Rotary Is Host to Rural Guests

Duncan Moore, Jack Delmar and Walter Davison Entertain Tuesday Evening

At an annual rural dinner meeting of the Northville Rotary club held Tuesday evening, about 50 guests from the Northville area were present to hear Duncan Moore, WJR commentator, and applaud the rollicking music of Walter Davison's Mercury Rangers, and the magic of Jack Delmar.

Dinner over Mr. Davison and his quartet lead-off in community singing. Harry Clark, chairman of the committee, welcomed the guests, introducing them in round-robin style. Mr. Delmar worked under handicap because of a right hand injury, mystified the group with his card magic, as several of the local satellites stood amazed as certain cards found transfer to their pocket.

Opening his remarks with a rather swad discussion of city-rural relations, Mr. Moore moved into a most informative talk on "High Fidelity Radio" and the influence of personality, inflections as used by the commentator and broadcaster.
With the coming of "high fidelity radio," there will be no static, interference will be out, and music connot now within the range of the human ear will become audible.
Mr. Moore revealed the "low down" on the capture of the "1939 Academy" by his sailing Mr. Moore complimented the broadcasts of the newsman of today, and said that American news was the most refulgent in the world, and then retherated several of the headlines of news gathering in the warring nations.

Among the guests present were Walter Davison Alex Lawrence, B.
A. Hodge, Wesley Hackett, Win-Hein, Tom Edmondson, Horace Knight, E. P. Yerkes, Ray W. Richardson, Abe E. Barber, E. S. Beard,

Will Enforce Dog Ordinance, Here

Northville township, joining the townships of 47 Southern Michigan counties, put a ban on dogs Monday of this week which is to be enforced until notice is given by health officials that the ordinance has been lifted.

"This quarantine means," says Dr.
E. B. Cavell, Jr., village health officer, "that all dogs found running loose will be picked up. They may be claimed by their owners within 72 hours. After that time, the dogs will be destroyed. In redeeming their dogs, owners must pay the board bill incurred during the 72-hour confinement."

In explaining the ordinance which states that all dogs must be tied up or on a leash, Dr. Cavell stated that it was not up to health officers to enforce this law, but rather the enforcement was in the hands of county sheriff, deputies, constables, and the municipal police departments.

UNION TO MEET

There will be a meeting of the Women's Union of the Presbyterian church, Wednesday, Apr. 10. Mrs.
E. E. Miller will be hostess at the cooperative luncheon which will be served at 1 p.m. in the church house.
Each person is to bring her own table service and a passing dish.
Following the luncheon, the installation of officers and a meeting will be held.

Census Workers Start Counting Noses in Village

Farmers Have To Answer
Long List of Questions About Stock and Crops

Census workers started counting noses in the Northville area, Tuesday, joining the thousands of such workers throughout the nation engaged in the same task in other communities.

Among the villagers who are taking the census are Mrs. A. L. Sheppard, who is working in the farm section; Donald G. Maclean and Mrs. C. N. Riley. Mrs. A. C. Whipple has been assigned to the Bloomfield Hills district in Oakland county.

A list of 33 general questions are asked in the federal census of population and agriculture. Supplementary questions are also asked of every twentieth person so that a cross section of valuable information may be gathered for the government.

Farmers are being asked a long list of questions regarding their practices, crops, stock, fertilizers, acreage, machinery, expenditures, etc. There is a total of 232 questions on the agriculture blank.

The United States government has three censuses which are taken each decade. One is a business census, another is for housing, which was initiated this year, and a third, the population census. The one which started in the community Tuesday lists the names of every man, woman and child in the nation.

Northville Group Begins Annual Cancer Campaign

To further the plans for the second annual cancer-benefit bridge party which will be held Thursday, Apr. 18, in the high school gymnasium, members of the Northville committee met Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. S. Beard.

