

To Remove Paving Taxes from County Records of Sale

Simeracki Receives Approved List of Rejected Taxes from Auditor General's Office

Treasurer Pens Letter

Members of the village council were informed Monday evening through a letter written by Jacob P. Simeracki, Wayne county treasurer, that the Auditor General's office had approved a list of rejected taxes, including the paving taxes of the Village of Northville.

To Clear Property

"It is our intention to remove from the tax sale records and rolls all tax items which include the paving tax, and we wish to assure you that no property in your village will be jeopardized through any fault of this office," assured Mr. Simeracki.

Because of complaints which were voiced during the past months against the county treasurer's office Mr. Simeracki feels that in fairness to the residents and property owners of the village, his position should be explained.

Explains Position

"May we take the liberty of saving at the outset, that had the proper court proceedings been instituted regarding the paving tax on behalf of all the property owners thus avoiding a situation where the owners as individuals were compelled to resort to court proceedings, no difficulties would have arisen and considerable monies would have been saved by numerous taxpayers. The decrees rendered by the courts in the individual cases did not create any authority for this office to cancel paving tax general from the roll. Several village authorities, realizing this rather late, made an effort to have the Auditor General's office cancel this tax, which effort failed. It was only due to the insistence of this office, and special trips to Lansing, that this cancellation was granted by the Auditor General," he affirms.

2 Business Men Boost Hunting

Sportsmen Take to Woods for Opening of Season; Licenses Are Sold

Realizing the importance that villagers place on the opening of the hunting season, Nell Harnaford and R. J. Hammermeister trimmed their windows this week end in a manner fit to herald the hunting season in any county.

Autumn leaves, guns to tempt any hunter, furs and stuffed specimens that filled a hunter's bag in other seasons gave both windows an atmosphere that sportsmen really like.

And off hunting a number of villagers went this week end. Most of the reports were that there were too many hunters out for game, nevertheless, most of them came back with something to prove their skill.

Foreman Is Head of Apple Project

Ralph Foreman, Northville, is the local committeeman who is assisting in developing the marketing plans which are going forward for the purpose of apples by the Federal Surplus Community corporation.

The committee will not recommend to the Federal Surplus Community corporation an allocation for purchase from any grower unless the following diversion requirements have been fulfilled. Submission of proper proof that apples of a merchantable quality (apples which are free from decay and reasonably free from serious damage from any cause) have been diverted from fresh fruit channels in one or more of the following methods: Ensilage or stock feed, canning, evaporation, juice purposes, freezing, elmination, fertilizer, or not harvested.

E. I. Besemer, Dearborn, Wayne county agent as well as Mr. Foreman will give persons information on this project if they will contact them personally or by letter.

Board Authorizes Excavation Work at Grade School

WPA Project To Get Under Way Oct. 10; Plan To Move Manual Training Shop from High School

Work is to get under way by Tuesday Oct. 10, on the excavation project under the grade school building which is to be the first step in erecting a room to house the manual training shop of the high school by authority of action taken Monday evening when the members of the school board met to decide how much of the $7,065 WPA project could go forward this fall.

To fix drive, in addition to the excavating job, the board members approved the start of a project which will properly drain the drive between the grade and high school buildings.

Willard Ely, who was elected to fill Sherill W. Ambler's place on the board at a special election held Sept. 22, was named Monday evening to the secretary's post on the board.

At the present time, there is not enough slope to allow the water to run off, making pools of water some three inches deep following a rain. The painting project, included in the original allotment, will not be started until later in the year. It is being held up until the board sees its way clear to make further expenditures and until a schedule is made for holding classes while the work is being done.

District Must Pay The school district is responsible for 20 per cent of the $7,065 allotment. It makes provisions for the construction of the room in the grade school basement building, curbs, gutters, drains, painting, plastering and incidental work relative to the project.

Mothers Sponsor Milk Project

Bottles Will Be Placed in Business District for Contributions

Beginning the fourth year as sponsors of the milk fund, members of the Mothers' club will see to it again this year that undernourished children in Northville's grade school receive free milk each day for the remainder of the school term.

Mrs. T. N. Kampf, a member of the sponsoring group, contacted Supt. R. H. Amerman this week to tell him that the milk bottles would be placed at vantage points throughout the village immediately. Already, milk distribution has been given to the kindergarten pupils. According to Mr. Amerman, there is enough money on hand in this special fund to carry through the first month of distribution. "We do appreciate the project that is sponsored by the club. In like manner, we appreciate the persons who give donations or who contribute money through the bottles," said Mr. Amerman.

There will be approximately the same number of children on the free list this year as there was last year, when 58 pupils were given milk, costing the club $108.24, giving added weight to each child from four to eleven and three-fourths pounds.

Chief Hicks Warns of Fire Hazards

Fire Chief Fred Hicks came forward this week to urge villagers to be more than just casually careful about the condition of their chimneys and furnaces this year, now that cold weather makes a fire a necessity. "Fire prevention week" is Oct. 8-14, and it's a good time for home owners and tenants to make a thorough check of heating facilities which otherwise might be a source of fire before the year is over, he said.

"It's just about time for persons to be making leaves too," continued Mr. Hicks, reminding the villagers that there is an ordinance against burning leaves on the roads and lawns.

Fire prevention week makes a definite, intensive effort to save life and property from the ravages of fire. Insurance organizations, fire departments, public officials, newspapers, the radio and civic clubs are all working cooperatively to raise the week a success.

200 News Writers Visit Northville Ford Valve Plant

Make Tour of Small Industrial Factories after Private Showing of Ford Models in Dearborn

Marburger Is Host

Some 200 news and advertising writers were guests Monday, Oct. 2, of the Ford Motor company, visiting the Northville Ford Valve factory on a tour which was made early in the afternoon after a barbecue meal had been served them in the River Rouge parkway system.

