

Northville Joins Plymouth in Third Lincoln Dinner

Republicans Will Eat Buffalo Stew Made from "John," Schrader's Ranch Prize

Campbell Aids Sale

Headed by Del Campbell, ticket chairman, Northville will join with Plymouth in the third annual All-American Lincoln Day dinner Monday, Feb. 5, at the Hotel Mayflower, Plymouth, where the main dish this year to tempt the appetites of loyal republicans will be buffalo stew.

Another village, Orlov & Owen, will have the party supporters singing campaign songs of victory, as well as "Home on the Range."

Mr. Campbell has named the following committeemen: Neil Hannaford, Loyte German, R. J. Hammele, and Kenneth Rathbun. The buffalo stew will be made from cuts which once belonged to the name of "John" out on Fred Schrader's buffalo ranch, west of Plymouth.

It is through Mr. Schrader's generosity in sacrificing "John" to the republican cause that the committee has eliminated fried salt pork and corn meal mush from the menu this year. The price for the dinner will remain the same as it has always been—four bits. Tickets will go on sale Saturday in Northville.

The corn that will be used in making the corn bread was grown on John Haggerty's farm, south of Plymouth. Michigan maple syrup will also be served. Sugar cookies made of Michigan flour and ice cream from Michigan cream (provided by Herman Pakhaus) will be the dessert.

The Plymouth committee for arrangements is made up of Mr. Schrader, George A. Smith, Charles Rathbun and Elton R. Eaton. Ralph Lorenz, hotel manager, is studying buffalo stew recipes as his contribution to the success of the affair. Leslie Alexander and Jack Taylor are assisting with the ticket sale.

Two leading Plymouth democrats, Eugene Orndorff and Postmaster Frank Learned, have been invited—and they have accepted.

This feature has proven of much interest in other sections of the country for several years.

It remained for R. J. Hammer, master to bring it to the readers of The Record, and of course being in the hardware business, the donor of this feature naturally suggests that "when you think of hardware—think of Hammer," and the weekly Timely Tips found coupled with the almanac feature. ## John A. Boyce Is Chairman of Finn Fund

Northville To Participate in Bringing Relief to War Refugees

John A. Boyce, president of the Depositors State Bank, today agreed to accept the local chairmanship for Northville of the appeal for funds made by Finnish Relief Fund, Inc., of which former President Herbert Hoover is National chairman. Mr. Boyce is taking immediate steps to get the campaign under way.

"I am most happy to serve in view of the pressing needs of brave men and children in little Finland," Mr. Boyce said today. "Thousands have been driven from their homes in Finland by the bombing and warfare and they must be provided with food, shelter, and clothing."

Finland Relief Fund, headed by Mr. Hoover, is attempting to meet these great needs. "American Red Cross provides medical and hospital supplies, but in accord with its traditional international policy, does not attempt civilian aid for the aged, the women and children. Both groups have a large task in this crisis."

"We must act quickly to prevent suffering and death to these honest peace-loving people," Mr. Boyce said. "I know that our village will respond generously."

Special scenery and other stage details have been carefully worked out by scenery and property committees to help make this play a success.

Mr. Lee, who directed "Sun Up," "The Show Off," "The Mikado," and several other plays and operettas, has coached two complete casts for the play.

Flames Damage Spagnuolo Shop

A fire which originated in the coal bin of Spagnuolo's Confectionery at midnight Thursday, Jan. 11, damaged the property to the extent of over $350.

Because of smoke and water marks, it will be necessary for James Spagnuolo, owner, to redecorate his walls and make floor repairs.

Officer Richard Loomis reports that it was difficult to get at the source of the fire because the coal bin is in the front of the basement underneath the store and firemen had to enter the building from the rear of the store. The basement is accessible only by a narrow flight of stairs. Firemen controlled the fire before extensive damage was done.

Petz Brothers Buy Former Factory Site

Wilbert Petz and William Petz, Jr., proprietors of the Petz Cigar, gas station and Studebaker sales, have completed transaction whereby they purchased the site of the old furniture factory on the Plymouth road across from the P. M. depot.

The site has over a 100-foot frontage on the Plymouth road and runs back to a depth sufficient to provide over an acre of land. The land covered by the transaction was the site of the building that for years housed a pipe organ factory, church furniture factory and of more recent years a dietetic factory, which was destroyed by fire, July 28, 1938.

No indication has been made by the Petz brothers as to what purpose the site will be used for.

Tuesday noon, over 30 Rotarian members of the Plymouth club joined with the Northville club in a joint meeting held in the Presbyterian church house.

Cass S. Hough, vice-president of the Daisy Air Rifle company, was the speaker of the hour. Mr. Hough presented a most interesting and instructive talk on the subject of "There Is No Such Thing As Blind Flying."

According to the arrangements, the local club was to supply the meal, and the Plymouth club would provide the program. President B. Mr. Bogart presided during the opening and closing portions of the program, and called upon President Eckles of the Plymouth club to present the program of the hour.

