WHY DOES HE DESERVE A LICKING?

Northville will be deeply interested in the following from the typewriter of Editor George R. Averill of the Birmingham Eccentric:

"Henry Ford deserves a licking," shouts Homer Martin, president of the United Automobile Workers, "and we propose to give it to him." What a lovely, American attitude for a former preacher to have! Mr. Martin's declarations bear the earmarks of a man whose mind is on the borderline of fanaticism.

SOME SIGNS OF THE TIMES

Business is better, thank you. Try to find a parking place in Northville, on Wednesday or Saturday nights. New store in town with large stock. Automobile dealers say they have many inquiries about new models.

ARE THERE ARE OTHER BILLS LIKE THIS?

This is a copy of a bill and note sent by an Alabama physician to one of his patients:

To Professional Services Rendered 1912--
Aug. 21 Obstetrical fee $25.00
Dear Alice: Your boy will be twenty-five on the 21st of this month; since he has never been paid for, suppose you just return him to me; and I hope his condition is as good as when I delivered him to you. I would really like to see him; he was a beautiful baby.

YOUNG MAN, LAY THE FOUNDATION

A true story of how one successful man made his success by laying a deep foundation of preparation came to us the other day from a lawyer friend. When around the age of 21 this man was serving his apprenticeship in a law office at two dollars a week. At the same time his boy chum was earning $30 a week on another job that did not require special training.

JUDGE BLACK AND THE KLAN

The country has been rocked during the past few weeks by charges that Hugo L. Black, recently appointed by the President to the Supreme Court, has been and still is a member of the Ku-Klux Klan. The charges apparently have been authenticated by written records. The series of accusations, published and copyrighted in a number of well known newspapers, are being nationally accepted as the plain—if very disagreeable—truth.

These disclosures have put President Roosevelt, who appointed the Alabama senator to the court just recently, and Black on a very "tough spot." The charges are so serious that they cannot be laughed off. The situation reflects great discredit on the method by which Senator Black was named to the Supreme Court.

Several of the country's best newspapers editorially point out that the personal integrity of Judge Black is at stake. All agree that no man belonging to such a radical organization as the Ku Klux Klan should be on the Supreme Court. If he deliberately kept silence and deceived the nation as to the facts of his Klan membership, he is worthy of impeachment.

The position of the President himself is highly embarrassing. In fact so embarrassing that he is said to have been deeply angered by Judge Black's attitude. As this is written neither the President nor Judge Black has stated whether or not the charges are true.

The situation is an intolerable one and will have to be cleared up some way. As one paper points out, "It is unthinkable that the same sort of vicious intolerance characteristic of the Klan may now find expression from the high court of the United States."

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

1 YEAR AGO
Funeral services for Ludwig H. Miller, 34-year-old former member of the original corps of German Imperial Urban lancers that fought in the Franco-Prussian war were held Saturday from the home on North High street. Mr. Miller died Wednesday after a few weeks' illness with pneumonia.

Couch, one of the first of Northville boys to enlist, that he has arrived safely in France. He is a member of the Marine division.

30 YEARS AGO

Death has entered and made sad another Northville home and in the sorrow, the entire community mingles its sympathy. Mrs. Jessie Thomas Lyke was taken fatally ill early Saturday morning and despite all efforts of physicians, she died at midnight.

CHRIST'S STOCK

Recently I spent an evening with a Protestant clergyman in a small village. That visit was a pleasant experience socially, and a deeply significant one theologically. We talked far into the night; an occasional question from me, eager throughout, revealing discussion from him.

The effective, domineering type of young people in this community, as in all others where I've been, are repelled by the church. They are repelled by the church. They are repelled by the church. They are repelled by the church.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Regular meeting of the Village Commission was held at the Village Hall, Monday evening, Sept. 20, 1937. Present: President Burkart; Commissioners Shafer, Schoultz, Perrin and Hicks.

