the Milford Baptist church officiated.

NORTHVILLE DEFEATS TRENTON IN DEBATE

Local Team Takes Negative on Utilities Issue: Win Again on Delivery.

At the high school auditorium, Friday, Nov. 6, the Northville debate team won a decisive victory over Trenton in the second meet of the season.

Northville took the negative side on the question. Resolved: That all electric utilities should be governmentally owned and operated. R. H. Amerman, who presided, first called an affirmative speaker, Marjorie Bates, Mary Jane Metz and Roy Castello made up the Trenton team.

Margaret Van Bellefont, Nan McLoughlin and Scott Cole represented Northville, and presented their arguments well and successfully for the affirmative side.

Dr. Russell Courtwright, who was judge of the debate, said during his summing up that the deciding factors for the Northville debaters were their delivery and the clearness with which their side was presented.

SINGERS PRACTICE FOR CONCERT HELD FRIDAY, NOV. 20

Too much soprano, not enough alto, and no tenor, plus a generous sprinkling of bass, equalled the choir practice the other Wednesday evening. Leslie G. Lee had quite a time trying to get one section to balance and blend with the other. He even had the surprising experience of giving the signal, raising his baton, and the only music issuing from the piano.

The sopranos seem to have a difficult time reaching the high notes all at once, or even reaching them. Their director was heard to say, "The sopranos can't reach the high notes even when they're lost."

It's too bad we can't have the tenors sing a solo. They sing beautifully alone. But enter the sopranos and the tenors all get kind-hearted and hurry to help them out, forgetting that there ever was separate tenor part.

For the most part, though, the concert promises to be a good one, and Cecil Giles should be complimented for his grand work on his solo.

COOKING CLASSES SERVE BREAKFAST

Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman's eighth grade economics class is now studying breakfast menus. The class is divided into family groups of six each. Three of the hostesses are Marilyn Carell, Betty Hollis and Betty Cousins. Each girl has a certain task of either serving or preparing the food. One of their menus is: sections of oranges, cream of wheat, scrambled eggs, toast and cocoa.

The seventh grade sewing class members have just finished towels and are starting their cooking aprons. The second year class is making robes. The twelfth graders have started their second projects—making dresses. The dress can be made of any desirable material and style. They will start their graduation dresses soon after the second semester.

GRADE NOTES

Mrs. I. B. Cooke's junior high was very busy last week working on their paper, to be published this week. The articles, poems and drawings are all written by the junior high. The staff consists of Barbara Spicer, chief editor; Jane Behen, Helen Dixon, Betty Lou Hollis, Betty Barry, Ruth Mary Mills and Louis Eaton. The artists for the paper are Harold Fritz and Robert Hunter.

Miss Florence Harper's seventh grade geography class was awed very much by the scenes of the Grand Canyon and Alaska last Thursday. They were grateful to Dick Davis who willingly consented to bring his motion picture machine, which showed the film.

Miss Harper's eighth grade Michigan government class is taking imaginary trips in Michigan. They are writing stories on their trips and illustrating them with time tables, weather charts, maps and many other interesting things.

Do you lack for Jacks or Elizabeths in your room? If so blame it on the kindergarten for they claim three Jacks and three Elizabeths.

Who said you had to be 21 to vote? Miss Annie Richards and her kindergarten evidently didn't know about it, for they voted last week.

Miss Nora Wilson's second graders are fast becoming our future authors. Last week they wrote two original stories and illustrated them with pictures. The stories and illustrations were neatly arranged to make very attractive posters.

School Books Are Repaired Under WPA Wayne County Library Project; Small Charge Made By Four Workers

Probably most of you have noticed a heap of books on the library floor every so often. If you are a boy, you have helped carry books back and forth between the school and the house next to the fire hall where these books are being repaired.

This work is being done by one of the numerous Wayne County Library W. P. A. projects which are working all over the county in the public schools. The four workers who are repairing our books are saving the school quite a sum of money, as they charge only ten cents for each book repaired, while commercial book-binders charge 50 cents or more.