See New Model

The visitors, with police escort, came to the village to be conducted through the plant by Harry G. Marburger.

Before coming to Northville the writers had been given a private showing of the new Ford model for 1940 at a preview in Dearborn. They were taken through the Ford plant.

Visit Small Plants

Upon leaving Dearborn the guests inspected the plants at Nankin Mills, Newberg, Plymouth, Phoenix and Waterford, so that the writers could get first hand knowledge of the workings of Henry Ford's village industrial plants.

School Urges Parents To Follow Through with Dental Cases

During August, Northville had the services of the dental clinic under the sponsorship of the Children's Council's fund.

It is hoped by the adult committee, which was appointed by Supt. R. H. Amerman and the school nurse, Mrs. Starr Bray, that sufficient cooperation was given the project locally so that Northville may have the clinic and again next year. While here, the dentist examined 167 children. Sixty-two had all or fractions fillings and cleanings completed. Twelve of them had all teeth completed, with the exception of cleaning. The remainder still need a few fillings to finish the work.

Because of the time limit of four weeks for the dentist's here, there were few children whose dental work was not finished. In the interest of our children's health, the school urges the parent of these children to take them to local dentists to have these corrections made.

Because the aim of the Children's Fund is to promote the health and happiness of our children, we feel that prompt attention on the part of the parents in having this work completed, in at all possible, will be the finest way of showing appreciation of this service," comments Mrs. Bray.

“The Art of Giving”

The art of giving calls for grace,
A kindly smile upon the face,
A tender light within the eye—
For gifts are ruined by a sigh
And oft are bitterly misjudged
When it appears they are begrudged.

He Never Stopped Learning

The Pennsylvania weaver's son, who was willing to labor longer and with more energy than he was paid to work—whether it was driving a mail coach, clerking in a grocery, or hammering stakes for an engineering crew—did not rise to the heights of success as a steelmaster by limiting his effort to the size of his pay. Charles M. Schwab never stopped working because he never stopped learning. He had that insatiable curiosity and desire for self-improvement which is termed “the open mind,” and he never forgot what he learned.

Charles Schwab's story is the story of America and of American opportunity which is not past. In a laboratory at home—with the help of his wife, a chemist's daughter—the young Schwab acquired a knowledge of the secrets of steelmaking which was to help him to solve problems for that industry. He grew to gigantic industrial stature through application which developed innate ability. That ability was to come to his country's aid when it faced a war crisis. Charles Schwab's life story may still serve as an inspiration to those who may mistakenly believe that opportunities today are limited.—Christian Science Monitor.

Let us forget: In the World War the United States had 4,751,172 soldiers mobilized, 25,521 were killed in action, 14,784 died of wounds and 123,552 died of other causes. Over 205,000 were wounded. World War veterans and their dependents have received pensions exceeding three and one-half billions. Europe owes us a refunded war debt of over eleven billion.

For the three years of 1936-38 Michigan prisons received an average of 2,500 persons annually. At the end of 1938 the total prison population was 7,311, of whom 178 were women. Forty-seven per cent were first-timers; 22 per cent were serving a third sentence or more. Crime really doesn't pay—either for those in prison, or society that has to support them.

Keeping Out of War

Yes, the American people want to keep out of war but they are not going to keep out of it by retaining a law which as it now stands automatically gives aid and comfort to Hitler, Stalin and other enemies of free government. If Hitler should win this war we all know full well that the entire western hemisphere would be in peril and we would be forced to go to war to save our existence.

Repeal of the arms embargo clause of our so-called neutrality law is the fairest and safest course for the United States to pursue, as we see it. Better to give moral support to France and England now than to be forced to fight for our existence later on.

Let all belligerents have the right to buy materials in this country provided they lay the cash on the dotted line and take same away at their own risk.—Exchange.

Until we can—every one of us, whatever our position or job—do a little more thinking about our duties and less of our “rights,” until we get in the way of saying more often again “I ought” instead of “I want,” until we can restore some of the old-fashioned virtues like honesty and good faith—in a word: restore some of the discarded ethical code of the past—I see no chance for real happiness or satisfaction in life for anybody.—James Truslow Adams quoted in “I Believe.”

Headline News

It reads, “Iowa Crops Bountiful”—“Farm Buying Power Up”—“California Farmers Report Good '39 Crops”—“Farm Income in Kansas Ahead of '38”—“Indiana Has Bumper Harvest”—“Texas Outlook Bright as Farm Income Goes Up”—“Montana Reports Another Large Crop”—“Good Apple Crop”—“Milk Prices Relatively High”—“Arkansas Farmers Supplied with Ample Cash”—“Cotton Prices Higher”—“Farmers in Kentucky are Confident”—“Condition in Michigan Looks Up”—“Missouri Increases Farm Earnings.”

This is just a sample of the various heads in material which reaches this desk. We feel we should pass the encouragement along, just in case you hadn't heard. These statements coming from reliable publications, heartens us to look forward. The survival for an existence is worth the struggle when benefits are reaped in endeavor. Sometimes we doubt the worthiness of the struggle but that is when we are overlooking the individual bounties on our door-steps. The better business the fall season brings is being felt and it is with compliments to those who have made, and are making, the above headlines that we carry on hoping to add our bit to effort of making our country a “headliner.”

What is defeat? Nothing but education. Nothing but the first step to something better.—W. Phillips.

Twenty Years Ago

The annual Northville Wayne County Fair which closed Saturday night was a great success from every point of view.

The entire community was greatly shocked Monday by the sudden passing of one of the best known residents of this vicinity, Jesse Wordon Clark, who died at the wheel of his automobile early Monday afternoon just after leaving his home.

