

GOVERNMENT PLANS NEW FISH PONDS

U. S. Hatchery To Be Improved; Bell Gives Praise to Widmyer

Plans for considerable enlargement and increased activity for the Northville fish hatchery were announced this week by Frank T. Bell, commissioner of the United States Bureau of Fisheries. The hatchery in Northville is the only federal hatchery in the state of Michigan.

Contract New Ponds

The enlargement of the fish hatchery will take place in the near future, Mr. Bell said. "New appropriations are ready for the Bureau of Fisheries," he pointed out, "and a sizable portion of them will go towards improvements on the Northville hatchery." A part of the program the Bureau of Fisheries has in mind for the hatchery here, he said, is the construction of new ponds, although a general branching out in its activities is planned.

"The United States Bureau of Fisheries has its eye on the Northville Hatchery," Mr. Bell told The Record, "and we are planning considerable expansion for it. This will get under way just as soon as several matters have been ironed out in cooperation with Michigan authorities. We already have the appropriation and have allocated a sizable portion of it for Northville." It was understood that the matters "to be ironed out" concerned water rights involved in the proposed construction of additional ponds.

Commended Hatchery
Mr. Bell paid high tribute to the local fish hatchery. "The Northville Hatchery," he said, "is one of the best in the nation, and of course, it is the only federal hatchery remaining in Michigan." It goes a long way toward saving the function of the federal government in the fisheries of the Great Lakes area.

The part played in the development of the fish hatchery here by the late William Thayer, long-time superintendent, and by the late Frank S. Neal was mentioned by Commissioner Bell. "Bill Thayer was a fine fish expert," he said, "and the high place in which Washington holds the Northville hatchery is due in great part to his service and to the interest always taken in the hatchery by Mr. Neal." Mr. Bell also said that E. R. Widmyer, the present superintendent of the fish hatchery, is "a very able man."

"At the present time, there are ten ponds at the Northville Hatchery, where approximately a million fish are hatched and distributed from this station each year."

G. V. HARRISON SHOWS FILM OF AFRICAN CAT

By C. A. DOLPH

Gerald V. Harrison presented a very interesting reel of pictures to Exchange, Wednesday night. These pictures were the story of Chetah, the African wild cat, trained from a kitten to retrieve ducks and pheasants.

The animal was shown bringing in the fowls and with more speed and sureness than a real retriever. His speed is said to be more than a 100 feet a second and the views of the cat in action verified that statement.

Sixty or more Exchange, were guests at the Farmington Exchange club last Friday evening and Northville was properly represented. Every man there was well-pleased with the spicy address given by Ted Rockwell, reporter for The Free Press and former University of Michigan football star.

Mr. Harrison and Dr. D. A. Brief are in charge of the next two programs.

Del M. Herrick, Detroit, a former Northville resident, was a guest of the club as was R. W. Woodruff of Detroit, who came as a guest of Dr. H. I. Spurling.

TAKE GAME

Northville's Athletic club team took a basketball game on the local court Wednesday evening, March 2, from the Detroit Edison team of Detroit, 21-18.

Village Commissioners Vote To Make Bond Issue Settlement

Following a special meeting held Saturday by the village commission, the attorney for Village of Northville, F. J. Cochran, has been instructed to make a proposal of settlement to the bondholders who are suing the village for the payment of paving taxes issued in 1927 and 1928 and which are in default.

The suit, started last summer, is now pending in the Circuit Court for Wayne county, the taxpayers asking that the illegal excess of taxes be refunded. A plan under consideration by both the taxpayers and the village calls for the issuance of obligation refunding bonds in denominations of $1,000 which shall be callable at any interest rate and shall be for a period of 15 years and bear interest at the following rates: 3 per cent for three years; 3 1/2 per cent for 3 years; 3 3/4 per cent for 2 years; 4 per cent for 2 years and 4 1/2 per cent for 5 years.

An agreeable method of settlement with the taxpayers is to be affected by Attorney Cochran and the plan approved and ratified by the commission.

VISIT IN EUROPE ISN'T BIG EXPENSE

"Five hundred dollars a person will take a family, which travels conservatively, up to eight European countries," was the encouraging note sounded by Shirley W. Allen Monday evening when he told of his own ramblings in Europe as he filled his place on the lecture series program, sponsored by the Northville Teachers' club.

