Village Officials Seek Construction Advice from State

Pump House Plans To Go
To State Department of Health for Study and Recommendation

Hicks Is Designer

Plans, designed by Commissioner George Hicks, for the new pump house to house the recently purchased water pump, will be taken this week to the State Department of Health for recommendation.

Hunt Fallacies

It is understood here by Mayor Arthur S. Nichols and Street Commissioner Earl Montgomery, that buildings which cost less than $2,000 do not have to be approved by the State department and civil engineer. However, the department will go over the blue prints to detect any fallacies if such advice is sought. Construction is expected to begin within two weeks.

Mr. Montgomery and Mr. Nichols will take the blue prints to Lansing. Mr. Hicks has drawn up plans for a $800 building of brick, 9 by 12 feet in size. It will be constructed to protect the $1,598 Peetee pump which was bought by the village council from the Poe company of Detroit. It will pump 500 gallons of water a minute from the well which has been sunk in the Village Park.

Supplement Present Supply

The water supply in the park has been developed to supplement Northville's regular water source at the reservoir, which is inadequate for village needs.

Lloyd H. Green Post Makes Early Plans for Armistice Day

At the Legion meeting Tuesday evening, the Post planned for Armistice Day and took care of the routine business of the evening in rapid time so that the group could attend the installation ceremonies at the Plymouth Post.

According to the announcement of the committee, an Armistice Day program will be held at 2 p. m., Friday Nov. 10, in the high school. Carl Matheny of Detroit, chairman of the Wolverine Boys' State for 1940, will speak. He will illustrate his talk with pictures.

Matters of welfare were considered also at the meeting and the post thank Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bolton for the fine time they enjoyed recently at the Bolton cottage.

Fluoroscope Issue Is in Circulation

Using a picture of the memorial erected at Charing Cross, London, to Edith Cavell, the October number of The Fluoroscope, a magazine published by the patients of the Maybury sanatorium and Herman Kiefer hospital, was distributed this week.

A dedication to Miss Cavell, the English war nurse, who died before a German firing squad, is carried inside the magazine as one of the features of the current issue.

An outstanding place in the issue is a drawing of Abraham Lincoln by Miss Florence Watson of the Infirmary. Editing the magazine is Leonard J. Zielinski, with Rebecca Chalmers, Miss Watson and Frances Fako, associate editors; Eloise Giles, feature editor; Wagona Little, circulation manager; Art Krause, advertising manager; Al Walendowski, accountant; Alice Shladanowsky, Phil Burke and Frank Dompier are staff associates.

BADMINTON FANS START FALL PLAY

Badminton enthusiasts began their second year of play Wednesday evening in the high school gymnasium where play will continue throughout the fall and winter season except when Pastime dances interfere with the schedule.

Among the villagers who have made known their intention of playing badminton this season are: Harry B. Smith, Miss Gladys Ludwig, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. George Staker, Mr. and Mrs. Bayard K. Kurth, Mrs. Robert Coleman and Alec F. Milne, all of whom played last year.

A small fee to defray expenses will be charged for play each week.

ATTEND HUNT RACES

Mr. and Mrs. R. Edmund Dowling and Mr. Logan Stewart, Jr., attended the hunt races Saturday at Metamora on the Alger estate.

Hunters Ready for Pheasant Season; Farmers Protest

TUESDAY'S RAINFALL REACHED NEW HIGH

Following high temperatures of summertime proportions Sunday and Monday, a heavy rainfall Tuesday noon brought relief from the heat and soaked ground that farmers have been saying was "far too dry for anybody's good."

Just everytime much rain falls, the business block on West Main street resembles a canal more than it does a street. Tuesday's rain reached a new high, going so far as to back into the Northville Restaurant.

Tuesday's rain did much to relieve the trees of their fall colored leaves, making it necessary for the Wayne County Road crew to work Wednesday and Thursday in the village to keep the streets clear.

Apples, 100 Cars, To Be Purchased by Corporation

Ralph Foreman Is Local Commodities Chairman; Give Week's Prices

The Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation announces that it will consider the purchase of 100 cars of fresh apples in the principal producing areas in Michigan. Ralph Foreman is the local committee man for this project.

Apples must grade U S No 1 and be packed in new containers, such as, new standard bushel baskets (either tub or round), ringed with half liners, corrugated-emp. lidded. Or new standard bushel boxes of not less than 2200 cubic inches in volume, faced, with cardboard or paper liners, and lidded or slatted tops.

Last Loading Stations
Loading days will be assigned to each loading station by the sub-committee elected to function in each respective area.

Southeastern Michigan's Sub-office is at 59 North Main street, Pontiac, and has the following loading stations: Pontiac, Romeo, Inlay City, Novi, Plymouth, New Boston, East and Detroit.

Prices will be announced weekly in advance and will be governed by the market price. This week's price is for Oct. 9 to 14 and is 55 cents per bushel for Golden and 75 cents per bushel for McIntosh. The price varies with the variety and the classification.

Apples sold to the F. S. C. C. must have an equivalent number of bushels diverted from the fresh apple market in one or more of the following methods: Enslage or stock feed, canning, evaporation, juice purposes, freezing, elimination, fertilizer, not harvested or other uses.

File Certificates
Certificates of Diversion shall be filed with the Industry Committee for recommended allocations within two weeks of the date of diversion.

