POST OFFICE BOASTS TOP RECORD HERE

Air Mail Business Triples
This Year; Money Orders
Increase 21 Per Cent

With the closing of the post office's fiscal year, June 30, Postmaster Fred E. Van Atta points to the decided increase of stamp and bond sales as indicative of the general improvement of business conditions throughout the country.

"This year is an all time high for this office. I expected to find the 1929 reports showing a slight margin over this year's reports, but the incoming cash for that period totaled only $16,000 as against a figure of $20,541 for 1927, which is a 15 per cent gain over 1926, when the total was $18,091." commented Mr. Van Atta.

During the past 12 months, the stamp sales alone have brought in $18,887.15; second class postage totaled $13,232; permits equaled $1,425.59; and box rents amounted to $270.10.

The money order department showed a gain that exceeded that of the stamp sales. Here 36,252 money orders were issued, 61 of which were international, resulting in an increase of 21 per cent over the 1926 figure.

An increase of $11,055 was made in the postal savings deposits at the post office over the amount taken in last year.

The government bonds purchased here, totaling $26,617.75, skyrocketed way beyond the expectations of Mr. Van Atta. "Why just in two days last week, we sold $400 in bonds," he affirmed. June was the high month for the bond business here with the mark hitting $5,812.55. The bottom figure for the year, $112, was made in October.

In testing of the large volume of parcel post mail which is routed out of Northville, Mr. Van Atta said that since December there have been two more transits taking out 400 miles than in previous years. "We feel that one more transit stop here for parcel post mail, so we are adding the 104, and the 106, both of which run in to Detroit."

"People are getting wise to the idea of fast mail," continued Mr. Van Atta, stating that the air mail stamp sales here during the year tripled the record of 1926.

MID-SUMMER JUNIOR HORSE SHOW EVENT IS AT ARROWHEAD

The third annual mid-season horse event, the Gymkhana and Horse Show, which attracts the owners of some of the finest specimens of horse flesh in this immediate locality will take place at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, July 11, at Arrowhead Farms, the country home of Mrs. Wm. Raxle Exrion; for many years chairman of the Northville Junior Horse show held each August at the time of the Northville Wayne County fair.

Six classes, open to junior riders under 12 years of age, in and around Northville, have been arranged.

The main event of the afternoon will be the good hands class, the winner to receive a trophy in addition to the blue ribbon. First, second and third ribbons will be given in all classes.

Judges for the events will be Mrs. Grace DaRatt of Southfield, and H. B. Clark, superintendent of the Horse Show.

Miss Kathryn Marburger, who won a first place trophy in a ladies' event with Princess K at the Toledo show, June 26, will show both her horses.

Other horses to be entered in the Sunday events are owned by Miss Barbara Phillips, Miss Nancy McLaughlin, Scott Cole, Jr., Billy Wasburne, Kenneth Willis, the Misses Margaret and Ida Marie Walker of Happy Acres farm, Paul Grennan, Jr., Hal Horton of Plymouth, Patricia and Sydne Holmes, Dean Hesinger, Gilbert Forshee, Norman Campbell, Bill Matts, the Misses Jean Baldwin and Dorothy Cowan of Ann Arbor.

Ernest H. Chapelle, superintendent of schools of Ypsilanti, will be the guest speaker at the Rotary Club Tuesday, July 21.

FORMER VILLAGER MAKES PLEA FOR CEMETERY CARE

Shady Trees Protect Sleeping
Northville Residents of Early Days

By C. E. HUTTON

The subject of this stanza might ordinarily be considered a bit ingenuous, maudlin as it has to do with the "old cemetery," one of Northville's earliest landmarks. It is felt, however, that the thought which prompts the writing may be of more than passing interest to many "home towners" be they at home or abroad.

As long as I can remember, the "old cemetery" has always been affectionately associated with my collective thoughts of the town of my birth. Years ago, as I passed daily on my way to school, it held no awesomeness for me, but seemed rather, to be a friendly spot, with shade from the soft singing kindie evergreens resting quietly on the friends asleep beneath.