Hewitt of Northville, was welcomed into the club as an honorary member, and then as the day was his seventy-fifth birthday, Mr. Hewitt's son, a charter member of the Milford Rotary club, presented his father with a birthday flower in honor of the occasion.

Mr. Hough, who is an authority on the art and science of flying, explained to the clubs the great part instruments play in the navigation of the ship, illustrating the primary flight group of instruments, then explained the intricate part that the radio beam now plays in the art of flying. He explained the operation of the radio beam in detail not only as a means of keeping a ship on its course, but also in bringing the landing field, and effecting a blind landing. Mr. Hough illustrated his talk with several very interesting charts. Following the talk, many of the group found enjoyment in asking questions concerning the points brought out in the discussion by Mr. Hough.

Glenn Jewell of the Plymouth club, led the singing.

High School's Basketball Teams Win Two Contests

The Northville boys' team will play Van Dyke on the home court at 7 p. m. Tuesday, Jan. 23. Coach Harry B. Smith has not released the starting lineup for this contest yet.

Northville's high school basketball activities last week were marked by wins, when the girls defeated the Berkeley team, 27-18, and the boys' team won 24-23.

The girls, coached by Miss Glavin, met their opponents on the Berkeley floor Friday afternoon. The first part of the opening quarter found the N. H. S. team leading by a score of 8-4. At the half, the Mustangs succeeded in piling up a 11-4 lead. Many of Berkeley's passes were intercepted by the Northville girls, and the ball was passed down the floor for two more points to end the scoring for the half.

Northville was in the lead throughout the entire game, but the forwards were unable to get many points during the third quarter. Zone guarding which was used by Northville for the first time proved successful.

High scorers for the game were Mary Frances Batt with 14 points, and Ruth Parmenter with 10 points. The lineup included: Batt, Carlson and Jones, forwards; Bob Walker (Continued on back page)

Citing the rapid growth of Japan since its forced opening by Admiral Perry 80 years ago, Dr. Axling related the strides this oriental nation had taken to acquire a place in the sun. In Japan, Dr. Axling said, literacy was over 97 per cent rising from zero in 70 years. Tokyo has 300,000 students, and a million children in school. Japan's merchandise has taken the nation from an agricultural to an industrial nation. To such an extent that many nations now suffer at her hands.

Pressure of population has added much to the problems of the nation. After the opening of the nation the Emperor sent forth an injunction to his people "To seek knowledge throughout the world." The Japanese found the world and followed the example of Christian nations and any nation having such a rapid growth faces many problems. Dr. Axling found the solution of the problems of the Far East in the religion of Jesus Christ.

Tom Edmondson, retiring president of the club, was presented with his past president's pin by the Rev. H. J. Lord.

22 Churches Send 60 Representatives to Village Session

More than 60 persons, representing 22 churches in the Wayne Baptist association were in attendance Wednesday at the Convention held in the Northville Baptist church.

Dr. William Axling of Tokyo, Japan, was the main speaker of the session, drawing on his 35 years of the Japanese mission field, for his theme.

In an address at the Baptist church in the evening, Dr. Axling made a plea for America's sympathetic understanding of Japan.

"America cannot let a moment justify the Sino-Japanese conflict," he declared, but she can seek a fair understanding of what Japan is up against economically. He pointed out that of Japan's island empire the whole of which could be put down within the boundaries of California only 15 per cent of the soil is tillable to feed a population of 70,000,000.

"America must not get into this Sino-Japanese war," Dr. Axling passionately declared, "for she can make her best contribution when the end of the war approaches, and the war cannot go on forever." He reminded his audience that America had forced "the open door" for commerce with Japan 80 years ago, and asserted "America is the only one of the world powers which in position may play the role of mediator when the end comes, just as she did in the war between Japan and Russia."

Britain cannot do it because of friction with Japan. On high grounds America should chart her course in relation to the embargo measures and the commercial treaty so as honestly to help both China and Japan in creating friendly relations in the Orient," Dr. Axling said.

Sharing program honors, with Dr. Axling were Mrs. Guy Orcutt, Mr. Ralph Taylor, Andrew, Ezra G. Rich, Ralph Taylor, Andrew and the Rev. Dr. H. H. Chapman.

The 22 churches represented embraced a total church membership of 5,038. All but three or four of the churches have regular pastors or preaching services. Some have branches or missions in addition.

The national expenses including benevolences for the year ending Sept. 30, 1939 total $106,313. The oldest churches in the association are the Pomona First Baptist church, organized in 1822, and the Ann Arbor First Baptist church.

To Count Noses for Uncle Sam

The 1940 census effort is divided into two parts: business and manufacturing census; population and agricultural census. The business and manufacturing census got underway Jan. 2. It will require about four months to complete. Field work in the 17th district will be covered by the enumerators which were selected late in December.

The population and agricultural census will start all over the county, Apr. 2, and the number of enumerators engaged in this work in the 17th district will total 250.

