BUILDING, LOAN ASSOCIATION GETS SUPPORT

See Hope for Federal Funds If Home Project Is Pushed In Northville

During the past few weeks there has been an awakening interest in the affairs of the Northville Building and Loan association, with the result that a number of citizens have expressed a desire and willingness to subscribe for some stock in the association and to assist in placing the institution in a position to continue to serve this community as it has in the past.

The association is entirely solvent, but in recent years it has not been growing as a live,gressive organization ought to. All that is needed to give new life to the association is to interest Northville residents to the extent that they are willing to subscribe for some stock.

There is a demand here for a great deal of money for home building purposes, but it seems impossible to secure funds from sources which usually supply them for building. Owing to state and federal restrictions, the local bank is powerless to make long time loans, with the result that if this community is to be benefited in any way by the present demand for houses the necessary funds must be supplied by Northville people. Certainly there can be no investment that is safer or one that will pay better. During all the years of the existence of the local association not a single stockholder has lost a cent and those who sold out merely for the benefit of the local treasury did not regret their investment.

In view of the support given to the enterprise by Northville people, it is only fitting that they will be aided in a movement that will make it possible to subscribe to their obligation to do their duty to their home.

There is a pecuniary that would be to the best interest of the community to help the association.

TRAIN INJURY FATAL TO JOHN GOODIN, 35

Some time before the 5:05 train came to the Ten Mile road and while seated in the open with the sun overhead.

Next on the program was Carey Dabs from Detroit, a fine little boy, 10 years old, who had crossed in a white suit, double-breasted, wings-long pants. Despite his youth, Carey appeared quite at ease before the microphone.

The engineer of the 5:05 saw Goodin as he lay on the tracks. He was placed on the co-waiters and taken to the Nine Mile road where an ambulance brought him to Sessions hospital.

Goodin, a farm hand employed on the Ernest Sulowski farm, Meadowbrook and Ten Mile roads, died at Sessions, but not before he regained consciousness and talked with those attending him, giving his name and the information that Kentucky was his home state.

Death claimed him before it was learned how Goodin happened to be in the path of the early morning train. His body was taken from the Nine Mile to the Oakland county coroner's office at Pontiac.

ROTARIANS ENTERTAIN FAMILIES AT PICNIC

After a long rainy spell the sun shone upon a merry party of Rotarians and their families and guests late Tuesday afternoon in the Cass Benton park where they gathered for their annual picnic.

Two long tables were laden with the delicious dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Schmitz, Mr. and Mrs. Luther B. Lapham, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Whipple, in charge of arrangements.

When the tables were cleared a program of active games occupied the hours until darkness fell. In a girls' running race Marylyn Gunnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Gunnell, won first prize. Much laughter was caused by the "hollering" contest when the Ro-

STATE SECRETARY WARNS MOTORISTS ABOUT DEADLINE

Wayne county motorists numbering approximately 100,000 must get new license plates by July 21 next or else quit operating their cars.

On that date the first half year stickers will expire and Leon D. Case, secretary of state, warns that there can be no extension of time.

New plates for the last half of the year will go on sale July 21 in all our offices," said Mr. Case, "and I want to urge owners of cars now carrying stickers to get plates early in July to avoid the usual last minute rush."

Eastlawn Ex-Patients Are Entertained By Detroit Radio Personalities

By ROBERT LANG

On Sunday, June 20, Eastlawn sanitarium held its second annual homecoming, and despite threatening weather, over 300 ex-patient graduates and guests attended and enjoyed an excellent program.

Dr. A. B. Wielham in a short address welcomed the Ex-Patient graduates and stressed the point that the presence of these graduates, all in good health, was an inspiration to those now in the sanitarium, who are striving to regain their good health and expressed the hope to see them at another homecoming next year.

The Northville high school band, under the direction of Eddie G. Lee, opened the afternoon festivities with a stirring medley. The boys and girls presented a colorful march, dressed in white uniforms, alternating colors in the uniforms. They played grand selections during the intermission, receiving loud applause from an appreciative audience.