Mr. Allen came away from the Olympic games at Berlin in 1936, greatly impressed by the universal friendliness of all people - the ability of the middle-class Europeans to get enjoyment from life through small expenditures, and the lack of political unrest and the somewhat fatalistic attitude of many people toward impending wars.

The Olympic games were well managed, colorful and were used much less for propaganda purposes than I had expected, commented Mr. Allen as he showed slides of pictures he had taken there. "Bill Thayer, although given a great ovation, made no speech. The youth of Germany seem to be backing Hitler 100 per cent. On the other hand, there are many intellectuals and an average run of middle-aged and older citizens who are less enthusiastic about his party - some few are quite outspoken, against the Nazi philosophy," he continued.

Mr. Allen found that expenses in traveling in most countries were reduced through the use of "travel" currency which may be bought at a discount, but which must be spent in a given country.

The cheap way the Europeans have of operating their cars has an impression on Mr. Allen, who noted that many of them were operated at low horse power because motor fuel and lubricants were, and still are, very expensive. He reports that some pleasure cars and many trucks use wood as fuel.

Speaking of the hotel movement, Mr. Allen endorses them as an inexpensive way for the hiking or cycling youth to vacation and travel through Europe. He spent several nights himself in the hotels and found that they afforded him an opportunity of seeing a side of the peasant and middle-class life that otherwise would have been withheld from him.

FIRST CAMERA MEETING DRAWS 50 ENTHUSIASTS

Some 50 villagers attended the first meeting of the Camera club which was held at 7:30 p. m. Monday, Feb. 28, in the high school. An organization meeting, which will feature the election of officers, will be called at 8 p. m. Thursday, March 10, at the home of Neil Hannaford, 515 West Main street, next to the grade school building. According to Mr. Hannaford, all persons interested are invited to attend.

At the first session of camera enthusiasts, motion pictures were shown by Walter Hastings, official photographer of the Michigan conservation department. "He showed some really wonderful pictures of Michigan scenery, wild life and conservation," reports Mr. Hannaford.

Expect Light Vote Monday, March 7, at Primary Election

A light election is expected to mark Northville township's second primary Monday, March 7.

The only competition this year is for the clerkship's post which is sought by incumbent John Lisenberger and former clerk Sherrill W. Ambler, both republicans. No candidate has come forward for the board of review. Names appearing on the ballot, along with the clerk candidates, will be: Mrs. Leo L. (Mollie) Lawrence, treasurer; W. A. Ely, supervisor; Harold Parmenter, highway commissioner; Arthur S. Nichols, justice of the peace; Ward Masters, Urie Tibbitts, Roy Rue, incumbents, and Herman Kreeger, all-unopposed for the four constable positions.

Voting will take place in the Village Hall for the first precinct and in the Scout building for the second precinct.

Religious Worker Condemns Comics

Not favoring censorship, because it always focuses attention on the very thing that is being censored, Mrs. Hazel D. Leonard, condemned the comic sections of the Sunday papers when they are held up by parents as an entertainment feature for boys and girls who wanted to play ball in the Sunday afternoon sunbathing, a request denied by parents because of "fear of what the neighbors will say."

Mrs. Leonard, director of Christian education in the Detroit Council of Churches, spoke Sunday evening at the union service held in the Methodist church. In developing her theme, "The Importance of Christian Education," Mrs. Leonard named two means of approach to the problem: Establish organizations that are fine and beautiful and learn them under circumstances that are truly religious, help children to discover the way of life. "This idea of letting the church problem slide until the child is old enough to decide is wrong. By the time the child reaches that age, all that is cheap, silly and vicious has made its claim and left its mark. We must let the church get in ahead and make the church meaningful," she emphasized.

Mrs. Leonard feels that the children of today have a better change of religious life than did children some years past. "The very fact that we are aware of conditions and are concerned, is very encouraging," she concluded.

During the fellowship hour which followed the church service, Mrs. William Liebreu was the hostess, with Miss Leah Miller presiding at the tea table.

GIVE AWARDS SUNDAY TO RELIGIOUS SCHOOL WORKERS IN VILLAGE

Four certificates for completion of work in the winter Religious school, sponsored by the Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian churches of Northville, Plymouth, Novi and Newburg, were given Sunday evening to Mrs. W. F. Clark, Miss Mabel Chamberlain, S. Stalter and Miss Harry J. Lord of the Methodist church.

