Bellefonte Home Is Scene of Dickinson-Barker Rites

Miss Ruth Gladys Barker, daughter of Mrs. Ima Barker, of Bellefonte, and Wendell R. Dickinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Dickinson, of Northville, spoke their marriage vows Friday evening, Oct. 7, at the bride's home, with the Rev. William Richards, of the Bellefonte Methodist church, performing the ring ceremony.

The home was decorated for the occasion with fall flowers and leaves. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Daniel Ross sang two solos, accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth Post. Mrs. Post played the wedding march and the bride and groom were led by Wendell Dickinson, best man, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Merle Barker. She wore a "door-length gown of white satin with a long veil. With this she carried white mums and white snapdragons, tied with long streamers and a white satin bow.

Miss Edith Barker, sister of the bride attended her sister. She wore a pale blue gown and carried yellow roses and pink snapdragons. Glen Richard Barker, nephew of the bride, was a ring bearer.

Approximately 100 guests were present on the ceremony and a buffet luncheon was served after the rites.

The couple left for a short wedding trip to Sandusky, O. They are making their home on Napier road.

C. A. R. Holds Opening Luncheon Saturday at Yerkes Home.

The opening fall meeting and luncheon of the American Revolution, Plymouth County chapter, was held Saturday, Oct. 8, at the home of Mrs. D. P. Yerkes.

The program was in charge of Jane Holden, junior vice-president. Following a questionnaire on Alaska Betty Masnick gave a talk on the B. C. and Alaska illustrated by moving pictures which she took on the trip.

Among the adults present at the meeting were Mrs. R. K. Leary, was successful Mrs. Charles W. Horne Jr. as senior president; Mrs. Freese B. Stevens of Detroit, honorary member of the group; Mrs. Sid D. Street of Plymouth, regent of the group; Mrs. Ann Cochrane, chapter of the group; Mrs. Charles W. Horne of Detroit, state recording secretary for C. A. R. and Mrs. John L. Lathrop, state chairman for the C. A. R. R.

Richmond-Gerswald, Northville, pledged to the group.

Garden Club Meets Monday at Stephens Home

The Northville Branch of the Michigan Farm and Garden club met Monday, Oct. 10, at the home of Mrs. S. K. Stephens on Orchard Drive.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. W. B. Walker, Jr. There were 26 members present and three guests. A letter was read from Mrs. F. VanVelsburg, regretting the necessity of her resigning from the post of secretary because of illness in her family. Mrs. Hodge graciously consented to act as secretary for the rest of the year.

Mrs. Joseph Denton and Mrs. M. I. Hogsadt had charge of the program. These two members had a display of gourds, also some interesting articles from South America. Mrs. Denton gave a talk on Gourds.

Miss Florence Johnson sang two songs, "Trees" and "Smile Through." Mrs. R. M. Archison accompanied Miss Johnson. These two young ladies were given a hearty vote of thanks for their pleasant contribution to the program.

Cassie gave an interesting reading entitled, "Putting the Garden to Sleep." The high spot of the afternoon was a spellbound which caused a lot of fun. The best spell was one of the guests, Mrs. Roberts of Novi road. Mrs. Denton and Mrs. Hogsadt were complimented on the program.

The hostess, assisted by her sister, Miss Givern served doughnuts and cider which were greatly appreciated. Some for the November meeting.

Dinner Party Marks Eleventh Anniversary for David Willis.

The elegant birthday anniversary of David Willis, second son of Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Willis was the occasion Saturday for a party.

Bingo and other games were played during the afternoon. Dinner was served to the guests with Halloween appointments giving added festivity to the event. A theatre party changed no day for the guests, including Florence McCuskie, Dana Wasson, Ann Davis, Betty Snow, Mary Ellen Babbitt, Robert Isaac, Robert McKenney, Blake Isaac, Charles Stanford and Leonard Snow.

Women's Club Plans Evening for School Faculty.

Under the leadership of the Northville Women's Club, the Northville Women's Club will hold a social evening for the school faculty.

