Accrediting Body Approves Village Secondary School

Graduates May Enter College Outside State Without Taking Entrance Examinations

Note 10. Criteria

The North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools has accepted Northville's application for accrediting by that body, thus giving the Northville high school the advantages which this affiliation brings.

Superintendent H. Amerman and Principal Gerald V. Harrison were notified of the association's acceptance by H. C. Hoch, chairman of the Michigan State committee.

Few Schools Qualify
Of some 600 schools in the State, 509 are accredited by the University of Michigan, but only 209 of them are accredited by the North Central Association, according to 1939 records.

Affiliation with the association means that Northville's graduates may be admitted to colleges outside the State without entrance examinations. The association sets up standards to determine the characteristics of good secondary schools. Too, it sets up a means of evaluating the manner in which the schools carry out the standards. Its objective is to stimulate a school to develop into a better one.

Standards Change
Although definite standards are maintained by the association, it wants each school to meet the needs of its particular community as closely as possible. This viewpoint is a development of recent years in the educational field.

In order to be accredited by the association, standards of excellence which a school must maintain are stated in terms of the following criteria: Instruction and spirit; The efficiency of instruction; The acquisition of habits of thought and study; The attitude of the community as permanent factors.

The school plant must be adequate for the number of pupils enrolled and the sanitation and janitorial service must be approved.

Instructional equipment and supplies must be adequate to meet the needs of instruction for all courses offered.

Because of the urgent need for garments for the Polish refugees, Mrs. Eber Ward Lester, chairman of the local Red Cross unit, came forward today with a plea for more persons to sew and knit for the cause.

Persons who will take garments to their homes to make are asked to notify Mrs. W. E. Forney, sewing chairman. Mrs. Mark Brock is chairman of the knitting. Yarn for sweaters and socks may be obtained from her.

Both boys were informed of the general topic, and then given one hour after choosing the definite subject as drawn from the hat. Both boys spoke well and a two-to-one vote of the three judges gave the decision to Harry Porter. Porter will now enter the district contest to be held the first week in May. ADOPT BUDGET
In a public meeting held Monday evening, the village council adopted the budget for the year 1940-41, which calls for the spreading of $54,300 on the tax levy.

Job to Mr. Montgomery was taken after a recommendation from Mayor Carl H. Bryan had been made into a motion by Commissioner Del W. Hahn. The motion, designed to make Dan Lafluy commissioner of streets and water, died from lack of support.

At the time he recommended Mr. Lafluy for the position, Mayor Bryan read his reasons for asking that the commissioners make a change. At the invitation of Commissioner Fred Simmons Mr. Montgomery was given the floor to make reply.

Major Recommendation
Upon the recommendation of Mayor Bryan, Alex Lyke was named first village hall caretaker. Carl Schultz was hired as police right man and G. W. Gibson, night officer, was held over for the time being in his job. An appointment for village attorney was not made.

In order that the school band may buy instruments and make repairs on present instruments, the council voted to give $100 to the band. The understanding that a series of summer concerts be given in the park.

That changes are needed in the traffic regulations became evident when Chief of Police Richard Loomis is told of a survey which is being made at the present time. "We'll have the survey completed and recommendations ready for council action by the next meeting," Chief Loomis told the councilmen.

● Drive Carefully—Be Glad . . .

Spring is always a treacherous season for automobile drivers. Of late our state seems to have been forced to suffer worse than usual because of our weather man's failure to control our snow, sleet and rain during these months. We must of necessity, then, be more careful while driving on our roads and streets during the kind of weather we have been having.

Driving on a street covered with smooth hard-packed snow, it is practically impossible to stop a car quickly and without warning. Then all we can do is drive so it will not be necessary to do anything drastic to stop or so that we will be forever sorry we were in too big a hurry and couldn't stop, thereby perhaps bringing sorrow to ourselves as well as grief to some stricken mother and dad whose child we have accidentally and unthinkingly run down.

Now is the time to:
 "Stop saving seconds and start saving lives." Drive carefully and be glad—Drive carelessly and be sad.

What do you suggest as an appropriate slogan for Northville? Recreation, natural beauty, homes, folks, which or what combination?

The economic value of Michigan's railroads to Wayne county is graphically pictured in posters now being installed in all railroad stations in the county. The posters were prepared by the Railroad Co-Operative League of Michigan.

