BUSINESS MEN PLAN HARVEST FESTIVAL HERE

Final Appreciation Event to be Marked With Street
Dance, Games

The final Merchants' Appreciation event will be marked Wednesday evening, Sept. 22, with a harvest festival. Backed by the Civic association, proceeds obtained from the competitive games features of the evening's program, will be given to the Northville high school band, directed by Leslie G. Lee. The money will buy new instruments. This musical organization will give a concert the night of the festival. Music for dancing will be provided at a later hour and sections in the business district will be roped off for a street dance, creating a scene not unlike that which occurred here a little over a year ago when the new pavement was dedicated.

According to Orlov G. Owen, the festivities will begin at 7 o'clock.

MARGARET WALKER HEADS ORANGE AND BLACK SCHOOL STAFF

With Leslie G. Lee sponsoring the activity, the Orange and Black school page makes its first appearance of the school year in this issue.

Headed this year by Margaret Walker as editor, the reporters will take their assignments from last year's associate editor, who teamed with Nan McLaughlin of the Junior class to edit the page. Originally Margaret and Nan were listed to be co-editors this year, but Nan moved to Detroit a week before school started, made it imperative that Margaret assume the editorship. Her ability to take the responsibility was shown on several occasions last year when she did pinch-hitting for the debating editor, observing, directing for copy as rigidly as old Nan herself.

Margaret's associate is Gwendolyn Jones, who wrote society last year and who handled special features from time to time. The two girls are both seniors.

With Leslie G. Lee sponsoring the activity, the Orange and Black school page makes its first appearance of the school year in this issue.

Charles Bishop, Arthur Mitchell, Mary George and Claude Hinchman, seniors, are reporters this fall. Others from the junior ranks are Catherine Barry, Wanda Bender and Betty Jane Gillespie. Ida Marie Walker, the eighth grader who was awarded the American Legion honor last spring, is the only freshman on the staff.

The high school schedule is so arranged as to allow for three classes of journalism instruction, three times each week. Mr. Lee was faculty advisor before Mrs. Frances Harper took over the work a year ago.

W.R.C. PLANS CARD PARTY

The Allen P. Harmon Relief Corps of Northville will give a card party Wednesday evening, Sept. 22, in the Legion Hall.

Corps ladies are asked to bring card tables and sandwiches. Coffee will be supplied. Everyone is invited to join the group for a good time. There will be other games for those who do not care to play cards. Playing will not begin until after the Appreciation events.

WOLD JOHNSON RITES

Funeral services were held Tuesday, Sept. 14, in Marquette for the late John F. Johnson, 75, who died here at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. A. Isaacson. He was born in Varmland, Sweden, March 4, 1862, and came to this country with his parents in 1869. His last ten years were spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaacson.

Mrs. Harmon, 73, Prominent Villager, Dies After Stroke

Sudden death ended the earthly activities of one of the most prominent women in the history of the village when it claimed Mrs. Frank S. (Kittie S.) Harmon at 11 p. m. Saturday, Sept. 11, just five hours after she suffered a stroke.

Mrs. Harmon's life chapter closed quietly at her home, 1115 Northville Wayne County Fair, there since its inception, she had headed the women's division. Through the first struggling years of the enterprise, she gave of her time, energy and counsel. It was with pride that she watched its growth and financial success in later years and still she stayed by the post to which she had been appointed that first year, 21 summers ago when Harry B. Clark, president of the association, told associate fair board members that Mrs. Harmon was the one to head the department. "She knows more about sewing and fancy work than anyone in the village," he said. And so it was that she began with the fair.

But this was just one of the public spirited acts attributed to Mrs. Harmon who, with the exception of five years spent in Pittsburgh and Baltimore, lived here 72 of the 73 years of her life. Much of her energy was directed toward the program of the King's Daughters, for which she devoted her time and interest during the World War. Active in the Orient chapter of the Eastern Star, she became a past mistress of the organization. When a young woman, she sang in the

She was a long time member of the Woman's club and her most intimate friends were numbered among the members of the Merry-Goround club composed of a group of women who through the years have met once each month to share the hospitality of one of their number and to bind further the ties of friendship. She found time in her busy life to bring together a group of young women to teach them the art of needle work.

Another enterprise was enriched by her willingness to assume the secretaryship and presidency of the Library Association. Old records show that she was a member from 1897-1899, then for a time she was away from the village resuming her membership in 1904. Having been president once before, in 1914 she took over the office and held it until the Wayne County Library board absorbed the local association. She took her turn with other members of the group in performing the duties of librarian, long before a salaried librarian for the post was ever considered. Later she became a member of the Wayne County Library board.

Likewise to her through the years had come much of the responsibility for the organization and maintenance of the Cemetery Association.

But her activities outside her home were never comparable to the loyalty, devotion and tender care which she tendered her invalid sister, Della, who survives her. Sharing the care of her sister during the years since Mr. Harmon's death has been her intimate friend, Mrs. B. W. Hewitt, who has lived in the home. It was she, together with Mr. Hewitt, who were on hand to aid Mrs. Harmon Saturday evening when she was suddenly stricken, as she completed last minute duties preparatory to entertaining Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Dear and Miss Dorothy Dean at dinner.

Mrs. Harmon was born Kittie Simonds, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William G. Simonds.

150 BAPTISTS ATTEND LOCAL CONVENTION

Some 150 Baptists, members of the Wayne Baptist association attended the two-day convention in the local church Wednesday and Thursday of this week in observance of the ninety-seventh anniversary of the organization.

The group included 20 ministers from surrounding communities with the Rev. P. A. Bismarck of Holly moderator of the sessions.

Climaxing the program was a service Thursday evening featuring an address by the Rev. W. P. Hufford, director of religious education and evangelism of the Michigan Baptist convention. The youth of the church also had a part in the meeting. The Michigan president of the B. Y. P. U. Maynard Johnson

MRS. ELY VISITS BIRTHPLACE ON 13 MILE ROAD

Finds That Spring Still Flows As It Did

The other day Carl R. Ely had the fun of taking his mother, Mrs. Ada M. Ely of Farmington, to the house in which she was born but which she had not seen since 1893. It happened on this wise. While driving along on the Thirteen Mile road with his mother she suddenly exclaimed, "Why I believe there is the house where I was born." Driving to the house, Mr. Ely said to the young man who came to the door, "My name is Ely. That doesn't mean a thing to you but I believe my mother was born in this house."

The man replied, "Well, bring her right in and maybe she can tell us where the old stairway was."

"So Mrs. Ely, who is now over 80 years old, with a remarkable memory, went into the house and recalled many details of the former home. Not only had the stairway been removed but there had been some changes in the arrangements of the rooms.

"And is the spring still back of the house?" she asked.

"Certainly," replied the owner who took her out and showed her the water still flowing just as it had when she left at 12 years of age.

After the visit, Mrs. Ely said, "It was a very interesting trip. I found that the house was just as I remembered it, but with some changes in the interior."

Another enterprise was enriched by her willingness to assume the secretaryship and presidency of the Library Association. Old records show that she was a member from 1897-1899, then for a time she was away from the village resuming her membership in 1904.

CLOSE PIERSON SCHOOL, WEST POINT PARK

Roy Trapp Is Infantile Paralysis Victim in Detroit
Hospital

With the closing of the Pierson school at West Point Park this week when a case of infantile paralysis was revealed, Northville children were placed under even more rigid inspection than had marked the first days of school here last week.

When schools opened Superintendent R. H. Amerman said that there was no reason why classes shouldn't go forward, despite the delay in opening in Detroit. "However," he said, "the teachers and Mrs. Starr Bray, health nurse, will be on guard for any signs that look dangerous," he affirmed at that time.

West Point Park's victim is a junior high school lad, Roy Trapp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Trapp of that place. He is receiving medical attention at the Herman Kiefer hospital.

The Pierson school will be closed for only two weeks unless additional cases develop. According to the village health officer, Dr. B. M. Allen, the school is the best in Northville. A single clean bill of health as far as infantile paralysis is concerned comes from the township health officer, Dr. W. H. Johnston.

Northville does have one case of infantile fever, however. Duane Small of West Dunlap street is the victim. Contrary to reports, there are no cases of whooping cough here.

MRS. YOUNG DIES

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from the Schaefer chapel for Mrs. Elizabeth Young, 67, who died following a stroke Saturday. The Rev. Harry J. Lord, conducted the service. Burial was made at Parkview cemetery.

Colleges Claim Young Villagers

Exodus Begins—Campus Activities Under Way

Northville is sending a full quota to the colleges and universities of the State this fall. This week and will be about the last time the group will be in the village until the first vacations of the term.

Ed Attman and Nelson Schrader have already gone to Michigan State college, East Lansing, where Ed is somebody's big sister and Nelson has started football practice. Before the week is gone, Edward Angove will be back on the campus enrolling for his third year in the pre-medical department. With him will be Charles Strauch and Leonard Young, freshmen, who are going in seriously for business administration.

Many Ann Nelson goes back for a fourth year to put at the feet of his professor, Kenneth Porter and department. Erling Marburger will have his second year in the chemical engineering field. Winifred Carle who left her course in nursing training at Ann Arbor two years ago to learn to be a teacher at Ypsilanti the following year, is enrolling this year at State in the home economics department. Harry Richmond and Irene Simmons of the June graduating class are off to study at State, too.

The University of Michigan will claim Violinist Ernest Racz for the third time. Alfred Parmenter returns to learn more about the business of aeronautical engineering. Paul Beard will be involved in some of those courses this year; he's classified as a sophomore. Richard Shipley is taking up the advanced work in chemistry that only those studying for a Master's degree are given. Marjane Denze, the girl that's doing splendid vocal work in the music department, is enrolling for her junior year.

