

GROUP LEADERS ATTEND FIRST PEACE BANQUET

Two Pastors, Dr. H. S. Willis,
Dr. W. H. Johnston, Mrs.
Woodruff on Program

Dr. Francis S. Onderdonk, Ann Arbor, showed a four-reel talking picture entitled, "Dealers in Death," Thursday evening, March 18, when villagers gathered in the Presbyterian church house to attend the first Mass Peace meeting.

The film told the story of the development of the munitions business, its stupendous growth in the countries of Europe and its successful program of setting one country against another, resulting always in the selling of more and more weapons of war as huge profits.

"Toward Unity," the second film, showed Thursday evening by Dr. Onderdonk, revealed the daily activities of people all over the world—dangers from many countries; children of all nations at play. It brought about the realization that life was indeed unity of purpose, that the aim of the great majority of the citizens of every country is not toward the destruction of their neighbors in other lands, but to live and let live, striving for a more abundant life.

Build Suspicion

Different indeed was the film from "Dealers in Death." Here was no consideration of humanity, only the mad desire of a few men, among them the "mystery man of Europe," Sir Basil Zlatoff, to make ever increasing profits by setting nations against nations, by building up suspicion so that more deadly weapons of war could be sold to the nations on the psychology of fear of war. This picture portrayed the fact that, by common consent, during the World War, allied soldiers were prevented from bombing the German munition mines and source of raw materials for German munitions while German soldiers were likewise prevented from bombing the mines of France.

In the years after the war, "Dealers in Death" showed the carrying on of the deadly work with even greater zeal, sending agents to disarmament conferences to wreck the sessions. A new field for the activities of this group was shown in the eastern hemisphere where the antagonisms of Japan and China can be played upon and where there is a field for testing out the newest of deadly weapons.

Dr. Willis Describes Work

Dr. H. S. Willis opened the peace meeting by describing the work of the many organizations cooperating in the Emergency Peace Campaign. Initiated a year ago by the American Friends Service Committee, and with Harry Emerson Fosdick as its chairman and Ray Newton as its executive director, it has held mass meetings in over 500 communities and has established local peace councils in nearly 1,000 communities in this country. Thirty-four national organizations, cooperating in what is known as the National Peace Conference, are sponsoring the activities of the Emergency Peace Campaign, which seeks to unite all peace lovers in a program aimed to keep the United States out of war and war out of the world.

WARD VAN ATTA IS ON COLLEGE HONOR ROLL

Michigan State college students received honors they earned during the 1935-36 school year at the annual Spartan Achievement Day, held recently in the campus gymnasium.

Among those listed on the honor roll is Ward Hamilton VanAtta, graduate of Northville high school, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. VanAtta of this village.

Dr. W. D. Henderson, director of the extension service at the University of Michigan, was the principal speaker. Dr. P. T. Mitchell, dean of men at Michigan State, presided.

About 450 students of the college were honored. Thirty-five special awards of cups, scholarships and money were presented and the scholastic honor roll for the 1935-36 school year was announced.

MURPHY CRITIC SPEAKS HERE AT ARMY BANQUET

Commander Johnston Names
Committees for Annual Observance

Commemorating the entrance of the United States into the World War, the American Legion will observe Army Day with a banquet April 6 in the Methodist church house.

Speaking on this occasion will be Judge Paul V. Gadoia, Flint, who has been headlined considerably within the past few weeks because of his pronounced opposition to the way Governor Frank Murphy is handling the sit-down strikes. Mr. Gadoia is himself a member of the American Legion.

In announcing the committees for the banquet, Dr. W. H. Johnston, commander of the Lloyd H. Green post, named Floyd Lanning as the dining room chairman, the ticket committee includes S. B. Stevens, Floyd Lanning, Merrill Sweet and Arthur Carlson. The dinner will be served by the women of the Methodist church for 75 cents a plate.

3 CHORUS GROUPS PREPARE FIRST MAYTIME FESTIVAL

Start Rehearsals Monday for May Musicals; Give Three Performances

Preparation for the May choral festival to be given here as well as in Walled Lake and Plymouth during the last week in May will be marked with the first rehearsal Monday evening of the combined chorals at the Walled Lake Methodist church.

The choruses taking part in this unusual event are the Walled Lake Methodist choir, the Northville-Plymouth Men's Glee club and the Clarkson Choral club.

The Northville-Plymouth group, directed by Leslie G. Lee, while the Walled Lake and Clarkson choruses are conducted by Charles E. Hutton of Walled Lake. The combined group will number about 70 voices.

Plans for the festival have been under way since last June, when a meeting of the directors and committees was held at Clarkson, where the idea was originated. The May presentations will be open to the general public.

This is the first festival of its kind to be held by volunteer organizations in this part of the State. Music enthusiasts are certain that the musicals will attract wide interest, not only in each of the towns in which it occurs, but among persons over a wide surrounding area.

DEMOCRATS GATHER HERE FOR BIG RALLY

Democrats, 125 in number, gathered Monday evening in the A. L. Sheppard garage, 216 Fairbrook avenue, for the first rally of the year.

Music for dancing played by Patterson's orchestra, dancers from the Bailey School of Dancing and brief talks were features of the evening. Late in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard, the hosts, served a luncheon to the large number of guests.

Among the prominent democrats attending the rally were: P. G. McKenna, division chairman of Plymouth; Edward Scully, special sales representative; E. C. Eckert, W. F. McAllister, V. E. Dangertield, Mack J. Donnelly, all Michigan State Highway employees and delegates.

A second rally for the democrats of Plymouth and Northville will be held Friday evening, April 2, at Sheppard's garage.

NO FORD SHUT DOWN

From his winter home at Ways, Ga., Henry Ford said this week that reports that he plans to shut down his plants in the event of a strike were "absolutely untrue."

Ford said that there had been no labor troubles in his widely scattered plants, but said he had experienced some difficulty in getting supplies.

12 UNIVERSITY CLASSES BEGIN HERE MONDAY

R. H. Amerman Announces
Schedule for Extension Courses

A meeting of all adults interested in either credit or noncredit courses being offered by the University of Michigan Extension service on the supervised correspondence plan will be held at 7:30 p. m. Monday, March 29, in the high school according to an announcement made this week by Superintendent R. H. Amerman.

These courses, supervised by the University, are one of the projects for adult education on the WPA program. The enrollment fee in each course is 50 cents. Students are required to supply text books and other materials. The purpose of the program is to provide college opportunity for qualified high school graduates who have found it impossible to attend any college or junior college. Adults who are not interested in college credit but who feel they can profit by such study are also eligible.

Subjects which will be offered include English, French, geography, German, history, Latin, mathematics, mechanical drawing, government, psychology and sociology. Of these psychology and sociology are the only courses which cannot be taken for credit.

At the March 29 meeting a representative of the University will be present to explain details of the program and to answer questions. If sufficient interest is shown, enrollments will be taken and the work will be started immediately.

ROTARY CLUB READY FOR SPRING ELECTION

At Tuesday's meeting of the Northville Rotary club there were but three members absent, which is a very good indication of the interest the membership takes in the weekly luncheon meetings. Marvin Schoultz, who has been the Junior Rotarian for the past few weeks made his report and in a very interesting manner he told of his impressions of Rotary, which he had formed during his attendance at its meetings and of the benefits he had derived from his association with the members. He had learned a great many things about Northville, and the community at large by listening to the discussions and addresses given, and he had formed a very favorable opinion of the organization by observing the friendliness and

DETROITERS BUY HERE

A Duncan Phyfe pattern, styled in beautifully matched mahogany was selected this week by Detroiters who came to the Schradler Furniture store to buy furniture of fine quality at "prices below those asked for the same articles in city shops."

This furniture for dining room, living room and two bedrooms will be displayed in Schradler's window until the time of delivery to the Detroit Lome, April 1.

MRS. SCHLUBATIS' ARM IS FRACTURED

Mrs. Hulda Schlubatis, 70, mother of the village clerk, Mrs. Mary Alexander, is in the Beyer Memorial hospital, Ypsilanti, suffering from a fracture of the left arm and other minor injuries sustained Saturday night in a head-on collision, two miles east of Ypsilanti on US-112.

Mrs. Iva Eggelston, 29, Y. W. C. A., Ann Arbor, suffered a knee injury in the same accident when cars driven by Miss Frances Alexander, 18, a granddaughter of Mrs. Schlubatis, and by John W. Wunderlick, 35, 414 Maynard street, Ann Arbor, a student in the University of Michigan, collided during the snow storm.

Miss Frances and her mother, Mrs. Alexander, were not injured.

Song and Sermon Tell Easter Story

Joyous Easter services in all village churches Sunday will climax the Holy Week observance which has filled the religious calendar all week.

At the Baptist church, united church and Sunday school worship will be held at 10:30 a. m. with an ordinance of baptism, music by the vested junior choir, songs by the children's departments and a sermon, "The Empty Tomb," by the Rev. R. S. North.

A candle service will be held at this church at 7:30 p. m. Two masses at 8 and 10 a. m. will be sung by two choirs of young girls, voices in the Church of Our Lady of Victory on Easter. The glorious triumph of Christ over sin and Satan will be the theme on these occasions.

Easter will be heralded at 7 a. m. Sunday at the Presbyterian church with a sunrise meeting by the In-

MISS ANN RICHARDS STRESSES NEED FOR PHYSICAL CHECKUP

Recommends Familiarizing
Children with School
Ways Before Fall

Preparation for kindergarten was outlined Monday evening in the new grade school by Miss Ann Richards, kindergarten teacher, as she spoke before members of the Mother's club.

Stressing the child's physical fitness for school days, Miss Richards recommended an examination before school starts. "One of the chief health advantages of early correction of visual defects is that if taken in time, they usually require less treatment. In some cases such early treatment may give to the child normal vision, which might have been impossible had correction been delayed," she said.

DEFECTIVE HEARING

Further, she pointed out the fact that 15 per cent of all school children in the country have defective hearing in one or both ears. In a large proportion of these cases, the deafness is not discovered and the child's retardation in school and slowness in grasping what is said or his total inability to keep up with the other pupils is attributed to mental dullness or inattention.

There is no doubt that many, perhaps most of the cases of progressive deafness that became apparent in adult life have their inception in neglected inflammation of the nose, throat, Eustachian tube and middle ear conditions in infancy and childhood.