Growers interested in selling apples to the F. S. C. C. should get in touch with one of the following persons: E. I. Besemer, county agricultural agent, Dearborn; Mr. Foreman, Northville; or K. D. Bailey, county agricultural agent, Pontiac.

ALTAR SOCIETY MEETS
Mrs. James Spagnuolo was hostess Wednesday to the members of the Altar society of Our Lady of Victory church. She used Halloween-appointments at her table. The afternoon was given over to games, with prizes going to Mrs. Edward Lockman, Mrs. Robert Geraghty and Mrs. C. A. McCullough.

With the pheasant season opening Sunday, village sportsmen will take to the woods to bag their limits.

A number of farmers have come forward this year to announce that there will be no hunting on their property this year, creating a hardship on the hunters who are sportsmen in the true sense of the word—that is, with respect for the property of landowners—but giving protection against hunters who destroy the property of the landowners where they are seeking game.

Hunters Kill Colt

One hunting site is closed to all hunters because last year a colt belonging to the farmer was shot, six horses were let into the road, over five acres of orchard were turned. And two years ago on the same farm, hunters let horses into the road, where two of them were killed by motorists. In stating his complaints, the farmer asserts that he feels justified in refusing access to his property to all hunters.

Another farmer verified similar statements this week. He is banning hunting on his farm because last year fruit trees and white fences were damaged. Inasmuch as stock is being pastured at this time, he is banning hunters from his property.

Licenses Are Sold

The sale of licenses continued this week and villagers who have long ago established for themselves a reputation of having respect for farmers' property will go to the woods and will have access to hunting grounds which are still open to hunters and free of no hunting and trespassing signs.

Catholics Serve Annual Dinner

Tables Will Be Decorated in Keeping with Fall Seasonal Colors

With Mrs. Monroe B. Weston as chairman, the annual roast pork and sauer-kraut dinner will be served to the public from 12:30 to 6 p. m. Sunday, Oct. 15, in Our Lady of Victory church.

Assisting Mrs. Weston are the following committee members: Mrs. Herbert Martin, decorations; Mrs. F. C. Fenn, dining room; Miss Lena Koller, sauer-kraut; Mrs. L. C. Stewart, Mrs. Charles Wilson and Miss Esther Lockman, hostesses; Mrs. Ed. Belton and Mr. Ted Henton, tickets; Mrs. Roy Terrell, coffee. Members of the Young Ladies' Sodality will wait on tables.

As has become almost traditional with this particular event at Our Lady of Victory church, fall appointments will make the tables attractive for the patrons who will come from surrounding towns as well as from the village at large.

Duguid Is Pledge to Delta Sigma Phi

Benjamin Duguid of 741 Grace avenue, was formerly pledged as a member of the Delta-Sigma Phi fraternity of Albion college, at a meeting of the fraternity at its house, Monday evening, Oct. 2. Official announcement of the 15 new Delta-Sigma Phi pledges was made by Dean Emil Leffler.

Duguid is one of the 285 freshmen enrolling at Albion college for the first semester of the 1939-40 year. A graduate of Northville high school in June, 1939, Duguid is beginning a mathematics course at Albion. He must remain a pledge for one semester before he may become an active member of his fraternity.

ZELLS RETAINS LAST POSITION IN BOOK

With the new Michigan Bell Telephone books in circulation this week it was noted that Walter E. Zells was able to retain his position in the book—that of being the only "Z" and the last name in the book.

The Acme Mortgage and Investment company, which headed the "A" list last year, has gone completely out of the picture as far as the telephone book is concerned. Heading the list this year is the AAA of Plymouth. However, Milford Adams has the distinction of being again the first name in the "A's" in the residential classification.

The "S" lineup manages to boast the largest number of names, 98 in all. The "I" section retains its 1938 threesome made up of the Independent Furnace Foundry, John M. Irwin and E. A. Isaacson.

All in all, there are 835 names listed in the new book.

'TIS FRIDAY, THE THIRTEENTH Superstitious Folk Take Note of "Evil Signs"

On Friday, the thirteenth, the superstitious bring out their rabbit's foot and charm tokens and really go to work to ward off trouble which is at every turn.

It's the belief of these cautious persons that to walk under a ladder on this black day would double their hard luck. Fasting throughout the day would be preferable to sitting down at a table where covers were laid for 13 guests. That means bad luck any day, but on the thirteenth, it would turn an involved situation into hopeless complications.

A black cat running across the path of any one of these supersti-

Drainage Project Is Opposed by 25 in Walled Lake

By C. E. HUTTON

The group appointed a committee, comprised of Sydney Blomfield, William Bachelor, Harry Vreeland, Floyd Breakey and John Elven to consider possible legal steps to protect the interests of the opponents of the present drain plan.

Raise Funds

A fund was raised for the retention of an attorney to make investigations and to advise as to possible procedure. A request for a reopening of the hearing on the original petition may be submitted to the Probate Court.

Pilgrim Opens Model House Here, Sunday

The Vermont-Pilgrim company is opening a new model home for inspection next Sunday, Oct. 15.

This new and completely modern F. H. A. home is located at 512 Easton Drive and will be open from 1 to 3 p. m. for the inspection of the public. "This home," states Mr. Pilgrim, "is opened to the public of Northville to see if the community is really interested in the continued building of new and modern homes in this vicinity. Many new features and preferred F. H. A. construction make this home an exceptional buy, and purchase terms are so reasonable—only approximately $30 a month including interest, principle, taxes and insurance."