Mrs. Beard, chairman, announced today that reservations for the party could still be made and tickets purchased from anyone of the committee members including Mrs.
C. W. Truxell, Jr., Mrs. Harry P.
Wagners, Mrs. D. P. Yerkes, Jr., Mrs. R. E. Geraghty, Mrs. Roy M. Terrill, Mrs. Wm. B. Walker, Jr., Mrs. Starr Bray, Mrs. O. F.
Reng, Mrs. Russell E. Amerman and Miss Virginia Anderson.

Of the Northville group, joining with communities throughout the nation, is placing educational stress during the month of April on the prevention cancer program. Educational organizations in this field are emphasizing the fact that cancer is curable in its early stages and that it is possible to save approximately 60,000 lives each year. Fear and ignorance are cancer's greatest enemies and knowledge is cancer's worst enemy—every year the lives of over 145,000 American men and women are sacrificed because of this disease. Over 100,000 individual women have already enlisted in the ranks of the Women's Field Army of the American Society for the Control of Cancer. Hundreds of national, state and local organizations are supporting its activities.

Exchange Club Celebrates Twenty-Ninth Anniversary

The Exchange club of Northville observed the twenty-ninth anniversary of Exchange at a noon meeting Wednesday, Apr. 3, presided over by Harold Church, president of the village organization.

The occasion commemorated the founding of the first Exchange club, Mar. 27, 1911, by Charles A. Berke-ly and 11 Detroit associates. A special anniversary message from Mr. Berkeley, which highlighted the meeting was heard by the entire membership of all Exchange clubs in the country. All local Exchange clubs marked the anniversary of Exchange sometime during the week of Mar. 27.

The activities and projects of the Exchange club of Northville were recounted.

At the meeting the local club announced plans for continued participation in the national organization's mythical "streamline" race from New York to San Francisco.
This is a plan designed to stimulate efforts within the many local Exchange clubs for increased service to their communities. The local club is an entry in the "race" for national honors. It is competing with all other clubs in the nation.
The Exchange club of this community," said the president "is glad that its plans call for a year of unselfish service. Participation in Exchange objectives by our members," is bound to prove beneficial to

Liquor and Gas Issues Favored in Novi Township

No Contest for Offices; Few Qualified Voters Went to the Polls

Over Nov way, Monday's township election interest was centered on two special issues—the sale of spirits and the Consumers Power gas franchise—both of which carried over from last year.

Voters in Novi township voted for the sale of spirits by a 198-122 marginal vote. This means that liquor, in addition to beer and wine may be sold on the premises within the township of Novi under the provisions of the law governing such sale.

Likewise the voters favored the giving of a grant of franchise to the Consumers Power company for the purpose of laying, maintaining and operating gas mains, pipes and services on, along, across and under the public highway, streets, alleys, bridges and other public places in the township.

There was no contest for any of the township offices and voting was light. The tabulation follows.

water accidents, water safety instructors will be enrolled. Those authorized local instructors will in-turn through Water Safety and Swimming courses, teach life saving and swimming to all individuals in the county, giving such instruction, thus reducing water casualties to a minimum.

Caution attention to the annual accidental death toll from crowning, Mr. Hartman reports that last year 7,482 persons lost their life in the United States.

Mr. Lucier's classes for Water Safety instructors will begin Wednesday, Apr. 10, at 7 p.m. at the

Colorful Classes Mark Horse Show

Three Events Will Feature Attire of Rider and Horse's Equipment

Color, atmosphere and brilliance will characterize three of the spectacular events at the third annual Northville Riding Club Horse Show, May 24-26, when the hunt team, Countham and stock classes perform.

In all of these classes, the dress of the rider and equipment of the horse are important factors.

Most colorful will be the class for hunt teams composed of three members to each team shown in singular over a regular hunter course at a safe hunting pace. In this event, the riders must wear the complete formal fox hunting attire, including scarlet coat, black boots, tail cuffs, white breeches and yellow coat. The facing on the hunt coat lapel is to be the color designating the particular hunt of which the rider is a member. The head gear may be either the formal silk topper or in case the master is riding the velvet hunt cap.

