

FOUR CORNERS TEST DIGGING IS STARTED

Footings for Recommended Post Office Site Sent to Building Department

Protests Continue

Test diggings were made early Monday morning at the site on the four corners which has been recommended by the Treasury Department for Northville's new $75,000 post office.

It is understood by local post office authorities that the digging does not mean that the Main street site has been definitely selected. Organized clubs in the village and many individuals who have taken a stand to protest the Main street site, feel that the Treasury Department will give consideration to the letters and wires which they have sent, voicing their objections.

To Study Tests
The results of the test diggings, according to Postmaster Fred E. Van Atta, will be sent to the Building Department for study and recommendation. Engineer J. C. Kerley is conducting the preliminary survey on the property at the four corners.

Originally there were 11 sites in the village offered for sale for the post office site. Inspectors eliminated all but three of the places.

After visiting Northville, it has been said that the Main street place was not given consideration by the inspectors, but was favored by the Treasury Department.

Sites Are Listed
The bids on the 11 sites were opened here Aug. 4, by Mr. Van Atta. The lowest bid received was on E. A. Shaffer's site at the northwest corner of Cady and South Center streets. His price was $6,300. The highest bid was submitted on a site by three joint owners, who asked $15,750 for land at the southeast corner of Dunlap and North Center streets, owned by Mr. Shaffer, Sam Pickard and W. H. Galtmire.

Other bids included: Detroit Trust company for the R. H. Grennan site on the present parking lot, Main and South (Continued on page 70)

HEADS ROTARY

E. M. Bogart

has been named by Rotary's board of directors to head the Northville Rotary club for the year, beginning July 1.

BOGART IS NAMED ROTARY PRESIDENT BY CLUB DIRECTORS

R. H. Steininger is Vice-President; Will Take Office July 1

E. M. Bogart, prominent Northville grocer, was elected president of the Northville Rotary club at a meeting of the directors held recently. Mr. Bogart will take office July 1.

Other officers named by the newly elected board of directors of the club are: Vice-president, Russell Steininger; secretary, Leslie Lee; treasurer, John Litsenberger.

Dr. Willis Speake
Dr. H. S. Willis, superintendent of Maybury sanatorium, had charge of the program at the Tuesday luncheon. Dr. Willis urged an intelligent attitude toward tuberculosis as the prime need in combating the disease.

Reviewing the history and development of tuberculosis or consumption as it was known in earlier years, the doctor stated that early discovery of the disease was essential to a cure. He stated that the Detroit Board of Health has the most efficient method of case finding in the country today.

Village Churches Filled To Capacity for Easter Services

Despite the fact that villagers attended Good Friday service Friday afternoon just after a rather heavy, but brief, flurry of snow, Easter dawned clear with the sunshine making it much warmer than any day during Holy Week.

The Methodist church was filled to capacity Friday afternoon when the King's Daughters sponsored their annual Good Friday service which united the Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian congregations. Ushers for the day were: Mrs. W. E. Forney, Mrs. John Litsenberger, Mrs. Scott A. Lovell and Mrs. George Hills.

The Rev. Dr. T. W. Smith, the Rev. Harry J. Lord and the Rev. Dr. Howard R. Chapman brought the messages. A choir made up of singers of the three churches rendered music with special vocal numbers by Miss Florence Johnson and Miss Helen Winter. A duet was sung by Mrs. Victor J. Lumley and Mrs. G. V. Harrison. Mrs. Sherrill W. Ambler presided at the organ for the entire service.

Good Friday was observed by members of Our Lady of Victory parish at afternoon and evening services. Likewise, the Lutherans gathered at 8 p. m. Friday evening for a service with the pastor, the Rev. E. E. Rosow and the guest speaker, John Bahuth.

The Easter message was proclaimed throughout the village Sunday in all of Northville's five churches, where songs, masses, sermons and cantatas, sung by adults and children, emphasized the joyousness of the observance. Altars were flanked by Easter lilies and other spring plants; many of them given as floral memorials.

Exchangites Vote Against Site Selected for Post Office; Ask for Public Opinion

Do Northville voters and patrons of the postal service want the new $75,000 post office building located on the site as now proposed at the vacant corner of Main and Center streets?