According to the poster there are 319 miles of railroad in this county, with 10,512 persons in local rail service earning an average of $21,250,945 32 a year. The county in 1939 also collected $2,078,244 45 of the taxes the railroads pay into the state treasury, the money coming into the county through the primary school fund.

Who will offer to clothe the old brick ruins across from the spring in more attractive raiment. Shrubs, morning glories, flowering boxes, and several combinations cost little except in effort and forethought. It seems too bad that with so many people from far and wide stopping at the Spring that there should be such a contrast in the attractiveness of the two sides of the road. Who accepts the challenge.

● Join Up . . .

Quite often the taxpayers' associations become a bore to its members. This is readily understandable for 95 times out of 100, the men elected leaders of the organization do not know exactly what they want to do. They are imbued with a feeling of the necessity of joining and working in just such an organization for they can see the terrific waste of tax monies all around them.

Our only advice is this—join your local taxpayers' association. Do not expect that it will burn up the world over night. It won't. Organization, planning, cohesion, i.e., working together and forming a specific plan of procedure, takes time. Frustration will take place, that is certain. More often than not you'll have well established political groups to buck or with whom it will be necessary to establish a working basis of mutual respect before actual results can be noted.

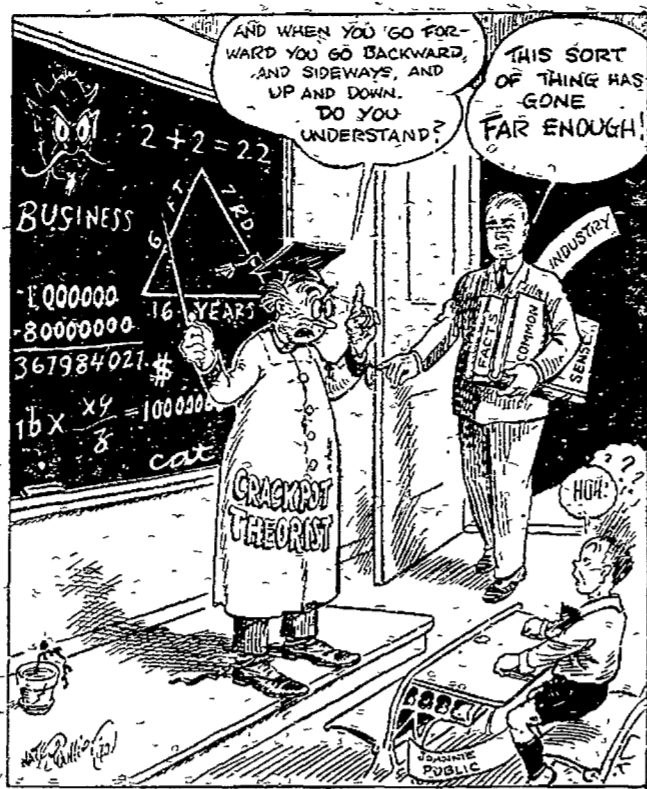

Despite all this, however, it is every citizen's duty to be a member of his own local taxpayers' association and devote some of his time to helping solve, if possible, the many problems facing every community.

The most frequently quoted authority on earth is "They Say." "They Say" lives in Northville and every community in the country. Just who is "They Say"? Usually just gossip. And in the courts of the land "They Say" is not recognized, and why should so many of us recognize "They Say" except as a troublemaker or community-destroyer?

Five hundred members of the American Saving and Loan Institute declare that newspapers provide the best medium of advertising.

One person in six receives some sort of aid from the government today. Ten years ago only one in a hundred received aid.

Why is it, a careless 7-year-old kid can drop a half burned match in an alley and burn up all the barns in a block, while an able bodied man has to use up a whole box of matches to get a wood fire started in a heater that has draft enough to draw all the furniture up the stove pipe?

News from Walled Lake

By C. E. HUTTON

An epidemic of measles has broken out in Walled Lake and vicinity, according to Dr. O. R. MacKinsie, Commerce township health officer. Eight cases were reported Monday, making a total of 10 reported so far. Most of the cases are found in children of second and third grade age. The contagion has spread as far as Commerce and Union Lake, Dr. MacKinsie said. He again warns parents to report all minor illness of children to their physician, the school or the health officer. No child should be allowed to attend school, who suffers from any type of infection; no matter how slight the ailment may seem. He not only risks serious illness but endangers the health of other children.

By virtue of his winning the County F. F. A. speaking contest held at the Walled Lake school recently, Harry Colestock, Walled Lake school student, will enter the State F. F. A. contest at Lansing to be held May 2 and 3. His winning oration was titled "Agriculture in Industry." He competed against four Holly contestants. Speakers from Holly had been winners of two previous contests.