The mount, likewise, must be completely equipped for a day's fox hunting with the necessary saddle, carrying saddle bags and flask, which must contain food and drink. Too he will carry an auxiliary pair of gloves under the hil-lets under the right side of the saddle. The rider wears leather gloves but may change to string gloves in case of rain.

Because the detailed equipment of the equipment—both for horse and rider—attains importance during the final judging the exhibitor gives the most careful attention.

The Countham class is much the same. Here, however, the horse and rider perform separately. Too, equipment is important, carrying even greater weight with the judge inasmuch as this mount is supposed to be the type hunter that the master—or member of the hunt staff—would choose, having in mind that it is necessary for him to be able to be able to be able to be near the pack at all times.

Another picturesque and colorful event will be the stock horse class.
Early entries indicate that there will be at least 25 horses.

This class will carry into the ring an atmosphere of the Old West, with 10-gallon hats, silver and gold mounted saddles and bridles and all the color that is usually associated with the American cowboy.

According to Secretary R. Edmund Downing some 70 boxes have already been reserved for the three-day spring show. If local persons want desirable boxes it will be wise for them to take care of their reservations immediately," he suggests.

Tournament Winners Will Box, Tuesday

The next to the last boxing exhibition of the season will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Apr. 9, in the high school gymnasium, sponsored by the Athletic club the Scour's and Cub Scouts.

Outstanding bouts of the evening will include matches between four winners of the deaf and mute boxing tournament which is to be held Friday and Saturday nights in Flint. These boys will meet four Northville boys in the ring.

"Until we know who the winners are and know how much ring experience they have had, we cannot draw up the card for this event," asserted Manager Richard Loomis.
Three boxers from the Milford club will participate in Northville's ring Tuesday evening.

In addition, there will be two or three bouts from Arthur Carlson's club group.

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

Keystone of Democracy

Monday was town meeting day—the backbone of American democracy, and the keystone of county, state and national government. Here is democracy in its purest and simplest form. And we think that Americans are rapidly beginning to realize that the continued centralization of government in state and national capitols defeats the very fundamentals of our type of government. We feel that we shall live to rue the day when we yielded to the "Big Shots" and sold government, down the river for subsidies, grants and refunds. We pay the same bills, and more too—then pay a 20% commission for state administrative redistribution and refunds. Are we right, or not? Be that as it may the hue and cry of economy in centralization at capitols of 10 years ago has not proven itself.

Which was right, the groundhog or the U. S. Weatherman?

According to the Detroit Weather Bureau March, 1940, had no competition for continued low temperatures. Sixteen inches of snow fell in March, to make a total of 45 inches for the winter. Forty-two inches has been the average for the past forty years.

"It's More Fun to Know..."

Must high powered ideas of war, scandal, rackets, 101 things that engage our attention, books, radio, political build-ups and hosannas are often wonder where we are. Propaganda fills the air. Human flesh is so subject to every play of emotion and intellect that it is hard to find an even keel or even to chart a course. Often we are fooled because we don't recognize the methods or means by which we are played. It may be fun to be fooled, but today we believe it is more fun to know.

That we may more readily recognize what we commonly call propaganda, let's see what devices the propagandist to subtly win us. Those who would sway people appeal usually to the emotions by certain well timed and well-oiled tools or devices. Among such devices are—name calling, sweeping generalities, association and transfer, testimonials, ordinary folks stuff, card stacking and the bandwagon.

Hate and fear are appealed to in giving either good or bad names to groups, ideas or projects, and unfortunately we accept the labels of red, totalitarian, demagogue, etc. While names usually make us reject generalities are used in such virtuous words as love, loyalty, and service to lure us into approval and acceptance. Devils to fight, Gods to adore; heaven's blessings and salvation all get free use in this round.

"Uncle Sam" the flag, church and society are all appealed to by association in the clever transfer device of salesmanship. Things we accept and revere are made to sanction that which we are asked to believe.

Testimonials, and the thought behind their use is far easier to recognize than the thought above. But testimonials are used to make us accept everything from cigarettes to national security.

