DEDICATE NEW GRADE SCHOOL HERE THURSDAY

Dr. Lee Thurston Substitutes for Dr. Elliott; Dr. Cavell Accepts Building

Northville's $89,000 grade school building was dedicated Thursday evening, April 22, in the high school gymnasium, where H. B. Curbertson, general contractor, officially turned the structure over for acceptance by Dr. E. B. Cavell, president of the board of education.

Dr. A. B. Wickham, superintendent of Eastlawn sanatorium, for many years a member of the local board of education, was general chairman for the evening's program. He was introduced by Mrs. Eber Ward Lester, president of the P. T. A., the sponsoring organization.

Before calling upon the out-of-town speakers present for the occasion, Dr. Wickham paid tribute to other former board members, Dr. P. Yerkes, the late L. A. Babbitt, Charles Dolph and the late Thad J. Knapp, at one time superintendent of Northville's schools.

Eberie Smith of the Lyndon and Smith architectural firm, designers of the new building, explained to the 300 villagers attending the program, the reasons which prompted some of the outstanding features of the school. He spoke particularly of the space which is devoted to windows. Each class room has a complete side taken up by windows, which are practically the full width of the room.

A candle power test made by the Detroit Edison company, found the rooms to be between 50 and 60 candle power, as compared to the 5 and 10 candle power in the average school room.

The general characteristic of the building is simplicity, with emphasis placed on features of constructive value, rather than on ornamentation. Lawrence Bailey, chief finance examiner of the PWA, stated that the government welcomed the privilege of aiding Northville obtain the modern building. He gave the basic functions of the government's participation in such projects as providing useful employment and supplying needed improvement in school facilities throughout the country.

Another speaker of note was Dr. Lee Thurston, deputy superintendent of public instruction, who said that Northville's new building was positively the keenest looking job of its kind in the State of Michigan. "It represents a little bit more than a modernistic structure—it's futuristic," he asserted.

"When you," he charged the parents, "look at that building, remember that it wasn't built 20 years ago."

CUT WORKING HOURS FOR COUNTY TRAINING SCHOOL EMPLOYEES

The Northville Wayne County Training school employees, as well as the Eloise hospital, have been granted an eight hour day by the Ways and Means committee of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors.

Bringing the petition before members of the board were Charles A. Truesdell, Nankin township supervisor, and Frank Doanper, Garden City. Mr. Truesdell a short time ago was responsible for obtaining a wage increase for the Eloise employees.

ASKS COOPERATION

Northville's health officer, Dr. R. M. Atchison, urges villagers to make proper use of the village dump on Linden and Randolph streets. Unless persons stop burning rubbish and old tires on the site, the property will have to be abandoned.

MAY 3-8 ARE DATES FOR LOCAL CLEANUP

Send Village Truck Through Residential District to Collect Trash

According to information released this week by Dr. R. M. Atchison, village health officer, the annual cleanup activities here will take place from May 3-8.

On these days, Northville's employees will cooperate with villagers by driving the village truck through the residential district to haul away all rubbish and trash which has been placed in containers at the curbs.

SAVE STOCKINGS

Members of the Legion Auxiliary came forward this week with a plea to housewives to put aside old silk stockings and scraps of silk instead of throwing them away when they are doing their spring cleaning.

WALLED LAKE PUPILS TO PRESENT PAGEANT

Final rehearsals are in progress for the opening, next week, of what is said to be the most elaborate pageant of its kind ever to be presented at Walled Lake. It is known as the "Mother Goose Pageant," enacted entirely by children, the cast of characters includes 120, probably the most extensive number to take part in any home talent presentation, to date, in the town's history.

HEALTH OFFICER PROHIBITS FIRES AT LOCAL DUMP

May Have to Abandon Site If Persons Continue to Leave Garbage

Fearing that improper use of the village dump on Linden and Randolph streets will force officials to find another dumping lot, Dr. R. M. Atchison, village health officer, stressed the necessity this week of placing the matter before the general public.

"Despite signs, which have been placed in full view of anyone who approaches the dump, persons continue to burn leaves, tires and rubbish on the site. Thursday it was necessary to call the fire department to extinguish two such fires on the lot," asserted Dr. Atchison.

"Until some six months ago, Northville had no dumping ground, making it necessary to discard trash along the highways, creating an unattractive approach to the town. The lot now in use is the property of Mrs. Richard Tapp of South Lyon, and should with proper care, be adequate for the village needs for the next seven years," continued the health officer.

Dr. Atchison insists that if persons continue to set fire to rubbish on the lot and dump their garbage there, the place will have to be abandoned. "Just where, within the city limits, we can find another lot for such a purpose, I don't know. There isn't another site that is so convenient," he said.

Seeking suggestions for the solution to the problem, Dr. Atchison asks that persons contact him who can offer assistance in this matter. "Likewise, all complaints will be honored and taken care of in the best way possible," concluded the health officer.

REGISTERED NURSES RESPOND TO CALL

Mrs. Eber Ward Lester, Red Cross chairman for this vicinity, announced Wednesday morning that Mrs. E. H. Wood, 924 West Seven Mile road, would be the assisting nurse next month at the Red Cross Baby Clinic held in the Village Hall.

Make Leakage Test At PWA Reservoir

MAY HAVE PROJECT IN SERVICE SATURDAY, SAYS HAMILL

Northville's PWA water reservoir is being filled this week for another leakage test following repairs made by H. B. Curbertson and the Western Waterproofing company, re-quired by Engineer Herald P. Hamill and the village council.

"We expect to put the reservoir into service by Saturday of this week if the structure tests for leaks as well as we expect at this time. As we fill the reservoir, we are chlorinating the water so that it will be ready to use within a few days," commented Mr. Hamill.

Before the water was put into the reservoir this week, the Western Waterproofing company checked over the entire ironized coating and completed the plaster coat on the west wall.

"Whether or not Curbertson will have to pay the deadline penalty for not having the reservoir completed by Dec. 15, 1936, will be decided by members of the council.