PHEASANT SEASON OPENING CALLS VILLAGE SPORTSMEN

Continued from page 1. The Michigan Game Law Digest cites a number of regulations which game wardens are going to enforce rigidly this year. Emphasis has been placed on the age limit. The law states "All persons must obtain from the Department of Conservation, a license to hunt or trap any birds or animals found in this State except on enclosed land on which they are regularly domiciled. Minors under 17 years of age must obtain a license to hunt on application and oath of their parents or legal guardian, or must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian, or someone authorized by them while hunting on land on which their parents are not regularly domiciled."

Other regulations in the game law specifications include: "A bounty of $15 each is paid on male wolves and coyotes and $20 each on female wolves and coyotes under rules and regulations made by the Conservation Commission. A contract obtainable at District Conservation Headquarters is necessary in order to obtain bounty."

It is unlawful to use dogs in hunting deer and bear. Dogs may be trained on game birds, rabbits and such other animals as may be lawfully hunted with dogs from the sixteenth day next preceding opening of the season for hunting such game birds or animals to the fifteenth day of March next following. "Dogs running deer may be killed by any officer, but not by others without criminal or civil liability."

"Resident citizens and their children hunting or trapping on their own enclosed farm lands upon which they are regularly domiciled, are not required to have a license, except to hunt deer, bear and beaver."

"Sunday hunting is prohibited in all of the following counties: Branch, Hillsdale, Huron, Lenawee, Livingston, Monroe and Sanilac. It is also prohibited on Sunday on the lands or premises of another without consent of owner or lessee in the following counties: Macomb, Oakland, St. Clair, and the part of Wayne county described as townships of Greenfield, Redford, Plymouth, Gratiot, Hamtramck, Grosse Pointe, Northville and Livonia."

Seven Villagers Begin Season's Fun in Florida

With skies swept clean of year clouds hopes for another record-breaking winter season at St. Petersburg, Fla., reached into a new high as travel to the Sunshine City from New England and the Middle West is away to an early start and as reservations exceed those for any previous year.

Northville's colony of winter visitors is already represented by seven arrivals who have registered at the City Information Bureau.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Brazer and daughters, Natalie and Jacqueline east Main street, moved from Northville for their first winter and have taken a bungalow at 425 Joyce Terrace North, until late spring.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hayball and Hazel Hayball have returned for their fourth winter and have reopened their home at 3110 21st street, North.

Every known outdoor sport has been provided for the use of seasonal guests including golf, tennis, lawn bowling, shuffleboard, horseback riding, archery, bicycling, canoeing, bathing, trapshooting and roque.

Dinner dances and costume balls, the social calendar as plans go ahead for a season filled with gaiety and activity.

Two major league baseball clubs will again return to St. Petersburg for spring training when the "World champion New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals" establish regular headquarters.

Firs of the season's social events will take place Oct. 31 with a Halloween costume ball at the Yacht Club for winter guests.

WERE thinking of the army of men ready to blast away tomorrow at a few feathered pheasants. (If we can, we'll be out there with them.)

The crazy part is getting worked up for a few bites of a bird that died of lead poisoning, when our U. S. Choice Branded Beef Steaks can be had without fuss or feathers. And you can get a covey of them for the price of one box of shells. To say nothing of the supreme juicy goodness, tantalizing flavor.

Following this, Mrs. W. F. Bostock of Redford, brought a message to the group. Open house was held by the teachers of the primary department which has been made attractive with new pictures and drapes.

William Kreeger Receives Hand Wound; Columnist Asks Northville High School Set to Forget and Forgive Ruckus

By C. E. HUTTON

WALLED LAKE—William Kreeger, 48 of route 2, Wall Lake, received a minor wound Sunday when he was accidentally shot in the hand, with a revolver by G. M. Clark. He was treated locally.

Word was received here Monday of the death of Roy Seely, of Sarsac, who was 18 years old, died Sunday of appendicitis at the home of his stepfather, Titus Winslow, who survives him. He was the son of the former Mrs. Lulu Seely of Wall Lake who preceded him in death several years ago. Funeral services for Roy were held Wednesday with burial in North Farmington cemetery.

