Care to your coffin kids a nail, no doubt
But every laugh, so merry, pulls one out.

Know Your Amendments . . .

When you go to the polls next Monday, April 3rd, you will be handed a ballot asking for your decision on two proposed amendments to the constitution of Michigan. Michigan voters are accustomed to voting on amendments and in case of question have voted No. While there are merits to the two proposals, yet the same arguments as applied to the judiciary could just as well be applicable to other branches and officials of government. Government today is too far removed from the people, and anything that will make for closer relationship of the people and their servants is laudable. We are uncertain on the two amendments — while they sound fine, we still harbor suspicions that make us sincere in urging complete understanding before voting for a change.

Northville people know and understand the purposes that prompt the sponsorship of the Easter Seal Sale for crippled children. No one can question the cause, its motives and its accomplishments. Whole heartedly the community joins in the movement, and makes it comparatively easy for those who generously give of their time and effort. Buy the Easter Seals, and more, use them.

Cheerfulness is like money well expended in charity; the more we dispense it, the greater our possessions.

Go Slow . . .

Lent in French means "Slow." Lent as applied to the forty days of penitence suggests that for a time at least it is well to go slow. Much of good physical and mental might flows from the suggestion that we slow up our pace and think a little or life itself. Reflection may show the true way and the light. The rush for gain wears us down too early and Lent or no Lent the idea of appraising our activities has merit.

There are not a few things for which there is no substitute. Among them think of these: courtesy, loyalty, gratitude, faith, kindness. Can you think of anything in the world that is "just as good" as any one of these virtues?

"As facts come out it becomes apparent that politics is the biggest racket of them all," — Tom Dewey.

An equal rights amendment has been introduced in Congress. It says: "Men and women shall have equal rights throughout the United States." It's going to be a God send to we high if we get it.

The other evening a gentleman approached us saying: "If there is need now, if those people who burned out can make arrangements for materials we will get a gang of men and fix up the house." Wasn't that a fine spirit. And then too the children at school did their mite to help.

Might we suggest to industry, to agriculture and to government and consumers and everybody, "Let's all work together." It is an old American custom. It has worked before it will work again.

If you would abuse a man — praise him for something he does not deserve.

We are told that one-half of the children in America are being born into families receiving public aid. John H. Lasher, Wisconsin NYA director states, "This fact is a challenge to those who would preserve democracy. The youth who follow Stalin, Hitler, and Mussolini in Europe today were the 'wild children' of Russia and the starving babies of Germany."

Persistently taking from those who have to give to those who have not, rather than spur individuals to independent achievement, leads eventually to the point where no one has anything. Then, the government must take over all industry, business and be the sole employer. This theory fails to work until it takes the form of communism as practiced in Russia. Then how we would yearn for the days of individualism and incentive and the rewards of private industry. Individual incentive and private industry have their ills but regardless of imperfections they are the factors that have made America great.

Spring is here.

Preliminary activities leading to the second annual Spring Horse Show are getting under way. The Northville Riding and Hunt Club has set the date for May 27th and 28th. Northville is the host to two annual horse shows, a distinction that no other community in Michigan holds. Started last year by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blackett, the Spring show this year will be promoted by Elmer Wiedrick, who has leased the Northville Riding and Hunt Club on the Seven Mile road. That Northville is definitely the horse center of Michigan is affirmed by a recent census that revealed that within a radius of five miles 225 horses were stabled for pleasure use. In addition to several private stables there are four commercial stables in the Northville area.

A pat on the back is a great thing. The way the Exchange Club recognized a good deed on the part of the Shepherd lad, is something that the community can be proud of. Of such good turns are men made.

EMPTY AGAIN!

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

• One Year Ago
and reliable saleslady, has resumed her position with T. J. Perkins company. Officials of the Village of Northville and of the City of Plymouth, while attempting to jump on the passing freight train at Romulus, were warned Friday, Mar. 18, in Lansing, that the pollution of the Middle River must be corrected. Cleve Rathruff of Belleville, was thrown under the car and had both legs cut off. He only lived an hour and a half. The young man was an only brother of Miss Cora Ruth Hinckle of this place.