Miss Beulah Miller and Mrs. Albert Stage of the Baptist church, also qualified as did Mrs. N. W. Sackwell of the Plymouth Presbyterian church.

The certificates were given out by Mrs. Hazel D. Leonard, Detroit, one of the instructors of the school who said that the sessions this year drew the largest attendance and made for the best course that had been presented in this area. She made the presentation in the Methodist church at the union service.

LEE A WHITE SPEAKS AT CLUB TONIGHT

Lee A. White, editorial director of The Detroit News, will be the speaker of the evening, Friday, March 4, when the Woman's club entertains in the Presbyterian church house at "Men's Night."

A dinner will be served at 6:30 p. m. Mr. White's topic will be "Accuracy in the News."

LICENSE WARNING

Chief of Police Earl Montgomery says the Northville police department will enforce the license deadline which goes into effect at midnight, March 5.

DIRECTS GLEE CLUB

Professor David Mattern, director of the Men's Glee Club, will appear here at 8 p. m. Wednesday, March 9, in the high school auditorium. This concert will mark the fourth number in the lecture series sponsored by the Northville Teachers' club. Professor David Mattern will direct the glee club singers.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB SINGS, MARCH 9

40 Voices from University of Michigan To Be on Lecture Series

The Men's Glee club, organized since 1889, today one of the oldest traditional organizations on the University of Michigan campus and among the earliest founded of college glee clubs, will give two performances in Northville, March 9.

At 3:30 p. m. the group will give a benefit appearance in the Maybury sanatorium for the patients.

The second concert will be given at 8 p. m. in the high school auditorium where the fourth number of the lecture series will be presented.

Included in the Northville program will be "Ave Maria" by Argerich, "Dedication" by Franz, "Dedication" by Strauss, "Wassail Song" Old English, "Agnus Dei" Old English, 14th, songs from Robin Hood, folk songs from several nations, Michigan songs and stunts.

Directing the club is David E. Mattern, professor of music education and head of that department in the School of Music and the University of Michigan.

He has studied with Ludwig Becker, Steeven Resnikoff and Sevik and conducted with Albert Coates of the London Symphony orchestra, Eugene Goossens, conductor of the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra.

Mr. Mattern has played first violin in the Rochester Philharmonic orchestra. Before coming to the University of Michigan, he taught at Cornell University, Eastman School of Music and the University of Rochester.

The present-day club, which includes more than 40 experienced men from last year's group, presents a well-balanced entertainment, giving a program which includes male chorus work from the more ambitious attempts to those songs and ditties of a lighter and more carefree vein.

Hudson G. Dunks is business manager of the club and is a senior in the Mechanical Engineering School.

Enthusiasts over first editions will be interested to know that in the local public library is a copy of "Travels Through the Interior Parts of North America in the Years 1766, '67 and '68" by John Carver, Esq. This old volume, yellow with age and well-worn, was loaned by Mrs. E. M. Starkweather and is especially interesting right now because data for the popular novel, "Northwest Passage," by Kenneth Roberts was drawn from this ancient treatise on the customs of the American Indians, the plant life of this new continent and was written, according to the author "to do a service to the country by making that vast acquisition of territory gained by Great Britain advantageous to it."

A queer map in this book shows how little was known of this "vast acquisition" at the time it was written. The book was published in London in 1772.

Young Carrington To Cite Gambling Evils Next Sunday

The modern gambling mania will be exposed by Thomas E. Carrington, Jr., at 7:30 p. m. Sunday, March 6, in the Presbyterian church where a union service will be held, drawing from the Methodist, Baptist, and host church congregations.

Young Carrington, a junior at the Michigan State Normal college, Ypsilanti, and son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Carrington, 364 South Rogers street, will give his prize-winning oration, "The Wheel of Fortune Spins." Carrington is editor this semester of the official campus newspaper at Ypsilanti. Appearing on the program with him will be Miss Betty Jane Malley, also of the State Normal, who will give an oration on "Charity's Child."

Music will be sung by the Presbyterian choir and the pastor, the Rev. Dr. T. W. Smith, will preside. The ministers of the three churches, sponsoring the Sunday evening Union services, want to make it clear that the services are open to anyone who may wish to attend.