That is the question posed by Exchangites, following its own 19-10 vote against the site. The group is polling the community to determine sentiment for and against the placing of the post office at the village's principal intersection. A ballot appears in this column for use by readers of The Record, who are asked to fill in the ballot and mail to Box 187, Northville, or leave at The Record office.

If a majority of the volunteer voters write "NO" to the "Four Corners" site, Exchange club will forward the information to Federal authorities in Washington with a request that the wishes of the community be respected in establishing the new building. At the club meeting Wednesday, it was pointed out that other communities have been successful in effecting a change of undesirable locations and plans for federal buildings.

I Vote ☐ FOR ☐ AGAINST

The proposed location of the new Northville Post Office at the corner of Main and Center streets because:

☐ I live in Northville ☐ I live outside Northville. (Mail to the Exchange Club, P. O. Box 187, Northville, or leave at 290 North Center street.) All ballots must be in by Tuesday evening, Apr. 18.

Arguments Proposed
Dr. R. M. Atchison and Dr. Dan A. Brief summarized the argument against the proposed location with these reasons:

1 The site should be occupied by a federal government building. (The federal government pays no tax on its own property.)
2 The site is too small. (The original call for bids demanded a 100 x 175 foot corner lot. The proposed site is 83 x 132.)
3 Poor parking. One side of the site is on a hill, and the other faces a busy Main street. At present the village is using the site for a parking lot.

4 A sewer line must be moved an entire block at considerable expense to village taxpayers to make the property acceptable to the federal government.
5 It will not be possible to beautify surroundings.

Denton and Police Hunt for Persons Who Damage Cabins

Northville's police department has joined hands with Joseph A. Denton, superintendent of the Farm Creek farm on the Six Mile road in its effort to find the persons who have been damaging property at the Greynan ranch cabins during the past months.

Mr. Denton has gone so far as to announce a reward of $300 to the person who can supply information which will lead to the conviction of the person or persons who have been breaking into the cabins by tearing screens and breaking windows.

"We simply must get to the bottom of this business of breaking into the cabins," asserts Mr. Denton.

DR. MILLS TO DISCUSS CARE OF YOUNG CHILD
A motion picture entitled, "Around the Clock with You and Your Child," will feature the fourth meeting of the women's health classes being conducted here by Dr. Georgia Mills of the Michigan Department of Health. The meeting is scheduled for 3:30 p. m. Tuesday, Apr. 18, at the Northville grade school.

The general topic for discussion at this meeting will be the care and training of babies and young children. The first-year of a baby's life is considered the most important as far as his future health and habits are concerned. The average baby weighs about seven pounds at birth and measures 20 or 21 inches in length. By the end of the first year he should have tripled in weight. The baby's development during this period, his early habits, his feeding, and the importance of the preschool examination will be discussed by Dr. Mills. All women are invited to attend and take part in the discussion.

SENIORS BENEFIT BY BOXING BOUTS BACKED BY SCOUTS

Three boxing bouts, ranging from newcomers to heavyweights, "fat, fat and fat short of meat" for personal glory and the financial benefit of the Northville Scout organization, Monday night in another boxing show at the high school gym. The seniors class, to whose benefit the seniors gave $25.00 of the high school fund to use in the 30ers on-to-Washington campaign.

At least three underdogs came through to win against fighters rated their superiors. "Buzze" Snow was the first victim of an upset, losing to Clayton Graham who made the clever Snow disappear off form. Jim Reed on the basis of earlier scoring was favored, over Frank Bongiovanni but the latter boxed hard and took the decision. The third upset found Sam Ballo, South Lyon victor over heavier Clyde Lyons. Lyons defeated in the second round because of a shoulder injury.

The Battling Bogarts sons of E. M. Bogart, were again represented by Laurence, the youngest, who bowed to George White, despite the strenuous urging of Bill Furney. Bob West experienced fighter and former Golden Glove, knocked out Kendall Willis in the second round of their bout. Young Willis miked it well but could not withstand West's strong punches.