Marion Turnbull who spends her time in the physical education department at the Michigan State Normal college at Ypsilanti, is enrolling there this year. Mary Louise Borden is returning to that campus for her second year. Gertrude Deal will be a senior this year in the physical education department. Evelyn Ambler, who made a name for herself last year in voice, is returning for her sophomore year. Ronald Keeling and Tom Carington will not be new to the school.

Lois Chapman has started her senior high school year at Oakwood Seminary at Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Betty Randall packed her trunk and left Sunday for Wooster college, Wooster, O. for her sophomore year where she will study history.

Alfred Parmenter is attending the Packard Trade school in Detroit. Betty Van Hore and Mary Jane Grosvenor are in Detroit taking business courses. Jane Grosvenor and Bob Lyke are attending Cleary's Business College in Ypsilanti.

John and Paul Steenken and Melvin and Wilfred Sterner were college boys last year. No report about their plans for this year have come in, but rumor has it that they all expect to continue their hunt for knowledge in the halls of learning on some campus.

APPLE THIEF LOSES SHIRT SUNDAY IN HODGE'S ORCHARD

B. A. Hodge of East Base Line road, is telling a story this week about a young fellow in a yellow shirt who lost his lavender shirt stealing apples.

"It all happened about five o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Hodge farm where voices coming from the orchard sent Mr. Hodge down by the fence to see what was happening. He was just in time to catch a man climb over the fence, his arms filled with a lavender cloth stuffed with apples.

"Come on, there," in no pleasant tone of voice brought the bundle of apples to Mr. Hodge who started back to the house with them, only to hear the unhappy picker tell him that the apples were in his shirt. Then he started throwing apples at Mr. Hodge who just kept going. "Good-bye," he said.

Rev. K. S. North Resigns His Pastorate Here

Plans to Work for Degree at Theological School in Chicago

In order that he may complete the two years of college work that he needs for his Bachelor of Theology degree, the Rev. Kenneth S. North, resigned from the Northville Baptist church.

Mr. North asked that his resignation take effect as soon as the board of deacons meets. He says the resignation of his contract to that he may study for the next year at the Northern Baptist Theological Seminary in Chicago where he will enroll Monday.

It is understood, however, that Mr. North will fill the pulpit here until another minister is called to the charge and Mr. North is released.

Mr. North expects to have a student pastorate complete next fall. Coming to this charge four years ago, he has been a great help to the church.

3 PLYMOUTH YOUTHS GET PROBATION

Principal in Farmington
Nest Plead Guilty; Await Sentences

Three Plymouth boys pled guilty last week in Circuit Court, Detroit, to charges brought against them for entering and stealing money and other articles from the Zorsee tavern early last spring.

The boys waived examination at the time of their arraignment here before Justice Arthur S. Nichols in August. When they were bound over to the fall term of the circuit court.

Trials for the other members of the youthful gang, apprehended by Chief of Police Loyd M. German, charged with a series of robberies in this section, have not been held yet. The two ring leaders, held under three $1,000 bonds are still in the county jail.

Stanley Barham, 24, and Miss Florence Robinson, 23, Maybury sanatorium employees, are awaiting sentence which will be handed down from the probation department. They pleaded guilty also in Circuit Court last week to love nest charges brought against them by Barnum's wife, Marie, after a raid in July on their home in Plymouth where the couple were living.

Judge Nichols handed a $1,000 bond on Barham and a $300 bond on Miss Robinson after their arraignment here in August, binding them over to the Circuit Court.

H. F. HAMILL GETS PLYMOUTH CONTRACT

Herald F. Hamill who has been the village engineer for Northville during the construction of the PWA water reservoir, has been named engineer in charge of the Tiquis Creek improvement project at Plymouth.

Mr. Hamill has his specifications for the job which will cover the creek from Harvey street to Wing street, Plymouth, already under way.

It is expected that work will begin early in October. A January deadline is to be observed.

The cost of the project will be between $35,000 and $40,000. It provides for the covering of the creek with cement as well as widening and straightening of the existing bed of the creek. A proposal has been made to extend Forest avenue from Wing to Ann Arbor street and re-locate the bed of the creek along the public right-of-way, eliminating cuts through private property.

Six of the seven deeds to property involved in the phase of the development have to date been obtained by Mr. Hamill.

OLAF BAUMAN RITES HELD HERE MONDAY

An illness of three weeks' duration climaxed four years of poor health suffered by Olaf L. Bauman, 48, who was brought to an end, early Saturday morning when death claimed him at the age of 48 years.

Mr. Bauman, who had been a relief member of the police force of Northville since July 19 of this year, was the third village employee to die while in office within the past year. The late William H. Safford and R. P. Kiker having died during the winter months.

Coming here from Canada in 1917, Mr. Bauman had made Northville his home for the past 20 years. He was born May 7, 1889 in Detroit, the son of John and Mary Bauman. In 1913, June 19, he was united in marriage to Ina Smitherman. For two years after their marriage they lived in Detroit, moving later to Canada.

Surviving Mr. Bauman are his wife, Ina; two sisters, Mrs. W. H. Gutow and Mrs. Ray Hertz of Detroit; one brother, Lawrence, Detroit; and his father, J. C. Bauman, also of Detroit.

Last rites were conducted at 2 p. m. Monday, Sept. 13, from the Schrader chapel by the Rev. H. J. Lord of the Methodist church. Burial was made in Rural Hill cemetery.

Recently the lot has been graded and landscaped under direction of Walter Coon of Farmington. An evergreen hedge is to be placed along the west side of the lot. At the rear a stone wall is being laid with steps leading to a sunken garden to be developed next summer.

It is of interest to Northville where these two physicians have given their services for 12 years, that with the exception of the brick, all the material for this new home has been purchased locally and as

A LAYMAN IN THE PULPIT

We notice by the Dearborn Press that W. J. Cameron, one of the high executives of the Ford Motor company, spoke Sunday in the Presbyterian church of that city. We have often thought that if our ministers would occasionally call upon the laymen to speak it might be a good thing for the pulpit and the pew.

HOUSE SHORTAGE SPREADS EVERYWHERE

Explain it how you will, the fact is that practically every industrial city in Michigan is having a shortage of houses for rent. A man living in Grand Ledge advertised a house he had for rent in Lansing. To his amazement he had fifty applications to rent this house and over 200 personal telephone calls. It must be that some of the families who "doubled up" during the depression have decided to have their own "vine and fig tree." Most people still feel that one roof is not big enough to cover two separate families.

WHY ONE MAN DOESN'T DRINK

One of the best men in Northville tells us this true story. He will be greatly surprised to see this in print. We publish it because we think that it may give a little courage to some people on the liquor question.

This friend of ours was at a party for business people in Detroit. Liquor was being served to the guests but the Northville man sat with three other men as the waiter came along to take the drink order. "The strongest I will take is Coca Cola," he said, then to his surprise the three men nearest him all refused liquor. The man next to him said something like this: "I don't want to be a fanatic about liquor but this is what it has done to my family. One day some time ago as my father was crossing the street a drunken driver came tearing round the corner and struck my father, breaking nearly every bone in his body and causing his death. And that isn't all. Another member of my family is married to a man who is very fine when he is sober. But about once a year he goes on a grand drunk and loses his job. The result is that about four months of every year his wife goes through hell. And when I say 'Hell' I don't mean maybe. Don't talk to me about liquor."

This is only one man's testimony. Although drinking is widely prevalent in Northville, there is still left in this community a small minority of people who dare not fool with liquor. The writer is one of them. Of an enthusiastic nature, we try not to do things by halves and certainly if we tried drinking liquor we would not know how to be moderate about it. Since we have come to this town we have seen too many men whom liquor has literally wrecked. They couldn't take it. Neither could we. We will say this for our wet friends—and we have a host of them—that they respect our position. No one needs to be a hypocrite about liquor in this day and age. People respect one if his convictions are honestly held.

FIFTY MILES AN HOUR

On the state highways of Michigan there is at present no limit to the speed of driving. Motorists can drive up to 80 or 90 miles an hour—and many fools do that very thing. The result of this liberal law is that the highway fatalities are terrible. We have before us a paper with a headline across the front page "Horrible Accident Kills Nine." Four members of one family were wiped out by this awful tragedy.

A proposal has been made by the state police to limit the highway driving to 50 miles an hour. No one who knows the driving conditions at present dares dispute the wisdom of this proposal. Yet, as several editors have pointed out, to pass this law and then expect it to work wonders, would be absurd. Editor V. J. Brown of Mason points to the drivers' license law in Michigan and says that it is a notorious disgrace. Who gets a license? Anyone who has a dollar and an automobile. And that's all. He may be a moron, a nit-wit, be color blind, and given to drinking liquor at any and all times, but he gets a license and goes out to join the other fools on the highway.

Unless the motorist gets involved in an accident on the highway, no one ever checks on his driver's license. For example, the writer has carried a license ever since the law was passed and never in all these years has been called upon to show this to an officer. There should be some time at stated periods when every driver's license is checked. So, as Brother Brown points out, since this drivers' license law is made a farce what more can we expect from the fifty-mile-an-hour law if this were passed. His suggestion is that Michigan needs a better highway control. Surely, if we are to have a new speed limit law we should put some teeth into it. Just passing a law

THE PUBLIC TAKES IT "ON THE CHIN"

A striking example of how price advances are passed on to the dear public is seen in a freight bill lying on our desk.