WEIGH EACH MONTH

While most malnourished children are underweight and therefore undernourished, others may be abnormally rounded and be overweight. Therefore, while weight for height is a valuable index of nourishment, alone it has little significance.

PLYMOUTH WOMAN KILLED BY TRAIN

Mrs. Cora Dempsey, 44, mother of six children, was killed instantly at 4 p. m. Monday at the Plymouth Main street railroad crossing, where she was struck by a southbound freight train.

Witnesses to the tragedy said that Mrs. Dempsey had waited for a northbound train to pass and walked onto the tracks, unaware of the approach of the freight from the opposite direction. The fatal accident occurred as she made her way home from work as a housekeeper.

She is survived by her husband, Henry, four children of the home, Richard, 11; Donald, 13; Jack, 16; and William, 18; two other children, Mrs. Cora Louise Huber and Wesley, a son by a previous marriage.

SENIORS HOLD PARTY

Members of the senior class will sponsor their first card party of the season at 8 p. m. Monday, April 5. The public is invited to buy tickets.

CANCER CAN BE CURED

Specialist Gives Disease's Danger Signals

"Although cancer is a serious disease and results in the death of 140,000 persons a year in the State of Michigan, it is not always a hopeless disease," encouraged Dr. Osborne A. Brines, Detroit specialist, as he gave an illustrated lecture Friday afternoon before members of the Woman's club in a meeting which was open to the public.

Dr. Brines' lecture came during the week that emphasis was stressed throughout the nation in a campaign launched to educate the general public as to the causes and treatments of cancer.

Defining cancer, Dr. Brines said that it is a growth that springs from one's own cells, but is abnormal, disorderly, excessive, uncontrolled and destructive. Contrary to general belief, it is neither a germ nor a blood disease.

Causes of Cancer

Recognized causes of cancer have to date been accredited to inherited

D.F. COMSTOCK DIES MONDAY IN VILLAGE

An illness which began last fall took the life of D. F. Comstock, 62, Monday afternoon within an hour after leaving Sessions hospital for the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. H. Amerman.

Mr. Comstock, who underwent two operations within the past few weeks, died following the formation of a blood clot.

Funeral rites were held Thursday in Hillsdale where Mr. Comstock had made his home for the past 40 years and where, before his retirement a few years ago, he was in the grocery retail business. Burial was made in Lakeview cemetery.

Surviving Mr. Comstock are his wife, Edith; three daughters, Mrs. Allen of the home, Mrs. D. S. Oimstead of Jonesville, and Mrs. Amerman of this place; four grandchildren, Edith and Dora Amerman and Ruth Mary and Norma Jane Oimstead.

Attending the funeral from here were Superintendent and Mrs. Amerman and their two children.

ALBION CHOIR GIVES CONCERT IN NORTHVILLE

30 Voices Sing Compositions
by Michigan and American Musicians

Immediately following the concert given Tuesday morning by the Albion college choir at the Northville high school, Dr. W. T. Smith of the Presbyterian church made the following comment: "It was splendid. They had marvelous tone shading. If the entire school is up to that standard, Albion is an exceptionally fine institution."

By NAN McLOUGHLIN
Orange and Black Editor

The Albion college choir, composed of 30 voices, and directed by Hardin Arthur Van Deusen sang at the high school last Tuesday in a concert made up of songs by Michigan and American composers.

This group of singers is appearing in a series of concerts that will end on Friday with an appearance at the Fox theatre in Detroit. The choir will sing at the services held at that theatre from 12 until 3. The group began its tour on Sunday afternoon in the Methodist church, where the funeral service was held for Billy Foreman.

Nine-year-old Billy died Friday morning in the University hospital after a crash with a truck, driven by the Fred Heidt, Jr. South Lyon, caused a fatal skull injury late Wednesday afternoon as he rode his bicycle across the West Seven Mile road.

Last rites were conducted by Billy's pastor, the Rev. Harry J. Lord, in the church where he attended, the Church School, each Sunday in the junior department. Four of his small friends, Jack Peters, Herbert Brown, Robert Holman and Julius Nagy were pallbearers. Burial was made in the Thayer cemetery.

Besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Foreman, Billy is survived by two brothers, Ralph, Jr., 19, Louis, 13; a step-sister, Pauline, 19, a step-brother, Edson, 22; and his grandfather, Fred Foreman.

CLASSMATES ATTEND BILLY FOREMAN RITES

Nineteen Albion school classmates, together with friends of the Ralph Foreman family in whose home tragedy struck Wednesday, March 17, paid final tribute at 2 p. m. Monday afternoon in the Methodist church, where the funeral service was held for Billy Foreman.

SCHRADER FURNITURE NATIONALLY ADVERTISED

The last issue of the Saturday Evening Post contained a two page announcement, in colors, of the newest and latest designs of Schradler's studio couches, which are regarded as the last word in furniture designing and manufacturing. From our office window we can look across the street and see two of the couches shown in the announcement on display in the show window of Schradler Brothers' Furniture store, indicating clearly that this well known store is always among the first to offer the public the best and newest values in home furnishings.

All through the store may be found numerous items of furniture shown only in Michigan's best home furnishing stores and shops.

LOCAL TALENT AIDS BUILDING FUND FOR BOY SCOUT HOUSE

Comedy, Drama and Musical
Features Please Benefit
Backers, Friday

Raising a profit of $39, the Boy Scout benefit performance kept a crowd of 200 villagers in a happy mood as a variety of acts passed in review on the high school stage last Friday evening, March 19. Home talent came to the front and proved that it should be given a more prominent place in the life of the village.

Everything from up-to-the-minute tag dancing back to an "old mellow dummer" passed in review behind the footlights. Talent here was age limit either for there were youngsters of the junior high giving a real fast money dance; a clever tap dance routine by Miss Barbara Samuels; some clever chalk caricatures and a rope trick by Signor Waryork, alias Roy Rex, Orlov, Ann Arbor, where he was rushed after a crash with a truck, driven by the Fred Heidt, Jr. South Lyon, caused a fatal skull injury late Wednesday afternoon as he rode his bicycle across the West Seven Mile road.

Last rites were conducted by Billy's pastor, the Rev. Harry J. Lord, in the church where he attended, the Church School, each Sunday in the junior department. ## BROWN ESTIMATES STRIKE DAMAGE

During the past week Frank Brown of this village was called to Detroit to estimate the probable cost to replace the glass that was broken out of the General Motors buildings during the recent strike and he gave as his opinion that it would cost $800 to repair the damage.

At Flint, during the progress of the strike hundreds of seat cushions and hundreds of yards of material from which the cushions are made, while other materials and equipment of the plans were also damaged.

It cost the State of Michigan more than $500,000 to maintain the State troops during the period of the "sit down" and the State welfare commission has asked for an additional million dollars for relief to care for the dependents of the strikers.

These unnecessary expenses will have to be borne by the taxpayers of the State.

CLASS OF '35 MEETS

There will be a meeting of the senior class of '35 at 7:30 p. m. March 28, at the home of Ronald Keeping.

At this time plans will be discussed for a travel club and officers, together with an executive committee will be elected. Refreshments will be served.

NEAL RESENTS CENSORSHIP OF LANSING STORY

Resigns from Daily Editorial
Staff Following Order to Delete Interview

After charging University censorship of the news columns of The Michigan Daily, Fred Warner Neal, associate editor, member of the class of '37 and Waste Basket columnist for the Northville Record for the past four summers, resigned from his position March 19.

Neal's resignation followed an order from Prof. William A. McLaughlin of the Romance Language department, chairman of the Board in Control of Student Publications, requesting that a portion of an interview made in Lansing be deleted. The interview was with a member of the Legislature, Rep. Harry Glass, democrat from Grand Rapids, in which Mr. Glass changed his former position of opposition to the University appropriation bill, by pledging support of any appropriation for the University agreed on by the ways and means committee.

ACCUSES PRESIDENT

Along with direct charges of censorship against "Mr. McLaughlin, Neal charged President Ruthven of indirect censorship. The president is quoted by Neal as saying: "No student or no professor has the right to go to Lansing during the sessions of the Legislature."

At the time of his break with The Daily, Neal issued the following statement:

"I am resigning from my position as associate editor of The Michigan Daily because The Daily was created by University authorities."

ORDER FROM BOARD

The censoring and order of suppression came the night of March 17 from Prof. William A. McLaughlin of the Romance Language department, chairman of the board in control of student publications. He ordered that a portion of a story concerning a statement from a member of the Legislature be deleted. President Ruthven said in a telephone conversation later that evening that he would not directly order the story out and that the Board in Control runs The Daily, and you will have to take your orders from it.

The President further said that no student or no professor has the right to go to Lansing during the sessions of the Legislature.

The censorship of Professor McLaughlin was direct; that of President Ruthven indirect.

THOUGHT NEWS COLUMNS OPEN

"I simply do not choose to work on The Daily under those conditions I have misunderstood the rules of the game. I had labored under the misapprehension that The Daily was a newspaper, its news columns open to all news. I find that is not so."

STRIKE DAMAGE URGE ALL TAXPAYERS TO ATTEND MEETING

In former years the annual township meeting, held in the afternoon on election day, has not been well attended by the taxpayers of the township.

At this meeting the annual report is presented and business of importance pertaining to the coming year is transacted and in these proceedings all taxpayers ought to have a part, and it is especially desired that the meeting this year, which will be held on Monday afternoon, April 5, shall be representative of the citizens of the township.

It will not take long to attend and you can vote either before or after you have taken part in the proceedings. The township board has made a fine record this past year and its members are anxious that all electors show their interest in township affairs by being present to advise as to the future financial policy to be adopted.

ONE NIGHT IN A "MODEL TOWN"

Norris, Tenn.,
Thursday, March 18, 1937
(En Route to Florida)

We have just had a remarkable experience—we have stayed over night in the "guest house" at Norris, Tenn., the "Model Town" built brand-new by the federal government to care for the population that has been brought here as the result of the building of the Norris dam.

It all happened as the result of a casual remark we made to the courteous policeman-guide with whom we visited at the big dam. After we had asked him some questions about the immense TVA project we said: "Now that you have been so kind as to tell us all this, would you have any suggestion as to a good tourist camp between here and Knoxville?" He replied: "Why not stop at our guest home?" He told us to go to police headquarters and make arrangements.

