Rev. Rufus M. Traver, D. D., Minister
10 a. m.—Church School. Come to help inspire others to join one of our classes, if you are not attending another Church School.

11 a. m.—Worship service. A special program has been planned.
7:30 p. m.—Union service in the Methodist church.
Christian Science Churches
"God the Preserver of Man" will be the subject of the lesson sermon

in all Christian Science churches
throughout the world on Sunday,
Dec. 11.
The Golden Text (Psalm 40:11) is:
"Withhold not thou thy tender mercies
from me, O Lord: let thy loving-kindness and thy truth continually preserve me."
Among the Bible citations in this passage (Luke 12:29-30): "And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind. For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (page 254): "When we wait patiently on God and seek Truth righteously, He directs our path."

First Presbyterian Church

the entering of the newly-decorated church auditorium.
7 p. m.—Senior C. E. Topic:
"Peace and War." This meeting will be held in the manse.
7:30 p. m.—Union service in the Methodist church. The men of our church are cordially invited to attend.

The C. E. Society will meet at 7 p. m. Thursday in the manse.
The topic will be: "Why Have a Conscience about Liquor?"
The pastors-training class will meet at 8:45 p. m. Friday at the manse.
The annual Christmas festival will be held Friday evening, Dec. 22.
There will be a fine program of recitations and carols with gifts of candy distributed by Santa Claus in person.

The Christmas worship service will be held at 11 a. m. Sunday, Christmas Day, with special music and offerings for the relief of the suffering millions in China.

6:30 p. m.—Epworth League.
7:30 p. m.—Union service
A new high was reached Sunday in Church School attendance. This is partly due to more regular attendance, which comes about because this church has the most complete staff of capable officers, and teachers that it has had in many years.

With only one or two hours a week provided for cultivation of spiritual growth, the importance of regularity of attendance at church and Church School should be obvious to all.

The general Christmas program
will be given Friday evening, Dec.
23 in the church house.

"Christ and The Book" will be the theme of the sermon Sunday in observance of Universal Bible Sunday which is Dec. 11. There will be special music by the choir.

A study of the Christmas hymns
will be given at the Epworth League meeting.

The union service Sunday evening
will be in this church with the Rev.
Dr. W. E. Harrison bringing the message. A special invitation is extended to the men of the community.

Our Lady of Victory Church
Father Lucian A. Hebert, Administrator
Time of Mass on Sunday:
8:30 a. m.—Low Mass
11 a. m.—High Mass

During the week, mass at 7 o'clock.

Religious instruction for all the children of the parish follows the 9 o'clock mass each Saturday. High school students are included in this arrangement.

Confessions for the children will be heard Saturday at 11 o'clock.

Sunday is Holy Communion, Sunday for the Holy Name society.

Confessions for all adults will be heard Saturday evening from 7:30 to 9 o'clock.

Advent and Christmas

Advent in the Christian liturgy is that period of four weeks, prior to Christmas, during which we recall the four thousand years which elapsed from the fall of Adam and the birth of Christ in Bethlehem.

Advent recalls to memory the long duration which God prepared the world for its Saviour. Christmas is the feast day on which we celebrate the Birth of Christ (The world's Saviour). The incarnation (God becoming man) is the fundamental reason for our Christmas joy.

The tremendous mystery of incarnation
was hidden in the mind of God for all eternity. The Divine Light, too dazzling to be manifested in all its splendor to our feeble sight, would one day be veiled beneath the sacred humanity of Christ, that through this humanity, men might contemplate the Divinity.

Each of Christ's mysteries, the incarnation (which we celebrate on Christmas) included, is not only a historical fact, which has taken place in time, but moreover, contains a special grace for the nourishment of our souls. Now the special grace of the incarnation is that we become partakers of that Divinity, to which our humanity was united in the person of Christ. It is like an exchange. God in becoming man takes our human nature and gives us in return a participation in his Divine nature. And if we wish the true joy and grace of Christmas, it can be had only by a worthy Holy Communion and a continual effort to participate in the eternal life which Christ wills to communicate to us through His Sacred Humanity. The real "Christmas Spirit" is the Spirit of Christ and the virtues of Christ shown in our daily actions.

Salem Federated Church
10:30 a. m.—Worship "The Song of Zacharias" will be the theme of the second sermon in a series of Christmas messages.

The annual business meeting of the church is called for 2 p. m.
Tuesday, Dec. 13. All members and contributors are urged to be present.

The afternoon of Dec. 18 is the time set for the service in memory of "Aunt Sarah" Starbuck and to mark the close of the eighteenth year since the Lapham Methodist and Salem Baptist churches united for more effective service.

church. The younger children are also asked to come to the practice.
Prayer meeting is at 7:45 p. m.
Thursday in the church. All are cordially invited.