Mrs. Marie Florence Berle, 49 years old of Welch road, died Thursday at her home following a heart attack. She had been a resident of this vicinity for eight years, coming here from Detroit. She was born at Huron City April 17, 1889, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Boughner. She is survived by her husband, John A. Berle, and two sisters, Mrs. Charlotte Green of Flint, and Mrs. Annabelle Carpenter of Grimsco, O. Funeral services were held Monday with burial at Owosso.

Honora Mesnard of Wall Lake, will go to Chicago, Oct. 22 to enter in prize winning springer spaniel in the Central States field trials. The same entry took prize prizes last week at Ravenna, O. In competition with 30 entries. Mr. Mesnard expects to enter the Farmington trials of the Springer club of Michigan, some time in November.

And now a very merry ride in the land of the Northville high readers who by now expect only the worst to be said in this column. It would seem that I tossed the gauntlet in their midst, an issue or so ago following their invasion of Wall Lake's improvised gridiron. And it would likewise seem that they swooped it up and felt with a common desire to move me down, as I've seen. My humbleness is abashed. Doubtless so now in that my audit for the last year has failed to show any further purpose since that day of air defeat. Following the defeat, I have been in the hands of Kego Harbor. And it would likewise seem that they swooped it up and felt with a common desire to move me down, as I've seen. My humbleness is abashed. Doubtless so now in that my audit for the last year has failed to show any further purpose since that day of air defeat. Following the defeat, I have been in the hands of Kego Harbor. I am now in the hands of the Northville high readers who by now expect only the worst to be said in this column. It would seem that I tossed the gauntlet in their midst, an issue or so ago following their invasion of Wall Lake's improvised gridiron. Christian Science Churches
"Doctrines of Atonement" will be the subject of the lesson sermon in all Christian Science churches in the world on Sunday, Oct. 16.
The Golden Text (I Thess. 5:9-10) is: "God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, that whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him."
Among the Bible citations is this passage (I Peter 3:12-13): "Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you. But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy."
Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (p. 21): "Truth is overcoming error in your daily walk and conversation; you can finally say, 'I have fought a good fight, I have kept the faith, because you are a better man than I.' This is having our part in the atonement with Truth and Love."

7:30 p. m.—Union Service.
The emphasis this year in all our Methodist churches is upon increasing attendance in the Sunday Church School, known as "The Church School Advance." The big increase in attendance over last year in our town school is encouraging. Let us make our slogan for Northville, "Every Boy and Girl in Some Sunday School."

Sunday morning will be "Harvest Home" in our church. Everyone is requested to bring canned fruit, apples or vegetables to the church Saturday afternoon or early Sunday morning. An appropriate sermon will be preached and special music will be given by the chorus choir. Under the direction of Leslie G. Lee. The fruit and vegetables will be divided among the Children's Village Old Peoples Home Bronson hospital and Albion College.

The senior Epworth League will meet at 6:30 p. m. Sunday. The union society will meet with Dorcas Steninger, 404 West Dunlap street with Mrs. Russell H. Steninger as sponsor.

By MRS. L. M. COATES

Mr. and Mrs. John Green, have moved to the farm of an uncle who is ill at his home near Commerce.

The U. C. T. U. met last Wednesday with Mrs. Frank Rice. A memorial service was held for Mrs. Frances Sandison. This was followed by splendid talks by the seventeen district president, Mrs. Elizabeth Erwin, and Mrs. Wood superintendent of temperance education. Both were from Detroit.

Mrs. L. E. Coates has been visiting friends in Detroit for a few days and at the same time celebrating her birthday and that of a niece.

MELVINDALE DOWNS NORTHVILLE 32 TO 0

Northville was defeated in its first league game of the season by Melvindale by the overwhelming score of 32-0 on the home field last Friday.