W. T. JONES, 44, DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Held Last Rites Monday from Home; Lived in Northville 26 Years

An illness of three months' duration was brought to an end Saturday morning, Feb. 26, when death claimed 44-year-old William T. Jones at his home, 228 Linden avenue, where he had been in failing health for the past three years.

A resident of Northville for the past 26 years, Mr. Jones sought diversion from his business in Masonic activities and in occasional hunting and fishing trips. He was a member of the F. & A. M., 1861, the Royal Arch Masons and the Orient chapter, 77, Order of Eastern Star and of the Lloyd-H. Green post of the American Legion.

He served in the World War from Sept. 22, 1917, to March 10, 1919, as sergeant in the Machine gun battalion, Company A, 327. At the time of the signing of the Armistice Mr. Jones was stationed at the officers' training school in Leavenworth, Kansas.

For the past 12 years, Mr. Jones has been a member of the church, where he was in the electrical business.

Born in Montgomery, Pa., he spent his early youth in Williamsport, Md. He was the son of George B. and Josephine Jones, both of whom survive him. They live at Hagerstown, Md.

Also surviving him are his wife, Mary, two daughters, Gwendolyn, 17, and Phyllis Jeanne, 13, both of the home; a brother, Ray of Curwensville, Pa.; three sisters, Mrs. Blanche Jones of Hagerstown, Mrs. Lenore Paros of Altoona, Pa., and Mrs. Wraya Bennett of Curwensville.

Last rites were conducted at 2 p. m. Monday, Feb. 28, from the home, with the Rev. Harry J. Lord of the Methodist church, officiating. Burial was made in Rural Hill cemetery.

Out-of-town persons attending the funeral were Mr. Jones' mother, Mrs. G. B. Jones of Hagerstown; two sisters, Mrs. Paros of Altoona, Mrs. Davis Bennett and Mr. Bennett of Curwensville; and a brother, Ray of Curwensville. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Glose and daughter, Lily Ann, Rocky River, O.; Mrs. Richard Key, Cleveland, O.; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Schoen of Leslie, and a number of friends from Ypsilanti, Farmington and Detroit.

MRS. DANIEL WINN DIES, FEBRUARY 23

The funeral service was held in Clarkston Friday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Larson of this village attended. Mrs. Winn leaves her husband, a daughter of four years of age and an infant son.

2 Candidates Take Stand

HEALTH OFFICER QUOTES LAW

In order to make known to the general public the State law which governs the quarantine of scarlet fever, Dr. R. M. Atchison, health officer, quoted this week from the Rules and Regulations for the Control of Communicable Diseases, published by the Michigan Department of Health:

"Wage earners may come and go as usual, provided that they have no contact with the patient and that their work does not bring them in contact with children or with milk or food supplies."

In a supplement to the Rules and Regulations book, contact is defined: "No either direct or indirect contact - the health officer shall ordinarily interpret this as requiring that the patient and the person who is nurse and attendant for the patient, does not enter any part of the house that the wage earner also enters and not handle any utensils or food or any articles that the wage earner also handles."

"Village Manager Might Save Money," Says Chub J. Smith

When The Record sent a list of questions last week to each of the eight candidates seeking office, an opportunity was given each one to take a stand on any issue not mentioned in the query. Chub J. Smith, who is running for council, makes the following suggestion:

"Why not have a village manager to run the business end of the village? I might a real manager educated and trained for the business, whose duty it would be to supervise all departments, the same as the manager of any large industrial concern. He could save his village a lot of money in a few months and you can bet your bottom dollar the affair of this town would be in better shape at the end of the year if the proper man was hired."

How can you expect your business men of the town to do better and business if you put a man in charge who is not qualified to do the job? They cannot do it long, if they are honest with themselves and the citizens of the town. Because a person is a business man or a professional man does not mean he is qualified to direct the affairs of the entire village. If he is qualified he must come up for election and go through the mire of politics, for as clean as he might be, there is someone who will throw mud at him.

The average man elected on your council knows little or nothing about sewage disposal systems, water systems, including the miles of underground mains treatment of the water, and ments of the different type meters. There are many other subjects that only a trained man would know about.