A. J. Anderson, in a very witty and gay way, was invited to sing again, unfortunately, too many to fit in a table, but his voice was well received.

On the piano to play a solo, he was unable to find a piano, so he sang for the audience to the accompaniment of the organ. Dr. C. E. Bray, director of the band, was invited to sing a solo, and he did so with great effect.

Following the solo, Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Clegg, director of the vocal department, sang a duet.

DR. CATON GIVES GRADUATION ADDRESS HERE

Lucile Simmons, Marjorie Chase Make Valedictorian, Salutatorian Speeches

It is not necessary to have a college education to succeed in life," asserted Dr. John Caton, educational director of the Chrysler corporation, Detroit, as he addressed the 55 members of the 1927 Northville graduating class Thursday, June 17, in the Penniman Allen theatre.

He went on to tell the seniors that 99 per cent of the vast fortunes in this country were made by men who never had a high school education, citing for illustrations the wealth of Walter P. Chrysler, Henry Ford, the late Thomas Edison, Charles Schwab and the late John D. Rockefeller.

Placing little stress on formal education or the college graduate, Dr. Caton said that knowledge and wisdom, whether obtained through universities or through the college of hard knocks, are worthless without personality. "Lack of personality means that a person can't sell himself, the services, ideas or commodities of others. Seventy-five percent of everything you do is checked up to personality," he emphasized.

Dr. Caton urged the seniors that the presence of these graduates, all in good health, was an inspiration to those now in the sanitarium, who are striving to regain their good health and expressed the hope to see them at another homecoming next year.

The Northville high school band, under the direction of Eddie G. Lee, opened the afternoon festivities with a stirring medley. GOVERNOR MURPHY SHOWS COURAGE

Governor Frank Murphy deserves the commendation of every good citizen for refusing to bargain with legislators in the state of Michigan in their effort to free State Senator Anton J. Wilkowski, and the others imprisoned for the Detroit vote steering.

When threatened with the failure of his legislative program the governor refused to compromise or have anything to do with the release of these men who literally tried to steal an election.

Governor Murphy showed high courage in standing against political corruption and the members of both parties, regardless of his attitude on other public questions, will praise him for his political integrity.

THANK YOU, SHRINERS, FOR COMING TO TOWN

The Shriners came to Detroit this week and "painted the town red" more or less. Even if a lot of it was of a boisterous nature, everyone enjoyed the fun.

The gay caravans of the visiting thousands made the front and back pages of the Detroit dailies in story and picture.

The coming of the Shriner's was a great success, a needed pick-me-up for all, and marks the beginning of the summer vacation season, and indicates the start of a new, less violent, but more peaceful, and joyful time. There has been a tremendous swell of fraternal, friendly cooperation throughout the state at heart at the end task of ending the strike.

So we say, for the benefit of our sons and grandsons, that it is one of the great things that the recently built bridge to the dynamic city of Detroit that our metropolis was literally taken over, at least in the downtown section, by the Shriner's for their carnival of fun. If there had not been some let-down from the ten days due to labor troubles, "something would have had to best." So the Shriner's gave us a chance to blow off, to get a new balance of life and save our sanity. It would probably be too much of a good thing to have the Shriner's come every year, but this particular summer of 1937 their descent upon our own Detroit was a blessing whose value we large.

The coming of the Shriner's reminds one of the time three years ago when the pennant-winning Detroit Tigers brought the people of Detroit and the state of Michigan out of the doldrums of depression and gave people literally a new lease on life. So to quote the Detroit Free Press, we say to the Shriner's as they leave us,

"May the peace of Allah abide with you."

THE MENACE OF THE STRIKE EPIDEMIC

Do you realize what a serious thing the veritable epidemic of strikes was and is?

