Postal Receipts Show Increase for Fiscal Year

Insured Parcels Make 20
Per Cent Gain; December
Hits New Mark

Air Stamps Increase

Despite the fact that the volume of the Detroit Edison mailing is not handled through the Northville Post Office as was formerly the case, Assistant Postmaster D. J. Stark reported today that the stamp sale for the fiscal year ended June 30, dropped only $145.91 over the 1938 sale.

During the year, $19,900 worth of stamps were sold from the Northville office, against the 1938 total of $20,037.

Reflect General Stamp
The general business slump which was felt throughout the country during January, February and March was reflected in the stamp sales for that period. The sales were $700 below the 1938 volume for that same period.

To offset this, the April, May, June period made a 10 per cent jump in sales over 1938, totaling $4,626 for the three-month period.

Parcels Are Insured
Some 2,800 parcels were insured through the Northville post office during the year, a 20 per cent increase over the 1938 fiscal year.

Money orders were $20,000 less this year than last year, indicating Mr. Stark says, that the public is getting out of debt and there's less use for the money orders. "People can buy more things in the village now than they formerly could," Postmaster Fred E. Vanatta asserts. The total for the fiscal year is $212,250.

Christmas Brings Business
An upturn in Christmas shopping was responsible for the $900 increase in the October, November, December period over the same months in 1937. The sales for the period in 1938 were $6,850.

In like manner, the postal savings for the fiscal year were $8,000 more than last year.

The bond sales for the year totaled $44,794.25 against the 1938 sale which totaled $28,200, almost doubling the volume.

Another feather in the cap for the post office employees is the small stamp sales. "From July 1938 to July 1939, $757 more air mail stamps were sold than during the 1938 fiscal year," Mr. Vanatta affirms, at the same time citing a daily increase in the number of letters which are being sent to Europe via air mail.

Air Mail Gets Boost

The National Air Mail Week which began May 19, 1938 did a great deal to boost air mail sales in Northville, Mr. Vanatta says. When Elmer Peran did the pony express act from Northville to Plymouth as a feature of the week, there were almost 1000 air mail letters in the pouch.

In proportion to the population, Northville was within the first five towns in the United States in the Air Mail Week turnout, based on the publicity of the affair," reports Mr. Vanatta in accordance with information which was sent him from headquarters.

Farmington Man Steals Car Parts at Walled Lake

For stealing accessories from a car at the Walled Lake Park, July 8, belonging to Peter Kobman, route 2, Farmington, Porter Watson, 22 years old, was sentenced Saturday by Justice Arthur R. Green to serve 90 days in the Oakland county jail.

Watson, who had been employed for the past three months at the H. I. Bailey chicken farm on Fourteen Mile road, came from Sparta, N. C. his home two years ago, and had been employed as a farm hand in this vicinity since that time.

He was arrested Thursday, when his car was discovered at the Walled Lake Park by Deputy R. L. McQuern, who has been working on the case. McQuern also recovered articles, including a spare tire and wheel, which had been stolen from the Kooman car the week before Watson's car is being held at a local garage.

No Action Is Taken on Dance Petition

Members of the village council took no action Monday evening on a petition received from John Norton asking for a dance permit at his Inn.

The petition contained some 300 names of persons who live in the village. According to Mayor Arthur S. Nichols, there were hardly any signatures on the petition of persons who live in the vicinity of Norton's Inn. When councilmen gave Norton his license for beer this spring, they refused to permit dancing.

Councilmen took no action on Norton's request because Ordinance No. 108, passed by the commission Mar. 20, prohibits dancing in any establishment selling beer, wine or liquor.

Fair Entertainers

The Brown Brothers will perform during the Northville Wayne County Fair, Aug. 16-19.

Early Requests Point to Record Fair in August

20 Horses Are Already
Entered in Running Race
Competition

Exhibit Space Gone

With every department enjoying a record demand for entries and pre-fair requests, the outlook, three weeks before the annual Northville Wayne County Fair points to a record fair for 1939.

Attractions, platform acts, industrial exhibits, premium list entries, the schedule for the ball games and the running race, entries are all scheduled almost to capacity. The response to the efforts of the Fair Board to have everything planned and arranged weeks before the fair's meeting with a wonderful reception and the most hearty cooperation in every respect.