Why not have the council elected as they are now out with little or no pay and they in turn hire a manager. I am sure it would be an honor to serve on the council then - far greater than now - for the council to act as an advisory body for the manager. Mr. Smith concludes.

problem. In this way these racketeers can be kept out. The speaker gave some startling examples of the dangerous hold that Communism and other alien forces are securing in some of our American cities. Whether this country will continue to be a democracy will depend upon the forces of Americanism that are now at work.

The speaker touched briefly on the work which the American Legion is doing to develop good citizenship in the growing youth of the country. This program is an addition to the immense amount of work which is being done for the disabled veterans and their widows and children. Under the protection of the American Legion last summer over one-half million boys were playing on baseball diamonds, the season finally culminating in the "Little World Series." Some of these rising young athletes who have been trained on the Legion sand lots are already breaking into the big leagues.

3 CHURCHES PLAN WORLD PRAYER DAY

A custom which was started many years ago by the members of the Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian churches of Northville will be repeated at 2:30 p. m. Friday, March 4, when the annual World Day of Prayer service will be held in the Baptist church.

The interdenominational program which will be given, has been prepared by Alice E. Henderson of Sumner Christ Church, New Zealand.

Although the complete program has not been announced, it is known that Mrs. Russell H. Steinger will talk on foreign phases of interdenominational work. Home mission interests will also be given.

Miss Florence Johnson will be the soloist of the afternoon, with Mrs. Sherrill W. Ambler the organist. Mrs. Harry J. Lord will preside at the meeting, during which Mrs. T. W. Smith will have a part.

SMITH, NORTON ARE FEARLESS IN WET QUIZ

Both Seek Council Seats in the Village Election, Monday, March 14

Of the eight candidates seeking office in the village election scheduled for March 14, only two came forward this week to take stands on the questions asked last week by The Record.

One candidate for a seat on the council, Chub J. Smith, minces few words in giving his views of the liquor-by-the-glass issue - he's opposed to it.

On the other hand John Norton, also seeking a place on the council, says "that Northville could well have two or three more such liquor dealers as well as three or four more beer taverns. Norton's request for the liquor-by-the-glass license was indefinitely tabled by the council several weeks ago."

"Questions Unfair"
Another candidate for the council stated in The Record, office that the questions were unfair to the candidates but he supposed they were fair enough as far as the voters were concerned. "If I say I'm wet and want the town wide open, I'll lose some votes. I might otherwise get. The name is true. I come out and say I'm dry. I think there are fewer other than the ones asked that are of greater importance and interest," he said.

One of the mayor's opponents asserted that he wouldn't answer the questions this week, but that he would answer them in the next issue and "jigger" them in a general way. "This record is asking us to take a first class position and to the end and then he would have already committed himself in a planned manner."

Candidates' Answers

The answer of Mr. Smith and Mr. Norton follows.

Q. Do you believe that the village budget can be cut?

Mr. Smith: No, but it would be very foolish to cut a department or to lower the efficiency of that department. I see it. Your officials are to determine the best, not always the cheapest method of operating the different departments. Sometimes the cheapest way is the most expensive.

Mr. Norton: I think that our village budget affairs are running along all right, considering the present conditions.

Q. Do you believe that the salaries of village employees are high enough to bring the persons best fitted for the positions into the employment of Northville? Or is the village paying too much as it is?

Mr. Norton: In my opinion I think that a fair living wage should be paid to any officer or laborer in the employ of the village. I don't think Northville village is paying too much at the present time.

Mr. Smith: Pay good salaries and see that good men get the positions. Men that work for half pay usually deliver half work.

Q. Are you of the opinion that one liquor-by-the-glass licensee is enough for a community the size of Northville?

Mr. Smith: One is plenty, or possibly too many. This is one question to be passed on by all voters. When a person wants to drink liquor at home it is his business. When it is drunk in public it is public business.

Mr. Norton: Regarding the liquor-by-the-glass situation I think over (Continued on page 8)

ADAMICK SPENDS WEEK IN COUNTRY

Jimmy Adamick has been tasting the quiet country life this week at the John J. Hettche home, 3001 East Eight Mile road, where he has gone in for extensive training preparatory to his bout fought with Nate Brown at the Olympia.

Jimmy does his road work in the morning at the Hettche farm, goes to town in the afternoon for a gymnasium workout, back to the country for dinner and then to bed - at 9 o'clock.

