NEW BUDGET HEARING IS ANNOUNCED

Tax Roll Spread Will Be Same As Last Year

Preparatory to having a public hearing for the budget of 1938-'39, the village commission has posted the proposed budget for the year in three public places in Northville.

The hearing, scheduled for April 20, will be held at 8 p. m. in the Village Hall.

Like last year, the proposed budget would have $48,000 spread over the tax roll. It allows $4,800 in the administration fund; $2,200 for buildings and property; $94 for the care of the village clock; $4,600 for the police; $1,800 in the fire fund; $425 for health and welfare; $600 for insurance; $3,000 for streets; $6,750 for lighting; $1,500 for sidewalks; $2,250 for sewers; $250 for parks and recreation.

The budget makes the following anticipated revenue notations: Fines $500; fees $200; liquor licenses $1,000; other licenses $35; penalties on delinquent taxes, $800; connections and supplies, $554; collection of delinquent taxes, $7,500.

NEWLY FORMED OIL COMPANY IS HEADED BY DR. L. W. SNOW

The Seven Lakes Oil and Gas company, composed mostly of local business men, has elected Dr. L. W. Snow of this village, president of their organization which was formed about eight months ago. Company operations are expected to begin by May 1. The property held by the company is located in Chester and Charlton townships in Oscoda county, and is approximately 11 miles southeast of Gaylord.

The physical characteristics of this region are such that the district is referred to as the "hog back" of Michigan. Because it is in the vicinity of the highest spot in the lower peninsula, many geologists are of the opinion that this territory may be the main source of supply for those oil fields in operation in various parts of the State.

The Seven Lakes Oil and Gas company expects to start drilling by May 1. The drilling operations will be under the direction of Al Hamilton, who is a pioneer well driller and geologist, and is said to have drilled wells all over the world. At one time he was in Russia, and it was under his direction that the second largest well in the world was brought in. Material is now being moved in preparatory to drilling.

MRS. CECIL WICKHAM, TALENTED MONOLOGIST, ENTERTAINS EASTLAWN

By ROBERT LANG

Tuesday, April 12, the patients at Eastlawn received a surprise entertainment. Mrs. Cecil Wickham of Michigan City, Ind., who was visiting Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Wickham, entertained them with a series of readings and monologues. Mrs. Cecil Wickham is a daughter-in-law of Dr. and Mrs. Wickham.

There were two readings, "On Riding" and "On Seeing Stars," both by Miss Cornelia Otis Skinner. The monologues were: "Three Stages of Married Life," by Donald Meek; "The Dentist and the Gas," by Stephen Leacock. There were also three original monologues, "The Monday Morning Shopper," "The Saturday Morning Egg Lady," and "Contract Bridge, Not by Culbertson." The others were: "Mother Will Help," "Jonah and the Whale," which was also done in pantomime, and "Their First Unpleasantness."

The audience was continually in a roar of laughter and at the close of the entertainment, A. J. Anderson, on behalf of the patients, presented Mrs. Wickham with a beautiful bouquet of roses.

MOVE TO NORTHVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Grimshaw and infant son have moved to Northville from Detroit. They are making their home at 339 North Center street.

Cancer Education Is Goal of Women Leaders in Village

With startling facts about cancer presented to the various organizations and with striking posters claiming the attention of pedestrians on our business streets, Northville, together with the rest of the country, is being aroused to the seriousness of this dread disease.

The posters, placed in the windows of several business places, are the handwork of Jack Harper, and are a credit to this rising young artist and to his two artist parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Harper.

Without wishing to alarm unduly the public, this cancer drive now being promoted throughout America, aims to impress everyone that the early recognition of this disease is its great hope.

Folks are warned to consult a reliable physician at the first sign of an abnormal growth or any irregular show of blood. Early treatment is almost sure to bring about cure but delay is fatal.

The object of this intensive drive is to educate the public for its knowledge alone is safety. Thousands of people could be living today if they had known the early signs of cancer. Over and over is the slogan sounded "Fight Cancer with Knowledge."

The Women's Field Army of the American Society for the Control of Cancer has a representative committee in Northville of which Mrs. E. S. Beal is chairman. This committee met at the Beal home Saturday afternoon and made more plans for promoting publicity on cancer-prevention in this community. A series of social gatherings with the purpose of raising funds for the support of the spread of information will be given. Announcements to be made later. The co-operation of the public is urged in helping fight this common enemy, cancer.

CURTIS OUTLINES PARKWAY PROJECT

Shows Slides Tuesday to Rotary Club Members

Envisioning a great 17 1/2 mile parkway along the Huron and Clinton rivers in this section of Michigan, Dr. Henry S. Curtis, executive secretary of the Huron Valley Development, told Rotary members Tuesday noon at the Presbyterian church house of the plans proposed for the Detroit metropolitan recreation district.

Scenes along the course of both rivers were shown by means of lantern slides. The pictures illustrated improvements of the sort sought by the committee, as well as evidence of decline of areas within the proposed parkway system.

Recreation for the two million people within the 3,500 square mile zone formed by the Clinton and Huron river valleys and Lakes St. Clair and Erie is the prime objective of the proposal. The five-day week, eight hour work day affords so much leisure time that means of recreation must be provided, the speaker emphasized.

Dr. Curtis told Rotarians that a bill providing for the creation of a metropolitan district with power to construct and maintain the parkway will be submitted to the next legislature. Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Pontiac, Mt. Clemens and Detroit will be within the district when it is established.

The proposed parkway was likened to Wayne county's River Rouge parkway, but the Huron-Clinton system will extend for 17 1/2 miles through six counties. Powerful support has been gained for the proposal Dr. Curtis stated.

E. L. Mills presented the traditional birthday bouquet to Dr. T. H. Egge. W. E. Forney made a report of the sale of Easter Seals.

Guests for the day were E. L. Mills, Howell; Father Frank LePevre, Plymouth; and Harold Hamilton, Plymouth.

VAN ATTA RELEASES AIR MAIL WEEK DATA

Postmaster Fred E. VanAtta came forward today with an announcement that National Air Mail week would be observed between May 15 and 21.

A poster contest, in connection with the national observance, will be sponsored among the students of the grade and high schools. The posters will be judged on the basis of originality, neatness and adaptability for use and must be completed by May 1. A trophy will be awarded to the winner in the State contest, making the first place poster eligible for national competition.