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Batt are the parents of a son, Michael Charles, born Oct. 6.

Veteran Pitcher Harry German, who made his last Northville baseball appearance against the Pontiac Oldtimers during Fall week (defeating them 17-3) told about the thrills of his 52-year pitching career last Thursday night on the Columbia network on the Strangers As D. Seems program, broadcast from New York.

"Slips a Little"

Mr. German, now of Carlton, but until a few years ago, a resident of Northville and its mayor, is 64 years old. He told his Columbia interviewer last week that he "slipped a little this year, losing five of his 21 games of the season."

When questioned about his biggest baseball thrill, Mr. German said it occurred a year ago, Labor Day, when he played against Plymouth in an Inter-County League game. His son and grandson, Harry, Jr., and Harry III, played on his team, and "that was a thrill," Harry, Jr., one of Northville's mail carriers was the caddy this year on the Country Oldtimers' team for which, his father pitches.

Likes a Joke

Asking him to what he credited his oep and fondness for the age of 64, Mr. German told the interviewer that joking kept him young. "This Columbia interviewer found out that bowling was another love of Mr. German who plays with a Monroe team and has the highest individual average for the season."

National Experts Come to Schrader's

In recognition of the splendid business of the last six months The Armstrong Lumber company is sending one of its factory instructors to Northville Friday, Oct. 13, to do several jobs and inspect and instruct in the expert laying of linoleum. The factory instructor stays only two days in the district and Schraders get one of the two A nice compliment to Northville and Schrader.

And next Wednesday, along comes a G. E. electrician, to demonstrate the new G. E. Blender and there are many in the community who would find this demonstration most valuable, especially if health demands dictate a diet.

Commercial Club Is New Project for Northville

Board of Commerce Temporary Organization Formed Friday Night; Boosts Community

Seek 50 Members

Seeking to further the welfare of Northville and community, a group of Northville businessmen have set up a temporary organization and are inviting others to join with them in the formation of a permanent Board of Commerce organization.

Seek Permanent Organization

Friday night, a group met to talk over the idea and the ideals of such an organization in Northville. Following an open discussion of the matter temporary officers were named and committees formed to function until such time as a larger, closely organized group of about 50 could meet. Then, based upon further accumulation of ideas and wishes of the community, set up a permanent organization to be known as the Northville Board of Commerce.

"Nothing To Lose"

The group seemed unanimous in the opinion that Northville had everything to gain by such an organization and nothing to lose. At the present time, some thought that the village had absorbed the population and business following the outpouring of the several health institutions in the community, and now stood poised to step forth, seeking expansion in the realm of residential building and cooperation with small business institutions and factories seeking locations in this vicinity. Already this small group has introduced Northville to two business organizations, one of which is anticipating coming to Northville soon.

Henry Ford's Opinion . . .

Henry Ford's opinion, shared by many another, that there is "something phony about the war" is likely to become more widely current unless the armies cut loose soon. So far the row has not been impressive. True it is only about a month old, but outside the campaign in Poland nothing has been done on land. And that the fighting in Poland was by no means a major order is attested by the collapse of that country after about three weeks' resistance.

It was quite different after the start of the World War. There was nothing about that that could be called phony. In the first month the Germans gained control of most of Belgium, marched deep into French territory, got in position to threaten Paris. And the Allied forces, their back to the wall, finally made their desperate stand at the battle of the Marne exactly one month after Great Britain had declared war.

The conquest of Poland in 1939 doesn't really parallel the conquest of Belgium twenty years ago, because Poland was the immediate main objective of Hitler, whereas Belgium lay in the path of the Kaiser's armies in their major attack on France. Even though the Belgian fortress in 1914 did collapse sooner than had been anticipated, they put up a stern resistance and delayed the German march, whereas the Poles, aside from their stand at Warsaw, collapsed almost completely before the German onslaught. And in 1914, the Russians in the first month fought several gigantic battles against the Germans, and even though routed, were still compelling Berlin to maintain a large share of the German armed might in the east.

It may be that the armies will become active along the German border soon. But they have only about a month before the seasonal rains will make large-scale fighting impossible.

After early November winter will clamp down and all will probably be quiet until next March.

Maybe they will have fixed up a peace by that time.

Federal price fixing and war profit taxes would do a lot to take the glamour out of war. With these two guns pointed at the war profiteer and cash and carry neutrality law aimed at the belligerents abroad, American democracy has defense better than either the Maginot or Times lines.

Late reports from industrial centers and reviews by business experts indicate that conditions in America are improving more rapidly than at any time within a dozen years. Already it is asserted we have equaled the activity of the high point of 1937. The statement is to be doubted, however. By the fall of that year we had reduced the total of the unemployed to about 6,500,000. It is believed that between 8,000,000 and 9,000,000 are now out of work, but it is admitted that this total is being reduced rapidly.

Among the most active of our industries are the auto and iron and steel concerns. The latter are said to have more rush orders on hand than at any other time in their history.

All due to the war rush, you think. But that conclusion would be an error. The war trade doubtless has helped, but the improvement began long before the trouble in Europe came to a head, and perhaps would be a little short of the present high mark had peace remained unbroken.