Mr. Hamill, meeting with members of the council April 15, reported that Mr. Curbertson had consented to go ahead with the repair job as specified by the commission. The village had threatened to take over the project if the job were not ready this month. The engineer advised the council to let the contractor complete the work, as mere threat would be lost if the job had to be re-managed.

G. V. HARRISON GETS PRINCIPAL'S POST

Superintendent R. H. Sierman announced this week that three teachers' contracts for vacancies for the fall term had been approved by the board of education.

GERMAN TAKES 3 WITNESSES TO DETROIT

Bank's Insurance Company Reimburses Loss in 72 Hours

Chief of Police Loyal M. German confirmed the information that State police, as well as Federal agents and the county sheriff, are continuing the search for the two men who took a $7,500 loot from the Depositors State bank, April 20, shortly after 12 p. m.

Witnesses to the robbery have been called to the police headquarters three times within the past week. The last such trip was made by Chief German and three witnesses Tuesday afternoon. No men were identified at that time and no arrests have been made in connection with the crime.

"However, I have every reason to believe that the case will break wide open within a few days," said Chief German, who is in daily contact with the State police and the Detroit headquarters.

Sergeant O. B. Jackson of the State police department reached the scene of the abandoned car on Six Mile road between Middle Belt and Telegraph roads just six minutes after he had received the alarm.

All drinks and vapors—any one held over night in the Northville jail—will be fingerprinted in the future, according to a statement made Wednesday night by Chief Loyal M. German and Northville Police Officer Fred Tapp.

MAYOR, COUNCIL SUBMIT BUDGET FOR HEARING

Propose Slight Salary Raises for Village Officials; Await Approval

Northville's proposed budget of $81,000, which is to be given a public hearing at 8 p. m. Monday, May 3, in the Village Hall, is an increase of $1,215 over the accepted 1936-37 budget.

Although the new budget allows for slight salary increases for village officers, ranging from $30 to $400 (the expenditures, despite present high living standards, are still far below the budgets which were approved previous to 1931, when expenses totaled as high as $88,000 and $82,000).

The temporary budget which has been drawn up by Dr. H. H. Burkhardt, village mayor, and members of the commission, and which has been posted in public places according to law requirements, calls for $7,500 for the sinking fund, principal, and an equal amount for the interest. The highway fund totals $13,000 and the paving fund is $15,000, making a total of $31,500.

RED MASTERS ASKS PALS TO SET DATE FOR GET-TOGETHER

The following letter has been received from "Red" Masters, who favors C. E. Tutton's idea for a get-together in Detroit.

"I have been thinking about this for many weeks this year and the Record's Walled Lake correspondent have been making plans through these columns for such a gathering.

"Detroit, Michigan, April 20, 1937. Mr. Richard T. Baldwin, Mr. Charles E. Tutton, Northville, Michigan, Dear Editor:

Through the courtesy of the Record to act as a medium for the boys of Twenty-two Years Ago about a town I personally think it a grand idea, all credit goes to our Walled Lake correspondent, Charles Hinton, for the original idea.

The only reason I did not reply in the last week's edition was that I wanted to contact some of the old Northville boys now living in Detroit, as they in turn have put their stamp of approval on the proposition such as Roy Gray, Ross Van Reed, Fred Tapp, Ed Johnson, Truman Garfield, Ward McManer, and Harvey Lanning. As for the date it can be set any time that will be convenient for the boys out there, and too I would like to know how the idea meshes with the boys about town. Per after all that reason for all that would enjoy getting together and remembering the old days that a call so much to us all.

Neal Fears 9 Old Men Were Intimidated By President; Opposes Plan to Increase Supreme Court; Explains the Wagner Act

NORTHVILLE'S MOST CONTENTED FAMILY

What Northville family is the happiest? Here is one answer that a local resident gave us: "The happiest family is the one that lives within its income."

While on this point of finding family contentment, here is something interesting. In a nearby town a successful man made so much money that the family decided to move into a more exclusive section in the city. They moved but they are not happy. Their "swanky" new neighbors are snobbish and now the movers wish they were back in their old home. With all of its varied classes and wealth, Northville is reasonably free from that cruel thing—snobbishness. Be glad for that!

SYPHILIS—THE DESTROYER

One person in every ten in the United States is said to suffer from syphilis, yet the name of this social disease has been a forbidden one. Until a few years ago, not one newspaper in a hundred dared even print the word syphilis.

Now this foolish taboo has been removed and the public press has started a war to the finish on this devastating disease that attacks both the prostitute and the most virtuous.

The public, for its own safety, is going to face the facts about the twin social diseases, syphilis and gonorrhea. A Detroit daily paper has just finished a series of articles on these diseases and the public is waking up to the danger. Two facts should be remembered: (1) The innocent as well as the immoral suffer from the tragic torments of this disease, (2) syphilis in its earlier stages can be cured!

HENRY FORD'S LABOR POLICY

During the last few weeks there has been a great deal of discussion regarding Henry Ford and his labor policy. Especially since the Supreme Court's validation of the Wagner act has there been talk of what he should do for the labor unions and what the union should do for

Mr. Ford's attitude toward the union has been that he has been a better bargainer for his men than any union could possibly be. Probably most Northville people would agree with Mr. Ford's stand. Everyone here knows that Henry Ford began work as the humblest worker at his own bench and that, through his own genius he has built one of the largest businesses in the entire world. He did two things for which he will never be forgotten. (1) Made the price of motor cars so cheap that the day laborer can have one; and (2) paid the highest wages that industrial workers have ever known in similar lines of work. No wonder that most people feel that Mr. Ford is entirely right in leading out against union leadership.

Henry Ford is reported as being puzzled at the union's demand for control. One can hardly blame him. This is the way one correspondent puts it:

"He feels that if anyone wants to control a business, he should first build it—not wait for someone else to build it and then seize it under guise of some social theory."

"Mr. Ford does not question the National Labor Relations law. He just does not see where it requires any change in his policies."

ARE FIVE CHURCHES TOO MANY?