20 Horses Here Now
Word has already gone forth concerning the running races, and as The Record goes to press 20 horses are now stabled at the grounds. More requests for stabling are being received daily.

Wednesday Is Big Day
More than ever, an effort is being made to make Wednesday a big day at the fair. With the baseball tournament, fireworks, five big races, specially strong acts on the platform scheduled for the four days instead of three as heretofore, Wednesday should start the fair off with a real bang, and push that will make the other three days greater and better than ever.

Thursday Is Plymouth Day
Thursday of the fair is Plymouth Day and what a day it will be with all of Plymouth coming over in a great motorcade. Northville will welcome the Plymouthites with open arms. Friday, the good folks of Farmington will be special guests of the fair management, and then on Saturday, Detroit Day, the big wind up the four-day event will take place.

Demand for exhibition space, has now brought the board face to face with a real problem of taking care of the exhibitors requesting space. Some suggest the providing of more space to accommodate the demand. It is said that requests now total 500 square feet more than is now available.

Exchangites Named To Investigate Club's Projects

Exchangites meeting in the Methodist church house Wednesday considered means of raising funds for their many worthy activities, and viewed pictures shown by "Chuck" Skinner.

A special committee consisting of Dr. H. I. Sparling, C. A. Ely and Harold Church was appointed by President Tom Edmondson to consider certain proposed projects. The dates of Sept. 6-8, were announced as the dates of the coming National Convention of Exchange at Atlantic City. The matter of a delegate or delegates was presented for discussion.

Uniform Parking Is State's Aim

Uniform regulations for parallel parking on all city or village streets on the State highway system will go into effect for the first time, Sept. 29.

Section 27a of Act 189 of the recent session of the legislature bans angle parking within city limits. The Act does provide, however, that local authorities may by ordinance permit angle parking upon highways other than State trunkline highways. The Act has been signed by the Governor and will become effective on Sept. 29, 1939.

LOUIE BABBITT SEEKS BOY SCOUT TROPHY

Fourteen-year-old Louie Babbitt, shooting for the Boy Scout trophy at Brae Burn, scored 54 points higher than the minimum necessary to win last week.

His scores in the prone position were 44-42-45-46; total 177 x 200. In the offhand position: 40-35-37-26-24-35; total 217 x 250.

He is Hall the official in charge, stated that the outstanding feature of Louie's shooting was that the average time on each of the ten five-shot targets was two minutes and forty seconds.

HOLD PICNIC

The annual St. Paul's Lutheran church and Sunday School picnic will be held Sunday, Aug. 13, at Glen Eden Memorial Park.

NORTHVILLE VANILLA
FLIES TO CAPTIVOL
When the Michigan Cherry Chalkovsky was carried the big cherry pie to Washington to be presented to President Franklin D. Roosevelt, she stopped at Flint and received a big ice cream cake to be presented to Vice-President Garner. It is interesting to note that Northville vanilla was the flavoring used in the ice cream.

Glenn Foster, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hallie Foster of Wolverine Lake, died early Wednesday afternoon from injuries sustained at 12:30 p. m. July 19, when he approached an intersection on a road three miles north of Walled Lake.

Young Foster's view, as he approached the intersection, was obstructed by tall weeds. He cycled in the path of a car driven by Medley Huffman of Wolverine Lake. Foster was treated at Walled Lake, then rushed to the Pontiac General hospital, where he died within a few minutes after entrance. His skull was crushed.

Huffman made statements to the Oakland county sheriff and the prosecutor and was released.

Horse Committee Adds Stock Class to August Show

Additional Stabling Facilities
Are Needed for Entries
This Year

Takes Class Lead

With the addition of classes throughout all divisions of the show, as well as being the first in the mid-west to offer a stock horse class, the Northville Wayne County Fair Horse Show, Aug. 16-19, promises to be the largest show in Northville history.

A Saturday morning session is included this year to permit the showing of the extensive program. The first day, as has been the case in the past, the ponies will be shown, with the infants class booked as the highlight.

New Amateur Treatment
The second day will be devoted to juniors and amateurs, with four classes added for amateur riders and their mounts with the classes so written that the horses shown in the amateur classes may not show in the senior events.

