Homes In Northville . . .

One of the finest compliments that one may pay his community is to build a home there. Perhaps no better measure of Northville can be expected than that gained by the knowledge that over 30 homes have been built here, not in the past two years, or even a year, but just in the last nine months. Out-State communities have expressed astonishment at the great array of new homes pictured in The Northville Record in the last two issues.

"In love of home, the love of country has its rise," wrote Charles Dickens. Another wrote "Home is where the heart is." And people enjoy the neighborliness of the smaller town, and yet here in Northville have all the advantages accorded to residents of the larger cities, minus a multitude of disadvantages and unwholesome associations. Home owners usually make better citizens, are concerned with progressive activities of the community, and they also contribute most to its improvement.

May we welcome Mr. Abernethy and his men of the Brickote Company who will soon make their new industrial home in Northville.

In the passing of Grant S. Rowe, formerly editor and publisher of The Milford Times, Milford has lost a good and great man. Mr. Rowe contributed much to the up-building of his community, and Milford is a better town because Mr. Rowe lived there.

Michigan and its tax sale as engineered by George T. Gundry and his colleague, Martin Leavan, faces a most stringent investigation by a grand jury. An alleged $20,000 split, and false signatures on checks are the focal points involving those interested in the Oakland county tax sale publication. The placing of tax sale business usually stinks when a half dozen connive to get rich on the Michigan taxpayers' pocketbook.

Isn't it nice to live where you don't have to run for shelter every time an airplane drops over head, or fear a concentration camp if you express your opinion?

The new 1940 auto license plates are about the best looking we have seen in Michigan in a long time. They add dignity to the new car. By refusing to cavort to self-served political big game, such as distinction Secretary of State Kelly has saved the state an approximating $2,000,000. A small note to remind the $50,000,000 tax coats of Michigan. We do not think Mr. Ford would again like his famed "999" cars, but in line with good taste and good judgment in "no exceptions" and we don't think Mr. Ford also forgets his "999" custom.

California again comes to the front with a brand new project. The Ham and Eggs plan will be voted on in the Sunshine State Nov. 7. Ohioans will vote on the same day on a $500,000,000 pension.

Last June 920,310 persons voted on the Federal government payroll. This figure is 2,550 more than the number on the list at the end of the war. This accounts for the reason that 25 cents of each dollar you earn goes to the government. Also the same number accounts for a lot of votes to be—multiply the 920,310 by five and it makes a nice nucleus for a 1940 ballot box count.

The United States is very lenient with communists, and accords them the protection of the very laws they seek to overthrow. Watch Earl Browder seek shelter in his trouble with the government by using the laws he seeks to overthrow.

The "Code" of Good Hunters . . .

Remember that hunting was once the sport of kings and princes only, and was regarded by them as an honorable and chivalrous pastime. Today it can be the sport of every man. Do nothing to degrade it.

Be considerate of others always.
 Do not use intoxicating beverages while hunting.
 Wear the back-tag of your hunting license at all times afield.

Keep a copy of the Michigan game law digest in your hunting jacket, your car or your suit coat.
 Study the game laws. Be firm in your determination to observe them.

Do not forget the law forbids the cleaning or dressing of game in the field so as to destroy the identity of sex or species. Wait till you get home.
 Learn to distinguish readily the legal game species. Always be sure of your target before you shoot.

Always ask for the privilege of hunting on a farm. Be polite. Introduce yourself to the owner. Park your car out of the way in his yard.

Remember that under the Horton trespass law a farmer may have you arrested for entering his premises to hunt without permission, even though his land is neither fenced nor posted.

If you are responsible for any damage, or find that damage has been caused by others, report it to the landholder.
 Learn by practice to handle and shoot a gun safely . . . before you go hunting.
 Adopt a slogan "A gun is always loaded." Don't forget it!

Leave a clean camp. Be careful in disposing of lighted matches and cigar or cigarette butts.
 Do not forget, discard or lose the report form attached to your hunting license. Use it to report your game kill before Feb. 15.

Cooperate with the conservation officer. He is employed to serve you and protect your rights. Sportsmen have nothing to fear from him—Exchange.

 In loving memory of our dear husband and daddy, Ward L. Drull-Jard, who passed away Nov. 3, 1935.
 Our family circle has been broken a link gone from our chain. But though we're parted for a while we know we'll meet again. We often sit and think of him when we are all alone. For memory is the only friend that grief can call its own. Like ivory on a withered oak. When all other things decay. Our love for him will still keep our love for him still green. Winning Name To Be Given Team

Prize Is Offered for the Most Suitable Suggestion Handed Student Council

This year the school has decided to choose a name for their team. Jack Holcomb, representing the Student Council, explained the contest to the student body in assembly.

