A SLAP ON THE WRIST FOR DRUNKEN DRIVERS

Detroit papers tell of Judge George T. Murphy sending three drunken drivers to jail for terms of 15, 20 and 30 days respectively. In view of the fact that each one of these drivers was a possible killer the sentence was too light. If terms of six months in jail were given, the drunken driver there might be some possibility of decreasing the drunken driver menace.

"FORD NOT TO BLAME," SAYS MARTIN

Homer Martin, president of the U. A. W., must be seeing the light; anyway he seems to be changing his ideas about Henry Ford. In a statement made in Newark, N. J., last week, Martin declared that Ford was sincere and honest in his efforts to give the best possible working conditions to his men. "I don't think Mr. Ford was to blame for the working conditions in his plant," Martin added.

THE WORLD "DO MOVE"

You can go anywhere in a hurry now days. A friend who is going to California this winter tells us there is a new stream line train which will take you from Chicago to Los Angeles in two nights and one day. And the return fare for himself and wife (no Pullman) is only $137. The last time we went to California it took three days and three nights.

Editor W. H. Berkeley of Cassopolis says that one of the women of his city received a letter from her daughter in six days after it had left China. The letter was carried by the China Clipper.

HOW DO YOU LIKE GETTING A STATEMENT?

Human nature continues to be funny. The Record has been sending out a number of subscription statements long delayed several hundred of them. People accustomed to doing much business take these statements as a matter of course, the fact they are delayed to get them. A woman, just a couple of days ago, two of our best editors came in to give us their check for the amount owing us at the same time thanking us for sending the bill. One of them said, "I wish you could do this more often." On the other hand there is occasionally a person who comes to request a statement—just why it is hard to figure out. Fortunately, newspaper people who are dealing every day with all kinds of folks learn to take them very philosophically.

THEY DON'T LIKE WELFARE

(W. S. Kennedy in Albion Evening Recorder)
There are still some rugged individuals left. The other day a Negro woman, aged 72, applied for an old age pension in Chicago for her mother, aged 101. Didn't want one herself, she said, because she could still do a day's work. There is a woman of the same race in Albion, weighs about 100 pounds, who does fourteen washings a week. Bought herself a mangle the other day because the ironings were getting a little heavy. She would spurn the idea of relief. A man up in East Tawas, aged 66, applied for an old age pension but later got a job. When the pension money came he sent it back to the state. Said he wanted to earn his own living as long as he could.

THE AMBITIOUS C. I. O.

The C. I. O., dominated by John L. Lewis and Homer Martin, is getting exceedingly ambitious. According to newspaper reports they propose to get a political grip on not only Detroit, where they have a slate for the coming November election, but also in the whole state of Michigan. At Detroit, led by Patrick H. O'Brien, the C. I. O. forces nominated a so-called labor slate for mayor and council, which was successful in getting about one-third of the total primary votes. According to Mr. O'Brien's plan the C. I. O. is going to take over not only the city government of Detroit but also that of every other large industrial city. The vast sum of $250,000 is reported to be available at the coming Detroit election.

Thoughtful people will view the possibility of a labor government of Detroit with great alarm. If the C. I. O. does take over the Detroit city government the conditions that will prevail in labor troubles will be sad to contemplate. If these ambitious labor leaders who, unquestionably include many Communists and other radical leaders, get into office most anything can happen. The lawlessness that prevailed last winter due to strikes would be a tea party compared with what we might expect under the guidance of these ambitious leaders.

Fortunately for Detroit, and the rest of Michigan, there is every reason to believe that the C. I. O. ticket will be defeated at the coming election. Certainly if it is not, there are some very troublesome days ahead for all of us.

GET YOUR SHARE OF THE APPLES

This ought to be a good winter for setting by the fireplace and eating apples. Michigan has a remarkable crop, the estimate being 13,000,000 bushels. Prices are going to be reasonable and every wise housewife will plan to get her share of these apples. If your cellar is too warm to store them why not arrange for some grower to bring them in to you one bushel at a time. We are right in the midst of an abundant apple country. There is no better item on your menu than apples.