About 40 or 50 cans of fruit were stolen from the cellar of the Cavell residence on Griswold road and Rutledge avenue sometime between last Thursday and Monday.

battalions, Walled Lake skidded to a snowy death by a score of 20 to 4. The local pessimists of the bureau system young their caution organization happens to cope with weather elements and blamed the weather for their poor showing.

The first fall meeting of the Walled Lake Study club was held last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Minnie Hutton, vice-president. The program included a discussion of current events and plans for the season.

This Record columnist takes time out right about here, to express thanks for kind comments received with regard to last week's article concerning the thoughts of the “Walled Lake Rector” on war's futility. However, as a matter of fact, reference to the “Walled Lake Rector” was incorrect, there being no such person here, representing an Episcopal church. I have purposefully refrained from disclosing his identity. Thanks again.

Ladies of the Methodist church will serve the first Church Night supper of the season next Wednesday, beginning at 6 o'clock. One hundred tickets will be sold preceding this date, and no tickets will be sold at the door. All persons planning to attend must secure their tickets ahead of time. The price is 50 cents.

A reduction of over 50 per cent in the insurance rate for the Walled Lake Consolidated school building has been brought about by recently completed structural improvements, it was disclosed Saturday by Supr. C. A. Hoffman.

The former rate of 85 cents per $1,000 has been lowered to 40 cents as authorized by the State inspection bureau following a survey of the building which required nearly a week to complete. The inspection was made at the request of companies holding insurance on the building, who felt a rate readjustment should be made, with the insurance of additional insurance on the altered Walled Lake structure.

The lower rate makes it possible to insure the entire building and equipment, valued at more than twice the original building, at a total cost of approximately 2 per cent less than was formerly paid. It was estimated that an even lower rate might be possible, if the district would provide a private water supply at the school for additional fire protection.

The Community Luncheon club was to have as principal speaker a regular Tuesday dinner this week Michael Kanjov of the Michigan society for the group hospitalization plan.

A special meeting of the Civic Welfare club was scheduled for Wednesday of this week at the home of Mrs. Ira Carnes, beginning with potluck dinner. They were to discuss important projects for the current season.

Bottle Babies Thrive on Milk Diet

These bottle-fed babies are perfectly content with a diet of milk, rolled oats and corn syrup. Captured in their Nevada homeland four months ago, the antelopes were turned over to the Washington state game department and are being kept on a secluded ranch near Portland. The black spots on their heads are the beginning of antlers.

County Community Fair Plans Made in Session at Oxford; Projects Will Be Displayed in Walled Lake

(Walled Lake School Notes)
The county F. F. A. meeting was held at Oxford, Wednesday, Sept. 20. The meeting was called to order by President Killum of Oxford. All county officers were present but the treasurer.

Plans were discussed for the County Community Fair and since everyone was satisfied with last year's fair, the premium list was left the same. It was decided to send the county advisor along with the county delegates to Kansas City. The county advisor this year is Mr. Heck of Milford. The six schools of the county are planning to send two delegates apiece.

The Walled Lake Chapter, Order of DeMolay, is looking for new prospects to join the chapter. Last Monday, Sept. 25, District Representative McQuator, gave the present members who attended the meeting a very impressive talk and an ultimatum which the chapter must fulfill before Jan. 1, 1940.

Supt. C. A. Hoffman has today received a supply of teachers' oaths from the Supt. of Public Instruction at Lansing. All persons holding a Michigan teacher's certificate are required to file an oath of allegiance, properly notarized, in the office of the Supt. of Public Instruction by Dec. 27, in order to protect the validity of the certificate. The act applies to teachers in public and parochial schools and also to persons who hold certificates out are not now in the teaching profession. Proper forms for filing the oath, which need be filed only once, may also be secured from County Commissioner E. J. Lederle and Supt. of Public Instruction Elliott at Lansing.

Egg Law Protects State Consumers

The new Michigan egg law which went into effect Sept. 28, is designed to protect the consumer by prohibiting the sale of eggs unfit for human food, by preventing deception in their sale at wholesale or retail, by providing for the proper marking, branding and advertising.

Following are some of the rules governing the sale of eggs:
All eggs sold to consumers from bulk lots must have displayed a sign clearly designating the size and quality or grade of eggs.

Eggs sold in containers — each container must be marked with the correct designation of size — large, medium, small and peewee.

The United States Department of Agriculture standards will be used in grading the eggs in the various sizes and qualities.

The farmer who produces eggs of the better quality will undoubtedly be able to get better prices for them under the new law.

NUTRITION LEADERS MEET IN WAYNE LIBRARY

Realizing the importance to good digestion of pleasant surroundings during mealtime, women enrolled in Home Economics Extension classes are beginning their year's work with a discussion of meal service and table etiquette.

The nutrition leaders' meeting was held Thursday, Oct. 5, at the Wayne Library, Wayne. A demonstration of table setting and an explanation of types of table service for various occasions was included in the day's program. Some of the opinion courtesies to be observed in the dining-room were discussed by Miss Emma Duford, county home demonstration agent, who was in charge of the project.

Following are the topics which will be discussed at other meetings during the year: Buffet meals, adapting one menu to all ages, reducing food costs and convalescent diets.

FEED DEALERS TO MEET

Fourteen authorities, some of them known nationally, are to head up the Michigan feed dealers' and manufacturers' conference to be held at Michigan State college, Thursday, Friday and Saturday Oct. 12, 13 and 14. Vitamins, minerals and the makeup of special feeds are the highlights of the scheduled program. Saturday is to be a day for conferences with college staff members and for tours of the dairy cattle experimental barn, the poultry experimental laboratories and the State department laboratory.