Exchange Hears Plea for Japan

Dr. Axling Cites Strides of Educational Progress Made by Orientals

Containing that the next chapter in the world's history will dawn in the area of the Pacific, Dr. W. Axling for 40 years a resident of Tokyo, Japan, brought a strong plea to the Exchange Hears Wednesday to consider well the role of Japan in world affairs.

Citing the rapid growth of Japan since its forced opening by Admiral Perry 80 years ago, Dr. Axling related the strides this oriental nation had taken to acquire a place in the sun. In Japan, Dr. Axling said, literacy was over 97 per cent rising from zero in 70 years. Tokyo has 300,000 students, and a million children in school. He who gives a friend a book
Gives that friend a chance to look
Far beyond the narrow stream
That bounds the meadows of his dream.
The book that friend receives from you
May bridge that stream, enlarge his view,
Until those meadows lead him far
Toward new realms, some hither star
May give his soul an upward look
Because you gave your friend a book.

● National Citation . . .

Whether you are a Legionnaire or not you will rejoice in the recent citation of Lloyd Greene Post No. 147 by the State Department for its rating in membership. A letter from the Department to Commander George R. Simmons reads in part:

"Your post was one of 12 posts in the Department that exceeded its four-year average by Nov. 30, thereby winning a Distinguished National Membership Citation."

The State Commander DeRyke expressed the appreciation of the Department.

Thusly do the boys of 1917 bring credit and honor to our community. Carry on, boys, the congratulations of your home town are yours, and you richly deserve these well wishes.

We wonder where the Jackson dinnerites would have sought humor and spirit of the occasion if the three republicans had filled the vacant chairs?

● Lay Out for God

NorthvilleMethodists rejoice in the appearance of their redecorated church and sanctuary. Hearts, heads, hands, money and faith have accomplished much. The Rev. Harry J. Lord and his faithful parishioners have labored well and lastingly in the service of church and community. We are reminded of the proverb, "He that lays out for God lays up for himself."

The Radio Council of Children's Programs sponsored by the Woman's Club, Library Association and United Parents Association has started to clean up air waves for youthful ears. Already five children have been moved. There is much work to be done.

January is the month of ice and snow—drive carefully. Finnish baths are becoming more popular—and have you helped the Finnish Relief. The cost of a Finnish bath would feed a family in Finland for nearly a week.

The Whole Story by James W. Elliott holds down his complete series of Man Messages, appearing over a year in "The Silver Lining" into 112 words.

"Men of Principle, are the Principal Men * * * Work is Life and Good Work is Good Life * * * It isn't what you know, but how well you know how to use what you know that really counts * * * For, Good Friend, the trouble in business is not the lack of men with ability—but the terrible lack of ability of men to USE their ability * * * In life it is just as important to FORGET some things as it is to remember others * * * So don't forget to remember and always remember to forget * * * And Keep on Keeping on. For you are judged by the Record that you Make—Not by Your Ability to Make a Record."

It's good news for Northville—"Automobile production began the New Year in firm fashion"—a predicted production of over 400,000 units means bread for many people.

And have you seen a robin lately?

Will Hatch Bill Pass? . . .

While Senator Brown is quoted as saying that the new Hatch Bill, proposing to limit the political activities of officeholders, will not pass, there is much to be said in its favor. Any bill to purify politics will have hard sledding in election year, but if Congressmen facing potential purging by machines are numerous enough, the bill may pass. Nothing is more disgusting in election year than to witness the flock of camp followers, strategically placed, starting the applause and swelling the audiences. Maybe it's in line of duty—but extremely distasteful to localities.

Are you eligible for an old age pension Feb. 1?

Fair Warning . . .

Michigan newspapermen have given fair warning to party leaders. If the leaders refuse to cast out political bosses then the newspapermen are going to see what can be done about it. If the leaders refuse to clean their stables then a group of newspapermen are going to lend a hand.

There is no reason why one, or two or three men should dictate to State government. There is no reason why political bosses from Wayne, Kent, Genesee or any other county or group of counties should control party conventions. The bosses cannot control conventions if delegates perform their duties.

The group of Michigan newspapermen have given party leaders fair warning. If the party leaders fail to heed it they will have only themselves to blame for the insurrection they may find themselves faced with.—Ingham County News.

And why no sand barrels on the Seven Mile road last week? The first shippers, for morning found Northville people traveling on the hills and curves of the Seven Mile searching in vain for the sand barrels and barrels on other main arteries. Evidently, someone slipped besides the sand barrels. The barrels were not there. The barrels have been informed.

Winter Rodeo Is Scheduled for Detroit

Inspired by the popularity of the rodeo which packed in thrilled spectators during the Fair period this year, the Michigan State Fair Board of Managers is bringing to the Coliseum on the Fair Grounds, Jan. 20, the largest rodeo ever presented in the middle west, according to an announcement made today by Dr. Linwood W. Shaw, manager of the Fair. The rodeo is scheduled for nine nights, and for Saturday and Sunday matinees.