A guest late last summer at the Mesbury sanatorium, Jimmy was seen by a number of villagers who were present when he was interviewed by a Detroit newspaper man.

PROSPERFUN NOTES

By G. W. SEARS

The local merchants' Prosperfun program will hold its first public auction next Wednesday night at the Penniman-Allen theatre at which time the various prizes will be awarded to the holder of the bid stub, who has offered the largest amount of Prosperfun "Exchange."

The winner must be in the audience of the Prosperfun "Exchange" and be represented by someone with this stub and Prosperfun "Exchange." The auction promises to be very interesting as the prizes of nice prizes and useful as well.

Competition should be very keen for many will likely trade and exchange or borrow Prosperfun "Exchange" from others to meet their bids. The rules will be strictly adhered to and appear fair to all.

The auction will be novel in that the bidding has been previously done by dropping bid tickets, furnished by the local Prosperfun Merchants, in bid boxes which are closed at noon on the day before the auction so that they can be sorted by the committee. Many people have placed several bids on the same article, in which case, only the highest bid will be considered. Also if the same person bids on several articles, only his largest bid on the article of the greatest value will be considered.

Open bidding will only be allowed in the event that the highest and next highest bidder are not present with their bid stub and Prosperfun "Exchange."

The silent auction will proceed immediately after the first show and it is likely that all the bids will be taken then for there is an added attraction to attend since arrangements have been completed so that those who do attend the first show can remain through for the auction and also the first show patrons will see the picture and be given a $5 souvenir of Prosperfun "Exchange" for use in paying for their bid.

Admittance is free after the first show. The Scotchman will be happy for any one will know how much he bid unless he wins but he can keep his money for the next auction and profit by his experience. The boys of the Boys' Club are extremely interested in some of the prizes and will likely outbid the older folks for them. At any rate, it will be fun and it's free.

Walled Lake News

By CHARLES HUTTON

It is at times perplexing, (addly it is true) to select news bits for this column from the weekly accumulation of Walled Lake and Commerce township happenings.

We learn that readers of these items are not limited to subscribers of this locality, but include those who may have at one time lived here, vacationed here, or who have friends here. Those who are not of this community may be at many distant points throughout this country—California, Washington and New York States, Florida and Ontario, to mention a few.

A small village, such as this, is no exception to the fact which most country correspondents have discovered, sooner or later—that news material runs in cycles. For that matter, the same is more or less true in any locality, large or small. There may be a run of varied activity over a period of a week, or a month. This may be followed by a similar period of routine happenings. At times, therefore, it is probable that facts as they occur may not be as interesting to persons in California as in Michigan, and vice versa. It would be helpful, it is believed, for readers to drop an occasional line to this correspondent, with suggestions as to the sort of thing in which they might be particularly interested, as concerns Walled Lake and vicinity. We would be glad to follow up such suggestions, for a possible news item or story.

Club Meet

News from the past week happens to fall in the "routine" category, for the most part. Various club meetings were held, including the annual Walled Lake golf tournament, which was enjoyed by the membership and their friends. The Civic Welfare club is an organization of women who have never allowed the idleness of their group to be smoothed by unrelated activities. They adhere to the true meaning of their club title, and go it with beneficial effect.

At the regular meeting of the Community Business club, Tuesday, the 23 members present heard James L. Gardner, township supervisor, announce plans of the Washtenaw and Oakland county road commissions to change the name of the State-Ann Arbor State Highway to "Pontiac Trail". The move to relabel the road originated at Ann Arbor. It is felt that a name more in keeping with the historic interest of the road should be adopted. The highway was once known as "Pontiac Indian Trail" and at one time was designated as the "Ann Arbor Stage Coach road."

The road commissions are seeking the approval of a change in title by representative groups of communities along the route. The local club voted in favor of the name suggested.

The club was also addressed by the Rev. James P. Roy of the Royal Oak Methodist church, who spoke on the increased interest in religion in Europe and America, and reasons for various anti-religious movements in both countries.