A Detroit trucking concern has increased its costs 50% and added other charges. Last week a hundred pounds of a certain kind of freight cost 50 cents to deliver here in Northville. Since the company had a little strike in Detroit last week prices are up. The present rate on the same hundred pounds that last week was half a dollar this week cost 75 cents. There is also an additional charge of 10 cents for pick-up and delivery—another advance of 20%. In other words, we are paying 85 cents for what last week cost 50 cents. No use getting peeved at the delivery man for he had nothing to do with the big increase. Just another example of the price being passed on to the consumer.

SEPTEMBER WANDERING THOUGHTS

What happened to the Townsend plan?

"I see an amazing improvement in Northville during the past two years," said a visitor in Northville recently. Ever visit the Maybury Sanatorium? Why not go up to the big fair which the patients are putting on Sunday, September 26?

"The Biggest Factory in Town" was the heading of one up-state newspaper over a picture of its school building last week. Come to think of it, aren't the Northville public schools the biggest factory in town even though we are all very proud of our Ford plant? Every Northville parent can be glad that we have such efficient production managers there.

The U. A. W. says that it will spend $500,000 in unionizing the Ford plant at River Rouge. The Dearborn Press points out just what might happen if this should bring about a strike. A lay-off of 11 days at the Ford plant, says the Press, would mean a loss of a million working days. Figured at the Ford minimum wage this would mean a loss of $3,400,000. Mr. Martin and his followers had better think twice before they bring any such calamity upon the workers. And think what the loss would be if the Ford plant should remain closed a month or two next winter!

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

1 YEAR AGO

Samuel Lawrence 29 son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo L. Lawrence, 547 Fairbrook Avenue, is in St. Joseph's hospital recovering from a concussion of the brain and severe wrist cuts sustained in a car accident on Seven Mile road between Hagerly and Farmington roads at 6:10 a. m. Friday.

Elton R. Eaton, editor of the Plymouth Mail, was the coronation victor in the coronation contest for the regular nomination for the fifth district legislative seat. The contest was a mystery for a number of days. Eaton was chosen by a vote of 100 to 1.

After two weeks of intense football practice the local squad meets Wall-d Lake this afternoon on the Wall-d Lake field in the first game of the season. Ten of the boys in the starting lineup will be clad in the new suits purchased by the high school student council.

5 YEARS AGO

Celebrating the winning of the doubleheader from Rosedale Gardens and Salem Sunday afternoon at the local fair grounds, Leo Kohler invited his team, the Northville Braves, to his home to eat quinsimon—a mode prepared by himself.

Word comes from T. J. Richardson in Cement, Fla., that his hotel is doing well and that the weather is warm and all is fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Scholtz and daughter, Marjorie, who have resided on the Braeside farm for a number of years, are moving into their own home on the Base Lane road this week.

15 YEARS AGO

All efforts to locate the body of Ivan Dickinson, believed to have drowned in Nichegus Lake Thursday night, have failed.

Miss Mary Fuller has resigned her position in the office of the Detroit Edison company and will attend Albion college this fall.

After having been closed for several weeks while repairs and alterations were being made, the Presbyterian church was opened for services last Sunday. The walls have been redecorated and the interior of the edifice is now most attractive.

Supt. Denniston of the prison farm, reports that up to Thursday, 26,493 ears of the various kinds of vegetables, fruits, etc., had been put up at the prison canning factory.

20 YEARS AGO

Next Tuesday will be declared a holiday for the Fourth Ward District. Ten of the quota of 207 from this district have already gone to Camp Ouster. 81 will be sent Sept. 21, 83 more are to go Oct. 1, and the balance of the 207 just as soon as they can be gotten ready.

Fred Skarritt has leased the former Stanley hotel on Main street and is having the interior redecorated and remodeled in preparation for its opening as a rooming house. A thousand Northville Fair program books are now ready for distribution.

Two more Northville boys, Russell Stewart and Tracy Ely, have cleared their services to Uncle Sam. They left Wednesday for Columbus O. where, if accepted, they will be enrolled in the motor department.

Northville carried off high honors in the better babies contest at the State Fair, Junior Scholastic, leading first in the under 2-years class, and Warner Neal first in the under 3-years class.

30 YEARS AGO

The contract for building the new bank was awarded on Tuesday to Cole Brothers, the contractors who built the Northville and Plymouth school houses. The contract specified that the bank be complete by Feb. 1.

J. B. Cook was taken suddenly ill Friday while at work in Detroit. Miss Gladys Cobb was most agreeably surprised Wednesday evening by six of her girl friends walking in and reminding her that it was her sixteenth birthday.

The funeral of George Daly was held at 12 Sunday from the residence of his son, Alex.

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

TO TIGER FANS

(Chet Howell in Chesaning Argus) Do you think Mickey Cochrane should have taken over the management of the Tigers after he recovered from his beating?

Do you think Rudy York will be one of the leading home run sluggers next year?

Do you think with Chet Laabs, York and Greenburg... in the lineup... that Detroit can win the flag... with a few dependable pitchers in 1938?

Do you know that Detroit is tops in attendance... Not even New York outgaining?

Do you think there should be a national league club in Detroit (which there will not be) or would you sooner pull for the good old Tigers than split your affections like New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston and St. Louis do?

Human Interest Briefs From Exchange Columns

Birmingham—Led by Mrs. Frank Schearer of Detroit, who shoots under the colors of the Birmingham Archery club, the local bow and arrow sharpshooters, competing in the annual State meet at East Lansing a week ago Sunday and Monday, with two complete teams entered, finished third and fourth. The defending champions relinquished their title to Midland's entry while the Detroit archers came in second.—The Birmingham Eclectic.

Farmington—Work on the new "music school," latest addition to the Farmington school system, is rapidly nearing completion as workmen this week finished decorating the walls and began finishing the floors. It is expected that the newly remodeled structure will be ready for use the next week.—The Farmington Enterprise.

Dearborn—Although she held but one 25 cent ticket and thought so little of her chances that she didn't even attend the drawing, Mrs. Millian Syers, housekeeper for Dorothy Neu of the City Water department, shook hands with Lady Luck by proxy Sunday night and became the owner of a $3,500 home in Garden City.—The Dearborn Independent.

Milford—About one more week will see the finish of the work that has been under way the past six weeks of cleaning up the proposed site for the new Ford plant which is to be built in Milford. Old concrete forms and foundations yielded over 500 yards of crushed material according to the foreman in charge, and nearly 200 yards of dirt have been taken out.—The Milford Times.

COMPETENT WIFE

By Theodore Werle

"What do you mean, competent?" challenges a feminine correspondent, referring to my place of a few weeks ago, about what women can do toward happy marriages. I wrote at that time: "A husband may be too staggering disillusionment about the girl who becomes his wife. But he is likely to expect that she should prove to be competent in running her part of their joint affairs." "What is competence in one person may be incompetence in another," she continues, as she proceeds to say that all is needed for a happy marriage is true love.

While I don't want to head out into rough going, this looks like a storm of my own making. So here I come.

There are shoals and rocks of many kinds in the marriage sea, and it requires more than the love of sailing to take a vessel successfully over it. It wants seamanship. And seamanship is no more than ability based on completed experience and training. The love impulse which draws two young people together is not the same stuff that later holds two mature adults in life-long companionship. That ephemeral attachment of lovers we older folks look upon now with envious sighs. We know, however, that it has little to do with the orderly, efficient routine of our households today. Experience, ability—in a word, competence for the tasks imposed by marriage, is one of the amazing agents. There are others, which will bear separate handling some other time. Since most men in our land live with but one wife at a time, the reference to competence is being fairly relative will not help. The husband whose peace of mind is most assured, is the one who finds his own wife competent, based on performance in his own household.

Competence is not necessarily perfection. A woman who occasionally is caught on the long side of a market, is not an incompetent buyer. But a woman who usually pays the long price for things, whose husband finds her generally disregarding costs, letting money slip away in careless buying—such a woman is not a competent fiscal agent for her family. She is headed for marital troubles sure as shooin'. It is my privilege to know several successful housewives who very much dislike money matters, but who have made themselves into most competent purchasing agents. Buying is one of the big household responsibilities carried generally and largely by the wife partner. Every girl should be most carefully schooled in this business of buying.

Household management includes cooking. Cooking is an art in which some excel. Others are poor. As with all arts, even those with no talent for it can be taught to be proficient cooks. And what good cooking can do for a marriage, makes all the angels sing. It's a tough break for the lad who finds himself married to a girl who never cared and never was required to help with the cooking at home, and who thinks she can do the same after the honeymoon.

And now to ease off on the sweet things just a bit. Of course, one would hardly expect any woman to excel in all things. She's sure to be strong in some and weak in others. For that the Lord and her husband will forgive her if she's sweet-tempered, honest and not too lazy.

The 400-acre man-made island in San Francisco Bay which will be the site of the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition is to be given a series of baths. With a $1,500,000 horticultural program planned, Exposition officials must unsalt the sand of the island, which was reclaimed from the bottom of the bay, before trees, shrubs and flowers can be planted.

VILLAGERS ENTER NATIONAL TOURNEY

Imagine a bowling tournament with $34,000 in cash prizes and valuable merchandise awards without an entry fee, without bowlers having to leave their own alleys, without the need for any extra bowling as all play is part of regular A. B. C. sanctioned league play and with five classes to give an equal chance for all to win. Sounds too good to be true but Northville bowlers are given this unique opportunity through the cooperation of the proprietor of the Recreation Cafe.

