SUPERFEX Oil Burning HEATERS

IN NEW, MODERN DESIGN

THOUSANDS of stove-heated homes now are enjoying the luxury of "directed" heat with the HEAT-DIRECTOR, one of the famous SUPERFEX Oil Burning Heating Stoves made by Perfection Stove Co.

Connects to flue like an ordinary stove. Burns low-cost fuel oil. A simple turn of a dial regulates the volume of heat. No wasted fuel. No extremes of heat and cold. Several sizes, including one that can be operated as long as 46 hours at low flame on one filling of reservoir. Can be connected to outside fuel supply.

Attractively finished in durable two-tone brown porcelain enamel. Suitable models for homes, offices, schools, churches and shops. Easy terms, if desired.

LOWELL AND PHERBIA THOMAS WILL DELIVER LECTURE IN DETROIT

A unique presentation of the Japanese-Chinese situation will be made by Lowell Thomas, famous World War reporter and radio commentator, and his sister, Pherbia Thomas, long a student of Japanese affairs in Japan, when they appear at 8:30 p. m. next Sunday, Oct. 10, in the Detroit Institute of Arts, Woodward and Kirov.

As announced by the World Adventure Series, which is sponsoring the appearance of the famed couple in Detroit, Mr. Thomas will introduce his sister, who will present the Japanese side of the question. Her talk will be illustrated with motion pictures. Mr. Thomas will then explain the present conflict from the Chinese point of view, after which the two will appear on the platform together in a symposium covering through Romantic India and into Forbidden Afghanistan. This feature will be illustrated with motion pictures, which Mr. Thomas took during his dangerous expedition into the wilds of Afghanistan.

Through Romantic India and into which are illustrated with motion pictures, are given every Sunday afternoon at 3:30 at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

A New PICTORIAL ROTOGRAVURE in Convenient Tabloid Form

Next Sunday The Detroit News introduces another new feature for its readers—a picture magazine in ROTOGRAVURE. Pictures from all over the world that tell what's happening in every phase of human activity. News pictures that reveal; as only the camera can, the hidden mysteries of jungle, mountain, desert or ocean. Pictures that show how intricate things are made and JUST PICTURES of beautiful motion picture stars! And not only pictures, but vividly written explanations that make them doubly interesting.

All this will come to you next Sunday in a two-color cover with The Detroit News. And in addition there will be "This Week" Magazine, a large four-color comic section, a Wild Life Page, a Travel Page, Sports Section, Society Section, an Automobile Section, Pages for Women, Screen and Stage Section, a Radio Section, and a dozen other good features!

Be sure to order your copy of this NEW Pictorial ROTOGRAVURE in advance. It has been planned to meet that growing demand for PICTURES THAT TELL A STORY. You'll like this NEW Pictorial ROTOGRAVURE.

Here Are Just a Few of the Pictures and Features in the First Issue, Sunday:

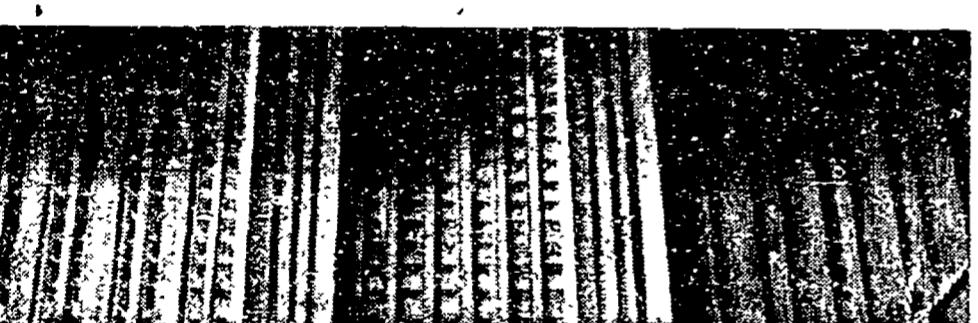

"DUTCH" CLARK IN ACTION: Exceptional action pictures of the gridiron's great pro star... ALICE FAYE'S LIFE STORY: Two full pages depicting the colorful career of this famous stage and screen star... MONSTERS IN A FISH BOWL: Unique pictures of aquatic life that will appeal to nature lovers... GANG BUSTERS ON THE AIR: A full page of candid shots made during a broadcast... MAN—THE WEAKER SEX: A feature that will arrest the attention of scientifically minded people... THE HOME TOWN BAND: Two pages of pictures with the story of the Bronson Band, the oldest of its kind in the State... MICE FOR PROFIT: Pictures and story revealing the occupation of a Michigan Farmer.

17th District Legion Dinner Is Outstanding Event of Week; State Commander Smith Speaks

Covers were laid for 100 persons for four evenings. Oct. 1, when General H. Gran, post, or the American Legion was host at night to the 17th District in the Presbyterian church there.

Legion men and Auxiliary members are giving their commendation to Gen. H. Smith, City State department commander, for his talk of the evening. Commander Merrill Sweet was on hand to introduce him.

Dr. W. H. Joannette was first in the spot-light before the evening was over. In recognition for his service to the post during the year he was given a past commander's badge. He responded to this and to the congratulations given him over the air by his recent election as the 17th District commander. At a brief

Miss Marjorie Dunn, member of Miss Campbell's Club, organized a group of girls.

Followed the two days by Legion members held a bazaar at the Legion Hall, opposite the former site of the former Estill. The Amalgamated Club, Thomas Bell, visiting conductor, spending his sabbatical year here, was present.

Mrs. E. A. Chapman to Review "The Years" at Club

At the Woman's Club meeting this afternoon, Mrs. E. A. Chapman will review the book, "The Years," by Virginia Woolf. The meeting will be held in the club room, at the library, marking the last session in their home quarters since the club calendar began Oct. 1.

Last week the club held its opening luncheon of the year at the Woman's League building. An Arborist, the principal feature of the afternoon was the informal talk given by Mrs. Frederick G. Ray, one-time faculty member at the Northville High School. Miss Marjorie Deane was the soloist on the occasion, which was presided over by the president, Mr. C. C. White.

It is expected that the mailing of the Michigan Social Register, announced this week that a number of villagers had been sent registration cards.

"I want to stress the importance attached to the mailing of their registration cards to us. No registration card can be included unless the family in question personally forwards to us the information requested," he asserts.

It is expected that the 1938 edition will be ready for distribution next year.

BY CHARLES E. HUTTON

The People's Forum, a new Sunday night community program following in character the popular feature course programs featured in many larger towns and cities will be inaugurated Sunday night, October 8, in the Methodist church with the appearance of J. H. Bollens president of the Fellowship for the Protection of Civil Rights of Detroit and pastor of the Methodist Church and canon who will speak on cultural civic problems.

Mr. Post, proprietor of the Ford Sales and Service agency here for the last 14 years announced Monday the sale of his business to L. B.
Miles of Royal Oak.

The agency was established by Mr. Post in 1923 and has been developed by him as one of the leading automobile agencies in this area.
Mr. Post stated that other business interests both here and elsewhere demanded his full time and supervision, making it impractical for him to continue his local dealership.

L. B. Miles, the new owner, has been a resident of Oakland county throughout his life with New Hudson as his birthplace where he lived during his boyhood. He is the son of the late Fred Miles, well known throughout this vicinity, and a brother of Perry Miles, head of a transport concern in New Hudson. Mrs.
Stanley Voorhees of Walled Lake, is a sister.

Mr. Miles is married and has two sons and a daughter. Robert, the eldest son, will be associated with his father in the new business. They plan to reside here in the near future.

Mr. Miles has been in business at Royal Oak for the past 16 years and preceding that lived at Pontiac, where he was associated in the automobile business for several years, and was later occupied with similar work in Detroit.

Walled Lake high school students warriors emerged from their annual battle with the sons of Northville on the long and a 32-0 score last Friday afternoon.
Their first victory in four years.