Well, what a break! Inside of an hour we were settled in one of these new homes—"play houses" they almost seem. The house is set in a grove of oak, birch, pine and other trees which reminded us of Oakwood subdivision in Northville where the McLoughlins, the Geraghtys and the Woodworths live. The nearby houses are hundreds of feet away—there is no crowding in this Model Town. The site is rolling.

Mrs. Editor has gone into raptures over this house where we slept—after a dandy dinner (45 cents only) at the government cafeteria a mile away. The building is modernistic but simple. Electric heat from units set in the walls made us very comfortable this morning as a drizzly rain came down. The plumbing is the latest and the three of us (Phil is with us) have had the luxury of shower baths before we set out for the day's schedule to nearby Thomasville, Ga.

The furnishings were partly made in the trade school nearby. Anyone seeing the place would be pretty apt to get the bug to build a new home.

The federal government owns all the homes in Norris. The one where we stayed rents for about $13. In the town are 291 single-family homes, 19 of duplex type and five apartment houses. Several farm homes previously on the site have been remodeled. A modern school building is just a block or so from us and it was all lighted last night for some "dances." Then there is a small business center, with a modern grocery store, owned cooperatively by the citizens. In the same building are offices, telephone exchange and a drug store where we bought post cards to send to Postmaster Van Atta and "Congressman" Mike Murphy. Norris also has its own post office—and is it a honey!

The Model Town made you think. How long will it stay "Model?" What will it look like in ten years when government funds may not be flowing out so freely. Will the government save or lose money on the investment in these homes. Will people want to live in a regimented place where they can't own their own homes? We must admit, however, that the whole marvelous project is very intriguing.

The Model Town was a good place to sleep—almost too good in fact. There is very little traffic—as we understand it, the concrete highway that brought us here was built when the dam was started. So there wasn't an automobile honk all night and that seemed almost too quiet. Not a smoke stack in town—and no six dollar a day Ford checks.

Coming back to the Norris dam, the building of which made the town of Norris, all we can say in this brief moment of writing is that it is a gigantic project, whose possibilities are beyond our comprehension. We have just skimmed through an official guide book and learned some authentic figures about the building of the immense TVA project which has been one of President Roosevelt's great plans for his administration. When he touched a telegraph key in the White House on March 4, 1936, the big dam was completed after two and a half years of work and the big lake, that will have 800 miles of shore line, began to form. The cost of the dam was around 34 millions of dollars.

The waters of two rivers, the Clinch and the Powell, will be impounded and the giant lake will extend up stream from 56 to 72 miles—a lot of water.

Only an engineer, trained in electrical ways, could tell you of the power that will be formed by the giant lake, pressing against the mountain of concrete—a wall that is 265 feet high. It is indeed so high that we were almost dizzy to look down from the highway that runs atop the dam to the sluiceways below. We saw the dam just as the sun was setting and the cool mountain air made us draw our overcoat a little tighter.

Our policeman-guide told us that at present all the power being produced by the giant generators is being transferred to Muscle Shoals in Alabama.

Of the aims of the great Norris Dam, our official guide book, from the printing presses of Uncle Sam at Washington, D. C., says:

And Norris Dam takes its place in this coordinated program of navigation, flood control, and national defense, storing water in the flood seasons and releasing it in the dry periods; harnessing the energy of falling waters to bring greater safety and comfort to the homes and farms of America.

Anyone headed south will find a trip to Norris Dam something to stir the imagination. In the summer time it would be far more beautiful than when we saw it in March. But, summer or winter, the big dam may have a great bearing on the immense area which it will touch. The project has been bitterly condemned and extravagantly praised. Only time will tell what its real worth will be. History will record that.

SIDELIGHTS ON A TRIP TO FLORIDA

Thursday Evening, March 18,
Griffin, Ga.

We are up on the third floor of a hotel here in this little Georgia city of 8,000. Today, from Norris, Tenn., we made 265 miles. Breakfast at the "Toddle House," at Knoxville, where the waiters were students from the nearby University of Tennessee; lunch beside the highway south of Dalton. Soil showing up red, and peach trees nearly through the blooming period. Snow disappeared south of Lexington yesterday.

Get mail tomorrow at Thomasville, Georgia, and will decide whether to press to the east to Daytona Beach or on to St. Petersburg. We hope to be settled for a few days, before Saturday evening.

After a meal in the coffee shop tonight, walked around the town. Thermometers all showed 58 degrees but we have steam heat in our room tonight.

Today we passed a host of cars from several states, all headed north from the Southland. Many trailers. Good night!

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

1 YEAR AGO

Margaret Haskell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Haskell, senior at Lake Erie college, Painesville, O., has been elected vice-president of the Lake Erie Aviation club, which has been invited to join the National Inter-Collegiate Aviation club.

The marriage was read at a home wedding Saturday at 1 p. m. for Miss Vivian Farmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Farmer, of Baseline road east, and Max Todd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Todd of Plymouth.

He is breaking up fast in nearby lakes and ponds.

Mrs. Agnes Baker, 58, died early Monday morning at the home of her son, H. P. Baker, 143 East Clay street.

The organized local Travelers' club, which has been successful in securing a room at the Northville hotel for the night of the 15th, will be held at the hotel.

5 YEARS AGO

At the first meeting of the Northville village council under its new president, Dr. Linwood W. Snow, the latter was presented with a handsome gavel by the retiring president, Harry S. German.

Friends of Harold G. White are congratulating him on his appointment by Governor W. M. Brucker as an inspector for the Michigan Public Utilities commission.

A son, Eugene Arthur, was born to the Rev. and Mrs. Leo Eickstaedt last Friday, March 8.

It's an ill wind that blows no one good, said 18 busy men around here as they shoveled piles of snow into trucks Tuesday. Street Commissioner Earl Montgomery made a point to choose those who needed employment and this unexpected fall of snow on the second day of spring gave these a few hours of welcome work.

15 YEARS AGO

A draft for $110,000 and premium was received by the village clerk last week for the purchase of the village sewer bonds.

W. H. Macbury, president of the Detroit Board of Health, who has had personal charge of the erection of the buildings at the sanatorium, located amid the beautiful Northville hills, was the guest of the Northville Exchange club Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bogart moved to Port Huron the first of the week, where Mr. Bogart will be located so he may be in closer connection with a number of stores recently established in that section by the A. & P. company.

Just as soon as weather conditions will permit work on digging the trenches, Northville's new sewer system will start.

20 YEARS AGO

In the sudden death of Nelson Bogart which occurred Monday, March 19, in Ann Arbor, Northville loses a citizen who will be greatly missed and sincerely mourned by unnumbered friends outside his home circle.

The decorations of our new school building are both beautiful and appropriate, but the most beautiful and appropriate of them all is Old Glory floating high over all the rest.

In her sheltered nest among the hills Northville suffered no particular damage while the 60-mile gale was raging over the country, endangering shipping on the lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Green, who have sold their residence, property here, will return to their Farmington home next month.

Jed Clark, whose foot was so badly burned by melted iron at the foundry several weeks ago, is able to be about the streets in crutches.

30 YEARS AGO

Charles Sessions, who has just retired from business here, was nominated by the democrats at the caucus held Monday night for supervisor a position he has held twice in the township.

Will Ely was "Rooseveltized" into the nomination for Supervisor at the republican caucus Saturday afternoon. James A. Buff, Northville's popular hardware man, was re-nominated for treasurer.

Last Friday was one of the hottest days for the time of the year ever recorded. The mercury went up to 75.

The 200-acre farm just south of Farmington village, known as the Tredway or Vlier farm, was recently purchased by Gov. Warner, who will make a number of needed improvements on the property.

Owing to the measles epidemic here Health Officer T. B. Henry has ordered the schools closed another week.

of the American Legion, outlined the peace plan of the American Legion, which was almost identical with those described in the outline of the Emergency Peace Campaign. The main point of difference was one of method—the Legion recommending the universal draft as a strong deterrent to war, and the Emergency leader feeling that in such a measure we would be taking a step toward Fascism without any assurance that the war profits which are being sought to control would be prevented.

Legislative Program

An alternative measure was presented by Mrs. C. E. Woodruff by describing the legislative program of the Emergency Peace Campaign. This measure includes a direct tax to prevent excess war profits and provides for nationalization of the munitions industry. Attention was called to the fact that France has provided the way by voting to nationalize her munitions industry.

Mention was made of the National Peace enrollment conducted by the Emergency Peace Campaign in an effort to make the peace movement more articulate. It was announced that the next educational effort of the campaign would be a "No Foreign War Crusade" led by Admiral Richard E. Byrd, and initiated on April 8, the date of the twentieth anniversary of our entrance into the World War. Pamphlets on this may be purchased from Mrs. Woodruff for five cents.

Several musical numbers were given during the evening, the congregation singing America at the opening of the program. A fine trombone solo was rendered by Miss Doris Tewsbury, accompanied by her sister, Miss Isabelle.

Between the films, "Toward Unity" and "Dealers in Death," two musical numbers were played by a quartet, Louis Eaton, Bob Boyden, Harold Martens and Bobby Hess.

The invocation of the evening was given by the Rev. Harry J. Lord of the Methodist church. Dr. T. W. Smith of the Presbyterian church prayed the benediction.

The dinner was served by the Nellie Yeates Auxiliary to 135 guests. Mrs. Norman P. Denne was the general chairman.

Northville Baptist Church
K. S. North, Minister
Easter Sunday Services
10:30 a. m.—Unified church and Church School worship. Ordinance of Baptism, dedication of children. Music by the vested junior choir. Sermon by the pastor, "The Empty Tomb." Song by primary and beginners departments.
7:30 p. m.—Communion and reception of members. Candle service.
8:30 p. m.—Senior young people will meet in the parsonage.

Christian Science Churches
"Reality" will be the subject of the lesson sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, March 28.

Among the Bible citations is the following (Ps. 43:5): "Many, O Lord, say God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us—ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee; if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science text book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 151): "All that really exists in the divine Mind and its idea, and in this Mind the entire being is found harmonious and eternal."

Church of Our Lady of Victory.

The schedule for the balance of Holy Week is this: GOOD FRIDAY. The ceremonies will start at 12:30 p. m.—with the official ritual prescribed for that day. Father Graber of Hazel Park will preach. Fourteen young ladies will read the Stations.

