The King's Daughters, as well as women from the community at large, will meet at 9 a. m. Wednesday, Mar. 6, in the Methodist church house to sew for the Polish refugees.

"Contrary to a rumor, we know, definitely, that these articles are getting through to the Polish refugees," asserts Mrs. Eber Ward Lester, chairman of the local Red Cross unit, under whose leadership the work is being carried forward.

Whitehouse Urges Neutral Attitude

America's Big Task Should Come after War in Role of Strong Umpire

Urging America to maintain an attitude toward peace; to be willing to pay the price of being a neutral; and keeping strong that when the day of peace arrives the United States may play the part of a strong umpire in paving the way to a lasting peace, Dean W. W. Whitehouse of Wayne University, Detroit, presented a strong argument before the guest night audience of the Northville Woman's club, Friday evening.

Members of the Exchange, Rotary and the American Legion were invited by the woman's club to be guests at a community night meeting at the Presbyterian church house.

Dr. Whitehouse stressed the point that it was not easy to remain neutral—that costs were often enormous, but extremely worthwhile. He urged that America keep an open mind toward peace—talk peace, work for peace and keep the public mind saturated with peace as a great and noble aim worthy of sacrifice and costs.

Further, contended Dean Whitehouse, the approach of peace will demand a strong and firm umpire, and great is the nation that can command the respect of the belligerents, and following the peace, be in a position to aid in the rehabilitation of a world whose nerves and resources have been shattered and torn to shreds. This, thought the good Dean, is the great and important destiny of America today.

Re-Check Is Made of Four Corners Post Office Site

Postmaster Fred E. Van Atta Is Custodian of Land When It Is Selected for New Building

Survey Here Monday

With surveying being done a second time at the site on the four corners Monday of this week, excitement ran high as villagers assumed that the activity meant that the long awaited erection of a new post office was to be realized.

It is understood that the surveying Monday was to re-check the survey figures which were made of the site several weeks ago.

Postmaster Fred E. Van Atta has been informed by the Commissioner of Public Buildings at Washington, D.C., that he is the custodian of the property of the post office to be erected here, "effective the date title to the land vests in the United States." All of which means, that he is custodian of the site as soon as it is selected.

Appropriation for the $75,000 post office was made in July, 1938.

Three Villagers Go to Tax League Session in Flint

Cochran, Rackham, Beard Represent Northville Citizens' League

F. J. Cochran, Harry Rackham and E. S. Beard, represented the Northville Citizens' League, in a trip to a State-wide meeting, Friday, Feb. 23, at Flint under the auspices of the Michigan Public Expenditure Survey.

The famous Nebraska tax fighter, Frank Arnold, the successful trimmer of budgets, Fred A. Elden of the New York Tax Foundation, and Dr. J. D. Upson of Detroit, told a state-wide meeting of tax patriots about what could be done to cut unnecessary expenditures by government. Citizens from the Upper Peninsula as far as 500 miles in the face of a snow storm to get first-hand information.

In the afternoon two study groups listened to discussions by members of the staff of the Survey dealt with fact-finding activities and taxpayer organization and programs.

At the dinner session, Dr. Upson dealt with proposed county reforms to bring county government up to the standards of modern business-like methods. He said that too many of the remedies for higher (Continued on back page)

Van Hove Cites Title Sources

Plats of Cady and Dunlap, Early Settlers, Described at Rotary Club

Austin Van Hove, Northville attorney, was the speaker at the Rotary luncheon, Tuesday noon. Mr. Van Hove spoke most interestingly and instructively concerning property titles, their source and history.

Mr. Van Hove related the history of the territory now occupied by Northville, and followed it through the British and French occupation, and on through the days of the early United States surveys; through the days of the wild cat and real estate promotions of Michigan land in the east, and the days when Michigan population was increasing many times as new settlers staked claims in this territory.