In other bouts, Dick Myers, with a smile that wouldn't come off lost the decision to Harry Graham; Dave Bell out-punched Bob Gates to a decision; Alex Funke yielded to Archie Niles; Fred Whipple won out over Walter Nafronowicz, Fred Campbell was given the decision over Vic Buttermore and Bud Cooke won from Phil Keller.

Dan Draper repeated as referee of the bouts and kept the action above criticism. Joe Vroman and Harold Farmer served as judges. Dr. L. W. Snow and Robert Leary kept time and Andy Torok and Bob Radcliffe were seconds.

That super-spectacle, the battle of several centuries between broad-noughts George Hills and Andy Torok failed to materialize. No abbi Lumley and Mrs. M. J. Kolycke, who was given this omission from the program.

EDUCATION IS KEYNOTE OF CANCER CAMPAIGN

Through the efforts of the Northville committee of the Woman's Field Army of the American Society for the Control of Cancer, literature is being placed in village homes, emphasizing the fact that the dreaded disease can be prevented through education, and even cured, if detected in the early stages, or treatment.

The committee, headed by Mrs. E. S. Beard, feels that a great deal of stress should be placed on educating women between the ages of 20 and 40 that a yearly physical checkup is one way to fight this disease which takes its largest toll from this one group.

Unable to arrange for a cancer talk in the village during the month of April, the National Cancer Prevention month, it has been announced that the final lecture given here by Dr. George Mills, May 6, in the grade school, will be given over to an illustrated lecture on cancer.

To Democracy

"May our eyes be open—
May our hearts be true—
May our hand be willing—
With respect for our heritage—
This nation's glorious past."

Newspapers are the schoolmasters of the common people. That endless book—the newspaper—is our national glory.—Henry Ward Beecher.

"There is something you can achieve without effort—failure, and nothing else. To higher ups, create or vacate. Count on the counted out. Getting cross hampers you in putting things across." Just a few epigrams from the pen of B. C. Forbes that pack a wallop.

Tell your friends about Northville. They will thank you some day for the timely and valuable suggestion.

This old U. S. A. has tried every trick in the economic bag to boost prices. Yet witness the sag to pre-war levels. Roger Babson opines "That prices once settled back do not rise until another war, or radical inflation." Price stability leads to business prosperity. The controlling factor is the faith, industry and behavior of the people.

Longing for Spring? There is so much gloom in the world. Spring dispels gloom; warm hearts, speaks in smiles, and adds miles of smiles as the smiles get catching.

May we inscribe the name of Mrs. A. C. Carlson and her colleagues upon the register of Community Good Deeds—for untrusting work with her Christian Endeavor class of bed ridden patients at Maybury sanatorium. "For as much as ye have done it unto the least of these."

One good friend of our is of the opinion that Michigan GOPers will draft Gov. Luren Dickinson for the 1940 race.

Defects in automobiles cause three out of 100 accidents. Defects in the "thinking machine" of the driver cause the other ninety-seven.

Thomas Jefferson Still Lives

"Thus spoke John Adams on his death bed." This statement is even more true today than in 1826 when Thomas Jefferson was laid to rest. His advice to a young namesake reveals his character—Adore God, reverence and cherish your parents. Love your neighbor as yourself and your country more than yourself, be just, be true and finally, maintain in all the ways of providence." Thus spoke the Sage at Monticello in the mellow wisdom of his reflective years.

April 13th, 1718, Thomas Jefferson was born and passed away at Monticello, now a national shrine, July 4th, 1826. Jefferson was the pen of the revolution, a Washington was the sword and Patrick Henry the tongue. He wrote the Declaration of Independence. He took twenty days to write it, Congress huddled it roughly for two weeks yet made only 11 verbal changes and suppressed three passages. He wrote the statute of Religious Freedom for the State of Virginia, the last of its kind in the world.

He invented the steel chair, and folding chair. France decorated him for inventing a plow; he abhorred cities as pestilential to the morals, loved architecture and designed the Capitol of Virginia and the University of Virginia. His was the greatest real estate deal of the century—The Louisiana Purchase. He never missed a sunrise in fifty years; could write with either hand, could read and write five languages; played violin duets with Patrick Henry; and was literally eaten out of house and home by his friends.