Ernie Shave, who has been assistant to Al Watrous at Oakland Hills for the past two years has been named to succeed Frank Spiegel ruff and a nephew of Mrs. E. C. Meadowbrook County club golf pro.

Roundout, 69 years of wedded life Mar. 21, is the unusual experience of Mr. and Mrs. Jofford Barr parents of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Myers of South Wing street.

• Ten Years Ago
The announcement of the marriage of Miss Ursula Nelson to George Allan Locke of the Stinson Aircraft Corporation, came as a pleasant surprise to a host of friends of the young couple here in Northville.

Announcement has been made that the school board has offered a cog-erate to Supt. W. H. Gordon for another year, and that Mr. Gordon has accepted the offer of the school board in Detroit.

Edward Miller, attorney of the Detroit Edison company, has been reelected president of the Northville Room Club.

• Fifteen Years Ago
Mr. and Mr. Charles G. and son of a member here

had a son born Tuesday afternoon.

The couple, who expect to be home soon, are very happy.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Moyer are the parents of a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pfeifer have moved to the Perry Club from their old home.

• Twenty Years Ago
Northville acquaintances of the family were greatly shocked to hear of the death of Mrs. H. B. Wilcox at her home in Detroit, Thursday, Mar-

20.

The Northville office of the Detroit Edison company was the scene of a very pleasing function Monday evening when about 150 of the local patrons of the company assembled in the beautiful office building to enjoy a lecture demonstration by Milton Kencis of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Franklin VanValenbach who has been quite seriously ill recently escaping an attack of pneumonia, is improving.

• Thirty Years Ago
William Taft and family have moved to their farm on the West

Base Line road.

The dormant spray for apple and peach trees should be applied before the buds show any signs of opening.

Considerable loss from loose smut of oats is usually experienced unless the seed is treated. Use formaldehyde or one of the commercial mercury dusts.

The open-pollinated varieties of corn for Wayne county are Clement's White Cap, M. A. C. Yellow Dent and Duncan.

Golden Glow and Picket do not yield quite as high as Duncan's or Clement's White Cap in Southern Michigan.

Now is the time to test your seed corn for germination. It is a loss in dollars and cents to plant corn of poor germination. Field corn and sweet corn treated with one of the mercury dusts will be protected against the rots that often cause poor stands.

Walled Lake News

By CHARLES E. HUTTON

WALLED LAKE — One of the most dependable prognosticators of spring we have up in these parts is the lake. Despite the weather of the last three days of winter, or the prevailing wind of the first day of official spring, and regardless of all signs to the contrary, we of Commerce and Novi townships go by the lake. And it's very simple, just as certain. For instance, on Sunday, it was wintry, even though the thermometer did register nearly 60 in the morning. But on Monday, it was sprung.

You see on Sunday the lake was still covered with ice, but during the night it happened — nobody knows how — and on Monday morning there wasn't any ice. It just went — vanished! all of it. We figure, up in these parts, that spring is here when the lake opens up — and Bill Vreeland starts fishing for bluegills.

The first of April is tag day for the third annual Firemen's Ball, at Warner's. This year it will honor the memory of Arthur Warner, former Walled Lake firechief who passed on last year. It was he who originated the idea of benefit dances for the fire department. Proceeds this year will be turned over to the Civic Welfare club, to be apportioned to the proposed Community building sponsored by the club. The party promises to be most enjoyable with prizes and refreshments plus good music for old and new-fangled dances.

The week of April 3 will be one of joy for upwards of one thousand youngsters who attend the Walled Lake schools. They will be spring vacationing . . . After which, classes will hold forth until the usual closing time, in June, there being no regular semester contemplated for the Walled Lake Consolidated district.

The critical illness of Mrs. Olive Baker has necessitated the return from Florida of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Carnes. Mr. Carnes is a nephew of Mrs. Baker. The Carnes were expected to arrive Wednesday of this week. Mrs. Charles Merithew, a sister of Mrs. Baker, who has been suffering from influenza, is recovering.

Fred Pomerelle is recovering from a serious operation which he recently underwent at Henry Ford hospital. He is expected home within a week.

Capacity attendance was enjoyed at the senior prom, held Friday evening at the school. Excellent music and attractive decorations made the affair a complete success, and the various committees are to be congratulated.