Our industries are likely to devote most of their productive capacity to supplying the home market for a considerable time regardless of the way the cat jumps in London, Paris or Berlin. Peace would probably make no great difference in activities here for a very considerable time.

The large home demand for goods is the really hopeful aspect of the present situation.

Seven Rules for Safety . . .

The outstanding fire prevention authority of the nation has issued a set of seven fire prevention rules which, intelligently observed, would go a long way toward keeping the fire demon under control.

1. Use electricity safely. That means that all electric wiring and equipment should be installed in accordance with the National Electrical Code, and that repairing and installation should be done by an expert workman. Amateur electric work is one of fire's best friends.
2. Smoke in safe places only. That goes for your home, your office, the factory in which you work, for the outdoors and everywhere else. Carelessness with matches and smoking materials destroys untold millions of dollars worth of property yearly.
3. Remember that great fires were small fires to start with. Proper building construction, plus good fire protection, would make it possible to prevent almost any fire from seriously spreading.
4. Fire breeds in oily waste — keep all such waste in a closed metal container.
5. Carelessness and ignorance are often the cause of explosive fires. Here is a rule especially applicable to workmen in industry, who should thoroughly understand the possible fire dangers involved in their particular jobs.
6. In many factories and places of business special fire hazards exist, which require unusual precaution and vigilance.
7. Cleanliness is a great aid to fire prevention. Keep your basement, garage, attic and closets clear of litter. Every one of those rules is simple — all can be easily observed. Observing them may save your home or business — and, infinitely more important, human lives.

the Neutrality Act of 1937 and also outline the changes proposed by the President and his advisors.

The existing law provides:

1. If a state of war exists between two or more nations, the President must issue a proclamation to that effect. This is mandatory and the proclamation has been issued.
2. Thereafter it shall be unlawful to export from this country to any belligerent nation arms, or ammunition, or other implements of war.
3. It shall also be unlawful to ship arms or munitions to any neutral state for transshipment to a country at war.
4. Such an embargo is mandatory and applicable to a long list of articles set forth in the law.

There is nothing in the existing act relative to "cash and carry" transactions with belligerents. There was such a provision, but it was permitted to lapse by Congress in the last session.

Proposed Changes in Neutrality Act: The Administration has requested a number of changes in the act, among them the following:

1. That the United States prohibit American ships, irrespective of what they carry, from entering areas designated by the President as war zones.
  2. That the travel of American citizens in combat areas be restricted.
  3. That the export of goods destined for a belligerent be preceded by transfer of title to the purchaser.
  4. That this country continue existing legislation to the extension of loans and credits to nations at war.
  5. That the government be empowered to regulate the solicitation of funds in this country to aid belligerents.
  6. That the United States license the export of arms and that this be done through the existing Munitions Control Board.
- The controversial points: The principal division of opinion is in respect to the repeal of the embargo. In addition to this many Members of Congress feel that too much discretion is given the President in administering the provisions of neutrality legislation. This was the case when the bill proposed by Rep. Sol Bloom, which embodied several of the changes now being sought by the President, was before the House of Representatives for consideration in the last session.

The House passed this bill, with the arms embargo added, by a narrow margin and the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations refused to report it out for consideration. Because of this action the "cash and carry" section expired by the lapse of time.

Mrs. Bart Connors will open her home Tuesday evening, Oct. 17, to the members of the Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church. The devotions will be led by Mrs. E. S. Beard. Mrs. D. W. Hahn will present a chapter from the study book. Mrs. Ray Baker will be assistant hostess.

Dairymen To Study Methods of Cutting Feeding Costs

Dairymen in Wayne county are among those aiding in proof that it doesn't pay to keep "star boarders" in the dairy herd.

Throughout Michigan, the work of 84 dairy herd improvement associations is hammering on two means of watching costs and trying to earn possible profits. One is from culling out unprofitable animals, the other is by feeding efficiently and economically the 26,000 cows on test in these associations.

By feeding more roughage in the form of legume silage and legume hay, dairymen are getting around the problem of extra purchases of grain. Suitable fall pastures also are more popular and evident than four or five years ago.

In reports of testing work compiled by E. C. Schendenhelm, extension dairyman at Michigan State college, the 84 associations showed an average milk flow and fat yield in August that was surprising. Only a drop of one pound of milk a day was the average under July. Water supplies and additional quantities of dry feed helped avert the usual midsummer drop in the milk flow.

Proof of the unpopularity of inefficient producing animals, says Schendenhelm, is the number of inquiries from dairymen who want to know how they can obtain membership in an improvement association.

Dr. Harold Spaulding will be the guest speaker Monday, Oct. 16, when the members of the Sarah Ann Cochran chapter of the D. A. R. meet at 2 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Robert Coolman, 1025 West Seven Mile road. His topic will be "National Defense." Lyle Behlman will be the vocal soloist.

Forty Changes Feature Ford Line

FORTY important improvements designed for greater overall economy distinguish the 1940 line of Ford V-8 trucks and commercial cars. Forty-two body and chassis types, six wheelbases and three V-8 engines make it the broadest in Ford history. The new 155-inch wheel-base chassis with stake and platform body is shown above. The stylishly styled sedan delivery, with deluxe passenger car front end and gearshift on the steering column is shown below. Unusual new beauty, increased accessibility, stronger cabs, increased driver comfort, improved panel bodies and Sealed Beam headlights are new features.