HOLY SATURDAY. Starting at 8 a. m. the ceremonies will be in this order: lighting of the Easter fire and paschal candle accompanied by the thousand year old chant of the church; chanting of the litany of the Saints; reading of the twelve prophecies concerning the long promised Messiah; blessing of the Easter water; singing of the first Alleluia Mass of Easter. (Confessions will be heard immediately after the Good Friday services, and from 4 to 5 and 7:30 to 9 p. m. on Saturday.)

EASTER SUNDAY. The two Masses at 8 and 10 a. m. will be sung by the two young lady choirs. The theme of the Masses and the hymns will be the glorious triumph of Christ over sin and Satan.

The ladies sodality will receive Holy Communion at the 8 o'clock Mass in a body.

The fifth of the series of prize winning games will be played next Tuesday night at 8:30.

The eighth week of our nine week Novena begins next Tuesday. Services will be held at 7:30 p. m., including the recitation of the new statue to Philomena, an early Christian martyr.

Salem Federated Church
Easter Sunday service is at 10:30 a. m. The choir will sing the gospel of the resurrection, and our pastor will speak on the subject, "He That Liveth."

Bible school is at 11:45 a. m. "John's Recollection of the Risen Lord," John 20:19-29. Memory verse: "I am the first and the last; I am He that liveth, and was dead; and behold, I am alive, for evermore." Revelation 1:17-18.

On the evening of Easter Sunday at 8 o'clock two pageants, "The Power and the Glory," and "The Way of the Cross," will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Frank Buers and featuring the choir.

First Presbyterian Church
Rev. Thomas W. Smith, D.D., pastor
Sunday Services
At 7 a. m. there will be a sunrise meeting of the Intermediate Christian Endeavor. This meeting will be led by Nelda Hoover. The subject will be "Eternal Life," scripture Matt. 19:29.

The Easter church service will come at 10:30. There will be special musical numbers by the choir and the pastor will preach upon "Jesus—The Resurrection." The church will be beautifully decorated. The committee requests that, if any one has a plant to loan for the decorations, they will kindly notify Mrs. T. R. Carrington of the fact. If the one who loans the plant cannot carry it to the church, Mrs. Carrington will provide the transportation.

The Senior C. E. meeting will be held at 6:45 p. m. The leader will be Alice Eaton and the topic will be "The Easter Theme."

There will be a meeting of the Session at the parsonage at 7:30 p. m. Monday, March 30, for the purpose of making up the roll of church members to be reported to the General Assembly.

On Wednesday evening, April 14, there will be held the annual congregational supper, followed by the annual meeting. Brief reports of the year's work will be presented and election of officers. This is intended to be a meeting of inspiration and pleasure.

On Sunday morning, April 4, the Junior, Intermediate and senior departments of our Church School will meet at 9:30. The primary and beginners departments will meet at 10:45—the same hour that the regular church service will be held.

New Shoreline and Inland Scenic Highways

Open Vast Stretches of Michigan's Out-of-Doors to Motorists—View of Great Lakes

Michigan's second and third industries—tourist business and agriculture—have received a tremendous stimulus during the past four years through maintenance and construction programs of the State highway department.

The State highway commissioner has recognized the needs of these two industries through an extensive program of rural highway development. "In many cases it is possible to serve both the tourist and the farmer at the same time," he said. "For example, the application of the new, lost cost oil aggregate surface on gravel roads not only provides the farmer with a dustless road to his market, but it often provides a better road for the tourist to his favorite resort."

New shoreline and inland scenic highways have opened vast stretches of Michigan's out-of-doors to motorists for the first time. More than $10,000,000 has been invested in the development of shoreline highways since 1933. Most of this money was Federal grants. More of this work is scheduled for future programs.

Outstanding examples of work already done are US-23 and US-31 in the Lower Peninsula and US-2 and US-26 in the Upper Peninsula. Relocations and newly built sections of these routes give motorists a view of the Great Lakes at least 50 per cent of the time.

Inland scenic roads, diagonal roads, tourist lodge construction, roadside beautification, and improved ferry service at the Straits of Mackinac are other features of the tourist program.

Such features of the tourist program as the inland scenic routes and diagonal roads are also beneficial to farmer interests. Special consideration has been given to the farmer's of Michigan in the Commissioner's program to "Get Michigan Out of the Dust."

During the past four years more than 255 miles of oil aggregate surface have been constructed or rural gravel roads. This is a new low-cost, black-top surface which has been developed for secondary roads. It saves about $400 a mile annually in maintenance costs as compared with gravel roads.

Farm-to-market construction will receive further impetus this summer through program to be financed on a fifty-fifty basis by the State and Federal governments. Federal funds totaling $778,706 have been made available for construction on secondary or farm roads. Regulations require that this money be matched dollar for dollar by the States.

Boy Scout News

By FRANK EASON

The regular Boy Scout meeting was held Thursday, March 18, at the Scout Lodge. The meeting was cut short when the Scout Master handed out tickets for the mass meeting for peace, held at the Presbyterian church house that night. About fifteen attended the peace program composed of movies to promote world peace.

The Boy Scout Benefit held at the High School auditorium, Friday, March 19 was a success, and we wish to thank those who helped put on the show, and the public for their patronage.

Fellowship Class Holds Reception Sunday for Detroiters—

Following the Sunday evening church service, members of the Fellowship class of the Methodist church held an informal reception for Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith and Dr. and Mrs. P. G. Hamblum of Detroit.

Dr. Smith, a Detroit attorney, spoke before the Methodist congregation at the church service on "The Trial of Jesus."

Three Hostesses Entertain Merry-Go-Round Club—

The fourth meeting this year of the Merry-Go-Round club was held at the home of Mrs. Thelma Schoutz, Mrs. Ada Ambler and Mrs. Estella Stark acting as hostesses.

A happy surprise was ours when Mrs. Louise Chadwick, Mrs. Mary Astorford and Mrs. Minnie Parker of Detroit walked in.

These ladies are members but have not been able to attend many times this winter.

Fourteen members sat down to a delicious luncheon which was enjoyed by all.

The absent members were Mrs. Edna Hartle Rogers and May Dean who are in California; Mary Simmonds in Florida; Lucy Filkins and Elizabeth Oide of Detroit; Nellie Hewitt and Nellie Morris.

The afternoon was very pleasantly spent sewing and visiting.

At the next meeting we will be entertained by Mrs. Elizabeth Clark and Mrs. May Power.

Missionary Leiten Service Held Tuesday at Berendt Home—

The Missionary society of the Methodist church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Herman Berendt, 250 Orchard drive.

A chapter of the book on the Negro was reviewed by Miss Grace Tremper. Mrs. C. C. Rix and Mrs. Roy W. Correll gave talks on the missionary homes which the Methodist churches are supporting.

A Lenten service including the opening of the Lenten boxes was conducted by Mrs. A. E. Fuller.

As refreshments were served, the hostess, Mrs. Berendt, was the surprise recipient of a beautifully decorated birthday cake baked by Mrs. Charles Demme in honor of her anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Horick spoke before the Methodist congregation at the church service on "The Trial of Jesus."

HARRY G. MARBURGER TELLS SHRINE PLANS

The Suburban Shrine club has scheduled another one of its famous dinner-dances at the Mayflower Hotel, Plymouth, for the evening of April 1.

Plans are being made to entertain a capacity crowd by this live organization and judging by the way reservations have been pouring in the success of the party is already assured. Numerous door prizes will be awarded and there will be a number of valuable bridge prizes given for high scores. Al Strawn's orchestra will play music for dancing, and something very special in the line of entertainment will be provided during the dinner and immediately following.

These elaborate preparations, including several surprise features which cannot be announced, guarantee a successful affair, according to Harry G. Marburger, who is leading the committee.

Church Groups Plan Easter Morning Breakfast—

Following the Easter sunrise service Sunday morning at the Methodist church, the Ladies Aid plans to serve breakfast to the members of the G. L. O. S. church choir. Mrs. Chas. Smith is the general chairman for this annual event which complements a loyal group of singers.

Another breakfast which follows the sunrise service will be served cooperatively by the members of the Fellowship class. Members of this class are telling the Easter story in their own homes at the early service.

Mrs. Phillips Opens Country Home Tuesday for Bridge Party—

Mrs. T. Glenn Phillips entertained a desert-bridge Tuesday afternoon at her country home, 2300 Hull road.

The guests were Mrs. E. E. Miller, Mrs. Scott A. Lovell, Mrs. S. G. Baker, Mrs. B. G. Filkins, Mrs. C. Yarkes, Mrs. H. S. Wells and Mrs. H. R. Richardson.

Woman's Club Hold Business Meeting Today—

The thirteen luncheon scheduled on the Woman's club calendar for this afternoon will be held Friday, April 2, in the library room.

Following the Good Friday services today in the Baptist church, members of the Woman's club will hold a business meeting in their club room at the library.

Mrs. Cook Honored at Family Gathering—

Sunday—Mrs. E. B. Cavell entertained 20 relatives from Adrian, Detroit and Northville at a potluck dinner in honor of her mother, Mrs. Ida Cook, who has just recently returned from a several months stay in Florida.

Mrs. Edgar Kimmel Dies Here Wednesday

Mrs. Edgar (Josephine) Kimmel, age 38, Beck road, died Wednesday afternoon at Sessions hospital, following a brief illness and operation Monday of this week.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday from the White Memorial chapel, Crook and 13 Mile roads, with members of the Eastern Star in charge of the rites.

BOOK SHELVES HOLD THRILLS FOR YOUNG

Becky Marlowe of Charles Town by Elizabeth Gray—When the gay young Rolfe Marlowe has to leave London because of a misdemeanor, and sail for Charles Town, his sister, Becky, insists upon going with him. The story tells how, in spite of hardships and adventures with Indians and pirates during their first year, they finally chose to stay in Charles Town.

Boys of the Ragged O by Norma Mansfield—A lively Western story for older girls. There is an element of mystery which adds to the entertainment.

Kaga's Brother by M. I. Ross—An absorbing account of young Matthew Steele's experiences in the Lake Superior country when travel by steamboat was novel, dangerous and exciting.

Children of the Handicrafts by Carolyn Bailey—A book of true stories of boys and girls of our early history who had a share in the development of the handicrafts which helped build our civilization.

Managers Can Be Fun by Muro Leaf—The author has had fun showing with pictures as much as with words that "having good manners is really just living with other people pleasantly."

Caddy Woodlawn by Carol Brink—This is a spirited story that has plenty of action and strength. Girls of eleven, twelve and thirteen will welcome Caddy Woodlawn with enthusiasm.