The horse show committee has added a series of this type in order that the owners of pleasure horse type animals may have an opportunity to compete in the show without opposing large show stables from various states. It is the hope of the committee that classes of this type will assist in stimulating local horse show interest.

The third and fourth days of the show will be given over entirely to senior events. According to Secretary R. Edmund Dowling, the committee's big problem is the acute shortage of stabling space for the anticipated extensive entries.

Sponsor Stock Horse Class
A stock horse class, which is making its initial Michigan appearance at the Northville show, is consistent with the committee's policy of always attempting to give the public something new and original in the way of horse show attractions. It is recalled that two years ago the Northville show featured a machine gun exhibition that was received so enthusiastically that it was later duplicated at the National Horse Show in Detroit the following year.

Class Is Popular
Last year, the committee presented the Tennessee Walking class, which is rapidly becoming a fixture in midwestern shows.

It naturally follows that the committee is taking a particular interest in the stock class inasmuch as it has been successful in leading the midwestern shows by at least a year in the inauguration of new types of classes.

Stock horse classes as they are now termed are what was formerly known as the cow pony classes. In judging, these will be required to execute all of the pre-requisites of high class cow ponies, including speed, handiness, tractability and ability to qualify as roping ponies.

To Hold Eliminations
Such large entries are expected in this class that the committee has planned to have eliminations Saturday morning, with the qualifying ponies going in for judging in the afternoon.

The general outlook, Mr. Dowling says, is probably the brightest the committee has experienced in the 23 years of the show's experience.

Police Report Quiet and Peace; Stolen Car Is Recovered

It continues to be peaceful and quiet on the Northville police front, according to Chief of Police Earl Montgomery.

A stolen car belonging to John Cooley, 2186 Marlboro, Detroit, was recovered Sunday in Northville. The car, missing since July 7, was found Sunday parked in front of the Methodist parsonage at the corner of Center and Dunlap streets. The car had been there for two or three days.

During June fines totaling $7 were collected from traffic violators by the village police.

DETROITER WINS ANNIS MATCH AT BRAE BURN

In the playoff, Burke won the second hole.

Picture Fans Enter Contest

All Prints Must Be Sent to State Fair, Detroit, Not Later Than Aug. 21

Northville camera hobbyists may enter the Michigan Amateur Camera contest, sponsored locally by The Northville Record in conjunction with the Michigan Press association and the Michigan State Fair.

Send Entries to Detroit
Photographs may be taken any place in Michigan between June 1 and Aug. 15. All entries are to be sent to the State Fair, Detroit, before winning entries will be exhibited 1-10. Awards are $100 first, $50 second, $10 third, and $1 each for 40 honorary mentions.

The rules were announced this week by the newspaper's committee of judges, including: George R. Averall, Birmingham Eccentric; Philip T. Rich, Midland Daily News; William R. Kuenzel, Detroit News; Jack Smith, Detroit Times; Joe Kaler, Detroit Free Press. All five judges are camera enthusiasts.

Contest Rules
Each contestant may enter from one to four prints. Prints must not be smaller than 8 x 10 inches and they are not to be colored.

All prints must be mounted on white board not larger than 16 x 20 inches. Each picture must be accompanied by the following information: written clearly on typed name and address of entrant, date and place picture was taken, make of camera, and if possible, the lens opening used for the photograph.

Professional photographers and employees of the State Fair are not eligible to compete. All prints must reach the State Fair not later than Aug. 21.

Return of prints cannot be guaranteed. However, if sufficient postage is enclosed, every effort will be made to return entries. Prize-winning photographs will become the property of contest sponsors for exhibition purposes.

Start Remodelling Activity Monday at Bowling Alley

Remodeling starts Monday on the bowling alleys in the Recreation Building. According to Albert Schlesinger and Kenneth Rathburn, about $2,000 will be spent in new equipment and conditioning the quarters to be one of the best and up-to-date alleys in Wayne county.

Redecorating and repainting will mean a great deal in providing the bowlers of the community with clean, wholesome and modern bowling facilities.

Add New Equipment
Some of the new equipment to be installed includes: Racks to set up the pins, bumpers ball returns pins and balls. Outlet exhaust fans will be installed insuring healthful conditions at all times. The alleys are to be resanded and finished.