U. S. Gunners Bolster Canal Defenses

Forty-two bodies of the second coast artillery on board the USS "Albatross" (AG-39) will be the first leg of the Panama Canal Zone, where they will bolster the defenses. The troops later will be sent to the Canal Zone in support of the Brooklyn Army Base.

NYA Seaplane Base Dedicated at Beulah

The above picture shows the dedication ceremonies at Crystal Lake, near Beulah, when the first of a series of seaplane landing floats constructed by the National Youth Administration was officially opened with the arrival of three seaplanes, one piloted by Capt. Robert S. Fogg, seaplane terminal expert of the Civil Aeronautics Authority, from Washington, D. C. Seven of these landing floats are now already completed with plans for 14 more to be constructed in the next few weeks in NYA workshops. Besides Beulah, the seven completed docks are at Houghton Lake, Bear Lake, Topinabee (Mullet Lake), St. Ignace, Escanaba and Lake Gogebic. Communities selected as sites for bases furnish the materials used in construction of the 20 x 100 foot floats. The interest and cooperation of these communities indicates that by next spring the state will be well supplied with seaplane bases according to reports from the Civil Aeronautics Authority and the National Youth Administration.

Make New Records in Hen Contest

Completion of the 17th annual egg laying contest at Michigan State college brought out some new records, not all of them in egg production.

But one trend in feeding, useful to nearly every flock owner in the State, is the feed consumption pointed out by C. G. Card, contest superintendent.

In Michigan the average flock probably eats about the same amount of grain as it consumes in mash. The contest hens, originally numbering 897, ate 48,474 pounds of grain in 51 weeks. They ate 26,720 pounds of mash, a ratio of about 65 to 35 of grain to mash.

"With Michigan climate," Professor Card explains, "we have a theory that more grain is needed to make up for cold months."

Ford's Riverbank farm at Coopersburg, Pa., was the third place pen with Rhode Island Reds laying 3,104 eggs. E. O. Wegemeyer's Reds from Grand Rapids, placed fourth with 3,059 eggs.

Birds surviving the 51 week competition numbered 647 showing a 28 per cent mortality.

The Aztec Club

The Aztec club of 1847 is an hereditary, patriotic society formed at Mexico City in 1847 by officers of the United States army in order to cherish the memories and traditions of the Mexican war. Each member nominates either his first-born son or a male blood relative to succeed him in the society.

Make New Records in Hen Contest

Completion of the 17th annual egg laying contest at Michigan State college brought out some new records, not all of them in egg production.

But one trend in feeding, useful to nearly every flock owner in the State, is the feed consumption pointed out by C. G. Card, contest superintendent.

In Michigan the average flock probably eats about the same amount of grain as it consumes in mash. The contest hens, originally numbering 897, ate 48,474 pounds of grain in 51 weeks. They ate 26,720 pounds of mash, a ratio of about 65 to 35 of grain to mash.

"With Michigan climate," Professor Card explains, "we have a theory that more grain is needed to make up for cold months."

Ford's Riverbank farm at Coopersburg, Pa., was the third place pen with Rhode Island Reds laying 3,104 eggs. E. O. Wegemeyer's Reds from Grand Rapids, placed fourth with 3,059 eggs.

Birds surviving the 51 week competition numbered 647 showing a 28 per cent mortality.

As Germany Recoups World War Losses

Maps show how Germany's expansion the past five years has created a nation far larger than the Kaiser's pre-war empire. Principal World War losses were Alsace Lorraine, to France; the Polish corridor, Posen and Upper Silesia to Poland; Danzig, which became a free city, and the Rhineland, demilitarized. All but Alsace Lorraine have now been recaptured, although Polish seizures are not recognized and therefore not shown on the 1939 map. Germany has also seized Austria and most of the former Czechoslovakia. Germany is still below her pre-war size, however, because all foreign colonies were confiscated at Versailles.

CHEVROLET SPONSORS NEW STYLES IN CARS

Three completely re-styled series of Chevrolet passenger cars, combining greater length and width with much more massive appearance, and embodying many mechanical refinements, made their formal public bow today at the National Automobile Show and in Chevrolet dealers' salesrooms from coast to coast. Over-all length has been increased 4 1/2 inches, a change which makes the new line outstanding for its sleekness and grace.

Honoring Mrs. Henry Haskell on her seventy-fifth birthday anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bryan were hosts Sunday at a family dinner. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Haskell, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Haskell, Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Slater and children, Elsie, Richard and Jerry of Bowling Green, O.

TWO APPLES SHOW OLD, NEW SPRAYS

These two McIntosh apples, sprayed in the old and the new ways, illustrate what Michigan State College entomologists have found in a five year series of experiments. Neither of these apples is wormy, but the one at the left, protected on the tree with an arsenical spray, needs washing before it could be marketed. On the right, also protected and not wormy, is an apple with no appreciable residue and what little spray still remains is harmless because the spray was a nicotine product. Adoption of the new spray by Michigan apple growers is expected to aid in marketing a better quality apple without necessity of washing, which often bruises the skin and adds to production costs.

HOME ACCOUNTS

How many farm families can answer such questions as these: What part of their living comes from the farm? What is the cash expenditure for food, for clothing? What brand of hose gives the most satisfaction for the money spent? Is it cheaper to operate the old range than to buy a new one? How much money will I need to set aside for lights and cleaning supplies each month?