The workers in this group have been in this particular division about a year and have made over books in the following schools: Plymouth, Starkweather, Hough, Cherry Hill, Canton Center, Sartell, Thayer, Waterford, Brass, Base Lane and Delray. Mrs. A. C. Burton is their immediate superior and Miss Lolita Dawson of the Detroit Wayne County Library is head of all these projects. The tools are furnished by the county.

Among the many articles necessary in each worker's kit-bag are scissors, awls, needles, pencil, paste, endpapers, vellum and book wax. Each repairer is required to finish work on 35 or more books daily, which means working at top speed, utilizing every movement and minute.

When the books come back to the school, their marls are erased, tears mended, corners filled, but loose pages secured, and if necessary, they have new backs and covers.

The Northville high school A Capella choir will give its first concert of the year at 8 p. m., Nov. 20, in the gymnasium, under the direction of Leslie G. Lee.

The choir is the largest Northville has ever had. There are 65 students who will appear in the concert of which 33 are new this year. Because of this large number of performers, the concert will be given in the gymnasium as the stage in the auditorium will not accommodate a group of this size.

Extremely attractive dark green robes are being made for each choir member by Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman and the sewing classes. In some cases, however, the girls are making their own. The robes greatly add to the appearance of the choir and will not be as severe as the former black ones. The boys' and girls' robes differ only in the addition of white collars for the girls.

The program is quite distinctive. Mr. Lee's bellows, in the variety of numbers it offers. A group of Russian church anthems slow and majestic; several old English Madrigals, which are of a light nature and sung very fast; and two modern songs by Christensen will be followed by a group of old familiar songs closing the program. About one-half of the program will be sung unaccompanied.

The Girls' Glee club will sing the piece at this concert. These girls have been meeting during school hours which has given them much more practice this year. Doris Tewksbury will accompany both choir and glee club.

One of the talented Northville pianists, Lucille Lapham, will play two solos, an invention by Bach and Chopin's Minute Waltz.

There will be no admission, not a collection will be taken during the evening.

Salesman: "Are there any more questions?"

Lady: "Yes, is this car equipped with tires that make a noise when they go flat—so I'll know?"

'ROUND THE SCHOOL

Well, now that the election is over, things ought to be good and peaceful up here at the school, but unfortunately the halls are in more of a hubbub than they were when every good republican and democrat was campaigning. Why? The yo-yo's back in town! What? Don't you know about the yo-yo? It's an elusive piece of wood fastened by a string, and with the simple method of pulling the string, and with a twist of the wrist, the yo-yo goes up and down.

It was last spring that the craze hit the school, but it is back this fall with far more ardent devotees than ever before. Going through the halls has become an adventure only the most daring will take. Somewhere along the perilous route, a yo-yo or a sure to be. They even get in small groups, with somebody yo-yoing in the center. It's really surprising at the tricks that can be done.

GLASS PLYMOUTH MEN TODAY HOME GAME

Friday, at the Park, will not only be the final game of the year, but also the height of the season. Northville's closest rival, Plymouth, will be met on the field and the game will be, as always, the most exciting and the hardest fought game of the year.

All the football men have worked hard, and every one is eligible for this game.

Plymouth will probably use a passing attack for gaining yardage, because Coach Elliott Barr thinks our line is strong enough to hold them. Northville will probably use that line to gain her yardage.

This is the last game for a good many senior fellows. They've fought hard in all their games, but their spirit has reached a new height for this, their last game. They're going to give everything to overcome Plymouth in the last game of their high school career. There will be substitutes ready and waiting for each position, so work in practice will be greatly increased. Nine out of the eleven starting players will be seniors. They are marked with an "S".

GOOD BYE, MRS. ZIMMERMAN

Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman, the domestic science teacher, is leaving the faculty this week after having taught here since 1920.

She saw a great many of us through not only the gentler arts of sewing and cooking but also seventh grade English.

The school wishes to thank her for her patient teaching, and to hope that she has an enjoyable trip.

The undisputed yo-yo champion for all weights and sizes, is Walter Barchiding, new to the school, but definitely a superior yo-yo-er. Walter can hold an entire group of students and teachers spell bound as he pops his instrument up and down.

This yo-yoing isn't confined to the masculine contingent, however. Some of our fairer damsel may be seen attempting to master the art. It'll be a long time, however, before they ever equal the stronger sex.