According to Superintendent R. H. Amerman, the only other business to come before the taxpayers at this time will be the hearing of financial reports. The financial status of the school district is, Mr. Amerman says the best it has been for many years, especially in view of the fact that a grade school building has been under construction in the past year and teachers' salaries have been increased.

In the Walled Lake school district where the annual meeting will be held next week, the matter of annexation is to be faced.

At a special Tuesday election, the Commerce District 5, fractional, known as the Union Lake School District, voted to annex to the Commerce, 1, fractional known as the Walled Lake District. The vote was taken at the Union Lake school. This area includes the new West-acre subdivision which has an approximate total valuation of one and one-half million dollars.

Commissioner Hicks, on the other hand, told he had talked with Mr. Schoultz "not more than half an hour ago and he's willing to take it."

Perrin, making an unsupported plea for Ely's appointment, said: "Here's a man who ready wants to sit on the council. He lives in a part of town not represented in this group. I'm convinced that if he doesn't get the place at this time he'll run in the spring election (Perrin). Hicks and Schoultz's terms expire next spring. It's our duty to name someone whom all can trust to represent us."

"Why hasn't Ely run before?" I've asked, the time we couldn't get people to run for this job," responded Dr. Burkart.

When it became apparent to him that his man was not to get anything, Mr. Perrin said that he would urge a lot of the boys to spring to a resolution to have Mr. Ely elected by the voters. "Mr. Ely is even tall in the village of a lot of women running for places on the council at the next election. We'll be good men with George," he said.

"I'd like to see a good boy take his place. It's my opinion that Mr. Schoultz won't be very active on the council," he charged.

When Perrin's motion died, Hicks introduced a motion to appoint Schoultz to fill Gregory's unexpired term.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arnold of West Point Park accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bert McBride of Newborn, avenue, Redford, spent the weekend and holiday with Mrs. M. Schaefer at Coopersville.

Frank L. Hendryx, one surviving Mr. Trufant, died for the past 13 years a guard at the Detroit House of Correction, died Sunday afternoon in Schenectady, N. Y., at the home of his sister.

His death culminated an illness of several months. He had been in failing health for a long time. His death was ill health that prompted Mr. Trufant's resignation from his guard post early this spring.

Mr. Trufant, who was born in Mt. Clemens, March 13, 1876, came to Northville in 1918 from Ypsilanti where he had been in the milling business. He was also associated in the mill here.

Surviving Mr. Trufant is one daughter, Mrs. Allen Buckley of Northville. His wife, Allina McRoberts Trufant, preceded him in death in 1930.

Last rites were held Wednesday afternoon in Mt. Clemens. Burial was made in the family mausoleum at that place.

FRANK L. HENDRYX
DIES WEDNESDAY

After a three-day illness, Frank L. Hendryx, 70, died Wednesday morning at a neighboring hospital. Mr. Hendryx had been in ill health for a number of years but his condition was not considered critical.

Until four years ago, Mr. Hendryx farmed his land on East Baseline road. He sold the property and moved to the village to live at 529 Randolph street. Moving to this locality from Farmington 40 years ago, he became a part of Northville's community life. He was born Sept. 4, 1867 at Redford.

Surviving him are a daughter, Mrs. Archie Avis; a granddaughter, Irene of Northville; a brother, George of Walled Lake; three sisters, Mrs. Martha Powers of Walled Lake, Mrs. Zoo Powers and Mrs. Hattie Francis of Farmington. The funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. July 9 at the Schaefer's. Burial will be made in Mt. Clemens.

Dr. and Mrs. Dan A. Brief are having a week's vacation motoring through northern Michigan. In anticipation of going to Washington, Neal turned down several other newspaper offers. Now he is faced with the choice of several others with the prospect of going to New York in the fall.