PREDICTS READING WILL WIN

(M. H. DeFoe in Charlotte Republican Tribune)
The statement in another column that the C. I. O. took a licking in Detroit's primary is not quite the truth, although everything would indicate the group has no chance to elect P. H. O'Brien, in the run-off for mayor. Just the same, O'Brien qualified for a run-off position with 100,000 votes beating former Mayor John W. Smith, former Congressman Clarence J. McLeod and some unknown. City Clerk Dick Reading, who led the non-partisan ticket with 137,000, would seem to be a "cinch" in November inasmuch as O'Brien to win must poll 72 per cent of the total vote cast for Smith and McLeod to defeat Reading. This is quite hopeless. Of the 13 candidates for councilman (9 to be elected in November) the C. I. O. placed five, but any victory here seems quite remote as the high C. I. O. candidate was seventh from the top. Just the same the C. I. O. vote, voted en bloc, is sufficiently large to make a definite threat in a state-wide contest.

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

1 YEAR AGO

First class sessions for the Union School of Religion were held last night in the Presbyterian church house where church workers from the New Plymouth and Northville Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches were in attendance. The first cottage of abricked logs to be constructed in the village has just been completed at 318 River street by P. L. Mott, Detroit contractor. Speaking their vote before 150 friends and relatives at 6 p. m. Saturday, Oct. 10, Miss Dorothy Kukin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reinhold Kukun and Roy M. Van Alta, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn E. Van Alta, were united in marriage in St. Paul's Lutheran church.

30 YEARS AGO

Mr. Orissa Stanley, mother of George and Merril Stanley of this place, died while sitting in her chair late Friday afternoon at the home of the former, with whom she had made her home since last July. Nettie Ward, Charlie Wilcox and Clara Freeman of the second grade were present from the B to the A class of that grade. W. T. Downer of Alta, Okla. arrived in town Wednesday evening to join his family, who have been here for some time and to visit his mother, Mrs. G. Dowler.

5 YEARS AGO

Edmond Baker celebrated his 100th birthday by anniversary Sunday with a family party at his home on West Street. In 1837 he was born in the Northville, Wayne County, Pa. He was a great friend of the people and was a member of the Protestant Episcopal church in Wayne County, Pa. He was a member of the Northville, Pa. church and was a member of the Northville, Pa. church. He was a member of the Northville, Pa. church and was a member of the Northville, Pa. church.

15 YEARS AGO

Owing to poor health, George H. Johnston has sold his jewelry business to L. H. Blake, and experienced watch maker and jeweler of Sand Lake. Work of laying 1836 feet of new iron water pipe, leading from the reservoir to the Hills spring was commenced this week. Elmer Perrin's Ford coupe was stolen Wednesday in Detroit. The ceiling and tile floor has been completed in the Lapham State bank building and other repairs and alterations are being pushed rapidly. John S. Haggerty is building a fine new brick residence on his farm on the Canton Center road. N. C. Schrader, C. B. Ely and J. A. Huff expect to leave early next week for the Rainy river country in Canada on a hunting expedition.

20 YEARS AGO

The following additional list of young men of Northville and vicinity has been certified by the draft board of District 2: Frank Van Valkenburg, Carl Korabach, Harry Van Sicke, Ray Baker, Donald Baker, Carl Van Valkenburg, Archie Kidd, Ross Dixon, Frank Brocman, Frank Hall and Donald Byckmar. August S. Huff, a well known and respected resident of Northville for the past 30 years, died Saturday, Oct. 6, after a very short illness at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Nixon.