Novi News

Miss Freda E. Koeker will speak at 8 p. m. Friday, Sept. 24, in the Baptist church on the topic "In-escapable Voices." Miss Koeker is sent from the New York Board of Education of the Northern Baptist convention and comes well recommended by persons who heard her speak last week at the Kalamazoo House party.

Those who survive Ada O. Button are her sons, Don, Jay and Dr. Aaron Button of Saginaw, a brother, Floyd Chapman of Ann Arbor, 11 grandchildren, and several nephews and nieces. The funeral was held on Thursday in Farmington at Heene's funeral parlors and interment was made in the North Farmington cemetery beside the husband, Charles W. Button.

Robert Christensen has enrolled in the medical school at the University of Michigan. He was graduated in June with a Bachelor of Science degree in the Literary school at the university.

"Everybody seems to be traveling. We've sold travel checks to every State in the Union and to more than a dozen foreign countries this season," commented Floyd Lanning from his post at the cashier's window in the Depositor's State bank last Friday.

Some 40 persons attended the American family reunion held Sunday in Cass-Benton park. R. H. American, school superintendent, reports that there were only two families unable to attend. He's flustered around these days with a hand-drawn letter opener, a gift from his brother in Butte, Mont.

A new junior choir in the Methodist church has been organized under the direction of Leslie G. Lee. Their first rehearsal occurred Thursday evening and they expect to make their first appearance soon. A platform will be built for them at the west end of the rostrum.

If Miss Selma Jarvis will present a copy of this week's Record at the box office of the Penniman-Allyn theatre, she will receive two complimentary tickets to the show, Friday or Saturday evenings.

Among the villagers who spent Saturday in Detroit were Miss Doris Reber, Mrs. O. P. Reng, Mrs. Frank Hawkins, Miss Tisha Brassfield, Miss Geraldine Huff, Miss Gladys Ludwig and Miss Ione Palmer.

Carl Schoultz, who has been in the employ of the Forney Coal and ice company for the past four years, has resigned to take a job with the Northville Laboratories as truck driver. His place on the coal truck will be taken by Paul Baldwin.

September Marks The Golden Wedding Anniversaries of Two Long-Time Northville Couples--Mr. and Mrs. Archie Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Rogers

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Morris, 255 Church street, was noted quietly Tuesday, Sept. 14, at their home...

They came to Northville just 50 years ago. Mr. Morris, moving here from St. Johns in April, 1887, bringing his bride here the following September...

Mr. Morris, a cabinet-maker by trade, came to Northville from a furniture factory in St. Johns to work in the Glebe Furniture company...

CALENDAR

- Sept. 21--O. E. S. Advance officers, Masonic Temple
Moving Pictures, St. Paul's Lutheran church
Sept. 22--W. H. M. S. Potluck luncheon, M. E. parsonage.
Oct. 3--Mission Festival, St. Paul's Lutheran church.
Oct. 11--Garden club, Mrs. W. B. Walker, Jr. Happy Acres, Eight Mile road.

With an almost complete family circle surrounding the table, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Rogers, celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary Tuesday, Sept. 21, at Meadowbrook Country club.

Four sons, Charles, Roger, Russell and Don, with their wives, and 13 grandchildren were present. Only two grandsons, Don, who is in Minneapolis, and Roy, in the Kemper Military school in Missouri, being absent.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers are happy in the fact that they have still an unbroken family after 50 years of wedded life. They were married in the old home of the parents of Mrs. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Thornton, on the site of the present Rogers home on the Nine Mile road.

The long table which seated the entire company of 33, including a few very close friends, was centered by a huge bowl of flowers in various shades of yellow suggesting the Golden Wedding. The grandchildren presented their beloved grandparents with 50 yellow rosebuds and many other gifts, greetings and flowers testified to the high regard of a large number of friends.

Besides the immediate family there were present Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers, Mrs. Charles T. Thornton of Northville, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Williams, Mrs. Florence Helmberg, Mrs. Esther McDermott and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hitchman of Detroit.