SCHOOL BOARD CHANGE IS NOT ANTICIPATED

Dr. Todd's Term Expires;
Expect Him to Resume
Duties, Reports Ready

as the date for the school meeting 7:30 p.m. Monday, July 12, in the high school auditorium, draws near, voices opinions from all parts of the village are united in the movement to reelect Dr. J. H. Todd for another term on the board of education.

Councilmen Approve Mayor's Appointee, Carl B. Schoultz, Succeeds Wm. T. Gregory

Commissioner Elmer Perrin Stands Firm in Attempt to Name Claude Ely; Gives Spring Election Warning

Carl B. Schoultz, 590 East Baseline line road, head of the chicken department of the Wayne County Training school, was appointed commissioner Monday evening to fill the council position made vacant by the resignation on May 5, of William T. Gregory.

Mr. Schoultz received the backing of Commissioners George A. Hicks, Floyd Shaefer and J. W. Perkins in a 3-1 vote cast after Commissioner Elmer Perrin's motion to appoint Claude Ely to the post died because of want of a second to the motion.

Mr. Schoultz's name was presented

"I HAVE MORE THAN I DESERVE"

There visited us the past week one of the state's best editors who always leaves us with an impression that we are glad he came. He has had his share of life's bumps but he never comes to tell us about those; he drops in to say that it is still a grand good world and that he has had more than his share of blessings. In these days of complaints on every side and the very real discouragements that face us all, it is refreshing to find someone who finds that life's balance sheet is all to the good.

Just the other evening as we tried to condone this friend he said to us: "Say, Dick, I have far more than I deserve and so have you. Forget about it." The next time you are tempted to kick on life and the way it uses you, ask yourself honestly: "Haven't I really more than I deserve?"

SUPERINTENDENT AMERMAN'S BELIEF

Superintendent of Schools, Russell H. Amerman is the new president of the Northville Rotary. This office is an exceptional honor. We were impressed by a statement that President Amerman made in a recent issue of The Rotary News. Here it is: "I believe thoroughly in the home and the church as the foundations of American Democracy. I have little time to discuss politics, but I have never failed to vote since becoming eligible."

We don't know how you feel about it but to us, in these times of social unrest—and almost revolution—it is mighty heart-warming to hear the statement of principle from such a community leader as Superintendent Amerman. We are living in menacing times. Many of our old foundations are apparently in danger of destruction. Around us are many潜influences that are tearing away at the fundamental fabric of life without which our civilization would not be safe. There are plenty of influences that would demoralize, if not completely ruin, both the home and the church. So it is cheering to find that our school leaders are still one of the first defenses of our American Democracy.

LOOK OUT FOR LIQUOR PROPAGANDA

If you are getting to think that beer is a fine thing for the communists and that after all the long tirade of an old fashioned idea, look out that somebody is not fooling you.

A mighty propaganda campaign, using all the salutary forces of new paper and magazine publicity and radio charm, is underway to influence American people to think that beer is one of our finest economic and social assets.

This can also be being carried on through the newly-formed United Brewers Industrial Foundation. This foundation sets up its claim to public favor the fact that it is cooperating with all forces working for moderation and respect for law. No one should be fooled by this claim for moderation and respect for law.

The brewers are out to sell beer and more beer. The liquor traffic is and always has been selfish, grasping and destructive. It claims to help the poor man by cutting down his taxes. Beer is the poor man's drink and the poor man always pays, in spite of any propaganda to the contrary.

Do your own thinking about this liquor business. Fundamental facts don't change. Money spent for liquor is money that robs some of your family of needed things. If the brewer gets your money, you lose.

SUMMER DAYS ARE PLANNING DAYS

The year's longest day is back of us. The cold, rainy spring will make summer seem short and before we know it the school bell will be ringing again. We plant our flowers here in Michigan and in a few short months the frost cut them down, we dig in for winter. In short, this time of ours goes rushing by and we live in a series of changes.

As the summer days pass are we getting ready for the fall and winter? In the midst of all our changes, if we are smart we must think ahead and be ready for the next jump.