DR. R. M. TRAVER BEGINS CHARGE IN NORTHVILLE

To Preach First Sermon
Easter Sunday in Baptist Church

Dr. Rufus M. Traver, for 30 years active in the ministry of the Baptist denomination, will address his new charge in Northville at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

Opening his pastorate here with an Easter message, Dr. Traver has titled his sermon, "The Joy of Resurrection." A vested junior choir will sing Easter selections, further heightening the first worship service of the incoming minister.

Dr. Traver, together with Mrs. Traver, has just returned from a winter in Winter Haven, Fla. For several years, their home has been at Sylvan Lake, near Pontiac.

During the 30 years that Dr. Traver has been preaching, he has served three churches. For 15 years he was the pastor of the First Baptist church in Pontiac, going from there to East Orange, N. J., and from there to Rochester to begin a pastorate in the pulpit where he preached for the first time following the completion of his work at the seminary. He is a graduate of the Colgate-Rochester school.

The Northville Baptist pulpit has been filled by guest ministers since last October, when the Rev. Kendall S. North resigned to accept a call in Grass Lake.

VILLAGERS WANT LECTURE SERIES

Another season of lecture series, such as was sponsored this winter for the first time by the Northville Teachers' club, is wanted by the 37 persons who filled out questionnaires at the close of the final lecture given March 31, by Dr. James K. Pollock of the political science department of the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

Thirty-five of the persons who took time to answer the page of questions, have pledged themselves to buy season tickets.

That more musical numbers would appear to the lecturers is indicated by persons who listed the topics and types of entertainment they would like to expect next year. Literature was named by enough persons to give it second place, travel subjects ranked third; current events, and drama placed fourth, international affairs, were fifth, and politics was sixth in the preferences of the enthusiasts. There was also a demand for floral topics, as well as medicine, psychology, economics and government. A treatise of China and Japan was also listed, as was a request for a religious program — by a minister.

Bennett Weaver was the favorite this year of the lecture goers. He received more first choice listings in the questionnaire than any other speaker. The "Glee" club placed second in the first choice listing, with W. H. Hobbs and James Pollock tying for third place.

Robert B. Ball was the preference in the second place listings, with the Glee club and Weaver coming in for second and third.

Shirley W. Allen headed the list of third choice groupings, with the Glee club and Mr. Pollock sharing the second place; and Mr. Hall receiving enough thirds to place him in third place in this count.

A majority of the persons named Monday evening as the most convenient time for the lectures and 27 persons asked that they be scheduled twice a month.

W. E. FORNEY HEADS CONSERVATION CLUB

W. E. Forney was elected vice-president of the Western Wayne County Conservation club at an organization meeting held Monday evening in Plymouth. Edward S. Wood, also of Northville, was named to the board of directors.

Officials elected at the first meeting, in addition to Mr. Forney, are Dr. B. E. Champe, president; Leslie Alexander, secretary; and Jack Taylor, treasurer. A special committee will be named to represent Northville members.

Setting as its main purpose the fostering of better trespass laws in this section, the club is setting out to enroll as members all sportsmen in the western part of Wayne county. The organization plans to promote the Williamson plan for the protection of farming areas against trespassing during the hunting season. Under this plan tickets are issued by each farmer to hunters and the number of hunters limited in a given area. The plan is recognized by conservation authorities as a solution of the trespass problem.

CONGRATULATE THE FORDS

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford who celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary Tuesday, received a year from the citizens of Northville, extending to them "sincere congratulations."

EVELYN R. GRENNAN ENLARGES STABLE

Already, Miss Evelyn Grennan has her stable making ready for the twenty-second Northville Horse Show which will be held in August in connection with the Northville Wayne County Fair association.

She has a newly developed stable which promises to add a great deal of interest to the show this fall, which committee members predict will be the largest in its history.

From the March issue of the Saddle and Bridle magazine appears the following reprint written by W. J. Fry: "The newest contribution to the horse show world, representing Michigan, is the newly developed stable of Miss Evelyn Ruth Grennan of Northville. The spacious and beautiful Grennan Farm is located only a few miles west of Detroit. Management and training of this stable is under the direction of Carey Rogers, who we all remember, came to Michigan from the East only two years ago and has shown us just how a hunter should look and what can be won with one."

On a recent trip to Virginia Mr. Rogers purchased two very promising hunters. These horses are old, both being middle-weight hunters. Training will start immediately and for the next six weeks will take place in the East after which time they will return to Northville to prepare for the fall show.

Miss Grennan's enthusiasm, together with Carey Rogers' expert advice, and supreme knowledge of hunters in the western part of Wayne county. The organization plans to promote the Williamson plan for the protection of farming areas against trespassing during the hunting season. Under this plan tickets are issued by each farmer to hunters and the number of hunters limited in a given area. High School Joins in Battle to Curb Tuberculosis Gain

With plans under way for the giving of tuberculosis tests Tuesday, April 19, to the eleventh and twelfth graders in the high school gymnasium, the purpose for the survey is explained by Mrs. Starr Bray, school health nurse, who will assist Dr. David S. Brachman, a staff member of the Herman Kiefer hospital, Detroit.

The tests are made to find children who have been infected with the germs of tuberculosis and will be given here only to students who bring written permission from their parents. The test is harmless and is made by rubbing tuberculin into the skin of the arm. Tuberculin, it is explained, is a liquid "containing no germs, living or dead — all have been filtered out. Further, it has been boiled and evaporated until only one-tenth of the original amount remains and can in no way cause any infection."

From three to five days after the tests have been given, Dr. Brachman can tell by the appearance of the skin whether or not the child has been infected with the germs of tuberculosis. This infection is common in children and if not excessive is of no consequence. Once the tuberculin test aids in finding the infected children, the lungs are X-rayed to find the occasional child afflicted with the disease.

It is reported that one-quarter to one-third of all school children are infected with the germs of tuberculosis, but only two or three in a hundred have enough infection to cause disease.

CANADIAN JURY ACQUITS SPENCER

After deliberating slightly over three hours Tuesday, the Canadian Supreme Court jury acquitted Vernon Spencer, charged with murdering his hunting companion sweetheart in Dr. A. Holcomb's cabin which they shared in Ontario north woods.