Early settlers and the village plats of Messrs. Cady and Dunlap were discussed and the authenticity of the several conflicting surveys made of the village arouse conjecture regarding the validity of many properties hereabout.

It was interesting to note, stated Mr. Van Hove, that the spot near Northville where the Base Line and Meridian intersect is practically the focal point for all Michigan land descriptions. In conclusion, Mr. Van Hove brought out the point that land ownership is directly associated with citizenship and patriotism, and is the ultimate answer to ever prevalent "isms" rampant in the country except Americanism.

A settlement has been made in the civil suit over interest in cemetery lots in Novi, Michigan. The case was settled by Judge H. Russell Holtz in Circuit Court, where Frederick D. Earle, individually and as trustee for Cyrus A. and Bertina L. Cook, brought suit against John M. and Elvyn Welch.

Dismissal of the suit was made on the condition that Searle pay the new burial association $10 a lot or section on unleased sections held by him as trustee and that the Cooks pay $15 a lot or section. Lenten Message of the Week

By the Rev. Dr. Howard R. Chapman, Baptist Church

The note of penitence was dominant for many centuries in the Church's observance of the Lenten period. More recently the note of joy in God's redemption has found increasing emphasis. True, we cannot very deeply know that joy until we are conscious of the need of redemption. The selfish, godless life touches no deep springs of lasting satisfaction. God's forgiveness and the renewal of the inner heart through the experience of God's love in Christ are fitting themes for Lenten meditation. The penitential motive alone is often, colored too much by the fear of perdition. And that is far from being the highest motive in the service of God. Gratitude in its finest sense—in its appreciation of what the Heavenly Father means in the struggles and sorrows of life, springing from personal experience of God's saving help and presence in our earthly trials, seems a worthier incentive for noble living.

The opportunity and the challenge to reflect upon our spiritual privileges and to renew, by frequent prayer and communion with the highest thoughts of revelation, our relationships with God as Father—this is what the Lenten season affords us. Obstacles there are in the way of religious growth; enticements to coarsen our spiritual ideals; and dull our sense of ethical perception, but when these are realized clearly the act of repentance should be prompt and decisive, as-suming us of God's pardon. "Return unto me the joy of thy salvation." That is the prayer that should frequently be on our lips in these days. If our Christian faith be not a joy to us in the strength, and hope it brings, then our lives can produce little appeal to others to seek a spiritual fellowship with God.

I mean to say that in my judgment the observance of the Lenten period, a custom I thoroughly approve, should not be somber and sad, but deeply joyous in the sense of God's salvation of our lives to high aims for His Kingdom and of a spiritual brotherhood with all followers of Jesus, whatever their name or sign.

Try Church During Lent

During Lent it is a good idea to attend church. Our Northville churches are at home to welcome the newcomer, and make the "stranger within our gates" feel at home. In a world at war, friendliness at home is essential. And of all the places in the town where individuals should find, and have a right to expect a warm and friendly greeting, it is the Christian church. As we villagers think of Northville as friendly and hospitable, so our churches strive to justify the name of friendly places to worship. Visit a Northville church during Lent. You will enjoy the friendliness, the smiles, and handclaps to be found inside the doors of Northville's sanctuaries.

Tom Edison was just a typical American boy, blessed with three gifts, courage, imagination and faith, coupled with a will to work. Tom Edison might have been Tom Jones of Northville. Every boy in Northville today has the same kit of tools to work with as Thomas Edison had. Some day Northville will be the scene of a great premiere such as was held in Port Huron recently. It's up to you, boys.

"Who Serves Best"

For 14 years Northville has had a Rotary club. Only two of the original charter members of the club were present to cut the birthday cake last week. Evidently Ed. Lapham and Charles Schultze did a mighty good job of building a club, almost as good as the job they did in cutting the cake. For the club has builded well and firmly. Last week was the thirty-fifth anniversary of the founding of Rotary International on Feb. 23, 1905. On that date Paul Harris invited four men to meet in his office in Chicago. Each of the original members were comparative strangers in a great city, comers from a small town, and missed the friendships of the small town. The object of the group was to encourage friendship, fellowship and mutual assistance. The Northville group has lived up to the ideal of the organization expressed in the motto, "He profits most who serves best."