Qualifying round play starts Sept. 12. Qualifying round play consists of any seven consecutive weeks play between Sept. 12 and Dec. 19, on the Official Red Crown Sweepstakes Bowling Alley listed above. All teams will be divided as follows: Class A, 5-man teams whose three-game series scores in qualifying play average 2550; Class B, from 2550 to 2549; Class C, between 2549 and 2548; Class D, between 2548 and 2547; Class E, under 2547.

Entries close Oct. 24. This will permit qualifying rolling to start as late as the week of Nov. 1, and still complete the seven weeks of play before Dec. 19, the close of qualifying round play. Official sweepstakes prize play will start the week of Jan. 24, and continue for 6 weeks until the week ending March 5, 1938. There will be prizes for each of the six weeks' play as well as a grand prize list based on total pins scored during the six weeks' play.

The team with the highest score in each of the five classes each week will receive $250, the second highest team in each class, $150, the third highest team in each class, $100. The fourth, fifth, sixth, and seventh highest teams in each class each week will be awarded a "Custom Fit" Mineralite ball.

At the end of the six weeks of prize play the first grand prize of $750 will be given to the team in each class with the highest total pins for the six weeks. Other grand prize awards are as follows: The second highest team in each of the five classes will receive $250; the third, $150; the fourth in each class, $100. Teams finishing in fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth places with the high total pins in each of the five classes, will receive a "Custom Fit" Mineralite ball for each member of the team. Team members with the next ten highest total scores for the six weeks of prize play, in each of the five classes, will each receive a pair of Brunswick bowling shoes.

The Red Crown Sweepstakes is run without any entry fee and only scores of weekly A. B. C. league play are eligible. No extra Sweepstakes bowling is necessary, so is costs the bowler nothing extra.

CHILDREN'S BOOKS PLACED IN LIBRARY

Children's books new to the Northville Branch of the Wayne County Library may be borrowed by boys and girls of all ages. Some suggestions of good stories follow: "Henny's Lydia" by Marguerite De Angeli—"A lovely book of all the author has seen and felt while living on the edge of a Pennsylvania Dutch community. She has sketched the boys and girls and their elders in their homes, their schools, their markets and at play."—Attention Monthly.

Victor Josephine by Margaret Baker. A cleverly written doll story.

The Codfish Masket by Agnes D. Hewes. "It is a colorful panorama of this phase of American history which Mrs. Hewes has drawn, richly detailed and varied in its descriptions of settled old Boston, the raw new Washington, and the crude, braying life of the frontier."—New York Times.

The Lobster War by Thomas Williamson. "Tale of the hazards of lobster fishing on the coast of Maine, and the part taken in the campaign against the Lobster Ring by two boys, Elmer and Tom Bennett."—Book Review Digest.

Back to Buckeye by Esther Hall. "While the story of 'Back to Buckeye' has plenty of incidents and moves at a lively clip—so that no girl will put the book down till she has finished it—it is the characters who matter, and the temperament of the author, a writer with humor and feeling, a broad horizon and a nice gift of expression."—N. Y. Herald Tribune.

Clever Cat by Eleanor Lattimore. Young readers will doubtless think of no more clever than their own loved pets, and therein lies the charm for he embodies those traits and habits, the playful moods, and moments of solemnity which each child knows are the ways of his own cat.

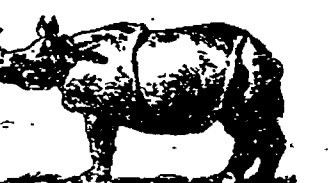

Mariners from all over the world who sail through the Golden Gate in the future will need new charts of San Francisco Bay. An artificial island, approximately a mile square and rising 13 feet above sea level, has been completed by United States Army engineers to be used as a site for the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition.

LOST, A FRIEND

We stood the other day by the couch of a departed friend. We shall miss her smile and the gleam of genuine friendliness that shone from her eyes whenever we met her—usually on morning errands. She had been a friend only a few short years, but friendship is not measured by time. It doesn't take long to recognize a "kindred spirit."

We wish now, after her sudden passing, that we had yielded to the impulse to drop in for a chat now and then when we passed her window, where we could see her contentedly reading or sewing. We know now that we have lost a real friend yet it was only after her death that we learned "she loved so."

So many friends, it seems, have been lost during our comparatively short stay in Northville. We pass their empty homes with a sense of loss. One friend, especially dear, left a note to be read after her passing. We opened it tenderly and read the blurred lines. "Keep on loving me. I won't be far away. And often now, at the close of a rather difficult day we look at the soft colors of the fading sunset and feel the comfort of her memory. Maybe she was right."

Two beloved friends are leaving town. How we wish we could keep them here! Miles, however, do not separate friends for there can always be letters and happy visits to look forward to.

But sadness of all our losses is of a friend who is lost by misunderstanding that cannot be explained. Suddenly, out of a clear sky, this friendship that we thought was so secure comes crashing down and all we can do is to stand helplessly by and wait for the wreckage to be cleared.

Losing a friend by death or separation by miles leaves only a sort of—not bitterness.

Friendship is such a sacred relationship that when it is broken something very sweet has gone out of life. Somewhere we have read: "We call that person who has lost his father, an orphan, and a widow, that man who has lost his wife. And that man who has known the immense unhappiness of losing his friend, by what name do we call him? Here every human language finds its peace in impotence."

Some Peachy Recipes

But whatever the source of their popularity, you'll find the peach salad and dessert recipe which follow most pleasing indeed.

Peach Salad: Arrange alternate slices of orange sections and canned sliced peaches in petal form on a bed of lettuce. Combine equal quantities of chopped dates and chopped salted peanuts and moisten with mayonnaise. Pour over peaches and place one in the center of each petal. Chopped, sliced, fine and make a thin border around the date ball. Serve with cream mayonnaise to which has been added a little chopped pimiento and chopped green pepper.

Peach Meringues: Cut stale sponge cake in rounds with the cookie cutter. Slightly moisten each round with the juice from a marshmallow. Cherries. Put half a peach, cut side up, on each piece of cake and add 3/4 cup of meringue. Bake in a meringue. Using three tablespoons confectioner's sugar to each egg white, and pile thickly over the peaches. Bake in a very slow oven until the meringue is done—300° for fifteen minutes.

Peach Hard Sauce: Cream one-third cup butter and one cup confectioner's sugar, add one-fourth teaspoon vanilla and two-thirds cup of dried, drained peaches. Chill and serve over pudding or cake.

Restaurants of the world will be found on Treasure Island, site of the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition.

Stately lines of palm trees will be a decorative note at the 1939 World's Fair on San Francisco Bay.

FAR-FAMED STAGE STAR OF OTHER DAYS REVEALED AS HAVING HOME SIDE, TOO

AMERICAN LEGION summer activities, the nationwide observance of Independence Day, and, finally, Armistice Day, are familiar annual reminders of the part the United States has played in the wartime annals of the world. It is not at all so well known, however, that Lillian Russell, once internationally famous and the toast of stage and high life, had an interesting and unusual role in the World War. A Pennsylvania veteran, re-reading a scrapbook with yellowing pages, found the story a few days ago.

In the exciting days of 1917, she threw herself into wartime activities with even more interest than she ever gave a stage appearance. To each member of the First Pennsylvania Field Artillery and First Pennsylvania Cavalry, she gave a comfort kit, a big package of tobacco and a book of lessons in French. And to each company, to assure the recruits the cleanliness they had known at home, she gave a regulation type household washing machine. The lucky rookies, in fact, thus enjoyed facilities that did not come until much later into the homes of some of the 12,000,000 is to be partitioned off for use of the junior department of the Sunday School. A nursery will be provided in the near future for small children during the church service. Beginning Sunday evening, the Epworth League will hold its regular devotionals meetings at 6:30. Young people not attending young people's meetings elsewhere are cordially invited. The young people are to have a winter roast this Sunday evening in the park. They will leave the church for the park at 6 o'clock.

Our Lady of Victory Church
A class of eight boys has been practicing each day this week at the 7:15 a. m. Mass to master the rudiments of serving at the altar. This is considered a high privilege in the Catholic church. The boys are from Northville and Walled Lake.

The Sunday Masses are still at 7:30 and 10 a. m.

The meeting of the Ladies Sodality this month will be held next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will open. A reorganization of much of the work of this society has to be done, hence we urge every lady of the parish to make every effort to attend.

ST. WILLIAMS CHAPEL
Walled Lake
With an increasing number of Catholics living in this vicinity the church will become an all year round mission of the Northville parish. Father Schuler will have charge of both places. Services will be held every Sunday throughout the year. Until Sunday Oct. 3, two Masses will be celebrated at 9 and 11 a. m.

Novi Methodist Church
Harry J. Lord, Minister
9 a. m.—Breaching service, sermon by the pastor, special music by Charles Steele.
10 a. m.—Bible class, Mrs. Wood, teacher.

Christian Science Churches
"Matter will be the subject of the lesson sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, Sept. 19.

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Matt. 6:25): "Therefore I say unto you, take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body more than raiment?"

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 52): "The divine mind, which forms the bud and blossom, will care for the human body, even as it clothes the life; but let no mortal interfere with God's government by thrusting in laws of erring human concepts."

An unexpected result has followed the creation of an artificial island in San Francisco Bay as a site for the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition. The new body of land has altered the currents in the bay so markedly that new maritime data must be issued for the use of pilots in bay waters.