Lona of Hollybush Creek by Genevieve Fort—Lona lives in the Kentucky Mountains and interests herself in one of the native handicrafts. While she is not good at books, she has a real gift for weaving and for teaching others to weave.

Gaston and Josephine by George Depaire—Two little French pig-nomps through many escapades. The drawings are infectious and full of color.

What School Means—Having kindergarten means that the child must adjust himself to the following conditions: Complete change of place for a good proportion of the day; change of adult authority for that part of the day; ability to find a place in a large group; ability to make himself understood; opportunity for the use of many new materials; a more orderly and controlled routine involving frequently considerable adjustment as to type of activity and as to space for activity.

There are ways, Miss Richards says, to make a gradual transition from home to school for the child. Some parents may take a direct responsibility for the child's adjustment, working in the school with the teacher as may seem advisable during the first few days of the child's school experience. Parental presence aids the child in the security of the new situation.

A sufficiently enriched home experience, carefully guided, should help prepare the four-to-five-year-old to gain security fairly soon in new places and with adults other than the parents.

The enriched program may include a gradual increase in experience, carefully planned, outside the home and with new adult acquaintance; provision for bringing in regularly two or three neighbor children of approximately the same age; emphasis upon a home supply of proper play materials such as boxes, planks, blocks, spades, squares of bright cloth, hammer, nails.

Open forums will follow each lecture, with Dr. Higgins answering questions from the audience.

Signatures, Pictures, Modernistic Designs, All in Gay Colors, Will Decorate Eggs in Bunny Baskets

Many skills have developed as the result of holidays. Major Howard Starret, state reemployment director, commented today.

"Take Easter, for example," he said to district managers and field supervisors of the State meeting in Detroit. "Several stores are calling upon us to furnish Easter egg decorators. We can put at least 15 to work right now. This holiday furnishes about three weeks of this type of employment alone for hundreds of people throughout the country."

"Decorating both real and candy eggs has become quite a skilled occupation. The days of onion peel dyeing have been supplanted by fancy coloring and even tricky writing of names on real eggs. And every Easter, candy eggs and store decorated eggs are getting more popular than ever. This is an era of the artistic egg for four Easter baskets," he said with a grin.

Thousands of people are employed preceding most holidays who otherwise would be without the work, according to Major Starret.

"Most holidays have created certain demands for products," he said. "Emblems and hats are made especially for St. Patrick's Day, hatchets and favors for George Washington's Day, flags for the Fourth of July and Decoration Day, and so on. If holidays were abolished, thousands would lose work."

Miss Ann Richards Gives Pointers to Mothers About Preparation for Children's Entrance in Kindergarten

Early beginnings of the child's home library with picture books and other books sufficiently planned are a great aid in this line. Another way to help him adjust himself is by nursery school experience. And another way which doubtless will be very satisfactory, is by giving him enough kindergarten experience before he becomes enrolled during the fall term to make him feel reasonably secure when he enters.

Child's Responsibilities—The child at this age should be able to go alone for a reasonable distance on familiar streets. He should be able to take care of himself completely, get a drink, go to the toilet, manage his own clothing if it is properly constructed and wash his hands without reminder, take care of his own wraps, clean up after play, willingly put things in their places and assist the teacher in the care of room and equipment.

He should feel some responsibility in the matter of health—putting on wraps before going out to play; not drinking or eating after others; not putting pencils or fingers in his mouth. He should enunciate clearly, use complete sentences and state his full meaning.

Jack and Jill Jingles

Peter, Peter, Pumpkin eater,
Had a wife and wouldn't keep her;
She let the children run and play
Poorly clothed most every day.
Jack and Jill Shop brought her joy,
A dress for girl, a suit for boy,
It made them look so spic and span,
The old boy took her back again.

same composer, "Agnus Dei" by Leo Sowerby, "Lost in the Night" by Christensen.

Following this first group, Margery Stewart, who travels with the choir, gave three readings: "Main Street," "Leaves," and "The House With Nobody in It."

The choir then sang "Water Boy," "Cargoes," and much to the delight of the audience, the famous Negro spiritual, "It's Me, O Lord." Providing most of the humor in the song was Genus Benson, who like the rest of the choir preferred to make the song more humorous than religious, much in the manner of the Hall Johnson choir.

The concluding song of the program was "The Albion college hymn." Although Mr. Van Deursen could give no definite plans, he hopes to tour next year with this same splendid choir.

SESSIONS HOSPITAL

Mrs. Frank Hinchman and infant son returned to their home Wednesday of this week.

Mrs. Lena Fuller, Lincoln Park, is making satisfactory recovery following an operation, March 14.

Mrs. Emeline Pahn, Wayne, will be discharged this week end from the hospital after being confined here for the past six weeks.

Mrs. Viva Pennell, Winnipeg, Can., will return to her home the first of the week, following recovery from a major operation.

Montreal Herald: Time has shown, says a reviewer, that even Victor Hugo's best poem, "The Bridge," was not immortal. It had its allotted span.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Neal, Lake Orion, were Sunday visitors in Northville.

Mrs. May Lanning, Miss Lucille Lanning and Mrs. P. S. Neal motored Sunday to Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Johnston and children left Thursday to spend the week end visiting with relatives in Elgin and Chicago, Ill.

Miss Nora Wilson left Wednesday afternoon to spend Easter vacation with friends at Tipton.

Saturday will be the last day for registration for the annual township election to be held Monday, April 5, week in Cleveland.

Neil Hannaford was a business visitor Monday and Tuesday of this week in Cleveland.

A Christian Science lecture broadcast will take place today at one o'clock over station WXYZ, Detroit. Guests of Miss Geraldine Huff over the week end were friends from Detroit and Ann Arbor.

A special O. E. S. meeting and initiation will be held tonight in the Masonic temple. A potluck supper will be served at 6 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Thompson plan to spend the Easter vacation with friends and relatives at Addison and Albion.

The Rev. and Mrs. H. J. Lord were in Ann Arbor Tuesday to attend a district preachers' meeting. They heard Dr. Brigham lecture.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Woodworth plan to meet Sunday at Standish with Mr. Woodworth's parents who live at Gaylord.

Frank Sprigell has been initiated into the Alpha-Tau Omega fraternity at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

The junior choir of the Northville Methodist church sang several numbers Sunday at the five o'clock vesper service in the North Methodist church.

After four days of spring-like weather, winter gave this section another slap in the face Wednesday morning by showering snow and sleet throughout the Detroit area.

Mrs. B. G. Phillips spent Friday in Detroit. Accompanying her home that evening were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wellwood and daughter, Barbara, of that place.

Guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Robinson are Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Holten and daughter, Audrey, who motored here Monday from their home in Chetek, Wis.

Bolton and Prouty can really play. A one act play in three scenes entitled "Objection Over-ruled" was enthusiastically received. This comedy was written by Mrs. Alec (Peggy Blake) Milne. All those taking parts in the play are local people, Mrs. Milne taking the role of Aunt Julia, Marjorie Griffin appeared as Jane, wife of Richard Davenport. Alec Milne; pompous Judge Bond, was portrayed by Lyle Benjamin. Mrs. Ivan Ely was stage manager.

The night cap was a scene from the old "Opory House" entitled "Little Nell." Reviving the theme of the villain, the sweet heroine, the hero, the stern father and the farm mortgage this little scene touched the heart of the audience and when they weren't laughing they were applauding heartily.

The entire cast of the "Little Nell" play took their parts like seasoned veterans. Mrs. Maxwell Austin was "Little Nell." Harper Britton was the constable, Darrell Molnar the villain, and Orlov Owen, the father.

According to scout executive, Mr. Owen, another program is being planned which will consist of two or three one-act plays, and will be given sometime near the end of April. Proceeds from this recent program will be used in defray maintenance costs incurred at the Scout building during the past winter.

Assisting Mr. Owen in the general preparation of the program were Harold White and Roland Morris.

F. H. Lapham made a brief report of the Rotary Institute held in Detroit last Wednesday and spoke very highly of the program and of the inspiring addresses given by Will R. Manier, Jr., president of Rotary International.

Tuesday being the first anniversary of the inauguration of "Rotary News," the weekly letter publication issued each week by the Northville club, interesting remarks regarding the publication were made by Past President Lapham, under whose administration, and largely through his urging, the paper was first established, and by E. M. Bogart and E. L. Mills, who have officiated as editor and publisher during the past year. Mr. Bogart reviewed briefly the many interesting items which have appeared in the paper during past months, which served to refresh the memories of the members.

Mr. Mills reported for the committee appointed to revise the by-laws and constitution and recommended the changes agreed upon and the adoption of the report will be considered at a future meeting.

The Rev. Father Joseph G. Schuler, as chairman of the nominating committee, submitted the following names as candidates for officers to be voted for the first meeting in April: For president, Charles Scholter; Russell H. Amerman, H. B. Clark; for vice president, W. E. Forney and E. M. Boland; for secretary-treasurer, E. J. Mills; for directors, John Lutzenberger, Conrad Langfield, James Spagnolo and Dr. H. G. Willis.

Satisfactory progress was reported for the musical show and arrangement are being completed for the ladies' night dinner and entertainment to be given next Tuesday night.

F. H. Lapham made a brief report of the Rotary Institute held in Detroit last Wednesday and spoke very highly of the program and of the inspiring addresses given by Will R. Manier, Jr., president of Rotary International.

Tuesday being the first anniversary of the inauguration of "Rotary News," the weekly letter publication issued each week by the Northville club, interesting remarks regarding the publication were made by Past President Lapham, under whose administration, and largely through his urging, the paper was first established, and by E. M. Bogart and E. L. Mills, who have officiated as editor and publisher during the past year. ## Novi News

BY MRS. WILLIAM MAYES

Mrs. Ward Drouillard gave a birthday party for her son, Harold, March 17 to celebrate his eleventh birthday. The party was carried out in the St. Patrick's theme. Centering the table was a lovely cake trimmed in green. He received many nice presents.

Andrew Keller of Detroit has purchased the large store-building on Grand River, across from the Post Office, and same is being remodeled by Brian Martin, the building contractor. The lower floor will be used as an antique shop with living quarters in the rear. The upper floor will be for storage.

The Angell homestead with 165 feet frontage on Grand River was purchased by Oscar Graham of Carleton, who will remodel and equip same to serve chicken dinners. The rear lots will be used as a poultry plant. Mrs. Graham will manage the dining rooms. Mr. Graham is a contractor.