Confucius Say—"I can open village election better than dirty nasty one. Talk, argue and fight it out, boys, that is what elections are for; but leave the stime and rot for the alley rats. Good government merits a clean, open, frank and energetic campaign. But no administration is better or cleaner than the campaign that puts it in power."

Horace Mann once told his pupils to "indulge only in those jokes that are amusing to both parties."

Be Careful In March

During the months of February and March human resistance is at its lowest. Sun rays, health giving and energy building as they are, have been at their ebb for three months. Cold, cloudy and damp days are at hand. It is easy to catch cold and mighty hard to cure one. Don't take chances. Get plenty of rest (if you can) eat well, and regularly. Drink health giving resistance building milk. Don't be afraid that water will rust your stomach. If you are feeling low, take it easy. Don't ignore evil symptoms—better a day at home now and then than 10 days under an oxygen tent. We humans are just apt to keep going too long. We cuss, sneeze, sniffle and droile but keep going just the same—until—and then Doc says pneumonia.

If we get well we talk about it, how bad we were, the worse case the doctor ever saw, and convalesce on that soup. If we knock on the pearly gates, well the other folks say "he was a swell fellow" although they never expressed the idea before you shuffled off. It's a great and good world, and the best most of us will ever know—so let's hang on here a while longer by using our heads in regard to our personal health. March is a mighty good month to demonstrate good sense in personal health and habits.

Describing the army as a "guarantee of peace, not a provoker of bloodshed," Gov. Dickinson has named Apr. 5 as Army Day.

Ninety per cent of the young men enlisting in the army and navy now give as their reasons . . . to get a job, and learn a trade. Another generation that we didn't worry about joined for adventure.

Thousands of New York taxpayers stormed Albany recently in protest against increased taxation. Watch this tax revolt gain momentum. Here are figures for Mich-landers to ponder:

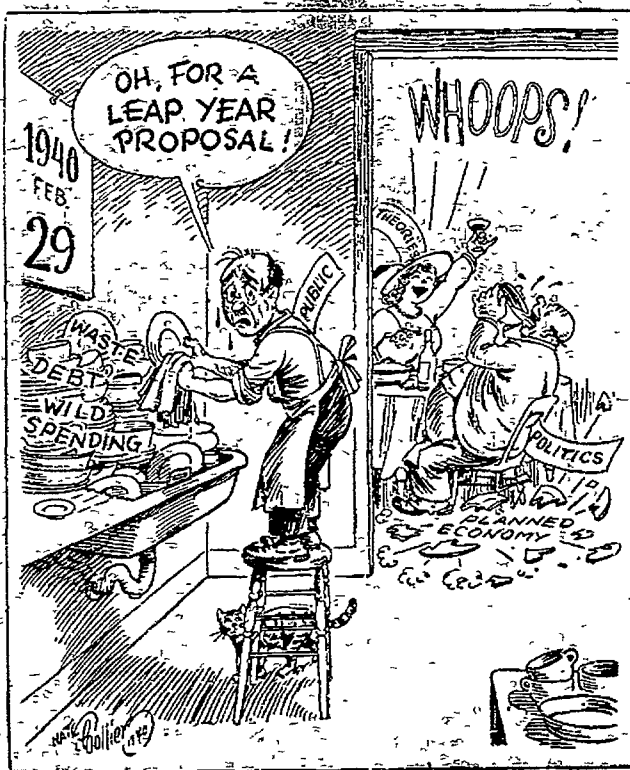

The State's payroll reached an all-time high in 1939, totaling $25,623,007 for more than 17,000 persons. This is $329,719 more than the previous year. The number of employees was more than 5,100 above the level of 1935. The State's deficit was at least $30,651,000 last July 1 and will be about $2,246,000 greater next July 1.