The County F. F. A. judging contest was scheduled to take place at the Walled Lake school Wednesday afternoon of this week. The judging as for grain, and seed identification in grain classes which included oats, barley, wheat and corn. Entries were from Holly, Milford, New Hudson, Lake Orion, Oxford and Walled Lake. Elimination contests in log sawing and tug-of-war were also included in the afternoon's program. A banquet was held at 6:30 and was followed with an address by Robert A. Boyer, sov chairman of the Ford Motor company, whose topic was "Uses of Soy Beans and Other Agricultural Products in Industry." Also heard on the program was Harry Colestock, giving his winning oration of the county F. F. A. speaking contest, recently held here.

New motion picture equipment, including public address system and projector has been installed at the Walled Lake school. The system is portable and can be used either in the auditorium or in class rooms. The school plans to run a series of weekly feature picture shows at the school each Monday evening. Currently popular movies will be shown.

Over 200 fathers and sons attended a banquet in their honor at the Walled Lake high school Friday evening under the sponsorship of the Chalmers' class of the Methodist church. They heard Secretary of State Harry F. Kelly, principal speaker of the program, urge the youth of today, to champion the cause of freedom and independence found only in the democracy of this country and their home State.

"If we can keep the industrial peace of Michigan we can hand down to our sons a State as good as in the land," said Secretary Kelly. Commending the educational facilities provided the youth of today, he declared that the European countries 10 years ago were teaching 12-year-old boys the doctrine that their government was all that was of importance, we at the same time were teaching the value of freedom and individuality in accordance with our federal and state constitutions. Nothing can better express this freedom than such gatherings of fathers and sons," he added.

E. V. Mercer in a brief talk gave a toast to the sons in which he declared his faith in young men of this country. Fred Means, a student, responded with a toast to the fathers, stating that boys continued to look to their fathers for inspiration and guidance, and were governed in their maturing outlook on life by the example set for them by their fathers.

Kenneth W. Wacker was toastmaster of the evening, and music was provided by school students under the direction of Frank Bach.

Dondero Says Census Questions Are Misleading and Confusing

Rep. George A. Dondero, in speaking on the floor of the U. S. House of Representatives last Friday, called attention to a number of questions which will undoubtedly irritate the value of their answers, because of the language in which they are stated and the instructions to enumerators with respect to these questions. Excerpts from Rep. Dondero's remarks follow:

Mr. Speaker, there appeared in the public press on Mar. 26 a statement that the Census Bureau would have available a 5 per cent sample of its population enumeration, which would be published during the summer and that the total number of the unemployed might be compiled before the election.

That statement challenges my attention. The implication that any reasonable person can possibly draw from this announcement on the part of the Bureau is that it might have a direct bearing on the coming election next November. If such is not the correct conclusion, if this is not a reasonable interpretation of such an announcement, why does the Bureau single out the one subject, the unemployed, to be announced before the election?

That announcement standing alone may not be impressive enough to challenge the attention of the people, if it were not associated with certain questions to be asked by an army of census enumerators who are to begin their work next week.

The census of 1930 has been given wide publicity. The attention of the whole nation has been drawn to the fact that the people were to be subjected to questioning heretofore unknown to the people of the United States. Little opportunity has been presented for the Congress to express itself in relation to this new form of inquiry into the private affairs of the people. We all know at this late date no action will be taken, but the Bureau, after proceedings were instituted in insisting that questions 32 and 33 should be asked, and, undoubtedly, believing it had no legal right to ask the questions relating to income, and that it had gone beyond the scope of the law resorted to the strategy adopted and known to the legal profession as "contession and avoidance." Confessing that the Bureau had no legal right to inquire into the income of the people and avoiding the issue by permitting the people to answer the questions in private without divulging their income to the enumerators but getting forth their income on a private slip of paper and sealing it in an envelope.

If the Bureau and the Secretary of Commerce had had any legal right whatever to inquire and snoop into the incomes of the people, they would not have retreated nor used this subterfuge to obtain the information.

Now I desire to return to the subject that the Bureau deems so important that the information be obtained should be published before election and that is the subject of the unemployed.

I have in my possession a sample questionnaire issued by the Bureau relating to the population schedule. I also have in my possession a copy of the instructions delivered to enumerators. Question 21 to be asked is as follows:

Was this person at work for pay, or profit, in private or nonemergency government work during the week of Mar. 24-30? Yes or No?