FEATURE ADVENTURE IN 'AMERICAN BOY'

By MRS. WILLIAM ZWAHL

Readers who like adventure and the lure of far places will find plenty to please them in coming issues of The American Boy magazine. They'll read, for instance, of seamen and Calvin, as their destination. Ronald returned home Tuesday of this week after a visit there and a sight-seeing trip en route.

Miss Ada Mary Butler resumed her work as teacher in Bad Axe, Monday, Aug. 30.

Novi friends will be glad to learn that Lynn Leavenworth, who has been ill in California for the past several months, has recovered his health and will attend school this year at the university at Redlands, Calif.

Clyde Button entered Michigan State college Monday at East Lansing.

Gaffney-Polack

James Gaffney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gaffney, and Bessie Polack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Polack, were married Saturday, Sept. 4 at a ceremony performed at Auburn, Ind. After a wedding trip to Chicago and Wisconsin, they are at home to friends at the home of Mr. Gaffney's parents on East Grand River. Their wedding was the culmination of a romance which began at the Novi Equipment company where both were employed. Mr. Gaffney has a position of shipping clerk there.

Subscription prices of The American Boy will be raised in the near future. Send your subscription order at once to take advantage of the bargain rates now in effect: one year at $1.00 or three years at $2.00. Foreign subscriptions 50c a year extra. Send your name, address and remittance to The American Boy, 7420 Second Blvd., Detroit. On newsstands the price is 15c a copy.

FINSTERWALDS OPEN STORE IN DETROIT

Necessitated by the sensational success of their cash policy and their famous underselling program, the Finsterwalds, Detroit's well known clothing family, will open the fourth Finsterwald store for men today and tomorrow at 10711 Grand River, near Oakman. The new store will remain open till 10 p. m. tonight and Saturday.

The general public is cordially invited to attend the grand opening celebration as announced elsewhere in this issue. There will be free souvenirs, and other attractions. Readers of The Northville Record are extended a special invitation to visit the new store on the opening days, today and Saturday—also to this fine addition to the business section of the Grand River and Oakman district.

Managing the new Finsterwald store will be Tom Lerner. With him will be Larry Harper, Curtis Blagen and Robert Black. All are old experienced clothing men who will be glad to meet their many friends in their new positions. A fitting addition to the brand new building of which it is a part, the new Finsterwald store will embody the same principles of operation that have made the name Finsterwald synonymous with good men's clothes priced right. The Finsterwalds announce that their strict cash policy will be maintained—and their famous underselling guarantee, which assures the public that Finsterwald prices are the lowest possible for the quality will back up every suit, topcoat or overcoat purchase.

The Finsterwald organization is unique in clothing history, in that there are now five members of one family active in the management of the firm. There is Adolph Finsterwald, who founded the business, bearing his name in a small establishment at the corner of Monroe and Randolph back in 1938. Miles, Ralph, Fred and Joe comprise the rest of the Finsterwald family—probably Detroit's best known firm in the men's clothing field.

The opening of this fourth store marks another step forward in a great program of expansion for the Finsterwald organization. In recognition of the sensational success of Finsterwald's strict cash policy and the tremendous public recognition giving Finsterwald's underselling policy, it is claimed.

Asked to what he contributes the great success of the business, founder Adolph Finsterwald replied, "I've always believed, and I know the boys feel the same way, that the

Building Port Huron-Sarnia International Bridge

Above is shown construction work under way on four 150-foot piers which will support the main span of the Blue Water international bridge between Port Huron, Mich., and Sarnia, Ont. The structure crosses St. Clair river, borderline between Canada and the United States, where river and Lake Huron meet. It will be an important link in the most direct route between eastern Canada, northwestern U. S. and the middle west. In the background are seen piers on the Canadian shore. A pier cross-section at the right shows how piers are sunk to solid rock, 100 feet ground level. Earth beneath piers is excavated through the eight-foot wide opening in the center. As the pier descends concrete is added at the top. When lowering is completed the center opening will be filled with concrete, making a solid cylinder 24 feet in diameter. The steel casing on the left pier is used as a form for pouring concrete on top the cylinder. The bridge will be 130 feet above water, two miles long and will be ready for use late in 1938.

TWAS A CALM WEEK

No accident stories mar the proverbial calm which characterizes the account of the past week's doings in the village eight miles due north, as the crew files from the editorial seat of this weekly news vehicle. We who live here know our roads, our capacities, and lead fairly normal lives, in that we eat the customary three meals a day, and usually go to bed at a conventional hour at night. Even though located in a so-called resort community, we live here, rather than just stay. We try to keep to the right side of the highway when we do move about.

PRESENT DRAMA

Our chapter of the WCTU, is sponsoring this afternoon, a dramatic presentation in the interests of temperance education. It is to take place in the Baptist church. The drama, written and directed by Judge and Mrs. M. C. Simmons of St. Louis, Mo., has been given at many points throughout the country. Judge Simmons is a former public prosecutor and founder of the Court of General Sessions at St. Louis. He is known as a writer, and a lecturer on economics and financial laws. His wife, Mrs. F. Jean Gibson Simmons, is an author of child welfare, and is a writer and director of religious education.

Preceding the temperance presentation the women's mission society will hold a player service, from 1 to 2:30 p. m., as a part of the statewide Day of Prayer program to be held by the Women's Mission Society of Michigan.

INCREASE IN ENROLLMENT

In nearly every news account of school openings throughout the country we read of greatly increased enrollments. Walled Lake is no exception to this state of affairs, as was prophesied by C. A. Hoffman, the superintendent of schools, two weeks ago. He "allowed as how" there would be a beginning enrollment of 600 at the Walled Lake building alone. There is, and a few more? The Union school, a part of the Walled Lake system, now has more pupils in its six grades than attended there last year in the eight grades. With the probable annexation of Commerce village school to Walled Lake this week, the total enrollment will be well over 800. Mr. Hoffman believes this number will be increased to more than 900 by the beginning of the second semester.

The local building is faced with an over capacity problem in its first grade, with 70 pupils crowding a normal capacity of 40. Temporary quarters and an additional teacher may be required to meet the situation.

FOOTBALL LINEUP

While on the subject of school activities, we have some dope here regarding the football situation. Harold W. Hersh, our demon athletic coach, of which there are none better (we hope) started 32 sturdy neophytes in quest of positions on the starting varsity and freshman lineups last week. With 14 letter men haying the edge on the other aspirants to gridiron warfare, Coach Hersh is on a spot in whittling out his first team eleven before engaging with the exclusive Cranbrook defenders at 2 p. m. Sept. 25. He should be fairly well set by the time the whistle blows at Northville, the week following. From then on, the boys in the trenches will stand or fall in their annual campaign for championship honors in the Southwestern Oakland County League. The second team will play South Lyon while the varsity goes to Northville. Oct. 8 Keego Harbor comes here. Oct. 15, Walled Lake at Brighton; Oct. 22 Milford at Walled Lake; Oct. 29, Farmington at Walled Lake; Nov. 5 Walled Lake at Clarkston; Nov. 12 Walled Lake at Clawson.

All games from Oct. 1 to and including Oct. 22 start at 3:30. From Oct. 23 through Nov. 13 the game will begin at 5 o'clock.

P. T. A. BEGINS YEAR

Nearly a hundred persons attended the supper and opening meeting of the Parent-Teachers association held Friday night in the school gymnasium.

Guests for the occasion were the 16 faculty members of the Walled Lake Consolidated schools. An invocation by the Rev. W. W. Pivly preceded the supper. The program and business meeting which followed was in charge of Mr. Paul Fiedel, president of the association. C. A. Hoffman, school superintendent, introduced the teachers, mentioning those who are new to the district this year.

Floyd E. Breakey, vice-president, gave a brief talk, in which he welcomed the teaching staff, and complimented the school board for their work in coping with the many problems presented by the enlargement of the school district. L. M. Phillips, in community singing, accompanied by Mr. Pivly. The Rev. F. N. Miner pronounced the benediction. The next regular meeting will be the third Thursday in October, when committee chairman for the year will be announced.

SMITH-HARDER-VOWS

The marriage of Miss Lorraine M. Harder of Walled Lake, daughter of William L. Harder of Toledo and Donald L. Smith of Ames, Iowa, took place at 11 o'clock Saturday morning in St. Williams chapel, with Rev. Joseph Schuler officiating. The bride wore a gown of American Beauty red velvet, and carried white gardenias, white roses and valley lilies. Her traveling costume was a gray tweed trimmed in gray, carried with di bonnet accessories. Miss Betty J. Harder of Toledo, a sister of the bride, was the attendant, and wore royal blue velvet and carried Madame Harriet roses. Lee Burrey of Sheldon, Mo., was best man.

A reception was held following the wedding at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Ads Schmidt, with whom Mrs. Smith made her home. The couple will live in Covington, Ky.

HOME COMING DRAWS CROWD

The thirty-third annual reunion of the Walled Lake Homecoming Society was held Saturday in the Baptist church. The event was well attended by former Walled Lake residents from Pontiac, Vicksburg, Grass Lake, Novi, Northville and Detroit. The morning session began at 10 o'clock, and was given over to the customary memorial service. Dinner was served at noon by the women of the church. A social hour followed, and the afternoon program, of informal nature, presented several former residents in remembrance talks. At the business meeting, it was decided to plan a more elaborate program, with possible outside activities, as well as a varied social celebration. Officers elected were Mrs. William Mann, president; H. G. Roach, vice-president; and Miss Ruth Bradley, secretary and treasurer. Mrs. May Johns was elected chairman of the memorial committee. A program committee was appointed, and includes Ernest Taylor, Fred Bickling and Mrs. Clifford Young.