The easy days of summer with no coal to shovel and long hours of the outdoors are good days to plan and prepare. Do you want a better job? Now is the time to plan for it. Do you want to buy or build a home? Sit down now on the porch and lay your schemes to get one—no one else will do it for you. Do you want to have your children go to college? There never was more need for them to be adequately prepared for life—never a better time than now to help them get the best possible mental, physical and social equipment. Do you want to spend sunset days in peace and content? These summer days are good days to ask yourself what you are doing with life and what is the goal ahead.

Do you want to spend next February or March in Florida or California? What better time than summer (that will all too soon be gone) to plan for that trip? Summer time is the best time to lay in a new deposit of health and strength to meet the rigors of the coming winter. These are good days for the children's health to be safeguarded by physical and dental examinations. These are the days to store away the blessings of sunshine in the great out-of-doors.

Yes, there are some melancholy thoughts that go along with these fleeting days. These, however, should only act as a spur to help us get the most out of this glorious summer time and to plan wisely for the days ahead. "The best is yet to be."

WHAT IS BACK OF LAW AND ORDER LEAGUES?

Many thoughtful people are rightly disturbed over the organization of Law and Order Leagues. These Vigilante groups such as have been organized in Monroe, Flint and other Michigan cities, may easily become dangerous things.

Yet many right thinking people are pretty much in sympathy with these volunteer law and order groups. These people feel that the processes of law and order have broken down in Michigan to an amazing extent. For example: take the city of Flint. The U. A. W. seems to have veritably taken over the city. For example, Union leaders have instructed their thousands of members not to pay rent now, and many have taken this advice. Courts and court orders are ridiculed. Again, the Flint automobile dealers have had their places of business closed for months by pickets. Again, a Flint candy shop was closed when only three out of 26 employees walked out, and in the resulting riot ten were injured. In 75% of all these and many other alarming conditions in Flint, is it any wonder that hundreds of Flint citizens have organized a Vigilante committee? These citizens feel that law has broken down in their city and respect for law can only be regained by volunteer action.

It was a sad day for Michigan when lawless labor agitators were allowed to start a long series of violent disorders that are bringing the present harvest of law-breakdown.

Even Governor Murphy, who stands over back of the Union leaders, is beginning to see the danger in the breakdown of law. He is beginning to place the blame where some of it belongs. This is what he said last week as quoted by the Detroit papers:

"Communists, when they could, deliberately created disorders as in the Lansing labor holiday, the Consumers Power Co. strike and in some phases of the sit-downs. They not only sought orders but they sought bloodshed. They wanted bloodshed and they tried to draw us into a fight. When I speak of Communists, I do not refer to the CIO-membership, which is the rank and file of American citizenship, but to Communist cliques."

PARTY RECIPES FOR CHILDREN

A SMALL boy recently broke into print for a bright idea about his school.

The parents are although keenly interested in the curriculum of his school were never able to extract much news from John. However, one day we have some information.

We have a surprise school every single day," he confided.

"And it's always crooked."

This reminds us that the first step in planning party foods for children is that they contain an element of surprise—something good to eat dressed up to surprise profit.

Ice Cream—Of Course.

The second requirement, perhaps,

is that they include ice cream at some sort of frozen fruit dessert. Ice cream and strawberries, lard and cream, very nicely to surprise guests. For a patriotic party, for example, a cup of vanilla ice cream can easily be converted into a flag. If a flag is stuck in the top, and a toy toy holder for a favor, stands guard on the dish.

Ice cream can be converted into Circus Parade Ice

Cream by a ring on each slice of cake. For May parties, or other spring fêtes fruit shortbread is very festive and delectable.