Congressional Comment

Representative
George A.
Dondero
7th Michigan District

Re: Special Session of Congress to Revise the Neutrality Act.
Congressman Dondero states that the mail and telegrams coming to his office with reference to the proposed revision of the existing neutrality law, as proposed in the message from President Roosevelt, delivered in the joint session of both Houses of Congress on Thursday, Sept. 21, is in such volume as to make it impossible to reply promptly but they will be acknowledged as soon as possible. These letters and telegrams are on both sides of the issue — 95 per cent, however, are in opposition to a modification of the present law.

Congressman Dondero calls attention to the fact that the House is now in virtual recess until Oct. 9, and such recess may be extended even beyond that date, as no other legislation is to be considered by the House of Representatives until the Senate takes action on neutrality. The House passed a neutrality bill in the last session, which was not acted upon by the Senate. The Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate refused to report the bill for consideration by a vote of 11 to 12. The Committee is therefore reconsidering the bill for amendment and when it has reached an agreement will send it to the floor of the Senate for debate and action. Several days will elapse before the Senate Committee completes its work. After the bill reaches the Senate floor some time, perhaps weeks, will be consumed in debate before a vote is taken. Until that time the House Members will confer with each other and with their constituents giving the subject careful consideration, realizing the great responsibility resting upon them.

Congressman Dondero appreciates the interest shown by the people of the District in the existing crisis, which indicates they are aware of the gravity of the present world situation. He believes the lifting of the embargo on arms at this time, after war has begun in Europe, would be an unequal act.

In December of 1914 a similar situation arose when Congress attempted to pass a bill to prohibit the export of arms, ammunition and implements of war. One of the Allies now engaged in war protested immediately to our State Department that such an act would be unequal, a violation of international law and would be looked upon as an unfriendly act. Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan concurred in that point of view and the entire matter was dropped. Let the American people remain

MICHIGAN MIRROR

Lansing—An apple a day doesn't always keep the doctor away, but low incomes have.

No one has known this better than 4,357 doctors in the Michigan State Medical Society.

Two weeks ago these physicians, represented by official delegates in annual convention at Grand Rapids, officially approved a plan that is both liberal and daring. They hope that the experiment, for such it obviously is, may provide an intelligent answer to a problem that has long been a vexing thorn. That social significance of the step was widely recognized is shown by the fact that news of the society's action was placed on front pages prominently beside headlines of latest war bulletins from Europe.

The problem is an old one, of course. But it was only in recent years that the severity of the medical man was disturbed gravely by the rise of a new spectre on the far horizon. It was that of state socialism.

At Washington, a bill was prepared, for example, which would put the national and state governments headlong into the medical field. Doctors would be subsidized, if you please, so that the masses in the United States might be assured of the medical care which they need. The cost would rapidly mount into hundreds of millions, so another federal tax, similar to those for old age pensions and unemployment compensation, would logically follow to make it "self supporting."

Insurance Policy . . . This is the background for the medical society's decision two weeks ago.

Having first obtained legislative sanction to do it, the society has set up a plan whereby any family may obtain family medical service on the same principle as buying an insurance policy.

That involved an agreement on price, and the element of price has been something which, 10 years ago, would have probably prevented even a preliminary discussion of the idea. Professional ethics were stern against the introduction of anything that faintly smacked of "commercialism." The mention of price had that unfortunate connotation to some.

Under the incorporation of the Michigan Medical Service, a non-profit group, physicians of Michigan now offer to provide full medical services to any individual or family which agrees to make small monthly payments. It is the installment plan combined with an insurance policy, all dignified by one of Michigan's leading professions as well as by the State legislature, itself.

Operation of the plan will go into effect in the near future. The State will supervise it through its insurance department at Lansing.

What You Get

And now for the plan in a nutshell.

For a subscription charge of $2.00 monthly, a family — including the husband and wife and all the children under 21 years of age — will be entitled to the service of a doctor of medicine of their own choice. The services offered include the following:

1. Medical and surgical care, including office, home and hospital visits.
2. Consultation service and special medical services including X-ray, laboratory, and anesthesia services.
3. Obstetrical care after subscription has kept up payments for 12 months.
4. Diagnostic services necessary to determine the presence of tuberculosis, cancer, venereal diseases, or mental ailments. (Actual treatment for these conditions not included.)

Plan Is Flexible

But the payment is not fixed. The $2.00 monthly amount, for example, entitles the family to medical benefits up to $75 in any one year. For $3.50 a month, the family is entitled to $150 in a year. For $4.50 a month, the medical services may reach $225 in a year.

At the outset subscribers to the plan will be limited to employed persons under the age of 65 who can be enrolled in groups of 15 or more. Such subscribers may, however, also enroll their dependents, including the husband or wife and children under 21 years of age. An annual income not in excess of $2,000 for individual subscribers or $2,500 for subscribers and their families, will be a membership requirement.

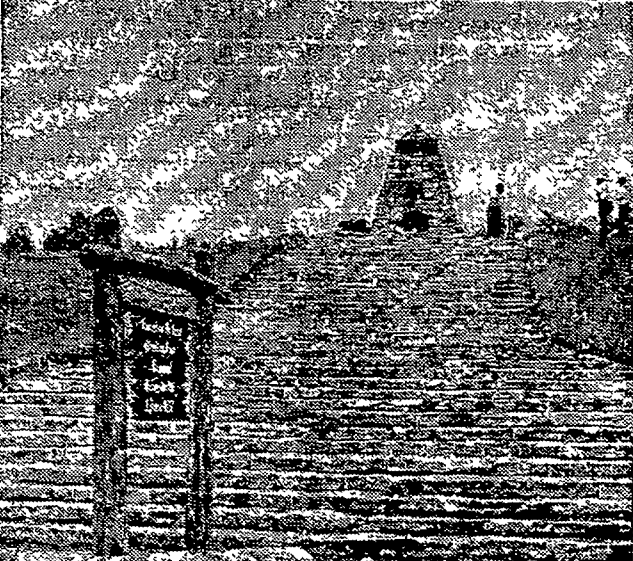

Restrictions are as few as possible. Medical services will not be made available for self-imposed conditions such as alcoholism, drug addiction and self-inflicted injuries. To limit demands for trivial services, the first $5 of medical expenses incurred each year must be paid for by the subscriber. Subscribers will be entitled to free choice of any doctor of medicine legally licensed and practicing in the State of Michigan.