Registers with ABC
The alleys are to be definitely registered this year by the A. B. C. association. Last year on account of the late opening of the alleys it was impossible to put the alleys in condition to meet the conditions and have them registered.

With a nice new, clean interior and alleys in the pink of condition the outlook points to a great number of bowling teams in Northville. You are requested to invite your friends and all those interested in bowling to come in and inspect the new quarters at your convenience. We will welcome your suggestions and your interest," states Albert Schlesinger, who is really enthusiastic over the outlook for the new quarters.

30 Children Swim in Lawrence Pond

Thirty boys and girls have been taking swimming instruction this week at the Lawrence pond, where Officer Richard Loomis is supervising the latest project of the village.

Most of the children who come to the pond, Mr. Loomis says, are beginners. "There have been only four or five good swimmers down there," he affirms.

"Our need right now is a spring board so that diving can be taught," he said.

Engineer Seeks Site for Water in Village Park

Councilmen Seek Advice from Expert Before Going Ahead with Project

Abandon First Site

Street Commissioner Earl Montgomery sent a wire Wednesday to Dunbar and Sons, contractors, to come to the village as soon as possible to begin a test hole in the Village Park in an attempt to find a vein of water to supplement Northville's present water supply. The wire was sent after Engineer R. A. Murdock had approved the park site Wednesday morning.

Village councilmen puzzled over what to do about Northville's "inadequate" water situation, have asked Russell A. Murdock, engineer who has been hired to get the village out of its difficulty, to return to Northville to look over a site in the Village Park where a second test hole may be sunk.

Drilling has been abandoned on the site near the reservoir after digging went to a 275-foot depth through hard rock and clay without finding a water vein. Dunbar and Sons drill contractors, are awaiting authorization from the councilmen before continuing the project or before sinking another test hole on a new location.

Park Is Approved
The State has approved the Village Park as a possible site for a well, as well as approving property in Oakland county. The commissioners favor the park site because the property belongs to the village and would not entail further cost. The Oakland site would have to be purchased, or leased.

Original Cost
When drilling began on the reservoir site, the approximate cost of the project was set at $3,000 based on a 100-foot drill. The cost of the pump was estimated at $1,200.

Until the engineer has been consulted, it will be impossible to determine what the cost under the present circumstances will be.

After discussing the matter at some length Monday evening in the council meeting, the commissioners decided not to take action without further talking with Mr. Murdock.

Lansing Is Scene of Price Hearing by Milk Board

The Michigan Milk Marketing board will conduct a hearing at 10 a. m. Wednesday, July 26 in Room 734 in the State Office Building, Lansing, for the purpose of receiving evidence upon conditions affecting the production, marketing and distribution of milk in the Detroit milk marketing area.

The minimum prices to be paid by distributors according to the classification for milk sold in the marketing area are to be discussed. Milk dealers, producers and consumers may appear before the board at the appointed time to give testimony and evidence concerning prices.

● Back To The Country

Investigators who have been studying the subject of where and how most people prefer to live have come to the rather unexpected conclusion that more young married people than elderly ones prefer country life to city life, all the year around.

The general impression has been the other way; that the diversified interests and entertainment afforded by city life made it more attractive to the young than to the old.

It probably is true that this change of tastes is accounted for by the fact that modern improvements enable people to live in the country with all the comforts and conveniences which the cities afford, and the added gratification of the ineradicable human urge to live among natural rather than artificial surroundings.

The movement of the population today is not merely from the cities to the suburban areas, but beyond the suburbs, to the real country, where people can have a garden, keep cows or pigs if they want to, live naturally and simply, and at the same time get to town about as easily as they can from nearby suburban districts.

Modern highways and motor cars make a fifty-mile drive to and from a city office or factory almost as easy as traveling from the outlying sections of a great city to its center.

People who live in the country these days can have well-built homes, insulated and air-conditioned against summer heat and winter cold; they have electric lights, modern plumbing, oil-burning furnaces and all of the other "fixings" which a few years ago nobody but city dwellers could enjoy.

The United States Census Bureau says that the movement from city to country is definitely under way. There is plenty of vacant land still unoccupied in every part of the United States to provide country homes for everybody who wants one.

"He serves his party best who serves his country best"—From inaugural address of President Hayes

● Time To Wake Up

Recently the American Institute of Public Opinion, noted for its fact-finding accuracy, started asking Americans the question: "Do you happen to pay any taxes?"