He wrote his own epitaph

We might be wrong—a Gatesmanian theory applies to editorial opinions and thought—so we might be wrong, too.

Walled Lake News

By CHARLES E. HUTTON

WALLED LAKE—Somewhere within this column those who follow it may find items that seem tinged with a greenish fuzziness, and bearing a slightly musty tinge, the characteristics of something a bit old. I'm hoping, however, that their diminished freshness may in some measure have gained recompense in a bit of antique charm.

To bring things somewhat up-to-date, beginning where we left off last week, perhaps we'd better head off with Bliv's troubles. Bliv—A. B. Given—told us of an auto accident involving his wife, who is visiting relatives in Houston, Texas, for a few weeks. She was driving across a street intersection a couple of weeks ago, accompanied by her son-in-law, Charles E. Lee, when her car collided with a truck. She suffered leg and internal injuries. Mr. Lee received several head and shoulder bruises. Mrs. Given's return home will be delayed at least a week, Bliv said. Bliv was further upset last week by the loss of his dog, which took sick and died. "He was one of the truest friends a fellow ever had," said Bliv.

Bert Melicor got kicked by one of his mules last Tuesday. Doe said nothing was broken, but Bert has been laid up ever since. He's coming along alright though, according to Lloyd Coe.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pascoe have moved back to Walled Lake after leaving several months at Marine City. "Bliv-me," said Mr. Pascoe, "I got homesick up there to get back here, so we're here and glad to be back." And we're glad to see them again.

Kurt Tufford and Don Riley of the Walled Lake fire department, attended the Grand County Fire Chiefs' Association meeting at Birmingham Friday evening. They won 21 different kinds of medals.

The Nooks and the Wilsons joined in a friendly match for their Easter Egg Hunt. "Had to sound like a mad man," related Nook who said he didn't mind being a fool but he did mind being a fool in front of his wife and out of sight of his wife's department.

It's little known that the alumni football banquet honoring Coach Stevenson at Michigan State Normal at college stadium, 1911. Rev. used to move in down as a member of the Alumni Association a few years ago.

Mrs. L. M. Hill was taken to Granger hospital, Detroit Saturday, for examination and possible operation. She has been in ill health for several months.

The Lakeland Players were entertained at an Italian spaghetti dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Edna Tufford at their home, Saturday evening. Very good food.

Walled Lake churches enjoy to their largest congregations ever last Easter Sunday. Choirs in the aisles and everything. Excellent music and every sermon marked the services. Everyone is invited to be present again this Sunday.

Recreation of the fire men from the fire department of the town of Walled Lake was a big success at the year of the town's garage was completed this week. The fire department company The change was necessary because of the danger and vibration of the street effort for the building roof, according to Ken Tufford, newly appointed Walled Lake fire chief.

The third annual firemen's ball held Saturday night in the Walled Lake recreation room was highly successful from the standpoints of attendance and proceeds. Receipts totaled more than $70, all of which was turned over to the Civic Welfare club. A $2500 prize on their community house project.

MRS. OLIVE BAKER, 55 years old, died Saturday afternoon at her home in Walled Lake following a prolonged illness. She came to Walled Lake at the age of six weeks from her birthplace, East Palmyra, N. Y., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Pennell. In 1876 she was married to Edward Baker who died in 1911.

Congressional Comment
by Representative
George A. Dondero
7th Michigan District

To the Editor:
According to tax figures just released, business in this country is not paying twice as much in Federal taxes as it did in 1929. In 1929, with business on a very prosperous level, corporation income taxes amounted to $1,235,733,000. In 1939, from corporations and individuals engaged in business will be in excess of $2,124,275,000.

Today corporation income taxes will amount to an estimated $926,000,000, or $300,000,000 less than in 1929. But now American business must pay, in addition to income taxes, pay roll taxes which will in 1939, produce $1,981,175,000, or about $122,000,000 more than all corporation income taxes.