Question 21 looks innocent enough standing alone, but when it is associated with the instructions sent out by the Bureau to the enumerators it becomes an inquiry not only to arouse suspicion but one that challenges the good faith and the proper intent of the Bureau in obtaining the information. What is the meaning of the words "at work" as interpreted by the Bureau? If question 21 be answered "Yes or No" in accordance with the instructions placed in the hands of the enumerators, it will result in an inaccurate, unreliable, and untruthful census in regard to the number of unemployed.

I quote the instructions issued in regard to this subject, found on pages 50 and 51 of Instructions to Enumerators:

Enter "Yes" also for any person who worked during the week at unpaid family work, or for a person who worked during the week at a business of his own (such as a store

If through sheer necessity your wife took in the first bundle of laundry or did a little sewing at home for some shop or factory, she would be employed; or if she made a few artificial flowers which she intended to sell, even though she was not successful in selling a single flower, she would be listed as employed, or, in the words of the Bureau, at work.

The same applies to any person 14 years of age. If you or any member of your family 14 years old or over worked at anything for pay or profit, including unpaid family work, such as helping out at the little newsstand, and so forth, regardless of whether you received any money or not, and if you did, regardless of the amount received, you or they were employed.

Let us look at it from another angle. How many people who are, in truth, unemployed will be required to answer "yes" to question 21? Who of us, if unemployed, would not try to peddle something or get an odd job here or there in order to get the bare necessities? Well, all this time we are really unemployed.

Remember that the enumerator is the sole judge of what he will enter upon the schedule; second, that the person furnishing the information is not permitted to see the entries made; third, that this unpropitious question, 21, will require an answer of "yes" from untold numbers of persons who are in fact unemployed; fourth, that a "yes" in answer to this question causes the other employment questions to go unanswered, and last but by no means least, the natural temptation of the enumerator to have done with it. Question 21 looms large and foreboding.

Untruthful replies: You have a right not only to an answer, but to a truthful answer. Do not accept any statement that you believe to be false. While you know that the answer is incorrect, enter upon the schedule the correct answer as nearly as you can ascertain it.

This instruction gives the enumerator a free hand to enter upon the schedule any answer which he thinks is right. The supposition or assumption that the enumerator can answer the question better than the citizen questioned is preposterous and should not be permitted. Let me quote further:

Be particularly careful that no person is reading the entries you are making or the entries you have made for other households.

In other words, the person being questioned has no guarantee, even though he is truthful in every detail, that the enumerator is putting down in the book right, because he is not permitted to see that it is done right.

Questions 21, 22, 23, 24 and 25 covering the employment situation are cunningly and ingeniously framed and, when asked in their order as per strict instructions, present an unique picture of an attempt to show that there are a great many less unemployed people in the country than is actually the case. It must be obvious to every thinking citizen that the enumerator is not himself entitled to anything, as his right, except to ask the questions contained in the questionnaire and to receive and record the citizen's answer thereto. If the enumerators followed this instruction they will have been authorized to set themselves up as the judges of the integrity of the citizens, as the judges of the truthfulness of the citizens' answers, and the result of the census will be an inaccurate and unreliable picture of what the citizens say is true and what the census enumerators decided to put in because they thought it was true. Any enumerator who might not choose to believe some citizens would, under his instruction, be authorized to disregard the citizen's answers and to put in such answers as the enumerator might believe to fit the particular case.

GO OUT FOR THE afternoon
while your electric cooker prepares dinner!
SPEND your afternoon shopping or at the theater or visiting friends... go for a drive in the car. When you come home at supper time, wouldn't it be pleasant to find your whole dinner waiting—perfectly cooked, warm, and ready for the table? That is exactly what an electric cooker does for you.

Cooks a whole meal at one time
A roast, two vegetables, potatoes and gravy can be cooked all at one time—or you can prepare all casserole dishes such as waterless pot roast, Boston baked beans, Irish stew, etc., to perfection. You'll be enthusiastic about electric cooking! No other method cooks with such flavor, such tenderness—even for cheaper cuts of meat. And an electric cooker is simple to use. Plug it into any convenience outlet.

Play-Goers Put Aside All Social Functions To Attend Senior Play

Parties were at a standstill in the village last Thursday and Friday evening when the seniors presented Girl Shy to play-goers in the high school auditorium. The auditorium, by the way, was packed to capacity Friday evening.