It is an established fact that nearly everyone who receives money from any source or buys even the barest necessities of life pays out a substantial part of his or her income in the form of hidden taxes. Yet 25 per cent of those answering the above question seemed sincerely to believe that they weren't helping to pay the mounting cost of government.

Sadly enough, most of those who were not conscious of paying taxes were numbered in the group on which proportionately the burden falls most heavily—those earning less than $20 a week. The man or woman earning that amount pays, on the average, slightly over a hundred dollars a year in taxes.

The common delusion brought into the spotlight by this survey is undoubtedly one of the chief reasons why heavy government spending, waste, and inefficiency so seldom encounter concerted opposition from those most affected. And one thing at least is sure: there can be no "aroused taxpayer" so long as the individual supposed to play that role isn't even conscious of being taken for a spending sleigh-ride.

Don't lose faith in humanity—there are over ninety-nine million people in this country who never played you a dirty trick.

Take warning and save drownings—a most timely thought. Don't go in swimming or bathing when you are over-heated; wait an hour after eating before going into the water. And when it comes to hot weather a pinch of salt in the water, and a slower pace helps immensely.

Retiring from the Northville School Board after nine years of continuous service it was a most thoughtful and courteous thing to register the approval and appreciation of Fred Lyke's service. Public service, especially of this type, is one of those marginal activities that take much time and often afford little remuneration either in financial or intangible returns. Too often criticism is its only reward. May we list this public service as warranting a permanent record upon the scroll of meritorious public service to Northville and community.

● Michigan's May Traffic Accidents

The state of Michigan experienced 3 fatal, 55 personal injury and 163 property damage accidents each day in May. For the entire month the totals were 92 fatal, 1702 personal injury, and 5056 property damage accidents. These resulted in 105 deaths and 2351 injuries.

This is a 50 per cent fatality increase over the previous month's experience since April suffered 61 fatal accidents and 72 deaths as compared to May's 92 fatal accidents and 105 deaths.

Fatal accidents on rural roads more than doubled with 16 reported in April as compared to 31 in May. Also accidents on trunk lines and in the larger cities increased.

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

● One Year Ago

Feminine republicans found Ex-Governor Frank D. Fitzgerald a most gracious guest Tuesday afternoon at a tea party which was held at the home of Mrs. Jean Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. George Keppel celebrated their twenty-sixth wedding anniversary at their home with a family dinner party.

The 4000 square feet of new sidewalk which is designed to dress up the village and make walking more inviting is a project which is well under way.

TO THE "LOW-PRICE FIELD"!

Henry Ford created the "low-price field" many years ago. That's history. But do you know what's HAPPENED to that field this year!

You CAN'T know—unless you've actually INSPECTED and DRIVEN a new FORD V-8!

Because FORD QUALITY LEADERSHIP—like FORD STYLE leadership—isn't a matter of TRICK CLAIMS and FANCY ADJECTIVES! It's a matter of FACTS—and FIGURES!

Stop in at one of our showrooms, at your first opportunity. Ask us to PROVE to you—PROVE, mind you!—that the Ford V-8 is by long odds THE GREATEST VALUE

AMONG LOW-PRICE CARS! Ask us to SHOW you why it's the greatest value! Make us POINT out every feature—the superior construction—the extra equipment INCLUDED in the price!