Hannan's, on State Street, held a fund-raising sale Saturday afternoon.
Mrs. Harold C. Card, Mrs. Ruthie Card and Carl Grable were in charge of the sale.

The Re. Victor O. Wile, president and his mother Mrs. Emilie Wile and Mrs. Mitchell S. D. returned to their home Thursday afternoon from relatives and friends at Bay-City and Walker Lake. Mr. Wile was formerly the pastor of the Bay-City church here.

Mrs. Mary Welfare, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Welfare of Bay-
City, road and student at Michigan State Normal College, won a $50 prize in a national cake naming contest last week sponsored by a manufacturer of flour. She tied with three other contestants, each having sent the same name. All three were awarded equal prizes.

A neighborhood bridge party and dinner was held at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. George N.
Butler on East Lake Drive, Saturday evening. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carner, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tuck, Mr. and Mrs. John Huff, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Meredith, Mr. and Mrs. George Seville and father, Mrs. Eddie Rhodes, Mrs.
Sam McGregor and Mrs. H. Reilly.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cameron and Mrs. Annete Tucker were Sunday callers at the Hutton residence, as were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis of Ann Arbor. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hutton were Monday callers at the Cameron residence in Detroit. Mrs.
Minnie Hutton is visiting friends in Pontiac for several days.

The Walled Lake post office is now occupying its new quarters in the Winterer building. The official task of moving all of the equipment was turned home Monday of last week.

Frank Martin and son Frank returned home Monday of last week from Del Rio, Tex., where the former was accomplished between sundown and opening time. He is making good recovery and able to take short walks.

Remodeling work has been started on the old post office building by its owner, who plans to house both his barber shop and the Heron beauty shop there.

James Muhr was home from Kalamazoo college over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hadley and daughter, Marjorie, of Litchfield, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs.
S. G. Acans, police super-policemen, Sunday evening.

Miss Ethel Young of Ohio is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
John Shepard Shirley Risher.

WALLED LAKE WINS OVER NORTHLVILLE

RIVALS DOWN HOME GRIDDERS 33-0 IN THIRD SUCCESSIVE VICTORY

Walled Lake defeated Northville once more last Friday at Cass Bent- on park by a score of 33-0.

This is the third successive year that Walled Lake has beaten the home team. Walled Lake had the better and more experienced team and outweighed Northville at an average of 20 pounds per man. The home team was weakened by injuries to Charles Bishop and Albert Boedens. Although Chuck played in spite of a strained ankle, Albert wasn't in uniform because of an injury to his arm received in the Farmington game, but he will play today against Berkley.

Walled Lake out-rushed North- ville 14 first downs to three and 265 yards to 98 and outgained them 185 to 85 yards. The game was but three minutes old when Walled Lake had its first touchdown, and had converted the extra point. This was done through the recovery of a Northville fumble on Northville's 26 yard-line. From there, on the first play, the victory circled Northville's right end all the way for a score.

Northville then put up a good fight holding Walled Lake inch for inch. Art Mitchell broke through once for an 85-yard run for a touch- down, but the play was called back and the home team penalized, putting the ball on their own 5-yard line. Claude Hinman then kicked from his own end zone and got off a poor kick and it was Walled Lake's ball on N. H. S.'s 29-yard line, from where on a long pass they advanced to the N. H. S. 10-yard line and carried it over with three line plays. They converted the extra point to make the score 14-0 at the end of the half.

The second half was all Walled Lake. The home team was unable to advance any farther than their own 45-yard line. Walled Lake had the ball most of the time and scored two touchdowns and an extra point in the third quarter. They scored one touchdown in the final period.

The home team appeared weak in the center of the line and needed more practice in both blocking and blocking. This extra work was promised for this week. The outstanding players of this game were Mitchell and Bishop in the back-field and Walter Myers and Eber Lester in the line.

