2 LOCAL GIRLS HURT TUESDAY IN CAR WRECK

Civil Service Bill Ruckus Corners Governor Murphy

By FRED WARNER NEAL

Defeat of the civil service bill, if such it can be called, in the distorted form the state affairs committee of the House finally reported it, makes one wonder if all is holy and sweet in Lansing as the Murphy administration would like to have been.

Only a few naive optimists and Prof. James K. Pollock ever thought the drowsy politicians would let the first bill, probably the finest of its type ever introduced before a legislative body, get through. But at one time there was some hope that civil service in a form that would do at least a little good would pass.

Virginia Lanning, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Lanning, 307 North Center street, and Catherine Trost, 18, Base Line road, were critically injured shortly after 8 p. m. Tuesday in an accident on Sibley road between Napier and Beck roads.

Virginia, driving the car east, lost control of it when a dog in the road was hit. The car rammed into a telephone pole, cut it in two, and then crashed into a ditch.

Several minutes after the accident, a salesman saw the car in the ditch and believed it to be abandoned until insistent hawking of the horn and a call for help arrested his attention. He rushed both girls to the Sessions hospital where they are receiving medical care.

The girls each sustained broken legs, severe head cuts and bruises.

The car in which the girls were riding was completely demolished.

Earl Grosvenor

Earl Grosvenor, 244 South Wing street, Northville, manager of the Detroit Edison company at Farmington, headed the committee of July celebrations.

He had argued, he has rejoiced, he had demanded the legislature pass

the bill.

There are those, however, who sometimes doubt us to the sincerity of the Governor in this instance. Noting his or probably he is proved. It is possible, even probable that the Governor is as earnest in his attitude on civil service as he is in his attitude on labor disorders. But there are those who think otherwise.

A democratic representative, who is close to the administration in Lansing and who holds several important committee posts, the other day had this to say about Governor Murphy and civil service:

"The majority of the wealth in this state is republican wealth. It contributes freely and generously to republican campaign funds. Our supporters, on the other hand, are made up largely of laboring men, the lower middle class and others.

They can't afford to contribute. They are. The only reason the republicans are for it is that it will freeze the school, exercises each day. Other instructors of the school will be Mrs. Arthur Schnute, James Copland and Mrs. Lawrence LeFevere.

These persons will be assisted with occasional help from other church members from time to time as specific training is given in special phases of religious work," explained Rev. Rossow.

There is no charge for the instruction which has but one aim that of teaching Bible knowledge and imparting religious truths.

And Social Circles For 1937 Graduates

By LUCILLE SIMMONS

The salutatorian of this year's local graduating class was Lucile Simmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Simmons, 1510 West Temple road. Lucile was graduated with an honor record of 90.3.

Her salutatory address which was given the night of her graduation is reprinted in this issue.

We ask you, then, dear friends, to be glad with us and for us as we enter upon the program of the year, sure that we are all most earnest in assuring you of our joy at having you with us, and that in the warmth of inspiration of your presence, am most sincere in telling you, in the name of my classmates, how truly glad we are that you are here.

To you, this may be indeed a pleasant occasion, for we shall certainly do our best to make it so; but at best, it will be only one of many, many such occasions in your lives, which, enjoyable as they may be in their influence. To us it is a great occasion, a red letter day, one of the brightest spots in all our lives and bound to live forever in our memories.

It closes a period—the most important period that we have yet known, and one of the utmost value

Record Begins Sixty-seventh Year of Community Service

The Record this week is celebrating its 67th birthday—we think. It is this way the word volume up in the extreme left hand top corner of the front page you have often wondered what Zeels' date 2, Northville, was removed Friday from Redwood 2001, change this week from 66 to 67. 147 CHILDREN SING TRAINING SCHOOL LAZY TOWN OPERA

Costumes Heighten Colorful Stage Scenes; Settings Are Dutch

Seven costumed children together with a chorus of 24 voices presented Sunday afternoon in the capacity-filled Wayne County Training school auditorium the annual Children's Day program which this year was a two-act opera "Loye Toss."

Every teacher in the institution contributed to the performance. Northville's flying dentist, Dr. D. A. Brief, made his first airplane trip, many giving their time to the teaching of songs and dialogue, others constructing stage settings, and still more in the supervision and designing of the costumes worn by the children as they

WHY A ROSE BLOOMS

A fresh cut American Beauty rose, in a vase on the desk of H. G. Roach, realtor, has attracted the attention of those who visit his office these days. It is of a large, red fragrant variety, and would seem to have come from the choice selection of a florist. One could never suspect these cut roses freshly clipp'd each day, to have come from a bush planted 42 years ago. It is true, nevertheless, and therein lies a story.

The mother of Mr. Roach, died 42 years ago and was buried in the cemetery at Antura City. A rose, in memory of her, was planted on her grave. Sixteen years later, at the age of 78, she died again, reported to Traverse City to be buried beside her. This rose was taken up from its original position to compete for a place among the flowers which had been performed at Lake Orion, Aug. 23, 1932.