Late Afternoon Church Ceremony Unites
Marjorie Holden and Austin Schwager;
40 Wedding Guests Attend Reception

Before an altar banked with palms and lilies, Mrs. Charles Rogers opens home to Merry-Go-Round Club members. Marjorie Holden and Austin Chapman Schwager of Cleveland, had a meeting Thursday, July 1, at the home of Mrs. Charles Rogers, at 2 o'clock Saturday, July 3, in the Prebyterian church house.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. Dr. T. W. Smith following an organ recital by Mrs. Seward W. Amber.

For her wedding, the bride wore a gown of aquamarine marmalade, a lace bodice and a lace hem. It was sojourning the past winter in marine scarf. Her bouquet was fashioned of Brussels roses and Gyp-Merry-Go-Round friends and gypsophila, tied with egg-shell satin ribbon.

Mrs. Paul Hinszeker, Detroit, was decorated with yellow cellophane, a leghorn hat accented with an orange blossom, a pink shadow-figured sombrero and a yellow organza which she wore with blue ribbon these with yellow place accessories. Johanna Hall roses and cards, California poppies and baby-blue delphiniums made up her bouquet.

Mr. Schwager's best man was George Wagner of St. Thomas, Ky., Robert Weaver, Traverse City, cousin of the bride, was usher.

A reception for 40 guests, members of the immediate families and out-of-town guests, was held after dinner from St. John's, Madeline's wedding in the church house.

Upon the return of Mr. and Mrs. Schwager, Aug. 15, what are now after-dinner pictures were taken, motorizing in the east, they will make of the visitors and all enjoyed strolling through the large garden of beautiful flowers. And then came the event of the day—bingo—when the hostess had prepared most wonderful prizes for the binglers such as whale ham, chicken, bacon, butter, eggs, crackers, a wrist watch, diamond ring, brooches plates, auto, a dog and numerous other valuable articles.

And so another day was ended and all returned to their homes after visiting Harry and Charlie many happy hours together.

Our next meeting will be with McJames C. S. and S. G. Fulkerson, Tuesday, June 28—Mrs. Howell Reporters.

There were approximately 100,000 "sticker" cars operating in the Detroit district on July 1," said Mr. Morris. "There are still many thousands who have failed to get plates. This means that in the last few days our offices will be plenty busy and tardy buyers will have to take their turn in line."

FOR OLD FLOORS

To the problem of improving the appearance of a shabby, rough, soft wood floor, the answer may be color. Almost any selection that is harmonious with the furnishings of the room can be used—coral, yellow, terra cotta, turquoise, jade green and other similar tones. One thing to remember is, that the floor color should be darker than the walls.

Stenciled designs and borders can add greatly to the effectiveness of such floor decoration and are not difficult to apply. When such a scheme is completed a coat of varnish or shellac, then wax, will protect the surface.

In purchasing the materials, be sure to tell your dealer the purpose for which the product is to be used. Varnish prepared for a floor, for instance, can take much more punishment than a varnish made for some other surface. So that a floor coating may withstand the tramp of feet and endure as long as possible its manufacturers include ingredients that give it extra durability. Christian Science Monitor.

STICKERS

Thousands of auto owners in Detroit and Wayne county have failed to get their license plates for the last half of the year. Sticker licenses expire at midnight July 31 at which time police will swing into action.

Every car found operating without proper license plates will be impounded and the driver served with notice to appear in court.

The final half year plates went on sale July 1 and the secretary of state's main office at Cass and Alvarado avenues as well as the branch offices reported brisk demand for plates. This, officials believe, reflects increased employment.

Do you notice the two little wall lamps flanking the picture just above the mantel? They're quite new, and bid fair to become extremely popular. Their colors, by the way, are made to match the wall paper or paint. Open at the top, they send considerable light to the ceiling, to soften the general effect. At the bottom, glass plates permit diffused light to reach the ivy plants and keep them healthy. Small round glass ornaments on the curved outer surface add a delightful decorative touch.

These little wall lamps were installed to replace less attractive fixtures that were originally provided, and which are now stored away. When moving day rolls around, the old fixtures will be put back, and the new ones taken along.

