"AND A LITTLE CHILD SHALL LEAD THEM"

. A Northville woman drops a tear as she tells us of the real Christmas spirit shown by a Northville boy who is earning only two or three dollars a week. He took his last week's wages, went alone to a Northville store, and bought a big doll-with eyes that open and close and fixed it up in a pretty box for his little sister. We submit that this is a pretty good example of the Christmas spirit that thinks not of self but of others. For whom have you bought a big doll this year?

CHRISTMAS CHEER ON OUR STREETS

All of Northville and all of our visitors, we hope thank everyone who has helped give us these beautiful, festive Christmas streets. To the village council, the merchants and all who helped, goes our gratitude for this extra bit of Yuletide good cheer. Those lights, those lighted trees, those fine windows-all have given Northville's business section an impressive attraction.

- And to the home lovers Oho have placed Christmas emblems so that all who hass can enjoy the trees, the flights, also go our thanks. It is easy to have a Merry Christmas in Northville, if a decorated town can belp

MRS. KLING DECOVERS FROM ARM INJURY

Mrs. Frank Kling is recovering in Sessions hospital, Northville, from injuries received in an automobile accident last Monday afternoon near her home on Fourteen Mile road as she and her husband were driving to Detroit.

The wheels of their car locked, and caused it to leave the road and turn may it be a joyous Christmas over twice in a ditch. Neighbors rushed Mr. and Mrs. Kling to the hospital where it was found Mrs. Kling had suffered a broken arm and severe shock. Mr. Kling suffered minor bruises and was able to return to his home after treatment.