There can be little question that Michigan needs, and that the taxpayers will force, the adoption of laws to provide (1) centralized and tighter collection of revenue from existing sources; (2) improved budgetary control of all expenditures.

But the people are tired of waste and mounting costs and they know that expenditures can be controlled if the facts as to income and outgo are reported accurately and clearly from month to month.

Again we beat the British . . . From the end of World War No. 1 to the beginning of the present war, the national debt of Great Britain was only two billion dollars. British depression was as bad as ours. During the same period the national debt of the U. S. increased 25 billion dollars and is still climbing.

News of West Point Park

By MRS. WM. H. ZWAHLIN
 Miss Ella Barker, a pupil in Kenneth Bisbee's room of Pierson school, entertained a dozen of her girl friends at her home Saturday afternoon in honor of her thirteenth birthday. Various games and contests provided amusement for the afternoon and $12.25 were given to Exeter's Jean Ault. Clara Roberts and Idale Coolman. Mrs. Barker, Ella's mother, served a delicious luncheon.

Miss Freda Ault was the guest Thursday of Mrs. George Middlewood of Detroit.

Miss Audrey Roberts of Mayfield avenue is on the sick list.

Mrs. J. W. Ault is suffering with an attack of intestinal flu.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Zwaehlen were dinner guests Saturday of Capt. and Mrs. O. L. Duncan of Escalade Park.

The Sunshine Sisters held a Lenten meeting at the home of Mrs. Jack Tallman, Friday afternoon. In the absence of Mrs. Gordon Cameron, who was ill and unable to be present, the devotional period was taken care of by Mrs. Robert Fredericks of Middlebelt. Arrangements were completed for the holding of some special affairs to be sponsored by the Sunshine Sisters in the near future. The next meeting will be held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Willoughby. A special program has been prepared.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Woods, Inkster, were Saturday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Addis and daughter, Miss Shirley, were guests Sunday afternoon of Mr. and Mrs. Guard Parks in their new home in Detroit.

Miss Dorothy Edwards, a Pierson school teacher, was taken to the hospital with scarlet fever. On that account the school will be closed this week.

Mrs. George Welch Mayfield avenue, has been quite ill. She has been confined to bed for the last 10 days.

Mrs. Edwin Johnson and son, Edwin Jr., spent Thursday visiting friends near Inkster.

Mrs. Russell Ault is gradually recovering from severe bruises and minor injuries sustained when she accidentally fell down a flight of stairs 10 days ago.

The Wonder Book club, directed by Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Cameron, was again held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Willoughby, Friday evening, with a nice group present. It was announced that during the next three months a friendly contest between boys and girls will be conducted. Points for certain accomplishments will be awarded, and at the end of the period the side having the most points to its credit will receive a treat. The boy and girl with the greatest number of points in his and her favor will also receive a suitable reward. These young people will meet Friday night at the Willoughby home. All boys and girls of school age are invited to attend.

A friendly gesture, the group which generally meets with the Rev. Gordon Cameron for a Bible and song service Thursday evening, put aside the usual program last week and on Thursday evening attended the evangelistic services being conducted in the Community Hall, under the direction of Miss Evangeline Farnum. Twenty-four persons including Rev and Mrs. Cameron, were in the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Teshka, Howell, were Saturday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Addis.

The Rev. J. H. Sandercock of Canada, the speaker at the Community Hall meetings held all last week, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heichman. On account of illness the meetings this week will no doubt be postponed until next week.

Septic Tank Meeting
 George Amundson, agricultural engineer, Michigan State college, will be at the Romulus high school at 7:30 p. m., Mar. 11, to show pictures of the construction of a septic tank and to discuss its care and operation. Anyone interested is invited to attend the meeting.

Poultry
 The brooder house should be thoroughly cleaned before baby chicks are placed in it. The source of heat for the brooder should be operated for a sufficient time before the chicks arrive so the temperature can be regulated to the proper constant degree.