The annual business meeting of the church will be held at 8 p. m.
Tuesday, Dec. 13. The reports of the Sunday School, the Ladies Auxiliary Society and the church will be read. There will be church business and election of officers.

The church and Sunday School will give their Christmas program,
have a tree and candy at 8 p. m.
Christmas eve, Dec. 24. All our friends and the community are cordially invited.

be given by the Sunday School Sunday afternoon, Dec. 18.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Joseph (Pearl M.) Ashley
Mrs. Joseph Ashley, 46 years of age, died Friday morning, Dec. 2, at her home, culminating an illness of five years' duration.

Last rites were held at 2 p. m.
Sunday, Dec. 4, from the Castler-
line Funeral home, with the Rev.
Harry J. Lord, conducting the service. Burial was made in Rural Hill cemetery.

Born Pearl Mary Raymond, the daughter of Adam and Laura Raymond, May 28, 1892, in Columbus, O.
She spent her early childhood years in the place of her birth, moving at the age of 11 with her parents to Elioeta.

She was united in marriage to Joseph N. Ashley Nov. 12, 1923, and after a year's residence in Toledo, O., they took up residence in Northville.

She is survived by her father; two sisters, Mrs. Norman Wether of Frankfort and Mrs. Wm. Shaver of Boone City; and a brother, Elmer Raymond of Columbus. She leaves two nephews and her husband, Joseph.

Novi News
By MRS. L. M. COATES

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ver Duyn returned Saturday from a 10-day visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Grant and family in Milwaukee, Wis.

There will be a family worst supper served at 6:30 Friday, Dec. 9, in the Baptist church. No charge will be made for the supper but an offering will be taken.

Several women of the Mission band motored to Royal Oak for the regular meeting Thursday with Mr.
Fred Mockridge.

Some of the members of the Baptist church met last Thursday to clean the church. There is still more to be done.

Mrs. O. J. Lyon spent Thursday with a group of women in Clarence ville for a weekly meeting. This group has met every week for about four years.

A very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed at the Donaldson-Lyon home
when the Farmington and Novi W.
C. T. U. held its monthly meeting.
A fine program was given after which refreshments were served.

There will be a family night, Friday, Dec. 9 in the Baptist church.
A potluck dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock. A free will offering will be taken. Everyone is cordially invited.

The Mission Band will meet Dec.
17, at the home of Mrs. Fred Mock-ridge in Royal Oak. The women will meet at the church not later than 11:45 a. m. This is the annual passing party.

MYSTERY FILM
TOPS PROGRAM

"Time Out for Murder" Romance in reverse seems to characterize the screen adventures of Gloria Stuart and Michael Whal-an, who are teamed for the sixth time in "Time Out for Murder." 20th Century-Fox mystery thriller opening Wednesday Dec. 14, at the Penniman-Allen theatre.

In their newest picture "Time
Out for Murder" Gloria and Michael are strangers to each other right back where they started! They meet in rather unfavorable circumstances when Gloria is an employee of a collection agency duns
Michael, a cash-less newspaper reporter, for a $15 bill.

Before Gloria can collect her bill,
she helps Michael and his sidekick, Chuck Chandler, news photographer, solve a baffling mystery
in which New York's telephone time signal provides the only clue!

"Straight, Place and Show" Damon has those Ritzes on the Runyon! In other, and more sober, words, this means that the daffy
Ritz Brothers are starred in Damon Runyon's "Straight, Place and Show" which opens Friday and Saturday

Dec. 16 and 17, at the Penniman-Allen theatre.

The film shows the Ritzes off (as usual) to the faces, where they buy horses, sell horses, rent horses, steal horses — in fact they're a little hearse themselves before the story reaches its 149th, and final, climax of laughter.

Based on a play by Damon Runyon and Irving Caesar, the comic story is scored by a romantic triangle between Richard Arlen, Ethel Merriam and Phyllis Brooks.

The Ritzes play a tip-o-down and-out pony track operators thrust into big-time racing when Richard Arlen bestows a thoroughbred on them. In characteristic fashion they build the story up to a series of hilarious high spots topped by their having to ride the competing horses
in a race so that their own entry can win.

David Butler directed the film
under the supervision of Harry F.
Zanuck. It is the latest of the Movie Quiz $250,000 contest pictures.

MISFORTUNE STRIKES TWICE

Dearborn — The family of Mrs.
J. D. Hayes had a little more than its share of misfortune recently.
Fire did considerable damage to the home in the morning, and Mrs.
Hayes' 12-year-old son was seriously injured in an auto accident late the same afternoon.