Hospital Plan Too

While the medical installment and insurance policy plan is brand new, Michigan being the first state to take such a step, an approved hospital plan on the same basis is now functioning in 25 states. Eleven states have rejected a plan for group hospitalization; 12 states have it now under consideration.

In Michigan this parallel service is sponsored by the Michigan Society for Group Hospitalization. During the first five months of

Memorial To First Michigan Trading Post

The above monument commemorating the first trading post is erected on the original site of the village of L'Anse on the picturesque shores of Keweenaw Bay in the Upper Peninsula. Built of red sandstone and situated in the beautiful L'Anse township park it presents a very striking appearance to Michigan tourists. Its setting is steeped in Indian lore and when recently dedicated over 5,000 people watched a magnificent Indian pageant depicting the "Coming of the White Man to the Land of Hiawatha." Part of the pageant was enacted on the water and the rest on the adjoining lake shore as the spectators watched from a huge natural amphitheatre. The park and the monument were constructed by youth workers of the Michigan National Youth Administration. The inscription on the face of the memorial reads: "This monument marks the site of the first trading post established for the American Fur Trading Company by Peter Grebassa in 1837. This tablet was presented by the students of L'Anse Township schools and the National Youth Administration—1938."

its operation in 1939, more than 40,000 subscribers were enrolled.

Ninety-five per cent of all hospitals in the state and all but five of these institutions having 30 beds or more are participating in the movement.

The hospital plan provides 21 days of hospital service a year for each member of the family irrespective of number, furnishing complete service in a semi-private room (or ward) in any member hospital.

Other benefits include use of operation room as often as necessary, anesthesiologist service when rendered by a salaried employee of the hospital, all routine clinical laboratory service and ordinary drugs and dressings. After a subscriber has held a membership in the plan for 12 consecutive months, maternity service is furnished. This includes care for the mother and infant in a semi-private room or ward. There are no age limits for adults, no physical examinations, no examinations of chronic conditions, no given percentage of a group is required and only 10 need to enroll to make the plan effective.

A cash deposit is not required from the subscriber at the time of enrollment in the hospital. He is admitted upon presentation of his identification card, and the hospital ends the bill to the society for the service rendered.

Two Cents A Day

Rates for the Michigan hospital insurance policy are as low as 2 cents per day for the individual and 1 cent a day for the entire family. Monthly rates are:

	Ward Room
Single subscriber	$ .60 = $ .75
Husband and wife	1.20 1.50
Family (children 1-19)	1.50 1.90

The same legislature which authorized the group medical plan gave sanction to the hospitalization program.

The 77 participating hospitals, with assets of over $65,000,000 further agree to return any surplus accrued in the operation of the plan to the subscriber either in the form of reduced rates or increased benefits.

Regimenting of Medicine

With doctors and hospitals themselves taking the step to insure proper medical care to those of moderate incomes, the Michigan State Medical society believes that there is no social justification for regimentation of American medicine.

According to Dr. Edward J. McCormick of Toledo past grand exalted ruler of Elks, "it is entirely in the realm of possibility that the Wagner program (subsidized health service) could double the present budget within the next decade. Can the United States stand the shock of the Wagner program without another depression? Any school child could answer that question."

STUDENT JUDGES SEVENTH

Four Michigan State college students as a team placed seventh in a tie with the University of Minnesota in a dairy cattle judging at a recent Dairy Cattle Congress at Waterloo, Ia. Members of the team include William Knox, Sault Ste. Marie; John Foster, Hastings; Wallace Kesikitalo, Republic; and Eugene Overton, Bangor. The student competition attracted 13 university and state college teams of which the University of Wisconsin team rated first place.

a huge buck deer suddenly leaped
automobile. Unable to stop his machine, the car struck the deer, which was knocked down, with one leg caught behind the bumper. The deer struggled and managed to ex-animal bounded away so quickly he was unable to tell whether it

Dinner and Reception Follow Pledging of Mitchell-Foreman Nuptial Vows, Saturday

Miss Pauline Foreman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Foreman, 2934 West Seven Mile road, became the bride of Melvin H. Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mitchell, of Northville, in a marriage ceremony held at five o'clock, Saturday, Sept. 30, in the Rev. Fr. Joseph Schraun's rectory.

The bride wore a floor length peach taffeta frock, accented with a finger tip veil and silver accessories. Her corsage was made of white gardenias.

Her only attendant was Miss Helen Dowdell of Wayne, who was dressed in burgundy taffeta with gold accessories. Yellow tea roses made up her corsage.

Arthur Mitchell was his brother's best man.

Witnessing the service were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Foreman, Louis and Ralph, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mitchell and daughter, Eleanor.

A dinner was held for the bridal party at Hildside Inn, where tables were lighted with bouquets of yellow tea roses, pink and white snapdragons. In the evening, a reception for some 135 guests was held at the Jewel and Blake Hall. William Foreman played for dancing, after which a buffet luncheon was served. The tables carried a color scheme of peach and white. Roses and snapdragons formed the centerpiece for each table.

Guests were present from Detroit, Canada, Pontiac, Wayne and Northville. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will make their home in Plymouth, upon returning from an eastern trip and Niagara Falls. Mr. Mitchell is a graduate of the Northville high school. Mrs. Mitchell formerly attended the Northville school.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Mitchell was feted at a personal and two miscellaneous showers, hosted last week at the home of Mrs. Earl Chappell, Mrs. Charles Conklin and Mrs. William Foreman. Guests were present on these occasions from Detroit, Northville and Plymouth. Delightful luncheons were served on Friday, where the white bride motif was used.