Two 5-acre tracts, part of the Putnam farm on Grand River have been sold to Elmer Shelton of Detroit and Michael Marcevic of Romulus. Homes are being erected on both places.

The NW corner of Grand River and Haggerty road was sold to Stanley Romell who is developing a frog, minnow and worm business. Mr. Romell will build next month.

Frank Clark of Detroit has purchased the two north stores in the Walled Lake Heights subdivision and Miss Mary Simmons of Detroit a cottage and six lots in the same subdivision.

The Novi business district has undergone a decided change the last few months especially along Grand River and the Walled Lake road.

The girls from the fifth, sixth and seventh grades are now working on a junior girls service squad. They are stationed on the first floor of the building during the time school is in session.

NOVI SCHOOL HONOR ROLL

NOVI SCHOOL NOTES

The school spelling bee was held last Wednesday, March 24.

The boys of the Safety Patrol went on a theater party Wednesday evening, March 24. The boys' teachers, Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Mairs, accompanied them.

The Novi school was dismissed Wednesday afternoon for a short Easter vacation. School will reconvene at the usual time, Tuesday, March 30.

The tenth grade class expects to give a box social at the school next Friday, April 2. The public is invited.

Remember the Easter supper to night Friday, March 26 at the I. O. O. F. building.

The ladies of the Methodist church are planning another Penny supper at the church next Thursday evening, April 1.

Mrs. Jay Button is a patient at Ann Arbor hospital where she has been seriously ill with pneumonia, but is better at this time. Her son, Harold, and daughter, Miss Mary, arrived home Friday from California.

Mrs. Charles Perry entertained the Methodist Aid society at a tea last Thursday afternoon.

Elsie Kent, Lou Hicks, Elsie Brooks and Sue Mairs attended a meeting of the Past Noble Grand at the home of Beulah Kinney, South Lyon, last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Steve Hicks entertained at a dinner party last Friday. The following were present: Mrs. Earl Harris, Mrs. Charles Green, Walled Lake, and Mrs. Jay Hammond, Northville.

Mrs. John Phelps, Whitmore Lake, has been visiting here for the past week.

WALLED LAKE BULLETIN

In a previous story on church services this week the time of the Good-Friday service was given as from 2 to 3 o'clock. This has now been changed and will be from 1 to 2. Merchants closing during the "third hour" should be "second hour." In the same story announcement was made of a Sunday morning communion from 9 to 9:45 at the M. E. church. This has since been cancelled.

ATTEND SOIL MEETINGS

The "Save the Soil" meetings held at Plymouth, Wayne, Belleville, New Boston and Flat Rock brought out the fact that Wayne county leads the State in the amount of fertilizer applied per acre on the crop land. It is 90 1/2 pounds per acre on the crop land.

It was also brought out that Wayne county has about 4,500 acres of alfalfa but should have 11,000 acres to meet the needs of livestock and good farming practice. There are about 11,500 acres of oats but the farmers of Wayne county need only 1,000 acres for feed requirements in a well planned farm program.

One ton of average manure contains about as much available plant food as on bag of average fertilizer, and the plant food in it is just as soluble. This indicates that barnyard manure ought to be as well protected from the weather as the fertilizer bought.

4-H ACHIEVEMENT DAYS HELD

The county 4-H club Achievement days were held March 17 at Lafayette School, Lincoln Park March 18.

at the Belleville High School, and March 20 at the Northville Training school.

The exhibits of handicraft, clothing and hot lunch posters gave evidence of the splendid work done by pupils and leaders.

This work is under the supervision of Miss Margaret Eckhardt, county 4-H club agent.

STUDY FARM PRODUCE

Farm use of farm produce is the basis of a study completed recently to show that some of Michigan's most efficient farm families are those whose members select wisely out of the products of their own farms for supplies which they need not purchase.

Butter is one commodity that any of Michigan's numerous creameries can produce and sell with more convenience than for a farm family to separate and churn says E. B. Hill, farm management section of Michigan State college. There is an increasing tendency to use less home produced butter.

Out of 163 farms studied, the survey indicates that in Wayne county, as well as in other counties in the state, the average farm family is fairly well supplied with recommended amounts of milk, eggs, fats, lean meats and potatoes. The summary did show, however, that many farm families could well use additional amounts of fruits and vegetables if they were readily available on the farm.

A self obtained fuel supply is still an important farm project in the Upper Peninsula, where the average family surveyed used 39 cords of wood. This wood and other products, principally foods, used on the farms where they were produced were valued at an average of $236.22 for a family.

In southern Michigan the fuel cost from the farms averaged 25 cents. Families used 1,289 quarts of milk, 78 pounds of butter, 151 pounds of beef and 292 pounds of home produced mutton, a total farm value of $276.45.

In northern counties of the Lower Peninsula, still another picture was obtained. Thirty-two cords of wood was the average. Milk consumed was 1,104 quarts, butter, 153 pounds, beef was 115 pounds and pork 328 pounds. With other products the total farm value was $317.36.

MOISTURE ABOVE NORMAL

Michigan's moisture supply this spring is calculated at above normal, according to weather bureau reports based on winter rains and snows. Michigan is in an area which has received between 100 and 150 per cent of the normal precipitation. Winter temperatures have been sliding up and down, but government calculations indicate that Michigan had a winter not very far from normal. Temperatures for the entire winter ranged from normal to an average of 4 degrees warmer than normal in this state. December was warmer than usual. January saw thermometer mercury columns getting plenty of exercise, while February was not far from normal.

CONSTRUCT DUCK HAVENS

Natural havens for wild ducks and geese already have been constructed on 20,000 acres of the Seney migratory wildfowl refuge in Schoolcraft county. The biological survey of the United States department of agriculture estimates the area may again become the marshland waterfowl paradise for which it once was famed. In the second unit of the project another 30,000 acres are to be developed this spring. The biological survey expects the refuge ultimately will consist of three adjoining units.

covering 50,000 acres. In cooperation with the Michigan state conservation department, about 300 Canadian geese have been placed on the Seney marshes and pinioned to keep them. Beaver, deer, raccoon, ruffed grouse, prairie chickens and sandhill cranes are numerous on the refuge.

SPRING ANNOUNCEMENT

HAVING disposed of all of our old stock of merchandise, as a result of the very successful sales we have conducted during the past year, we desire to announce to the public that we now have an entirely new line of goods to offer our customers and to also assure our friends and patrons that the business will be continued.

Mrs. Nellie Barry will have charge of the Women's Department and notions and will be pleased to assist our friends in Northville and vicinity.

Charles Freydl will be in charge of the Men's Department and the Made-to-Measure Tailoring. He will, of course, continue his cleaning and pressing business which he has successfully conducted for many years. The new Spring samples of suits and overcoats are here and you will find it to your advantage to look them over. Good fittings and quality are guaranteed.

We shall carry a full and complete line of Work Clothes, Underwear, Odd Pants, Shirts and Ties, and the policy of the store will be to offer only merchandise of known quality.

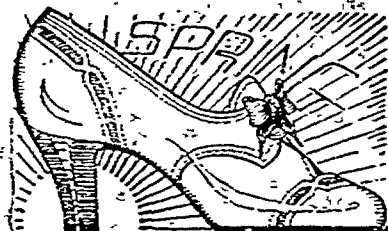

This store has enjoyed a favorable reputation for honest values for many years and it will be our aim to maintain the high standards established by its founder.

GIRLS IN DISTRICT HOLD PLAY DAY

Basketball Teams; Guests at Melvindale Along With 4 Other Schools

All the basketball girls were guests of the Melvindale school Monday afternoon at a play day. Northville was one of four schools, Hazel Park, Redford Union and Melvindale. Soccer and basketball were enjoyed by all. A foul shooting contest was held. The results are as follows:

1. Irene Kinnaird, Hazel Park, 19
2. Helen Cook, Hazel Park, 16
3. Mary Frances Batt, Northville, 16
4. Lella Fiedler, Melvindale, 15
5. Helen Van Buskirk, Hazel Park, 15
6. Beatrice Reich, Hazel Park, 15
7. Rose Brunansio, Northville, 15
8. Lorene Swift, Melvindale, 15
9. Ruth Mary, Hazel Park, 14
10. Madeline Bramer, Northville, 14

Slips were passed out and the basketball teams were picked according to color. The winning team was the Reds and the Blues were runners up.

Lineups

Reds
Irene Kinnaird, Hazel Park; Betty Haystead, Northville; Shirley Sherman, Redford Union; Mary Smith, Hazel Park; Margaret Lark, Melvindale; Viola Vennard, Hazel Park; Ruth Veale, Hazel Park; Arlene Merenda, Melvindale; Anne Kachula, Melvindale; Jacqueline Minger, Redford Union; Betty Rockwell, Redford Union; Irene Goldsmith, Melvindale; Helen VanBuskirk, Hazel Park.

Blues

Ethel Marr, Hazel Park; Marjorie May, Hazel Park; Claire Hildebrand, Hazel Park; Barbara Russell, Hazel Park; Margaret Jones, Hazel Park; Virginia Kane, Melvindale; Madeline Bramer, Northville; Anne Zachar, Melvindale; Mary Frances Batt, Northville; Alice Hildebrand, Redford Union; Yvonne Szalma, Redford Union. After the activities a luncheon was served in the cafeteria and after much merriment and fun, Miss Harriet Larson, coach at Hazel Park gave a short talk on basketball. Dancing was the rest of the entertainment for the evening. All the girls enjoyed it and hope this very nice custom will be continued.

COOKING AND MANUAL TRAINING EXPERIMENT ENDS

Students Relieved as Two Classes Settle Back to Normal

By BETTY FINDLEY

The two weeks experiment of the boys' cooking class and the girls' manual training class ended last Friday with many sighs of relief and regret. We think that it met with a little more success on the boys' side.

The girls had quite a bit of trouble with their picture plaques. Now if anything bothers them they say "Plaque it all" and there could be no more cutting remark in their estimation.

Soldering bothered them, too. One student soldered and soldered on one thing till she nearly passed out and held the piece up to the light and she could see the wall on the other side of the room. She nearly fainted.

To say the boys were enthusiastic about their cooking would be putting it mildly. You've heard of girls who don't like their own cooking? Not so with the boys—they thrive on it.