Pullorum Disease
 The importance of buying chicks from pullorum-tested stock cannot be over emphasized. Pullorum disease which localizes in most cases in and around the ovary of the hen is passed on to the chick through the egg. Tests at the college have shown low mortality when chicks were brooded at proper temperatures but chicks from pullorum reactor hens when subjected to extremely high or low temperatures showed a high mortality. Chicks under the same conditions from disease free stock showed a very low mortality.

State College Offers Eight Short Courses

Eight concise programs treating agricultural subjects typically Michigan are listed by the short course department of Michigan State college to serve farmers between Mar. 4 and Mar. 8.

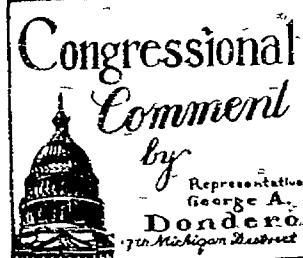

Programs at East Lansing are to run from one to four days in length, with one-day schedules listed for a series in agricultural engineering. Other subjects expected to draw registration include beekeeping, greenkeepers, farm horseholders and showmen and sheep shears.

The sheep shears gather Mar. 4 for a two-day school. Twenty is the enrollment limit. Farm horse-showing and showmanship is to be a five-day school from Mar. 4 through Mar. 8.

Beekeepers gather on the campus Mar. 5 to 8.

Other courses announced by R. W. Tenny, short course director, include that of the greenkeepers, whose golf course problems will be aired Mar. 7 and 8.

In agricultural engineering the opening course is Mar. 5 for those interested in drainage and erosion. On Mar. 6, the session will include information for farm builders and carpenters. The third day Mar. 7, is to be devoted to farm electrification. The final in the engineering series, Mar. 8 is to include farm power and machinery.

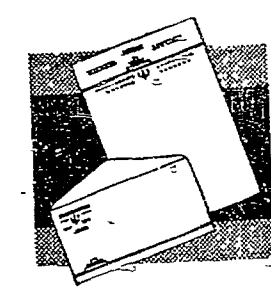

The Congressional Program: Despite an evident desire that the present session of Congress be a short one, there is an extensive program of legislation ahead that will require considerable time for adequate consideration.

Without considering deficiency and supplemental appropriation bills, of which there are usually two and sometimes as many as five, there are 11 regular appropriation bills which are up for enactment each year. In the first session of the 76th Congress the first regular appropriation bill did not receive final legislative action until Mar. 13 and the last of the group was enacted into law just two days before the beginning of the 1940 fiscal year.

No time will be devoted in this Taming the Bull

 The aged Holstein bull shown above was too valuable to kill—and too mean to keep. His chief amusement was trying to smash down a high board fence—until the Maine farmer who owned him replaced the board fence with woven wire, plus three strands of "charged" barbed wire inside. Now it is impossible to get that bull within two feet of the fence and the farmer merely turns the "juice" on two or three times a week as a precaution.

Fruit Sprayer for Hogs
 This Delaware County, Ohio, farmer got started spraying his hogs with this barrel sprayer to cool them off in hot weather. Since then he has used the same rig to spray them with dip solution to control skin parasites.

Portable Nests for Range Pullets
 Sketch above shows a very handy portable battery of laying nests for use on the range. The pullets enter through the middle aisle—the eggs are gathered from the outside—and feed boxes are suspended underneath by means of stirrup irons.

The high point in Wednesday's choir concert, directed by Leslie G. Lee, was the singing of a lullaby, "Lull Me To Sleep," which came from the pen of Mr. Lee. This was the first time this composition has been sung publicly in Northville. It received commendation from the music lovers who were present to hear the boys' and girls' senior and junior high-lee clubs sing and the saxophone sextet play.

The sextet is composed of Bob Boyden, Douglas McCluskie, Don Bernard, Louis Eaton, Robert Vogt and Bob Ross.