DISHONESTY

Recent events put so clearly a lock on what a personal integrity that I felt the need for clarification. My thumb-worn Webster's, under "honesty," says in part fair and candid in dealing with others; upright, characterized by openness, genuineness, or sincerity; frank, undisguised, sincere. There seems to be need for a general of simple honesty among our people. More especially, and to our shame, the need for a revival of the practice of simple honesty is indicated among our public men in high office. One likes to think of judges, for example, as being honest. The higher a man rises as a judge, the more certain we citizens want to be that he is "fair, candid, upright, open, unassuaged." There are certain kinds of dishonesty born in all of us in varying degree. The less harmful types are outgrown. Training and experience correct some other forms of dishonesty. There is one type of dishonesty, however, which neither adulthood nor culture can unseat in the character of man. That is the dishonesty of greed. Ambition is a form of greed. The dishonesty of an ambitious man is rooted in his soul. Not all ambitious men are dishonest. But there are men who will abandon the principles of "honest dealing to gain their goal." Beware of such a man. A man of that stripe can be picked out of the crowd easily enough because he early brands himself and he never changes his stripes. Catch him once at his game of selling out a principle to gain advantage, and you may know that the blight is in his blood. He will sell out again and again. He will sell out anybody and anything that might seem to arrest or advance his career. He is untrustworthy in a crisis. Try as he may to stand or fall loyally by principles, he cannot do it when the pressure involves his fortune. He proceeds by shady routes if they offer short-cuts, though he tries ever to appear in the light of integrity. Honest men know that a shady deal is never closed. The

CHILD RAISING

Earl Baughman visited the Record office on business recently, and in the conversation that ensued revealed an experience with a 9-year-old probationary boy placed on his farm by a city agency. The lad was caught stealing, and when reprimanded, showed neither remorse nor knowledge of evil-doing. Mr. Baughman then used woodshed discipline on the spot, after turning the youngster over his knee. The punishment reformed the lad so that he could be trusted with anything. In time the youth returned to his city home, only to get in trouble again by shooting a man.

UNDER OBSERVATION

By V. R. H.
Despite her Michigan birth, the girl friend has the true southerner's point of view toward the Yankees in its most modern and virulent form. She has been miserable since the Giants' collapse in the World Series, and wonders if anything short of the Supreme Court or a Red firing squad can stop the Yanks. As her bit, she is training the nine-month-old son to be a south-paw more proficient than the Giant's Melton or Hubbell. If he shows the form she expects, he will wear the Tiger uniform in 1938, and she prays that the Yankees will hold up until then so that they will be prey for his left arm.

The Golden Text, from I. Cor. 1:9, is: "God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord."

Among the Bible citations as this passage (Psalm 51): "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science text-book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 201): "The way to extract error from mortal mind is to pour in truth through flood-tides of Love. BEGIN PEOPLES FORUM
The first in a series of "People's Forum" programs was presented at the Methodist church Sunday night to a fair sized and highly interested audience. The Rev. J. H. Bollans, president of the Civic Rights Federation, a Detroit organization, was the speaker. His theme was the protection of the civil rights and liberties of the people, which he stated were constantly threatened by the alleged corrupt and biased practices of many who are empowered to regulate and enforce laws controlling the freedom of the people.

He gave several illustrations as proof of his remarks, and told of the work of his organization in championing the cause of several individual victims of the oppressed freedom to which he referred.

In the question period which followed his talk, he revealed a sympathy for organized labor, and stated in answer to a question, that both he and his organization would favor and support any lawful, though fundamental changes which might be brought about by the will of the people, which might include movements toward an eventual change in our present form of governmental control.

It was decided to hold the Public Forum meetings on the second Sunday evenings of each month. The Rev. Frank Miner will arrange for the coming speakers.

HARD TIME PARTY
The Civic Welfare club will hold a hard time dancing party in the basement of the Wimmer cafe, Saturday evening, Nov. 6, from nine until two o'clock. There will be costume and other prizes, and the admission charge will include refreshments. The public is invited.

ELIMINATE TAX
A general purpose tax, for Commerce township will be unnecessary this year because of satisfactory balances. It was announced last week by James Gardner, supervisor, in a statement of the township budget for the coming year, as decided at a meeting of the township board.

The budget calls for a special assessment for electric lights for district comprised of Walled Lake, Wixom, Commerce and Oakley Park, amounting to $1083,468.16 for the Wixom drain, which is one-seventh of the remaining balance; $23,894.60 general tax for operating schools including Walled Lake Wixom, Ste-and Milford consolidated, and $5,038.72 for school debt service.