There's a growing feeling among homeowners that lighting fixtures, which form such important parts of the decorative scheme, should be just as removable as the rest of the furnishings. Rather sensible, don't you think?

This Is The Way Times Change

THE bride of 1897 thought she was lucky to start housekeeping with one of those new gas ranges like that shown above, for it meant a step forward in progress from her mother's wood and coal stove that needed continual stoking. The proud bride set her range against dark brown wallcovering that wouldn't show the dirt, and added a daring touch of a checked red cloth on the table. Yet, it's a sad picture to the eyes of us moderns who take our modern conveniences so lightly.

Although Roscoe Conklin resigned from the United States Senate against the urgent plea of General Grant, the General sought to remain Conklin's friend, and to assist him in every way that he could.

"Friends of Grant were astounded. 'Have you gone over to Conklin's side?' they asked. 'You don't be a traitor,' said Conklin." —Christian Science Monitor.

"No, I don't," was the reply.

"They why are you trying to help him?" they insisted.

"When," answered Grant indignantly, "is a better time for a man to show his friendship than when his friend has made a mistake?"

Red Bridge Park ATTRACTS TOURISTS

Red Bridge Park, newest of Consumers Power company's free tourist camps, was officially opened to public use July 2 as an unscrupulous feature of the Manistee Forest Festival July 2-5.

Developed during the closing months of 1936 and the first half of this year, Red Bridge already has been sought out by numerous picnickers and casual visitors, according to Mr. Boore.

The new camp occupies a wild and heavily wooded site on the Manistee River bluffs a few miles

WALLED LAKE FIRE CHIEF IS HOST TO NEIGHBORING CHIEFS

Van Sickle, Baron Frisco, owned by C. Wald of Belleville, also placed in the money in the coat race at the Hillsdale performance.

At Richmond, Mr. Setz's Peewee Run Sister brought first money, a best time run of 2:19 in the 2:30 trot or pace. In the 10-10 trot or pace, Miss Gratten Direct, owned by Archie Niles, came in with the time record of 2:12.

Making a good showing for his first race, Stan Direct, owned by Gibson of Detroit, and driven by Horace Niles, came in third in the 2:25 trot or pace.

It was also at Richmond that this year's champion, Arthur G. Wimmer, Walled Lake fire chief, was host.

Some 150 persons attended the meeting being open to the wives of the men. The district extends to Bay City, Lansing and Alma Arbor, and includes the Detroit Metropolitan area.

Leon Case, secretary of State, Spencer Howarth, Oakland county sheriff, and Franklin Morris, county prosecuting attorney, were the speakers of the day.

During the session a demonstration of the new Barton plumper and other fire equipment was given. A new type traffic signal light especially designed for small towns was one of the outstanding features of the day.

The evening meeting was held at the home of Chief Floyd Baker of Highland Park.

The Walled Lake School board has adopted the policy that non-resident pupils will not be accepted at Walled Lake in the future.

Another annexation problem will come before the annual meeting for the Wixom district, part of Commerce, 7 fractional, and Bentley distinct, located in the Novi township, 10, meeting July 12, will involve the question of annexation to the Walled Lake district.

It is rumored that other districts are contemplating similar annexations.

BICYCLE LICENSE PLATES

The purchase of 80,000 license plates for bicycles to comply with the recently adopted ordinance designed to lower bicycle thefts was approved Tuesday by the Detroit Common Council.

President Burkart stated that he thought such a credit system had led to monopolistic control which is incompatible with the spirit of brotherhood advocated by Christ.

The speaker called attention to the paradoxes of modern civilization: of spending billions to maintain peace by arming against an unnamed enemy; of paying huge salaries and profits to powerful people while millions of honest folk exist on a diet of economic efficiency that wastes materials in production; of surplus teachers and untrained, uneducated youths; of fighting wars to save civilization and destroying the best minds and bodies in warfare; of preparing for warfare against imaginary foreign enemies while ignoring the real enemies within the country.