We Go Along All the Way

With the Family Who Wants a New Home

It's a fact — we do everything that can be done to put a family into the kind of a home they have often dreamed about. A home that gives every comfort, has every convenience, and costs well within their means. We take a sincere pride in doing such a job as well as it can be done. You see, the house will be here a long time, and we'll be here a long time, too. It just has to be right.

Mrs. John Litsenberger and Ivan Gray Take Head O. E. S. Offices in Public Installation

By the Worthy Matron

The officers of Orient chapter, 77, O. E. S., were installed Friday evening, Dec. 2, in an impressive ceremony in the Masonic Temple.

A short program was given, consisting of two dances by Miss Maxine Willard, and solos by Miss Lurea Vickstrom, both accompanied by Miss Carol Campbell, all of Plymouth.

The installing officers were introduced and welcomed. They were Selma A. Brown, past grand matron; Elsie Hiltner, past grand organizer; Velma Griswold, installing marshal; Mattie Griswold, installing chaplain; Celeste Kohler, floral work.

Mrs. John (Mrs.) Litsenberger was installed worthy matron by her aunt, Miss Ruth E. Gillis, past matron of Orient chapter.

The following officers were installed by Selma Brown:

Worthy patron, Ivan Gray; associate matron, Helen Smith; associate patron, Charles Freydl; secretary, Ruth Gillis; treasurer, Eva Gray; conductress, Merrianna Hay; associate conductress, Lena Bogart; chaplain, Bertha Kerr; marshal, Lavonia Nigman; organist, Florence Ross; Ada Catherine Duguid; Ruth Viola Anderson; Esther Marie Schoof; Martha Beatrice Thompson; Ida Cooke; warden, Alice Bailey; and sentinel, Fred Greer.

Miss Estelle Griffiths spent the week end at her home in Jackson.

Woman's Club Studies Industries of the South—

A program full of unusual interest was presented at the Northville Woman's club Friday afternoon when members, who were native southerners, brought information regarding the industrial progress of the south.

Mrs. H. S. Willis, whose home was formerly in North Carolina, displayed a large map, drawn by James Harper, showing the location of industries in the south. Mrs. Willis described in particular those of her native state.

From Tennessee, Mrs. S. E. Stephens described the textile industry in that state. Mrs. D. B. Burn, who sojourns each winter in Florida, took her listeners to the land of perennial summer where the growing of grape fruit is a large industry. A visit to Tarpon Springs, the largest sponge market in the world, was also described.

Mrs. Wilbur H. Johnston added interesting experiences of her years in Arkansas. Mrs. S. A. Lovewell brought vivid descriptions of the lovely gardens of Georgia and throughout the South.

As a special presentation of current events, Mrs. Jean Given, impersonating a small boy, asked very pointed questions of her father, Mrs. Brain Truster. Represented by Mrs. C. E. Woodruff, in dialogue these two carried on conversation concerning our relation with our neighbor, South America, stressing our problem of military appointment. This skit was informing as well as amusing.

Carl Stephens, accompanied by Miss Hamill of Plymouth, was heard in two vocal numbers.

Service League Uses Christmas Theme—

A Christmas program marked the meeting Tuesday evening of the Service League of the Methodist church held in the home of Mrs. E. M. Bogart. She was assisted by Mrs. Gerald Woodworth and Miss Leona Parmelee.

The program was planned by Mrs. Harry J. Lord. Devotions a candle service was conducted by Mrs. Marshall Hurric and Mrs. W. P. Clark. Mrs. R. M. Atchison gave a brief history of the M. L. S. and a Christmas skit was presented by Mrs. Grace Angell and Miss Doris Shifon.

Mrs. W. C. Galt, president of the organization, announced that gifts for the Christmas bazaar are to be brought to the meeting Dec. 10 at the home of Mrs. Clark, 114 West Main.

Greenwood Is Scene of D. A. R. Supper—

Members of the Sarah Ann Convent chapter, D. A. R., who met Monday evening, together with guests, gathered at the home of Mrs. M. J. Green at a bill of fare of $1.00.

Leslie G. Lee, head of the music department of the Northville school, presented a musical program on this occasion, which was the annual men's buffet supper sponsored by the organization.

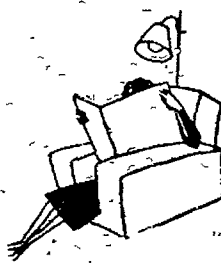

Mrs. Hill's assistant hostesses were Mrs. Potter Jewell and Mrs. Francis Lockwood of Plymouth. Mrs. Allen Backley and Mrs. John Litsenberger of the village.

Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary Meets at Ely Home—

Mrs. Claude V. Ely, 502 Gardner street, opened her home Tuesday evening, Dec. 6 to the members of the Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. B. E. Larson conducted the devotion period. A history of Christmas music was presented during the evening by Mrs. Darrell Nollar.

THE RECORD SHOPPER

by Virginia G. Anderson

We scouted through four shops this week and after sorting through our notes, find that we have some exceptional gift suggestions to pass on to shoppers who are becoming slightly worried because there are only 13 more shopping days until the big event. But with the village merchants' out-doing themselves in the matter of choosing merchandise this year, the number 13 need not bring as much as a frown to the gift-seeker.

The pride of the gift selection at the Northville Drug store is a seven-piece dresser set, (including a tray), for $75. It is gold-plated, with brown and buff trim. Other attractive sets range in price from $1.95 to $11.50. Hudnut has made something this year that women have long wanted—a compact that won't sit powder. This house has designed an exquisite gold oval case, damasked with the center with rhinestones. It costs $3, but the felt padding inside the powder compartment makes it a find at that price.

It seems that almost every household has a camera fiend. He can take his deadly shots with kodaks that range in price from $1 to $15. He can even go into the movie realm for a movie price.

Just about everyone likes to get something to wear for Christmas. At Braden's we found some expensive frocks (which don't look like the price of $1.95) that may well go up the spring and summer season. Inappropriate tricot or spectator sport costumes. A particularly attractive style in the collection was of each spun part—rust, black, and white color—made with a high neck. A narrow black patent leather belt. It gave it just a touch of needed for matrons.

A new snow suit as always, and in the life of the school boy. We found this price—$4.95 of wool for $3.95 and $4.15. Then there are cotton and wool mixtures for $3.69 and $3.19. A black suit with a deep v-neck and collar embroidered in the Plymouth market was a found a great deal of style and quality for $4.95.

Still wanting to buy gifts to wear we select a rose chemise robe with a zipper fastening the entire length of the garment ($1.98) at the four-store. To accompany this gift, a pair of black satin leisure slippers with leather heels and soles was picked out. This cost $2.45; but we saw two-shade blue and maroon ones for $2.59. Then there are some soft sole slippers made of velvet that promised the best of comfort for only 89 cents. For warmth we suggest a pair of the sheep-wool lined ones that come up around the ankles. They cost $1.69.

The same store has ski boots in 10 sizes. And the prices are $3.29 and $3.39. One style has a cuff of rabbit-colored wool to make it attractive, another has a cuff of fur and the third has a buckle strap. All are made of elk.

And now were going in for some of the sparkle and glitter that characterize costume jewelry this season. Sequin flowers can be bought at Freydl's for 50 cents. Then there are pins, clips and necklaces for $1. Evening bags, ones that would compliment any dance frock, are only $1 and $1.50. A turquoise satin night gown is the darling of this shop's lingerie counter. Its only trim is a round collar of the self material and two white pearl buttons which accented the high waist. The price is $1.95.

Freydl's can boast the largest handkerchief assortment in the village this year. It includes dainty hand-drawn linen ones, all in white, as well as the colored linen prints. They range from 25 to 50 cents. Then there are good-looking ones of lawn that are even less.

With one of the smart bath sets (towel and wash cloth) which cost from 59 cents to $1.25, we decided to stop shopping this week. But we had to select a wine, white-bordered linen lunch cloth and four matching napkins (large enough to keep that man of the house from wondering why we have to use handkerchiefs for napkins these days) all for $1.59, before we checked more names from our list.

Garden Club Members Plan Christmas Party—

A Christmas party and luncheon at 12.30 p. m. Monday, Dec. 12, will characterize the gathering of the members of the Garden club who meet at Farm Crest farm to enjoy the hospitality of Mrs. Joseph Denton, hostess of the occasion.

Each member is asked to bring her own dishes, passing dish, a card table if she has one and a gift which is to be placed on the Christmas tree for distribution late in the afternoon. Any member who brings a guest is asked to bring a gift for that guest. Persons wanting transportation are to notify Mrs. Mark Brock.

Octet Club Meets Friday at F. W. Hawkins Home—

Mrs. Frank W. Hawkins entertained the members of the Octet club Friday evening in her home on Thayer boulevard.

Her guests were Mrs. K. H. Babitt, Mrs. O. F. Reng, Mrs. Irene Fennell, Mrs. George Stalker, Mrs. W. E. McCarthy, Mrs. A. Russell Clarke and Mrs. Charles Wilson.

NORTHVILLE SELLS MORE SEALS IN '38

work for the convenience of persons who were not contacted by the school children.