The township has enjoyed a steady reduction in its general purpose tax since 1934, when the rate was $2.70 per thousand dollars. In 1935 the rate was reduced $1.50, to $2.20 per thousand and in 1936 a further reduction of 30 cents was made, placing the rate at $1.40.

DEFEAT KEEGO HARBOR
Walled Lake high school football gentry vividly demonstrated the seriousness of their threat to supremacy in the Southwestern Oakland county league here Friday afternoon, when they administered a luring defeat to their traditional rivals of Keego Harbor by a score of 27 to 0.

In point of experience, the boys from Roosevelt school were slated as the equal of the Consolidateds, and were expected to provide tough going for the local varsity. Their performance, however, may be earmarked as one of the so-called upsets of the league season.

Walled Lake out-punched, out-passed, out-ran and out-circumvented their opponents in all four quarters, with a defense so good that Keego failed to cross the 50-yard line throughout the afternoon, and with an offense so good that touchdowns were made in the second and fourth quarters, plus a safety and an extra point after touchdown, and several more within an age of completion, failing only because of a temporary stiffening of the Keego defense wall.

DeGroot, Cox, Paul and Roland Green starred as ball carriers, with the excellent aid of their fellow teamsters. DeGroot, as fullback, displayed stellar ability at passing, kicking and line plunging, as did Cox, at quarterback.

The local team's game at Brighton, today, will be the second league encounter. Brighton, while not rated as a strong contender, held Milford to a 9-point victory last week, and may prove to be a dark horse in the current season's race to the cup.

In a financial statement of the Walled Lake Methodist church for the first quarter of the current year ending Sept. 30, it was revealed that with a July balance of $24.61, the receipts, including those from regular collections, extra sources, such as bake sales, church suppers, and a transfer of $50 from the church school treasury totaled $480.05.

Expenditures, up to and including Sept. 30, which included pastor's salary, caretaker, lights, new church dishes, repairs on the parsonage and c'd accounts, balanced the receipts for the quarter. Bills yet due total $125.00.

While it is perhaps not customary to include a church financial statement with a general collection of news items, it is done in this instance to correct an impression in the minds of a surprisingly large number of people that maintenance of a reasonably active church of any denomination requires little or no cash outlay, or special effort. The nickels, dimes or quarters that constitute the weekly, monthly or occasional contributions of many church-goers who would be most outspoken in their protest to the abandonment of their favorite place of worship because of lack of funds, are of course, gladly received, but are only a small portion of the amount needed to meet ordinary overhead expenses. It is due largely to mere thoughtlessness on the part of many of us that a few conscientious church women find it necessary to continually plan ways and means of raising money to make up the deficiency.

The church financial problem could easily be solved, and the position on the more constant members could be eliminated, if we would but pledge the amounts we give to bake sales, church suppers, bazaars and whatnot, plus those added dimes and quarters.

THE ASTOR TEST
At a large banquet Lady Astor once remarked that men were wamer than "women and, meeting with strong opposition, declared herself ready to substantiate her statement. Steering the conversation to men's fashions, she suddenly said in a loud voice:

"It's a pity that the most intelligent and learned men attach least importance to the way they dress."

Why, right at this table, the most cultivated man is wearing the most clumsily knotted tie!

As if on a given signal, every man in the room immediately put his hand to his tie to straighten it—L'Hommeur (Paris), Spotted by Reader's Digest.

MORE HOWLERS
"A cooie is a movie with air-conditioning."

"A tangerine is a kind of one-sided banjo without a handle or strings, and with loose washers all around it that rattle when shaken."

"Countersunk are cards used in grocery stores to tell the price of eggs and so on."

"Vermicelli is a section of big fiddles in a symphony orchestra that are played between the knees."

"Countersunk is the way you feel when you see a counter full of candy and have only a penny."

"Contraband is a bunch of hill-billys with mouth-organs and fiddles."—Exchange.