One of the churches of our village very generously gave up a plan of its own because it would have interfered with a project of a sister denomination. It is this sort of fraternal feeling between churches that recommends real Christianity to outsiders. Any "clanishness" or jealous rivalry, on the other hand, drives those who might otherwise be interested, from the doors of our churches. If ever there was need for a "long pull, a strong pull and a pull together" it is now when there are so many counteracting influences on the job. Right ideals, not sectarianism, should be the high purpose of the church.

In Northville, five church spires point heavenward, five energetic pastors of these churches call at our office each week with their church notices, each equally zealous for the welfare of his "flock." Five busy women's societies bring in announcements of their enterprises—bake sales and suppers to earn funds for the support of their churches. Five janitors stoke furnaces once or more a week and ring church bells on Sunday; five organists play sacred music and five choirs sing anthems, five—no only pastors' wives sit in their family pew and sigh that the audience is not larger. Five big efforts to attain one goal—five highways, as it were, to one great goal—the spirit of the community.

Knowing the fundamental differences in human thinking, emotions, training and experience, this writer could never suggest that Northville can get along with one church or even two churches. However, we do feel that five churches are one or two too many. How far off will we be when the Protestant edifice here can get the same kind of service as the Catholic church?

OUR UNBALANCED NATIONAL BUDGET

For the seventh straight year, the United States government has been spending far more than it received. Any Northville family that did that would soon be "on the rocks." In the long run, governments are no different than families.

This year the federal deficit is two billions, five hundred and fifty-seven millions—more money than anyone of us can comprehend.

No wonder that President Roosevelt is getting worried and that leaders of his party are getting desperate in the effort to find some way to balance the budget. Roosevelt promised to balance the budget next year but now it is announced that instead of it being balanced, there will be a deficit of $418,000,000. Incidentally it may be fair to recall how Mr. Roosevelt denounced Mr. Hoover for his "financial recklessness." Yet Mr. Roosevelt has a government income more than twice as much as Herbert Hoover's. More than that, the Hoover administration had several years of the worst depression that the world has ever seen and Mr. Roosevelt has for the past four years been having recovery—and right now business is booming. (We sometimes think that Mr. Roosevelt ought to be sportsman enough to apologize to Herbert Hoover for all the unfair things that he said about budgets and national spending.)

Yet in view of all of Mr. Roosevelt's inconsistencies—and leading democratic statesmen and writers are the ones who most strongly denounce these inconsistencies—we shall all have to rally to the president's "S. O. S." that the budget must be balanced. This is the country of all of us. If our national credit is endangered, we shall all be in danger. Probably two things will have to be done before the budget is balanced: Costs will have to be cut and taxes will have to be raised. One thing is sure, if we can't balance the budget in these times of booming business what shall we do when hard times come again—as come again they surely will.

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

1 YEAR AGO

The following women participated in the Home Economics Extension Achievement Day held May 6, they were, Mrs. Marshall L. Herrick, Mrs. William A. Liebtree, Mrs. Joseph Howell, Mrs. George Lockhart and Mrs. Harold Hattel, etc.

Clevis J. Batt, 37, grinder at the Ford Motor company, crashed into a tree and was instantly killed two miles east of Northville on a trip to Northville from a trip to Mt.ford.

With a crew of men at work this week, the former Stinson Aircraft building on East Main street, the proposed Air Company of Northville becomes a certainty.

An important social event of last week was the silver tea held Friday afternoon by the King's Daughters at the home of Mrs. Fred A. Northrop.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth P. Brown to Allen S. Beard, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Beard of Northville, was solemnized Saturday, April 11, at Christ Church, Brook Brook Bloomfield Hills.

5 YEARS AGO

Officials of the Ford plant here expect a full force of 200 men will be at work in two weeks.

The loss by death of four of Northville's substantial citizens, Charles H. Johnson, who passed away Friday, April 22, Thomas E. Murdoch and William Tenney, who were called Tuesday, and A. K. Deigh, who died Wednesday, has dealt this community a severe blow.

Northville's chances for a new bank, through the merger of our two closed ones, were greatly increased by the action of Governor Wilbur M. Brucker, last Saturday, in signing the law, passed in special session of the legislature, which required only 85 per cent of signatures of depositors, for the opening of closed banks.

Born to Mr and Mrs. Marsha Shonberger, a seven and a half pound son on Friday, April 22.

15 YEARS AGO

Roy H. Burgess, who has been seriously ill at Harper's hospital for several weeks, has recovered sufficiently to return to his home, having arrived last Monday.

Charging that the late Charles H. Tiffin of Northville was unduly influenced by his daughter, Ermah E. Tiffin, to whom he left the bulk of his estate, Edcor H. Tiffin, 2, son filed an appeal in circuit court Tuesday. The estate is valued at $12,000 or over and Ermah is named executor.

20 YEARS AGO

The village council has called a public meeting to be held this Friday evening in the Village Hall for the purpose of discussing the question of a "beer" system for Northville. It is only a matter of time when such a system will become obligatory but the problem is whether it would be feasible at the present time under the conditions controlling material and labor.

Wendell Miller, Marjorie Patten and Flora Miller take the lead in the annual dance at Detroit this week.

The ladies of Northville have not yet adopted the wearing of overalls as a working costume as we have read that women are doing it in some places, but probably the "old fashionedness" in that respect is due to the fact that our merchants cannot yet display these garments for feminine wear.

Otto Loomis has the first and so far—only wireless telegraph outfit in Northville. Otto was employed expressly as a time receiver.

Raymond DesAutels has successfully passed the final examination of the nerve test—admitting him to Uncle Sam's aviation signal service department, and is to start from Columbia, O., tomorrow for Honolulu, Hawaii, the first Northville boy to leave the shores of America in the service of his country.

30 YEARS AGO

Mrs. Fred Olin, well known Northville woman, who has been in ill health for some time and who was taken to the University hospital at Ann Arbor about five weeks ago for medical treatment, eluded the nurses in the woman's medical ward late Wednesday afternoon and jumped down to the Huron river, jumped off the Wall Street bridge, into the water. She died a few minutes later.