"Just plain folks, we working people," is a great weapon of the politician, also the minister and the educator. By placing himself and his idea in the same everyday group of folks we are drawn emotionally into his line of thought. A little flattery, baby kissing (figuratively they are the same), attend church or a farmers' picnic, snitch a piece of pie, go fishing, or appeal to the dear relative contact, and they are just like us so they are wise. So are we, and unthinkingly we fall like a ton of brick.

The propagandist also stacks the cards. Deception is used to win your support and cards are stacked against the truth. The central thought is buried under an avalanche of other matters. A smoke screen clouds the facts so that they may be omitted. He takes a cross back on the trail to confuse. Sinners become saints, and the 1 gmy assumes the stature of a titan.

Follows the crowd! O yes, we have all jumped on the bandwagon, and taken the dose en masse. Everybody does it, so do we. This is the great device of midway and conventional bait, a pure appeal to lack of thought through emotion. Join the parade, and we are sold on the idea so easily that it is funny. Soon we'll hear, "Don't throw away your vote." "Hell no!" (they all go before the votes are counted). We are appealed to en masse as Methodists, Catholics, wives, Irish, farmers, teachers. Flattery is the siren call, and we follow the bandwagon. A lot of fun, you say, yes, but so lacking in reason and thinking.

All these tools of the propagandist are light in thought and appeal to the emotions as the motivating implement. Most of us do not wish to be overly gullible. We want to know what is going on rather than be duped even in a good cause. We delight in the facts, even to the extent of by what method we arrived. Now read your paper, magazines, hear the radio talks, analyze them. We may then be fooled less, and more easily see our way through the propaganda, counter propaganda, and confusion that surrounds us. Perchance we will find it more fun to really "know."

Heaven provides us means of knowing what is best for us here and supplies us with abundance of materials for present happiness. It is our business to know, to realize, to use, to enjoy.

Is freedom facing a new Calvary? Democratic ideals seem to be carrying the cross while Nazi and Soviets play the whips of collectivism and totalitarianism. European democracies continue to play the role of professional mourners at the funeral pyres of Czechoslovakia, Austria, Poland, and Finland. Small nations are realizing the utility of words and the marvel of power.

Nickname Your Used Ford--Win a Cash Prize

The State of Michigan and some Ohio counties will be included in the limited $1,000 "Nickname Your Used Ford" contest being sponsored this week by "Dearborn Branch" Ford dealers. By midnight of Apr. 11, 10 used car buyers will each be $100 better off, according to D. D. Harris, chairman of Lansing, Mich., who describes the contest as follows:

"To enter our Nickname Contest all the used car buyer has to do is to give the car he buys a nickname. People have nicknamed their cars for years—such names as 'Betsy,' or 'Elmer,' for examples. We want to encourage used car owners to think up better nicknames for their cars than 'Betsy,' or 'Elmer.' So we are giving 10 prizes of $100 each by Apr. 11 for the catchiest nicknames. The names may be descriptive, 'ansing Liner,' for instance, or funny or serious. Our judges are Hon. John L. Carey, Mayor of Dearborn; Mr. Gordon Kingsbury, Director of Advertising Courses at Wayne University; and Mr. G. D. Gettins, Automobile Editor of the Toledo Blade."

"Of course," said Mr. Tom Edmondson, "there's more to the Nickname Contest than a desire to improve car nicknames. We Ford dealers want to impress the public that this time of year is the best time to buy a used car, when the selection is largest and prices are low. We think it's well worth $100 to us to get action now from people who are in the market but are putting off buying for no particular reason."

Fred E. Saxton

Death claimed a Northville business figure this week when the 74-year-old Fred E. Saxton, who had married the Northville Ford store for 19 years, died at the Arnold home in Detroit Saturday, Mar. 30, after being confined to St. Joseph's hospital for 18 days.

Born in Pennsylvania, Mr. Saxton was only two years of age when he came to the Traverse City region. Practically his entire life was spent there in the lumber business before coming to Northville, he lived for a time in Detroit.

Surviving him are two sons, Dean of Northville, and Ray of Detroit, and a daughter, Julia Watkins of Detroit. His wife preceded him in death.