After a reception the young people went to Niagara Falls for a week end trip. This will be the second time they have been together. Because of a riding accident the couple at Traverse City, the planting of the bush was not permitted and so was placed at the home of another relative. At his death this memory flower which had been carefully nurtured always was again lifted from its bed to be brought to the home of Mr. Post at Walled Lake.

It holds a place of honor and dignity in the home soil of the son of the mother for whom it was planted. It is tenderly cherished, ever as a living tribute to one who has departed, long since.

FORD PASSES MILESTONE (Michigan Manufacturer - Financial Record)

Henry Ford has entered on the thirty-fifth year of his industrial history. The new mile-mark was reached in June, and the pioneer automobile industrialist viewed the accomplishment of turning out more than 25,000,000 vehicles.

This world leader in mass production over the year estimates that his plants will build 1,200,000 cars.

Human Interest Briefs From Exchange Columns

Plymouth—Kenneth Matheson, athletic director at Plymouth High School for the past nine years, left Saturday to take up a new post with the Detroit school system.—The Plymouth Mail.

Dearborn—Settlement of the dispute over appointments to the staff of the Dearborn public library which has raged for three months, seemed near amicable settlement with approval by the city council of the selection of Miss Luella Karnatz as junior assistant in the library. Miss Karnatz was named by the library commission to fill the vacancy left by promotion of Miss Regis Daniels from junior to senior library assistant, which was also given council approval.—The Dearborn Press.

Plymouth—Thomas Beck, president of the 1937 senior class of the Plymouth High School, was notified last week that he has been awarded a $1,000 scholarship by the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity which has chapters in 89 American colleges. He will enter Albion college this fall to take three years of pre-law studies and then transfer to the University of Michigan to finish his law course.—The Plymouth Mail.

Dearborn—Distribution of a special Ford edition of the U. A. W. newspaper at the city limits of Dearborn was begun June 23 by members of the union, who boarded street cars and tuses at the city limits to hand papers to Ford workers returning to their homes from work.—The Dearborn Press.

Birmingham—Proof that Birmingham school teachers are underpaid and are receiving considerably less than the average salary given in the suburban Detroit area is found in

GLADSTONE CELEBRATES GOLDEN JUBILEE

The peninsula division of the Soo Line railroad which was completed to Gladstone community in 1887 will be built again in memory at the Marquette Athletic field there Saturday, Sunday and Monday, July 3, 4 and 5, when the city will fittingly celebrate the semi-centennial of its founding.

Wayne—The tax rate for the Village of Wayne for 1937 was set last week at $16 per thousand valuation. This is the same figure as last year, which was reduced from $20 per thousand in 1935.—The Wayne Dispatch.

Flat Rock—Miss Margaret Helton, 19-year-old waitress in a cafe in Flat Rock, died in Wyandotte General hospital early Monday of burns suffered in an explosion at 9:45 p.m. Sunday, June 20, in a gas filled room in the Torough hotel, Flat Rock, where she lived.—The Trenton Times.

BELL RINGERS ARE WARNED

(Ingham County News, Mason)

Mrs. Guy S. Thorburn has only a few hours a day to herself and she doesn't want to devote them to picking up handbills and answering the doorbell to greet peddlers and agents. So the Ingham County News printed a placard for her.

The placard reads: "NO AGENTS DO NOT LEAVE HAND BILLS."

humorous novel of the same name, and presents the inimitable Horton in the role of the chief character.

Ned Nolen, a hypochondriac who sells his birthright for a mess of Marby Arms and Manufacturing bulls. He tries to regret the gain and then regrets his heritage.

Wilson's novel and the screen version present the chief character as a man fond of his ailments, who to earn his respects talents. More isn't the money to indulge in all the fancy phases of it. He's due to come into a million dollars in six months, but is certain hell be set free.

He can't make his last few days a delight on "Sov' eral" fame, Frank M. Thornton sells his coming fortune to a band of sharpers on condition they advance him more, with which he indulges his desires.

The film begins when Horton falls in love, tries to impress his sweetheart with a series of dare-devil breath-taking andreckless stunts which almost cause the crook to die of heart failure.

The cast includes Dorothy Leigh, William Hall, Eve Arden, Truman Hall, Catherine Doucet, and William Demarest.

"DON'T TELL THE WIFE"

Featuring three of Hollywood's most popular comedians in a richly romantic screen play, "Cobweb" over modern winter costumes designed by Art Directors Van Nest

Pugh and Pepe Gray.

It is a two or three reelers as Guy Kibbee, Una Merkel and Lynne Overman assembled in a plot that gives full room for unsupported by justice valor is good for nothing; and, if all men were just there would be no need of valor.—Agaenus II