Methodist Woman's Home Missionary Society Entertains Wayne Guests at Tuesday Luncheon in Church Parlors

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of Wayne was entertained by the auxiliary of the Methodist church of Northville Tuesday afternoon. A luncheon was served in the parlor of the church, the guests being seated at small tables in groups of four. An interesting feature of the luncheon was the serving of a birthday cake as the company sang "Happy Birthday to You" in honor of the Rev. H. J. Lord and Mrs. H. G. Meitner.

A social time was followed by a program, Mrs. L. J. Cobb presiding and introducing Mrs. Lord as chairman. A devotional service was led by Mrs. Lord with Mrs. Leslie G. Lee leading the singing, and Mrs. Otis Tewksbury at the piano.

Mrs. Lee gave an excellent review of "Back to Religion," by Dr. Lunk, and Mrs. Richard T. Baldwin spoke on the supply project of the society.

A clever play, "The Last Mile," with Miss Grace Tremper, Mrs. Cyril Fild and Mrs. E. M. Bogart as the cast, proved a good point. Miss Laura Marie Lord pleased her audience with a piano number and Mrs. Charles F. Filkins gave one of her characteristic readings.

Those present from Wayne were: Mrs. Peter Brender, Mrs. E. B. Smith, Miss Handyside, Mrs. Nelson Butler, Mrs. Wain and Mrs. Edith Mercer. Mrs. Henry Baillard of Detroit was another out-of-town guest. Mrs. W. B. Walker was welcomed as a new member and Mrs. Filkins was welcomed back home after a winter in Detroit.

The committee in charge of this successful occasion was Mrs. Rix, Mrs. Bogart, Mrs. Cobb, Mrs. E. W. Covell, Mrs. Clyde Casterline and Miss Tremper.

Clark Home Is Scene of Wednesday Merry-Go-Round Club Meeting

The home of H. B. Clark was the meeting place for the Merry-Go-Round club Wednesday, April 28. After numberless days of cloudy, cold and rainy weather, all were more than happy to have a clear, sunny, glorious sunshine and a warm welcome for this trip to the country.

We never have one best time for every meeting is just the best ever and everyone makes it her business to be present if at all possible to do so. This time all were there except Mrs. C. E. Rogers, Mrs. S. S. Chadwick and Mrs. Minnie Parker, all detained on account of sickness. We missed you girls and hope you and your loved ones will be better soon.

We had as guests Mrs. Clyde Scholze and Mrs. Tate from Northville and Mrs. Checketts from New Jersey. The latter has been with us on several occasions and is always a very welcome visitor.

Our luncheon table was self-served and eaten on four beautifully arranged small tables, flowers everywhere. We were glad to welcome back to the fold Mrs. F. S. Smoother, Mrs. Chas. Filkins and Mrs. H. D. Dean who have been spending several months in other cities but find there is no place quite like Northville after all.

The afternoon was spent visiting, admiring the new hats, dresses and coats some were fortunate to possess so early in the season. Some took a trip to the barn to see the new calf and little kittens and get a little exercise.

This club has been very thoughtful of its self and shut-in members by sending flowers to cheer and brighten their discouraged hours. It costs so little to be nice to people.

And so another day passed and all were gone again, hoping to meet with Mrs. Minnie Parker and Mrs. William Stark at the latter's home Wednesday, May 26.

—Mrs. N. G. Hewitt

Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Babbitt Are Luncheon Hostesses

MASONIC LODGE PLANS ACTIVITIES FOR MAY

The highpoint in the day for the Visiting Reporter Friday was the peak she had at sleeping Terry Russell Calkins, the two-week old son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Calkins, 617 North Center street. Young Calkins was born April 8 and weighs all of six pounds.

Not so pleasant was the news about George Cook told by Mrs. Elmer Kator. Mr. Cook is seriously ill at his home in Freeland. This item will be read with regret by some of the longtime villagers, among them Harry B. Clark. Mr. Cook, who left Northville some 40 years ago, was at one time employed at the Gordon-Brooks Clothing store.

Mrs. Lucius Blake paused in her preparations for her daughters' homecoming this week end, to talk to the reporter. Miss Lorene and Miss Velma, who have been working in Detroit, find that the city is making a vain struggle to carry on in the face of the strike. The girls will likely spend several weeks at the home of their parents before going back to their jobs in the city which have been temporarily discontinued because of the industrial strife resulting from the sit-down.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. McKeague have moved from Griswold street to the house at the corner of Rogers and Dunlap streets, which was formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Ludsay. The McKeagues have purchased the house.

Although a plea was made in last week's paper for a nurse to volunteer for service at the monthly Red Cross Baby Clinic, Mrs. Eber Ward stated she still greatly concerned over the matter Friday morning. It's a worthy project, I do hope someone will respond to the appeal.

At 318 Carpenter street Mrs. Myron Robbin, still receiving gifts and cards of congratulation complimenting her seventy-second birthday anniversary which was on event of April 14.

Mrs. E. Conroy, Detroit, was a guest over the week end at the home of her son, 567 Carpenter street.

Mrs. Lydia Cruikshank, the eighty-year-old sister of Mrs. Cora Bissell, left Saturday for Detroit. She has made her home with Mrs. Bissell for the past year.

Mrs. Russell, who is quite a seamstress, is slowly recovering from a wrist fracture suffered Feb 4, when she fell on the ice.

We found Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stanford comfortably located in the small house on Carpenter street, which they built late last fall.

The report comes to us that Robert Secord who underwent an appendectomy on April 15, at the University hospital, Ann Arbor, is making satisfactory recovery.

Edgar Smith was caught in the act of reading Friday's Record issue when he opened the door to the reporter he said that he'd been taking the paper for something like 30 years.

Right next door to Mr. Smith, who lives at 133 East Dunlap, Donald Ware was high on a step ladder, putting the final coat of paint on the new bungalow, which will be ready for him and Mrs. Smith to occupy this week. A fresh covering of varnish on the floors kept the reporter from making a tour of inspection of the new home.

Around the corner on Hutton street, Mrs. Ina Ware was enjoying a two weeks' vacation from her duties at the Detroit House of Correction.

Guests last week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Orton, 519 Horton avenue, were Mrs. Ethel Bambo, daughter, Marion, and son Forrest of Marlette, and Mrs. E. Stiff of Pifmouth.