Further signs of spring during the past week were seen in the opening of the new drug store in the Post building and the reopening of the bakery.

Palms Sunday service at the Methodist church will include the singing of "The Palms" by the choir and a solo, "The Green Hills Far Away," by Mrs. Clarence Johnson. The Rev. Frank Miner will preach.

Elmer T. Andrews of Toledo, and father of the late Herbert F. Andrews of Walled Lake, died at his home, April 18. Burial was in Oak Grove cemetery, Milford, the following Tuesday. He was born at Milford May 2, 1853, but had lived in Toledo for the past 40 years. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Ray

Abrams of Wixom.

Extra Pastures
Keep Cows Sane

Stanchionitis! Cows in Wayne county are about to exhibit signs of what approaches insanity from long association with their stanchions through winter months.

In an explanation from A. C. Baltzer, extension dairyman at Michigan State college, this condition can best be remedied by wise pasture programs which need year-around planning.

Spring is the time of year when cows, if they ever do go nearly crazy, release from stanchions to early grass is a tonic that reflects in their dispositions and in their milk yields. What perhaps most affects the profit side of a dairyman's books is the low cost of milk produced largely on pasture feeding.

Besides feed supply, the spring tonic of such a pasture as rye offers vitamin A through the carotene in green grass improves regularly in breeding saves barn feeding and reduces labor. Baltzer points out.

Early temporary pastures do more. They save the permanent pastures until the latter are sold enough to permit extensive grazing.

Baltzer reminds dairymen of inci-

SOPHIS TO CATS
TO PLAY FOR J-HOP
ON APRIL 14 AT 9

Decorations To Be Kept Secret 'Til Night
of Dance

The Sophis-to-Cats of radio fame, have been obtained to play for the J-Hop, to be held Friday, April 14, from nine to one o'clock in the high school gym.

This is the first time in the history of Northville that such a well-known orchestra has been selected to play for either a J-Hop or a Prom. The orchestra, composed of six pieces, is under the direction of Paul Leahy and will also have with it a soloist, Miss Rosemary Calvin, commonly known as "Tabby."

Patricia Klein, chairman of the decorating committee, states that the decorations for the occasion are to be kept a "deep dark secret," but that Scott Cole and Jim Harper have agreed to lend their assistance.

Within a few days, tickets may be scholarship to any college for the junior class. The admission is to be $1.50 a couple and 50 cents for spectators. There are to be no co-scholarships are at least a "B" average for the last two years of high school.

The award will be based also on integrity, intellectual ability, social attitude, emotional control, leadership, personality and popularity of the applicant.

Allan Getro, Was that idea of mine worth carrying out? Mr. Henson, The janitor must have thought so; it wasn't in the waste basket this morning.

Don Armstrong thinks the following poem should be dedicated to Harry Porter:

When I Was In Love
Oh, when I was in love with you,
Then I was fine and brave,
And miles around the wonder grew
How well did I behave.

And now the fancy passed by
And nothing will remain
And rarely around they'll say that I Ain't cap'e myself again.

Miss Brassfield, Bob Palmerer, if you'll put that gum in the basket, you won't get so tired walking around

Editor's Note...

Reading Dale Carnegie's book "How to Win Friends and Influence People," gives a much different slant on human nature than the one which seems to be prevalent in our school. He says that before you criticize, you should make sure that you yourself are above criticism in his right mind would give a student bad grades in conduct for no reason at all.

So let's quit laying the blame for our laxness in study habits and actions on the teachers who have nothing to do with the case. If we prove delightful company to her, that isn't exactly society but Mary insists it is so here you are.

If we get a bad mark the first thing we do is to criticize the instructor's method of teaching or the way the material has been presented.

In college, the professors most

This, That and Something Else

In the first place Kate Marburger and Gerry Johnston had their annual birthday party the first day of spring. This time they were 16 and those who helped celebrate the historic event were Janet Stewart, Jeanne Atchison, Jane Van Atta, Jean Lyke, Lucile Lapham, Betty Jane Gillespie and Laura Bolton.

Mary Geraghty tells us that they are entertaining a mouse which has nothing to do with the case.

If we prove delightful company to her, that isn't exactly society but Mary insists it is so here you are.