Funeral rites were held at 2 p.m. Sunday from the R. J. Casterline Funeral Home, with the Rev. Dr. Thomas W. Smith conducting the service. Burial services were held Monday in Traverse City.

One Year Ago

Nearly 100 Masons joined in the annual Past Master's Night of Northville Lodge 185, F. and A. M., Monday evening, Apr. 3. Twelve of the 28 living past masters, and representatives of the 19 constituent lodges were present for the occasion.

The village bought a new Ford dump truck, the work to replace the one that had been in use for five years.

Proving that 40 years of age is not very old, Mr. Saxton died after 18 days' illness by contracting pneumonia, which he caught while visiting his brother, William Cook on his birthday, Mar. 25.

Fifteen Years Ago

About 3 a. m. Thursday, fire was discovered in the Forsters' Hall. Before the people of the village could be wakened the fire had burned in the hallway and within a 15-minute time the structure, a 12,000 sq. ft. building and a very old one, was a smoking furnace.

Lloyd Palmer of Ypsilanti, has bought the Dailey restaurant on Main street and will continue the business.

Friday forenoon the house on the Fred Foreman farm west and south of the village was discovered to be on fire and the blaze having spread such a start before it was discovered, the house was soon destroyed.

Twenty Years Ago

A distressing and fatal accident and one that brought the deepest grief to many people occurred Saturday when George Henry, Jr. son of M. and Mrs. George Henry lost his life under the wheels of a motor truck.

At a meeting of the directors of the Northville Chamber of Commerce held Thursday night the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, C. C. Ferkas, vice-president, W. J. Lansing, secretary, E. E. Brown, treasurer, Wallace Ross.

Business is Good, Thanks—so you'll get plenty for your old car and more in your new one at your Buick dealers

Above is the Buick SPECIAL 4-door touring sedan $996*

WE'RE talking here to those thousands who have not yet achieved a lifetime ambition. That is to say, they don't yet own a Buick.

We want to point out a few facts about the Buick SPECIAL pictured here—show how it swings wide the door on a golden opportunity.

Step into this sleek sweetheart. Your treadle foot touches off a trigger—quick Dynaflex straight-eight engine that's just about the smoothest thing that runs, thanks to micro-poised-balancing after assembly.

Swing through the gear changes and you find the same easy, finger-flick shifting as in the most costly Buick. And the same recoil-mounted Knee-Action soaking up bumps before they reach your hand on the steering wheel.

automatic cut-off, built-in automatic choke, oil-filter, high-capacity water pump—they're all there.

Here's the smart style, the blithe performance and the solid, substantial Buick quality of materials and workmanship that make this the car you've been looking forward to.

Yet the figures on the SPECIAL make you think it's a six instead of a husky straight-eight. Indeed, when you count in the included equipment, it costs no more than some cars with lower advertised prices.

So look into the Buick SPECIAL. See if this isn't the time to "step up" to the car you've always wanted.

You can take a trial drive any time just by asking your Buick dealer.

Prices begin at $895 for Business Coupe—Sedan prices start at $955—

TWAS A FREAK PIG
From Howell comes word that Gregory farmers have been surprised during the past week by the arrival of a freak pig, and triplets and quadruplets in their sheep flocks. In a litter of 11 pigs born to a Jersey red sow, owned by Lawrence Riggs, was a freak pig, or Siamese twin, having one head and two bodies. The head had one set of eyes and ears, with two sets of nostrils and a wide mouth. It soon died. Hans Hansen, who lives north of Gregory, had in his flock of young ones the past week, a set of quadruplets and a set of triplets the same day. He gave three of the quads and one of the triplets away to be raised by the bottle method.

Louis Van Valkenburg, who is in the University Hospital, Ann Arbor, is slightly improved.

Sure Signs Of Spring

Spring is here when motorists dig out the road maps and lay their plans for seeking the "open road," and sailors the recovery over begin the actual "struggle-out" activities, preparing sleek water craft for the first jaunt of the season. Here Skipper Ted Skinner begins operations under the watchful eye of Miss Toby Clark, who motored down to the boatyard in her new 1940 Chevrolet.