These and many other questions could be very definitely answered if the family had kept a home account record for the past year or years. Why not put the financing of home on as sound a business basis as the farm is by keeping a home account record of at least the most important items? Why not locate the leaks on the spending of the money for the home? You can procure a very excellent home account book for 15 cents by writing to you, County Home Demonstration Agent, 303 Calvin Theatre Building, Dearborn or attending at the meeting to assist Mrs. Gifford with the work.

The first meeting this year to get new members started and give advice to advanced members will be held Friday, Oct. 14 at 2 p. m. in the Wayne Library, Warren, announces Miss Emma DuBord, County Home Demonstration Agent. Mrs. Julia Pond, Extension Specialist in Home Management will be present at the meeting to assist Mrs. Gifford with the work.

To My Constituents:

I have received hundreds of communications regarding the repeal of the arms embargo. Over 95 per cent are opposed to its repeal. In order that the people of my district may know my position in this issue, this general letter is being forwarded to every newspaper circulating in the 17th Michigan District.

The Neutrality Act was passed to keep this country out of war. It had my support and vote, including the embargo on arms. Congress has now been called in special session to repeal the embargo on arms. The Act was passed almost unanimously by Congress after complete and thorough consideration, when war did not exist. It gave notice to the world in advance what our position would be in case war broke out. Now war has broken out and its repeal is asked. To change our position after war has been declared is in itself an unethical act.

In December 1914, after war had broken out in Europe, the Congress attempted to pass an embargo on defense for Milford.

Walled Lake and Milford Southwestern County League opponents met for the first league game of the season on local soil, Friday before close to a thousand fans. Perfect weather raised the hopes of the Walled Lake squad, despite the threat of a heavier Milford team. The final whistle sounded before either team could cross the goal lines.

Milford made three first downs and Walled Lake one in the opening half. The visitors threatened at least once in the second quarter by carrying the ball to the one foot line but the Hurshen field.

The second half saw Colstock, Segwar and Thompson doing great defense work for the locals, while Cee Hilyard, Green and LaFond performed well on offense. Short passes accounted for most of the Milford gains, with Kagel and Baker doing the tossing and receiving. Marshall and Schmidt started on defense for Milford.

arms. Great Britain at once protested to our American Ambassador in London that it would be a violation of international law and considered an unfriendly act toward England. Our State Department, through Secretary of State Bryan, concurred in the position taken by England and the entire matter was dropped. This is exactly the position today.

Let us keep our men, money and munitions at home. Let our thoughts be of America first. I believe that most desired end can be best attained by holding fast to the position we took when war did not exist, namely by keeping the Neutrality Act as it is.

I am conscious of my responsibility to my constituents, my country and my God, whose guidance I humbly ask to maintain peace and security in our beloved America. I pledge my every effort to keep the United States out of war.

Plays Head List for Fall Reading

Drama Books May Be Borrowed through Wayne County Library Service

Each fall and winter, theatre-goers and followers of the drama, turn a share of their reading time to books of drama.

The following may be interloated through the Northville Branch of the Wayne County Library:

Golden Boy by Clifford Odets. This is a three-act play with the fight ring for its locale. It is the tale of a young Italian violinist who is torn between the love of his art and an overwhelming desire for material gain. The play has terse dialogue.

Room Service by John Murray. This is a cheerful farce in which the action is based upon the activities of a harassed theatrical producer, who has intended to use a shabby hotel to finance a play, meanwhile keeping his actors and the playwright as guests of the hotel.

Both Your Houses by Maxwell Anderson. The play gives an unflattering picture of the legislative process in Washington. It is an unusually entertaining one.

Ah, Wilderness by Eugene O'Neill. This is an amusing play of a nice ordinary family, which the author has treated smilingly, tenderly and simply.

Animal Kingdom by Philip Barry. It is a modern drama depicting the struggle of Tom Collier, a charming and enlightened young man, against the combined force of a conventional wealthy father and a selfish, money-loving wife.

The Littlefoxes by Lillian Hallman. This is a bitter play about a crucial period in the lives of a southern industrial family, when in order to pave the way for a money-making plant, the three Hubbards stop at nothing in their efforts to lay hands on some necessary cash.

The White Steed by Paul Carroll. This is at once a drama and literature. It is a better made play than "Shadow and Substance," and its writing, though more down to earth, equally fine.

Abe Lincoln in Illinois by Robert Sherwood. It is remarkable, not for the superior craftsmanship which has come to be expected from Mr. Sherwood, but for the interesting and distinctly unorthodox portrait of Lincoln in his pre-presidential days.

Clipping Service Covers 7 States

Surveys Give Cross Section of Opinions on Current Problems of Importance

"All I know is what I read in the newspapers," Will Rogers used to say, but even his desire to keep up with the news would have flinched at the task started over 25 years ago by the Central Press Clipping Service of Indianapolis, Ind.

Of course, it has been necessary to constantly increase our force of readers in performing our business of reading newspapers for other people—but they enjoy searching for clippings on thousands of subjects that comprise the needs of our clients," says H. W. Drago, proprietor and manager of the service. "There are many more newspapers in the field now than when we started in business, and most of them are larger editions, but we are doing an even better job of reading today than ever before. Try to visualize reading about two tons of newspapers each month. Yes! The Northville Record is among them!