Before the junior dance Friday night Jeanne Atchison's home was the scene of a "pot-luck" dinner. A few of her friends gathered there for a bit of food and gossip. Includes in this group were Dorothy Heaton, Helen Harper, Kathryn Marburger, Marie Angove, Janet Stewart, Louise Alexander and Jane Van Atta.

Kay Kyser proved a drawing card for several students who attended his show at the Fox theatre this week. Among those who enjoyed his band were Bill Scoults, Rose Brundank and George Houghton.

A student starts school at the age of five and continues until he is fifteen. Boys and girls go to different schools and have different teachers - boys have men while girls have women as their instructors.

The children go to a council school until they are eleven, then they take an examination over all the material they have covered. If they pass, however, they can go to the secondary school if they have the money.

Miss Kingan continued with, The school in which I taught was not considered expensive, costing forty-five dollars a term. There are three terms a year. However, there are several free seats in each school in the one where I taught, there were fifteen, and about 100 girls tried by examination to get them.

The school year in England starts about Sept. 15 and ends the 1st of July. School starts at nine a.m. and ends at four-fifteen p.m. The time about an hour and a half for lunch.

The English curriculum is much different from that of the American schools said Miss Kingan. When a girl starts a secondary school at the age of eleven she takes algebra, science, arithmetic, geometry, Latin, French, sometimes Spanish, English literature, English composition, geography, English history, grammar and music, Bible, history, reading and sewing. Boys take manual arts instead of cooking and sewing. Of course they don't take all of these subjects every day but they take a different subject each day.

Miss Kingan said that the students wear uniforms during the year. There are no graduation exercises held in British schools.

The courses for securing a position are poor indeed for the young people there stated the Master.

STUDY IS MADE OF SPEECH DEFECTS

This is a typical scene in which by this group of specialists, The University of Michigan speech and hearing clinic examiners are at work. Some 50 Northville school children are to be diagnosed today.

which is the title given women teachers there. Of course, girls can always find housework, but they feel it's degrading. Also, no one is allowed to work while attending school.

Another interesting thing about England that she mentioned was concerning the theatre or "cinema" as it is called there. You can get a seat in the cinema for as little as three cents - People smoke during the show and you can buy refreshments such as tea and cakes, ice cream, and sandwiches.

The people in this country also like to bet. They have to buy stamps and envelopes to send their bets. This helps the government which doesn't do anything about it, though it is illegal because of the aid it receives through this means.

opened in Northville Monday, Mar. 27, it was announced by Percy C. Angove of Northville, Executive Secretary of the Michigan Society for Crippled Children.

Michigan joins with 30 other states, affiliated with the National Society for Crippled Children, Inc., to raise funds for the program of giving every crippled child in Michigan an opportunity for better life.

The organization established in 1921, develops a well-rounded program for the crippled child, embracing proper medical treatment, hospitalization, educational, psychological adjustment, vocational training, and employment. The Easter seal sale provides the funds for this work.

In urging all citizens to our Easter seals Mr. Angove said, "In our State alone there are approximately 20,000 crippled children. Two thousand

Easier for you to borrow money

The common form of personal loan requires a note signed by the borrower and two other responsible people, co-makers.

A reason frequently given for not wishing to become a co-maker is the liability falling on the co-maker if the borrower should not live to repay the loan.

Our New Personal Loan Plan, by automatically insuring the borrower's life for the unpaid balance of the loan, removes this risk for the co-maker. With this protection it becomes easier to obtain co-makers.

We will make Personal Loans with this new insurance feature in amounts from $50 to $1,000. Come in and let us tell you about it. You need not be a depositor in this bank to obtain a loan.

"Steps going down" accurately describes your residence electric rate—and liberal use of the thrifty third step is wise economy. As your use of electricity goes UP, your average cost goes DOWN... so that you can enjoy unstinted use of lighting and household appliances without adding much to your bill.

Consider how much ONE CENT accomplishes at the low third step in your rate: It will run your electric clock a whole week... or beat 120 egg whites, 4 at a time... or tune in your favorite radio program for the whole evening... or chill your electric refrigerator for more than 10 hours... or burn a half light all night long.

Labor-saving and time-saving electric appliances repay many times over the small amount they add to your bill. Prove this to yourself by using all the electricity you need. Electricity is cheap!