Northville received the kickoff and ran three plays, then punted to Melvindale's 45-yard line. On a series of line smashes and off tackle slants, and a delayed pass, they carried the ball to Northville's 7-yard line. They pulled Stritz, the end, out of the line and on his second attempt he smashed over for a touchdown. The try for the point was blocked by Capt. Myers. There was no more scoring in the first quarter.

As the second quarter started, N. H. S. received the kickoff. With Junod and Larkin leading the ball they were twenty yards short of a first down. Larkin made an excellent punt to Melvindale's 45-yard line. Semper took the ball and the way to midfield. Then they completed a pass and found themselves on the 2-yard stripe. Then again Stritz came out of the line and again went over for a score. The try for the point was wide. Northville received the ball again and opened with a passing attack which might have been successful if the fellows could have hung onto the ball. After throwing two incomplete passes, Larkin had to punt out of danger. There was less than a minute to go. Once again Northville received one of Junod's passes which was intercepted. Melvindale by sheer strength lugged the ball to Northville's 25-yard line on the next play. A Andrew of Melvindale on an off tackle play ran through the whole Northville team for the third score of the game. The gun sounded, ending the half with the score 18-0 in Melvindale's favor.

In the second half the Northville team was swept off their feet by the charging 11 of Melvindale. Both teams ran a few plays, then a lateral to Andrews brought Melvindale six more points. The try for the point was successful, making the score 28-0.

Larkin came in again for Sid Junod and Bogart left the game because of leg injuries. Lester came in to take his place.

In the last quarter another touchdown with the point successful left the score 32-0 in favor of Melvindale. Northville went through a few plays and Myers intercepted a pass and made a long run. Coach Smith then sent in several subs. Houghton went in for Fritz; Willis for Defino, and Ambler for Dugard. The whistle blew with the final score 32-0 in Melvindale's favor.

Joe Defino and Jim Beal, two of Northville's linemen, were the outstanding players on both teams. Beal piled up play after play and Defino got more than his share of the tackles.

The line-up follows:

Junior High News

The classes of the junior high school have elected officers for the coming year.

The eighth grade has chosen for its president Joan McCollough, with her twin sister, Jean McCollough, vice-president. No one can tell them apart so one can take the other's place without anyone being the wiser.

Robert Streng was chosen to lead the seventh graders through the coming year. As for vice-president, Anna Flaherty has that job. To keep the class records in order Douglas Slesor takes his place as secretary-treasurer.

The Junior High Student Council under the guidance of Mrs. Ida B. Cooke, faculty advisor and Frank Hunter major, is beginning its activities. Season tickets for football are being sold. Other plans are being discussed and soon will be announced.

Editor's Note

Well, another week is here and you've all been so good that there's nothing to Jack you up for, there's no game this Friday and I can't give a pep talk, there isn't any dance and I'm completely up a tree. Would you mind starting something so that the poor old editor won't be grey from worrying before Christmas?

Our football team can say many a thing about support after seeing the huge crowd that turned out last Friday to witness the Melvindale game. Be sure to back up the team again next Wednesday when they meet Berkeley on the latter's gridiron. The Student Council's estimate of the receipts for Friday's game is approximately $40. Mayor

NEW MARKING SYSTEM TO BE INAUGURATED

It has been announced by the school officials that a new plan for marking the report cards is being inaugurated this year in the junior and senior high schools.

The old system for marking report cards has been changed. In former years, the grading has been as follows: A—90 to 100 per cent; B—80 to 90 per cent; C—70 to 80 per cent; D—60 to 70 per cent; E—below 60 per cent. This year they will be: A—Excellent; B—Good; C—Fair; D—Poor; E—Failed.

The new system also provides for marking in citizenship. Each person is marked either one for excellent, two for satisfactory, or three for unsatisfactory.

The grade in citizenship is based on five things. The first is promptness, that is, promptness in getting work in on time, and promptness in arriving at school and classes at the time scheduled. The second is attitude, meaning the attitude a student takes toward his work, his teachers, and his fellow students. Third, co-operation, which means working to accomplish school work and extra curricular activities which further both his interest and the good name of the school. Besides these neatness and courtesy are other characteristics required for a high mark in citizenship.