News from Walled Lake

By C. E. HUTTON
The related Miss Springtime's sudden discard of her dowdy winter garments, last Friday placed everything in this vicinity on a floating basis, and threatened to create an emergency in which our mayor—if we had one—might well have called frantically for the Marines. The all-day fog which shrouded our immediate environs proved a constant traffic hazard, and was blamed for several minor auto accidents, sending cars in the ditch and otherwise perturbing the populace. Rain and melting snow created a lake upon a lake, as 'twere; and here and there an occasional fish house left on the ice went derelict. While the main body of ice still remains, it is dark, and loose from its shore moorings, and will soon be gone. In the country, the deluge from fast melting snow turned byways into slushways, cutting deep fissures through the roadbeds and creating travel hazards. Those living in parts of Wolverine Lake subdivision found flood waters preventing normal egress to main roads, and resorted to rowboats to carry their crossroads to the highways. Sump pumps in many basements heabroke worked overtime that night. The generally dampened education was considerably improved by the following day, with the rapidly evaporating frost line. Most dirt and gravel roads, will be heavy for another week or two, and motorists are advised to keep to the hard surfaces.

The firemen's ball, held Saturday evening, grossed about $150. The net proceeds amounted to approximately $80. This is considerably short of the anticipated total which is to be regretted, in view of the purpose for which the funds are needed. The district is in critical need of a new fire truck, and the department had hoped to raise sufficient funds for the purchase of a truck chassis. The remainder of the necessary cash will have to be raised by direct contribution, it was thought by Fire Chief Carl Tufford.

Additional counter space has been added to the Lakeside Products company's modern salesroom. They are equipped with the latest lighting and refrigerating facilities, together with complete sanitation. The refrigerated storage rooms are already equipped with the recently introduced violet light which retains the freshness of meats through sterilization.

The Walled Lake bowling league concluded its schedule, Tuesday night at the B and M alleys, with team number 1, captained by Harry Vreeland leading with 65 points, for the season. Rex Tuttle's number 3 team finished second with 64; number 4, with William Glover totalling 61. Roy Abray's men ended with a score of 55; Charles Morgan, 49; Lloyd Corleau, 42; Clifford Johnson, 40 and Hoyt Wilson's men, 34. Team number 4 turned in the highest single game with 892. Number 1 team completed the top three games with 2,457 pins. Fred Boyer rolled the highest single score of 246, while Harry Vreeland was first in single scores for three games, with 628. The league wound up their activities with a banquet, Friday night.

N-Club Carnival Proves a Success

The N-club carnival was quite a success last Saturday. The grand total taken in from all the concessions was $172.89; $94.32 went to concessions and the total that the N-club made from their own booths was $32.22.

The juniors, with their "Barrel of Fun," took in the largest gross which was $14.22, but the freshmen netted $9.93.

The grand door prize, which was a Majestic radio, was given to Pauline Rodgers, Mrs. Frank Knight, mother of Phyllis Knight, a freshman, won the corn-guessing contest. She guessed the number 3068 and there were 3147 kernels in the bottle.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Mrs. Knapp, wife of the late Thad J. Knapp, once superintendent of N.H.S. has offered the following words of inspiration for our editorial this week:

Several years ago, I heard a talk, "The Three Choices," given by Dr. E. B. Bryan, at that time President of Colgate University.

Since it seems as opportunity now as it was then, may I pass on to you some of its main points?

He emphasized the fact that every one makes only three important decisions in his life and that every other choice depends upon one of the three: "What one will do," "With whom one will live," and "Whom he will serve." "What one will do"—Dr. Bryan maintained the reason so many people were square was because they had made their decisions when they were too young to know what they really were able to do. His advice was to be slow in choosing a vocation. "With whom one will live"—so much depends upon your early choice of friends. Are you choosing the right ones and are you making yourself worthy of the best? "Whom one will serve"—is more important now than ever before. "We all need to have a faith which will be a defense, as well as a source of happiness."