Harry Mack, Fair Board member who was chiefly responsible for the bringing of the last rodeo to Detroit, has managed negotiations for the presentation of Detroit's first winter rodeo which, it is expected, will become one of the events on Detroit's winter entertainment calendar.

The January rodeo will be under the management of Joe Greer.

Among the entries to date are Sonnie Rooney of Wilson, Okla., winner of the title of champion 21-round cowboy of the United States in 1937; Joe McMahon of St. Paul, Minn., celebrated for his thrilling bull-dogging of Mexican steers; Earl West, winner of many championships, especially for bronc busting; Albert Mano of Lander, Wyo., one of the greatest trick and fancy riders in America. With the big outfit Greer is bringing to Detroit will be a powerful wild horse known as "Field Day," who for three years has challenged every rider and prevented every effort to ride him.

According to Cal Latham of the State Fair, reserved seats go on sale today. Tickets are popularly priced with a special low admission for children under 12 years old.

News from Walled Lake

By C. E. HUTTON
Our city cousins who come to enjoy the fullness of our summer and the refreshing breezes from our lake during the sultry months, but who leave us in the fall for fear of stagnating from inactivity, might do well to consider Walled Lake's calendar of events for the remainder of January.

This week's affairs began Monday night with a card party for the general public at the school, sponsored by the Parents' Band club. Proceeds from the party are to be used to help pay for instruments and uniforms recently purchased to equip added members of the high school band. The band now numbers 50 members, and will continue to be augmented as rapidly as it is possible to provide equipment.

Thursday afternoon, the Methodist Ladies Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. George Bentley, for potluck dinner and afternoon program. The Parents' Teachers' association meeting was the highlight of Thursday evening activities, with Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore as principal speaker. Several exhibits were presented by the school's art classes, and a style show was given by the home economics department. Those assisting during the evening were Mrs. William Fox, Mrs. Bruce McKie, Mrs. Lee Welch and Mrs. William L. Knapp.

Monday evening, Jan. 22, is the date of the annual meeting of the Walled Lake Cemetery association, at the home of the secretary, Mrs. May Porter Johns, beginning at 8 o'clock.

The Oakland County Firemen's association will be guests of the Walled Lake department for their regular quarterly meeting Friday evening, Jan. 26, at the Wimmer cafe. A business program will chiefly occupy the evening, followed by refreshments.

The Civic Welfare club on the evening of Jan. 27, will sponsor a semi-formal dance in the school gymnasium. The party, to be known as the "Midwinter Frolic," is designed to aid the building project of the organization. Music will be played by a Detroit orchestra. The gymnasium will be attractively decorated, according to Mrs. Rex Tuttle, club president, who has appointed on committees Mrs. Stanley Voorhes, Mrs. Kent Tufford, Mrs. L. B. Miles, Mrs. Leo Miller, Mrs. Ralph Francis and Mrs. Carl Sals. Tickets are now on sale by club members.

Meat-Eater

A vicious plant is this meat-eating Venus fly-trap, found only in North Carolina bogs. Here an innocent bee unknowingly approaches his doom. Six tiny hairs inside the doubled leaf act as triggers when disturbed, causing the leaves to come together, thus trapping its prey.

Here is poor Bernard Bee after lighting inside the fly-trap and disturbing its "triggers." The leaves fold swiftly together, imprisoning the victim with stiff bristles.

This action causes digestive juices to flow, and the hapless bee will be nothing more than a skeleton in a few hours. He will have been devoured by the plant. An enigma, the Venus fly trap shows the transition between plant and animal life. Gardeners have had very little success growing the plant in other environments.

Eternity is not something that begins after you are dead. It is going on all the time. We are in it now. —Charlotte P. Gilman a flutter, with his romancing performances in "My Dear Children" at the Cass Theatre, beginning Monday, Jan. 22, for one week.

The much-provoking story of "My Dear Children" concerns an actor, Allen Manville, played by John Barrymore, who, while on a Christmas holiday vacation in the Swiss Alps with the gorgeous Countess de Britomne, played by Tala Birell, is suddenly confronted by his three daughters by three former wives.

Needless to say, John Barrymore would perform only with an unequalled cast, which he has found, to the delight of his audiences, in the persons of Doris Dudley, Tala Birell, Philip Reed, Patricia Waters, Lois Hall, Stano Braggiotti, Arnold Korff, Roland Hogue, Leo Chazel, Otto Ewert and George Reynolds.

State Makes Check on Ice Fishing

With the start of ice fishing on lower Michigan lakes, the State Department of Conservation is resuming its check of catches made by fishermen in an effort to find out whether winter fishing affects the sport of summer fishermen.