In 1936 a tax of one per cent was levied against employers of eight or more persons to support a system of unemployment insurance. That tax increased to two per cent in 1937 and to three per cent in 1938. In 1936 a tax of one per cent was imposed upon all but selected groups of employers to set up a system of old age assistance. At the present time the pay roll taxes amount to four per cent of pay rolls.

Pay roll taxes also have an influence on employment, for when an employer adds an employee to his pay roll he must be prepared to add four per cent of his wages to his Federal tax statement.

Because of these considerations, pay roll taxes have a tendency to retard business. Employers act with caution when considering an increase of employment. Every increase in pay to workers means an increase in tax for both employer and employee. Businesses which might otherwise operate at a profit sustain losses or reduce employment.

Our business tax structure ought not to have a depressing effect on business. If we are to have business recovery this existing tax schedule must be revised before the burden on business becomes a private enterprise.

The King is dead! Long live the king!

So might the boys who bowl each Thursday night in the Merchant's League, shout after last Thursday's matches, Northville Hardware, so long in second place, is back on the throne, while the deposed Legion five languishes in second.

The first place Hardware squad swept three games, as did Owen's Mens Shop. Winners of two games included Novi Auto Parts and Northville Recreation. The latter team advanced to third place, although its winning average, on the basis of games played, puts it above the nominal leaders.

Final games will be played April 20. The league championship promises to be undecided until that night, and three teams have a chance at the title, the cash prizes and the

Devoted to Eye Welfare for Everyone

WHAT IT TAKES TO BE AN OPTOMETRIST

Few people are aware of the amount of preparatory study required before one can be a graduate optometrist and be licensed by his state to practice his profession. A four-year course is the requirement. The first two years are the standard college courses, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science (indeed, many optometrists carry this degree).

After the first two years, the work specifically applies to optometric practice, and this is the point where the student customarily comes in contact with the subjects which are the special subjects in which an optometrist must be proficient, are geometric optics with special reference to lenses and prisms; general anatomy; ocular anatomy in great and minute detail; theory of optics, lighting and illumination, general pathology with special relation to eye-sight; and specific ocular pathology in the same detail as ocular anatomy, as well as a course in psychology. These might be called "book subjects."

In addition, there are the practical subjects, involving laboratory work in refraction, neutralization of lenses, analytical routines for measuring the visual capacities of the individual patient, typing and synthesizing of symptoms; the art of prescribing lenses, with the fine details of which there are many more than any lay person can realize; the handling of ophthalmic instruments and ophthalmic procedures and instruments.

Like all students, he takes frequent tests and examinations, and, upon being graduated from his school or college, he is still faced with a rigorous examination before his State Board of Examiners; before he receives his license, he must pass a post-graduate course of study, wherein he receives monthly assignments of problems relating to vision that he must puzzle out because he may be called on to demonstrate at clinics—his knowledge and ability before his colleagues.

You can see that the practice of modern optometry is a long, long way from the "fitting of spectacles" that was common fifteen or twenty years ago, and that a modern professional optometrist has placed himself on a plane of requirements equal to those of dentistry and medical science.

In spite of which, we have more applicants and of better quality, trying for places in our professional schools than ever before in our history, with the fine details of which there are many more than any lay person can realize; the handling of ophthalmic instruments and ophthalmic procedures and instruments.

It is reported that the Oakland county dog catcher is the highest paid county official except the circuit judges. Paid on a fee basis the dog warden received $4,281.50 in 1937. Circuit judges received $750.00.

Michigan's high school teachers and administrators will gather at the University of Michigan for the 53rd annual meeting of the Michigan Schoolmasters' Club Apr. 27-29. A broad program of interest to educators from all over the State has been arranged by the officers of the club, headed by Dwight H. Ruck, principal of the Lansing Eastern high school.

License plates for the year 1940 will be black numerals on a silver aluminum background. The silver aluminum paint used, will condense the metal of the plate and the plate will not be subject to chipping as with the enamel now used, making the new license plates more durable; also this color background will tend to eliminate reflections and minimize glare.

Hours and hours of tedious labor were cancelled in a brief and freakish prank of a snowstorm. A mail pouch, bound for Greenville and containing 2,000 Montcalm county tax sale descriptions, was thrown from a moving train, slid down a snow bank onto the tracks, and the 2,000 descriptions were pulverized under the train wheels. Now the job has to be done all over again.