The accompanists for the evening were Peggy McCollough and Dorothy Steinger.

Dr. W. H. Johnston and Commander George Simmons attended the third district Legion meeting Wednesday evening in Flint.

Members of the Northville Woman's club will be guests at 2:15 p. m. Friday, Mar. 1, of the Plymouth Woman's club. The affair will be a tea in the Masonic Temple, Plymouth.

Merit of Old Age Pensions Cited

LANSING—The woods are full of deserving causes.

But few of them have the heart-throb appeal of old age pensions.

There is an issue for politicians that is made to order, and it is being coming of greater importance each year. Pension checks have been known to increase suddenly on the eve of a state election, sometimes shed only tears as they pledge officially to give better treatment to the aged and infirm.

In Colorado a generous pension for the aged nearly bankrupt the state treasury. California had its "ham and eggs" scheme and Ohio its Bigelow amendment last November to undo old age voters and to scare conservative business men.

In Michigan all public officials apparently agree that the state should find funds, somehow, and somewhere, to pay 25,000 to 30,000 persons on the old age assistance rolls who have already been qualified to receive such aid.

The merit of the cause is conceded. No one is going to argue about that.

increase the appropriation for old age assistance, providing funds to add a minimum of 25,000 persons to the assistance rolls, then how is this deserving cause to be financed?

Mr. McPherson points to this intangible "tax" revived in 1939. The state association of township supervisors, meeting recently in Lansing, went on record as favoring a return of one-third of all sales tax revenues to the township for unemployment, relief and welfare purposes. With a red ink deficit of $31,000,000 in Michigan's general fund, the well merited need of more old age assistance presents a real problem to Michigan taxpayers. It is not our function to suggest the answer; we only present the facts as we find them and try to interpret the trend.

CoastGuardExam Scheduled in May

The United States Coast Guard has fixed May 15-16, 1940, as the date for its yearly competitive examination for appointments to cadetships. Rep. George A. Dondero announced today. This examination is open to all physically qualified young men throughout the United States between the ages of 17 and 22, who have the required moral qualifications and educational preparation.

Successful completion of four years of cadetship leads to a commission and a career in the United States Coast Guard. The course of study at the Coast Guard Academy, located at New London, Conn., requires the completion of work well in excess of that ordinarily necessary for a Bachelor of Science degree from a civilian institution.

While the course is mainly professional, sufficient time is given to purely cultural subjects.

The course is designed to fit him for a commission in an organization which is charged primarily with public safety and security on the seas. This includes the construction and maintenance of light-houses and aids to navigation generally, the training of licensed and unlicensed personnel of the Merchant Marine and the enforcement of safety and other maritime laws.

Further details concerning this examination may be obtained from Rep. George A. Dondero, 304 House Office Building, Washington, D. C.

1939 AMENDMENTS
The old age assistance part of the Social Security Act was materially changed by 1939 amendments made by Congress. The reserve feature was mostly eliminated, the basis for benefits changed, and benefits included for dependents and survivors. The rate was frozen at 1 per cent for the next three years, both employer and employee paying 1 per cent. Except for this amendment it would have been 1 1/2 per cent for 1940, 1941 and 1942. However, it still will go to 2 per cent in 1943 unless another amendment is made in the meantime.

The former basis for old age pensions (based from earnings for the indigent infirm) was largely dependent upon the total wages earned over a period of years; also no benefits were payable until 1942.

Now the basis for benefits is the average monthly wage, and the length of time worked is an insignificant factor in the benefit, being only an addition of 1 per cent of the benefit for each year worked.

Furthermore, benefits for the person of low monthly wage are made larger in proportion to said earnings, and benefits are payable beginning Jan. 1, 1940, or two years before the time set in the original law of 1935.

REQUIREMENTS
As the average reader of "Michigan Mirror" expects to be alive at 65, here are the requirements for your benefit payments at that age.