They had a three course dinner the other day and we heard one boy who ate two fruit cocktails, two bowls of chile, and three dishes of chocolate pudding. He's been coming to school every day since, too.

That chocolate pudding must have been good. One over-enthusiastic young man brought his mother's apron to school to make it in. We don't know whether it was an asbestos apron to cook it in, or whether he was just wanted to strain the pudding through it after it was cooked to get the lumps out—and maybe he meant to wear it—but who are we to judge the ways and means of great artists.

We probably don't need to tell you that the boys made fudge last Friday as their grand finale. You must have smelled it. All you probably got, too, was the smell. The boys were awfully selfish. But on the other hand we guess they have to eat every thing they make, so maybe they suffered worse than we did. There's always a bright side to everything.

So now if you hear some girls asking other girls to come and see the house, they're building—and putting in all the electrical appliances themselves, too—and if you hear the young men exchanging recipes, don't get frightened, it's just the rather hectic result of a rather drastic experiment.

'ROUND THE SCHOOL

In another week April the second will be here—and guess what with it? The J-hop! I do hope you've heard of this particular shindig, 'cause if you haven't the juniors most certainly have. You ought to see those poor eleventh graders worry over the decorations, the refreshments and whether or not a crowd is coming.

Chairman Gwen Jones, the valiant head of the decorations committee, now holds the world record for changing her mind. In ten minutes she had seven different ideas as to how the gym should be fixed, and then after all that thinking she took up some one else's idea. Poor Gwen! And not only are decorations in her mind, but something else very important, but you'll have to refer to the J-hop? ? ? column if you want to know more about that. And here's some good news, Cecil Giles has finally decided who the object of his affections is and he is leading the Grand March at the hop with Connie Burgess. Please, please, we beg of you, do come to this annual shindig—you'll never regret it.

One of the most enjoyable events of the school year occurred Tuesday when the Albion college choir sang for the high school. It's not often that you are able to hear such a splendid group. We want to thank them for coming and we hope they'll be back again.

SENIORS TRY OUT FOR ANNUAL PLAY

Senior play tryouts were held on March 23, with Edwin L. Johnson picking out the players. The senior class has decided to give "Bashful Bobby" a comedy by James C. Parker, who has written several other successful high school plays. "Bashful Bobby" tells of what happens after a very bashful young man, who is hypnotized and told he is a great lover. The cast contains five girls and seven boys, and Mr. Johnson and Miss Florence Harper will direct.

Although the date has not been chosen, the play will probably be given some time late next month.

SENIORS PLAN FOR PANCAKE SUPPER

The senior class is planning a pancake supper to be held on Monday, March 29, at the high school gymnasium.

This is the first time this year that a high school class has planned an affair of this type.

The supper will consist of pancakes, sausage and coffee. The entire affair is included in the price of 35 cents for adults and children.

The supper will begin at 6 o'clock and serving will continue until 7:30 p. m.

Heading the committee for the affair is L. Theda Fritz, with Mary Chisberg assisting her.

The first lesson of life is to burn our own smoke; that is, not to inflict on outsiders our personal sorrows and petty morbidities, not to keep thinking of ourselves as exceptional cases—James Russell Lowell.

SPORT FLASHES

By ALBERT BOELENS

Last week we thought that we had said the last word about basketball, at least until next season. But with the persistence of all good things, basketball again deserves attention and this time it has to do with the game and rules. As you all know this game is a game of speed and skill and for the last few years the heads of this national sport have tried to cut out and add new rules, so the game itself would be speeded up. Some of these met their aim; others failed. So the heads again got together last week in their annual meeting to straighten out differences.

From this meeting came the new rule for the 37-38 season, which eliminates the center jump at all times except at the beginning of the game, and at the half. After a basket is made the ball will be put into play just as it is now after a foul shot is made. The team scored upon immediately takes ball out of bounds and starts up the floor with it.

Now this without doubt will speed up the game greatly. There will be no time taken up for players to get back to the center for the jump, for after a basket is made, there will be only seconds lost before the other team has possession of the ball and are on their way down the floor with it.

This system has another good point which will be appreciated greatly at Northville and that is there is no need to have a tall 6 foot 5 inch for a center who will get the "tip off." Instead you will need five well trained men who are fast and can get the ball down the floor before the defense can get set. This is what we have, a group of boys of medium height but who are all fast. So we here in Northville can appreciate this new ruling.

Now don't get the idea that this is all perfect, because it has its faults or it would have been adopted sooner—the main fault is that it will tire the players too quickly and it is doubtful if under this ruling a forward can play four quarters of his hardest, fastest basketball.

At any rate this is the new ruling and I hope I have made it clear to you.

The baseball team holds its first meeting Monday, April 29. It is doubtful whether the team will do any actual practicing then but they hope to be outside by Tuesday. Coach Elliott Barr hopes that all the boys who have any ability will come out, especially freshmen and sophomores who might not make the team this year but will have to play in future years and can gain valuable experience by coming out now.

Following the sub district contest, Northville's representatives will speak at Ypsilanti for the district championship.

The tools who is being observed this week is one of our charming office girls, and she usually has more company than she can handle. Her hair is very dark, and is combed back straight. According to the school's young gentlemen she's what is generally known as O. K. By the way, her name is a teacher.

This boy is a senior and one who likes to bother people in a big way. He's seen in the office very often "helping" the girls, 'cause they "don't mind." He's a man-about-town and a handsome "critter." He takes heck with all his friends. He's of medium height and wears glasses. He plays basketball and did play football—both are swell. He also makes quite a few rounds to Plymouth. (If you haven't guessed yet they say he's been named after his father's chest!)

Northville's annual J-hop given this year by the class of '38 will be held in the gym on Friday, April 2. Dancing will continue from 9:30 until 1 o'clock and the music will be played by Russ Armstrong and his Columbians from Detroit.

The admission charge will be $1.25 and tickets may be obtained from any junior.

Cecil Giles, as head chairman, announces the committees as the following: Decorations, Gwen Jones, chairman; Chief, Lester; Constance Burgess; Fred Scott; Arthur Mitchell; Keene Bolton; Mary Jane Boelens; Albert Boelens; Chuck Bishop; Betty Green; orchestra; Barbara Phillips; chairman; Betty Schrader and Fred Scott; advertisement; Betty Schrader; chairman; J. W. Erwin; Irene Kalumy; tickets; Ed Reed; chairman; Martin Brietmeyer and Harry Rattenbury; invitations and programs; Margaret Walker, chairman; Doris Tevisbury and Lydia Davis; refreshments; Margaret Nagy; chairman; Alice Eaton; Jean Cole and Marie Brayman; chaperons; Nancy McLaughlin; chairman; Margaret Garden and Margaret Egan.

The chaperon's committee chairman, Nan, announces the chaperons as follows: Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Amerman; Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Thompson; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Johnson; Mr. and Mrs. George A. Stalker; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Walker and Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McLaughlin.

JUNIORS PLAN ANNUAL DANCE FOR APRIL 2

J-hop to be Held Next Week; Committees Make Plans

By OSCAR ZILCH

With all the advertising going on in and around school all no wonder everyone is now conscious. Every place you look you see signs with the word J-hop blaring out in the foreground. During the past few weeks, everyone has been walking rather carefully in the hall, with the fear in the back of their minds as to having a J-hop sticker slapped on some prominent and uncomfortable place. Stopping the preliminaries for all know in order to get not an affair of this type an orchestra is of course needed and this is an orchestra and a half thanks to the Chairman Barbara Phillips. All Barb did was to turn on her S. A. and the band was in her power.

Now comes the most important and the damnest problem of the whole works, "Decorations!" On account of because this topic is to be kept in mind is to be more than a dance a day you can get getting out of Trot out your dates! See you next any of those stubborn juniors as to week with some more of the low what the gym will be transformed down.

Election Notice

NOVI TOWNSHIP

To the Qualified Voters of the Township of Novi, Oakland County, Michigan:

Notice is hereby given that an Election of the Township of Novi, Oakland County, Michigan, will be held at the Novi Town Hall, in said township on from seven o'clock in the forenoon until eight o'clock in the afternoon, Standard Time, for the purpose of electing the following officers:

STATE—Two Justices of the Supreme Court; two Regents of the University; one Superintendent of Public Instruction; one Member of State Board of Education; two Members of the State Board of Agriculture; one State Highway Commissioner.

TOWNSHIP—One Supervisor; one Clerk; one Treasurer; one Highway Commissioner; one Justice of the Peace; one Member Board of Review; four Constables.

Notice is also given, that in addition to the election for state and township officers there will also be an election for voting on the zoning proposition as per resolution passed by the Oakland County Board of Supervisors at their meeting March 10, 1937, which resolution reads as follows:

"Each City and Township Clerk shall be instructed to publish the Notice of the Election twice prior to the election, the first publication to be at least ten days before the election. Publication should be in a newspaper of general circulation in the township or city involved. If the legislative body of the township or city deem it advisable, the Clerk should also post notices at two prominent places in the Township of such election at least ten days prior to the election."

EARL W. BANKS,
Township Clerk of Novi Township
Dated March 22, A. D. 1937

Spring must be here! Poetic genius is sprouting. Listen to this:

Down the shady lane we roamed
Just her and I.
Above, the lofty mountains loomed,
Azure blue the sky.
We wandered on, and when we reached the top,
I heard a sound.
Something told me to look out—
Keep one eye
On the ground.

But we were so absorbed in love,
That life began to cease.
For we, unconsciously had stepped
Right off a precipice.

Dr. D. G. Griffiths of Nebraska State hospital states that two per cent of every 40 pupils will be put in insane asylums. We won't get personal, but the thought DOES bring certain people to mind.

What blond senior amazed everyone by getting a hair cut rather early?

Have you been invited to join the new secret organization that is blooming in our midst? For information see George Westphal.

Wanted! One nice, juicy, over-ripe tomato. In case you want to know why it all has to do with THAT secret society mentioned above: It seems one of our junior girls is the victim of this ungentlemanly (?) organization.

One of our important juniors is going around tearing her hair, these days. She is quite perplexed! Should she or shouldn't she? Of course, Mary knows she should but after all, it's Gwen's problem.

IN THE LINEUP

Our victim this week goes by the name of Marvin Schoutz. In the way of movies Marvin likes a good comedy and prefers adventure books. He has no hobbies and says it doesn't particularly matter whether the girls are blond, brunet or redhead. He likes basketball, baseball, tennis and swimming as his favorite sports and will go to college to study engineering of some kind.