"Many people ask us what on earth our clients find of interest in so many local newspapers. They fail to understand how hundreds of political and fraternal organizations want to know what is going on in every section of the country; how manufacturers and sales organizations are vitally interested in learning of fairs, fairs, new building projects, etc., which are reported only in local newspapers."

The Central Press Clipping Service reads practically all the newspapers published each week in Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Kentucky and Tennessee. This reading covers an important and compact group of states. It includes about 25 per cent of all the newspapers published in the entire United States. Clippings from those papers on a given subject provide a very accurate cross-section of the country to show what a fourth of the people in the United States have read on that subject because that percentage of the citizens of the entire country live in this seven-state area—and the newspaper reading done by practically everybody is limited to their own home town papers.

Women's Extension Groups Study "Best" Fabrics

It takes a well versed woman shopper to keep up with the science of fabricating cloth for clothing; now that textiles are popping out of such unusual sources as milk, soybeans, rubber and glass, plus the standby materials of cotton, wool, linen, silk and rayon.

Groups of women are enrolling throughout Michigan in Fall projects of the home economics extension work of Michigan State college. Included in clothing projects is a study of fabrics related to a recent piece of research conducted by Miss Marjorie Eastman of the college home economics staff.

"There is no best textile fiber," Miss Eastman concludes.

"Each has its own special qualities that make it suitable for certain uses and unsuitable for others. Until the newer fabrics prove practical, the five present standbys seem best." Qualities listed for cotton include its natural fuzziness, it is easily crushed, yet it is easily spun, makes a soft texture and launders easily. Linen in contrast has no nifty surface, is cool to wear and also launders easily but wrinkles easily, often as irregular in texture, but is durable and smooth.

Silk's qualities include a smooth surface, fine texture, it drapes well, wears a long time, does not soil easily nor wrinkle easily, and lends itself to rich colors. Wool is fuzzy and collects dust and dirt, wears well and wrinkles little; has thickness without great weight, is warm to wear and lends itself to deep, rich colors. Rayon is soil resistant, susceptible to wrinkling, resists effects of light and weather, requires care in laundering, does not mildew and resists injury from perspiration.

Milk Market Law Makes Progress in Detroit Area

The Michigan Milk Marketing Law, passed by the Legislature has been put to work by several of the larger markets in the State. Producers supplying milk for the Detroit market were the first in the State to petition the State Milk Marketing Board for a hearing on the establishment of a marketing area; likewise they were the first to petition for a hearing to establish minimum producer prices.

The order for minimum producer prices became effective Aug. 15 with no change in price over the first 15 days. Sept. 1, the price moved up from $1.96 for Class 1 sales to $2.03 f. o. b. Detroit.

Following Sept. 1, all the distributors in the market, by law, as the result of the Official State Order No. 2, were to report all sales and use of milk to Dr. F. D. Walmsley, market administrator for the Detroit marketing area and fiscal agent of the Detroit local marketing committee, who was appointed administrator by the State Milk Marketing Board of which Commissioner of Agriculture E. A. Beamer is chairman.

A few milk distributors in the market have not complied with the State law and have been operating in violation of the Detroit Marketing Order, issued by the State Milk Marketing Board and thereby violating Public Act 146 of 1939, State of Michigan.

October 4, a court order was issued restraining the Johnson Milk company, the Buckley Dairy and the Cloverdale Farm Dairy from further operation, in violation of the State law. Since issuing of the Court Order the two latter have complied.

Producers supplying milk to distributors who are buying milk for the Detroit Area also are subject to suit if milk is supplied to such distributors that have not complied with the law. This is clearly stated in Section 29 of Public Acts No. 146 which reads as follows:

"It shall be unlawful for any producer of milk to sell or deliver such milk to any unlicensed milk dealer, except one not required to be licensed. It shall be unlawful for any producer to sell or deliver milk to any milk dealer for consumption in any marketing area, except for at least the prices approved or fixed by the Board to be paid producers for such marketing area, and except such milk as had been produced and is sold by such producer in compliance with health regulations of any lawful authority in such marketing area and the rules and orders of the Board."

The marketing orders issued for the Detroit Marketing area are similar to others issued by the Michigan Milk Marketing Board of the State.

N.H.S. To Play
FarmingtonitesInjuries Will Keep Some of the Men from Playing in Friday's Game

The boys from N. H. S. are looking very good this week for their game with Farmington. Frank Bongiovanni will be lost this week because of a knee injury suffered in the conflict with Van Dyke. Due to illness, Ray Hartner may not be able to play in the Farmington game.

Ineligibility is the most important factor that a boy out for any sport has to follow. He has to be passing in three subjects, thus giving him 15 credits for the week. Coach, Harry B. Smith has made a rule this year, that if any boy is ineligible for more than one game, he will be dropped from the squad. Already two have been lost because of this.

It is expected that Captain Joe Defina and Bob Ross who were out of the Van Dyke game due to injuries, will return for the Farmington game. Furse probably will be moved to the quarterback position to replace Bongiovanni, and that will leave all end position open. Furse because of his fine showing in the Van Dyke game, should have the first chance to fill the end position.

The Home Making II class members spent their sewing period, Tuesday mending the football jerseys.