A prize is offered to the student who hands in the most suitable name. The judges are: Marilyn Cavell, Jack Holcomb, Neville Walker, and E. C. Mollena. The winner and the name chosen will be announced two weeks from today.

Grade Notes

Miss Beulah Miller's room has been selling apples the past two weeks. The money will be used toward a fund to buy playground equipment.

The class has organized a rhythm band and is expecting to give a program in the near future.

Miss Selma Jarvis' third graders visited the Twin Pines Dairy, Friday, Oct. 20. They had a very nice time and learned a great deal about milk.

M. J. Kolyke, manager of the dairy, treated them to some delicious chocolate milk.

Six parents supplied cars for the trip.

GIVE-CARD PARTIES

The seniors will give their first card party of the year Nov. 9. The class extends a cordial invitation to the community to attend any or all of the parties. There will be prizes and refreshments. This will be the first party in a series of five. Admission for the five will be $1.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Next Friday, Nov. 18, we are going to meet our greatest rivals on the gridiron for the most exciting game of the year. It has been the tradition for the Northville high school students of past years to hold a pep meeting on the night before the Plymouth game so everyone save next Thursday night for the big bonfire and help get the team in good spirits. The freshmen are going to gather the wood again this year of course, and we can't disappoint them by not being present after all their hard work. Win or lose, Northville is always in there fighting. We feel sure that if everyone turns out for both the bonfire and the game, the team can't help but do their best. Have a good time Thursday night and try to remember that if we don't lose our heads and if we're careful what we do, we can carry on this old tradition through future years.

Society

The sophomores held a reception for the freshmen Oct. 30. Miss Gladys Ludwig, Miss Jane Lentz, Neville Walker, C. D. Yahne and Prin. C. V. Harnson chaperoned the party. Games were played and the turntable supplied music for dancing. The party was from 4:30 till 9:30 p. m.

Senior Sketch

Lucy Bidwell was born near South Lyon, Jan. 13, 1922. She started to school at Waterford Center near Pontiac, but only attended for a month; then moved to New Hudson, where she devoted three years of her life. Moving again to the spot where she started her existence, she went to the Stone school for five years. Her high school education was begun in South Lyon where she went for three years. Her last year she is giving to Northville high school.

Lucy would like very much to go on to school and take Home Economics training, but as yet she can't say for sure. Her pastimes are dancing, skating and driving a car.

Wanda Bender first laughed in Detroit, on June 18, 1921, and has been laughing ever since. When she reached the ripe old age of one, she moved to Northville and has been living here since then. Wanda's pastimes are reading, dancing, driving, and last but not least, a bid from Plymouth who goes by the name of Bob.

Wanda would have graduated last June, had she not visited in West Virginia with her brother last spring. However, the class of '40 welcomes a jolly person such as Wanda and only regrets that she could not have been a classmate all through school.

Leslie G. Lee and Mrs. Louise Lee head the orchestra concert Sunday in Ann Arbor.

Dots and Dashes

Miss Ione Palmer's French class and E. C. Mollena's world history class saw "The World in Review," a film shown Oct. 25.

Oct. 25, the football squad, and those who plan to go out for basketball, witnessed three movies on this subject of basketball and football. The film revealed some of the major league games during the year of 1938.

The third hour biology class witnessed a movie Oct. 25 on the subject of teeth, revealing the construction and arrangement.

The Boys' N-Club was reorganized after two years of absence from N. H. S. The first project will be an N-Club dance which will be held Nov. 3, from 8 to 11:30 p. m. The price is only 15 cents so come on, students, help out the club.

Another appeal is being made by the Dramatic club for old clothes that have been or are going to be discarded. Everyone's cooperation will be appreciated as there is a demand for costumes in the school home talent plays. It is calling 7:05 P. M., your message will be taken and garments picked up at a later date.

The dance that was given last Thursday by the Girls' N-Club turned out very successful. They report a profit of $24.00.

The Girls' N-Club has decided to hold a bake sale once a month. The second one will be Saturday morning, Nov. 4, at Lyke's Hardware, starting at 9 o'clock.

Monday, Oct. 23 at 3:30 p. m., the girls interested in basketball met in Miss Ludwig's room. There were 42 present, 33 being beginners and 9 letter girls. Practice began in earnest Tuesday after school at 3:45.

The high school teachers met at 3:30 p. m. Monday, Oct. 30, to report on meetings attended during the M. E. A. Institute.

Redford Union Is Opponent Today

Two Teams are Well Matched for the Second Gridiron Conflict of Season

Northville's opponent today, Friday, Nov. 3, will be Redford Union. The game will be played at Cass Benton Park. This should be a very interesting game as both teams are trying to break into the win column.

Redford Union has a light team but they have plenty of speed and lots of fight which can cause trouble in a game. Willis, Odgers and Boyden who were out of the Berkeley game with injuries are expected to be back in uniform today.