Whether visitors produce eggs, buy them, sell them, or just eat them, the World's Poultry Congress, which is in Cleveland, July 28 to Aug. 1, will provide worthwhile variety, say members of the Michigan committee for participation in the Congress. Michigan's leaders are planning a poultry display. These will include illustrations of final hatchery work, establishing Michigan State college as first hand grant agricultural institution, and the pioneering of building trucks and using them.

Dairymen in Ottawa, Allegan, Eaton, Kent, Van Buren and Ionia counties are cooperating in a consumer-producer campaign to stimulate greater use of dairy products. These county programs are to be a part of the state and national campaign. Extension dairymen at Michigan State college estimate that if farms pledge a cent a pound for butter produced on their farms for two weeks in June, the campaign should enable them to witness an increase in dairy product prices that will return them five dollars for every dollar in campaign costs.

In an effort to remove salacious periodicals from Wayne newspapers, the St. Mary's Unit of the National Council for Catholic Women will launch a drive to enlist cooperation of dealers on Sunday. The drive is to continue throughout April, as part of a nation-wide campaign against objectionable periodicals. Says Fr. Roberge of St. Mary's church: "The law was laid down in the sixth commandment and it still holds good. These lascivious periodicals lead to the breaking of the ten commandments, hence they should be taken off the newsstands."

FOR Economy

One of the many advantages of our membership in the Bell System is the substantial saving to every customer of this Company... a saving that grows directly out of the centralization made possible by the Bell System.

For example, we get our equipment from the Western Electric Company, manufacturing unit for all Bell Telephone Companies. This assures us of the finest standardized equipment at a lower cost than we could buy it elsewhere.

Instead of conducting our own research department, we pay a fraction of the cost of maintaining the centralized Bell Telephone Laboratories, "Home of Telephone Progress." In this way we have the use of the improvements developed by a complete research program which no one associated Bell Telephone Company could afford to maintain.

This efficiency... avoiding wasteful duplication... is one reason why your telephone service is better and costs less than any other telephone service in the world.

Who knows most about Building cars?

Ford has built more than one-third of all the automobiles ever built in the world

THERE are more Ford cars in use today than any other make. And there are more Ford V-8s than any other 8-cylinder car.

You will find values in it far beyond what any other maker can put into a car at the low Ford price.

Ford performance, traditional for a generation, has reached new heights in the 1939 V-8.

And now Ford style leadership is equally outstanding. "The smartest cars on the road" is the way owners describe their new Fords. Smartest in action. Smartest in appearance. Leaders, as they deserve to be.

Church Wedding Unites Miss Johnson and Mr. Miller; Dempsey-Wilkinson Vows Are Pledged in Home Ceremony

Miller-Johnson
Miss Florence Johnson, daughter of Mrs. A. H. Johnson and the late Mr. Johnson, became the bride of Arthur Miller, son of Mrs. Carl Miller, in a pretty wedding which occurred at 7 o'clock Saturday evening, Apr. 8, in St. Paul's Lutheran church. The marriage vows were pledged before the Rev. E. E. Rosow.

The bride, given in marriage by Hans Hansen, wore an ivory lace redingote over ivory satin. Her tiered tulle veil was held in place with a halo of seed pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of calla lilies.
Attending the bride was her sister, Miss Helene Johnson, who wore a floor length gown of blue chiffon which was accented by a studded taffeta bolero. The costume was complemented by a peach floral and tulle headress. Her arm bouquet was made of roses and gladioli.
The flower girl, Nancy Litsenberger, wore a peach orandy frock, floor length, which was trimmed with rows of white orandy ruffling. She carried a colonial bouquet.
Victor Miller was his brother's best man. Ushers were Alex Johnson, a brother of the bride, and David Martens, a brother-in-law of the bride.
Preceding the pledging of vows Miss Gertrude Deal sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly." The wedding music was played at the organ by Louis Meisner.
Mrs. Johnson selected a navy crepe dress for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in black crepe and her shoulder corsage was also of gardenias.
Following the ceremony, a reception was held for more than a hundred guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Miller on Nine Mile and Taft roads, where they are now at home to their friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Miller took a motor trip after the reception to Becher, Ill. where they visited with Mrs.