"Hundreds of Michigan residents have already given. The success of the campaign depends now upon the hundreds of people in the State who have not yet made return for the tuberculosis Christmas seals mailed to them Thanksgiving day, or who have not bought seals from the school children."

That was the announcement made this week by Theodore Werle, executive secretary of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association as the first 10-day period of the thirty-second annual sale of Christmas seals passed.

"The success of the sale hangs in the balance," Mr. Werle said. "If we could be assured of as generous contributions from those who have not yet given as from those who have, there would be nothing to worry about. As the situation stands, however, the anti-tuberculosis program in Michigan will suffer in 1939, unless gifts are received from those we are counting upon so heavily."

"There is a very real need for tuberculosis protection in Michigan. The battle against the disease is not won by any means. For the past two years the trend of the tuberculosis death rate in this State has been upward. The White Plague is the chief cause of death between the ages of 15 and 45, the most fruitful years of life."

"If the rate is to be started downward again, the fight must be vigorous and relentless. And there must be funds to make the fight possible."

"So we appeal to all who have made returns your gift—large or small—is needed. We are confident that with the success of the seal sale resting now upon you you will not fail those who are dependent upon your gift," concludes Mr. Werle.

POSTMASTER VAN ATTA NAMES MAIL DATES

to Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho, Nevada, Utah and Arizona should be mailed Dec. 15.

Dec. 16 is the date set for safe delivery for Christmas mail to persons in Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico and Texas.

Mail to be sent to North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Florida and California, should be mailed Dec. 17.

Packages and cards should be mailed Dec. 19, if they are to go to Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Tennessee, North Carolina, Kentucky, Virginia, New England states, New Jersey or Delaware.

Wisconsin, Illinois, Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York mail should be sent Dec. 20.

Mail to towns in Michigan should be on its way Dec. 21.

Dr. W. E. Harrison Conducts Conference

Following a cooperative supper Monday evening at the Methodist church, Dr. W. E. Harrison, district superintendent of the Ann Arbor Methodist district, presided at the quarterly conference.

Reports of various departments were given. The Sunday School has shown encouraging growth under the superintendency of Russell H. Steinhagen, the gain over last year being 88 per cent. The only discouraging feature of the reports was the unbalanced condition of the church treasury. Due to the present difficult business conditions, collections have not equalled the running expenses of the church. A special collection at Christmas time is hoped to bring up the deficit.

Comedy Continues Next Week at Cass with "What a Life"

Still fulfilling his New Year's resolution to produce nothing but funny shows during 1938, George Abbott continues in the comedy vein when his long-run Broadway hit, "What a Life," comes to the Cass Theatre this week, beginning Sunday, Dec. 11, with matinees Wednesday and Saturday. It has been called a delightful successor to "Brother Rat," and Burns Mantle, has included it in his anthology of the season's ten best plays.

To use a homely phrase, says Abbott, "I suppose we might call 'What a Life' entertainment for the entire family. There isn't a line of situation in it which could possibly offend any person at any age."

And its humor is universal, because it deals with the hilarious ordeals of an adolescent boy. Most of us have been young at one time or another, haven't we?

Broadway showmen shook their heads back in 1938 when Abbott produced "Brother Rat." They told him that the public was "fed up" with plays concerning school life, and that it demanded more mature drama. But the producer, always a champion of youth and never a mail to take a dare, proved that they were wrong for "Brother Rat" ran 18 months in New York and its two road companies completely blanketed the nation. "What a Life," by Clifford Goldsmith, is now in its second season at the Biltmore theatre in New York.

All the members of the company which will play "What a Life" here have had experience in the New York cast. It is headed by Eddie Bracker. Other members of the cast are Connie Nickerson, Marshall Bradford, Fray Gilbert, Irving Morrow, James Lane, Hope Landin, William Bles, Henry LaScoe, Lora Rogers, Norman Tokar, Lorraine MacMartin, William Mendrek, Mary Darwin, Stasia Wilson, Mildred Todd, Butterfly McQueen, Miffi Daré, Miller, Richard Lee, Peggy Travers, Dorothy Vernon and Sam Curolop.