Northville Taken by Score of 12-0

The Northville boys took it on the chin again last Thursday, Oct. 26, when a heavy set team from Berkeley defeated them 12-0.

Berkeley received the ball on the kickoff and started their march down the field. The ball changed hands back and forth until Berkeley put on a burst of speed mixed in with a little luck and took the ball to the six yard line. With two unsuccessful tries at the line, Berkeley received the first penalty of the game of 55 yards for holding.

At this time the Northville line gave way and Berkeley had the first score of the game. After this the Northville team started to click, coming out of their huddle with all the spirit it takes to make a winning football team, but this life that helped hold Berkeley to just one more touchdown, was not enough to win the game.

Northville's passing attack clicked throughout the game, but it didn't help them any because the line gave way and the passer was rushed so hard that he threw the ball into the hands of a Berkeley receiver.

One of the great highlights of the game was the regularity with which Bob Vogtlin was able to break through the opponent's line. He made more tackles than anyone else and on numerous occasions slowed up the runner enabling someone else to make the tackle.

Around the School

A Dramatics club meeting was held Wednesday, Oct. 25 at 3:30 p. m. in Miss Estelle Griffiths' room. Each member gave the name of a play, either on Broadway or in Detroit, and the actors.

It was decided to have a constitution. Eugenia Stanford was appointed chairman of a committee to compose it, under the supervision of E. C. Mollena.

Eugene Reeves, the treasurer of the club, is collecting dues and asks all members to pay them as soon as possible.

The Latin I club members held their first meeting Oct. 24, at the home of Phyllis Knight on Thayer boulevard. They elected officers for their club, as follows: President, Phyllis Lyke, vice-president, Joyce Matthews; secretary and treasurer, Dorothy Orr.

The meetings will take place every month at the homes of students.

The Latin II club held its second meeting at Myra Gibson's home, Oct. 25.

An impromptu program was given, a play, "Nunc Intellego," was presented and a number of games were played. Later, Latin songs were sung and refreshments were served. The officers are Carrell Carlson, president; Bob McCluskie, vice-president; and Dick Simmons, secretary-treasurer.

The junior class, as a money making project, agreed to sell the four Crowell Publishing company magazines: The Woman's Home Companion, American, Colliers and Country Home.

The class was divided into two teams, the Kickapooos and the Potawatomis. To date, approximately $100 has been taken in and the school's profit will range from 30 to 50 per cent of this amount. This has proved to be an excellent money-making scheme.

Every step in the examination is without effort on your part. Scientific methods, the latest equipment remove the element of question as infinitesimal exactitude at once discloses to the optometrist the needs of your individual case.

DIAGNOSTIC PROCEDURE MOST SUCCESSFUL

Modern instruments make possible examinations never before possible now a matter of only a brief sitting. The new analytical method, replaces the old trial by error procedure. More than 23 progressive steps measure all ocular conditions. Blurred vision, double vision, and uncomfortable conditions are all revealed. Reserve force is calculated; coordination between eye and hand, nerve innervation, driving ability to judge distances, color-blindness, muscular balance are all made known to the Optometrist. No drugs or drops are ever used.

When you trust me with your most valuable possession, YOUR EYESIGHT, you are paying me the highest compliment one man can pay another.

This trust will not be betrayed.

Base Line School

By MARY JANE BURGESS
The boys of our school are making a furniture store.
We have some nice vegetable posters on our bulletin board. Mary Visnayak and Frances Polenska made them.
Myron Whipple, La Vera Kreeger, and Louis Vismachove made clay models of the animals of the Amazon Valley. Some of the animals are an anteater, a lazy sloth, an armadillo and a toucan.
We made posters of our citizenship code and have put them on the board where we can always see them. Our code is: Play fair, be considerate, do your duties cheerfully, be kind.

APPRECIATES AUTO OWNERS SERVICE

Jackson, Mich., Oct. 2, 1939.
Emer Smith, Northville, Mich.
Dear Sir:
I was so impressed with the willingness and quickness with which the Lansing Auto Owners Insurance Co., which you represent, repaired my Lincoln Zephyr following my recent accident that I could not help expressing my appreciation.
The car was badly wrecked in an accident on the Novi road near Northville, and within four hours the repairs were under way. I can say without reservation whatever that I am entirely pleased with the manner in which the company's representatives went about settling my claim, and am well satisfied with the swift fulfillment of its contract with me.
Very sincerely yours,
Ray Poppe

Well, well—fashion has decreed the return of the bustle... a style we knew when your mother and grandmother swished into our store to buy pharmacy supplies. Many changes have taken place in the interim, but we've maintained that good old fashioned principle of storekeeping—full value for the money and the kind of interested, helpful service that makes friends and keeps them.