Leo Eickstaedt, formerly of this place.
Mrs. Miller is a graduate of the Northville high school and for the past two years has been an employee of the Michigan Bell Telephone company. She will continue her association with the company. Mr. Miller is also a graduate of the village high school and is a farmer.

Dempsey-Wilkinson
An impressive home wedding at 5 o'clock Easter Sunday afternoon united in marriage Miss Isabelle Wilkinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wilkinson, and William Dempsey, son of H. Dempsey of Plymouth.
The single ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Harry J. Lord of the Methodist church, with organ music being played for the nuptial rites by Miss Laura Marie Lord. The vows were pledged before the bay windows in the Wilkinson living room which were flanked by lilies, ferns, pansies and geraniums.
The bride was dressed in a floor length taffeta frock of aquamarine. She wore matching ribbon bows in her hair and carried an arm bouquet of roses and sweet peas. She was given in marriage by her father.
Her only attendant was Miss Velma Evans of Plymouth, who wore a rose taffeta dress and a shoulder corsage of white sweet peas.
Leland Thomas of Plymouth, was Mr. Dempsey's best man.
Mrs. Wilkinson selected a dress of rose lace and crepe for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was of white violets.
Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home for 40 guests. A large white wedding cake centered the table, where pink and white appointments were used. Assisting the bride couple at the table were Mrs. Howard Whipple and Mrs. George Evans of Plymouth. Guests were present from Le-troit, Plymouth, Dearborn, South Lyon, Wyandotte, Pontiac and Northville.

PLANS ARE ANNOUNCED FOR THIRD BOOK FAIR

Plans are under way for the third annual Book Fair, sponsored by the Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary. This year the event will take place May 6. Members of the organization ask that all villagers be on the lookout for books which they will be willing to donate. They ask that these be placed aside during the housecleaning season. A call to Northville 266, will give the housewife an opportunity to get the books out of her way.

The piano played a familiar hymn. Pages rustled as toil-roughened fingers turned the hymn book pages. And in the front of the church stood a plain, simple man of 80 years, whose appearance in no way set him out from those who had come to listen.

He was Michigan's governor, Luren D. Dickinson, who teaches a Sunday School class in a little church at Center Eaton, near Charlotte. And now, though cameras clicked, he conducted his class of friends and neighbors as he has for years.

"I have a pipe line to God . . . I can talk to Him and do talk to Him every day . . . I am not ashamed to be a Christian." These were among his remarks.

You will want to see him with the class he teaches.

The Farmers' Corner
By E. I. BESSEMER
County Agent

Lawn Care Early Treatment
Now is the time to get the lawn in condition for a season of enjoyment and use, according to County Agricultural Agent E. I. Bessemer.

A spring application of commercial fertilizer should be applied now so as to give the grass an early start. Use a 19-8-4 fertilizer at the rate of 10 pounds per 1000 square feet and spread it evenly over the lawn. The fertilizer may be put on with one of the small fertilizer distributors, or it may be mixed with dry soil and spread by hand. Mixing with dry soil provides a means of getting the fertilizer on evenly if no distributor is available.

If put on at once the fertilizer need not be washed into the soil as it does not burn the grass, however, later in the season when the grass is actively growing the commercial fertilizer must be applied when the grass is dry and it must be thoroughly watered immediately.

A second application after the middle of May of a complete fertilizer will be best. For example, Kentucky Blue Grass lawns until around Sept. 1, when another application should be made.

THE ORANGE AND BLACK

Edited by the Journalism Class of Northville High School

Editor's Note...

Due to the slight variation at the end of last week and the beginning of this week, the Orange and Black page was definitely weakened, at least as far as this issue goes. However, never fear, we'll be back next week just as strong as ever. Maybe you don't read the page enough to notice but we hope that isn't the case.

The big night is finally here! At last we'll know just how Mary is having her hair fixed and how Susie has fixed over last year's dress so Vice-president Kenneth Wolfe will escort Lucille Price and will be second in the Grand March. They will be followed by Secretary Jean Orr and Louis Foreman.