Courtesies Honor Miss Huff, New Girl Reserve Secretary

Complimenting Miss Geraldine Huff, who leaves today to assume her secretarial duties in the Girl Reserve office at Flint, the members of the Teachers' club entertained Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Reng, 718 Thayer boulevard.

Rose baskets of autumn flowers and fall leaves decorated the hostess' rooms and the table where a buffet supper was served after an informal social hour. Mrs. G. V. Harrison and Mrs. R. H. Amerman presided.

A silver bon-bon dish, a farewell gift from the club, was received by the hostesses.

Eight Graders Entertain. The following day the two sections of the eighth grade in the junior high school were hosts in Miss Huff's honor at a weiner roast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davis, Cambridge drive, where Dick Davis, a member of the group, entertained.

At this time, Miss Huff was given a waffle iron from the students, an expression of appreciation from them for the association and help she had given them as a faculty member.

Mrs. Ida B. Cooke, Miss Gladys Ludwig and Miss Tisha Brassfield were the only teachers present on this occasion.

Other courtesies extended to Miss Huff during the week were a snail, theatre party Tuesday evening with Miss Virginia Anderson, hostess, and a dinner Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. E. E. Miller.

Harry S. German, father of Harry S. and Lovie M. of this place visited here Wednesday.

Service League Gets Start On Year's Program

The Service League of the Methodist church held its first meeting of the fall, Tuesday evening, Sept. 7, at the home of Mrs. G. H. Stalker, president, Mrs. O. F. Reng, presided. Roll call was answered by a brief review of the high points in the summer vacation period. Mrs. Marshall Herrick, program chairman, gave an outline of the work for the coming year.

The main point of interest at this time is the bazaar. Chairman of the various groups reported that work is being completed and turned in. At the close of the business meeting, Mrs. Leslie G. Lee led the devotions. The social part of the program was in charge of Mrs. E. M. Bostart. Mrs. Herrick assisted Mrs. Stalker in serving refreshments.

The meeting Sept. 21, was with Mrs. William Jones. After a brief business session, Mrs. R. T. Baldwin gave an interesting review of the book, "Gone With the Wind." The speaker had recently toured the South in the region around Atlanta which contributed a personal touch to her vivid description.

Mrs. W. A. Liebetreu had charge of the devotions.

Fred Wendt, mail carrier, has returned from a three-week vacation in Toronto, Can., where he visited the Exposition. He also stopped in Milwaukee, Wis.

M. C. Gussell, scheduled to have change of the Rotary program Tuesday noon, got out of bed to take over the task. He had been ill at his home for the past week.

M. A. Bourne is recovering from a serious fall at his home on the corner of South Rogers and Wing streets. He has been in poor health for several months.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams, Vobell and Mary, both deaf mutes, are leaving soon for Flint where they will attend the State school.

The Women's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet at 12:30 p. m. Tuesday, Sept. 23, in the Methodist parsonage for a potluck luncheon and meeting.

Three little sons of Mrs. Ruth Stage, Gilbert, Delbert and Hubert, are quarantined at their home on East Cady street with whooping cough. None of them are seriously ill.

Miss Betty Mune, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Frank N. Mune, formerly of Northville, now of Wall Lake, has begun teaching in the English and French department of the high school at Fraser.

Miss Louise Alexander accompanied her sister, Miss Frances, to the campus of the Michigan State college East Lansing, last Friday. She remained there until Saturday. Frances is a sophomore this year.

Mrs. Stanley Voorhis, Walled Lake, had the misfortune to fall down the cellar stairway of her home Monday morning. Deep cuts in her face made it necessary to take several stitches. Her mother, Mrs. Addie Miles, is attending her.

John Klump, for many years a resident of Northville, and father of Wray Klump East Cady street, is quite ill at his son's home. He underwent an operation about three months ago but has not made recovery. He is over 80 years of age.