Uniforms Soon a Reality
The Walled Lake Parent-Teacher-Teachers of concepted effort on a given project, Thursday night, in conjunction with the subscription concert by the high school band for the past three weeks, the association has campaigned in the interest of funds for new band uniforms. Benefit parties have been held, as well as a dance and even a puppet show. Individual subscriptions have been sought. Generous response was evident in the announcement. Thursday night by Mrs. Glenn C. Gilbert, general chairman, that a total of $312 had been raised, to date. Plans are in effect to continue the project.

Incidentally, both the Business club and the Civic Welfare are co-operating in the uniform project. The men will attempt to raise $200 by subscription, while the women are preparing a home talent show, to be given April 1 and 2. The goal is about $800, which will cover the cost of 40 uniforms.

The concert, attended by a capacity audience, gave the strongest possible incentive to the cause. Everyone was most enthusiastic over the performance.

How to Keen Harbor
Our high school varsity basketball boys bowed to their traditional rivals, Keen Harbor, Friday night, in the final and deciding game of the Southwestern County league campaign. The score was 23 to 20, in favor of the Presidents, who thus captured the championship held by Walled Lake for several seasons.

Girls Bring Glory
Walled Lake was not without a measure of glory, however, provided by the varsity girls. They gained the co-championship title with Milford, by defeating Keen Harbor opponents, 30 to 10.

Walled Lake and Milford held the same league honor in 1936. During the present season, each team lost to the other in their only defeats. Both hold a record of seven victories.

Coach Dora Wood loses five of her six first team players, the year through graduation. They are Leah Stoffer, Frances Richardson, Shirley Beck, Marian Gorman and Lupa Pennell. Only Edith Ogg, a junior, remains to carry on next season. Four substitutes will also conclude their Walled Lake playing careers in June. They are Edna Eric Doron Kreza, Helen Farley and Vera Graham.

N. H. S. Girls Capture League Championship

BERKLEY DEFEATED IN YEAR'S CLOSER

Game Ends 38-13 As Berkley Leads Scorers with 17 Points

When the N. H. S. girls beat Berkley 38-13 last Thursday on the home court, they won their first league championship in five years. Northville ended the season with five league victories and one defeat. They also defeated Farmington in both practice games played with that team. Melvindale was tossed out by a very small margin as they won four league games, tied one and lost one. Redford-Union was third and Berkley took fourth place.

Northville took the Berkley encounter with ease. They were ahead during the whole game and were never very hard pressed by the Berkley sextet. The Berkley forwards were completely bottled up by the excellent guarding on the part of the Orange and Black. The top honors in scoring again go to Mary Frances Batt, who fairly outdid herself and turned in seventeen points.

"None of the members of the present basketball team will be graduated this year, so we'll start next year with the same girls," said Miss Gladys Ludwig, who coached the team to victory, "and we hope to repeat this year's success next year."

The squad plans to hold a dinner sometime this week at which the first and second teams will entertain Miss Ludwig. Misses: A. B. Cooke, Miss Donald Ward and Miss Gertrude Eppler, of Ypsilanti.

FOUR-MAN BASKETBALL OFFERS NEW IDEAS

By TOM MARTINO

There has been a great deal of experimentation in the idea of four-man basketball. One athletic director sincerely believes that it will be universally played in the near future. His reasons are that four-man basketball will answer the same needs as six-man football did last season. It opens up the game for the spectators and eliminates congestion around the basket. These reasons are the very things which the rules committee have been trying to correct through the adoption of the "ten seconds" and the "three seconds" rules and the elimination of the center jump.

Some schools have been using this idea of a four-man basketball team in their intramural schedule this year. The first time it was played the game was very thrilling and a lot faster with more maneuvering, less congestion around the basket and more scoring areas were opened up. Players also sank many spectacular shots.

Other advantages were that the team work was encouraging; it eliminated aimless passing of the ball around, while two men waited in scoring areas for shots. Four-man basketball will be beneficial to small schools which have a small floor and few available players.

The Observer

If you had the good fortune to have attended the Northville and Melvindale basketball game you'll know in a second who it is that I am observing. The "doubles" came floating down from the balcony originated from a junior chap. This gentleman holds the responsible position of manager of the second team and due to his bright eyes and quick sense of danger has saved the three remaining sweat shirts for the second team. My power of describing people is very weak, but my eye sight is good so I can describe to you the facts of his features. He has large ears and little eyes set into a small frame of 244 bones. His voice good looks and personality will some day lead him to fortune, and don't be surprised if you see him taking Nelson Eddy's place in Hollywood. Egad!