Mrs. Albert Hagemester was rushing about Saturday morning making preparations to spend the week end in Dryden with her daughter, Mrs. Altha Wilson.

Mrs. William Horsfall told about a pleasant visit she and Mrs. Ralph Wood had Thursday evening in River Rouge with Mrs. Horsfall's brother, Ruth MacKaidy.

Miss Helen Strechen answered our news inquiry by telling us that she was going to spend the week end with friends in Detroit. Not wanting to let the Visiting Reporter go, all the questioning Miss Helen got in a plug for the local merchants by asking what had become of the Record Shopper's column. "I couldn't begin to buy all those things every week, but sometimes the column was a guide for me," she admitted and so it seems that the shopping scout had better go back to work.

And while we listened to Mrs. R. H. Bailey tell about plans for a pleasant Saturday evening in Flint, where she and Mr. Bailey were to visit with friends, we had our eyes glued on Mrs. Bailey's attractive kitchen.

Children had raced out with toy guns to help Chaei Loyle M. German hunt the bank robbers, leaving the kitchen door wide open, giving a full view of the housewife's work room.

Mrs. Bailey has recently redecorated her kitchen into one of the smartest-looking rooms seen outside of magazine advertisements. With a lot of color, she selected a gay pattern on a red background for her kitchen walls. The material is the newly processed walltex which is washable and has enough body to withstand hard wear. Her dignity curtains repeat the predominating color with their red trim, as do the white cabinet and work table. "I spend most of my time in the kitchen and I want it pleasant," confided Mrs. Bailey, who plans to install a small radio in that room for further convenience and enjoyment. It will be white, with touches of red, too.

Peace Study Group Completes Winter Program With Talk By Mrs. Smith, Ann Arbor; Miss Halsey Is Social Hostess

Monday evening the Peace study group concluded its program for the winter with a discussion meeting followed by a social hour with Miss Sarah Halsey, hostess.

The discussion, led by Mrs. F. F. Smith, Ann Arbor, centered about the necessity of international cooperation in the settlement of world problems. The League of Nations and the World Court, while not perfect, are at present, said Mrs. Smith, the only existing international peace machinery. She strongly recommended the support of the League's resolution, which provides for the United States' acceptance of membership in the League of Nations with the reservation that the United States shall not be obliged to adopt measures which might involve the use of armed force. By such a measure, we could do ourselves no harm and would make possible unified peace action with other nations, concluded Mrs. Smith.

The meetings of the Peace study group will be resumed in the autumn and are open to any women who are interested.

Announcement was made of the Institute of World Events, sponsored by the Detroit Branch of the Women's International Educational Council, to be held May 5 and 6, at the Central Y. M. C. A. For further information, call Mrs. C. E. Woodruff.

A meeting at 7:30 p. m., Monday, May 10, has been announced to be held in the Nurses Home at Marbury. It is hoped that a Northville branch of the Women's International League for Peace will be organized. This group was founded by Jane Addams and has done some pioneer work and there are branches at the present time in many countries. This meeting is open to the general public. —Contributed.

Dr. John E. Marvin, associate editor of the Christian Advocate, was the guest-pastor Sunday morning at the Methodist church. The Rev. Harry J. Lord, who has been seriously ill, was able to preside at the morning worship hour.

Jane Withers Returns to the Screen In a Rollicking Story of the Navy; Tense Drama Is Wednesday's Booking

"THE HOLY TERROR"
Afan the lifeboats!
Run up the storm signals!
"Gee!" Jane is in the Navy now, as the rickshaws star of "The Holy Terror," the Twentieth Century-Fox not of fun opening Friday at the Penniman Allen theatre.

Laughable, prankish, riotous whirlwind of mischief, excitement and joy—that's Jane Withers, in the starring role which makes her the joy of the midshipmen, and the despair of the Admirals.

Aided and abetted in the gayest fun-tes of her madcap career by Anthony Martin, Leah Ray, Joan Davis, El Brendel and Joe Lewis, the angel-faced imp sings her way into trouble, and canoes her way right out again.

owner of "The Golden Anchor," a sailor's hangout, sends most of his time at the inn.

However, Jane and her sailor pals, already in trouble for battering a Navy Officer, in the belief that he is a spy, incur further displeasure when the musical show they present at the inn breaks up in a free-for-all, started by mysterious strangers in sailor garb. Because of this, "The Golden Anchor" is declared "out of bounds" for the boys.

When Leah abandons the inn, for lack of customers, the real spies move in, for the inn is a perfect vantage point from which they can observe troops of the Navy's new secret airplane. Jane persuades the Commandant to release her pals, and Leah reopens her place, but when Jane and Leah enter the inn, they are seized by the spies, who are already taking notes on the air-manufacturers.

Jane escapes from the band of conspirators and, in riotous fashion, breaks up the spy ring, reunites Anthony and Leah, and brings the picture to a hilarious conclusion.

FRYNT

"NANCY STEELE IS MISSING"

Unforgettably portrayed by the star of "The Informer," and an inspired cast, "Nancy Steele Is Missing," the Twentieth Century-Fox production opening Wednesday at the Penniman-Allyn theatre, presents a powerful drama of vengeance barked by its own fury and punished by man's greatest love.

The performances of Victor McLaglen, winner of the Motion Picture Academy award for the best performance of 1935; Walter Connolly, outstanding actor of stage and screen; and Peter Lorre, Europe's one-man chamber of horrors, make "Nancy Steele Is Missing" a tremendous document of emotion-lashing power, filled with tense thrills and strong passions. June Lang and Robert Kent, rising young players, are featured in the film.

The twenty-year span covered by the picture begins in the troubled days of 1917 when America was gripped by war hysteria. The daughter of Walter Connolly, a munitions magnate, sensationally disappears. Shortly afterward Victor McLaglen, a hulking giant whose knowledge of the horrors of war has embittered him against all those who help to make it, becomes involved in a brawl with police and, because he is accused of being "pro-allyen," gets an unnecessarily severe jail sentence.