Directed by E. C. Mollen and assisted by Charles Yattine, the venue used college life as its theme, and the seniors might have been college students themselves, for they gave it their all.

Thursday night's audience saw Mary Potter, Eugene Stanford, Natalie Whipple, Pat Klein, Jean Marburger, Lucy Bidwell, Bob Orr, Bob Farmer, Charlene Hardesty, Wilfred Wilson, Junior Hoff and Elmer Balke.

Until this year, Jean was the unchallenged interpreter of colored roles. She had competitors this year when Mary Frances Batt took the role of Anna Friday night. Both girls gave excellent performances, showing evidence of enjoying the portrayal thoroughly themselves.

There were cast changes Friday night, bringing to the stage Peggy McCollough, Rhea Walling, Marie Angove, Amelia Sutton, Jean Orr and Allen Goto. Farmer, Hardesty, Hoff and Wilson appeared both nights.

Jean Lute played her accordion.

between acts both Thursday and Friday.

Having much to do with the success of a production, but seldom getting credit for hours of hard work are the committee members. The play was selected by Jean Orr, Corky Sigos, George Houghton, Doris Hubbard and Pat Klein. Corky, Alene Matthews and Norma Goto made up the advertising committee. Nine Wenzel and Thelma Kent had charge of tickets and programs. Properties were in the hands of Clayton Rogers, Wilbert Grimm, Fred Sterner, George Houghton, Doris Hubbard, Arla Reed, Betty Lanning and Corky.

The ticket-takers were: Sterner, Barbara Simmons, Betty Lanning, Marian Healey, Dorothy Bingham, Elvira Trofost, Arla, Corky, Norma, Lucille Graham and Leonard Fritz.

reference material and magazines must be sufficient for the number of pupils enrolled.

Accurate and complete financial data and personnel records are to be kept in such form as to be held conveniently and be safely preserved.

The policies of the board of education are to be such as to attract and retain the services of well-qualified and competent teachers.

All members of the instructional and supervisory staff are to possess the minimum general training assumed to be guaranteed by a Bachelor's degree from an institution of high education approved by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary schools or from an institution of equal standing.

The teaching load must be reasonable.

The school's program of study, the organization of curricula and the study schedule are to be such as to meet reasonably well the needs and interests of the pupils enrolled.

famous shows including the ones at Devon Park and Atlantic City.

In direct charge of the show will be Capt. E. H. R. B. of Detroit, who is becoming somewhat of a fixture in this line. He has served in this capacity here for the first show as well as the spring show. Captain Baker has had wide experience in this, never failing to draw comment from the judges in the manner in which the classes are run, showing patience and courtesy to all who have any contact with the ring. He'll be assisted by G. Hermann Derry Jr. and Donald Morse both of Detroit.

There will be two clerks this year. Assisting Mrs. R. Edmond Dowling will be Mrs. William M. Peck.

The voice at the ring will again be that of Verne Kirby of Detroit, who has handled this difficult assignment in a pleasing way for Northville crowds for the past three years.

TO EXAMINE TEETH

Dr. D. A. Brier, Dr. J. K. Eastland and Dr. Richard L. Kerr will give dental examinations to the grade and junior high school pupils Tuesday, April 23 according to announcement made today by the school health nurse Mrs. Starr Bray.

CARDS OF THANKS
I wish to thank my friends and relatives, especially the Lutheran Ladies Aid for the fruit and food gifts and their kindness to me during my illness.
Norman Witt

I wish to thank my friend, for their cards, flowers, fruits and other gifts of kindness during my illness. I especially do appreciate the thoughtfulness of the King's Daughter, and the Presbyterian Union.
Mrs. Floyd Shaffer 43X

We wish to express our appreciation for the many acts of kindness shown us at the time of the death of our wife and mother. Especially do we thank Maurice Gies, who sang, the Rev. A. K. Macfarlane, Ray J. Castlerine, the Maybury sanatorium employees, the New Hudson Edison company, the Dunn Steel Products company, Royal Neighbors, and our friends and neighbors.

In Memory of Marlene E. Bolton
I'm in love with a dear little baby,
I'm in love with her sunny brown hair
Sure, her brown eyes shine bright
With heaven's love light
And goodness and grace I find there.

Her soft laughter delights all the angels,
When she smiles, saints and cherubs smile too
While a sweet flower-kiss
From our darling new miss,
Fills our hearts with joy lasting and true.