The lineup: LP, Card; LT, Lester; C, LG, Baumgard; C, Bray; RG, Beal; RT, Aldeis; RE, Duguid; QB, Price; RHB, Bon-gart; LHB, Junod; and FB, Mitchell. Subs: Bishop, Hinman, Myers, S. Lester, Dixon and Ambler.

Common Chatter By GWEN

Perhaps you know there was a football game in Ann Arbor Saturday. You must know because I'm practically certain you were there. Or maybe you have listened to an account of the game told so many times by so many different people that you feel sure that you must have had a "dime dream." Personally I think everyone from Michigan to the Ozark Mountains must have been there judging from the way the stadium was packed. End zones, everything. There was hardly a vacant seat to be had. I know, because I was told I could have no more room to sit on than the number imagine me, of all people, sitting on just one number. I believe everyone had a perfectly marvelous time except the football players. Even in the slight drizzle which prevailed for a short time. I practically wore out a perfectly good pair of lungs shouting in the tense moments which were almost continuously.

The football boys spent most of the time before the game looking for their most-hard-to-find Coach Elmer Barr. The ones around gate nine were "Did you see the coach?" He said to be here not later than one o'clock. Now where is he? And still muttering, they would walk away to search some more. And now to put the reader at ease—they found him at exactly five minutes to one. Then the problem was to get into the grounds without being literally crushed.

After gaining entrance to the place, guess who I should run into—but our editor, Peggy Walker, trailing around with Alf Parmenter, a Michigan man. Now who do you suppose she was rooting for? Blue and Gold, most likely.

The next persons who struck me eye were Louise Alexander, her mother and Aunt Louise, who are visiting the Alexanders from Washington. Louise was wearing a beautiful brown suit made of a flecked tweed top, off-white a gorgeous big

Editor's Note

This is a plea for those poor unfortunate who always seem to get the shaft. After all, they're older and wiser than any of us, and if the public opinion is hard to ignore only the little some of us are take sometimes — for something inclined to think that they that either, they aren't entirely to wouldn't be employed for our benefit or, or something they've, in as they are now. Come on you done on impulse, and later regret, fellows! For it's the boys we're not to gather sympathy. We only want that "ain't too" give them a break to think a little before you come. The faculty isn't such a bad bunch after all. Give him a chance to right himself. Perhaps he had a good reason for doing what of modern living doobie for his d.d. And then, perhaps it didn't gotten the meaning of that little word. "Maybe he was wrong." But "word respect." We've even heard the team will lose Junod, half-back through the inexperience list. The squad has been working out very hard lately, the coaches report, after the loss of the first two games.

Today's lineup: Myers, LE; Lester, LTY; Aldeis, LC; Bray, C; Beal, RG; Baumgard, RT; Duguid, RB; Price, QB; Fritz, LH; Bishop, RH; Mitchell, FB.

It's NOT BAD TO SHOVE AND CROWD, BUT WHY PUSH?

Did you ever notice individuals at a football game? If you ever want to show some respect to another's courtesy and politeness, then that's what brings to mind another question: Why is it that whenever someone has an idea or suggestion, or anything — we realize that that's a bit different from anything else — but that's been tried before, people should forget entirely what few "ifs" there are in the world? Where one knew? Who her she should or would civilization be today? If not — some of us have. There's a certain element of people right here in school that can't seem to realize that a teacher should command a certain amount of respect from us. After all, we're not the ones who've been sorry, for after all, doesn't cost anything — does it — the big thing to do is to forgive and forget. Now, to get back to the question, we should never make a mistake of respecting others' ideas or suggestions. And that's what brings to mind another question of courtesy and politeness: Why is it that whenever we should forget entirely what few "ifs" there are in the world? Where one knew? Who her she should or would civilization be today? If not — some of us have. There's a certain element of people right here in school that can't seem to realize that a teacher should command a certain amount of respect from us.

WEBBERVILLE'S LOSS OF COACH IS IN N. H. S. GAIN

In the very tip of Upper Michigan you'll find a little town known as Lake Linden. It was there in Lake Linden High that Harry Smith finished his high school education in the fall of 1926. Perhaps it was in high school that he decided to enter upon his career as a teacher. But whatever it was, Northville High is glad to welcome such a splendid new addition to its faculty.