Winter creel censuses will be conducted on Hamlin lake, Mason county, Paw Paw in Berrien, Bear Lake in Hillsdale, Stearns Bayou in Ottawa, Christiana in Cass and Craig Lake in Branch county. Department employees and CCC crews again will check fishermen's strings. The work will be directed by the Institute of Fisheries Research (Ann Arbor), the research section of the department's fish division.

Other crews will make deep soundings on a number of lakes preliminary to surveys conducted by the Institute. Specially designed power augers speed the drilling of holes in ice and the mapping of lake bottoms. Tests of soil and water and inventories of lake vegetation help to determine what species and numbers of fish the lakes will support, what can be done to increase food supplies for fishes, and numbers of fish which can be planted with assurance they will grow to catchable size.

Summer creel census returns for 1939, sent in by fishermen, now number approximately 17,000. Studies of these returns, also made by the Institute, are helping the department to improve fishing in Michigan lakes.

Alene Matthews Awarded Honor

Daughters of American Revolution Sponsor Contest for Senior Girls

The Daughters of the American Revolution sponsor annually a contest for the senior girls, endeavoring to choose the one who best represents good citizenship. This year the contest was won by Alene Matthews, an out-of-town student of the senior class.

The class was asked to nominate three girls whom they thought filled the following qualifications: Dependability, which includes trustfulness, loyalty and punctuality; service, including cooperation, courtesy and consideration of others; leadership, personality, self control, ability to lead; patriotism, unselfish interest in school, community and nation.

Arlene Blake, Natalie Whipple and Alene Matthews were the three girls nominated. The final decision to the school faculty. The girl who becomes the good citizen of her school has a chance of going to Washington, D. C., as the best citizen of her state. Other states follow the same example. The past practice has been that each girl from her school is invited to talking in the spring. This will probably be carried out the same way this year.

Questionnaires will be sent to all candidates to be filled out and returned. They will be judged by three disinterested parties and the winner being the girl who receives the majority vote of the committee.

Junior High Notes

Jack Auberlin has moved back to Dearborn. Bruce Simmons is now attending Military Institute in Milledgeville, Ga. Bill Sutton is home from the University hospital. He will be laid up for six weeks with the cast on his broken leg. Douglas Slesser has been named mayor of the Junior High since Robert Kraft has moved away.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The Orange and Black has been getting quite an ample amount of criticism this year and I'm sure we do deserve it. We want to please everyone and so we have tried to find out what the complaints are. It seems as if almost everyone I have asked has emphasized the fact that there isn't enough about the students and what they do. Now I'll try and tell you what the trouble is. When someone is asked what he has been doing he often mumbles a lot and says nothing. If you students want your name in the paper you will have to cooperate with us. Get out and do something to deserve that "honor." We can't write about how you did nothing, now can we? If we have missed something why not come and tell us about it and we will do our best to "put you in" the paper.

Mustangs To Play Melvindale, Friday

The Northville Mustangs will play Melvindale Friday, Jan. 19. As most of you know Melvindale is defeating the Suburban League championship, they won last year.

Up to date the Melvindale team has lost one game, this being to Berkeley by a single point. The game is at Melvindale and is scheduled to start promptly at 7 p. m.

The Northville line-up has not been released yet, and so your guess is as good as ours as to who will be the starting five.

Cranbrook Defeats N.H.S. Debate Team

Thursday, Jan. 11, the debating team met the Cranbrook team in E. C. Mollema's room at Northville high school. The members of the Cranbrook team were David Wallace, Edward Kelsey and Donald Fine, who were accompanied by Robert J. Hill, their coach.

From Northville were Chandler Parker, Robert Baker and Dick Simmons, who are coached by Mr. Mollema. Mr. Dressed from Ann Arbor was judge. Admitting Northville's defeat by a small margin, it has given them experience, so that next year the team promises to show how it's done, now that they know.

MINISTERS TO MEET

Three hundred ministers of Michigan churches will gather at the University of Michigan Jan. 22-24 for the first annual Michigan Pastors' Conference which is being sponsored by the Extension Service of the University and the Michigan Council of Churches and Christian Education. Carr, director of the Michigan Child Guidance Institute; Dr. Mark A. Dawber, executive secretary of the Home Missions Council, New York City; Dr. Charles W. Gilkey, dean of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Chicago; Dean Emelthus Shaffer, Chicago Divinity School; University of Chicago, Dean Emelthus Shaffer, Chicago Divinity School; University of Chicago, Dean Emelthus Shaffer, Chicago Divinity School.

The Student Employment at the University of Michigan provided 1,233 jobs during the 1939-40 school year for students doing part time work while going to school. A classified work file is kept for experienced workers qualified to do stenography, selling, chauffeuring, cooking, and even farming. Most of the student applications are from men seeking jobs waiting on table for their board, room jobs, or odd jobs for cash.

Jan. 26 Marks Date for Senior Dance

The coming senior dance, Jan. 26, is now under way and the committees have been chosen. The orchestra has not yet been decided upon but you can depend on Corky Sipos and Toots Angove.