Senior Who's Who

ARTHUR MITCHELL
"Art" was born Aug. 22, 1920, in the big city of Detroit. He moved to Northville when he was still a baby. He has taken part in track and football three years, and in the junior play, and has been a member of the Northville High School.

Editor's Note

The Student Council (remember?) has finally decided to drag one foot out of the grave and do something about one of the worst habits the students have gotten into in years. This talking about this idea of smoking on the school grounds. No our mind, if not only doesn't look especially well, to outsiders to see students coming out of school at noon and after school with cigarettes in their mouths, but it necessarily lowers the standards of the school. At their last meeting, the council decided that something had to be done. They agreed unanimously that if students must smoke, they could at least wait until they were off the school grounds. Each council member has been making a personal survey of the pupils to gain their reaction to the question, "What do you think of allowing students to smoke on school property?"

So far, the majority of answers have been in favor of putting a stop to this excessive smoking. In speaking to those who have been guilty of this offense, we find that practically the only reason they do smoke around school is that they have never been asked not to, and they would be perfectly willing to wait until they were off the school grounds to light their cigarettes.

Principal G. V. Harrison announced that a special assembly will be called when the council's survey is completed. He says it will be left up to the students of Northville High to decide whether or not this smoking will continue.

Our orboid has popped up again this week. The only reason it's been hiding so long is that we haven't really felt that anyone honestly deserved it until now. It goes to the girls' basketball team for winning the league championship cup for the first time in five years. All our congratulations, girls, and may you do as well again next year!

By TOM MARTINO

The local quarter ended its league games Friday night in winning fashion by trouncing Berkley, 31-18. Northville started the scoring when it made a four-point shot. Northville then made three baskets and one foul shot to bring its total to eight for the quarter. Berkley made two baskets and one foul shot as the quarter ended with the score 8-3 in Northville's favor.

In the second quarter, Berkley was held scoreless, while Northville garnered four points. There were a lot of pass combinations broken up by both teams. The boys would get the ball out of bounds and start to go up the court when too many steps or too long in their opponents' circle stopped the play. The first half ended with both teams almost matching points, Berkley scoring eight and Northville nine points. The play was very fast in this quarter and both teams called time out. The quarter ended with Northville in the lead 21-13.

In the last quarter, Berkley tried desperately to score points, but an opening was always left for Northville's boys. The quarter also saw Berkley trying to sign the Orange and Black Attack. Northville scored ten points to Berkley's five. Thus the game ended with Northville winning, 31-18, leaving them still in second place.

The summary:

FG	FT	TP
Winkler	3	1	7
Boelens	6	2	14
Lester	2	0	4
Duguid	2	0	4
M. Schoulitz	1	0	2
Larkin	6	0	12
Myers	0	0	0

The second team also won its game, 22-15. The boys all played well. They played a good defensive game when it was needed and offensive when they got going. "Cabby" Myers was high point man with six points. All of the boys were in the game, that is, those that were eligible. The season has ended for the boys, but they may be our first stringers in a year or two.

Grade Notes

Miss Nora Wilson's first grade students and Miss Ruth Cassidy's fourth and fifth grade students gave an assembly program last Thursday. Miss Wilson's children were two plays, "George Washington" and "His Hatched" and "Spring is Coming." The girls' chorus sang two ballads and some of the pupils did a folk dance. While the other pupils read stories from their books.

Miss Beulah Miller's second graders are preparing for a play to be given March 21. They have been writing in their weather books for the signs of spring. The pupils have furnished a playhouse. Different housekeepers take care of the house, arrange the furniture and pictures.

the operettas "H. M. S. Pinafore" and "China Shopp." Art plans to go on to college after he is graduated in June.

HARRY HATTENBURY

"Slugg" came into this world Jan. 17, 1921, in Northville. Like Arthur Mitchell, he has been educated solely in Northville high. Harry says his hobbies are eating and sleeping, while his pastime is horses. He is to be the detective in the coming operetta, "In Old Vienna," and plans to enter the University of Michigan upon graduation.

SENIORS ARE CHAMPS OF INTERCLASS MEET

All the teams had good passing attacks and defensive play. The sophomores ended in last place because of inefficient material and lack of reserves.