Miss Helen Grier, former Pontiac teacher, was found dead in the cabin with a bullet hole in her head by Spencer, Oct. 28. The Crown attorney, charged Spencer with slaying at the time she was alone in the cabin. Defense attorney, C. H. Grier, introduced evidence to show that Mrs. Grier could have killed herself in a fit of despondency.

Following his release, Mr. Spencer with Mr. Spencer, who has stood by him throughout his imprisonment and trial left Canada to return to the dairy farm at Wexon.

Although Spencer was not called upon to take the stand in his own defense, he maintained that on the day of Miss Grier's death he had been out in the woods looking for moose tracks. Upon his return, he said he found her body on the kitchen floor. In making his plea to the jury, J. A. McInnis, defense attorney, asked them not to hang Spencer on his morals, saying, "Remember, Spencer is not being tried for his morals. He is going to be hanged for his morals, where would we find a hangerman?" His escapee with Helen Grier is not an issue. The only issue is whether he murdered her.

Clyde D. Underwood, former Oakland county prosecutor, assisted in building up the defense case.

There is to be a quartet feature, including Mr. Gies, Mr. Steiminger, Mr. Winter and R. H. Amerman. Assisting the Rotarians in the musical attraction will be singers from the high school and from the Maybury sanatorium.

RAY WESTPHAL JOINS VIRGINIA BALL AUCTIONEERS

Ray Westphal will wear the uniform of the Welch, W. Va., baseball team when he reports Sunday for the beginning of training for the 1938 season. He was with the Tiffin, O., Mudhens in 1936 and 1937.

Mr. Westphal was in Northville this week for a visit with relatives and friends. He will leave Saturday morning for Welch.

Death Claims Sam Wilkinson

ELECTRICAL PIONEER'S CAREER ENDS

A characteristic pose is this one of the late Samuel Wilkinson. It was taken two years ago as Sam sat at his desk in the Detroit-Edison company, recounting for an interviewer the early days of trouble shooting when the electric light plant was a one-man company and Sam was "the whole works." Death claimed him Sunday at the age of 70 years.

WAS LIGHTER OF 50 MAIN STREET LAMPS

Back in Early Days He Headed the Water Works

Samuel Wilkinson, for years known as Northville's One-Man Electrical company, which he founded practically single-handed, died early Sunday morning, April 10, in Harper hospital, Detroit, where he was being treated for an illness of almost a year's duration.

Death claimed him at the age of 70 years, 49 of which had been given to serving Northville in an electrical manner. It was his ambition to round out 50 years of such service for the village which had been his home since birth, Feb. 19, 1868.

It was he who turned the switch that "snowy" light back in 1889 — Nov. 16 — that lighted the 50 lamps on Main street. It was that same year, a few months earlier, that Sam became custodian of the 160-light dynamo that the Globe Furniture company bought. The company had originally hired Sam to fire a boiler. Without assistance, he managed the light plant — and the water works as well — he was his own trouble shooter, electrician and even bus collector.

Since 1915, Mr. Wilkinson had been local agent for the Detroit Edison company. He took over the position at the time the company embraced the territory's light plant. His association with the company sent him into the communities of Novi, Walled Lake, Commerce, Wixom and Salem, where he endeavored himself to the residents by giving them the best in courteous service. In the files of the Detroit Edison company are letters from many persons, leaving to him a glowing record.

Sam never set a bad moral example before the people of this community. His faithfulness to his family was in sharp contrast with many of those with whom he was in contact from time to time.

Sam was content to be a private in the army and never sought political honor. When it became time for him to be at the head of the Exchange club, he preferred to stay in the ranks, but his fellow members made him an honorary past president.

It was Sam's good fortune to help bring light and power to the home town and to continue the work for almost 50 years. All the working tools of life, industriousness, hard labor and the spirit of the man, entered into the other room of life to find further light and expanding opportunities.

The sands of life flow rapidly and we find help from the lives about us and should appropriate that which is good as we shall do from Citizen Wilkinson.

GOOD FRIDAY RITES ARE HELD TODAY

Northville's business houses will be closed for two hours today from 1 to 3 p. m. while the Good Friday services are observed jointly by the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches in the Presbyterian church.

During the two-hour service, talks will be made by the Rev. Harry J. Giles, Lord of the Methodist church, the Rev. Cora Pennell of the Salem Federated church, and by the Rev. T. W. Smith of the host church.

A quartet composed of R. H. Amerman, R. H. Steiminger, Merle Fraser and C. G. Winter will sing as will the Presbyterian church choir. During the singing of a number of hymns, persons who cannot stay throughout the service, will have an opportunity to leave.

A half hour earlier, 12:30 p. m., is the time for the Good Friday Mass in Our Lady of Victory church, where the unveiling of the Cross will be climaxed by a descriptive sermon of the 14 scenes of the sorrowful Stations' journey.

The Lutherans will gather at 7:45 p. m. Friday for services of the same nature, with the Rev. Charles Strasen of Plymouth, bringing the message.

JOHNSTON TO ACCEPT NEW TROPHY AWARDS

Committee member W. H. Johnston and Alternate Committeeman and Membership Chairman Robert Nelson of the 17th district of the American Legion are responsible for a trophy honor won by the district.

The district has climaxed its year of achievement by winning the new Ray Corson trophy a membership award. This is the third trophy the district has seen given within the year. Previously the Kelly and Dietrich trophies had been designated to this district. The trophies will be presented to Mr. Johnston in August at the Battle Creek Department convention.

When final rites were held at 2 p. m. Tuesday from the home Mr. Wilkinson's associates in the Edison company were pallbearers. Olin Russell of Howell, Roger Little of Fowlerville, E. B. Grosvenor of (Continued on page 8)

G. H. STALKER FILLS JUSTICE VACANCY

Mayor Arthur S. Nichols will not attempt to fill two offices, one in the village and one in the township. His unexpired term as township justice will be completed by George H. Stalker.

At a recent meeting of the township board, Mr. Stalker was appointed to serve until July 4, when Mayor Nichols' term would have ended. Then another appointment will have to be made which will run until the election in the spring.

Mr. Stalker is connected with the legal department of the Universal Credit company where he has been employed for several years.

TO OPEN BOOK FAIR

The annual Book Fair, sponsored by the members of the Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church will be held from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Saturday, April 23, in the vacant D. and C. building on North Center street.