The gym will be decorated by Dorothy Bingham, Alene Matthews, Mary Lou Smith, Wilber Grimm, Don Green and Doris Dism, whom we think will be on their toes and after your money. Don't try to sneak in either because we have a very wide awake ticket taker who is that one and only, Len Fritz. The seniors have a very substantial sum of money up to this date and you may help increase their financial status by attending the dance.

Money Is Donated to Student Group

Seems as if Santa Claus decided to wait awhile before giving the turntable his Christmas present. Last Wednesday, at the assembly program, the student body was informed that the Mothers' Club of Northville had given ten dollars for new recordings. We wish to thank them and we feel sure that the new recordings will be enjoyed by all.

Grade Notes

Miss Margaret Carpenter's third and fourth graders have been reading stories, making reports, drawing and writing poems about trees. They have studied Joyce Kilmer's poem called "Trees." Patricia Johnston, Marcia Sparling and Jean Elaine Vogtlin have written very fine poems about trees.

Walter Boyd, Joanne Giltner, Lloyd Giverson, Mickey Nogg and Floyd Shewchick have neither been absent nor tardy for this year. They are students in Mrs. K. H. Babitt's room.

The members of room 25 are making a model dinosaur out of snow.

Officers have been elected for the Room Roomers' Club. The officers are: President, Gertrude Hausbeck, vice-president, Victor Martino, secretary, Ann Davis. The treasurer has not been elected yet. The club has made new rules. They are as follows: Walk on steps and in the halls, be quiet in the halls; close lockers quietly, be polite to others, stay off the lawn, read books only after your work is done, and refrain from visiting after 8:30 a. m. and 12:40 p. m.

Mrs. James Huff's sixth grade held the fifth meeting of the Citizenship Club. The new officers are: President, Dana Washburne; vice-president, Peggy Lapp; secretary, Pauline Rodgers; treasurer, Byron Hostetler. Girls' health officer, Marie Wick; boys' health officer, Clayton Graham. Committees: Girls' lavatory, Marie Wick; boys' lavatory, Robert Robinson; program, Peggy Lapp and Frank DeFino; desks, Harold Dayton, Estlin, Betty Heinz, names, Clayton Graham; boards, John Ling, library, Joyce Martino, host, Robert McKee; news reporter, Dana Washburne.

Mrs. O. F. Reug and her second grade were responsible for the display in the show case on transportation. The display included: Scrapbooks, trains, boats and airplanes. They were arranged very neatly and it looked very nice.

Apprentice Boys Are Interviewed

Program Is Approved by High School Students in the Department

A few of the apprentice boys have been asked as to how they like the program they are now working on. Jon Stoddard, I work in The Record office and enjoy my work very much. The work I do is interesting and I'm further ahead by taking this course. I work about 4 hours each week day and 5 hours on Saturday. The apprentice course, as I see it, is very fine.

Bill Rose: I am very much in favor of the apprentice program as I work in the Kroger store and like my work. I think we are all further ahead by taking this course. When I graduate from school I shall get a diploma and be able to open a store of my own. The hours I work aren't long and it is very interesting. I cannot find a thing wrong with this program.

"Sit Junior, I am a Hi-Speed gas station attendant and have very interesting work. I'm working 4 hours on week days and 10 hours on Saturday. My pay is 25 cents an hour and the only comment I have is that we don't get any raise.

Ray Parmenter: My work is with Schrader's. I was graduated last year and am now working 8 hours or more a day. The apprentice program got me this job and I like it very much.

Joe Spagnolo: I work for my father in the Northville Confectionery. My pay is 20 cents an hour and I work 4 or 5 hours a day. I will also get a diploma after I am graduated and will know how to run a store of my own.

Joe DeHno: You've probably seen me working in Hammer's Hardware. I took this job for the experience and the hours I get in school. I like this course and am sure everyone does that is taking it. In order to get the best results from this program, one must continue full graduation.

Senior Sketches

During the sixth period if you happen to be wandering through the halls, don't be surprised of you see five feet, seven inches of humanity with blonde hair and hazel eyes ending with a complete flock of girls talking to him, because it's only our famous senior ladies' man, Whitley Hill. Pinky as he is sometimes called was born in West Branch on Feb. 10, 1923. He lived there for three years before deciding that it didn't quite fit his qualifications of an ideal town. However, Clare seems to have been more to his liking because he stayed there until the middle of the eighth grade. Ann Arbor attracted him then but only for six months because he was next found in Northville. This is Whitley's fourth year in Northville high school and everything turns out successfully. He will be graduated in June and be on the road for wide open spaces by next September.

His school life has been well filled with being manager of the basketball team for the last two years and writing the sports articles for the Orange and Black. We've come to the conclusion that he must look far and wide for the striped socks for which he is so famous. It's hard to decide what his favorite color is because between his ties and socks, we're left quite puzzled.

Whitley also has the honor of being organizer and president of the Hi-Y club. However, June will find this active fellow gone from the school and we feel sure that there will be a vacant spot after he has gone.