PLEASE, MR. BALDWIN, A PICNIC

Columnist Pledges Wife's Bread and Mother-in-law's Cakes. All for An Outing in Cass Benton

By C. E. HUTTON
Give thanks, Mr. Baldwin, I read in your column in last week's paper that you and your office help had a picnic at Cass Benton with a couple of friends and probably plenty of good food and everything with you as the appointed arrange, and everything and how I could have brought pickles or olives or my wife probably the best home made bread, rolls or sugar cookies made out of cream and eggs and butter or something and my mother would have been glad to make up some of the best fried cakes or molasses cookies you can imagine for me to have brought and my wife can make unusually excellent sandwiches I could have brought some hot dogs or dogs ready to get hot and bread and some mustard and I could have brought some bacon to go with the home made bread fried crisp.

and I always make the coffee here at home because I make it so good. I think you and your office help never guess at it but always measure it and also the water by the measuring cup and I would have brought the measuring cup along and if the spoon I measure the coffee with, and you'd love my coffee. I'm glad everyone had such a good time and that you don't wait so long to have a better time and that you started to live today. I mean two weeks ago Friday, and I have always said to my friends that I think Cass Benton park is one of the finest places I know, especially for picnics and I thought to myself only the other day why wouldn't it be a good idea for the help at the Record office and Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin to hold a picnic at Cass Benton park sometime, not thinking of myself or anything.

War, systematic religious training, St. Paul's church and Sunday School extend to you a most hearty welcome. We have a graded Sunday School with trained teachers, designed to meet the needs of every age group. Train up a child in the way that he should go; and then when he is old, he will not depart from it. Proverbs 22:6.

Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable. One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness.—Psalms 145:3, 4, 7.

DR. GUSTAV GRAHN LECTURES SUNDAY

"In Lion Land with a Movie Camera" is the title of an illustrated lecture to be given by Dr. Gustav Grahn, internationally famous naturalist, at the Detroit Institute of Arts, Woodward at Kirby, at 3:30 p. m. Sunday, Oct. 17.

Breathtaking battles, lions stalking their prey, close-ups of giraffes, hippos and crocodiles, in fact every phase of jungle life is pictured in Dr. Grahn's movies. Unique among his photographs are those of the medicine-men rituals during which native patients are supposedly cured by opening wide fissures on the body to permit the sickness to escape. Next Sunday at 8:30 p. m. in the Detroit Institute of Arts, Dr. Grahn will lecture on "Sweden, the Land of Sunlit Nights." This lecture will be illustrated with motion pictures recently taken in Sweden. Dr. Grahn was born in Sweden, only a few miles south of the Arctic Circle.

MICHIGAN QUACK AIDS CHAMPIONS
At last, a cure for quack bites and other insect annoyances. The new Quack-Aid is a powerful, effective, and safe insecticide. It is now being sold in all drug stores.

In recent horse pulling contests in the annual 1937 derby fair two world records were established. These championship pulling teams found the quack sod on which the contests were held to be ideal footing for their capable loads.

From the Cedar Dell Farms, Plano, Ill., came a pair of roan Belgian geldings weighing 4,620 pounds. Piny Bald, the driver, coaxed them over the 27-foot distance for a world record pull of 3,960 pounds on the dynamometer.

Their collars alone gave an indication of what they might do," says Harry Moxley, another Michigan State college staff member. "One horse weighing 1,770 pounds wore a 24-inch collar, and a 30-inch collar was fitted on the larger horse weighing 2,250 pounds." The pair was driven by Harry Moxley, Michigan State college staff member.

The other record was for team of 3,000 pounds or less. John Day of Springfield, Ind. drove the grade Percheron mare and gelding to a record of 2,250 pounds.

The Orange and Black

Edited by the Journalism Class of Northville High School

PALLADIUM STAFF APPOINTS EDITORS

Keene Bolton Chief Editor of School Annual this Year

The first palladium meeting of the year was called at 3:30 p. m., Oct. 5, by Mayor Keene Bolton in the high school.

Present at the meeting were members of the student council and the Orange and Black staff. Mayor Bolton appointed the officers for the Palladium staff. They are: editor-in-chief, Keene Bolton; associate editor, Peg Walker; literary editor, Gwen Jones; athletic editor, Arthur Mitchell; art editor, Louise Alexander; cartoonists, Barbara Wood and Irene Kaluzny; business manager, Ed Reid.