In addition to the books for sale, the organization will sell candy. A social feature will be the serving of tea.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON MOVIES

We congratulate the management of the Penniman-Allyn theatre upon its progressive action in having Saturday matinees for our boys and girls. Certainly all thoughtful parents will fervently hope that the experiment is a success.

No one needs to be told of the great influence that leisure hours have on young people. How boys and girls spend their Saturdays has a real part in laying the foundation of their future life. Youth is going to seek amusement and recreation somewhere. If children can see wholesome, clean movies, suited to their age, it will have a vast influence in making Northville a finer and better place in which to live.

WOMAN EDITOR TELLS PRESIDENT

Eleanor Patterson must be a pretty smart woman. She is the editor and publisher of two papers in our national capital, the Washington Herald and the Washington Times. Not only is Editor Patterson wise and successful, but she has courage.

Last week she told the President just what she thought was the matter with him and with the country. In an open letter to Mr. Roosevelt she laid the blame for the depressed conditions of the business and industry of the country plump at his feet. According to the daily press, she called upon the President to "keep administrative silence and permit industry to go to work in an atmosphere of peace and security." Then she continued:

"You said once, with eternal truth, that the only thing to fear is fear itself. Fear is depressing industry. With due respect, you should concede the obvious: This fear is fear of you."

"It is fear of shifting policies; of a hostile attitude toward legitimate business; of insistence on discredited tax methods and other laws which prevent the earnings and retaining of fair and honest profits."

"It is fear that, if you work out a constructive plan, you won't stay put. It is fear that, if a plan of yours is proved bad, you will stick to it stubbornly because you are unwilling to admit that, like all the rest of us, you make mistakes."

Yet with all her biting criticism, Editor Patterson was fair. Crediting Mr. Roosevelt with "the great moral and social advances which have been made under your leadership," she concludes with this:

"You have been a great leader and a great man, and you can be again."

CONGRATULATIONS TO MR. AND MRS. FORD

Henry Ford has done so much for Northville that it is a pleasure for this entire community to join in sincere congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ford on their Golden wedding anniversary which they celebrated this week.

Many in our community have witnessed the remarkable career of this genius and have known of all the obstacles which he has overcome since 1893, when he pushed out into the road from his shop his first "horseless carriage."

Northville is proud of its many long-time associations with Henry Ford. Indeed, it was to this community that a half-century ago he brought out his bride, not in a fast flying Ford or Lincoln, but in a horse and buggy on a honeymoon trip. Our good friend, Marvin Bogart, now of Wixom, has often entertained Henry Ford in his home and several others of our community know the distinguished inventor and manufacturer personally. And of course everyone knows how Henry Ford picked out Northville as the site for one of his automobile plants. Not only has he given us a marvelous industrial plant, helping to bring prosperity to hundreds of our community, but he has given us a vision of beauty and the spiritual values of life which will endure long after he is gone. Probably the sum spent in beautification of the Ford properties here would run into an amazing figure.

We shall never forget a few years ago when we walked with Henry Ford along the Ford property. As we told him of the great enjoyment we got from the Sunday evening Ford radio concerts, he stopped abruptly and pointing to a tree from which came the song of a bird, with eyes twinkling said: "There is the finest music."

We have often wondered where Henry Ford got his love of the soil. We have just read an account of his early days and have the answer. Back in April, 1888 when he took Clara Bryant to be his bride, the bride and groom went to a neat story-and-a-half house that had been built on a forty-acre piece of land which his father had given them. The story goes that the groom's father gave Ford this patch of timberland for his home in the hope that he would forget his "foolish interest in machinery." Of course the whole world knows now how he forgot this "foolish interest." When you think of the thousands and millions of automobiles on our city streets and country roads, from coast to coast, remember it was Henry Ford who made it possible for the average man to drive an auto. But along with this genius for mechanical things, Ford's love for the soil has always stayed with him. Who can visualize what part that "back forty" had in giving Ford the desire to give to the world the joy of contact with the soil? The story of the Ford gardens is known wherever automobiles are driven.

World fame and immense wealth have not changed the kindly nature of this great genius. The fiftieth wedding celebration was a simple and unostentatious occasion, in keeping with the early days of his career when jeers were turned into cheers as he carried on his remarkable experiments.

Northville rejoices in the Fords' fifty years of happy wedded life; in the affection and esteem which their many friends have for the distinguished couple and hopes that the sunset days of their life will be filled with an ever-increasing peace.

HIT AND MISS APRIL THOUGHTS

Bright spot: Prospects for home building are much brighter in the whole Detroit area. If you can see your way clear to start that new home now, you will do something to "bust" the depression.

What makes dreams? The other night a good Northville friend who doesn't owe us a nickel, and whom we don't owe, presented us with a $37 check. What does that mean? Here is our idea: Thirty-seven people who are back on their subscription and who have the money to pay it, are going to come into the Record office in the next 37 days and pay up.

When you buy a ticket for the Rotary Minstrel Show April 27, you will help some worthy boy or girl of Northville to go to college. Proceeds from this entertainment will be used for the Student Loan fund which has already made it possible for a number of our young people to continue their education. Incidentally you will get more than your money's worth in good laughs.

We all thank the Village Dads for their help in making band concerts possible next summer. Northville has no finer asset than these splendid young musicians. A community unity which these concerts develop is worth more than money.

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

1 YEAR AGO

Northville schools, having limped through six years of depression on a 50 per cent reduced budget and curtailed personnel and yet maintained satisfactory standards, are planning to life a full time principal.

Funeral services for Albert George Stage, 28 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Stage who died of pneumonia April 12 at his home in Grand Rapids, were held yesterday.

Frank Durfee, for half a century a prominent farmer of this vicinity, died early Monday morning at his home on East Nine Mile road.

Mrs. H. S. Wells was named president for the second consecutive year of the Northville Woman's club Friday afternoon at the annual meeting.

10 YEARS AGO

Northville residents will regret to learn that the Rev. O. L. G. Bles, who for the past two years has been pastor of St. Paul's German Lutheran church, has resigned his pastorate here and will, beginning July 1, become pastor of the big Bethany Evangelical Lutheran church at Detroit and Maitland avenues in Detroit.