LEGAL NOTICES

The following Resolution came up for consideration:
"WHEREAS Paving Taxes spread by the Village of Northville in the years 1927 to 1937 inclusive have in a large majority of instances been declared void by decrees of the Circuit Court for the County of Wayne, said decrees being numbered 265,970 - 268,662 - 270 - 273 - 270,776 - 273,949 - 278,190 - 279,597 - 279,926 - 279,927 - 280,147 - 280,148 - 280,681 and 280,682, and certified copies thereof have been served on the County Treasurer of Wayne County, Michigan, and it has been determined that the necessary entries in the tax books of said County Treasurer because of the uncertainty of many of the descriptions of the property shown on the tax rolls of the Village of Northville, wherein said paving taxes were assessed, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the County Treasurer for the County of Wayne be authorized, and he is hereby authorized to request cancellation from the Auditor General of all paving taxes levied for said years for the purpose and with the intent that such taxes may be cancelled on the delinquent tax roll of said treasurer and the assessment rolls of the Village of Northville for reassessment at large on otherwise according to law."

N. H. S. CAGERS WIN FIRST CLASH, 29-27

Duguid and Nirider Share
High Scoring Honors
in Ferndale Game

By BEALL
Defeating Ferndale 29-27, Northville opened her basketball season in a fast, hard-fought game with Lincoln high school in Ferndale, Thursday.

At the beginning of the game, Ferndale appeared to be in a position to "take Northville," but a few minutes of play gave Northville confidence. The first quarter ended with Ferndale leading 6-3.

In the second period the Northville defense and offense began clicking with Ben Duguid and Jack McCrumb leading the offense. Duguid scored five points and McCrumb four. Duguid's last point, which was a foul shot, gave Northville the lead at the half 12-11.

Between halves a vaudeville comedy skit showed a combination of basketball, football, boxing, wrestling and soccer by some of Ferndale's student talent, caused much merriment.

The third quarter started off with the score tied 19-19 and Northville between Ferndale and the N. H. S. quintet. Duguid, Nirider and McCrumb each made two points to keep Northville in the lead 19-15.

An accident occurred in the third quarter when Nirider made a fake to the right and pivoted to the left to make a shot at the basket and cracked heads with McCrumb. There was much rough play in the third quarter with McCrumb being ejected for four fouls. Walter Myers took his place at right guard.

The final period was most thrilling of all, with open basketball being played by both teams, with Northville having the edge. Jack Holcomb replaced Leonard Fritz at the beginning of the fourth period but in less than five minutes Fritz was sent back in.

With Ferndale trying feverishly to tie the score the Northville quintet won the game with Northville the winner 29-27.

It would be very hard to choose an outstanding player in the game for everyone did a very fine job of balling. Ferndale, when it looked as if we were going to receive a thorough training. It does the old "ticker" good to see Northville fight back and win a game.

PARTY FOR FRESHMEN

Friday evening Dec. 9, the sophomores of Northville high school will welcome the freshmen class, with an informal evening of games, dancing, and refreshments in the school gym between 9:30 and 11.

Committees appointed by Sophomore President Louis Eaton have worked out details to provide entertainment of various kinds so that each one who comes will enjoy himself. The evening will open with games for small groups changing later to games involving the entire group of both classes. Next there will be dancing with snappy swing music and finally refreshments to climax the evening. All members of both classes are urged to attend and parents are reminded that they are welcome as spectators.

Grade Notes

The Grade Notes will be taken care of in the future by a reporter from the grade building under the supervision of Mrs. James Huff, Jr. The reporter for this week was Loyola German.

The piano classes of the school have had their recital. The parents present enjoyed the efforts of the young pianists.

The sponsors of our safety patrol are organizing a Safety Bicycle club. Many of our boys and girls have joined.

Red Cross contributions from the grade building have been turned in. They averaged nearly a dollar a room.

The annual Christmas Tuberculosis Seal sale is drawing to a close. Each year the room having the highest sales gain the possession of a health statue for the ensuing year. It has not been decided who will have the largest sale this year.

The fifth and sixth grade health classes are studying wheat with its connection to body building foods. Each pupil has a sample of wheat to plant and watch grow in the room.

Miss Beulah Miller's first graders are getting ready for a bazaar. They are making toys which they expect to have ready to sell before Christmas. A fireplace is a new feature in this room. It is made of a large box which the students painted.

There is a new girl in the room, Erma Whitfield. All of the children in the room made small Christmas trees which they trimmed with toys and put on their tables.

Editor's Note...

Season tickets for basketball are on sale again, and according to May or Jack McCrumb, you'll really get your money's worth this year. The season is practically upon us with the Plymouth game but a week from tonight in the N. H. S. gymnasium. Tickets are down in price too, being only $1.00 for students and $1.50 for adults. These are good for all of the home games which number seven in this year. It's an awfully good idea for all the members of the student body to get behind this movement because the school is judged by its teams and the enthusiasm shown by the backers of that team. Let's all get behind the teams this year and if they need a push, we'll be there to give it to them.

DR. F. B. FREEMAN TALKS TO YOUTH

By BETTY CARLSON

Highlighting a program given last Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Baptist church, was a talk on "The Young People Today," by Dr. F. B. Freeman.