The alternates will be class reporters. They are: Ida Marie Walker, freshman; Roger Miller, sophomore; Benny Duguid, junior; Art Mitchell, senior.

The staff has started to work on the Palladium with Leslie G. Lee, faculty adviser.

N. H. S. OFFERS NEW ART COURSE

This year Northville high can proudly boast of an art class along with the other courses that are offered. About 20 students are taking this new course under the direction of Miss Doris Reber.

The aims of this course are to learn an appreciation of good color and design, to acquire the ability for making designs and combining colors, and to be able to represent things on paper, that is, free-hand drawing. It aids also in developing and exercising the imagination.

The class plans to study the historical ages in art, including that of the American Indian, the ancient Greek and Egyptian.

Later on, they will take up poster making and lettering. Miss Reber has thought of having poster contests for advertising school affairs to help make the work more interesting.

During a class last week the students were asked what certain designs did to the imagination. From one design various answers were given. One person saw a big city at night in a fog. While another would see the floor plans for a house. One imagined a fragment of the city with its tall buildings and narrow alleys. This design will be posted at a special Art Building. Board that Miss Reber plans to have erected in the assembly.

The dividend given by the Question Box this week goes to Kathryn Marburger for her ability to forget what she did with her journalism assignments. Those lovely eyes of Gwen's were a bit of applause! When it comes to orate, Gwen certainly takes the cake. Martin's little brother, Arthur, certainly has an angelic countenance! He looks nothing like his brother! The cauliflower of the week goes to Sammy Aldea for his unending knack of getting out of embarrassing situations. Kendall Willis is considered "cute" by a certain member of the fairer sex. (Now, Keene, don't get mad.) J. W.'s very evident "and - ah's" in speech the other day bothered the aforementioned gentleman quite a bit. (If at first you don't succeed, try try again - that's his motto.) Don Armstrong studying territoriality hard the other noon. (The test must have been a beauty.) M. Rowe's sweet simplicity is very becoming. She's a swiftest girl becoming. If you hear someone pipe up with something like "Art thou going to thy class" don't be alarmed. The English 'Lat class is studying Shakespeare - and it's gone to the brain. (Temporarily, we hope.) Things we most admire in people: Peg's captivating personality; Eber's girl friends; Betty Schrader's golden tresses; Cecil Ninger's freckles; LeRoy Van Atta's resemblance to a Parisian gigolo; Edward Baughman's swagger; Dick's devotion to Betty; Walter Myer's expressive eyebrows; Buck Kinchman's air of indifference; Martin's hatred of this column; John Gibson's quiet manner; Jack McCrum's cheerfulness; Margaret Van Hellemont's energy.

Strength is in man, not in muscles; unity and power are not in atom or in dust. A small group of wise thinkers is better than a wilderness of dullards and stronger than the might of empires. - Mary Baker Eddy.

Editor's Note

Someone tried to convince me of the usefulness of the common house-fly. Said that it had as much right to live as we did. Obviously that person had never tried to study in an assembly hall that was literally swarming with the beasts. I'd like to see HIM conquer a few dozen "useful" flies carrying on their own private little war in his ear!

It wouldn't be quite so bad, though, if they didn't get the mistaken idea that yours truly was rooting for the enemy. Honestly, now, what've I ever done to that breed occasionally - except to kill a few of them - and they say that a million or so flies are born and die every minute - are. Don't try to tell ME that a fly is going to remember who it was that killed one of his great ancestors!

I wouldn't be complaining, either, if it were at all possible to hit one or two of these public enemies occasionally. But I makes you feel awfully silly to take a lousy heave expecting to swat the thing into oblivion and then come into contact with nothing but air! Now if Browning had written an "Ode to a Fly" of some such thing, there'd be some excuse for that "I own the world - air" that most of our friends, the insects wear. But then, it's not such a hot idea - if they really do the assembly - let's give it to 'em and we'll go out where they come from!