Minimum requirements for benefit payments are now only one and a half years of work. Those over 65 years of age are now required to pay tax and are eligible for benefits after completing at least six quarters and retiring from gainful employment except a monthly earnings of $15 or less is not deducted from the benefits allowed.

The benefits to the wife who is over 65 is one-half of her husband's allowance which allowance is called the "primary insurance benefit" and each dependent child under 18 receives the same. A widow over 65 receives three-fourths of the primary insurance benefit and dependent children one-half in case of the death of the husband and father.

It will be noted that the word "insurance" is contained in the 1939 amended act, and it seems that the present law is similar to an insurance policy whereas the original act was more like an annuity policy.

elli, bout, characterized by several knockdowns, ended in a draw.

Perry Graham received the judges' votes by a close margin over Tom Curi, who was in the ring here for the first time.

Russ Penberthy and Alex Funke showed lots of speed, with Russ receiving the decision.

Paul Keller and Roger McClain showed a great deal of defensive skill; Paul was the winner on points.

Kendall Willis and Curley Odgers, on the seventh bout, threw the hardest punches of the night. The judges were forced to call the bout a draw, each boxer scoring an even number of points.

Rex Dye gave away 12 pounds to his opponent, Bob Maw. Bob won the first round, but Rex's speed in the two rounds gave him the decision.

George Clement and Dave Grandson, in the fastest fight of the night, showed a lot of ring skill. This bout was close with Dave receiving the judges' decision.

In the final bout, Ralph Bogart appeared for the first time this year in a boxing exhibition with Freddy Campbell. Fred's speed equaled that of Ralph's and both boys showed a good defense. This was a no-decision exhibition.

In the basketball game immediately following the boxing, the Wayne Mithell team met the Northville A.C. team. The game was close throughout. Wayne led

Nash dismissed fraud charges against promoters of the Grand Oakland Memorial Park cemetery near Novi. He held that evidence submitted by the prosecution did not bring the case within jurisdiction of his court.

Justice Nash considered testimony entered against Cyrus A. Cook of 2900 East Jefferson, Detroit; Forrest Keaton of 15383 Manor, Detroit; and A. L. Schneider of Jackson, inadequate to prove that any crime had been committed in the past six years and that the statute of limitations prevented him from considering prior years in the case. Zach Barber, whose address is not known, was indicted with the three government costs, centered around the fallacy that "we could borrow ourselves out of debt." He contended using all that is possible to save money; then deciding how much government "we pay for that we can get along without."

TAX LEAGUE

U. S. Young of Chicago, sent to the meeting by the taxpayers organization of Illinois said that the Illinois group continue to follow the lead of the Michigan Public Expenditure Survey, which had made such a good start in only nine months.

Frank Murry of the South Bend (Ind.) Taxpayers' association said that he'd found that such a group could represent all citizens except those who had said they did not belong, and those who had been getting more than their share of public funds. He said, "Everybody in the association should have a job, even if it is only to worry about the association. After nine years of operation the public officials ask us what we can tell them about any proposed plan of expenditure, and whether we have any suggestions. They know that we have learned more about the facts of government than anybody else in the community."

Mr. Edean of New York, gave a talk in connection with slides explaining the New York drive which culminated last week in a march to Albany by taxpayers' organizations. He showed how the rising costs of government had become No. 1 problem in America.

Mr. Arnold of Nebraska, father of taxpayer activity, lashed out against the public official who thinks expenditures must remain secret, and who resents any inquiry by the citizen. He said, however, that his organization does not attack the public office holder, because to do so would turn out the good ones with the bad. "If you give the public officials too much hell, you will defeat your own purpose, because it is more important to keep the good officials than to get new ones, since they have had experience in the job."

Over the general supervisory tasks of the meeting, Hugh G. White, executive director of the Michigan Public Expenditure Survey, J. Elwood Andrews, president of the Survey, and Ray A. Brownell, president of the Genesee Taxpayers Association (Flint), shared work and honor.