Well here are some figures that may well scare you:

Since last November, to the first of June, 1937, there has been a total of 2,323 strikes in the United States. These industrial tie-ups have occurred from Maine to California and from the Canadian border to the Gulf of Mexico.

This number of strikes is the greatest average per month in the entire history of our country, with the single exception of the year 1917 when a shortage of labor due to the World War brought protest against long hours of work and low wages.

For what are most of the workers in these 2,323 strikes seeking? Well, you would think they would be striking for more wages or better working conditions. As a matter of fact they are not. Right here in Michigan, in the General Motors strike which began in the winter, the demand was not for more money and better working conditions, but pretty much a demand for union recognition.

The people of Michigan as well as the nation can thank John L. Lewis and his Committee for Industrial Organization for part of this tremendous loss that has been brought about in this unprecedented number of strikes. The loss from the labor tie-up in Michigan alone has cost literally millions and millions of dollars. Imagine what the loss is right now in such cities as Johnstown, Pa., and Youngstown, Ohio.

How long is the country going to stand for this outrageous loss that has been inflicted upon all the people by a very small minority?

The country will stand for this appalling loss as long as it will permit domination by the minority groups aided and abetted by our own government authorities.

How, Mr. Average Citizen, does this domination by minority groups appeal to you?

I believe in gittin' as much good outer life as you kin—not that I ever set out to look for happiness; seems like the folks that does, never find it. I jes' do the best I kin where the good Lord put me at, an' it looks like I got a happy feelin' in me 'most all the time.—Mrs. Wiggs.

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

1 YEAR AGO

The happiest member of the 1936 graduating class was Miss Evelyn Amber attractive-talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill W. Amber. On the evening of her graduation from high school Superintendent R. E. Amerman announced that the Thad Johnson Scholarship had been awarded to Evelyn.

A shadow organ, made by Elmer Weller, was awarded for first place by the Women's club committee sponsors of the shadowbox contest, composed of Mrs. LeRoy Stewart, Mrs. T. G. Hege and Mrs. Charles Bloom.

Northville's Main street is to be lifted and made wider. Councilmen sitting in a special session Tuesday evening, approved a contract submitted by the Board of County Road Commissioners of Wayne County through the accepted agreement the county will change the grade of Main street, make a readjustment of the grade on Center street, regrade the street and reconstruct the curbs from Main street, south to Cadet street.

THE RIGHT TO STRIKE: THE RIGHT TO WORK

One big issue will have to be settled in this country before there can be any assurance of industrial peace and prosperity. That question is the right of men to work or not to work.

For weeks and months now the big headlines of the newspapers all over the country have been pretty much monopolized by stories of strikes, sit-downs, violence, and industrial unrest of every sort.

The great success of the C. I. O. in recruiting members for John L. Lewis' various unions has brought about an amazing situation. Thousands upon thousands of new members have joined the various unions, in the automobile and steel and various other industries. Many have joined because they believed in the objectives of the C. I. O. but to state the plain facts, thousands upon thousands have been coerced or intimidated into joining the unions. Then what has followed? This appalling thing:

The leaders of the union, many of them apparently of a radical or communistic nature, have insisted that those who did not join the union should not have the right to work. The result has been strikes, sit-downs and slowdowns, that have cost the country millions of dollars.

Ten Rules to a Happy Vacation

1—Take only congenial company even if you are limited by this rule to yourself.

2—Before leaving turn off all the faucets, deposit the pet animals where they will be safe, lock the door and pay your debts. Take no worry along with you.

3—if you are going within a hundred miles of any body of fresh water take mosquito netting, pennymail and punk sticks.

4—Discard three-fourths of the clothes you intend to take but don't omit something warm for the first cold night. Wear easy shoes, an easy hat and an easy temper.

5—Don't take along a serious book you know you won't read it.

6—Don't be ashamed to loaf outright without any pretense of fishing, swimming, nature study or other canoeing.

7—Don't take anything that will break.