HOME GRIDDERS MEET REDFORD UNION

Fourth Game of Season to be Played Tonight at Cass Benton Park

Northville goes into the gridiron wars for the fourth time this season against Redford Union. The game will be played at Cass Benton park at 3:30.

The boys are fighting to win their first game of the season and if they do they will have a better record than last year's team. The student body has shown splendid spirit in their backing of the team. The fellows appreciate it and they will be fighting tonight to win this game for the school. The starting lineup will probably be Myers, LE; Lester, C. LT; Defino, LG; Bray, C; Beal, RE; Aldea, RT; Duguid, RE; Soelens, QB; Junod, LB; Fritz, RB; Mitchell, FB.

SENIOR PROM HEADS NAMED BY CLASS STUDENT COUNCIL HOLDS FIRST DANCE

BY BARBARA WOOD

The seniors elected a committee to select the other committees for the senior prom during the class meeting Wednesday, Sept. 21.

Members of the committee are M. J. Soelens, D. Breitmeier, C. Giles and W. O. Garchow. Martin Breitmeier, chairman, will preside.

A committee of three were appointed to interview an agency representative about graduation invitations.

The Student Council will give the first dance of the season at 9 p. m. tonight in the high school gym. The music will be played by Foreman's orchestra, obtained by the orchestra committee, consisting of Art Mitchell, Ben Duguid and Ida Marie Walker.

The decorations are in charge of Peg Walker, Ed Reid and Roger Miller. Tickets are priced at 75 cents a couple and 50 cents for single.

Senior Who's Who

Keene first saw the light of day Nov. 13, 1919. He wouldn't tell how old that makes him and I can't add so you'll have to solve that question for yourself. He moved from Detroit at the advanced age of one, and a half and had his tonsils out at two and a half. Those seem to be the main highlights of his early life.

He started school at Redford but came out here when he was in the first grade and hasn't been able to tear himself away from Northville since.

Keene is just about the most active person in school. Here is a list of some of his accomplishments since entering high school. The lad was president of the freshman class, chairman to the student council in his sophomore year, treasurer and chairman of the year, and a member of the football team. He has a great big senior.

Keene's hobbies are swimming, dancing and trying all summer to make his motor boat run, not to mention jockeying. The business of his exchange is printing tickets. That, that, Student Coupled. His favorite study is mathematics. By the way, Keene squandered in three years of track, and did a very good job of it, too.

Upon graduation Keene wants to go to Michigan State college and take up forestry. Good luck Keene, you'll probably be president up there before you flash.

C. K. YANG TO TALK ON CHINA AT P. T. A.

There will be a meeting of the P. T. A. at 8 p. m. Tuesday, Oct. 14, in the high school gymnasium. The speaker will be C. K. Yang, a Chinese graduate of the University of Michigan. Mr. Yang, who is coming to the meeting through the courtesy of the extension division of the University, will speak on the present economic situation in China. Plans are being made to obtain a Japanese student to speak on the Japanese side of the situation at a future meeting.

N. H. S. LOSES TO BEVERLY ELEVEN

The home team met defeat last Friday to the score of 47-9 at the hands of Beverly. The game was played at Cass Benton park with Beverly Olds Brown and McCook at MVP's of the evening.

The Orange and Black players could get no more than one touch down, while their opponents scored seven touchdowns and three conversions, and one safety. Northville's points were scored by Albert Bester, Ed. Benny Duguid, James Burke, Art Mitchell, Ed. James Beal, Ed. Albert Bester, and Albert Bester.

Grade Notes

Mr. O. P. Peng's third grade students about farms and farm animals. They are constructing an imitation farm with all the animals and implements necessary. In connection with this work each pupil has planted wheat seeds which will give each an ordinary amount of good would be thrilled with.

Mrs. Letter Stages fifth grade studying the colonial history of the United States and is learning the Tea Song.

A new patrol has been organized in the indoor patrol and is called "The Patrol." The patrol consists of the following: Jean Fleck, captain and leader; assistants are Lorraine Lapham, Mary Louise Bohen, Patricia Hickey and Patricia McCinnoch. These girls patrol the halls as well as see that law and order is preserved.