Fred Casterline, who lives on Cady Street, and has been nightwatching at the Ford plant at Waterford, is in a serious condition at the Sessions hospital as a result of being run down by an automobile Saturday afternoon at 10:30 p. m.

Thursday, April 12, at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Barney Schultz, Marie, the eldest daughter, was married to Donald Second, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Second.

15 YEARS AGO

Five residents of Northville took the examination held Saturday for the postmaster's place. They were B. G. Filkins, F. S. Neal, W. H. Sanford, Frank Thompson and T. R. Carrington.

Loyce German and Arnold Jaska left for Buffalo, N. Y., yesterday where they will join the Buffalo club in the International League.

In the bowling tournament at Grand Rapids, James Woolley of this place carried off the honors in the single events with a score of 619, while Harry German and John C. Clark landed in fourth place in the doubles.

BATTLESHIPS

By THEODORE WEELE

Once upon a time there lived a good man who loved his neighbors as he loved himself. He lived on the heights and saw far with his mind. "Let all men be brothers," said he, and so it was with him. He lived on the land of his fathers and it reached down into the valley, and followed beside the river as far as a man might walk in a day. Of the beasts and the fowls and the grain thereof he gave generously to all in need. He was loved by his neighbors and they lived in peace and plenty.

Now there lived at this time, in a far-off land, a barbarian people who had come on evil days. There the heavens grew dark; the winds blew fearfully; the hills trembled. The soothsayers spoke: Go forth and find new lands that your children may grow and be many on the face of the earth. So it came to pass that the barbarians coveted the valley of the man of peace, for its rich harvest, its flowing wells, its sparkling streams, and its winding river. They coveted the beasts of the fields and the wool thereof. They coveted the forests. They coveted the hills. And they held council.

Now one day there came to the good man a headman of the barbarians, who said, "We are few, and in need of land that we too may prosper. Give us of thy land and we shall live peacefully near thee." The good man gave them of his land and welcomed them as brothers. And the next year they came again and said, "We are in need of more land for there are now more of us." The lover of peace held his counsel and mourned his ass to see how did the barbarians on his land. And when he came among them they fell upon him and they drove him off. The next year the barbarians were more, and the headman came with many in the night-time. They fell upon the good man and delivered him to his Maker; and they carried off his wife and his maid-servants, and the gold and silver of his house. And the headman said to the neighbors, "Ye are now my serfs. Those who disputed were struck down. Those who would not were whipped. Great sorrow and much suffering came over the peaceful valley. And the neighbors held secret council.

So it followed that one of them stole quietly away in the night. He went to the forest on the far side that none might hear him. Each night he went there, and in the morning he returned with bows and arrows, and slings that he had fashioned. And so it came to pass that every man and every man-child of sufficient years, and many of the women were given arms in the night for there were now many barbarians in the valley. And on the appointed day the neighbors gave battle to the barbarians. Many were killed for they were not wise in the ways of battle, having lived so long without arms. Yet the Lord gave them victory and bade them remember that peace is of His kingdom and will not prosper on the Earth except as men of good will stand prepared to defend it.

So once wrote a great American poet. As I sit and dream out even- ing, my mind wanders back to the days when the old Bealtown gang crawled through the picket fence and followed the winding path through the willows to the river. There to enjoy the clear and pure water that flowed through our beloved Bealtown. Many of the old timers can remember how we used to throw mud at each other. How we worked like beavers to build a dam so that the waters might be raised and then, too, how we played "chow paw beer" and tied some unfortunate kid's clothing in a bunch of knots, at the same time the sun was shining on the naked little bodies thus fortifying us against the colds and infections of the winter that was to follow.

Also how we danced with glee when the suckers, mullet and horned dace came up the river to spawn. Every Saturday found the gang headed for the river with fishing poles. As the sun sank below the western horizon we journeyed home with a catch to be fried, rolled in corn meal or flour. As we fished, the hillside was covered with dogwood and Hawthorn blossoms. Birds filled the air with their songs and once again all nature came to life. Can you blame us for what these hills, birds and river meant? Those old time Bealtown kids could tell you the name of any bird or tree.

Well, Dick, it's all changed now. The old picket fence is no more. Deep grass covers the old path through the willows. The dogwood has come to blossom and the fish have to live in impure water. Our Bealtown kids don't play around the river anymore. And as one walks down to the old swimming hole, a great big ugly black and white sign reads: "This water is unfit for bathing." What mother will try to bathe her boy caught in that dirty water? Yes, Dick, there is a lot of sentiment and memories flowing along with this old stream. We only ask that the people of Northville stand with Mayor "Pop" Nichols and his gang and that once again pure and sparkling water will flow for my beloved little pals, the boys and girls of Bealtown.

Thanking you,
Norton T. Greene

"MOTHER, BE FUNNY!"
It was bed time and the young mother was tucking them in for the night.

"Mother, be funny!" begged the two little romping rascals in long-legged sleeping garments as they tumbled back into bed shaking with laughter. "Be funny, some more!"
they cried.

Abandoned to the mood, the mother went willingly, again through such funny antics that had brought such flattering applause. It was easy to "be funny" before such a responsive audience and she outdid herself in her foolish mimicry and again the children's heels flew into the air. Righting themselves they cried, "Do it again, Mom!"

But the mother knew the limit and that too much excitement would mean delayed sleep for youngsters
so the program changed gradually
to a story that became more and more quiet and faded off into a "sleepytime" song as the covers were drawn up over two "little bears."

The windows were raised during the singing and before she reached the last line—

"Only don't forget to sail—Back again to me!"
two pair of eyes were closed tight and the mother tiptoed downstairs to her bedroom.

Happy the children whose mothers keeps enough of her girlhood to be funny now and then with them, who can laugh and play with them and make a game of what might be a serious crisis.

Such a mother was Carrie Jacobs-Bond, the song writer, whose "Perfect Day" is loved by many. Widowed and left with her children in poverty, she wrote songs for a livelihood. One very hard Christmas
so the program changed gradually
to a story that became more and paper by candle light late Christmas eve these lines for her little ones:

Playing Make-Believe
Let's play a game with Make-Believe.

And keep him round awhile,
And when we feel all sad and glum
Play make-believe and smile;
And when the world seems cold and dark,
And some folks seem untrue,
Play make-believe the world's all right,
And folks are all right too."