The first marking period is six weeks long and the next two are seven weeks each. The report cards come out three times during the first semester Oct. 28, Dec. 16, and Feb. 3.

Seen at the Game

Frances Alexander and Gwen Jones, home from Ypsi for the week end and looking very well-got-up in their new clothes.

Rex Dye, Ray Parmenter, George Houghton, Ken Willis and Dick Ambler rolled up in N. H. S. orange and black blankets malling one another.

Miss Kate Giltner seeming worried at the behavior of the mustard on her hot dog.

Louis Eaton and Harold Martens getting a withering look from L. C. Lee as they struck up a duet playing, "A Tisket A Tasket."

Cecil Gules back again at the big base drum and telling everyone his business brought him home from Mississippi.

Jube M. looking longingly at the hot dogs and saying "They should have tuna fish sandwiches at this game, too."

Helen Kurmel minus a tooth but still leading cheers and yelling her lungs out.

Virginia Washburne and Al Vradenburg together and wholly unconcerned about everyone but themselves.

Plymouth scouts getting the dope for the game Nov. 7.

All of Northville's former football players punting the ball between halves.

Mary Potter dodging the candid camera maniacs.

Helen Winter claiming Kenny (Small Fry) Martens as her great hero in the last quarter of the game.

N. H. S. CLUBS SEE ACTIVITIES BEGIN

Now that all are settled down to normal living and the novelty of starting school for another year has worn off, news of various clubs which have been organized recently or have been resumed from previous years is brought to the attention of the students.

Because some of the girls in the high school choir asked Mr. Lee about having a glee club, one has been organized and meets three days each week before school from 8:15 to 8:45 a. m.

The club is made up of members of the high school choir but any girl who has a good voice is invited to try out. The following people came out: Helen Winters, Ernestine Lewis, Yvonne Taylor, Betty Yerkes, Betty Carlson, Joyce McNeil, Evelyn Wenker, Marian Heatley, Valora Wheeler, Thelma Grover, Maxine Perkins, Blanche Miller, Virginia Ault, Clara Christensen, Mary Ellen Burgess, Peggy McCollough, Wafuta Miller, Betty Cousins, Norina Gotro, Jane Behen, Louise Aleds and look admiringly at his charming visage. We don't think that he (Dick) needs to worry much about feminine admiration. If you don't believe it, just ask A. J. Boelens who Dick took to the Sweet Shop in Plymouth after the dance, Friday night.

Julian Thiene's new mustache is like a partial eclipse of the sun. You have to wear smoked glasses to see it.

Since Friday night, Bob Orr has made up his mind that he can't make up his mind.

Bill Schoultz who has just returned from Hollywood, says that times are so "tough" out there that some of the actresses will have to make their husbands last another season.

Pat Klein felt like the Declaration of Independence last Thursday when she turned her back on everyone for signs.

Jean M. wonders that since nothing can be done about Kate's talking in her sleep, if something can't be done to make her talk a little more distinctly.

George Houghton's girl from Plymouth was at the dance Friday night.

Jim Beal was more outstanding than any player on Melvindale's team, Friday.

Barbara Simmons, Elvira Trofast and Jean Orr want give out the secrets of their beautiful complexions.

Mr. Hoot and Toot were the names given by some junior fellows who didn't want their identity known in giving to the junior home room tulip fund which is being raised to beautify the high school lawn.

HALL DUTY CHANGES MADE BY COUNCIL

A meeting was held by the Student Council during the fourth hour Wednesday in G. V. Harrison's office to arrange a new system for hall duty.

At this meeting it was decided to have two students on hall duty each period. One will be at each end of the hall instead of having only one stationed at the middle of the hall. The following were chosen: first hour, John Gibson and Bruce Arnold, second hour, Alfred Cousins and Marilyn Cavell, third hour, Wilfred Wilson and Dick Ambler, fourth hour, Marie Angove and Kendall Willis, fifth hour, Bill Washburne and Don Greener, and sixth hour, Edward Erwin and Arlene Blake.