The first regular Zolton meeting was held Tuesday, Oct. 3, at the City School on Cherry and Wayne roads. Dr. Wayne Chilton, head of the Pine Aids department of Wayne University, gave on "The Scandinavian Decorative Art."

A large gourd formed the basket for the center of the table and was filled with small gourds of blending colors and small size. The basket arrangement was presented to Mrs. Phillip Carls, president of the club, at the end of the friendship program. The tiny gourds which formed the plate card, were souvenirs for the guests.

On one side of the figure was the quotation: "They shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks." On the other side were the words: "Onward Christian Soldiers."

E. V. Ellison's intermediate boys were given second place honors. The table carried out cleverly the design of Rally day—Streamers from a pole in the center of the table led to the place of each boy, with a diploma attached, suggesting promotion and recognition of Sunday School attendance.

Third honors were given to the fourth and fifth grade girls taught by Mrs. Russell M. Atkinson. This table was decorated in the autumn motif.

Program feature honors went to Mrs. Leslie G. Lee's intermediate girls, who featured the raising of paint funds for redecorating the church sanctuary. Russell H. Steininger's young people's class was given second place honors with a hospital operation stunt. The intermediate boys who showed most

Exchange Club Members Are Hosts Wednesday Evening at Dinner in Methodist Church House

By C. A. DOLPH

Dr. Harvey Waite of Royal Oak, head of the Wartio Educational Association of Michigan, addressed the members of the Northville Exchange club at the ladies night dinner Wednesday evening in the Methodist church house.

The September committee of the Ladies Aid society provided a fine dinner for members and guests.

Music by the high school quartette was greatly enjoyed by the company and later Dick Hammermeister lead in group singing with Mrs. G. V. Harrison at the piano.

Dr. Waite was introduced by President Edmondson.

In his opening remarks Dr. Waite affirmed vigorously that not a person in America was free from the dangers of narcotics. Four to 10 million persons in these United States are drug addicts.

Michigan was the first state to organize against the narcotic evil, and Dr. Waite has been in this campaign 16 years.

During the evening Dr. Waite told tragic stories of men and women high in the professions who had contracted the drug habit and came back with the greatest difficulty or lost out.

His stories ranged from the gripping story of the rich young man in Western New York who finally won his freedom from the deadly effects of drugs, of a prominent judge for 20 years on the bench, who overcame his narcotic craving; of a young stenographer drawing a salary of $65 per week who became a victim; a woman teacher in a university, very brilliant, beautiful and widely travelled, who never recovered but ended in filthy surroundings in the worst den of addicts.

Coming to the question of Marijuana, he found one place where 37 high school pupils were in a Mexican joint and "all crazy with the drug's effect."

During the evenings talk Dr. Waite showed opium pipes of great value, methods of using coke and other drugs.

He also exhibited brass knuckles, blackjacks, stilettos, trick knives, sawed off shotguns and other equipment that had been taken in raids from captured addicts.

Dr. Waite stated that the narcotic problem was most difficult to cope with but that it must be fought continually.

Members of the Pueblo Indians were rated third. Each of the other classes made a contribution to the evening's program.

D. J. Stark was chairman of the judges, assisted by Mrs. Irene Panner and Mrs. S. S. Slaten. Mr. Steininger, Sunday School superintendent, was master of ceremonies.

Liabeteu Home Is Scene of Service League Meeting—

Mrs. William Liabeteu opened her home Tuesday evening to the members of the Service League of the Methodist church. Mrs. Forrest Doren was assistant hostess.

The organization will observe its annual birthday dinner at 6:30 p. m. Tuesday, Oct. 17, in the church house. Reservations are to be made through Mrs. A. Russell Clarke or Miss Grace Angell.

Mrs. Ely, Mrs. McKeague Present Home Program—

The first meeting of the Northville Home Economics group for the year was held Thursday, Sept. 28, in the home of Mrs. Karl Kysor, 321 Rayson street.

Mrs. Claude Ely and Mrs. Howard McKeague outlined the work for the coming year. The project for the group is the refinishing of furniture. There will be certain dates during the latter half of the season given over to the instruction of stitchery and purchasing of new linens. Legal phases of home management, a short term project, will be covered in a special meeting.

During the Friday study hour, Mrs. Ely and Mrs. McKeague detailed the necessary steps for removing old finishes from furniture and properly preparing the wood to receive its new finish.

The group will meet Nov. 30, at the home of Mrs. Emerson Ruttan, 239 Grace avenue.

Presbyterian Christian Endeavor Begins Year—

The Junior Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church has started its year's work by electing officers: President, David Willis; vice-president, Robert Isaacson; secretary, Peggy Ely; treasurer, Florence McCluskie; house committee, Tom Hancock and Tom Carl; ushers, the Freydt brothers.

Mrs. Arthur Carlson and Mrs. Robert McKeague are the leaders. Carrel Carlson is the pianist. Dana Washburne, Scribb.

Joan showed pictures of the high points of the traveling adventure and displayed the articles she purchased there.

Joan Devotions were conducted by Mrs. T. W. Smith. Mrs. Milton Adams was Mrs. Yerkes' assistant hostess.

Modern facilities for financing a home are especially attractive to the home buyer. Gone are all the old, objectionable features that characterized the business of securing money with which to build or buy. Long terms of payment, lower interest rates; more liberal lending; more honest co-operation with the buyer and builder characterize the financing operations of the banks and lending institutions who use the FHA Mortgage Insurance Plan.