Here's to your "Three Choices" and may they be wise ones! Remember, always that, "He has achieved success who has filled his niche and accomplished his task; who has left the world better than he found it."

These committees have been approved by Prin. G. V. Harrison for Year-Book Project

The committees for the Palladium have been chosen and work will start soon.

The duties of the advertising committee have been given to Marilyn Cavell, Ida Marie Walker, Natalie Whipple and Alene Matthews. Kay Willis is chairman of photography. He will be assisted by Harvey Ritchie, Jean Lyke and Barbara Spicer.

For the title pages and artistic parts of the book, Valora Wheeler, Corky Spots, Amelia Sutton, James Odgers, Leo Hollis and Bob Vogtin have agreed to do their best.

Arlene Blake and Jean Orr are going to take care of the group pictures. Bob Orr and the Student Council are handling the circulation. The editorial duties have been given to Marie Augave, Jean Marburg, Junior Holt, Len Fritz, Charlene Hardesty and Betty Armstrong. Typists will be had in the persons of Barbara Simmons, and others recommended by Miss Kathryn Giltner.

N.H.S. Represented at D.A.R. Meeting

Last Saturday, Mar. 30, Alene Matthews attended the D.A.R. convention at Battle Creek where about 170 girls were present; all of whom had been picked from different schools throughout Michigan. One girl was selected and will go to Washington in two weeks with 43 other girls.

The convention began with a talk given by Dr. McClellan of Lincoln Memorial college. Then luncheon was served; afterwards a certificate was awarded each Michigan pilgrim. Following were two talks given by last year's Michigan pilgrim concerning her trip to Washington, also by the one chosen this year. The meeting was made very informal by everyone introducing herself to her fellow members, and becoming acquainted.

The speakers stressed how important it was to develop leadership in this day and age. Alene was chosen by the members of the 1940 Senior Class and the faculty to represent N.H.S. at the meeting. Choice was made on the basis of citizenship.

Mrs. O. F. Reng's second grade students have been looking for signs of spring. They have brought pictures to school and have drawn pictures and learned poems about them. They have just finished reading the story, "Jerome's Authority."

On Apr. 1 the third and fourth grades went for a walk. We went first to the old cemetery. We were looking for a lot of different kinds of flowers and early flowers after we drove West Gate then drove South Wing to West Fairbrook, down South Gate and back to school.

"I saw 13 robins 26 sparrows 2 doves 5 blackbirds 1 squirrel 1 chipmunk 1 near a oak tree and down by the stream I saw a wild duck. Best of all I liked the stream and the wild duck. The wild duck was black and white. When we got back to school we talked about what we had seen." —By Kathryn Perry, Miss Margaret Carpenter's room.

The fifth and sixth grades of Room 25 heard a talk last week on China by R. H. Steinger who lived in China for several years. He told us how they irrigate fields. If the field is near a river, they use a machine made of bamboo poles with a wheel on the end with two little boards on top of the wheel. Somebody stands on the boards and peddles them around and around just like we peddle a bicycle. Little cups on the wheel go up and down and the water pours up into the field. He also told about Chinese women banding their feet. For their food the poorer people had rice and meat every meal. A long time ago there was a tower in China where all the unwanted baby girls were thrown in dead or alive because in China girls weren't thought very much of.

The Record's Farm Scrap Book

FOR 4-H CLUB BOYS AND THEIR DADS

By Willard Bate of Stoneycreekmouth Farm

Iowa Grows Capons

Due almost entirely to the leadership of one poultry buyer at Iowa City, Iowa, the farmers of that territory are growing thousands of prime capons every year. Normal production is about 20,000 capons per year. Caponizing is done by an expert employed by the produce house—and they pay a premium of 2c to 7c per lb. over the market price of roasters, depending upon the weight and quality of the capons. Sketch shows a desirable brooder house on the farm of J. L. Shime, who raises several hundred White Rock capons every year as a profitable part of his general farming operations.