Paul H. King, referee in bankruptcy in Detroit, and widely known for his interest in crippled children, will be a guest speaker at the Rotary club Tuesday evening, Oct. 12.

The Rotarians will have their wives present as guests. Mr. King will tell of his recent trip to the International Convention of Rotary at Nice, France.

After having lived all his life of more than 70 years on the old farm homestead on West Grand River avenue, Nov. Jay D. Hazen and Mrs. Hazen 'pulled up stakes' and made the first move to their new residence at the former Charles Hill house on North Wing street.

The house has been completely redecorated and painted for their arrival.

Mrs. Kendal S. North and two small children are visiting this week with an aunt of Mrs. North in Flushing. The Rev. Kendal S. North, who began his school work Monday in the Northern Baptist Theological Seminary, Chicago, will return to the village Friday evening to be on hand for his church services here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Leary, 850 North Center street, entertained for a few days James A. Applegate and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Baumann.

Mr. Applegate is a former editor of Macomb and is now 84 years of age but unusually active in spite of his years. He dropped into The Record office and although he has been retired for 15 years he says that he goes into printing offices every chance he gets.

He attributes his good health and enjoyment of life to three things: Interest in the printing business, devotion to the Presbyterian church, and enjoyment of the Masonic lodge. The Illinois visitors left for Chicago the first of the week.

Word is received that Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Scatter are touring through the West. A card comes from Colorado Springs, Colo.

Conservation Officer Gordon Moffitt and a fellow officer had their recent fishing party at Romeo cranked by two other officers, who by a bit of foul play, managed to get away with Moffitt's prize and boat.

The Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian churches are changing their schedule of morning services Sunday, Sept. 26. At each church the Sunday School now begins at 9 a. m., with the worship hour following at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Ida M. Cook, who has just returned from the University hospital, Ann Arbor, where she received treatment for back injuries sustained several weeks ago, visited last week with Mrs. William Parmenter of Plymouth.

Arthur Sessions, who has a position as a truck driver for the Gordon and Page company in Detroit, and Mrs. Sessions, have taken an apartment on Wabash avenue in the city after having made their home with the former's father, Charles Sessions, for the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bailey left Thursday morning for an extended tour of the east during which they plan to visit Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Boston, New York city, Atlantic City, Washington and several historic points on their route. They will return to Michigan by way of Marquette, O.

Among the Garden club members who visited the Ford gardens in Detroit, Monday, at the invitation of Mrs. Henry Ford, were Mrs. E. A. Kohler, Mrs. Florence Alexander, Mrs. Dale F. Martin, Mrs. Arthur Litsenberger, Mrs. Joseph Denton, Mrs. Myron Anderson, Mrs. R. J. Casterline and Mrs. R. E. Geraghty.

Miss Jessie Hutton, formerly of Northville, granddaughter of Charles Hutton, whose name is perpetuated by one of our village streets, was a visitor here Sunday. Miss Hutton has been a teacher in the kindergarten of the Flint schools for a number of years. She finished her high school course in Northville in 1893. With Miss Hutton were Mrs. Luella Hawley (remembered by Northville friends as Mrs. Henry Palmer), and Mr. and Mrs. John Walter, all of Flint.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Graham of Lewis, Pa., and Mason Meyers of Versailles, Calif., have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. X. Meyers of South Wing street. They are on their way West after a month's visit in New Jersey. As was the case when Mr. Graham was here three years ago, he quickly made friends with the boys in the neighborhood and his story telling greatly pleased the boys. Mr. Graham reports that crops are very good in the East in spite of the rainy season there.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Allen and three months-old son, James, have moved from Milford into the house owned by Mrs. Allen's mother, Mrs. Pauline Staman, East Cady street. Mrs. Allen will be remembered as Miss Inga Staman who was graduated from the Northville high school in 1932. Mr. Allen is a stone cutter employed by the Milford Granite Works and plans to set up a display of monuments adjoining the residence.