Blond hair, blue eyes, fair skin, and a happy smile has the senior girl we are about to sketch. Her name is Doris Hubbard, and she was born way off in Minneapolis, Minn. Feb. 19, 1922. She lived there until she was ready to start school, Detroit for two years, Waterford for

Around the School

Lawrence Bogart is one of Miss Estelle Griffiths' (his English teacher) troubles. She was standing in front of her door Thursday morning when Lawrence came sauntering up. She said, "Hurry, Lawrence," and that young man promptly replied, "Why? The bell hasn't rung yet!"

The other day in English-Lit class there was a discussion being carried on about Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet. Mrs. Marshall Herrick popped the question, "What was it that kept Romeo and Juliet apart?" Everyone was quiet when Ken Willis very calmly answered, "The balcony."

The Home Making II class has been studying etiquette during the past week and Tuesday, Jan. 16, they invited other boys and girls who were interested to come down and join the discussion. After the discussion, the boys told the bad habits as the members girls have acquired and the girls also commented on the boys' bad habits.

The Home Making I class has been preparing its views by taking a field trip. This trip was taken to the Detroit Edison company Friday, Jan. 12, to learn about stoves and refrigerators. They were greeted and shown around very kindly by R. H. Steininger and J. D. Dalton.

Eugene Cole, a new boy in school this year, is just about the tallest "story" Dave ever seen around these parts. He is a mere 6 feet, 4 1/2 inches from "terra firma" and tips the scales at 170 pounds. Eugene is a sophomore.

James Remale, also new around N. H. S. this year, is the tiniest drunk of water around. He is about 4 feet, 10 inches tall and weighs 50 pounds. James is a freshman this year.

Tuesday, Jan. 9, the students didn't look especially unhappy because the teachers let them out 30 minutes early. The entire faculty visited the Wayne County Training school. After being shown through the cottages, shops, and school rooms they heard Dr. Newell C. Kephart of the school staff, speak and answer questions about the management and training. Several teachers attended a movie and lecture at the Training school, Monday evening, Jan. 15.

The descriptive science and chemistry classes taught by William Mensch visited the Ford Motor plant at Dearborn Thursday afternoon, Jan. 18.

Vice-president Frank Eaton again opened another Hi-Y club meeting Jan. 11. The Rev. Dr. T. V. Smith, led the devotional service by giving a talk on the forces of evil. The dues were collected for the first time, which are 5 cents a week. Coach Neville Walker presented a very fine talk on the topic of clean sportsmanship. A few more boys came but more are urged to be present.

one, and then Northville. The G. & C. Coffee shop, commonly known as Butch's, is the source of her well-being and her favorite food, surprising as it may seem, is hard poppyseed rolls.

Doris plans on going to a business school, in a year or two which will be financed by herself. Her favorite sport is basketball although she enjoys all sports. Most of her time is spent bowling, a pastime she has recently acquired.

Thelma Kent first came into being, Aug. 15, 1923, in Northville. Thelma started her education in a new school house in Novi. Upon going to Northville school until the eleventh grade taking part in the school activities, she decided that she would like to come to Northville and finish her high school education. Thelma's pastimes are driving a car, painting and baseball. Upon graduating from high school Thelma would like to take up a beauty course, but hasn't decided where.

FEATURE YOUNG ARTIST

Robert Viroat will make his Ann Arbor debut at 8:30 p. m. Thursday, Jan. 25 in the Choral Union Series in Hill Auditorium. Mr. Viroat is a young violinist still in his teens, who is said to have everything. Musical America has been astounded at the wonderful story of this young Hungarian, son of a woodchopper, who came to New York unannounced, and overnight became the year's most important musical discovery. His debut was made with the New York Philharmonic-Symphony Orchestra, and shortly thereafter at a recital in Carnegie Hall crowds were turned away. Bartlett and Robertson, the two-piano team, will be heard in the same series, Feb. 14; and the Pre-Festival series will be brought to a close on Mar. 6, when Arthur Schnabel will appear in a piano recital.

Men have a supremacy in numbers over women at the University of Michigan outnumbering them 8,332 to 3,568.

A map drawn by the famous Spanish conqueror, Hernando Cortez—the earliest map of a city on the American continent—has been reprinted here by the William L. Clements Library. Made by Cortez in 1524, the map depicts the city of Mexico during the time of the Spanish struggle with the Incas. The original map is included in the Clements Library collections.

More than 50 reels of educational films approved by the Advisory Committee on the Use of Motion Pictures in Education will be added to the University of Michigan Extension Service film library by Feb. 1, 1940, according to Dr. Charles A. Fisher, Extension Service director.

Birthday congratulations to Mrs. Stewart Robinson, Friday, Jan. 12.