Laura Bolton presided over the meeting and congregations, singing led by Clifford Winter was followed by a special hymn, "The Voice of Jesus," by the Baptist church choir. Helen Winter sang a solo, "Face to Face."

Dr. Freeman, the main speaker of the evening, spoke of the opportunity to select five boys of different environment and give them a chance of furthering their education at college. At present only one of these boys remains a Polish boy who is studying at Wayne University.

Four of these boys did not appreciate a good chance when they had the opportunity to do so. Thus one boy wrote to Dr. Freeman and told him "There is only one thing I don't understand most of the students are here to get credits while I'm here to get information, that I'd need later on. Dr. Freeman said, "That is why so many young people are there - for credits and a diploma to show that they are college graduates."

Too many young people are reluctant to work for a living; in the world. He wants all young people to remember "We are what we like."

While defining this statement it happened to mention housework. A general groan went up from the young ladies of the audience.

Closing his talk he spoke of an incident in the time of Jesus Jesus spoke to a girl who had made a bad start in life, telling her to start over on the right path. This shows that it is never too late to start on the right new.

grade has started to make Christmas presents. They also found time to sell nearly $11 worth of Christmas seals. Many of the pupils have been absent because of colds.

Alice Harper and Thomas Hancock have just returned to Mrs. Huff's sixth grade after an illness of a week. Pauline Dickinson of this room, had the misfortune of falling on a milk bottle last Friday, cutting her arms and hands quite badly.

There are two new girls in Mrs. K. H. Babbitt's fourth grade. They are Alice Hahn, who comes from Detroit, and Dolores Bennett from Ypsilanti.

The piano classes of the school have had their recital. The parents present enjoyed the efforts of the young pianists.

NEWS STORY ROUSES INTEREST IN CLASS

Student Writes to Leland
Stanford for Opinion
on Shakespeare

Because of the question, "Did Bacon write Shakespeare's plays?" raised by Robert Rembowski after reading a Sunday edition of The Detroit Times, and because of the arguments given in the paper seemed so convincing to him, Laura Marie Lord chose Leland Stanford, University which is noted for one of the best English departments in the country, to settle the controversy. The following letter was recently received.

Stanford University - Calif.
Nov. 21, 1938

Miss Laura M. Lord
35 North Center Street
Northville, Mich.
Dear Miss Lord:

We take a rather strong view against the "Baconian" theory at Stanford. It is not that we are in any way prejudiced in favor of the traditional view that Shakespeare wrote his own works, but it is rather that we feel that there is no satisfactory evidence in favor of Bacon's authorship. There is, on the other hand, a great deal of very sound evidence in favor of Shakespeare's own authorship. We have not only the Stratford records and tradition but we have evidence that he was personally acquainted with a lot of the most prominent men of the age, both in literature and in other fields. He was well known to Ben Jonson, Drayton, John Davies of Hereford and William Camden. These men, we feel could not have been mistaken. Their whole attitude is too natural and too realistic to admit of such a hypothesis. The chief argument of the Baconians is that it would be impossible for a man born and bred in the little town of Stratford to have acquired the culture necessary for writing the plays. But there is nothing improbable about such a situation. It is merely a matter of Shakespeare's having been a man of transcendent genius. Consider for example the case of Abraham Lincoln and Mark Twain in this country, neither one of whom had any very advantages and both of whom were men of great natural endowment. They overcame their disadvantages. Many men have done this.

There is a book by J. M. Robertson called "The Baconian Heresy" which is the best treatment of the subject.

With best wishes,
Sincerely,
Hardin Craig

What Would You Think If You Saw?

John Angel being so bold as to grab Wanda Bender by the arm and strut the length of the hall with her.

Jim Beall in high-heeled shoes with his hair done in the latest fashion.

Warren Bogart giving a talk to freshmen on how to keep from wasting time.

Don Green wearing a House of David beard.

Dick Amber wearing a lovely baby bonnet and being pushed up and down Main Street in a perambulator by Ben Duguid.

Mr. Mollema, chewing gum and teaching his history classes in hip boots.

Cecil Nirider asking the teachers if he'd caused them any trouble and bringing them apples.

"Why on earth did you leave off playing just as we got to the chorus?" "Well," Allen replied, "on my music is says 'refrain' so I did."

Chuck Bishop enrolling with a social agency to escort middle-aged matrons to tea dances.

Mrs. Herlick: "How would you punctuate this sentence? 'The wind blew a ten dollar bill around the corner.'"

Harold Scholtz: "I would make a dash after the bill."