Grade Notes

Outstanding work in projects was being accomplished in the several rooms of the grade building visited by our reporter this week.

Mrs. Sterling Eaton's kindergarten children are learning to be fine little housecleaners. They have nearly completed redecorating their playhouse. Their furniture was painted white and is being carefully repolished.

Mrs. William Chizmar's first grade pupils have become nature enthusiasts. They bring themselves in a collection of natural specimens—one cocoon, one green worm, a few woolly ones, snails, and one turtle. They are also about to make a library and will visit the Wayne County Branch to get a few ideas on how to begin their library. For their parents they are composing books on work they have been doing throughout the school year.

Mrs. O. F. Reng's second grade has taken to the air. They are engaged in an interesting airplane project. The school room walls are lined with pictures made by the children of airplanes, zeppelins, and flying fields. The girls have made realistic cloth zeppelins, while the boys have constructed wooden airplanes of various sizes and shapes. They have read airplane stories, learned poems and songs, dramatized a story, made books filled with magazine, airplane pictures, made a large poster showing a flying field, and made tiny clay airplanes. The class is looking forward to an exciting jaunt to the City Airport. Dr. Brief, who is a pilot, took them to the country and gave demonstrations in flying. Mrs. Reng's grade wrote letters of thanks to Philip Baldwin who gave a talk on his work in making model planes last week.

Mrs. James A. Huff Jr. has a fine citizenship class functioning in play, one of which might be presented this semester.

At a special meeting the club made plans to see "You Can't Take It With You" a Pulitzer Prize play and Helen Harper was chosen to, at the Cass theatre when it comes to make several selections of suitable Detroit in the near future.

Those who came out were: Charles Altman, Louise Alexander, Marie Angove, Dick Ambler, Jeanne Atchison, Helen Harper, Dorothy Heaton, Rose Bruinaway, Jack McCrumb, Julian Thiene, Janet Stewart, Jane VanAtta and Cornelia Supes.

At the first meeting, plans for the coming semester were discussed. "It With You" a Pulitzer Prize play and Helen Harper was chosen to, at the Cass theatre when it comes to make several selections of suitable Detroit in the near future.

THE EQUIVALENT OF PAIN

THE BODY has two methods of handling undesirable conditions. The one we are all acquainted with is the feeling of pain—a warning that something is decidedly wrong.

When a tooth aches, we know that a nerve has been exposed and that there is probably a cavity in the tooth. What we little realize is that nature has another method of dealing with undesirable conditions—a psychological one.

After toothache has developed, if you will note carefully, you will discover there is a shifting of the eating load away from that portion of the jaw. The subconscious mind must take this action, for we are unaware of the shift. If you have a blister on your heel or a shoe that hurts, you will discover the same compensation at work, so that you "favor" that spot. Right?

In the seeing act—when difficulties develop—as a rule, there is no pain. Conjunctions may accompany dysfunction, but not always. Nature shifts the burden—she "favors" the difficult task or trouble of easing you away from the use of the function as much as she can. People troubled with "shortness of breath" which is not a painful matter usually, will rarely be found walking, especially up-stairs. But they will scarcely realize that they have avoided the task.

In the same way, people with difficulties of visual fixation, of converging the two eyes toward an object of regard, will (without realizing it) do practically no reading and as little close work as possible. This accounts for the child, who is all for games and sports and who hates books. It accounts for those who no longer read anything but the headlines in newspapers, and for the popularity of the picture type of magazine.

The equivalent of pain is a shift away from a difficult task, almost without the knowledge of the individual. In most cases this is bad business for the individual. Favoring a sore joint in the foot is all right as a temporary expedient. But it would be a serious handicap to make a settled habit of favoring a visual system by giving up reading, may be for a short time, but it is bad news for the individual for it cuts him off from valuable sources of information and deprives him of much pleasure. Let us heed these equivalents of pain, realizing that something can be done to make these concessions, and compromises unnecessary.