On the basis of the above, we think it is only fair to give the weekly orchid to Walter, because of his remarkable yo-yo ability.

Today is the Plymouth game, you all know. If ever we had to win a football game we have to win this. The entire faculty and student body is expected to be there to give the team some real backing. If we don't see you there—woe to you! Let's show Plymouth some real fight!

COST OF TEAMS TOLD BY COUNCIL

Officials, Equipment Add to Expense of Supporting Local Eleven.

BY MARGARET WALKER

There are 25 players on the football squad and one properly outfitted football player costs approximately $25 a year. Figure it out, if you don't believe me: Helmet, $3 to $10; shoulder pads, $3 to $8; jersey, $3 to $5; pants, $3 to $10. And besides this the players have to buy their own shoes and socks.

One improperly outfitted football player cost anywhere from 50 cents to $5, and equals no helmet, probably no shoulder pads, a well-worn jersey, and pants, shoes, and socks of the players' own creation. Result: the hospital would do a much better business than it is doing now.

A basketball player costs a little less, from $12 to $14 a man and there are 25 men on the team, including the regulars and the reserves. Their jerseys cost from $5 to $7; pants, $1.40 to $3. Their warm-up suits—pants, $2 to $5; coats, $3 to $7. The players buy their own shoes. It is possible, of course, to outfit a team for less money but it adds to a player's confidence to know that he looks nice, and, after all, you have to have confidence to win a game.

With fifteen men on the baseball squad, a man costs $10 a year; fifteen track men cost $3 each. We could have a baseball and track team a lot cheaper but the players would probably all be dressed differently and Northville high would be on the receiving end of many sneers and much ridicule for sending out a team that looked like the "Gas House Boys" or the "Boiler Factory Bunch."

Officials, transportation to away games, footballs, basketballs, baseballs, and medical materials equal about $300 a year.

So there you have it. If you can do it any cheaper, tell us how and relieve our poor, over-worked student council members.

STUDENTS URGED TO ATTEND PROM ON NOVEMBER 27

BY MARJORIE CHASE

We do hope you are all coming to the senior prom! You simply must, and we will tell you why. First, you'll have a simply gorgeous time. How can you help it? If you know how to dance, well, promise the orchestra will be grand, and if you don't, there's no time like the present to learn.

Anyhow, come and enjoy the decorations we're going to have. They will knock you for a loop and you may find yourself doing the Balboa (or what ever the latest dance whirl is) when you didn't think you knew it. Surroundings can affect you such as you know. Dances around here are often sort of shy of boys, and we never could figure out why, because there always is punch and we thought the way to a boy's heart is through his stomach, or was it by red finger nail polish? So all you boys come, and bring the one and only. If another fellow got here first bring someone else's. There's always a balm in revenge you know.

Now to return to the afore mentioned reason's for coming. The senior's need your support in a big way. Why we simply have to go to Washington! It's such an important place, and really should be part of our education. You wouldn't deny us so important a thing as our education, would you? The price is only $1.25 and look at what you get for your money! A good dance orchestra, unusual decorations, the best of refreshments, and a glimpse at the newest trend in fashions, for the girls will have for the most part new dresses and will look their loveliest.

Now for you doubtfuls, we have a fine list of chaperones: Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Amerman, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Turnbull, Mr. and Mrs. Sherrill W. Ambler, Mr. and Mrs. J. Casterline, Mr. and Mrs. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. George Simmons, Mrs. Jean Cole, Miss Geraldine Huff and Mrs. Ida B. Cooke. Can't you see there's no way to get out of it. So get busy, boys, and line up the dates for the senior prom, Nov. 27, and the hours are from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m.

NORTHVILLE LOSES LAST LEAGUE GAME

BY JACK STUBENVOLL

Last Friday, Northville lost her last league game to Melvindale, 15-6. The Barrens lost or tied every game they played so far, but they tried and trying is something, and something is light, fight is spirit.

Spirit is what our team has but sorry to say our student body hasn't. If you students would show a little spirit for the last game with Plymouth I'm sure the boys will play a better game of football for you and for our school. What do you say? Will you do this for our team? Sure!