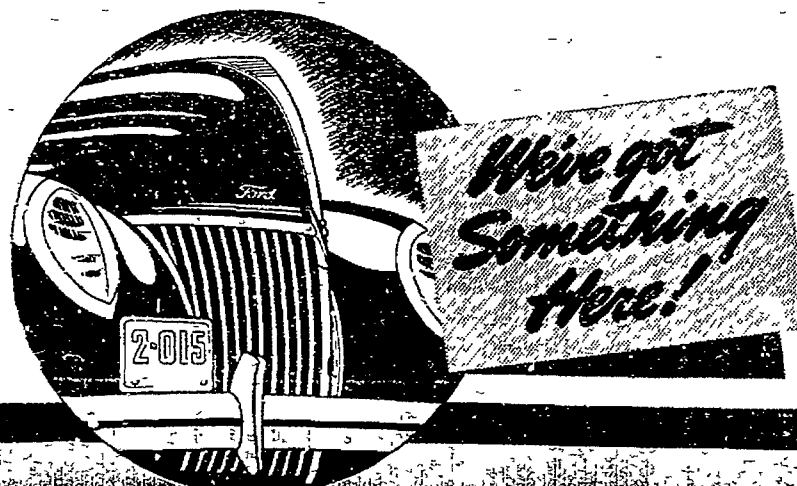

Don't let us TELL you about performance—NO SIR! Tell us to GIVE YOU THE KEYS, and you'll make YOUR OWN DEMONSTRATION! Tell us YOU'RE FROM MISSOURI!

Just one more thing. There's one of us Ford dealers located near you. We're as FED UP on phoney claims as you are! We want to talk FACTS and FIGURES! Let's make it a date!

Sincerely yours

Simple Home Nuptial Rites Read Friday in Detroit Unite Miss Grennan and Mr. Haass

In a simple, quiet ceremony read at 11 o'clock Friday morning, July 21, Miss Evelyn Ruth Grennan, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Phil Grennan, became the bride of Robert Haass, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Haass, 2939 Iniquity, Detroit.

The bride wore a white ensemble with white accessories, the costume selected by the bride for the ceremony, it later served as her travel costume when she and Mr. Haass left for a trip to California and Mexico. They plan to return early in September to make their home during the fall at the Grennan ranch home on the Six Mile road. Mr. Haass is a law student.

Mr. Haass for a number of years has been active in the sport which was beloved by her late father. To the famous Grennan horse stables she has added some of the finest horseflesh in this part of the country, one taking the grand champion ribbon at the Lansing show this spring. The Grennan Memorial Challenge trophy, which she sponsored in honor of her father, is one of the coveted events of the Northville Horse show. ## Walled Lake News

By C. E. Hutton

The first in a series of outdoor summer concerts by the Walled Lake high school band was presented Wednesday evening of this week in the business section of the village. Arrangements for the concerts were made between a committee of the Walled Lake Community Lullaby club and Frank Bach, director of the band, who stated that as many of the organization's 45 members as possible would be assembled for the programs. Plans call for concerts to be held each week, according to the club committee, which includes Joseph Waltz, Robert Miles and M. G. Post.

This uniformed band of school musicians has gained considerable recognition through its many appearances throughout this section of the state. Mr. Bach has recently received an invitation from the management of the Northville Wayne County Fair to present the band there for concerts during the four-day fair program. An invitation to appear at the Michigan State Fair during September also has been received.

Four hundred and sixty stadium type chairs have been installed in the bleacher section of the school's new gymnasium, now nearing completion. Finishing of the gymnasium floor is under way, and the room is presenting an attractive appearance to the many who stop to inspect each day.

Work is being rushed on the alterations of the main building, which calls for an almost complete re-vamping of the original floor plans. Old walls have been replaced by re-located new ones; new rooms have been created, all of which will give the illusion of an entirely new building, to the 800 students who will return in September. The intimate atmosphere of the old building will have been replaced by a strange vastness, with its maze of long corridors and new class rooms. The building, as a whole, will provide the Walled Lake student body with as modern and complete educational facilities as may be found anywhere.

The Walled Lake Methodist Ladies Aid Society met Thursday noon for potluck dinner and afternoon program at the home of Mrs. Henry Moss.

Pleasure Seekers Make Michigan a Play Ground

Some 350 Million Dollars Tourist Business Is Expected This Season, Despite Fair Attractions.

By GENE ALLEMAN

Despite the man-made competition of international expositions this summer in New York City and San Francisco, Michigan's tourist industry is expected to reap a 1939 harvest of 350 millions.

Such is the estimate of Business Week.

California will be second with 235 millions, Minnesota 205 millions and Wisconsin 150 millions.

Tourist expenditures have soared in to the "Big Business" category, but it would be a mistake to assume that Michigan's No. 2 industry is dependent solely upon the summer vacation habits of Middle-West residents. It is becoming more and more a year-round business.

Peninsula Playground.

Blessed by cooling, refreshing winds off Lake Michigan, the lower peninsula of Michigan has long been a favorite haven for sweltering denizens of industrial cities as far as St. Louis, Cincinnati and Louisville.