8—You will forget something important from your equipment. Don't worry, the human race waited for centuries before it was even invented.

9—Don't try to light a fire by rubbing sticks together if you go camping. In the movies they do it, but not in real life.

10—Don't take other people's advice too seriously, not even your own.

MATLOCK SUCCEEDS KINNER IN WAYNE COUNTY OFFICE

State Banking Department records show that the 37 State banks which effected Act No. 8 reorganizations at the start had $15,643,10 in deposits frozen in trust agreements. Dividends since 1932 have amounted to only $1,024,179 as of May 31. In general, the depositors of at least 50 per cent of their accounts, the fees being withheld pending liquidation of trust assets.

One Pays in Full

Since that time, the Roscommon State Bank, with trust certificates of $17,029, has paid its depositors 100 per cent interest. Dividends in most of the other institutions, however, have been slow and uncertain.

The RFC and the Depositors Liquidation Corp. enter the picture as purely public service organizations," Fisher said. "Through them, depositors will not only receive $6,000,000 to $7,000,000 within the next year, but they will receive perhaps twice what they would get if the trust assets should be sold on a distress market at the termination of trust agreements."

Fisher said the Depositors Liquidation Corp. was incorporated March 5. Its incorporators were Joseph M. Dodge, president of the Detroit Banks; John W. Miner, president of the Jackson City Bank & Trust Co., and Cudlip. Its life is fixed at not more than 30 years.

Intercor is now to expire so that some method to terminate the trust become necessary."

Fisher said the program is known as the "regeneration loan program" and involves the use of a newly-created intermediary agency, the Depositors Liquidation Corp., which has a nominal capitalization of $15,000. The RFC employs F. P. Neff and H. F. Eckert as trustees, and Gladwin B. Coli of Detroit, manager of the RFC loan agents there.

In effect, a reorganized bank is to be formed for the RFC to own "as trustee" as secretary-treasurer and vice-president.

The Depositors Liquidation Corp. is to give the bank the money when the RFC grants a loan to a bank and takes over the bank's assets.

The trust will then be terminated.

Intercor is to be wound up in the same manner as the bank's assets.

The trust will then be wound up in the same manner as the bank's assets.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Honor Earlene
Thursday at Reception.

Miss Edna Kreger, bride-elect of James A. Huf Jr., was the honor hostess Thursday evening. June 17, at a reception in honor of their guests. Friends gathered at a dinner Tuesday to Church Group.

The Soda City girls planned their improvised "Mother's Day" activities were described in their clergyman in action or in the class colors. Large bouquets of white Gerbera daisies decorated the tables - new to the city were the pink carnations.

England - the guests for were
Mrs. Joyce Carpenter, Misses Esther
Kreager, Miss Elizabeth Kueger,
Mrs. Frances English, Miss Alice
Dunn, Mr. Fred Brooks, Mrs. James Copland, Mrs. Leona Smith, Mrs.

KEEP YOUR MIND OFF YOUR NOSE!

With the warm weather the powders and make-up will soon cover your face and you will be overcome by the odor of sweat or the heat of sun. It is not on but a single fresh Elder Leaf Powder stops the heat and gives you a clean skin through which a free breath can pass.

PREACHER NORTH GETS INVOLVED IN CREAM CRASH

When Rev. and Mrs. Kendall S.
North returned from the Northern Gospel convention, which was held in the City of Brooklyn, New York, they decided to enjoy a deaged honeymoon and to pay a visit to Niagara Falls. As they were entering Niagara Falls N.Y. Mr. North failed to notice a signal at one of the principal corners with the result that he nearly walked crashing into a large tank in which a quantity of ice cream was being brought to the members of the Woman's Home Missionary Society. Rev. and Mrs. Charles Anderson of Detroit, Michigan, who had made the rooms attractive for the conference, discovered their host was陀lorized, a butterscotch hour director of the Presbyterian church in Detroit.