Northville's Next Rival Is VanDyke

Two Defeats Do Not Shatter
Hopes of the N. H. S.
Football Squad

The Northville football team will play its third game of the season at 3:30 p. m. Friday, Oct. 6, Lincoln VanDyke will be the opponents. The game will be played at Cass Benton Park.

In spite of two defeats, the Northville squad is determined to try for victory and is very confident of getting into the winning column.

The Northville eleven was defeated in its first game Friday, Sept. 29, by Melvindale by the score of 22-0. Melvindale had the boys outweighed 20 pounds to the man. The lineup of this game was:

KEN WOLFE RESIGNS OFFICE
Pat Klein has been elected to take the place of Ken Wolfe as treasurer of the senior high Student Council. It was necessary for Ken to resign because he is taking an apprenticeship course.

EDITORIAL NOTES

If you see Miss Estelle Griffiths walking through the halls these days with a downcast look upon her usually so, cheery countenance, you'll probably wonder "what's wrong? There is a reason. Thirteen girls have signed up for her Dramatics club and only four boys. Now, is that nice, fellows? You needn't think that if you join this club that you're going to have to display your talent (?) because there are a hundred, and one other things to be done. Who's going to paint and set up the scenery? Who's going to paint and sell the tickets? These things can't be done without your help.

The Dramatics club this year is working towards improvements on the stage. We're badly in need of new curtains and a new lighting system. It would help out a great deal if you fellows would break down and sign up. It's really lots of fun. And by the way, Miss Griffiths says she can use some more gals, too.

In memory of our faithful friend, Charles Deolker, who passed away Aug. 24, we wish to dedicate this memorial. We feel sure Mr. Deolker, a janitor in our school for the past 10 years, passed on with not one enemy from Northville high school.

Anyone who ever participated in a play, sports, or any other school activities of any nature, knew the friendliness and consideration of Mr. Deolker at all times. To all he was a great friend, and together with the student body, we extend our sympathy. A loving memory of him will always remain with us.

Senior Assembly Hears Dr. Waite

Junior High Students Sponsor Their Own Program, Wednesday, Oct. 4

Wednesday, Oct. 4, Dr. Harry A. Waite, Detroit, spoke to the senior assembly on "The Dangers of Narcotics." Dr. Waite has addressed many business men's clubs, Rotary clubs, Exchange and Kiwanis clubs. He is quoted to have said, "Fifteen years in service convinces me that the most valuable work we have ever done is not the many addresses we save but rather the many we keep from possible addiction through education." The student body found his talk very interesting and helpful.

On previous occasions the junior high has attended the senior high programs, but last Wednesday they had a program of their own planned by Anna Jean Flaherty. The program was as follows: The orchestra played a selection; Roena Nalley sang; Dorothy Steininger played the piano; Dorothy Leavenworth recited; Dick Green played the guitar; Mary Gaiden played the piano; Anna Jean Flaherty tap-danced; Bruce Simmons tap-danced; Junior Glee club sang; Alice Harper played the piano. The program closed with a guitar solo by Hazel Covell.

Northville Loses to Melvindale

The defeat, under the lights, would be a good thing for the game, which was played between Melvindale and the boys from N. H. S. Sept. 29.

Yes, Northville was defeated by the score of 22 to 0, but there was plenty of fight in the boys. Weight was the biggest handicap of that game, and will be in the games that Northville will play in the near future.

It seems that the odds were against the boys because every play that was to be a gain of many yards fell by the wayside, when some member of the Northville team was offside, and instead of this long gain, Northville was given a five-yard penalty. Melvindale's team was heavy and fast, but Northville was in there holding them as best they could. The whole team showed fine fighting spirit.

First Scrimmage Held by Reserves

The Northville reserve team had its first scrimmage of the season Thursday afternoon, Oct. 5 at Redford Union. Coach Neville Walker, in charge of the squad, gave every one a chance to play. The boys from Northville will have another scrimmage on Monday, Oct. 9, with Plymouth at Northville, and with Redford Union on the two Mondays following Oct. 16 and 23. For four weeks in a row the reserves will train how they are made. These boys will make up the varsity squad in a year or two.

Grade Notes

The following day they wrote "Thank You" notes to Fred.

All the Days were Antonia's by Gretchen McKown and Florence Stebbins. A rarely sensitive story of a young girl of Gold Rush days, her adventures with her banker father in a mining town of the west and her reaction to a life that, though filled with hardship, had its bright spots of fun and laughter.

Senior Sketch

Betty Armstrong opened her baby blue eyes for the first time in the Brighton hospital, Apr. 26, 1922. While undergoing the process of learning to walk and talk, she moved to Walled Lake. When reaching the ripe age of two she moved to Northville where later school beckoned her. Here Betty has remained for 15 years. She ice skates, swims, and her favorite hobby is horse-back riding. During this time she has picked up the nickname of "Hor" which fits her very well. Betty was in the junior play last year, and at the present is the associate editor of the Orange and Black staff. This year she intends to go to Washington with the seniors, even though her household duties are heavy at home, in the absence of her mother.

Her future years, no one can predict, except she has a vague idea that she is going to Detroit Business college. From there on, Betty can better inform you.

Elmer Balko first flashed that popular smile July 17, 1922. He took a dequed liking to Northville that very day and has lived here ever since. When he started to school, he was given the very fitting name of "Bully." It has since been changed to "Spike," which is true, but "Bully" still predominates. His hobbies, quite seemingly, are hunting and fishing. We have often wondered if the sports magazine, "Hunting and Fishing," was named after Elmer's hobbies. His pastimes are reading and guns. Let's hope there isn't another war because Elmer is really a crack shot and the enemy would soon be demolished.

His future plans, sorry to say, he won't reveal.