Correction — In some way the sugar got left out of the filling for Mrs. W. H. Yerkes' good orange-filling cake in a previous issue. The recipe should call for ½ cup.

SAVE MONEY?

The Standard Ford V-8, with 60-horsepower engine, gives you a lot of car for a little money.

300,000 new owners acclaimed the "thrifty 60" last year. Hundreds a day are buying it in 1938. Why?

Because it is priced low—includes essential equipment without extra charge—and goes farther between filling stations than any Ford car ever built. Owners all over the country report averages of 22 to 27 miles on a single gallon of gasoline.

But economy isn't all the story by any means. The Standard "60" is built with the same precision as the De Luxe "85," and has the same 112-inch wheelbase chassis. It is easy to look at and ride in —as well as easy to buy and run.

There's a Ford dealer near you.

Northville Joins Early Tuberculosis Diagnosis Campaign Which Is Sponsored by Michigan Association; Tests, April 19

Urgent indeed is the need for early discovery of tuberculosis, Dr. Don Gudakunst, State Department of State Department of Health, declared in commenting this week on the educational message, "Tuberculosis undiscovered endangers you, of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association's eleventh annual early diagnosis campaign, in which Northville is cooperating with the giving of tuberculin tests Tuesday, April 19, in the high school gymnasium.

"I welcome this opportunity," said Dr. Gudakunst, "of adding any emphasis that I can to the campaign carried on during April to center attention on the vital need for early discovery of tuberculosis."
Stressing the fact that tuberculosis is a preventable disease, Dr.
Gudakunst declared it is tremendous cost to citizens of Michigan.
"Tuberculosis is a costly and entirely needless burden on any community," he declared. "Twenty-five million dollars yearly is a conservative estimate of the financial load imposed by this disease on the state of Michigan."

Unknown cases contribute more to the cost of tuberculosis than does any other single factor, Dr. Guda-kunst believed. He explained that the "undiscovered case acts as the source from which the disease continues to spread, thereby adding to the expense of hospital care for the tuberculous."

"Find these unrecognized cases of tuberculosis, provide adequate treatment, and millions of dollars will be saved — to say nothing of the suffering and the loss of life that will be prevented," he emphasized.

By concentrating tuberculosis test X-ray clinics on the examination of contacts — those who have been exposed to an active case of tuberculosis — the Michigan Tuberculosis Association is continuing to bend every effort towards finding the unsuspecting carriers of tuber-culous bacilli. Undiscovered tuberculosis, endangers "you," as an individual, as well as "you," in relation to the home and the community.

Miss Ann Richards and William Chizmar Repeat Marriage Pledge Saturday in Belleville Church

Miss Ann Richards, eldest daughter of the Rev. William Richards of Belleville, became the bride of William Chizmar, son of Mrs. Anna Chizmar of Detroit, in a ceremony read Saturday, April 9, in the Belleville Methodist church.

The bride's father read the marriage vows and a sister of the bride, Miss Alice, was her attendant. Don Thurston of Belleville, was Mr. Chizmar's best man. The Lohengrin Wedding March was played by Miss Doris Slesho.

A floor length blue chiffon-train was selected by the bride. With this she carried a bouquet of rose buds and lilies of the valley. Miss Alice was dressed in old rose.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Richards chose a dress of plum crepe, accented with silver. A navy blue print was worn by the bridegroom's mother.

Following the wedding, a bridal luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents, where yellow and white appointments made the table and rooms attractive. After a trip in Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Chizmar will be at home at 505 Woodland road, Grandview Acres, Northville. Mrs. Chizmar wore a light blue alpaca dress and a grey tuxedo top for her traveling costume.

Mrs. Chizmar, who formerly made her home here with her parents, has been the kindergarten teacher in Northville for the past five years and will continue to be a member of the faculty personnel. She attended the Michigan State Normal college, Ypsilanti, before she began teaching.

Mr. Chizmar, formerly of Belleville, is an engineer and is employed in Detroit.

Devotions were led by Miss Grace Tremper and a chapter in the "Women of the Bible" was read by Mrs. Walter Stapan.

At the conclusion of the program a social time was enjoyed, while the March committee Mrs. Amelia Ford, Mrs. Carl Ely, Mrs. Lydia Ebersole and Mrs. Rebecka Salen served light refreshments.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. William Ogden, Mrs. Ida Hendry, Mrs. V. R. Haste.

Supper and Program Mark
Annual Baptist Meeting—

The Easter motif made the tables attractive for the annual supper and program at the Baptist church held Monday evening April 11. Miniature hat boxes in pastel colors, each containing a tiny replica of Milady's Easter bonnet were used on the tables, as were place cards of hand painted Easter bunnies, designed by Mrs. Susan Eaton. Blue tapers completed the table arrangements.

Mrs. Beulah Miller, who had charge of the program directed at performance of a group of her second graders and members of her Sunday School class. Two novelty songs were sung by Irving Shore, bridge and Marie Seifert, both in costume. A dancing quartet, also in costume, was another feature of the entertainment. The dancers were Joanne Gillies, Mary Jane and Barbara Baker and Marie Seifert. During the business meeting, Mr. Zimmerman presided calling for reports from the church's organization. Eastlawners Make Up Audience for Third Performance of "The Importance of Being Earnest"

Bad luck followed the senior play cast up the hills in the direction of the Eastlawn sanatorium Thursday evening. It all started—and ended—when Harry Rattenbury injured his ankle during a track workout late in the afternoon.

But E. C. Mollema, one of the directors of the production, shipped Harry's cues in a Bible, dressed in the minister's outfit and took over the role of Rev. Chausable for the Eastlawn audience.

Betty Schrader, wearing quite a stunning spring costume at both the Eastlawn and village performances, carried the role of Lady Brockwell with a great deal of poise and dignity—just what the role had to have. It's been voiced about that Jean Anderson gave the role a splendid interpretation when she appeared the first night of the play.

Virginia Washburne and Barbara Wood gave their roles a refreshing characterization and revealed more than just a little stage presence. This John Litsenberger did particularly nice things to his role and came through with original interpretations more than once to save what might have been dull moments on the stage.

Margaret Nagy and Hazel Livingston shared a role—both were well cast for the characterization of the precise Miss Prism, who held the key to the comedy's solution.