EDITORIAL NOTES

During the next three months 150,000 youth in Michigan between the ages of 6 and 124 years will be interviewed in connection with the Michigan Youth Vocational Survey. The purpose of this survey is to help find suitable jobs best fitted to your abilities and interests. The enumerator will call at your home and, if you are not there, will attempt to make an appointment to see you. If you want help in this matter leave word at your home that you want the appointment made. The interview will be very brief with simple questions, and your answers will be confidential. This Michigan Youth Vocational Survey is a very worthwhile plan, and we hope you will all take notice of it. We know that if you think about this and agree to an interview that some benefit for you will be derived from it.

Students Witness

Girls' N-Club

Members of the Girls' N-Club met for their third meeting, Thursday, Oct. 5. The bake sale which was held Saturday, Sept. 30, proved to be a success and the club is planning to hold a bake sale the first Saturday of every month to raise sufficient funds to help support the girls' activities.

The N-Club will hold its first dance of the season Oct. 28. The committee were chosen as follows: Yvonne Taylor, orchestra; Carol Carlson, Mary Ellen Burgess and Yvonne Taylor, advertising; Ida Marie Walker, chaperons. Tickets will be sold at the doors by Alice Matthews, Pat Klem and Mary Frances Ball.

13-7 Score Makes
VanDyke Victors

The Northville football team lost its third consecutive game of the season Friday Oct. 6, to Van Dyke by the score of 13-7.

The team didn't hit its stride until the last half. They were trailing 6-0 at the end of the first half, but they put on a great aerial attack that took them down the field about 65 yards in four plays. Junior took the ball over for a touchdown from about the three yard line. Hartner converted the extra point. But in the last quarter Van Dyke put on a fine offensive drive and then from about the 20 yard line threw an unexpected pass for a touchdown. They made the extra point on a line plunge.

The lineups for the two teams were as follows:

Grade Notes

Mr. William Chizmar's first graders decided a good citizen must be helpful, clean, neat, polite and careful. They have four chapters: "hip" clubs. They are Bear, Elephant, Squirrel and Cowboy clubs. They want to see which club has the best citizens. Last week they were making waffles of fruit. Martha Chappell brought a frog to school. They have put him in the terrarium. If they can get enough worms for him, they will keep him all winter.

Dolores Hall, Peter Green, Alice Newton, Charles Latham and Martha Chappell brought worms for their toads.
Alice Newton and Gerald Higgins had birthdays last week.

Perhaps You Are Afraid of Glasses

—but Remember:

EYESIGHT IS YOUR MOST VALUED SENSE

It is the most essential of all the five senses at your command. Perfect eyesight is the revealer of God's great works of doors, of the heavens, the forests, the mountains, the sea, and the colorful sunsets.

Defective eyesight limits your appreciation of these glorious Fall days. Distorts the very beauties of nature that God gives to us freely in this colorful month of October. Faulty eyesight destroys efficiency, and often all too often is the cause of tragic accidents.

THE OPTOMETRIST MAY BE YOUR BEST FRIEND

For he corrects and stabilizes faulty eyes with lenses and muscle coordination. Because of his training he fits 75 per cent of the glasses worn and treats of many more principles that touch anatomy and physiology. He fits the glasses that enable the eye to function in a normal manner, enabling the two eyes into essential teamwork that produces a single object. He corrects the slightest deviation present in discomfort and annoyance. Therefore, it is his profession to give you a proper fit and restore your eyes in strength, vigor and comfort.

When you trust me with your most valuable possession, YOUR EYESIGHT, you are paying me the highest compliment one man can pay another.

This trust will not be betrayed.

NOTICE TO HUNTERS
No hunting of pheasants on the Starkweather Farm this year. This rule applies to everyone. For the following permanent reasons: Last year we had a colt shot; 6 horses let into the road; fire in the orchard burned over 5 acres. Two years ago hunters let horses into the road and we had two colts killed by autos 10 minutes apart. Because of the above we feel justified in refusing hunters access to our property. This rule applies to everyone.

• No more need to make trips to and from the tank heater when you want hot water after you install MIRRO-SHELL. It is easily fitted around your present tank and just like that it becomes an automatic gas water heater to serve you with hot water day or night without any attention on your part.

The cost of this change is reasonable and so is the cost of operation. Come in or phone to learn how well this will fit into your budget and bring all members of the household a needed service.

The Record is ORDERED — and is not an unwelcome intruder on the premises. It is eagerly awaited by the reader, who desires to keep abreast of the happenings in the county — including news concerning merchandise — prices offered by stores and firms. Nothing locally can take its place as an advertising medium and business getter for you — nothing else can compare with it in cost, coverage, or results obtained. The Record has reader interest. ### Senior Sketch

Born? Why—yes, Mary Frances Batt started her existence on the fifteenth day of June some 17 years ago. Defiance, O., was the city honored by her brown eyes and first smile. Mary Fran didn't start with curly hair but has it now by long hours of pressure and heat. For four years she has attended N. H. S. and been in all the sports activities. As she was interviewed for this article she stated, "My favorite amusement is watching a good basketball game, not through a knot hole but from the seats on the side line." Her nickname is "Runt" received for being the smallest of her family. In her future, she plans to study nursing. Some day she hopes to meet people on a famous operating table, and help perform miracles. This, we hope she accomplishes, and in the next six years we'll probably know.