The debaters are formulating their case. The question is "Resolved: Seven States Should Adopt unicameral System of Legislation." The following people are the candidates for this coming year: Albert Boedens, Alfred Cousins, J. W. Ericson, Mary George, Edward Reeg, Marjorie Rowe, Margaret Van Hollenbeck, Virginia Washburne and William Washburne, Jr.

Wayne sent request and information concerning practice debates. Four general debate classes, a geography class and two physical education classes constitute Mr. Smith's program this year at Northville.

Information has been collected from various books and will aid any student wishing to enter the contest.

Students wishing to participate in this organization may see Mr. Mollema.

Reading fills up most of his time out of school, when he isn't dancing or taking in a movie. Oh yes, Mr. Smith shows partiality to bratwursts and T-bone steaks.

The most perfect view obtainable within seven counties was Albert Boedens. Just when I would get the glasses focused just right up would bob Albert blocking out the play and by the time I could get to my feet to see what was going on every one would be just sitting down.

The back slappers were there in the form of Benny Duguid and Art Mitchell. Everyone within two miles knew who they were rooting for, by the fast roar they raised every time state scored a touchdown. Would that they had deflated if Michigan had won?

Albert is very active in sports, having played both golf and football for two years and having spent three years on the basketball team. Outside of sports Al likes his favorite hobbies are eating and sleeping.

Upon graduation Albert wants to take a course in physical education at the Michigan State Normal college. Ypsilanti.

Later in the afternoon I noticed a very proud girl strutting around. She was Bettie Schrader. You'd be proud too, if you could boast of a big brother playing on the State team.

By the way, were my eyes deceiving me, or was that Juanita Stanford that was being spanked the other day? Happy birthday, Juanita!

Our old editor, Nan McLoughlin, who is now attending school at Cooley had a birthday yesterday and four of her friends from Northville were invited in town for dinner to honor her celebrate. Just think Nan has reached the ripe old age of 17. I know you all wish her many happy returns of the day.

I'd say good by now—now you are all looking forward to an even-fewer week end. So until I see you again, have a nice time.

NORTHLVILLE MEETS BERKLEY TONIGHT

Third Game at Cass Benton Park to Start Promptly at 3:30 p.m.

The Orange and Black gridders will play their third game of the season with Berkley tonight at Cass Benton Park.

The team welcomes back Al Boedens who has been out with an injured arm as a result of the game with Farmington.

The team will lose Junod, half-back through the inexperience list.

The squad has been working out very hard lately, the coaches report, after the loss of the first two games.

Today's lineup: Myers, LE; Lester, LTY; Aldeis, LC; Bray, C; Beal, RG; Baumgard, RT; Duguid, RB; Price, QB; Fritz, LH; Bishop, RH; Mitchell, FB.

IT'S NOT BAD TO SHOVE AND CROWD, BUT WHY PUSH?

Did you ever notice individuals at a football game? If you ever want to show some respect to another's courtesy and politeness, then that's what brings to mind another question of courtesy and politeness: Why is it that whenever we should forget entirely what few

"ifs" there are in the world? Where one knew? Who her she should or would civilization be today? If not — some of us have. There's a certain element of people right here in school that can't seem to realize that a teacher should command a certain amount of respect from us.

The first type is the pushing type. This one seems to think that he has to push the whole crowd the way his team is going. If you sit in among a bunch of pushers, you're usually pretty well acquainted by the time the game ends. They not only push the people on either side of them into perfect strangers' laps, but they never notice and consequently never apologize. The only way to handle a pusher is to lean aside suddenly and let him fall on his hot car. This administered three times an hour usually cures it.

The second type is the confirmed back slapper. He blames people only on the back every time either side moves and then calmly says

"Fardon me, you don't really mind do you?" You can answer either

"no" or "so sue me" but it doesn't master particularly because well keep it at anyway. If you sit in front of a back slapper you're sure to go home with a misplaced vertebrae and a stiff neck.