Good-looking Ed Reed was a likeable man of town and country who found favor with the audience. Keene Bolton, although appearing in only a minor part, was right at home in his starched white jacket and his way balancing experiences in a village drug store during the summer, gave him confidence for his stage appearance.

All in all, the seniors gave three commendable performances. The Eastlawn patients considered it an extra special treat and the school patrons were generous with congratulations to the cast as well as to Mr. Mollema and Miss Estelle Griffiths, directors.

Both plays are under the sponsorship of the Northville Epworth League. The public is invited.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE VILLAGE OF NORTHVILLE

From March 1, 1937, to February 28, 1938

Compiled by P. F. Iermer, of P. F. Ross & Co.

The Honorable Commission of the Village of Northville, Northville, Michigan.

We have made an examination of the Balance Sheet of the Village of Northville as at February 28, 1938, of the income statement for the Water Department fund, and of the statement of receipts and disbursements for all other funds, for the year ended that date. In connection therewith, we examined or tested accounting records of the Village, and other supporting evidence, and obtained explanations from officials and employees of the Village; we also made a general review of the accounting methods, and of the receipts and disbursement and income accounts for the year ended February 28, 1938, but we did not make a detailed audit of the transactions. The records for all funds except the Water Department Fund have been kept on a modified cash receipts and disbursements basis, the receivables and other assets and the liabilities being recognized on the books, but revenues recognized only when received. The records of the Water Department Fund have been kept on an accrual basis.

In our opinion, based upon our examination, the accompanying balance sheet, income statement for the Water Department fund, and statement of receipts and disbursements for all other funds fairly present in accordance with accepted principles of accounting, the financial position of the Village of Northville as at February 28, 1938, and the operating results for the year ended that date.

Very truly yours,

P. F. Ross & Company
By P. F. Iermer.

SAVE YOUR PROPERTY

The County Treasurer is compelled by law to offer for sale next month — beginning May 3 — all properties on which 1935 and prior years' taxes are unpaid. This involves COUNTY taxes levied on properties in the City of Detroit and the taxes of TOWNSHIPS, VILLAGES, and CITIES other than Detroit.

There is still time to withhold your property from sale by paying the 1933, 1934 and 1935 taxes in full, and at least three installments of the 1932 and prior years' taxes. Interest charges at the Tax Sale will be much greater than they are now.

PROPERTIES ARE EXEMPT FROM SALE IF 1935 AND PRIOR YEARS' TAXES ARE ON THE 10-YEAR PLAN

Make sure that you have not overlooked some special assessment levied in your city or township, and now payable to the County Treasurer.

Walled Lake News

By CHARLES HUTTON

Betty Lee Miles, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Miles of Walled Lake, and William A. Mercer, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Mercer, also of Walled Lake, were married Saturday night, at the Methodist church, in attractive ceremonies which were attended by many relatives and close friends of the popular young couple.

The wedding took place at eight o'clock, with the Rev. William Mouton of Ferndale Methodist Episcopal church and the Rev. Frank Miner of the Walled Lake church officiating. Mrs. Stanley Voorhees, aunt of the bride, played the traditional professional and recessional wedding marches, while the vocal selections were sung by Charles Hutton, accompanied by Mrs. Voorhees.

The bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace over a satin slip. The dress had large puffed sleeves which fitted tightly at the wrists, and her tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was roses and valley lilies.

Madeline R. Streeter of Detroit, groomed in pink lace and carrying Johanna Hill roses and lilies of the valley served as maid of honor. Kay Joan Rose, seven-year-old cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Mrs. Miles, mother of the bride, was groomed in hyacinth blue marquisette, and wore a corsage of sweet-peas and white roses. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Mercer, wore a gown of rosebush lace. She wore a corsage of sweet-peas and tea roses.

Donald Post was best man, and Robert Miles, brother of the bride, and Roy W. Mercer, brother of the bridegroom, were ushers.

A reception for 100 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents, at 759 East Lake drive, following the ceremony.

The couple will live at 243 Williams avenue, Walled Lake, upon their return from a wedding trip through the East.

Easter Services

Easter services at the Methodist church include the regular 10 a. m. worship, followed by the Church School, at 11:15. The Rev. Frank Miner will have as his sermon theme, "The Glorious Victory." Special music by the choir of 25 voices will be given during the first half hour of the service. Anthems to be sung will be "By Early Morning Light" (Dickinson); "Salvation is Created" (Tschernokoff) and "Then Round

Taxpayers' Bill Defeat Will "Cost a Plenty"—Citizen Zilch Pens Protest to Pettingill

With the defeat of the Reorganization bill, Fred Warner, Neal withdraws his analysis of the criticisms which have been fired against its provisions and lets Gustavus Adolphus Zilch have his space for an "open letter" to Representatives Pettigill and O'Connor.

By FRED WARNER NEAL
America is saved.
The Government Reorganization bill has been defeated.

Praise the Lord.
America saved? Yes, saved for inefficiency in government, for unnecessary red tape, for expensive administration. Saved for the "cheap patronage-loving politicians, who have managed to save it for themselves down through the decades.

Praise the Lord indeed. Praise also the cheap politicians, the lying, hysterical newspapers and radio to priests, the Grand Old Party and other "Hate Roosevelt" forces.

Praise them indeed, your taxpayers. You might as well get your money's worth. It will cost a plenty.

But, just because America has been spared a dictator in this one instance, there is no reason for those public spirited gentry like Mr. W. R. Hearst, and the Paul Revere of Royal Oak to cease their vigilance.

My no indeed. There is danger just as great as the Government Reorganization bill. The Ogre in the White House is about to ask the Congress to give him a billion and a half dollars for the stated purpose of making non-interest-bearing loans to municipalities and states.

This bill endangers America and is dictatorial (quite as much as the Government Reorganization bill).

about Thy Starry Throne" (Handel). The offertory solo to be sung by Mrs. Clarence Johnson is entitled "Hosanna!" (Grauer)

Recipients for the year netted nearly $2,000 with over $300 in missionary contributions. The missionary society has held eight meetings and has had 62 missionary readers. While Cross work included sending supplies to the Christian Center in Detroit and Hollo Mission hospital, Hollo, P. I.

The B. Y. P. U. is starting a three months study course known as "Building a Total Youth Program." The Rev. William Phibey is leader.