They positively refuse to tell you a thing regarding it. All nervousness aside though they will be present in something new, striking and colorful, shocky, planty and above all colossal.

Here is a little pleasant information for the dancing man in the school. The juniors voted upon allowing as much money as is needed to the town hall committee and Chairman Margaret Nagy's slogan is "The way to a man's heart is down his throat."

Just to show you that there are good things in a gets there the invitation committee headed by Margaret Walker has so far sent out something like 200 gallons of invitations. The sky is the limit.

J. W. Erwin as many people know, has been doing most of the advertising and when J. W. advertises he and damnest problem of the whole puts P. T. Barnum to shame. So you can see that this J-hop because this topic is to be kept in mind is to be more than a dance a day you can get getting out of Trot out your dates! See you next any of those stubborn juniors as to week with some more of the low what the gym will be transformed down.

Grade Notes

Miss Edna Kreger's sixth graders are very proud of the "Landscape of the Mill" and "Finishing Heat," two pictures which their teacher gave them for their room. The room is making geography scrapbooks which contain their daily quizzes.

Mrs. Russell Clarke's fifth graders are starting a project on transportation.

Glady's Bedore of the fifth grade has returned to school after an absence of two months.

Lorraine Lapham of Mrs. Clarke's fifth grade returned last week from a trip to Florida. She told the class about her visit to the Bok Tower.

Mrs. E. H. Babbitt's fourth graders are debating on Switzerland and Netherlands. They will try to solve which country in general is more important.

Miss Ann Richards' kindergartners have made some very attractive kites which decorate their front window. They also made a kite to take outside and fly. They are learning a song about kites.

The kindergartners also are drawing pictures of spring and learning a Pussy Willow song.

Norma Jean Calkins and Patricia Behen, both in the kindergarten celebrated their birthday last week. Patricia's was the 12th and Norma Jean's the 15th.

Last Thursday the kindergartners were weighed and measured. Nearly everyone had gained in weight.

Monday and Tuesday, March 15 and 16, the children who will enter school next year were enrolled. Twenty-two have enrolled up to the present time.

Mrs. W. E. McCarthy's second graders were guests to their parents one day last week when they gave a short drama and poems they had learned during the year. The drama, "Ways Messages Have Been Sent" and "Carried" was divided into two parts: Part, native beating a tom-tom Indian writing on trees; Indian using smoke signal, pony express; present, telegraph, telephone, air mail, radio, Boy Scout, flag signals.

Senior Who's Who

MICKEY LOUIE ZAYT
Mickey was born on the 15th of November, 1919, which makes him all of 17 years old. The place of his birth is where he has lived most of his life, about two and one-half miles outside of Northville.

This blond senior came here to school in his freshman year, after attending the Base Line school up to that time. In regard to school activities he was on the decorating committee for the J-hop, journalism and choir each one year, and was in the junior play, "Girl Shy."

Mickey likes to roller skate better than anything else, but swimming runs a close second. He is also one of those ex-stamp collectors.

are making yellow Easter baskets, with strips of green crepe paper off grass. They are also making chickens and rabbits.

BILL* for a family of three:

Electric Cooking is not expensive!

COST OF OPERATING AN ELECTRIC RANGE

Family of 3 $1.70 per month

This figure is a 4-month's average (October, November, December and January) of actual cooking costs in families of three persons, at the rate of 2 1/2 cents (net) per kilowatt-hour. Special record meters were installed on these customers' ranges to determine actual cooking costs, and the figure was obtained. Some of the actual costs were higher, some were lower. The cost of operating your range will vary with the amount of cooking done, and with the use of retained heat and the waterless cooking method.

*These latest figures on the cost of operating an electric range show an average of about ONE-HALF A CENT a meal a person. Actual meter tests were made in homes using electric ranges. The cost figure is obtained under everyday working conditions in ordinary kitchens... the ranges are used by women cooking meals daily for families of three, four and five people, or larger. In the survey, 5 well-known makes and 9 different models of electric ranges were included. These tests prove conclusively that electric cooking is not expensive. 10,000 of your neighbors chose electric cooking during the year 1936. So, that The Daily may not print material to which the University administration objects; that, although it does not speak for the University, it is a University organ.

"I regret to leave The Daily. There is absolutely no animosity between Professor McLaughlin and myself. He is acting according to what he believes to be the best interests of the University. I respect him, but his concept of The Daily simply differs from mine.

"I Had to Obey"

"As an employee of the Board in Control, after the order not to run the story from Lansing, I had no alternative but to obey. I do not choose, however, to remain subject to such orders in the future.

"I will be glad to be of any assistance to The Daily in the future, in an unofficial capacity.

"The status of The Daily with regard to the University was, to me, apparently, in doubt. I think it should be made clear.

DEADLINE NEARS FOR EMPLOYERS

Michigan employers who failed to pay their contribution on 1936 payroll to the state unemployment compensation fund before the deadline March 20, have only a few days left in which to obtain state credit on their one per cent federal payroll tax, Frank A. Picard, commissioner chairman, warned today.

"Under the Federal Social Security Act, all Michigan employers, like those all over the nation, must pay a federal payroll tax by April 1," Mr. Picard explained. "Those employers subject to the federal payroll tax, can pay their state contribution of nine-tenths of one per cent to the State fund prior to April 1 and obtain full credit for the payment on their federal payroll tax payments."

"This means that, actually, they only have to pay the federal government one-tenth of one per cent in taxes plus their State contribution credit. But if they fail to pay the State contribution by April 1, they must pay the federal government the entire one per cent of their total 1936 payroll. And in addition, they still must pay the state unemployment compensation fund a contribution of nine-tenths of one per cent on these same payrolls. Thus they actually will have to pay contributions totaling 1 1/2 per cent."

"If an employer is not subject to the federal tax on employers of eight or more," Mr. Picard said, "we want him to take advantage of the $6,000 deduction which he may claim under the law. Such an employer may claim the deduction by filing an amended return any time within three months of the day when his first return was mailed, and if he had less than eight employees last year, we want him to do this even if his total payroll was more than $6,000."

An employer of eight or more persons, Mr. Picard pointed out, should not claim this deduction or file an amended return since he gains nothing by doing so.

A penalty of three-quarters of one per cent per month or fraction of a month will be charged, all delinquent employers under the State law.

CANCER NOT HOPELESS AFFIRMS SPECIALIST

They often become malignant," he said.

"There are ways to prevent cancer of the skin," the doctor continued, "by skin cleanliness—particularly among workers contacting oils and tar; and protection against undue exposure to sun and wind; the surgical removal of warts and moles."

Mouth cancers can be prevented by cleanliness, correction of bad teeth, treatment of sores and ulcers, using tobacco moderately and by avoiding the use of foods and drinks that are too hot.

Women can prevent cancer of the breast by nursing their babies, the elimination of restrictive or irritating brassieres and the immediate removal of any lumps that may form," affirmed Dr. Brines.

Cancer of the uterus can be prevented by the correction of chronic irritations and by proper surgical repair of lacerations following childbirth.

Methods of Treatment

"There are only three accepted methods of treatment for cancer," said Dr. Brines. "They are surgery before cancer begins to spread, radium and X-ray."

"This disease is never self-curing and it cannot be cured by faith-healing, salves, medicine or diet," he continued.

Danger Signals

"By the time the cancer becomes painful, the chances for cure are slight, for that reason it is essential that the public be taught to watch for danger signals. Immediate medical attention should be given to any skin blemish, sore that doesn't heal, lump in the breast, prolonged hoarseness, unusual discharge or bleeding from any part of the body, loss of appetite, indigestion, change in bowel habits or rectal irritations," asserted Dr. Brines.

Individual Responsibility

Further, he pointed out, control of this disease depends upon teamwork—the prevention and early detection of danger signals which are entirely up to the individual.

"Delay is dangerous. Periodic health examinations are a safe guard. So much misinformation about cancer has been circulated during the years that it is time the true story is brought to light. The stress upon cancer today is being shifted from the late stages to the early signs—dispelling fear and ignorance. Through this means it is hoped that much can be accomplished," he concluded.

When an Easter pageant, "The Cross of Light," will be given by the members of the Fellowship and Colbebian classes, the Epworth League and the choir. A short memorial service will conclude the hour.

An Easter sermon will be preached at 10:30 a. m. by the Rev. Harry J. Lord, following this at 11:45 o'clock, a special Easter program will be given before the Church School.

Likewise at St. Paul's Lutheran chapel, the Easter service will be marked by a special sermon by the pastor, the Rev. E. E. Rossow.

Howard Brubaker in the New Yorker: President Butler fears that the proposed Twenty-second Amendment would put 42,000,000 children under the direct control of Congress. Little Willie would say, "I wish I could work in a mill, but that ol' Congress makes me go out and play."

The midget had obtained a job in a factory.

"At the end of the first week, however, he gave notice. The foreman expressed his surprise.

"Well, you see, sir," explained the midget, "one of the first questions my mates asked me was how tall I am. I told them I was exactly three feet high."

"Well," returned the foreman, "why should you want to leave us? Didn't you like the question?"

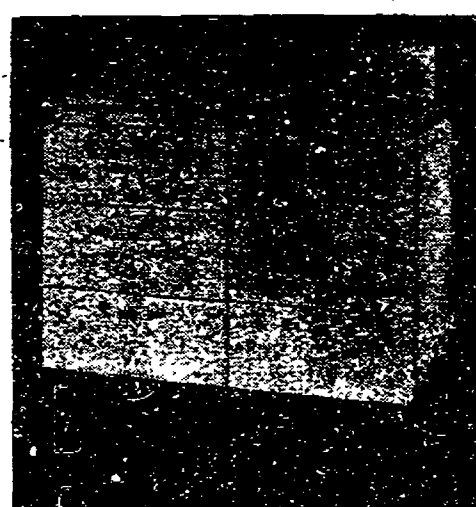

"Oh, I didn't mind that," came the response, "but I do object to being picked up every five minutes and used as a yard rule."—Tit-Bits.

The husband drew up a chair beside his wife's sewing machine and remarked:

"Don't you think it's running too fast? Look out, you'll sew the wrong seam. Slow down, and be careful of that needle!"

"Why, what's the matter with you? I've been running this machine for 10 years."

"Oh, I was merely trying to assist you. Just as you try to help me drive the car."—Diamond Points.