NEWS IN BRIEF

The Walled Lake Methodist choir will hold its first supper and rehearsal of the season Tuesday, Sept. 21, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thayer of Hickory Hill. The choir will sing for the regular morning service, the following Sunday.

Among the summer people who have left here to return to their winter homes are Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Beeson and son, Harry of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Huston and family of Wadsworth, O. and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Murphy of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ehrcke are driving a new car.

The Walled Lake fire department is now equipped with four new helmets, thanks to the generosity of J. H. Reicheld, a fire equipment representative. The helmets are of leather coated, steel top construction, and should prove invaluable to the local firemen in fighting certain types of fires.

If you've read this far let me finish up by quoting the rector from yesterday's sermon: "I don't suppose the moo of a cow has changed a whit in the last ten centuries. But someone tell me how wars are to be stopped when the moo of man has likewise remained unchanged."

'BATS CAN SEE', SAYS INSECT ZOO DIRECTOR

Don't say that the umpire is blind as a bat, if you want to talk sense. Bats aren't blind, points out Brayton Edin, director of the Michigan Insect Zoo in Convention Hall, Detroit. The fact is that they have eyesight a lot keener than yours.

Edin has spent a good deal of time this summer, dipping Ec's season, exploring such myths about the animals on display. Among other common fables he says you must avoid are:

That the house cricket's chirping, as in Charles Dickens' "Cricket on the Hearth," means good luck. It indicates only that he's warm and well-fed.

That the fate of the tarantula is fatal. It will make you ill, but you will live through it.

That you get warts from handling toads.

That dragon flies, or devil's darning needles, sew up the ears and mouths of bad boys.

That salamanders thrive on flames. They live in wet swampy country.

That the daddy-long-legs will point out where the cows want if you seize one of his legs. All he'll do is try to get away.

That earwigs burrow into human ears.

The custom of wearing engagement and wedding rings on the third finger of the left hand originated in an ancient belief that a very delicate nerve runs directly from that finger to the heart.

MORCADO'S TIPICA ORCHESTRA OPENS TOWN HALL SEASON

Sindair Lewis, stormy literary genius, author of "Main Street," "Rabbit," and "It Can't Happen Here," after several years' refusal to lecture, has accepted a few engagements in major cities. He comes to Detroit this winter to lecture exclusively before the Detroit Town Hall audience in the Fisher theatre. Kathleen Scott Stringer, director of the series of 20 Wednesday mornings, announces that Mr. Lewis' subject will be "It Has Happened Here!"

A glamorous opening, Oct. 20, will be provided by Morcado's Tipica orchestra, which was sponsored last winter in a series of NBO nationwide broadcasts in the United States. Colorfully costumed, the orchestra is augmented by a soprano, tenor, two dancers and a salterist.

Walter Hampden will make his first Detroit solo appearance in a special program of dramatic sketches from his famous plays, including "Cyrano de Bergerac," "Hamlet" and "Capitaine Corneille."

Dale Carnegie, author of "How to Win Friends and Influence People" is also coming. Other notable inclusions include John B. Kennedy, NBC commentator and news analyst; William Lyon Phelps, literary critic; Lady DeMolay, English journalist and first woman to fly around the world; and Grand Duchess Marie, granddaughter of the Czar, who has been visiting in the Orient.

Mrs. Martin Johnson, now in Africa, will present "Jungles Calling," with moving pictures. Captain John D. Craig, Hollywood movie producer and explorer, will speak on "Adventures Making Thrill Movies."

Spain's former Ambassador to the United States, Salvador de Madariaga, will discuss "Spain and the Peace of Europe." Other international authorities include Sir Evelyn Wrench, publisher of the London Spectator, who comes direct from war-torn China and Japan, with the subject "Can Europe Unite?"; Maurice Hindus, noted authority on Russia, now in the Soviet Union, whose subject will be "Understanding Russia Today"; and Felix Morley, editor of the Washington Post and 1936 Pulitzer Prize winner, will speak on "An Editor Looks at the News."

Frank Crownshield, former editor of Vanity Fair, will speak on "Our Cultural Acrobatics." Also coming is Maury Paul, the famous "Chelly Knockerbocker," society reporter, who will tell "How Society Makes and Breaks Itself." Louis Untermeyer, poet, critic and humorist, will talk on "Mother Goose Up-to-date."

David Seabury, psychologist, returns with a new subject, "The Art of Selfishness." Dr. Henry J. Fry, scientist, will speak on "Glands and the Personality."

The series closes March 23 with The International Ballet, featuring Carlos de Vega, Spanish dancer, and his associates, Ynez and Marius, also Josef, renowned in Latin America for his dance and masked creations of the exotic gods of the Aztecs, Incas and Mayans and Sati, a Japanese dancer from Formosa. Season membership tickets are available at the Detroit Town Hall office, 246 Hotel Statler, Cherry 5617.

Colored Sweet
Black, blue, green, red, brown, yellow, phosphorescent and bloody varieties of colored sweet have been reported, but all forms are rare. The more common "false" types are due to the presence of color-producing micro-organisms, or tinctorial substance, in and on the skin, says Hygiea, the Health Magazine. The "true" types in some instances are known to be due to the ingestion or inhalation and absorption of the salts of potassium, copper, iron or other chemicals.

Why Take Chances ON OLD WORN-OUT TIRES?

New Firestones

Will give you

PROTECTION AGAINST BLOWOUTS—Extra pounds of rubber are added to every 100 pounds of cord by the patented Gum-Dipping process.

PROTECTION AGAINST PUNCTURES—because under the tread are two extra layers of Gum-Dipped cords.

PROTECTION AGAINST SKIDDING—because the tread is scientifically designed.

LONGER NON-SKID MILEAGE—because of the extra tough, long-wearing tread.

Join the Firestone SAVE A LIFE Campaign today by equipping your car with a set of new Firestone Standard Tires.

DON'T RISK YOUR LIFE ON SMOOTH WORN TIRES!

DO YOU KNOW THAT last year highway accidents cost the lives of more than 38,000 men, women and children?

THAT a million more were injured?

THAT more than 40,000 of these deaths and injuries were caused directly by punctures, blowouts and skidding due to smooth, worn, unsafe tires?

COACH BARR STARTS FOOTBALL PRACTICE

Grid Men Look Promising In First Skirmish Held Tuesday

Coach Elliott Barr called the first practice of the coming football season last Tuesday afternoon at Cass Beaton Park. There were about 35 fellows who reported for the first practice. There are several new faces who are due to wear the Orange and Black colors this year. Benny Duguid looks very promising at an end position. He is tall and very fast. Dale Bray is also slated for a starting berth at center following in his brother's footsteps. Albert Boeins, a veteran from last year, is one of the best blockers on the squad. Captain Eber Lester looks like he is in for one of his best years of his high school career. Northville has one of the fastest backfield men in the Suburban league in Arthur Mitchell. He runs the hundred in ten seconds which means he will be a hard man to catch if he once gets in the open. Coach Barr is neither optimistic nor pessimistic of the coming season, but hopes for the best. There are several freshmen who look very good in practice which means Northville will have good teams in the future.

PROFIT REALIZED BY SENIOR CLASS ON FAIR BOOTH

This year's senior class made $347.10 net profit on the fair booth. This total is slightly more than the amount made by any of the preceding classes. In the four days of the fair, the seniors took in $750, but because the food bills were so high, only netted $347.10.

The class is now making plans for the Senior Prom. A committee composed of Marvin Schaefer, Virginia Washburne and Cecil Giles was appointed to choose a suitable date for the annual dance.

Plans were also discussed for the sale of candy and cosmetics which will begin soon.

Common Chatter

By GWEN

Can't say winter is here but fall really is in the offing. If you don't believe it reflect on the weather we had all last week. And you couldn't possibly ask for a surer sign than the fact that the moth balls have been taken from winter closets and skirts and sweaters have blossomed out in a grand array of new colors.

By the way, speaking of fall clothes, Betty Schrader looked especially nice if it's possible to look any nicer than always Monday. She wore a brown tweed suit with a navy blue blouse and blue and brown pumps. We have decided that you should wear blue more often, Betty! Oh! and before I forget, wasn't that Betty riding around town with Edgar Jolly in his new Buick Phaeton? I thought so. Maybe that's the reason for all the blue.

Attention!!! The object is a dull green sweater. Did you see it? Louise Alexander really made it herself. Isn't it marvelous what can be done? Do you suppose there's an object in all this domestic activity? One evening Albert was heard to remark, "Say, when are you going to make one for me?" Now, Albert, was that nice? Poor boy, he's still looking for people to supply him with things. Too bad people around here know you so well.

Has everyone noticed how masculine Bennie Duguid looks in orange? Bennie, you're really got something there!!

Phum Hollow Golf club gave their last junior dance of the summer season Friday and those who braved the rain to go from Northville were: Louise Alexander, Ed Angove, Gwen Jones, Keene Bolton, Peggy Walker, Scott Cole, Nancy Ostergen, a house guest of the Walkers, and Herman Toussaint.

Barbara Phillips was a guest of her friend, Pat Roberts of Detroit, at a dinner Friday. Barb, your figure, be careful!

Fellows, our editor, Peggy, seems to be holding open house every night in the week and twice on Sunday. This is just in case some of you didn't know. Or maybe it was your own idea. Although I have my doubts. Now's your chance, Martin! The address is Happy Acres, Eight Mile road, Northville, just in case you don't already know.