The third and worst type of human being is the know-it-all. He tells both coaches whom to put in and take out and who, in detail, he tells that he knows all the players on both teams intimately and tells everyone in his section all about them also in detail. He tells the quarterbacks just what plays to run and when. If they work, he takes all the credit. If they try another jazz and it fails, he stands up, waves his arms madly and gives the quart back a piece of his small mind. Now this wouldn't be so bad if these poor excuses for men had pleasing voices but they seem to keep what they do have at a loud roar at all times.

And it wouldn't be so intolerable if they were few and far between but personally I always get between two pushers and in front of a combination back-slapper-know-it-all. Woe is me!!!

She is often seen bicycling around the village as this is her favorite outdoor pastime. Other occupations that ranks high with her are riding and reading.

Miss Boedens just can't stand to be away from her brother, so she also plans to attend Michigan State Normal college at Ypsilanti when she leaves dear old N. H. S. behind.

In the Lineup

A very prominent member on N. H. S. football squad, James Beal, came to us from Fords high. Jim was born in Detroit on Dec. 14, 1919. He attended the Lowrey Grammar school and from there entered Fords. Jim is heard around school repeatedly saying "Cripes" or "Nutz."

His favorite sports are swimming and football. Dancing is also a hobby with Jim.

MARY JANE BOEDENS Mary Jane is Albert's twin sister, so she was also born on February 2, 1921. She has spent all her school years in the Northville schools and is now the able secretary to Principal G. V. Harrison.

Mary Jane also likes the great outdoors.

Card of Thanks:
I desire to express my sincere thanks to the members of the Northville fire department and to the citizens generally who helped to control the fire which threatened my residence properly early Sunday morning. The firemen exercise unusual care in their efforts to control and locate the fire with the result that the damage will not be large. The origin of the fire will be a mystery, because there were two electric wires in that portion of the room where the fire was located. But for the prompt and well directed work of the friends who were early on the scene the result would, doubtless, have been disastrous. Again I thank all who helped.

E. E. Brown.

The Farmers' Corner

By E. L. BESEMER,
County Agent

Belleville Future Farmers of America under the leadership of states E. L. Besemer, county agricultural agent. This contest is in charge of Superintendent Schickler of Albion, and Superintendent McGee of North Branch.

Plans are completed for a South Eastern Michigan Potato Show to be held at Lapeer, Nov. 9, 10, 11. It is expected to move from place to place throughout this section of the State in other years.

Among the features of the Potato Show will be selection of a Potato Queen, a barbecue, a Premier Growers contest, judging and grading contests.

HOLD CORN MEETING The hybrid corn field meeting held at Fred C. Miller's on Elwell road, showed very clearly that farmers should proceed very cautiously in buying hybrid field corn. Only one variety Michigan 561 had matured satisfactorily to a satisfactory degree. Other hybrids compared in the demonstration were Illinois 368 and DeKalb 445, both of which showed too much immaturity.

COMPLETE PLANS FOR POTATO SHOW The premium lists for Michigan's Southeastern Potato Show which is to be held at Lapeer, Nov. 9, 10, 11, are just off the press.

Plans are being made for one of the largest and most educational shows in Michigan," states Clarence Buddekin, president of the Potato Association.

Particular emphasis is being placed this year upon the marketing phase of the potato industry. Three hundred dollars out of the $600 offered in premiums is to be given on the representative table stock exhibit. This exhibit is made up of 150 pounds samples representing at least 300 bushels that the grower has produced in 1937. These potatoes should not be kind selected but merely graded as growers grade them for the market.

DANCING SCHOOL—Dancing taught by appointment by the Dancing Bafflers, formerly on the stage and exhibiting for the leading ballrooms of the country. Teachers of fancy, bellroom and tap dancing. It will be worth while to give us an interview. Located at 122 Randolph st., Northville Phone 202 W., residence 7. 29-July 10p

After the tours and soil test explanations the county agents are to be supplied with exhibit bottles. Official visitors can become better acquainted with soils typical of the various counties. With this the county agents' coupé up knowledge of how these soils should best be utilized for agriculture or for conversion into other productive uses.