Portrayed as a "spy" by fellow prisoners, McLaglen is made the great for an attempted prison break, and is sentenced to life. Only a shrewd attorney, the calculating Peter Lorre suspects that the huge prisoner is concealing some dark and disturbing secret. When McLaglen is released for good behavior twenty years later, the suspicious Lorre follows on his trail.

The conflict between McLaglen who tries to restore the lost Nancy to her father, and Lorre, who would substitute a false claimant of his own builds to a tense, dramatic climax, rousing the way for a powerful emotional conclusion in which McLaglen redeems himself for the crime of twenty years before.

The character which Victor McLaglen creates, one of passions and tenderness, of brittle violence and childlike trust, provides him with the greatest opportunity he has had since "The Informer." Walter Connolly and Peter Lorre, in roles of smashing power, create unforgettable moments to the screen's gallery of outstanding portraits.

June Lang and Robert Kent, are featured in the cast, which includes Shirley Deane, Joan Carradine, Jane Darwell and Frank Conroy.

Artist Captures Jamboree Spirit

WASHINGTON D.C. JUNE 30 - JULY 9

This happy Scout portrayed on Norman Rockwell's painting for the official poster of the National Scout Jamboree typifies the spirit of friendship and adventure which will be the lot of 25,000 American boys who will camp with Scouts of other lands on 350 acres at Washington, D. C., leased them by Congress for their Jamboree from June 30 to July 9. In the shadow of the Washington Monument a tented city will be the scene of the greatest demonstration of Scouting ever held in the new world. The national grand review and President Roosevelt's welcome will attract large throngs to the nation's capital. Other principal events include a Convocation at the Washington Monument on the evening of July 4 and a world brotherhood pageant to be held in connection with the closing campfire.

Boy-Scouts Make Plans to Edit Jamboree Journal Daily During Summer Camp Held for Delegates

Many Boy Scouts aspiring to be newspaper reporters, editors, cartoonists or news photographers in the future will have real experience this summer when they publish a daily morning newspaper, the "Jamboree Journal," for their National Jamboree at Washington, from June 30 to July 9. Others will write their experiences for home town newspapers.

Plans have been announced for the publication of a 16-page illustrated tabloid newspaper with a circulation estimated at 50,000 copies. It will be edited and illustrated by Boy Scouts and their leaders who are members of Boy Scout Press clubs and printed on the presses of one of the daily Washington newspapers. All have had some experience in journalism either through the publication of Scout newspapers or working for scholastic publications or community newspapers.

While the Jamboree opens June 30 there will be hundreds of troops at the 350-acre camp a day or two before then. The "Jamboree Journal" will make its first appearance on the morning of June 29. That and ten subsequent issues will be a permanent record for the 25,000 Boy Scouts coming from every State and from 24 foreign lands.

Before sunrise a circulation staff of older Scouts will speed the editions to the twenty sectional camps each housing 1,200 Scouts and leaders. This group will also see to it that each morning thousands of copies are mailed to subscribers and placed on sale in local hotels as thousands of visitors are expected to see the largest Scout activity ever held in the western hemisphere.

The "Jamboree Journal" will omit the news of the world, leaving that to regular newspapers in Washington, and no advertising will be accepted. It will, however, endeavor to carry as much news of the Jamboree as is possible and include complete daily programs, cartoons and sketches, editorials, Jamboree comic strips and feature articles. Highlights of the Jamboree that will be "big news" will include the opening of the Jamboree troops on Constitution avenue by President Roosevelt and other leading persons at the nation's capital, a Convocation at the Washington Monument on the evening of July 4, the pageants, demonstrations, excursions and finally the closing campfire on the night of July 8. The final issue of the "Jamboree Journal" will come from the presses the morning of July 9, and right after lunch many contingents will head for home.

WALLED LAKE NEWS
BY CHARLES E. HUTTON

JUNIORS PRESENT PLAY
The theatrical season of the 57-lake has been moving rapidly along until it now has reached the point on the calendar calling for the junior class play, which, by the way, is to be presented tonight as per schedule.

The name of the production is "The Family Upstairs," and is described as a comedy of domestic life in a big city—New York, to be sure. The plot centers around the Heller family, which happens to be the family upstairs. Mrs. Heller is constantly raising it because her 21-year-old daughter hasn't got herself married to a million, and here she is going on 22.

The cast for the local presentation has been well chosen and well directed by C. A. Rudley, and a most enjoyable evening is assured all who attend.

FISHERS RETURN
Local fishermen who launched forth to participate in the opening of the trout fishing season last week slipped back into town again over the week end, after catching an assortment of colds while plodding about in the far famed Au Sable and its tributaries, and numerous other north country streams. There seems to be some discussion, now, of changing the date of the season's opening until sometime later. Some opposition is bound to occur, however, from those who located a trout of two, this time. Among the many who went were Ira Carner, Ray Riley, Clanton Vreeland, Harry Vreeland, Warren Coxman, James Gardner, Lloyd Cox, Albert Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Beckman.

GIRLS ATTEND CONVENTION
Several girls who are members of the home economics club of the Walled Lake school attended the National Home Economics convention held Friday and Saturday at the Hotel Statler, Detroit. They attended a banquet in the evening. Included in the group were Lorraine Harder, official delegate; Eleanor Thompson, Dawn Granzow, Mary Welfare and Audrey Marlowe. Officers of the local club were elected at the last meeting, and included Irene Kovacs, president; Anna Morgan, vice president; Jacqueline Goodrich, secretary; and Katherine O'Reilly, treasurer.

GILFEX COTTAGE BURNS
A cottage owned by W. S. Gilfex, and located on Pleasant Lake, burned to the ground last Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. It was valued at $2,000 and was covered by insurance. The owner was at the cottage at the time, but was working on his boat near the lake shore, and stated that he failed to notice the flames until they had spread through the cottage.

to play Keego Harbor this afternoon in the second of the S. W. C. C. league encounters of the season. Some trepidation was felt on the part of the local fans as to the outcome, as they brought to mind the close score of last week's battle, with an opponent not usually considered strong. Like wise, in the game preceding that, the lake team lost a practice game to Cranbrook. Next week Brighton comes here for their annual fray.