Shirley Condit decided that maybe she could stand a half day of school so as a result you all saw her Monday, or should I say, heard her? Shirley is going to Washington to

Editor's Note

We wonder how many of you ever turn. There's not much in this stop to wonder just what goes on behind the scenes in getting out even so small a paper as the Orange and Black? How many of you gave even a little credit to those behind the machine? Not many, we'll wager. This term started out very nicely for our school paper, whether you know it or not. But, somewhere along the way, in the midst of the shuffle for first-week assignments, some of our aspiring young journalists disappeared. And how eager and willing they had been at the start! It really surprises us the number of people who think that editing a paper is child's play, and an easy way to add five credits to their scholastic record. Perhaps we'd better set you right about that, before any more of you join the staff in the hope of having a good time without giving anything in return.

WORK BECKONS

'37 GRADUATES

Eleven members of the 1937 graduating class plan to go to college while three of the girls will attend business college. Others in the class will continue on in the business world working at their summer jobs or looking for new ones.

Bruce Turnbull, class President, and Betty Harstad are taking courses in physical education at the State Normal college in Ypsilanti. Harry Richardson, Lucille Simmons and Leonard Young will continue their search for knowledge at Michigan State in East Lansing. The Packard Trade school in Detroit will claim Lawrence Parmenter this fall, while James Hopkins and Bill Hanson will continue working at the Kroger store here in Northville, and George Westphal will remain at the A. & P. Marjorie Chase is going to Cooley high school in Detroit for a post-graduate course. Wayne University will open its doors each morning this winter to Scott Cole.

Betty Van Hove is attending a business college in Detroit until Christmas time. Then she is planning a trip to California. Bob Bray and Fred Casteline will report to Western State Teachers' college.

Mary Jane Gregory will enter the business world from a business college in Detroit, while Jane Grosvenor will take up her studies at Clear's Business college in Ypsilanti. Work at the Ford airport will take up the time for a while and Fred Van Valkenburg will continue working at the Ford factory in Northville. Lloyd Coleman has a job at Twin Pine dairy and Kenneth Wilbur at C. F. Smith's.

Wherever they may be in the future we wish them the best of luck.

Did You Notice?

The new faces in N. H. S. this fall?

E. V. Ellison's becoming bluish?

The sad look on P. M.'s face? We'll miss you, too, Pat!

How confident the coach is in you football boys? Come on, fellows, do your stuff!

H. T. back in school? It looks like we can't get rid of you.

Joyce Wade's suntan? She's new, fellows!

All of last year's graduates visiting their Alma Mater?

Doesn't open 'til Oct. 25? Lucky girl!

Doesn't everyone sympathize with Joyce Wade? It's a wonder the poor school this year and her school girl isn't scared to death, having Eber Lester wandering around loose with that wild look in his eyes. Will someone please tie him in hand, he has it bad.

I hope everyone has noticed what a nice looking faculty we have this year. "Nifty" I call it.

Have you guys observed how nice the new reading library looks. It's really an improvement and L. G. Lee's pride and joy.

Now as you are all looking forward to a full week end, so long until I see you there.

STUDENTS NOTE

CHANGES IN SCHOOL

During the summer vacation the high school, as well as the grade school was thoroughly polished. However, more work was done in the high school, because the other building, being new, needed only cleaning.

Gradually all the rooms were repainted in the older building. Many rooms were painted, including the assembly, the office and others. The locks, molding and many desks and chairs were remodeled. All the blackboards were painted. The paint used was a self-made prescription invented by one of the teachers and has proved the most successful of any used.

On the outside of the building more work was done. The lawns were mowed for the new arrivals, trees were clipped and plans for shrubbery to be planted in front of the grade building in October were made. A new cement driveway was constructed. A new parking lot has been fenced. This yard included gravel being brought to the grounds; dumped and leveled nicely.

MANY NEW STUDENTS IN SCHOOLS ENLARGE LOCAL ENROLLMENT

The total enrollment this year is 163. The increase in this year's enrollment is about 32 more students than last year. The increase is largely the children, seven to the sixth grade.

This year there are 124 students in junior high, 44 in the seventh grade and 20 in the eighth grade. At the present time there are 262 students in high school.

Superintendent R. H. Auerman states that there is an expected increase to be about three hundred by next week.

NEW COURSES ADDED TO N.H.S. SCHEDULE

Several changes have been made in the classes which are being offered in junior and senior high school this year.

The general science course which has previously been offered only to eighth graders is now being divided into a three-year course. Preparatory classes in General Science are being offered in both the seventh and eighth grades, three days a week. Then a whole year of advanced general science is to be given to ninth graders. This will be given five days a week.

The biology course which has hitherto been a freshman subject will be offered only to tenth graders at the beginning of next year. This year, being rather confused because of all the changes, both freshmen and sophomores are taking the course.

THANKS

On behalf of the senior class of '38, we wish to express our sincere thanks to all of the mothers who helped to make such a wonderful success of the fair booth.

FIVE NEW TEACHERS ADDED TO FACULTY

Principal and Four Teachers from Different Sectors Join Staff

The Northville school board has appointed five new teachers to the high school faculty, staff this year.

Gerald D. Harrison is the new high school principal. Plus his duties as a principal, Mr. Harrison is teaching ninth grade math and advanced algebra. Mr. Harrison was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1933, receiving his Masters' degree in 1935. He taught at the Hudson high school in Detroit for five years, two of which he was head master. He also taught in the Ferndale schools for two years. Mr. Harrison is a member of the Phi Beta Kappa, which is an honorary scholastic organization and also of the Phi Delta Kappa, an honorary educational fraternity.

"We are off to a good start for the school year," said Mr. Harrison, "and we hope to maintain this scholastic standards that an old cultural town like Northville should have."

Edward C. Mollenau is the new teacher for social science, speech and debate. Mr. Mollenau received both his Masters' degree and his Bachelor's Degree from the University of Michigan. He has taught School at the Hudson high school in Detroit and also at the Detroit Institute of Technology. He coached Debate at the Detroit Institute of Technology and his team was runner-up for the State championship. Mr. Mollenau is a member of the Phi Rho Pi National Honorary Forensic organization. He has been teaching for nine years.

The new teacher for the commercial department is Miss Kathryn Giltner. Miss Giltner graduated from Michigan State Normal college and Clear's Business college. Her home is near Stockbridge, but she is staying in Northville for the school year. Miss Giltner has been teaching for eight years.

Eino V. Ellison is teaching mechanical drawing and manual training this year. Mr. Ellison graduated from Western State college in Kalamazoo. He has had three years of trade experience in the General Motors Shop in Detroit. This is Mr. Ellison's first year of teaching. He also attended Wayne University in Detroit for a short time.

Mr. Marshall Herrick is teaching ninth grade English and Mrs. Herrick attended school in Ann Arbor and received her degree from the University of Michigan. She taught school for two years previously in Empire.

Senior Who's Who

SAM ALDEA

Sammy Aldea, Harbor, Ind. April 23, 1919, being born there. After seven years he decided to give Michigan a lucky break so he moved here.

After hopping around from Newburg school to Plymouth to Cooper Corner and back to Newburg school, he moved east of Northville and went to Hinman school until eighth grade when he came to Northville high which has since satisfied him and cured his traveling tendencies.

Sam is very interested in sports and has been on the football team for three years. He plays guard very capably. He was captain of the class basketball teams in the tenth and eleventh grades.

JEAN ANDERSON

Jean was introduced to the world on the fourteenth of February in 1921. She has always lived near Northville and after going through the grades at the Base Line school, she came to Northville high school. She is active in school affairs and is an excellent student. She had a prominent part in last year's junior class play. Jean's favorite hobby is bicycling and dancing.

After graduation Jean plans to take a course at the Michigan State Normal college in Ypsilanti. She will study to be a teacher.

Well, my friends, school has started (for some). You'd be surprised to know how many of our classmates were quite unprepared the second day of school. Of course, we won't mention any names BUT!

While we were wandering around in search of some neat tid-bit for this column we happened to notice that there were a great many new faces rushing around in search of knowledge. We older residents of this place of learning bid them welcome.

Speaking of old residents, naturally brings to mind the graduates of '37. We saw Freddie Casteline, Cy Westphal and Harry Richardson gazing forlornly (?) at their former class rooms the other day.

Freddie Johnson is still wandering around the halls of dear old N.H.S. We wonder—doesn't he EVER get tired of this place?

The freshmen of yesteryear are actually growing up! Today they are sophomores! Most of them are, anyway. We saw Bob Orr, the class president, dashing around looking quite elated over something or other. And of course, we can't forget that handsome young man, Kenneth Wolfe. He's second only to Romeo—right, girls?

Speaking of handsome guys, we wish you guys and gals would take a squint at the president of the senior class. It's a good thing your identity is a secret because I'm afraid if the truth were known, we wouldn't be recognizable very long. Although Martin is a very nice, quiet fellow, he has his moments.

Just to get a line on how the school was getting along without her, Nan McLoughlin dropped in to see us last week.

We of the question-box wonder what's happened to a great many of those two-somes that were ALWAYS together last Spring? It looks as though it were only the spring air and the June nights.

The bane of Edward Mollenau's existence is "and-a". So, take a bit of well meant advice and watch your speech when around the aforementioned gentleman.

Remember last year, how everyone laughed and laughed over the poor fellows who had to work so hard? Well the fellows that were, are, are, now and let me tell you THEY aren't laughing!!

Tear yourself away from the collection of choice morsels long enough to glance down at the staff box where are listed the names of those courageous fellows who dared to brave the odds of an editor's temperamental disposition, and give a whoop or two of encouragement to them. They're gonna need it!