The committees for the dance are as follows: Decorations—Pat Klein, chairman, Eugenia Stanford, Wilford Wilson, Junior Holt, Barbara Simmons, Betty Armstrong, Mary Potter, Bob Farmer, Jane Ziegler, Bob Orr and Elmer Basko; Invitations, programs and tickets—Jean Marburger, chairman; Doris Hubbard, Alene Matthews, Natalie Whipple, Kay Chatham and Peggy McCune; orchestra—Jean Lyke, chairman, Kendall Willis and Alan Goto; refreshments—Nina Wenzel, chairman, Thelma Kent, Norma Goto, Rhea Walling, Dorothy Bingham, Marian Healey and Mary Frances Batt; checkroom—Charlene Hardesty, chairman, and Fred Steener; chaperones—Max Rowe, chairman, Elsie Wilder and Harry Porter.

Chaperones for the evening will be: Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Amernan, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Harrison, Mrs. Harry F. Blake, Mrs. Ida B. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. George Stalker, Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Willis and Mr. and Mrs. William Henschen.

Betty Armstrong to Al Cousins in journalism. "Write some class notes; find out what Mr. Mollema's doing."

Julie Modos: "He's having a fit. He's looking at the senior class bills."

I can't be recognized. However, we're glad that it's a dance that takes up our time instead of drilling for war or trying on our new gas mask instead of an Easter bonnet. Let's not be as pessimistic as our president and think about war when dances are so much more pleasant and more profitable as well.

Senior news is of utmost importance this week when final preparations for that all important trip to Washington are taking place. As you all know the class leaves the 24th and will return at the end of that same week. Hours were evaluated this week and we'll know the lucky seniors who are able to talk mama and dad into the trip by this time next week. Of course there is a fare species who has earned so many hours so that he doesn't have to lay down a dime but these ambitious ones are few and far between. Anyway it's going to be a wonderful experience for those who take the trip and those who don't won't have to make up any work or anything so that ought to make them reconciled to staying behind.

N. H. S. Doodle

By CHAPPELL

These songs are in first place on the hit parade.

"Why Don't We Get Along?" — Kate Marburger and Chuck Bishop.

"Get Out of Town" — Mr. K. Avey and Mr. R. Farmer.

"I'm Happy and It's Where I Long To Be" — Jack Mc. to Jerry on her front porch.

"Hold Tight" — Helen Winter to Skip at all the dances.

"I Get Along Without You Very Well" — Ken Chappell to Catherine Bieri.

"Hurry Home" — says Mrs. Harper to her charming daughter, Helen.

"This Can't Be Love" — hums Mary Fran Batt softly to herself, but she knows right well it is!

Wanted—A date for the J-Hop, with expenses paid by girl. Cecil Nirdler.

Mrs. Bieri to Mrs. Bender: "This modern generation just must be dignified."

Mrs. Bender: "Isn't it the truth? Only yesterday I had to send Wanda to bed without any breakfast."

Bob Rembowski: "To you we pull off our hats, when you admit (as many N. H. S. students will not) that you got your E in English 12, because you deserved it."

James Holden was watching the ice, snow, and later in the Detroit river, driven by a northeast gale, racing down the river. Suddenly the ice seemed to stop. Then the river actually went into reverse, picking up speed against the northeast blow. Engineers explained that such a thing happens once in 30 or 40 years, when the water in Lake Erie becomes higher than the water in Lake St. Clair.

from the standpoint of size and accessibility.

Small children going to the post office for parents will face dangerous traffic.

Location of the post office at the main corner would make a bad traffic "bottle neck" worse.

Advantages

Arguments advanced for the proposed site are that the new building should be located there as a civic show place replacing the present building; the present site is reasonably quiet; the post office should be located where it will be accessible to the greatest number of people, and this site meets that specification.

To get the most representative vote possible, Exchange club urges that everyone use the ballot carried on the front page of this issue to vote his or her conviction on the location of the new post office. No other ballot will be used or circulated. Additional copies of the ballot may be had at The Record office.