TWO TEACHERS ARE ABSENT

There are two substitute teachers in the grade school this week. Mrs. Bakestraw is taking the place of Mrs. James Huff, Jr. who is ill. Mrs. W. E. McCarthy is substituting for Mrs. Sterling Eaton who is kept home because of her daughter's illness. Mrs. Huff teaches the sixth grade and Mrs. Eaton the kindergarten.

FRESHMEN ELECT OFFICERS

The Freshmen class had its first meeting of the year on Wednesday, Sept. 27, and elected their officers. The officers are as follows: President, James Odgers; Vice President, Kay Stephens; Secretary, John McLaughlin; and Treasurer, Tim Lloyd.

SELL FOOTBALL PINS

As you look around the school you will notice upon the blouses and skirts of the pupils of N. H. S. football pins. These pins were sold by the Student Council on Sept. 29, to help raise funds for the support of boys' athletics. The pins were 10 cents. They are orange and blue with N. H. S. printed on the top and the two vibrant colors on the bottom.

1949 MODEL

With traffic safety as the theme of a Fall Value Carnival sale now in progress at Kroger stores, Miss Jayne Cooper, Cincinnati beauty, demonstrates what she thinks the traffic policeman of the future will look like.

294 New State Laws Are Now Effective

Effective Friday, were exactly 294 new State laws, including the traffic laws which will affect more persons than any of the others.

The principal changes in the traffic law cover the increase in allowable speed on trunk line highways in cities and villages from 20 to 25 miles an hour; a 50-mile an hour maximum speed on open road for vehicles with trailers, house-cars or tow-cars, prohibiting either a right or left turn against a red traffic light and realization of the made turn.

Under the new law it is illegal to straddle yellow lines to cross yellow lines to pass to the left on the crest of a hill or on a curve and to pass another vehicle when approaching within 100 feet of a highway intersection or railroad crossing.

Among the 294 laws is one to close the gate through which killers acquitted on insanity pleas can be fired when they prove themselves sane. A new murder law calls for a sanity test of the accused before trial is begun. Gross indecency, now a misdemeanor becomes a felony under the new law.

Persons who borrow from small loan companies will find their burdens slightly reduced because the present maximum of 3 1/2 per cent per month has been reduced to 3 per cent on the first $100 and 2 1/2 per cent per month on amounts above $100.

Under one of the new laws, no employer can solicit gifts or contributions from his employees for any cause.

ROTARY

held as Oct. 25, the proceeds to be used to bolster the student loan fund. Everyone roundly applauded the project, and the splendid work being done by Dr. Willis and his committee. Next Friday, and Friday the thirteenth, the club will join with Plymouth in an inter-city meeting, for which the local club assumed the responsibility of the program. The regular Tuesday meeting will be held here just the same.

Dr. J. E. Selmer then presided while local members took the floor and proposed community projects in which the club might interest itself.

W. E. Forney recalled the desire of the smaller children for a "safety" rink that was safe and unobstructed by the older folks and suggested that a rink be flooded for them this fall at the fair grounds if proper permission could be obtained. He also wished to have the project supervised.

Don Yerkes suggested that the curve on the Eight Mile road where it joins the Novi road, could stand improvement by way of visibility for the left turn coming into town. Information was sought in this matter as to responsibility for the part of the road in question. Harry Clark and William Ely expressed ideas on this project.

Austin VanHove thought that something more concrete for the youth of the village, who were out of school, in the way of vocational education and guidance was needed. Alexander Samislow commented on the plan and Supt. R. H. Amerman explained what the vocational guidance course now offered. Lathen Lapham made pointed comments. A number of organized recreational work for another year was also suggested by several and joining with the Exchange club on certain projects was also suggested.

DRAINAGE

Jewell Reads Plan

D. A. Green, chairman of the commission, announced the decision after the plan of the drain commission had been read by J. B. Jewell, clerk. The report contained findings and recommendations from G. E. Biddy of the State geological survey department, with the Department of Conservation.

The plan was based upon two surveys made by Mr. Eddy and the county drainage engineers, in which it was found that construction of a dam across the outlet would be impractical because of the amount of dredging required to obtain a footing.

It was decided to open a ditch, starting 700 feet west of the outlet, and continuing south to the Twelve Mile road a depth of not more than three and one-half feet at any point with a fall of eight feet on a grade of 900 per cent. It was stated that if the ditch bottom could be kept above swamp level the lake water level would not be materially affected. The plan would not call for the drain bottom to go below the present water level.

The cost of the project will be spread through parts of Novi and Commerce townships by special assessments.

Washouts Still a Problem

The adopted plan will not provide a solution for the yearly wash-out of the county road which crosses the outlet, due to the fact that the marsh land between the road and the start of the ditch will contain no leader to the drain. The spring overflow of the lake will continue to wash over the road, as in past years.

It was thought, however, by the commission that reopening of the culvert beneath the road would do much to alleviate this condition. Road elevation was also suggested as a means of overcoming the problem.

ROGERS

campaigning the great horse clovered the property of Mrs. Robert Haas (nee Evelyn Ruth Grennan) into his championship at Lansing.

this year followed by a reserve championship in the great Detroit National Horse Show. Mr. Rogers has shown in every major horse show in the country, including Madison Square Garden, the National and Devon. His victories along the circuit include many for Mrs. Donald P. Ordway of Gull Lake, for whom Mr. Rogers trained before he joined the Grennan stable.

Capt. Tareff has distinguished himself throughout his life with many types of achievements. Earlier in his career he was a brilliant officer in the czarist regime in Russia where he studied the entire science of the horse. Later, on coming to America, he achieved station when he assisted in the organization of many reforms and additions to the Detroit Racing association and was an official of that organization for some time under Mark Hanna. Still more recent glories are due to Capt. Tareff who is in no small way responsible for the beautiful bridge paths which the park commission has installed and maintained in lovely Cass Benton Park. The union of these two leading horsemen should be acknowledged as a salute to the Northville horse industry.