POTATO CONTEST is Feature Fifty dollars of the premium list is being devoted to the poster contest. This contest is open to rural and high school boys and girls and parents. Contestants will prepare posters which will in some manner portray the idea of greater potato consumption either through suggested recipes, value of the potato to the human diet or stressing the quality of Michigan's potatoes.

Posters may be sent directly to the Southeastern Michigan Potato Show Association at Lapeer or to the Michigan Potato Association, 825 E. 7 Mile Road, Northville, Mich.

COUNTY ASKS REPORT ON EIGHT-HOUR DAY The Michigan Labor Control Commission at Lansing has granted the Garden City Council permission to use the square hall as a temporary school building. Until the permanent school is built in the fall, the commissioners will occupy the hall during the eight-hour day. They will be housed in a former church at 15th and Harrison Streets.

ATTEND THE WALK AND MEET The walk and meet of the supervisors of Wayne County, held at the square hall, will not be delayed due to the new school building. The commissioners will be housed in the former church at 15th and Harrison Streets.

COMPLAINTS have been brought before the board to the effect that the employees of the Wayne County Training School have not been given schedules in accordance with the eight-hour week. Dr. Robert H. Haskell, medical superintendent of the school, is to be questioned on the situation Monday. The complaint comes from the union of State, County and Municipal Employees.

REDFORD—Construction of a new school and recreation building at the Children's Village began during the week, simultaneously with the gift of $83,000 by the Kresge Foundation of the Methodist Children's Home Society.

The gift added to that made ten years ago to assist in starting the village, brings the Kresge contribution to a total of $314,000. The Redford Record.

Henry Ford is related to Mr. Bogart, and the Fords spent part of their honeymoon with him in his home on North Center street.

According to his daughter-in-law, Mrs. L. N. Bogart, the years rest lightly on his shoulders. He carries in wood at times, enjoys the best health, uses neither tobacco nor alcohol and appears regularly at the Wixom Baptist church for worship. He gives credit for his many years to a lifetime of clean, Christian living. And he doesn't live to do, looks forward to the future with the eager anticipation of a man many years his junior.

Three of Mr. Bogart's children are living. Mrs. Alta McGuire Wixom, Harry Bogart, Pontiac, and L. N. Bogart, Wixom, with whom he lives. E. M. Bogart is a nephew.

Editor M. H. Defoe of the Charlotte Republican-Tribune picked up a local item from the Northville Record of 1936 weeks ago and made quite a bit of it in the following manner:

"Senator and Mrs. R. S. Copeland of New York City, Miss Cornelia Copeland, of Dexter and Mrs. Howard Holmes of Chelsea, were Wednesday guests at the home of Mrs. Copeland's sister, Mrs. Thad J. Knapp."

"Above is a social item from the Northville Record showing how close the writer reads Dick Baldwin's excellent paper. Speaking of Senator Copeland, calls up that once Happy Warner, A. Smith, who supported the ill-fated two-way Copeland candidacy for mayor of New York, is out and the former Dexter-Ann Arbor citizen is just a few feet back in the same line. This took a long shot chance and lost Jim Farley in Lansing yesterday, as now the big shot of New York City and State democratic politics. In a way it is an unfortunate situation for the country. Al Smith is a strong character and made New York a great governor but the country can't take it. Regardless of how one may feel toward F. D. Roosevelt, most everyone will agree that he went along with Al Smith in the misunderstanding, if the squabble attains any such dignity. Al Smith allowed his recentness toward P. D. R. to run his standing over the country. Politics is a game, and it has no place for the growth."

Season tickets may be secured from the office of the School of Music, Charles A. Sink, President, at $12.00, $10.00 and $6 each. Preceding the Rachmanoff concert all unused season tickets, if any remain, will be on sale for individual concerts at $2.50, $2.00 and $1.50 each.