Church officers elected at the meeting were Board of deacons, Mrs. Minnie Chapman and Mrs. Charles Coe; board of trustees, H. G. Roach and Harry Colestock; board of missions, Mrs. Everett Mac Rae; board of Christian education, Mrs. Elmer See and Miss Leona See; Sunday School superintendent, H. G. Reach; music committee, Miss Madeline Berlin and Miss Charlotte Heliker; social committee, Mrs. A. J. Olson, Mrs. George Heliker, Mrs. Waldo Proctor, Irvin Wik and Kenneth Coe.

Senior Prom
The annual senior prom was attended to capacity, Friday night. The gymnasium was attractively decorated in keeping with the spring season. Many new gowns complimented the occasion, worn by ladies of the community as well as out-of-town guests. Refreshments were served at midnight and dancing continued until 1 a. m.

Twin Beachers Meet
A meeting of residents of the Twin Beach subdivisions on Upper, Middle and Lower Stags Lakes, was held Sunday afternoon to discuss possibilities of incorporation of the area. The section is now held and maintained by a trust company of Detroit, which plans to release it within two years. Incorporation is being considered as a means of maintenance following that time. Those present at the meeting indicated a favorable interest in the plan, and a petition will be circulated in the near future, calling for a vote of the property owners.

Two gentlemen who contributed much to saving America last week in the House of Representatives are Rep. Pettigill of Indiana and Rep. O'Connor of New York. They certainly are aware of the dangers in this new bill about to be submitted.

But because eternal vigilance is the price of liberty, the following open letter should be written to them: It contains arguments as cogently logical and sane as those they advanced last week in Congress.

"Representative Samuel B. Pettigill and John O'Connor
"House Office Building
"Washington, D. C.

"President Roosevelt says the bill he is about to ask for, giving him a billion and a half dollars to make non-interest bearing loans to municipalities and states, is not going to give him dictatorial powers. Everybody knows this is false. Passage of this bill would make the President a DICTATOR. It will bring FASCISM. It will bring COMMUNISM. It will bring ANARCHY. It will bring a continuation of COLORED WINTER WEATHER. It will wreck the Constitution.

With the money, the President could dictate to municipalities and states. He could tell them what buildings to build. Some of these buildings might be schools. Obviously, then, the President could control education. He could abolish parochial schools.

"The President could dictate who shall be appointed to office. He could force the governor and Mayor Nichols of Northville, to appoint pro-Roosevelt, pro-dictator men to office. He could say to Mayor Nichols: 'You must build sidewalks where I tell you to; you must not build them in front of the homes of Republicans or persons who opposed the Government Reorganization or Court Enlargement bills.'

"The President could loan money to one of his puppet TVA communities in Alabama. He could order the people in that community to use the money to build him a rickety. Then he could take all the money in the United States Treasury and fly to the moon. Then we would be rid of him (it might be worth it). But before he flew to the moon, he would have wrecked America. He would have brought ANARCHY. He would have destroyed the CONSTITUTION. He would have made us free, liberty-loving Americans into SLAVES.

"Vote against this bill and save America."

"Yours for a Pure and Free America,
"Gustavus Adolphus Zilch
"P. S. If any other bill is introduced before the bill to authorize non-interest loans to municipalities and states, use these arguments against it, too."

"G. A. Z."

Yes, thank God, America is saved. And inefficiency will rule under the guise of liberty until a Government Reorganization bill is passed — as it almost inevitably will be someday, perhaps under a Republican administration.

The Farmers' Corner

County Agent

July Pastures Limit Livestock

Amounts of pasture available in July and August is the limiting factor in proper handling and development of livestock on many Michigan farms. The hot-dry months usually cut available low cost feed.

For sheep, especially, farmers in Michigan are advised, by G. A. Brown, head of the animal husbandry department at Michigan State college, to plan now for summer pasture.

Profits from the land crop can be made or lost in midsummer. In Wayne county, it is pointed out by E. I. Bessemer, county agricultural agent, the dried up June grass sod fails to provide food. Lambs lose their baby flesh and finish.

An alfalfa or clover meadow is the natural solution. But where there is none, or not sufficient for the entire flock, then some supplementary pasture can be planned for an abundance of green food.

Rape is suggested as probably the best single crop to sow for this purpose. It can be sown by drilling rows 28 inches apart at the rate of two to three pounds to an acre, sown any time after May 1. Sudan grass is another crop, sown about June 1, to make considerable summer pasture. Sheep sometimes find it difficult to stay even with sudan grass growth so that the feed doesn't become too coarse.

"FOOT HAPPINESS" TO APPEAR IN PLYMOUTH

"Foot Happiness" is one of Dr. Scholl's fleet of trailers bringing relief from foot and shoe troubles to thousands of people.

Do you recall the recent visit of this traveling unit to Plymouth? An interesting foot relief and shoe demonstration was conducted at the Willoughby Bros. Shoe Store, Plymouth. That the method of bringing foot happiness to this city was popular is evidenced by the fact that the many persons in this community who have foot troubles and shoe problems and who did not get the opportunity of attending the last demonstration have asked the return of this caravan of foot happiness to the Willoughby Shoe Store. Therefore, a complete foot relief demonstration will be conducted at this store by Dr. Scholl's factory experts direct from Chicago, on Wednesday, April 20. Dr. Scholl's Scientific Shoes will be on display and fitted by X-ray and other scientific devices. These shoes are designed by the world famous foot authority, Dr. Wm. M. Scholl, to keep normal feet healthy and to provide ease for tired, aching feet. There will be included in the relief of foot troubles—all of the Dr. Scholl's Foot Comfort Appliances and Remedies. This undoubtedly will afford everybody the opportunity of obtaining relief from foot troubles and to be fitted with the type of shoe best suited for the individual's foot. Many people have an unusually long, thin foot, others have a high arch, bunion or a flat-foot. These feet present difficulties with ordinary shoe fitting methods. Patrons with foot trouble will welcome Dr. Scholl's caravan of foot happiness.

"Only a baby's grave. A foot or two at the most. Of tear-dewed sod; But a loving God. Knows what that little grave cost. Only a baby's life. Brief as a perfumed kiss. So fleet it goes. But our Father knows We are nearer to him for this." Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bolton. Mr. and Mrs. Donat Bedore. 41-42c