Tiny Maid, blessed sunshine from Heaven,
Makes us better just by living here
Dainty face, winsome fair,
Dimples blossoming there
Lovely Gift, she's our own daughter dear.

Little Girl, precious bud in Love's Garden,
The Best Girl in the whole world is she.
And her soft arms embrace
Giddy hands cling to mine,
Pretty girl, little queen, on my knee.

Mother, mild, keep her always, I pray
In the folds of thy mantle of love,
Sacred Heart, may she be Ever faithful to Thee,
Till we meet in Thy mansion above

The Farmers' Corner
By E. I. BESEMER,
County Agent

Lawns Need Early Treatment
Now is the time to get the lawn in condition for a season of enjoyment and use, according to County Agricultural Agent, E. I. Besemer.

A spring application of commercial fertilizer should be applied now so as to give the grass an early start. Use a 10-6-4 fertilizer at the rate of 10 pounds per 1000 square feet and spread it evenly over the lawn. The fertilizer may be put on with one of the small fertilizer distributors or it may be mixed with dry soil and spread by hand. Mixing with dry soil provides a means of getting the fertilizer on evenly if no distributor is available.

If put on at once the fertilizer need not be washed into the soil as it does not burn the grass, however, later in the season when the grass is actively growing the commercial fertilizer must be applied when the grass is dry and it must be thoroughly watered immediately.

A second application after the middle of May of a complete fertilizer will be enough for the Kentucky Blue Grass lawn until around Sept. 1 when another application should be made.

Crab grass is an annual and the seeds do not germinate until ground June 1 to 15, and by proper fertilization in the spring a thick turf should be developed which will tend to smother out the young crab grass seedlings.

In order to obtain best results from fertilizer on lawns set the sutter bar on the lawn mower to cut a height of not less than two inches.

Chemical's New Zealand Potash should be used for shady places. It should be remembered that under trees more care is required to keep grass growing. The trees and the grass are both using plant food and water thus additional applications of fertilizer and the liberal use of water is necessary.

DECKAY SCHOOL

JACK GUNN EDITOR
Reporters
Ralph Foreman Robert Holman

The Deckay School is expecting children from Thayer school to play baseball Thursday night.

Clyde Iash sent Mrs. Briggs a very beautiful picture on a board. She is going to keep it at school until school is out.

Clyde's condition is better. He is able to go up on the sun porch now. He will be home soon.

Robert went to see Clyde Tuesday with Clyde's mother.

The upper grades made posters of "Birds I Have Seen This Spring". They will add pictures of any others they may see.

The nice white biddy Starkweathers loaded us, is sitting on her eggs very nicely. Two children are chosen to take care of her a week at a time. Five boys and girls supplied the eggs and the rest are supplying the food. We hope we will have 12 little chicks but we're not "counting our chicks until they are hatched."

The beginners have a playhouse in the corner of the playground. The girls brought their dolls Tuesday.

We are proud of the beginners' achievements test results which Miss Jamison gave them Friday.

Charles Holman has a new 1934-1935 after school about it, in his geography. Mrs. Smith, a neighbor, gave him a cotton-ball which she got from the South.

Thursday afternoon after we had cleared our yard we made a fire to burn some rubbish. Someone decided the weeds should be burned also and soon the field back of the school ground was in flames. No damage was done. But we were awfully excited for a while. Mr. Thompson was a great help to us and we all want to thank him very much. Charles and Ralph as well as others worked very hard, too. They confessed they would rather study than fight fire.

Grade Notes

Miss Beulah Miller's Room had a luncheon last Tuesday. Pat Astin brought a big chocolate cake to serve the class. Each one brought his own sandwiches.

Miss Selma Jarvis' third graders have just received the set of books the Mothers' Club purchased. They will have them in their room for a week. Jimmy Davis is attending the third grade morning.

Miss Margaret Carpenter's Room has some geraniums in blossom. They have some tree buds they picked. They made some drawings of them the first day they had them. Five days later they made another drawing to see how much they opened. The third graders are studying about cave people. William Stanford and Pat Behen made some spears, and hammers and hatchets like the stone age man used. Jo Ann Rackham, Jean Freydl and Pat Behen are reading stories to the class about cave people. Several others have books about the cave people they are reading. Everyone

EDITORIAL NOTES

After the huge snowstorm of last week end, maybe the weather man will report that spring is really coming at last. It's all very depressing, isn't it? Here's hoping the seniors have their spring weather for their trip, anyhow. You know they're going in just 10 days from today. Their play went off with a bang, and now, as that was their last money-making project, comes the task of figuring up the value of the hours.