BAND IS ATTRACTION
The Albion college band concert given here last Friday night, attracted an audience of about three hundred, and kept them interested from beginning to the end of the program.

The 45 members of the organization are under the leadership of Conway Peters. The Walled Lake high school band was heard in several numbers, preceding the program proper, and was given enthusiastic reception by the audience. Remarkable progress has been made by this group during the past year. Proceeds from this concert are to help buy new band uniforms.

MRS. GERMAN DIES
Mrs. Mary Stecker German, a resident of her home on Fourteen Mile road for the past 22 years, died Thursday at 6:45 p. m., following a prolonged state of ill health. She had been active, however, until recently. She was born in West Bloomfield township Jan. 14, 1864, and was a former resident of Birmingham. She was the widow of John D. German, a farmer, who died Oct. 10, 1928. She is survived by her son, Fred German of Walled Lake, a sister, Mrs. T. B. Southam of St. Clair, and four grandchildren. Funeral services were held Saturday, with Rev. D. E. Evans officiating. Burial was in Franklin cemetery.

NEWS IN BRIEF
Mrs. Henry Alvey is suffering from an oral infection.
Mrs. E. V. Mercer has been taken to St. Clements for special medical treatment, as a result of an extended illness. She will be gone for several weeks.
The Charles Mason residence has been purchased by James Smith.
Mrs. P. C. McKibben has been substituting as rural mail carrier for C. E. Hutton, who has been ill for a week (Oh, that's me and it!).

SENIOR PROM
The senior class of the Walled Lake school is making preparation for their last major event of the year, prior to graduation. This will be the annual senior Prom, to be held May 7.

Committees have been appointed and consist of the orchestra committee, with Mary Price, Esther Hubbell and Junior Clark serving; the decoration committee, of which Mary Welfare is chairman, the refreshment committee, with Lucy Liedtke as chairman, and the invitation committee, including Constance Selby, Eleanor Thompson, Edwin Welch and Phil Stimpson.

Bob Rulyer's ten piece orchestra will play the music, said to be very outstanding in this section. A rainbow motif will feature the gymnastic decorations for the event. Raindrops, made of cellophane, and the class colors on a large center ball will be highlights of the trim.

It was a complete surprise to Mr. Schluesser, but Mrs. Schluesser was in on the secret and helped prepare for the occasion. The guests were entertained at cards, followed by a delicious buffet luncheon. After a very pleasant evening the honored couple departed wishing the honored couple many happy returns of the day.

Look what you get. A luxurious, big, 117-inch wheelbase car, a 90-horsepower six cylinder engine, larger hydraulic brakes, stronger all-steel body, extra-wide seats, more headroom, leg-room. All this—plus a lot more—yet this Nash LaFayette 400 costs just a few dollars more than any of the "All Three."

SENIORS TO GIVE "BASHFUL BOBBY"

Play Presented in High School Auditorium by Twelfth Graders

The senior play, "Bashful Bobby," a comedy in three acts, will be held at 8 p. m., April 29 and 30 in the high school auditorium.

Two melodramas, "Hired and Fired" and "It Might Happen," will complete the evening's entertainment.

ROUND THE SCHOOL

It seems that as each week goes by, more and more classes are becoming active in a good many ways. The sophomores, freshmen and the seniors have all begun something within the last few weeks. The juniors of course are basking in the reflected glory of the recent and very successful hop.

This week the freshmen have hit the news columns—and they have a very original idea, too. They're planning a dance for May 3, but instead of having it at night, it's going to begin right after school. Smart people—those freshmen. They not only give every one a chance to

SOPHOMORES PLAN "SUNSET DANCE"

A sunset dance is being sponsored by the freshman class next Monday night, May 3. This dance will be from 3:30 to 6 after school. The admission will be 15 cents a person, and as yet the orchestra has not been selected. Theda Arnold is general chairman, and Carmella Sipos is the chairman of the poster committee.

Dances of this kind have been held in many Detroit schools, and have proved successful. Though this is the first time the dances have been held here, they should become popular because they will provide entertainment for the entire student body. Anyone from the seventh to the twelfth grade is welcome to dance or watch if there is sufficient demand the freshman class plans to continue these dances throughout the year.

ORATION GIVEN BY JEAN COLE

Jean Cole, who won the sub-district oratory contest, represented Northville at the district contest on Wednesday. This contest, which was held at Ypsilanti, determined the winner of each of the three speech divisions, oratory, declamation and extemporaneous speaking. Northville's representatives in declamation and extemporaneous speaking were eliminated at the sub-district contest.

BARR DROPS PLANS FOR TRACK TEAM

Student Council Refuses to Sponsor Sport This Year

Elliott Barr, coach, has announced that Northville will have no regular track team, since the student response has not been sufficient.

A meeting was recently held to determine what the plans would be, and Mr. Barr decided that the high school would not be represented in the various track meets. The student council had previously announced that it would not sell season tickets for the track season.

There is a slight chance that two of the school's men, who were on the team last year, would represent Northville at the coming suburban and State meets.

Senior Who's Who

RUSSELL J. SEARS
On the twenty-first day of June, 1919, Russell took a boy to the world. The scene was Brighton where he spent a few years. After attending just one other school out on the Eleven Mile road, he came to Northville.
His career seemed to be largely musical—having learned how to play the clarinet long ago and then putting the knowledge to good use by playing the instrument in the school band for six years.
Russell's future points to a job and no more school.

ROSE HARRIETT KNIGHT
To begin with, this blond senior was brought into the world on April 20, 1917 at Jackson. There she spent only a few years before moving to Northville, in fact all of her 12 grades were struggled through here.
Rose was in the cheer club one year. Her favorite pastime is dancing and she says she loves to sea. You can also find her tramping around in the fields if you look hard enough. Her plans for the future are not yet certain.

Wore Prince Alberts
In the "nifty, nineties," most United States senators wore Prince Alberts. The frock coat was a symbol of statesmanship and a beard was the mark of a man of maturity and substance.