The game opened with Melvindale kicking to Northville. Northville started like a bat from their 5-yard line to Melvindale's 20. But, was penalized 15 yards which placed the ball on the 35-yard stripe. They kicked into the end zone. Melvindale took the ball from there and with a lot of drive and punch put it over for a touchdown. Making the score at the end of the first quarter, Melvindale 6, Northville 0.

The second quarter again was profitable for Melvindale. She intercepted a pass and ran 50 yards for another touchdown. The extra try was good. This put Melvindale out in front 13 points as the half ended.

The third quarter became a kicking duel with no score on either side but the fourth gave Northville her only touchdown. Arnold, plunged over for Northville's only touchdown. Making the final score, Melvindale 13, Northville 6.

SOPHOMORES FORM DRAMATIC CLUB

The first meeting of the new dramatic and speech club was held Monday night. It is being organized by the sophomores and will be open to freshmen in the second semester. This club is to teach pupils to know enough about speech to be ready for the debate team next year.

A number of one-act plays will be given by the members during the year with, perhaps, one or two more pretentious offerings. Other activities will include better speech programs for each meeting.

Eleven sophomores attended Monday. Others are expected to join at the next meeting, to be held at 3:30 p. m., Monday, Nov. 9, in room 5. All those interested in membership are urged to attend one of the open meetings.

Virginia Forshee was unanimously chosen president at the first meeting and a committee was appointed, which will meet with the president and the sponsor, Miss Florence Harper, to draft a constitution.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL SCHEDULE
At the meeting of the Girls' Basketball league held at Redford Union last Thursday, the following schedule was drawn up, with games playing at 7 p. m., except the Feb. 16 and 26 matches:

CHIEF GIVES CAR LIGHT WARNING

ings at intersections were responsible for 85 accidents, 10 of which were fatal. Jay walkers who crossed the street in the middle of the block caused 1,151 accidents, 261 persons were killed in this way.

Similarly a check was made of the motorists. Out of 488 cars counted here Oct. 12, 17 were without tail lights; five were without the left head light; four had the right head light out; two had neither tail nor head light. In making this report to the chief of police, it was pointed out by the state department that last year improper lights were the cause of 198 accidents in Michigan. Eighteen deaths resulted from the accidents; 104 were non-fatal; 76 of them damaged property.

3 GROUPS JOIN HERE TO PROMOTE NATIONAL WEEK OF EDUCATION

seeks advice from experts in the fields of elementary and secondary education. Arrangements are under way now to invite outstanding faculty members from the State Normal college to check on the local elementary teaching methods. They will be asked to make recommendations in replacing the supplementary material which was destroyed in the fire last January.

It is the policy of the board of education to run the schools on such a business like basis that every dollar of income will be wisely and economically applied toward a thorough and complete education of the children in the "district," affirmed Mr. Amerman.

BEGIN SKATING SEASON

Roller skating will soon be an attraction at the Methodist church house, if present plans materialize. A group of members and friends of the church has agreed to finance the buying of the skates and it is hoped to be able to have skating at least two nights a week, under proper supervision. At the meeting of the board of trustees of the church Tuesday evening, permission was given for the use of the building.

Christian Science Churches. "Mortals and Immortals" will be the subject of the lesson sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, Nov. 15.

Among the Bible citations is the following (1 John 5:20): "And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science text book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 263): "Man is not the offspring of flesh, but of Spirit, of Life, not of matter."

MORTGAGE SALE. Notice is hereby given that default has occurred in the conditions of a second mortgage made by John W. Warren and Winifred H. Warren, his wife, to The Mortgage and Contract Company, of Detroit, Michigan, a Michigan corporation, dated the 3rd day of November, 1935, and recorded on the 14th day of April, 1936, in the Office of the Register of Deeds for Wayne County, Michigan, in Liber 2362 of Mortgage, page 291, that the amount claimed to be due on said mortgage and secured thereby at the date of this notice for principal and interest is Three Thousand Six Hundred and 63/100 ($3,617.63) Dollars; that no suit or proceeding at law or in equity has been instituted to recover said debt or any part thereof; that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and the Michigan statute in such case made and provided, on Wednesday, the 3rd day of February, A.