The week after the graduates return from the trip, the J-Hop will be given. The date for that is May 10. These juniors are beginning to feel very important around N. H. S. these days. The decoration committee hasn't decided upon the theme for the big affair as yet, but have patience, the lads and lassies. The secret will be out soon—we hope.

Group pictures for the Palladium were taken yesterday. The year book is progressing very rapidly and they will be on sale the middle of May. Have you signed up for one yet? If you haven't just see anyone who belongs to the student council.

Blue Barons Play for Dance Tonight

The girls "N" club is putting on an informal dance Apr. 19. The time will be from 8:30 to 12 p. m. The dance is only 15 cents so come and dance to the music of the "Blue Barons."

The girls have worked hard all day so let's get out and support them.

is drawing pictures to show the life of the cave people. They enjoyed very much the library books the Mothers' club gave them.

Mrs. James A. Huff's room has pictures and maps of the war on the bulletin board. They are drawing castles and flowers. After they had drawn the castle on paper, they drew them on cloth. They also have things about science on the wall.

The sixth grade went on a hike Monday Apr. 15, to Marilyn Goza's. They found curious fossils, and old bird nests and galls, and other things. Mrs. Goza treated them to some lemonade and cookies. Louis Taft was disappointed when her mother wouldn't let her keep the snakes which she had caught on the hike. The fifth grade have been studying fungus growth in science so June Bailey brought them some. Mrs. W. H. Johnson was sick this week and the pupils bought her a lovely plant of violets.

Around the School

Monday was such a fine spring day that we saw a girl's baseball game going on in the three playground and pole vaulting demonstrated by some of the boys.

As we rode through the park some tennis players were enjoying themselves on the court.

These places will probably be patronized more and more during the summer months.

Tuesday, Apr. 16, the Junior High Student Council sponsored a four reel movie in the senior high assembly. The admission was five cents.

On Wednesday, Apr. 10, students from the senior play and the American League Baseball film were presented to the combined junior and senior assembly.

Last Tuesday, the senior class of N. H. S. was honored with a visit by Prof. G. M. Trout, a professor of dairy husbandry at Michigan State college in East Lansing. Professor Trout talked to those seniors interested in entering the college and explained its facilities.

Profit on Senior Play Exceeds $80

The seniors gave a sigh of relief as the last money-making project, which was a success with a profit of $80, is over before they go to Washington. Most of the seniors will have fond memories of practices, what happened behind scenes and at the performances. Among those fresh in mind are Elmer Balko as the inspired poet who led from the doorway into the arms of his kidnapped sweetheart. He was so excited that he tipped the table over and left even the cast in hysterics. Wilbur Holt, the villain of the play, put many bumps on Lucy Bidwell's and Jean Orr's heads, by pushing them out the center door while kidnapping them. Also many students will remember E. C. Mullen's face at different times during the play, with expressions of temper excitement and thrills.

SENIOR SKETCHES

A small, fair haired, and blue eyed girl who travels back and forth to school each day, is the next subject for a Senior Sketch. Her name is Mary Lou Smith, and she was born in Novi, Dec. 31, 1923. Novi has been her place of residence ever since and so she has attended only Novi Elementary and Northville high school. After graduation she plans on studying advanced sociology and social work.

Mary Lou's hobby is embroidery and her pastimes are playing trumpet and piano. Blue is her favorite color, which she wears very tastefully, and her choice food is a hamburger. Let us add that she faintly collects many cats!

Amelia Sutton who was born Apr. 10, 1922, in Goodlettsville, Tenn., is probably a student who has traveled more extensively than any other senior. For her last five years she spent all of her summers in the South and all of her winters in the North. She started to attend Northville high school after graduation.

During her school life she has made many friends of boys back and forth to the South. Amelia's chief hobbies are swimming, dancing (although she says she can't very good) and going to parties. Her chief interest is in taking trips and she boasts of having been in the following states: Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky and Tennessee. She has also visited Canada. Her pet peeve is runs in silk stockings; her favorite color is blue; favorite food, "Bar-b-que" and her favorite subject is typing.

Her main ambition when and if she graduates will be to get a job, earn enough money to take good art lessons and to some day become an artist.