Douglas Bolton is the captain of the boys' safety patrol and his assistants are Harold Todd, James Ritchie, Donald Stevens, Gerald Miller and Jack Maloney.

TWO N. H. S. GRADS AT CLEARY COLLEGE

Cleary college, Ypsilanti, opened its doors this year to two N. H. S. alumni, namely Dorothy Niles, 37, and Robert Lyke, 36.

The freshman adjustment program was opened on Monday, Sept. 20, with an address of welcome by President P. Roger Cleary. Other major events of the program were addresses on "Training to Meet Business Requirements," by Dr. Alvin Hersch, Detroit; "Mental Health," by Dr. O. R. Yoder, Ypsilanti State hospital; and "The Objective of a Business Education," by Owen J. Cleary, dean of administration.

After this program the new freshmen were conducted on a tour of the city by upperclassmen guides. A theatre party and a reception were arranged in their honor.

If the right thinker and worker's servitude is duly valued, he is not thereby worshipped. One's idol is by no means his servant, but his master. - Mary Baker Eddy.

BIOLOGY CLASSES MAKE EXPERIMENTS

A series of experiments to show the absorption of gases into the cell, called osmosis, are being set up in Miss Gladys Ludwig's ninth grade biology class.

In one experiment, a sack of cocoa heart is filled with water and set in a bowl of molasses, another the molasses is put into a thistle tube and set into the bowl of water. These experiments are to show how liquids flow from less dense to more dense solutions.

In another experiment, an egg is set in a bowl of water and a tube is inserted into the other end of the egg. The water will then force the contents of the egg up the tube. While still in another experiment the shell is taken off the egg and placed in water. The egg will slowly grow in size and when a sharp object is inserted in one end, the osmotic pressure forces the water from the egg.

This application shows how osmosis works in the body, how food passes from intestines to the blood stream, and from the blood stream to the many cells in the body. It also shows how waste products pass from the cells to be thrown off from the body.

"Did You See Them?"

THE BOY

An interesting person cannot be overlooked for observation, especially a senior. That speaks for itself as far as this person is concerned. We're speaking of one who comes within a hall's distance. (Don't take this too seriously, observed one.) He has eyes of blue, hair of brown (ish) and this Marquette boy surely charms me. He has a charmingly pleasing personality - that he uses in a thrilling way. He is about five feet, nine inches tall and a very handsome looking figure with broad shoulders although he doesn't play football. His favorite pastimes are attending shows, collecting stamps and dancing. If he graduates he plans on carrying out his life-long ambition - that which his brother is now doing - slinging hamburgers. Here's a hint well worth knowing by you: he has a fine start already.

P. S. In case you see your old overalls in a black eye, don't weep. I had it coming when I picked on Dick.

FOUR PLACES in your home that should be Light Conditioned

BEDSIDE LIGHTING - 100 to 150 Watts

BATHROOM MIRROR - 100 to 120 Watts

KITCHEN LIGHTING - 150 to 200 Watts

STUDY DESK - 100 to 150 Watts

Bedside lighting, bathroom lighting, kitchen lighting, and lighting for a child's study table... these should receive careful consideration, because these are the places where eyes are used constantly on tasks that require close visual application. These are the places where abuse of the eyes through poor lighting may result in permanent injury. These are places in your home that should be LIGHT CONDITIONED. Compare the recommended lamp wattage with the lamp sizes at these four locations in your home. Sizes are total: There may be one lamp bulb or several.

Good lighting at the bedside can help to prevent eyestrain caused by reading in bed. Good lighting on either side of the bathroom mirror will greatly facilitate shaving and primping. Good lighting in the kitchen makes cooking, dishwashing, and other kitchen tasks easier. And most important of all, good lighting at the study desk will help to protect your child's eyes against eyestrain.

Phone for a survey of your lighting today. There is no charge for this service. Measure your light with the Sight Meter and see for yourself whether you have enough light in these four important places to assure safe, easy seeing.