If S. The Question-Box has a new editor this year. Guess also.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMS

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced open competitive examinations as follows: Associate medical officer, $2,250 a year, for general practice and for various special branches.

Engineer, and senior, associate and assistant engineer, $2,600 to $4,600 a year.

Associate dentist, $1,200 a year. Veterans' Administration, U. S. Public Health Service and Indian Field Service.

Full information may be obtained from D. J. Starr, acting secretary of the U. S. Civil Service Board of Examiners, at the post office or customhouse in this city.

YOUR DOCTOR PRESCRIBES MILK!

HE prescribes it for school children, for adults in the prime of life; he drinks milk himself because it builds up resistance to disease and gives him the quick energy for the long hours he keeps.

Keep to your doctor's advice and use Morse's. For cooking or for drinking it's a booster for the health of all your family.

The message must go through—

In a crisis, and in discharge of ordinary duty, Michigan's telephone men live up to the high traditions of the service.

Loyal, alert, your operator meets her responsibility in emergencies and on the everyday job.

even when it has to go AROUND!

At three o'clock in the morning, near Flint, a gasoline truck and trailer caught fire by the roadside. The blast of flames, shooting upward, melted 75 feet of telephone cable—severing 250 important wires that linked Detroit to northern and central Michigan.

Immediately, quick-witted operators began routing Long Distance calls over substitute routes made available by the foresight of telephone engineers. And before it was possible to go near the white-hot mass of twisted wreckage, telephone plant men were on the scene, laying temporary circuits around the break.

This incident shows the spirit of the men and women who service your telephone... intelligent, responsible workers whose attitude toward the job can be summed up in these words:

At all times, at any cost, your message must go through!

Light Conditioning MEANS!

"Light Conditioning" is very simple. It means providing the right amount and the right kind of lighting for SEEING, COMFORT and BEAUTY... wherever eyes are used in work or play. Light Conditioning is scientific—there is no guesswork about it. But it is also flexible: If you wish, you may Light Condition a single table, a chair, a room. Or you may Light Condition your entire house.

The first step is to call in a Lighting Adviser—one of our Home Lighting Advisers will be glad to help you—to measure your present lighting and to advise you as to the types of lamps needed. "Light Conditioning" is not expensive: Very often it is just a matter of rearranging reflector lamps and lighting fixtures.

Light Conditioning brings new beauty to your home... color and warmth to your furnishings... soft, diffused light to your rooms. But it also helps to provide restful, easy seeing, and helps to guard against eyestrain and fatigue caused by poor lighting conditions.

Why not Light Condition your home NOW? You can start with a single room if you like. But the important thing is to make a start. Telephone our Home Lighting Division for a survey of your home lighting. There is no charge for this service, and no obligation.

Double Features Booked Here for Friday, Saturday—Prison Setting Is Theme of Pat O'Brien's Sunday Film, "San Quentin"

WESTBOUND LIMITED
Opening today at the Penniman-Allyn Theatre is Universal's exciting railway drama, "Westbound Limited." The picture, filmed with the cooperation of one of the largest railway systems in the West, was made on location some four hundred miles north of Hollywood, in the holy country near Santa Cruz, Calif. The railway company placed at the disposal of Director Ford Beebe and his crew a 40 mile spur of track rolling stock consisting of a passenger train and two freight trains, sidings, switch towers and other railroad equipment.

Lyle Talbot and Polly Rowles will be seen in the featured roles, Talbot as a station operator unjustly accused of criminal negligence and Miss Rowles as the girl he loves. While filming the railway sequences, the cast and crew lived aboard a special train. Many scenes were photographed in the vicinity of Felton, California, at Vayante and at Santa Cruz.

Thrilling features of the picture are the action of a runaway train as it roars down a mountain grade and a spectacular smashup between a freight and a passenger train.

"PAROLE RACKET"
Columbia's "Parole Racket," featuring Paul Kelly and Rosalind Keith, coming Friday to the Penniman-Allyn Theatre, dramatizes the means and methods utilized by the crime syndicate to buy paroles for killers and convicts. The story is based on a sensational story concerning a detective who joins the criminal forces, has himself arrested and paroled and is thus able to learn the identity of the man responsible for the flourishing racket.

"SAN QUENTIN"
With Pat O'Brien starred, and such excellent players as Humphrey Bogart, Barton MacLane, Joseph Sawyer and Ann Sheridan in supporting roles, the First National melodrama "San Quentin" has been scheduled as the Sunday feature attraction at the Strano Theatre.

While the story is laid in and about the famous penitentiary that puts into San Francisco Bay, it is not the producers give assurance one of those sorrowful movies about convicts and their lives and that sort of thing.

There is no execution, there is nothing sordid about the picture. It is followed by many scenes taken "outside" even in a San Francisco neighborhood where Max Sheridan is a singer who falls in love with O'Brien, who is an ex-army officer just appointed to be Captain of the Yard at San Quentin.

It is simply a sauntering melodrama dealing with the prisoners, the lives they lead—some good, some evil, even behind walls—and the officers who guard them.

Many of the scenes, it is said, were made at San Quentin itself. Others, done at the Warner studios, take place in settings copied exactly from the original locale.

The prison "Yard," wherein much of the action takes place, was reconstructed on an open space near the studio which covers 112,000 square feet of territory.

Naturally, as in all prison stories, there is a dash for freedom by some of the prisoners, and plenty of fighting and gunfire. But those things really do happen in prisons, and the producers say that "San Quentin" is a story fully approved by the officers of the institution.

"DANCE, CHARLIE, DANCE"
Two recruits from vaudeville have important roles in "Dance, Charlie, Dance," the Warner Bros. comedy which opens next Wednesday at the Strand Theatre.

They are Tommy Wonder of the well-known team of Tommy & Betty Wonder and Collette Lyons, both former headliners. Miss Lyons also has a musical comedy success to her credit having been featured for a season with "Sunkie Me Pink" on Broadway.

"Dance, Charlie, Dance" is the story of a small loan book, played by Stuart Erwin, who comes to New York and accidentally puts over a big Broadway show.

"TALKIN' SCOUT"
If you are all interested in the adventures of a man making (and those sorrowful movies about convicts and their lives and that sort of thing).

There is no execution, there is share of the inside information. Done in an airy manner, the comedy, starring Donald Woods, and veterans of last year's Gold Diggers Air Tour—Jeanne Mader, Fred Lawrence, and Rosalind Mander—is the story of a young singer who makes good in Hollywood through the sincere efforts of a fast-talking and faster-thinking taxi cab driver.

Woods plays the part of the singer who takes a "group of chorists" across the country in a car, as they originate from the airplane trip made by the "Gold Diggers of 1937." Woods is fired by his boss on account of his extravagance. Soon afterward, he discovers Jeanne Mader singing in a small town amateur night contest.

He takes her to Hollywood, fails at first to get her over out by a clever ruse, he has the president of the company from which he was fired, begging her for a fantastic salary. Thereafter, she rockets to success with singer Fred Lawrence, whom she eventually marries after Woods plays the martyr by concealing his own love.

Horse Flesh Stronger Than Machine

These horses and the other competing teams at the recent Farmers' Day held at Michigan State college proved stronger than the machine that was set up to measure their strength in the pulling contest. The dynamometer (pictured in the preliminary trials) broke, and the officials had to substitute a loaded stone boat. Shown here is the 2,850-pound Percheron team owned by Frank Wins of Shelby which took first in the contest by pulling the 5,650-pound stone boat 216 feet. The driver is Frank Easton.

Miss Rosemary Burgett, a room mate of Ruth Mary Baldwin while in Albion college, now a teacher in the public schools of Ferndale, spent the week end in Northville.

Three construction and civil engineers of the Japanese Government Railways, T. Nobusawa, T. Hamachi and K. Ishida, visited the site of San Francisco's 1939 Exposition on San Francisco Bay recently and marveled at the 400 acre man-made island and the construction obstacles that had been overcome.

I can "Tune-in" any temperature on my new Gas Range

For An OVEN MEAL

So I can have time to tune in fun on the radio in the living room. Oven meals are most time releasing. Listen to this—

Meats, potatoes, other vegetables and dessert all cooking while you relax listening to the radio.

Place meat loaf or fish loaf in open dish. Place dice or whole potatoes in a tightly covered dish with 2 tablespoons of butter. Prepare carrots, beets, peas, or beans the same way. It is important to have tightly covered dishes—such as casserole—so that all the steam in the dish.

The dessert might be gingerbread—a favorite among young and old alike.

Place the dishes in the oven. Yes, you may use both racks but be sure dishes are not touching each other or touching walls of the oven. Uniformness of temperature in the Modern Gas Range oven makes it material whether upper or lower rack or both racks are used.

Now tune in 350 on your heat control, light the gas, set your timer for an hour and a quarter, and relax.

No doubt you have your own recipes for meat loaf and gingerbread but here are sugges-

Salmon Loaf

2½ cups milk
1 cup butter
1 cup sugar
1 cup vanilla
1 cup raisins
1 cup chopped onion

Remove dark skin and bones from salmon, separate into flakes with two forks. Mix together salmon, salt, paprika, pepper, onion, cracker crumbs, butter and tomato juice. Add beaten egg yolks and fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into a well greased loaf pan.

Gingerbread

1 cup butter
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
1 cup dark molasses
1 cup dried fruit
1 teaspoon cloves

Cream butter, add sugar and eggs. Mix thoroughly. Add molasses. Sift flour with the cloves, cinnamon, ginger, salt, baking powder, soda and add. Lastly add hot water. Pour into greased loaf pan lined on bottom with waxed paper.