SPORT FLASHES

By ALBERT BOELENS
With out a few lingering weeks left of the current school year, the topic of conversation with the greater per cent of students seems to be "what of next year?"

This may refer to studies, work, teachers, or sports of next year. Now I am attempting to write a sports article so I naturally tend to write about "what of next year's football, basketball, baseball and golf teams." So it is that this week I will give my predictions and maybe some personal ideas about this 1937 football season for N. H. S.
I, in writing this ask myself the questions, "Will the team be worse than this year—or isn't that possible?" On the other hand may not the team be better which would be much easier? How would you answer these questions?
And now the time comes when I will do my predicting. I hope I am wrong but can see no way out for Northville. As in the same manner as the teams of the last few years, the team of next in my estimation is looking ahead at as poor a season as they have ever had.
The team has no material of any experience with the exception of a few who by no means can carry the burden of the team through a season and expect to come out successful.
This problem of inexperienced men has faced the team every year in the past three years. The reason is that the students are all too little when they enter high school and

Grade Notes

Miss Richards' kindergarten pupils have been enjoying a new play-book that has been used for many different purposes, including a doll house and a grocery store. These pupils have been taking walks, drawing pictures and have found about 150 cactuses.
Miss Wilson's pupils have been furnishing their house. So far, they have made beds, chairs, dressers, tables and aavenport. The children are taking turns in reading short stories for their opening period. They have also started their spelling lessons.
Helen Boyd, Ruth McDonald, Kathryn Ferrin and Dolores Seedorf had perfect scores in health last month. To win the prize, one must be neither absent nor tardy and have no checks against the health rules.
They are learning songs about the birds they know and have seen. So far, they know "The Robin," "The Blue Jay," and "The Woodpecker."
Miss Jarvis first graders took part in planting the tree on Arbor Day in the City Park with Mrs. McCarthy's class. Many of the pupils, who have had measles, have returned.
Miss Ring's very studious pupils have won the grand prize of one dollar for selling the highest per cent of crippled seals for their number of children. With this money they bought a tree which they will plant on the grounds of the new school building. These children are also making April silhouettes for windows.
Mrs. McCarthy's children brought money and bought a Chinese Elm tree which they planted in the city park on Arbor Day. The children composed a letter to Mrs. Malmberg, who gave them, the tree very reasonably. Oh thank her.
Eight children have returned back to school after a seige of measles. Lyster Wick brought a turtle to school for the children to see. The second grade has had their first lesson in letter cutting. So far, they have made the letters for their health poster.
Miss Miller's combination third and fourth grade pupils have a house for rent. It is a new, brown bungalow. They hope Johnny and Jenny Wren will select it for their future home.

Senior Who's Who

This room celebrated Arbor Day by planting four lovely shrubs in the box of the entrance of the new building. A program was given which included readings and a song. Planting the trees followed.
Mr. Coy's third grade class has a big pupil, Mathis, Geza, for one of Detroit. He was at the annual assembly, and broadcast with a microphone that was made by Kathryn White.
Mrs. Babbitt's fourth grade boys and girls are very happy over their new pictures which adorn their desks. The pictures are "Aunt Hathaway's Cottage," "Spring, Detroit," and "Boy Blue." These pictures were purchased from the book by Mrs. P. F. A. This year's Electric Cooking is not expensive!

*These latest figures on the cost of operating an electric range show an average of about ONE-HALF A CENT a meal a person. Actual meter tests were made in homes using electric ranges. The cost figure is obtained under everyday working conditions in ordinary kitchens... the ranges are used by women cooking meals daily for families of three, four and five people, or larger. In the survey, 5 well-known makes and 9 different models of electric ranges were included. These tests prove conclusively that electric cooking is not expensive. 10,000 of your neighbors chose electric cooking during the year 1936. In response to a question by Dr. R. M. Atchison, health officer, Mr. Besemer said the Box Elder bug could not be eradicated in any way without great expense and that the simplest plan was to cut down all Box Elder trees, burn them, then plant some other good, quick growing shade trees.

There will be no meeting of the club Wednesday noon. Instead the Exchange men and their ladies and all Rotarians or others who wish can go with them to the United States Rubber company on East Jefferson avenue, Detroit, for a dinner and trip through the factory. acts, now pending. Therefore they have pressed more hotly than ever their proposal.

Whatever one thinks of the President's proposal—and the writer is thoroughly opposed to it—and whatever one may think of the Wagner act, all except the most vigorous opponents of judicial review itself dislike to think of the President attempting to frighten the Supreme Court into agreeing with him and dislike even more to think of the Court being intimidated. Yet there is cause for people to wonder. One commentator put it this way: "Chief Justice Hughes saved the court (by) reversing it in favor of the government," and Justice McReynolds saved the President's court plan (by) dissenting so vigorously from the new interpretation.

HEAVY RAIN SWELLS BIG COUNTY DITCH AND PARK STREAM

The heaviest rain Northville has witnessed in more than a year, fell here Saturday evening, following several days of frequent spring showers.

In the River-Rouge park, bridges were little more than holding their own as the swelled waters made their way along their course. In some places, the streams were out of bounds, and picnic tables became floating islands.

R. L. Fennell, superintendent of the House of Correction farm, reported this week that Sunday morning for the first time since it was constructed eight or 10 years ago, the big county ditch was at an overflow stage.

Swept off the road by a tornado, snowbound in the mountains and blinded by a dust storm for 400 miles through Kansas, in spite of all these hazards Attorney and Mrs. Arthur S. Nichols steered their car safely into Northville Wednesday morning.

Both are in good health and tanned by the sun of the southwest.

Mr. and Mrs. Nichols left December 5 for a motor trip across the continent. In Illinois they met with their first back set when their car was blown from the road hitting a telephone pole. Mr. Nichols was detained in a hospital for several days.

Most of the winter was spent in Redondo Beach, Calif., as neighbors to Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Srook. The return trip was made north through the Redwood highway, in Rabbit Pass, Cal. Just a few days ago their car was stalled in a deep snow bank for three hours and had to be pulled out. Four hundred miles of dust storm when lights had to be used in their recollection of Kansas. Northville looks good to the travelers.