Based on the train said beside him was a can of cream, and as he carelessly walked around the intersection to avoid a collision, the car "topped off the seat," and bolted out the door, striking the pavement with great force and the cream was scattered all over the street. At first the reverend was inclined to be mad and in his broken English, he berated the Northville pastor. As Mr. North returned to the scene of the near-collision, the former exclaimed "Do you see da-light?" You spills my cream, you blind!" After some friendly argument, the driver of the truck admired it was his fault and not the fault of the man from Michigan.

Mr. North's clothes were badly soiled with cream but he soon continued his journey homeward formally to the gathering of the church life in California.

Mrs. Clark invited the society to hold a picnic at her home on the Eleven Mile road in Northville. The season is in earnest.

Guests at this meeting were: Mrs.
Frank Clark and Mrs. J. D. Mitchell of Northville, Mrs. Martha McLaren who has recently returned from California. Mrs. McLaren spoke in formally to the gathering of the church life in California.

Mrs. Clark invited the society to hold a picnic at her home on the

STOP AND GO DRIVING IS COSTLY

EVERY TIME you start up from a normal traffic stop, you can waste enough gasoline to drive a third of a mile.

To cut the cost of today's stop-and-go driving in village, town and city, Shell engineers developed a way to "balance" gasoline.

This balancing process rearranges the entire chemical structure of gasoline—makes it "digestible" for your engine—just as cooking makes food digestible for you.

Your motor gets the full benefit of Super-Sheil's high energy content . . . and you get the savings!

Super-Sheil—the "MOTOR-DIGESTIBLE" gasoline is sold from coast to coast. There's a Shell station in your neighborhood.

AMERICA'S INSECT ZOO IS INSTITUTE FEATURE, JUNE 17

The only live insect zoo in America, containing thousands of rare and strange insects that live in Michigan back yards and fields, will open at Convention Hall Detroit, on Sunday, June 27. Its exhibits and information service will be open to the public from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. each day through Oct. 10.

Among the live insects that will entertain the public behind specially constructed and lighted glass cases are the ant lion, who builds sand pits in which to trap ants for food; the wood-eating termite who promises to be a formidable menace to Michigan unless people learn how to identify and destroy him; the large, four-inch scorpion usually destroyed because people do not know how to help them by killing harmful insects; the peculiar praying mantis, originally imported from China, and called the "Number 1 friend of man."

Bees in glass hives will demonstrate their peculiar and interesting ways of living. In the largest glass case of its kind ever constructed, "Divine Truth" Life and Love gave ants will show how a regularly fed colony should operate. The Michigan Insect Zoo, a branch of the National Zoological Society, after opening at the Fair, will move to the Coleman Park picnic grounds on June 27.

The director of the Michigan Insect Zoo is Dr. E. C. Baker, zoologist, who has been engaged in insect research for many years.

Since world wheat stocks have been reduced below normal, the American surplus should be readily absorbed in foreign markets during the present marketing year.

10:30 a.m.—Worship.

The Church School will meet at 8:30 regularly for the summer schedule.

Sunday, the Rev. J. J. Link will preach in the absence of the pastor who with Mrs. Lord will be in attendance at the Michigan annual conference at Marquette.

The Rev. Dr. T. W. Smith will preach at the Union services in the Methodist church July 4, 11 and 12.

The Church School picnic will be held the afternoon of July 8.

Christian Science Church leaders and workers of our church were entertained at supper at the manse last Wednesday evening and this was followed by a conference.

Mr. Robinson spokesman for one of the larger chain store companies, speaking on one of the major radio programs this week, commented on chain store operations in general as follows:

"Tonight I want to talk to you about the responsibility of government to its people. We, the people of America, are fully justified in the abiding faith we have in our form of government."

It has given us liberties and advantages that we could only hope for under any other form of government.

Under its broad democratic principles we enjoy a fuller measure of well-being and protection than any other nation on the face of the earth.

But ours is a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. It is a representative government.