Nature gave also the peninsula the blessing of spring-fed lakes.

What to some might appear to be a curse—sand and sand and more sand—happily made possible many miles of ideal bathing beaches, not only along Lake Michigan, Lake Huron and Lake St. Clair, but on countless inland lakes.

Add to this combination the recreational advantage of fish and deer in large numbers, and surround it with the fragrance of pines and spruces and evergreens—all of it within a day's drive of millions of Americans—and you have a good idea why Business Week put Michigan at the top of the playground parade for 1939, world fairs notwithstanding.

From your own acquaintances, persons whom you have known most of your life-time, how many of them have never seen the Straits of Mackinac?

Ask the question tonight, but be prepared for a surprise.

Human inertia and a stubborn indifference to what appears to be commonplace, our own state has made Michigan the great unknown for many of its residents. Citizens of Dearborn, for example, are disinterested in "one of the world's most remarkable attractions at their own door—the world's largest industrial plant, all geared to that ever-astounding American device known as the "assembly line." It is just too close to home.

Greenfield Village, also at Dearborn, attracts more people from other states during vacation months than Michigan residents. Yet, as a tourist attraction it is without peer in its appeal and type any place in this nation.

Cascades at Jackson.

At Jackson is a remarkable scenic rare, the Illuminated Cascades, which is visited annually by close to 1,500,000 persons.

The artistic creation of William Sparks, a benevolent industrialist, and his wife, Matilda, the Cascades consists of sixteen water falls of which eleven are illuminated in the three primary colors—red, green and blue with all the scientific combinations of the rainbow.

Architecturally, the Cascades "is a massive structure of concrete, 550 feet long and 60 feet wide, rising to a height of 85 feet.

Above the top, center and bottom falls are three reflection pools ninety feet by thirty feet, each containing two fountains.

Picture the constant flow of 350,000 gallons of water and the kaleidoscopic hues of color magnified by 252,000 watts of electricity, and you may gather a mental conception of the grandeur of this Michigan tourist spot. Furthermore, the Cascades are free. Choice seats may be had for a dime. Be there promptly at 9 p. m. any day in the week. The annual festival at which 2,000 persons will sing and a symphony orchestra will play will be from Aug. 12 to 19.

Sand Dunes, Factories.

Within gunshot of the business section of Grand Haven on the Lake Michigan coast are several unique things: (1) Scores of sand dunes; (2) miles of white dazzling beach; (3) 300 summer cottages in Highland Park and the "North Shore," both within city limits; (4) an almost ice-free harbor, home port of the U. S. Coast guard cutter, "Escañaba," and 15 diversified industries that normally employ 3,000 persons.

Mix with this several beautiful parks and modern municipal building and community hospital.

Then you have another example of why Michigan cities, such as Grand Haven, continually attract new industrial concerns.

The Oval State park, facing the lake, leads all others in annual attendance. It's a dull day when less than 100 trailers are parked there. Nearby is Spring Lake, seven miles long, where the famed Hopkins gardens are always open during the long summer months to visitors.

A speed boat will take you from the big lake over inland waters, right to the estate of Mrs. Claude C. Hopkins, widow of the late Claude C. Hopkins, who was dean of modern advertising and president of Lord and Thomas, Chicago, until his death in 1932.

Cherry Capital.

As Michigan is the cherry capital of the United States, it was inevitable that a festival would be held in age-old celebration for nature's blessing of a wood crop.

July 12, 13 and 14 were the dates announced for the National Cherry Festival at Traverse City. Ships of the Great Lakes Training Fleet will participate in the program this year. And that distinctive product of Michigan's tourist business, the Festival Queen, was properly enthroned amid parades and what-not.

An automobile trip into the Leland peninsula, through Sutton's Bay, Leland and Northport, with perhaps a side tour encircling lovely Glenn Lake, will reveal countless cherry trees, reddened with fruit—a sight in itself worth seeing.

REMODELING JOB NEARS COMPLETION

Work is progressing very rapidly on the remodeling of the Walled Lake Consolidated School at Walled Lake. With the completion of the new annex, a rearrangement of several of the rooms in the old building is being made. Many of the rooms are most attractive and absolutely modern and up-to-date in every detail. Colorful linoleum on the floors of many of the rooms adds much to the atmosphere of