Boys Get New Baseball Suits

Coach Harry B. Smith and Myron Utley Name Boys Who Earn Honors

Baseball suits were issued Apr. 11, by Coach Harry B. Smith and Manager Myron Utley. Those who were awarded suits for their efforts were Elmer Balko, Jim Eaton, Jim LaRue, Lawrence McArthur, Bob Orr, Fred Robinson, Frank Bongiovanni, Don Kimmel, Allan Barnard, Clayton Rodgers, Kenneth Rupp, James Odgers, O'ville Lyke, Bob Beasley, Lloyd Wendt, Don Barnard and Howard Rodgers. A practice game was scheduled with Farmington, Friday, Apr. 12, but due to un-spring-like weather conditions the game was cancelled.

Ann Arbor Drama Season To Open Monday, May 13

The Ann Arbor Dramatic Season, a five weeks' festival of brilliant plays with distinguished artists, opens at the Yola Mendelssohn Theatre May 13 and runs through June 15. Broadway and Hollywood will be well represented in the casts which will appear during the season, talent which has been engaged including Ruth Chatterton, Madge Evans, Whitford Kane, Barry Thompson, Diana Barrymore, Mady Christians and Eleanore Sherman.

A glamorous opening is assured with the announcement that Ruth Chatterton will open the run with Shaw's "Pygmalion."

The second week will bring a colorful presentation of Shakespeare's seldom-drawn comedy "The Winter's Tale" with the Viennese actress Mady Christians.

The third week brings to the boards a prize-winner of this year, "The World We Make" by Sidney Kingsley, author of such successes as "Men in White" and "Dead End." Madge Evans will play the lead and Sidney Kingsley will be in Ann Arbor for the run of the play.

St. John Elyne, has released his engaging comedy "Boyd's Shop" to Ann Arbor for its American premiere. Whitford Kane will play the title role. "Boyd's Shop" will run the week of June 4.

Negotiations for the final play are not yet complete but announcements will be made within a few days. Ticket sale opens Apr. 22, in the Garden Room of the Michigan League building with mail orders now.

EDMORE (MFA) — Polly want a cracker? Not the parrot owned by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Brooks. What he wants is a finger. That's probably why the bird bit Tom Huyck, local farmer, on the right hand as he was feeding it. Huyck was treated for infection.

Herold M. Harter of Toledo, National secretary of the Exchange club will meet with the Northville club Wednesday, Apr. 24.

More Comparisons
The average per capita income in Michigan was $75 for 1937.

According to the 1935 census of business and industry, the average per capita of retail sales was $287. This was the amount spent for every person in the state at retail establishments for food, clothing, and other commodities including automobiles and household appliances.

Compare these figures with those for nearby states.

In Indiana the average per capita income was $494, retail sales per capita totaled $241.

Illinois' income, $643; retail sales, $265.

Ohio: Income $625; retail sales, $294.

Pennsylvania: Income, $586; retail sales, $259.

Go across the Mississippi river into the breadbasket states, and you find these retail sales per capita:

Iowa, $263; Kansas, $238; Nebraska, $261; Missouri, $261.

Oklahoma is down at $181; Arkansas $190; Texas $221.

Southern states are way down in per capita income and retail sales.

Far west states are way up—California ranking fifth in incomes ($337) and $410 in retail sales.

Eastern states are also in the prosperity income column—Delaware second with $825; New York fourth with $659; Connecticut sixth with $737 and Rhode Island seventh with $692.

Michigan was eighth, the income average per capita being $675.

(These figures include payments for relief, soil conservation and subsidies in general.)

Michigan Well Off

Another accurate source of information regarding Michigan is the Consumer Market Data Handbook 1939 edition, compiled by the U. S. Department of Commerce. It gives an economic picture of every county in the state and its leading cities and towns.

We find that Michigan retail sales totaled $1,383,240,000; that an army of 163,278 persons were employed in retail stores and were paid $12,323,000 in wages, that 59 per cent of our citizens own their own homes, that automobiles exceed 1,209,000; that Michigan agriculture furnished a livelihood for 640,514 persons in 1937, worth $4,261,900 an average of $4,203.

What's wrong with Michigan—if anything? Well you can come to your own conclusions. For us, the above federal figures are quite convincing.

If Michigan citizens are indifferent to government, as exemplified by political parties and leaders, then it is for reasons other than economic. The state official gloomily surveying the national scene had obviously overlooked his own state and its given pasture.

600-Year-Old Trees

Mt. Rainier's forests carry vast stands of Alaska cedars, hemlocks and giant Douglas firs, many of which are 600 years old.