Mr. Hensch in an Elizabethan suit and dressed like Sir Walter Raleigh.

Alfred Cousins with a handle-bar mustache.

Chuck Altman's Dad: "So your new job makes you feel independent?"

Chuck: "Absolutely, I get there any time I want to before 8, and leave just when I please after 5."

Department Notes

Hard cakes, soft cakes, fluffy cakes fallen cakes, white cakes, chocolate cakes, good cakes and bad cakes were featured in a cake-baking contest held last Friday in Miss Doris Reber's room.

Miss Gladys Ludwig, Mrs. Frank Hawkins and Leslie Lee were the judges who judged Enola Peterson as being worthy of the title of champion cake-baker, with Hilma Westphal running a close second, and Dorothy Jane Congo coming in third.

A group of boys and girls interested in verse speaking have organized a verse-speaking club under the direction of Miss Reber. It meets from 8:15 to 8:45 a m. Tuesday and Thursday of each week in Miss Reber's room.

Having studied the editorial, the journalism class has turned to the history of American journalism and the lives of famous journalists. The biographies of such famous newspapermen as Benjamin Day of the New York Sun, James Gordon Bennett of the New York Herald, Horace Greeley and Charles Dana of the New York Tribune, Henry Raymond and Adolph Ochs of the New York Times, Joseph Pulitzer of the New York World, William Randolph Hearst of the New York Journal, Joseph McCall of the Chicago Herald, Edwin Watterson of the Louisville Courier-Journal, William Rockwell Hearst of the Kansas City Star, and Edward and James Scripps of the Detroit Free Press have been studied.

In Mrs. Estelle Griffith's English 10 classes, description has been the subject of study recently. The following by Eugene Baughman was selected as one of the best.

It was on one side of a green lane under a hawthorn hedge with a beech tree spreading above it where I saw a gypsy encampment. It consisted of three or four little tents made up of blankets spread over hoops that were stuck in the ground. A teatide was hanging by a crooked piece of iron over a fire. Two old gypsies in red coats sat crouched on the ground gossiping over their evening tea. There were two or three children sleeping on straw and a couple of thievish-looking dogs were lying before the fire. Some of the younger gypsies were dancing to the music of a fiddle played by a tall slender stripping in an old frock coat.

The senior English literature class has just finished the section on John Milton, his life, and some of his most famous writings such as "L'Allegro," "Il Penseroso," and excerpts from his "Paradise Lost."

The following books were reported on orally by the juniors in Mrs. F. W. Hawkins' English classes, last week. Alice Adams by Tarkington; Mary's Neck by Tarkington; The Doctor by Ralph Connor; The Call of the Wild by London; Smoke Bel- low by London; Pole Star by Stewart Edward White; Jerry of the Islands by London; Michael, Brother of Jerry by London; Young Men in Spats by P. G. Woodhouse; The Love of Life by London; and The Covered Wagon by Emerson Hough.

 By MRS. WILIAM ZWAHLIN

The P. T. A. is sponsoring an old time and modern dancing party at the Community Hall Saturday evening Dec 11. Mrs. Shirley Zwahlén was the Sunday dinner guest of Miss Olive Grunwald of Farmington. Mrs. Gladys Schroeder was hostess to her card club Wednesday. Following a delicious luncheon, three tables of cards were in use.

Mary Ray, of Hubbard avenue, is suffering from a severe gash in the back of her head, incurred when she became excited and dived in front of an automobile Friday, while returning home from school. The driver of the car saw that the child had a doctor's attention and was safely escorted home.

The P. T. A. benefit luncheon and card party given last week at the home of Walter Crumcoe was well attended. Hostesses were Mrs. Harry Steele, Mrs. C. Parush and Mrs. Walter Crumcoe.

Mrs. Russell Anli and Miss Dolores Jean have both been quite ill this past week.

COMMUNITY AUCTION SALE!

WALLED LAKE—A word's eye view of the past week's happenings places the Buffmeyer fire at the head of the list, with a few minor items following along behind.

Eleven trucks, two automobiles and considerable supplies and mechanical equipment went up in smoke Thursday night, when the garage of Glen Buffmeyer, distributor for the Detroit Creamery and a commercial meat packer and manufacturer of artificial ice, burned to the ground, causing damage estimated at close to $25,000.

Dor Patterson, a last year's high school graduate, suffered serious injuries when his car skidded off the road, in the village Friday morning, while on his way to begin a newly acquired job. He was taken to Pontiac General hospital.

Herbert F. Andrews, ill for the past two weeks in Pontiac General hospital, is still in critical condition, according to reports. He underwent an operation a week ago, and on Sunday was given two blood transfusions.