Baptists Improve Church Facilities

Improvements in the working facilities of the Baptist church which have been in progress for the past few weeks were completed in time for use during the meeting last Wednesday of the Wayne Baptist association.
 The kitchen and dining room, which have been situated at the rear of the pulpit for many years, have been moved to well-lighted quarters in the basement. A hundred guests and more can now be neatly accommodated for church dinners, or on social occasions. Generous cupboards and a new electric stove have been installed.
 The Women's Union members have purchased new dishes. Other alterations and decorations in basement rooms are under way. The former dining room and kitchen will now be used for the junior department of the Church School. Improvements have been directed by Clifford Winter, chairman of the board of trustees. Members and friends have contributed a large share of the work.

ELECTION

 in two or more conspicuous places. First publication and posting should be at least ten days before election.
 The new law sets up definite rules for conduct of a township caucus, something which previous laws have dealt with very meager. The new township caucus laws will not govern Northville township, where the caucus plan was abandoned two years ago.
 In townships which have adopted the primary system of nominating candidates, nominating petitions must be filed with the clerk of the township not later than 4 p. m. on Jan. 30, according to the instructions sent out by the state clerk. Primaries and caucuses will be held by law on the same day which is Feb. 19.

BASKETBALL

 and Cavell guards; Parmenter, Ely, Matthews, Taylor and Burgess, subs.
 The second team brought further victory honors to Northville by taking its game 19-11. The lineup included: Funke, Dixon and Moe, forwards; Orr, Behen and Groever, guards; Hubbard, Musolf, Rough-ton, Clark and Sommers, subs.
 The Mustangs took their second league game of the season Friday Jan. 2 by downing the Trenton five 24-23 on the Northville floor, where the boys continued the winning pace set in the afternoon by the girls.
 The game started out slow with not much scoring done by either team throughout the first half. When the half ended, the score was 9-7 in favor of Trenton.
 In the second half things started to pop. With both teams scoring frequently, at the end of the third quarter Northville still trailed by the score of 17-14. The fourth period opened with the Mustangs making three successive baskets to take a three point lead. Then a couple of minutes later Trenton tied it up again 20-20. Then Northville worked the ball down the floor and whizzed in two baskets and practically put the game off ice. But Trenton dropped in a charity toss and a basket, only to fall short on their belated rally as the game ended 24-23 in favor of the Mustangs. Northville's lineup was: Widmayer, center; Eaton and Harner, forwards; and Orr and Fritz, guards.
 Friday's game broke a losing streak for their first league victory since they downed the VanDyke team in the second contest of the season.

METHODISTS

 the three visiting ministers' wives, Mrs. Richards, Mrs. Miner and Mrs. Mallinson as well as to the present minister's wife, Mrs. Lord.
 Other former members present at the service were Miss Annie R. Wilkinson, whose membership dates back to Aug. 2, 1885, and Mrs. Henry Ballard, both of Detroit.
 The church organization dates back 106 years. The present building is 54 years old.
 Among the church records is the following list of names, marking the first 20 members of the present Northville Methodist church roll, in addition to Miss Wilkinson.
 Mrs. A. K. (Emma) Dolph, July 4, 1886; Mrs. George (Ida L.) Williams, Dec. 12, 1886; Mrs. Charles (Lucy) Filkins, May 12, 1887; Mrs. Charles (Grace E.) Dolph, Mar. 25, 1888; Mrs. L. B. (Emma) Charter, June 30, 1889; Mrs. W. B. (Mary) Predmore, June 30, 1889; Charles A. Dolph, May 8, 1892 (by letter, May 22, 1887 at Chattanooga, Tenn.); Mrs. Ida May Cook, Oct. 6, 1894.
 Mrs. Mary J. VanValkenburg by letter from New York, Dec. 30, 1894; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smock Nov. 3, 1895; Leonard Charter, Apr. 25, 1897; Mrs. E. J. Cobb by letter from Salem, Apr. 25, 1897; Mrs. W. Lyke Sept. 5, 1897; E. J. Cobb, Sept. 4, 1898; Mrs. P. W. Lyke Sept. 4, 1898; Guy C. Filkins, Apr. 6, 1902; Mrs. H. A. (Hazel) Boyden, Sept. 30, 1908; Mrs. Eberle (June A.) Smith, Sept. 30, 1906.
 Mrs. Charles F. Rogers joined the church Sept. 7, 1876, and is still an active member. However, she was away from Northville for a number of years. This case is similar to that of Mrs. M. J. Murphy, who joined back in the early 80's (1885), moving from Northville later, but returning and transferring her membership to the Northville church. Mr. Dolph originally joined the Northville church, May 22, 1887.
 The committee on general arrangements for the improvement task included: Mrs. E. M. Bogart, Mrs. E. J. Cobb, Mrs. Russell H. Steininger, Mrs. George Stalker and Mrs. William B. Walker, Jr. Mr. Steininger was chairman of the redecoration project, to which 31 persons gave volunteer service in getting the church ready for the redecoration. All of the improvements have been paid for, with contributions coming from over 70 persons and families as well as from organizations of the church.
